No Superintendent of District Union can fulfil her official obligations unless she secures in EACH local Union a Superintendent with whom she can be in constant co-operation for the purpose of advancing the work in their department.

This Union was organized March, 25th, 1887. It had previously been working under the name of the Conference Union.

It comprises 11 Unions, with a membership of 502. There were nineteen business meetings held and a devotional meeting the first Monday in each month, the different unions taking charge. Work has been done in the following departments:

Evangelistic.—Mrs. Cowan, Supt., reports effective work done by the different Unions, such as Gospel Temperance Meetings, Mothers' Meetings, Prayer Meetings, Bible Meetings, personal visitation, and practical work given, and tract distribution.

White Shield.—Mrs. Jarman, Supt., addressed several meetings, distributed literature and received a number of signatures to Purity Pledges.

Sailors.—Mrs. J. Cowan, Supt., reports literature placed in boxes on the steamers. Three Unions, viz.: Central, Parkdale and Bathurst, assisted in the work.

Soldiers.—Mrs. McDowell, Supt. 500 Temperance Heralds, containing a letter from W. C. T. U. to the soldiers were distributed in the cars for volunteers leaving the city to celebrate the 24th May. 1000 more were sent to Niagara camp.

Lumbermen.—Mrs. Shortreed, Supt.; different Unions have contributed literature to this department, which has been distributed by the Superintendent.

Railroad.—Mrs. Jarman, Supt.; meetings were held for the employees, literature distributed and boxes placed at the stations.

Hygiene and Heredity.—Mrs. McCully, Supt., read an excellent paper at one of our quarterly meetings.

Scientific Temperance Instruction.—Progress has been made in this department. Deputations have waited upon the Minister of Education with the following result:

waited on the Minister of Education yesterday afternoon for the purpose of receiving explanations as to the position of the subject of scientific temperance instruction in the public schools, as affected by the new regulation about to be issued by the Educational Department. Those supporting the deputation were Messrs. J. J. McLaren, Q.C.; Daniel Rose, District Chief Good Templar; W. R. Watson, Independent Order of Good Templars; Wm. Munns, Royal Templars; and J. N. McKendry, Young Men's Prohibition Club.

Mr. McLaren introduced the deputation, for whom Mrs. McDonell was the spokeswoman. She said the unions were deeply interested in the subject of scientific temperance instruction. They hoped his answer would do much to clear up doubts which existed regarding the new regulation, and would also show the country that the department would see to it that the subject be taught in every public school. Mrs. McDonell then read the following questions, to which Mr. Ross replied categorically:

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

1. Does the new regulation, regarding the full scope of which we are still somewhat in doubt, place the subject of scientific temperance instruction among the subjects set forth in the programme of studies prescribed by the Education department—as referred to under “Duties of Teachers,” regulation No. 46, clause 4?

Mr. Ross—Yes. The subjects of temperance and hygiene are placed on the programme of studies, and the teacher is under the same obligation to teach scientific temperance as he is to teach any other subject—such as reading, writing, etc. I took pains in framing the new regulation that there should be no mistake as to that.

2. Under regulation No. 24 of the Education Department discretionary power is left with the trustees and the inspector under necessary circumstances to modify the programme of studies set forth by the department. In the event of this discretionary power being exercised for the purpose of excluding the subject of scientific temperance instruction from any public school, what action would the Education Department take in the matter? Would the Education Department deal with the exclusion of scientific temperance instruction in a similar manner to that in which it would deal with the exclusion of reading, writing or arithmetic, or any other subject on the regular programme of studies? For instance, where the money grant would be withheld for the omission of reading, would it be withheld for the omission of temperance teaching as set forth?

Mr. Ross—Under regulation 24 the trustees have no power to omit any subject from the school curriculum prescribed by the department. The regulation never intended that any subject prescribed by the department should be omitted by the trustees, nor is it intended that scientific temperance be omitted.

THE POWER TO MODIFY

is in the direction of exempting pupils, in certain circumstances, from parts of the curriculum or of the studies. If the inspector reports that scientific temperance instruction is not taught as it should be in any school, the grant would certainly be withdrawn. At least, so far as I am concerned, I would insist on such being done.

3. Will the subject of scientific temperance instruction be placed on a list of departmental examinations for public school pupils?

Mr. Ross—No. Not for public school pupils. I do not in the meantime propose to do so. There are various reasons why I think it would not be wise to do so. But I may state that every certified teacher must pass an examination in scientific temperance knowledge, whether he be a teacher for public or high schools.

4. Will the authorized temperance text book be placed on the list of books to be used by the pupils in the public schools in a similar manner to the text books in arithmetic, grammar and other school studies?

Mr. Ross—It is now in that position. But the use of a text book as a matter of law is not, nor has ever been, compulsory in the public schools of Ontario, in any subject; at the same time, where text books are used they must be authorized.

5. What machinery has the Education Department control of to enforce the use of authorized text books in the public schools, and how far would that machinery be applied in the case of the authorized temperance text book?

Mr. Ross—It is the duty of the inspector to report upon everything affecting the efficiency of every public school in their districts. There is no means of knowing the regulations are complied with except by those reports. Should an inspector complain in the matter of temperance, and should the complaint be good, the grant would be withheld.

6. Has the new regulation been yet officially issued to the inspectors, and if not when may we expect its issue?

Mr. Ross—I have the last proof of the regulation by me; the regulation will be out in a few days.

7. Will the Minister of Education change the wording of the new regulation so as to substitute the word "shall" for "should," and so remove the doubts to which the regulation as it stands has given rise?

Mr. Ross—I would be quite willing to do so were it necessary, but it is not necessary to alter the wording. "Should" has been used in those regulations for twenty or thirty years. The same word applies to all subjects on the programme, and everyone should now know its meaning.

Mrs. McDonell—I am still a little puzzled over the matter. You say no departmental examinations will be required, and yet you say scientific temperance instruction is on an equal footing with arithmetic or grammar.

Mr. Ross—All the subjects on the programme are not included in the departmental examinations. For instance, music is not a subject of examination, nor drill or calisthenics, and drawing was only recently made so.

Mrs. McDonell—Do we understand that the subject is compulsory?

Mr. Ross—Yes, as compulsory as reading. But I suppose teachers will not hold themselves responsible for teaching it until the new regulation is in their hands.

Mr. McKendry—The deputation would like to know why scientific temperance is not a subject of departmental examination?

Mr. Ross—It is a subject of oral examination, just as reading, etc., is. Only some 10,000 pupils who desire to enter the high schools would be affected by a departmental examination, and we must consider that there are complaints at present that we examine in too many subjects. But if the subjects were properly taught, the mere examination would be of secondary importance.

Mr. McKendry—How are you to know whether the subject will be efficiently taught unless there are to be examinations?

Mr. Ross—An inspector visits the school twice a year with instructions to examine in every subject, and he will report any deficiency in temperance as in other subjects.

Mrs. McDonell—Why not make it a subject of examination? We are very anxious that it should not only be taught from the second form up, but that it should be a subject of departmental examination. One value of such an examination would be that teachers would more earnestly teach the subject, knowing that it would meet any pupil desiring to enter the high school, at the entrance examination.

Mr. Ross—I have stated the reason, which seems good at present. No doubt the departmental examination asked for will come. I have placed the subject precisely on the same footing as any other subject on the programme, and I have no doubt the inspectors will carry out the regulation.

The deputation then withdrew.

Deputations also waited upon the High and Public School Boards with regard to the Temperance Text-book, and, in conjunction with another Society, upon the Provincial Secretary for the purpose of having it placed in each cell of prison and reformatory.

A Complimentary Social was given to the Public School Teachers and Normal Students, and prizes costing $13.00 to the scholars for the three best essays on Temperance.

Unfermented Wine.—Mrs. Baxter, Supt. There are forty-three churches using unfermented wine.

Fair Work.—Mrs. Sinclair, Supt. A tent was placed on the Fair Grounds; two meetings held daily for two weeks, eighty children signed the Pledge and received illustrated cards. 10,000 pages of literature distributed. A large number of signatures obtained to the World's Petition. A collection taken of $73.34.

Franchise, Legislation and Petitions.—Mrs. J. Spence, Supt., reports signatures obtained to Women's Franchise and World's Petition, also municipal election work.

Or

Press.—Mrs. Carman, Supt., reports 433 items sent to the daily papers through the different Unions, besides special articles.

Headquarters.—This is a new department, formed about six months ago. The great drawback and hindrance to the work of every department is the need of a Home of our own. This has been a long-felt want, more particularly in the Y. W. C. T. U. branch. Their work is almost wholly among young women and children. They must have airy rooms. We have started out in faith trusting in God we will succeed. The first and most important step has been taken, viz.: selecting a suitable site. The price being $30,000; $5,000 to be paid down. The remainder, $25,000, we purpose leaving on interest at 5½ per cent., secured by mortgage. The income from the nine houses on the property will about pay all interest on that amount until we are ready to build. The situation is central, size 122 feet on Shuter Street by 110 feet on Victoria Street, with the advantage of three fronts, one of them being a wide block-paved lane in the rear of the Yonge Street stores. The plans at present are very indefinite, all our energies being centred on paying the first $5,000; that being done we will talk about building. We want our Home to be consecrated to God, home, native land and temperance, and we earnestly hope that every Christian women's organization will join hands and help build a woman's building that will be a credit to the women of Toronto. "Every wise woman buildeth her own house"—Prov. 14 : 1.

Headquarters Building Committee is composed of a representative from each Union, and an Advising Board of the following gentlemen :

- W. H. Howland, Esq.,
- George A. Cox, Esq.,
- Ald. R. Fleming,
- Hugh McMath, Esq. (representing Parkdale),

MEETINGS.

During the year we have held 28 business meetings, at which there was an average attendance of 25. Devotional meetings were also held previous to the time at which this department of work was taken up by the District Union. In all, the Central has had charge of five devotional meetings; these, of course, do not include those conducted under the management of the Evangelistic Superintendent.

DEPARTMENTS OF WORK.

Superintendents were appointed and work carried on in the following departments:

Legislation and Franchise.—Mrs. Millar. In St. James' and St. John's wards the women voters were called upon and their votes solicited for temperance Mayor and Aldermen. We contributed $10 towards the campaign against Scott Act repeal in Halton.

Scientific Temperance Instruction.—Mrs. Orr. Sent representatives to the Minister of Education and to the Public School Board, also to the Provincial Secretary.

Evangelistic.—Mrs. D. Cowan. Visited the gaol; noticed every special day of prayer.

Literature.—Mrs. McMillan, jr. 19,500 pages of different kinds of literature distributed.

Press.—Miss McGregor. Contributed items to five daily papers regularly, and special reports to the Canada Citizen and Woman's Journal.

Sailors.—Mrs. J. Swift. From the 1st of June the Eastern ports were visited weekly, tracts distributed, and when families were found, a short time was spent in conversation. We were pleased to learn that very little drinking prevails among the hands while on duty, as one captain informed us Lake Ontario is too treacherous a water upon which to trust a cargo to liquor-loving men. The greatest danger to those employed upon the schooners is while in the city, as their duties cease upon the arrival of the vessel.

Our Union has also supplied literature for the receivers placed upon the steamers by the District Union. We were informed that the literature was read by the passengers, more particularly by the children. If those leaflets, placed as they are with a prayer that they may be messengers of mercy to some, should carry that message to even a few, our toil would be more than rewarded.

Unfermented Wine.—Mrs. Bastedo. 28 pastors of churches were written to and the following information gleaned: 13 churches are using unfermented wine 9 using fermented, 1 no sacrament and 5 were not heard from.

This last year we began to work with more vigour and determination for God and home and native land, and our Heavenly Father has blessed our efforts. We have been successful in all our undertakings. We held a charity concert in aid of the poor and destitute, at which we realized $125.00. We received several donations towards that fund which enabled us to spend $165.00 in relieving the poor, that were made so by the demon rum. We opened coffee rooms with the desire to save the working men from going into the tavern for a hot drink. We closed our meetings for the summer months but did not cease to work. We held Gospel Temperance Meetings in the tent united with I. O. G. T. every Sunday afternoon at which we have the satisfaction of knowing that a great amount of good has been done toward raising the fallen and in making drunken men sober. We gave a garden party in the tent and park to help pay for the tent, at which we cleared $31.16. We had a garden party at Sunny-side in aid of headquarters, and cleared $40.80.

We can look back with pleasure on last year's work—our membership has increased, and death has not entered our ranks. Although it has pleased God to take some of our loved ones home to dwell with Him, but we can look up and say, He gave, He took, He will restore, He doeth all things well.

Receipts $72.87. Expenditure $30.05.

been 70 in attendance, and their teachers, Misses Shaw and Fairhead, with their assistants, deserve much credit for their persevering efforts in giving separate classes instruction under circumstances at times most discouraging, owing to the brief time allotted and frequent interruptions during sessions. Oranges, apples and jellies have been distributed at homes near by.

Two sets of kitchen garden utensils are owned by the Union and are used by Toronto Y's, and a class is conducted by them in Temperance Hall.

The World's Petition—a petition asking for scientific temperance instruction, and also a petition for extension of the Franchise, have been circulated. World's Petition, 125 signatures; Franchise, 139 signatures.

This Union has a membership of 36. We meet every two weeks and have an average attendance of 15. We carry on a mother's meeting and have been encouraged by doing some of our fallen sisters good, and hope to start again in this noble work with fresh zeal. We also hold an evangelistic meeting every month. We go on quietly with our work, being a little out of the circle of the other Unions, and being somewhat encumbered with the responsibility of property, which we hope will be for the future good of the temperance cause around this neighborhood where our lot is cast. We are praying that our work will be blessed by Divine power.

mother's meeting is held weekly in Jubilee Hall, $20,00 has been raised by an "At Home," to aid in this work. Seventeen dresses were given away besides under clothing and a few baby suits. In one house the mother has become an abstainer and we have reason to believe, a follower of the Lord Jesus. In several other homes the influence of our meetings are, through God's blessing exerting an influence on the side of total abstinence. Seven churches in this district are using unfermented wine, three of these through the influence of our Union. We have 17 subscribers to the Woman's Journal. We have received 345 signatures for the extension of the Franchise and a large number to the World's Petition We had one public meeting, one strawberry festival and one "At Home."

The Bathurst Street Branch of W.C.T.U. has now entered upon its second year, and it is a source of deep gratification to be able to announce that the past year has been a successful one. Notwithstanding the many other attractions, the regular weekly meetings have been well attended, and the testimony and record of many of our members is such as to prove the value, both spiritually and intellectually, of Temperance Associations of this kind. We hope that as we are now entering upon another year more will be stirred up to do something to aid in the Master's work, rescue the perishing and care for the dying in our city. The first meeting of this Branch was held Jan. 18th, 1888. After the election of officers it was decided that we would hold a meeting every Tuesday afternoon at 3 p.m., reserving the first Tuesday in every month as Devotional meeting. Our membership numbers 23. In addition to our general work we have been able to start a Band of Hope numbering about 70. Judging from the closing entertainment given by the juveniles before summer vacation, we anticipate a grand work from this source. Our ladies have also been able to visit the different vessels and supply them with pure literature; also been able to do considerable work among the railroad men. On reading an account of distress at the immigrant's shed, some of our ladies immediately went, and finding the account correct, set at work at once, and under God's providence were able to relieve several families who, we believe, were actually starving. We were also able to assist three families in our own city, one we removed from a cellar, or, more properly speaking, a basement on Victoria street, to a nice, comfortable home, providing them with a new stove, dishes, bedding and several articles of wearing apparel, besides paying two months' rent in advance; the others we assisted with articles of clothing for the children and family at large. We have been able to derive considerable amount of money from socials and concerts, donating $50 to the Headquarters' Fund. We also held an excursion to Long Branch, realizing, after all expenses, a profit of about $9.50. As to actual results, these are better known to the great Searcher of hearts than to us. God claims and we must give all the glory to Him. We can well afford to leave the future with Him. The seed has been sown and He will take care of it, watering it and in due time to yield an abundant harvest. In closing this report let me urge all to be more faithful and loyal to Christ. Let every child of God in this Association plead with Him on behalf of Temperance, and in every way help forward the work. It is our work and we should remember our responsibility. May the love of Christ constrain each and all of us more and more, and then shall we see His cause prosper among our poor fallen brothers and sisters.

The Parkdale "Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union" entered upon its third year in June last with a membership of 7, now increased to 23, and one honorary member. We have held during the year just closed 17 meetings with an average attendance of 7. The Band of Hope is progressing favorably under the charge of Mrs. Stevens. Each scholar is supplied with a ribbon badge and a pledge card. They meet weekly with an average attendance of 25. 30 copies of the "Woman's Journal" are taken and give general satisfaction. Some temperance literature has been distributed, and we have held during the past winter two parlor concerts and one social, which were in every way successful, the proceeds from the social being $23. Ten new names have been added to the roll. Two of our active workers have removed to other places, but we have some earnest workers yet. After the return of our delegates from the County Convention held at Aurora, a meeting was held for the purpose of hearing their report. They spent a profitable time and came back quite enthused with the White Shield movement. We were much encouraged by the presence and helpful words of Miss Skinner, and also Miss Tilley, who were present at one of our meetings. We hope to increase in numbers and interest during the coming year, and to be very useful in our work.

Receipts $33.09. Expenditure $18.28. Balance $4.81.
