NOT INTERESTED.

In the course of a debate in the house of commons at Ottawa this week Hon. Dr. Manion declared that "the building of the Intercolonial Railway was of little advantage to the prairie provinces."

jects was formed, with Lord Dawson of Penn as chairman, to consider the means of improving the health organization of the country. A report was issued by this Council in 1920 recommending the establishment in all towns and villages of primary health centres, to be connected with secondary health centres in larger towns, which in their turn are to be brought into relation with a teaching hospital having a medical school.

CO-OPERATION.

In hearty support of the plan of a joint conference of the St. John and Halifax boards of trade the Moncton Transcript says: "There are so many ways in which the spirit of co-operation might find play in these provinces that it might be well for the boards of trade to provide means of enlisting the services of other organizations."

In France and Italy similar plans have been drawn up or are being developed, and everywhere the need of health centres is being recognized. It is hoped one may soon be established in St. John, and that its influence will be effective in directing attention to the same need in other parts of the province.

HEALTH CENTRES.

New Zealand sets a very notable example in public health policy. In a little book entitled The World's Health, the League of Red Cross Societies publishes the following summary: "The whole country (New Zealand) is divided up into 37 medical districts, in each of which there are: A general hospital. An infectious diseases hospital, with a special wing for advanced tuberculosis cases. A tuberculosis sanatorium. A home for the aged, with a special wing for the treatment of chronic diseases. A living-in hospital. Auxiliary hospitals with from 10 to 20 beds, in small towns. Cottage hospitals with from two to six beds (one or two of which are set aside for confinements) in villages. A service of district nurses."

CRIME WAVE BROKEN, THUGS FLEEING CITY

N. Y. District Attorney Finds Underworld in a Panic as Newspapers, "Equal to 2,000 Police," Arouse Public. (New York Times) "We've got the crime wave by the throat," declared District Attorney Joseph H. Barton yesterday afternoon, in a happily mixed metaphor at the luncheon of the Kiwanis Club, held in the McAlpin Hotel.

THE FIRE-BUG AND THE EAST WIND.

"It's time to hit the trail again," The catless camper said, And left his little fire ablaze Within its leafy bed. "I'll light another cigarette," The idle loafer said, And chuckled his old 'snipe' in the brush, One end still glowing red.

LIGHTER VEIN.

Doing Their Best. Saturday morning's inspection in the army of occupation was in progress. The C. O. was giving his usual lecture before the assembled soldiery. "Men, you can't drink this here cognac faster than you make it!" he belted. "No, sir," meekly answered a wee man, "the voice from the rear says 'but' (triumphantly) 'we've got 'em working nights.'"

"AWAKING MAGYARS"

Vienna, April 28.—The mystery which surrounded the recent bombing of the Liberal Club at Budapest and puzzled the authorities is now nearing a solution. The police are certain that the crime can be laid at the door of a powerful reactionary and Chauvinistic organization known as the "Awakening Magyars," who are known to have formed a centre of violence against the Jewish population.

NEW ONE IN EXPLOSIONS: HIS GLASS EYE BLOWS UP

Lethbridge, Alta., April 29.—Something new in explosions is reported from Warner, near here. Ronald Polson, a school teacher, was wearing a glass eye when he was in the line of fire of a dynamite explosion. An air hole or flaw in the pupil of the eye is advanced as the cause of the explosion, and the theory given is that a piece of the glass struck the optic or some other nerve, the shock causing Mr. Polson to fall.

NEED GREAT FOR RUSSIAN RELIEF

Official Denial of the Report That Famine Peak Has Been Passed.

The following information is forwarded with reference to the press despatch from Moscow, dated April 8, published in various Canadian papers, and stating that the peak of the famine in Russia had been passed. The committee of the Save the Children Fund immediately cabled Lord Weardeale, chairman of the British relief organization, concerning the despatch, and in a reply received today Lord Weardeale emphasizes the fact that the report referred to the present programme of the American relief administration.

POLICE BOAT WINS

1,500 Cases of Rye Captured After Chase and Battle with Rum Ship.

(New York Post) Two miles breathless chase through the early morning mists in the Narrows, a round of shots, and then a boarding party that would have stood comparison with those of old war-sloop times—that is the story of the seizure today of 1,500 cases of rye, valued at $200,000 and the arrest of two officers and four seamen of the collier Ideal, charged with violation of the Mullan-Gage prohibition enforcement act.

LADY ASTOR'S POLITICAL SERMON

(New York Evening Post) If the House of Commons is often the scene of a speech like that which the woman member made in the town hall last night, it deserves to be nicknamed the House of Common-sense. Lady Astor, indeed, scored the double triumph of being both sensible and epigrammatic, a feat which is seldom pulled off. "I can conceive of nothing worse," she remarked, "than a man-governed world, except a woman-governed world."

PASSING OF THE BLACK MARIA

(New York Post) Twenty years ago it gave anybody a shiver when he heard a Black Maria rumbling by. These huge, steel police wagons were a heavy load for the sturdiest pair of horses pounding over the cobblestone streets. You could hear them coming a long way off, and people would stop to watch them by the wayside. It might be heard from some long distance at dusk after some long trial that the police wagon was still on duty talking the prisoner to the ferry for Blackwell's Island. In that half light the high, black inclosed wagon would look even uglier. Sometimes sobbing or rebellious pounding on the dull metal prisoners were placed in double security. Not only were there the outside steel walls, but also a complete steel compartment within at the front end of the wagon. Let the prisoner rave!

Is your skin pale and sallow?
—How you can rouse it

If your skin is pale and sallow, it shows clearly the need of a more stimulating treatment than you are giving it. A pale, sallow skin means inactive blood-vessels—pores that do not throw off quickly enough the waste matter that accumulates.

Don't let this condition become chronic. To give your skin the soft, clear color every healthy skin should have, follow once a week this special treatment:

JUST before retiring, fill your basin full of hot water—almost boiling hot. Bend over the top of the basin and cover your head with a heavy bath-towel, so that no steam can escape.

Steam your face for thirty seconds.

Now lather a hot cloth with Woodbury's Facial Soap. With this wash your face thoroughly, rubbing the lather well into the skin with an upward and outward motion.

Then rinse the skin well first with warm water, then with cold, and finish by rubbing it for thirty seconds with a piece of ice.

THE other six nights of the week cleanse your skin thoroughly in the usual way with Woodbury's Facial Soap and warm water.

Get a cake of Woodbury's today, at any drug store or toilet goods counter, and begin tonight this special steam treatment. A 25-cent cake of Woodbury's lasts for a month or six weeks. The Andrew Jergens Co., Cincinnati, New York, and Perth, Ontario.

Found Them Best She Had Ever Used

WHAT MRS. PARLEE SAYS OF DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Sussex, N. B., Woman Who Suffered From Many Forms of Kidney Trouble Sings the Praises of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Sussex, N. B., April 28—(Special)—Mrs. L. Parlee, who lives on Broad street here, is another of that great army of Canadian women who are always ready to say a good word for Dodd's Kidney Pills. Every one of them has a reason.

"I have found Dodd's Kidney Pills of good value to me," Mrs. Parlee states. "I had typhoid and it left me with milk leg. I suffered also from cramps in the muscles, headache, headache and heart fluttering. My sleep was broken and unrefreshing. I was always tired and nervous and I had dark circles under my eyes.

"I took two boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and they have done me a lot of good. I have found Dodd's Kidney Pills the best I ever used."

Mrs. Parlee's troubles came from the kidneys. Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills are not the most reliable of all kidney remedies.

PILING INQUIRY AT THE CITY HALL

At the investigation held yesterday afternoon by the city council into allegations that certain of the piling being driven in the east side approach to the ferry slip were not according to specifications, contradictory evidence was given regarding the size of the piles. It was decided to await a report from city officials on the matter before any further action is taken.

Arthur Likely, representing Joseph A. Likely, Ltd., the firm that made the charges resulting in the investigation, told of measuring the piles and finding them too small. He thought that the city engineer would take action so said nothing of the matter at the time. He found the piles short in length and also small in size. There were twenty-six piles in the slip and some were ten to fifteen feet too short.

On a second visit to the slip he took a lumber surveyor with him and produced the latter's sworn statement. There were fifteen piles there at this time. The specifications called for a diameter of eighteen inches at the butt. There was one measuring thirteen inches; eight, 14 inches; five, 15 inches, and one, 16 inches. Nine were ten inches at the middle; three, 11 inches, and three, 12 inches. The specifications called for 18 inches. Four at the top measured four inches, seven, 7 inches, and four were all right at eight inches. The lengths were: One, 48 feet; one, 40 feet; three, 30 feet; one, 22 feet; and nine, 25 feet. The specifications called for fifteen feet penetration into the ground and from the mud to the top if the piles were from forty-seven to fifty feet, therefore the piles would have to be at least sixty-two feet in length.

Of nine piles already driven, three were six inches at the top; two, 6 1/2 inches; and four, 7 inches, and were ten to eleven inches at the middle instead of from thirteen to fourteen inches.

In reply to the mayor, James Newlands, the city inspector on the job, said that according to his measurements none of the piles were under seven inches at the top. He denied that any of the piles were from two to four inches under size.

Mr. Likely said that he could have supplied the smaller piles at from $8,000 to $4,000 less than what the city had paid.

Mr. Newlands said that some of the piles had been driven without his knowledge. They were driven at night and he was not notified. This had happened only once.

Thomas Stephen, the contractor, said that he was trying to carry out the specifications and would remove any piles

AVERT OPERATIONS FOR APPENDICITIS—INTERNAL BATHS

Hundreds of surgical operations for appendicitis have been avoided by the timely employment of the J. B. L. Cascade. Most troubles arise from the accumulation of waste in the colon, or lower intestine, from which poisons spread.

Cleansing of the intestinal tract with pure warm water, applied with the J. B. L. Cascade, removes the causes of a large number of common ailments—constipation, indigestion, headache, loss of energy and rheumatism.

Mr. James McLaughlin, 91 Evanston street, Winnipeg, writes: "I bought a J. B. L. Cascade for the cure of a bad case of appendicitis. My doctors told me I must have an operation at once. I had spent more than fifty dollars in doctors' bills, but the Cascade completely removed in a few days every trace of soreness and pain. I eat and sleep well now, and have regained my former weight, and am now in perfect health."

The J. B. L. Cascade is being shown at E. Clinton Brown's, druggist, Union and Waterloo streets; F. E. Munro's, 287 Main street, St. John, N. B., who will gladly explain to you its simple operation, tell you why it is so certain in its results and give you free an interesting booklet by Dr. Charles A. Tyrrell, who was a Specialist on Intestinal Complaints for 26 years. Ask for booklet or write Dr. Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute, 188 College street, Toronto.

that had been driven that were under specifications. Thomas Bell, who had sold the piles to Stephen, said that his specifications were eighteen to twenty inches at the butt and eight inches at the top, and he had ordered them that size. The length was from fifty-five feet to sixty-five feet. When he learned the piles were being objected to he told Stephen not to accept any small ones. Mr. Bell produced his invoices showing that he had ordered piles eighteen to twenty inches at the butt and eight inches at the top. He said that he did not want one pile passed that was not up to specifications. Mr. Likely said that in regard to the piles falling down, the depth required from the top of the pile to the surface of the mud was the same length as some of the piles, therefore the piles could not be further in the mud than a couple of feet. He would say that some could not possibly be more than two feet in the mud. He based this statement on the length of the piles before being driven.

Mr. Newlands said that this was not the case. The shallowest one was driven at least seven feet. Mr. Stephen said that all had been driven seven to ten feet, and some fifteen feet. The old butts in the ground prevented the driving of all fifteen feet. It was decided that a report should be made on the piles already driven. When such a report is ready another meeting of the council will then be called to deal further with the matter.

CO-OPERATION IN CANADA URGED

(Canadian Press Despatch) Montreal, April 28—Co-operation was the note sounded by the speakers who addressed the gathering which met at the Windsor Hotel here tonight at a banquet to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the organization in April, 1822, of the Montreal Board of Trade.

His excellency the governor-general sounded this note when he declared: "I like being idealistic. I don't think there is any harm in it," and he concluded a spirited speech by appealing to labor and capital to get together, to employer and employee to get together, to east and west to get together.

E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, asserted that he was not a believer in state socialism and declared it could not take the place of individual effort. He urged the need of immigration, both of capital and men, into Canada.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King prime minister of Canada, added to the pleas for harmony and co-operation, and drew attention to the parallel of the hundred years' peace between the States and Canada.

APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT "CONSCIENCE"

Defeated Litigant Wants Reasons for Decision Favorable to Dry Amendment.

Washington, April 28.—An appeal to the "conscience" of the supreme court is made in a brief filed by Robert A. Widemann, an unsuccessful litigant. Asserting that the people are "entitled to be fully informed as to what, if any, are the limitations upon the delegated authority of their legislative servants in proposing and ratifying amendments to the constitution," the brief respectfully points out to the court that, until it delivers such an opinion, "it will not fulfil either its functions or its duty as a body of judicial servants of the people."

Widemann sought to have set aside an unconstitutional prohibition amendment, and his case was dismissed, without opinion, on the authority of cases previously decided and which were cited.

Insisting that he is entitled to a decision by the court stating its reason, Widemann declares that unless he obtains it "the servants of the people have

Its soothing, healing action on the membrane is the reason so many people use it for Catarrh and acute nasal colds.

GAVE BOY A NICKEL; SPENT NIGHT IN JAIL

Laborer Arrested on Complaint of Lad's Uncle, but Discharged in Court in the Morning.

Because he gave a forlorn-looking boy five cents to buy an ice cream cone, Joseph Mucia, twenty-eight years old, of 128 Mott street, New York, a laborer, spent Tuesday night in jail, charged with impairing the morals of a minor.

When arraigned before Magistrate Edgar V. Frothingham in Essex Market Court yesterday, Mucia said he noticed the boy, Solomon Gamph, twelve years old, in front of a moving picture theatre at Rivington and Essex streets, and wishing he could stand treat to ice cream cones to numerous of his small brothers and sisters in Italy, had rented his kindness of heart on Solomon by giving him the nickel. He had been in this country less than a year, he said, and sometimes got homesick to see a couple of his little brothers.

As he was handing Solomon the nickel, the boy's uncle, Joseph Meyer, of 9 Willett street, passed the theatre and saw Solomon take the five cent piece. Joseph called Patrolman Thomas Kelly of the Clinton street station and had Mucia arrested.

"Discharged," said Magistrate Frothingham when Mucia was brought before him. "To reward kindness of heart with a night in jail is nothing less than outrageous."

Is Your Battery Friend or Enemy?

There is solid satisfaction in a loyal battery—one that you can rely on to do its duty in your car and never leave you in the lurch.

But a frail, untrustworthy battery is about the most pesky thing in motordom.

It is up to you whether your battery is friend or enemy, or it will be when you choose a new car or replace the battery in your present car.

When you have an Exide, you know there will be instant response as your foot touches the starting pedal. Click! and the road is bright from your lights. Never does your motor lack the spark to give it life.

Yet bodily comfort is not all you get from an Exide Battery. You get pocket-book comfort as well, because the Exide lasts so much longer.

Before you buy a new car, find out what kind of battery it has. If it is an Exide, it is significant of quality throughout. When you have to replace your battery, insist on an Exide and if you have any trouble in getting one, let us or our nearest district distributor know.

In addition to his widow, Mrs. Eliza Mills Daly, he is survived by two daughters, Elsie and Winifred; three sons, George L., Willard J. and Albert F. and three grandchildren. MISS CODNER HONORED.

The vestry and members of St. Clement's Church, Millidgeville, last evening held a delightful shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Codner, in honor of their daughter Alice, in anticipation of a coming event. White presented to Miss Codner a beautiful mahogany chest suitably engraved and filled with a set of table silver. Songs were sung by Grenville Ring and Fred Stringer. At the close the vestry declared Miss Codner to be a worthy daughter of the church and it was intended to present an illuminated address, but owing to short notice it was not finished and would be sent forward later to Miss Codner, who will long be remembered for her faithful services as organist of St. Clement's Church.

BIG PROPERTY DEAL ANNOUNCED

New Business Section for Union Street.

Germain and Wellington Row Also Included in Purchases—W. E. A. Lawton Tells of Plans for Work in Enterprise of Large Dimensions.

A real estate deal which it is said, runs well above half a million dollars, and which includes the changing of a residential district to a section of new stores and business houses, and the erection of a modern hotel building, was announced this morning by W. E. A. Lawton. A section of Union street, the longest and straightest level street in the city, is the site of this new undertaking, and within a short time, it is hoped to make this section a busy part of the city. Included in the plans is a project to have a system of street illumination which will make the street light as day, this lighting plan to extend to the opposite side of Union street and both sides of Germain street, from Union to King.

This move has been quietly maturing for more than three years, through the firm of W. E. A. Lawton, which is now W. E. A. Lawton & Son, real estate brokers. Mr. Lawton said that several properties in the syndicate, he said, are being secured for several large syndicates. The properties are in the two blocks in Union street, between Germain and Charlotte. The syndicates, he said, control all the north side of this section and also control several properties extending along Germain street towards King, and also have secured properties in Wellington row.

Three years ago the first property was secured—the brick houses at the northwest corner of Dorchester street, at the intersection with Union. One year later the Addy building was secured. Last year the Ten Eyck Hall, a large brick property, four and one half stories high, with 100 foot frontage in Union street, was brought under the control of Mr. Lawton. Only last month, the Harding property on the opposite corner of Dorchester street was secured by people who are behind the project.

Work at Once.

Operations of tearing down and remodeling, he said, will be started on Monday morning, to open up the new section. The work will be under the direct supervision of Mr. Lawton.

The business section to be, via Union and Germain, will be of about the same area as via Charlotte and King. With the exception of Ten Eyck Hall, the former occupants of the buildings concerned have vacated, and business tenants, he said, were available for the new buildings as fast as they are completed.

It is planned to put in a system of street lighting with stand lights at intervals. The business people on the opposite side of the street, and those not affected in Germain street, it was said, have agreed to co-operate and install this system, so that when the changes are made, this section will be the best lighted of the city.

The new hotel site is in this section, in Union street, which is a thoroughfare connecting the eastern and western sections of the city. Being on a high level, above the surrounding buildings, the view in all directions will be unexcelled. This situation will place the hotel near the Free Public Library, the Y. M. C. A. and the station, and practically in the center of both the uptown and downtown business centres. In this project it is said, it was expected to have the co-operation of the Commercial Club.

PARIS' EVIDENCE IS COMPLETED

He Had Been on the Stand About Ten Hours.

Tells About Learning to Read and Write While in Jail Here—Examined Again About Truro—Magistrate from There on the Stand.

After being on the witness stand since Thursday afternoon, the examination of John Paris, charged with the murder of Sadie McAuley, was completed about noon today.

After hearing the evidence of George E. Crowe, Truro magistrate, the court adjourned to meet again this afternoon at 2.15 o'clock.

Cross Examination Resumed.

To the attorney-general, Paris said that up to last November he could neither read nor write, but since that time an imprisoned debtor taught him to read and write. This debtor wrote letters on a sheet of paper, and passed it into his cell for some five or six weeks. Then he picked up some words from three men, who were in jail and were doing work in the hall of the jail. Paris said he learned to read after he learned to write. All this, he said, happened after his second trial.

He said that he had been in solitary confinement—"in the condemned cell" ever since he was first put in jail.

Handed a pencil and a sheet of paper, Paris reproduced the copy made for him by his first "teacher." As he placed each letter on the paper, the prisoner repeated the letters to himself. He was not sure of the exact words he said. The word "mother" might be wrong, "received" might have read "got" and he was not sure of "remain."

Accused said he asked the man to start a letter to friends or people. The paper the man passed into him, Paris said, contained more words than accused had written.

The attorney gave the witness another sheet of paper and asked him to reproduce all the text of the first paper given him.

When Paris had completed, Mr. Vernon objected to the paper being put in evidence and the prisoner being questioned on it.

The judge ordered the objection noted. When cross-examination was resumed, Paris said that he was not sure that the exact words written were those handed him by the debtor. He thought that the attorney asked him to write the words he had learned since his last trial.

Within three weeks after starting to learn, Paris said he sent a letter home. The two papers written by Paris were placed in evidence without objection.

Truro Again.

To the attorney-general, Paris again recounted where he was on the afternoon of Aug. 2. He could not say at what hour that afternoon he saw the police officers at the island. He remembered seeing mushrooms at Moxon's on more than one occasion while in Truro, but he never sold them to Mr. Moxon personally. Paris first swore that he sold mushrooms to Mrs. Moxon on August 2 and 3. Afterwards, he said, he was not sure if it was Mrs. Moxon of Mrs. Archibald to whom he sold mushrooms on August 2.

"These mushrooms are likely to cut considerable ice at this trial, Paris," remarked the attorney-general on the afternoon of August 3. Later, he said, he did not remember whether he was or not. He was in there the morning of August 3.

Paris said Mr. Moxon was in the store when he went in there on the night of August 3, just before leaving for the train. There was another man in the store. At the request of Mr. Byrne, Paris drew a plan of the store showing the location of the three persons.

Paris said Louis ("Krug") Byard was with him, but he was not sure if Byard went in the store with him.

On August 4, after Humphrey had rowed him across the river, Paris said he asked Humphrey to do something for him. To the judge he said it was Sweet's boat in which Humphrey took him across. This concluded the cross-examination.

On re-direct examination, Paris said to Mr. Vernon that he was in the Easton Hat and Cap Co. office more than once, but on only one occasion received money there. He said he had been in jail since last September, and during that time his health had not always been good. He had been all the time in the condemned cell. He received the same food as the other prisoner. He said he could not write, but could print a little. He said he had received treatment for boils since going to jail.

On August 4 the thing he asked Humphrey to do was to bring him and some friends across the river. Paris then stood down after being on the stand about ten hours.

Truro Magistrate.

Leonard G. Crowe, seventy-four years old, stipendiary magistrate of Truro for the last thirty years, said in August last J. W. Fraser was chief of police of Truro and Ira Boss was a policeman. He knew R. B. McLellan, manager of the Brookfield Creamery.

Mr. Crowe identified a document, dated August 2, as being in his handwriting. He gave it to Chief Fraser.

To the attorney-general, the witness said he believed the information on which the warrant was made was destroyed. Chief Fraser, he said, never made any written return on the warrant. Adjourment was made until 2.15 o'clock.

PRESENTATIONS.

On Thursday evening the Sewing Circle of Dominion L. O. B. A., No. 18, and the Happy Hour Club were entertained at the home of Mrs. W. Atcheson, 211 Duke street. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and music, with a little sewing. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. A surprise for two of the members was a pleasant feature of the evening. To Mrs. W. Atcheson, in honor of her birthday, was presented by Mrs. W. Smith a beautiful serving tray. Mrs. Parks, on behalf of the members, presented to Mrs. E. W. Stacy, president of the circle, a nice traveling bag in honor of her eleventh wedding anniversary just past. Although much surprise, both thanked the circle and club and all sang For They Are Jolly Good Fellows.

GET TOGETHER ON
RUSSIAN QUESTION

French and English Drafts of Preamble Harmonized.

Commission at Genoa
Makes Announcement—Reported Points in the British Proposals—Germany and Versailles.

Genoa, April 28.—In line with Premier George's declaration that the new proposals to Russians must be sided as a whole, a special draft-committee was endeavoring today to prepare a document which would conciliate the differences in the demands submitted by the British and French governments.

The preamble was completed last night and the remainder of the draft was sent to be ready for submission to the commission on Russian question, scheduled to meet at 11 a. m.

The French document stated
"agricultural reconstruction should be before other things." The British draft made more full with credits to Russia, favoring a reduction in her debt and conceding that foreigners owning property in Russia should be allowed to use it instead of a return of ownership, which would conflict with the Soviet principle of nationalization.

The document would demand that, if private property cannot be restored, the former be given indemnity. The French draft desires an arrangement for payment of interest on the Russian state debt. Failing an agreement before 11 a. m., the matter would be deferred to a mixed arbitration tribunal with an impartial chairman.

John Barthelemy, chief French delegate, at a meeting yesterday formally declared by a mixed arbitration tribunal that he intended to quit the conference and said it was not even certain whether he would go to Paris to confer with Premier Poincaré.

It was reported that he may leave for the capital after the allied Russian opinion are reported to the conference today.

Genoa, April 28.—The sub-commission on Russian affairs this morning agreed to the preamble to the Russian proposals. The sub-commission understood the French and British drafts of preamble had been harmonized.

Genoa, April 28.—The correspondent of the Central News Agency says he learns that British draft proposals to Russia set forth eight points, the principal of which are, and after a moratorium of five years, pay two per cent. interest for five years, and then four per cent. for another five years.

The document does not specify that Russia must accept the principle of private ownership, but demands long leases of private property to its former owners.
The document also provides for a credit scheme to finance trade which is favorably considered if Russia accepted the proposals.

M. Tchichouine, chief Soviet delegate, first refused to comment on the proposals, according to the correspondent.
He said the British draft might be basis for negotiations, and then, looking at the French draft, he shook his head as though dismissing it entirely.

Paris, April 28.—In an official statement issued by the government last evening
it is explained that Premier Lloyd George's suggestion was that all the delegates of the powers now at Genoa, excepting France, should attend an allied meeting to discuss the question of Germany's status or any sanction by her of the treaty of Versailles.

The statement adds that this suggestion was in accordance with Premier Lloyd George's original suggestion regarding meeting of the council of ambassadors, though slightly amplifying it.

London, April 28.—A despatch to the Central News Agency from Genoa says
it has been learned that there is little difference between the French and British proposals to Russia. The despatch adds that it is understood Premier Poincaré is wired M. Barthelemy that if the French raft is rejected or materially modified the French delegation should leave the conference.

Paris, April 28.—A meeting of the entire French cabinet has been called for today night, when Vice-Premier Louis Lagarde, head of the French delegation, will outline the conference situation.

EXPRESS COMPANY

tration of the Canadian National Express Co. will take place on Monday. The claims department for the eastern district, which was located here, will be who had charge of this department, will become general agent at the local office.

W. G. Everett, who is at present general agent, will take over the duties of traveling agent for this district. W. P. Stricker, general claims agent of the company, was in the city today arranging the transfer of the claims department. None of the local employees will be laid off.
Those who do not remain on duty here will be transferred either to the claims department at Montreal or to the office

gins, at Moncton.

D. S. C. R. DIRECTOR
IN THE CITY TODAY

Col. S. S. Wetmore on Way to Halifax—Speaks of Plan
Under Consideration.

Colonel S. S. Wetmore, director of administration of the D. S. C. R. for the maritime provinces, passed through the city today on his way from Ottawa to Halifax. While in Ottawa, he attended several meetings of the parliamentary committee which took up the matter of the soldiers' insurance, re-establishment and unemployment.

The committee, he said is looking into the matter of a scheme of employment for ex-soldiers with a small disability
due to service and a greater disability due to other causes. It is expected that some form of sheltered employment will be recommended. Shops are now being operated with the assistance of a messenger by the National League and another at Toronto, Hamilton, Guelph, and London at which disabled men are employed making toys, and doing woodwork and some in greater disability were furnished with equipment from the material formerly used by the vocational training branch of the department.

Col. Wetmore said that cases of this kind were increasing instead of decreas-ing.

Regarding the memorial workshops established by Mayor Schofield, Col.
Wetmore was of the opinion that if the parliamentary committee's plans were carried out, there was a possibility of the department co-operating with the city in keeping this shop open.

Col. Wetmore will leave this evening for Halifax.

EPILEPTIC INDIAN
MURDERS MOTHER

Tale of Tragedy of Manitoulin
Island Reserve Reaches Sudbury.

Sudbury, April 29.—A story reaching here from Little Current is to the effect that Antoine Kitchimokouman, an Indian living on the unceded portion of Manitoulin Island, battered out his mother's brains with the barrel of a shotgun on Sunday morning last.

The story indicates that his actions had been noticed to be peculiar by other Indians that morning. They investigated and saw the Indian come out of the house with a gun in his hand and go down a path toward his mother, who was coming toward the house. When they met, the son struck his mother over the head with the gun, felling her to the ground, and he then dealt her several blows and passed on out of sight of the terrified onlookers.

The latter hastily summoned a constable, and it was fully an hour before the matricide was overtaken and overpowered. He is aged about 60 and has been subject to epileptic fits, and has had several since being arrested. He is known in his tribe as "Big Knife."

DAINTY LUNCHEON
TODAY ON EVE OF DEPARTURE

A very dainty well-appointed luncheon was given this afternoon in the large dining room of the Royal Hotel by the board of directors of the St. John Catholic Women's League as part of the departure of Mrs. Bohan, who is to leave soon to take up her home in Kingston, Ont., and to Miss Kate Lawlor and Miss Elizabeth McInerney, who are to leave on Tuesday for Rome to attend the world conference of Catholic women.

Twenty-six invited guests were present and were received by the guests of honor and by Mrs. D. P. Chisholm, the president of the Catholic Women's League.
Mrs. Chisholm presented to each of the guests of honor a long-stemmed Opella rose and very pretty hand-painted place cards were given them. Mrs. Bohan received a card with a picture of a messenger by heading out a large bunch of roses and bearing the words, "Good Luck." To Miss Lawlor and Miss McInerney were given cards with emblems of trucks, a symbol of the long journey they have before them.

Mrs. John E. Owens, third vice-president of the National League and member of the board of directors of the local branch, gave a farewell message of regret and good wishes to the three guests of honor. Mrs. Richard O'Brien spoke a few words expressing the same sentiments.

HALIFAX VIEW OF
AMHERST MEETING

Does Not Expect Breaking Away from A. A. U. at This Stage.

Halifax, N. S., April 29.—The Echo
today says:

"It is not expected that the meeting of amateur clubs at Amherst tonight will result in any such drastic action as the breaking away of any Nova Scotia clubs
from the Maritime Amateur Association.
It is confidently expected that the delegates to the meeting will confine their attention to a discussion of the different "bones of contention" between the Nova Scotia amateurs and the officials of the Maritime Amateur Association of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada.

"Many of the delegates to the meeting will no doubt be of the opinion that a disruption of the amateur body would work a lasting harm to amateurism in these provinces, but they will be also of the opinion that in the recently instituted affidavit system, a step has been taken which they are not willing to coincide with or uphold. Therefore the meeting will no doubt attempt to find some means which will be agreeable to the amateur officials to clear up the difficulties which at present confront them.

"Whatever conclusion is reached will be forwarded to President Covey for his approval, and it will not be until he has rejected whatever proposals the meeting might send, that there will be any danger of a secession from the Maritime Amateur body by any of the dissenting amateur clubs of Nova Scotia.

"Much may be accomplished by the meeting tonight if the delegates look at all points to be discussed from a logical and unselfish viewpoint, but if there is any bolshevistic method laid down, and contention by the meeting, the harm
will be incalculable."

Amherst, N. S., April 29.—"As I understand tonight's athletic meeting it is an outlaw gathering and as such the Amherst Amateur Athletic Association is having nothing to do with it," declared J. A. Hanway, K. C. president of the A. A. U. this morning. "I have refused to allow the meeting to take place in my office and the Maritime Club has refused to allow the meeting to be held in its rooms. The A. A. U. has not appointed any delegates despite early rumors to the contrary and it taking no action in regard to the proposed conference. We are still allied with the M. P. B. M. A. U.," concluded Mr. Hanway.

FIFTEEN BOILS
ON NECK
AT ONE TIME

Any one who has suffered from boils
can sympathize with poor old Job.
There was no Burdock Blood Bitters in those days, so Job had to suffer in silence. Now-a-days no one need endure the misery of boils.
Boils are simply evidences of the bad blood within coming to the surface and just when you get rid of one, another seems ready to take its place and prolong your misery.

All the poulticing and lancing you may do will not stop more coming.
What you have to do is take BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS
and the blood will be cleaned of all its impurities, and then every boil will disappear.

Mr. Roy McSwain, High Bank, P. E.
I., writes—"I was troubled with boils
for some time, and had as many as fifteen on my neck at once. After taking one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters they commenced to get better, and after I had taken two bottles I was relieved of them and felt much better. I think B. B. B. is a grand blood medicine, and can recommend it highly."

For the past forty-five years B. B. B.

FREAK SUICIDES IN FRENCH TOWNS

Tapping Block of Dynamite on His Head One Man's Method.

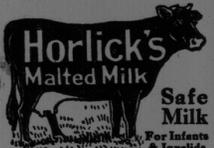

Paris, April 29—Paris is now afflicted with a mania for unusual forms of suicide. The latest and strangest took place when a rich retired farmer suffering from indigestion used a high explosive to blow out his brains.

He obtained a small package of the explosive, declaring that he intended to use it to remove some stumps. This he placed on his head under a silk hat which he had worn at his wedding forty years ago, and then he struck the hat a heavy blow with a hammer. The terrific roar brought the neighbors into the street, who found the man's head had been torn to bits.

A young Lorraine girl, after brooding over a love affair, travelled 200 kilometers in order to jump from the top platform of the Strasbourg Cathedral. This was the first case of its kind in more than fifty years.

But the most original idea was that of an eighteen-year old youth who fixed himself a swing seat under a freight car and then while sitting on it burned the ropes holding it with a cigarette while the train was going at top speed. His attempt failed, however, for instead of being killed he was picked up badly injured, having a broken arm and one foot cut off. It is reported that he probably will recover.

SIGNED STATEMENT OF BANK WITHOUT KNOWING FACTS

Montreal, April 28—The outstanding feature in the evidence submitted to Judge Cusson, sitting in the enquete court here today in the charges against Sir H. Mantagu Allan and D. C. Macarow, president and general manager respectively of the Merchants Bank of Canada, was the fact that the witnesses signed the monthly statements to the government, they had no personal knowledge of the information to which they had testified.

ENTHUSIASTIC RALLY OF LIBERALS IN LANCASTER

Enthusiasm ran high at the informal smoker held last evening in the Temperance Hall, Fairville, when the electors of the parish of Lancaster met for the purpose of discussing plans for organization of the Liberal party adherents for the by-election to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, K.C., M.P., who successfully contested the federal constituency of St. John-Albert in the elections of December last. Premier Foster addressed the gathering and told of the various progressive policies that had been inaugurated by the government. He urged that all interests be united in electing an additional supporter for the present administration from St. John county. Dr. L. M. Curran, M.P.P. for St. John county, accompanied Premier Foster and made a short speech, in which he predicted victory by a large majority. Other speakers were A. F. Bentley, councillor John T. O'Brien, councillor W. Murray Campbell, A. W. Carton, Amadore Anderson, John A. Barry, Major C. J. Morgan, and others. Their keynote was Organization and, as a result, an organization meeting will be held on Monday, May 11. Beausfield electors also were present and a committee was appointed to complete arrangements for holding a similar meeting for that section of the county.

The spirit of victory, which pervaded the gathering, was commented on by all the speakers. It was intimated that the election might be held during the coming summer. W. E. Scully, M. P. P., was chairman and during the course of the evening H. Chadwick recited a racing poem with dramatic vigor. Refreshments were served at the conclusion.

HYDRO PROBLEM AND CITY MANAGER PLAN

The executive of the Commercial Club decided to appoint a hydro committee to study the subject of hydro in its relation to St. John at its meeting yesterday afternoon in the Commercial Club rooms in Prince William street.

A town manager committee whose business it would be to furnish information about the town manager form of civic government to the club was also decided upon at the meeting. These committees have not yet been appointed. The finances of the club were shown to be in a flourishing condition. It was decided to try out a plan of holding fortnightly lunches at noon for the club members.

F. W. Coombs, a member of the executive and also of the St. John Automobile Trades Association, Limited, expressed the appreciation of the members of the latter association for the work of the Commercial Club in managing the recent motor show.

The decision to foster the establishing of the radio association which was formed at a meeting last night was also taken by the executive. Major R. A.

MESSRS. RITCHIE AND KILLAM THE ONLY SURVIVORS

The death of Senator Thompson reduces the number of surviving members elected to the house of assembly in the year 1878 to two. The only ones now remaining are Hon. R. J. Ritchie, police magistrate, of St. John, and A. E. Killam, of Moncton. Of the members returned in 1882, seven are still in the land of the living. They are: R. W. L. Tibbitts, of Fredericton; Hon. R. J. Ritchie, of St. John; Hon. J. P. Burchill and W. A. Park, of Northumberland; George Hibbard, of Charlotte and Hon. C. H. LaBillicois, of Dalhousie.

The Toll of Death in Russia

TEN MILLION CHILDREN in Russia are doomed to die in the slow agonies of starvation unless the people of Canada awaken in their generosity, and by gifts of food and money, enable the Save the Children Fund to prevent this horror.

The famine in the Volga region is the most appalling in recorded history. Whole populations are exterminated. Children—fatherless and motherless, homeless, with death stalking their steps—wander the highways and byways until they creep into some abandoned hovel to die.

Hundreds of thousands have died from starvation and neglect; but millions can be saved if food is dispatched at once.

Will you give something? Will you save a helpless child from starving to death? What you do give means little to you—yet it means the life of a child!

25c will feed a child for a week. $1.00 will ensure sufficient food for one child for a month. $500 will establish a kitchen and feed 100 children until the next harvest.

NEW YORK CRIMINAL GANGSTERS DIVIDE CITY UP FOR OPERATIONS

New York, April 29.—How gangs of criminals have mapped the city into districts, whose boundary lines are as exact as those of police precincts, with each district held sacred by its own particular gang for holdup purposes, has been told to the authorities by Hubert J. Slabery, a former army transport captain, now a confessed gunman and gangster, who was arraigned for sentence here.

As a result of the revelations, the police allege, six important robbery mysteries have been solved within a few weeks, and nine men have been arrested. Fearing that the gang would take revenge against Slabery, the court con-

FIVE ARMED MEN GUARD OVER $2,900

Official Guardians of Federal Income Tax Office Express Sentiments.

Hamilton, April 29.—Perhaps if it were left to their own choice the four stalwarts of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police who are nightly guarding the vault in the Federal income tax office, Imperial Building here, would rather be strolling some desperate bandit over vast tundras and across sub-Arctic wastes.

Each man is armed with an automatic and plenty of ammunition. Their force is augmented by a fifth guard, who is a husky attaché of the office itself.

"A bit thick, this thing is," is what one of the guards is credited with saying. "There was only $2,900 in the vault last night."

Some nights, however, there are said to be huge sums in the vault.

SKIRTS MAY FOLLOW IN WAKE OF HOOPS

Knitted Knickers, With Close Fitting Coat, Seen in New York—Queer Fancy in a Cape.

New York, April 29.—If fashion keeps on being radical, the chances are that women of this country will be compelled to send their skirts down the discard after their grandmother's hoops.

First the knickered costume, demurely concealed under a flowing cape, was offered to facilitate enjoyment of such undertakings as do not lend themselves to yards of fabric flapping round the legs and getting in the way of free movement.

These knickers were made of tweed, and they bulged and billowed so conscientiously that nobody could find any fault with their shortcomings as drappings.

But this week the latest development of the old and steady going tweed things came out on the person of a young and lovely avenue shopper, and elicited a gasp of astonishment from all who beheld. She was clad in a pair of knitted knickers, which clung, rather bagged, and a little knitted coat, close fitting and barely hip length. The material was grey with a thin, flame-colored bar forming a wide plaid.

A roll brimming flapper hat, knitted like the suit, grey wool stockings and grey buckskin oxfords completed the outfit, which, even on the street of sartorial strangeness, managed to stand out like the tip of a lighted cigarette in a dark room.

Tweed knickered suits, under knee length, were, are an unusual sight in the shopping district. They are worn by women of middle age as well as by the flapper element. But the figure-fitting, bifurcated garment, unprotected by enveloping folds of cape or coat is pointed to by modistes as the forerunner of something really surprising.

Another queer fancy of the moment is the one which has developed a lace and flower trifle out of the cape. It is made of any sort of lace wide enough to form a drop from the throat almost to the waist. Black Spanish lace was finished with a collar of flame-colored crepe de chine roses and tied with narrow white ribbons and like these stems.

Another caplet of silver lace was trimmed with a collar of pointsettias made from cloth of silver. This was followed by one of the new gowns of thread lace with bewildering effect.

Frocks Ultra Feminine.

If utility and sports costumes are becoming masculinized, frocks appear to maintain a balance by ultra-feminine personalities.

A new model of gorette in the soft yellow designated this year as Minima is fashioned in complete simplicity with a slightly bloused sleeveless bodice and a plain little skirt rather full. Round the bateau neck and loosely falling arm apertures is a border of small blue daisies. The flowers are placed along the black velvet ribbon girdle, and finish the streamer ends on either side.

Another gentle frock is made of rose-tint printed crepe de chine, very simply, with scalloped hem, sleeves and rounded throat. A fringe of tomato-colored chiffon sweet peas, two dangling to a stem, outlines all edges of this dress.

A coat destined for one of these models was made of white canton crepe, on lines suggested by the straight cape styles, which still are popular. It was shirred a bit over the shoulders, and the waist portion continued to a line considerably below the hips, where there was a narrow belt. There were no sleeves. Heavy rolls of the material, braided, and sewed together formed a high, stand-up collar.

Novelties in hats appear daily. One named "star-glass" by its proud designer, had a rim of narrow bands of silver ribbon twisting over wires. This ran across front and sides only. The back portion was malle, like the soft, rather full crown. Ribbon velvet, five inches wide, circled the crown. It tied in an enormous bow on the left side and fell away in streamers which almost reached the ground.

LIQUOR ACT OF P. E. ISLAND

Charlottetown, P. E. I., April 29.—In the legislature yesterday the prohibition amendment act came up for second reading. The main object was to adopt an amendment to make the difficulty which arose out of a judgment in the supreme court declaring Section 52 of the Act ultra vires. The reason given by the judges was that this section was too sweeping as it provides that the possession of liquor in the hands of any person is illegal unless the bottle bears the vendor's stamp.

The amendment now before the house is taken from the British North America Act. It will make section 52 ultra vires, excepting from its provisions liquor imported for the purpose of being exported again. This week a resolution was passed in the legislature asking the federal government to take a plebiscite on the question of importing liquor except for medicinal purposes.

Estimates amounting to more than $800,000 were passed in legislature. Prorogation will likely be on next Tuesday.

MISS MURCHIE'S SUCCESS.

St. Croix Courier: The many friends of Miss Lella Murchie, daughter of the late George Murchie of Calais, will be interested in the work she is doing. The best exhibition of gymnastics and aesthetic dancing that has ever been seen at the Ontario Ladies' College was given by the students of the college under the direction of Miss Murchie, the physical director, last Saturday evening.

HANNA SPEAKS OF RAIL COMPETITION

(Canadian Press Despatch) Springfield, Ill., April 28.—That Canada has preserved competition under a plan of government ownership of railways, which after three years' demonstration has proved thoroughly practicable, was asserted by D. B. Hanna, president of the Canadian National Railways, in an address here tonight.

He explained that the national system competes with the Canadian Pacific Railway, and that the object of government ownership in Canada was to insure adequate and efficient railway service. Both systems are strong and in good physical condition; both have a capacity considerably beyond normal traffic movement.

"The Grand Trunk Railway is to be consolidated with the national system.

It will add 4,776 miles and give the national system a mileage of 22,375.

ACCEPT GRENFELL AS CANDIDATE FOR SEAT BALFOUR VACATED

London, April 29.—(Canadian Press Cable).—The city of London Conservative Association yesterday adopted Edward Charles Grenfell, a noted financier, as candidate for the seat in the city left vacant by the translation of Earl Balfour of Whittingham to the House of Lords.

SENTINELS OF PROTECTION

Canadian car owners who equip with Firestone Tires expect mileage, comfort, smooth, steady driving, safety and freedom from tire trouble.

Such faith in Firestone performance extends to millions of users. The reason is found in Firestone quality, the record of which goes back twenty years to the original determination of the maker—whose name is on the tire—to give "Most Miles per Dollar."

New proof of Firestone protection is found in the greater mileage this year of Firestone Tires. Their high quality is delivering the miles to a degree that makes them the most economical tire you can buy.

East or West—Eddy's Best—since 1851!

"Here's an Eddy
— 40 years old!"

EDDY-TORIAL

The great industries and public utilities of to-day are the servants employed by modern society to serve itself.

Eddy's is an all-Canadian institution.

It is owned by Canadians, operated by Canadians, employs only Canadian capital, and its profits are kept in Canada for the development of other Canadian industries.

That it has attained national importance is proof that it has performed a service in an acceptable manner. Always, everywhere in Canada ask for Eddy's Matches.

In an old shack near the Mattawa River, these matches—a relic of the old match-making days, a box of Eddy's matches made over forty years ago at Hull—were found last Autumn!

They had weathered the extremes of our Canadian climate, the heat and cold, the sleet, snow and rain for forty years.

It was an old sulphur match—the "Telegraph" Brand—the last word in matches at that time—a great match in its day.

Longer than Eddy's make to-day, it was wasteful. Still, it was a light, and a good one.

The most incredible thing of all was that after 40 years the matches were just as good as the day they were made, and the man who found them lit his pipe with one of these old timers!

Every Eddy will serve you as faithfully.

THE PARIS CASE.

The cross-examination of John Paris, being tried on a charge of murder was continued yesterday afternoon and he was on the stand at adjournment last evening. His evidence was similar to that given at the last trial, although there were some circumstances which he did not now remember, explaining that his memory was not as well as at the second trial. He told of being at the farm of George Hill on August 8, when a man named Connolly came regarding a suit of clothes. He was also in Lawrence's store on the same day and talked with Ralph Singer. He remembered a man coming in and disputing the amount of a bill. The rest of the evidence was practically the same as given at the previous trials.

NO ACTION AT YALE TO BAR ATHLETES

Eligibility Inquiry Continues, But No Evidence is Found to Warrant Taking Steps.

New Haven, Conn., April 29. — The investigation into the outside financial resources of athletes at Yale following the recent meeting of the committee of three chairmen of Harvard, Yale and Princeton, which resulted in several Princeton athletes being declared ineligible, has not so far developed the existence of anything which might be interpreted by the Yale Faculty committee as cause for action. It is admitted, however, that the investigation has not yet been completed, and that there are men as to whose financial support the board is at least doubtful.

At the time of the last conference of the committee of three chairmen, when the Princeton men were barred from further competition, the names of several Yale men came up for discussion, but so far as they have been investigated they have been found to be engaged in work which to the faculty seems perfectly legitimate. One of these men was "Doc" Jordan, captain of the football team. Jordan, when under investigation, showed that he was working at every odd job he could pick up to help him through college, even attending as usher in chapel, which pays him the modest sum of $30 a year.

But for every case which comes to the ears of the faculty by rumor and through the exchanging of information between the three colleges, there are probably several others which are never heard of and with which the university is helpless to deal, Professor Clarence W.

Mendell, chairman of the board of control of athletics, said today. Professor Mendell lays the blame squarely on the shoulders of alumni, more zealous in obtaining strong teams than for the principles of clean sport. So long as they are able to extend financial aid without the knowledge of the university, in an underhanded way that is almost impossible to discover, just so long will this problem of financial petting continue. Professor Mendell is of the opinion that only by making each athlete show in detail the sources of his income will the universities be able to exercise some check upon the alumni, for the present method of making an athlete sign a deposition that he is eligible is declared to be entirely inadequate. Would Leave It to the Coaches.

A more successful method than the attempts by the faculty to cope with this situation, Professor Mendell believes, would be for the coaches of the "Big Three" to get together and make some agreement which would bar men of doubtful eligibility. The coaches know more about the situation than the faculty and somewhat resent the interference of the faculty in athletic matters. With coaches of the right type, who believe in clean sports, Professor Mendell believes the situation could be remedied, and he is attempting to bring about such a meeting this spring when football activities are resumed. The great difficulty is in knowing where to draw the line between a technicality and a real offence, said Professor Mendell, and he is at present showing how many persons felt about it the fact that he had received a letter from a Yale alumnus criticizing the action of the committee in barring Princeton athletes where the motives of the men themselves were not questioned and demanding that Professor Mendell take the initiative in having them reinstated.

"Inasmuch as I had been on the committee of the three chairmen and had approved the finding of the Princeton committee, I could not do that," he said, "but it shows the great danger in this situation. When men receive outside aid primarily because they are athletes, it goes far to demoralize the sport itself, and also breeds a feeling of suspicion and criticism between universities, which is an exceedingly bad thing.

"I have great admiration for the way in which Princeton handled these cases, and I do not think enough tribute has been paid to their ideals of sportsmanship which causes them to take the initiative when they first discovered what was going on and to bring the cases to the attention of the three chairmen. But I do not see, just because Princeton has been unfortunate enough to have such a thing occur, as happened here a few years ago when baseball players were found to be playing at Quogue in the summer, why for that reason we should make a gesture of righteousness and disqualify some one without absolute proof of wrongdoing."

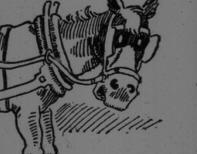

Not Beginning a Campaign. There seems to be a misapprehension in the mind of the public, said Professor Mendell, that the Princeton cases were the beginning of a new campaign against the subsidizing of athletes and therefore to be followed immediately at other universities by drastic measures. "This is not a proper interpretation of the facts, because the committee of three chairmen meets several times each year to exchange information and to pass upon cases of eligibility. However the Princeton incident was followed immediately by investigations at Yale and Harvard, investigations which are still going on."

When it was discovered early in the year that athletes from Princeton were getting money from a fund over which the university had no control, and the inquiry showed that players on both the football and baseball teams were involved, there was some concern from competition. No definite action was taken until toward the opening of the baseball season, when Dean McClenahan told President Hibben that he thought the matter should be placed before the committee of three chairmen at once for decision. Dean McClenahan laid his cards on the table before the committee and said that under the interpretation of the rules made by Princeton he believed the men to be ineligible, and the other members of the committee agreed with him. At that time the position of athletes in both Yale and Harvard was questioned and definite assurances were given that investigations would be made at both places. It was apparently this which caused Dean McClenahan to issue a statement to the Princeton Alumni Weekly, in which he said: "The committee of the three chairmen, representing Harvard, Yale and Princeton, recognizes that as in the case of the Princeton men now concerned, other men whose motives may be above criticism and whose acts may be proper in themselves may have to be declared ineligible to represent Harvard or Yale or Princeton."

a dangerous one, however, because it opens the way for the support of a man backed by alumni, who are usually enthusiastic for the success of their university in athletics. "Just because an alumnus is wealthy, however, and interested in athletics does not mean that he will stoop to unethical methods," said Professor Mendell. "Some of our wealthiest alumni are on the crew and track committees, and these branches of sport are unusually clean. I have my greatest trouble with men who are interested in baseball and football, and sometimes find an alumnus who is unreasonable in his attitude with regard to some student he is helping. Unfortunately it is not always possible to find out just how the athlete is being helped, for in a personal transaction between an alumnus and athlete there is nothing that we can lay our fingers upon. That is why we have so much trouble with this phase of sport and I do not know how we can remedy it. We are helpless unless we hear something, and sometimes we hear things which are not true. It is a difficult situation with which to deal, but it must be dealt with in some way unless college sport is to suffer."

Does German-Russian Alliance Mean Peace or War?

Like a lightning flash in the night the announcement that Germany and Russia had signed a treaty behind the backs of the other powers at Genoa was a sudden revelation of a possibility that publicists have been discussing ever since the Versailles Treaty was signed. The treaty signed by Germany and Russia re-establishes full diplomatic relations between the two countries on an equality basis, and mutually cancels all war claims as well as claims arising from the nationalization of property. Further, "the two Governments undertake to give each other mutual assistance for the alleviation of their economic difficulties in the most benevolent spirit." According to the Philadelphia Public Ledger, "it foreshadows a new European line-up, with Russia and Germany forming what may become a military as well as an industrial and political alliance against the rest of the Old World."

The danger to Western Europe is even greater than it was in 1914, declares Maurice Casenave, former French High Commissioner in the United States. "Here is Germany recognizing Bolshevism and joining with it. This has a meaning for America as great, in my mind, as the war had. The American Government and American public opinion ought to see the significance of these events, but if they do not they will be disagreeably shocked by the consequences." One British spokesman declared that "the signing of the separate treaty was a challenge to the whole world."

The leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST this week (April 29), "Germany and Russia Defying the Allies," discusses the Genoa Conference from all angles, presenting the editorial opinions of American newspapers and also the German-American press.
