Schr Georgis D Jennings, 898 tons, same. LAD LOCKED IN CAR. St. Thomas, May 22—In the early morning when a car tapper was going his rounds at the Pere Marquette railroad yards here he was amazed to hear a loud thumping from a bonded car marked "sugar." When the door was opened a wild-looking youth jumped out. He had been in the car since the night before. The boy was nearly starved and suffering from thirst. He gave the name of John Mushone, aged nineteen years. He with two other lads crept into the car when the door was open in the Buffalo yards to get out of the rain, and he fell asleep, and when he wakened the door was fastened and the train moving. The magistrate sentenced the boy to a week in the county jail until his relatives can be communicated with. TO SELL ASTOR HOLDINGS TO DIVIDE AMONG HEIRS. New York, May 27—Real estate in the heart of the west side of Manhattan, worth $5,000,000, will be sold at auction in order to divide among forty heirs a part of the estate of William B. Astor, according to an order signed in the supreme court here. For purposes of distribution the property will be divided into 260 equal part will go to Margaret de Steurs Obern Dorff, wife of Albert Oberndorff, a member of the German peace commission at Versailles. In the event the peace treaty is not signed when the sale is held the $88,000 share of Mme. Oberndorff, who was a granddaughter of William B. Astor, will be turned over temporarily to the alien property custodian.

HE IS 56; JUST HOME FROM WAR

Amongst the soldiers who returned to the city from overseas yesterday was Private William J. Elliott, brother of George Elliott, engineer at the post office. He is being discharged from the army in his fifty-sixth year. This veteran was in the Yukon when the war broke out and it was eight weeks before the news of the conflict reached him.

With three companions he started on a 680 mile hike to Dawson City, where his physical fitness convinced the recruiting authorities that his fifty-one years were no bar to his fighting possibilities and he was sent overseas. He returned without a scratch and brought back with him a bride from Scotland. Two of his Yukon comrades, however, lie buried in Flanders' fields. Private Elliott is spending a few days in the city before returning to the Yukon.

Reception For 26th Officers

A reception to Major and Mrs. Hooper and to the returned men of the 26th Battalion and other units was tendered by the congregation of St. Paul's church in the schoolroom last evening. There was a very large number present and the hall was filled to its capacity. Flags and bunting were very prettily draped and arranged around the walls and the hall was very nicely decorated. Archdeacon Crowfoot presided and gave a short address of welcome to Major and Mrs. Hooper and to the returned men present. Major Hooper, in a few well chosen words, thanked the congregation for the kindness they had shown to him and the soldiers in holding a reception for them. Rev. G. A. Keating, who was also present, spoke a few words of welcome.

ACTORS MAY STRIKE

New York, May 24—Broadway is much stirred up about the threatened labor war between the Producing Managers' Association, consisting of some forty of the leading theatrical producers in America, and the Actors' Equity Association. The actors' organization includes in its 4,000 members virtually all the leading stars as well as many of the chorus girls of the White Light district.

CIVIC EMPLOYEES ORGANIZE

The civic employees formed a union last evening at a meeting held in the Outfitters' Hall and installed officers as follows: President, Fred Nice; vice-president, John Patterson; financial secretary, R. F. Goodrich; treasurer, E. Marshall; recording secretary, B. Logan. There was a large attendance. The charter will be open at the next meeting for further members. The committee be named to discuss the recent demands submitted by the actors. The actors' demands, it was explained by one producer, if granted, would mean a closed shop in the theatrical world. It would also mean overtime to the actors for Sunday and holiday performances, pay for rehearsal and other reforms, many of which, the actors say, have been granted by the English producers. Failure to recognize the association by the appointment of the committee will, members of the Equity Association say, result in a walkout on the part of the members of the association.

COST OF BREAD IN ST. JOHN

The cost of bread in St. John, Milford and Halifax is too high and should be reduced, according to the report of the cost of living commissioner who has been investigating the matter recently and has just handed in his statement at Ottawa. The commissioner visited the bakers in this neighborhood and discussed all points in connection with the matter, his recommendation being to the effect that prices must be reduced immediately, and falling action by the bakers in this warning prosecution is threatened.

The commissioner in particular warns against combining to exact an unreasonable price. The leading bakers in St. John and Milford stated to the Telegraph yesterday that they did not contemplate taking any steps in the matter. They maintain that they are not at the present moment making even a legitimate profit and that the higher cost of flour in St. John compares with that in other Canadian cities makes their rates essential to the carrying on of their business. The bakers will await further communication from the federal authorities as they feel their case is a just one. The department baking expert may soon visit other parts of the dominion.

An Ottawa despatch says: A representative of the cost of living commissioner who has just returned from the maritime provinces, where he has been investigating the cost of bread in St. John and Milford, and in Halifax, reports that the price prevailing in that district is too high and should be reduced. The bakers have, accordingly, been notified to reduce their prices immediately. If these bakers fail to act on the warning of the commissioner, they are liable to prosecution for combining to exact an unreasonable price. It is intimated that bakers in other parts of the dominion may soon be visited by the department's baking expert.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING

St. John is at last to make a real beginning in the matter of vocational training. There can be no doubt, after last night's meeting in the board of trade rooms, and after the addresses delivered and the resolution adopted, that the city council will make the small grant requested and ask the school board to appoint a vocational training board for this city.

It was impossible to listen to the addresses of Mr. Fred Magee, M. P., and Director Fletcher Peacock without being oppressed with a sense of guilt, so far as this city is concerned, that such action as is now proposed had not been taken long ago.

The address of Mr. Magee, who is the chairman of the provincial vocational training board, and to whom more than any other man thinks are due for the fact that there is now an act relating to vocational training on the statute books of the province, was admirable in its clearness and force.

There was some criticism last evening of the smallness of the grant asked for, but, as Mr. Peacock pointed out, experience elsewhere has shown the wisdom of going forward step by step.

It was especially inspiring to hear Major Hooper tell of the breaking down of denominational barriers among the men. Matters of greater import had absorbed their attention at the front, and minor differences could no longer keep them apart.

It must have been a great source of pleasure to those who have been actively interested in getting action in St. John to see last evening how unanimous is the sentiment in favor of the movement.

Massachusetts come down and address the legislature and the citizens of St. John on the whole subject of vocational education. Last night's discussion, however, traversed the field very fully and the citizens are indebted to Mr. Magee and Mr. Peacock for the clear, visioned, illuminating and inspiring messages they brought, touching a matter of vital importance to the welfare of St. John.

THE STRIKE SITUATION

The strike situation in the west has taken a more serious turn. The general strike in Winnipeg has been followed by similar action in Calgary and Edmonton, and a general strike is called for ten o'clock tomorrow in Toronto. One of today's despatches says it is expected the Calgary and Edmonton newspapers will have to suspend publication, and the general press service is crippled so that we may have to depend on bulletins from Ottawa concerning the situation.

In Toronto the break appears to have come over the question of collective bargaining, which, the minister of labor says, in case of dispute might place all industry in control of a central body that might be entirely outside the industry or craft affected.

The situation therefore has an ugly look. In Winnipeg trouble is expected as a result of an attempt on the part of the authorities to resume certain important services. The latest advices from Calgary are that as yet the strike is not general, though many services are crippled.

What do the federal authorities propose to do? That is a question of increasing interest. The situation would seem to be one calling for prompt action. The longer the delay the more difficult the situation will become.

Major Hooper tells us that experiences such as his tend to feelings of humility, and to a broad tolerance in judging men who suffered and endured as did the soldiers at the front. He is deeply interested in the work of helping soldiers in hospital to fit themselves for productive industry or a profession, and the appointment he has recently received will give him the opportunity to forward that very important work.

A mass meeting to discuss a new municipal building would probably put the quietus on proposals to patch up and potter along. Let us have something worthy of the city and its future.

WANTED MILLIONS TO BRIBE A PRINCE

Man Backed by Berlin to Get Peace With Russia Charged With Turning Traitor for $1,000

Berlin, April 20—(Associated Press)—An alleged attempt to bribe a Prince and Princess of Montenegro with $15,000,000 to $25,000,000 in order to induce the prince to intercede with the Grand Duke Nicholas of Russia for a separate peace between Germany and Russia, featured the close of the trial yesterday of Captain Count Nayhaus on a charge of treason.

not be known in connection with the negotiations and that some one would have to go to Montenegro, Count Nayhaus volunteered to make the attempt. He planned, according to Erzberger's testimony, to land at a quiet spot on the Montenegrin coast from an Austrian torpedo boat, or to enter the country, under a false name by way of Italy.

He was brought to trial on a charge of having betrayed Germany by accepting a bribe of $1,000. The bribery evidence was contained in a deposition made by Minister Erzberger. Erzberger testified that he became convinced during the war that Nayhaus was intensely anxious to serve his Fatherland in some capacity. Questioned by Nayhaus how this might best be done, Erzberger said he told Nayhaus to bring about a separate peace with one of Germany's enemies, preferably Russia. Any one who could do that, Erzberger told him, would earn the gratitude of the Fatherland.

Dear boy it's many years since last I saw your face—this dying year recalls That nineteen-fourteen autumn when she went over with the first contingent and has given splendid service in England, France and Saloniki, and is the possessor of the Royal Red Cross and the 1915 ribbon. Miss McKiel went to France on March 15, 1915, and with the exception of fourteen days at home she has been on duty continually until she sailed for Canada a few days ago. On leaving the shores of Canada she was accompanied by her brother Ludolph McKiel, who was the first St. John soldier to make the supreme sacrifice, dying of wounds on April 16, 1915.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Joseph-Newcomb.
Hopewell Hill, May 26—A very pretty home wedding took place here last evening, when Miss Minnie Jane Newcomb, only daughter of Mr. Edgar Newcomb, and the late Albert Newcomb, of this place, was united in marriage to Isaiah J. Joseph, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hasen Joseph, of Dawson, Canada. The ceremony, which took place at 7 o'clock, was performed by Rev. Richard Opie, pastor of the Methodist church, a large number of guests, principally relatives of the contracting parties, being present. The rooms were nicely decorated for the occasion, the bride party standing under an arch of ferns and roses. The bride was attired in a handsome wedding gown of white duchess satin with crepe de chine overdrapes and carried a bouquet of roses and ferns. Miss Gertrude McDonald played the wedding march. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served, after which a pleasant evening was spent socially.

The bride, who is a very popular young lady, was the recipient of a large number of beautiful presents, in silver, china, etc., including one from the Division of the Sons of Temperance here. There were also many cash presents. The newly married pair leave tomorrow on a wedding trip up the St. John river, after which they will return to their residence at Dawson. The bride has been particularly active and helpful in church and Sunday school work here, and will be much missed. She will be followed to her new home by the best wishes of many friends.

Smith-Young.
In St. George's church yesterday afternoon, May 26, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Young, was united in marriage by Rev. W. H. Simpson to Edward Hermiton Smith. The bride and groom were unattended and the bride was given away by her father. The wedding was solemnized with a full musical service in the church. The bride looked charming in a traveling suit of overseas blue with picture hat to match and a seal wrap and carried a bouquet of pink roses and maiden hair ferns. The ushers were William Richter and Harold Sewell.

Many beautiful and useful presents were received by both the bride and groom, evidence of their popularity. They left last evening on the Montreal train for a wedding trip to Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto.

Mr. Smith served overseas four and a half years, having enlisted three days after the war broke out. He served in France with the rank of sergeant-major in the famous 4th Battalion and was wounded last August. He spent several months in hospital, after which he was sent to Canada, having fully recovered from his wounds. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Smith wish them many years of happiness.

A novelty shower was tendered the bride on last Friday evening at the residence of Miss Dorothy Emerson, Guilford street, West St. John. Games, music and dancing were enjoyed and refreshments were served. Many beautiful presents were received, including a beautiful cut glass water set presented to her by her Sabbath school class.

RECENT DEATHS
Mrs. Thomas O'Regan.
Parrishory, May 25—Many friends throughout the maritime provinces will bear with regret the death of Mrs. Nora O'Regan, which occurred in Ottawa on May 15. The deceased was the widow of Thomas O'Regan, of Truro, formerly trackmaster of the Intercolonial railway. The late Mr. O'Regan leaves to mourn one daughter, Miss Nora O'Regan of the civil service, Ottawa, and two sons, John and William also of Ottawa. Mr. Thomas Murphy and Miss Sarah Murphy formerly of Dalhousie (N. B.), now of Coligny, and sister, Seraphine, of Bathurst (N. B.), are surviving brother and sisters. The funeral of the late Mrs. O'Regan took place in Ottawa.

Mrs. Jennie W. Olive.
The death occurred on Sunday, May 25, at the residence of her son, Arthur W. Olive, of Wallaston (Mass.), of Mrs. Jennie W. Olive. Mrs. Olive is a sister of Mrs. W. Brittain, West St. John, who is the sole surviving member of the family, four deaths having occurred within the last year. The deceased, who was a lady very much beloved by all who knew her, was the widow of James W. Olive, born in this city and son of James W. Olive, first mayor of St. John city.

Mrs. Mary E. Purdy.
Yarmouth, N. S., May 2—The death occurred at Plymouth of Mrs. Elizabeth Purdy, aged eighty-two years and five months. The deceased had been in poor health for many months past.

Mrs. Purdy is survived by four daughters: Mrs. George Simms, of Plymouth; Mrs. Rupert Churchill, of Yarmouth; Misses Maud and May at home; and three sons: Captain George N., who from the outbreak of the war until the signing of the armistice was a prisoner of war in Germany, but is now at home; and Charles W., who with his family a week ago, left to again take up his residence in Vancouver. The funeral took place from her late home on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, old time.

Mrs. Jethro McGray.
Yarmouth, May 24—The death occurred at her home at Sand Beach of Margaret, wife of Jethro McGray on Friday morning, aged sixty-nine years. Mrs. McGray was a native of England, but came out to Boston many years ago, where sometime after her marriage to Mr. McGray came to Sand Beach. Besides her husband she is survived by two step-daughters, Mrs. Robert Baker, Sand Beach; Mrs. John Lewis, Lowell (Mass.); and two step-sons, Clifford, in Vancouver; and Joseph, in Lowell.

The funeral took place on Sunday from her late home and was conducted by Rev. Mr. Macintosh, pastor of the Congregational church at Rockville, and interment being made at Chebogue.

Mrs. Augusta Jane Grant.
Fredericton, May 26—Mrs. Augusta Jane Grant, widow of the late Ludlow Grant, who for many years resided in this city, died on Sunday at Somerville (Mass.), at the home of her son, Elbridge Grant, with whom she has resided since moving to this city. The deceased is survived by four sons, Herbert, Ernest, Elbridge and Bruce; by one brother, Lorenzo Yerra of Douglas and by four sisters, Mrs. William Henderson and Mrs. William Mills of Boston, Mrs. E. C. Elkin of St. John and Miss Iva Yerra of St. John. The body will arrive in this city for interment on Wednesday.

The death of Mrs. Eliza Yeomans occurred at the General Public Hospital on May 25. She was the wife of William Yeomans and besides her husband is survived by one son, James, of this city, and two sisters, Mrs. Charles Hayward of 125 Sydney street, and Mrs. Edward Hayward of Presque Isle, Me., and five grandchildren.

INTERESTING LIQUOR CASE
A case against the Brayley Drug Company, which was charged with selling liquor to a person other than the provision of the act allowed, was commenced in the police court before Magistrate Ritchie yesterday afternoon. L. A. Coulon appeared for the company. John Morrison of Norton said he came here between May 10 and May 24 and procured the remaining two and one-half bottles and took the witness back to Sussex with him.

Inspector Saunders said he interviewed Mr. Moore at the Brayley Drug Company yesterday and that Mr. Moore informed him he had filled the order for Mr. Morrison about a week ago.

Chief Ashbell, who is liquor inspector for Kings county, corroborated Inspector Saunders and told of going to Morrison's house. In answer to Mr. Coulon, he said he did say something to Morrison as to not being prosecuted and being used as a witness in the Brayley case, admitting after some questioning that the fact of his giving evidence in this case had to do with his not being prosecuted.

The request of Mr. Coulon to have the case adjourned was objected to by Inspector Wilson, and after some discussion a further hearing was set for next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

PERSONNEL OF U. S. NAVY IS BEING REDUCED
Secretary Daniels Confident Numerical Strength Will Be Well Below 250,000 Before End of Fiscal Year

Washington, May 27—Methods of reducing the navy and the marine corps to a peace basis have been discussed by Secretary Daniels and his bureau chiefs. Thousands of officers and enlisted men still must be released before normal strength is reached, but it is believed that the present rate of demobilization, the numerical strength of the navy will be well below the 250,000 mark set by the secretary at the end of the fiscal year, June 1.

Based on a total strength of 250,000 men, naval officers are confronted with the necessity for reducing the officer personnel from more than 20,000 now on duty to less than 10,000 by July 1. During the war practically all of the regular officers were temporarily promoted. Getting the navy back to a peace basis means that the majority of these officers must be returned to their former rank.

While most line officers favor a permanent peace strength much in excess of the authorized 157,000 men, Secretary Daniels is reported to have insisted that the reduction be carried out as planned. After he returned from Europe he said that all reserve force members who desired release would be returned to civil life by August.

Major-General George Barnett, commandant of the marine corps, said Saturday that the marines would have little difficulty in reducing to the normal strength of 26,800 officers and men by July 1.

"We have released every man we can spare from the forces in this country," he said, "and as fast as the 19,000 marines abroad are sent home we will get them out of the service."

The marine corps has nearly 1,000 excess officers who must be disposed of within the next month. Most of them rose from the non-commissioned grades and will revert to their old status, to be selected for promotion to officer rank in the future as the need of the service requires.

General Barnett said the plan adopted early in the war of drawing officers from the rank rather than from civilian life had more than justified itself and it probably would not be necessary to seek officers from the outside for years.

CAPE TO CAIRO BY AIR
British Officers in South Africa Plan Flight Within Three Months

London, May 16—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Preparations are being made in South Africa by officers of the Royal Air Force for a Cape-to-Cairo airplane flight, according to advices received here. The Cape Times states it is probable that within the next two or three months the first machine to make a direct flight from Cairo may arrive at Cape Town, where a landing ground has already been selected.

The machine used will be a Handley-Page, and while there is no time for the provision of the various adjuncts to a regular service, such as workshops and supply depots along the proposed route, properly marked landing grounds and petrol stations have been arranged. Wireless installations will be erected along the route to assist the airplane in finding its course.

G. W. V. A. MEETING.
There was a special meeting of the Great War Veterans' Association last evening at which delegates were elected to the Dominion convention to be held in June at Vancouver. Leo F. Duffy was elected with Dr. C. M. Pratt as an alternative. The election of a new second vice-president was carried out at the meeting and resulted in the choice of Major William Vassie. The resignation of Matron Edith Hegan was accepted with an expression of regret by the association. Matron Hegan has been a vice-president of the local veterans for many months and during her tenure of office was excellent worker in the interests of the returned men. Her departure from office will leave a vacancy hard to fill. Major C. J. Morgan presided at the meeting.

HARDWARE PRICES

(Hardware and Metal, May 24.) More interest centres around half metal than in any other single item in the market. A general reaction to higher levels has occurred, tin, lead, spelter and antimony all being affected. The advance on tin approximates two cents a pound, on lead and antimony one-half cent, and on spelter one-quarter cent. This follows on the heels of a resumption of buying, and the fact that buyers, besides specifying for spot deliveries, are in some metals placing orders for future shipment, would indicate that manufacturers' stocks are by no means large. Locally stocks are considered very good and the feeling prevails that slightly higher prices may be realized during the next six days. A revision downward in steel's service packed in cartons has been made this week, this decline following on the heels of two other similar moves. The present basis seems to be pretty well established and orders are being accepted for next fall delivery at present levels. Higher prices are again in evidence on linned oil this week, following the movement of fax steel to a higher range of quotations. There is little or no Argentine steel reaching United States markets and the demand at the present time is large. Crashes report business good and the same story is told by paint manufacturers and jobbers. The advance this week amounts to five cents per gallon on linned oil, and even higher levels are reached for. Turpentine reveals increasing strength at primary points and this is reflected here in an advance of three cents per gallon. Foreign buyers are invading southern markets and with better shipping opportunities the market is maintaining a very strong position with no immediate prospect of relief in lower prices. The situation in regard to supplies shows little improvement as yet. A decline of twenty-five cents per 100 pounds in blue annealed black sheets, sixteen gauge and heavier, has been made this week. No revision on other gauges is reported and galvanized sheets have been maintained on a very steady basis. Jobbers report sales as very good with the outlook promising for a very increased turnover. Stellite shows an advance of from seventy-five cents to ninety cents per gallon and supplies are reported as being very scarce.

THE GROCERY MARKET

The following comment on the market situation as regards food stuffs appeared in Canadian Grocer last week:—

Reports from leading Canadian centres generally report business active, with the exception of Winnipeg, where strike conditions have of course interfered to a very great extent with the movement of stocks. In spite of the unsettled state of trade in the western city, Canadian Grocer carries this week its usual market reports from Winnipeg. Declines in prices are again rather the exception and advances are noted on some commodities. The position of the markets is very firm indeed and price tendencies are mostly upward.

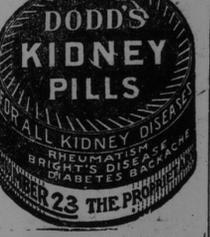

Montreal—Many advances are made this week in various grocery lines and there is ever an upward tendency on many commodities. Pot and pearl barley are higher and barley by the bushel is also up three cents. Purgative water is advanced, also a line of junket tablets and some lines of soap. Canned fruits and vegetables are firming and some changes were made this week notably on blueberries and canned tomatoes. Peaches and pears are reported higher and of very great variety are higher and split and whole peas also are firming in price. Peasants and various other nuts are also higher. Rice has moved up for the better grades. Pastry flour is very high and may go up more. Evaporated apples are marked up this week as are also raisins and prunes. Molasses, syrups and spices are showing more strength, peppers in particular being firmer. Declines have been effected on lamp oil and lantern burners, some great fruits and vegetables. Otherwise the market conditions are firm and trade is reported excellent.

Toronto—Prices generally firm, with advances particularly in provisions and on coffee, characterized the trade as far as the Toronto market is concerned during the current week. The continued strength of the market for live hogs is small in quotations as the pork products. Fresh pork cuts are up from one to two cents per pound and are also quoted higher. Dressed meats, such as hams and shoulders, are very firm, and cooked meats are from two to three cents higher on boiled and roast hams. Hens, eggs and cheese are all quoted higher than a week ago. In all price restrictions on cheese removed, there is now an open market and just at present demand is being transacted. Coffee and tea are very firm, the former showing slight advances. Coffee at primary points have been steadily climbing and the likelihood is for still further gains in price. Another government tax on both tea and coffee is believed by importers as very likely and this fact too is having its effect on the market, increasing the demand for both products. Stocks of rice that were a while back very heavy among the dealers are being rapidly depleted and the good qualities of rice are inclined to be scarce. Crashes report business good, prices are also molasses and syrups. The market for sugar is firm but further advances are not likely as there is no Ontario Stock at present.

FIRST FLIGHT FROM PARIS TO GENEVA

Geneva, May 27—A Swiss airman named Dufour, carrying mails, made the first Paris to Switzerland flight yesterday, landing at Geneva. The time was five and a half hours, including a half hour forced landing on French soil, owing to fog. The distance is about 250 miles.

THE ORIGIN OF IMPERIAL ORDER OF DAUGHTERS OF EMPIRE; NOW 60,000 STRONG

Although the Canadian branch of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire was founded by Mrs. Clark Murray nineteen years ago, Toronto has been since 1901 the home of the national executive, and all annual meetings have been held there until 1913, when every second year Toronto gave place to some other city. In 1913 the annual meeting was held in Winnipeg, in 1914 the meeting was held in Halifax, in 1917 in Victoria, and at last, this year, the Order returns to Montreal, the place of its birth, and the convention will take place on Monday next.

AWAY ON STEVENSON'S SHIP CASCO IN SEARCH OF GOLDEN TREASURE

As though haunted by the ghost of the man who once lived within its oak sides, a thrill of romance and adventure still clings to the Casco, the vessel in which Robert Louis Stevenson sailed the South Seas. The other day the old schooner sailed through the Golden Gate in search of a veritable "Treasure Island." No pirates' meager hoard awaits the thirty adventurers who man the Casco. They have heard more wonderful tales of an island literally carpeted with nuggets of gold, and in search of it they have embarked for Arctic waters. And there's little chance of meeting aboard the Casco. It bears no John Silver back to the fortune of his mates, and every member of the crew owns an interest in the project. They are men whose combined fortunes aggregate millions, though it's true some of them sold all they possessed in order to enter the expedition.

KILLED SAVING CHILDREN

Freeman Crushed to Death by Skidding Motor Engine

New York, May 27—The act of Charles Fransen, 27 years old, of Long Island City, a freeman, in East Fifty-first street, in drawing several children out of the way of a motor truck, which jumped the sidewalk in front of the Lexington Theatre, cost him his life. Fransen, after rescuing the children was unable to leap to safety himself and was crushed between the wheels of his motor truck and the walls of the Lexington Theatre Building. He died an hour and a quarter later in Bellevue Hospital.

When Fransen, dying, reached Bellevue, Deputy Fire Commissioner Culkie was making an inspection of the grounds. He sent his car for Mrs. Fransen at her home, three miles away, and although the road trip was made in fifteen minutes, Mrs. Fransen arrived two minutes after her husband had breathed his last.

Engine Company No. 8 was returning after a fire with Fransen clinging on the rear platform. When it reached the engine house he alighted. As the driver steered the machine in front of the engine house the rear bumper of the hose cart and skidded onto the sidewalk opposite the engine house. It was then that Fransen rescued the children.

At a conference yesterday afternoon between Chief Inspector Wilson and Commissioner Thornton regarding the enforcement of the intoxicating liquor act in the city by the police, the commissioner said the police would not take over the enforcement of the act now.

ment of gold, according to his tale. And, without equipment, he gathered thousands of dollars' worth of the precious metal, which he said he brought with him back to America.

Men who made their stake and settled down to lives of ease in California heard his story, and the fever once more gripped them. They organized the North-Fran Mining and Trading Company, restricted to experienced gold miners, and when their number reached thirty closed the books, though hundreds more sought place among them. They bought the Casco, and at the battered old dock on which Stevenson wrote, their arrangements for the trip were made. And then the other day, with a fair wind, they set forth from San Francisco on their great adventure.

Securing Shoe Fit Without Sacrificing Style

The one shoe designed for your foot need not necessarily be lacking in style—a shoe that fits your foot can possess attractiveness. All depends upon proper fit, and an expert shoe man knows your fit better than a mere memory regarding "so called" size can possibly do. Here you get the proper shoe for your foot—comfort isn't sacrificed on the altar of style.

A scientific foot measuring process is used here that ensures a perfect fit. This system is of interest to soldiers, because they demand shoe comfort and a maximum of style—utterly opposite conditions in ordinary stores.

Let us prove to you what we have proved to thousands of others that shoe satisfaction begins with fit.

Notice To Advertisers

It is important that advertisers in The Evening Times take notice that, under the prevailing conditions due to change of time on the railroads, this newspaper is obliged to issue one hour earlier than usual, in order to make mail connections and, consequently, begin work an hour earlier in the day, therefore the business office will be open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m., (old time) and advertisers are requested to have their copy in the office one hour earlier than usual. This to ensure prompt service and changes.

LOCAL NEWS

TO MAKE IMPROVEMENT

The untidy condition of one section of Cedar Hill cemetery has a reason—cause of some comment recently and to remedy this the lot holders in that section and the trustees of the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches of the west end are getting together to draw up an improvement scheme.

CLEAN-UP DAY.

This is clean-up day in Fairville and in spite of somewhat overcast weather much work has been done. All day long the teams wended their way in and out among the yards picking up refuse and the whole place is much cleaner because of the general fixin' up. Cards had been placed in store windows in Main street so the public were well informed of the day and date. Much credit is due the committee and highway board for their efforts.

BIG CONVENTION OF BIBLE STUDENTS.

Accompanying Rev. D. P. MacPherson, pastor of Central Baptist church, to the World's conference of Bible students in Philadelphia, were John G. Willett and Charles Robinson. The gathering of speakers and commentators from all parts of the globe will be a notable one and the first convention of its kind since the war. It is purely a foregathering of men interested in the study of the Bible and quite undenominational in character. The St. John men will be absent about ten days.

CONSIDERABLE WHOOPING COUGH.

There is a lot of whooping cough in the city at the present time, but mothers report it is not so severe as in previous seasons, nor is it characterized by the usual distinct whoop and strangle. It seems more like a deep-seated cold. The advent of warm weather is expected to clear up this mild epidemic.

MAJOR McMILLAN RESTING.

Major Alex. McMillan of the 29th Battalion is still confined to his room with his relatives and friends before taking up his duties as manager of his printing, publishing and stationery business, Prince William street. As the major facetiously puts it, "They've done so well without me for five years that I suppose I can make my holiday indefinitely." It will be a welcome sight to find the popular soldier-business man again at his desk.

G. K. PARLEE HOME.

The C. P. D. S. Granpin arriving at Quebec on Friday, May 23, had a good number of soldier boys who were more than pleased to take his home after doing their bit for king and country. Among those for M. D. No. 7 was Gordon K. Parlee, son of Hiram W. Parlee of 118 Harrison street. He enlisted with the Imperial Mechanical Transport Section in 1915 and served with that unit throughout the principal engagements. When the armistice was signed, he, along with the rest of the Canadian boys, serving in the front line, was repatriated. He looks none the worse for his long sojourn in France, but like all good Canadians, says there is no place like home.

Little Gerald Evans is Hurried to Hospital and Now is Reported Out of Danger—Heavy Loss in Personal Effects

Gerald, little seven-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Evans, was rescued in the nick of time from fire which badly damaged a house owned by Miss Madeline Evans at the corner of Wentworth and Sheffield streets early this morning. The house is a two-story building, occupied on the ground floor by Miss Evans and her two nephews, Robert and Bert Evans, both returned soldiers, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Evans with their three small children occupied the upper flat. The whole of the ground floor was badly gutted, while the upstairs part of the house has been damaged only by smoke and water. The house was insured for $1,000 but there was no insurance on the effects.

The blaze, the origin of which is shrouded in mystery, broke out in an unoccupied bedroom on the ground floor. It was first observed by Sergeant Hunt, who was on his way to the armory at 7.30 o'clock, and saw smoke issuing from the windows. He first aroused the people in the house and then sent in the alarm from box 48.

The fire by this time had got a good start and it was only with difficulty that those downstairs escaped. Miss Evans and her nephews Bert both had their hair singed in passing through the dining room on their way to safety, as the folding doors leading to the hall had become warped by the heat and were difficult to open.

The family upstairs were aroused but their escape was hampered by the flames which were burning about the bottom of the stairs. Mr. Evans, however, succeeded in getting one of his children, Madeline, down the front stairs but was compelled to take his wife and another child, William, out of the window by means of a ladder which one of the neighbors had placed in position. The other little boy, Gerald, was sleeping in a bedroom just over the place where the fire was most fiercely raging. His room was filled with smoke and he was nearly suffocated when carried from the house by a man named Williamson. As his condition was serious he was hurried to the General Public Hospital in the ambulance where first aid was rendered by Dr. L. A. West and this afternoon he was reported to be out of danger.

Besides all the furniture on the ground floor, the occupants lost all their clothing and effects. The two returned soldiers had only recently obtained new outfits for their return to civilian life and these were destroyed. Robert Evans, who went away with the first Canadian division, had his bride, who joined him recently from England, with him and they lost all their personal belongings, including wedding presents which only lately arrived from the old country.

The fire department as soon as it arrived lost no time in getting the blaze under control and the house next door, which was in grave danger, was saved with only a slight scorching. The residents consider themselves as lucky to have escaped with their lives.

CORPORAL A. D. OLIVE, HOME WITH MEDAL; WAS THROUGH MOST OF WAR

Corporal A. D. Olive, M. M., was among those who reached the city yesterday morning after an absence of almost five years. Corporal Olive left here under Major Fothergill in August, 1914, and has seen much service at the front, and he returns without a scratch. He was awarded a military medal for conspicuous gallantry in action. He is being warmly welcomed home by many friends.

LIEUT. CALDOW AND WIFE HOME TODAY

Lieut. W. L. Caldwell of the 1st Can. Heavy Battery and his wife arrived from England today via a transport wrecking at Quebec and were warmly greeted at the depot by Mrs. Caldwell's relatives and by acquaintances of both herself and husband.

Lieut. Caldwell was engaged in the banking business here before joining the colors and his wife, daughter of J. S. McLaren, Colburn street, was on service in V. A. D. work at the leading (Eng.) war hospital. The marriage of the popular young people was one of the romantic war and came with pleasant surprise to their many friends here.

Before leaving for home Lieut. and Mrs. Caldwell visited the war areas, Paris Versailles and other places of interest.

NO WONDER HE FELT "FUNNY"

A soldier emerged from the fitting room of a King street clothing emporium this morning making queer motions with his arms and neck as if he were trying some Houdini stunt at escaping. "Gosh they feel funny," he said; "don't think I'll ever get used to them again." Then the returned man told the clerks that he had been twelve years since his legs were encased in civilian trousers. He had been five years with the Canadian army at the front and previous to that he had spent seven years in the Imperial army.

Concerning Bed-Rooms And The Furniture Therein

Since the primitive days in the Pioneer homes, when virgin forests yielded the posts and cords of hemp held together the finished beds upon which our forebears slept, the progressive spirit of each generation to follow has been manifest in steady evolution toward more comfortable slumber and pleasingly wholesome bed-chamber environment.

Till now, man's energy and ingenuity, suited to modern architecture, has combined beauty of form and finish with durable construction and comfort, in the furnishings for his sleeping quarters; graciously surrounding his family with healthful and inviting bedroom appointments.

Not the least of the showing of this store is the Bedroom section. It will indeed entertain and delight you to look through the real innovations and to have set up for you just a simple, airy Bedroom Suite—along with an appropriate Rug—that you may see the vision as applied in your own home, and at how moderate a cost.

Bedroom Rugs are collected for our Rug Department with the utmost care and in such tasteful variety that it is never necessary here to select a rug that is not in perfect harmony with all else you have chosen for your bed-chamber. Suitability, durability and price moderation should characterize your bedroom rug; then it becomes "The soul of the room."

No obligation entailed in your coming in on a tour of inspection!

GENERAL STRIKE TORONTO TOMORROW MORNING

Unions So Decide By Vote, 12,000 For To 1,000 Against

Toronto Street Railway Men Defer Action, But Expected to Join; Concessions of Employers' Association Meet With Little Consideration; Situation in the West

Toronto, May 27.—A general strike is to be called for Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in Toronto. This was decided at a meeting of the various local unions early this morning, and while no official statement was given out, it is understood that there was an overwhelming majority of the unions in favor of the general strike. The vote, according to one of the delegates, stood about 12,000 for strike and 1,000 against.

The Toronto street railway men's union did not vote last night, but deferred action. Inasmuch as this union voted last week to support the metal workers in their demand for an eight-hour day, forty-four hours a week and recognition of the metal trades council, it is regarded as a definite thing that the street railwaymen will join in the general strike.

The employees of the Toronto post office did not vote. It is said they went to the meeting last night instructed to support the metal workers in a general strike, if one were agreed upon, but they deferred voting, notwithstanding.

Forty-four unions voted for, twenty-seven deferring voting, and some small unions opposed the calling of a general strike.

The concessions made by the employers' association, granting an eight-hour day, forty-eight hours a week, and offering to deal with individual unions, but not with the metal trades council, as representing the various unions of metal workers, did not appeal to the union men at all. They received scant consideration last night.

At a meeting of the representatives of the metal trades council and employers yesterday afternoon the unions submitted the following proposals:

- 1. A forty-eight hour week arranged so as to give wherever possible a Saturday half holiday.
2. Time and one-half for all time work over forty-eight hours.
3. Double time to be paid for Sundays and legal holidays.
4. The firms will show no discrimination against men who are on strike, whether union or non-union.
5. The firms recognize the principle of collective bargaining by agreeing to deal with committees representing their own employees or dealing with the unions representing the respective trades.
This meant that the employers would not give a forty-four hour week or recognize the actual trades council and the proposals were unanimously rejected. At the end of the conference the situation remained unchanged.

Vancouver, B. C., May 26.—As the Edmonton and Calgary strikes involve telegraphers of the Canadian Press Limited at those points, no details of today's walkouts are expected here soon.

The Calgary and Edmonton newspapers, it was believed, here will be forced to suspend, as the strike will cut them off from the news of the outside world. The probable strike of the pressmen also will cripple them.

The only strike news the Canadian Press operators will carry on the overland wire will be government bulletins issued at Ottawa.

Auto Plants Reopen.

Toledo, Ohio, May 26.—Returned soldiers, heavily armed, special police and city officials headed by Mayor Schrieber, were on hand today when the Willys-Overland and Electric-autolite plants were re-opened after being closed more than two weeks on account of labor troubles.

There was disorder as workers, estimated at 2,000 in number, returned to their jobs between files of pickets.

Vice-president C. A. Earle, of the Overland company said he could not announce the number who returned. The estimated 2,000 came from union leaders, who said only a few of the number were union men, the rest being office-men and foremen.

Vice-president Earle said he was satisfied with conditions. The Soviet was re-opening of the fifty-seven departments and that other departments would resume operations. It is claimed by unionists that the 250 persons who returned to work at the Autolite plant were mostly women.

The Lack of News.

Toronto, May 26.—J. F. B. Livesey, assistant general manager of the Canadian Press, Limited, has written from Winnipeg describing the actual conditions as he found them there when he reached that "beleaguered city" after an absence of eight days. Mr. Livesey says:

"On Monday in Toronto alarmist stories had been published. The Soviet was in control; the red flag flew over the city hall; the mayor had turned over to the municipal government to the strike committee, which from the Labor Temple was issuing manifestos and decrees to all and sundry; citizens were without food or the means of cooking it, and those who had the hardihood to pursue their daily avocations walked to and from work amid the jeers of the mob. All these things were false, but under them lay a stratum of truth.

If the strikers committee designed to strike a note of terror across the dominion, their purpose was well served by permitting the free circulation of these wild reports, which they prevented the fair and moderate statement of the facts by the Canadian Press Limited, through calling out its telegraphers. If on the other hand, their intent was to conduct an ordinary demonstration of their strength along legitimate channels, then they were ill-advised to close down the local daily press.

DEMONSTRATION MADE IN LONDON

London, May 26.—Thousands of discharged soldiers and sailors out of employment, armed with stones and other missiles, marched toward the house of commons. They came into conflict with the police, having the upper hand, however, and were scattered.

Later the procession was reformed and marched toward Buckingham Palace, but the demonstration broke up before it reached the palace. There were no further disorders.

The demonstration followed a big meeting held in Hyde Park during the afternoon, where the discharged soldiers and sailors demanded work and a minimum wage scale.

Similar demonstrations were held throughout the country during the day.

ST. JOHN BOY HAS RIVER ADVENTURE

Tom Manning 16-year-old son of Dr. James Manning, German street, had an experience his morning and yesterday that he will not likely forget in a long while.

It appears he set out yesterday in a small skiff from the family country place at Fundancy at the upper end of Grand Bay, to come to the city.

A fresh breeze was blowing and those who saw him depart queried the wisdom of the exploit.

The Manning family expected the lad to return home last evening, and when he did not they took it for granted he had thought better of the sailing trip and was going to come down in this morning's train. So when the train did not bring him today they became worried and instituted a search.

From what the fishermen gather this afternoon, young Manning was picked up by a tugboat of the harbor after being in the water a hour and a half. He was expected home later in the afternoon none the worse of his adventures.

There was a supposition that the youth had camped all night on Kennebecasis Island and set sail again today in the night, but this was not confirmed.

The facts are unknown.

GAME THIS EVENING

PRAGUE FIGHTS GALLOWES

Geneva, May 26.—The infuriated populace in Prague erected gallowes in the principal streets, whither they conducted fifty-seven food profiteers and threatened to hang them unless they took an oath they would sell their wares at reasonable prices, says a despatch from the city. All the alleged profiteers took the oath.

Keeps Milk Fresh for Months

G. E. Sontum, Canadian Commercial Agent in Denmark, writes: The question of keeping milk fresh has become more and more acute during the last few years. Different methods have been tried, but the results have not been satisfactory. However, it now looks as if the problem has been solved, as a young Danish mechanic has invented a method by which milk may be kept sweet for months, and possibly for years.

MAY HAVE TO GET HORNE BY EXTRADITION

Frederickton, May 27.—Werner Horne, a German who dynamited the railway bridge between St. Croix, N. B., and Vanceboro, Me., on February 2, will have to be extradited before he can be proceeded against in a Canadian court of law for damaging property in Canada, according to present indications. Dr. T. C. Allen has a letter from the deputy minister of justice, Ottawa, informing him that such probably would have to be the course. The letter stated that the deputy minister of justice judged from correspondence from the U. S. authorities that they had reconsidered their decision to surrender Horne voluntarily.

MILITARY APPOINTMENT

Major K. W. A. MacDougall, who has been attached to the Canadian army service corps in this district, under the direction of Major Knox, assistant director of supply and transport, as officer in charge of supply and transport, has received an important appointment in Halifax. He left for that city Friday evening to take over his new duties, where he will be officer commanding the Canadian permanent army service corps in military district No. 6. Lt. H. H. Ponton, who has been assistant to the assistant director of supply and transport, took over the duties of Major MacDougall today at the armory here.

QUEEN SQUARE DIAMOND.

The St. John Baseball League season will not be opened tonight as the heavy rainfall caused considerable damage to the diamond. If possible the opening will take place tomorrow evening, but in case the necessary improvements are not completed in time the first game will be played on Thursday evening. This evening members of the teams and of the West St. John Improvement League are going to get to work to get the grounds in condition for the season. There is considerable work to be done and it is hoped a large number will be on hand to assist in the work.

PINAFORE PRESENTED WELL BY JUVENILES

New Cliff Street School Auditorium Filled

Catholic School Pupils Win Praise for Excellent Work and New Theatre Proves Revelation—Imperial Remembrance

At the formal opening last evening of the new auditorium of St. Vincent's High School the Catholic children of the city presented the opera "H. M. S. Pinafore." The new theatre is a fine structure, built along modern lines. It is the only theatre in the city.

The new theatre resembles some of the best-class theatres in England. It has a seating capacity of nearly 800 and the auditorium being fifty feet wide by ninety feet deep.

The new auditorium was filled. Its size and appearance greatly pleased all. A pleasing feature of last night's performance was the presentation to the new theatre of an artistic and decorative bouquet marked "good luck" from the manager, W. H. Golding of the Imperial Theatre.

Cast of Characters. Following is the cast of H. M. S. Pinafore as it was presented last evening.

Bill Boatman (boatman's mate)—John Power. Bob Beckett (carpenter's mate)—Fred Connolly. Josephine (the captain's daughter)—Hilda Cowan.

Hebe (Sir Joseph's first cousin)—Mary McInnis. Little Buttercup (a Portsmouth bumpkin woman)—Anna McGarrigle.

Chorus Boys—Ambrose McGourty, Edmund Chandler, Thomas Higgins, Thomas Burns, Thomas Nugent, Jack Power, Jack Stevens, Fred Connolly, Fred Bridge, Santo Foley, Lionel Gaynes, John Higgins, Jack McCarty, James Lane, Harold O'Dell, Harold O'Leary, Frank Murphy, Arthur Morris, Clarence Moore, Thomas Higgins, John O'Brien, Ernest Comeau, Sydney McManey, Thomas McGougle, James Fishwick, Frank Stanton, Francis Whelby.

Another feature of the opening last evening was the first public appearance of the Juvenile City Cornet Band. The band made a wonderful impression in their selections of God Save the King, followed by two marches. The Juvenile City Cornet Band is a capable musical organization and it was predicted from their appearance last night that St. John has in store for it some splendid band selections and concerts in the future from this corps of musicians.

The Juvenile band is composed of the following: Frank Baxter, Thomas O'Brien, John Caplan, Raymond Lewis, Thomas Killen, John Coughlan, Len Connolly, Jack Connolly, Arthur Sharkey, William Hughes, Cornelius Riley, Ed Beck, Joe Coughlan, Walter Hughes, Arthur Leahy, James Layden, Walter Matthews, Justin McCarthy, W. Martin, Thomas Beck, Fred Bridge, John Doherty, Joseph Ferris, John Sheehan, John Sheehan, Arthur Peterson, Lionel Gaynes, Ernest Comeau, Edmund Chandler, A. Glennie, F. Crilly, F. Connolly, Cyril Stevens, Arthur McCusker, Gregory O'Hara, Louis Comeau, Ed. Bohan, Thomas McGougle, Joseph Martin, Francis Henneberry, Frank Dooly.

In connection with the formal opening of the new St. Vincent's High School five scholarships of $50 each have been kindly donated by the following donors: Mr. Rev. R. A. LeBlanc, D. V. Very Rev. Mer. J. J. Walsh, V.G., St. Vincent's Alumnae, Thomas Nagle and a friend of the children.

JOHN BULL NAILS THE OLD FLAG TO THE MAST.

WOULD BAR NURSES AS ANAESTHETISTS

New York Medical Society Council Says Law is Violated in Some Hospitals

Calls it Physician's Work—Quotes Decisions to Show Responsibility of Those Who Employ Unlicensed Persons

(New York Times.) The restriction of the administration of anaesthetics to licensed physicians and the exclusion of nurses from doing such work during surgical operations was urged yesterday by James Taylor Lewis, counsel for the State Medical Society.

After paying tribute to the importance of the nurse in the treatment of disease, Mr. Lewis pointed out how, nevertheless there were elements concerned in the giving of anaesthetics that made it a phase of the practice of medicine as defined by the law.

"A person who practices medicine within the meaning of this article, except as hereinafter stated, who holds himself out as being able to diagnose, treat, operate, or prescribe for any human disease, pain, injury, deformity, or physical condition, and who shall either refer or undertake, by any means or methods, to diagnose, treat, operate, or prescribe for any human disease, pain, injury, deformity, or physical condition,"

"The nurse who gives the anaesthetic and sits with the one operating, and if the nurse notices symptoms which seem to indicate that the patient is 'going bad,' the responsibility of taking action is hers, and she must prescribe. Because some great surgeons have a woman nurse who has given an anaesthetic to an enormous number of patients, and is now quoted as the one responsible for the question. Because a few nurses, through large experience, have acquired skill furnishes a poor reason for saying that all nurses, however qualified, may calmly walk into a hospital, even as a nurse on probation, or a pupil nurse, and proceed with administering an anaesthetic, putting in danger the life of the patient. I am convinced that any hospital used under such circumstances might be micted in damages for negligence in not furnishing qualified employees and agents in the administration of their affairs."

Mr. Lewis cited the statutes and court decisions in a number of other states, and especially that of Judge Kirby in Kentucky, in which the court said: "Dr. Frank and other physicians employing trained nurses say that in so doing they assume the responsibility. Where the nurse is known to them to be competent they may take the responsibility, but it is a responsibility, the extent of which they should have not duly considered. In a suit growing out of the death of a patient where the surgeon had voluntarily employed an unlicensed person to administer anaesthetics in the event of his brother physician's testifying in this case certainly he held responsible."

"If a doctor," continued Mr. Lewis, "operating in a hospital in the city of New York or elsewhere, allows a nurse to administer anaesthetics, he is guilty of negligence if he knows nothing, and of whose ability as an anesthetist he is unformed, he must expect to be held responsible for any untoward result which ensues by reason of the giving of the anaesthetic. The hospital, in turn, must be held responsible if it permits unlicensed persons to administer anaesthetics, whether they be graduate or pupil nurses, because the employment of such inexperienced persons cannot be pleaded by them as a bar to an action against such institution where damage or death ensues."

James McGill was chosen president of the Bricklayers, Masons and Plasterers' Union No. 1, N. B., at a special meeting last night. The other officials elected were Michael Crilly, vice-president; George Sprout, recording secretary; Walter Sprout, financial secretary; Kenneth Price, corresponding secretary; William Saunders, treasurer; Fred Shier, deputy, and Fred McAulay, outside guardian.

ORDERS VOTE TAKEN ON PROHIBITION

Washington State Supreme Court Holds Ratification Subject to Referendum

Bench is Divided, 5 to 4—Effect at Present Will be to Remove State From List of Those Ratifying

Tacoma, Wash., May 27.—By a vote of five to four the State Supreme Court has granted a writ of mandate to the California Wine Growers' Association, permitting a referendum vote on the legislative ratification of the Federal prohibition amendment. Where the prohibition amendment is to be put to a referendum vote some weeks ago.

Judge S. J. Chadwick wrote the opinion granting the writ, and his opinion was concurred in by Judges John S. Main, Wallace Mount, O. R. Holcomb, and Kenneth McIntosh. Judges Parker, Mitchell, Fullerton, and Coleman dissented, and in an opinion held that the legislative action in ratifying the prohibition amendment was not subject to referendum.

Passage of the prohibition amendment was one of the first acts of the recent state legislature. The measure found not one dissenting voice in the House, and the Senate was unanimous.

The decision of the supreme court has the effect of holding up the action of the legislature until the people vote on the issue, the victory of the Wine Growers' Association may be temporary. The state constitution provides that referendum petitions on laws passed by the legislature must be filed within sixty days after the legislature adjourns. In this case the petitions, signed by 10 per cent of the voters, must be on file June 15. This would give the wine interests less than a month to circulate their petitions. It is said an effort may be made to get the supreme court to extend the time in view of the fact that the case was held up in court.

In other states the prohibition amendment has been similar attempts to get the ratifying laws referred to the people with the hope that enough states can be taken off the official list to hold up the amendment.

SMOKE MACDONALD'S INDEX

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

Heartly congratulations are being tendered to Captain and Mrs. George Erb, 82 Victoria street, from their friends today on the celebration of their golden wedding.

Both Captain and Mrs. Erb were born at Belleisle, where they spent the early part of their life. Captain Erb is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Erb, the latter before her marriage was Miss Morell. Mrs. Erb is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Erb, who lived in Philadelphia.

Both Captain and Mrs. Erb are hale and hearty and are in the best of health. They have been married for thirty years and have five children. Captain Erb is in his seventy-ninth year and Mrs. Erb is in her seventy-third year. They have been married for thirty years and have five children.

The wood, after once being dug up, grows better afterwards. The time of collecting is generally during the winter, but it is possible all the year round, where the wood is best, provided it must be allowed to dry, which takes the best part of a year. It is then sawed or cut into small pieces from six inches to a foot long.

The good and sound pieces are kept, and the rotten ones are used for firewood. It is then taken in native boats to Bunsrah, whence it is shipped in pressed bales to London, and again from there to America, where it is used largely in the manufacture of tobacco.

From the most southern part of Ontario to Dawson City and to the shores of the Atlantic the cabbage can be grown successfully. It does best in a comparatively cool temperature. In the warmer parts of Canada the best success with cabbage is obtained by having an early crop which will be in condition for market before the driest and hottest part of the summer and a late crop which will mature after the hot weather is over. Pamphlet No. 23 on the subject of the cabbage can be obtained from the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, by writing to the Hon. J. G. Bourke, Minister of Agriculture, Ottawa, Ontario.

MRS. CHAS. PEDEN GAINS 27 POUNDS

Twice Examined and Each Time Told Operation Was Her Only Chance—Says Her Recovery is Talk of Whole Neighborhood

"I have just finished my third bottle of Tanlac and have gained twenty-seven pounds. Peden is one of the truly remarkable cases against the strait-laced standards of English society as George Sand's absolute freedom did against the more tolerant ideas of France. Boldly conquering masculine acknowledgment of their literary prowess, and at the height of their fame each was mentioned habitually—The Englishwoman with Dickens and Balzac—as one of a great trinity of national novelists.

George Eliot's Realm. Both have lost that exalted rank and have come to be grouped with those the bulk of whose work was not for all time, but for a day. None the less, George Sand, if only for her mastery of style, and George Eliot, if only for her spirited portrayal of provincial English life in the days of her youth, will not soon be quite forgotten. "Middlemarch" and "Daniel Deronda" may have few readers; Felix Holt's mild radicalism may pall on a world treated daily to pronouncements from its Trotskyes and Bela Kunas; "Romola" may cease to interest anyone as a serious account of life in medieval Italy; but at any rate lovers of life's little comedies can still read with amusement the conversations of the sisterly quartette, Madames Glegg, Deane, Pullet and Tulliver, and their inferior halves. Mrs. Pullet, it will be remembered, had emphatic views on the tribute due the medical profession and looked with well-placed confidence to her admiring spouse for their confirmation.

The Prize Patient. "It's dreadful to think of," said Aunt Pullet, raising her hands and letting them fall again—"people playing with their own insides in that way! And it's dying if the face of Providence; for what are the doctors for if we aren't to call 'em in? And when folks have got the money to pay for a doctor, it isn't respectable, as I've told Jane many a time. I'm ashamed of an acquaintance knowing it."

"Well, we've no call to be ashamed," said Mrs. Pullet, "for Doctor Turnbull hasn't got such another patient as you if this parish, now old Mrs. Sutton's gone."

"Pullet keeps all my physic bottles—did you know, Bessy?" said Mrs. Pullet. "He won't have one sold. He says it's nothing but right folks should see 'em when I'm gone. They'll be two of 'em long storehouse shelves 'ready—but," she added, beginning to cry, "it's well if they ever fill three. I may go before I've made up the dozen of these last sizes. The pillboxes are in the closet in my room—you'll remember that, sister—but there's nothing to show for the bottles if I don't get 'em."

Some Homely Wisdom. Some of the homely bits of wisdom that fall from the lips of George Eliot's characters are as pointed as any of the didactic advice of the novelist in her own character. "The law's made to take care of 'em," said Mr. Tulliver's dying agonies. "There's no slipping uphill again and no standing still when you've begun to slip down," thought Adam Bede. "It's but little good you'll do watering the last year's crop," said Mrs. Poyser, that eminent advocate of common sense. "If you could make a pudding 'n' thinking of the batter, it 'ud be easy getting dinner," was another of her sayings. "Then as I've never had a cushion don't miss it," she observed again. Bartle Massey, in the same novel, was a misogynist of the extreme kind. "It's not you," he said, "there isn't a thing under the sun that needs to be done at all but what a man can do better than a woman, unless it's bearing children, and even that do better than a poor makebelieve. It had better be left to the men—it had better be left to the men!" But to him and his like Mrs. Poyser made the enduring remark: "No denial! The women are foolish; God Almighty made 'em to take the men." But we think Bartle's "come back" was wiser matter: "To match the men as a horse's matches a horse."

Some Epigrams. Here are a few more quotations from George Eliot: "Nothing is so good as it seems before hand," was the distinguished observation of "Silas Marner." "The happiest woman, like the happiest nation, has no history," is an obiter dictum in "The Mill on the Floss," where it is still the symbol of the eternal marriage between love and duty" is from the "Proem" to "Romola," and "When Death, the great reconciler, has come it is never our tenderness that we repent of, but our severity," is from "Adam Bede." "Marriage may be a revelation either of sympathy or of conquest" can be found in "Romola," and in that novel may also be read: "Justice is like the kingdom of God—it is not without us as a fact, it is within us as a great yearning."

"Animals are such agreeable friends—they ask no questions, they pass no criticisms, it is an observation from "Mr. Gilfil's Love Story" in "Scenes of Clerical Life."

From George Eliot's most ambitious poem, "The Spanish Gypsy," come the wise observations: "Particular lies may speak a general truth" and "Wise words for half the truths they hold are honored tombs." Don Silvia in that poem gives expression to a somewhat heterodox view of the relative nature of men's and women's love for each other: Women know no perfect love, Loving me strong, they can forsake the strong. Men cling because the being whom he loves Is weak and needs him.

BELGIAN BOY STOWAWAY ON SHIP AT NEW YORK

New York, May 27.—Among the arrivals on transport here was a stow-away, 16 years old. The boy came from Lens, Belgium. In 1914 he returned home from school to find the house wrecked by German air attack and the family dead in the ruins. The townspeople had begun to pack up preparatory to fleeing before the German advance. There was no place for the boy to be left. Lens, full with a French regiment and remained with it until the heavy fighting set in and the officers made him continue his journey to the rear.

For a time he was with a British unit and when the Americans arrived he attached himself to Battery C, 341st Artillery. He became a protégé of Private George Hark, who has a farm at Gypsum, Kansas. At first the officers would not let him on the steampship, so he stole on board with his trunk and was not found until the transport reached the open sea. The boy was sent to Ellis Island. Hark will try to obtain his release so that he can adopt the lad.

George Eliot's Centennial

(Toronto Mail and Empire.) The week being the centennial of the birth of Mary Ann Evans, who became Mrs. J. W. Cross, and who shares with her French sister, George Sand (see Dupin) and subsequently Mme. Dudevant, a peculiar distinction to which no male writer of their time or since can lay claim—that of having compelled critics, biographers and works of reference to refer to them by their universally known pen names rather than by their almost forgotten real ones.

This is not the only thing the two women had in common, observes the Philadelphia Public Ledger. Both led unconventional lives—George Eliot's less so, inasmuch as she was known and highly respected women of that thriving little city, where she has made her home for a number of years.

"I had no appetite at all scarcely, and what little I did eat would cause gas to form in my stomach, which gave me palpitation of the heart, sick headaches and dizzy feeling about the head. When the spells came on I would get awfully nervous. I worried about myself until I could rest and sleep but little. For years I have suffered with a bad form of stomach trouble, constipation and pains in my side and back. At times the pain took on a form of torture and I was twice examined and each time I was told that I had appendicitis, but I had made up my mind that it was hope, had fallen off until I only weighed ninety-eight pounds and was so weak I could hardly get around.

When the spells came on I would get awfully nervous. I worried about myself until I could rest and sleep but little. For years I have suffered with a bad form of stomach trouble, constipation and pains in my side and back. At times the pain took on a form of torture and I was twice examined and each time I was told that I had appendicitis, but I had made up my mind that it was hope, had fallen off until I only weighed ninety-eight pounds and was so weak I could hardly get around.

INCREASE IN PLUMBERS WAGES SOARS COST OF PLUMBING

A marked increase in wages for plumbers has gone into effect all over the country. Strikes, excess accumulations resulted in Dominion-wide increases being granted, and the plumbers are now working on a wage that meets the present high cost of living.

The plumber has benefitted, but the people must "pay the piper." The cost of plumbing has taken a jump to meet the extra labor expense. Can't we economize? We can. A little more care with the sink, the drains and the bathroom will make the plumber's calls few and between. Pipes are too often clogged by carelessness. Grease accumulates and hardens so quickly if care is not taken. A solution of boiling water and Snowflake Ammonia is excellent for cleaning sinks and drains. Let Snowflake dissolved in water cut the most obstinate grease blockade, you will find. Snowflake may be obtained from your grocer.—Advt.

MRS. WOOLWORTH ILL

Court Appoints Daughters to be Com-mitter of Her Person

New York, May 27.—The fact that Mrs. Jennie Woolworth, widow of Frank W. Woolworth, millionaire, is ill of influenza at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Helena W. McCann, at 106 East 121st Street, was made known when Supreme Court Justice Whitaker granted an application to make Mrs. McCann guardian of Mrs. Woolworth's person. The appointment of the two daughters said: "Mrs. Woolworth is a woman of upwards of thirty years of age, in perfect health and have the love and affection of their mother which one would expect. They both have large independent fortunes of their own in addition to what they will naturally receive upon the death of their mother. They have their mother live with each of them the alternate six months of each year."

Irish Delegate Returns

Paris, May 27.—Michael J. Dunne of Illinois, the two other members of the committee, have decided to remain here for a time, to await developments regarding the request that Professor Edward de Valera and other representatives of the Irish cause be given safe conducts to Paris.

Keep The Bowels Regular And You Won't Be Sick

If the bowels do not move regularly, they will sooner or later become constipated, and constipation is productive of more ill-health than almost any other trouble. The sole cause of constipation is an inactive liver, and unless the liver is kept active, you may be sure that headaches, piles, heartburn, biliousness, jaundice, bloating, sickness before the eyes, and many other troubles will follow the wrong action of this, one of the most important organs of the body. Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills will regulate the bowels so that you will have a free and easy motion every day, and one pill a night for thirty days will cure the worst cases of constipation. They do this by acting directly on the liver and making the bile pass through the bowels instead of allowing it to get into the blood, thus causing many stomach and bowel troubles. Mrs. Jos. Lebevre, Louise Apts., Calgary, Alta., writes:—"I have been troubled with constipation for the last two years. I have tried numerous treatments, but have never been relieved by anything until I used Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills which are helping me wonderfully." We do not claim that Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills are a "sure-kill," but we do claim that there is nothing better for sluggish liver. Price 50c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Address of Absorbing Interest Was That Given to Canadian Club

"I take off my cap to the returned soldier," said Major E. B. Hooper to the members of the Canadian Club yesterday afternoon.

The club met at Bond's with A. M. Belding presiding in the unavoidable absence of Sir Douglas Hazen.

Major Hooper having expressed his appreciation of the compliment of being asked to address the club, a compliment that had been conveyed to him by cable while he was on board the steamer Melita sailing up the St. Lawrence.

His Wounded Fund.

Speaking of the generosity of the people of St. John and New Brunswick in their contributions to his wounded soldiers' fund, Major Hooper said that the money sent had been productive of good results, providing comfort for the body and mind of the wounded by keeping them supplied with materials for the wonderful needlework, basket work, painting and other crafts which occupied their time most profitably.

Of the religious aspect of his work for the wounded soldiers, Major Hooper spoke most eloquently describing in vivid words the rapt attention of the men at the Sunday services, not because they expected to hear wonderful eloquence but because they loved the padre who was one with themselves.

In concluding an address that was listened to with keen interest, Major Hooper said while he ever esteemed it a joy and privilege to have done what he had done, the experience had left him with a feeling of great humility.

Ballantyne's Reply to Charges of Mr. Duff

Says Allegations Relative to Canadian Naval Service Are Absurd and False—Sir Robert in House

Ottawa, May 26.—Charges of bungling, mismanagement, inefficiency and gross extravagance against the Canadian Naval Service were branded as absurd and false by Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, minister of naval affairs, in the house of commons this afternoon.

The minister denied the charges that were swanking around in Ottawa attending pink teas and playing bridge while while German submarines were sinking Canadian vessels off the Nova Scotia coast.

Mr. Duff replied at great length to the minister, declaring that in spite of Mr. Ballantyne's declaration that the charges were false he was going to stand by his guns and if the government would order an investigation he would prove the charges true.

THE REST CURE

"How are you this morning?" "I am not very well, and I do not see why I ever came to this place."

"Why, this is a fine place to take the rest cure, and that is what your doctor has prescribed."

"Well, it is no rest for me, for I have too much time to think and to worry. I could not get any sleep last night, and I know I shall never get better here."

"Most people like it here."

"Perhaps they do if there is nothing the matter with them. But if their nerves were in such a condition as mine they would be about as miserable as I am. I wish I had stayed home and used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, that is what some of my friends advised."

"Why not use it here. I know lots of people who have been cured by using it, and the rest will surely help some."

"That sounds to me like a good idea. Now you just get me half a dozen boxes at the drug store and we will try it out. If it will only steady my nerves so I can rest and sleep I am sure that I shall soon be better."

"I know that it will help you, for I have watched so many cases in which it was used and never saw a failure yet."

"And I was told about it often enough before I left home, but thought I had to have more expensive treatment. They will have the joke on me if the Nerve Food cures me, but we will give it a chance, anyway."

The Invisible Conflict

From the moment of birth—before—until the hour of death, there is going on within the body a constant conflict, unseen and usually unfeared, between forces that seek to defend, and others that strive to destroy.

Germs that enter from without are attacked and destroyed by the living guardians in the blood, the white blood cells or phagocytes. Poisons generated within seek entrance into the blood and are removed or destroyed by the functions of the intestines, liver and kidneys.

Food waste allowed to stagnate and remain in the intestines, unevacuated, poisons the blood and destroys its power to defend against outside or inside enemies. Such self-poisoning causes over 90% of human illness.

Constipation turns the tide of the invisible conflict against the body, in favor of the invaders. Nor does the taking of castor oil, pills, salts, mineral waters, etc., to force the bowels to move enable the body to defend itself. Not only will the constipation grow worse with the continuance of such remedies but the poisons must be constantly increased with an ever-weakening effect.

On the other hand Nujol overcomes constipation and brings about the habit of easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals, because Nujol is not a drug, does not act like any drug. Nujol brings about a return to Nature's methods by supplying necessary lubrication of the bowel contents, by facilitating intestinal muscular action, by absorbing poisonous matter, and thus securing necessary cleansing of the intestinal canal and protection of the defensive properties of the blood itself.

KAFFIR BOYS STRONG ON SUMMER FURS

Kaffir Singers for Centenary Celebration

Summer furs are no novelty to these smiling young persons from Kaffirland, who are shown featuring the expensive leopard-skin and other valuable fur costumes. Long before wearing furs in the hottest weather became vogue, these denizens of the Dark Continent and their progenitors were shielding themselves from the sun's fierce rays with pelts which would cost hundreds of dollars in any first class furrier's place. The smiles are the Kaffir Singing Boys, obtained for the Methodist Centenary Celebration at Columbus, O., June 20 to July 13, as part of the exhibition's African exhibit of what the Methodist missionaries have done for the far off peoples of the world. These boys represent five African tribes speaking different languages and demonstrating the possibilities bound up in the young life of that continent. They sing in three languages, present war scenes, wedding scenes, demonstrate the power of the witch doctors, sing that marching songs in their native way and also sing in pure English. They were trained by J. H. Balmer, a noted English traveler, explorer and authority on South Africa, a Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society. He brought them to the United States. African huts forming a kraal have been constructed in the Africa building at the Centenary Celebration, at the appropriate setting for the groups of native Christians and on habits brought from that great continent. The Africans range from the black men of the Congo to the white natives of Northern Africa and the scenic effects range from jungle huts to replicas of the pre-tentious edifices left by the ancient Romans.

HOW EXPORTING IS FINANCED

An Example of Method Followed Relative to Goods Shipped From Canada

(By a former Foreign Correspondent, issued by Canadian Trade Commerce.) The working man as well as the manufacturer is vitally concerned in anything which will help to keep our factories going full time all the year. A steady policy for the development of Canadian exports will do this. "Export trade is not a hidden art, like witchcraft or fortune-telling," says the Canadian Trade Commission in an outline of exporting. International commerce, like everything else which has to be exact, has its technical expressions. Baseball terms are jargon to those who have not learned the game. But the word lines of international trade are simple enough. The height of its perfection is the international bill of exchange. It is the medium by which credits in any part of the world are made available in the money of any nation anywhere else. Today it is practically world-wide currency. A man in Toronto, say, makes $5,000 worth of high-grade paneled doors from Canadian timber for export to Argentina. Both have local bank connections, one in Toronto and the other in Buenos Aires. The Toronto maker of doors packs them securely for long ocean transport and makes out invoice in duplicate or triplicate exactly describing and valuing the goods. The next step he takes is really the essential dividing line between practice in the home and foreign trades. His invoice must be taken to the consul, vice-consul or other consular representative of the Argentine republic and must be sworn to be accurately made out. This, by a legal act, misrepresentation of facts has been made something which may have severe consequences. The first guarantee of international safety has therein been furnished. Then the manufacturer through the usual agencies takes out marine insurance for his shipment. On delivery of the shipment in good order to the steamship company he is given a bill of lading which is nothing else than a receipt of the ship's master, that the goods have been delivered to his custody, with a guarded promise to deliver in Buenos Aires. These three documents must be surrendered to the agent of the shipping company in Buenos Aires before the doors can be delivered to the consignee. But the voyage from port to port may take forty-five days, and the shipper wants his money. So he writes a "draft" to a named bank in Buenos Aires, upon sight or specified time. To this "draft" he attaches his three documents, and asks his bank to discount the draft. The bank manager, on paying cash, will take charge of the documents. If the transaction in South America goes well the deal is complete so far as the exporter is concerned. It is, however, instructive to know how the documented draft is validated. The Toronto banker immediately takes steps to have the draft accepted by the Argentine merchant. Until the bank agent in Buenos Aires gets the "acceptance" he will not give up the three documents which are his guarantee. When this is done the draft becomes a trade acceptance or "documented bill of exchange." It might be called an international check, payable at a certain time. In due time the bill will be paid, and the international deal will be complete. There are, of course, variations in this procedure, but this is the most customary. Before the war there were normally about three billion dollars worth of these trade bills against merchandise transported in movement around the globe. These bills of exchange may be dealt with by cable or otherwise, but that is a matter of professional banking, not of exporting. "Why is it wise to foster an export trade from Canada?" Because it is an economic truism, proved again and again in practice, that you can only pay for imports by the exports you make. The Canadian Trade Commission in Ottawa insistently reminds us that the dominion has heavy imports to meet in this way, has heavy interest to pay on public borrowings made necessary by the war, and possesses in the total industrial plant of the country a large margin of "factory capacity," that is, the installed machinery is enough to manufacture for several millions more people than we have in the dominion if it were used to its fullest extent. It is possible that "in proportion to output, Canada had in 1911 an industrial plant two hundred million dollars in excess of productive requirements," according to an Ontario report on unemployment. Exporting helps "to bring in outside dollars." Our home trade in homely phrase "swaps" those dollars from one Canadian pocket to another. Some advantages of foreign trade are that it would help Canadian factories to overcome seasonal fluctuations, and to bring about an ideal state of employment, steady work at full wages for six days a week, for each of the fifty-two weeks of the year. "We repeat our conviction that the welfare of foreign trade largely depends upon the participation in its benefits of a steadily increasing number of enterprises," was a striking conclusion reached at the National Foreign Trade Convention of the United States. An extension from the scale from big manufacturers to small producer is needed, making up for size by co-operation through the formation of "trade groups." The training of Canadians as foreign correspondents and salesmen is important. "You can't learn to swim until you get into the water." So, too, foreign trade methods are best learned by a long or short stay abroad. The work will provide an attractive field for alert young men.

THE CLOCK OF TRADE Canada Nearing Condition of Adverse Trade Balance Must Do 100,000,000 Millions More Business a Year to Be in as Good Position as We Were Before the War (Canadian Trade Mission.) The clock of trade is fast running down. Yet we have heretofore to meet interest charges of $100,000,000 a year on war debts before we can even get back to the attitude of "as-you-were" before the war. Not merely the high cost of living—but each man's plain bread and butter hung on our doing more nationally than we did in 1914. All can help by passing the word along. Today, when the wide world "thinks in millions," Canada must not be behind-hand. The war-brought problems we now face, will demand the best and solvent thoughts of all the people for perhaps years to come. No magic or luck will avail the dominion in face of the keener, sterner war for the "survival of the fittest" which is already being waged through international trade. Nothing but a fearless, unrelenting grasp of facts, however hard and cold, can aid us now. It is only by a study of trade figures and a clear interpretation of their message that we can forestall the trend of things and dispose our national forces to prevent disaster. The tendency in Canadian trade, with its big, unexpected swing in our favor during the four years of war, (so liable to misunderstanding) can be easily comprehended in a perusal of a few minutes' comparison of the tables here given. It will be seen that our imports between 1914 and 1918 increased by more than one-third, but that our exports were multiplied almost four times. Still more remarkable is the "balance of trade," as the difference between imports and exports of a country is technically termed. In 1914 our balance was adverse (i. e., we bought more than we sold) by $214,000,000. But in 1918, owing to the war orders received, we had a favorable balance (i. e., we sold more than we bought) of some $377,000,000. The figures for 1919 show how the trend is sheer against us, plainly reminding us that the sands of our war-time prosperity are rapidly running out. It is already almost at the point where the balance of trade ceases to be favorable. Not only are trade returns declining;

S.); Carrie Wamback, Parika Creek (N. S.).

Beside those receiving diplomas there were forty-two who received certificates of work completed in certain business courses.

List of Graduates. Those graduating from the academy, receiving diplomas for full matriculation: Harold B. Camp, Woodstock (N. B.); Cecil Fraser, Halifax; Cecil Gibson, Bath (N. B.); George B. Hamilton, St. John; Ronald Haley, Windsor (N. S.); Vaughn L. M. Henshaw, Wolfville; Mark K. Inman, Argyle Shore (P. E. I.); John A. McGorman, St. John; David S. MacLeod, Charlottetown; Kenneth A. Munro, Dartmouth; Frank K. Neary, Fredericton Junction; Leland F. Robinson, Canis; George E. Ryan, Hartford (Conn.); Bruce B. Reid, Truro; John V. Stevens, Kingston (N. S.); Alvin H. Siddall, Lower Southampton (N. S.); Weldon B. Ward, Hartland (N. B.); Alpheus M. Wilson, Barrington (N. S.).

Beside those graduating in all the matriculation subjects, eight others received certificates of work in more than three subjects. Those receiving certificates were: Amos A. Ayrer, Sackville; Joseph I. Ashkins, Caledonia (N. S.); William Binney, Vancouver (B. C.); Alward A. Baird, Windsor (N. S.); Harold Agwell, Halifax; Maurice Haycock, Wolfville; David Kaine, Campbellton; Roy C. McDougal, Kentville.

Dr. Archibald's Report. Doctor Archibald, principal of the academy, expressed himself in the Telegraph correspondent as being very well pleased with the year's work. His report in part follows:

The attendance has been the largest in the history of the academy. The total gross enrollment for the year was 247. After deducting twenty names enrolled in two courses, the net enrollment is 227, as compared with a net enrollment of 180 in 1918, and 189 in 1917. This means that number of students enrolled has been thirty-eight larger than during any previous year in the history of the institution. There is cause for some degree of satisfaction on account of the generous patronage which the academy has enjoyed during the year.

While we have some students of a thoughtless nature and others lacking in ability or ambition, yet the great majority have manifested a serious purpose and have made good progress in the work of the year. Of the twenty-eight young men who were in the senior class throughout the year, fifteen completed the course with distinction, and some others with credit to themselves. The presence of eight ministerial students of somewhat mature age has had good effect, and has provided leadership in the religious undertakings among the students.

Prize List. The prize list is as follows: 1. Leader of the senior class, $10, H. B. Camp, Woodstock (N. B.); 2. Leader of the middle class, $10, M. B. Vall, New Glasgow (N. S.); 3. Leader of the junior class, $5, Donald Murray, Dartmouth (N. S.); 4. Leader of the business class, $10, Edward Kirk, Antigonish (N. S.); 5. Bookkeeping prize, $5, H. Wiley Day, Bath (N. B.); 6. Spelling prize, $5, A. C. Rooney, Mt. Denson (N. S.); 7. Highest aggregate for winter term (Special prize), $5, Lewis G. Pick, Wolfville (N. S.).

Besides the class prizes there are two prizes, one of $25 and another of $10 for the two best essays on imperial subjects. These prizes are given through the St. Catherine's chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire by E. W. Leonard of St. Catharines, Ontario. The subject this year was "Some Problems of Reconstruction After the War." First prize, $25, David S. MacLeod, Charlottetown (P. E. I.); second prize, $15, John A. McGorman, St. John.

The Seminary. Because of the inclement weather the May day exhibition scheduled for 10.30 on the Seminary campus was held in the assembly hall. The exhibition, although robbed of its natural setting by the rain, was nevertheless a marked success.

The grand march of the May Queen, followed by her train of beautiful maidens bedecked with flowers and carrying wreaths of early apple blossoms, presented a beautiful picture and had the intended grassy background been available, one certainly could have imagined himself in a mythical land.

The precision and skill with which the physical drill and pantomime dances were carried out showed evidence of hard and careful training. The instructor is to be complimented on the success of the day.

The cast follows: May Queen ..... Marie Brady Attendants ..... Mary Brady, Margaret Brady Summer ..... Doris Crandall Spring ..... Lucille Gabriel Spirit and Spring ..... Kathleen Proctor Rain ..... Mona Parsons Sun ..... Ellen Spencer Clouds ..... Muriel McBay, Beatrice Phillips, Phyllis Pollard, Doris Bagley, Mabel Grant, Leah McCallum, Jean Creighton, Constance Cann, Flowers ..... May Proctor, Ellen Dodge, Mabel Pollard, Nellie Colwell, Helen Thompson, Helen Simms, Mary Lusby, Hilda Kinsman.

Butterflies ..... Josephine Churchill, Hilda Wry, Doris Starratt, Dorothy Slipp, Kathleen Archibald, Muriel Turner. Science and Arts Exhibits.

At 8.30 Monday there was a household science and art exhibition in the Seminary chapel hall. The art exhibit was composed of basketry, drawings and paintings done by the students of the department under the supervision of Miss Warren. The household science exhibit in sewing consisted of the work done by the various classes of the seminary, together with that of grades six, seven and eight of the public schools of Wolfville.

The work in both these departments has been carried on this year with considerable success. It has been of a high grade and the interest manifested by the students is indeed worthy of comment.

SMOKE MACDONALD'S INDEX LOOKS FOR IMPORTANT RAILWAY DEVELOPMENTS

Ottawa, May 26—It is understood that early developments in the railway situation are likely to follow Sir Robert Borden's return to the capital. Negotiations with the Grand Trunk management in London have been continuing since the appointment of a receiver for the G. T. F., and the taking over of the system by the government is anticipated in railway circles. According to the reports here today the government has made new proposals which the London management is disposed to accept.

TO TURN OVER HOLLAND'S VESSELS AT DUTCH PORTS

New York, May 26—All of the requisitioned Dutch shipping, amounting to sixty-seven vessels, of 418,420 tons, now in the service of the United States will be turned over to its owners in Holland and not in American ports, it was announced here today.

Hoped to See St. John First

The speaker said he did not criticise the present system in the schools of the province but thought it inadequate and should be supplemented by such instruction as would fit the ninety-five per cent. of the children who would eventually enter industrial trades to carry on their life work for the greater benefit to themselves and the community. He referred to the alarming way in which attendance in the higher grades decreased, saying that the economic loss through non-attendance was serious in the extreme. He had hoped to see St. John take the lead in establishing a vocational school, but Woodstock had claimed that honor.

Mr. Magee explained what the proposed federal grant would give the province for vocational training, stating that $81,000 was already available from this source if the province would spend a like amount, and that twenty-five per cent. of this grant could be used for buildings. What he hoped to see established, he said, was vocational schools throughout the province in the larger centres and graduates from these schools going to a central institution in connection with the University of New Brunswick, and also a propaganda started to have 1,500 scholars in the night schools in St. John this winter. A democratic type of education was needed where bookkeeping, mechanics, navigation and all practical trades could be taught free and advocated the employment of the teachers in the now existing technical schools. He gave statistics showing how vocational training had improved school attendance in other cities and concluding said that if the importance of the matter were fully realized action would be prompt. He was most emphatic in his assertion that it should be prompt.

Aims of Training

Prof. Peacock, following Mr. Magee, said that the main object of vocational education was to give every boy and girl an equal chance in life and that it aimed not only to make all economically

VOCATIONAL TRAINING HERE IS ENDORSED

Important Action Taken at Citizen's Meeting—Committee to Follow up Matter.

"Whereas, under the act of legislature relating to vocational training, passed in 1918, it is provided that any city or municipality makes provision for such training, the province will pay half of the cost of conducting such a school or classes; and

"Whereas, it is estimated that with an initial expenditure of $5,000 a good beginning could be made in St. John, looking to the eventual establishment of a thoroughly equipped vocational school;

"Therefore resolved, that this meeting appeal to the city council to make the necessary grant, and ask the board of school trustees to appoint the necessary training board as provided by the act; also, that as time is an important element in the case the council and board be urged to take action with the least possible delay;

"And further resolved, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the council and board."

The above resolution was passed with enthusiastic unanimity at a meeting last evening in the board of trade rooms, when His Worship Mayor Hayes occupied the chair and representatives of the eighteen influential organizations in the city were present. The only criticism offered to the resolution was that the amount mentioned was not sufficient. Fred Magee, chairman of the committee appointed by the provincial government to report on vocational training in the province, and Prof. Fletcher Peacock, provincial director of vocational training, each delivered most able and explicit addresses on the subject.

Mr. Magee dwelt on the need of fitting future citizens to compete in the industrial world with those of other nations through adequate vocational training. He outlined the work done by the committee of which he is chairman which had resulted in the passing of an act in the provincial parliament providing for the administration of vocational training in schools, the appointment of a vocational education board, the co-operation between towns and between towns and counties and the contribution of the government of fifty per cent. of the maintenance of schools established under the act. This act had been passed unanimously by both sides of the house and questionnaires in the province had endorsed it.

He said that he did not criticise the present system in the schools of the province but thought it inadequate and should be supplemented by such instruction as would fit the ninety-five per cent. of the children who would eventually enter industrial trades to carry on their life work for the greater benefit to themselves and the community. at that age had just found the opportunities of his calling.

The ideal which Professor Peacock held out was a vocational training that should be half practical and half devoted to instruction in civics, commercial and political history, music and literature. An all-round education, he maintained, was the birthright of every citizen. It was said that it might be difficult to get pupils to attend, but once the project was started he thought the state might even compel, if necessary, its boys and girls to attend.

A. M. Belding then presented the resolution asking for action by the city council and school board, which was seconded by Mr. Potts, who said no more fitting peace monument could be presented to the citizens of St. John than a vocational school and suggested that many would be willing to contribute to such a project. W. P. Hatheway in speaking in favor of the resolution, said that the institution be taken over as part of the school system. He said business men and employers of skilled labor needed trained workers and that the country must tax itself to do justice to those who could not afford to pay for their training. He asked if any action had been taken by the board of trade by the committee of the manufacturers, R. B. Emerson, Rev. R. P. McKim, Dr. H. S. Bridges each endorsed the resolution. Amount Too Small.

L. P. D. Tilley thought the amount mentioned in the resolution was so small as to cripple all efforts along vocational lines and Mr. Belding explained that the amount had been fixed as one likely to be forthcoming, saying that it was intended the $5,000 should go first towards the salary of an expert who would study the situation in relation to the vocational training system most suited to the industries of St. John, and the remainder of the sum should be spent on night schools for working girls and boys to further fit them for their trades. The intention was to eventually work up to pre-vocational training, up to the eighth grade, and finally to the establishment of a vocational school. He thought it would be hard to raise large amounts of money by subscription at the present time, and pointed out that London (Ont.), had started its vocational school with an almost identical initial expense and last year had gladly given $20,000 for its support.

P. C. Sharkey, as the representative of the Trades and Labor Council, suggested that more representatives of labor should be placed on the board considering vocational training. Dr. A. F. Boney, chairman of the school board, explained that the board must await action of the city council in the matter and Mayor Hayes said he understood the action which the council had taken previously was not in order and he went on to say that one-quarter of the city's assessment is already absorbed by the schools and that only one-quarter is under the direction of the council. The council, he said, the servant of the city and if taxes were paid pleasantly and promptly the council was quite willing to do with them as the city pleased.

R. B. Emerson and Rev. Dr. Hubkinson moved and seconded the hearty vote of thanks extended to Mr. Magee and Professor Peacock, and on motion of E. L. Rising, carried unanimously. The chair appointed the following a permanent committee to follow up the matter of the resolution passed and to give the advancement of vocational training interests their constant attention: W. K. Ganong, Fred A. Campbell, A. H. Wetmore, Mrs. T. N. Vincent, A. M. Belding, L. W. Simms, George R. Melvin, W. S. Fisher, George P. Hennessy, Mrs. R. J. Hooper, W. F. Burditt, Major Johnston, Mrs. J. W. V. Lawlor, P. W. Thomson and P. W. Daniel.

Sidelights On Sport

Unfavorable weather conditions yesterday caused the postponement of the official opening of the St. John Baseball League and as a result many fans were keenly disappointed. The weather man does not offer a much better variety today and unless a change takes place another postponement will be necessary. If conditions are favorable St. Peter's and Fairville will clash.

It is five years since teams representing St. Peter's and Fairville met. At that time the Royals of Fairville clinched the championship of their league at Pirene's Park and the Thistles won the honors in St. Peter's League. In the play-off the Fairville boys won. Hansen was on the mound for Fairville and pitched a double-header, winning both his games. This evening he will in all probability be at the firing end for St. Peter's with Joe Dever as his battery mate.

wild pitch was Detroit's record yesterday. What if a team in the St. John Baseball League did that? Even such men as Johnson, Alexander and Ruhl can go wild sometimes, and men of Cobb's calibre make errors.

Buffalo and Toronto had a great battle yesterday. Sixteen innings seems to be a breaking point in many extra-inning contests. Bobby Heck, Toronto's crack left-hander, is showing up well this season.

Pfeffer is out in front of the National League pitchers, having seven straight victories to his credit.

Dr. Lawlor is being held accountable for the poor condition of the Red Sox pitching staff, but it is hard to expect a trainer to keep a man in condition if he is out for a good time. Some pitchers are hard to handle.

Joe Bush, better known as "Bullet Joe," is having trouble this season with his shoulder. He is consulting a specialist and hopes to be able to start pitching in the near future. The Red Sox would welcome Bush's return to the fold.

The formal opening of the golf season in Canada took place on last Saturday. It is estimated that there are 60,000 golfers in the dominion. An international match is to take place in Hamilton, Ont., on July 25 and twelve stars from the United States are to participate. St. John should have a representative at this event.

The latest batting averages of the big leagues shows Cravath leading in the National. The Philadelphia slugger had played in fourteen games, was at bat thirty-two times and secured seventeen hits for a percentage of .531.

In the American League Wamsburg of Cleveland is the leader. He played in twenty-two games, was at bat eighty-five times, secured thirty-three hits for a percentage of .388.

Jacobson, who formerly played with the Marathons, is well up in the list. He is now with the St. Louis club and has taken part in sixteen games, was at bat fifty-one times and secured nineteen hits for a percentage of .373.

FRED CAMERON IS LOCATED IN MONTREAL

Famous Nova Scotia Long Distance Runner Says He is Through With the Game—Ran in St. John, Real Discoverer of Joe Ray

(Gloucester Gazette.) Fred Cameron of Amherst, a Nova Scotian, so well known in St. John, who won the Boston marathon in 1910, later ran in professional races in Canada and still later coached the track athletes of the Illinois A. C., is now in Montreal to locate permanently. Cameron says he is through as an athlete and any time he dons the spiked shoes in future it will be only for an exciting mile or two.

Cameron went to Boston almost unknown nine years ago, when the Boston classic was at the height of its fame, and attracted runners from all over the country. He was hardly heard from in the preliminary trials, but when the race came off he breezed along from start to finish in front of the cream of the continent's stoutest hearted racers and won in a romp.

Cameron, as coach of the Illinois A. C., is the real discoverer of Joe Ray, that wonderful little middle distance runner who is almost weekly setting a new record for the mile or twoabouts.

"To my mind Ray is the greatest miler of all time and he never has had a chance to prove it," said Cameron. "I never have seen a man who could compare with him in speed, form and stamina. Ray is so good that if Norman Taber can run a mile in 4:12.5, the world's record, then Joe can do 4:10. He is a few seconds better than the best."

"My reason for saying that Ray is a hard-luck runner is that he never has had a race where he has had a field good enough to push him and at the same time had the conditions just right. Consequently Ray has no record that will make him stand out in the books in after years as the great miler he is."

"Ray first came into national prominence in 1915 at the A. A. U. championships, which were held that year in conjunction with the Panama Pacific Exposition in San Francisco. At that time he beat some of America's greatest milers, but he never was given the credit he deserved. There was a strong wind the day of the race and most of those who saw the event figured that Ray's victory was a freak."

"Norman Taber had just established his world's record, which he set up with the aid of pacers and he was the favorite for the event. It was believed that the only other man capable of beating the former Oxford runner was Kiviat. Ray was figured among the leaders."

Ray showed his heels to both the stars, but the time was slow because of the weather and his victory was discounted because Taber recently had set the record.

"The field and conditions in the inter-allied meet, which will be held in France some time in June, probably will be right for a new record, but here again Joe is out of luck. He has been doing shipyard work and never went into the service. He has been doing shift work for many years." Cameron may be found with Vickers soon, and if so will coach some of the firm's athletic teams.

RICKARD GETS AFTER WILLARD

Summons Him To Toledo, Saying He is Over Time Limit

Toledo, Ohio, May 27—Falling to receive an official word from Jess Willard concerning his departure from Los Angeles, Tex Rickard today telegraphed the champion requesting him to start for Toledo immediately. Rickard asked Willard to abandon a proposed stop for a day at his home in Lawrence, Kansas.

"Willard agreed to be here six weeks in advance of the contest," Rickard said, "and that time is past. He asked for a few days in which to attend to personal affairs on the coast and I consented, but I think he has delayed his departure long enough. It is time that he should be on the ground and in training."

Orders for seat reservations continue to swamp the promoters. A String Contest Bridgeport, Conn., May 27—Larry Williams of this city and Kid Norfolk, both lightweights, fought eight rounds to a draw here last night. The battle was the most furious ever witnessed in a local arena. Norfolk showed decided superiority in the in-fighting but at long range Williams was easily the better. Norfolk had the early rounds, Williams taking the sixth by a wide margin and the seventh and eighth.

Major Gen. Hamilton presided at the meeting. The speakers included Sir Thomas Myles, a well-known surgeon and officers and non-commissioned officers who served in the war.

New York, 4; Pittsburgh, 3.
New York, May 26—New York defeated Pittsburgh in the first game of the series here today by a score of 4 to 3. Cooper, of Pittsburgh, lost the game in the third inning when he lost control, and issued three bases on balls. His fumble, and a sacrifice fly netted New York two runs. Benton, of the Giants, was well supported with men on the bases. The score:

A Wonderful Cast

New York, May 26—A. R. Hanners, a local angler, yesterday equalled the world's record cast for a four-ounce distance fly in the second day of the annual bait and fly casting tournament of the Angler's Club of New York, held on the big lake in Central Park. Hanners, in one of his trials, accomplished a cast of ninety-six feet, equalling the mark held jointly by himself and John S. Schwinn of Newark.
The event was conducted on a handicap basis and was won by Hanners, who competed from scratch. The local angler also captured premier prizes in the accuracy fly test and the five-ounces of an ounce fisherman's distance bait event.

RING

Negro to Help Dempsey.

Toledo, Ohio, May 26—Because of the danger of an injury to his hands, Jack Dempsey, who is to meet Jess Willard in a heavyweight championship battle here July 4, probably will drop baseball from his training programme.
The challenger engaged in a game today, and Tex Rickard, promoter of the contest, wore a worried look every time Dempsey tried to pick up a bouncer or stabbed the air in fielding fly balls. Rickard fears that Dempsey might break a finger if struck with a swiftly batted ball.
Bill Tate, a giant negro heavyweight from New York, joined the challenger's camp today, and he looks like a valuable addition. He is six feet five inches tall, just an inch shorter than Willard, weighs 286 pounds in ring tows, and has a reach an inch and a half longer than that possessed by the champion.
Rickard today ordered two sets of especially handmade five-ounce boxing gloves for the championship battle from a San Francisco maker, who has made a number of similar gloves for the boxing gloves for twenty-five years.
Dempsey Going East.
Toledo, O., May 26—Boxing with the speed and dash of a lightweight, Jack Rickard today stepped four rounds with Bill Tate, his giant negro sparring partner, in the fastest workout the challenger has had since he began training.
May 26—(By the Associated Press)—Grand Goddard tonight beat Jack Curphy, in the tenth round of a twenty-round contest for the heavyweight championship of Great Britain and the Lord Londsdale belt.

In addition to other local dogs which distinguished themselves at the Montreal show, Gerald McCarthy's English setter bitch won novice limited, open, Canadian bred and was the winner for the best English setter bitch in the show.

De Palma To Meet Speed Kings

Indianapolis, May 24—Ralph De Palma has thrown his hat into the ring for a finish battle with the octet of European speed celebrities that is threatening to Wagner the Indianapolis 500-mile Liberty Motor Speedway, May 31. The famous Italo-American arrived in Indianapolis with the aviation motored car in which he recently shattered all con-competitive speedway records of from one to six hours, and declared himself ready to take on the entire European speed delegation, if need be, single handed.
De Palma's skill in driving the Indianapolis saccor is admittedly superior to that of any other driver in the world, as he conclusively demonstrated when, in 1915, he vanquished the great Dario Keck at the wheel of a slower car; and with a fair break in the luck, he may be expected to bring home championship honors for America.
Another American speed celebrity who has put in his appearance to give battle to the foreign invaders is Earl Cooper, American road racing champion in 1918 and 1919.
With the arrival in Indianapolis of Andre Bolliot, Paul Bahlot, and Louis Wagner, the European field in the International Sweepstakes is now complete. The others of the foreign contingent, Jean Chassagne, Dario Keck, Jules Troux, Rene Thomas, and Albert Guyot, have been in training at the track for some time and are already in shape for the big grind.

CANADIAN OFFICERS DINED IN EDINBURGH

Capital City of Scotland Honors Militia of Dominion — Major-General Watson Refers to Officers of Scottish Descent.

London, May 26—(Reuter's)—During the visit to Edinburgh of the Canadian troops, the officers of the contingent were entertained at a dinner by the corporation in the council chambers. The Lord provost, who presided, in proposing the health of the guests, said it would have been a great disappointment if the great Canadian army had returned to Canada without receiving from the people of Scotland, in the capital city, an expression of their homage and a recognition of their unappreciated services.

UNIVERSITIES TO ASK FOR FEDERAL AID FOR SOLDIERS TO CARRY ON THEIR STUDIES

Ottawa, May 27—Representatives of universities in all parts of Canada will request the federal government to grant financial aid to soldiers who have served abroad to enable them to continue their studies. The suggestion is that the dominion should assist the young men to return to their schools and colleges by enabling them to meet the cost of their maintenance and their fees.

FEEDING STUFFS VARIABLE

When it becomes necessary for a stock raiser or dairy farmer to purchase feeding stuffs it is important that he has a reasonably accurate knowledge of the relative feeding value of the feeds that are available. Bulletin No. 36, Second Series, of the Dominion Experimental Farms, obtainable from the Publications Branch of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa, states that while many of the well known feeds have been kept up to their standard quality there have been upon the market not a few that are exceedingly poor, some practically worthless, and these sold at prices, little, if anything, below those of feeds far superior in nutritive value.

PRICES TO STAY UP, KAHN BELIEVES

Holds That War Has Brought New Levels Which Must Be Recognized

Finds Currency Inflated—Asserts Elements Which Make for Lower Prices Will Take Years to Return to Normal

Washington, May 27—The department of labor has made public a letter received by Secretary of Labor Wilson from Otto H. Kahn of New York in which the banker expressed the belief that prices will not be materially lowered for a considerable period of years, if at all, and that for all practical purposes at least the war has brought a new level of prices, the existence of which must be recognized.

"Prices are determined in the main by the volume of production, of consumption, and (probably more than by either of these,) of the circulating medium, i.e., currency, bank credits, etc."

"1. Production. After the Civil War, the return of prices to the pre-war level, though it took thirteen years to accomplish, was immensely aided by the development of entirely novel methods of production in the shape of new forms of machinery and new kinds of business organizations. No one will seriously contend that the possibility of the immediate future for increased efficiency or novel methods in production and distribution are likely even to approach those which came between 1865 and 1890—a period which marked the transformation of our entire business structure from hand methods to machine methods, from 'bound methods' to 'tonnage methods'."

"2. Consumption. In view of the vast destruction wrought by the war and now to be made good by reconstruction, and in view of the accumulation of the demand for many things which could not be supplied during the war, demand in many fundamental lines is bound to be large and urgent for some time to come."

"3. Circulating medium. The credit expansion and currency inflation of the leading countries of the world, including our own, during the past five years has been on an entirely unprecedented scale. The process of contraction and deflation, to the extent that it is possible and likely to be approved by public opinion, will take many years."

BUSINESS VIEWED BY EXPERT

A tip to middle western points in the United States and talks with all sorts and conditions of people yields the following impressions and conclusions: First—In most districts, including even the larger cities, work is available for every man who wants a job. Indeed, the almost universal complaint is that capable, steady workers cannot be had.

Second—There is a veritable housing famine in nearly every city, including such diverse centers as Chicago and Indianapolis, a famine as acute as in New York City.

Third—Active preparations are under way to launch what promises to prove an unprecedented building boom, the conclusion having been reached by architects, builders and others that the cost of materials is not likely to drop drastically in the near future.

Fourth—Retail business is reported as being active, although most manufacturers find that buyers are holding off wherever possible.

Fifth—The country's supply of food animals is the largest in its history and farmers are waxing rich from the unparalleled prices they are receiving for logs and cattle, as well as for their wheat and other grains. Everywhere the agricultural community are evidencing signs of great prosperity.

Sixth—Whatever fears may have been felt concerning the danger of widespread appearance of Bolshevism, I. W. W.-ism and like revolts that the cost of materials is not likely to drop drastically in the near future.

Chief Sea Scout On Burning Ship

James A. Wilder Has Narrow Escape on the Virginia

New York, May 27—One of the passengers on the ill-fated steamer Virginia of the Old Bay Line was James A. Wilder, chief sea scout of the Boy Scouts of America. Mr. Wilder was rescued, taken to Baltimore on the steamer Florida, and got back to New York wearing a coat and trousers over his pajamas. He lost all his baggage.

"Fortunately," said Mr. Wilder, "we were about at the point where we should meet the up-bound boats when the fire started. The water was quite rough, and two of the lifeboats loaded with passengers turned turtle after leaving the side of the burning vessel. But the bluejackets handled the matter so skillfully that all were picked up and taken safely aboard the rescuing vessels."

"There was no confusion and little noise. I am proud of the way those white women behaved under the circumstances. When I got on deck the whole amidships—the fire broke out not far from the engine room—was blazing. The engineer was unable to get into the engine room to start the pumps, so there was nothing to do but abandon the boat as speedily as possible."

"When the alarm was sounded I got out of my bunk, seized the best coat and trousers I had with me, put on my cap and overcoat, and went aloft. I noticed a naval patrol boat at some distance, which apparently had seen that we were burning and had given the alarm, for as we steamed away after the rescue I could see vessels of various kinds headed for the Virginia."

"As the fire was amidships, the passengers aboard were sent forward and aft. The crew was busy getting out the boats and calming the fears of the passengers. I must say the crew and officers behaved admirably. When Commander Pigeon and his men came, seemingly by consent he and Mr. Williams took charge. The manner in which they

Growing Garden Seeds

Circular No. 17 of the Dominion Experimental Farms shows that seed of most varieties of vegetables can be grown at home of as good or better quality than is the imported seed. To insure having good seed, however, it should be produced from the best plants of the crop rather than from those which happen to be left unused. This publication which is entitled "Every Gardener's Own Seed Grower," is obtainable from the Publication Branch of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa and tells how to grow, select, and care for seeds of such garden crops as beans, corn, cucumbers, egg plants, lettuce, melons, parsley, peppers, peas, radishes, tomatoes, and some other crops.
