Eastern Sicily Rent By Earthquake; Hundred Or More People Are Killed; Volcano is Active

Panic Stricken Sicilians Flee From The Angry Aetna; Spend Night In Fields and Churches

RAILWAY WRECKED; FREIGHT CARS ARE LIFTED AS IF BY A GIGANTIC HAND

Two Towns Completely Destroyed; Hundreds of Homes in Others Wrecked; Villages Are Devastated—Volcano Threatens to Make Disaster Worse

Naples, May 9.—A series of violent earthquakes in eastern Sicily have killed many persons and destroyed or wrecked several villages. The disturbances, which began last night, about ten o'clock, continued today. The volcano Aetna is becoming active and there are fears of an overwhelming eruption.

Communication was interrupted by the quake and it was not until today that the full seriousness of the disaster was learned. The property damage is vast, running into millions. There were three heavy shocks followed by intermittent undulations. The greatest force was spent near the villages of Acireale, Lincera and Manganu. Lincera was destroyed, and many persons there were caught beneath falling debris and killed or injured.

A despatch from Messina said that forty persons had been killed and forty injured at Lincera. Another message said that thirty had been killed and 120 injured at Acireale. At Manganu a passenger train was derailed and many persons were hurt.

People Flee From Mt. Aetna

Within two hours after the first shock flames gathered at the crater of Mount Aetna and the rumbling in the interior of the volcano increased.

At dawn today great clouds of black smoke could be seen rolling upward from the mountain, obscuring the sky. Many persons in hamlets upon the side of the mountain, left their homes in fright. The district hit by the earthquake shocks is thickly populated.

Acireale has a population of 27,000, Catania province, in which the main force of the tremors centred, has suffered more from earthquake than probably any other region on the globe.

The state railway of Sicily was wrecked near Acireale, part of the wreckage being hurled 700 feet into the air by the terrific force of the quake. Trains were derailed and heavy freight cars were lifted upward as though by some gigantic hand. As soon as the government learned of the extent of the disaster, special trains were rushed into Syracuse, and other cities, bearing physicians, medical supplies and soldiers, who will work the relief work.

A despatch from Catania says that the people of that city were panic stricken by the earth tremors and many of them rushed from their homes and spent the night in the fields or upon their knees in the cathedrals. The shocks were also felt at Messina, where memorial services for that city in 1908, still lingered vividly.

Say 100 Killed

Acireale, Sicily, May 9.—At least 100 persons were killed and as many more injured as a result of the terrific earthquake which shook a score of towns and villages in this section, last night.

Reports of dead and injured poured in every effort was being made to care for refugees. The village of Bougiardo alone reports ten dead and twenty injured. Two towns with a population of 1,000 or more, were completely destroyed. Hundreds of houses in other towns were wrecked.

Acireale, a seaport town, is well built on a height at the base of Mount Aetna, and every road leading to the city today was choked with sobbing, praying refugees fleeing from their homes.

Lincera, with a population of 900, and Veneria, a town of 2,190, were completely destroyed. Hundreds of houses were wrecked in the villages of Zerbatis, Pennisica, Belpasso, Maria, Vergine, Mangana and Zaffarano. The entire population of a hundred villages at the base of the volcano had deserted the towns today, and fled to the open country, fearing a disastrous eruption of the volcano as well as further earthquakes.

Before every way-side shrine, priests gathered, besting with hundreds of refugees who petitioned the intervention of the Virgin Mary in the calamity falling upon them.

HUERTA DECLARES HE WILL NEITHER RESIGN NOR FLEE

Sees Danger of War Outbreak at Vera Cruz—Refugees Tell Different Tale and Say He is Within Few Days of The End

Mexico City, May 9.—General Huerta has no intention of resigning or resorting to flight.

In statements to newspaper men in conversation with his advisers, and in every movement in his direction of affairs, the dictator made this clear today. He indicated that it would be no surprise to him, if some incident at Vera Cruz, under present conditions, brought on actual war before peace negotiations are fairly under way.

Vera Cruz, Mexico, May 9.—General Navarrete, the Federal commander now at Jalapa, has mounted many guns at Cerro Gordo, to resist any American advance on Mexico City. If the American troops are obliged to march on the capital, Cerro Gordo is expected to be the place where the Mexicans will make their main stand.

Torreon, Mexico, May 9.—Troops are being rushed to the front as rapidly as possible and only await the bringing up of heavy artillery and supplies before the attack on Saltillo is begun. The advance is steady and the investment is rapidly approaching completion. Villa expects to have 20,000 men against something more than 15,000 Federals in Saltillo. General Carranza arrived in Torreon last night.

Belive Huerta Near End.

Vera Cruz, May 9.—President Huerta has mined the streets of his capital. If he is overthrown, he plans to wreck the city, making the world gasp at the catastrophe that marks his downfall. This is the amazing story brought here by Oscar Bruin, a prominent mining man of Oaxaca. Huerta has reason to prepare for the end, said Mr. Bruin today, for he is hemmed in on all sides. He has stopped drinking in the afternoon.

Fleeing to the Americans, who are the only ones who will spare his life, or dying in the ruins of his capital or at the hands of a rebel firing squad are his alternatives. Most of the refugees believe his fate will be determined within a week.

WANT ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY TO ATTEND CONGRESS IN TORONTO

Invitation Early to That Plan May Be Arranged—Heavy Welcome Assured

Toronto, May 9.—Invitations have been sent by the committee of arrangements to the Archbishop of Canterbury and other members of the Upper House of the Church of England, to attend the church congress and opening of St. Albans cathedral next year. The reason for the invitations are being sent at this early date, was that the clergy invited are of such eminence that their arrangements have to be made many months in advance.

The Archbishop of Canterbury will be re-elected to Canada with great heartiness, if his engagements will permit his acceptance of the invitation.

The previous church congress in Canada, held in Halifax, was attended by two bishops from Great Britain, those of London and Glasgow, and a larger representation of the British Episcopal is expected at the congress here.

COMES HOME TO FIND BRIDE LOCKED IN THE HOUSE, DRESS AFIRE

Young Manchester Woman Seriously Burned and May Die

Manchester, N. H., May 9.—While pouring kerosene onto a coal fire in her kitchen stove, Mrs. Oclava Duperron, twenty-seven years old, was seriously burned as she was preparing supper for her husband, to whom she was married a few months ago.

With the first outpouring a flame leaped from the fire, and catching the house dress of Mrs. Duperron, enveloped her in fire. Struggling to extinguish the flames with her hands and shouting for aid, Mrs. Duperron sought to open the kitchen door, which she had kept locked during the absence of her husband.

When Mr. Duperron returned from work he heard her screams and rushed to the kitchen door found it locked. Throwing his weight against the door several times he succeeded in breaking it open and found his bride on the floor with her clothes ablaze.

She was taken to Notre Dame Hospital, where it was said that she would probably die.

Men and Women of Mexican Army Ready to Fight America

Mexican federals are a queer lot of soldiers from the eyes of an American. They take their fighting as naturally as a duck takes water and as easily. They take their time in their campaign as in their living. The men are always accompanied by the women, who act as general housekeepers for the camp. Here is a typical view of men and women in the Mexican army.

SWEPT OVER NIAGARA

Unknown Man in Small Boat Goes Over Horseshoe Falls to Death

Niagara Falls, Ont., May 9.—Resigned to his fate after an almost superhuman effort to reach the Canadian shore, an unknown man was swept to his death over the Horseshoe Falls in a small boat. His plight was not discovered by those on shore until he was well into the danger zone and any effort to rescue him would have been futile.

When first seen he was probably 250 feet out and had his boat pointed toward the Canadian shore at an angle of about 45 degrees. He was rowing frantically.

When the boat was probably 100 feet from the brink the man rose to his feet and waved to those on the shore, throwing both arms out and upward. He held them in this position as the boat reached the brink and toppled over into the basin below, carrying its victim to his death. When he abandoned hope of self rescue the unknown let go his oars and sat in the boat watching its course towards inevitable death.

Soon fragments of the boat were seen floating about in the basin below the falls.

MATHIESON TO THE FEDERAL CABINET?

P. E. Island Rumors of a Political Shuffle

HE IS ISLAND PREMIER

A. A. McLean May Get a Judgeship and Provide Him Seat in Ottawa House—Hon. W. S. Stewart Likely New Leader of P. E. I. Government

(Special to Times)

Charlottetown, P. E. I., May 9.—There is a widely circulated report here, apparently based on a good foundation that Premier Mathieson will soon abandon provincial politics to take up federal. The moves on the political checker-board which will probably be made to bring this about, are said to be as follows:

Dr. Roche, the present minister of the interior, will retire; Arthur Lynn, solicitor general, will take his place, and Premier Mathieson will take the solicitor generalship. A federal constituency must be found for Mr. Mathieson. This will be provided by the resignation of one of the present Conservative members for Queens, A. A. McLean. He will likely get something more permanent than an M.P.'s job, and the nearest thing in sight is a county judgeship. There seems to be no doubt that whatever other arrangement is made, Mr. Mathieson will, in the course of a few weeks, retire from the leadership of the local Conservative party.

The man spoken of as his successor is Hon. W. S. Stewart, who was acting premier in his stead, during Mr. Mathieson's absence on one of his delegations to Ottawa.

NEW LIBRARY BULLETIN

Bulletin No. 2, volume 8 of the new Free Public Library series has been issued by Miss Martin, the valued librarian. It is, as its predecessor, arranged on the decimal system, which makes for better results. This bulletin is of seventy-seven closely printed pages. It is methodically arranged under such classification as books relating to Canada; geography, description and travel; literature; biography; history; fiction, etc. Of the books relating to Canada, some are very valuable additions to the library, and some have special claim to St. John attention. They include lectures given by Dr. Silas Alward, K. C., before the students of King's College Law School; L. Sabine's "Loyalists of the American Revolution"; reports of the commission of Conservation; writings by John and James M. Macoun; catalogue of paintings, drawings, etc., from the National Art Gallery of Canada; "One Thousand Facts About Canada," issued by the Agricultural Department of Canada; Dr. A. A. Stockton's vice-admiralty court digest and cases; "The Ananurath," a magazine conducted by Robert Shives; "Recollections of Sixty Years in Canada," Sir Charles Tupper; "Ancient York Mason" in British America, by James Vroom; "Review of Historical Publications in Canada," by G. M. and W. S. Wallace, the Year Book of Canada, 1870, and Rules and Forms of the Canadian Patents Office.

It has been well said by a prominent librarian that "a public library is the greatest civic institution supported by the people which is designed for the instruction and pleasure of all the people; young and old, without age limits; rich and poor, without class limit; educated and uneducated, without culture limit; its function being to instruct and benefit. There is positively no limit to the things which a public library can legitimately do in carrying out its purpose except the limitations of financial resources."

BANK ELEVATOR IS GIVEN SEVERE TEST

An interesting test was made on the new elevator in the Bank of British North America building one day this week. It was what is known as the "drop test" to try the safety brake on the car in case it broke loose from the cable which supports it.

In the test the cable was set loose and the car was suspended near the top of the shaft by a manilla rope. A ton weight was placed in the elevator and the rope cut with an axe. In spite of the fact that the car was dropping at the rate of 800 feet a minute, at which speed the safety appliance is tripped, it was brought to a gradual stop after going but fourteen feet. The test was a complete success and the elevator is now ready for the power to be turned on and the car put into commission.

A TAILORED MOIRE.

up with unanimous enthusiasm, and their lead has been followed on this side of the Atlantic, with the result that tailored costumes either developed or trimmed with moire are prominently presented in the new spring and summer fashions.
Four yards of 44-inch material will make this design, and, as moire ranges in price from $1.50 a yard, the cost of the dress may be limited to the income of the owner.
Today's lesson deals principally with the making of the little coat, because it may be made in any favored material and worn separately. To cut it, the pieces with the triple "T" perforations are laid on a lengthwise fold of the goods and the remaining pieces with line of large "O" perforations on a lengthwise thread of the material.
Now, for the making. Pleat lower edge of the front, placing "T" on small "o" perforations and tack. Center-front indicated by double "oo" perforations. Join front and back sections as notched. Slash back on lines of three small "oo" perforations; finish edges for openings to pass pleated ribbon through, tie in front.
Adjust collar to position underneath front and stitch along single small "oo" perforations, bringing single large "O" and double small "o" perforations in collar and in front together; tack extension at upper edge back to position, notches even. Close sleeve and cuff seams as notched. Sew cuff to sleeve, notches and seams even. Sew in armhole as notched.
The skirt is high waisted, and finished with a wide girde of soft satin, which is fastened at the waist.

Daily Hints For the Cook

Rice or Tapioca Custard Pudding
Boil 1-3 cup of rice in plenty of water; when cooked, pour into a strainer. Put the strainer that holds the cooked rice under the cold water faucet, turning it over gently by shaking sieve. Butter your baking dish well, toss the cooked rice in dish, add 1 pint of milk, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoonfuls of sugar, nutmeg to taste and 3 well-beaten eggs. Stir up. Put into oven, with indicator at 205 degrees or in a very slow oven, so it cannot boil, as it turns watery if it boils in oven. Stir in the beginning until it begins to curdle, then leave it alone until done, only turn it round so it will brown all over.
Use 1-8 cup pearl tapioca in place of rice, soaked over night in plenty of water. Drain off in the morning, then add custard and bake same as rice pudding.

A TRIBUTE TO JAMES LOWELL

While general expressions of regret are forthcoming from all directions at the death of James Lowell, no locality or people feel his loss as keenly as does Lancaster, where his labors were more abundant not only as councillor for the parish but as citizen and friend.

Every one in the community knew him, his genial manner and good fellowship breaking down all formality, and not the slightest difference was noticed in his attitude from the time he became councillor until the electors respected in him their trust as a member of the provincial legislature; he was the same offhand friend to all, election or no election.

Some have asked the secret of his success in the county, and it may be of interest for a resident to express an opinion after following his career through several campaigns, as well as in the time between.

Mr. Lowell was first a man, and afterwards a politician. Many reverse the order and so may well question how such signal success could be his. An opponent in political matters to Mr. Lowell need never have feared the next day after election or at any time later to meet him, ask his advice, or greater still, his aid, for there was no room for malice in his make-up.

Man after man in Lancaster can bear testimony to this, and his majorities over rivals were proof that many tax payers chafed as opponents by Mr. Lowell's own political party must have voted for the man they knew him to be, over the head of their own party, and without Mr. Lowell's knowledge, for both tory and gill, except in the election of 1911 when many issues conflicted, voted only one way, and that way was Lowell.

His generosity (never the so called charity) was proverbial in these parts. Few really were acquainted with the scope of his giving, and that is another sidelight on his big-hearted self.

Public weal seemed his hobby, and if the hours spent in committee or consultation writing and attending public duties were counted, the community would be surprised to learn how much of his life he had really given in their behalf.

Usually in the run of years one outstanding figure appears in every community whose record is difficult to attain. Such a personage was James Lowell to the race and to the people of the county, and he is mourned today sincerely, by many who will not even be able to attend his funeral, in grateful memory for all he had accomplished, and shown to be possible in one very, very human man.

RECENT WEDDINGS

The marriage of William Henry MacGowan, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. MacGowan, of this city, and Miss Jean Thompson Logan, of Amherst, was solemnized by Rev. F. G. Macintosh on Friday, May 1, at Sackville. Both bride and groom are residents of Amherst (N. S.).

The wedding of Frederick J. Maher, formerly of St. John, now of Edmonton, Alta., to Miss Katherine McGourty, also of this city, took place on April 29 in St. Mary's Cathedral, Calgary. Miss Rose Harvey of Calgary acted as bridesmaid and A. H. McGuire of St. John was the groomsmen. Rev. Dr. A. E. McDonald performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Maher will reside in Edmonton after a trip to Banff.

ANSWER THE QUESTION.

The attention of that high-minded and eminently judicial newspaper, the Standard, is directed to the fact that Mr. Borden and Mr. Hazen had not assented to the Gutelius agreement. The Standard's position would not have been in force last winter. The more than two columns of space which the Standard this morning devotes to a discussion of this subject does not obscure the fact that Mr. Borden and Mr. Hazen endorsed the Gutelius agreement. Will they endorse it again? That is the question asked by the Times yesterday, and to which the Standard offers no reply but abuse of this paper. Fortunately the attitude of Mr. Hazen cannot long be in doubt. A strong delegation is going to Ottawa, representing the city council, the board of trade, the trades and labor council and Fairville board of trade. The members of this delegation, most of whom are Conservatives, say that the Gutelius agreement must not be renewed. What does the Standard say about it? What does Mr. Hazen say? What does Mr. Borden say? Even if the Times were shown to be utterly unworthy of any consideration as a newspaper the facts concerning the Gutelius agreement remain, and when the test comes Mr. Hazen, Mr. Borden and the Standard must stand up to be counted. They are on trial just now, and not the Times and Telegraph.

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT.

In some cities of the United States the Chambers of Commerce are a great deal of interest in civic affairs and in matters relating to civic welfare generally, as well as those which relate to trade and industry. For example, the Chamber of Commerce in San Francisco, which was formed in 1911 by the consolidation of several organizations, has an inspection bureau which devotes its attention to public works. The bureau was started some years ago by an organization called the Merchants' Association, and was carried on later by what was called the Civil League of Improvement Clubs, and finally by the Chamber of Commerce. At the time the bureau was first established the city needed many public improvements, but the citizens were somewhat skeptical about bond issues, and it was for the purpose of reassuring the public that an inspection bureau was established. At first it had only one inspector, but since 1911 five have been employed most of the time, with an office staff in addition. All the expenses are paid by the Chamber of Commerce, and its officials inspect all public works in course of construction and report thereon to the Chamber, independent entirely of the civic authorities. The Chamber took the ground that the people should know how the city's money is being expended, and that there should be an independent means of getting the information; hence its inspectors watch the construction of schools and hospital buildings, sewers, the water and fire protection system, garbage disposal, the jail, street railway, etc., and submit reports every month, showing the status of every piece of work under construction, and giving comments and criticisms, as well as an audit of the moneys disbursed. If defects in any work are found, a protest is promptly entered. This appears to be an unnecessary bureau if the people have confidence in their civic rulers, but it would probably not have been established if the members of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce had not felt that it was necessary.

Another illustration of activity by a Chamber of Commerce comes from Atlanta, Georgia. The city was in great need of municipal improvements, but there was hesitation about entering upon the work. The Chamber of Commerce collected data, and showed conclusively the need for immediate construction of sewage disposal plants, a water works system, new schoolhouses and other civic improvements. Twenty-five members then investigated the question of a bond issue of three million dollars, and reported to the municipal authorities in favor of the issue. It was necessary, however, to obtain a two-thirds vote, and at the request of the municipal authorities the chamber conducted a campaign of education, with the result that while eighty-four per cent of the registered voters cast their ballots, only sixty-six persons voted against the bond issue. The Chamber of Commerce also assumed the expense of securing two members from the Municipal Research Bureau of New York, to investigate every branch of the city government and report to the municipal authorities, the report being published and distributed throughout the community.

Where the active members of the business community take so much interest in civic affairs, and work in co-operation with the constituted civic authorities, it is much easier to secure needed civic improvements and to better the living conditions in the community. There is too great a tendency, perhaps, to regard the civic government as a thing apart, and to expect it to do very much more than it is capable of doing unless actively supported and encouraged by the business community. Moreover, whatever makes for civic improvement and better living conditions is better for the business as well as the social interests of the city.

NEW COMMERCIAL DAILY.

Canada's new daily commercial journal, the Journal of Commerce, made its appearance on Tuesday. Hon. W. S. Fielding is the president and editor-in-chief, and Mr. J. C. Ross, M. A., the managing editor. It is announced that the paper will have its own special correspondents in every important centre in Canada, with leased wires to New York and special cable arrangements with London. In the leading article in the first issue the Journal of Commerce says:—"Up to the present time, Canada has never had a financial-commercial daily. Those back of the new enterprise believe that the time is ripe for the publication of such a paper in Canada. Many countries smaller in population and in resources than the Dominion have their own daily commercial papers. In Australia, the Daily Commercial News and Shipping Lists serves as a barometer for Australian commercial conditions; the Journal Do Commercio of Rio de Janeiro is doing a similar work for Brazil; in the United States there are almost a score of daily financial and commercial dailies, while in Great Britain, such papers as the Daily Journal of Commerce, of Liverpool and others of a similar nature have a world-wide reputation. Canada today has a yearly trade in excess of one billion dollars, while hundreds of millions of dollars of British and foreign capital is pouring into the country for investment. The country's banking institutions, her insurance companies, her investment houses, her transportation systems, her manufacturing industries and commercial houses compare favorably with those of any other country in the world. It is with the object of serving these that the present weekly Journal of Commerce is to be turned into a daily financial-commercial newspaper."

The Journal of Commerce is an eight page paper, and the first number is filled with very interesting news for business men. The fact that Mr. Fielding, who has been Canada's finance minister, and is also a trained newspaper man, is at the head of the new daily, is a guarantee of intelligent treatment of all questions relating to industry, trade and commerce, and financial questions in general. The Journal of Commerce will be heartily welcomed both in newspaper and business circles throughout Canada.

Of course the actor men could not do justice to the production on the baseball grounds yesterday. There was no heroine in the cast.

The record of the carriage of transatlantic mails as kept at Ottawa during the past winter shows that Halifax has no justification in that record for claiming an exclusive mail service.

There was a further decline in the revenue of Canada last month. The Borden government, however, does not show any indications of a policy of retrenchment, especially War-lord Hughes.

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy is not very optimistic in regard to business in Canada. He does not look for any great recovery until the fall, and a change then would be contingent upon a good crop. However, Sir Thomas regards the basic conditions of business as sound.

We are again informed that the Liberal party is anti-British and disloyal, and of course the information comes from friends and allies of the gentleman who boasted that his ancestors "shot holes in the British flag."

Congratulations to Mr. W. E. Hopper, formerly of the Times' staff, who has been promoted to the position of managing editor in Montreal for the McLean trade papers. Ability and industry have received a deserved recognition.

The observance of Mothers' Day is a pretty custom, and will no doubt be honored quite generally in St. John tomorrow. If it were daily honored the burden on many a heart would be much lighter. Unhappily it is too much the common habit of thought on the part of young people to give themselves up to pleasure, without much consideration of the burden so cheerfully borne by toiling mothers. It is also too much the habit of young people away from home to forget the mother who longs for word concerning them and their experience in life. The sweetest of human memories are those associated with mother love, and the home, however humble, of a childhood that knew the care of a good mother.

WILL TAKE LONG REST.

Frederick Gleaner—City Clerk J. W. McCready left on the steamer Victoria for St. John en route to Norton, where he will remain for an indefinite period. He was accompanied by Mrs. McCready. The city clerk's health since his return from Montreal has not shown any improvement and his physicians have considered it advisable that he take a long rest.

BIRTHDAYS OF NOTABILITIES

SATURDAY, MAY 9.

This is the natal day of President George C. Creelman, head of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, and one of the foremost agricultural educationalists in America. He was born in Collingwood, Ont., forty-five years ago and was among the first of the students of the institution over which he now presides. On graduation he went to the United States, where he became a professor in the Mississippi Agricultural College. Returning to Canada in 1897 he was made superintendent of farmers' institutes, a position which he filled most acceptably owing to the gentleness of his character. He was appointed to his present position just ten years ago. Big, jovial, whole-souled, he is the life of any party in which he is included, and through his abundant energy he is doing much for the improvement of Canadian agriculture.

Also born to-day:—Hon. W. A. Charlton, Toronto, born New York State, 1861.
W. S. Dingman, Stratford, born Lambton County, 1859.
J. J. McArthur, Ottawa, born Aylmer, P. E. 1866.
D. W. Robb, Amherst, N. S., born Amherst, 1856.

SUNDAY, MAY 10.

James William Tyrell, second of the three Tyrell brothers whose explorations in Northern Canada have been of great value to the country, was born fifty-one years ago today in Weston, Ont. He is by profession a civil engineer and on graduation became topographer of the Geological Survey of Canada. In 1885 he joined the Hudson Bay expedition as hydrographer and since then with his brother, J. B. Tyrell, he has been pretty well all over the interior of Northern Canada. The results of his journeys have been published in a book, the contents of which make exceedingly interesting reading. He now resides in Hamilton, where he carries on the business of a civil engineer.

Also born today:—Mabel K. Cowan, Toronto, born Blythwood, Ont., 1868.
S. H. Ewing, Montreal, born London-derry, Ireland, 1884.

Hearing a noise at the kitchen entrance the man of the house slipped quietly to the rear door and suddenly opened it. The grocer's delivery boy was there with a basket containing a dozen eggs, a pound of butter, and some Roquefort cheese.
"O, it's you, is it, Billy?" said the man. "My wife is always afraid I hear a noise here, especially at night it begins to grow dark. She thinks it's a robber."
"Well, she needn't change her mind on my account," gloomily responded the grocer's boy, handing over the goods and presenting the bill, which called for $1.78.

Heard in the post office: "Haven't you any post cards larger than these?" No wonder the clerk looked bored.

Decided where you're going for the 24th?

Some people are more familiar than ever this month with the old time fire-side anthem "Where, oh where, has my little dog gone?"

"D. T." is the inscription on the little metal shield they're giving when you get your dog's license this year. May remind some that they're going to the evicting "bow-wow."

When you're through with your neighbor's rake and shovel, take them back for he's probably anxious to clean his own yard, too.

We have all a Castle in Spain, but it's nothing like a Villa in Mexico.

Hon. Mr. Doherty introduced bill at Ottawa this week making it an indictable offence to publish advertising matter in which were statements of a falsifying nature. Would election cards be included?

Commissioner Potts says he'd like to do away with the old water-wagon, but there's many a man about town who's doing his damndest to cling fast.

"Maori chiefs call to see king" says news headline, which proves that the game of "bug" is popular with many races.

In these days, when the h. c. o. l. should be printed in caps, the scheme to save even a portion of the daylight should "listen well" to the owners of electric lights.

Maybe we're not stiff after that baseball game yesterday, MAYBE!

Ignorance of the fact that the name of the portly vessel usually usually decorates the life boats, in addition to the name of the craft to which they belong, led a prominent post office official into error the other day.

He was walking down the street with a friend when the latter noticed the St. George lying at the wharf. "What steamer is that?" the friend asked.

"That is the 'London,' said the post office man. "I saw her name on the bows of the life boats as I was going past the wharf yesterday."

A man who was arrested from drunkenness this week was found to have THIRTEEN dollars and THIRTEEN cents in his pocket. Is it any wonder he got in wrong?

Keep the Balance Up.

It has been truthfully said that any disturbance of the even balance of health causes serious trouble. Nobody can be too careful to keep this balance up. When people begin to lose appetite, or get tired easily, the least impudence brings on sickness, weakness, or debility. The system needs a tonic, craves it, and should not be denied it; and the best tonic of which we have any knowledge is Hood's Sarsaparilla. What this medicine has done in keeping healthy people healthy, in keeping up the even balance of health, gives it the same distinction as a preventive that it enjoys as a cure. Its early use has illustrated the wisdom of the old saying that a stitch in time saves nine. Take Hood's for appetite, strength, and endurance.

A hotel in Karlsruhe, Germany, was recently opened for the benefit of a single patron. It was a new hotel which was due to open within two months, but when Sir Edgar Speyer telegraphed that he was coming and wished to stop at the hotel, it was made ready and he alone occupied it until the regular opening.

A curious case of canine kidnapping occurred last week in Havrehill. A small Newfoundland puppy owned by John Mitchell escaped twice from its rope, each time returning after an interval. It was found that a full grown Newfoundland dog living near there, gnawed through the rope in order that the puppy might accompany him on a frolic.

GERMANY'S WAR LORD WOULD BE A KING OF TRADE; NEEDS MONEY

"The Kaiser is hard up. It is roughly estimated that the marriage of his daughter, his gifts to her and the entertaining of imperial and royal guests at her wedding cost him at least $1,000,000.

The war lord's private fortune has just been shuffed from Delbruck, Schleier Bank to the National Redebank. Delbruck, a great friend of His Majesty, committed suicide some time ago, when the firm's affairs came under the sole control of Schockler, a naturalized Frenchman.

A Parisian firm has given a vast order to Cadine, and now His Majesty thinks of establishing branch offices of his porteries in London and Paris. The war lord would become a king of trade.

The little boy was carrying home an empty bowl that had contained his father's dinner, when a bully appeared. "Do you mind if I kick that bowl?" he asked.

"Not a bit," replied the small boy. "You mean that you do mind if I kick that bowl?"

"Not a bit," persisted the bully. "Do you mind if I kick that bowl?"

"No, I should like you to," said the small boy.

"No, would you?" exclaimed the bully. "Then watch me!" He shattered the bowl to atoms. "Now do you mind?" he asked.

"Not a bit," said the small boy, edging away. "My mother borrowed the bowl from your mother this morning. You will hear about it when you get home." National Food Magazine.

An unusual association met recently in Portland, consisting of traveling men who have been on the road for twenty-five years or more. Some could boast of anywhere from 25 years up to 45, while three members not now on the road were 75, 78 and 79 years old, respectively.

In order to induce women to stay longer at fashion shows, Paris modistes now serve elaborate buffet luncheon, though it is said they are not finding it very profitable.

LONDON MONEY MARKET

Better Feeling in Regard to Canadian Investment Prevails

(Times Special Correspondence.) London, April 28—As a reliable index of the financial position of Canada, the budget speech of the dominion minister of finance was awaited here with great interest. Indeed it is not too much to say that attention was almost equally divided between Mr. White's review of the situation and the still expected budget speech of our own chancellor of the exchequer.

This was significant as indicating not only the increased interest in Canada as a result of the increased volume of British capital employed in the dominion, but as an indication of the unsettled feeling which oppressed large investors as to the future of Canada. A more hopeful tone is now evidenced.

We still see isolated attacks on the credit of Canada and Canadian undertakings, but the wholesale unqualified adverse comments which have become regular have ceased, and the general feeling is expressed in the following extracts from one of the leading financial papers under the heading "Canada's Claim for Capital."

"The greater the pace of progress, the more energetic the industry exerted, the more the City of London has a fairly interest in the growth of all the young British dominions. But there is a tendency in human nature to spend freely the money that is easily obtained, and for that reason it is that all new countries and nearly all new cities are prone to regard the supply of gold as a tap that they can always turn on or a well that they can always pump. Full of their own exuberant optimism, and apt to over-estimate the paper valuation of their town lots and farm lands as sure to double every time they change hands, they cannot wait patiently for their profits, but keep up continuous appeals to the money market to cash their checks on the Bank of Paddy."

"We may marvel at the cities that grow up like mushrooms; and we may be willing enough to lend money to convert timber shacks into reinforced concrete palaces; but to put drainage systems into patches of prairie, to raise a blaze of electric arc lamps in the darkness of the great plains—all so long as the intrinsic value of the property on the security of which the money is advanced is upheld by actual earning power. The tendency is to borrow too soon and too often, and the natural inevitable result is that there are sure to be periods of gold famine. Canada is just picking up after such a periodical hard time of wholesome discipline. Towns whose officials have had reason to be worried about their salaries as pay-day approached are again printing their names on prospectuses. They may have to pay rather more for their new loans through having run too fast and too far a year ago; but as to the permanent value of this power and property nobody has any doubt."

"Interest on municipal loans is nominally secured on the town's public and private property, but in reality is earned and paid by the enterprise of the inhabitants, as to which there is no question in the cities of the wheat belt. We hope to see Canada remain for many years a favorite destination for British capital, the fruition of which has, of course, intimate connection with the prosperity of British trade. The investments of the nation country in the dominion play a very important part in the improvement of inter-trade relations, and to that extent yield something more to us than the mere interest. The Canadians, to do them justice, have never been slow to recognize this and to support a trade policy that benefits the old country from which new capital is derived."

THE COAL TRADE

(Coal Age, May 2)

Although the anthracite trade is experiencing a certain spring activity, it is becoming more apparent all the time that there is a shortage of supplies in the anthracite and urgency. As usual all companies will carry some of the April orders over into May, particularly for store coal, and this paucity of supplies is being accentuated by a recurrence of the incipient "button strikes," which has threatened to materially restrict production. The trade is most active in the line business; the situation at tidewater is showing a tendency to drag and lake shipping is slow in getting under way. The large output of domestic coal is also threatening to develop a surplus of the steam grades.

The demand for prompt bituminous has disappeared almost entirely. Prices are weakening, and coal of all kinds continues to pile up. The movement is confined entirely to contracts, requisitions on which are heavily curtailed as a result of the large stocks accumulated in anticipation of labor difficulties, and also in part to the general industrial curtailment. Much demurrage coal is being forced on the market, indicating considerable speculation on the labor agreement, and the situation will be further aggravated by the general resumption of operations in the central Pennsylvania district.

Contracting in the Pittsburgh district continues slowly on the same basis as last year with but little shading, although substantial concessions are being made to short-term business. A good water stage is permitting full operation at the river mines, while stocks generally are being liquidated, but the lake trade promises to be slow, and more men are returning to work than it will be possible to use. Shipments of coal are now reduced to a minimum, but consumers still have plentiful supplies as a result of the restricted operations in general industrial lines, and there is some slight demand for steam grades. The lake trade is open, but entirely devoid of any activity.

Business at Hampton Road is confined principally to shipments on contract, and there is rather an accumulation in local yards, although this will probably be moved shortly. The battleships of the American navy, as well as those of other countries, manoeuvring in Mexican waters have thrown an unexpected demand upon the southern ports at New Orleans, Pensacola and Mobile, depleting stocks and causing a rush of urgent orders.

The middle western consumers are still using up stocks accumulated in anticipation of labor trouble, and there is no evidence of any improvement. What few mines have attempted to work, have been forced to close down in most instances as a result of the light demand. Some operators are accepting contracts at last year's figures, which would seem to indicate that an advance in the wage scale is not anticipated.

It Does The cost of living soars and soars. And then begins to soar some more. It's quite enough, methinks to make The ultimate consumer sore.

MACK MOTOR TRUCKS

Capacities—1, 1½, 2, 3, 5 and 7½ tons.

What kind of service may I expect from the manufacturer after I have purchased a motor truck? An important question to consider.

Mack service begins with an analysis of your delivery problems, the furnishing of accurate and interesting data regarding the experiences of business men whose transportation problems are similar to yours.

And Mack service ends when the truck wears out—how long this will be we do not know, for the first Mack Truck built, 14 years ago, is still doing reliable work at Tucson, Arizona.

The strength of the company behind the truck should be as carefully investigated as the strength of the truck itself. Address Dept. 35

Spring Skin Blemishes ARE REMOVED BY ZAM-BUK

Why suffer the humiliation of unsightly skin blemishes, such as pimples, boils, or eczema, when they are so easily cured by Zam-Buk? Even the most advanced cases of eczema yield to Zam-Buk's great healing power. Mr. J. O. Johnson, of 584 Broome street, New York, writes: "I suffered untold misery for twenty years from eczema. Medical treatment was of no avail. I spent hundreds of dollars on salves and treatments, and all I got was more temporary relief. At last I tried Zam-Buk, and I am pleased to say that perseverance with this remedy and Zam-Buk Soap has effected a complete and permanent cure."

Mr. Jock Snow, the Scotch comedian, of 47 Abbott Avenue, Toronto, writes: "I have used Zam-Buk for boils, and found it very soothing and a quick healer."

You want to end your suffering? To remove those unpleasant face or body sores? Then buy Zam-Buk. Sold by all druggists or store-keepers at 80c per box. Zam-Buk Soap, 25c per tablet. Zam-Buk is also best for cuts, sores, bruises, piles, and as an embrocation for stiffened muscles, rheumatism, sciatica.

In L'Esprit des Français is an instance of the sharp, biting wit for which Alexis Piron, a French epigrammatist, was famous.

A young author whose ability was by no means equal to his conceit, was discoursing at length upon the merits of his work.

"I am tired of writing of that which others write of," he said. "I want to create an original work, something that no one has ever written about or ever will write about."

"Piron turned quickly to the speaker: 'Why not write your own eulogy?' he said.—Youth's Companion.

WOMAN WANTED A BARBER

Even Hotel Manager Thought the Demand Unusual

Mrs. Lois Hughes, who as manager of the woman's floor at the hotel is a sort of court of reference when woman patrons of the hotel make a request of an unusual nature, was eating luncheon after a busy morning when a bell-boy entered the restaurant, approached her table and whispered something.

"She wants a Bible!" asked Mrs. Hughes.

"Yes, ma'am, a Holy Bible," repeated the bellboy.

"You'll find one on my desk," said the manager, turning her attention again to her luncheon.

After an interval the boy came back. "She don't want a Bible, ma'am, at all," he said. "She wants a barber."

"A barber? Impossible. Perhaps she means a hairdresser."

"No, ma'am, she said a barber, and she's real mad; says she has been telephoning about the hotel for twenty minutes."

So the manager, with visions of a bearded lady's having strayed into the hotel, hurried to her office and took command of the situation.

"You wish a barber, madam?" she inquired sweetly over the telephone, after having been connected with the room on the fifth floor where the lady had been telephoning.

"That's what I said, and I have been saying it over and over again to sixteen persons. Why can't you send a barber up?"

"But madam—"

"Yes, a barber. My husband is not feeling well and he doesn't want to get up and he wants the barber to come up and shave him in bed."—New York Times.

Buttercup Gives Box Party at Pinafore in Hippodrome

Donald Meek, who played in St. John several years ago, made his initial bow as a star in Boston this week at the Hollis Theatre in the metropolitan premiere of "The Reformers" a three-act comedy. Another St. John favorite, Grace Goodall, who for a time while she was here was ill in the hospital, is also in the cast. Miss Goodall played here with Jelenko. Concerning the play Variety says: "The plot concerns a meek sort of a runt who lives in a Jersey commuting city and wants nothing better than a few honeysuckle vines to train and a few tomato plants to pick the bugs from. His wife, nearly twice his size, gets the social thing and makes him run for mayor. The latter is to be knocked out in a street row by the runt for $60. The stunt works, but the police force (a rub) arrests the 'runt' for assault."

Paul Gilmore, a frequent visitor to St. John is playing the southern states with "Captains Alouca".

Within a few weeks London will see for the first time "The Blue Mouse", the farce of the dancer with a "temperament" that went round the rest of the world a few years ago. Hitherto London censors have refused to pass this play. It was presented in St. John about two years ago.

An exchange says: There are innumerable ways in which an experienced actor can break up a younger colleague's best scenes. And the audience is never a whit the wiser. He can destroy a laugh by a slight motion of his hand. He can move up-stage, and with an almost imperceptible grimace divert the attention of the spectators to himself. He can spoil the funniest lines and take the edge off the finest points by pretending to be solicitous over a lock of hair, a speck of dust on his rival's clothes, or the arrangement of the furniture. And all with the blandest good humor in the world.

In the new production of "The Shepherd King," which Emmett Corrigan produced at the Garden Theatre, New York for the benefit of the United Catholic Works, a new character was added. Goliath has only been referred to in the previous versions of the play. In the new production he is made one of the characters. The part was taken by Daniel Ryan.

One of the most remarkable things in the entertainment world during the last year has been the revival of the minstrel. Three years ago we mourned him as dead, says the London Mirror, and artists who "blackened up" could not get engagements on the stage in England.

Eleven members of "The Old Homestead" company have seen continuous service in this grand old American play to the aggregate of 195 years, and three of them have been with it during its entire existence. Denman Thompson first produced it twenty-eight years ago. Early in September Charles Frohman will present a new play by Paul Armstrong entitled "Missing in Action" which will be starred by Marjorie Hedman.

In London last week Sims "Lights of London" was revived at the Aldwych Theatre, and simultaneously released as a film and printed as a novel. Many well-known Englishmen are supporting a scheme for the establishment of a national theatre, and the Glasgow Board for religious and moral drama.

Ethel Irving will revive "La Tosca," in London.

In the cast of "Vik" the new play that follows Cyril Maud at Wallace's New York, is J. Palmer Collyins, who played here many years ago with "The Bonny Brier Bush." The playing of Mr. Collins has won favorable comment from practically all the critics.

Bunt
"Bunt Pulls the Strings" is now being produced by bunt in the larger cities in the United States.

Guy Standing will be seen in the role of Jerry Pendleton with Ruth Chatterton in "Daddy Long Legs."

Arnold Dault will have the leading role in George Bronson Howard's play, "The Red Light of Mars."

Charles Frohman has obtained the rights to a comedy entitled "The Beautiful Adventure," which will be given in New York next winter. Mr. Frohman says it is the greatest comedy produced in Paris today.

That Billie Burke will abandon the drama and return to her first love, musical comedy is one of Broadway's interpretations of her marriage to Florenz Ziegfeld, Jr.

Rose Stahl in "Maggie Pepper" closed in Philadelphia Saturday night, concluding an eight months' tour. Miss Stahl will have a new show next season, but none of the current season's company was given any inkling of the character of the piece or under what management it is going out.

On January 17, 1904, Queen Anne issued a proclamation which, if enforced today, would utterly do away with theatrical deathbeds, for one clause stipulated that "no persons come into a playhouse without paying for their respective places." The primary object of the proclamation was to put down everything contrary to religion and good manners in the theatres. It was therefore further stipulated that "no person of what quality soever, presume to go behind the scenes, or come upon the stage, either before or during the acting of any play. . . . If any persons whomsoever shall disobey this our known pleasure and command, we shall proceed against them as contemners of

NEW HOPE FOR SUFFERERS FROM PARALYSIS

There are cases of paralysis that cannot be cured. But that is far different from saying that every case of paralysis is incurable. There is absolute proof that many forms of this disease are curable. Of the cases that cannot be cured many can be so benefited that the formerly hopeless sufferer will once more find life worth living.

Attention is called to the remarkable cures that have been effected in cases of partial paralysis, and other severe nervous disorders, by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Some of these cures are so wonderful as to challenge belief, but in every case the statements have been carefully verified and may be investigated by anyone interested. In this connection the case of Miss B. Millican, of St. John, N. B., is worthy of the most careful attention.

Miss Millican says: "Some three years ago I was taken seriously ill with diphtheria. The doctor brought me safely through this dreaded trouble, and I was assumed to be well. But two weeks later I took a relapse, my throat and limbs becoming paralyzed. I could neither speak nor walk. I was under the best of medical care, and after a few weeks was able to sit up in bed, but my throat was still completely paralyzed, and I could only utter unintelligible sounds. I was treated by three of St. John's best physicians, for this trouble and my case was given up as hopeless. A friend asked me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, but I had spent so much on medicine without help that I thought it would be only a further waste of money. However, I felt myself growing daily weaker and weaker, and I decided as a last chance that I would try the Pills. By the time I had taken a half dozen boxes I could walk across the floor, something doctors had told me could never happen again. I still continued taking the pills, my speech returned, and I felt myself in perfect health. My friends thought my restoration nothing short of a miracle, and I think myself that I have to thank Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that I am living today, and I feel confident they can do much for others as they did for me."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills effect cures in cases of this kind because they make rich, red blood, which feeds and strengthens the nerves, and tones up the whole system. If you are in need of a medicine give these pills a trial. We are confident you will not be disappointed. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

our royal authority, and disturbers of the public peace."

Paul Armstrong's first individual offering will be "The Pirate," in which Catherine Calvert, his wife, will make her debut as a star early in October. "The Pirate" is, it is said, a strong romantic play of the 16th period when the buccaners sailed the Spanish Main, and is picturesque in its setting and costuming, as well as sensational in incident. Catherine Calvert is the most recent of the actresses to wed a dramatist. It would appear that the ladies of the profession are finding the gentlemen that craft more profitable than the former gilded youth whom they used to pick as husbands.

"Canada for the British."

Under this heading the New York Mirror has the following editorial: "The English invasion" of Canada, as it has been termed in some quarters, is evidently bearing fruit. Moreover, it is undoubtedly, as the Toronto correspondent of the London Stage puts it, "received only slight attention at the hands of United States producers and book powers."

According to all indications, "Canada for the English" is becoming an issue which will merit the attention of the producing and booking powers of the United States. Martin Harvey has been able to make a profitable tour of Canada, playing his repertory to approximately $12,000 a week.

Declares the above correspondent: "According to plans made known here, it is the intention to increase the number of British theatrical visitors next year by one hundred per cent, thereby seriously reducing the extent of American bookings throughout Canada."

This sudden influx of British stars and their London companies is due largely to the British and Canadian Theatre Organization Society, which has as its object the linking up of theatrical bookings throughout the British Empire so that London companies can cross Canada to Australia and New Zealand assured of thirty or forty weeks' booking. However, it is Lewis Walker's capture of Canadian money-bags during the two previous seasons, declares the correspondent, "that started the procession into the dominion. The novelty of the scheme is that the companies are independent of the British Empire, and the United States management, a thing that has scarcely happened hitherto."

Judging from the reports from Paris, the advent of the British from Paris, under the direction of Henry Russell, has caused a veritable commotion in social as well as artistic circles, for large and aristocratic audiences have attended the performance given by this organization at the Champs Elysees Theatre. The productions of Montez's "L'Amore Die Tre Re," which opened the season, "Manon Lescaut" and "Ole-Ele" have received practically general commendation from the not too favorable corps of French critics, the seal of approval for company, scenery and costume indicating that promises made of an unusual series of grand opera performances in the French capital will be fulfilled to the letter.

The following cable was received from Paris by Elen D. Jordan: "Ole-Ele" complete triumph. Papers proclaim artists, chorus and scenery greatest ever seen in Paris. At midnight entire public stood up, calling alternately for Fontana, Marcoux, Moranzoni and Urban."

To Wed Heir

Richard Walton Tully, a playwright, is engaged to marry Mrs. Hull McLaughry, who was Anita Baldwin, daughter of the late E. J. Baldwin, known as "Lucky" Baldwin, according to a report received in New York from Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. Tully left New York for California about two months ago, and immediately after his arrival on the Pacific coast he sued his wife known as Eleanor Gates, also a playwright, for divorce on the grounds of desertion, and obtained a preliminary decree. Mrs. Tully did not contest the suit, and it was said very willing that a final decree be granted.

Mrs. Hull McLaughry divorced her husband a short time ago. As the daughter of "Lucky" Baldwin she inherited a large share of his $400,000 estate. When Mr. Tully's play "Ole-Ele" was produced in Montreal

BRUCE McRAE AS CAMERA ACTOR

Soon To Begin Work With The Famous Players

GABY DESLYS IN MOVIES

Gets $9,000 For Rights to Film—
Ethel Barrymore Sets New High Mark, $15,000 For Single Picture—New Theatre is Opened in New York

Bruce McRae, who was well known in St. John a few years ago, and who has recently completed a starring engagement in "Nearly Married," will soon begin work on a Famous Players' Company picture. The Ring and the Man, by Cyrus Townsend Brady, has been chosen as the story to mark McRae's debut in motion pictures. The story twines about politics and love, and McRae will be seen in the role of Gornley, who battles against corrupt forces for political reform and for his sweetheart.

Among Bruce McRae's other recent stage triumphs, in addition to Nearly Married, are The Lily and Nobody's Widow. Through an odd coincidence, as in the cases of James K. Hackett and Cecilia Loftus, previous Famous Players stars, Bruce McRae began his stage career with Daniel Frohman, to whose management he now returns for his first appearance in a motion picture drama. Before Gaby Deslys sails for France, she will pose for moving pictures to be made by the Hal Reid concern. It is paying the French girl $6,000 for the rights to the film, with Harry Piers, her dancing partner, to be another liability on the company's pay roll. The chances are that Gaby will do a dancing feature film, though that has not been settled upon. Besides the $6,000 Gaby will take home with her, she will also carry along more than $100,000 saved up by the thrifty and keen interest woman from her American travel this season.

Carlyle Blackwell, who has been playing leading roles with the Kalein Co. on the Pacific Coast for the last three and a half years, has returned to New York with a year's contract to appear hereafter with the Famous Players' Co. News that Ethel Barrymore had finally consented to appear before the motion picture screen has resulted in deluging the All Star offices with requests for further information concerning the picture debut of this well known leading woman. The picture company is, however, proceeding slowly with the details for the Ethel Barrymore picture, and is not yet ready to announce the title of the picture in which Miss Barrymore will be seen. It is known that one of Miss Barrymore's best known stage successes will probably be chosen.

Developments have brought out the fact that Miss Barrymore is receiving what is probably the record price for appearances of any player in one picture. She is to receive close to $15,000 for her appearance in one picture alone.

New Gotham Theatre.

The Candier, New York's newest theatre, in 42nd street, just west of Broadway, was opened on Thursday evening.

It was understood that the money necessary to put the production on was supplied by ex-Mayor of San Francisco. It has since been said that Mr. Phelan was acting as trustee for the Baldwin estate in San Francisco and that the money came from the Baldwin estate.

The Original Buttercup

Mme. Annie C. Burritt, who sang Buttercup 192 times with the original Pinafore Company in America in the early eighties, gave a box party at the New York Hippodrome production of H. M. S. Pinafore on last Monday night.

"Anthony and Cleopatra," George Kleine's latest and greatest photodramatic success, is the opening attraction, the initial metropolitan presentation of this charming photodramatic story of the world's greatest love affair. Mr. Kleine's productions will be continued in the playhouse throughout the summer.

The Candier is one of the handsomest and most magnificently appointed theatres in New York. The first floor contains 625 seats, while the one balcony, of the cantilever type, seats 875. The stage is ample in width and depth for the largest scenic productions.

During the run of "Anthony and Cleopatra," two daily performances will be given. A high class orchestra and a famous leader will look after the special musical score that has been written to accompany this masterpiece. A $40,000 organ will be an additional feature of this beautiful new playhouse.

George Kleine, Cohan and Harris and Bloom are the lessees and owners of this theatre, which represents a monetary investment of $750,000.

George Kleine's photodramatic marvels will be presented during the summer months in leading theatres in several of the largest cities in this country. Among his great productions in motion photography that will delight thousands are "Anthony and Cleopatra," "The Lion of Venice," for which the museums of that ancient city lent relics to make possible the historic atmosphere; and "Spartacus," a drama of the revolt of the gladiators against Roman rule. The last named is said to be one of the most stupendous and ambitious efforts in animated photography. Seventy-five hundred people were enlisted in acting and posing before the camera in its making. Historians skilled in pantomime are declared to give notable credence to the chief characters. Rome and Turin were its locale, the actual localities in which the incidents of the story occurred.

STAGE BEAUTY'S ADVICE TO GIRLS

Miss Jean Aylin was talking of the "perils of the stage." "Trash and nonsense," exclaimed the London beauty. "Once upon a time there was a sign on a West End house. 'This handsome residence with its appointments, to be let, furnished, for the summer.' One day the sign was changed to 'This handsome man stepped out to make inquiries.' 'What,' asked he, 'do the apartments mean?'"

"What," said the girl, "they are the out-buildings, the garage, the tennis court, and so forth."

The man smiled. "Are YOU to be let with the house too?"

"No, sir," said the pretty housemaid promptly, "I am to be let ALONE!"

HOME COLONIZATION IN DENMARK

Denmark is one of the countries in which agriculture is most prosperous, and its institutions are often referred to as models of their kind. Unfortunately, in many cases the material for a detailed study of these institutions is lacking, and well informed articles on the position of agriculture in Denmark are particularly welcome.

An article of this type, dealing with the measures taken by the Danish government for the encouragement of home colonization appeared in the January number of the Monthly Bulletin of Economic and Social Intelligence, published by the International Institute of Agriculture, and we shall here try to present a resume of its contents.

HANDS ROUGH, BADLY CRACKED

"I have lost three fortunes," he boasted.

"I don't think that is anything to be proud of," she replied.

"Well, maybe it isn't," he admitted; "but I thought you might like to know that I had graduated from all three schools of foolishness. Drink put me to the bad the first time. I wasted my second fortune on a woman, and I blew in the third on a musical comedy."

Tomorrow Mother's Day

Write a Letter to Her or Wear White Flower In Honor of Her Memory

Tomorrow will be observed in St. John churches in honor of "Mother." The Times publishes the following by request:—

By John B. Gruelle

Oh, mother, that I could do for thee The things thou hast done for me; That I could pay back a thousandth part Of the love thou bearest me;

That I could give thee the strength I hold, Now that thou growest old; That I could strengthen thy feeble step, And let not thy hand grow cold!

Oh, mother, that I could give to thee, Now that thou canst not see— That I could give back the sight, my dear, That thou hast given me!

Oh, mother, that I could give to thee, Now that thou hast me— Oh, mother, that I could give to thee The life thou hast given me!

The movement to observe Sunday, May 8th, originated with Miss Anna Jarvis of Philadelphia, and the anniversary which the world will remember and observe this year is the anniversary of the death of Miss Jarvis' mother.

Grief over the death of her mother, Miss Jarvis says, brought to her a realization of the sorrow which a mother's death must always bring to someone. And so she began her campaign for a Mothers' Day, a day on which the mothers of the world, living or dead, would be honored.

The idea is simple. All that is asked is that men and women over the world shall pin a white flower to their dress on the second Sunday in May and write a letter home to mother, if she is living. The idea is so full of appeal that poor unfortunate beings who are not sure they ever had a mother take a curious and pathetic pride in displaying the white flower.

Miss Jarvis began her campaign by writing letters to newspapers. The papers favored the plan and now the day is generally observed throughout the United States and large cities in Europe.

To Wesley Memorial Methodist church, Montreal, is due the credit for introducing the idea into New Brunswick and there is every promise that it will be generally adopted in every city of importance.

"If your mother is dead," says Miss Jarvis, "remember her, with a kindness to some unfortunate person."

This year marks the fifth since Miss Jarvis began her work to have the mothers of the world properly honored, and this year will eclipse all previous years, by the general observation of the plan.

The day is for everyone, regardless of religious belief or color. "I want Mothers Day to exist for all," Miss Jarvis says. "Princess or pauper, Christian or Jew, young or old—the figure of a mother must stand to all for what is most worthy and true."

Of the beautiful tributes written on the subject of mother, the following is given as the most appropriate:—

Mother. In the springtime of his life she lived. He remembers her so well now. She is not dead, though the grass above that tear-strewn mound is growing green again. She lives a life eternal within his heart.

From that moment when he lay upon her breast and his heart began its beating next her own—a moment when the depths of human feeling are touched and awakened and the heights of human possibilities disclosed, she loved him, lived for him—and died for him.

He did not understand—then—the great, almost superhuman task asked of her by the Creator; nor could he see—then—that the heart-breaking load she carried would have crushed the strongest of men; he only knew—then—that she was both father and mother to him.

And yet she bore her burden with a saintly smile and a patient soul that makes her appear as a heavenly angel temporarily placed here by the Divine Maker to guide through the terrible meshes of an earthly life the being she had crossed the darkened valley of death to bring into existence.

He sees her now. With eyes of memory he watches her pass to and fro by his darkened bed, smoothing his aching brow, holding his feeble hand, murmuring "My boy!"

He sees her with frail, tired arms and without body bending over her daily tasks while he, unmindful and unheeding, romped in the mud in childish play.

He sees her toiling, toiling, toiling, throughout her never ending days—and he didn't understand.

Then when her work was done—when

TO STOP HAIR LOSS AND RID YOUR SCALP OF DANDRUFF, USE NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

Do you have dandruff? Does your hair fall out? Is it getting thinner and parting more pronounced every day? If so, we advise you to get busy right away or before it is too late.

We are not trying to scare you. We are simply telling you the truth. If you must check that hair loss and rid your scalp of dandruff.

Don't resort to the use of an untried, off brand hair preparation when genuine Herpicide costs no more. You are liable to disappointment if you experiment. Start right and start now with the right remedy and stick to it—Newbro's Herpicide.

Use Herpicide daily for a while, then three times a week will be sufficient. Watch the change which takes place in the condition of your hair and scalp.

that tiny baby had been led hour by hour, day by day, week after week, through all those long days—her only ray of sunshine, "My Boy!"—into the world of manhood, a strong, God-fearing man-loving man—she lay down the life she had lived for him, and went to her glorious reward.

What though her hands were shapeless and rent with the disfigurements of toil? To him they always were and always will be softest and whitest and best.

What though her body was bent and faltering? To him she is still the most beautiful of all.

Therefore, on Mothers Day, when so many have the blessed privilege of laying at living mothers' feet the flowers of love, other multitudes will with him live over sweet memories of days when mothers walked by their side, and he will wear the white flower for her—for her to whom he owes his being, his life, manliness, and hope of meeting her in the great hereafter.

So upon the threshold of this dear day, while the fragrance of the unopened flower links itself to his tender memories, he writes these lines for the mother awaiting him upon the other shore.

POTATO DISEASES.

There has been issued by the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa a remarkably well executed folder, Farmers Circular No. 4, entitled "Potato Diseases Transmitted by the Use of Unsound Tubers," showing in natural colors, representations of specimens of diseased potatoes. Diseases and other blemishes represented are potato canker, powdery scab, hollow potato, internal brown

The scalp is clean and free from dandruff. The hair looks strong and healthy and does not fall out. There is vigor and snap where before the hair was dead, dull and brittle. The itching which is so annoying stops and you enjoy a feeling of coolness and cleanliness hitherto unknown.

Any dealer will sell you Newbro's Herpicide in 50-cent and $1.00 sizes and guarantee it. If it doesn't do as promised, and you are not satisfied, he returns your money. But you'll be satisfied. The first application will convince you that Newbro's Herpicide is the very thing for the hair. Its odor is delightful.

Applications may be obtained at the better barber shops and hair dressing parlors.

streak, light potato disease, dry rot, wet rot, common potato scab, and stem end rot.

Special reference is made to potato canker and powdery scab, the latter of which occurs already in Canada and should be carefully avoided. The folder points out that, under the destructive insect and Pest Act of Canada, any person using for seed potatoes infected by potato canker or powdery scab is liable to prosecution. Potato growers who suspect the presence of either of the latter diseases are requested to send specimens to the Dominion Botanist, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa.

This folder, prepared by H. T. Gussow, Dominion Botanist, will be sent free to those who apply for it to the Publications Branch of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa.

SUCH LETTERS AS THIS EXPLAIN WHY Everybody Uses Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a Spring Tonic

Skeptics are invited to write to Mrs. Scarbo for confirmation of her cure.

Mrs. Jules Scarbo, Moulinette, Stormont Co., Ont., writes:—

"I think it is my duty to write and let you know the great benefit I received from taking Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Early last fall I became greatly run down, could scarcely eat anything and could not sleep at night. The least sound would make me start and I was so nervous I could hardly bear to have anyone talk to me. I tried many medicines but none helped me and I was in this extremely nervous condition for five months."

"I read in the almanac about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and bought 3 boxes from Mr. Armstrong, druggist at Mille Roches. Before completing the first box I felt the benefit and now believe the cure to be thorough and complete. I am feeling fine and eat and sleep well, thanks to the wonderful good, accomplished by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I wish everybody troubled as I was knew of this grand medicine, which is so quick in action and so permanent in results. It will always have my praise."

You can avoid the feelings of fatigue and depression which make spring so dreaded by very many who are not in robust health. Sleeplessness, irritability, indigestion and headaches soon disappear when you increase the vitality of the mind and body by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.50, all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Write for free booklet on the "Nerves."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is the greatest of spring restoratives, because it actually forms new, red corpuscles in the blood.

The total number of holdings created between 1901 and 1911 was 5,777, and the treasury loans amounted to 25,410, 148 crowns. The number of applications increased at first, increases yearly, the applicants being for the most part either married or about to marry.

The returns as to the number of head of live stock (including poultry) owned by the state-aided farmers are important, as they enable us to appreciate the economic situation of such peasant farmers. The available returns refer to the live stock owned by 5,874 farmers on April 1st, 1911. At that date their farms supported 5,187 horses, 22,079 head of horned cattle, 33,626 pigs, 1,156 sheep and 155,250 fowls. These figures represent an average per farm of 1 horse, 4.1 head of horned cattle, 6 pigs, 0.2 sheep and 29 fowls. Comparing these figures with those of the previous statistical return we find that, except in the case of sheep, the number of head of live stock per farm has considerably increased in the space of five years. It seems that the immediate anxiety of the farmers, from the moment of their taking possession, is at once to have a sufficient number of cattle. Only afterwards do they concern themselves about acquiring horses, but the increase in the number of the latter has been far more rapid.

Let us, finally, add that of 5,149 farmers, 4,889 or 94 per cent were members of co-operative dairies; 2,880, or 56 per cent of co-operative slaughterhouses; 1,028 or 20 per cent of co-operative societies for the sale of eggs; 34 or 1 per cent, of live stock improvement syndicates. These figures, of which the first two exceed the average for farmers of farms of the same area by 6 and 16 respectively, showing the great importance of co-operation for the peasant farmers. the International Institute of Agriculture, 8th Year, No. 1, January, 1914.)

SUCH A CONTEST!

Newspaper Men Win From The Actors

Marvellous Plays Marked Remarkable Game, And The Worst Is Yet To Come

It is not often that the public has an opportunity of seeing such a contest as was staged on the Marathon grounds yesterday afternoon, when the baseball players, who are in their every-day life the male members of the Thompson-Woods Stock Co., received a trimming from the news-gatherers of St. John. The game went eight innings and was close and exciting all the way through. When the actors came to bat in the last period, the score stood nine all; Hansen, who was on the mound for the scribes, held the enemy in check and with only one score to get to win out, the writers of news (etc.) came to bat. Catcher Sharkey scratched for a single, stole second and tallied the winning score on Hansen's swing to centre. It was a close shave but the laurels, for the present at least, are resting on the brows of the scribes.

"Big Six" Weyler was on the hearing mound for the T-W side of the conflict and the big good-natured fellow at times actually got peeved at the coaching of the news men. The scribes took advantage of these lapses and hammered the pill to every place except centre field. It was not safe to put it in that direction for Art McCloskey was in the garden and although Arthur carries considerable superfluous weight, he was covering a lot of soggy, slimy territory and his never-failing "get everything within reaching distance. Meharry, on the initial sack, shared with McCloskey the honors of the actors' side of the contest. The other two outfielders, Fager, who could scarcely be seen in deep left on account of the color of his "unif" (T) and "jakey" (W) Whitehouse, he with the mystic letters on his jersey, were merely used to decorate the outer section of the ball park.

Oh, yes, the actors had an infidel, but there was something wrong with the machinery. McCafferty on second looked very nice in his white shoes and hose and Vero, on No. 8 base, was resplendent in a paint-bedaubed sweater that looked like a piece of "Midnight Scenery." He caught the ball a couple of times. Last, but not least, the juvenile "Billy Hodge" circulated about the shortstop's territory and succeeded in covering himself with muddy glory.

As for the scribes—well, they were right there and although Conlon and Jennings on several occasions received shocks when they saw the sphere coming in their direction, all they were able to grapple with the ball and get it by a more or less desperate struggle in the proper place where it might do damage. Hansen's arm was in good shape and he moved 'em down—that is when they did not hit. Sharkey, our little back stop, showed up to perfection both in and out, and was a tower of strength. His only advantage over McGuire, the stonewall of the Thompsons, however, was that he could get the ball to second without the centre fielder having to handle it.

Slattery held down the first base with vim, assisted by a pipe of doubtful size. Alexander, the Thome fillet, big hole at second. Little Jimmie Dever, at third, made a hit two ways—at the bat and with the fans. March waded about right field but unfortunately did not have an opportunity to display what was his worth.

Feature—Yesterday seen McCloskey's hit to centre field. Conlon started to "get out and get under." He got out, all right, but he failed to get under and the consequence was that Mac was safe. This is only the first of three games—the worst is yet to come.

Notes of the Game

It was some game yesterday but we're covered with sore spots today.

The matinee idios appeared quite crestfallen at times.

We sincerely hope that Reuben Weyler is cooled this morning. The atmosphere about the pitcher's box was reminiscent of tropical equatorial climes, so far as temperature was concerned. He was some hot!

Thorne may have played ball forty or fifty years ago, but the rules have changed since then, Sandy.

If Slattery had removed his pipe and Dever had thrown away his cigar, they might have been more than figureheads on the field.

Our little Hansen boy is no slouch when it comes to twirling—ch, Reuben!

There was not much difference between Fager and Jennings in left field, but each stopped a ball once, nearly, but thought better of it a second time.

When it comes to playing first base, Meharry takes a leading place, but then he's leading man, you see, and lead he must, or quit, B' Ghee!

"Doc" McGillivray had the eye of his cousin "Connie" Mack in unimpaired bases, while Silk O'Loughlin would not shine any too well beside Tommy Burns.

Wilkie was missing from the field, but in his usual spirit of gallantry, he was attending to the interests of the lady fans.

General News of The Fighters

(FROM T. S. ANDREWS)

Milwaukee, May 7.—The defeat of Leach Cross by Freddy Welsh, the British lightweight champion, places the latter in a position to demand a match with Willie Ritchie for the world's championship. According to reports from Los Angeles, the match between Welsh and Cross was not of the slashing kind, but more scientific, as the Briton was content to play safe, outpointing the New York boy at his leisure. It demonstrated that Welsh is a wonderfully clever boxer, and hard to get at when he wants to play on the defensive. A contest between Welsh and Ritchie would decide the world's title.

Jess Willard "the Kansas Blizard," has at last gotten into the knockout class. Jess, who has been some months ago by George Rodeo, Boer champion, but the Kansas turned the tables when they met at Atlanta, Ga., outfighting him at every point and putting him to sleep in the 6th session. Now Jess wants to tackle Gunboat Smith and it behooves Gunboat to be careful.

The eastern star fighters have been confining their work to other parts of the country in the last month. Tommy Murphy was busy in "Frisco," Leach Cross has been making his headquarters in Los Angeles; Leo Houck also was on the coast; Freddy Welsh the same place and now Gunboat Smith and Johnny Griffith have booked for the middle west.

There are three big bouts scheduled around Milwaukee for the early part of May—Gunboat Smith vs. Bob Moha, Milwaukee; Matty McCue vs. Johnny Tillman, Milwaukee; and Joe Mandot vs. Johnny Griffith of Ohio, Racine.

Bob Moha, the Milwaukee "cave-man" would like to know why so many of the middleweights and near-middleweights have been shying at his game since he beat Battling Levinsky. Bob says he has offered to meet any 125 pound man in the country and not only that, but has offered to take on the best of them in the 175 pound class, even accepting a date with Gunboat Smith at any old weight; but they all demand terms at which the promoters shy.

ATHLETIC A New Record.
Edward Beson of the Olympic Club of San Francisco, has started the athletic world by establishing a new world record for the high jump, when he cleared the bar at 6 feet 7-8 inches, at the Pacific Coast Conference meet. The former record was 6 feet 7 inches, made by George Horine.

Beson's phenomenal jump was at first announced as 6 feet 8 inches, but careful measurement by the officials showed that it was 6 feet 7-8 inches. The leap was made in the presence of many of the coast officials of the Amateur Athletic Union, and there is no doubt that the new mark will stand.

Two Meets at Moncton.
(Moncton Transcript.)
The intercollegiate track meet, between Mount Allison, Sackville and Acadia College, Wolfville, is to be held in Moncton on Friday, May 22. Mount Allison wanted Acadia to come to Sackville this year, and promised to go to Wolfville for next year. It was felt that this would save the yearly expenses of two colleges sending teams to a common meeting place. Acadia, however, refused to agree to such an arrangement.

It is learned that the annual track meet and field sports of New Brunswick Intercollegiate Athletic Association will be held at Moncton.

Joe Mandot, the idol of New Orleans, is one of the most manly fellows in the ring. He always gives his opponent his due, and when defeated, does not dig up an alibi.

Water-front Development.
Subject for One Session of Conference on City Planning.

"Water-front Development" will form the theme of discussion at one session of the International Conference on City Planning to be held in Toronto on May 25-27. R. S. Gourlay, representative of the board of trade on the Toronto harbor commission, will give an address on this subject, which should be of interest, not only to citizens of Toronto, but to the whole country. The dominion government is expected to contribute more than $40,000,000 to this particular project.

The works now in progress at Toronto should prove of national importance in another respect also, namely, by putting before other cities an example of what may be done by systematic planning for water-front development. The works proposed are of three kinds: (1) Industrial development; (2) Commercial and dock development; (3) Park and boulevard improvements. They involve the filling in of Ashbridge bay and the establishment there of a model industrial district with first class railway and lake transport facilities; the deepening of the inner harbor and building of new docks; and the construction of a beautiful twelve-mile driveway, extending along the entire water-front, with a protected channel for small craft for the whole distance, lagoons, parks, islands, amusement grounds, bathing beaches, and everything that could be desired for summer pleasure. It is expected that the entire project will be completed in 1920, and at an estimated cost of upwards of $19,000,000. When completed, it should place Toronto in an enviable position, giving it one of the finest harbors on the Great Lakes, stimulating its industrial and commercial expansion, and providing its people with unrivalled recreation facilities at their very doors.

THE RAILWAY ACT.

HOW TO HANDLE POWER.
(Power.)
Auxiliaries of a steam plant, such as pumps, exciters, engines, blowers, stokers, etc., do not develop a horsepower nearly as efficiently as the main generating units. The loss in plant economy, due to inefficient auxiliaries, is not sufficiently appreciated by many operating engineers. Low-grade pumps, blowers, etc., reduce station economy. The gain in over-all economy possible with the use of highly efficient auxiliaries, even if it be necessary to bleed steam from the main units for heating purposes, is an important factor, writes an expert in Power.

The percentage of total heat in a pound of steam available for power is necessarily wasted. In order to get all possible power out of steam, high-vacuum condensing operation has been proved best. At the same time a more important item present itself. This small amount of heat available for power may be wasted in apparatus which is inefficient in its utilization of the heat supplied. The heat so wasted in windage, friction, etc., cannot be recovered except to a small extent in a tendency to improve the quality of the exhaust steam by the heating effect of friction.

In order to get the best results in a plant for heating purposes only, non-tion will be held here, on or about June 9, probably on the M. A. A. grounds. The St. John High School, Rothery Collegiate School and Aberdeen High School will be the participants.

condensing operation generally proves the most economical. The small amount of heat extracted for power purposes, such as driving feed pumps, etc., leaves the greater part of the heat available for heating. The use of live steam under such circumstances is a costly method. In this case if steam at boiler pressure can be used in the heating systems, efficient utilization of steam in the pumps, etc., is desirable, as it further minimizes the heat extracted for power, leaving more available for heating and so requiring a less supply from the boilers.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS OF THE WEEK IN ST. JOHN

So far, not many hostesses have gone to the country, consequently society has been a little less dull this week, several teas and luncheons contributing to the amusement of those who, on account of the chilly weather, have been detained later in town than usual. One effect of the cool atmosphere has been that for some time past the golf links have been crowded with players, most of whom are of a younger set than formerly. This is a promising sign in view of the new club house and grounds contemplated at Riverside, as their purchase will entail extra expense as well as provision for a greater number of members. At present quite a lot of informal entertaining is going on at the club house at Mount Pleasant where, at the tea hour, the youthful players rest from their labors after a day's sport on the links.

A very delightful entertainment was given by Mrs. Rupert Rive on Thursday afternoon at her charmingly appointed residence in King street east, in honor of her guests, the Misses Rive, of Caracquet (N. B.), who have been visiting their brother for the past three weeks. A book tea was the form taken by the hostess to entertain her guests. Each lady was expected to represent in some manner the title of a well known book, and the guest fortunate enough to guess the greatest number was given a prize. Some very clever devices were used to express the meaning of the book chosen. For correct guessing, Mrs. Leonard Tilley and Miss Grace Skinner received first and second prizes. For the most original conception, Mrs. David B. Chisholm was awarded the prize. Mrs. Rive was exquisitely gowned in white charmeuse and shadow lace. Miss Rive, who received with the hostess, wore a very pretty white satin gown trimmed with lace. In the dining room the beautifully appointed tea table was centered with yellow and purple ribbons in an antique silver vase and yellow candles and shades placed in silver candleholders. A soft light over the china and glass. Mrs. Daniel Mullin, in pale blue charmeuse and white flower wreathed hat, presided over the tea and coffee. Assisting with the refreshments were Miss Mary Rive, Miss Madeline DesSoyes, Miss Rhoda Alcock and Miss Pauline Powell. Among those present were Mrs. James Dever, Mrs. James H. Frink, Mrs. Morris Robinson, Mrs. H. A. Powell, Mrs. James Jack, Mrs. Leonard Tilley, Mrs. Frank Fairweather, Mrs. H. S. Bridges, Mrs. Charles Bostwick, Mrs. George Carvill, Mrs. Andrew Jack, Mrs. Richard O'Brien, Mrs. W. Shives Fisher, Mrs. G. M. Teed, Mrs. George Lockhart, Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Griffiths Bishop, Mrs. A. C. Skelton, Mrs. David P. Chisholm, Mrs. Grace Skinner, Miss Blair, Miss Frances Travers, Miss Ethel Jarvis, Miss Nora Robinson, Miss Gertrude deBury, Miss Margaret Carvill, Miss Frances Travers and Miss Mary Rive assisted the hostess in the guessing contest.

In honor of the Misses Rive, Mrs. Daniel Mullin was hostess on Wednesday afternoon at her residence, in German street, at a very delightful tea, when she wore a most becoming heliotrope velvet and lace gown. Miss Rive, who received with the hostess, was gowned in white shadow lace over white satin. The beautifully appointed mahogany tea table, almost covered with cluny lace and centred with red roses in a silver basket, was presided over by Mrs. George A. Lockhart, who wore a pretty blue and white organdy muslin and smart black hat, and Mrs. Rive, in copper colored brocade and black hat. Miss Gertrude deBury, who was gowned in cerise chiffon, was one of those who assisted with the refreshments, the others being Miss Mary Rive, Miss Rhoda Alcock, Miss Kathleen Sturdee, Miss Marguerite Wright, Mrs. Alexander Fowler and Mrs. P. Palmer conducted the guests to the dining room. Miss Lorna Kaye served the ices. Among those present were Mrs. Hugh Mackay, Mrs. King Hazen, Mrs. Shirley Peters, Mrs. Atwater Smith, Mrs. George Wood, Miss Alice L. Armstrong, Mrs. Walter Foster, Mrs. Ward Hazen, Mrs. William Allison, Miss Celia Armstrong, Mrs. Percy Fairweather.

In the dining room the tea table, which in the center were yellow daisies in a pretty basket, was presided over by Mrs. J. T. Logan, in black silk with real lace trimmings and black hat, with ostrich feather mount. Mrs. Shirley Peters, wearing white embroidered crepe and cerise toque, served the ices. Assisting with the refreshments were Mrs. A. Travers Smith, Mrs. H. Fielding Rankine, Mrs. Stanley Elkin, Mrs. Robert Cowan, Miss Edna Logan and Mrs. Ralph Wood. The ushers were Mrs. F. J.
