BUDGET TO BE BROUGHT DOWN JUNE FIFTH; SYMPATHY STRIKE GATHERING IN MOMENTUM; GERMANS READY TO MEET ALLIES ON THURSDAY

RUSSIANS PLAN TO RETURN TO PETROGRAD

The Russian Colony in London Are Confident of the Collapse of the Bolshevik Regime and Expect to Soon be Home.

ALLIES TO ESTABLISH MILITARY RULE

Belief That Trotsky and Lenin Will Disappear Completely When the Critical Moment Arrives for Their Downfall.

(By Arthur S. Draper, special cable.) London, May 27.—No doubt exists in the Russian colony here of the early capture of Petrograd and the collapse of the Bolshevik regime. Prominent Russians profess that they will return to Petrograd within a couple of months, and are making business preparations accordingly.

The allies expect to establish military rule, and are not attempting to call the constituent assembly at present. Constantine Nabokoff, the Russian Charge D'Affaires in London, expects the Allied leaders to co-operate with the Russian council, composed of representatives of the Zemstvos. "Those who talk glibly of a national assembly on the basis of popular elections are totally ignorant of conditions in Russia," he said.

Nabokoff believes that nothing will happen to Lenin and Trotsky who, when the critical moment arrives, will be believed, disappear. "Having been compelled previously to live underground here," he said, "the Bolsheviks are past masters in concealing their personality."

Nabokoff thinks that the strong anti-Semitic feeling in the south will tend to prevent the Bolsheviks from flourishing there when uprooted in the north.

HAWKER PLANE PICKED UP

St. Johns, Nfld., May 27.—The Sopwith biplane, in which Harry Hawker and Mackenzie Grievie, attempted to fly across the Atlantic, was picked up in latitude 49.40 north, longitude 29.08 west, by the American ship Lako Charlotteville, according to a radio message received by the Furness liner Eschem and relayed here tonight.

The message from the Lako Charlotteville was received 8:30 by the Captain Elversen said he had taken aboard parts of the plane and all of the mail carried, and was proceeding to Palmot, England.

Budget To Be Brought Down June Fifth

Ottawa, Ont., May 27.—Sir Thomas White announced in the Commons tonight that the budget would be brought down on Thursday of next week.

HANDFUL OF BRITISH AND ALLIED OFFICERS SAVED MANY

At the Head of 100 Native Troops They Fought off Six Thousand Egyptian Revolutionists and Saved the Lives of 400 White Women and Children at Assuit—Fierce Fight Was Kept up for Three Days.

New York, May 27.—The story of how a handful of British and Allied officers, at the head of 100 native troops, fought off for three days the attacks of six thousand Egyptian revolutionists and saved the lives of four hundred white women and children, was told today by Professor Roy Allgood, of Birmingham, Ala., who arrived here from Assuit, Egypt.

For the past four years Professor Allgood has been science instructor at the College of Assuit, the capital of Upper Egypt.

On March 20, an outpost rider reached there with the news that a band of Arabs were advancing on the town. The Allied officers quickly went to the

No Visible Change at Winnipeg

There Has Been Some Further Increase in Business Activity With the Release of the Mails.

CITY EMPLOYEES TO GET THE HOOK

Moosejaw Unions Have Voted to go Out Thursday if a Settlement Has Not Been Reached at Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, May 27.—No visible change in the general strike deadlock was noted here this morning except further increasing of commercial activities. A flood of mail, released from the Winnipeg post office by volunteer clerks, was partly responsible for business improvements.

Representatives of the City government, began by compiling lists of city employees on strike. The city will attempt to replace the strikers on Thursday as a result of the City Council's action last night.

Some of the railway mail clerks on the Winnipeg division did not report for duty today, it was announced at noon. Officers have decided not to strike.

The Railway Mail Clerks' Union is not affiliated with the Winnipeg Trades and Labor Council.

Leaders of the faction which refused to strike said that the men who decided to quit work represent the younger element. The men who have been in the service several years decided not to take any action at this time.

Winnipeg switchmen, members of the trainmen's brotherhood, have voted to join the sympathetic strike.

They were notified by an official of the trainmen's brotherhood that such action might result in the striking switchmen being ousted from the brotherhood. The men then remained at work.

It is known that officials of the Railway Brotherhood are still making vigorous efforts to bring the opposing factions together.

No other signs of conciliation could be discerned early this afternoon.

Sympathy Spreads

Moose Jaw, Sask., May 27.—Unless a settlement is reached in Winnipeg before Thursday night, the unions affiliated with the Moose Jaw Trades and Labor Council will walk out in a sympathetic strike. There is likely to be one exception and that will be the Typographical Union.

At the meeting of the Trades and Labor Council last night, the vote of delegates was practically unanimous, 26 to 2, in favor of taking a strike vote, and all unions were requested to take the vote inside the next three days and report back on Thursday night.

Should the verdict be strike, and it is generally conceded that it will be, the Trades and Labor Council propose to appoint a committee to manage the strike from the labor standpoint.

Alderman Watson president of the Trades and Labor Council, stated last night that the labor men would maintain order, and any breach of the peace would come from the other side.

The Civic Employees' Union, embracing all civic employees with the exception of the stationary engineers at the power house, voted yesterday afternoon, almost unanimously to strike at the call of the Trades and Labor Council.

GERMAN REPLY ABOUT READY FOR THE ALLIES

Allied and Associated Powers Will be Asked to Agree to a Plebiscite on All Disputed Territories.

DEMAND RECEPTION INTO THE LEAGUE

The Reply Reaffirms Adherence of Germany to the Principles Laid Down in Armistice Conditions.

Bulletin—Berlin, Monday, May 26, (By The A. P.)—The question whether Germany will sign the peace treaty or not, it was believed here tonight, depends altogether on whether the Allied and Associated Powers will agree to a plebiscite in all disputed territories and the reception of Germany into the League of Nations as a member with an equal vote.

Both these issues are the cardinal features of the German reply which has been approved by the cabinet and Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau and his associates, and which is being put into shape for presentation within the next thirty-six hours.

The German reply to the Allied peace terms will agree that the German army shall be 100,000 men on a peace footing, but will urge that this limit be not enforced until conditions are mutually established.

The reply in general re-affirms the adherence of Germany to the principles laid down in armistice conditions and will lay special weight on the right of self-determination which Germany is willing to grant in all contested sections of her frontiers.

Germany also is asked to abide by the decision of the popular vote in Austria on the question of the union with Germany.

Some of the economic and financial issues, suggested in the Allied peace terms, Germany is willing to be adjusted by the League of Nations, which she expects to become a member on a basis of equality.

If the world league was based on any other self-determination, Germany is bound to the correspondent in authoritative quarters tonight. Germany would be forced to consider it as an alliance against her.

Germany will negotiate on this basis, but will demand the right to maintain an adequate force during the transition period, when this score is bound to pass through at the conclusion of peace.

The reply will also point out that the borders of Germany, under the ratification of the peace treaty, will continue in a fluid condition, making adequate control by means of frontier patrols necessary.

Germany will request the right to keep a sufficient force mobilized unless the Allies will assume the responsibility for maintaining order on all newly created frontiers, or on such as are annexed if they remain intact.

More Notes. Berlin, Monday, May 26, (By The A. P.)—The German reply to the Allied peace terms, in connection with the economic terms of the peace treaty, the Vossische Zeitung says it learns officially.

The note will point out that the Allied claim that more than twelve million tons of shipping were destroyed by German submarines is not true, because more than half of the shipping was sunk by legal cruiser warfare.

The Germans, the paper adds, also declare that the note in reply to the first German note on the economic terms, shows a misunderstanding as to the agricultural needs of Germany.

Objection will also be made to the loss of the note which the treaty will impose on Germany.

PREMIER CASHIN COMPLETES THE NEW MINISTRY

Newfoundland Gov't Has Nineteen Supporters in the Assembly—The Seven in Opposition Are Members of Fishermen's Union.

St. Johns, Nfld., May 27.—The ministry of Premier Cashin, which came into power recently as a result of a division in the former Newfoundland cabinet over the influence of the fishermen's union, was completed today by the addition of John Currie, former opposition leader, as minister without portfolio. Albert Hickman, previously named as minister without portfolio, becomes Minister of Militia, and Wm. Walsh is made Minister of Agriculture without a seat in the Cabinet.

The government has nineteen supporters in the assembly. The seven opposition assemblymen are members of the fishermen's union.

Germany Will Ask Neutral Tribunal For the Ex-Kaiser

(By Will Mott Lewis, special cable) Paris, May 27.—Authoritative indications are that the German counter-proposal for peace demands an increased military establishment, urging the insufficiency of an army of 100,000 in the face of possible Polish and Czechoslovak aggression, but on this point the Allies intend to remain inexorable. The Germans also intend to request a change in the territorial arrangement affecting Upper Silesia, protesting that a majority of the population is German. I am informed that the American and British delegates are inclined to adopt the German viewpoint. The Germans also intend to urge that the former Kaiser shall be tried by a neutral and not by a allied tribunal, but they will meet here with an inflexible refusal.

All London Welcomes Aviators

Throng Greet Hawker and Grievie, the Intrepid Airmen, When They Reached London Last Night.

London, May 27, (By The A. P.)—Harry G. Hawker and Lieut-Commander Mackenzie Grievie were given a remarkable reception on their arrival in London tonight from Northern Scotland, where they were landed Monday morning, after their unsuccessful attempt to fly across the Atlantic from Newfoundland to Ireland in an airplane.

Such enthusiasm as was shown in the greeting of the two intrepid airmen, for whose safety after they had failed to arrive at their destination on schedule time the world had been fearful, probably never has been exceeded, except in the times of coronations.

The crowds began gathering early in the afternoon along the route from the railway station to the Aero Club, where Hawker and Grievie were formally welcomed on behalf of London.

Throughout the afternoon until the train with the heroes arrived, the throngs grew in numbers. When the train pulled into the station the entire line, over which the procession was to pass, was jammed with cheering people.

A foretaste of the great welcome that the aviators were to receive came during the afternoon, when Mrs. Hawker went to the railway station to proceed to Grantham to meet her husband.

The throng at the station loudly cheered the plucky little woman, who never gave up confidence that her husband ultimately would be rescued, even though the hours had overdone grow into days and finally reached a week.

Arriving in London, headed by an Australian band and a body of Australian troops, and a large number of automobiles, Hawker and Grievie passed through the densely packed streets on the way to the Aero Club. In the procession were the mayor and the councillors of St. Pancras, and a detachment of the Royal Air Club, including General Branker, the Duke of Atholl and other famous airmen.

Another delegation in the parade, which was accompanied by a band, was composed of workers from the Sopwith works, where the machine in which Hawker and Grievie attempted to span the ocean was constructed.

The first welcome was accorded the airman at the station at St. Pancras by the mayor of that borough, but still another was given them inside the Aero Club building. After the ceremony at the Aero Club the aviators were entertained by the Sopwith workers.

Like Mrs. Hawker, Mr. and Mrs. Grievie proceeded up the line and met their son and babe, him welcome, and congratulated him on his rescue, before he reached London.

In every town through which the train carrying the airman passed today, crowds of people gathered to cheer them. Wherever the train stopped official receptions were tendered the heroes by the mayors and corporations.

Asked whether he would make another attempt to fly across the Atlantic, Hawker said tonight: "I don't know, it depends upon the Sopwith firm."

A series of entertainments, including many luncheons and dinners, have been arranged for Hawker and Grievie.

GENL CURRIE HONORED BY THE CITY OF LONDON

The Lord Mayor in Proposing the General's Health Said the Canadians Defeated Nearly a Quarter of the Enemy's Strength in Last Days of the War.

CANADIANS NEVER LOST A GUN

In the Last Two Years They Never Failed to Take an Objective and Had Never Lost an Inch of Ground When Once Consolidated.

London, Monday, May 26, (C. A. P.)—General Currie, commanding the Canadian Expeditionary Force, was given a civic luncheon at the Mansion House today by Sir Horace Marshall, the Lord Mayor of London. The Duke of Connaught and Prince Arthur of Connaught attended. The company present included Earl Reading, General Byng, Sir George Perley, Canadian high commissioner, General Turner, Sir George Foster, Canadian Minister of Commerce, and E. Shortt, British Home Secretary, and all the Canadian divisional commanders now in England. The Lord Mayor, in proposing General Currie's health, said that within the last one hundred days of the war, the Canadian army defeated nearly a quarter of the enemy's strength. General Currie was one of the Empire's great men and the city of London, in honoring him was only honoring the men under him.

General Currie, responding to the toast of the gallant troops of ancient London with whom the Canadians had fought in France and Flanders, especially acknowledging the debt of gratitude the Canadians owed to the guards. In all the years of this strenuous war the Canadians had never lost a gun, and in the last two years they had never failed to take an objective and had never lost an inch of ground once it had been consolidated. There were Canadian brigades in whose trenches the British system and tactics were being learned.

Speaking of the League of Nations General Currie said it was a step in the right direction, and brought us nearer the enlightenment of all peoples will be united. The war had brought about many rapid and drastic changes in the viewpoint of the Dominion concerning the relations with the motherland. They now believed it is urgent that a new basis should be found, which will strengthen the British system and recognize certain component parts of the empire had earned the status of nations. They were anxious, among other things, that every suggestion of racial inferiority be removed. There was no reason why Canada, Australia, South Africa, New Zealand and Newfoundland should not be England's relations to the Empire, what Glasgow, Liverpool and Manchester were to London in relation to the United Kingdom.

General Foster, referring to General Currie's plea that the word "colonies" should be dropped, said he had no quarrel with the word except for the fact that there were colonies and also overseas nations. It ought to be recognized that there was now a line of cleavage between the two. When the Supreme Council has appointed a committee of British, French and Italian representatives to confer with representatives of the League of the Red Cross to prepare plans to combat typhus of the cholera, these plans to be submitted to the respective governments.

The spread of the plague in other parts of Europe is feared during the coming winter, could be more favorable for its propagation than in the past. The Supreme Council has appointed a committee of British, French and Italian representatives to confer with representatives of the League of the Red Cross to prepare plans to combat typhus of the cholera, these plans to be submitted to the respective governments.

Some of the economic and financial issues, suggested in the Allied peace terms, Germany is willing to be adjusted by the League of Nations, which she expects to become a member on a basis of equality.

TYPHUS HITS POLAND HARD

One Hundred Thousand Persons Are Ill With the Epidemic—Other Countries Afflicted.

Paris, May 27.—(By The Associated Press.)—One hundred thousand persons in Poland are ill with typhus, according to advices received by the Supreme Economic Council. Typhus is increasing in Poland and is epidemic. It is epidemic in Hungary, and a number of other countries in south-eastern Europe.

The spread of the plague in other parts of Europe is feared during the coming winter, could be more favorable for its propagation than in the past. The Supreme Council has appointed a committee of British, French and Italian representatives to confer with representatives of the League of the Red Cross to prepare plans to combat typhus of the cholera, these plans to be submitted to the respective governments.

Austrians Get Theirs On Friday

The Terms of the Peace Treaty That Have Been Formulated for the Former Empire of the Hapsburgs Will be Presented That Day.

GERMANY MUST MAKE DECISION

Marshal Foch Again Visits Area of Occupation and is All Ready to Move Should Germans Fail to Sign.

Paris, May 27.—(By The Associated Press.)—The Allied council's reply to the protest of Dr. Renner, head of the Austrian delegation, against the delay in the presentation of the peace terms has been received by the Austrian delegation. It is understood that the reply gives formal notice of the presentation of the terms on Friday.

New York, May 27.—The Associated Press tonight issues the following: Germany's counter-proposal to the peace treaty of the Allied and Associated Powers, comprising a volume of goodly proportions, are in readiness for presentation to the Peace Congress at Versailles. No official announcement has as yet been made of the time when Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau will appear before the representatives of the victors in the war to make Germany's final plea for the amelioration of some of the conditions of the treaty which are declared to be too severe for fulfillment, but the time cannot be extended beyond noon of Thursday, when the limit for reply expires.

Late despatches from Berlin indicate that the German document is so contain manifold representations and arguments for a lessening of the severity of the terms, not alone from the financial and economic standpoints, but also with regard to disarmament, both on land and sea but a plan for mutualizing under the League of Nations war craft and merchant shipping of the world's nations. Territorial relinquishments also are to be argued against.

Friday is to witness the receipt by the Austrians of the terms of the peace treaty that have been formulated for the former empire of the Hapsburgs. The plea by the chief of the Austrian delegation for haste by the Allies in making known their terms probably is responsible for Friday having been chosen as the day for the Austrians to appear before the peace congress, it previously having been believed that the ceremony would not take place until next week.

In anticipation of the possibility of a declaration on the part of the Germans to sign the peace treaty, Marshal Foch, the commander-in-chief of the Allied and Associated armies, has made a further inspection of the occupied area in the west, and reported his observations to Minister of War Clemenceau. The landing of British and American marines at Danzig probably indicates that another step to meet the eventuality has been taken.

Some of the economic and financial issues, suggested in the Allied peace terms, Germany is willing to be adjusted by the League of Nations, which she expects to become a member on a basis of equality.

If the world league was based on any other self-determination, Germany is bound to the correspondent in authoritative quarters tonight. Germany would be forced to consider it as an alliance against her.

Germany will negotiate on this basis, but will demand the right to maintain an adequate force during the transition period, when this score is bound to pass through at the conclusion of peace.

The reply will also point out that the borders of Germany, under the ratification of the peace treaty, will continue in a fluid condition, making adequate control by means of frontier patrols necessary.

SOME CLASS TO GERMAN STYLE IN THE PRINTING BUSINESS

Have a Printing Train at Versailles Comprising Twelve Cars—All Their Counter Proposals Have Been Put in Type, Run Through the Presses, Bound in Pamphlet Form on This Train—Equipped Right up to Date and Carries Eighteen Workmen.

Versailles, May 27.—(French Wireless Service)—The printing train which the Germans brought here, and in which they had been putting into type, running through the presses and binding into pamphlet form, their counter-proposals to the peace treaty terms, comprises twelve cars. One of these is a sleeping car, another a passenger carriage, arranged for first class and a half for second, a flat car, loaded with coal, and a car with the printing and other typographical apparatus, and one empty car.

Steam engines and dynamos on the train provide electricity for the lighting of the cars and power for the operation of printing machinery. The printing press is of the flat bed type, operated by electricity. Lithographic apparatus forms a part of the equipment, as does a photographic laboratory, including projection apparatus, and a workshop. By special contrivances the operation of the printing machinery is possible even when the train is in rapid motion. The printing train is under the direction of Herr von Over, a map making specialist, attached to the German army, who has eighteen men under his direction.

GOVT OUTLINES ITS POSITION AS TO LABOR

Sir Robert Borden Makes it Clear That the Gov't Proposes to Maintain Law and Order at All Costs.

CANADA'S POSITION NOT PLEASANT ONE

With Every Energy Being Put Forth to Form a Society of Nations the Dominion is Undoing What League Plans Against.

Ottawa, May 27.—Sir Robert Borden, today, on the labor situation in which he outlined the position of the government. He made it clear that the government proposed to maintain law and order and see that members of the civil service should not be allowed to dislocate the public service under the conditions which have arisen in the west. Sir Robert said that they represented all the people, and the postal employees must make their choice as to whether they will serve the public as a whole or whether they will abandon one and for all the public service. Sir Robert was very definite in his statement on this subject, and was warmly applauded.

Sir Robert also made it clear that every possible facility should be given for discussion between employers and employees, and that arrangements should be made for bringing about industrial peace and stabilizing conditions. He intimated his belief in "collective bargaining," but said that the meaning of the term would have to be defined. It was evident that there was considerable misunderstanding in the labor terms laid down by the Peace Conference and hoped that employers would be prepared to accept them.

Sir Robert hoped that the industrial commission would soon be prepared to report, and said that legislation would be introduced based on this report.

Sir Robert's exact words on collective bargaining are as follows: "So far as collective bargaining is concerned, I have made a good many inquiries as to precisely what that term conveys, and I am thoroughly satisfied that it has not any definite and final meaning which is recognized in all parts of the country. I am further satisfied that even in some parts of Canada, in some cities in this country, it may be understood by some persons in one sense, and by other persons in another sense. I want to make it plain that, so far as my opinion goes, and I think it is the opinion of all the members of the government, every possible facility should be given for discussion between employers and employees, and for the making of arrangements which will bring about industrial peace and stabilize conditions in this country, to the end that wasteful unemployment, used as a coercive measure, may be put to rest, and other methods which must be established as to complete justice and remove any inequality—substituted in its place."

Sir Robert, continuing, made a thoughtful statement on the Canadian situation, in which every patriotic Canadian should give consideration.

Common Council Session Yesterday

Decide to Take up in Committee Request of Citizens' Meeting to Vote $5,000 for Vocational Training—Suggestion from Board of Trade—Other Business Transacted.

The Common Council yesterday decided to take up in committee a request from the citizens' meeting to vote $5,000 for vocational training, and one of the members voiced the opinion that nothing could be done until next year, as no money was available. A communication from the Board of Trade suggesting that the local improvement act be amended to require the names of one-half the ratepayers in opposition to proposed paving was also referred to the committee of the whole, and the sum of $300 was voted for work at the South End Playground.

Mayor Hayes presided, and Commissioners Thornton, Jones, Bullock and Fisher were present.

The committee of the whole report, as already published, was adopted.

The request of Sarah M. Carleton for permission to install a 150-gallon flower tank on her premises, King street west, was referred to the Commissioner of Safety.

The resolution passed at the public meeting held on Monday night, calling on the Common Council to vote the sum of $5,000 and ask the Board of School Trustees to start vocational training in the city schools, was read and referred to the committee of the whole. Commissioner Bullock expressed the opinion that no action could be taken this year, but it would be well to get ready for next year.

George Carvill wrote, asking that the garage by-law be amended and he be given permission to build on Cliff street.

This was referred to committee.

Applications were received from J. McNeil for $3,000, and Robert Crawford for $1,500, for the purpose of erecting buildings. These were referred to the Commissioner of Lands.

A communication from the Board of Trade calling attention to paving needs and suggesting that the local improvement act be amended to make it necessary to obtain the signatures of at least one-half the ratepayers in order to stop proposed paving, instead of one-third at present, was referred to committee.

The following resolution, to give effect to an agreement made with the Booth Fisheries Company in January, 1918, was passed, Commissioner Fisher voting nay:

Resolved, That under the authority given this Council by the Act of Assembly 69 Victoria, Chapter 1, entitled "An Act to authorize the Common Council of the City of Saint John to grant exemptions from civic taxation in certain cases," the land, buildings and improvements, machinery and plant of the Booth Fisheries Company, at Saint John West, be exempted from taxation, except school taxes and water rates, for a period of five years, such exemption to cease and determine whenever for the space of three months the industry established by it in the said city shall cease to be carried on.

On motion of Commissioner Fisher, he was given authority to spend a sum not exceeding $300 in making improvements to the South End Playground.

Commissioner Fisher referred to the request of the New Brunswick Power Company for a switch at Union and Sydney streets, but it was decided to take the matter up in committee.

Commissioner Thornton referred to the fact that he had received a number of complaints about speeding of autos and that he might find it necessary to ask the Council for money to employ additional men as police watch for violators of the by-law.

Inquest on Death of Jean V. Landry

Jury Find Little Girl Accidently Killed and Exonerated Automobile Driver—Recommend Parents Not Allow Children on Street Without Guardian.

We, the jury empanelled to inquire into the death of Jean Verdan Landry, find: "That the deceased came to her death on the evening of May 23, 1919, in the city of St. John, from being run over by an automobile driven by the hand of Willoughby Hatch, but purely accidentally on his part; and we strongly recommend that all parents be more careful and not allow their children to play in the streets without a guardian." Ira B. Kelstead, foreman; T. W. Thompson, Roy E. Morrill, Joseph M. Norbury, F. E. Collins, F. S. Purdy, John H. Hamilton.

The above was the verdict arrived at by the jury after hearing the evidence of several witnesses who viewed the sad accident.

Mrs. Edith Paterson and Miss Joan D. Seely, who were in the car at the time, testified that the car was going down Waterloo street at a moderate rate of speed, and the child was not seen until the car was right on her.

Dr. J. A. McCourt, into whose office the child was carried, found the ribs on both sides broken, and it was his opinion the broken ribs had punctured either the lungs or the heart, causing death. The child lived, he would judge, about five minutes after being struck.

William Brennan saw the accident from Hospital street corner. The car was coming down the sidewalk and its rate of speed on its own side of the street. He did not see the child struck, but saw it when picked up.

Mrs. Rebecca M. Johnston saw the child crossing the street, but did not see it struck. Her daughter called out that the child had been run over and she ran out and picked it up and carried it across the street to its home. The car, she considered, was going at a moderate rate of speed. When she picked the child up it had been on the sidewalk and its feet on the street. Her daughter, Mrs. Burton, corroborated the evidence given by Mrs. Johnston.

Frank J. MacQuillan saw the accident. The car was going as near as he could judge about eight miles an hour. He saw the child just before the car struck her. The car was moving quickly and he considered the driver of the car did everything possible to avert the accident.

John F. Landry, father of the dead child, said the little ones were allowed to play in the yard, but had always been cautioned about going on the street. The driver of the car considered the driver of the car did everything possible to avert the accident.

Willoughby Hatch, after being warned by the coroner that anything he said might be used in court, made a statement of what took place. He was going down the street at eight miles an hour, and he saw the child on the opposite side of the street, but did not see the little girl head on a right on her. He applied the brakes, but before the car stopped she was struck.

The jury were out about half an hour and brought in the verdict as above.

Convention Plans Were Discussed

Executive Committee of All New Brunswick Tourist, Game and Resources League Met Last Evening—Next Tuesday and Wednesday the Dates.

The provincial Executive Committee of the All-New Brunswick Tourist, Game and Resources League held a meeting in the Board of Trade rooms last evening, with E. A. Schofield in the chair, and G. B. Allan acting as secretary. The plans for the convention to be held in St. John on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week were gone into in detail, and everything seemed to be satisfactory, and everybody confident that the meeting would be a success.

T. W. Regan submitted the reports of the committee's constitution and by-laws, and this was adopted with some amendments.

The programme for the convention is interesting and varied, and calculated to meet all tastes which are permissible in a prohibition land.

On Tuesday morning an organization meeting will be held in the Imperial Theatre, when the new league will be formally launched and officers elected, provision being made for the selection of a vice-president for each of the counties in the province. The afternoon session of that day will be devoted to an exposition of the fishing, hunting, vocational and industrial advantages of New Brunswick, the committee having secured for this purpose a fine series of moving pictures of the province, which have been loaned for the occasion by the Dominion and Provincial governments, the various railways, and the Guides' Association.

The principal feature of the programme is a banquet which will be held in the Union Club. At this function the Lieut-Governor, Hon. Wm. Pugsley, and Mayor Hayes will make speeches of welcome, and there will be topical addresses by Premier Foster, J. A. Murray, leader of the opposition; Mr. Bluetie, editor of Forest and Stream, and railway officials and guests.

On Wednesday members of the New Brunswick Automobile Association will take the delegates on a trip about the city and environs, and they will be given facilities to inspect the sugar refinery, the lumber mills, the sardine factories and other industrial institutions which will give them a good impression of the activities of this community. In the afternoon the St. John Power Boat Club will place its fleet of motor boats at the disposal of the delegates, and they will be taken to the river, and after bringing them safely back, treat them to a hot fish supper at the club house.

Good arrangements are being made for home parties for delegates and receptions for their wives.

What Happened To Jones Well Played

Boys of Senior Debating Society Put on Comedy Very Successfully at Rothesay Last Evening—Large Audience Delighted.

The ever popular comedy "What Happened to Jones," was splendidly played by the members of the Rothesay Collegiate School and Senior Debating Society at College Hill last evening. The hall was overcrowded and the audience most enthusiastic. The actors received many compliments for the cleverness of their portrayal of the characters and the casting of the parts. The "girls" were especially well governed. The scenery was effective and the whole performance went with a vim. Many parents and friends of the boys came out from town to be present.

Between the acts an enjoyable solo was given by Fred C. McNeil, and the Rothesay School Orchestra played several fine selections. Those taking part in the play were: Richard G. Gormann, 19, Carl Dennis, 23, John A. Taylor, 20, John C. McCready, 20, A. Courtney, 20, W. Arthur Bowman, 21, Murray S. Skinner, 20, Robert Young, 21, Fred McNeil, 19, F. A. S. Jones, 19, Douglas R. Pugsley, 19, S. Ronald Jones, 20, R. Bayard Manser, 19. The contest acting for the Senior Debating Society consisted of the following: Mr. Haines, John McCready, Richard Gormann, Murray Skinner, Fred McNeil, Ronald Jones, Leslie Jones.

The proceeds of last evening's entertainment are to be given to the Red Triangle Fund.

WEIR FISHERMEN DOWN THE BAY

Not Starting Operations as Early as Usual Owing to Decision of Main Packers Not to Open Factories Till First of August.

Scott Gupitil, M. L. A. for Grand Manan, who came to the city yesterday, informed The Standard that the weir fishermen of the islands were not starting operations as early as usual owing to the decision of the Maine packers of sardines not to open their factories until the first of August.

The stand taken by the packers is said to be due to the fact that they have considerable stocks on hand, and do not care to pay the price of sardines fixed by the weirmen's association at the present time, or until the season is more advanced and they are able to form a better judgment of the market prospects. Cutting off of government orders are said to be largely responsible for the present situation, while the regular trade has not been given orders for various reasons, such as transport difficulties and market uncertainties. Some packers on the New Brunswick side are, however, said to be moving their stocks in a satisfactory manner, and Connors Bros. of Black's Harbor plan on carrying on operations on such the same lines as usual.

Mr. Gupitil said heering were plentiful at the Magdalen Islands this season and his schooner has just arrived from there with a full cargo of herling which will be smoked at Grand Manan. The schooner made the passage both ways and loaded at the Magdalen in eighteen days, which is said to be a record.

Line fishermen on Grand Manan are doing some fishing, and after the first of June will be at work.

Mr. Gupitil said that the Public Works Department of the province had undertaken to do considerable roadwork in Grand Manan this year, and that the programme included the construction of some of the famous permanent roads. At the session of the legislature Mr. Gupitil scored the Minister of Public Works for neglect of the roads of Grand Manan and other islands and it appears his criticism has been taken to heart by the Hon. Mr. Venier, who is now carrying on as he wished to relieve his department of the charge of unfairness towards the island.

SIXTEEN CASES HEARD YESTERDAY

Morning Session Cases in Police Court Comprised Assault, Liquor in Possession, Seven Drunks and Four Juveniles Charged With Theft.

The case against Langford Coram, charged with assaulting James Shaw in the city market, was brought before the police court yesterday morning and further adjourned.

John Fitzmaurice, charged with drunkenness, refused to answer the ordinary questions put to him by the magistrate and was sent below until his temper cooled.

George Therault, arrested on the 17th, charged with indecent assault, was again remanded.

F. Gauthreau and J. Allen, arrested on the charge of having liquor in their possession, were remanded. Inspector Therault was ordered to search the vessel from which they stated the intoxicants had been procured.

Seven holiday celebrants were each fined $8. The others were returned to their cells.

Three juveniles, charged with stealing a bicycle from a shed on the Long Wharf, were allowed to go.

A young lad, giving his name as James Ross was told by the judge that he would be sent to his home in Cambridge, Mass. This chap, charged with breaking into Dick's pharmacy, gave his name as above, though it is Chester Ives, stating that he was 15, and shifted his religion at $11 from Baptist to Roman Catholic. His transportation will be paid by the "down and out" fund started by the judge some time ago and before disposing of the case His Honor gave the boy some healthy advice.

Former Sheriff Endorses Tanlac

Prominent Houston Man Says "Money Could Not Buy the Good It Has Done Me."

"Money couldn't buy the good Tanlac has done me, and I gladly recommend it for what it has done in my case," said Hon. Archie R. Anderson, of Houston, ex-Sheriff of Harris County, Texas, recently.

Mr. Anderson is unquestionably, not only one of the best known but one of the most popular men that ever held public office in the "Lone Star State." After serving as Deputy Sheriff of Harris County for twelve years, he was elected Sheriff of that county and served the post in this important office for fifteen consecutive years. Four years ago, Mr. Anderson declined re-election and retired to private life. He cast his lot among the people of Houston and is a large property owner and foremost citizen of this interesting and prosperous city.

"I was in a rundown condition," continued Mr. Anderson, "and had no appetite at all. I could hardly sleep at night and never felt like getting up in the mornings. I was so tired, I had the worst form of indigestion, suffering all the time from gas on my stomach and was continually belching up undigested food. I had to take my coffee without sugar, as when I drank it with sugar I would just belch for hours. I was a different man when I was poisoned and suffered with neuralgic pains of the worst sort, and nothing seemed to help me only a temporary way. I just can't tell you how I did suffer for the past four years, and up to the time I began taking Tanlac, a few weeks ago.

"When I read the testimonials of some who had been relieved of troubles like mine I just felt like I couldn't make a mistake by taking Tanlac, and it has done me even more good than I had expected. I began to feel better after taking my first bottle and have just now started on my third and I'm a different man already. I sleep like a log now and eat just anything and everything I want without the slightest discomfort afterwards. I am glad to endorse Tanlac because it does the work and I'm telling you I never felt better in my life than I do since taking Tanlac. I am willing for you to publish my statement and let every suffering person who may wish, benefit by my experience with this great medicine."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by the Ross Drug Company and F. W. Munro, under the personal direction of special Tanlac representative—Advt.

REPLY FROM PENOBSCQUIS

Penobscquis, N. B., May 26. Sporting Editor, Standard: Dear Sir,—In this morning's issue of the Standard we notice an account of the game of ball between the St. John Beavers and the Penobscquis Aletas, played on the 24th. Now regarding the game the account was quite true. St. John won by a score of 14 to 5. But as to the Penobscquis team using the other players "shabbily," there seems to be a misunderstanding. At the annual meeting of the Penobscquis Club early this spring it was decided that the team would pay their own expenses while playing away from home, and ask their opponents to do the same. This was necessary for two reasons—first, because the Penobscquis spectators, although always willing to come and cheer their own team, did not wish to pay for the privilege of watching the game. Second, because two years ago the Beavers made three trips to Penobscquis with expenses paid, without giving the team a chance of a return game with the same privilege.

Now, Mr. Editor, this is the first time that the Penobscquis team has been called unprofessional, and we naturally feel it, so we feel sure you will give space to this to set right a grave mistake, or at least a misunderstanding.

As proof that there was no hard feeling between the teams, the Aletas turned over the entire collection taken on the grounds to the captain of the Beavers. And we might add (for the benefit of some Penobscquis readers) that this collection averaged about one cent per head.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for this space, I am,

Yours truly,

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Then bind our realms in brotherhood, Firm laws and equal rights, Let each uphold the Empire's good In freedom that unites.

And make that speech whose thunders roll Down the broad stream of time, The harbinger from pole to pole Of love and peace sublime.

Great God, uphold us in our task, Keep pure and clean our rule, Silence the honeyed words which mask The wisdom of the fool.

The pillars of the world are Thine; In freedom that unites, And make illustrious and divine The sceptre of our race.

LONDON PRESS COMMENT ON CANADIAN LABOR

Manchester Guardian Thinks Present Upheaval Cannot be Attributed to Bolshevism or German Machinations.

London, Thursday, May 22.—(By the Canadian Associated Press.)—The Manchester Guardian, in discussing the Canadian labor troubles, remarks that labor in Canada has, until recently, been weaker politically than in other parts of the Empire. The present upheaval cannot conveniently be accounted for by their family bogeys of bolshevism and German machinations. Profiteering, on a scale unknown in this country, has been rife. At the same time the scarcity of labor, and the vital importance of the ends to which it has been directed, have made the workmen realize that now, for the first time, the remedy for abuses is in their own hands. The demands of the strikers, apparently, have made the workmen realize that now, for the first time, the remedy for abuses is in their own hands.

But my wife took the flu and my baby took the flu, and I couldn't get anybody to look after them, and then I took the flu myself. When I had been away from the office three weeks I got a letter from the head of my department saying that he was awfully sorry but that he had been obliged to get someone to fill my place, and it had to be permanent. ### GREAT POSSIBILITIES FOR CANADA'S PRODUCTS IN EUROPE

Mr. Lloyd Harris, Canadian Trade Ambassador, Returns Home With a Cheering Message for All Manufacturers and Producers—Urges That All Goods Containing Canada's Trade Mark Should be of the Very Best.

Halifax, May 25.—The Canadian Trade Mission arrived here yesterday with several notable Canadians on board, among whom was Mr. Lloyd Harris, senior member of the Canadian Trade Mission to Great Britain and Europe. He has been abroad on the business of Canada since December and returns to report progress officially and to address a series of public meetings throughout Canada on trade possibilities and necessities.

Particularly he wants to impress the point that while the government has done well in arranging credits with certain countries, yet the amount of business being offered is greater than the government has been expected to take care of. He desires to get the people of Canada to organize themselves by trades and arrange the credits necessary to take care of the further business being offered across the seas.

He declares that the Shipping Control Board in Great Britain has not the representations of the Canadian Trade Mission and made refrigeration space on board the Trans-Atlantic liners open to the trade. This, for many months after the armistice was signed, was the great obstacle in Canada's negotiating for a larger share of European trade. Now that this is removed and shipping is easier, the prospects for trade between Canada and Europe are greatly increased.

What Mr. Harris has been able to accomplish overseas affects the industrial life of Canada beneficially. In particular, he has been a business scout surveying the chances for Canadian trade. He has visited the countries of Europe, met the representatives of those countries in Paris and London, and has advised the Canadian Government as to what steps should be taken touching credits and the development of trade. He has been a real trade ambassador, the first one Canada has ever had, and has won the confidence of the trade ambassadors of other countries to the lasting good of Canada and Canadian goods. In international trade, as in other trades, confidence is the foundation stone.

While Canadian troops have left Europe and all the world know what stuff Canadians are made of, yet it remained for Lloyd Harris to acquaint Europe in detail with what Canada can produce, can sell and ship, and what her industrial aims are. The whole industrial life of Canada has been built before these countries by Mr. Harris and his associates who know the facts. On this foundation, bargain and sale have been effected by Canada under the terms of the credits extended to Roumania and other countries.

His work has been to organize the Canadian Trade Mission in London and Europe, to get information as to trade opportunities, to furnish information as to Canada's capacity to supply foodstuffs, raw materials and manufactured goods, to arrange the bases of credits, and to institute a policy of rigorous, independent inspection as a protection to both buyer and seller.

With Great Britain and Europe in a turmoil owing to the unexpected cessation of hostilities, with every country suddenly faced with upward problems, domestic and international, it has been no easy task for the Canadian Trade Mission in London and Europe, yet definite and concrete progress has been made, and the outlook for continued trade in Canadian goods is excellent.

Mr. Harris' mission has been to introduce Canadian products into foreign countries, and thus to aid in keeping the wheels of Canadian industry going, in order that employment might be given to Canadian workers. He has had to protect the value of the credits given by Canada and also protect the buyer. It has been found that, generally, one spending a few weeks at Long Settlement.

THE TEACHER AND OLD AGE

Limited Field of Possibilities of Remunerative Service Face the Teacher as the Years Pass.

(From the Kansas City Star.)

One phase of the low wage situation for teachers is frequently overlooked by the outsider. It is the lack of promise which the years hold for the great majority of the profession. But the teacher cannot overlook this unpromising future; he is too much a person of vision for that.

It is an accepted principle of long standing that hope of better things is the mainspring of life. This hope the average teacher cannot have. He may start well, perhaps at a better wage than he could command in another line of work, and he may plod along with a fair degree of content and satisfaction for a few years.

Then the age of thirty approaches the responsibilities of life begin to increase with marriage, and the teacher dreads with children. Then of necessity there comes a little deep thinking as to the situation twenty-five, thirty or forty years hence. Very likely the maximum salary has already been reached. And the teacher has hardly enough to make ends meet.

Several alternatives are faced. He may "hold his own" to the age of sixty, which will be doing well and better than falls to the common lot, whose salary is likely to decrease constantly after the age of forty-five or fifty. He may take one chance out of a hundred or more to rise to a higher position of responsibility and exceed moderately a living wage.

He must consider a course much less promising than either of these; that his health may fail, that he may "lose out" with the management of pupils of school after school, regardless of ability, or that the cost of living may continue to advance while his salary remains stationary.

There is one other possibility. The teacher now in a position to do his best work, may cast about for another field of activity that promises more, where the wages may continually increase with ability and experience, and where, regardless of a turn of affairs abroad the critical age of sixty, a competency sufficient for remaining years will have been secured.

What will the able and sensible teacher do at this critical moment? The answer is obvious and has been given thousands of times in recent months, when many of the best teachers of the country have either left the profession or planned to do so if wage conditions do not materially improve.

It is folly to talk of devotion to duty, to the high service of teaching with all its compensations, when the thoughtful teacher knows full well that to continue as conditions are will be to imperil his own chance of decently maintaining life, the welfare of his wife and the future education and well-being of his children.

What ought to be done is what must be done if education is to continue a vital force in the Nation. Provision must be made to hold the able teacher in the schools. There must be the lure of something better ahead, the feeling that progress is being made and the power to do it.

The provision is simple. The city schools of Washington, D. C., and a few others of the country have made it. The plan provides that every teacher shall begin with a salary of not less than $2,000 per school year, and for every additional year of successful teaching there will be another $100 of salary. This makes it possible for the teacher who begins at the age of twenty-five with a minimum of $500 per year at the age of fifty and $600 per year at sixty-five, by which time most of the able teachers are forced to retire.

But it would be very easy for those who retire at sixty-five or at sixty to have accumulated a sum sufficient not only for the remaining years of life, but to have provided adequately for a fair-sized family that the man or woman who begins teaching at twenty-five, by which time most of the able teachers are forced to retire.

One advertisement of a country house for sale says the house contains fifty bedrooms. Old timers are surely asking whether the "fifty bedroom" scale of entertaining ever will be seen again.

A POPULAR APPOINTMENT.

Major T. Scott Ryder has been appointed general manager of the Rudolph-Belnap Machinery Company, with headquarters at Montreal, and will remove from St. John about the first of next month. Previous to the war Mr. Ryder was manager of the Canadian Fairbanks-Morse interests here, and was temporarily succeeded by Kenneth Forbes, of Montreal, who will likely remain in charge of the St. John branch.

WEDDINGS
Warden-Proctor.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized by Rev. Wm. U. Hatfield at the home of Mrs. Ada Proctor, Cody, N. B., on Tuesday evening, May 20th, at 8 o'clock. The principals of the interesting event were William Ernest Warden and May Proctor, both popular young people. The ceremony was performed on the veranda, the contracting parties standing under a green arch of trailing moss. The bride wore a wedding gown of cream satin with brilliant trimmings, also a bridal veil trimmed with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white and pink carnations. After the ceremony a dainty repast was served in the dining room to the fifty invited guests. Mr. and Mrs. Warden will reside at the Narrows.
McCarroll-McMackin.
A very pretty wedding took place at North in the Sacred Heart church, on May the 20th, when Miss Theresa Catherine McMackin of Poodiac, Kings County, was united in marriage to Henry W. McCarroll of Southport. The ceremony was solemnized with nuptial high mass. Rev. M. O'Brien officiating. Miss Theresa McMackin attended the bride while Daniel McMackin supported the groom. The bride was becomingly attired in white crepe de chine with bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a white prayer-book and amethyst rosary. The costume of the bridesmaid was of lavender crepe de chine with hat to correspond. The wedding march was played by Mrs. W. Reynolds, who presided at the organ, and hymns were chanted by the choir. The groom's gift to the bride was a sapphire, to the bridesmaid a pearl pendant, and to the groomsmen a set of gold cufflinks. After a dainty repast at the parochial residence Mr. and Mrs. McCarroll left on the Maritime express for a trip to Boston. On their return they will reside in Sussex.

The bride wore a wedding gown of cream satin with brilliant trimmings, also a bridal veil trimmed with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white and pink carnations. After the ceremony a dainty repast was served in the dining room to the fifty invited guests. Mr. and Mrs. Warden will reside at the Narrows.

MONTHLY MEETING HELD YESTERDAY

Free Kindergarten Association Held Session—Reports from Five Kindergartens Show Many Children Detained Home Through Illness.

The monthly meeting of the Free Kindergarten Association was held in the Bible Society rooms, Germain street, yesterday afternoon. Reports from five kindergartens show that there has been a good attendance, though many children have been detained at home through chicken pox and whooping cough.

Topics for the month included "Spring" and "The Return of the Birds," with appropriate stories, songs and games. The children have made excellent barrows, rakes, hoes and other garden and farm implements, from paper, and have made from clay many garden and farm implements, bird houses and nests, and pictures of birds were cut from colored paper. In addition two of the kindergartens enjoyed an outdoor day with the birds and budding trees.

Many children were away from classes because of the lack of clothing, especially boots. Donations toward a fund from which boots can be provided would be appreciated by the association.

The work of the International Kindergarten Union, which was held last week in Baltimore, was discussed with much benefit.

Major A. D. (Nick) Carter, D. S. O., and His Gift Machine

Above is shown the latest picture of the late Major Carter seated in D. VII, the captured German Fokker plane which was presented to him by the Canadian overseas government. Major Carter had the official record of bringing down 32 enemy machines of this type and larger, a record unequalled by an American "ace" and surpassed by few in the Royal Air Force. This intrepid New Brunswick ace had also been presented with a flag by the Duchess of Devonshire during her recent visit to the old country, an honor which was accorded to but six of the highest ranking fighters in the Royal Canadian Air Force. The Fokker machine shown above is one which was used extensively by the enemy for scouting duty and light patrol and usually formed one of the wings of raiding parties.

YOUNG TOM MANNING HAD A NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING

Sixteen Year Old Son of Dr. James Manning Thrown Into Waters of Kennebecasis Yesterday When Sailboat Capsized—Started to Swim to Shore—Picked up Exhausted by Tug Albatross After Being Over an Hour in the Water.

Struggling for an hour and a half in the icy waters of the Kennebecasis which were whipped into angry waves by hard squalls Tom Manning, the 16 year old son of Dr. James Manning, of Germain street, had a narrow escape from death yesterday and an experience which will give him nightmares for some time to come. Luckily when he was growing numb with the cold, exhausted by his struggles, and dazed by the wash of the waves over his head, the tug Albatross, Captain Glichrist, bore in sight coming up the river. Shaking off the stupor that was coming over him, rousing his falling faculties young Manning shouted at the top of his waterlogged lungs, waved his hand as he was flung to the top of a wave in frantic efforts to attract attention. The clamorous hand of fear ripped him by the throat as the boat kept on its way without any body on it noticing him.

At length the tug noticed the capsized boat and turned for it. Young Manning by that time was a long way from the boat, but seeing the tug stop to examine it he renewed his efforts to attract attention, and at last saw the men on the tug wave to him. When the tug got to him and dragged him aboard, young Manning was about all in, but the residence of youth was his, and after he had been warmed in the heat of the engine room he was little the worse for his trying experience. The Albatross proceeded to Pampenece and landed the young man, who was taken to the home of Charles Clarke. All this time Dr. Manning and his family were greatly worried as to what had happened to the lad. A boat sent out by John C. Chesley, local agent of the Marine department, had gone in search of him, and Dr. Manning himself had started up the river in a motor boat. Young Manning took a sailboat at the R. K. Y. C. anchorage on Saturday.

FIRST SILENT POLICEMAN APPEARS

Commissioner of Safety Had One Placed on Corner of Main and Adelaide Streets Yesterday—Need for Larger Traffic Squad.

The first silent policeman made its appearance in St. John yesterday when Commissioner Thornton had it placed on the corner of Main and Adelaide streets in the North End. For years past vehicles have been driven around the corner of N. C. Scott's grocery without taking any heed to the law regarding "drive to the left," and drivers in the future will do well to drive around the "silent cop" or put up with the consequences, as those disobeying the rules will be prosecuted.

Commissioner Thornton expects that this silent policeman will shortly be followed by others at different points in the city. Complaints are being made daily of automobile drivers using entirely too much speed at crossings where there is no traffic officer on duty, and it is possible that the commissioner of public safety will be called on to provide a larger traffic squad, as it has been found from experience that the traffic policeman is a necessity. There are at present only a few who can be spared from the small force, and while some of the most important crossings are looked after, there are others which need the presence of an officer to direct the traffic and look after the safety of the pedestrians. The absence of a traffic officer on King street a few nights ago was the cause of a blockade for some minutes. An automobile going up in the centre of King street intending to turn south into Charlotte was stalled by a motor car proceeding north on the latter street. A street car coming up King and another on Charlotte were held up as well as a large number of persons while the automobile driver who was driving in the centre

POSSIBLE SITES FOR ABATORIO

Daniel Johnson of Federal Department of Agriculture Speaks of Moncton as a Good Place, While Amherst and Sackville Were Proposed.

Daniel Johnson of the market division of the Live Stock Branch of the Federal Department of Agriculture, has been inspecting possible sites for the proposed abattoir and cold storage plant for the Maritime Provinces. Speaking to a reporter Mr. Johnson said that the idea now was to have established stockyards near the border between New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, so as to be able to serve both St. John and Halifax. Moncton owing to its railway facilities would be a good place, and sites were proposed at Amherst and Sackville. It is understood that the provincial departments of agriculture will have a good deal to say as to a choice of location, as it is intended that the stockyards shall be at the service of the provinces as well as of business from the west.

of King street took his time in cranking up the "Lizzie." Now that the commissioner is giving the "silent cops" a trial drivers would do well to remember the law and keep on the proper side of the road.

Serious Cases In Police Court

H. Creighton Charged With Assault—Matthew Frier With Acting Suspiciously in Region of Break Into Brayley Drug Company.

The assault case of Ralph Frizel versus H. Creighton was heard yesterday afternoon in the police court. Evidence was given by George Wade, Fred Youmans and T. Elliot, all employed by the railway or milkmen who were present at the Union Depot when the assault was alleged to have been made. Creighton's deposit of $120 was held, pending a personal examination of the premises by the magistrate.

Evidence was given by Fred Dougherty, Cliff Street, in the case against Matthew Frier, charged with acting suspiciously in the region of the recent break into the Brayley Drug Company. Dougherty is the mysterious man in the auto who speeded away at two o'clock Saturday morning when the police patrol appeared on the scene.

Examined by the magistrate, Detective Power and E. S. Ritchie, counsel for the accused, he stated that he took out his car Saturday morning at one o'clock, acting on a phone message from a man named Ritchie. He was to have met a party at or near the High School, and on the way down gave a "lift" to two chaps, who said they were going to the North End. He had a wait of several minutes before picking up the party, which comprised Ritchie and two other men whom he did not know. They seemed to be looking for others. He drove them around the North End as far as Portland street, and then returned. One, a stranger, got off before they came to the Union Depot. He drove straight up Mill and along Dock street. He did not go near the power station and saw no one running near there. Near Estabrook he was stopped by a military officer, who asked him if he had anything of three military police. He had not. Hearing shouting a few minutes later, he stopped the car. An Estabrook he was stopped by a military officer, who asked him if he had anything of three military police. He had not.
