

HOW GERMANY TRIED TO LEAD FRANCE INTO A CORNER

The Other Side of Emperor William's Boer War Scheme -- An Attempt to Unite With Russia and France Against Great Britain

PARIS, Oct. 29.—The Echo de Paris this morning publishes a lengthy article giving the other side of the story concerning the negotiations between France, Russia, and Germany, to call upon Great Britain to put an end to the South Africa War, as told in an interview with Emperor William which was published in the London Daily Telegraph yesterday. France joined in the Russian attempt mediation only on grounds of humanity, while Russia acted as spokesman in the negotiations. In the belief, from previous assurances that Germany would unite with the other two powers on this basis. Indeed, the Emperor replied that intervention by the three powers would be a highly unfair, and that if it was undertaken, France, Russia and Germany must enter into a mutual engagement to guarantee the integrity of their territories. Russia at once saw that this condition would not be favorable to France, and designating danger in Germany's stand. Transmitting Russia's decision to M. Delcasse, the French Foreign Minister, Count Mouraviev declared that in the eyes of his government acceptance of Germany's condition was inadmissible because it would imply in the first place the disappearance of the Franco-Russian alliance, which henceforth would be without object. According to the Echo de Paris, Germany's object clearly was to form a new triple alliance against Great Britain and at the same time to destroy the Franco-Russian alliance, subservient France in her policy for all time by conditions which were tantamount to signing the treaty of Frankfurt and giving an engagement never to attempt to regain Alsace Lorraine.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. McKel, of Fairville. The bride, who was unattended, was prettily attired in light blue with hat to match. Her travelling costume was of green. After a light luncheon Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left on the Boston train on a trip to the border towns and on their return will reside at Spruce Lake.

FOURTEEN YEAR OLD BOY ARRESTED ON MURDER CHARGE

Chester Urquhart in Jail in Fredericton—Bullet from His Rifle Killed George Clary While the Two Lads Were Out Shooting

FREDERICTON, N. B., Oct. 23.—Chester Urquhart, aged 14, of Covered Bridge, Nashua, this county, was arrested yesterday afternoon at his home by Constable Hawthorne, of this city, on a warrant issued by Police Magistrate Marsh, charged with the murder of George Clary, a boy belonging to the same settlement, on October 15. The prisoner is lodged in the county jail here and will come up for his preliminary examination in the police court Saturday morning. CONSERVATIVE PARTY MUST BE BORN AGAIN

No Use in Applying to the Country Without New Material

Says Dr. Andrew McPhail, of Montreal—Barns of the Heartz Farm Near Charlottetown Burned.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Oct. 29.—The barns of the well known Heartz farm, owned by Frank H. Heartz, three miles from here, were burned to the ground this morning with all this season's crop, machinery, etc. The total loss is $18,000, and insurance $12,000. The valuable herd of Clydesdale brood mares and stallion were saved. Five buildings were destroyed.

Dr. John Andrew McPhail, of Montreal, visiting at his home here, was interviewed respecting the result of the election. He said that the people were not convinced that Mr. Borden had at his command material for a better government than that which the country has had for the past twelve years. The Conservative party was practically the same as that from which the country had withdrawn its confidence in 1896, and he thought it would continue in opposition until it had rejuvenated itself. Mr. Borden had asked the people to put their wine into old bottles and the people had refused. Mr. Borden did not seem to tell the people what he proposed to do. He neglected to tell them how he was going to do it. He did not tell them who was to be minister of finance instead of Fielding, who was to replace Fisher as minister of agriculture, who was to be postmaster general instead of Mr. Lemieux, who was to have Graham's portfolio or railways, who was to be minister of customs, of inland revenue department, he it noted, against which no breath of scandal had been uttered. It was not customary, he knew, to disclose this information in advance of the elections in case of a change of government. He was not to open their mouths and shut their eyes.

AFFIDAVITS READ TODAY IN THE CURREY DIVORCE CASE

CAPE BRETONERS STILL SORE OVER THE RESULT

Conservatives May Protest MacKenzie's Election—Maddin, Had Majority of 228.

SYDNEY, N. S., Oct. 29.—The result of Monday's election in this county has been most disappointing to the Liberals, the defeat of their candidate being felt particularly in view of the splendid victory achieved throughout the Dominion, by the Liberal government. Complete returns of the election received from all sections of the county give Maddin (Con.) a majority of 223 over Johnston (Lib.) It is expected that the Fielding Liberal Club of this city will tender Mr. Johnston a public reception in the Sydney Lyceum this week. In connection with the election of Mr. Mackenzie (Lib.) whose majority over the Conservative candidate was 21 in North Cape Breton, it is learned that the Conservatives will protest the seat.

Mr. Hanington Tells That He Tried to Arrange a Separation, But Mr. Currey Would Not Listen to Any Such Proposals—The Money Question

FREDERICTON, Oct. 29.—The Currey suit was resumed this morning before Judge Gregory and counsel spent most of the forenoon submitting affidavits and arguing on the question of alimony. In her affidavit Mrs. Currey claimed that her husband's annual income amounted to $8,000 while in his reply to the same Mrs. Currey claimed that it did not come to more than $2,000. He claimed that Mrs. Currey and her father were worth considerable property in their own right. The affidavit of Mrs. Mary Eliza Currey in reply to her husband's affidavit said her husband told her he had $20,000 in debentures. She said that her husband threatened to turn her out on the street and made her life miserable. Her husband had not contributed to her support since she went to Westfield (the house where she and the children now reside is entirely unfit for a winter residence, as it is only fitted up as a summer residence it is not even plastered. It would be necessary for her to remove to the city in order to have comfort for the children. In her affidavit Mrs. Currey denied point blank the statements made by Mr. Currey and stated that the former's statements are untrue. In regard to the property mentioned by Mrs. Currey as having been in possession of herself and father she said that her father died comparatively poor and whatever property he left went to this widow, Mrs. Currey getting none. Mr. Currey first met her at Bermuda where she was visiting an uncle who had plenty of money, which he claimed would be hers when her uncle died. After Mr. Currey had found that her uncle was dead and had left her none of his property, he began to treat her badly. Mr. Hanington read a letter which Mrs. Currey sent him on May 25 last to Mr. Currey in which she said that Mrs. Currey had complained of cruelty and asked that some action be taken against Currey. His firm in the letter urged Mr. Currey that he and his wife get together and arrange a separation quietly. Mr. Currey refused to do this and said he wished his wife to leave his house and that the sooner she was away the better. If she would leave the house and him, he would give her $100. Mr. Currey said that his wife's father had lost considerable money in stocks. Continuing Mr. Hanington said that on Sept. 26 he had urged Mr. Skinner through a letter to try and arrange a settlement between the parties. These letters it is claimed by Mrs. Currey's attorneys go to show that Mrs. Currey was willing to have a separation without coming into court and that Mr. Currey was unwilling to agree to this.

HEARD DEATH CRY OF HER FATHER

Strange Experience of Daughter Many Miles Away.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., Oct. 28.—Suddenly awoken at a deep sleep with the almost certain assurance that she had heard her father call her name in agonizing tones and then a few hours later to receive a telegram that he was dead, was the awful experience of Flora Catlin, the 20-year-old daughter of Louis N. Catlin, of Cardinal. Miss Catlin was visiting in many miles from Cardinal. Deceased was employed as night watch on the Cleveland Canal work at Cardinal, and a fellow-workman entering the shanty before daylight found him slumped in an unresponsive position. He lingered for a few hours then passed away. Enquiry shows that the awakening of the daughter was coincidental with the death agonies of her father.

STRANGERS' GALLERY IN THE COMMONS IS CLOSED

Suffrage Sympathizers Disturb the Proceedings—Women Chained Themselves to the Rail.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Suffragette disturbances have driven the government to the unusual course of temporarily closing the strangers' and ladies' galleries in the House of Commons. This was announced by the Speaker in response to a question from Premier Asquith and Mr. Balfour, the leader of the opposition, as parliament was adjourning tonight. During the course of the evening while the House was discussing the Licensing Bill, a sensation was caused by the display of a placard and sudden shrill cries from the ladies' gallery demanding votes for women, while simultaneously a bundle of handbills fluttered down from the strangers' gallery at the opposite end of the chamber and a man shouted protests against "justice to women."

IMPROPER TALK IN PULPIT COSTS $500

Georgia Court of Appeals Affirms Conviction of Evangelist

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 28.—The Georgia Court of Appeals today affirmed the verdict of guilty against the Rev. Walt Holcombe of Cartersville, Ga., who was convicted of using improper language in the pulpit when there were women in the congregation, and sentenced him to pay a fine of $500 and costs. Holcombe is an evangelist and the son-in-law of the late Rev. Sam P. Jones. Holcombe used the language for which he was indicted in the Cartersville Tabernacle while a great revival was in progress. In affirming the conviction the Court of Appeals says: "It was not the ribaldry of some low-grade comedian in a second-class theatre. It was the indecent jest of a minister of the Gospel, made in a house devoted to the services of God, in the presence of some 3,000 worshippers, aimed at a female member of the congregation whose excess of ardor happened to excite his attention."

Bishop Tierney
Among the recent removals by death is that of the Right Rev. Michael Tierney, Bishop of Hartford. He was stricken with apoplexy and the end came very suddenly. Cardinal Gibbons modifies Dr. MacPhail's charge that American women are idle and unhappy. THE ANGLICAN.

A Great Coronation

It is proposed to hold a great coronation in 1911 to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the opening of the first Anglican church in Canada, at Annapolis, Nova Scotia.

The Book of Praise

This book is now fully sanctioned. It is published by the Oxford, England, and contains 748 hymns.

A Booklet

A booklet which has reached its 85th thousand, though only containing 32 pages, is thus spoken of by the Presbyterian Witness: "Its pages give a very concise outline of the alleged history of the (Anglican) church from the days of the Apostles to the present. Imagination helps out the facts. The Anglican is shown to be the one and only true church, the foremost, the earliest and the purest. Its ministry is all right. Its teachings are inerrant, its history is unbroken, its prospects are perfect, its triumphs are sure. This is fine. All other churches are in a bad way, except the Puritans of New England.

Rev. G. O. Troop

The New Freeman says: "After serving the Montreal Star with a good view of the Eucharistic Communion, he (Mr. Troop), is now against politics in the election of Anglican bishops. Is he after the honor?"

SATURDAY SERMONETTE

Just before an important election, Dwight L. Moody talking to a brother evangelist asked him what he thought of the "political outlook?"

"I don't know anything about it," was his answer. "My citizenship is in heaven."

"Better get it down to earth for the next sixty days," said that common sense Christian.

"And that is the attitude of far too many 'citizens,' of this working world. Hands too white, souls too pure, heads too soft, to come down from the clouds to do Christian work."

Inevitable harm has been done by the fanatical visionaries whose "citizenship" have been not in heaven but in the clouds.

"A citizen of heaven" does all he can to make good citizens of earth first and then citizens of heaven.

No wonder men, live men, virile men, are not attracted to a church that teaches this world is a "wilderness of woe," and tells its disciples to get as far from the wilderness as they can and not to clear the wilderness up.

A cowardly man or an ignorant man is the man who will not vote.

The religion that can be contaminated by voting for what it believes to be good government, must be a religion not strong enough to save men from the evils of this world.

To shirk the duty of citizenship is as unchristian as to evade some or church duties.

If we are taught to pray for those who rule over us, we are taught to elect—as far as our votes are electable—men who will rule righteously.

If laws are unrighteous do I not make them so by letting—without trying to prevent them—unrighteous men make them?

Vote independently. The man who votes only when he gets a consideration in money, or anything else, sells himself cheaply. But he doubtless gets more than he is worth, no matter how small the amount.

Vote thankfully. It cost much to give you the privilege.

Vote honestly, so that you can go home with a good conscience.

Don't get mad and say hard things to those for whom you voted less the election.

Don't say you let your vote if your men were not elected. The only man to lose his vote is the man who does not use it.

P. S.—If you don't know how to vote ask me.

MORSE'S SYSTEM OF HIGH FINANCING

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—In the bewildering mass of figures brought out before Judge Hough and the jury in the United States Circuit Court, criminal branch, the most conspicuous fact was that while Charles W. Morse was in control of the National Bank of North America, that institution had loaned out $500,000 based upon stock of the American Ice Securities Company, which Mr. Morse was promoting and backing.

This ice stock is alleged to have been actually the property of the bank, and United States District Attorney Stinson who is conducting the prosecution, contends that the bank's funds were illegally used for speculation. As a matter of fact the stock was taken in the names of persons to whom the bank's money purposed to be advanced upon their promissory notes.

Two of the men whose notes were being carried by the bank came forward as witnesses for the government and admitted that they had been financially irresponsible and that they had little knowledge of the big financial transactions in which they were nominally principals. Both men exhorted to obey the authority of the emperor. In our day, however, this God-ordained power of authority is not vested in a king but in the electorate.

"In voting for our future law makers every soul should be subject to these God-ordained powers of authority," said the speaker. "In his conscience," said the speaker, "he should see his hearers not to be swayed by party allegiance but to vote for men whom they believed to be honest, capable statesmen."

REV. GORDON DICKIE
Rev. Gordon Dickie, rector of St. Stephen's church, preached an interesting sermon on the sanctity of the ballot at the service yesterday.

He took for his subject Life Unperishable, from the text Isaiah iv, 1: "Without money and without price." "Without money and without price," said the speaker, "is the only question I want to ask you is," said the speaker, "how are we fitting ourselves to select our rulers? The names of the candidates may be long as they are, but the contest will live in the hearts of men forever."

"I am asking myself how many men there are capable of casting their vote for money and how many there are whom money cannot tempt."

"Does the idea of bribery appear more repugnant to you today than it did four years ago?"

"Elections are sometimes governed by the idea that people are moths who are ruled by emotion not reason. All that is capable of casting their vote is the enthusiasm displayed in this contest that of reason or of passion?"

"There was a commandment written long ago in the Bible which said, 'Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.' A lie was never uttered until there was a market for a lie. If there has been any reason for hearing false witness it is because you and I are not always willing to ask 'Is that true?' if the statement is to the advantage of our own party."

"We do not know that a single falsehood has been uttered, but there has been much talk of it on the streets."

"Are you willing that our Dominion should be ruled by anything less than the truth? Shall we be allowed to gain anything by bearing false witness?"

"I have not a word of criticism for any man. I merely want to ask, I want to ask, Can men depend upon money, can men depend upon passion, can men depend upon prejudice to influence others?"

He closed with an exhortation to those present to build well that the future of their lives and the future of the city might not be marred by the mistakes of the present.

REV. M. E. FLETCHER.
Rev. M. E. Fletcher preached an interesting sermon in the Charlotte Street Baptist Church last evening.

He took for his text Romans xiii, 1: Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers for there is no power but from God and the powers that are are ordained by God.

The speaker introduced his subject by quoting from Viscount Milner's address delivered at the University of Toronto last Wednesday, in which his lordship said that the Dominion had taken a foremost place among the nations of the world. Her great future is absolutely assured.

The speaker went on to show that there was a great possibility of Canada becoming a great nation on account of her geographical position; her extent of territory; her natural resources; a race of hardy and intelligent citizens; her connection with the mother country, and her Christian religion. These elements of national greatness carried with them a great responsibility, which if lived up to would make a great nation of Canada, but if disregarded meant decadence and death. The speaker said that the Dominion had been a people of hardy and intelligent citizens who would today turn another stone in the temple of her success as they deposited their ballots. He then explained that the text applied primarily to the Christians at Rome, whom Paul

UNKNOWN IS KILLED BY A STREET CAR

Man Horribly Cut Close on Heels of Up Saturday Longboat

LINGERS 4 HOURS
Struck by Trolley Car at Corner of Princess and Sydney Streets

A frightful accident, resulting fatally, occurred at the corner of Princess and Sydney streets shortly after eight o'clock Saturday night when an unknown man was run over by a street car, receiving injuries which caused his death about four hours later.

The weather was quite foggy at the time, and street car No. 26 with John A. Smith of 211 King street, motorman, and Edward Carr of No. 11, North street, conductor, was going along at a fair rate of speed, when about twenty feet from the eastern side of Sydney street, Motorman Smith said he saw on the tracks what looked to him like an old piece of baggage.

Applied the Brakes
He applied the brakes and felt the car bump over something. When stopped it was found that instead of baggage the wheels had passed over the body of a man and the unfortunate was lying by the side of the rails, writhing in agony with both legs almost severed from the body. Two ladies who witnessed the accident said that they saw the man staggering along Sydney street, and when he was but a few feet from the car track he stumbled and fell on the rails. They frantically tried to signal the approaching car to stop, but it was too late and the car passed entirely over the form and left a dyed man in the rear.

Dr. Thos. Walker, Dr. Mot and Dr. Case, who reside within a few yards of where the accident happened, were summoned and in a few minutes were doing all that could be done for the injured man. Stimulants were obtained from Burpee Brown's drug store, which is situated on the opposite corner. The ambulance, which was in readiness in S. T. Golding's stable about a hundred yards away, was also quickly on the scene, and in remarkably quick time the man was being hurried to the General Public Hospital in the care of Dr. Case.

DID NOT LOSE CONSCIOUSNESS.
The injured man did not altogether lose consciousness, and in answer to Dr. Case said his name was Hean of Pond street, and on the way to the hospital complained of feeling sick to his stomach. At the hospital Dr. Case once more asked the name of the man, and he replied, "Higan of York Point."

"Did you say York Point?" asked the doctor.

"That's what," replied the man. The poor fellow then mumbled something requesting those attending him not to hurt him. Everything possible was done to save his life, but it was useless. There was no hope for the man after the wheels passed over his body. His right leg was badly broken between the knee and the thigh, and between the knee and the ankle the limb was crushed so badly that the pieces of bone protruded and the foot was only being held on by the cords. The left leg was broken just above the ankle and the broken bone protruded through the skin about an inch. There was a bad bruise on the forehead and the body was all bruised. The sight was indeed a sickening one and strong men were forced to turn away from it.

OF MEDIUM STATURE.
The man was of medium stature, his hair was dark with just a tinge of gray near the forehead. He was smooth shaven and was attired in a shabby dark suit of clothes.

Several persons called at the hospital and street railway officials were searching Pond street and vicinity for any traces of a person named Hean or Higan, but could find no tidings of any such person having resided in that section of the city. There was nothing in the clothing to tell who the man was and no person called at the hospital morgue to identify the remains.

When the injured man was giving the names he was hardly conscious and it was thought that perhaps he did not really know what he was saying.

John Smith, the motorman in charge of car No. 26, feels very badly over the accident. He is one of the most careful and popular motormen on the railway.

Coroner D. E. Berryman viewed the remains at the hospital and after making some inquiries said last night that he thought it was a case that necessitated a thorough investigation.

Several persons called at the hospital morgue yesterday afternoon and last night but none could identify the remains.

HILLSBORO RESIDENT DEAD
HOPWELL HILL, N. B., Oct. 23.—Mansfield Stevens, a well known resident of Hillsboro, died suddenly yesterday. His death is causing widespread regret and is a severe shock to his family. The deceased had been in his usual health, and dropped dead in the field. Mr. Stevens was about sixty-five years of age and is survived by his wife, who is a daughter of the late Dr. S. O'Regan of this place, and has a family of grown-up sons and daughters. One of the latter is Mrs. Dean McLarty of Woodville, Albert county. Mr. Stevens had been for many years a foreman with the Albert Manufacturing Company. One son, John Stevens, is employed in McAvity's foundry in St. John.

MOTORMAN CRUSHED BETWEEN TWO CARS
Frank H. McFarlane The Victim
COLLISION OCCURS
Misplaced Switch Cause of it—McFarlane Will Recover

A misplaced switch on the tracks of the street railway caused a collision between two cars Saturday, which resulted in Frank H. McFarlane, a motorman being very seriously injured although, it is hoped, not fatally.

Car No. 74, going north was standing opposite the end of Douglas Avenue, and the motorman was standing in the doorway when the accident took place. A switch which connects the two tracks had been in some way opened, it is thought by the wheel of a wagon or carriage.

Car No. 72, coming from Indiantown, was just slowing up when it struck the open switch and was thrown head on into the other car. A cry of horror went up from the bystanders when it was seen that Motorman McFarlane was pinned between the two cars.

The cars were backed away and tenders' hands carefully lowered Mr. McFarlane to the ground. He was badly cut up around the face and showed signs of severe injury. In an unconscious condition he was carried into the ambulance. Dr. F. W. Roberts' office was given immediate attention.

It was found "that in addition to the wounds in his head he had several ribs broken and was badly bruised. After everything possible was done to make him comfortable he was removed to his home, 435 Main street, in the ambulance. Dr. Roberts accompanying him.

Although his injuries are painful and serious and will necessitate his remaining in bed for some considerable time, it is hoped that the result will not be fatal.

Mr. McFarlane has been in the employ of the St. John Street Railway Co. for about three years. He is about twenty-five years old and is married.

HANS HOLMER GIVES INDIAN HARD TUGGLE

Close on Heels of Longboat

STAR ROAD RACE
Indian Captures it But Line of Teams Block Other Runners

MONTREAL, Oct. 25.—The feature of the big star road race on Saturday afternoon was the splendid running of Hans Holmer of Halifax, who gave Longboat, the famous Indian runner, a hard tussle throughout the course and, as a good many claim, would have quite possibly won the race but for the fact that there was a perfect mob of carriages and automobiles behind the Indian, and none of the other runners were able to fight their way to the front. As it was, Holmer finished only 30 seconds behind the Indian, and was in splendid shape, doing everything he could to squeeze through the cloud of rigs and dust and get after the Indian. The way in which the runners were hampered in their efforts caused a good deal of indignation, and the opinion was freely expressed that such races should end on a regular track, where every man would be given a fair chance.

Longboat won the race of fifteen miles around the mountain in 1 hour 35 minutes and 48 seconds, while last year he won the same race in 1:24:20.

All Forced to the Front
The winners all forged to the front at the start, and held their leads pretty well. Holmer led a considerable distance, with Adams, Longboat and Able Woods close behind in a bunch. A few miles later Longboat took the lead, but Holmer kept close to his heels, and before half the race was over it was evident that a great lay between the two, while the man from Halifax was giving the Indian all sorts of trouble to keep his lead.

Another Halifax man who made a very good showing in the race was Rogers, who was well up throughout the whole course, and finished a good way over it was evident that a great lay between the two, while the man from Halifax was giving the Indian all sorts of trouble to keep his lead.

With scarce a page of news, the Ottawa Citizen, in its issue of the 25th inst., has a very good showing in the race was Rogers, who was well up throughout the whole course, and finished a good way over it was evident that a great lay between the two, while the man from Halifax was giving the Indian all sorts of trouble to keep his lead.

Thousands of Sheep Lost in a Blizzard
MAPLE CREEK, Sask., Oct. 25.—Despatches says twenty-five hundred sheep belonging to a rancher named Iver Wilson, drifting before a great storm, went into the lake and were drowned.

Harry Martin, of Martin Brothers, another, is missing, and is supposed to have perished in the blizzard.

20,000 Reported
SANTA FE, N. M., Oct. 25.—Twenty thousand sheep grazing on the Curriers Mountain range in Rio Arriba county, 140 miles north of here, are reported to have perished in the blizzard, which has raged in that section during the last three days. The storm is the worst in years, and snow is from five to ten feet deep. Besides the great loss of sheep, six herders are missing, and it is believed they were frozen to death.

Are the Sharp Twinges and Tortures of Rheumatism Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a Certain Cure

The twinges and the tortures of rheumatism are not due to cold, damp weather, or so many people imagine. Rheumatism comes from poisonous acid in the blood. The pains may be started by cold weather, damp weather, or by keen winds. There is only one way to cure rheumatism. It must be treated through the blood. All the liniments and rubbings, and so-called electrical treatment in the world will not cure rheumatism. The acid that causes the disease must be driven out of the blood and the blood enriched and purified. It is because Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make new, red blood that they have cured thousands of cases of rheumatism after all other treatment had failed. As a proof of what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will do even in the most severe cases of rheumatism, the case of Mr. David Carroll, a well known furniture dealer of Picotou, N. S., may be cited. Mr. Carroll says: "I have been a most severe sufferer from rheumatism, and in the hope that some other poor sufferer may find relief from my experience, I gladly write you of the benefit I have received from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The trouble settled in my shoulders and down my sides and at times I was quite unable to raise my arms. I was attended by a doctor, but as I did not appear to be getting any better, I sent for a so-called electric belt for which I paid $40.00. It did not do me any good and then I tried another remedy, but without any better results. A friend asked me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I got three boxes, by the time I had used them all I found the stiffness and pain had lessened, and I got another half dozen boxes. When I had taken these every symptom of the trouble had disappeared and in the two years that have since passed I have had no return of the trouble. I believe there is no other medicine equal to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for curing this most painful trouble, and I have recommended the Pills to others who have been benefited by their use."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills not only cure rheumatism but all the other diseases due to poor watery blood, such as anaemia, indigestion, nervous disorders, neuralgia, St. Vitus' dance, paralysis, and the ailments of girlhood and womanhood, with their headaches, backaches, sickaches, and attendant miseries. Only the genuine Pills can do this and you should see that the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" is on the wrapper around each box. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 60 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE PRESBYTERIAN Ministers and Politics

THE BAPTISTS. Bible Workshops

From a sermon by Rev. Dr. Aked, of the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, New York, as reported in the Brooklyn Eagle, the following extracts are taken: "The Bible is not infallible." "In its pages are found historical errors, arithmetical mistakes, inconsistencies and far worse contradictions, and what is far more the most horrible crimes committed by men who claimly plead in justification. . . . God said, Man declare they can have nothing to do with a book whose errors a child can discover, and whose revelation of a God partakes at times of blasphemy against man." "Ignorance has claimed the Bible for its own. History has made it the wrapper around ground. Its authority has been evoked to support the foulest crimes by the vilest men. . . . But the Bible remains the noblest monument of the religious genius of the race. It preserves the words of the most truly inspired men of bygone ages. It contains the record of the revelation of God. And it stands in unapproachable majesty, as a volume, the Book of Books, superior to all other, and itself a literature not merely inspired, but inspiring the literature of the world."

THOS. E. KENNEY DEAD

In a thoughtful and fervent sermon in Brussels street church last night, Rev. A. B. Cohoe discussed the effects of an election on the morals of the electors.

His text was Heb. xi—16: "For he looked for a city which hath foundation whose builder and maker is God." He traced the history of city life, showing the need of righteousness and regard for the interests of others on the part of citizens.

He showed that there must always be rulers in a city and that now-days they are the men who make our

SEVERAL PULPIT ORATIONS DEAL WITH THE SUBJECT OF ELECTIONS

Ministers Deal With Today's Elections and Offer Advice—Bishop Casey Again Dwells on the Sanctity of the Ballot

In several of the city churches yesterday references were made to the sanctity of the ballot by different clergymen, and in some political sermons were delivered.

At the Cathedral at 9 o'clock messrs. His Lordship Bishop Casey again gave some general advice to the parishioners. He stated that he did not want any person to sink so low as to sell their franchise. "You must be prudent, careful and temperate," declared his lordship. "As you must vote according to your conscience. Take time to consider which are the best men to cast your ballot for. Study their personal character."

The bishop stated that the man that endeavors to bribe or corrupt the electorate is as bad as the person that sells his franchise. The money received should not be retained, but should be given for charitable purposes. Every person should keep temperate.

His lordship, by urging his parishioners to be sure and exercise their franchise, and also stated that it made a man liable to the sin of perjury should he sell his vote.

Rev. W. W. McMaster, in an eminently fair and logical sermon, last night pointed out some of the principles which should govern men in casting their votes.

He pointed out the tremendous responsibility of choosing representatives and the responsibility which rested on those elected. "We should have some idea of what we wanted our country to be, and then we should choose the men who would carry out these ideas," the speaker said. The men who are placed in office should be able to crystallize our thoughts for Canada, and in choosing such men lay the greatest trust of our privilege and our responsibility.

Made Gains in Ontario in Spite of Whitney's Great Influence--Quebec Still Solid--Every Minister Elected.

Prince Edward Island Turns Over Liberal--Conservatives Gain 5 Seats in Nova Scotia--The West Gives Large Liberal Majority--A Stunning Answer to the Campaign of Slander.

OTTAWA, Oct. 26.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier and all his colleagues will come back to the capital with an overwhelming endorsement of the whole country from coast to coast to admit the affairs of Canada for the lifetime of another parliament. Returns from all provinces received here up to midnight show that the country has given a conclusive answer to slander by returning the government to power by a majority which when the final returns are in will be practically as large as it was at dissolution, despite the bitter campaign of misrepresentation and calumny of probably the worst character in the history of Canadian politics waged by the opposition. The electors have shown their proper appreciation of the comparative records of the two parties by inflicting a crushing defeat on the followers of Mr. Borden and giving to Sir Wilfrid in most generous and almost unexpectedly large measure another lease of power to "finish his work."

With scarce an exception every leading member of the government side of the commons was re-elected, while Mr. Borden finds himself in command of another uncompromising band of opposition with most of his chief lieutenants in last parliament rejected by their constituents. Bennett, Ferguson, Lafreny, Fowler, Cockshutt, Kemp, Clement, Pringle, all among the most prominent of the obstructionists last session, went down in the general wreck.

The Only Survivors

Foster and Monk are almost the only survivors. The former in North Toronto had a hard run, but Tory Toronto decided to stomach him again. There were a few surprises in the results, but from a Liberal standpoint most of them were pleasant ones. The election of Hon. Dr. Pugsley in St. John was among the first bulletins which appeared in the capital. It was rapidly followed by news that New Brunswick had gone almost solidly Liberal and that Nova Scotia had again sadly betrayed the prophesies of the Conservatives that a Tory landslide would start there. Then came Prince Edward Island and Quebec reports, showing a majority of three to one for Laurier in the Eastern province. Ontario, which was the chief hope of the Conservatives, added to their dismay by their falling to be stampeded and giving more supporters for the government than in 1904. An overwhelming majority for Laurier from Eastern Canada was followed later in the night by the same story from Western Canada and the only others heard after nine o'clock came from Liberal throats and when the final returns for the night came in it was seen that the government would probably have at least sixty majority upon parliament meets. Ontario has returned 29 Liberals, the same number as in the last parliament. The Conservatives

INCREASE OF GERMAN FLEET.

Our Berlin correspondent makes an announcement of considerable importance—that the programme for a further increase in the German navy, drawn up by the German Navy League, foresees the introduction at an early date of a fresh German Navy Bill which will embody the Navy League's proposals. The announcement is as follows:—

I have high authority for stating that the new programme of the German Navy League, calling for the construction of six "invisible" cruisers several years earlier than is contemplated in the existing Navy Bill (1915 to 1920), is the preliminary of a new bill which the government will submit to the Reichstag not later than 1910. The government's proposal will also incorporate the Navy League's plan for increasing the effectiveness of the reserve fleet by keeping all ships of the reserve manned with crews consisting of one-half of men on active service and one-half of reservists.

I am assured that the new executive of the Navy League is in full accord with the views of the Imperial Admiralty, and that its future propaganda will therefore practically amount to the "education" of public opinion regarding the Government's own plans.

The programme formulated by the German Navy League is as follows:—

1. The immediate construction of six large armored cruisers of invulnerable or indomitable class to replace six protected cruisers.
2. Under the present Navy Act the six protected cruisers would not be replaced till the year 1917-17.
3. The provision of half-crews for the six new battleships of the German Reserve Fleet, instead of for only six battleships in that fleet, as at present.
4. The addition of six indomitable or invulnerable class armored cruisers to the fleet, instead of for only six battleships in that fleet, as at present.

The addition of six indomitable or invulnerable class armored cruisers to the fleet, instead of for only six battleships in that fleet, as at present, would necessarily mean an enormous increase in the fighting strength of the German Fleet, since these vessels are in everything but name extremely fast and powerful battleships. The cost of the six would be about £12,000,000, but the Navy League urges that, since money has to be borrowed to strengthen the German Fleet, it is just as easy to float a large loan as a small one.

Additional significance is given to the League's demands by the fact that its present head is Admiral von Koster. He replaced General Keim to prevent a split in the League, and he is unquestionably in the closest touch with the German naval authorities, since not only was he, until two years ago, the officer selected to command the German fleet in the event of war, but also he is now the confidential adviser of the German Admiralty.

The following is a brief record of the recent German Navy Acts:—

1906. The Novelle: (1) Size and cost of all German warships increased.
- (2) Six large armored cruisers added.
- (3) Number of destroyers laid down yearly raised from six to twelve.
1907. Size and cost of German armored cruisers further increased.
1908. Number of large armored ships laid down annually for four years 1908-11 raised from three to four, and annual expenditures increased from £14,800,000 to £22,000,000.

The position of the British and next strongest navies in ships of the Dreadnought and indomitable types is as follows:—

	England	Germany	U.S.
Complete	2	0	0
Building	3	5	4
Sanctioned	2	4	2
To be laid down, 1909	2	4	2

The British programme for 1909 is unknown, though the intimation has been made by the Admiralty that no further economies in the Navy are to be expected, and Mr. Asquith pledged himself in March to maintain the two-power standard. That would involve the laying down by Great Britain of not fewer than seven Dreadnoughts or Invincibles.

I'm a staunch believer in advertising. President Rhodes, Mercantile Safe Deposit Co., New York.

The result of yesterday's election was an overwhelming victory for the Liberals of New Brunswick.

Even the most optimistic had hardly expected such a sweep as eleven out of thirteen seats in the province. The re-election of Dr. Pugsley was no surprise. This had been conceded early in the fight, but the size of his majority was a matter for rejoicing when the virulence and malignity of the opposition to him was considered. The majority given Dr. Pugsley was regarded throughout the city both as a vote of confidence in him personally, and as a strong endorsement of his record and an expression of the desire for a continuation of the good work. The fact that in the last general election the Conservative candidates got a majority of 1,500 made his majority show a turn over of 1,700.

While the defeat of James Pender in the city was a disappointment to the Liberals they were not at all downcast over it when they considered that he had succeeded in reducing Dr. Daniel's majority by a thousand. His fight was a gallant one for a man totally unused to campaigning and opposed by a man of such personal popularity as Dr. Daniel.

Next to the election of Dr. Pugsley the success of Dr. McAlister aroused the most enthusiasm in the city. The fact that an untried man could enter the stronghold of the Conservatives in New Brunswick and defeat their strongest man showed the strength of the Liberal cause in New Brunswick. It was also considered a well merited rebuke to the Conservative leaders in harboring such a discredited politician among their leaders. When it was learned that Pope and LeFargy had also been defeated it was remarked that "the Foresters haven't done a thing in this election."

The gain considered next in importance was Todd's election in Charlotte county. This was good and almost unexpected news, as Ganong has always been considered one of the hardest men to beat in the province.

Hon. H. R. Emmerson

The re-election of Hon. H. R. Emmerson was taken almost as a matter of course, although the size of his majority was considered somewhat of a surprise, in view of the bitterness of the opposition against him.

The efforts which the Conservatives have been making to defeat Carvell made the news of his re-election welcome, although it did not come as a surprise.

Kent was a county of which the party had not been sure on account of the youth and popularity of the Conservative candidate, and the re-election of LeBlanc was regarded as a notable victory.

Turgeon's victory in Gloucester was regarded as a foregone conclusion and did not excite much comment.

In Restigouche Reid had a hard fight and this was his victory was enthusiastically received. LeBlanc was also a foregone conclusion about whom the Liberals were not worrying, and his majority of 900 in spite of vigorous opposition was not regarded as remarkable.

IT WAS A SORROWFUL BAND OF TORIES AT THE OLD VIC LAST EVE.

They Gathered to Hear Election Returns and They Heard Them in Silence and Sorrow--Dr. Daniel Vainly Attempts to Cheer Them and Dr. MacRae Reads His Own Obituary

There was a large gathering at the Conservative headquarters in the Victoria Rink, in all about 1200 persons being present. A large platform was erected in the front of the rink, where some of the leaders sat. It was a sorry looking bunch with little enthusiasm prevailing. As the city returns were received they were put on a large black-board for the benefit of those assembled. When it was seen that MacRae was snuffed under by the Minister, all the hopes of the party were shattered. However, when it was announced that Dr. Daniel had received about 200 of a majority, there was faint cheering and cries for the doctor.

When it was announced that the reputed strong man, George W. Fowler, went down to defeat there were many groans and a few cheers.

Outside this city, the only man the party could claim victory for was O. S. Crockett of York, but there were only few cheers as his majorities in the different sections were announced.

There was nothing but good news for a time from Nova Scotia for the leaders would not tell of the defeat of their party. The election of Borden and his colleague brought forth much applause, but then came the dispatch telling of the political death of poor Fowler. Many disgusted Tories left the rink to go to the Queens'. On the whole it was a sorrowful and bad losing audience.

he again thanked the electors for the votes they had given him and was indeed proud of his showing. The doctor then continued to assist in the reading of the returns.

Ganong's small vote was received without a word, and the audience was amazed when the crushing defeat of Donald Morrison at the hands of Mr. Loggie was announced.

About 7:05 o'clock some one saw Dr. Daniel coming and started to cheer, but still he could not get the audience to take it up. Dr. Daniel, like his colleague, was not carried to the platform. When he reached the platform he was given three cheers and made a brief address.

CHANGING TASTE IN CHRYSANTHEMUMS.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Chrysanthemums of all possible colors and degrees of curliness were seen when the October show of the National Chrysanthemum Society opened yesterday at the Crystal Palace. The large and elaborately "dressed" Japanese blossoms are not so popular as they were, and they are gradually being ousted from favor by the single chrysanthemums, which lend themselves better to decorative purposes.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—It was announced yesterday that Sir Douglas Straight, who has been editor of the Pall Mall Gazette since 1896, will retire in March next. His retirement is due to medical advice and the desire to rest after an exceptionally busy life. He is 64 years old, and was formerly a leader at the bar, and later an Indian judge.

THANKED THE ELECTORS.

The successful Conservative thanked the electors very much for the honor bestowed upon him in electing him as their representative. He desired to state that never in the history of Canada was his victory won under such adverse conditions. The doctor did not recognize the Standard and gave that brilliant journal quite a slight when he stated that "all the press of the city were arrayed against him." He paid an expected tribute to the press, stating that they had been filled with falsehoods and misrepresentations for the past four or five weeks. It was a great feather in the hats of the people to elect the Conservative candidate, if these facts were taken into consideration. The doctor stated that he was not sure of the results of voting in the county, but heard that his colleague had been defeated. Nevertheless he (MacRae) had put up a strong fight and had run the hardest election. MacRae was up against a Minister of the crown and against greater odds than he (Daniel) had been. His colleague was worthy of the greatest amount of congratulations for running against the Minister. In conclusion the doctor stated that he would do all in his power to satisfy the wants of the great city of St. John.

The reading of the despatches continued, and during the evening Dr. Daniel again took the platform and stated that he was proud to hear good news from Nova Scotia. He announced that Borden and his colleague were elected and that three other candidates were also returned.

J. B. M. Baxter was present with a contingent from the West Side and the chairman of the executive also made a

STRONG TEMPERANCE SERMON BY DR. C. R. FLANDERS

He Says the Christian Vets are Directly Responsible for the Evil, But Perhaps Do Not Fully Realize the Extent of the Traffic

Before a large congregation in Centenary Church, last evening, Rev. Dr. Flanders preached a sermon on temperance. He adopted the attitude of one who, a stranger here, does not pretend to know the city but who cannot help being impressed with what is most apparent. And he feels that the evils which most strongly impress strangers are perhaps neglected by citizens to whom by familiarity they do not appeal.

MYSTERY OF A BOY IN WHITE.

It was in the Liverpool Workhouse that a little boy was born one summer's day in 1864, whose existence was to play a romantic part in a most extraordinary claim to a title and estates. Some six years later the little boy's mother told his story to a strange audience. She was standing in a great hall with wondrously carved oak panelled walls, and with high up windows through which the light streamed on her, tinted with many shades of color by the stained glass. Before her were seated on a little raised dais the Lord Chancellor of England, and his left, Judges on his right hand and his left. Grave, keen-faced men in wigs and black gowns were questioning that wondrously beautiful young girl, who sat in a chair listening to her words as a lady clad in widow's dress. Her face had once been of more than middle-aged, but in the hair were streaks of grey. The lady in widow's dress was a striking figure in that assembly. The eyes of the auditors were often turned to her. She was rendered the more noticeable by the little boy who sat in her lap. The lad was clothed in white, and his dress made more sombre and striking with the widow's weeds of the lady who fondled him, and whom he called "mother."

TAKING A BABY.

One of the ladies seemed specially interested in the little boy. She whispered for some time with her companion and with the nurse. "I trust that the lady wanted to take my little boy, and to adopt him as her own," said the witness. She had parted with her child to the stranger. The lady seemed well off. She seemed to be kind. "I thought she would do better by the child than I let her have him. I was so poor."

BRYAN MAKES EIGHT SPEECHES YESTERDAY

Whirled 115 Miles Through Greater New York in Automobile

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Winding up his remarkable campaign in and about Greater New York, William Jennings Bryan was whirled 115 miles by automobile in Manhattan and Brooklyn during the day and night and made eight speeches between the hours of 5 and 12 o'clock tonight. In New York he was accompanied by Tammany Leader Chas. F. Murphy, Lieutenant-Governor Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler's campaign for governor coincided with Mr. Bryan's itinerary, both in Manhattan and Brooklyn, and while he, in one place, was pleading for loyal support of the national ticket, Mr. Bryan, at another, was urging votes for the state candidate for governor, Chanler, and for the Democratic nominees for congress.

MASKED HIGHWAYMAN HOLDS UP ORE STAGE

Bandit Forces Passenger to Search Companions and Then Escapes With Loot

NORTH YAMHILL, Oct. 27.—Armed with a shotgun and wearing a white mask a lone highwayman held up the ore stage between this place and Tillamook in broad daylight today. The hold-up occurred in the mountains west of this city and a posse with bloodhounds is now in pursuit of the robber, who escaped with his booty. Frank Perkins, the driver, and Miss Daisy Stranz were alone in the stage at the time. Ernest Raymond of Centuria and J. B. Cartwright, the other passengers, were walking behind, as the vehicle was going up a steep grade. At a command from the robber Miss Stranz threw her purse at his feet, and the driver dumped out the mail pouches, which were rifled, the robber taking three registered packages. When Raymond and Cartwright came up the robber had the former search his fellow-passengers. After the loot had been heaped in the road Raymond picked up $20 in rucks of dropping his hat. He also overlooked purposely a wallet containing $50 which Cartwright had in an inner pocket.

BULGARIA WILL PAY THE PORTE

COMES UP THURSDAY

SOFIA, Oct. 27.—The Bulgarian government today informed the representatives of the foreign powers here of its acceptance of the principle of paying compensation to the Turkish government, which has been the burden of persistent diplomatic representations during the past fortnight on the part of all the great powers. This decision was arrived at by the cabinet this morning after a long debate, in which Minister Ferdinand used all his influence in favor of peace with compensation. Obdurate members of the cabinet, who were opposed to the principle of compensation, for fear of stultifying their part were won over by the reminder that there were plenty of other politicians who would be glad to replace them and assume the responsibility for the payment of the Rumanian tribute.

The News.

ST. JOHN, N. B., OCT. 30, 1908.

THE PEOPLE'S VERDICT

It is never easy for the defeated minority to believe in the wisdom of the successful majority. The loss of an election sorely tries the faith of some men in the democratic principle of government by the people. They find it easy to cherish a comforting faith in their own surpassing intelligence and to despise their differing fellow-countrymen. They very naturally believe that their successful opponents are for the most part, deceived and ignorant folk who have no proper appreciation of the needs of the country.

No one will be disposed to deny the sorely defeated any comfort they may extract from such self-confident reflections. It is the inalienable privilege of the minority to be of the same opinion still. But the local Conservative organ passes the well-defined limits of good taste when to soothe the troubled spirits of disappointed Conservatives it takes place on November 18th. In fact it is doubtful if even a brief paragraph containing this news has appeared in more than two or three papers. Yet the campaign is now on its earnest and will be, of course, much more brisk since the federal election is over. The Conservative party in the Island Province, which has been in opposition for a good many years, confidently looked forward to over-turning the Liberal Government in the coming election, but at the same time these Conservatives had not the least doubt that they would elect four Conservative members in the federal contest. They were just as sure of this as they were of capturing the province. Now conditions are somewhat changed. Considerable attention was devoted to Kings County in the federal campaign and as the result of the excessive activity displayed there, Mr. J. J. Hughes Liberal candidate was defeated, while Mr. Aubin A. Fraser, a young Conservative lawyer, was successful.

It is worthy of note that Mr. Fraser's majority was smaller than it was secured with difficulty only after strenuous efforts, and that this county was almost unanimous in supporting the Conservative members in the Provincial House. The larger number of the opposition members in the Provincial Legislature stand for the various districts of Kings County.

In the other two counties the federal representatives, previous to Monday, were Conservatives, and the leaders of the local party had no hesitation in declaring that these three candidates would be re-elected without the least difficulty in Monday's election. They counted on sending from the Island four Conservatives to Ottawa. The result of Monday's vote will no doubt rather upset their calculations.

It will be remembered that Mr. Hazen and some of his friends, under the self-created delusion that New Brunswick had gone Conservative in the last provincial election, entertained the belief that a similar result would be found in the federal. In this it may be said that Mr. Hazen and his friends were somewhat mistaken. Possibly Mr. John Matheson, the leader of the P. E. Island opposition, has already made it plain to the standing in the last federal parliament, through Conservatives to one Liberal, does not represent the feeling of the Island.

Even setting aside the question as to the size of Laurier's majority, the Conservative party in Canada today is stronger than it was before the polls closed on Monday. In the balloting it has got rid of a portion of its most undesirable element, and the only regret is that the ringleader of the gang is still retained. By dropping Messrs. Fowler, Lefurgey, Bennett and Pope the Conservatives have exercised sound, common sense. They would have acted wisely had they defeated Foster as well, but he selected a riding in which Conservative defeat was practically impossible. Mr. Borden suffered very much during the past couple of years through his association with these men who had gained unfavorable reputation throughout Canada. There can be no doubt that his adherence to Foster turned the tide in a number of constituencies. Perhaps Mr. Borden would rather have Foster, undesirable as he is, than half a dozen straightforward men, whose names are less familiar. But, perhaps, on the other hand, he will find before very long that the would-be finance minister is a serious encumbrance. At any rate the Canadian people may congratulate themselves in having asserted in no uncertain way, their condemnation of what they regard as other than straightforward conduct in public men. The lesson which has been taught these western land jugglers, is worthy of consideration by everyone.

The Standard this morning calls on St. John people to watch for the fulfillment of promises made by the Minister of Public Works. There is no great need for anxiety. The promises will all be carried out, as they have been in the past. St. John has but to look back at the eighteen years of neglect under the Conservatives to realize what a different policy is pursued by the Liberal party.

ROME, Oct. 27.—Vita states the Minister of Marine has granted the Duke of Abruzzi three months' special leave of absence with permission to travel abroad.

THE SLANDER THAT FAILED

The Toronto Globe calls attention to the fact that in a recent speech Premier Whitney of Ontario undertook to disparage the Dominion Minister of Public Works. As Dr. Pugsley has been very much before the public of late, one would naturally expect remarks of the kind that Sir James Whitney would have made some reference to the alleged "exposure" at St. John. That had to do with the administration of the Public Works Department, but the Premier of Ontario never mentioned it. He preferred to attack Dr. Pugsley on his record as Premier of New Brunswick, as if that had anything to do with the present Dominion election.

IN P. E. ISLAND.

In the stress of the federal campaign no one has paid the least attention to the announcement that in Prince Edward Island provincial elections will take place on November 18th. In fact it is doubtful if even a brief paragraph containing this news has appeared in more than two or three papers. Yet the campaign is now on its earnest and will be, of course, much more brisk since the federal election is over. A WORKING MAJORITY.

If Laurier's majority keeps on growing as it has done during the past two days, there will be scarcely a corporal's guard of Conservatives in parliament. It is now up to fifty-six or fifty-seven and will be increased by six or seven more during the next week. It is also probable that by the exposure of Conservative campaign methods some few seats may be declared vacant. Still no Liberal having the interests of the country at heart desires a larger majority for this party. Forty or fifty is quite sufficient. Seventy or eighty is a lead makes parliament too one-sided and detracts from the value of an opposition. A sufficient majority to permit the conduct of business without exposing the government to the danger of defeat on a snap vote is all that is required, and Laurier has now more than enough.

Despatches from The Standard office to Toronto Conservative papers state that Dr. Pugsley's election will be protested. Mayor's expectation of a solid Liberal New Brunswick will be fulfilled after all.

No man is less interesting to the public opinion and has a higher respect for the intelligence of the Canadian electors than Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He refused even to discuss the "scandal" cries.

"Four years more of plunder," says The Montreal Times. What an admirable opinion these Conservatives have of the honesty and intelligence of the Canadian people.

Brooks ward, which gave Daniel 100 majority and Stockton 84 majority in 1904, only gave Macrae 11 majority on Monday. Wonder why?

Halfax is hoping fervently that Mr. Borden will decide to sit for Carleton, Ontario. Then it can elect one Liberal representative at least.

"Rah for McAllister, McLean and Todd. They are the V. C. men of this campaign."

Foster was elected, but he defeated the Conservative party. And he will defeat them again.

It would be interesting to know how Powell and Baxter voted.

"Dear Lefurgey: Keep it mum except to Borden, Bennett and yourself." The Standard is a poor loser.

Now for the provincial elections. So far, the Moncton Transcript is the only paper to print the victorious rooster. It has two of him. But Emmerson's magnificent majority is sufficient excuse for this.

Halfax deeply regrets the election of Borden and Crosby. St. John wisely returned one government supporter, but would have done better by electing the straight ticket.

UNCLE IKE'S HARP. Time when that oldest darter of 'Op Jedge' Pailin's harp. Come home from 'tendin' music school. She'd learn to play the harp. An' she's Jedge he bought her one, An' when he rhy in town— Good six foot high, an' stuck four men To get the ding thing down— We got right in discussin' it. An' then he said, "I knowed, Fer none on us has never heard Ner seen a harp afore."

"An' when we heard what it had cost— An' that to learn to play the thing 'Took somethin' like five years. We natterly was some surprised. When solemn Uncle Ike Says what he bought hisself a harp, An' played it somethin' like!"

"I wasn't more'n ten year old," Says Ike, "but mighty King! How I could twang that soundin' harp. An' make its music ring! I carried it here, then an' you; Played it 'round the 'Devil's Dream,' An' ring out 'Op Zip Coon!"

"Op Uncle Ike he heaved a sigh An' says: 'I never see That air jebwarb of mine ag'in, An' sadder still for me, The shillin' that I spent for it Was one I'd laid away To go an' see the elephant An' things on circus day."

THE WOODS IN AUTUMN. I want to go where the leaves are burning in scarlet and gold; The wind is up, and my heart is turning Again to the forest old. I want to go where the leaves keep dropping, Drooping in crimson and brown, From dawn till dusk, not a moment stopping. They are drifting, drifting down. I want to go where the leaves are blowing, Blowing in russet and red; The brook, like a voice, through the silence flows, Still whispers of summer dead. Yet, why go back where the leaves are falling, Falling again on the hill? Though woods would sigh and the winds are calling, Thy voice is forever still. —Alice E. Allen, in Ainslee's.

NIGHT RIDER TELLS OF THE MURDER OF CAPT. RANKIN

He Played the Spy and Kapt. His Friends Informed of What Was Going on.

TIPTONVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 27.—"That Burton, self-confessed night-rider, told a remarkable story today of a night rider depredation near Reel Foot Lake, confessing to the part he played in the outrage, which reached a culmination in the putting to death of Captain Quinlan Rankin, an attorney of Trenton, Tenn., on the banks of the lake a week ago and implicating men prominent in this part of the state.

While Burton denied that he was present when Captain Rankin was put to death, he admits that it was through information given by him that the band congregated and took the attorney while he was staying at the hotel at Walnut Log. Burton declared that on the night before the lynching he went to Walnut Log and there met James F. Carpenter of Union City, a well-known politician, Rankin and Judge R. Z. Taylor associated in the West Tennessee company, owners of the land on which the lake is situated.

After this conversation, Burton says, he communicated with the "night riders" leaders and told of the intended visit of the representatives of the land company.

On the following night, he saw the two attorneys at supper at the Walnut Log Hotel but he declares he left Walnut Log early in the evening and went out on the lake to fish. He says that he was fishing when he heard the shots which ended the life of Captain Rankin but he did not return to the shore for some time.

GARDINALS LIKELY TO BE APPOINTED IN DECEMBER

ROME, Oct. 28.—The death of Cardinal Mathias at London Monday and of Cardinal Salvador Casassa y Pages at Barcelona yesterday, brings the vacancies in the Sacred College to 14, thus making it more probable that the next consistory will be held in December for the creation of new Cardinals. Reliable Vatican authorities consider it certain that two American Cardinals will be appointed at that time.

On the following night, he saw the two attorneys at supper at the Walnut Log Hotel but he declares he left Walnut Log early in the evening and went out on the lake to fish. He says that he was fishing when he heard the shots which ended the life of Captain Rankin but he did not return to the shore for some time.

NEW BRUNSWICK NOBLY RESPONDS TO THE CALL AND GOVERNMENT MAKES ALMOST A CLEAN SWEEP

Campaign of Slander Waged by Conservatives Receives Its Death Blow in This Province When Voters Elect Eleven Sturdy Liberals to Strengthen Dr. Pugsley's Hands and Uphold the Cause of Good Honest Government.

EMMERSON HAS 1,400 MAJORITY

Tory Campaign of Slander Directed Against Him is Thoroughly Resented

MONCTON DOES WELL

MONCTON, N. B., Oct. 26.—That the Tory campaign of muckraking, vilification and personal slander directed against Hon. H. R. Emmerston, was thoroughly resented by the electors is evidenced by the splendid majority of nearly 1,400, which Hon. Mr. Emmerston received today. By the greatest majority ever accorded any representative from the county he was overwhelmingly endorsed by the Westmorland electorate.

Moncton city and parish, showing a marked gratitude for the many services of Emmerston, gave him a majority of nearly one thousand, and with the exception of Sackville, a Tory stronghold, which gave Sumner a majority of 75, the remainder of the county was in line for Laurier, Emmerston and progress.

WOODSTOCK, Oct. 26.—Carleton county did itself proud today, electing Carvell by about one hundred and fifty, in spite of the frantic efforts of the Conservatives. Woodstock town in its history. Carvell carried seven of the eleven parishes. Tonight the Liberals are simply wild with joy, the band is playing, bon-fires are burning and the town is beside itself with rejoicing. The Conservatives made lavish use of money, but to no avail. Mr. Carvell has been simply deluged with congratulations from far and near.

SUSSEX, Oct. 26.—Sussex is beside itself tonight. McAllister is the hero, the idol of the people and the chosen representative of Kings-Albert. Splendid work, thorough organization with a popular candidate and administration turned a majority of 355 for Geo. W. Fowler into a majority of over 500 for Duncan McAllister. It is the greatest victory the people here think in all Canada today.

McAllister's return to Sussex tonight from Elgin, where they gave him a handsome majority, was the signal for a magnificent demonstration. Thousands turned out, and headed by a brass band Dr. McAllister and Organizer E. S. Carter seated in a carriage were driven by willing hands to a band stand, when Dr. McAllister addressed the cheering crowd. His modest speech of hearty congratulations to his friends and the kind words he had for his opponents made the people cheer themselves hoarse.

Conservative strongholds in the past, which gave a Liberal majority. Mr. Gannon's majority was not cut greatly in his own town of St. Stephen. There is a large crowd in the Liberal Club room, and when Mr. Todd entered he was greeted with a tremendous ovation. He made a brief address, in which he pledged his loyalty to the interests of the county and of good government. Charlotte county has always been Liberal at heart. Organization, a popular candidate and a good cause, have carried the day.

largest votes ever polled in this county. The day was exceptionally fine and a large percentage of the electors went to the polls. Morrison only won out in his home town, Newcastle, by 15 votes and Loggie had a splendid majority of 74 288 in Chatham. This is more than 100 greater than his majority here over James Robinson four years ago. CROCKETT LOST IN HOME TOWN

Fredericton Gave Brown a Majority of 62—A Tory Stronghold

McLEAN'S VICTORY

FREDERICTON, N. B., Oct. 26.—The Conservatives were able to re-elect Crockett by a majority which will not be less than 800. In his home district of this city the Tory candidate was defeated by 142 votes and the city went against him by a majority of 62. The Liberals were late getting to work in the county, but considering all Mr. Brown had to contend with he made a magnificent fight. The old Tory stronghold of Stanley gave the Tory candidate more than a two to one vote. In Marysville, where the Liberals had two hundred majority last time, the parties broke even on this occasion. The Tories were well heeled with resources of civilization and were determined to elect their man at all hazards.

The Liberals received the returns this evening in their committee rooms. While they were disappointed over the result of York, they found plenty to rejoice over in the magnificent showing made by the party in New Brunswick and elsewhere. Many Tory office holders here voted and worked against the government and no doubt they will receive attention in the near future. Latest returns from Queens-Subsary give McLean a majority of seventy-seven. Wilmet led in Sunbury forty-six. In Queens he was behind 123 votes.

NOVA SCOTIA NOT DOWNCAST

Liberals Still Jubilant Over Carrying Province Two to One

THE TORY CAMPAIGN

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 26.—While the Liberals of Nova Scotia suffered reverses they are still jubilant over carrying the province two to one, although Fielding spent most of his time campaigning elsewhere. Nova Scotia has stood nobly by him, and sheburne Queens, where he spent only two weeks, gave him in face of a dastardly campaign, a majority of nearly four hundred. Had he had a week more he would have had a thousand.

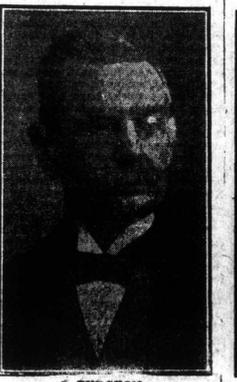

Sir Frederick Borden had to fight against the dirtiest campaign in Nova Scotia's history and he was triumphant with over 700 majority. Apart from the loss of Halifax, the Liberals regret greatly the defeat of Alex. Johnston, who fought many a fight and who seemed to have gone down before a man who does no credit to Nova Scotia. The majority against him is only 59, with several places to hear from, but the Liberals are not counting on changing the result.

A dead set was made on E. M. MacDonald in Pictou, the coal mining centre, giving three hundred majority against him, but his home of Pictou and Stellarton stood loyally with the rural districts for him and he won out handsomely.

A. K. MacLean was up against a vile campaign of slander. Summarizing the situation, R. L. Borden and A. B. Crosby are elected in Halifax; E. N. Rhodes in Cumberland, Jamieson in Digby, Maddin in Cape Breton, Smith and Stanfield in Colchester. The other twelve seats remain true to their Liberal allegiance.

Howard.—And how did the plain widow Perkins capture the fastidious Mawker? Coward—Oh, took him out in her car and showed him a few hundred of her building lots— Howard—Ah! I see—a case of love at first sight.

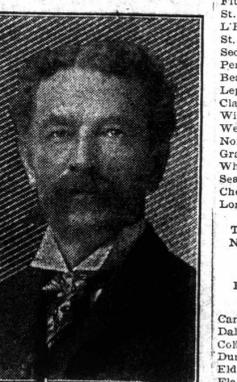

Mother—My child, you shouldn't believe more than half you hear. Daughter—I know that, mamma; but how can I tell which half?

DRAW GLOOMY PICTURES OF TURKEY'S DOMESTIC OUTLOOK

Reform Movement May End With Military Dictation—Young Turks Lack Self-Sustaining Force—Balkan Irritation Revived

LONDON, Oct. 27.—The English correspondents at Constantinople continue to draw gloomy pictures of the domestic outlook in Turkey.

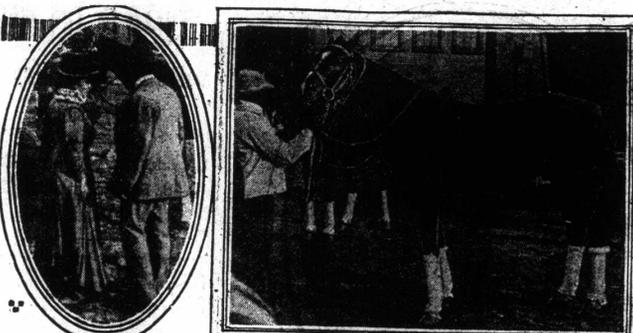

The correspondent of the Telegraph, while paying a tribute to what the Young Turks have already done, says that nevertheless a lack of self-sustaining force among the leaders constitutes a grave danger. The lack of discipline in the army, if not remedied, may transform it into a broken reed. The lack of cohesion among the nationalities within the empire may wreck the whole cause of reform unless efficacious measures are taken to cement their union.

Emancipation has not transformed the national character or supplied the requisite constructive forces. The reactionary movement, although it cannot revive absolutism, may lead to a temporary military dictatorship.

Everything is in flux. Even Abdol Hamid's tenure of power is still liable to be suddenly and violently terminated. The moderation of the Young Turks in allowing him to remain on the throne is disapproved of by a section of the population which the continuous influx of emigrant refugees renders daily more numerous and more influential.

The newspapers accuse the palace of arming the rabble, which is certainly well provided with revolvers, of giving refuge to notorious criminals, and of planning wholesale massacres. Dwelling upon the cabinet's decision

AMERICAN THOROUGHBREDS ABROAD

MR. AND MRS. JEREMIAH B. DORVILLE BY SPECIALLY TRAINED EXPRESS SERVICE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Pronounced by racing experts as by far the most valuable lot of horses which were ever sent abroad at one time, about sixty thoroughbreds, the property of James R. Keene, Harry Payne Whitney, August Belmont, Herman B. Durfee and Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., were loaded on the Atlantic Transport line steamship Minnehaha, which sailed from this port.

Mr. Keene's lot numbered eight and included the unbeaten Colin and the hardly less noted Ballot, together with the two-year-olds Esperanto, Wamba, Melrose, Wedding Bells, Selectman and Suffragette. The last named pair will run in the Derby and Oaks, respectively, in Mr. Keene's name and interest. James Rowé having transferred them to his employer after having raced them himself for the last few weeks.

Mr. Whitney's lot included sixteen yearlings and two-year-olds Bobbin, Pegasus, Hillside and Field Day, and the older racers, Stamina, Delirium, Baby Wolf, and the almost forgotten Diana Ken, winner of the Realization of 1908. He was joined down here when the retired and little known and entertained of his standing training, but A. J. Joyner said he might as well be in England as in America.

THOUSANDS WELCOME THE TRIUMPHANT CHIEFTAIN ON HIS ARRIVAL AT OTTAWA

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 27.—Canada's capital, which elected Sir Wilfrid Laurier yesterday, tonight welcomed him triumphantly back to his home city.

The Prime Minister was given a reception worthy of the man and worthy of his victory. The announcement made by the crowd that Sir Wilfrid would not reach Ottawa until late in the evening proved no discouragement to his fellow citizens.

Late before the hour announced for the arrival of the train from Montreal the Union depot was filled and surrounded by an enthusiastic crowd numbering many thousands, with banners, singing and cheering.

The train was a half-hour late, but the crowd only increased through the delay and during the whole of the time there was singing and cheering. When Sir Wilfrid emerged from the depot at 11:30 with Lady Laurier and took his seat in an open carriage a cheer burst forth which ran from the depot clear

Greater Portion of Summer Colony at Salisbury Beach Wiped Out

LOSS $100,000

SALISBURY, Mass., Oct. 27.—The greater portion of the thickly housed summer colony at Salisbury Beach was destroyed early today by a fire which as it raged for three hours, and the damage was estimated to reach not more than $100,000.

After the flames had raged for three hours the combined fire fighting forces of Amesbury, Salisbury and Newburyport together with the half-dozen life savers from the Salisbury Beach station and a little band of volunteers pulled down a number of cottages standing between the burning area and the larger hotels and dance halls and succeeded in confining the flames to the area already burned.

The fire started in the new cottage owned by Leonard State Treasurer F. B. Shaw. The cause is not known.

BROWN IS GIVEN A GREAT OVATION

Defeated York Candidate is Treated Like a Conqueror

MAKES A SPEECH

FREDRICHSHAFEN, N. B., Oct. 27.—Mr. Brown, the defeated Liberal candidate in York, was given a magnificent demonstration on his arrival tonight. He was met at the station on the arrival of the train from St. John by the young Liberals, headed by the 7th Regiment Band, and entering a barouche with E. W. McEllan and other prominent Liberals, was escorted to the Arctic Rink. All along the route of procession there was a continuous explosion of rockets and bombs. The great festival of thanksgiving people. It was more like the homecoming of a conqueror than that of a defeated candidate. Brown was visibly touched by the great demonstration in his honor.

At the rink over 1,000 people gathered and cheered Mr. Brown, who in a ten minute spirited address referred to some features of the late contest. He said he would rather be defeated than have heard last night that Pugsley, or Carvell, or McAlister, or any of the Liberal leaders had fallen in the fight. He referred to Laurier's great victory and the Liberal sweep in New Brunswick, and prophesied that in the near future York would return to the Liberal column. Mr. Brown was given a rousing reception. Addresses were also made by R. W. McEllan, Alex. Gibson, ex-M. P. J. D. Finney, C. H. Allen, W. H. McGinn, all of whom spoke in the highest terms of the fight put up by the Liberal candidate.

Cheers were given for Laurier, Pugsley and Brown, and after the demonstration Brown was escorted to his hotel amidst scenes of great enthusiasm.

PRINCE TAKES AN AIR TRIP

Guest of Count Zeppelin ENJOYS THE JAUNT

Declares He Feels as Safe as on His Own Flagship

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Oct. 27.—Prince Henry of Prussia spent several hours in the air as the guest of Count Zeppelin, who made an ascension in his ramopeded airship at a comparatively early hour. Not only did the prince thoroughly enjoy his experience, but he sat at the steering wheel for many miles, guiding the movements of the craft and compelling it to execute all kinds of complicated manoeuvres.

Prince Henry's satisfaction at the great flight was unbounded and he gave expression to it in a telegram, which he sent to the emperor.

"Under Zeppelin's guidance I felt just as safe as on my own flagship."

Captain Mischke also was a passenger when the start was made, in the direction of Ueberlingen, to the northward of Konstanz. With Count Zeppelin himself at the wheel, the airship rose to an altitude of six hundred feet and moving rapidly against a strong wind soon disappeared behind a bank of clouds. Soon messages began to arrive from the town in the Rhine valley, announcing the passage of the airship, but about two o'clock in the afternoon a sonorous sound from the sky indicated that the craft was returning. Soon it appeared above the thronged streets of Konstanz, where the prince gracefully saluted in acknowledgement of the ovation from the cheering crowds below.

BRUNSWICK, Me., Oct. 27.—Entering the bedroom of his niece and her husband, Mrs. Eunice Lachapelle, while they were asleep, tonight, Leonard Auletto, who lives in the same tenement, opened fire with a revolver. Mr. and Mrs. Lachapelle jumped out of bed at the first shot and by hiding behind furniture, escaped being hit. Lachapelle grappled with Auletto at the last shot, while his wife ran for the police. Three officers had a hard time to overcome the assailant. He will be given a hearing tomorrow, although it was not decided tonight upon what charge. Jealousy is said to be the cause of the attack.

VANDERBILT HEIR IS BORN ABROAD

Countess Gladys Szechenyi Gives Birth to a Daughter

BUDAPEST, Oct. 27.—The Budapest newspapers announce that the Countess Szechenyi, formerly Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, has given birth to a daughter.

Despatches from Budapest and Vienna on September 1 stated that the Countess Szechenyi was seriously ill, following her accouchement of still-born child. A day or two later, however, the countess denied that his wife was seriously ill, and on September 11, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt of New York, she arrived at Vienna for the purpose of consulting a prominent gynecologist. Her accouchement was expected to take place the latter part of October.

EXPECTS TO TAKE MILLIONS OF EGGS

There is great activity at the salmon pond near Crouville, where Fishery Inspector J. Fred Belyea has had during the past season 1,400 salmon in captivity for the purpose of obtaining their spawn. When the salmon pond was opened in Carleton some years ago experts came here to do the work of stripping the fish of their spawn, but of late years local men under the direction of Inspector Belyea have performed the work and have been very successful. Alexander Mowat of Campbellton, who is the superintendent of the Restigouche hatchery, arrived in the city yesterday and will superintend the balance of the work at the pond.

The work of stripping was commenced a week ago last Monday, and already about a million eggs have been taken from the fish and the work is going along very satisfactorily. It is expected that about seven million eggs will be obtained this season.

Last year five million eggs were secured and the prospect for a two million increase this year looks most favorable.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—William Dutcher, president of the National Association of Audubon Societies, declared at the annual meeting of the association in the American museum of Natural History today, that agrarians were robbing posterity in permitting an annual crop loss of $800,000,000 due to the destruction of insect-eating birds.

CASTRO FORTIFIES, EXPECTING ATTACK

Dutch Ultimatum Expires This Week and He Has Defied Them

AGENT ASKED FOR

CARACAS, Venezuela, via Caracas, Oct. 28.—Expecting an attack Nov. 1 from a Dutch squadron, La Guayra has been put in such a state of defence as has been possible.

The chief of artillery of the Venezuelan army has superintended the work of fortifying. Shells have been distributed to all the modern forts mounted on the mountain side above La Guayra.

Holland's second note to Venezuela, which has been construed as an ultimatum, demanded that the decree forbidding the transshipping of Caracas goods destined for Venezuelan ports be revoked by Nov. 1.

Replying to the note under date of Sept. 12 (though the fact has just come to light), President Castro refuses to revoke the decree and expresses surprise that the Netherlands government should ask him to alter acknowledging that he has a right to issue it.

He asks the Dutch government to send a confidential agent to Caracas to arrange an amicable settlement of the difficulties between the two governments.

CORNER STONE OF NEW SCHOOL LAID

WOODSTOCK, N. B., Oct. 28.—This afternoon the corner stone of the new Broadway school in Wellington ward was laid with appropriate ceremony in the presence of a large number of people.

Mayor Balmain presided. The formal laying was done by ex-Mayor W. B. Belyea, chairman of the School Board, who in a well conceived and eloquent address, gave a history of the school of the ward.

Mayor Balmain said he, as member of the town council and also of the trustee board, felt satisfied with the arrangements for the new building. F. B. Carvell, M. P., Inspector Meagher and James Keith, Socialist member for Merthyr Tydfil, moved an amendment that as there were two million and a quarter unemployed, three-quarters of whom were skilled artisans, the government's proposals were inadequate. He stated that the present crisis was due to the neglect of the government to prepare for such a state of affairs, although it had been clearly foreseen.

In conclusion, Mr. Hardie passionately declared that if the worst came to the worst he would go among the suffering people, taking the responsibility for the advice he would give them. The country, he said, must be shocked out of its lethargy.

William Crooks, Labor member for Woolwich, seconded the amendment and suggested various schemes of relief, closing with a strong attack upon John Burns, president of the local board.

John Burns, president of the local government board, detailed the steps that had been taken to alleviate the distress. He said that by means of loans, sanctioned by the local authorities for public works, the government had expended £2,000,000 and £2,000,000, between £15,000,000 would be put in operation.

Mr. Burns told Mr. Hardie that while the latter was making a tour of the world he (Burns) had started works in Leamington, came up at six o'clock in the morning on trial for his life before Justice Latchford. On July 28th last Kimball went to arrest a man named Wm. E. Healey, Healey got free and Kimball shot him. The charge against Kimball is murder.

CHATHAM, Ont., Oct. 28.—Elliot J. Kimball, former chief of police of Leamington, came up at six o'clock in the morning on trial for his life before Justice Latchford. On July 28th last Kimball went to arrest a man named Wm. E. Healey, Healey got free and Kimball shot him. The charge against Kimball is murder.

The most noted collection of stones in the world, beside from the pyramids and the sphinx, is probably that of Stonhenge, England, variously attributed to the Druids and to the early Britons, but the design of which is still conjectured. KEIR HARDIE SCORED BY BURNS IN HOUSE

Telling Reply to Violent Threats in the Commons

LONDON, Oct. 28.—In the House of Commons this afternoon Percy Alder, Liberal member from Middlesex, offered a resolution welcoming the Prime Minister's statement regarding the importance of the problem formed by the unemployed and approving of the steps taken by the government in the present emergency. John Mackinnon Robertson, Liberal, from Northumberland, seconded the resolution.

James Keir Hardie, Socialist member for Merthyr Tydfil, moved an amendment that as there were two million and a quarter unemployed, three-quarters of whom were skilled artisans, the government's proposals were inadequate. He stated that the present crisis was due to the neglect of the government to prepare for such a state of affairs, although it had been clearly foreseen.

In conclusion, Mr. Hardie passionately declared that if the worst came to the worst he would go among the suffering people, taking the responsibility for the advice he would give them. The country, he said, must be shocked out of its lethargy.

William Crooks, Labor member for Woolwich, seconded the amendment and suggested various schemes of relief, closing with a strong attack upon John Burns, president of the local board.

John Burns, president of the local government board, detailed the steps that had been taken to alleviate the distress. He said that by means of loans, sanctioned by the local authorities for public works, the government had expended £2,000,000 and £2,000,000, between £15,000,000 would be put in operation.

Mr. Burns told Mr. Hardie that while the latter was making a tour of the world he (Burns) had started works in Leamington, came up at six o'clock in the morning on trial for his life before Justice Latchford. On July 28th last Kimball went to arrest a man named Wm. E. Healey, Healey got free and Kimball shot him. The charge against Kimball is murder.

CASTORIA. SYNOD SITS UNTIL MORN

Unable to Name Successor to Late Bishop Carmichael

MONTREAL, Oct. 28.—The synod of the diocese of Montreal sat until 12.30 this morning in a vain attempt to name a successor to the late Bishop Carmichael. On the last ballot taken the lay delegates had settled upon Dean Farthing of London, Ont., but the clerical delegates were hopelessly divided between Dean Evans of Montreal and Dean Farthing, the former lacking 13 votes of the number necessary to elect. Other names mentioned on the ballots were the Bishop of Ontario, Rev. Dr. Renford, Rev. Dr. Tucker, Archdeacon Kerr and Naylor, Rev. G. O. Troop, Dr. Symons, F. Charters, all of Montreal, Dean Du-moulin of Cleveland, Ohio, Rev. Dr. Roper and Canon Cody.

At 12.30 this morning the synod adjourned until this morning, when it is likely that a dark horse will be agreed upon as a compromise.

The water was shallow and he was dashed to death on the rocks at the bottom, his skull being fractured and neck broken.

GOLDEN WEDDING OF MR. AND MRS. J. F. ESTABROOKS

Family Gathering Last Night to Celebrate Interesting Event

On the 28th day of October, 1858, the wedding took place at 168 Main street, North End, of Miss Maggie E. Akery, of Barton, Queens county, and John F. Estabrooks of St. John. Rev. J. E. Bill, at that time rector of the German street Baptist church, tied the nuptial knot. Both the bride and groom were representatives of families of Loyalist descent who were widely known and respected.

Mr. and Mrs. Estabrooks are still living in good health and last night celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. The celebration was of a very quiet nature; the immediate relatives of the bride and groom gathered at the Estabrooks' home, a remarkable circumstance is that Mr. and Mrs. Estabrooks have for more than thirty years past lived in the house in which they were married.

Mr. Estabrooks is a daughter of the late Obadiah and Anna Delic Akery. Both Mr. and Mrs. Estabrooks have been prominent in the community with the Main street Baptist church. Immediately after their marriage they removed to Boston, where Mr. Estabrooks was engaged in business for about thirteen years. Since that time he has engaged in different business enterprises in this city, being at the present the senior member of the firm of J. P. Estabrooks and Sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Estabrooks reared a numerous family. The sons are William G. Harry S., and A. J., who are associated with their father and Ralph W., of the traveling staff of Vassie and Co. The daughters are Mrs. J. W. McAlary and Mrs. John R. Cowan, both of this city.

COUPLE FOUND IN DYING CONDITION

GREENFIELD, Mass., Oct. 28.—A double tragedy surrounded by mysterious circumstances, was enacted here on Monday evening. A 38-year-old man and a 35-year-old woman, both of whom were found in a dying condition from bullet wounds in front of their home, 118 West street, neither was able to make any statement. The police believe that Gales shot the girl and then killed himself.

The tragedy was discovered by Miss Jennie Reed, who, while passing the house, thought she heard groans, and went into the house to find the bodies of Gales and Miss Wing. The girl was lying on the ground near the piazza, where she had probably fallen when shot, and Gales was hanging over the piazza railing. A revolver was found on the piazza not far from where Gales was lying. Medical Examiner George B. Twitcheall was called and ordered the body of Miss Wing, who had died, taken to an undertaking establishment, while Gales was rushed to the hospital. It was found that Miss Wing had three bullet wounds in her right breast, all very close together. Gales was suffering from a bullet wound in the right temple. Gales had been keeping company with Miss Wing for over a year and as far as is known there had never been an engagement between or cause for jealousy on the part of either. They were both of a particularly pleasant disposition and when they left their respective places of employment tonight they appeared to be in the best of spirits.

Considering the time the shots were heard by Mr. Bates it is believed that Gales came to Miss Wing's house directly from his work, meeting the young woman on the piazza as she was returning home. The police are inclined to believe that the shooting was unpremeditated and the result of a quarrel.

Benjamin E. Gales was the son of Benjamin Gales, who is 77 years old and lived with his father and mother at Port Square. He was an inspector at the machine shop of the Rees Corporation.

Miss Wing had been employed as a clerk in the Wilson department store here.

BIG GATHERING OF CATHOLICS

Guild Makes Eloquent Plea for Religious Toleration at Opening

MASS MEETING

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 28.—With the governor of the commonwealth of Massachusetts, Curtis Guild, Jr., making an eloquent plea for religious toleration in his broadest and kindest sense which brought thousands of Catholics to their feet in wild applause, the opening day of the five days' observance of the centennial anniversary of the founding of the diocese of Boston came to a close in Symphony Hall tonight.

The day opened auspiciously with a Pontifical mass in the Holy Cross Cathedral, celebrated by the papal delegate to the United States, Most Rev. Diomedeo Falconio, at which an historical sermon was delivered by Archbishop Wm. H. O'Connell and letters read from President Roosevelt and Pope Pius X. Many of the highest officials of the Roman Catholic Church in America were present.

Judge Michael J. Murray presided at the mass meeting tonight and besides Governor Guild there were addresses by Mayor Geo. A. Hibbard, Fred. F. Dwight, Marcus Bouthellier Chavigny, Judge Chas. De Courcy, Henry V. Cunningham, Judge Murray and Archbishop W. H. O'Connell, D. D.

CURTIS TRIES HARD TO CLEAR HIMSELF

Declares He was but the Instrument of Morse's Will NEVER MADE A DOLLAR

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The apparent determination of Alfred H. Curtis to exonerate himself of all blame in connection with the banking transactions for which he and Chas. W. Morse are now undergoing trial in the United States district court here, became more defined today, when under the prompting of his attorney, Mr. Curtis produced a letter written by himself under date of June 15, 1907, addressed to Morse, in which he made vigorous protest against the continuance of practices inaugurated by the latter and which, in Curtis' opinion, constituted a grave menace to the stability of the Bank of North America.

The incident of the overdraft of $20,000 by Morse, previously testified to, was made the subject of searching questioning by the witness' own attorney. Mr. Curtis related the coming of F. Augustus Helme to him with request for a loan of $25,000 and his refusal to grant the accommodation. Morse had remonstrated with him, saying, "Unless we let them have the money they must go to the wall." Curtis had then, however, he said, and retorted: "They cannot have a cent of the bank's money; if they must fail, they must fail."

To his amusement, however, he testified that a personal check of Chas. W. Morse for $25,000, drawn to the order of Helme, came through the next day. The check had been honored, although Morse, at the time, the witness said, had a balance to his credit of only $3,000.

"I at once went to Mr. Morse," the witness stated, "and told him that he must protect the bank and at once wipe out the overdraft. Mr. Morse sent out and got two boxes of securities and turned over their contents to me. I told him that the securities offered were insufficient and he offered to give me an order on $100,000 of steamship bonds, which he had on deposit in London. I accepted the order, and upon being given the order at once cabled to London to have the securities held, subject to the Bank of North America's order."

The witness was then turned over to the attorneys for Morse for what virtually proved a cross-examination. Despite the efforts of the Morse attorneys to present Curtis in the light of a free agent, who had at all times been free from the control of Morse, the witness persisted in maintaining his contention that he had been but the instrument of another's will and purpose.

"I never made a dollar through any speculations in any of the enterprise upon which the bank was loaning money," said he. "I earned my salary as agent, and that was all. The bank was my life's business and I worked for it conscientiously and faithfully."

An adjournment was taken until tomorrow, when Mr. Curtis will be further questioned.

MONTGOMERY FOUND GUILTY SECOND TIME

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 28.—William Montgomery, cashier of the Allegheny National Bank, until the discovery of a shortage in its funds of $1,250,000 early last summer, necessitated closing the institution for a second time this week, today found guilty of embezzlement and abstraction of funds, his speculations in the two cases amounting to $1,250,000.

Other indictment against Montgomery are pending. Every effort has been made by the prosecution and banks' attorneys to learn from Montgomery what became of the money abstracted or who besides himself received the money, but the cashier has steadfastly refused to involve others.
