OTHER SIMCOE NEWS

(From our own Correspondent)
 Simcoe, Nov. 12.—Though the news which ushered in yesterday as "The Day" not "Der Tag," reached Simcoe at 8.45 a.m. from the Brantford Courier, and was followed promptly by the ringing of bells and screeching of whistles, Waterford had a procession under way before the day was proclaimed a holiday in Simcoe. The council was called at 10 o'clock, and deliberated for half an hour. Reese Carter had done good preliminary work with reference to the procession, and when the committees were struck and the plan posted, Simcoe went home for luncheon and lined up at three o'clock the finest procession ever seen here. Cyclists, a mushroom brass band, the fire department's chemical motor truck bearing Mrs. Ruby Hall and party, Great War Veterans on foot, automobiles, motor trucks, drays, wagons and hose wagons made a procession over half a mile long. The procession made a circuit of the principal streets and disbanded at the armories.

At 4.30 a short thanksgiving service was held in the armories. All the members of the local ministerial association took part. Mr. John Pratt, Sec. G. W. N. A., occupied the chair. At his assembly his Hon. or Judge Boles made an appeal for subscriptions to the Victory Loan.

of Robinson and Talbot streets, upon which an eddy of "Mo'ians" "Gott" was placed after being paraded about the streets, led by the band, and into which later "Hindy's" body was dumped from a dray, amused young and old. A display of fireworks followed, and then those inclined there to tripped the light fantastic in the armories as the hours sped.

The Great War Veterans did splendid work in the three short hours at their disposal before the parade moved off.

Miss Lee's bull dog, riding on an extended auto top with a union jack background, was a feature of the parade.

Several cars from Waterford helped to swell the parade. The number of cars about the town by the curb greatly exceeded the number in the parade.

R. G. Bowley regretted very much that up to eleven o'clock his neighborhood could get no advice regarding the parade, otherwise, he claimed they could have added twenty-five mounts and several decorated autos to the turnout.

Two years ago to the day, the 133rd landed at Liverpool. During the day there was but one accident, a young man attempting to mount a moving motor truck at the head of the main street, under the wheels and was carried off.

The North ward tagmen team outfit would remind some of Wadhams ratepayers down to a political meeting.

Sounded the First Call

Above the noise of yesterday's acclaim came the news that George Green reached Halifax yesterday "removed" board. He is expected home this evening. George was on the staff of the British Canadian when he enlisted. And, listen, he was the first bugler to sound the call for men for overseas. George

Former Simcoeian Dead

News reached Simcoe yesterday of the death at Hampton of Mrs. Jane McPherson Terry, wife of Wm. Lewis Terry. Mr. Terry was engaged with the firm of S. M. Sovereign, and later was a partner in the firm of Terry and Co. Deceased was a daughter of the late Eli McPherson. Mrs. Russell Griffin and Mrs. Robert Sidway, of Woodhouse are sisters.

PRESS PARAPHRASE

Mr. Nelson Watts, engineer at the pumping station was called to Hamilton on Friday to attend the funeral of his brother, Walter Watts, who was a victim of "flu."

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Rose left on Saturday for Florida. Mrs. Annie Porteus, now an octogenarian, accompanied them and will spend the winter in the south.

Mrs. Edmund P. James of Alameda Cal., is visiting his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Boyd, Talbot street north.

L. J. H. McKnight is home for the week-end.

Hilton Forsyth and H. M. Ramsey are now victims of "flu."

Chief Canning was quite ill yesterday.

Pte. David Melvor and Sgt. K. McLachlan were in their respective family pews at church yesterday.

Dr. Bowley was yesterday reported indisposed.

Emergency Hospital Closed. The Simcoe emergency hospital closed its doors on Saturday, for lack of patients. The volunteer nurses, the staff, local doctors and a couple of members of the Hospital Board had a social luncheon there on Saturday evening.

The Board, we understand, will return all borrowed equipment, and will thoroughly disinfect and store the remainder, as the local physicians have advised that there is grave possibility of an epidemic of pneumonia during the winter.

Odd Ends of News. It was not the Brantford Courier that sent boys into Simcoe Saturday night to reap the profits of the sale of an "Extra" while the faithful lads who carry the regular issue stood by assigned. As a matter of fact, all the fresh news that the extra contained was bulletined at our agency a couple of hours before the extra arrived. When the Courier issues an extra in Simcoe the delivery boys if available get the business.

County Constable Harry Nelson is on duty during the illness of Chief Canning, and he is out for loafers.

Notice forbidding expectation on the sidewalk, a practice forbidden in a long-standing by-law, have been tacked upon trees and posts along the street, contrary to another by-law.

Several prominent Simcoeians will spend the day in Brantford.

We bow our acknowledgements of expressions of appreciation of The Courier Agency Bulletin service.

Services of Thanksgiving

Park Baptist Church.
 There was a large congregation present last evening at Park Baptist Church for the purpose of rendering gratitude to Almighty God for having given victory to the Allied nations in this cruel war, which has been carried on for the past four years, and now closed. The Rev. Robert White, pastor of the church, conducted the services in his usual able manner.

The meeting opened by singing a hymn and followed by prayers offered by Deacons Hugh Howie and George Farley, after which the good old hymn was sung, "Oh, God, Our Help in Ages Past." Then were given two addresses by Deacons Jos. Ruddy and Dr. U. M. Stanley expressive of their faith in God and their convictions that the Allied nations who, by reason of the fact that they trusted in God and believed in His word, and knowing that they were in the right, would be given the victory. If, however, they had lived nearer to God and not gone into worldliness and had repented sooner, victory would have come earlier.

After singing "Nearer My God to Thee," the congregation listened to the address of the pastor which was most forceful and eloquent, thank in God for the punishment of the Kaiser, also for the wonderful manner in which the Allies had been

To Subscribers in Arrears

Paper Controller Orders Cutting Off of Unpaid Subscriptions!

Mr. R. A. Pringle, K. C., the Paper Controller of Canada, has issued an order, effective January 1, 1919, which says:

"2. Discontinue sending paper within three months after date of expiration of subscription, unless the subscription is renewed and paid for."

There are many other restrictions imposed, but this one is the most important. Therefore, between now and the end of the year The Courier's subscription list must be overhauled and put on a paid-in-advance basis, in order to comply with a governmental order.

Accounts have already been sent out to those in arrears, but subscribers do not need to wait for a "dum" to spur them to action. The date on the label affixed to the paper sent to mail subscribers tells the story. City subscribers can learn how their subscription stands by referring to their last receipt.

The reason for this regulation of the Paper Controller is that it is the practice of some publishers to send their newspaper until ordered stopped, and this practice frequently means a failure to collect anything for subscriptions in arrears, in which case there is a virtual waste of paper. It is to prevent paper waste that the new regulation has been decided on.

The manufacture of paper consumes labor, wood, coal, chemicals and transportation facilities, and every ton of paper saved means just so much labor, raw materials, chemicals, fuel and transportation available for urgent war needs. For these reasons the Government insists that paper shall be saved, and proposes that only those who pay for their publications shall receive them.

Under these regulations The Courier will have no choice in the matter of dealing with subscriptions in arrears for over three months.

Send in your subscription at once. Do not delay, the collectors call regularly on city subscribers. Keep your account up-to-date.

Fall Assizes Have Opened

The Fall Assizes of the Supreme Court of Ontario opened at the Court House yesterday afternoon before Mr. Justice Lennox. Five civic cases and three criminal are slated for a hearing.

His Honor, in his address to the grand jury, congratulated them on the conclusion of the world war, and made reference to the problems with which Canada would be confronted in the near future. The first case heard was that of Ross versus Vance, in which judgment for $1,500 was given in favor of the plaintiff.

This morning an action brought by Max Fless against the L. E. and N. Railway was heard. The plaintiff was struck by an L. E. and N. car near Mount Pleasant some months ago.

THE WIFE

BY JANE PHELPS, AUTHOR OF "MARGARET GARRETT'S HUSBAND," AND OTHER NOTABLE STORIES.

CHAPTER LXXII

Mollie is dangerously sympathetic. Brian really did not feel as injured as he had before when Ruth had left him to attend to business for the firm. But, led on by Mollie's sympathetic questioning he made it appear to her that he was thoroughly miserable and misunderstood. And Mollie, innocent of intent to wrong Ruth, because she thought Ruth cared nothing for Brian, else she would not be so indifferent,—made Brian think of how much more comfortable it would have made things had Ruth been more like Mollie.

He did not go so far even in his thoughts as to wish he had married Mollie instead of Ruth, but he was dangerously near such a position. "It was so jolly to talk to Mollie, thought as he talked away, saying more than he really meant, as men so often do under the same, or similar circumstances.

Mollie had reached over and laid her soft, warm hand over his when he told how dreadfully lonely it was to go home and sit alone all the evening, after grinding in the office all day.

"It takes all the spunk out of a man," he had said. And Mollie had sagely agreed. Perhaps, Mollie knew that Brian had done better since his marriage than before (but, even at that, he was too indolent to do his best), she might not have been quite so sympathetic, not quite so tender in her manner toward him. But feeling him abused, she took a motherly sort of an attitude which men always enjoy.

"Poor Brian," she said more than once during the evening. And she thought, "marry in haste, repent at leisure," but would not say it for fear of hurting Brian's feelings.

Yet Mollie still admired Ruth, still regarded her as quite wonderful in many ways. She often thought of the nice dinner she had given Claude Beckly and herself, of what an easy gracious hostess she was. She saved Ruth her poison, her easy manner, even under trying circumstances. Mollie had realized that Claude Beckly's familiarity was obnoxious to Ruth and had taken him to task on the way home for his impudence in calling her by her first name.

"She is different from our crowd! she doesn't call people by their first names. The idea of you telling her to call me 'Mollie,' I was furious!" Then, "You should have been looking at her when you called her 'Ruth.'"

"Brian wasn't if she was," Beckly had answered with a hint of sarcasm. "Brian is one of us. She is not," Mollie had answered, and in that answer had expressed her feeling toward Brian. He was one of them. They understood each other, were contented and happy doing the same things, visiting the same places.

While Ruth was of a different mould, although it is doubtful if Claude Beckly were able, like Mollie to detect that it was also a finer mould.

"You don't understand, Claude. She has been brought up in the most conventional way. Things we do in the village, innocent as they are, would shock her terribly. She wouldn't understand us any better than you seem to understand her. You have queered our getting asked up there to dinner again, I'll bet a nickel."

"I hope not," he had returned in such a lugubrious tone that Mollie had laughed heartily and twitted him with raising only because of the "good feed" he might miss. Mollie told Brian something of this conversation with Claude. She dwelt on the fact that Ruth did not understand any but the most conventional people. Saying nothing disparaging, rather the opposite, but emphasizing the feeling that Brian already had, that Ruth did not care for his friends.

"I don't see how one so conventional ever came to think she could go to business."

"She didn't for some time," Brian answered, flushing a little. "But you see, Mollie, she had done a lot of such work in her aunt's big house, a wonderful home. Then she isn't a bit domestic. She hates housework," he confessed the hard work of the house, as do many men, with domesticity. Yet many of the most domestic, home-loving women do not care to be in the kitchen all the time.

"I suppose she earns a big salary in that well place."

"Oh, fair."

"I don't believe she had bought a new dud since we have been married. She had clothes enough to last a lifetime."

"And I have two little cheap dresses a year," Mollie wailed, pretending to be unhappy because of it and not caring at all.

"You are more attractive in them," Brian stopped. He must say nothing disparaging of Ruth. "I just love to see you with your apron on, fussing around the studio," he finished, flushing and at the same time patting her hand.

"Come and see me often, then, Brian," she said softly. "You will find me that way most of the time." To Be Continued.

You are pretty apt to have a cough that is inclined to linger after the Flu.

The system now needs a remedy for that cough, and a tonic as well. The best preparation for this condition is Nyal's Tasteless Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites, Wild Cherry and Cresote. THE LAST WEEK Canada's great Victory Loan campaign has entered upon its last week, and it behooves everyone to make an additional effort to see that the undertaking goes not only well over the top but also a long way beyond that.

The fact that the great war has to all intents and purposes come to an end does not in any sense mean that the money is not now needed. It is in many respects more needed during the period of readjustment than while active hostilities were still in evidence, and the complete success of the under-taking still remains of the most vital importance. Those who have already subscribed should seek by every endeavor to secure more of the bonds, and those who have not yet done anything must awake to a sense of their paramount duty.

The money bullets are just as important right now as the other kind have been in bringing about the humiliation of the wanton Hun.

THE NEXT TASK.
 No one doubts that as the aftermath of the war there will be some big problems to settle with a readjustment of conditions in most countries. The cleaning up process is of course going to take quite a while, and then the other job will have to be tackled. As far as Germany is concerned, it looks as if for a period, a condition of affairs might prevail similar to that in Russia, but the spirit of discipline which has been ingrained in the race should hurry order out of chaos in much shorter time than will prove the case in the kingdom of the ex Czar.

In the allied countries industrial and other conditions are likely to be greatly changed with state recognition of many demands which labor has advanced, but not yet achieved. There is a spirit abroad among the workers that they have not had their fair share, and having so unreservedly thrown themselves into the task of helping to make the world safe for democracy they will naturally want to see some fruits from that sacrifice.

The feeling on behalf of state ownership of public utilities has grown immeasurably. If railways and other under-takings can be taken over to advantage during war time, why not in peace? Another matter to be faced is the influence of women as competitors in fields of labor, hitherto barred to them. It is going to take men of wide and broad minded views to successfully grapple with the situation, or otherwise there will be a condition of disruption little less than that caused by the war itself.

IN THE LONG AGO.

There are a few still resident in this city who remember the celebration of the Crimean victory in 1855. The event took place on Friday, Sept. 8th.
 Streamers were stretched across the streets, and after darkness set in, the candles and the lamps blazed away right merrily. There was a parade under the direction of H. Kacey. It was headed by the local band of that period and the demonstrators finally halted before the Court House.
 Mayor William Matthews presided.
 The last named gentleman, by the way, was quite a character. He was an effective public speaker, and as he talked he would first of all remove his tie, then his collar, and then his waistcoat, until the uninitiated began to look the other way in fear of what he might take off next. Here W. H.
 Merritt, representative of the Courts of Lincoln, was the chief speaker, and he stated that he "would pitch Austria to Russia." Another speech was made by a Rev. Mr. Alexander, during which he said that he did not consider that he was out of place as a minister of the gospel in standing before the people on that important occasion.
 The victory gained was a triumph of liberty and civilization over barbarism. On the other hand the prodigious slaughter on the field—the woe and anguish of bleeding thousands—and the numerous widows and orphans caused by the war, excited emotions of grief which counterbalanced those of joy.

Substitute millions for thousands, and his words apply with equal force to the outcome of the recent great struggle.

An army dirigible balloon with six men left Akron, O., and was lost over Lake Erie.

Two thousand soldiers from Camp Pike, Ark., are to help with the sugar crop in Louisiana.

A scheme is under way to plant 1,000 acres in Utah with a rubber-bearing plant.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

Pretty quiet after the storm.
 It was an auto day all right with scarcely a horse in evidence. As a matter of fact, like the Germans, they are getting to be horse de combat.

As long as he is allowed to remain in Holland, the ex Kaiser can gaze on the windmills and recall how he also used to whirl around.

After the 'Flue the flags flew.

It was eminently fitting that the plucky Canadians should have captured Mons just before peace terms went into effect.

Latest advices are that the visit of the ex Crown Prince to Canada has been indefinitely postponed.

The amount of confetti which had to be removed from the streets this morning made it seem as if Miss Brantford had been wedded to someone or the other. As a matter of fact she still clings to her first love, the old city hall.

HOW PARIS CELEBRATED

Town Turned Out en Masse at First Tidings of Victory

From Our Own Correspondent.

Paris, Nov. 12.—The pent up feelings of over four years of the stress and strain of the great war found vent yesterday in the heartiest outpouring of the great mass of people that thronged the streets shortly after the ringing of bells and blowing of the whistles around six o'clock in the morning. The glorious news was received in the most joyous manner by the Parisians. The streets were soon signed around four o'clock, but very wisely withheld for two hours before making it generally known.
 From that hour until about 3.30, the citizens and farmers from around Paris had been gradually gathering in town until there were several thousand on the main street. At that hour the proceedings started by Mayor Robinson addressing a few remarks from opposite the post office, being supported by the clergy, town council, Board of Trade and other representative men.

Then followed the doxology and National anthem. Rev. B. B. Williams led in prayer, the entire concourse repeating the Lord's prayer. After all heartily singing "Oh God Our Help in Ages Past," a monster procession was formed by the Veterans, school children, cadets, citizens, floats and hundreds of autos. The route started through the upper town, around the flats, and to Paris station, back to fire hall, where it was dispersed at 10.30. The singing was led by the combined chorus of the churches, assisted by the Catholics and Salvation Army bands, under the direction of Mr. J. P. McCannion.

At 11.00 a.m. fully 1000 people had assembled in the Presbyterian church, where a Thanksgiving, yet most impressive service was held, with the Venerable Rev. B. B. Williams conducting the same as follows:

The doxology and National anthem.
 Scripture reading—Rev. R. J. Adamson.
 Hymn—"Now Thank We All Our God."
 Prayer—(Confession) Rev. J. H.
 Wells.

Address—Rev. B. B. Williams.
 Hymn—"Give Ear Unto Our God."
 Prayer—(Thanksgiving) Rev. W.
 J. Langton.

Hymn—"The Lord is King."
 Prayer—(Dedication) Rev. J. C.
 Nicholson, and one minute of silent prayer.
 At this juncture Rev. Williams spoke of the pleasure it gave him to see such a large and representative gathering assembled, giving thanks to Almighty God for the great victory to the allied arms. In closing he feelingly referred to those who had been wounded, and asked for the sympathy of all for the homes of those bereaved.
 He said that he must always bear in mind, that those heroes had died that we might live out our lives in peace and quietness. As a tribute to those who had fallen, the speaker asked the congregation to rise and stand with bowed heads while the "Dead March in Saul" was rendered by the organist. The entire service was one that will long be remembered by all present.

The afternoon was spent in a quiet and orderly way, the boys and young men marching and parading as fancy dictated.
 At 7.45 p.m. another parade was formed at the Central Fire Hall, when hundreds of people and some 200 autos proceeded to the agricultural park.
 Here cheers were given for the King, Poch, Haig and others, patriotic songs rendered, the proceedings ending with a huge bonfire, and the burning of the ex-Kaiser. The proceedings ended with a dance opposite the Central fire hall. The mayor is deserving of all praise for the able manner in which he kept things moving.

About 10.15 in the morning fire was discovered in fried fish and potato chips shop on Mechanic street. The burning stub of a cigarette is said to have caused the blaze which must have been smouldering for some time, as the store was not open. The chemical engine put out the fire.

Union Thanksgiving Service
 Wednesday evening union services will be held in the Anglican and Baptist churches. The services will be of a two-fold character—to return thanks for the era of peace now at hand, as also that the epidemic of influenza has passed, from which this town suffered so heavily.

Your Problems
 ?? Solved ??

By Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.
 (All rights reserved.)

Dr. Linscott in this column will help you solve your heart problems, religious, marital, social, financial and every other anxious care that per-plexes you. If a personal answer is required, enclose a five cent stamp. No names will be published; if you prefer, sign your initials only, or use a pen-donym.

Anxiety is Polly.—"A Labor Leader" inquires: "How much does anxiety prevent the things from happening which we fear? Forthrightly, or doing what we can to avert impending calamity is sometimes successful, but anxiety increases the evil which we fear. We should do what we can to head off trouble, but anxiety is a poor thing with which to do it. As a rule, the things which we fear never materialize and when they do they are frequently blessings in disguise.
 We should promptly do the duty which lies next to us but never allow anxiety."

Signs of Culture.—"A Teacher" asks: "What are the outward and visible signs of inward culture?" Cleanliness, a neat appearance and successful energy are generally indications of a cultured mind. Perhaps the most telling sign of culture, or the lack of it, is when we speak.
 Many people impress one with a cultured appearance until we hear them speak, and then we are frequently disillusioned. Slang, an improper pronunciation, and a vulgar style of speech, are always proof of a lack of culture and particularly of careless home training, or uneducated companions.

Demonstration Continued Until After Midnight

Monster Parade was Feature of Afternoon—Bon Fires at Night

You have heard the question, ladies and gentlemen, did Brantford celebrate the coming of peace?
 Those in favor rise up and answer
 "We'll say we did." Contrary?
 None. Carried. Celebrate? Well, yes, for darned near twenty-four hours without a moment's pause.
 The instigator was drenched well before three-thirty yesterday morning, and continued until nearly that hour this morning. During that entire period, Brantford's streets were thronged with such a crowd as they have not known in years, and resounded to the sound of triumphant jubilation.

The main feature of the afternoon's celebration was a monster parade, several miles in length, which swept through the central parts of the city and came to a halt at the Bell Memorial, where brief addresses were made by Ald. Hill, representing the Mayor, W. F. Cockshutt, M.P., C. Cutcliffe and Capt. the Rev. C. E. Jenkins.

At the head of the parade came a car on the front of which perched a gigantic ball dog of the true British type. The Dufferin Rifles band and the members of the G. W. V.
 A. in full strength and in uniform almost to the last man, followed.
 Then followed a string of private cars resplendent with flags and bunting; representatives from the various Kith and Kin districts; the members of the Ministerial Association, the Salvation Army band, members of the Ancient Order of Foresters, representatives from the Trades and Labor Council, the companies of the street railway, the trucks from the central fire hall, sounding their sirens at full blast; more private cars, the Hebrew Zionists of the city, the Women's Patriotic League, a contingent of calisthenic "clowns," a symbolic float, "Free Armenia," prepared by local Armenians, and troops and other vehicles with enthusiastic delegations from the majority of the city's factories. The streets along the route of the parade were lined with thousands of spectators.

From 5 o'clock on there was a slight falling off in the demonstration, but it swelled to fresh heights in the evening, when bonfires again blazed on the street corners, and all material available was dragged out to be consigned to the flames. The Kaiser was burned in effigy at several places. Everyone in Brantford who had an automobile, was on the streets, sounding their horns, dragging clanking sheets of tin behind their cars, and leaving nothing undone to add to the uproar.
 The crowd was a good natured one throughout, however, and little or no damage to property was done throughout the demonstrations. It closed after midnight before the last celebrants were willing to call it a night. And thus passed Nov. 11, the most momentous day to the world's history.

The New Better and Safer Way to Wash
 Your Hair
 Dandruff is the primary cause of falling hair.
 The desirable condition of the scalp and hair glands is almost certain to cause temporary or permanent baldness.
 Loss of hair may also be ascribed to the use of improper shampoos containing irritating substances, animal oils and alcohol, any of which may produce gradual decay of the hair.
 Don't use a stale liquid preparation that contains too much alkali (a harmful irritant). The secret of the new method is to make your own liquid. Buy a carton of Vaseline at any drug store. Dissolve one of the small packets into half glass of fresh water and you will have an abundance of non-irritating liquid that will relieve itching of the scalp, falling hair and dandruff. Vaseline being in concentrated form never spoils and will keep forever.

RADIAL CARS IN COLLISION

Passengers Suffered From Broken Glass and Shaking Up

An accident which might very easily have had fatal consequences, occurred last night, when two Hamilton radial cars collided at the foot of Drummond street, on their way into the city. Both cars were more or less damaged by the crash, and a number of the passengers sustained painful cuts from broken glass, as well as a severe shaking up, but no more serious injuries eventuated.

The two cars were drawing into the city from Hamilton at a quarter to 8, and the one ahead stopped opposite Drummond street, just around a curve in the track, when its trolley slipped the wire overhead. This resulted in extinguishing the lights on the car, and a moment later the second car crashed into the one standing. Both cars were filled with passengers returning from Hamilton, and for a few moments a panic threatened. The windows were shattered, and splinters of glass flying through the air inflicted painful lacerations on many of the passengers.
 The front of the one car and the rear of the other were badly shattered, and for a time it was thought that the line would be blocked. The 9 o'clock car was able to leave the city on time, however. The civic ambulance was summoned to the scene, but was not used, as none had sustained injuries severe enough to necessitate removal to the hospital.

It Works! Try It Tells how to loosen a corn, tender corn so it lifts out without pain.

Good news spreads rapidly and druggists here are kept busy dispensing freezone, the ether discovery of a Cincinnati man, which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts out with the fingers.

Ask at any pharmacy for a quarter ounce of freezone, which will cost very little, but is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.
 You apply just a few drops on the tender, aching corn and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn is so shriveled that it lifts out without pain. It is a sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the adjoining tissue.

This discovery will prevent thousands of deaths annually from lockjaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cutting corns.

LEG CRUSHED.

In the Parade yesterday a small boy sustained painful injuries when his leg was crushed by being struck by an automobile. The accident occurred near the corner of Dalhousie and Market Sts. and the boy sitting on the back of a wagon was struck by a car that had been close behind and that failed to stop simultaneously with the wagon.

NOTICE
Increase in Subscription Rates Commencing Dec. 1, 1918
 The subscription rates of the Brantford Daily Courier and the Brantford Daily Expositor, commencing December 1st, 1918, will be as follows:
Delivered in Brantford and Vicinity, 45c. per month
By the year, Paid in Advance, $5.00 per annum
By Mail, " " " 4.00 per annum Single Copies, 2c.
 After publication of this notice, payments in advance on subscriptions will only be accepted to ceember 1st at the old rate, after that at the new rate.
 This advance in subscription rates has been made necessary by the tremendous increase in the cost of white paper, the price of which has recently been fixed by the Paper Controller at Ottawa. By this one item alone thousands of dollars are added to our annual cost of production, and in addition, labor, presses, stereotype supplies, type and all other items of expense have enormously advanced in price during the last few years.
 Even at the new rates the Brantford papers are only now charging prices which have been in force for some time back on almost all the other daily newspapers published in this section of the Dominion. In many cities the subscription rates are very much higher.

Local News

BUSINESS AS USUAL.

"Business as usual here, eh?" observed a Brantfordite as he entered a Chinese laundry yesterday at noon. "Yes, velly cold," came the reply.

IS WOUNDED.

Mrs. Caroline Lewis, 151 Peel street, received a telegram announcing that her son, Pte. Ed. Lewis, had been wounded by a gas shell.

BULLETINS POPULAR.

The Courier's bulletin yesterday afternoon summarizing the armistice terms, was a centre of attraction during the entire afternoon, a large crowd being perpetual by congregated about it.

A WARNING.

Courier readers who are desirous of preserving one or more copies of yesterday's paper, destined to become historic, through their announcement of the end of the world's greatest war, will be well advised to call at this office at once, as the entire edition is practically sold out, only a few copies remaining.

AMBULANCE BURNED.

The problem of the disposition of the city ambulance has been solved for the municipality free of charge. A party of youthful enthusiasts hauled the ancient and decrepit vehicle forth from its resting place yesterday morning, and it formed the piece-de-resistance at one of the numerous bon-fires lighted.

NOTHING LIKE TORONTO.

"This is hardly a patch on the demonstration they held in Hamilton and Toronto last week," observed a bystander while jubilation was at its height on the central streets of the city yesterday morning. "Which would lead to the opinion that the aforementioned cities must have had some time. And then they had the fun of doing it all over again yesterday."

COULDN'T BELIEVE IT.

"I've got my doubts whether it's true," one local citizen observed, shaking his head when the celebration was at its height yesterday morning. "I was in Toronto last week when they celebrated prematurely," he added. However, many hours the same citizen admitted that he was convinced of the authenticity of the good news.

JEWISH SERVICE.

The Brantford Zionists participated at full strength yesterday afternoon, headed by the Zionist flag and the Union Jack. After the parade they marched to the Synagogue on Palace street, where the evening prayers were offered. Rabbi Anderson delivered an impressive address on the realization of a Jewish Palestine, made possible by the allied victory. The Jewish National Anthem, "Hatikvah," and the British National Anthem were sung at the close of the service.

CLEANING STREETS.

Street cleaners were at work today clearing away the smouldering embers of bonfires, the confetti and other debris which remained as the only relics of yesterday's celebration.

PEACE WITH HONOR.

One of the most attractive displays seen yesterday was a huge electric sign, "Peace With Honor," which was placed in front of the Brant Theatre by Manager Monte and lighted up long before daylight and again after dark. The illuminating effect was dazzling in its brilliance.

DIED OF PNEUMONIA.

The news of peace brought sorrow instead of joy to the heart of Mr. Henry Elliott of Burch, for he received word yesterday morning that his son, Pte. Ernest Elliott, had died of pneumonia in Brantford Hospital, England. The young man leaves two brothers and three sisters, in addition to his father.

NO FIRES.

A feature of yesterday's celebration was the fact that though fire-works were much in evidence morning and evening and bonfires also blazed at nearly every corner, there were no fires during the entire day. The fire department answered a summons in the morning, but it proved to be a false alarm.

SCHOOLS RE-OPEN.

The schools of the city re-opened this morning after their doors had been closed for four weeks owing to the influenza epidemic. The attendance at most schools is reported as being fairly satisfactory, and it is hoped that to-morrow will see all the pupils back once more. The night classes at the Collegiate Institute will open to-night.

WOMEN WERE IN IT.

Surprise was expressed by some at the prominent part taken in yesterday's demonstrations by the fair sex. From the earliest hours of the morning, women and girls formed a large portion of the crowds on the streets, and did their full share of cheering, marching and flag waving. "They've made greater sacrifices than the men," was the way one citizen sized it up, "so why shouldn't they celebrate?"

TO-DAY NO HOLIDAY.

"Will to-morrow be a public holiday?" was a question asked of The Courier a score of times yesterday. The answer was an emphatic negative. Monday was the holiday, Mayor MacBride's proclamation, which was posted late Saturday night, stated that a public holiday would be proclaimed the day following the signing of peace, but this was in anticipation of the news breaking during the day, instead of at three o'clock in the morning. A number of factories were short of their help this morning, but the majority had got the celebration virus out of their systems, and returned to work.

A BUSY TIME.

If the old saying, "No rest for the wicked" hold true, it's a grave reflection on newspaper business. For the past week The Courier has been working under an unusual strain. The office was open all night Saturday and Sunday, with the leased wire constantly in operation. Several members of the staff were on duty through the night, and the others held themselves ready to answer a call at any moment. As a result when the news of the signing of the armistice was flashed over the wires at three o'clock yesterday morning, The Courier had its extra on the street in less than five minutes.

HANDICAPS IN
life's work or its pleasures, caused by accidents or injuries, are now fast being overcome by scientific methods.

Many people, however, carry a handicap that is not the result of accident, but carelessness and neglect of the eyes. These people wonder why they feel tired or nervous and have headaches. We make, fit and design glasses to overcome such troubles.

Don't handicap your health, success or pleasures. If you need glasses our examination will show the kind you need.

THE MARKETS.
The local market this morning was chiefly used for the sale of hay, of which there was a shortage in quantity. A few stand selling vegetables were on the south side of the market but the variety of product offered for sale was very small.

TWO YEARS TO GET PAPERS.
During the past few months there has been considerable confusion in the department looking after the soldiers' papers. It took two years for the Soldiers' Aid Commission to get a medical certificate for one local man and without which he could have gotten no pension.

NEAR ACCIDENT.
A near accident occurred at the corner of Market and Sheridan streets yesterday morning, shortly after 8 o'clock, when a car, which was being driven rapidly up Market street, climbed the boulevard when the driver attempted to turn east on to Charlotte street, crossing the gutter one of the two lady occupants of the rear seat was jolted out on to the road, but fortunately escaped injury. The car was not damaged.

CLOSE CALL.

GOOD CELEBRATION.
The enthusiasm that prevailed in the city yesterday over the peace news did not spare the crowds. They disobeyed the law and as a result Chief of Police Slemin is able to report that there were no arrests after dark and that the crowd in general behaved themselves well. The people were allowed to have a free day and did not take unfair advantage of it.

PLAIN TRUTHS

In Every Department we show lines of goods which are the result of careful selection, and which are exceedingly good value, considering the state of the markets.

We do not claim that every line we show is ALWAYS better than you can buy anywhere else — that would be foolish egotism—but we do assert that in the majority of cases, you will find that our offerings are such as will give you entire satisfaction, and compare favorably with the average of what is offered from any source whatever, while you have always the open offer from us of money back if you want it — and cheerfully too.

We couldn't well do more, could we?

E. B. CROMPTON & Co. Limited.

THE BRANT. D. W. Griffith's great war picture, "The Great Love," was seen by an enthusiastic audience at the Brant Theatre last night. Other attractions upon the holiday program include Douglas Fairbanks in a specially produced Victory Loan picture, "The Maple Leaf Forever," and other splendid pictures.

THE REX. Sessue Hayakawa, the noted Japanese star, is seen at the Rex the first of this week in his first production by his own company, "The Birthright." ESCAPE IN SCANTY ATTIRE

Early Morning Fire at the Residence of Mr. W. T. Henderson

City Solicitor Henderson, Mrs. Henderson and their guest, Mrs. Sinker, had a narrow escape from suffocation at their residence on Brant avenue this morning. A defective wire is supposed to have started a fire in the parlor and when Mrs. Henderson awoke, the fumes of smoke were so dense that it was with difficulty that she and her husband made their egress. Mrs. Sinker also had to make a hasty exit.

The firemen were at work quite a while before the flames were subdued as they had got in between the walls. The parlor contents were badly damaged, but the amount of the loss has not yet been estimated. Broke Out Again. Fire again broke out this afternoon in the residence of Mr. W. T. Henderson, Brant Ave., shortly before two o'clock. The blaze was caused by a short circuit of wires from which the insulation had been removed in the parlor. The firemen extinguished the blaze with chemicals, of which they found it necessary to send for a larger supply when those on the truck became exhausted.

HELEN MARTIN. The death occurred Sunday morning of Helen Martin, the five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Martin of Oakville, who died at the old St. John's Church Cemetery.

Word was received at the city Sunday of the death in Los Angeles, California, from influenza, of Robert Nelson Phair, grandson of the late Robert Phair of this city, and eldest son of the late Thomas H. Phair, of the Gaithe Park, Lubbock, Texas. He was born in Brantford, where he spent his early years. He is survived by a young widow and two children, also his mother, Jennie Franklin Phair, and two brothers, Gordon and Clayton, all of Los Angeles.

M. MULLIN. (Stratford Herald.) Death on Saturday removed a well known figure from Stratford's streets in the person of Michael Mullin. The late Mr. Mullin for the last ten years has been engaged in the street traffic of light articles. He was born in Tipperary, Ireland, 75 years ago and came to this country many years ago. The funeral will be held to-morrow morning, service at St. Joseph's Church at 9.30.

S. J. SCHELLY. The funeral of the late Mr. S. J. Schelly took place this morning at 9.30 from his residence, St. George road, to St. Basil's Church, where high mass was sung. From there the remains were taken to St. Joseph's cemetery, the pall bearers being Messrs. James Eriey, Andrew Danahin, George Getz, Frank Birkett, Otto Kaustedt and J. Halloran. There were many Mass Cards sent by friends of the deceased, who was immensely popular with all who knew him. The floral offerings were also beautiful.

Mr. Schelly came to Brantford from Waterloo, Ont., at the age of 17 years, starting with the late Mr. G. W. Erolman at the butcher business. Later he went into business for himself on Brant Avenue. In 1894 he married Catherine Ryder of Haldimand County, who survives, together with three sons, who are Cyril, advertising manager with the Petrie Manufacturing Co. Ltd., Hamilton; Edward, with the overseas forces since the spring of 1915, and Frank at home. Mr. Schelly's health began to fail and in 1909 he started yearning in the hope that outside work would improve his health. The trouble increased, however, and for the past six years he has been a great sufferer, unable to do any work. Death occurred on Saturday evening. To the surviving members of the family the sympathy of a host of friends is being extended.

J. H. BURNS. The death occurred yesterday of a well known resident of this locality in the person of Mr. James Harley Burns. FIGHTING IN BERLIN. Basel, Nov. 11.—Fighting between revolutionary forces and imperial troops was still going on in Berlin Sunday morning. The struggle, which began Saturday evening broke out afresh at 9 o'clock Sunday morning. The heaviest fighting Sunday morning was in front of the Victoria and Bauer cafes and the library of the arsenal near the Lustgarten, where officers, military cadets and boy scouts were fortified.

Subscribers Got the Benefit

OUR annual report for 1917 shows that we have issued capital stock to the amount of $18,000,000, and bonds $11,149,000 or $29,149,000 in all. The value of our plant and equipment in use at the end of last year, in round figures, was $42,670,000, an excess of thirteen millions over our capital and bond liability. How was this excess plant acquired? By careful administration over a long period, our surplus earnings derived from the economical operation of our plant and from premiums on sale of stock and bonds, as well as from profitable investments, have been turned back into the business for the purchase of new equipment. This means that on this thirteen odd millions no dividends have been paid; our subscribers, not our shareholders, have benefited by it. Rates have been low by reason of our small capital and bond liability. Neither stock nor cash bonuses have been paid our stockholders. Net earnings for 1917 were only 5.5 per cent. of our assets. At the increased cost of operation and maintenance our earnings cannot provide an adequate return on the investment. This situation we wish to meet by the application of a fair schedule of rates.

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning. Wash away all the stomach, liver, and bowel poisons before breakfast. To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside; no spurts to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headaches, edema, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do, says a well-known physician. To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before breakfast each day, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach. Get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins; also to prevent their formation. To feel like young folks feel, like you fall before your blood, nerves and muscles become saturated with an accumulation of body poisons, begin this treatment and above all, keep it up! As soap and hot water act on the skin, phosphated hot water and purifying limestone phosphate and hot water before breakfast act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

COMB SAGE TEA IN FADED OR GRAY HAIR

It Mixed With Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell.
Grandmother kept her hair becoming fully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and becomes glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

FILLED PARTING SHOT.
By Courier Leased Wire.
With the American Army on Sedan Front, Nov. 11, 2 p.m.—(By The Associated Press.) Thousands of American heavy guns fired this parting shot to the Germans at exactly eleven o'clock this morning.

The eyes of Our Boys are on the Home Front.

A German Pigeon Loft, captured by the British, is seen in this British official photo. The British Tommy is experimenting with the gas proof box, which was used by the Germans to attach messages to carrier pigeons during a gas attack. The pigeon was placed within, thereby he coming immune to the poisonous fumes. The message was attached by the soldier by inserting his hands through the openings.

U. S. AND WAR

By Courier Leased Wire.
New York, Nov. 11.—An Associated Press dispatch from Washington this morning says: Signing of the armistice with Germany which brings the world war to an end, does not mean that the great American military machine will cease to operate at once. America must take an important part in disarming and guarding the enemy until this work is completed, even when the fighting has ceased.

During the interval between the cessation of hostilities and the conclusion of the peace conference it is assumed that the major portion of General Pershing's expeditionary forces in France must be retained there. It is possible also that for reasons of international politics some American garrisons may be kept there even after the actual peace negotiations have been brought to a close. Troops which have seen the longest service in France probably will be returned home soon to be replaced by new men now in this country who will perform guard or other duty overseas. There are more than 1,000,000 men now in camps in the United States. The question of discontinuing the calling of men to the colors under the selective service act with its ending of hostilities has been under consideration. It is known that General Crowder's advisers have favored cancelling all outstanding calls as soon as the armistice is signed, but this matter must be passed on by the general staff. The movement of a large number of men to camp was due to begin this morning under the November call which embraces about 500,000 men.

Return home of American naval forces—battleships, destroyers, submarines, converted yachts, supply ships and other craft—also will follow the end of the war. Details of plans have not been revealed, but it is assumed here that once disposition is made of the German high seas fleet and submarines in accordance with the terms of the armistice, the American fleet, together with most of the destroyers and other submarine hunting and convoying craft will return.

Even with hostilities ended, however, much other naval work aside from that of taking over and guarding German and Austrian naval vessels, remains to be done. Removal of thousands of mines laid by the Allied and German navies will form no small part of this work, and the fleet of mine sweepers and laying craft sent overseas by the United States will assist in this gigantic task. The greatest mine field is that put down in the North Sea as a barrage against German submarines.

With the return of all German submarines to their bases, allied shipping once more may sail the seven seas without fear of molestation and in disregard of the regulations made by Germany's unrestricted warfare. There will be no more running at night without lights and its attendant dangers of collisions and straggling and deviation from established shipping routes.

When your child suffers from a cold don't wait; give the little stomach, liver and bowels a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, if breath is bad, stomach sour, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up, undigested waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

PARIS ITEMS

Paris, Nov. 11th, 1918.—(From Our Own Correspondent.)—The death took place in Brantford, Canada, of Mrs. J. Staffen, beloved wife of Mr. George D. Dawson in the 32nd year of her age. Deceased had been ill for about a week, with influenza, pneumonia, finally setting in, from which she passed away. She was born in South Dumfries, being a daughter of the late Mr. J. Staffen. James Rutherford, who leases the Dudson farm was on the bay mower in the barn when several bullets came through the roof and side, a number in close proximity to him. His hired man and team driving toward the barn also had a narrow escape. Twenty or more bullets going through the roof and side of barn. Making toward where the firing came from Rutherford saw three young fellows leave the bush and head for Paris. The next day two fads crossing a field near the barn shot and killed two hens, making off with one. One of two weeks ago he had a steer shot. Last summer Mr. Crombie had similar trouble. Now the latter's husband also those of Rutherford are closed to the public.

Last evening a very solemn memorial service was held by the Salvation Army here for the late Capt. Jas. Dunean, who died from pneumonia following an attack of influenza. It was conducted by Major McAmmond of Hamilton and largely attended.

PEACE AND THANKSGIVING
1894

The following verses, written at the close of the Crimean War, apply with equal force to-day. They are contained on a card in the possession of Mr. George A. Moore, of The Courier staff, and were presented by his grandfather, Captain James Campbell, of the 4th and 5th West Highlanders, the famous Scottish regiment, which took part in the war of that period, to Mr. Moore's mother, and by her transmitted to him:—

The thunder of departing war
O'er hills and valleys cease;
And nations welcome from afar
The smiling dawn of Peace.

How shall we hail the gift afloat,
The happy hours employ,
That chase the gloomy shades of night,
And bring a morn of joy.

Oh! come with me, and praise the Lord,
His might, His mercy bless,
Who gives the ploughshare for the sword,
And smiteth for heaviness.

The fruitful vine shall re-appear,
The olive bloom again,
And every sown, in plenteous ear,
Reverent the golden grain.

The Sabbath-bell that calls to prayer
No longer shall be drown'd,
By booming guns that rend the air,
And scatter carnage round.

But to the temples of His grace
The Lord, our Life, shall come,
Where Peace shall find a resting place,
And Mercy a home.

PEACE =

But the Victory Loan must "carry on" to bring the boys home

BEHIND Canada lies fifty months of blood and anguish, fifty months of trial and sacrifice--of glorious triumphant battling against the hosts of evil.

And now in the surging joy of victory comes to us a sobering sense of duty yet to be performed

Canada's part in the finish of the war must be as well done as was her part in fighting and winning it.

Canada's great duty to her living and dead must be met with the same manliness, seriousness and determination which has won her the respect and admiration of the world in waging war.

Canada's Victory Loan, 1918, must be oversubscribed--that Canada, in peace may discharge responsibilities which the war has thrust upon her willing shoulders.

Canadians, let us, with devoutly thankful hearts, and proud consciousness of duty well done, finish our great task and oversubscribe the 1918 loan.

Rippling Rhymes

GOOD FOR US

The rain is falling as I write, the cold November rain. It is a black and cheerless night, and I sit on my tin roof flat, and make a noise insane. The rain is pelting, pelting down, I hear it splash and beat; and I'm wiser to wear a brown and red and my spangled dressing gown—this rain will help the wheat. All things unpleasant do us good, so all the sages say; instead of using steaks for food we ought to make a stew of wood, or boil some prairie hay. To teeter in a chair and rock is pleasant, I must say, but all the doctors come and knock and say we ought to get and walk a hundred miles a day. If there is something we despise, that is the stuff we need; we hate to sweat the silly flies, but in that task our safety lies, so let us heed the health board's creed. We all are liable to ill which make us pale and thin; and while we pay the doctor's bills we know there's nothing to their pills unless they hurt like sin. Some times I think that life's a fake, a rather sorry jest; my spirit feels a throbbing ache, for everything I ought to take is scratching at my throat. The rain is streaming down the door like water gone to seed; it drives my heart, it makes me sore; and since it is a beastly bore, I know it's what we need.

URIC ACID IN MEAT CLOGS THE KIDNEYS

Take a Glass of Salt if Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

If you must have your meat every day eat it but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that uric acid, which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood, they become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated; obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body uric acid must get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.
