Buy this oven-tested flour

Your oven will certainly produce more bread and better bread as a result of our oven test.

From each shipment of wheat delivered at our mills we take a ten-pound sample. It is ground into flour. We bake bread from this flour. If this bread is high in quality and large in quantity we use the shipment of wheat from which it came. Otherwise we sell it for other purposes.

The baking quality of flour sold under this name is therefore an exact certainty. Buy and benefit!

The Silent March.

When the march begins in the morning
And the heart and the foot are light,
Was the flag an old soldier
And the world he gay and bright,
When the bugles lead the column
And the drums are proud in the van,
It's shoulders to shoulder, forward, march!
Ah! let him leg who can.

For it's easy to march to music
With your comrades all in line,
And you don't get tired, you feel inspired,
And life is a draught divine.
When the march drops on an evening
And the colors gleam in the sky,
When the weary marchers are sitting
The "bugles" are at bay,
Fading in the distance,
Who says "God bless the day"
When the "march" is over,
And the "march" is over?

There's a hard march in silence,
And the road has long gone green,
And life is a hard cup to drink,
But the soldier must march on.
And this is the task before us,
A task we may never shrink;
In the "gay" life and the "march" time
We must march to the "march" time,
We must march when the music cheers us,
March when the straws are stung,
Fussy and vexed, for we march!
And smile, whatever may come.
For, whether life is hard or easy,
The strong march keeps the pace,
For, whether life is hard or easy,
The strong soul finds the grace.

Working Wireless on the Sand Banks.

To sit beneath an aerial on a fog-bound coast, listening to the incessant hissing of the sparks, day after day, month after month—eating a lonesome lunch at noon with the monotonous group of faces and the repetition of stale news—that's the everyday life of the average wireless man up and down the perilous ocean coasts of Canada.

At other stations, an operator has the knowledge he stands on terra firma. At Sable Island he knows that the hungry Atlantic has gobbled up 20 miles of his foothold and some day may swallow the balance. This island which for long years bore the title "the graveyard of the Atlantic" has now become the only repeater station through the coming of wireless. Previous to 1914 when the first Marconi station was erected by the Government of Canada, 200 known wrecks on this treacherous reef had been recorded at Lloyd's shipping office in Liverpool and no one knows what the past hundred years might total. No more terrible spot exists in the whole sweep of the Atlantic.

On another day a message is received from the captain of a liner whose decks are crowded with passengers. His port propeller is broken and he wants help from Halifax. In five minutes the message, caught so weakly from 300 miles at sea, is repeated to Halifax, where relief ships are always ready for just such emergencies. When the wireless men at these sentry boxes on the outer edges of ocean commerce find a moment from their work to fill a pipe and recall a story of their past experience, it is only to catalogue a bleak outline of fact like a government report and leave the balance to the listener's imagination.

Where to Find This Girl.

The above picture of Miss Ruth Rector, of New York, is taken from life and is on the label and carton of every genuine bottle of Saginee hair tonic. It is a guarantee of quality and excellence and we urge our patrons to be sure to look for this label Saginee is guaranteed to stop the hair, from falling out, to cure dandruff in two weeks and to bring life and beauty into coarse, unattractive hair. Saginee brings out the natural beauties of the hair and makes it rich in color. Saginee is not a dye. It is not sticky or greasy and is delicately perfumed. Mr. Hugh E. Calkin is agent in Wolfville, N. S., for Saginee. A large bottle at a moderate price awaits you there. Other stores don't have it.

Magistrate discharging prisoner.—"Now I advise you to keep out of bad company. Prisoner feelingly—"Thank you, sir! You won't see me here a gain!"

"I wish to complain," said the bride haughtily, "about that flour you sold me. It was tough." "Tough ma'am!" asked the grocer. "Yes, tough, I made a pie with it, and my husband could hardly eat it!"

Johnnie—"I wish I could be Tommy Jones." Mother—"Why? You are stronger than he is, you have a better home, more toys, and more pocket money." Johnnie—"Yes, I know; but he can waggle his ears."

Some Health Proverbs.

Here are some health proverbs which shall be learned by every body:

An open window is better than an open grave.

If your milkman brings you warm milk make it hot for him.

Wire screens in the windows may keep creeps from the door.

Warm rooms have killed more people than ever from death.

A fly in the milk often means a member of the family in the grave.

Have an expert to examine the head of a typhoid.

Scarlatina may not sound so dangerous as scarlet fever, but ask the undertaker.

If some people were as much afraid of flies as they are of bad water it would be less typhoid.

When you see a child looking like an angel do not kiss; you might make a real angel out of it.

If you let the child have measles when he is young, you may save a doctor's bill later on, but you may have to pay the undertaker now.

A Girl's Composition on Boys.

Boys are just pigs, with two legs, and two arms, that looks like paws. They are greedy, selfish, stubborn creatures, and only happy when tormenting someone; hooting, learning to smoke and chewing tobacco.

These pretty animals all mouth and feet, and with no more sense than grass-hoppers, delight in roosting on the fence and bridges, making remarks on the people that pass, and letting the girls go home alone.

And these gallant young knights generally scuffle into church, when meeting in most over, and make spit-tubs of the back seats.

Boys are queer machines, they get rusty, cannot remove their hands from their pockets, their shoulders bend, and they are chewing or eating all the time, they soon get worn out.

These boys are the stuff men are made of. No, not men; I mean hands, for some husbands are not worthy to be called men. But like boys there are some exceptions.

Who does not like the merry kind of work and of lifting his cap to ladies, who d. tests tobacco, pipes and run, and who thinks his mother the dearest woman in all the world? That's the boy for me.

Keep Clean Nails.

Some time ago a bacteriological institute conducted some experiments on dirt taken from finger nails. The process was to put in "cultivating mixtures," such as are used for supply germs with food on which to develop.

The crop which grew from the germs in the dirt was a varied one, including 35 kinds of micrococci, 18 of bacilli, and many others. That a wound, or cut, or even a scratch should never be touched with dirty nails is an obvious inference. In some parts of the country a scratch from a nail is held to be poisonous. It is not the nail but the dirt that gives the "poison."

Thousands of newly-made barrels are being shipped from Digby to St. John by the D. A. R. steamer "Yarmouth," to be filled with potatoes, now going forward to the West India markets. The barrels are put up at various cooperages in the Annapolis Valley.

An ingenious Swiss has recently invented a clock that has no dial or hands. The mechanism is all concealed, but on pressing a button a phonographic voice gives out the time that is actual to the very minute.

A Holstein cow in Portland, Conn., was seen during the hot weather to pick up a large cornstalk, bend it, and use it to brush the flies from her back.

When a circus refused to pay its license to the city of Kenosha, Wis., Mayor Head ran, in a fire alarm and turned the hose on the circus parade. The license was soon paid.

To renew the luster of Morocco, or any other leather apply the white of an egg with a sponge.

RHEUMATISM.
Many people have it but neglect it until they are crippled and without hope of ever being cured, but there is hope for all in Rheumo, and no one need have rheumatism now. Rheumo is just what we say it is. We have received hundreds of testimonials telling us that Rheumo has cured old standing cases of rheumatism and when all other treatments had failed. Rheumo enriches the blood and drives uric acid from the system. Don't fail to get a bottle to day at Hugh E. Calkin's, and you will soon have your health and strength as in former days. Hugh E. Calkin sells a large bottle for one dollar, or we will mail you a bottle prepaid on receipt of price. B. V. Marion Co., Bridgeport, Ont.

The Tortures of Rheumatism.
DRIVEN FROM THE SYSTEM BY DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

The sufferer from rheumatism who has not gone about curing himself in the right way must expect a return of the torture with every change of cold or damp weather. It is not the change in the weather that causes the rheumatism, but it does start the aches and pains. Rheumatism is a deep seated disorder of the blood. You cannot possibly cure it with outward applications or hot fomentations as the trouble try is kept pure. That is the whole secret of curing rheumatism, and if you are a sufferer begin to cure yourself to day by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Among the many sufferers from rheumatism who have been cured by this medicine is Miss Mary D. Kelly, South Dummer, Ont. Miss Kelly says: "Some time ago I had a very bad attack of rheumatism. At times I would be confined to bed for a couple of days and would seem almost paralyzed with the intense pain in my back and legs. At such times I could not walk, and my joints were still and swollen. I consulted different doctors and took their medicine, but did not get more than temporary relief. At this time a neighbor advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I got a supply. After taking a few boxes I found they were greatly helping me, and I continued their use until the trouble completely disappeared. I can strongly recommend this medicine to others who suffer as I did from the pains and tortures of rheumatism."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail, post paid, at 50 cents or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Moving the Crop.
The expeditious manner in which the Canadian railways are moving the crop must command the admiration of all. It shows that, in the matter of freight handling, they are second to none on the continent.

The Canadian railways have their faults, and justly are they censured, but for a country of eight million people, the extent of their systems, the excellence of their equipment and the expeditious manner in which they move the crop, all things considered, such as make a Canadian swell with pride. In some parts of the Dominion they charge rates that are unduly high, and are attacked for it. Nevertheless we are proud of the manner in which they are handling this year's crop. Indeed, there seems to be no problem in Canada which cannot be successfully solved by Canadian instrumentalities. All that is required is that Canadians shall have faith in themselves.

Salesman (to woman who had suggested over everything in the shop without buying anything)—"Excuse me, madam, but are you shopping here?" Customer—"Certainly. What would I be doing?" Salesman—"I thought perhaps you might be taking an inventory."

A man's integrity is his own. He makes it every day as he goes along. As a keen thinker says, "What a man chooses to do he chooses for tomorrow; what he yields to do today, he is still more likely to yield to tomorrow."

The sad news was received by his parents on Wednesday of the death of Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bishop, of Greenwich. No particulars are at hand but his parents had advice of an illness from which he was supposed to be recovering. He was to be married in a few weeks time. The deceased was formerly a student at the Wolfville High School and for two years at Acadia. He was 25 years of age and a very promising young man. His sorrowing parents will have the sympathy of many friends. The remains will be brought home for interment.

PNEUMONIA STOPS YOUR PAIN or breaks up your cold in one hour. It's Marvellous! Applied externally. All Druggists.

The remains of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Dupont Pratt were taken to Wolfville on Thursday morning, accompanied by several members of the family and Archdeacon Martell, rector of Christ Church, who officiated at the services in the absence of Rev. R. F. Dixon, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, Wolfville. The service was attended by many old friends of the deceased lady, whom they greeted with profound respect and affection. The Archdeacon gave a beautiful, comforting address, and at the conclusion of this the remains were laid to rest in the family lot beside the husband and daughter. The pall bearers were Messrs. Rufus Starr, E. Sidney Crawley, Thomas Harvey, Clarence Borden, John Davidson and W. H. Evans.—Hants Journal.

It's the Boys Again OUR BOYS' CLOTHING

We have selected our fashions to meet the requirements in cuteness, nattyness, durability and swag; designing to conform with the 'cute' age, the 'rough-house' age, and the 'sit-up-and-take-notice' age.

this season are better than ever and combine all the essentials and reinforcements necessary for the boy who is hard on clothes. A boy wears his coat out first at the elbow. Lion Brand has double elbows of cloth there, and it lasts longer. A boy wears knickers out at the seat and knees. Lion Brand have an extra piece of cloth right where they wear out first, and the seams are stitched twice and the linings are the best we have ever seen in Boys' suits. This makes a good reason why you should ask for this make; and the price is no higher—that's another good thing about it.

A suit at $5.50 and $7.50 is fully guaranteed and cut in the very newest style.

Boys, Come in for a Lion Brand Suit.

The Academy Players. In spite of the very disagreeable state of the weather a good audience assembled at the Opera House on Monday evening, on the occasion of the first visit this season of the 'Academy Players'. The company this year is stronger and more evenly balanced than when it last appeared in Wolfville, and each member does conscientious and effective work.

The play on Monday evening was 'The Hypocrites,' the most intensely interesting of all the Henry Arthur Jones dramas. It is a play that any adult might see and find some part of it serve as a mirror to show up his own secret faults.

One of the most exciting parts was that of Mrs. Wilmore, the ambitious, scheming mother, whose love for her only son blended black and white into gray. Morally color-blind, she could not distinguish the white sheen of truth from the dull black of falsehood. Clever and unscrupulous where her ambition for her son was concerned, she nearly succeeded in wrecking the lives of all with whom she came into affectional relations. Miss Alice Baker gave an admirable presentation.

Mr. Abbey was most effective as 'Vivian,' the family lawyer and agent, and seemed perfectly at home in his part, while Mr. Murray succeeded in making Mr. Wilmore thoroughly despicable.

Mr. Toler, always the favorite, took the part of the curate. His was the best part of the play and reasonably true in drawing.

But the most satisfying bit of work on the whole cast was done by Mr. Harry Horse, as Rev. Everard Daubey, vicar of Weybury. The smug lover of the world's good things was most artistically portrayed. Never did Mr. Horse step out of his position.

Miss Mabel Craig did some good work as 'Mrs. Blaney,' worthy of sincere praise.

Miss Doherty was an effective little innocent girl, in love for the first time. 'Rachel Neve' was played with desirable degree of restraint by Miss Woodbridge. It could have been a distressing part if overdone.

Mr. Frank Wright, as Lennard Wilmore, measured fairly well up to the character. Taken altogether the performance was a most excellent one, and the announcement that the Players will appear again in Wolfville, on Nov. 3rd was gladly heard.

Opera House. THE W. S. HARRIS PLAYERS. The play selected by the W. S. Harris Players for their engagement in Wolfville, Wednesday, Oct. 2nd, is 'The House Next Door' (from the German) by J. Hartly Manser. 'The House Next Door' deals with the social relations of the Jew and the Gentile. An English baronet, proud of his ancestors, his birth and his country hates the Jews with every breath he draws. With an empty purse and owing the very roof over his head to the very Jew he hates most of all and who lives in 'The House Next Door.' As the play goes on it develops the love of the baronet's son and daughter for the daughter and son of the hated Jew. The comedy frequently gives little touches of tender sentiment that makes the comedy all the brighter and more welcome. Jew or Gentile will surely enjoy a visit to 'The House Next Door.' Don't fail to see this great play. Miss Van Dusen, Mr. Studd, Mr. Conway, and the entire company will appear in the cast.

Mrs. R. D. Ross, of Middleton, who has been visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. N. M. Parsons, returned home on Thursday.

Mrs. J. W. Smith and children, of Halifax, are spending a few weeks visiting at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. C. M. Murray.

Mr. F. C. Bishop, of Wolfville, has recently been transferred from the Bank of Montreal at Fort William, Ont., to the bank at Montreal.

Mrs. Estey left on Tuesday for Madison, where she will join her husband, Dr. Estey, who is teaching for the winter in the University of Wisconsin.

Mrs. Alex. Sutherland left on Wednesday for Brookline, Mass., where she will spend some weeks visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. R. H. Townsend.

Mrs. J. V. Porter, Mrs. C. H. Martell and Mrs. J. W. Manning are in St. Stephen, N. B., this week, attending the United Baptist Women's Missionary Union of the Maritime Provinces.

Mrs. Hilton and family, of Carleton, Yarmouth county, who have been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Archibald, for the past two weeks, returned home yesterday.

Mr. W. H. Woodworth, of Berwick, has accepted an invitation from H. L. Keyser, Pres. of the Maine State Pomological Society, to deliver two addresses at the annual meeting, which takes place at Lewiston Nov. 18th.

Miss Millicent B. Fraser, has resigned her position on the staff of J. D. Chamber's store, where she has been for two years, leaving last week from her home, Green wich, for Berwick, Meas., in company with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Eaton. Miss Fraser will take a position there.

Rev. G. B. Cutten, D. D., Rev. A. Cohoon, D. D., I. B. Oakes, Esq., and Rev. I. W. Porter left Thursday morning for Amherst to attend the United Baptist Convention of the Maritime Provinces. Others go later, among them Rev. H. T. DeWolf, D. D., Rev. Dr. Spidle and Rev. W. L. Archibald, Ph. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar P. Eaton, of Brockton, Mass., who have been the guests of their niece, Mrs. George Gates, Port Williams, the past month, left for their home last week, taking with them their niece, Miss M. B. Fraser, who will take a position there. As it is five years since Mr. and Mrs. Eaton last visited at the Port and vicinity, they enjoyed renewing old acquaintances and could see many changes and improvements at the Port, Wolfville and other places they visited. While here they also visited relatives at West Gore, Hants county.

Over twenty-one years ago, Mr. Eiton sold his property at Port Williams, and is going to Brockton, Mass., where he bought his present home. Mr. Eiton's health has failed him and his physicians ordered him to take a rest of three years or more from all care or business.

Gaspereau. Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Powell will spend Thanksgiving week in Amherst attending the Baptist Convention. Owing to the pastor's absence there will be no Thanksgiving service in the church here Sunday.

HIS BLADDER WAS TERRIBLY INFLAMED. GIN PILLS Brought Relief. Ladies Lake, Ont., March 26th. 'I had been suffering for some time with my kidneys and urine. I was constantly passing water, which was very scanty, sometimes as many as thirty times a day. Each time the pain was something awful, and no rest at night. I heard of your GIN PILLS and decided to give them a trial at once. I sent my clinic 60 miles to get them and I am pleased to inform you that in less than six hours, I felt relief. In two days the pain had left me entirely. I took about half a box and today I feel as well as ever and my kidneys are acting quite natural again.' SID CASTLEMAN. A Consensus of Opinion on the Investment Outlook. 'It is our opinion, and to the best of our knowledge, the opinion of the great majority of investment bankers, that the present is a particularly opportune time for the purchase of sound bonds and stocks. Comparison of our October 'Investment offerings' with our issue of last March proves that today's prices offer yields ranging from an eight to a full one cent higher than last Spring. Therefore we unhesitatingly advise the investing public take immediate advantage of our current favorable prices. To those who wish to act on this advice we'll gladly send particulars of a more convenient plan of payment than usual.'

PARALYSED AND COULD NOT WALK

"Fruit-a-lives" Completely Restored New Brunswick Merchant To Health.

MR. ALVA PHILLIPS

BRISTOL, N. B., July 25th, 1911. "I am unable to say enough in favor of 'Fruit-a-lives' as it saved my life and restored me to health, when I had given up all hope and when the doctors had failed to do anything more for me. I had a stroke of Paralysis in March, 1910, and this left me unable to walk or help myself, and the Constipation of the bowels was terrible. Nothing did me any good and I was wretched in every way. Finally, I took 'Fruit-a-lives' and cured me of that trouble but gradually this fruit medicine toned up the nerves and actually cured the paralysis. Under the use of 'Fruit-a-lives', I grew stronger and stronger until all the palsy and weakness left me. I am now well again and attend my store every day and all day."

ALVA PHILLIPS. "Fruit-a-lives" is the only remedy in the world that is made of fruit juices and tonics. See a box, 6 for $1.50—trial size, 5c. At dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

An Evening Prayer.

Forgive us for the smiles we failed to give.

Smiles on which saddened hearts may live.

And yet—and yet we failed to give.

Forgive us for the words we've left unsaid.

Words that feed hungry hearts like bread.

And yet—and yet were left unsaid.

And for the little deeds we've left undone.

Forgive us, Thon who knowest us so well.

That we have failed our love to tell.

By smiles and words, and deeds so well.

'If I Could Only See My Mother!'

'If I could only see my mother! Again and again was that yearning cry repeated.

'If I could only see my mother! The vessel rocked, and the waters, chased by a fresh wind, played musically against the side of the ship.

The sailor, a second mate, quite youthful, lay in his narrow bed, his eyes glazing, his limbs stiffening, his breath failing. It was not pleasant to die thus in this shuddering, plunging ship; but he seemed not to mind bodily discomfort. His eyes looked far away, and ever and anon broke that grieving cry: 'If I could only see my mother!'

An old sailor sat by a Bible in his hand, from which he was reading. He bent above the young man and asked him why he was so anxious to see his mother, whom he had wilfully left.

'Oh, that's the reason!' he cried in anguish. 'I've nearly broken her heart, and I can't die in peace. She was a good mother to me—oh, so good a mother! She bore everything from her wild boy; and once she said to me: 'My son, when you come to die, you will think of this!'

'Oh, if I could only see my mother. He never saw his mother. He died with the yearning upon his lips, as many a one had died who slighted the mother who loved him.

Boys, be good to your mother.

What is a 'Lady'?

The question, 'What is a true lady?' is discussed by Mrs. R. Neish in a contemporary. 'No woman is a true lady,' she writes, 'who is a snob—neither one who spes her betters, nor she who despises those beneath her, and boasts of her rich or titled friends, or keeps her humbler acquaintance in the back ground, or from your knowledge altogether. No woman who does these things, be she great or small in society's eyes, is really and truly a lady at heart. A true lady should be a 'gentlewoman.' Gentle and womanly, pure and fearless. I can pick her out from among the best of women I love—a woman before whom men of all and every class instinctively remove their headgear, and to whom they speak with deference and courtesy.'

Just Like a Saloon.

(Henry Mayer, in 'Person's Weekly'). In catching wild monkeys, a lump of sugar is placed in an unopened glass bottle, and the latter left underneath the tree in which the chattering simians are perched. Presently down comes the whole troop to inspect. One, greedier than the rest, thrusts his arms into the bottle, and grasps the coveted sugar. He screams with rage and struggles, but (ridiculous as it may seem) has not the sense to unclasp his fist. To do so would necessitate dropping the sugar, and to that his greedy little soul cannot consent. Encumbered with the bottle, he is easily captured with a net or stuned with a club. Curiously enough his fellows, though they have witnessed the whole affair, fail to profit by his example, and a round dozen or more will be trapped in the same way, by the same bottle, under the same tree.

A Weak Heart.

When the heart is weak or irregular in action when the blood is thin and watery, remember the blood-forming qualities of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and try its use. Geraldine—'You haven't been to see me since you asked my father for my hand.'

Gerald—'No; this is the first time I've been able to get about.'

A Year Indoors.

'For thirteen months I was so bad with chronic indigestion that I could not get out of doors. My nerves were unstrung, the heart had another coming, and I was in a state of nervous prostration. Doctor's treatment failed me, so I began the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, which I thank for my present good health. I am now doing my household work and have a family of ten.'

Newlywed: 'You are not afraid of the lightning are you?'

Mrs. Newlywed: 'No, darling; not when you have your arm around me.'

WOMAN IN TERRIBLE STATE

Finds Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cape Wolfe, Canada.—'Last March I was a complete wreck. I had given up all hope of getting better or living any length of time, as I was such a sufferer from female troubles. But I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today I am in good health and have a pair of twin boys two months old and growing finely. I surprised doctors and neighbors for they all know what a wreck I was.'

'Now I am healthy, happy and hearty, and owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies. You may publish this letter if you like. I think if more women used your remedies they would have better healths.'—Mrs. J. T. COOK, Los No. 7, Cape Wolfe, P.E.I., Canada.

Because your case is a difficult one, and doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has remedied many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backaches, and it may be exactly what you need.

The Pinkham record is a proud and peerless one. It is a record of constant victory over the obstinatest women's ailments that deal out despair. It is an established fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored health to thousands of such suffering women. Why don't you try it if you need such a medicine?

Minard's Liniment for sale everywhere.

Headaches and Heart Trouble

Nervous Prostration of Three Years' Standing Cured a Year Ago by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Anyone who knows the discouragement and despair which accompanies the helplessness of nervous prostration will appreciate the gratitude felt by the writer of this note. Mrs. H. C. Jones, Scotch Lake, C. B., writes: 'I suffered from nervous prostration for nearly three years. I had frequent headaches, had no appetite and was troubled with my heart. After consulting two doctors without obtaining satisfactory results, I began the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and was completely cured by this treatment. It is nearly a year since I was cured, and I want others to know of this splendid medicine. I now attend to my household work with pleasure and comfort, and am glad to have the opportunity of recommending Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.'

At least some benefit is bound to be derived from each dose of this great food cure, as day by day it forms new blood and builds up the system. 4c cents a box, 6 for $2.50, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

A Good Example.

There died last month in Chester field, Eng., a man familiarly known by a wide circle of friends and supporters, as 'Honesty Jimmy,' whose life should furnish an example and an inspiration to the young people of every land. He was the son of a coal miner, and at the age of eleven years was sent to the pit to work twelve hours for ten pence. For twenty-nine years he worked in different capacities at this employment, sometimes escaping severe accidents in a wonderful manner, as, for example, on one occasion when twenty-five men working near him were drowned by an inrush of water. But, he did not like any of his companions, in youth and early manhood, spend his spare moments in idleness or frivolity. He betook himself to reading and study, attended night school, sought to acquaint himself with the industrial problems of the day, and general history, and identified himself with the Christian church. In process of time he began to be recognized as a man of intelligence and good judgment; a man of opinions and able to support them by well expressed reasoning; a man not adverse to taking the unpopular side of a question when to do so might endanger friendships which he would like to retain. Thus he became known by the sobriquet of 'Honesty Jimmy.' Finally, he was elected to Parliament and served his native Division as its representative until his death.

The news, 'Jimmy is dead,' quickly circulated, and the funeral services were accompanied by very marked demonstrations of general respect and regret. Flags in all the public buildings were raised half-mast, and all classes of the community assembled in large numbers and lined the streets all the way from the home to the cemetery.

Many a boy, of natural abilities just as good and educational opportunities far superior, has made a failure of life because the spare hours of youth were spent in pursuits which furnished a momentary attraction and gratified the baser side of human nature, but furnish no sure foundation for usefulness and real success. The great difference between men are not so much differences of natural endowments as differences in determination to use the passing moments in the development of such endowments as they possess, whether they be small or great.

One ship sails east, and another west,

By the very same winds that blow.

'Tis the set of the sail and not the gale

Which determines the way they go.

Like the winds of the sea are the ways of men

As they journey along through life.

'Tis the set of the soul that determines the goal,

And not the calm or the strife.

Lawyer, to prisoner—'So you want me to defend you? Have you any money?'

Prisoner—'No, but I've got a horse, and a few chickens, and a pig.'

Lawyer—'They will do. Now, let's see what they accuse you of stealing?'

Prisoner—'Oh, a horse, and a few chickens, and a pig!'

Leading Question—'She—if you could have only one wish, what would it be?'

He—'It would be that—that—oh, if I only dared to tell you what it would be?'

She—'Well, go on. Why do you suppose I brought up the wish subject?'

Charity.

Two curates, one good-natured, the other opposite. Hired together. The good-natured one went for a walk and met a poor man who asked him for assistance. The curate said he was only a poor man himself, but if he had a coin in his pocket the man should have it. Lo! and behold, when he pulled his hand out of his pocket he showed half a dollar which he did not know about and gave it to the man, thinking he had done an act of kindness. When he got back to his lodgings he told his fellow curate of his experience. His fellow curate heard the story and then said: 'You have got to be surprised at all; you have got my trousers!'

The First Candlestick.

The first candlestick was a boy. He sat in the corner of a Scottish kitchen holding a piece of fir candle to his hands, from time to time cutting and trimming it to make it burn brightly. The fir candle was a length of wood cut from a kind of fir tree which is found embedded in the peat. This kind of candle is still used in some parts of Scotland. It usually fell to the lot of the 'hered laddie' to get the part of the candlestick; but should a beggar ask for a night's lodging he was expected to relieve the 'hered laddie' of his duty. A candlestick is still called in Aberdeenshire a 'pair man,' or a 'poor man.'

A Marvelous Escape

'My little boy had a marvelous escape,' writes P. F. Bostman of Prince Albert, Cape of Good Hope. 'It occurred in the middle of the night. He got a very severe attack of cough. As luck would have it, I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. After following the directions for an hour and twenty minutes he was through all danger.' For sale by all dealers.

'So you regard Stowton as the centre of the universe?' asked the visitor.

'Yes; we appear to stand still and everything else moves around us,' explained the native.

Chronic Dyspepsia.

The following unsolicited testimonial should certainly be sufficient to give hope and courage to persons afflicted with chronic dyspepsia: 'I have been a chronic dyspeptic for years, and of all the medicine I have taken, Chamberlain's Tablets have done me more good than anything else,' says W. G. Mattison, No. 7 Sherman St., Hornellville, N. Y. For sale by all dealers.

The Duke of Connaught is to sail for Canada on October 17th.
