Between the island and this city, Gallant lost his pocket book containing ten dollars. After a thorough search through the pockets of the three men, three hundred and thirty dollars were found to be the senior ahead where money will be secured to send here for the straggled pair, who are now at the house of one of the railway men.

We received by Monday night's mail from cultured and enlightened Goshaw a newspaper addressed as follows: Herald Pub. Co. Calgary Alberta P. E. I. Can.

The above is all the more to be wondered at when we remember that the paper came direct from the office of publication, is devoted solely to newspapers, publishers, etc., and had for its mission the chronicling of everything of the smallest importance to the craft. Surely a medium of geographical knowledge in the mailing department is an indispensable article.
