Town and County News
LOOK out for Fraser's advertisement tomorrow, of smoked goods bought at auction in Montreal.
TEA MEETING.—Remember the Tea meeting in Zion Church this evening. A very pleasant entertainment is anticipated.
IMPROVEMENTS IN ACRON.—Judging from present appearances Acron promises ere long to be quite a business centre. During the past year its progress has been very marked. New dwellings are springing up in all directions; thirty-two new buildings have been put up during the past summer, many of which are of a substantial character. The population of the village is now over eleven hundred.
I. O. G. T.—The following officers were installed for Beaver Temple, Guelph, in the Good Templar's Hall last night, for the ensuing quarter:—W. C. T., Bro. W. Bish; W. V. T., Sis. Moulton; W. B., Bro. John Warner; W. Tr., Sis. M. Noble; W. F. S., Bro. E. Warner; W. M., Bro. Kenneth; W. L. G., Sis. Smith; W. O. G., Bro. Smith; W. B. S., Sis. Martin; W. L. S., Sis. L. Warner; W. D. M., Sis. Ferguson; W. Chap., Bro. Groom; W. Ass. S., Sis. S. Warner. The Temple is at present in a very flourishing condition, and has the names of nearly two hundred members on the roll.
ACCIDENT.—A young man named John Keys, who works at carpenter work in town, met with what might have been a very serious accident, on Monday morning. He was engaged shingling on a new house which is being built for a Mrs. Oliver, near the Drill Shed, and not having taken the precaution of wearing rubbers, although previously warned by his employer, he was working on the roof with a pair of common leather shoes on. The roof being steep, he had not been working over an hour when he slipped and fell to the ground, a distance of about sixteen feet. His feet were immediately injured, and he was unable to rise. Medical aid was at once summoned, and it was found that beyond several bad bruises and a sprained wrist and ankle, he had received no very serious injuries. At latest accounts he was doing well.
MEETING OF PRESBYTERY.—At an adjourned meeting of the Presbytery of Guelph, held in the Church, West Pauslinch, on Monday, a call came out unanimously in favor of Mr. Neil McDiarmid, to be their pastor. Mr. McDiarmid having signified by letter his acceptance of the same, his induction was appointed to take place on the 17th inst., at eleven o'clock, forenoon. Mr. McKay to preach and preside; Mr. Ball to address the minister; Mr. McDonald, of Arthur, to address the people in Gaelic, and Mr. Goodwillie in English. A letter was read from Mr. Thos. Thomson, and the motion was called addressed to him by the congregation of Glenallan and Hollin, and on application the same congregation had leave granted for a new moderator.
CONCERT IN FAIRLEY BLOCK.—The Hall in the School house in Fairley Block, on Monday evening, was quite a success. The school house, which is a very commodious building, was well filled, and the entertainment throughout was of a highly creditable order. Professor Maitland sang several good Scotch songs in the Gaelic style. Two other singers who contributed to the evening's entertainment, were Messrs. Slater, and Allechin, of Guelph. Miss Gerrie, of Pauslinch, and Miss Annie McPherson, of Guelph, who delighted the audience with some beautiful pieces of music, sung in first class style. The concert was given by the organ and it is needless to say that she acquitted herself in such a manner as to please the most fastidious. Selections of instrumental music consisting of some very fine Scotch airs were given during the course of the evening by Miss Cassie and by Messrs. Slater and Allechin. The organ used on the occasion was a very superior instrument kindly furnished by Jackson & Co.
NAGARA.—The St. Catharines News says that Mr. Plumb has appealed from the decision of Chief Justice Hagarty in the Niagara election case to a full court, and understands that a cross appeal will now be filed, with the purpose and intention, of disqualifying Mr. Plumb. It is infinitely more probable that the full court will disqualify Mr. Plumb than that it will reverse the Judge's decision. On Saturday Mr. S. J. Brown was nominated at the Reform Convention as candidate for the forthcoming election for the Dominion.
OLD TESTIMONY.—Piny relates that in Lydia corn yielded one hundred and fifty for one. A wheat plant sent to the Emperor Augustus bore four hundred stalks. One bearing nearly as many was shown to Nero. Shaw, the traveler, reports having seen in Algeria a stalk of wheat bearing eight ears, and of another having one hundred and twenty. Experience teaches us that one seed planted alone will produce one hundred times as much as those planted thickly together. They then sowed each other. The above is quoted from a work published in 1841, and singularly enough, after one hundred and thirty years of teaching we are engaged at the present time in listening to the modern experience of men who demonstrated that one quart of wheat would not produce more than a bushel. The other night James Leonard, a farmer from Niagara, was robbed of $70 by a couple of young men who got a ride in his buggy while he was on his way home.
The Dundas Voters' List appeals, 85 votes were struck off.
An Indian liquor seller was recently fined $100, with costs and imprisonment for selling liquor to his countrymen in Caughnawaga. Another case came up for sentence on Saturday.
It is stated that Mr. Scott is about to opening up the Ottawa Citizen for an alleged criminal libel in connection with the Garden River Indian Reserve transaction.

Town Council

The Council met on Monday. All the members present except Mr. Davidson.
COMMUNICATIONS.
An account from John Hogg, for $28.88, for laying a sidewalk in front of his building.
From James Massie, asking that his name be erased from the petition now being circulated in reference to the extension of the market building to the south-west instead of the south-east.
From John Stephens, Health Inspector, stating that as complaints had been made of the filthy state of Sandiland and Macdonnell streets, from refuse being allowed in them, he had applied to the Police Magistrate and found that the latter could not do anything, as there were no common drains to carry off the nuisances. The Inspector had, therefore, applied disinfectants to the premises complained of. The matter was referred to the Committee on By-Laws, in order to give the Inspector power to prosecute in necessary cases.
Mr. Bruce read a petition, signed by Peter Gow and about 500 others, asking that the amount of rent now due the Mechanic's Institute be remitted, and giving in support of this claim what Artemus Ward would call a "numerosity" of forcible reasons. Referred to the Finance Committee.
Mr. McCrae presented a petition from Robert White and many others, asking that the Council take in hand immediately the matter of making improvements on Orange street, which on the petitioners' showing has hitherto been neglected. Referred to Road and Bridge Committee.
Mr. Hood read a petition from Peter Gow and about 125 others, praying that the Council will re-consider their decision to extend the market building south-eastwards, arguing that the south-west extension will be more convenient and handsome. The matter was referred to the Market Committee.
Mr. Massie's request to have his name struck off this petition, was by common consent of the Council granted.
A statement of work done on certain streets by Mr. Marriott, at a cost for labor and material of $86.79, was referred to the Road and Bridge Committee.
Mr. Howard read a note from William Waldron, stating that he had no dog, as assessed for, and asking for remission of tax for the canine. Referred to the Finance Committee.
Mr. Hat presented a petition from Thomas Pallister, asking that one-quarter of the tax for watering the street in front of his hotel be remitted. Referred to the Finance Committee.
REPORTS.
Mr. Raymond presented the report of the Decoration Committee, stating that they had sold the carpet used on the platform erected for the G.W. General for $14 80, and paid the money over to the Treasurer. They recommended the payment of Mr. Stewart's account, also the payment of a bill of Mr. Edwards, for carpeting the platform and hall.
Mr. Coffee presented the thirteenth report of the Road and Bridge Committee, as follows:—

Your Committee would recommend that the above sums be put to their credit to meet all liabilities.
All of which is respectfully submitted.
The Council went into Committee on this report, Mr. Harvey in the chair.
Some discussion ensued in regard to the item of $25 for Wellington Street, Mr. McCrae failing to see why the $25 was needed. The item, however, was passed.
In regard to the $60 for Macdonnell street, Mr. Coffee explained that a new sidewalk had to be laid on that portion of the street near the Mercury office, which is at present in a very bad state of repair. This item was passed, in view of such facts as were presented.
Mr. Elliott asked if the grant to the Edinburgh Road included repairs on the sidewalk near the G. W. B. Station.
The Mayor stated that the Committee were awaiting the action of the G. W. Railway Co., who had promised to assist in this matter.
Mr. Coffee explained that the sum had been appropriated for repairs on the Road between Wells' Bridges.
After some further discussion, the item passed.
The amount voted for the London Road, Mr. Coffee stated, was to be devoted to opening up the culvert on the corner of that Road and Woolwich street. The item was passed.

The Prince of Wales in Birmingham.
LONDON, Nov. 3.—The Prince of Wales visits Birmingham to-day and great preparations have been made for his reception. Triumphal arches have been erected in the principal streets, and the city will be profusely decorated with flags and streamers. At night there will be a general illumination.
A despatch from Madrid announces the return of Signor Castelar to that city.
The Carlists report that they have erected four batteries of sixteen cannon before Irua, and the bombardment will be opened on Wednesday at late latest.
The British Ambassador at Constantinople has called the attention of the Porte to the increasing slave traffic between Bengazi and Egypt, and the Porte has promised to suppress it.
New York, Nov. 3.—To-day is the eightieth birthday of William Cullen Bryant, and will be remembered by his numerous friends, by the bestowal of a vase valued at $5,000, to be placed in the Metropolitan Museum of Arts. The vase is of original design and choice workmanship, artistically representing the lessons of his literary, journalistic, and political life.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—To-night Gilder & Sons's Glass Works, covering a whole block, were badly damaged by fire, which originated in the moulding department, extended to the silvers and cutting department, and thence to the warehouse and hay loft.
WHEELING, West Va., Nov. 2.—Reports from along the line of Pan Handle and Central Ohio Railroad, state that the forests are on fire at various points from this city to Parkersburg, and also along the line of the River. A dense smoke overhangs this section of country.
NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 2, midnight.—No returns have yet been received of the city vote, but enough is known to warrant the statement that Conservatives have certainly not less than 10,000 majority. Reports from parishes show the Conservatives gaining to be over the vote of 72. Indications are that the vote in the State will be close. Conservatives claim four Congressmen. Republicans admit the loss of but one. No disturbance is reported from any quarter.
Lepine Sentenced to Death.
FORT GARY, Oct. 28.
Ambrose Lepine was to-day sentenced to be hanged on Friday the twentieth day of January, 1875.
Mr. D. S. Leslie, Deputy Reeve of Brampton, died on Saturday morning, and was buried on Monday at the family burying-ground in Glen Williams, with Masonic honors, by the Tonic Lodge, of that town, assisted by the Credit Lodge, of Georgetown.
SUDDEN DEATH.—Mrs. Hobart, wife of G. S. Hobart of Kingston, died very suddenly on Monday morning under the following circumstances. She, accompanied by her husband, went to the office of Mr. Clement, dentist, to have a tooth extracted. Before extracting the tooth, Mr. Clement gave her some brandy and afterwards chloroform. After the tooth had been extracted, she threw up her arms and expired almost instantly.
FIRE IN GAIT.—A fire broke out on Monday morning in the drying kiln of Hogg & Ford's saw & mill, Gait. The steamers were quickly on the spot, and in a few minutes were throwing three powerful streams of fire to the building, but the fire got too much headway in spite of all that could be done. The building was completely gutted in a short time. The stock was insured for $5,000 in the Gore, and $3,000 in the Waterloo Mutual. The building was also insured for $2,000. It had not been for the steamers it would have been a most disastrous fire, as Warnock & Co's edge tool works, and the mill on the one side, and Young & Co's paper collar and glove factory are on the other.
HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—In a late issue we took notice of an attempt having been made to rob J. Dr. George Smellie, formerly of Fergus, but now of Collin's Bay, of which we now give fuller particulars. It appears that Mr. Smellie, who had been to church at Kingston, was returning home again, and when about three miles from the city he was waylaid by three men, one coming on each side of him and the other holding the horse. Mr. Smellie thought that it was some of his workmen trying to frighten him, and said, "Boys, you can't scare me," whereupon one of the men at his side took up a club and struck him on the head, but fortunately did not stun him. Mr. Smellie then stood up in the buggy and gave the man who had struck him, a kick in the face, which sent him off yelling towards the village. He then turned to the man on the other side, who was in the act of drawing something from his pocket, and fell on him, and with a few kicks and blows left him lying in the ditch. He then looked around for the third man and found him running towards him, from the horse, with a revolver pointed towards him. He heard a click, and had just time to dash the revolver aside with his hand when the ball flew past his ear. The man was preparing to fire again when Mr. Smellie took the revolver from him, and then backed the man up against the fence and told him to stir about a p.m. from Jersey City, and reach Philadelphia the following afternoon. He will also offer $500 to the contestants who will walk the distance in twenty-one hours. Among the pedestrians who will compete are C. E. Saugard, Edward Mullen, James Adams and several others. This will be a good chance for Weston, and the other pedestrians will be delighted to walk against him to learn his style of going. We have lately noted several instances of remarkable pedestrianism in Ontario. The latest is that of L. E. Blackader and G. Boulton, who set off from the G. W. B. Station, Brantford, on Thursday, and reached the Crystal Palace in Hamilton in four hours and forty-eight minutes from the time of their departure, having made over five miles an hour on the journey. On the same day five young ladies, the three Misses Bell and the two Misses Rindley, accompanied by Mr. Moyer, Mr. Chasties, Mr. Karr and Mr. Hunt, walked from Brantford to Paris and back a distance of 14 miles.
A fatal accident occurred in the township of Carden, County of Victoria on the 28th ult. A young man named George Munro had been assisting his father to cart manure. On their way home the horses took fright, and one of the wheels coming in contact with a stump, George was thrown out a distance of about 20 feet, head first. His head indented the ground three or four inches, and he died on the spot from concussion of the brain.

The Road & Bridge Committee.

An eleventh-hour repentance is better than none at all. After resisting the fair and just demands of the Council for a detailed statement of the approximate cost of repairs on streets and sidewalks, which are imperatively required this year, the Chairman of the Road and Bridge Committee, after a month's delay, has at last brought in a report which looks business-like, and which is explicit enough for the Council to consider and approve of. This might have been done long ago if the Chairman and some members of the Committee had not been so obstinate in resisting the request of the Council, and in their seeking to carry through their proposal for doing the work in the same loose, haphazard way which has marked the Committee's doings during nearly the whole of this season. To any one of sense and judgment, it was evident from the first that this course was wrong, and that those members of the Council who opposed it had taken the correct view of the matter, and were acting in the interest of the ratepayers, and as faithful guardians of the public funds. But with a strange perversity of judgment, the Chairman of the Committee, the Mayor and their backers, would not see it in that light, and they would have resisted till the end but for the almost universal condemnation of their course, and the conviction which at last seemed to dawn on their minds, that they were acting altogether in the teeth of public opinion. Had the affairs of the Committee in the early part of the year been transacted in a business-like manner, and the funds appropriated for the various works been scrupulously spent where they ought to have been, the Council would have had infinitely more confidence in the willingness or ability of the Chairman to spend aright what money they might have voted, even though he had not furnished a detailed statement. But after the gross blundering and mismanagement which were clearly established by the Special Committee, no excuse or argument would justify the Council in handing over a sum of money without knowing where it was to be spent. As we said before, this late repentance is better than none at all. But after all, we have a strong suspicion that it is not sincere, that there is not much merit attached to it, because we believe we should not have witnessed it had the pressure not been brought to bear against the Chairman and the Mayor by the threatened resignation of some of the members of the Committee, and by the almost universal condemnation of their conduct by the ratepayers.

The Orangeville Sun has discovered what nobody else has, that Mr. Blake's speech at Aurora contains not a single new suggestion. The writer has been unanimously voted the leather medal.

NORTH YORK.—Dr. Widdfield, of Newmarket, at a very largely attended meeting of Reformers of North York at Newmarket, on Saturday received and accepted a unanimous invitation to contest, in the Reform interest, the representation of the Riding in the Local House.

The Mount Forest Examiner earnestly asks what terrible crime the people of that village have committed, that they should be doubly afflicted on Monday night with the presence of Abraham Lauder and James Fahey. No wonder the decent folks of that clachan are alarmed at such an invasion.

THE ELECTION TRIAL.
Tuesday, Nov. 3.

The Election trial on the petition against the return of Dr. Orton as member for Centre Wellington, commenced to-day at 11 o'clock, before Chief Justice Hagarty, in the Court House.

Mr. Frederick Biscoe acted as Registrar.

The counsel for the petitioners are Mr. Jas. Bethune and Mr. D. Guthrie; for the respondent Mr. Geo. A. Drew.

Considerable interest was taken in the trial, and quite a number were present, besides witnesses, to listen to the evidence.

After the proceedings were opened in the usual way, Mr. Bethune moved to amend the petition and particulars by striking out all that related to a scrutiny and claim to the seat.

Mr. Drew had no objections except as to the costs of preparing for the scrutiny. His Lordship said the costs would be for the taxing officer.

Mrs. Garland sworn. To Mr. Bethune—I live in Peel. I am the wife of John Garland. I know J. M. Fraser, a merchant in Elora. I remember the last election between McKim and Dr. Orton. Mr. Fraser came to our home in January before the election, either one or two nights before the voting. My husband and I were in. Mr. Fraser came with a Mr. Hafner, and he told my husband to go out to Mr. Hafner, and after he went out Mr. Fraser asked me who my husband was going to vote for. I told him Mr. McKim, and he asked me to change my husband's vote. I told him I could not do it. He offered me a five dollar bill, and asked me to get my husband to vote for Orton, and afterwards I took the money and he clasped me on the shoulder, and said he would be my friend if I got my husband to vote for Orton. The five then went away, and my husband came in. He voted for McKim. I laid out the money on my children. That's all the money I got, and I am sorry I got that.

His Lordship—If you have any conscientious scruples you had better pay it back.

Witnesses for Mr. Drew—I did not tell Mr. Fraser that Mr. McKim had been before hand with my husband. I did not say if I had money I would canvass for Dr. Orton. Mercy! I would look well canvassing!

John Garland to Mr. Guthrie—I am husband of last witness. I have a vote in Centre Wellington. Mr. Fraser and Mr. Hafner came to my house the night before the election—a Mr. Smith was there at the same time. [His account of the visit coincided with that of his wife.] He added—I told Mr. Fraser I would make no promise, that promises and pie crusts were made to be broken. No one offered me money, Fraser sent Smith out of the house while he talked with my wife. My wife showed me a $5 bill a few minutes after Fraser drove off. She said Mr. Fraser gave it to her. I went to the door to give the money back, but they were a quarter of a mile away. James Smith also offered me money after they went off. He offered me $1.50 to vote for Dr. Orton. I made up my mind not to vote for either, as I thought elections were humbugs.

To Mr. Drew—I would not have voted except they came for me. I never told him I voted who I was going to vote for. I never saw McKim during the election, nor his son. I was not at his store. No one canvassed me for him. McKim did not give me a reduction, as I did not owe him a cent.

Lord Dufferin, according to the N. Y. Tribune, has made many friends during his short stay in that city.

MONTREAL CENTRE.—Mr. M. P. Ryan has been unseated in Montreal Centre, on the ground that votes given for him were illegal, and that corrupt practices had been proved.

HELENA GRAHAM, THE BRIDE'S SACRIFICE.

CHAPTER I.

The sun was sinking in the far west as the little yacht Summer Breeze went dancing over the bright waves towards Graham's Island.

Like all of his race, young Graham was very tall, and dark as a Spaniard. His short, black, curling hair shadowed a forehead high, bold, and commanding.

His companion was a tall, elegant young man, with an air of proud superiority about him, as though he were "somebody," and knew it.

The last five years he had passed in Vienna, and when he was thinking of returning home, he had encountered Captain Graham and his sister.

"Well, Graham, how is that patient of yours this evening?" inquired Clinton, after a pause.

"Don't know," replied Captain Graham, carelessly, "I haven't seen him since morning. Helena is with him now."

"By the way, where did you pick him up? He is not one of your crew, I understand."

"No! I met him at Gibraltar. He came to me one day, and asked me to take him home. I replied that I had no accommodation, and would much rather not be troubled with passengers.

"Well, I haven't much experience as a nurse myself, but I think it's brain fever, or something of that kind; Helena, however, thinks that bitter remorse for something he has done is preying on his mind, and girls always know best in these cases."

"He is, if I may judge, by his looks, of humble station rather," said Mr. Clinton, in an indifferent tone.

"Yes; there can be no doubt of that, though he appears to have plenty of money."

"Has he given his name?" "Yes; Arthur Stewart."

"Hum! well, it would be unpleasant to have him die on board, of course," said Clinton.

"Oh, I think he'll live to reach our destination; he does not appear to be sinking very fast."

"We must now be quite near this island-home of yours, Captain Graham; I grow impatient to see it."

"We shall reach it about moonrise to-night if the wind hold out as it is now."

"And what, may I ask, do you intend doing with this Arthur Stewart, when you get there? Will you take him into your castle, and nurse him until he gets well?"

"No, I think not. There is an old lady on the island, who is never so happy as when she has some one to nurse. I think we will consign him to her."

"Then there is another habitation on the island besides yours?" said Clinton, looking up with more interest than he had yet manifested.

"Yes, old Mrs. Ben, a distant connexion of our family, I believe. And, by the way, Clinton, there is a pretty little girl in the case. I suppose that will interest you more than the old woman."

"Pretty girls are an old story by this time," said Clinton, with a yawn.

"Yes, with such a renewed lady-killer as you, no doubt."

"I never did see but one girl in the world worth the trouble of loving," said Clinton, looking thoughtfully into the water.

"Ah! what a paragon she must have been! May I ask what quarter of the globe has the honor of containing so peerless a beauty?"

"I never said she was a beauty, mon ami. But never mind that. When do you expect to be ready for sea again?"

"As soon as possible—in a few weeks, perhaps—for I fear that we'll all soon get tired of the loneliness of the place."

"You ought to be pretty well accustomed to its loneliness by this time."

"Not I, faith! It's now three years since I have been there!"

"Is it possible? I thought you Grahams were too much attached to your ancestral home to desert it so long as that."

"Well, it's a dreary place, and I have such an attachment for a wild, exciting life, that I positively could not endure it. I should die of stagnation. As for Helena, my wild, impulsive sister, she would now as soon think of entering a convent as passing her life there."

"Yet you said it was partly by her request you were going there now?" "Yes, she expressed a wish to show you on the place." A slight flush of pleasure colored the clear face of Clinton.

"I don't know what's got into Helena lately," continued her brother. "I never saw a girl so changed. She used to be the craziest leap-aver-the-moon."

madcap that ever existed; now she is growing as tame as—little Jessie."

"Clinton's fine eyes were fixed keenly on the frank, open face of Captain Graham; but nothing was to be read there more than his wonted contentment. With a peculiar smile he turned away, and said, carelessly—

"And who is this little Jessie to whom you refer?"

"She is the protegee of the old lady on the island—fair as the dream of an opium-eater, enchanting as an hour, and with the voice of an angel!"

"Whow! the bold Captain Graham, the daring descendant of old Malcolm the Dauntless, has lost his heart at last," laughed Herbert Clinton.

"No. There is no danger of that, I fancy; unless, indeed," he added, fixing his eyes quizzically on Clinton's handsome face, "I should happen to meet this little enchantress who spoke of a while ago."

MANUFACTURE OF COCOA.—"We will now give an account of the process adopted by Messrs. James Epps & Co., manufacturers of dietetic articles, at their works in the Euston Road, London."

A meeting of the friends of the Messrs. Jardine, of Barton, the well-known breeders of Arabian cattle, was held the other day in Hamilton, and a resolution was passed congratulating these gentlemen on their success at the late fairs in Hamilton, Guelph, London and Toronto.

There will be no parting there—Not if your hair continues to fall as it now does. Get without delay a bottle of Bearine, dress the hair often with it. Bearine stops the hair from falling off and assists nature to restore its natural vigor. Every Druggist sells it.

$5 to $20 PER DAY — AGENTS wanted in all classes of working people, of either sex, young or old, make more money at work for us in their spare moments, or at the time, than at any thing else. Particulars free. Post card to STANLEY & CO., Portland, Maine, O.S. daily.

THE SYMPTOMS OF MENTAL decay resemble the gradual changes that come over old people, and are similar to those induced by excess of food and habits, and the tendency is to the protraction of softening of the brain and insanity. The cause is deficiency of phosphate, it is well known that man grows older and mentally weaker when the nervous system is insufficiently supplied with these elements—the solidity of the brain depending upon phosphoric compounds—and that those foods which are richest in phosphate constitute most especially weakened brain power and loss of constitutional vigor. Dr. Whist's Compound Phosphate of Potash and Calcium contains these elements in an easily assimilable form, constituting a brain and nerve food. O.S. daily.

BEARINE ON REAL BEAR'S GREASE, A HAIR BEAUTIFIER, Preserver, and Dressing. This elegant preparation named from the Canada Bear, from which its most essential element is obtained, is a scientific compound of Real Bear's Grease, and other ingredients, so combined as to retain for a great length of time its original fragrance and purity. As a dressing for the hair, nothing can be more beautiful or desirable. It is pleasantly perfumed, and renders the hair soft, pliant and glossy. It serves to give it that peculiar richness and color which is so essential to a complete toilet. It is the cheapest, most harmless, and best dressing in the world.

CHARLES DAVIDSON, Estate Agent. Agent for Investing Money for the Trust & Loan Co. of Canada. THE FOLLOWING LANDS FOR SALE: TOWN OF GUELPH, —Jarvis & Scott's Survey, between the Exhibition Grounds and the Hospital, lots 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13. Also, 66 south of Berlin-street; 16 south of Galt-street; 77 north of Cross-street; 9 south of Queen-street, on broken front; 23 & 24, 40 & 41, on Market-street, Oliver's Survey; 6 1/2 park lots, on Market-street, Oliver's Survey, on which is a mill privilege; parts of Lots 1 and 2, Division F, formerly in the Township, now in the Town of Guelph—19 acres—situate between Rev. Mr. Torrance's and the Town Line. Also,

A NUMBER OF VALUABLE FARMS NEAR GUELPH. PROTECT YOUR BUILDINGS Which may be done at one-fourth the usual Expense, by using Glines' Patent SLATE ROOFING PAINT!

AGENTS WANTED IN EVERY TOWN. A Roof may be covered with a very cheap shingle, and by application of this slate may be made to last from 20 to 25 years. Old roofs can be patched and coated, looking much better and lasting longer than new shingles without the slate, for ONE THIRD THE COST OF RE-SHINGLING. The expense of slating new shingles is only about the cost of simply laying them.

The Paint is Fire-Proof against Sparks or Flying Embers, as may be easily tested by anyone, and appears from the fact that Insurance Companies make nearly the Same Tariff as for Slated Roofs. For Tin and Iron it has no equal, as it expands by heat, contracts by cold, and NEVER CRACKS OR SCALES. For Fences it is particularly adapted, as it will not corrode in the most exposed places. Roofs covered with Tar Sheeting Felt can be made water-tight at a small expense. The Slate Paint is EXTREMELY CHEAP!

Two gallons will cover over 100 square feet of shingle roof, or over 400 of tin or iron. No Tar is Used in this Composition, therefore, it does not effect the water from the roof, if turned off from the eaves before the first few rains. On Decayed Shingles it fills up the holes and pores, hardens them, and gives a new, substantial roof that will last for years. Curled or Warped Shingles it brings to their place and keeps them there. It fills up all holes in tin or felt roofs, and STOPS THE LEAKS. The color of the slate when first applied is dark purple, changing in about a month to a light uniform slate colour, and is, to all intents and purposes, SLATE. The Paint has a very Heavy Body, but is easily put on, and, although a slow dryer, rain will not affect it in the least one hour after applying.

ROOFS EXAMINED. ESTIMATES GIVEN. And when required will be Thoroughly Repaired. Orders Respectfully Solicited. P. O. Box 282. S. A. RUSSELL & Co., Toronto, Ont. 60 KING STREET EAST.
