What Crowd Do You Travel With? Do You Vote For Slums or For Tubes?

HONORS OF NEW YEAR'S SHARED BY CANADIANS

Premier Borden Now Wears Title of Right Honorable—Knighthoods for Hon. J. M. Gibson, E. B. Osler, Rodolphe Forget, Joseph Pope and Others.

CHIEF SLEMIN GETS MEDAL FROM KING

Premier R. L. Borden—Privy Councillor.
Lieut.-Governor J. M. Gibson—C. M. G.
Joseph Pope, undersecretary for external affairs—K. C. M. G.
Thomas Cooper Boville, deputy minister of finance—C. M. G.
Rodolphe Forget—K. B.
E. B. Osler—K. B.
Charles Slemin, Brantford's chief of police—King's medal.
Daniel Woodley Prouse, K.C., Newfoundland—K. B.

Voters, Remember:

That tubes will not add to your taxes. They will reduce them.
That they will relieve the congestion in transportation and bring the Toronto Railway Company to time.
That they will come none too soon. Toronto has nearly half a million population now.
That they will furnish work to many who now have to seek relief from the city.
That they will bring in customers for Toronto merchants from the radial lines.
That they will settle up the suburbs and prevent slum areas.

VOTE FOR PROGRESS.

Do not be afraid that the city hall cannot handle any work the citizens want done. The only brake on city hall activities is the brake applied by the citizens themselves or their aldermen. If the people say progress the officials will make progress. Vote for progress.

KILL THE SLUMS.

Toronto wants something better than slums. The only way to get something better is to go for it. The tubes will be one way of going for it. The Bloor-street viaduct will be another. Let us take the way out from the slums.

MAKE HOCKEN SURE.

Hocken is the man who resisted the temptation of a majority election in order to carry the tube project to success. Be sure and vote Hocken for controller.

WARM ATTACK ON HOME RULE

Unionists, Encouraged by Dissension Among Government Supporters, Are Waging War to the Death.

LONDON, Dec. 31.—(Can. Press.)—While every member of the Unionist party is taking some part in the campaign against home rule which A. J. Balfour opened just before his retirement from the leadership of the opposition forces, and which Andrew Bonar Law, the new leader, endorsed in a recent speech, the man who is looked to to keep up the fight is Sir Edward Henry Carson, member for Dublin University, solicitor-general for Ireland in the last two Unionist governments. Sir Edward Carson is an uncompromising opponent of any change in the form of government in Ireland, and is one of the best platform speakers in the country.

Leave Well Enough Alone. Generally his argument is "Ireland is prospering; leave her alone," another version of Bonar Law's battle-cry. "What Ireland requires is less politics and more industry." These arguments are for those Englishmen, who no longer believe that home rule means separation and who, tired of the Irish question, advocate the granting of self-government to "get rid of the subject."

From Unionist platforms there is no denial that in times past Ireland was unjustly treated, but under the union Ireland has prospered, and as Sir Edward put it, "all arguments of Saxon oppression and Saxon misrule no longer hold good."

Maintenance of Imperial rule in Ireland, he contends, made land purchase, which is the root of Irish prosperity, possible. The "liberal" he claims, knowing this, have stopped land purchases for their own ends.

Nonconformists Aroused. There are other arguments against the desire of Ireland for nationhood, chief among them being that which came from Joseph Chamberlain and other nonconformist leaders to desert Mr. Gladstone, and which some of the nonconformist followers of the present government cannot forget—the possibility of religious intolerance.

Other nonconformists are in doubt as to whether to throw over their shoulders the banner of the present government or to stand by the rule of the Church of Ireland or the government, which has promised them a new education bill and disestablishment of the church in Wales.

BE A LIVE ONE.

A stitch in time saves nine. Some people want to leave over all the improvements Toronto needs till they are dead. Never mind them; they are dead ones now. Vote for the by-laws and look alive.

AN OVATION

Signor Fleming and his dancing bear are to-day the objects of a popular demonstration.

A Sane Man's Views on the Bylaws

W. K. McNaught, M.L.A. for North Toronto, Seat A, is fully as eager about the result of the vote on the bylaws as any other citizen. He is particularly anxious that the hydro-electric extension bylaw should be carried. The $2,000,000 asked for is to cover the territory not included in the plans prepared seven years ago.

"I hope to see the subway bylaw carried also," said Mr. McNaught. "The street car situation is very bad, and is getting worse. There is only one cure, and that is the tubes. We should get them right away."

"If it is true what the street railway people say that they can carry no more people, then we must have the tubes. The tubes is the only thing to bring them to time. The transportation situation is getting worse every year."

"It looks as tho the street railway company were riding for a fall. They are wanting the people to buy them out. Let us spend our money on the tubes. They will pay from the start, and they will make the railway company sit up and do things."

"As a citizen, I feel very strongly on the street railway situation, and I see no effective remedy but the tubes."

"I will vote for all the bylaws except the two-year term for the aldermen, and the laying of water mains as a local improvement."

"New Year's Day is a good day to start for a bigger Toronto. We must be prepared to build for a bigger day. I have no sympathy with the people who cannot consider the interests of the city. We must get rid of our slums, and to do that we must provide access to the cheaper land and give the people rapid transportation to the outskirts. The Bloor-street viaduct is a most important link in the city's development."

As a member of the Hydro-Electric Commission, second only to Hon. Adam Beck, and a representative citizen of Toronto, Mr. McNaught represents the most practical and sagacious part of the community.

U. S. HOLDS FIRM IN ATTITUDE TO RUSSIA

President Taft Strongly Defends Refusal to Arbitrate Differences, and is Cheered at Big Peace Banquet—Signs of Dissension Melted in Wave of Enthusiasm.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—(Can. Press.)—Preceded by dissensions which seemed for a time to threaten a climax anything but pacific, the citizens' peace banquet to-night proved in realization everything that its name implied—so far at least as concerned its attendant conditions.

President Taft, who was the guest of honor and chief speaker of the evening, while making as he had previously at similar gatherings, the arguments for the pending arbitration treaties between the United States and Great Britain and France, went further to-night and replied specifically to some criticisms which have recently been made of the principles embodied in those treaties. He also made answer to the charge of inconsistency lodged against advocates of the arbitration treaties, who did not favor arbitration in the difficulty between the United States and Russia.

No Arbitration With Russia. "Those of us who are in favor of these treaties have been criticised as inconsistent because we did not invoke arbitration in the recent difference with Russia," said Mr. Taft. "I am not entirely willing to speak frankly as I might of that because my tongue is tied in a slight way by what we hope for in future negotiations. All that I can say is that if you will read the great argument of Elihu Root on the question of why the treaty should be terminated and why arbitration would not do, I am content to stand on his exhibit and explanation of that."

Burst of Applause. A burst of applause greeted this declaration by the president. "The truth is," continued Mr. Taft, "that the treaty itself contains contractual obligations on the part of the United States to recognize the doctrine of non-expatriation and recognize the right of Russia to say that the naturalized Russian citizens in the United States are Russian."

"Wets" and "Drys" Wage War To-day

Seventy-two Ontario municipalities will vote upon the question of the adoption of local option, and fifteen which are now dry, on the question of repeal. Most of the places, which are being assailed by the "drys" are comparatively small, without from one to four licenses.

Interest centres chiefly in the big fight on for repeal at Owen Sound. A vigorous effort is also being made to restore licenses at Richmond Hill, Lakefield and Beamsville. The biggest places being attacked to-day by the Ontario Alliance are Port Arthur, with nineteen licenses; Port William, seventeen; Chatham, sixteen; and Waterloo, twelve. Last New Year's Day local option was carried in twenty-six places by three-fifths majority; had a majority, but less than three-fifths, in thirty, and was absolutely defeated in twenty-five places.

There was a reduction of licenses during 1911 by means of local option and license reduction bylaws of two hundred and seventy-six, leaving a total of one thousand three hundred and seventy-four licenses in the province.

The results will be received by the Ontario Alliance to-night at Room 411, Confederation Life Building.

A NEW YEAR GREETING.

The business of the W. & D. Dineen Company has this year been the largest in its history and in every respect, as the president puts it, "the most satisfactory."

Mr. Dineen, speaking to a World representative, said: "We have always endeavored not only as part of wisdom, but because it is our natural preference, to have our business done with justice and impartiality and with profit to our customers as well as ourselves. We know we have succeeded, because we have adhered to the policy of the 'square deal' as they call it in the States. This means buying the very best of pellets only and not cheapening our quality. Our many years of work has told splendidly this season in our receipts and in the satisfaction our customers have received."

"The company desires," concluded Mr. Dineen, "to acknowledge the assistance, which the public has given us and to wish everyone a very prosperous and happy New Year."

NEW YEAR OPENS UNDER HAPPY GUIDANCE

Nineteen-Twelve Begins Beneath Good Fortune—With Spring-time Toronto Will Be Under Sway of Star of Speed.

Hurrah for 1912! Toronto hailed the advent of the new year with Venus, the green star, reigning as the ruling planet. Those familiar with astrological lore will recognize the propitious symbolism. They are also aware that the new year of our calendar does not synchronize with the more ancient almanacs. For in the most remote ages the new year was dated to begin with March 21, our first day of spring.

Venus, the planet regnant since last springtime, therefore sheds her benign influence over the birth of the new modern calendar year. She has always been accredited with bringing good luck in her train and showering with her influence all things under her sway. This influence will, therefore, according to our local astrologers, continue to enhance the general good luck until the first day of spring this year.

Mercury will then succeed to the planetary throne. His influence is reputed to be variable, according to the position which he holds in relation to the other heavenly bodies, but what is chiefly important and significant from the Toronto point of view is that Mercury is the god of speed and what the people of Toronto require, as is admitted on all hands more than anything else, is more speed in the all-important matter of street transit.

That the star of speed should become enthroned on the first day of the second quarter of our new year accords well with the governance of the first quarter by the goddess of good fortune. If the stars speak true 1912 should be a year of remarkable prosperity and phenomenal progress. Therefore Torontonians could with confidence as they heard Big Ben peal out the advent of the new year enthusiastically exchange the season's greetings.

New Year's eve falling on a Sunday was naturally exceedingly quiet, and with the election law automatically closing the bar-rooms again to-day, a dry new year in that sense is another feature of its advent. The nature of to-day's issues in the civic arena is likely to afford plenty of stimulation to the citizens and to make the holiday quite lively from that viewpoint.

With open water in the bay, the harbor is this new year passing under the control of an enlarged harbor commission.

Two Drowned at Smith's Falls Eleven Others Escape Death

Treachorous Ice of River Brought Peril to Many Skaters—Keble Gibson and Minnie Pruner Broke Thru and Perished Before Their Plight Became Known.

SMITH'S FALLS, Dec. 31.—(Can. Press.)—A sad drowning fatality took place here last evening, the victims being Keble Gibson, aged 16 years, a clerk in the Frost and Wood office, and Minnie Pruner, only daughter of J. J. Pruner, aged 15 years.

With hundreds of others the young couple were skating on the river, and at the time of the accident were skating together. At a point near Beech Island, a mile and a half above Smith's Falls, the ice gave way beneath them. Despite the fact that there were so many on the river, no one witnessed the accident. Both bodies were recovered in a short time, but life was extinct.

Miss Pruner's body was frozen to the ice at the place where she went in and Gibson's was found just below in seven feet of water. The two were great favorites with their young companions and their tragic death has cast a gloom over the town. The parents of both victims are well known residents of Smith's Falls.

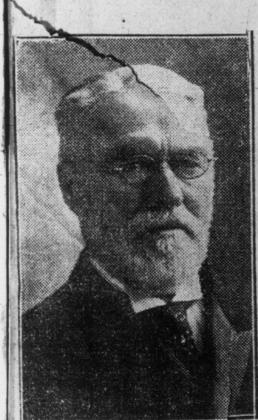

Others Narrowly Escaped. In addition to the two who were drowned, eleven others had miraculous escapes during the day. The ice appeared to be solid, but it had numerous weak spots and in these the unlucky ones were caught.

Fainted Before Rescue. Mrs. Warwick swooned from shock, which made it all the harder to effect her rescue, she being in a precarious condition for some time after being taken out, but is now recovering from the effects of her experience.

Roy Boyd, a clerk in the Bank of Ottawa, and Miss Ella Caswell skated into the hole where Gibson and Miss Pruner went in, and after a trying experience, succeeded in reaching the strong enough to support their weight. They were in the water ten minutes.

The Era of 5 o'Clock MANY years ago, in common with all other Jewelry Houses, 7 o'clock was our regular closing hour—Saturdays, 10 p.m.

With fear and trembling in the days of our early struggles, we adopted the 6 o'clock closing—it proved an unqualified success—business did not suffer and in affording a "nice long evening" for domestic and social purposes, it "made life worth living" for all concerned.

Beginning January 1st, 1912, we go further in the inauguration of 5 o'clock closing, and we believe this may be almost universally adopted with advantage, and have at least the courage of our convictions so far as our own business is concerned.

We would, therefore, ask with confidence the co-operation of our patrons in thus projecting the "nice long evening" into a "nicer longer evening" for the members of our staff. After January 1st, therefore, we close at 5 o'clock the whole year 'round."

States should not lose their allegiance to Russia and could be punished for becoming naturalized citizens. "Now that was contained on the face of the treaty. It was in accordance with the doctrine that prevailed in the U. S. and that prevailed in Russia in 1882. The doctrine has been departed from by statute in the U. S., but it remained in the treaty and we cannot, so far as a foreign country is concerned, in contractual dealings with her, repeat a treaty by statute.

No inconsistency. "Therefore," continued the president, "I say that the inconsistency that is supposed to exist in our failure to invoke arbitration there does not exist, and I commend to those who think it does a close perusal of Mr. Root's argument and of the treaty itself."

President Taft then answered some of the other criticisms that have been made of the pending treaties. "What we have got to come to is this," said the president, "to recognize either that we want arbitration and a peaceful settlement of disputes, or that we don't. And we have got to mean business when we go into arbitration. This paying of heads I win and tails you lose will make no progress in a Christian civilization. It is not possible that we should win in every case."

At one point in his speech the president became emphatic. "I am not taking anything back," he said. The president declared that if arbitration it was questions of personal or national honor. Then he stopped and said: "Perhaps I have gone too far in my enthusiasm," but the audience would not have it that way and when he asked pointedly:

"Are we to step back?" he got an emphatic "no" for a response.

Guarded by Police

With the Waldorf-Astoria humming with suppressed excitement and guarded with and without by a force of a hundred or more police officers, detectives and secret service men, the preliminaries to the peace banquet tonight swayed almost as lightly as the sensational as did the events of the past week of turbulence among the arrangers of the function.

There was trouble before the arrival of President Taft, the evening's guest of honor, who reached here at six o'clock from Philadelphia, where he had stopped for a few hours on his way from Washington, and was driven directly to the hotel. There some misunderstanding the dinner cards had not been delivered and the president, on reaching the Waldorf was ushered into a private room and had to wait there for more than an hour while the committee men made an effort to untangle the snarl and arrange for the seating of the more than 1400 guests, who were already crowding the corridors of the hotel.

Among the dissenters. Echoes of the dissension which had marked the preparations for the dinner were still in evidence as the dinner were assembling. The delegation on the special train, which had been engaged to bring diplomatic representatives and government officials from Washington was a disappointment in size as none of the foreign ambassadors or other members of the diplomatic corps, who had accepted invitations came over from the capital. It was explained that there had been an almost universal withdrawal of acceptances on the part of this class of invited guests, some of the declarations having been received this afternoon, one of them by telegram. Had to Be Shown. The discussion over the purpose of the dinner—whether it was definitely to endorse the pending arbitration treaties or not—also was reviewed with the declaration by Congressman Richard Berthold of Missouri, who came on the special train, that he had intended staying away when told that the endorsement of the treaties was to be "side-tracked," but had decided to come when advised by the committee "that the purpose of the dinner had not been changed." Further contribution to the discussion was also made by Col. Theodore Roosevelt, about whose attitude to the function the greater part of the controversy has hinged.

In his letter of refusal of the invitation, made public in the late afternoon, Col. Roosevelt reiterated his declaration that it seemed to him "worse than foolish, in short, utterly hypocritical, now to support these arbitration treaties (unnamed) when we have just abrogated the Russian treaty."

Among the dissenters. "Well, is everything adjusted?" the president asked, as he was ushered into the banquet hall. The dinner had been seated in their proper places by this time, and those at the table with the president included Andrew Carnegie, Oscar B. Straus, former ambassador to Turkey; former U. S. Senator Chas. A. Tamm and Henry Claws, with Governor Earl Rogers of Mississippi, Bishop David H. Greer of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Senator Raoul Dandurand, chairman of the inter-parliamentary group, Canadian Parliament; U. S. Senator O'Gorman of New York; and others.

During the course of the dinner President Taft conversed with Henry Claws, the banker, who sat at his left, and listened with a serious face to some remarks that Mr. Claws punctuated with vigorous gestures.

President Taft, in contrast to conditions attending his visit here a fortnight ago, was plentifully guarded as he reached the city and drove to the banquet hall, beside a half dozen Pennsylvania Railroad detectives and an equal number of secret service men, who escorted him from the train, fronted by the police, and as many city detectives were in waiting. A committee from the dinner management met Mr. Taft at the station and headed by the bicycle-mounted officers, containing the party proceeded to the hotel.

Stabbed by Italian.

OTTAWA, Dec. 31.—(Can. Press).—A stabbing affray occurred on Saturday afternoon on the city aqueduct works, for which an Italian named George Carlo of Pamela-st. is now under arrest. Two young men named Edward Dalton and Michael Cain went into the workmen's canteen and started the trouble. The Italian is alleged to have been attacked, whereupon he drew a stiletto and stabbed Dalton seriously in the back and neck, and Cain in the wrist.

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS

MARIE DRESSLER IS HERE.

A happy holiday hundred arrived at the Union Depot yesterday on the new famous "Tillies' Special," of nine cars. It was the home-coming of Toronto's own comedienne, jolly Marie Dressler. All of which is merely meant to again call attention to the fact that Miss Dressler will be at home at the Royal Alexandra Theatre this afternoon and tonight, to wish all her friends "A Happy New Year." Judging from the sale of seats up to and including Saturday night, the theatre will be filled to its utmost capacity at both performances. In fact, it looks as if there will be no vacant seats at all during this engagement. There will be a popular price matinee Thursday. This will offer positively the last opportunity to see Miss Dressler in "Tillies' Nightmare," for next season she is to have a new play.

"DOCTOR DE LUXE" AT PRINCESS.

After a success so sweeping and dazzling as to make it a subject of comment, the brilliant musical piece, "Doctor De Luxe," with the original New York cast, headed by Ralph Herz, is back to the Princess for a week's stay, beginning with a special matinee this afternoon. Ralph Herz, the star of the piece, is a real comedian. Other well known members of the cast are Rene Santos, Marion Bidlon, Polly Prim, Eugenie LeBlanc, Cordelia MacDonald, Georgia Kelly, Harriet Standon, Taylor Williams, Harry Delf, Harry Stone, Edward Earle, Edward Wade, and the wonderful boy tenor, Master Wilfrid Morrison, a product of this city.

"IN AND OUT" AT SHEA'S TO-DAY.

Momer B. Mason, Marguerite Keeler and company, in Porter Emerson Brown's comedy episode, head the bill at Shea's Theatre this week. Bessie Wynn, the dainty singing comedienne, with her own songs, and "A Night in a Turkish Bath," are the special attractions. Included are Shirley and Kessler, Alexander and Scott, Bertisch, Kitamura Japs, and the Kinetograph.

STAR THIS WEEK.

Something out of the ordinary is promised at the Star Theatre this week in the appearance there of the "Kenedy Belles," an organization which comes with the prestige of having won the unqualified endorsement of both press and public in other cities it has visited. Everything is absolutely new and original.

CRUSOE GIRLS AT THE GAYETY.

Manager Henry has secured Charles Robinson and his Crusoe Girls as his attraction for this week. This show is entirely new and has been written with everything up-to-date. It is full of catchy music, pretty and shapely girls, gorgeous costumes and dazzling scenic and electric effects. The performance opens with a very funny skit named "Lot a Million Dollars," and winds up with "The Gay Sky Lark."

MONDAY MORNING, JAN. 1, 1912

WHO SHOULD BE CONTROLLERS.

In voting for the controllers this morning the electors should first of all make sure of H. C. Hocken. He gave Mayor Geary his seat by acclamation, so that he might devote all his time to the advocacy of the tubes. He has done little on his own behalf, and the people should remember him.

Ex-Ald. Foster has many claims on the electors, besides his well-known good-heartedness as a private citizen. His settled views on economy and efficiency—getting a hundred cents value out of the dollar—commend him to the voters as a faithful friend and guardian of the public interests.

Ald. McCarthy offers himself for the board of control after an aldermanic career which has proven him to possess excellent business capacity, a broad grasp of affairs, and a wide public spirit. He has taken pains to do what few aldermen really do—to inform himself on all points of public business, and not wait till council meets before seeking information. Vote for him without fail.

Of the other new men J. G. O'Donoghue appears to stand in most favor of the old candidates seeking re-election. Controller Ward appears to be the favorite over Controller Spence. Controllers Church and Spence, if defeated, have still their positions on the harbor board in place to serve the public.

We advise the electors to make certain of Hocken, McCarthy and Foster.

THE SIKH IN CANADA.

Great sympathy has been aroused among all classes to whom the facts have become known for the claims of the Sikh nation to fair play from their fellow subjects of Canada. Already in Toronto an organized effort has been made to press the matter upon the proper authorities. A committee consisting of Mr. J. K. Macdonald, President Falconer, Dr. Sundur Singh, Rev. Dr. Wilkie, Messrs. John A. Paterson, K.C., H. E. Irwin, K.C., John Firstbrook and Thomas West will take steps locally.

There are some 4000 Sikhs in British Columbia, and the injustice appears to have arisen from the clamor of the labor interests on the Pacific Coast, which feared an influx of cheap competing labor, having misunderstood the character of the Sikh immigrants. As a result the Laurier government placed restrictions and disabilities upon the Sikhs to which even the Chinese and Japanese were not subjected. Under the new law it was held that the Sikhs must come from India to Canada by direct steamer. As no such steamer was to be had the injustice is apparent. They are required to have $300 each as against $50 from the Mongolians, Ruthenians, Italians, Doukhobors, Poles and other foreign peoples are admitted without restriction.

Worst of all the Sikhs already in Canada were not allowed by the late government to have their wives and children. This is being remedied by the present administration.

The Sikhs are near akin in race to other Indo-European white races, and are not to be confused with Turanian, Dravidian or Mongolian peoples. They have been amongst the most loyal of British subjects and were admitted to a strong element in saving India to Britain during the mutiny. Ninety per cent of the Sikhs who have come to Canada have been British soldiers. During the Chinese Boxer rebellion there were sixteen Sikh regiments out of the eighteen employed. In every particular the Sikhs have proven themselves admirable subjects. They are highly civilized, markedly intellectual, and their religious beliefs, which date from the time of Luther when their great prophet the Yura Natak arose and taught them the spiritual faith in which they have ever since reposed, rank them with the most advanced nations.

The Sikhs themselves do not ask for or solicit wholesale entry into Canada, and Dr. Sundur Singh, their representative, asserts that he is more interested in establishing the principle of British fair play than gaining a settlement for any great number of the Sikh nation, which numbers about 2,000,000.

Those who have already come over have worked on the land and on the railways. They have bought land of their own and settled down to farm. They are industrious and thrifty and in every way good citizens. Can they not be received as loyal fellow subjects of the King-Emperor? We believe as soon as their character and status is known the objections to the Sikhs raised by the labor interests will be withdrawn.

MR. LLOYD-GEORGE'S INSURANCE ACT.

Judging from the enquiries that are being made the exact nature of Mr. Lloyd-George's Insurance Act does not seem to be generally known. While it is difficult without summarizing its principal clauses, to present the details of the measure, it may be said generally that from the date of its coming into effect on May 1, 1912, every employed person, male or female, under 65 years of age but over 16, whether paid by time or piece work or otherwise, will be compulsorily insured, except non-manual workers, such as clerks, earning more than $300 a year, and certain other small classes. Men earning over $3.75 a week, will contribute 3 cents a week, employers 6 cents, and the state 4 cents, forming a weekly premium of 13 cents for each man insured. Women workers will pay two cents a week less, but the employers and state contributions will be the same. If less than $3.75 a week is earned, the workers' contributions will be smaller and the employers' and state proportion larger. For certain trades—for example, domestic and agricultural services—the contributions may be reduced. Provision is also made for voluntary contributors under 45 years of age who join during the first six months, men paying 14 cents and women 12 cents, the state adding 4 cents per week. The contributions will be made by stamps affixed to a card provided for each insured person, the employer being held responsible. No contributions are required during sickness and three weeks arrears due to unemployment are not counted.

The premiums secure the benefit of sick pay of $2.50 a week for a man and $1.75 a week for a woman for 26 weeks; disability pay of $1.25 a week for sickness lasting over six months until death or the age of 70; maternity allowance of $7.50; treatment for consumption for an insured person, his wife and family in state sanatoria and free medical attendance and medicine. Additional benefits can also be obtained in special circumstances and no limitation is placed on other insurances taken out by persons insured under the act. Every man must either become a member of an approved friendly society, trade union or other organization satisfying the specified conditions or be a postoffice deposit contributor, but membership of a society is made much the most advantageous. The postoffice scheme is a temporary expedient and will come to an end on Jan. 1, 1915. Special provision is made for soldiers, sailors, married women and employed persons over 65 years of age. The act also includes a scheme for compulsory insurance against unemployment, which meantime applies only to the building trades, construction of works, shipbuilding, mechanical engineering, ironfoundry, construction of vehicles and sawmilling. Contributions for this insurance are 5 cents a week from the employer, 5 cents from the workman and 3-1-3 cents from the state. The benefit is $1.75 a week for 15 weeks in any 12 months, but not more than one week's benefit can be drawn for every 5 weeks' contributions and no worker is eligible unless he has been insured for at least six months. In this part of the act certain advantages are offered to employers for the purpose of preventing unemployment.

VOTE FOR THE BYLAWS.

Every ratepayer who has the good of Toronto at heart and is anxious to have the city progress in the way that will best secure its future will support all the bylaws submitted to-day except that extending the term of office from one to two years. Of those that ought to be carried the only ones that have met with ill-judged opposition are the Bloor and Parliament-street extension viaducts; the north and south subway and the annexation of North Toronto. Looked at from any dispassionate point of view these proposals are of the utmost advantage. Bloor-street only requires to be linked up with Danforth-avenue to make it the great line of communication east and west. This accomplished, the increase in assessment values that will immediately result will more than meet all the charges its accomplishment entails. It will promote equitable growth, encourage the development of a splendid residential district and redound to the benefit of the whole community.

The subway is necessary for an efficient transportation service to be secured. It is the only method by which the street railway company can be brought to terms and the arguments and statistics offered in its favor have not been answered or controverted. Tubes are necessary now, before they can be constructed the need will be clamant and even their opponents admit that they must come within the next few years. Why then delay their coming into operation at the earliest possible moment and relieve the congestion that now exists and conditions that all admit to be intolerable? Just the same appeal can be made for the annexation of North Toronto. It is inevitable and every consideration makes for its immediate accomplishment. Toronto will secure command of Yonge-street, the main artery north and south, and will be in an infinitely better position to deal with the franchises that have so vital a bearing on the civic services.

What do we want a divorce court in Ontario for, when there are dozens of them in the United States where such matters can easily be arranged without dragging Canadian judges into it?

The Star has not yet apologized for its outrageous fabrication in stating that The World had opposed a candidate for the board of control on political grounds. The Star should leave that sort of thing to The Globe.

The Evening Star declares that a vote against the tubes is a mandate to the Street Railway Company to put more cars on its lines. As The Star has spent columns in proving, and as Manager Fleming affirms, there is no room on the lines for more cars, so that a vote for the tubes is the only way that will help the city to get better street car accommodation.

AN OFFICIAL DENIAL.

Editor World: In an evening paper of Friday, and as if to emphasize it again, on Saturday, appeared a letter signed by Mrs. R. C. Hooper, president of the W.C.T.U. of West Toronto.

Without knowing that lady I should be very sorry to attribute her remarks to deliberate falsifying. It looks rather as she had lent herself to unscrupulous politicians who used her to issue the canon by means of a newspaper. By the exercise of His will He surmounted His glorious condition for the sake of man, and then delivered up His body to man's Christ Jesus in the doing of the divine will, even unto death, that thus "by the grace of God" He might taste death for every man. The most wonderful illustrations of the will thus exercised in the interest of humanity!

But, said the pastor, the most wonderful achievement of the will is seen in self control. The Scriptures say truly, "Greater is he that ruleth his spirit than he that captures a city." (Prov. xvi. 32). The most wonderful illustrations of the will thus exercised he believes are to be found in the cases of Jesus and His footstep followers.

"He who was rich, and became poor." (I. Cor. viii. 9). His will was exercised, not along selfish lines, but in carrying out the great divine program of human redemption. When I note the gentleness and kindness and courtesy of Japanese life in general, I am astonished and wonder little that the ordinary Christian message has not appealed more to your hearts and displaced Shinto worship, for which I understand you have two million and a half million adherents. Sympathetically putting myself in the place of the Japanese, I fancy you saying, "Shall we exchange our simple, unadorned, and putting on the swaggar of the soldiers and sailors and the domineering headiness of the upper classes who come to us?"

Pastor Russell's Sermon

TOKIO, Japan, Dec. 31.—The International Bible Students Committee of seven, for the investigation of Foreign Missions, is here. Pastor Russell, the chairman of the committee, gave two public addresses in one of our principal auditoriums. His had large audiences and keenest attention. We report his discourse on The Power of the Will in the Shaping of Life's Destinies. His text was Christ Jesus xxiv, 15—"Choose ye this day whom ye will serve."

The human will, he pointed out, is the most wonderful power known to man because it has to do with the development and use of every power in nature. The feet, the hands, the eyes, the ears, the tongue, the nose, and all declare and illustrate the mastery of mind over matter.

In our day the human will, also, has been exercised in the most wonderful way. It has taken a higher plane for its exercise, in the conquering of mountains and valleys; in the casting up of high-rises; in the building of bridges and the masterpieces of mechanical engineering which traverse the land and the sea with all the appliances of modern science. It is the human will when thus employed in the interest of humanity!

But, said the pastor, the most wonderful achievement of the will is seen in self control. The Scriptures say truly, "Greater is he that ruleth his spirit than he that captures a city." (Prov. xvi. 32). The most wonderful illustrations of the will thus exercised he believes are to be found in the cases of Jesus and His footstep followers.

"He who was rich, and became poor." (I. Cor. viii. 9). His will was exercised, not along selfish lines, but in carrying out the great divine program of human redemption. By the exercise of His will He surmounted His glorious condition for the sake of man, and then delivered up His body to man's Christ Jesus in the doing of the divine will, even unto death, that thus "by the grace of God" He might taste death for every man. The most wonderful illustrations of the will thus exercised in the interest of humanity!

When I note the gentleness and kindness and courtesy of Japanese life in general, I am astonished and wonder little that the ordinary Christian message has not appealed more to your hearts and displaced Shinto worship, for which I understand you have two million and a half million adherents. Sympathetically putting myself in the place of the Japanese, I fancy you saying, "Shall we exchange our simple, unadorned, and putting on the swaggar of the soldiers and sailors and the domineering headiness of the upper classes who come to us?"

AT OSGOODE HALL

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Monday is a dies non at Osgoode Hall.

Judge's Chambers. Before Middleton, J. Hudson Bay Co. v. Kenora—C. A. Moss, for plaintiff, J. Jennings, for Keewatin Power Co. G. Williams, for Town of Kenora. Motion by plaintiff, and similar motion by Keewatin Power Co. for an order for enforcement of award.

Judgment: The town agreed to pay the amount awarded and interest from the date of the expropriation notice, June 7, 1904, on the amount to be so ascertained. The award was not made until Jan. 23, 1910, and the same awarded in full. Under agreement of the parties, the question of the way in which interest should be computed is to be determined upon a motion to be made on or before Jan. 10, 1912. My answer to the question is that the interest is to be computed as simple interest without a rest.

Trial. Before Falconbridge, C.J. Chief v. Martin—M. Wilson, K.C., for plaintiff, O. A. Lewis, K.C., and W. C. Richards (Chairman) for defendant Dosthee M. Martin, J. M. Pike, K.C., for the other defendants. An action for the construing of the will of B. O. Martin and for a declaration of the estate. The restraint is general and void thereunder, and the said will is void and that Dosthee be compelled to account for the rents, profits etc., from the date of the death of the testator. Judgment: Charges of undue influence were made in the statement of claim, but these were abandoned at the trial. The restraint is general and void, apart from the time limit, and does not become valid on account of the limitation as to time. The duties imposed on Joseph as regards his mother's estate and his mother are mere conditions and no demand of fulfillment was ever made by any of them. There is no gift over in the will. The action is dismissed with costs to be paid by plaintiff to defendant Dosthee. No costs as between plaintiff and the other defendants, who are all in the same interest as plaintiff. Thirty days stay.

Divisional Court. Before Falconbridge, C.J., Britton, J., and Leslie v. Pere Marquette Ry. Co.—R. J. Towers (Sarnia), for defendants, D. L. McCarthy, K.C., for plaintiffs. An appeal from the judgment of the judge in the case of Clute, J., of June 14, 1911. This was an action by plaintiffs, farmers of Township of Moore, County of Lambton, for specific performance of an agreement by defendants, predecessors in title, to give them an undergrade crossing with the proper fences and gates, such as has been maintained since 1858, and to explain that the same was filled in by defendants, for an injunction restraining defendants from interfering with such crossing, for $2000 damages, and a judgment awarding plaintiffs $2000 damages with costs of suit.

Judgment: We are of opinion that the agreement is established. Upon our reading of the evidence, we are of opinion that the Leslies as of opinion underpass and the predecessors of defendants and defendants knew that this pass was being used by the owners and occupiers of the farm, as of right, and the defendants did not attempt to interfere to prevent its use until 1906. Appeal dismissed with costs.

Court of Appeal. Before Garrow, J.A.; MacLaren, J.A.; Meredith, J.A.; Magee, J.A. Toronto Club v. Imperial Trust Co. Toronto Club v. Dominion Bank; Toronto Club v. Imperial Bank—A. Amelin, K.C., for plaintiffs in each case, G. E. Birney for Imperial Bank; L. F. Hellmuth, K.C.; G. F. D. Lee for Dominion Bank; and C. Macdonell, K.C., for Imperial Trusts Co.—Appeals by Toronto Club from the judgment of the chancellor of June 18, 1909, dismissing the actions. These actions were brought by plaintiffs against defendants for the alleged conversion of certain cheques belonging to plaintiffs, and alleged by plaintiffs to have been endorsed and delivered to defendants respectively without any authority by plaintiffs' secretary, or in the alternative to recover the amount of the conversions in each case as assessed by the plaintiffs. The plaintiffs claimed $2719.45 against the Imperial Trust Co., $1553.85 against the Dominion Bank, and $923.85 against the Imperial Bank. Judgment: Plaintiffs' appeal against the Imperial Trust Co. allowed and judgment to be entered in favor of plaintiffs for $523.25 and interest, together with costs of action and appeal, including the costs of the first hearing. Meredith, J.A., dissenting, being of opinion that the appeal should be dismissed. Plaintiffs' appeals against the Dominion Bank and Imperial Bank dismissed with costs, including the costs of first hearing. MacLaren, J.A., dissenting, being of opinion that the appeals should be allowed.

Before Moss, C.J.O.; Garrow, J.A.; MacLaren, J.A.; Meredith, J.A.; Magee, J.A. Sharpe v. White—L. F. Hellmuth, K.C., for defendant; C. A. Moss for plaintiff. An appeal from the judgment of C. J. O. of March 2, 1911, dismissing the appeal from the report of the referee. This was an action to recover $145,000, or for a specific performance of an agreement to buy mining shares, for G. O. Sharpe for breach of an agreement to buy. Judgment was given for plaintiff, referring it to Judge McComin county judge of Ontario, to assess the damages. He assessed the damages at $861,645. Judgment: Appeal dismissed with costs.

Fleming v. Toronto Railway Co.—D. L. McCarthy, K.C., for defendants; H. Gamba, C. for plaintiff. An appeal by defendants from the judgment of Middleton, J., at trial with a jury, on Sept. 27, 1911, awarding plaintiff $1,000 in this action for $3000 damages for injuries received while a passenger in one of defendant company's cars. Judgment: Appeal allowed and new trial directed. Costs of the appeal to be paid by the defendants in any event. Co's of former trial to be costs in the action. Sheahan v. Toronto Railway Co.—D.

Rt. Hon. R. L. Borden.
Right Honorable Robert Laidlaw Borden, D.C.L., K.C., was born at Grand Pre, N.S., 1854. He was educated in Acadia Villa Academy, and after spending a few years in a professional law in Halifax, he was admitted to the Nova Scotia Bar. He was president of the Nova Scotia Barristers' Society for ten years. In 1900 he was created a Q.C. In 1903 Queen's University conferred the degree of LL.D. upon him. His political career began in 1896, when he was elected member of parliament for Halifax. In February, 1901, he was appointed leader of the Conservative opposition, which position was converted into the premiership by the elections in September last.

Sir J. M. Gibson.
The Hon. John Morrison Gibson, M.A., LL.D., K.C., A.D.C., was born in Hallow Township in the year 1842. He received his preliminary education in Hallow Township and graduated from Toronto University in 1862, taking the Prince of Wales prize for classics and modern languages. He studied law at the same institution, and was called to the bar in 1867. After practicing law in Hamilton for some years he entered the political arena in that city, and was elected to the Ontario Legislature in 1879 as a Liberal. In 1882 he became provincial secretary, and in 1886 he was appointed minister of crown lands. In 1899 to 1905 he was attorney-general. He was appointed lieutenant-governor of Ontario in 1906, succeeding Sir Mortimer Clark.
Col. Gibson has been active in many reforms. He has been prominent in military circles being at one time lieutenant-colonel of the 18th Regiment in Hamilton. He has been a grand master of the Masonic Lodge. The lieutenant-governor did not wish to comment on the honor paid to him. "It comes at very odd time," he said, "to-morrow is my 70th birthday. Of course I am rather pleased over the honor, but further than that I really can't say anything."

Sir E. B. Oester.
Edmund Boyd Oester was born in Tecumseh Township, Simcoe County, in 1846. His father was the Rev. F. L. Oester, M.A. He was educated at Dundas Grammar School. He commenced his business career as a clerk in the old Bank of Upper Canada in 1871. He formed a partnership with Sir Henry Pellett as money brokers and financial agents, but this connection was broken in 1882, when Mr. Oester joined H. C. Hammond, his present partner in the same business.
Mr. Oester has always been active in business circles. At one time he was president of the Ontario and Quebec Railway and for years he was a director of the C.P.R. At the present time he is president of the Dominion Bank. In 1893 he ran for the Toronto mayoralty, being defeated by R. J. Fleming. In 1898 he was elected member of parliament for West Toronto, which constituency he still represents.
Mr. Oester is by religion an Anglican. Speaking to The World last night, Mr. Oester could not account for the honor bestowed upon him.
"It is one of those things which come to you and you don't know anything about," he said.

Sir Rodolphe Forget.
Sir Rodolphe Forget was born in Terrebonne, Que., in 1861. He was educated at Masson College at Terrebonne. He took up a business career and soon became prominent in commercial circles. In 1904 he was elected to the Dominion Parliament, where he has sat as a Conservative member ever since.

Sir Joseph Pope.
Sir Joseph Pope was born at Charlottetown, P.E.I., 1854. After attending the Prince of Wales College there he spent some time in a banking business. In 1878 he joined the Canadian civil service, for some time acting as private secretary to his uncle, Hon. J. C. Pope, formerly minister of marine and fisheries at Ottawa. In 1882 he was appointed private secretary to Sir John Macdonald and continued in such up to the statesman's death in 1891. Mr. Pope subsequently held several other positions in the civil service. Of late years he has devoted a large part of his time to literary work, and has published several well-known works on Canadian history. He wrote the "Memoirs of Sir John Macdonald" and in 1896 he was published in two volumes in 1904.

Sir Daniel Prowse.
Daniel Woodley Prowse was born and educated in Newfoundland. His family is one of the oldest in the colony. He studied law and gained prominence in the profession, being finally appointed judge of the central district. BIG WATER MAIN BURSTS RAILWAY YARD FLOODED

Tracks at Foot of John Street Deluged - Chance of the Water Freezing Switches Keeps Railroadmen Hustling - City's Service Not Endangered.

A two-foot main leading from the pumping station at the foot of John street, broke last evening about six o'clock and caused considerable excitement and alarm around the railway yard for some time.

There are several large mains going across at this point, running in diameter from 2 feet to 4 feet and the one that caused all the damage was an old 34-inch main that has served the city for nearly twenty years.

French Invasion Real Vigilance is Necessary Archdeacon Cody Comments on Bilingual Dangers - Is the West Losing its Canadian Character?

"Two serious problems confront Canada," said Archdeacon Cody, in St. Paul's Church Sunday morning, in the course of a survey of the outstanding events of the past year.

Another serious problem was the division existing between the east and the west of Canada. "The other night," Dr. Cody proceeded, "the English language was being used by a representative of the west, and he put before me the problem in this startling fashion: 'People are going into the west by the hundreds of thousands. There are over two million there to-day, and of that number only an infinitesimal minority are east-born Canadians.'"

Back to Dark Ages. The missionary aggression of the Church of Rome in Canada and the insulting enforcement of the Tenure decree was also referred to as the "even more striking" decree of clerical immunity from law courts, which was "the middle age again."

Education in India. Concerning the King's recent boom to India, Dr. Cody hoped that educational reforms in view would not demand purely secular teaching in the schools. Such education, while it de-stroyed idols, gave the native no idea above himself to guide by.

International Peace. The cause of international peace had been discussed as greatly as desired. Germany and Austria had been close to the brink. It was awful to think that nations of the same great stock, and of the same language, should have to settle differences by armed arbitration.

Groceries

What Our Grocery Department Offers for Tuesday and for the Ensuing Year

Before directing your attention specially to tomorrow's items, we would like you to consider what an important proportion of your living expenses is included under the heading "Groceries."

Investments in clothing, in furnishings, etc., are made now and again, but groceries you must buy every week, and you consume constantly. Here, then, is the place to meet the high cost of living.

Experience goes to show that cutting down the quality of the food you eat, or the quantity you need, is very poor economy. The New Year's suggestion we have to offer is that you buy all your groceries at the Simpson Store, and thereby save from twenty-five to thirty-three per cent. of your present outlay.

The saving that goes on day in and day out is what counts, and this is the kind of saving you'll find in our Grocery Department. You'll see nothing here but pure, wholesome foods, sold under ideal sanitary conditions. The service is prompt, whether you shop in person or by phone. These conditions account for the marvelous growth of this department, and certainly should commend it to your attention.

The following values are typical. We would like you to make careful comparisons Tuesday, and see if there is any place in town where groceries of this standard can be bought at such prices.
