SATURDAY TO TELL TALE

Plenipotentiaries Met Yesterday and Japan Offered to Waive Indemaity if Sakhalin is Purchased -Witte Declined the Change of Phraseology and Conference Adjourned.

of Phraseology and Conference Adjourndd.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 22.—The Japanese plenipotentiaries to-day, at the conclusion of the afternoon session of the peace conference, threw the cards upon the table. The protocols involving agreement upon eight of the 12 conditions originally presented by Japan had been signed.

M. Witte sat silent and the move in the great diplomatic game passed to Japan. Baron isomura in a rew words explained that Japan in her great desire for peace was ready to make certain "modifications" of the original articles in the hope that, Russia could find it possible to accept them. He then presented in writing the compromise proposition which President Roosevelt had suggested. It offered to withdraw article 9, providing for the payment by Russia of Japan's bill for the cost of the war, on condition that Russia would accept article 5, which provides for the cession of Sakhalin, so modified as to include an arrangement for the repurchase by Russia of the northern harf of the island for 1,200,000,000 yen. In addition it offered to withdraw articles 11 and 12 (surrender of the interned warships and limitation upon Russia's sea power in the far east).

Without a moment's hesitation M. Witte explained that the modification proposed was merely a sham, a change of phraseology, a diplomatic attempt to "dorer la pitule" and ask Russia to paywar tribute under another name, He could not accept it. He told Baron Komura to withdraw all demands itor have a stored and incovered the shade of the proposity war tribute under another name, He could not accept it. He told Baron Komura to withdraw all demands itor have a stored to the war was fought, but she could fight and money for tribute she would not pay—not a kopeck. He asked Baron Komura to withdraw all demands itor tribute.

James Hartney of the Manitoba immigration bureau returned yesterday from North Bay, where he witnessed the passing thru of five trains from the maritime provinces carrying scme 2316 excursionists to the west. "Nearly every one of them," said Mr. Hartney, "had work to go to and the rest had been offered work, but were laying low for a higher wage, which I have but little doubt that they will get."

Still the reports from the west on the grain situation are as optimistic as they were in the fore part of the season, The Canadian Northern Railway yesterday received their summary from their trained staff, with headquarters in Winnipeg. Harvesting in Manitoba will be general this week, it stated.

Another financial firm with inside information received a leiter which stated that there was but little danger from the light frosts and that harvesting had already started on the light soil. SUCCESSION TAX NOT SO MUCH. 000 by Escaping New Law.

Since the filing of the Gooderham will for probate it has been learned that instead of coming under the new succession duties act of the provincial legislature will be regulated by that formerly in force. The new act became operative May 25, and is not retroactive. This will make a material difference of about $300,000 in favor of the heirs. The total amount to be paid will be in the neighborhood of $465,000.

As it is, the estate can satisfy the succession requirements by paying the full dues now and escape further obligation. CUBAN REALTY CO., LIMITED

Talk No. 4 with E. F. Rutherford of Cuba, who is well and favorably known in Toronto business circles, He says:

"The natural soil for Oranges is at BARTLE, where they grow wild and cultivated, the finest I ever tasted. 20 acres in Oranges, Pineapples and Vegetables at BARTLE should give an independent income for life, and the orange grove will increase in value to from $500 to $1000 per acre at Bartle. Buy land to-day in Eastern Cuba, the new country opened up by Sir William Van Horne's railway, which runs trains several times daily through Bartle. All the Cuban Realty Co.'s land is first-class for Oranges, Fruit, Sugar and Vegetables. I have samples of the soil from Bartle here with me. It never bakes and has perfect natural drainage. At Havana I have met many land seekers and settlers from Bartle and other Cuban colonies, and never saw or heard of one who was not delighted with Bartle after inspection. Mr. T. T. Millikin of Weston went to Bartle some weeks ago. He writes that summer weather there is delightful. He eats, drinks and sleeps better than for years. He has written advising friends that he has bought land and settled at Bartle and to come along and make money. Mr. Bearman's saw mill is to-day manufacturing the finest quality of lumber at Bartle, and building, clearing and planting operations are in full blast."

Call and talk to E. F. Rutherford if you want to make money. He is a well known Canadian who settled in Cuba and traveled it thoroughly. Cuba is a good place to make money, but get good, new, fertile soil on the line of transportation in Eastern Cuba. We have sold land to many. We have never had a complaint nor a disappointed buyer.

$25 per acre is the price for a limited time. Write for literature or call.

Some Instances of the Way Mining Lands in New Ontario Have Been Successfully Tied Up.

Ninth Letter. Massey, Aug. 23.—(Staff Special)—Ar extensive trip thru the mining sec ions of New Ontario makes it clear that a bitter feeling has for years been growing up between the mining men and the holders of timber limits. The miners are emphatic in their assertions that the late government was owned body and soui by the lumberowned body and soul by the lumbermen, Many cases are cited that prove that the authorities certainly at times took a more than paternal interest in the lumber industry. To the ordinary mind it is difficult to see why the two industries cannot work together harmoniously. In the State of Wisconsin both mining and lumbering operations are extensively carried on. There they work side by side. It is said that the lumbermen welcome the arrival of miners and the opening of a mining camp, for it means a certain iming camp, for it means a certain in nenace to the timber limit, as it in provement in the roads.

An objection is raised to the prospector that his advent is a constant creases the possibility of forest fires. The miner denies this and asserts that there is no more danger of fires from rce than there is from sum camps. To prove this he quotes the statistics of British. Columbia—as to bush fires. The number of fires there is much less than in New Ontario where the prospector has been denied entrance to so much of the country. There were about 20 horses on sale at the Union Stock Yards. Mr. Hedgson, the manager, offered several by auction, none of which were sold under the hammer. But immediately after the horses were withdrawn from auction several sales were made privately, amongst which were two heavy draught teams of work borses, that sold at $400 and $375, respectively.

Mr. Hodgson stated that private sales were heing made daily, and that he would have another carload of horses in a few days, that were being shipped to h'm by Mr. McKinnen of Lucknow. The team of dapple greys that sold for $400 were a handsome pair.

obtruded its ghostly presence into the board of control meeting yesterday. Controller Shaw was directly responsible. Individually the onus rested upon a communication from the government expressing willingness to pay the cost of pavements on Gould, Victoria and Gerrard-streets, which led the cantroller to make a rather irrelethe cantroller to make a rather irrelevant remark touching the government's share in the blame for the continued illusoriness of the bridge.

Controller Shaw suggested that the city construct the bridge and under take to collect the cost later. The mayor, however, saw the danger of the city's case being prejudiced. He thought the matter was greatly misunderstood. The government had ordered construction, but the railways had gotten the bridge into a legal tangle. The privy council would pass upon the case next month and in the tangle. The privy council would pass upon the case next month and in the meantime the people's money should not be voted away.

The controller persisted that the city should go ahead and the mayor hinted darkly at designs on his part to exempt the railways from cost. The controller retorted that the mayor had given even such an impression by his own actions and the tilt ended with honors easy.

Mr. Rust Suggests Subway. The level crossing agitation, while it may not have the effect of remedy-ing existing evils for a time, will likely have the good effect of checking the increase in the numbers of the deadly level crossing.

This was the communication from City Engineer Rust in reference to the extension of street railway tracks acress the C. P. R. tracks on Yonge-

"I conclude it is proposed to cross the C. P. R. tracks at grade, which I do not consider advisable. We have had one or two accidents in this city on account of street railway tracks crossing steam roads at grade, and I am not in favor of further aggravating danger by recommending the extension. If the board of railway commissioners gave their consent. which is doubtful, they would probably order that an ininterlocking crossing be constructed which would cost between $5000 and $6000, and if the city made the recommendation the company would expect us to pay for the same. I would strong-ly advise your board that no more grade crossings be established in connection with the street railway system but suggest that steps be taken to construct either a bridge or a subway a this point. There is a great deal of traffic here at present, and there is no doubt it will constantly be increasing."

May Go to Commission The mayor and Controller Hubbard showed sympathy with the danger eli-mination idea, but the former express-ed a doubt as to whether the city would apply to have street railway tracks cross those of the steam railway. Controller Shaw objected that the subway or bridge would depreciate the value of property round about, while Controller Ward was pessimistic as to the city's presents of making as to the city's prospects of making the railways pay. It was thought that the city might look for support to the railway commission, but in the mean-time a report will be had from the city solicitor as to the city's right to asl for track extension.

Mr. Chisholm will have another brace of grievances to give an opinion on, both arrising out of the specification for lighting tenders-The city solicitor will report upon Controller Hubbard's proposition that the city set up its own poles and upon the point raised by the mayor whether they had a right to order the G. N. W. to lay its wires underground.
