ONE THIRD OF ALL SCHOOL CHILDREN ARE DEFECTIVE

Report of Medical Commission Contains an Astounding Revelation—Deduction is That All Districts Suffer Under Same Conditions as New York

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The re-opening of the public schools throughout the country is to be the occasion of a report on the physical condition of school children, by a committee of prominent educationalists, headed by Chairman Burlington, former President of the New York Board of Education. The inquiry has taken a wide scope and the observations apply not only to the school children of New York, but also to those of Boston, Chicago, and other cities. In general, the report shows that about one-third of all the school children in the United States are behind their proper grade because of physical defects that could be remedied. A synopsis of the report says in part:—Based on the physical defects and home conditions of 4,000 school children of New York City, it is estimated that 12,000,000 of the children of the United States have physical defects more or less which should receive attention from parents and physicians. If the percentages recorded by the board of health should be maintained throughout the country (and it seems likely that they would be as adenoids and impaired vision, malnutrition and defective breathing are found in rural as well as urban schools) there must be 1,400,000 ill-nourished children, 1,400,000 enlarged glands and 4,500,000 with defective breathing in the United States. In New York City the estimated figures are: Malnutrition 45,000; enlarged glands 187,000; and defective breathing 230,800. "The large percentage of the defects indicated are easily remedied and many could be prevented by proper care, though except in the case of defective vision, the cases are not always easily determined."

WHALE FISHING IS STILL A SOURCE OF REVENUE

New Bedford Captain Brings a Record Cargo—Prospects are Good for Future Profits.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Sept. 8.—Interest in the whale fishery, on which the reputation and wealth of this city was based a generation ago, has been revived within the past few weeks by renewed activity in that line. Within the brief space of ten days three vessels have sailed from this port for the whaling grounds and on Tuesday there arrived in port the whaling brig Sullivan, which returned from a twenty-seven month cruise with one of the largest catches ever taken by a New Bedford ship. While the whale fishery probably will never in the future reach the proportion it attained thirty years ago, nevertheless New Bedford is still the principal whaling port in the world, and the price of whalebone and whale oil continues to be fixed by the New Bedford market.

One of the features of the Old World whale celebration in this city was a departure on Tuesday from the whaling grounds in the north and south Atlantic of the bark Bertha, and Josephine, both of which have been engaged in the whale fishery for many years.

On Thursday last the schooner Margaret, originally built for the Gloucester fishing fleet, sailed for the south Atlantic ocean on a whaling cruise. The Margaret is owned in Norwich, Conn., and is commanded by Capt. Ernest Church, of Montville, Conn., while James W. Biddington, of Grotton, Conn., is first mate. Captain Church and Mate Biddington are old time whaling men, though both of them have been living in retirement for years. The prospects of a profitable voyage at the present time were alluring and the old whaling men decided to take one more voyage in pursuit of the great deep sea animal.

The belief that whales are scarce was exploded when the Brig Sullivan arrived here Tuesday from the north and south Atlantic. Capt. Hegarty, commander of the Sullivan, said that in all his whaling experience he never saw so many whales as on the voyage just ended. The Sullivan's catch for the entire voyage was 2,300 barrels of oil. A record for whale fishing was established when whales yielding 375 barrels of oil were taken in five days. So fast did the whales come during those five days that there were at one time more than 300 barrels of oil on the deck.

Captain Hegarty said that whales were sighted 109 times on the voyage and 85 of the monsters were captured. In sixty days whales were sighted 12 times and during that entire time there was "oil alongside and blubber on the deck." The Sullivan carried a crew of thirty-five men, all of whom will benefit materially by the results of the remarkable catch.

TRAGEDY CONFIRMED BY FINDING OF WOMAN'S BODY

Three Persons Probably Were Drowned While Boating Near Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 8.—The finding of the corpse of Gertrude Shaunesey, aged 19 years, in the waters of Spring Gardens, a branch of the Patuxent River, yesterday, has convinced the police that her three companions have also been drowned. She was last seen after midnight on Friday with another woman whose name is not known to the police, and George F. Frissell and William O'Leary. The two men have not been seen by their relatives since they left home Friday afternoon. The two couples were seen at a shore resort late on Friday night and afterwards are said to have entered a rowboat. A waterlogged boat was found in Spring Gardens and later the body of the woman. The dead woman is said to have been a native of Harrisburg, Pa.

BISHOP WILBERFORCE DIED THIS MORNING

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Bishop of Chester, the Right Rev. Ernest Ronald Wilberforce, D. D., died today at Henbridge, Isle of Wight. He was born in 1840 and was a son of the late Right Rev. Samuel Wilberforce, Bishop of Winchester.

RICH HARVEST FROM AMERICAN TOURISTS WHO VISIT LONDON

Season Just Ending Was Record One in British Capital.

All Classes Benefited by the Gold-Bearing Invasion of Pleasure-Hunting Yankees.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—This year's American season in London has been every way a record one, and the hotels and shopkeepers have benefited enormously by the rush of visitors from the other side of the Atlantic. Not so very many years ago the West End tradesmen took next to nothing during the months when society went out of town. Business was practically stagnant until the mansions in the West End pulled up the blinds and opened the shutters and society returned.

Today things are different. The peaceful invasion of American pleasure-seekers has enveloped London with a second season. Everybody benefits by them, from the diamond merchant in Bond street to the cabman plying for hire. London is recognized as the market place of the Americans, and London has been astute enough to cater especially for Americans during their season. Everything is done to provide for them, as if they were a home town. The restaurants have found out the virtue of ice water and soda fountains, and even the chemist contributes his quota to their comfort by stocking chewing gum. The result is satisfactory to all parties.

HARVEST FOR HOTELS

Indulges made yesterday among the tourist companies, hotels and steamship lines show that something like 60,000 Americans have visited London this year. Some remain for a brief five days, others dwell here for a longer period, but the hotels, large and small, and the boarding houses of Bloomsbury and Baywater have been held by the invading Americans since March.

Between them these 60,000 Americans have spent about $7,500,000, chiefly in London. This calculation is based on figures supplied by one of the largest hotels, which alone has housed 6,000 Americans since March, and the average hotel bill of each visitor is $250. There are at least five hotels which can give similar figures, and if the average American spends $125 in London, the hotels and boarding houses of London will have received $7,500,000. Some of course, spend next to nothing and live in boarding houses for 10 to 20 weeks, but others spend hundreds, or even thousands, of dollars on jewelry and other luxuries.

Go where you will in London, at this period, you will hear nothing but grateful recognition of American custom. "Americans come to London for the specific purpose of buying," said a West End tailor without seeing the end of their coming. Many of them come with half-empty trunks, and buy a complete outfit of socks, ties, collars, shirts, suits of clothes and hats. I have been kept busy with orders for lounge suits and frock coats as a time when business is at a standstill as far as my regular customers are concerned."

NO SLACK SEASON.

"They will have flowers," said a florist. "It might shut up shop, for all the best London customers are out of town, but the American visitors keep things going. These roses that you see here," pointing to a magnificent bunch of pink roses, "are sold to an American wealthy customer. Roses are their favorite flower."

The American visitors have staved off disaster from the river this year. The weather matters nothing to them. To come to London without seeing the river would be a wasted journey, and so, even though the visitors equip themselves with mackintoshes and umbrellas for their river trip, the Thames bottom reaps the benefit. The hotels and boarding houses get far the largest share of the $7,500,000 which American travelers leave behind when in London. Next comes the antique dealers. For America is particularly keen on old china and Sheffield plate, and will pay almost any price for a fabled object. Then follow the tailors, the haberdashers, the hatters, the jewelers and the miscellaneous traders.

LONGWORTH SAYS THAT ROOSEVELT WILL NOT RUN

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—A special from Honolulu to the American quotes Congressman Longworth, who has just sailed from that port for San Francisco as saying:—"President Roosevelt will not become a candidate for re-nomination unless the entire country demands it. He has firmly made up his mind to stick to this course and only a more widespread demand for him to accept the nomination will alter his determination."

FATHER GAYNOR'S PLANS ARE STILL UNCERTAIN

THE BUBONIC PLAGUE IN SAN FRANCISCO

Rats, Troubled With Fleas, Carry the Disease—Steps Taken to Check the Spread.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—One additional case of bubonic plague was charted yesterday by the board of health, and four more suspected cases have been isolated and are under observation. The board has authorized the erection of a temporary hospital camp at Ingleside. Thence the 75 inmates of the city and county hospital will be removed and the hospital buildings, old frame structures long ago condemned, will probably be burned. The board, at a meeting attended by President Regensberger, of the state board of health, and Col. Austin, of the marine hospital service, adopted a report of the plague situation prepared by Health Officer Watkins. It says:—"There exists today no doubt of the cause of the so-called bubonic plague, nor of the means by which it may be eradicated. Wherever international commerce exists in proportion to the volume of that commerce, the rat and the disease of the rat, one of which is plague, are bound to appear. There are said to be some five varieties of rat flea of which two will bite men. The plague bacillus is transmitted by the flea, having lived for many years on the rat. Other modes of infection exist, but are very much less frequent."

LIVED THIRTEEN YEARS WITHIN BATH TUB

Kept Continually in Water of High Temperature Man Passed Away His Days.

BERLIN, Sept. 7.—A stone mason named Ferdinand Schlimme died yesterday in the public hospital at Brunswick, having lived for nearly thirteen years in water.

In November, 1894, Schlimme, who was then 29 years old, fell from a tree, injuring his spine seriously; practically his backbone was broken and his spinal cord crushed. In consequence of these injuries the lower portion of his body was paralyzed and certain internal organs were prevented from performing their usual functions. In order to save his life the physicians ordered him a permanent bath, in which he has since resided, his body supported on cleverly contrived rests. The water was kept at a temperature of 94 Fahrenheit, and immersed in the water Schlimme felt little or no pain. In a short time he was able to do basket and wire work and make cages, etc. He also bred canaries in large numbers, and displayed such ingenuity that articles he made were eagerly sought after and fetched high prices.

AUSTRALIAN SERVANTS DEMAND "TIME OFF"

Object to be at Beck and Call of Mistresses Night and Day.

MELBOURNE, Sept. 7.—The combination of domestic servants and "lady helps" in New Zealand to take advantage of the local condition has grown in strength, and now the Domestic Workers' Union of Wellington is a power to be reckoned with. It is busy distributing circulars from house to house in all the principal towns calling upon all domestic servants, "generals" and lady helps to support the union. Applications have been made to the Arbitration Court for an award, and a conference between several leading employers and representatives of the servants has been held. Little trouble has been experienced at the conference over wages. The great bone of contention has been the "time off." As matters stand, it is, of course, at the discretion of a mistress when and at what hours duties shall be performed. The New Zealand servants claim that they should have a certain "time off" every day, not necessarily time to get out of the house, but free time. It is contended that a servant ought not to be at the beck and call of her mistress night and day.

FRENCH ENGINEER LOSES HIS TRAIN

Amazing Incident Occurs to the Paris Express on the Western Railway.

PARIS, Sept. 7.—An amusing incident occurred on the Western Railway at Lorient this morning. The Paris express stops at this station to drop a postoffice van which is stunted on a siding to be attached to the local train for Rennes. This had been done as usual, but before the rest of the train could be joined up again, the driver thought he heard the signal to start, and went off with nothing but two first class carriages attached to his engine. The whistles of the station officials and the yells of the disappointed passengers left behind had no effect.

Half an hour later the engine steamed into Quimper. The stationmaster, who had been advised by telegraph, planted himself in front of the engine and with difficulty controlling his features, asked the driver "where his train was." "My train, why it's here, of course," was the reply. "Here or elsewhere? You have lost it on your way," retorted the stationmaster. When the driver got down and saw what a light load he had been pulling he was naturally dumfounded. A reward is offered by Gibbon & Co. for the return of the books taken with the safe from their Charlotte street office. 9-9-1

He Will Take Action Against Those Who Spread the Reports of His Defalcation—Not Settled Yet as to What Will be Done in the Other Matters

Rev. William C. Gaynor who is now staying at Spruce Lake, has been degraded by his lordship Bishop Casey and suspended from all clerical functions.

In conversation with the Star this morning, Father Gaynor said he felt very keenly over the reports that had been spread about him. He said he was most worried over the reports concerning his alleged defalcation with considerable sums of money. He claimed there was absolutely no truth in these charges and that he has placed the whole matter in the hands of his lawyers Messrs. Hanington, Teed and Hanington. It is on this point that Father Gaynor will take action against the persons spreading the charges, but he does not know yet what action he will take against the persons responsible for the spread of the other rumor against him. Father Gaynor said that he had been spending his vacation in Presque Isle, and was astounded when he read of the charges against him in the newspapers. He left that he had labored long and well in St. John and the ingratitude underlying the charges hurt him keenly.

MURDERER OF BROTHER SLAIN BY HIS BROTHERS

Terrible Vengeance Decried by the Mafia and Executed by the Victim's Kin.

PALERMO, Sept. 7.—The Sicilian newspapers recount a monstrous deed of vengeance executed by the Mafia in the province of Cattanzaruta. Early in the present year the corpse of Michael Volo, a noted cattle robber, was by chance discovered murdered and flung into a well. The Mafia, who were openly accused him of having murdered Michael's brother, who was the woman's aid, the police had to drop the case through insufficiency of evidence.

The three brothers of Luigi Volo thereupon had recourse to the Mafia, and the Mafia, to which they denounced Luigi as guilty of fratricide, and espionage on behalf of the police. The Mafia decreed Luigi's death, and told off an associate named Davola to decoy the condemned man to a lonely cottage beside the River Salso.

There the three brothers awaited Luigi, whom they bound hand and foot and blindfolded, and led him out upon the terrace to die. After riddling the body with shots the brothers pierced it all over with their daggers, and then bore it away to a sequestered nook in a forest, where a delegation of the Mafia joined them at twilight to assist in the solemn ceremony of cremation of the corpse. The police are on track of the outrage.

SPORTING MATTERS PALMA TROPHY WRESTLED FROM BRITAIN BY UNITED STATES. Canada Was Second—Americans Made the Phenomenal Score of 1712 Out of a Possible 1800, the Highest Ever Known—Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Col. Sam Hughes Exchanged Compliments a Dinner—Latter Praised Sir Frederick Borden.

OTTAWA, Sept. 7.—The United States captured the Palma trophy on Rockcliffe Range today by the phenomenal score of 1712 out of a possible 1800. This beats all previous records. Canada scored second with 1671, Australia third with 1563 and Britain 1558. The shooting of the United States team averaged 214 to a man, thus beating the world's record either with a service or match rifle. Bryant's score of 74 out of 75 at the 1000 yard range also beats the world's record. The scores are as follows: at the three ranges: Team 800 900 1,000 Tot. United States... 690 573 649 1712 Canada... 596 554 521 1671 Australia... 479 523 561 1563 Great Britain... 551 526 503 1558

The individual scores of the United States and Canada, the next in order, were: American team—Winder, 217; Tewes, 215; Hurlon, 215; Orr, 206; Semon, 207; Benedict, 215; Casey, 215; Bryant, 219. Total, 1712. Canada—McInnis, 212; Russell, 212; Smith, 207; McHarg, 202; Graham, 214; Kelly, 211; Skodden, 206; Richardson, 207. Total, 1671. The Governor General Lord Grey presented the trophy to the winning team. After the Palma trophy match a dinner was given in the main D. R. A. Building at the range. Col. Sam Hughes presided. Sir Wilfrid Laurier was on his feet.

In proposing a toast to the Parliament of Canada, Col. Sam Hughes said that although not a political supporter of the prime minister, he was glad to be able to say that Sir Wilfrid stood shoulder to shoulder with them in everything that tended to the betterment of rifle shooting in Canada. In replying, Sir Wilfrid said that he appreciated these remarks all the more as they came from his old friend, Col. Sam Hughes. He was not sure that the colonel would agree with him, but he could not help saying it all the same, that Colonel Sam was a far better warrior than a politician. Sir Wilfrid believed more in a citizen army than in a force of regulars. He trusted Canada would never be called upon to employ either, but he would like to express the hope that if that day did come, England and the United States and all the forces of the Anglo-Saxon race would be allied.

All Found the Target. The American team finished first, with a score of 1,550, thus beating the record made by the British team in Canada the year before by 11 points. Great Britain vs second with 1,555; Canada, 1,518; Australia, 1,501; Natal, 1,399; Norway, 1,241; and France, 1,229. This match was marked by an absence of misses on the part of any member of the American or British teams. Every shot fired by them struck the target. After the American team had returned to the United States a controversy arose concerning the barrels used by them. These barrels while of the service type, were of private make, and should have been authenticated by the United States military authorities. This was not done, and technically the American riflemen were in the wrong. This error was acknowledged by the return of the trophy to the National Rifle Association of Great Britain. It had remained in their possession since that time, no other contest having been arranged until this year.

Conditions. The rules governing the competitions are that each competitor shall use the rifle and the sights used in active service in his own country, and any suitable ammunition. Firing will take place at 800, 500 and 1,000 yards ranges, seven rounds for each.

C. were being communicated with with a view of having the M.P.A.A.A. endorsement accepted as sufficient for entries for the Maritime Provinces. It was stated that applications from St. John for the reinstatement of H. ST. JOSEPH'S TURNED TABLES ON MARATHONS ON SATURDAY BY WINNING SECOND GAME, 7 TO 3

On Saturday afternoon St. Joseph's turned the tables on the Marathons in the series for the city baseball championship, winning out by the score of 7 to 3. The result of the games so far is on all and it will require another meeting between them before the championship is settled. Score and Summary: St. Joseph's, AB. R. H. PO. A. E. LONGBOAT RAN AWAY FROM MARSH

Hotel Man Excluded Public for Judge Before Whom the Prosecution Resulting May Come. TORONTO, Sept. 8.—At Hamilton on Saturday Longboat ran John D. Marsh of Winnipeg to a standstill in a five mile race, the Indian finishing in 26.49, while Marsh stopped about the end of the fourth mile, and although he started again did not finish. The Toronto exhibition will have a surplus of ten thousand dollars. When Judge McIntyre held court at Uppergrove a local hotel keeper named McNulty reserved a dining room for the judge and lawyers and barred the general public out. One well known resident came in with his daughter and demanded admittance, which was refused, so he prosecuted McNulty for neglecting to provide adequate accommodation for his guests. Two justices of the peace convicted McNulty, and he promptly appealed the case, which would bring it in due course before Judge McIntyre, but he will probably refuse to try it.

On Wednesday morning 100 geese arrived in this city from J. P. Trenton, Point du Chen, for shipment to Boston. The geese were in crates and had apparently had some hard usage. Eight of the birds were found dead, while others were badly bruised, and one had its leg broken. Mr. Lee of the Eastern Steamship Company procured some food and water for them, but did not bother any more with them, thinking that they would go on the morning, however, they were still on the wharf. A policeman notified Secretary Wetmore of the S. P. C. A. of this fact, and upon arriving he ordered the crates opened and had the geese fed and watered. He has not yet decided what action he will take.

A boom has been predicted for St. John for a number of years, and finally seems to have struck here. This is evidenced by the fact that during the present year nearly a half million of dollars is being spent in the erection of new buildings. These buildings include residences, philanthropic institutions and business houses. The two buildings, however, which are causing the most interest are the Royal Bank the cost of which will be about $125,000, and the new Y. M. C. A., which will cost $60,000. Tenders for the new Seaman's Mission house have also been asked for. A new four-sided building is being erected at York Point. Messrs. last century, have been attended with loss of life. "It is stated that when the vessel went down there was built on board to the value of $200,000, but so far only $50,000 has been recovered, and we are now going to try to recover the remainder. "Unfortunately the weather handicaps us considerably, and during the whole of this year we have not had one really favorable day. As can be easily imagined, when the sea is rough the work is very difficult to carry out, and on one occasion when an attempt was being made with the aid of a diving bell, the waves almost overturned it.

SUBMARINE TO HUNT FOR SUNKEN TREASURE

American invention Utilized in Effort to Recover Bulion of Lost Warship. LONDON, Sept. 7.—The latest American invention is a submarine for salvaging wrecks, and it will be used in an attempt to salvage H. M. S. Lutwidge, which was wrecked off Torshelling Island, on the coast of Holland, in 1729. "The submarine is fitted with a special internal apparatus," said J. Gardner Flood, who will be engaged in this work, "it has regulators, by the aid of which the operator can control the pressure of the air inside, and so make it the same as that of the water. The bottom can then be opened with perfect safety, and the wreck examined with ease. "SURE OF SUCCESS. "I have just returned from the wreck and I think that we shall be successful in our efforts. It is well marked, and is guarded by the local authorities. "There are, naturally, many difficulties to be overcome, one of the greatest being the continual shifting of the sand around the vessel. At some times the wreck is completely covered, and then our work is twice as hard. "The Lutwidge now lies right in the center of a number of dangerous sandbanks, and some of the operations, which have been frequent during the

IT MIGHT BE WORSE.

Fate is a queer thing after all. Humanity is shocked almost every day by the published records of tragedies, mistakenly called accidents, and by other incidents involving great loss of life or property. Scarcely an hour passes without bringing sadness and death to some. But when we come to think of it, there is much to be thankful for in all those things which do not happen, or in the fact that some slight variations which do not take place would have brought about much more serious results. The Quebec bridge disaster could just as well have happened when the full force of men were at work, and the loss of life would have been much heavier. But it occurred at the close of the day when a good many employees had started for their homes. A wreck took place on the Held Highway in Newfoundland last week by which the fireman was fatally injured. This was the only casualty. The train was derailed in a swamp. Had it left the track a few yards further on, it would have plunged over a steep embankment, and so death brought death to many of those on board. Why should this train have met with the mishap in such a favorable spot; why not have gone along until the embankment was reached? Why did not the Quebec bridge find its weakness an hour earlier? Incidents like this are so even in everyday life that we scarcely ever notice them. We shudder at the fatalities which occur, but feel no gratitude for what we escape.

AN EMPIRE BUILDER.

Sir Robert Hart, who, perhaps, has done more for the Chinese empire than any man living or dead, is about to retire from the position of director general of the customs. What Lord Cromer has been to Egypt, Sir Robert Hart has been to China, with this difference that the one was supported by the power of Great Britain while the other depended on the whims of the volatile Chinese character. Yet Sir Robert Hart by his far-seeing statesmanship has brought China from a condition of chaos, and started her on the road which if followed will lead to commercial prosperity. He has spent practically all his life in the eastern empire. As secretary of the commission of allies which met in Canton in 1858 he received his first experience in that country, and in the following year accepted the office of deputy commissioner in the customs service. When advanced in 1883 to the post of inspector general he reorganized the whole service on modern lines, and continued so to introduce reforms that in 1901 he was made director general of the customs both maritime and inland. He has practically created the whole department, has been the great link between China and the western nations, and has been the promoter of every commercial treaty which has been carried into effect.

In addition to giving China a tariff Sir Robert Hart has found time for other matters outside his direct sphere of influence. He is known as the man who put an end to piracy in the Chinese seas by equipping a fleet of steamers and carrying on a relentless fight against the marauders. He established along the entire coast a light-house system equal to any in that hemisphere and in addition has outlined plans of development for harbors. He has practically created the whole postal system previously unknown. Sir Robert Hart was in 1885 offered the position of British minister to Peking but declined this honor. He is now retiring because of poor health, and will spend the remainder of his life in his old home in Ireland.

The fact that those who participated in the riot at Prince of Wales on Sunday were ignorant Italians and were under the influence of liquor, must not interfere with the swift meeting out of justice. These foreigners are to be taught that law must be observed.

That Rev. W. C. Gaynor, for so long an honored and esteemed clergyman and leader along the lines of literary and historical research in St. John, will be able to clearly disprove all that has been said of him, will be the earnest hope of his many friends.

It will be refreshing to some day pick up a newspaper which does not contain a paragraph to the effect that the Newfoundland fisheries question is still in dispute. The settlement will be a great relief to readers.

As yet there is nothing to indicate that the Palma Trophy was not fairly won by the United States team. The last time the cup was carried across the border it was accompanied by a protest that the rifles used by the winners were not in accordance with the cup conditions. This protest was sustained and the cup returned to the owners. British sportsmen can lose like sportsmen to a worthy competitor, but do not enjoy the knowledge that unfairness entered the contest.

The fact that New Brunswick men failed to win in any of the finals of the M. P. A. A. championships, is strong proof of the fact that Nova Scotia and P. E. Island possess many highly qualified athletes.

BACK TO TOWN.

When the Summer days are drawing to a close, And the Golden Blow—the Autumn's early rose— Vives no more the landscape with its flashing saffron crown, Oh! 'tis jolly, then, to hurry back to town!

When the shadows gather earlier on the hills, And the night falls laden with mysterious chills, And the trees send solemn whispers through the leaves now bronzed and brown, Oh! 'tis jolly, then, to hurry back to town!

When the very gayest flower of hem is spent, And its intense purple, like a sacrament, Wreathes no longer o'er the Intel, flaming color all around, Oh! 'tis jolly, then, to hurry back to town!

When the very eyeest flower of them all— Brilliant, poppy, echo of the wild wood's call— Flaunts no more great depths of crimson blasing through its dashing gown, Oh! 'tis jolly then to hurry back to town!

When you've danced and rowed and flirted and you've sung Till the idle Summer days with music ring, And the heart has grown so hungry for the one man—he's in town!— Oh! 'tis jolly then to hurry back to town!

JOACHIM.

How oft his vibrant bow now laid supine— Mighty interpreter of the lords of sound— Hath caught the dust-drift of our daily round, And damped it into many forms divine, Making the dull seem dear, the common fine, And our dead thoughts within to leap and bound With intricate phantasies lost as soon as found, And statuettes left the doorway of God's shrine!

Selfless and sacrosanct he held his aim Unwavering, true as needle to the star, For his initiate car long dead to fame, And ever rapt from earth's discordant din, The temple of music hung her doors ajar, O, who can grieve that he hath entered in?

HELPED UPSTAIRS.

A good Samaritan passing an apartment in the small hours of the morning (says Everybody's Magazine) noticed a man leaning limply against the doorway.

"What's the matter?" he asked. "Drunk!" "Do you live in that house?" "Yes."

"Do you want me to help you upstairs?" "Yes." "With much difficulty he half dragged half carried the drooping figure up the stairway to the second floor.

"What floor do you live on?" he asked. "Is this it?" "Yes."

Neither than face an irate wife who might perhaps, take him for a companion, more at fault than her spouse, he opened the first door he came to, and pushed the limp figure in.

The good Samaritan groped his way downstairs again, as he was passing through the vestibule he was able to make out the dim outlines of another man, apparently in worse condition than the first one.

"What's the matter?" he asked. "Are you drunk too?" "Yes," was the feeble reply. "Do you live in this house too?" "Yes."

"Shall I help you upstairs?" "Yes." The good Samaritan pushed, pulled, and carried him to the second floor, where this man said he also lived. He opened the same door and pushed him in.

As he again reached the front door he discerned the shadow of a third man evidently worse off than either of the other two. He was about to approach him, when the object of his soliloquy lurched out into the street and threw himself into the arms of a passing policeman.

"For Heaven's sake, officer," he gasped, "protect me from that man. He's done nothin' all night long but carry me upstairs 'n throw me down th' elevator shaft."

SPAIN IS PAYING MORE ATTENTION TO HER NAVY

Finances of the Country Have Greatly Improved Since the War—Changes Made in the System of Taxation—Public Works Favored.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The desire and assumed intention of Spain to restore the navy which was lost in her tragic encounter with America, is of considerable interest as contracts for Spanish warships are to be placed in this country. In the circumstances, and more especially when the critical condition of affairs in Morocco is borne in mind, it is of interest to see how the finances of the country now stand. The present Minister of Finance, Senor Omsa, seems bent upon following the prudent policy of his predecessors, the objects of which have been retrenchment and reorganization. Since the war, taxation has been reorganized in order to meet the additional burdens of debt thrown upon the country. Senor Villaverde cut down naval and military expenditure while he increased the expenditures for public works, education and other "utilities" which had previously been neglected. This policy showed at the end of the fiscal year of 1906 a total excess revenue over eight years of about $100,000,000, which was applied to the liquidation of debt. Senor Omsa, in his recent budget (not yet voted on in the House of Deputies), estimates for a revenue of $208,335,995 and an expenditure of $202,275,810, which last marks an increase of $1,438,225 on last year. The expenditure on administration and the army has been cut down but there is an increase of $2,000,000 on last year's estimates which is not surprising in view of the revival of the naval policy of Spain, although it is not in accordance with the financial policy inaugurated by the late Senor Villaverde. On the other hand, reductions are estimated under public works and administration. The budget estimates are not necessarily the actual expenditure of the fiscal year, because the latter is supplemented by notes without much difficulty, but such as they are we must take the estimates as indicating the situation. The revenue is to be obtained in these proportions: $39,246,010 from direct taxation, $71,740,000 from indirect taxation, $36,044,200 from monopolies and services by the State, $201,400 from the sale of concessions and $419,165 from Treasury resources. Last year the revenue from all these sources was $185,852,220, but a falling off has to be reckoned with this year in all the sections except the Treasury resources. It is estimated, for instance, that there will be a decrease of $9,000,000 in the imports of breadstuffs and one of $3,000,000 in excise in consequence of the suppression of taxes on wines of 16 degrees in the large towns, in the land tax, the death duties, and the State lottery. The government are proposing to the Cortes a new set of taxes which will fall mainly on the richer classes as they include imposts on carriages, clubs, gas, electricity, high grades wines and liquors and on Cedula. Against these new taxes it is now proposed to abolish everywhere in the large towns only, the excise duty on all wines below 16 degrees alcoholic strength. It is supposed that the government intends gradually to suppress entirely the octroi duties in Spain, but the time for this step is not yet. Senor Omsa, however, proposes a modification of the duties on alcoholic liquors in order to benefit the vine-growers and trade. But, unfortunately, he also proposes to make up the gaps and improve the revenue by duties on ores and sugar, and also by increasing the income tax charged on joint stock companies. But whatever items in the budget may invite adverse criticism, there is no room for doubt that the financial policy of Spain has vastly improved since the war.

INJUSTICE SHOWN BY THE COURTS IN INDIA

Hindus Distrest Magistrates, and With Good Reason, According to Findings of the Supreme Court. CALCUTTA, Sept. 7.—The High Court here recently delivered a sensational judgment upon the appeal of a Hindu who was sentenced to death by the Sessions Judge for the murder of a Mohammedan during the riot in Allahabad last year. The High Court criticized severely the decision of the judge in the lower court, and commented upon the manner in which the evidence adduced by the police authorities. The bench asserted that the district judge had apparently divided the evidence into two classes, accepting that given by Mussulmans and rejecting that tendered by Hindus. The failure of the commissioner of the division and the district magistrate to put in an appearance was an extraordinary feature of the case, and that the police superintendent, whose evidence was very material, had been purposely transferred to another district to prevent his being called in evidence.

CHINESE LAUNDRYMAN MURDERED IN BED. PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 6.—Moy Fook, a Chinese laundryman, was found unconscious in bed at his place at 261 Cranston street, today, with his head terribly gashed and with a blood stained hatchet and large knife on the floor beside him. CHINESE LAUNDRYMAN MURDERED IN BED. The assault is known to have been committed some time after midnight, a customer having seen Fook alive at that hour. The practically lifeless body was found by the police early today. Investigation showed that the rooms of the laundry had been thoroughly ransacked, though it was not apparent that anything had been stolen. The money drawer was left untouched. Fook was a recent arrival here, coming from Woonsocket, where he had worked for two years. Previous to that time he is said to have been in Manchester, N. H.

MOORS ASK ARMISTICE; MAY TREAT FOR PEACE

France Proposes to Send an Army of 50,000 Men to Maintain Order—Fifty Killed While Trying to Examine a Shell.

CASABLANCA, Sept. 6.—Military operations have been suspended for 24 hours at the request of Cal Maz, chief of the Chamulaj tribe who has announced his intention of coming in to arrange peace terms. He had not appeared up to the time of the filing of this despatch. In the meantime the armistice is giving the enemy time to re-inforce.

It is reported here that the tribesmen are divided with serious dissensions. The Moors admit that they lost heavily in the engagement of last Tuesday. At Mazab a number of Arabs indulging their curiosity tried to pry open an exploded shell. It exploded and fifty of the men standing about were killed, while many were wounded. Two similar accidents have occurred elsewhere.

ARTILLERY BAND WERE WELL RECEIVED

The band of the 3rd New Brunswick Regiment, C. A., returned from Boston on Saturday by the steamer Yale, after filling a week's engagement in and about Boston. Speaking to the Sun last evening, Capt. S. B. Smith, who was in command of the band, said that the trip was successful in every way. The band met with a cordial reception everywhere it played. The impression that it made can be judged from the fact that the management of Wonderland, one of the big amusement parties in the vicinity of Boston, has already opened negotiations for a two weeks' engagement in 1908.

MONCTON LIQUOR DEALERS SOAKED

MONCTON, Sept. 7.—The city's finances were increased by a two hundred dollar donation from the police court today, four liquor dealers paying Scott fines of fifty dollars apiece. The cases were against the Windsor and LeBlanc hotels, O. S. Legere and J. Hebert.

A young man living near the city borrowed a horse from a neighbor yesterday and did not return it. Today he was met on Main street by the owner, and when the latter attempted to take possession of the animal, the driver applied the whip and proceeded at a furious pace down the street, running over an elderly lady, who was badly shaken up. He was arrested, and will be tried on Monday, charged with drunkenness and furious driving.

FATAL RIOT AMONG SHORE LINE LABORERS

All Italians; One Dying, 2 Badly Wounded. Revolver and Shotgun Used in Fight Among Foreigners Maddened by Drink.

The quiet village of Prince of Wales was thrown into a state of wild panic on Sunday afternoon when a fight broke out among the Italian laborers who have been working on the New Brunswick Southern near that place. From a wrangle, the fight grew to a riot, shot after shot sent the echoes rattling among the hills and when the combatants, their rage changed to blood upon the ground.

Later investigation showed that they were: The Wounded Men. Antonio Codispoti—Shot in the throat, bullet wound in right breast. Will probably die. Antonio Salchitani—Face, chest and shoulders peppered with partridge shot, of which there must have been at least two charges, and one revolver shot in the side. Will be horribly scarred, but has a chance of recovery. Antonio Quaccheri—Shot just above the eyebrows. Will recover. These men are members of a crew of forty-five natives who have been living in a car near the village. The victims are Italians, as are the majority of the crew. It is said that the men have been supplied with liquor freely and had been drinking all day. There had been more or less shouting and warning all day, but nothing of serious proportions had happened.

Beginnings of the Row

At about two o'clock a man named Mr. Austin saw a roll of money thrown from the car. It was immediately picked up by four other Italians, who carried it with them, counting it as they went. Some others joined them and a dispute immediately began. High words were exchanged, a blow was struck, one of the men drew a revolver, fired, and another man fell. Immediately the men began to fight. Wildly excited, most of the spectators broke cover. There was some desultory shooting, but a few moments the actors in the drama had narrowed to four men on whom lay upon the ground in mortal agony.

Doctors Summoned

When the first shock of excitement had passed a telephone message to Fairville summoned Dr. Corbett, who was visiting at Musquash, and also sent for Dr. McFarland, who was also in the car and at a late hour last night had not been removed. The disorder and untidiness of the place made it difficult to do a great deal of work alleviating their sufferings.

AMUSEMENTS. Happy Half Hour.

The new programme of the Happy Half Hour, which commences today is a good one. There are three pictures and two illustrated songs—"Never Forget the wife, is a laugh, and a long one. One frequently reads of automobiles killing people, but in this picture, the hero is knocked down and run over by one, and after getting up is prepared for more. Both Loved the Same Man, is a strong dramatic story of a man who is loved by two women, and one frequently met with in real life, showing how two girl friends loved the same man. A French Military Prison shows how military prisoners are punished. It shows the offense, a slight one, the court-martial, the sentence, transportation for life, the departure for Algiers, the arrival, and the different punishments meted out, the escape and recapture. This will prove to be a very interesting picture. Le Domino Rouge will be heard to splendid advantage in the beautiful child-song, Why Don't They Play with Me? and Harry B. LeRoy's powerful baritone will be heard in Yesterday. Both are illustrated songs.

The First Carnival.

Everybody is looking forward to an evening of pleasure on Wednesday next, Sept. 11th, when the first grand fair and dress carnival of the season is scheduled to take place at the popular Victoria Roller Rink. The rink will be profusely decorated and brilliantly lighted for the occasion and the Vic's Own Band will render a programme of twelve numbers. Twenty dollars in gold will be given as prizes for the most original and best costumes worn. Spectators will have a chance to try the rollers free of charge after the eight band. Skates will be given free of charge upon application.

Splendid Array of Noted Talent With the Greater Norris & Rowe Circus.

It is promised that those who attend the exhibitions of the Greater Norris & Rowe circus, museum, menagerie and hippodrome this season will be entertained with the best of acrobats, gymnasts, bareback riders, contortionists, leopards, vaudeville, expert trick bicyclists, etc., the bewildering richness of the costumes and equipment of the aerial apparatus, the wonderful display of intelligence of wild beasts and the tricks of educated dogs, horses, elephants, monkeys, goats, sheep and pelicans. Of the human acts the most interesting are those of the triple aerial horizontal bar; the seven Avallons, a troupe of expert troupe and trick bicyclists; Irene Marston on the flying ladder; the Bayard sisters on the double trapeze; the riding contingent includes such noted stars of the arena as George Holland, the bareback somersault rider; graceful Rose Dockrill, one of the daintiest of bareback riders; the entire world who can turn a true complete somersault on the bare back; John Carroll and his clever educated horse "Rinaldo"; Ethel Adams in a picturesque bareback riding act; the Montross troupe of comedy acrobats; Ben Lueter, whose backward drops from a giant golden ladder made him famous; and Frank O'Brien, who does a comely hurle act with his mule "Maude." There are a host of clever fun provoking clowns to entertain, and if a person cannot get value received for the money expended in witnessing the circus this season they are indeed hard to please. Norris & Rowe will exhibit their new big shows at St. John Saturday, Sept. 14th.

Orchestra Nickel's New Feature.

The Nickel starts this week with a still more attractive bill for its friends, and people are commencing to wonder where the additional programme is going to stop. The new feature is an orchestra which will make its appearance at the evening shows, though it is the intention to have an orchestra for the afternoon as well in the near future. So with music of this kind, and exclusive line of animated photographs and scenic slides of lower Canadian places in the great snow winter of several years ago, those who attend will be treated to entertainment of a high-class and management to give Nickel patrons the biggest five cents worth of whole amusement in Lower Canada and as tangible appreciation of it is demonstrated. The new pictures are "Two Thousand Miles Without a Dollar," "The Tomcat's Cat," "Borrowed Plumes," "Witting the Lawford," and "The Song, Tying the Leaves, and I Long To See Her Once Again."

Her Ships are Built Quicker, in Larger Numbers, and of Greater Gun Power Than Those of Any Other Nation—Re-armament a Question of Interest.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—Time and again naval writers have contended in favor of the re-arming of warships to bring them into line with modern progress in artillery, but the authorities of Whitehall have opposed the scheme with rare exceptions, and for obvious reasons. But Germany is embarking upon such a scheme, and the results will be watched with interest in a matter of great interest. This case is typical. Originally the vessel had four 12 inch and fourteen 8 inch guns, being superior to the formidable class of vessels formerly built for the British navy in having two more 6 inch quick-firers. Eight of these 6 inch guns were removed to enable four 10 inch guns to be fitted. This may be quite a suitable arrangement so far as weight is concerned, but the stress of a 10 inch gun firing with a muzzle energy of 31,000 ft. tons is very much greater than the effect from a 6 inch quick-firer discharging a shot of one-fifth the weight with an energy of only about 6,000 ft. tons. It must be accepted that the structural strength of the vessel making her equal almost to the later vessels, the Katori and the Kaikima, built respectively by the Vickers Company and the Armstrong Company. In the Mikasa now approximately the gun power of the Agamemnon and the Lord Nelson, and like them, the Mikasa after she had been under the water for months, otherwise they might not have considered it worth while to make the change. So, also, with the captured and salvaged Russian vessels. With Germany the case is different, and is more comparable with the conditions. The Kaiser class, including five ships, and the Wittelsbach class, also of five vessels, were completed in 1905. Not one was launched as late as 1901. The former class had Harvey armor, their armament is distinctly weak according to present-day ideas. In twin gun turrets they have 8.4 in. guns, and dotted over the upper works eighteen 5.9 in. quick-firers. And these are the ships which now have the part of the armor belt now above the water level. The British Formidable and King Edward classes. To substitute 11 in. guns for the four 8.4 in. guns would involve a great increase in gun power, but with the additional stress due to a muzzle energy of 30,000 ft. tons against 10,000 ft. tons, the comparative power of the two weapons is not a negligible quantity. It means stiffening, which involves greater weight, and, also, the increased weight of the larger guns and their mountings and ammunition, will immerse the upper works to a greater depth, reducing speed, which even now is only 18 knots. What is more serious is that the armor belt now above the water level would almost entirely disappear. The armored reserve of buoyancy in the Kaiser class is already less than that of other ships which might be named. Thus Germany has not her naval trophies to seek.

The facts show that Germany's position is not so strong as some would have us believe. This holds good as to the matter of constructing ships. Of five battleships of the Deutschland class, whose inception dates but nearly five years, two have just been in commission, one will be commissioned in the autumn, and two more next year. All these vessels are of less power than even the Formidable class, and do not come under the same category as the King Edward VII. In other words, since the outbreak was ordered England has laid down and completed five King Edward VII. In other words, since the outbreak was ordered England has laid down and completed five King Edward VII. In other words, since the outbreak was ordered England has laid down and completed five King Edward VII.

Editor of the Star: Sir—My last extract from Mrs. Mead's "The New Internationalism" dealt with the proposal advanced by the French teachers, and to point out all the school superintendents of the state, to observe May 15th commemorative in the schools of the opening of the Hague Conference, 1889. To quote further: This movement to acquaint the rising generation with the new conditions that make war an anachronism in the civilized world today, and to point out a substitute for it which is already practicable, is not confined to American schools. It is being carried on in France, and in this movement, in one year six hundred illustrated lectures on peace and war were arranged by French teachers. The numerous battle scenes which have decorated school walls are gradually being removed. "Lectures Historiques nouvelles," "Parks" have been prepared for school reading, which are simple, graphic and effective. At the congress held at Lille in 1905, the Association of French Public School Teachers, with a membership of over a thousand, declared in its resolutions that "The teachers are energetic disciples of peace. Their watchword is 'Lectures Historiques nouvelles.'" At the International Congress which met in 1905 at Litchfield, in which eight hundred delegates were present, many German and Austrian teachers, an entire day was devoted to the theme, "The exchange of the products of all lands secures a common life on a broader and more comfortable basis."

The congress united in certain general statements and certain definite practical propositions. The five general principles were as follows: 1. The children must be taught to understand that there are not two sides to a quarrel, but that nations and the other for the individual. 2. The children must be permeated with the feeling of brotherly love to all the peoples of the earth, without distinction of race, color or religion. 3. They must be inducted to respect all life, not only the life of man, but also of animals, in this way being led to overcome childhood's destructive tendencies, and to feel more sensitively the horrible character of war. 4. The children must learn, along with the feeling of their own right and dignity, respect for the right and dignity of others. 5. The idea of righteousness and justice must permeate the children, and they must learn that love of country does not stand opposed to the love of humanity. The International Students' Congress Meeting in Litchfield at the same time passed the two following resolutions: 1. A peace propaganda shall be organized to take in the whole world in its organizations. 2. Peace clubs shall be organized in all the different universities. The committee of the congress was instructed to prepare a statement of its recommendations to be transmitted to the different governments, with the request that it be brought everywhere to the knowledge of those charged with the direction of elementary education. If such a sentiment and such radical work were undertaken in the schools of our towns and cities, by vigorous and energetic teachers, the spirit of brotherhood, the load of taxes for an armed peace would soon be lifted from the shoulders of the artisan and laborer. PEACE. St. John, September 1st, 1907.

Queen's Rollaway.

A large crowd both of spectators and skaters was present at the Queen's Rollaway Saturday evening. After the tenth band the first race since the re-opening took place. The distance was unknown to the skaters until the bell was rung on the lap previous to the last. Although several had entered, only two started, Nixon and Olive, and the spectators were sure of a close race, and they saw one. The bell was rung on the 11th lap, and the 12th and last lap was a neck and neck race, but Olive in his anxiety to pass Nixon, slightly shied him, and although he crossed the line first, the judges awarded Nixon the race.

LARGE CROWD EXPECTED AT CARNIVAL.

Roller skating has taken a big boom of late and the carnival to be held in Victoria Rink on the 11th—this coming Wednesday—will be a very popular event. The Vic is in excellent condition for this week will doubtless prove just as amusing. The cash prizes will be equally divided between the best get-ups, by a competent committee. Wednesday's date, keep it for the carnival.

“TAFFY.”
By FRANK SAVILE.

Confession is good for the soul. As it is impossible for me to ease my conscience of its load in my household the public shall judge of my temptations. Listen to the plain tale.

"Bertha, my eldest daughter, got influenza. As she seemed to convalesce somewhat slowly, my wife ordered our doctor to order me to order Bertha to the seashore. We went her accordingly to the care of Mr. Llewellyn Jones, at the farm above Aberllynlythch (don't attempt to pronounce it if your bodily vigor is below par, or I won't answer for the consequences), whence she returned after a stay of three weeks, the picture of sun-burnt, sea-tanned health. I met her myself at the station.

After I had been kissed on each cheek, and had passed myself two rags, three books, a couple of magazines, a bag and a hat box, Bertha followed with the hold-all, and a few brown paper packages coming out of their stings. I suggested that this was a sufficient caravan to start the journey towards the brougham, and that she might describe her heavier luggage to a porter. But she made indignation dissent.

"Not for worlds!" she cried. "I must see to him myself!"

Upon which she heaped upon me her remaining impediments, and dived empty handed into the crowd. I made equilibrium but finally succumbed to a gallant effort to maintain my health my ruin.

The station-master respectfully and considerably rescued me from a most undignified position, and became my co-stevedore in loading the brougham. All this was done in the core of it focus my attention upon Bertha's very astonishing statement. She, it appeared, was attending to "him." All the parent spoke in me, and a prey to vague misgivings I hastened towards the luggage van.

"This had become suddenly the hub of the station's activities, and I had some difficulty in attaining a way through the crowd. In the core of it focus my attention upon Bertha's very astonishing statement. She, it appeared, was attending to "him." All the parent spoke in me, and a prey to vague misgivings I hastened towards the luggage van.

The Morning Post, in an editorial following the Yorkshire Post's lead of yesterday, says: "If the new treaty achieves its object it seems only too probable that the commercial policy of Canada will gradually be more and more deflected from the lines established by the institution of the imperial preference ten years ago. Germany is well known to be only too anxious to secure the benefits of the intermediate tariff."

MILAN, Sept. 7.—The Corriere della Sera has received a letter from Hodeidah stating that serious excesses have been committed by discharged Turkish soldiers who arrived there from the island part of Yemen, but were prevented from going home immediately by the lack of steamers. When one steamer arrived 2,000 soldiers embarked thereon, several with their sweethearts, and terrible quarrels broke out on board. There were 10 people killed or wounded. Two women were thrown overboard alive to the sharks and a third was killed. Some of the officers' wives were captured and carried into the mosques, where they were outraged. For this offence to religion the Arabs armed themselves and attacked the soldiers, killing eight and wounding fourteen. Three Arabs died.

GHISHOLM WAS EXILED FOR LIFE THIS TIME

Man Let Go Two Years Ago for Stealing, Comes Back, Gets Married, Steals and Escapes Again.

About two years ago a man named Ghisholm was allowed to go from the county court under a suspended sentence of three years, the condition being that he was not to return to the city for two years. He kept away from the city two years and arrived here again about two weeks ago. The first thing he did was to steal a coat from the Union depot. He requested to be tried before Magistrate Ritchie and was adjudged guilty. The man was only recently married and owing to influence being brought to bear the prisoner was taken into the county court at one o'clock and after a reserve lecture by Justice Forbes and Magistrate Ritchie both sentences of two years and the other of three years were allowed to hang over him and he was permitted to go on condition that he would keep away from St. John in the future.

ARE PERFECTLY SATISFIED WITH WEST SIDE WORK

City Will Disregard Major Gordon's Objection and Will Take the Land Needed for Car Lines.

The sub-committee of the Board of Public Works, in charge of the construction work at Sand Point, made a thorough examination of the work this morning. After this examination the aldermen expressed themselves as thoroughly pleased with the progress so far. They investigated a charge that a poor quality of timber was being used on part of the contract, and found that this charge was not supported by facts. In regard to the thirty foot strip necessary for the extension of the car tracks from the Gordon estate, as already told in the press, Major Gordon has refused to give up the land to the city, as it involves the destruction of a portion of a building situated on the ground. The work will, notwithstanding Major Gordon's objection, go on at once, and the city workmen will take possession tomorrow morning.

NO ARRESTS MADE YET IN THE ITALIAN SHOOTING CASE

Wounded Men Were Brought to Hospital This Forenoon — Two are Dangerously Hurt — Constable Taylor May Arrest One Man Today

What seems a remarkable thing is that yesterday afternoon a number of Italians got a shooting affray at Prince of Wales, about twelve miles from the city and as a result two men are now lying in the public hospital in a precarious condition while a third is painfully injured, yet up till twelve o'clock today not a single arrest had been made, nor with the exception of Constable Taylor, has a policeman been near where the fight took place.

Constable Taylor claims that he could not find any one who would give information so that he could arrest the guilty persons. However, he has decided that he will return to Prince of Wales and arrest the son of one of the victims. The injured men were brought to the city on a special train which arrived at the N. B. Southern station at about eleven o'clock. They were accompanied by Dr. G. G. Corbett, Constable Taylor and an interpreter. The men did seem to be suffering very much, but appeared to be in a dazed condition. It seems to be almost impossible to learn the cause of the fight, but it is supposed to have been over some money. As far as can be learned it began as a duel between Codispoti and Satechiani, when Codispoti's son rushed into the fight with a shot-gun to help his father. Whether there were any more combatants, it is difficult to say, but a number of them have taken to their heels and this morning only a very few reported for work. Some unfavorable comment was heard this morning about the ambulance as it was ordered at half past nine to be at the station at ten thirty, but it failed to put in an appearance until twelve o'clock, while the victims of the fight were compelled to wait in the caboose of the train until its arrival. During the wait a large number of curious spectators gathered around to see the wounded men.

Codispoti is in the most serious condition of any of the three. He has three revolver bullets lodged in his neck and his chances of recovery are very slim. Satechiani is also in a bad shape, his head being full of buckshot. The third, Gualteri has only a bad wound over the right eye and his condition is not considered as serious.

REV. E. C. JENKINS TELLS WHAT HE MEANT BY IT

He Sympathizes Deeply, He Says, With His Fellow Clergymen Who Has Been Placed in Unfortunate Position.

The Rev. E. C. Jenkins, of the Ludlow street Baptist church, was this morning interviewed by the Star in reference to the remarks which he made a short time ago and in which he was alleged to have denounced the papers on account of holding back certain information concerning a certain minister, believed to be Fisher Gaylor. Mr. Jenkins stated that it was not his intention to have created such an impression, that what he meant was that the law should be observed and even if a person were in a high position he should not be shielded, if he had done wrong, but he should be brought to justice, and if he were innocent such shielded remarks should be looked into. The following is the way Mr. Jenkins expressed his views this morning: "I was greatly grieved to learn by this morning's press that one of the under shepherds of the Roman Catholic church had been suspended from his high position. I have been greatly amused at the various interpretations of my arguments in my address, which I gave a few days ago, from my pulpit, and which address was an appeal for more purity in all the rank and file of life. "My reference was in an indirect way to the laws of our state and church and on that occasion I appealed that if these rumors be true and not checked, it was a license to law breakers, and if it were not true it was a crime and an injury to the one about whom the rumors were stated. There is no one who is more grieved over the present condition of the Rev. Mr. Gaylor than myself for no matter what church it be, when any clergyman falls, or is charged falsely, it injures the whole of Christendom. It affects my church and my people as much as the church and people over whom the reverend gentleman is shepherd. It is the Kingdom of Christ on earth that it affects. "My sincere hope is that the reverend gentleman may be able to vindicate his position as innocent and once more be reinstated into his high office. "As for my arguments in defence of an moral purity in church and state I am earnest and strong as I was on the evening on which I delivered my message."

The funeral of Walter Batus was held this afternoon from his late residence, St. Paul street. Rev. B. B. Hooper officiated at the services. Interment was in the Methodist burial ground.
