and is, a hearty endorsement of the Cin-cinnati platform. So much for New York. Looking to Washington, we see that, since the speech of Mr. Yoorhees, an attempt to get up an anti-Greeley endorsement among the Democratic members has proved a deal failure. The facts are thus stated: Just after the adjournment of the Cin-cinnati Convention an appeal was prepar-ed by one Democratic Congressman calling upon the party to demand of its Executive Committee a National Convention, and to send delegates pledged to vote for only pronounced Democrats. That appeal was signed by thirty members of the House, but when presented for Senatorial signa-tures it met no success.
