in his labors among us, and generally a reward for his faithful and industry in connection with the M. C. A. The result did not realize the hopes, yet satisfying expectations of the Committee, but we can rejoice in the conversion of some young men who have since joined our ranks and are working with us in the good cause, while many others were led to pursue other courses. We feel sure the zeal and earnestness of the next year will not be unavailing.

REPORT.

It has been the custom of our Association at the close of each year to shortly review our work, and place before the membership a report of the various Committees. We have great cause for gratitude to God that our work has been carried forward, and that our cause is gaining ground from year to year both at home and abroad.

A Dominion Convention was held at Quebec in September, and was well attended by some of our best men; it was an exceedingly pleasant reunion of Eastern and Western Christians, and encouraged and strengthened all present. The Maritime Provinces Convention held at Chatham was well attended, and the results to Chatham especially were blessed.

Our floating debt on the building still remains, but an earnest effort must be made this year to clear it off. Feeling sure that the Almighty God is on our side we will go forward to another year strong in the power of His might.

MISSION AND DEVOTIONS.

The close of another year demands of your Committee the usual review of the twelve months work. On this occasion we cannot do so without mingled feelings of pleasure and regret—pleasure that some of the members of this Committee have now for a few years been by the confidence so continuously reposed in them by the Association, permitted to labor together in this important work—regret, that their labor has been productive of so little apparent result. They have earnestly and prayerfully pleaded that a more spiritual tone might be imparted to the Association generally, and have specially longed for the conversion of at least some of the many members who stand related to us only in an associate capacity, and whose talents, enlisted on the side of religion, would be so valuable. Under such desire, through the President, a correspondence took place with Mr. Geo. Needham the Evangelist, which resulted in his laboring amongst us both generally as regards the public, and specially in connection with the Y. M. C. A. The result did not realize the perhaps too sanguine expectations of the Committee, but we can rejoice in the conversion of some young men who have since joined our ranks and are working with us in the good course, while many others were led to enquire regarding the "Way of Salvation," and we hope will yet come to a right conclusion. We feel sure the zeal and earnestness of the dear brother and his fellow-workers will not go unrewarded.

Mission work at the Barrack Street Building has continued throughout the year, with the only interruption necessitated by the services above referred to, held by Mr. Needham. We have always regarded this work as a special feature, thankful that such an opportunity was ours of proclaiming the truth to many who on the Sabbath have only this opportunity of hearing it, and our hearts have been deeply gratified to learn of more than one conversion through this means. We regard it as a blessed opportunity for our spiritual members to work for their Master, and regret that owing to the Mission House passing into other hands in accordance with the will of our late Bro. Jost, this deeply important field of labor will soon be closed to us. We would express our thankfulness that we have been permitted thus long to labor there, as also to the clergymen and lay brethren who have assisted us. We trust soon other opening will present itself. In connection with this service the Sabbath School held in the morning at the same building under the superintendence of Bro. D. McGregor, who succeeded Bro. J. S. Smith on his removal to the north end of the city, aided by his faithful band of teachers, has continued without interruption, and has been of great utility amongst the class of children it was particularly instituted to reach and benefit. This too will have to cease or be removed. The Committee visited it monthly.

Gospel meetings under the conduct of the same School officers, assisted at times by friends, and occasionally visited by Committee, have been conducted as heretofore on Sabbath evenings, and during the week, and were beginning to be very promising, but will also and for the same reason cease.

Prayer Meetings, monthly held at the Class room, have been but indifferently attended. To discontinue them would be too serious a proceeding. Without such means of grace how could the Institution prosper or expect God's approval. Although for all the Association as well as other Christians, it is especially the Committee's Prayer Meeting.

Prayer Meeting for young men only, by the request of the few young men who upheld it, this has for the present been changed into a special Bible Class.

Bible Class. The usual gathering of members has been held every Saturday evening during the year, and many have greatly enjoyed the delightful study of the lessons arranged by the International Sabbath School Committee. This class merits much greater encouragement than it has received from the members, especially those who teach in Sabbath Schools, and as this series is to be continued during the present year, your committee urge upon all the duty of supporting it by their presence.

Though not coming under the supervision of this Committee we can but refer with pleasure and gratification to the co-operation in the Spiritual department of the labors of the Tract Committee of our Street Preachers, and the more private and unostentatious work of one or two brothers whose labors will bring them reward.

The Week of Prayer. In accordance with the usual request of the International Executive Committee, meetings were held in our Hall every evening during the week in November, set aside for the young men; two of our city clergy addressed the audience each evening with earnestness, and we hope good effect. We very gratefully acknowledge the kind services of the Pastors of all the churches for their sympathy and aid.

The Evangelical Alliance Week of Prayer. Opening and closing Services of this Annual Institution was provided for and conducted by the Association with good attendance at the Mission Church at the opening, and the Mission Church and the Hall at the closing.

J. S. MACLEAN, Chairman.

FINANCE.

The Committee on Finance in making their annual report for 1877, would call attention to the fact that a balance of $119.15 is due the Treasurer 1st January, 1878, being slightly in excess of our indebtedness of last year. The sum of $119.42 has this year been paid on interest account on the floating debt, an item which has not previously been reached nor included in the ordinary expenses. On this account there yet remains a balance of $37.32 due the building fund to Dec. 31st, 1877, making the actual deficiency $156.00.

The Subscription List shows a falling off in the year of about $12 00, and considering the exigency of the times is not very wonderful. Every Institution, whether secular or religious, has, during the year just passed felt more or less this pinch.

In donations we have nothing to remark; the miscellaneous receipts, however, we are happy to note, are improving—the whole revenue for last year being $310 47, as follows, for use of the Hall $206.00, the balance of 94.47 being derived from other sources, showing an increase over the previous year of about $78.00.

The gross expenses in 1877 were less than usual, but the item of gas, however, seems to call for remark, having increased from $298.80 in 1876, to $390.00 in 1877; this has received your Committee's attention and the greatest care will be exercised in the future to curtail this expense. In their report for the quarter ending 30th September last, the Committee stated that additional effort would be made to collect the unpaid annual subscriptions, amounting at that time to $535.00. A circular was accordingly prepared and sent to every subscriber in arrears, stating the amount due and urging the necessity for payment, which met with partial success. During 1877 the sum of $32.40 only has been expended on the Library for the purchase of new books, this seems a very small sum to be appropriated in maintaining an auxiliary so essential to the successful working of the Association. In the opinion of your Committee a provision of at least One Hundred Dollars annually ought, if possible, be made, so as to maintain a more complete and efficient library. Your Committee deeming the present sources of revenue inadequate to meet the wants of the library, and the ordinary expenses of the Association, consider an increased subscription list as imperatively necessary; the sources of this must be partly from within and partly outside the Association. Every member who now gives but Two Dollars annually, and can afford to give three, four, or five dollars, ought to do so. Connected with some of the Associations in the United States, there is what is called a Sustaining Fund, contributed to by persons who may or may not be members of the Association, agreeing to subscribe annually, an amount considerably above the ordinary subscription towards its funds in view of its public benefits. Whether some such scheme is practicable here, is a question your Committee can only suggest for the consideration of the General Committee and the members of the Association.

JOSEPH BELL, Chairman.

LITERARY AND SOCIAL.

The Literary and Social Committee after organizing, revised reports of Sub-Committees and other material preparatory to publication in the form of the Association's "Twenty-third Annual Report," agreeably with instructions sent down from Annual meeting.

After the Annual Meeting in January, your Committee completed the series of Entertainments according to the Prospectus issued at the opening of the season. The entire Series consisted of two Socials, five Lectures and three Literary and Musical Ojios.

The Lecturers were—Hon. P. C. Hill, Rev. Dr. Burns, James Hanney, Esq., of St. John, N. B., Rev. A. J. Townsend and Rev. G. M.

Grant. Lectures or short original Papers, were read by Dr. J. Gordon, McGregor, Geo. Johnson, Esq., J. M. Geldert, Esq., J. W. Longley, Esq., and Robt. Sedgewick, Esq. Readings by Rev. John Bell, Dr. Trennaman, Messrs. Wm. Roche, J. Stewart, Caruthers, W. K. Angwin; and R. L. Borden. In the Musical department the Committee had the valuable assistance of the following ladies and gentleman. Instrumental—Misses Shannor and Hesson, Messrs. Bennett, Shannon, Stirling, Ackhurst, Cornelius, Wright, and Prof. Bristow. Vocal—Messrs Crawford, Lloyd, Wilson, Smith, Allan, and Drake.

Your Committee believing this Series as a whole to have been an improvement on past years, in their suitability to young men, resolved to repeat the experiment during another season, with this departure that the ladies be invited to all the meetings. The Prospectus for 1877-8 has been issued, opening with a Reunion of the members, to be followed by a Parlour Entertainment, three Lectures, two Literary and Musical Olios, and a Social to close the course. Part of the Series has already been carried out, and under all the circumstances fully met the Committee's anticipations.

Your Committee has very great pleasure in reporting the number of our members who have in various ways contributed to the different Programmes, the cheerful co-operation on the part of friends outside, and the very great assistance received at the hands of our indefatigable Secretary, Mr. Theakston. In conclusion your Committee would again appeal to the General Committee and to the entire membership of the Association, to encourage their efforts, to show by their presence at the entertainments that they at least appreciate the services of the ladies and gentlemen who from time to time give their valuable assistance.

M. M. LINDSAY, Chairman.

MEMBERSHIP.

In presenting their Annual Report of Membership, your Committee regret having to report that there has been a decrease during the year owing to various causes, no less than 40 members have left the city to seek employment elsewhere, 28 members have left by request, and 6 have died.—William Nisbet, George Bendifler, J. G. A. Creighton, C. M. Witt, Frank Harris, and E. Jost. Your Committee have been compelled to strike off the list 36 members for being two years in arrears. They would urge upon the members to aim at adding new members to the roll of the Association each week, considering the great advantages of a spiritual, mental and social nature which our Association affords, and considering the number of young men in our city not with us, for whom the Association was formed and the building erected, we ought to stir each other up to do much more in the future than has been done in the past.

In conclusion your Committee cannot close their report without alluding more particularly to the death one of its oldest members, the late J. G. A. Creighton, who was the first President of the Association, and who always took a warm and lively interest in the affairs of the Association; he was a good man, and has gone to his reward, "like a shock of wheat fully ripe for the harvest." They also regret the death of Edward Jost, who always aided the Committee by his sympathy and support on many occasions, and also provided the Mission Building in Barrack Street for meetings under the management of the Association.

THE STATEMENT OF MEMBERSHIP IS AS FOLLOWS:

January 1st, 1877. On the roll, 583; joined during the year, 57; left the city, 40; by request, 28; two years in arrears, 86; died, 6—110; leaving on the roll December 31st, 1877, 590; shewing a decrease of 53.

TEMPERANCE.

This Committee has not performed much work as a Committee during the year. In our course of Lectures last winter one lecture was on the subject of Temperance. No regular Temperance course was attempted. Various Societies, Church and others, held frequent meetings and in these the Temperance men of the Association were identified.

In July last the Reform movement was commenced in this city in the Y. M. C. A. Rooms and met with wonderful success. Since that time the active part of Temperance work so far as relates to public meetings, has devolved upon the Reform Club. The proposition to invite members of the Club to join our Association and use our rooms, received every consideration, but the great body of the Club appeared anxious to have a place for themselves, and we did not wish to interfere with any of their plans.

The past year has been very successful for the Temperance Reform in Nova Scotia. Halifax stands foremost now in the progress made, and yet you will agree with the Committee that much—very much, still remains to be done; and that the members of this Association have resting upon them weighty responsibility in this important matter. The recommending of licenses each year is in the hands of the citizens, and we are pleased to report that this restriction has curtailed the traffic in different portions of our city.

J. PARSONS, Chairman.

TRACT DISTRIBUTION.

The Committee on Tract Distribution report that twelve distributors have been at work during the summer months. The work commenced the last Sabbath in April and ended the first Sabbath in November. The number of papers, tracts, and leaflets distributed during the season amounted to 33,000.

Although the special field of labor was along the wharves—supplying the seamen in port with reading matter for the Sabbath—yet other places were regularly visited by the distributors—such as the Hospital, Rockhead Prison, the Cemetery Gate, Public Gardens, and the Market on market day.

No services for seamen were held this year under the auspices of your Committee. Still several brethren connected with the Association held meetings from time to time especially for sailors.

We note with pleasure the cheering reports from the distributors—some of whom have been engaged in the work for over ten years; and they always look forward with pleasure to the return of the Tract distributing season. Instead of being discouraged they are cheered by the encouraging words of those among whom they labor.

We would again press upon the attention of our successors and upon the Association, the great importance of this branch of Christian work. We feel that every christian worker should to a greater or less degree be a tract distributor. Imagine 300 of our members being pledged tract distributors. What a power for good we would then have! The mere stepping on the deck of a vessel and appearing at the door of the fore-castle or cabin with the usual—"Good morning, will you have something to read this morning?"—may appear, and is, a very simple act; but God has made it an instrument in his hands of turning the sinner from the error of his ways and making him a consistent working Christian. Instances could be given of good done by this means.

In conclusion we most heartily tender our thanks to the British American Book and Tract Society, for the liberal supply of tracts and papers—amounting to some 20,000—which were admirably suited to our work; also to the London Tract Society for the grant of 6,000 very superior tracts. We would also thank the following—Jas. Farquhar, W. H. Wiswell, R. G. Halls, Jas. McGregor, R. E. Saunders, J. L. French, Neil Brodier, A. Dunlap, W. Munro, C. W. Allan, A. M. Bell, E. B. Sutcliffe, C. H. Robertson, Chas. McLearn, and John E. Saunders—brethren connected with the Association who gave us their assistance so cheerfully.

VISITING SICK.

The services of your Committee were seldom called for during the past year. Several cases were reported and received all the attention required. There were not any cases brought to the notice of the Committee requiring special attention, as all were being looked after by their friends and clergymen, in which circumstances your Committee does not feel called upon to interfere.

Strangers and neglected ones are the special objects of the Committee's oversight, and for such their services are always ready on application to the Secretary.

M. M. LINDSAY, Chairman

ROOMS AND LIBRARY.

Your Committee have not any marked change to report in the department of the Association's work committed to their charge, but there has been a steady advance in the Library and reading matter furnished to those who have frequented the rooms. The Library now numbers 2,750 volumes, and your Committee would be glad if the funds of the Association would permit the purchase of some new works now in request. By the kindness of T. B. Akins, Esq., an old and valued friend of the Association, several recent publications have been placed on the shelves.

The Reading Room which had been opened for young men on Sabbath afternoon was closed last spring, owing to the small attendance.

Students attending the colleges are now admitted to all the privileges of the Rooms during the term, on the payment of one dollar.

Attendance at the Rooms continues to be about the average of former years. The issue of books is close upon eight per day, or 2,500 for the year.

Your Committee have to report that the Dining Room is carried on very satisfactorily to those who frequent it, and that the Janitor gives every attention to his duties.

The following Newspapers are supplied gratis, and your Committee would thank the proprietors of the several journals for their favors:

Nova Scotia.—Chronicle, Reporter, Recorder, Citizen, Herald, Wesleyan, Witness, Messenger, Dalhousie College Gazette, Journal of Agriculture, Alliance Journal, Journal of Education, Budds and Blossoms, Eastern Chronicle, Western Chronicle, Star, Sun, Acadia Athenaeum, Colonial Standard, Maritime Sentinel, Monitor, Liverpool Times, Windsor Mail, Weekly Journal, Royal Gazette. Cape Breton.—Advocate, Herald,
