

JUNE

Spring Song.
A bird sang sweet and strong,
In the top of the highest tree;
He said: "I pour out my heart in song
For the summer that soon shall be."
But deep in the shady wood
Another bird sang: "I pour
My heart on the solemn solitude
For the spring that returns no more."

The Age of Modern Man.
People are fond of saying that "man-kind is growing wiser and weaker." But it is really so? Let us glance at the facts. According to the latest statistics there are more centenarians now living than at any previous time in the history of the world. Why? Because of the great discoveries in medical science which afford him immunity from diseases that formerly devastated mankind. Greatest of them all is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the best blood-purifier and restorer of the age. Scrofula, fever-aches, tumors, unsightly ulcers and eruptions vanish like magic beneath its beneficent influence.

A Confectioner's Confidence.
"I can plainly state that I can find nothing better than Hagar's Yellow Oil. I have rheumatism occasionally, and Yellow Oil does me great good. You can use my name if you wish." Yours truly, H. Dickinson, Confectioner, St. Thomas, Ont.

—He Do you read the current fiction of the day? She: Not very extensively. I am ashamed to say. However, I did read through "Robert Elton" and I intended to read this "Pigs in Clover" that everybody is talking about. —C. H. Parham, in Harper's Magazine.

—Attention! If you desire a fine head of hair of a natural hue and free from dandruff, Hall's Hair Restorer is the best and safest preparation to accomplish it.

—A most astonishing story comes from California telling how Claus Spreckels has been paying taxes, owing to defective maps, on hundreds of acres, that he does not own. This is probably the first case of the kind on record.

—To keep the beard from turning gray, and thus prevent the appearance of age, use Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers, the best dye made.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

—My daughter was greatly troubled with Scrofula, and, at one time, it was feared she would lose her sight. Ayer's Sarsaparilla has completely restored her health, and her eyes are as well as ever, with not a trace of scrofula in her system." —C. King, Killbuck, Conn.

A Song of Days.

REV. W. HIGGINSON.

O radiant summer day,
Whose air, sweet air, steals on from flower
Or dew?
Couldst thou not yield one hour
Whence the glad heart says "This alone
Is May?"

Oh passionate earthly love,
Whose tremulous pulse beats on to life's best boon!
Couldst thou not give one noon,
Of those whose bliss is all above?

Oh solemn human life,
Whose nobler longings bid all conflicts
cease!
Grant us one day's deep peace
Beyond the utmost range of all strife.

For if no joy can stay
Let it at least yield one consummate
bloom,
Or else there is no room
To find delight in love, or life, or May.

The Watchman's Story.

(New York Sun.)

"How long have I been a bank watchman?" repeated Daniel McShane, as he took the place from him, and slowly blew the smoke away. "Well, sir, I've put in over thirty years at it."

"But you are not more than forty now!"

"Forty-one sir, and I began the business when only ten years old."

That was a tender age and there must be a story connected with your debut.

"Right you are sir, and if you have a half hour to spare I'll tell you the yarn."

When I was a kid of eight, my father was made a night watchman of the old Traders' Bank of Philadelphia. Everything was very primitive then, as you may remember. There were bad men about, but there was no need of burglar-proof safes and such like to circumspect them. Banks were then run about the same as stores. The Traders' opened at six in the morning and closed at five in the afternoon, and the last official did not leave till seven, at which time my father went on duty.

That hour until seven in the morning but was not supposed to be awake all the time. He had a cot bed in the office, and many a night he slept all night without once opening his eyes, although he was supposed to be on duty.

GENERAL NEWS.

—Three hundred miles of railway will be built in Manitoba this year.

—Dr. Pugsley, the new Solicitor General, has been returned for Kings County by acclamation.

—Sir Leonard Tilley was a guest at Governor Hagen's, Winnipeg, while on his way to the Pacific coast.

—A syndicate controlled by British investors has purchased all the breweries in St. Paul. The property comprises eight establishments valued at $4,000,000.

—The returns of traffic earnings on the Canadian Pacific Railway for the week ending May 14th, is $238,000, being an increase of $16,000 over the same period last year.

—Archdeacon Gilpin has been promoted dean of the diocese of Nova Scotia, and Rev. J. A. Kaulbach, of Truro, archdeacon. Rev. Weston Jones, of Charlottetown, has been made an archdeacon of Prince Edward Island.

—Messrs. Jas. Harris & Co., of St. John, have six first-class cars in course of construction at their shops, for the I. C. R. The cars will be finished both inside and outside with cherry and mahogany, no paint whatever being used.

—The Canadian Pacific Railway has applied to the Treasury Department at Washington to be bonded a common carrier between ports of the United States. The application has been referred to the solicitor of the Treasury.

—The outlook for the Canadian lumber trade this season is good. There are a billion logs tied up in the woods of Michigan for want of water to drive them to the mills. Not one mill in ten in Michigan has a supply for the season.

—Laura Bridgman, the celebrated deaf mute, died at Boston last Friday in the sixtieth year of her age. She lost her sight and hearing when only two years old, and after being educated in the Perkins Institute, her whole life was devoted to teaching the blind.

—Wm. R. Gladstone considers the Prince of Wales a shrewd clever man who keeps himself well informed regarding the topics of the day. He seldom opens a book, but gleams a good deal from conversation. Mr. Gladstone thinks the prince a success as a public man.

—A requisition from various Irish municipal bodies on Thursday presented to Mr. Parnell at London an address congratulating him upon his success in dispreiving before the commission the many columns that had been heaped upon him. Mr. Parnell replied in suitable terms.

—The geological survey in the Maritime Provinces this season will be carried on as usual. Bailey and McInnis will continue their survey of Nova Scotia and Madawaska. Chalmers will make a surface survey in southern New Brunswick; Fletcher and Fairbairn in Pictou and Halifax.

—The Russian church in San Francisco has been gutted by fire, and it is suspected the flames were started in the hope of destroying certain books and records which were to be used against criminals. A leading Russian resident says the Church is simply a detective agency, the clergyman acting as spies for the Russian Government.

—The Spa Springs hotel at Middleton, N. S., owned by Capt. J. R. Hall was destroyed by fire last week. The house was built last year at an expense of $12,000. It was a popular resort last year and was advertised to open for this season this week. A portion of the furniture was saved. The building was insured for $5,000.

—Hon. John Costigan recently completed his seventh year as Minister of Inland Revenue, and the occasion was taken advantage of by the officials of the Department in Ottawa, Montreal and Winnipeg and other places to express their appreciation of him in his capacity as a public officer, and as a man, by the presentation of very complimentary addresses.

—A London despatch of the 25th inst., says: Sir Charles Tupper reached London to-day and attended the Colonial Secretary's Queen's Birthday dinner. Two or three Canadian names were expected to appear on the list of birthday honorees issued to-day, but none were included, though the list is unusually long and nearly all the Colonies are represented.

—English shipbuilders are overdoing the business, and freights are falling. There has been such a harvest for vessels the last two or three years that the building has been stimulated beyond the bounds of prudence. Last year the output of new shipping in the United Kingdom exceeded 900,000 tons. At the beginning of the current year the new shipping was issued to-day, but none were included, though the list is unusually long and nearly all the Colonies are represented.

—The Shah of Persia arrived at St. Petersburg Thursday. He was met at the Railway station by the Czar and the Czaritch, who were accompanied by brilliant suites. All the grand dukes were also present.

—It is reported that the Duluth and Winnipeg, the Duluth and Superior, and the Duluth and Canadian Pacific railways have entered into an alliance for a mutual exchange of traffic, and that one of the terms of the alliance is that the Canadian Pacific shall place or assist in placing the Duluth and Winnipeg between the Duluth and Superior.

—The placing of the Duluth and Winnipeg bonds in London by Messrs. Wright, Cases and Marger, of the road, some days ago, is said to have greatly facilitated by the Canadian Pacific stockholders.

—The Russian church in San Francisco has been gutted by fire, and it is suspected the flames were started in the hope of destroying certain books and records which were to be used against criminals.
