Around Town.

A SERIOUS LOSS.—Mr. Park Keillon, of Amherst Point, found, the other morning, a hen which had been sitting on some eggs, had lost her head. On removing her from the nest several live chickens were found. [Amherst Press.]

FOR THE WOODS.—Every day now teams loaded with sleds, chains, cooking utensils and feed pass through town for the Cumberland lumber woods. The prevailing impression is that should the winter be a favorable one for logging, large cut will be made. The Sackville operators intend getting out their usual quantity.

LUCKY FIND.—Says yesterday's Times, on Friday Mr. E. C. Cope, who resides some six or eight miles from Port Elgin and who was returning from a business trip to Sackville, got off the train at a siding in Port Elgin and started to walk home. Upon arriving near his destination he discovered he had lost two letters, one containing $100 and the other smaller amounts. He immediately retraced his steps through the heavy rain and mud and found them on the side of the road near the railway siding.

THE KICKAPOO.—The Kickapoos Indians opened in Music Hall on Tuesday night to a large house, and will continue in town for 10 nights. They give a fair ly good variety entertainment comprising character songs, dances, etc., with a lecture on the properties of the Kickapoos remedies thrown in. The Indians, three in number, gave a war dance and song. The performance is free except on Saturday night when the fee is 10 cents.
On this occasion a pie eating contest will be a prize of 50 cents is one of the attractions.

THE COMET.—Blaik's comet which is just now receiving so much attention may be seen by those who can recognize it, shortly after sundown about midway in the heavens overhead. It appears as a bright nebulous star, but as it is said to be receding from the earth, nothing like a tail can be seen with the naked eye. On Wednesday night the heavens were illuminated by a meteoric display of great brilliancy and the report was circulated that a stray comet had collided with the earth. There appears to be no truth in the report, and the extraordinary display was due to no unusual cause.

DEER.—On Saturday morning Mr. of the N. B. & P. E. I. track. In When it was first seen the animal was in Fennell's marsh and as Mr. Fennell approached it jumped the fence on the track and came towards him. It suddenly turned, bounded lightly over the fence in the direction of Fred Harris' residence and towards the marsh. From this point it made its way to the Westbrook woods. Several persons who gave chase, some with pistols, umbrellas and sticks and so frightened the animal that no one got a shot at it.

MOULDER'S UNION SUPPER.—The Sackville Iron Moulder's Union No. 140 held their annual oyster supper at the Temperance Hotel on Tuesday evening last. The supper was in honor of their visitor Mr. Thos. Wisdom, 2nd vice-president of the Iron Moulder's Union of North America. The hostess, Mrs.
B. K. Patterson, spared no pains in fulfilling her part of the programme, and an excellent supper was prepared, and dove and music were also given. The toast and speeches was in order.—Bro.
McMeekin proposed the "International Union" which brought Bro. Wisdom to his feet, and in happy and well chosen words outlined the work being done "Iron Moulder's Union No. 140" responded by Bro. Wisdom.

FOREMAN, Bro. Ackles, by Mr. Ackles;
"The Press" by Mr. Sloan; "Our Wives and Sweethearts," by Messrs.
McLeod, Ayer and Fraser. The toasts were drunk in cold water. The affair was most pleasant throughout, and no end of good feeling existed. The assembly joined hands and after singing "Auld Lang Syne" dispersed.

MR. ALLISON NOTES.—The Entertainment given by the Mission Band of the Ladies' College in Beetham Hall on Saturday evening last was attended by a large number from the town and institutions. The program was a short one and the different numbers were well given and received. Miss Wotton's reading was justly encoiled, and the vocal duet "Glory to Thee my God!" which was beautifully rendered by Miss Belle Stockton, soprano, and Miss Edith Troy, alto was given an enthusiastic reception. The concluding piece "A Jolly Sleighing Party" a musical pantomime, written for the occasion by Mr. Mack was cleverly put on. The program was as follows: Orchestra, 1st violins Mrs.
R. Archibald, 2nd violins A. McEwen, the mill owned by P. Sinclair and M.

L. Tucker at Southampton were badly wrecked last week through a freshet in the river.

road, has received a cash prize of $25 from the American Cattle Club of the world, and 50 $25 prizes were distributed.

A pugilistic encounter took place at the railway, on Tuesday morning, about 10 o'clock, between two of our policemen. Two rounds were fought and honors were about even. No damage was done other than to the wearing apparel.—Press.

their cases.

Alex. P. Pick, a clerk in the I. C. R. office at Moncton, gives notice that he will apply to the legal-tum at the next session for an act changing his name to Alexander Mitchell.

sold to the Abbot of the Monastery in Tracadie, the two-year-old filly Bon-elle. This is the fourth pure bred posed of 11 animals last month in Halifax and Montreal.

Albert T. Smythe on whose behalf Judge Tucker on Friday granted a writ of habeas corpus compelling Mrs.
Smythe to produce their child, Beatrice, was reported to be in a bad way.

It is understood, have confidence in each other's integrity. There are two children, but for reasons, Mr. Smythe only desires to obtain possession of the oldest, Beatrice Maud. There may be some revelations when the case comes to trial.—St. John Globe.

IMMIGRANTS.—A special train carrying about 800 immigrants for the west passed through Sackville Sunday evening.

READY HELPERS.—The five o'clock tea and fancy sale held by the above Society in the basement of the Methodist Church was well attended and a large lot of useful and ornamental articles disposed of. Upwards of $80 were realized.

SUDDEN DEATH.—William Ross, who lost his eyeight a year or two ago by an explosion at the Copper Mine near Dorchester, died suddenly there on Tuesday. He was 44 years of age and leaves a wife and two children. He was buried to-day with many mannors.

DAIRYMEN'S ASSOCIATION.—The farmers of Sackville will meet at Union Hall, Up. Sackville, on Monday evening the 5th Dec. for the purpose of organizing a "Dairymen's Association." All interested in the improvement of the butter and cheese industry are invited to attend. Meeting called to order at 7 o'clock local time.

By ADVICE COMMITTEE,
Sackville, Nov. 29, 1892.

DOMINION ILLUSTRATED.—We learn that the Publishers of THE DOMINION ILLUSTRATED MONTHLY intend issuing a very handsome CHRISTMAS NUMBER. It will be a large work, comprising literary articles by prominent Canadian literature, all richly illustrated, and supplemented by three large colored works of art, one of which—"The Rise and Fall of a Canadian Politician"—is bound to be a great hit. We await the publication of this holiday issue with much interest and feel confident that it will be a brilliant success.

THE CAPILLA.—The Norwegian bark Capilla, reported abandoned waterlogged in lat. 50.59, north, lon. 21.30, west by the steamer Catalonia at Boston, on Nov. 13, cleared on October 6th last from Tidnish, not this Vette as reported. She was partly loaded at Northport and finished at Tidnish by Geo. McKean, St. John and cleared for Fleetwood. She lost her rudder and became waterlogged. As her sails are up she will float about with the wind.

JIM'S IDENTITY.—Says the St. John Globe: A rumor is current and has got publicity to the effect that Mr. Rankin, Deputy Sheriff, saw the prisoner known as "Jim" at Dorchester and identified him as a St. John man. Mr. Rankin authorizes the statement that he never saw the prisoner at Dorchester. There is no substantial ground for the assumption that the prisoner belongs to this province. The Times says: Mr.
Ephraim Keith of this city has received a letter from brother Mayor Keith of Fenelon Falls, Ont. asking for particulars about Buck and Jim. He writes at the instance of a Mrs. Smith of Fen-elon Falls, who says she has two sons whose given names are Buck and Jim. and Jim's depositions in Moncton and is anxious to know if they are her sons.
Papers with Buck's picture and an account of the trial will be mailed her.

class and won't be slighted because of the cheap rates.

cently to join Mr. Bentley who preceded them some weeks ago, in Lynn, Mass.
They will be much missed in the community. The best wishes of their many friends follow them to their new home.
—Miss Ella Froehlich is welcomed home again after her vacation of eight weeks.

friends in York city, calling at Boston, Portland and other places on her return.
—Mr. F. W. McCreary of W. H. Hayward's, John, N. B. spent Sunday 13th with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Ford Mc-Creary.

Baie Verte.

—The village feels the loss of our enterprising merchant W. J. Mahoney, whose health requires a warmer climate.
In business and private life he leaves an unblemished record, always ready to promote the best interests of the community and ready to defend any just cause. We wish him health and success in his new home wherever it may be.

socially.

—Mrs. Thompson leaves on Thursday for the World's Fair, in St. Louis, and will be with relatives in Chicago.

seems to offer more attraction than winter.

ing establishment over "Copp and Gooden's" store, thereby filling a long-felt want.

—The Rev. L. S. Johnson still continues ill, his pulpit was supplied last
