Departure of Rev. D. J. G. Macdonald.

ADDRESSES AND PRESENTATIONS.

(5 minutes, 10, 24, 5)

Rev. D. J. G. Macdonald, who has been pastor of St. Paul's Church, Summerside, since October 1, 1890, and who has exchanged missions with Rev. J. C. Maclean, of St. George's, Grand River East, preached his farewell sermon here on Sunday last, to a large congregation. After some preliminary remarks, he gave parents, as his parting words, some sound and practical advice regarding the moral and religious training of their children, his remarks on this subject being eloquent and impressive. Immediately after Mass, a committee advanced to the altar rail, and presented Father Macdonald, on behalf of the congregation, with the following farewell address, which was read by Mr. R. E. Johnston, and which was accompanied by a handsomely filled purse:

To Rev. D. J. G. Macdonald, Pastor of St. Paul's Church, Summerside, P. E. I.

Rev. and Dear Sir.—Having heard, with great regret, the announcement that you are about removing from this parish, at the call of His Lordship the Bishop, to take pastoral charge of another important mission, we cannot permit you to depart from our midst without taking this opportunity of testifying, in a tangible form, our deep appreciation of your services as Pastor of St. Paul's during the past ten years, and our sincere sorrow that our relations as Priest and parishioners has now to cease, though, we beg to assure you, we shall not forget your kindness and self-sacrifice in our behalf. In the decade now closing, your high Christian character, your pastoral zeal, and your readiness to assist in any movement having for its object the more good and welfare of the people of Summerside, and the betterment of the social and industrial conditions of the town, have won for you the esteem and respect of all, and have been attended with the best results.

While not referring in detail to your pastoral work, you will permit us to speak of two or three matters which cannot be passed over in silence. Foremost among these is the establishment in Summerside of a Branch of that splendid fraternal organization, the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association, which continues to flourish and do a good work in our community, and which is destined long to exist as the great landmark of your ten years' pastorate in Summerside. Other church organizations, including St. Vincent de Paul Society, The Mortuary Association, and the various societies, owe much to your hearty co-operation, your good counsel and your guiding hand.

You have given a great deal of thought, of time, and of active work, to the promotion of the cause of temperance, and your labors in this important movement for social and moral reform have, we beg to assure you, borne abundant fruit, and your influence thereon will long be felt in Summerside.

In bidding you farewell, we trust that you will accept in the kindly spirit in which it is given, this feeble assurance of our affection, and we ask your acceptance of the accompanying purse, as a token of our esteem, and as a small return for the kindness and thoughtfulness you have manifested in our behalf during the past ten years. Our best wishes go with you to your new field of labor, and we know that, in your ministrations at the altar, your former parishioners of St. Paul's will not be forgotten.

On behalf of St. Paul's Congregation, R. E. Johnston, J. H. Maclellan, M. D., S. M. Bent, Joseph McCallough, James A. Macneil, Lucien Perry, P. C. Gallant, P. T. Fanning, J. M. Noonan, Committee.

Summerside, P. E. I., Oct. 21st, 1900.

The following is the reply of the Rev. gentleman, who was greatly affected at the above mark of esteem and affection, and at his parting from his people:

Gentlemen, I thank you with all my heart for your kind address which so pertinently emphasizes the deep affection and strong attachment that now binds us together. Ten years ago I was appointed to the pastoral charge of this congregation, a stranger to all of you, and no I leave you enjoying your confidence. I carry away with me many pleasant remembrances of Summerside, but none more highly prized than this.

My one aim has always been to promote your best interests, temporal and spiritual. I trust I have been successful to some extent, I certainly have not been to the extent you give me credit for.

During my administration it is true, the C. M. B. A. was established, but it was the cordial and generous cooperation I met with at your hands that has contributed to the happy results that have been attained.

I take this opportunity, gentlemen, of bearing willing testimony to the whole-hearted support our different church organizations have received at your hands. The Children of Mary Society, the Holy Family Society, The League of the Sacred Heart, the Mortuary Association are all agencies for good, and, thanks to your co-operation, are singularly effective.

While my interest in the work of the convent, in the cause of temperance, and the care of youth was always unabated, still my impaired health for the past few years has prevented me from giving these departments the close attention I wished, and if satisfactory results have been attained the credit is due not to me, but to your zeal and enthusiasm in all matters affecting the family, the home and the church.

I would ask you to tell my fellow citizens of all denominations how fully I appreciate the uniform kindness, friendliness and courtesy extended to me in all occasions. My best wishes go out to this town for its unbrokenness from all debasing habits, for the promotion of all plans tending to improve the condition of labor, and for such a full measure of prosperity as will easily place it in the front ranks of the flourishing towns of Canada.

And turning now more particularly to you gentlemen, as representing my congregation, I beg to assure you that I shall ever treasure your address in the spirit in which it was drafted and accept with pleasure your testimonial as an expression of your devotion and attachment, and promise as a pledge of my affection for you to be specially mindful of you at God's altar.

I ask you to extend to my successor, Father Maclean, one of our clearest young men, the same confidence you so fully reposed in me.

I thank you kindly for your good wishes for my success in my new field of labor, and in conclusion ask God to grant you long years of peace, happiness and prosperity.

D. J. G. Macdonald.

Summerside, Oct. 21st, 1900.

During the reading of the address and reply, very many of the congregation were in tears, and there was a sincere feeling of regret and sorrow at the severance of the relations that had existed, as pastor and people, for so many years.

In the evening, after Vespers, a delegation of Branch 215, C. M. B. A., waited upon Father Macdonald, in the Vestry, and presented him with the following address, which was read by Bro. J. B. Dempsey, and which was accompanied by a handsomely filled purse:

Summerside, P. E. I., Oct. 21st, 1900.

To Rev. D. J. G. Macdonald, Spiritual Adviser Br. 215, C. M. B. A.

Rev. Sir and Bro.—The members of Branch 215 of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association, desire to convey to you, their feelings of sorrow and regret on the eve of your departure for another field of labor.

We need scarcely remind you, Rev. Sir, of our deep obligations to you for the warm interest you have always manifested in the advancement and well-being of the Association.

It was mainly through your zeal and advocacy that a Branch of this magnificent Association was instituted here, and the events which have happened since its inception prove the wisdom which prompted you to agitate for the establishment of such a society in this Parish.

It is now seven years since we had our first meeting, and during that time, whether in your capacity of President, Chancellor or Spiritual Adviser, you have always been an unselfish and devoted member.

In conclusion, we wish you many years of health and vigor to continue your labors in the Church of God, and pray that you may always display the same interest in the spread and maintenance of C. M. B. A. principles that you have during your active membership with us.

And now, Rev. Sir and Bro., we beg you to receive this small offering as a token of our gratitude towards you, and an appreciation of your services as an officer of Branch 215.

Signed on Behalf of Members Branch 215 of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association, Jas. A. Macneil, P. C. Gallant, James B. Dempsey, Committee.

Father Macdonald made a very feeling reply, in which he reviewed the history of the C. M. B. A. in Summerside and elsewhere, and expressed his gratification at the good results that had attended its organization here, where there was a strong, vigorous Branch, whose members were animated by a love of zeal and self-sacrifice. He spoke of the importance of the C. M. B. A. as a fraternal order, and of his great faith in the future of Summerside as one of the very best towns in Canada, and he begged that you would do their part in making it so. He was proud of the C. M. B. A. and proud of the congregation of St. Paul's, and they both had his best wishes. He expressed his deep regret at leaving Summerside, where he had made many friends, and from which he carried away many pleasing remembrances. He would not say farewell, but as he reposed, and he hoped from time to time to meet with his brothers of the C. M. B. A., who had his best wishes and his heartfelt prayers for their continued prosperity, unity and happiness.

The Rev. gentleman was also the recipient of an address from the pupils of the Convent, where a reception was held Thursday afternoon, the address, which was read by Miss Birdie Kenny, being accompanied with two beautiful lamps for parlor and study; another from the Catechism Class, accompanied with a silver pickle dish; and another from the altar boys, accompanied with a handsome study chair.

As a clergyman and a citizen, Father Macdonald occupied a prominent position in Summerside, where all movements for the temporal and spiritual good of the people had his support, and he won the esteem and respect of the people of all denominations, who sincerely regret his departure, and whose best wishes go with him in his new field of labor.

He left by the noon train yesterday for St. George's, and a good many people were at the station to bid him good bye.

Address and Presentation to Father Macdonald.

Before leaving St. George's parish for the mission of Summerside, Rev. J. C. Maclean was presented with addresses by the congregation and the promoters of the League of the Sacred Heart, accompanied with purses the united contents of which amounts to upwards of $100. Sunday the 21st being his last Sunday in St. George's, at the end of the Mass the following address was read to which the Reverend gentleman replied in suitable terms. The presentation by the congregation was the very best obtained in Charlottetown.

Before and Since Liberal Rule.

Total expenditure for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1896, the last year of Conservative rule, $41,702,383; for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1900, the total expenditure $52,713,810; estimated expenditure for the current fiscal year $56,312,527.

A WINNIPEG despatch of the 28th inst. says: C. H. Campbell, attorney general of Manitoba, is re-elected by a splendid majority in Morris. At the general election in 1898 Campbell was returned with a majority of 100. On Saturday night, with five distant polls to hear from, which will increase his majority, the attorney-general had a majority of 318. It will swell to 400 at least. This election became necessary in consequence of Mr. Campbell taking the office of Attorney-General, in succession to Hon. Hugh John McDonald in the reconstructed Manitoba Cabinet. Morris is not a large constituency, and prior to the elections of 1899 was represented by a supporter of Greenway. It will therefore be seen that a majority increased from 100 in 1899 to 400 in 1900 just on the eve of a Dominion general election means a sweep for the Conservatives in that Province.

Mr. H. O. Lisle, barrister, Dawson City, while passing through Winnipeg on his way to England on business, was interviewed by the Telegram, and among other things declared:—

"I have read the report of Sir Herbert Tupper's speech at Brandon in regard to Yukon matters. Sir Herbert Tupper did not state one-tenth of what he might have truly said in regard to the matter in which the administration of affairs has been conducted there since the rush to the gold fields commenced. The manner in which the officials have acted and are still acting is simply shocking to anyone accustomed to British ideas of government."

Mr. Lisle is an Englishman with no particular interest in Canadian politics, and hence able to give an unprejudiced view of Yukon affairs. The interview referred to is a long one, but we hope to find room for it in The Herald within a day or two. Of the truth of the charges of maladministration there is not a particle of doubt. Not a man returns from the Yukon who does not privately assure his friends that affairs out there have been worse than any account that has ever been written of them.—Halifax Herald.

Bright Prospects of Victory.

But one week now remains till the electors of Canada shall have the privilege of determining by their ballots which of the two great political parties shall control the Government of the Dominion for the next five years. The issues before the people have been pretty thoroughly discussed in the press and on the public platform, and it is reasonable to suppose that almost every intelligent elector has by this time fully made up his mind as to how he will cast his ballot. It does not appear to us that any one, still in doubt, should have any difficulty in arriving at a safe and sure conclusion regarding the candidate and the party for whom he should vote. An honest comparison of the promises and performances of the Laurier Government cannot fail to convince an unbiased elector that they have forfeited public confidence and deserve to be driven from power. Let any elector who hesitates in his determination to vote against the Government, reason with himself in this fashion: When the Liberals sought our votes in 1896 they solemnly promised to reduce the public debt; but they have increased it; they promised to reduce the expenditure; instead of that they have increased it by many millions a year; they promised to reduce taxation; and they have increased it by several millions of dollars. They proclaimed themselves the party of political purity and in the face of this have been guilty of the most outrageous election scandals in the Brockville, West Huron and other elections, and the Government threw the shield of their protection over the guilty perpetrators. They condoned the scandalous wrong inflicted upon our soldiers in the emergency rations scandal. In short, they have trampled under foot every principle of reform made before the election, and have prostituted every principle of political justice and honesty. The evidence of all this is spread broadcast on the political records of Canada for the last four years, and every honest and unbiased elector must conclude, after reasoning the matter out, that a party capable of so flagrant a violation of its pledges and promises and sacrificing all principle at the shrine of political expediency, is unworthy of the further confidence of the Canadian electorate. As a further proof of the Government's unworthiness, it is only necessary to look about and see the defections from their ranks in all parts of the Dominion. Scarcely a day passes but we hear of one or more life-long Liberals, leading members of the party, severing their connection with the Government's side and throwing in their lot with the Conservatives. These are intelligent and practical men and can no longer allow themselves to remain in a false position. They remained with their party as long as possible; but seeing matters going from bad to worse, felt compelled to make the plunge. Following is a short extract from Mr. H. H. Cook's written opinion of the Government: "The record of our party while it has been in power under its present leaders is one long, shameful story of promises unfulfilled and broken; of reckless extravagance; of jobbery and corruption; and of utterly disgraceful betrayal of every principle for which a party stood. For the purpose of securing themselves in office the men who have been entrusted with positions of leadership have brought disgrace upon our party and dishonor upon the name of Liberalism. There are many others, as well as Mr. Cook, who perceive the rashness of which the Government is guilty, although perhaps they have not expressed themselves so openly. But when the day of election comes, these are most likely to mark their ballot against the Laurier Government. The signs of Conservative victory are every where in the air; from every province comes the strongest evidence that the Government are losing ground, and the prospects are bright for a sweeping Conservative victory. The result of the by-election in the constituency of Morris, in Manitoba, which we publish elsewhere, may be taken as an evidence of the manner in which Hugh John McDonald is going to sweep that province on the 7th of November. In our own province our cause is gaining strength every day, and the prospects are bright for sending five Conservatives to support Sir Charles Tupper. It is the duty of every intelligent independent elector to go early to the polls and cast his ballot against the corrupt and deceitful Laurier Government."

Are the Charges True?

That politically independent journal, Events, published at Ottawa and Toronto, offers a very proper comment on Mr. Cook's manifesto. It says:—"Mr. H. H. Cook, ex-M. P., a distinguished Liberal who has turned on the Laurier government, is occupying a good deal of the attention of politicians. His manifesto is a lengthy document, and in it he goes for the government in no mild way. He charges them with having broken every pledge they ever made, and he proves his charge right out of their own mouths. No Liberal, who is true to the history and principles of the Liberal party can, he says, support the men who now preside over its destinies, and the reason why they cannot support them is that, in doing so, they will become sharers in the perjury of their leaders. The reply that the Liberal organs make to this is that Mr. Cook wanted a senatorship which he did not get, and now he is sore on the party and is taking this way to get even. This is a heavy argument indeed. It is an argument, too, that could have been used against Mr. Tarte at the time of the Langevin scandal, when he was sore because the Conservatives would not come to his terms. Yet Mr. Tarte's charges were true and were proven, and no one cared what his reasons were for making them. A services was rendered to the country, and that was all the country cared or had a right to care about the matter. So with Mr. Cook, no one cares what his reasons are, the thing to be considered is, 'Are the charges true?' The Liberal organs have not been able to answer them in any other way than by abusing Mr. Cook and, as every one knows, when a disputant recedes to abuse, he has exhausted his argument." That is the view of an independent Liberal journal, and that is the view that every intelligent and independent elector who reads it will take of it. Every elector should read that letter, which we have already published in our columns. Indeed, that letter is worthy of several readings; and we therefore here make an extract from it, presenting a summary of Grit promises and their flagrant violations, and pointing out the only reasonable course for the honest elector to pursue:—"It would be utterly wearisome to review in detail all the ugly record of promises made and broken by the present government. I can only glance at some of those not already noted. "We declared that the number of paid ministers in the cabinet was too great under the late administration. We have the same number still and their aggregate salaries are $4,000 per year greater, one-half this sum going into the pocket of the minister who recently declared that every pledge had been kept. "We denounced the expenditure on account of superannuation, and pledged ourselves to wipe it out; it was greater by $14,331 in 1899 than it was in 1896. "We denounced as useless the creation of the department of trade and commerce. The 'useless' department has been continued. "We promised to abolish the senate, or radically change its constitution; by affording that body an opportunity to save the country from the consequences of extravagant and corrupt deals, the government has enabled the senate to demonstrate its usefulness almost to its indignity. "We denounced the development of monopolies, trusts and combines, as a consequence of the policy of our opponents; not a single one of those which were in existence in 1896 has been destroyed or put out of business, while others have been created and given a foothold in the country by the direct action of the government. "We declared that the expenditure for the administration of justice was too great, Sir Wilfrid Laurier even going so far as to say that thousands of dollars paid to counsel had been improperly, if not corruptly, paid; the expenditure of this department has been increased by $353,000. "We denounced the expenditure of $120,000 for immigration purposes; we have more than doubled this expenditure, increasing it to $255,000. "We condemned the granting of public lands as bonuses to railways; only by the opposition of the senate was the government prevented from consummating a deal by which twenty-five thousand acres of gold-bearing lands, to be selected by the beneficiaries, was to be given per mile for the building of a narrow-gauge tramway. A transaction so flagrantly improper that several government supporters refused to vote for it, and it is doubtful if anyone would now be willing to defend it on its merits. "We denounced the granting of cash bonuses to railways, declaring it to be a fruitful source of jobbery, speculation and corruption; we have well-nigh out-heroded Herod by the reckless way in which we have granted cash bonuses to railways, giving in one instance, for the same railway, two millions more than we had condemned our opponents for offering, and in another, actually granting a bonus to a road for which no charter had been granted, and which was not even projected. "We condemned all corruption, yet our leaders have made us responsible for the Crow's Nest job, by means of which the directors of the leading government organ were permitted to practically grab a quarter of a million acres of coal lands, and the country is saddled with a totally unnecessary payment of two millions of dollars. "We promised purity of administration; the history of the notorious Drummond Railway job shows what regard our leaders had for such a promise. "But why go farther? The regard of our party while it has been in power under its present leaders is one long, shameful story of promises unfulfilled and pledges broken, of reckless extravagance; of jobbery and corruption; and of utterly disgraceful betrayal of every principle for which a party we have stood. For the purpose of securing themselves in office the men who have been entrusted with positions of leadership have brought disgrace upon our party and dishonor upon the name of Liberalism. "What, then, is our duty to our party and to our country? Again I repeat that only by repudiating these leaders, by disassociating ourselves from them, and by doing all that may be in our power to punish them for their falseness and treachery by driving them from power and from the offices which they retain as the price of their treason to principle, can we as individuals and as a party avoid sharing their guilt and participating in their shame. "That is surely the only reasonable conclusion, after reviewing such a record of broken pledges and maladministration. As Evans says, the only question for the electors is, are the charges true? and the Grits admit the truth of them by making no reply to them and by turning to abuse, the writer of them. This is clear admission that the charges are true and unanswerable. "In concluding his comment respecting Mr. Cook, Events refers to the reason he gave for not getting a senatorship, namely that he would not pay $10,000 for it, and says:—"This is not the first time that I have heard of political honors going to the men with the long purse who are not adverse to opening it to the party heeler. It is a custom imported, I believe, from France, where titles have a trade value, and are sold on the market. It may be possible that some of our Ministers who are fond of visiting 'dearly beloved France,' made the discovery there that titles have a value in dollars and cents, and came home to introduce it here. However that may be, we have the practice, and if rumor speaks truly, it has passed the experimental stage." Manifestly the old Liberal who writes the political articles for Events places very little faith in Sir Wilfrid Laurier's rash denial that either he or any of his colleagues had, directly or indirectly, made any such offer of selling a senatorship, and there is no doubt the public generally have equally little faith in Sir Wilfrid's denial.—Halifax Herald.

Protection to Canadian Interests, Canadian Labor and Canadian Industry. An earnest and persevering effort to secure Mutual Preferential Trade within the Empire. The best and the fastest Atlantic Steamship Service that can be got between Canadian ports and Great Britain. Provision for the shipment of Canadian perishable produce in cold storage, direct from the farm to the world's market. Canadian commerce for Canadian ports. An honest, economical and businesslike administration of the public affairs, and an end to deals and steals, and corruption, and trafficking in offices.

—Compared with 1895 every consumer is paying very much more for nearly everything that he buys: Coal is dearer by 30 per cent. Coal oil is dearer by 32 per cent. Sugar is dearer by 30 per cent. Sausages are dearer by 20 per cent. Thread is dearer by 25 per cent. Gray Cotton is dearer by 10 to 15 per cent. Colored Cotton is dearer by 10 to 15 per cent. Stockings are dearer by 10 to 15 per cent. Linens are dearer by 10 to 15 per cent. Boots and shoes are dearer by 15 to 25 per cent. Clothing is dearer by 17 per cent. Wall Paper is dearer by 10 per cent. Furniture is dearer by 10 per cent. Stoves are dearer by 30 per cent. Tinware is dearer by 25 per cent. Common Crockery is dearer by 25 per cent. Common Glassware is dearer by 25 per cent. Bed Ticking is dearer by 12 per cent. Gray flannel is dearer by 10 per cent. Brooms are dearer by 40 per cent.

If any one doubts these figures he has it in his power to verify them by comparing what he pays now with his bills of five years ago. It will, of course, be said that the government is not to blame for these increased prices. And in some cases they are not, though when in opposition they blamed everything on the then government, even to the bad harvests. But for many of the increases, the government is to blame. In some cases it has fostered monopolies, notably in coal oil, and in other cases it has not used its powers to break up combinations. For much, therefore, of the present high prices the Laurier-Tarte combination is clearly responsible.

ANOTHER $1,000 worth of crockery just received at W. P. Colwill's.

The returned members of the Island contingent left for Halifax Friday morning to meet their returning comrades.

A VALUABLE horse, the property of Mr. John Bernard of Kensington, was gored to death by a savage bull one day last week.

The steamer Idaho with the Canadian contingent on board is due at Halifax today. A great reception is in readiness for the boys when they arrive.

The death occurred yesterday morning of Mr. Nelson D. Armour, the well known driver on the P. E. Island railway. His death was caused by typhoid fever.

HON. JOHN SHEPPARD, ex-Secretary of State of the United States is dead. The flag over the U. S. Consulate here is flying at half-mast in respect to his memory.

A SUBSCRIPTION has been opened here to make up a sum of money for the returning soldiers. A large number of people here have responded, and South also has done nobly.

CARVELL Bros. shipped by the steamer Elliott to St. John's Nfld., on Thursday last, 12,000 boxes of oats, 300 boxes of cheese and sixty tubs of butter and a quantity of other produce.

The schooner Viola, from New York for Charlottetown with oil, was towed into Halifax last week with the loss of deckload and hull badly damaged. She had to discharge her cargo there.

ANOTHER Island boy has returned from the war—Private Neoy Dutton. He left here with the first contingent and was invalided to England several months ago with fever. His return Monday night was unexpected.

The death is announced of Prince Christian Victor of Schleswig-Holstein, grandson of Queen Victoria. He was Major in the King's Rifles and his death was caused by enteric fever contracted in South Africa.

LOTTERY.—The drawing in the lottery of a new held by Mr. John Woods of Peake's Station took place on September 15th. The lucky ticket was drawn by Mr. George Jay, Head of Hillsborough. The drawing would have taken place and the announcement would have been made were it not for the fact that the tickets for sale were slow in making returns.

A FIRE in a building at the corner Greenwich and Warren street New York City, compiled by Tarrant & Co. wholesale dry goods, caused four tremendous explosions at noon on Monday. The building was wrecked. Witnesses say a column of debris and flames shot up 300 feet. Reports place two hundred persons killed. In a restaurant next door many persons were injured.

THERE is trouble between the Quebec shoe manufacturers and their men. It is a case of a refusal of a union man to work for weekly wages instead of piece work. He was discharged and a non-union man engaged. As a result all the men in the factory went out. The manufacturers committee thereupon decided to shut down until a better understanding was obtained. About twenty factories and a thousands men are involved.

The Montreal Cotton Company at Valleyfield, Que., have been on strike for some time. On Wednesday last the Royal Scots of Canada—a Montreal regiment—were sent to keep order. On Thursday night the strike developed into a riot and the soldiers were compelled to charge the mob, who met them with sticks and stones. Nine soldiers and four of the strikers were wounded more or less seriously. The riot lasted from eight o'clock until after midnight. At nine o'clock additional troops were ordered from Montreal. They arrived at four o'clock Friday morning. Things are now quiet. An attempt was made to lynch the mayor during the melee. The number of men on strike is said to be 2,000.—On Monday a compromise was effected and the men went back to work.

In South Africa!

The Transvaal was on Thursday last proclaimed a part of the British Empire, proclamation being attended with impressive ceremonies. The Royal Standard was hoisted in the main square of Pretoria, the Grenadiers presented arms, massed bands played the national anthem. Sir Alfred Milner read the proclamation, and 6,200 troops, representing Great Britain and her colonies, marched past.

Hans Botha recently cut off a train with a reconnoitering party of the High-Bridge Brigade between Heidelberg and Greylingstad, in the Transvaal Colony, tearing up the rails in front and behind the train. In the fight which followed, two captives and 8 men were wounded and all were captured. It is reported that former President Steyn and the members of the executive council are at Boursiesburg, north of Bethlehem, and that he has declared Boursiesburg to be the "capital of the Orange Free State. Mr. Steyn has ordered Krieger, a member of the late Volksraad, to be tried on the charge of high treason.

The Boers numbering 200, recently made an attack on the garrison at Jacobsburg. The defenders consisted of a detachment of Cape Town Highlanders, who repulsed the attack with a loss to themselves of 1 killed and 22 wounded.

A despatch received at the war office from Lord Roberts, dated Pretoria, Friday, Oct. 26, referring to the fighting of General Dewet's forces October 25, says: "The British losses were heavier than at first reported. An additional officer and twelve men were killed and three officers and 25 men were wounded. The Boers left twenty-seven dead and nineteen wounded on the field, and twenty-six Boers were made prisoners. Three Boers who held up their hands in token of surrender and their arms on the British were court martialled, convicted and sentenced to death. I have confirmed the sentence." The despatch also refers to minor affairs in which the troops of General Kitchener and General Methuen were engaged.

Another despatch from Lord Roberts says: "Barton attacked the ubiquitous Dewet near Frederickstad. The Boers were scattered in all directions." Lord Roberts telegraphed on the 25th that General Knox successfully engaged Dewet on the 27th. During the Boer retreat, Knox's cavalry in the Boersburg Drift. The Boers lost considerably and left two waggons and three guns. Another ammunition wagon was blown up by a shell. The British had no casualties. Latest despatches say that Dewet with a following of 3,000 Boers is reported in the northern part of the Orange River Colony. Gen. Paigel has taken 65 prisoners, including two field cornets.
