The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

In a little commentary on the characteristics of the French people I was much interested by this paragraph:
 "The advent of a baby into a French family means the opening of a bank account. If its mother and father are humble people, such as those who do ouccierge work in apartment buildings, then they give to this baby whatever they gain from blackening the shoes and whatever tips they get from opening the doors late at night. No sacrifice is too great to make for a child."
 Isn't that a suggestion for American parents?
 I do not mean so much the opening of a bank account at the child's birth. I suppose all parents know that is what ought to be done whether they do it or not. What I mean is the method of saving—the putting aside of the proceeds from some definite source for the child's benefit.
 Of course, as a rule, it wouldn't be from blackening shoes.

In one family that I know of, a little calf born the same day as the baby girl, was straightway christened Louisa May's cow, and was always treated as such, not only in name but in fact. A strict account was kept of the milk sold from that cow, and all the money so brought in, and the money made later by the sale of her calves, was put into the bank in Louisa May's name.
 Consequently when Louisa May grew up and found that she had a talent for the violin, with that nucleus in the bank, the course at the country's best music school was not the impossibility that it might otherwise have been.

In a farmer's family the proceeds from a certain ten-acre potato field, set aside from his birth, sent the son of the family to Harvard.

Of course, the man who has a regular salary does not have like opportunities for saving. But what's to prevent any man, from the day the little foreigner makes his appearance in the home, from putting aside all the pennies that pass through his hands?

Of course the child's education is going to cost just so much money, no matter whether it be saved from some particular source or simply put aside in a lump sum each year.

I'm not trying to show that it wouldn't. All that I want to show is that there's a much more interesting way.

Also one that you will feel much less.

For if you come to regard any part of your income as not belonging to you to spend, you will straightway find that you do not count upon it, and hence do not find it so hard to put it away.

In my giving and saving I have found that out. Recently I have gotten into the habit of thinking of my earnings, not as the whole amount, but as the whole amount less the sum I have promised myself to put aside for charity and to save, and I find that it makes both the giving and saving easier.

Ruth Cameron

Afraid of Ghosts

Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be magnified to a size equal to its terrors it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon. Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.

The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a hollow cheek, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortify the body against all germs by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of clogging impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whiskey or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients printed on its outside wrapper. It is not a secret nostrum but a medicine of known composition and with a record of 30 years of cures. Accept no substitute—there is nothing "just as good." Ask your neighbors.

Fads and Fashions.

Heels are to be lower.

Black satin tailormades are very stylish.

In materials, pied de poule is one of the newest.

Among the newest hats are very low broad affairs.

The plaited frill holds its vogue wonderfully well.

Jet for buttons is not quite as popular as last year.

The colonel's plume is more than ever worn on small hats.

Shaded automobile veils are among the novelties of the hour.

Yellow is one of the favourite colors as the summer advances.

Lace and plain linen turnovers will be worn on stocks of silk.

Patent leather belts with enamelled or jewelled buckles are in the lead.

Velvet and open work designs are seen in embroidered, laundered turnover collars.

French gowns are finished with large round collars of hand embroidered batiste.

The combination of contrasting materials is still a fashion greatly in favor.

Turbans are rising in height and also showing the narrow effect at the crown apex.

New and fetching are bags and belts of cretonne incrustated with fine white soutache.

Often the distinctive touch of the evening gown is the one rose worn on the corsage.

Scarf silk, with deep double border, is the popular gauzy material for evening gowns.

The opinion is universal that the Dutch collar effects will predominate throughout the summer.

It is quite smart to have one's belt, pumps and handbag of the same material, whether leather or velvet.

One of the newest curtains is made of green linen appliqued with a heavy patterned copper-colored Cluny lace.

Small hats of sealskin, bell-shaped, with a small brim, and military turbans, are too much in vogue this fall.

Whale Cutlets.

A whaling vessel is being fitted out in a Californian port with a canning equipment in addition to the ordinary outfit of the whalers. The world has abundant resources, and those who have feared the exhaustion of supplies should take heart in anticipation of a whale cutlet.—Globe, Toronto.

Two Women Murdered.

ROBBERY AND JEALOUSY.

Wealthy Woman's Body Found Buried in Her Own Front Yard—Pet Dog Found Her—Jealous Lover Choked Mistress and Packed Her Body in An Ash Barrel—Trunk Check the Only Clue.

Lancaster, Cal., Aug. 15.—In a shallow grave sunk in the sand of her front yard a pet dog has uncovered the body of Mrs. Frieda Schultz-Castine, a wealthy ranch owner.

Murder, with robbery as the probable motive, is suspected, and telegrams have been sent to ports and border cities between Galveston and San Francisco to arrest the woman's brother-in-law, Otto Schultz, who left here Saturday after saying he was bound for Germany.

Mrs. Castine was last seen Friday when she came here from her ranch, four miles east, to receive a remittance of $6,000 from relatives in San Francisco.

Investigations tend to show that the woman was attacked as she drove into her yard and was thrown into the shallow hole while yet alive.

An examination by an autopsy surgeon disclosed the presence of sand in the lungs and bronchial tubes, drawn there by the victim's dying gasps.

Somerworth, N.H., Aug. 14.—The number of a trunk check is the only clue which the police have to Nicholas Capsalagos, who is being hunted for on a charge of having murdered Marissa Capsalitsa, a woman with whom he lived at 9 Wallace Street and whose body was found packed in an ash barrel in the cellar of that house yesterday. Capsalagos disappeared Thursday morning and thus far the police have only succeeded in tracing him as far as Dover, a few miles away.

An autopsy on the body, which was not completed until long after midnight, showed that the woman had been choked to death, her wind pipe showing the marks of the hands of a person of considerable strength, and it is believed that Capsalagos carried out a threat to end the woman's life if she did not give up Nicholas Kallias, of Biddeford, Me., to whom she is said to have been engaged and of whom her companion here was extremely jealous. Just before her death the woman is said to have had two hundred dollars in cash which she carried in a hand bag around her neck. This has not been found.

Empire Grows Larger.

Leopold of Belgium Left Valuable African Region to Britain by Agreement.

An odd result of the death of King Leopold of Belgium is that the British Empire has grown larger by a tract of land measuring about 150 miles by 200. This country lies at the northeast end of the Congo, and many years ago Leopold coveted it—and grabbed it—because he wanted an outlet for Congo trade on the Nile.

After some haggling with France and with the British Government, he was allowed to keep it, but in 1906 it was arranged that within six months of Leopold's death the district should be handed back to the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan.

The country is very rich, though little developed. The chief town, Lado, was founded by General Gordon, and after the Khalifa had smashed, a Belgian expedition advanced from the Congo and occupied the district.

Municipal Matters.

Concerning Twenty-Mile Pond.

Editor Evening Telegram:

Dear Sir,—If St. John's had ever received any sort of fair treatment at the hands of its rulers it would now be distinguished amongst the towns of America for the health and long life of its people. Death, except from old age, or accident, or the rigour and variability of the climate, would be a rarity with us, and a case of infectious disease would instantly set everybody guessing the foreign port whence it could have come. For there is hardly an advantage which nature could offer for the site of any town which is denied to St. John's. It lies full in the eye of the sun and catches every one of its vitalizing beams. It embraces a valley whose outlet is the wide ocean, so that it is never without a current of refreshing and vivifying air, and stagnation of its atmosphere is a thing impossible to imagine. It lies so close to the sea that its air is continually renewed, and the tang of the salt provides a tonic and stimulant which saves us from the worst effects of the contaminations which the fumes of our governing classes force us to breathe. Our town is built on the slope of a hill which is steep enough and regular enough to outline of itself the trend of a perfect drainage system. Last of all, it is furnished with a plentiful supply of pure and palatable water, and in this particular alone has man aided nature instead of warring against it. We can never be too grateful to the men who brought the waters of Twenty Mile Pond into the town; for their sake we can condone the errors and stupidities of those other men who have failed to make a good use of the system which was first created. I have said most of these things before, but there is a need to say them again at this time, and I shall be much and agreeably mistaken if I shall not have to repeat them several times in the near future. At this moment I want to emphasize the efficiency of our water supply for all our needs save that of protection against fire, and that the present system is deficient in this last particular is not due to any scarcity of water but to the negligence, ignorance, or carelessness of those who devised and instituted the last plant which was put in. There is no system of storage at all, the system of distribution has recently been demonstrated to be faulty, and provisions against waste in dry weather there are none. But that the waters of Twenty Mile Pond afford us a plentiful supply of the best water for consumption and for cleansing purposes it would be idle to deny. For sixty years we have been drawing practically our whole provision of drinking water from this source, and during all that time there has not been one single authenticated case of any infectious disease arising through the impurity or contamination of this water at its origin in the Pond. It happens to us at rare intervals to suffer from a partial drought, but even at such times it has been impossible to trace any of the infectious diseases which naturally afflict a town at such seasons to any pollution of the water at the Pond. What diseases have then arisen are all referable to contaminated wells or streams in the suburbs or to cesspools and neglected drains in the town. In such seasons it is wise, of course, to take the utmost precautions to distrust the purity even of Twenty Mile Pond and to hold its water; but to compare the dangers of our water supply with the dangers of our drains, sewers, cesspools and general insanitary conditions is a height of folly to which none but our City Fathers could ever rise. But they have risen to heights superior to this, for during the last period of drought they went frantic over the perils of the water supply and were absolutely blind to the perils arising from the filth of the town. The monument of this folly is the project to buy out the farmers around the Pond and to create, at huge expense to the town, a reserve all round one of the purest water sources any city can boast. I am not, as I have said before, an enemy to the purchase of this land or the creation of this park. I am willing to take the most extreme precautions against the remotest possibility of danger to the health of the town; but when the expense involved in this enterprise is altogether beyond our means and necessitates the abandonment of precautions absolutely essential to the well-being of our people, I am constrained to raise my protesting voice. And this is exactly our present situation. The Legislature has offered us a grant of $20,000, the interest on which we must continually pay, and the principal of which we must eventually liquidate, for the purpose of buying out the farms near the Pond. We already know that the valuation put upon one single farm is $10,000, or half the whole grant, and we can estimate what must needs be spent before the whole margin of the Pond becomes ours. And until we get the whole we are as well off without any. We need that $20,000, and need it badly, but it is for the purpose of establishing a sanitary system within the town itself and not for the purpose of fighting a danger which is wholly remote, which has never menaced us in the past, and may never endanger us in the future. Until we have made the town clean and wholesome to live in we can afford to run the unlikely risk of suffering from any pollution of the waters of Twenty Mile Pond. When we are able to fight the disease which is always breeding under our very noses we may reasonably take our measures against the peril which looms dimly up in the very distant future; but not till then. Let us prepare to meet the enemy which is at our gates before we enroll ourselves in opposition to the enemy which is not yet recruited. This question is of infinite importance to this town now. I drew public attention to the matter when the late Council was still in office and asked that some information should be vouchsafed to the public, but no answer was given. At what I think was the very last meeting of the old Board a letter from Messrs. Hill was read thanking the Council for its generosity in the matter of the pre-emption of their land, so I presume that so much at least of the land around the Pond has been taken over. Before any further progress is made in this outrageous folly I ask the present Council to condescend to give us some information concerning the present position of affairs, and I further ask them, before taking any decisive steps to pledge the town to a continuance of the policy inaugurated by the late administration, to seek the opinion of our citizens and subject the whole question to public criticism. There are many aspects in which this question may be viewed and I propose to discuss some of them in a future letter.

Yours truly,
 REFORM.

Personal Notes.

Mr. R. Dowden, of the Herald staff, who spent a holiday along the line, returned to town by last night's train.
 Very Rev. Dean Born, of St. Patrick's, Riverhead, celebrated his Feast Day on Sunday last, which was the 43rd anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. The venerable Dean was ordained by the late reverend Bishop Mullock. He is a faithful and zealous priest and many of his friends, including his aged sister, Mrs. Jos. English, called on him and tendered their congratulations.

While Yet There is Time.

How would it be for Newfoundland to take a leaf out of English prison reform? On his accession, King George according to custom desired that something in the way of amnesty be extended to prisoners. This was done and a reduction all round was made in the terms of detention of prisoners. But the movement did not stop at this, the Home Secretary, Mr. Winston Churchill, set to work to institute reforms which have for their objects (1) To keep people out of prison; (2) To prevent them returning to it; (3) To humanize them when they are there instead of stupefying and brutalizing them. But it is not to the general scheme that we wish to direct attention, for some of the evils proposed to be remedied never found a sojourn here. Happily, we have no ticket of leave system to be abolished, nor its attendant evil of police espionage. But we have juvenile imprisonment, and the association of children with older prisoners in the Penitentiary. In England they have a Reformatory system, which we lack, and therefore a means of keeping persons of tender age free from the taint of prison. But Mr. Churchill's reforms go further than this. He proposes to abolish imprisonment of less than a month for all youths between sixteen and twenty-one, and substitute a severe punitive system of disciplinary drills which will leave offenders free from the prison taint. This experiment should be watched with interest here, in order that which opportunity offers advantage may be taken of any success which may attend the effort. The community owes to itself and to the young failures an effort to reclaim them and to train them while there is yet time to acquire habits of order and of obedience to the law of the land. Juvenile Courts, Reformatories, Disciplinary Drills are means directed to straightening out characters which have tendencies to become crooked, and to do it while juveniles and youths are young and more likely to bend in directions which will make them useful and profitable citizens of the State.

The Bellin Ross, Capt. Fitzgerald, sailed yesterday for Pernambuco taking 3,076 qts. of codfish.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DISTEMPER.

The Bank of Montreal.

This old institution is one of the great banks of the world. It has now a building of its own in New York, on Wall Street, and does an enormous business in the great American Metropolis. For the last half year its profits were $819,000. Its surplus has increased to over seven hundred thousand dollars, and the rest is over twelve millions. It is rumored that the bank is going to open a branch at Grand Falls, but the report is not yet confirmed. Its new bank building at Winnipeg will cost a million and a half dollars.

Football Match.

The Stars won by 3 goals to 2 in the match with the eleven from the Brilliant last evening. The game was an excellent one and there was none of that roughness which is often seen in matches with men-o'-war-men. The weather was perfect and the game was played under ideal conditions. It could be seen from the start that the Stars were the better men. There was a good deal of excitement and the navy men were from time to time cheered on by their friends. Some of the best shooting of the season was witnessed. The navy men worked very hard towards the close of the game to equalize, but were unsuccessful. Mr. W. J. Higgins acted as referee to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Found Two Old Wells.

In excavating for the foundation for the new clothing factory, just west of the Telegram office, the workmen unearthed two old wells over at the east and another at the west upper corner. They are over 20 feet deep, are circular in shape and made of the red coloured stone such as is quarried on Signal Hill and from where this stone was evidently taken. Two decayed old wooden pumps were found in them, and they were evidently in use before water was brought from Winsor Lake.

Brought a Lunatic.

Sergt. Kent arrived here last night from Placentia with a man named John Griffin of St. Brides, for the Lunatic Asylum. Mr. Griffin is a well known and respected man of the place and for some time past has been afflicted with melancholia. He was brought in from Waterford Bridge.

Dr. Lehr, Dentist, has resumed business. His office will be open till September 5th.—aug 23, 31.

KEEP MINARD'S LINIMENT IN THE HOUSE.

Revolution Successful.

Special to Evening Telegram. NEW OREANS, Aug. 22. After almost a year of severe fighting the revolution which was begun by several hundred Nicaraguan insurgents at Bluefields in Oct. 10, 1909, ended to-day with the capture by the revolutionists of the capital city of Managua and the resignation of President Madriz in favor of Gen. Jose Estrada, brother of the insurgent leader. Cable despatches received in New Orleans to-day announced that Managua had fallen early to-day. No resistance was offered by Gen. Meno, who at the head of an army largely augmented by the campaign in the interior marched into the city. Dr. Jose Madriz, who had been President since Zelaya was deposed last Nov., abdicated before the insurgent army arrived. Jose Estrada in turn issued a proclamation declaring his brother, General Juan Estrada, "President of the United Republic of Nicaragua."

Cricket Match.

The Cricket match in St. George's Field to-morrow afternoon in aid of the church ship, will be under the distinguished patronage of His Lordship, Bishop Jones. His Excellency the Governor and suite will be present during the afternoon. We append the names of the players: Shamrocks, P. J. Berrigan, Captain; P. Wallace, J. Donnelly, W. Lhegar, J. Larkin, J. S. Keating, E. J. Berrigan, C. Ellis, E. Furlong, J. Savage, Jas. Foley. Job's Team, R. B. Job, Captain; W. C. Job, T. B. Job, A. Donnelly, T. C. Fitzherbert, F. H. Donnelly, J. S. Munn, H. Rendell, G. Harvey, J. Trenchard, Gerald Ayre.

How He Suicided.

The body of a young man named Griffin, son of Mr. Maurice Griffin, of Tessier Place, arrived here by the Invermore yesterday. The young man was 25 years of age, had been fishing at Battle Harbor and for some time before he took his life his mind had been affected. A couple of days before he suicided he jumped overboard while out fishing and was rescued only after much difficulty. After being brought ashore a man was left to watch him. He went into the hold of the craft they were on to stow away some fish, leaving the unfortunate man in the cabin. While he was absent Griffin cut his throat from ear to ear, and when the man left to safeguard him returned he was horrified to find him lying dead in a pool of blood. His father is a well known man, an employee of Baine Johnston & Co., and great sympathy is expressed for him and his wife.

The Kennewick left London Sunday morning for here. The Dahome sailed at midnight for Liverpool with 1,250 tons cargo.

Glasgow Editor Here.

We had the pleasure of a short conversation this morning with Mr. Frank Spedding, the Editor of the Daily Record and Mail of Glasgow. Mr. Spedding is a Lancashire man who received his early journalistic training on the well known Manchester Guardian. In 1895 he started the Glasgow Daily Record for Mr. Horace Harmsworth, who has recently received a baronetcy. The Daily Record was a pioneer in its way and its success induced Alfred Harmsworth, now Lord Northcliffe, to try a similar paper in London. The result was the Daily Mail, which has achieved an enormous success and which has had for one of its results the establishment of the Grand Falls pulp and paper mills in Newfoundland. The Glasgow Daily Record has also a large holding in the Grand Falls stock and is printed on paper made at Grand Falls. Mr. Spedding and his wife are on their way to Grand Falls, and after visiting the plant there will pursue their way to the Canadian West on a tour of observation. We wish them a pleasant time.

Met Painful Accident.

While the Fogota was at Bonavista on her way to this port Miss Annie Roper, sister of Mr. Jos. Roper, of Water Street, suffered a very painful accident. She was coming down over a companion ladder to the deck when she slipped and fell heavily several feet to the iron deck. Her foot caught in one of the iron rings but fortunately the heel of the boot came off. Had not this occurred her leg would have been broken. As it was she received a badly sprained ankle and had to remain in her berth for the rest of the voyage. On arrival she had to be lifted ashore to a carriage. The leg is swollen and inflamed and very painful and she is being treated by a doctor.

Fishery News.

Change Islands.—Boats 2 to 3 qts. on herring; no squid.
Lark Harbor.—Fair fishing yesterday; squid scarce.
Bonne Bay.—Squid plentiful and good catches of codfish in offing when the weather is civil.
Sound Island.—Better sign of cod; boats 1/4 to 1/2 qts. each; plenty squid.
La Se.—Light S. W. wind; boats 1 to 2 qts.; sign of squid; herring scarce.

CAPE REPORT.

Special Evening Telegram. CAPE RACE, To-Day. Wind west, gentle weather, fine; preceded by fog this morning; the steamers Ormandy and Moorby passed east yesterday. The schr. S.S. Nymph passed west at 7 a.m., the S.S. Mongolian at 10 a.m. to-day. Bar. 29.85. Ther. 59.

Council Meeting.

The City Council had a special meeting last night to discuss the re-installing of P. Myron in his position. The meeting was held with closed doors and the newspaper men who went there were told that they would not be let in. Councillor Mullaly strongly protested against this, we hear, and said that reporters should not be excluded from any meeting. Councillor Mullaly told Mayor Ellis that the Council in the past made a mistake in not taking the public more into their confidence. The conference ended in the Council refusing to take Myron back.

Autos' Fast Driving.

People along the South Shore from Manuels to Holyrood have become incensed at the manner in which owners of autos and motor cycles drive up the shore. These are a hard working, honest people who own a good lot of live stock, horses, sheep, and cattle, and so swiftly do motors run up the shore of late that almost daily animals are being killed, while there is also great danger to children playing about near their homes. Another danger is that horses while people are driving along the road become frightened and bolt, and there is a risk of those driving carriages being killed. There is a movement on foot now among the people to assemble on the roads and prevent autos from passing unless the regulation speed is observed.

Here and There.

M. G. B. PARADE.—The Methodist Guards parade to Cochrane Street Church on Sunday next.

TWO MORE BLACKLISTERS.—Two more men were added to the black list to-day, and this makes 82 all told to date.

DOG-FISH PLENTIFUL.—Dogfish are very plentiful at Portugal Cove this morning. They interfere very much with the codfishery.

STARTS AT BELL ISLAND.—Mr. J. Cantwell has purchased the large store owned by Mr. I. F. Perlin at Bell Island and will start a drug store there.

THE PORTUGAL COVE GARDEN PARTY.—This year, for several reasons, Rev. Fr. Ashby has decided to hold his annual garden party at "Carlton Grove," opposite the Major's Path. This is an ideal spot for an outing, being only three miles from town, though a part of Fr. Ashby's parish. As the grounds are extensive, those assisting intend introducing different kinds of entertainments for young and old, and a most pleasant day is assured all who attend. The event comes off August 31st, to-morrow week.—adv.

No matter what any maker says about his Wire Fence, if it cannot stand the Peerless Test it is not good enough to put up on your farm.

Don't buy any wire fence until you know it is strong and springy and that the galvanizing is heavy and thorough enough to protect the wire from rust.

You get samples of the different wires and we'll send you a formula for testing wire along with samples of the Peerless fence.

This simple test of ours will prove to you whether the galvanizing on a piece of wire is good enough to protect it from rust or not.

We know that Peerless Fence will stand the most severe tests—we've tried them all.

We know it is galvanized so carefully and so thoroughly that it will not rust.

Take our regular Peerless

Farm Fence—every strand is No. 9 gauge English made wire—it is tough, springy and rustless.

You can put a Peerless Fence on your farm and trust it to do its work well. It will take the shocks of unruly animals or carelessly driven wagons, and spring back into perfect shape again.

The Peerless lock grips the wires firmly at each intersection so they can't slip, yet permits the fence to adjust itself to an uneven surface.

The Peerless Fence is always taut—its spring coil formation allows for all contraction and expansion caused by changes of temperature.

Be fence wise. Write to-day for testing formula and samples of Peerless Fence. Test and prove them before you buy.

PEERLESS, the Fence that saves expense.

BRITANNIA LOST AT CAPE BALLARD.

July 21st, 1842, the American steamship Britannia was lost near Cape Ballard. She had 200 passengers on board, all of whom were saved. The fog was very thick around the ship when the accident occurred. The Britannia was on a voyage from Liverpool, England, to New York, U. S. A., and was at sea four weeks when she met with the mishap. Two schooners belonging to Ferryland conveyed the passengers to St. John's, where they were kindly looked after by the Government who, on their arrival, called a meeting of the Council Board, and a sum of five hundred pounds was voted by them for the assistance of the unfortunate passengers of the Britannia. This helped to keep them while at St. John's and also defrayed the price of their passages to their various destinations.

NEARLY FOUR HUNDRED LIVES LOST—"ARCTIC" SINKS IN MID-OCEAN.

Shortly after the loss of the "City of Philadelphia" news reached St. John's of the loss of the steamer "Arctic" and nearly four hundred precious souls. The "Arctic" belonged to the Collins Line, and at the time of the melancholy occurrence was on a voyage from Liverpool to New York and had on board over four hundred passengers and crew all told. September 27th 1854, she was "ran into" by a French steamer named the "Vestal," bound from St. Peter's to Granville, France. The accident happened during a dense fog about fifty miles S. E. of Cape Race; the Vestal was badly damaged, but she managed to reach St. John's, Newfoundland, where she was repaired. It was not so, however, with the unfortunate "Arctic." Shortly after the occurrence the captain gave orders to launch the boats. The first boat which was attempted to be lowered met with a mishap, in it were Mr. Collins his wife and son, the tackle gave way and the three of them were cast into the sea and lost. Another boat was launched which succeeded in getting safely away from the steamer. This boat contained some ladies and gentlemen and many sailors. The captain remained on board to work the ship. He determined, if possible, to reach Cape Race. In this attempt he failed as the water put out the fires in the engine room. He then started to build a raft assisted by the passengers, who worked cheerfully under the circumstances. Before the raft was properly completed the ship went down. Those on board who came to the surface grasped any thing that was available. In the meantime the boat which had left the ship shortly after the accident reached Renew's and chartered a schooner to go look for the wreck, which was done, but with no success. Vessels were sent from St. John's to search also for the "Arctic" but they returned after a week's cruise without having seen any sign of her. The yacht Hawk, owned by the Church of England Bishop, was also sent. She however, met with the same success as the others. Capt. Luce, three passengers and five seamen of the "Arctic" and a passenger of the Vestal were picked up on a raft October 14th, by the barque Cambria, Capt. Rumell, and were taken to Quebec. One of the seamen taken from the raft was handed the sum of thirty thousand pounds by a passenger of the "Arctic" when he (the passenger) seeing that he could hold it no longer. He was drowned shortly afterwards. The seaman held it for a considerable time, but finally had to give it over to the mercy of the sea. He found the job as much as he could do to hold on to the raft to save his life. While the passengers were at St. John's they were treated most humanely by the authorities.

BRIGANTINE "INDEX" LOST.

Sunday night, March 17th, 1844, the brigantine "Index" in command of Capt. Coalfleet, was lost near Cape Pine. The ship was bound to St. John's, Newfoundland, from New York, laden with pork, hams and tobacco. The night was intensely dark and a heavy gale raged from the S. E. With the greatest difficulty the crew effected a landing in the ship's boats; unfortunately the only passenger on board the "Index"—a captain named "Indsay"—was drowned. Thomas Tatem, a native of Bermuda, died an hour or two after landing, caused from exposure while crossing the barrens on the way to Trepassay, whither the captain and crew had set out for after their trying experience. Tatem was one of the seamen of the "Index."

HIBERNIA'S NARROW ESCAPE.

The Royal Mail steamer Hibernia had a narrow escape from being lost on the 5th of November, 1845. The Hibernia left Halifax, Nova Scotia two days previous bound for the Old Country with freight and passengers. The weather was moderate, but a dense fog prevailed on the evening of the day in question. About seven o'clock an alarm was given by the man on the "look out" land having been discovered "close aboard." The captain immediately ordered the helm to be put hard to larboard and the maddled backed, when at one and the same time the ship struck on her larboard bow on Cape Race. She heeled in near the place until daylight, leaking badly, while those on board were in a state of excitement. The captain deemed it prudent—under the circumstances—to "run" for St. John's, which was reached in safety, and the ship received the necessary repairs to continue her voyage across the Atlantic.

CITY OF PHILADELPHIA LOST AT CHANCE COVE.

One of the most providential escapes from a great loss of human life happened in 1854, September month. The steamship "City of Philadelphia" with 540 passengers on board struck in Cape Race in a thick fog. The "City of Philadelphia" was built on the Clyde by the firm of Todd and Macgregor, of Manchester, England, and was on her maiden voyage. She measured 292 feet long; 39 feet beam; 25 feet deep. She was 2,154 tons and 50 horse power; she cost sixty thousand pounds, and her cargo was valued at the same amount. After she struck on the Cape she was "backed off" into Chance Cove where she was beached in about three fathoms of water. The passengers and crew were all saved, they reached the land in boats and remained until the following day when the steamer Victoria, of the Telegraph Co., reached them and brought 200 of them to St. John's, leaving immediately after landing them for the remainder. The passengers and crew were well attended.

Notes From Bell Island

OUR IRON ISLE.
Messrs. R. J. Costigan and D. J. Jackman, who were on a vacation to Sydney, returned on Saturday morning.

Rev. Dr. Greené, of the Cathedral Parish, spent a few days here last week as the guest of Fr. McGrath, our esteemed pastor.

Saturday next the Dominion and Wabana football teams play off for the 1910 championship for the trophy presented by Messrs. Kent, Shea and Dwyer. A close game is anticipated as these teams have met twice already this season, each team winning one game.

Mr. Hayward, of the Nova Scotia office, has gone to Sydney for his vacation.

Mr. J. Greene, of the D. I. & S. office, returned on Friday from a vacation to St. John's.

Mr. F. McGrath, of the A. A. Class, St. Bonaventure's College, spent a few days of his vacation here last week.

Mrs. and Miss Murphy returned from St. John's Friday where they were attending the wedding of Mr. W. J. O'Neill.

Quite a crowd from St. John's, including Messrs. J. Crotty, J. Vinnicombe and N. Vinnicombe, were visitors at the Regatta Saturday.

Just a word of praise to President Taylor and Secretary Lawton on the success achieved by the Regatta Committee in this year's Regatta, of which they were the executive.

Montreal Man Broke His Neck.

Montreal, Aug. 19.—A curious accident occurred to-night at a small amusement place on St. Lawrence Street, called New Park. Thomas Michaud, a spectator, after watching a performance was unwise enough to try to imitate the performers. Through some lack of good sense he was permitted to climb up the apparatus, and after making several awkward attempts fell a distance of 20 feet to the ground, breaking his neck. He is not expected to recover from his injuries.

Forty-Five Forest Fire Fighters Perish.

OTHERS IN DANGER.
Special to the Evening Telegram. SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 22. Hourly reports from the fires in the forests of Northern Idaho, Western Montana, are increasing the toll of the dead. The latest figures from Wallace are that 45 fighters have perished. The hills forest ranger, Van Dicke, and a crew of 65 enlisted men in Spokane, are reported surrounded by flames. A woman and her daughter perished also. Five are known to have died near Newport in an attempt to reach the town. All along the Great Northern and Northern Pacific tracks, between Spokane and Helena, numberless fires are known to be raging fiercely. Before communication with Libby ended it was reported that every male resident of the town were working with 200 paid fire fighters.

The Bedford Loses 18 Tars.

Special Evening Telegram. LONDON, Aug. 22. Eighteen lives were lost when the British cruiser Bedford ran ashore on the rocks off Quelpart Island, Korea, yesterday, according to the report received by the Admiralty. The men were members of the engine room staff. Further details show that she is seriously damaged and lies in a bad position. It appears that she struck the rocks two miles west of the island, lying about 500 miles south of Korea, during a thick fog at 4 o'clock Sunday morning. The cruiser was then sailing with a British squadron from China for Nagasaki. The bottom of the ship and the machinery, according to wireless reports, suffered serious damage from the rocks, and the cruiser is pounding badly in the heavy sea. A number of Japanese warships accompanied by lighters and salvage vessels were despatched from the nearest Japanese station immediately upon receipt of the news of the disaster, but whether the ship can be salvaged is doubtful. The accident occurred during full speed trials of the vessel, and the cruiser was evidently badly holed, since the deaths are stated officially to have been due to the rush of water. The vessel lies in such a desperate position that there is practically no possibility of saving her. The hull is full of water up to the engine room with the water pouring in through gaping holes punched by the rocks. The officers and crew have been taken off. The sister ships, Monaghan and Monmouth, of the British squadron, which anchored yesterday near the wreck to render any service possible, were obliged to put to sea last night owing to the weather which prevails.

Chinese Press Becoming Alarmed.

Special to Evening Telegram. PEKIN, China, Aug. 22. The Chinese press is expressing alarm over the prospect of China losing her outlying provinces, and publishes frequently stories of alleged semi-military encroachments by Russia in Mongolia and other border provinces. The newspapers are suspicious of Great Britain as a third party to the Russo-Japanese understanding, which will not permit China to achieve Sulerian authority which she is seeking to establish in Tibet.

Uncle Sam and Panama Election.

Special Evening Telegram. PANAMA, Aug. 22. It was stated at the American Legation to-day that the U. S. Government would consider unofficially the election by the National Assembly of Acting President Carlos Mendosa, as President of the Republic of Panama, to fill out the unfinished two years of the term of the late President Obaldia. This statement coming so close upon the time for the meeting of the Assembly to choose a President has created a great sensation in political circles. Senator Mendosa was second Vice-President at the time of the death of President Obaldia last March and immediately assumed the office of Acting President.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES GARGET IN COWS.

Home of Wesleyanism.

Progress of the New Church House at Westminster.

The dazzling white walls of the new Methodist Church House at Westminster are beginning to lift themselves slowly above the surrounding buildings on the site of the old Royal Aquarium. It is just three years since the work was begun, and a detail inspection of the building reveals the gigantic character of the task. The great outer walls, 4ft. 6in. in thickness, the massive piers in the basement between which stretch low vaults of 45ft. span, the huge steel stanchions soaring upward to carry the dome, tell, in the language of the architect, of the Wesleyan Methodists' faith in their future. The great congress hall, which fills the centre of the building, still lies open to the sky. When the wide galleries now being constructed are complete it will accommodate 2,550 people, who in case of fire or emergency could be passed out in three minutes.

At each corner of this hall, both on the gallery and main floors, are spacious foyers where those attending the services or congresses may rest and chat; while on the entrance floor, a suite of rooms will be set aside as a ladies' club for the convenience of those coming up from the country.

The entrance hall and grand staircase will strike a new note among the Gothic architecture of Westminster, where its great height, 212 ft. from pavement to topmost pinnacle, will make it a conspicuous landmark.

The total cost of the building will not fall short of a quarter of a million sterling.

Father of the Lords.

Earl Nelson the "father" of the House of Lords, yesterday celebrated his eighty-seventh birthday.

Lord Nelson who is the third earl and the grandnephew of the famous admiral was born in 1823, and succeeded his father in 1835. Although he is not the oldest member of the House of Lords the Earl of Wemyss, Lord Stratcona, and the Duke of Grafton being his seniors, he has sat in the House for a longer time than any of these Peers.

Until recently he was a regular attendant in the House of Lords. He married in 1845 Lady Mary Jane Diana Agar, daughter of the second Earl of Ormanton, but is now a widower.

Chinese Women in Kilts

Dr. Gell, an American traveller, just returned from a year's journey in China, found an aboriginal tribe whose women wear a sort of kilt. He was struck (says Reuter's Agency) by a general feeling of resentment against the "baby" Emperor, by the progress of modern institutions, the preparation of an enormous army, and the absence of poppy (opium) cultivation.

Notes From Harbor Grace.

The Guy Ter-Centenary Celebration was a most successful affair from start to finish. Your special correspondent is to be congratulated on the full account sent over the wires to the Evening Telegram, which was much appreciated by the public.

The accident to Lieut. Lyon of the Brilliant was much regretted and seemed to take the edge off the appetite for enjoyment of many of our people.

It is estimated that 3,000 people witnessed the sham battle at Bristo's Hope on Thursday last.

Mrs. Edward Parsons and her daughter Susie intend leaving this week for Salvage, B.B., on a visit to Mrs. Parsons' former home.

Among the visitors to town last week were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Oke and family. They were guests of Judge and Mrs. Oke.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Parsons on the 12th inst.

Mrs. Rice (nee Miss Mary Brace), daughter of the late Mr. John Brace, is here from Boston on a visit to the old town after an absence of over 20 years. Mrs. Rice's former friends were glad to meet her. She is at the Cochrane Hotel.

Many of our townspeople are complaining of colds, &c., after last week's outings and innings. Mr. O. E. Grim, the genial Secretary of the Regatta Committee, is among the number. Much of the work in connection with the very successful 1910 Regatta fell to the lot of Mr. Grim, and to his credit be said that a large amount of the success must also be put down to his untiring efforts.

The British Society are arranging for their excursion to St. John's to take place about the 1st of September.

A very pretty book of views of Harbor Grace has just been published by Messrs. Munn and Oke of the Standard Office. Many people will keep these pretty little souvenirs of their visit to Harbor Grace, and others will be glad to send them to absent friends. The work is well done and reflects credit on the firm publishing the booklet.

R. B. P. Dinner.

The Royal Black Preceptory gave a dinner at Wood's Restaurant last night in honor of M. W. Sir Knight, Thomas Gilday, Grand Master, B.N.A., R.B. Knight of Ireland, who is making an official visit to the country. Mr. J. W. Penny, the Provincial Grand Master of the Black, presided, with the P.M.G. of Newfoundland, Capt. A. Kean, on his left, and the guest of the evening on his right. The Chairman delivered a very fine speech in opening the proceedings. Mr. Gilday replied in suitable terms, his speech being replete with Irish wit. The following toast list was then rendered:

- "The King"—Prop. the Chairman; God Save the King.
- "The Royal Black Institution and the M. W. Grand Master of B.N.A."—Prop. Mr. J. W. Penny; resp. Mr. Thos. Gilday.
- Song—Mr. Geo. Langmead.
- "The Loyal Orange Association"—Prop. Mr. C. H. Hutchings, K.C.; resp. Capt. A. Kean, P.G.M. of Nfld.
- Recitation—Mr. Geo. Rabbits.
- "The British Empire"—Prop. Mr. J. W. Taylor; resp. Hon. J. A. Robinson, M.L.C.
- Song—Mr. Ross.
- "This Newfoundland of Ours"—Prop. Mr. G. W. Gushue; resp. Mr. A. W. Piccott, M.H.A.
- Recitation—Mr. E. V. Wylie.
- "Canada, the Empire of the West"—Prop. Mr. J. S. Currie; resp. Mr. Thos. Gilday.
- "Our Guests"—Prop. Mr. J. C. Pudister; resp. Mr. R. G. Ash, Mr. Jesse Whiteway, M.H.A.
- "The Chairman"—Parop. Mr. J. B. Giles; resp. the Chairman.

Obituary.

There passed peacefully away at Holywood, St. Mary's Bay, on Tuesday, the 9th inst., Bridget, beloved daughter of Anne and the late Benjamin St. Croix, aged 24 years. Deceased had been residing in Boston for the past six years and about a year ago contracted a cold which developed into consumption. She returned home in May, hoping the change would benefit her, but God willed otherwise. She leaves a mother, brother, four sisters and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn her early death. May her soul rest in peace.—Com.

Hand Bitten.

While going in Saturday afternoon by train Mr. A. Blackler, a brakeman on the train, had his hand pretty badly bitten by a drunken man whom he and Conductor Penny were trying to put off. The man was very disorderly and created consternation among the passengers. He was fired from the train at Irvine Station.

Nutritive Hypophosphites

When a person feels "blue"—"all tired out"—"doesn't feel like doing anything"—cannot concentrate his mind on his work—feels weak mentally and physically—doubts his powers—complains of poor appetite and sleeplessness—suffers from headaches—then his nervous system is run-down and demands a good up-building tonic. Nervous exhaustion is a modern disease, caused by too close attention to business, overwork, worry, devotion to trying family cares overstudied, etc.
Nutritive Hypophosphites forms the best nerve and brain food known, and have restored thousands of sufferers to health. Large bottle, $1.00.

Trip of the S. S. Fife.

Mr. W. D. Reid, Mr. Pimmsoll and Mr. Reid's boys who were down to Bonavista Bay, Trinity and Catalina, in the S. S. Fife returned this morning. Mr. Reid landed at Trinity and being his first visit he was highly pleased with the tour and the evidences of comfort and prosperity. The same at Catalina and Bonavista. The grading of the railway is now within a quarter of a mile of Trinity Arm, and there are 43 miles of rail laid. While at Trinity Mr. Reid visited Mr. Job's whale factory and the principal places of interest. Trinity, Mr. Reid says, is one of the most beautiful spots that he has seen in Newfoundland, the scenery reminding him of parts of Switzerland. After calling at Catalina and Bonavista—both busy towns—the Fife proceeded up Bonavista Bay to Southern Bay where Mr. Reid took the new branch and went out to the end of the track. There is a hard spot of country for railroading around Trinity and the heavy rock cuts will make the progress slow for a few weeks; the job is progressing well however. There are about 2,000 men on the work. Mr. Powell will finish the survey to Bonavista this week.

NEW CAR SHOP.

Mr. Reid informed the Telegram that the foundation work on the new car shed will be commenced tomorrow. It will be 250 feet long and 50 feet wide, and will be located to the south of the Railway Station where the river has been filled in. All the old buildings near the Dock will then be turned into the machine shops, the space being required for this purpose owing to the new requirements that arise out of the construction of the branches.

RAILWAY NEWS.

A new railway station at Shoal Harbor will be started next week. The masonry at all the bridges on the branch line as far as Seal Cove will be completed this week.

SYRIANS ARRIVED.—Eleven Syrians arrived by the last Allan boat en route to America. They reported to a countryman of their own in this city that another compatriot of theirs residing at Liverpool had charged them £20 for each ticket in the Carthaginian, whereas they find now that the right passage money is only 10s.

INVERMORE WILL SAIL.—The s.s. Invermore will sail for Labrador at 10 Wednesday morning and not 10 Wednesday night, as the Daily News had it.

Another Treasure.

A hidden treasure has been reported from Keel's, B.B. A resident had plans and maps handed down from his grandfather. Information about this reached town this summer. Mr. Smallwood, who heard of the rumor, went down a few days ago and on examination of the chart found that it corresponded with Barnabas's Pond, near Keel's, and he is now engaged drying out the mud to get the gold. It is said to be deposited in a sack under a large flat stone.

Fell Overboard.

Two Syrians who lately arrived here by the Allan boat fell overboard when fooling with a boat at Monroe's wharf this morning. They would have been drowned, only for the prompt action of Mr. J. Burt of Whiteways, who heard the splash in the water and hastened to the spot and pulled them out.

Montreal Man Kills His Wife and Then Himself.

MONTREAL, Que., Aug. 18.—Urged on by jealousy, John O'Keefe, laborer, 1,350 Logan St. shot his wife, Rosa Anne De Lima, Bolquist, dead and then killed himself at one o'clock this morning. There were two families in the house and it was said that the attention paid to his wife by the man led to the deed.

There is a certain amount of mystery as there had been no quarreling, and the first intimation that there was anything wrong was a shot which ended the wife's life. This was followed in a minute by another, and when the neighbours rushed in the wife lay dead in the bed having been shot in her sleep, and the body of the husband with the head blown off by a shot upwards through the mouth, lay across that of his wife.

Here and There.

GOING TO BELL ISLAND.—Fifteen men came in from Blaketown by to-day's train and went to Bell Island seeking work in the mines.

M. F. MURPHY, has opened a new and up-to-date Barber's Shop opposite the General Post Office, where, assisted by a competent staff of workmen, he is prepared to cater to the wants of the public. Orders taken for wigs and toupees. Friends, old and new, cordially welcomed, Aug. 23, 11.

RAM'S HEAD CURIO.—Mr. J. Bartlett of the Cabot Signal Station has obtained possession of the head of the "Ram" that was taken down by Mr. Friedman last week from the front of his Water Street store. He had it bronzed over and will put it in a glass case as a curio.

HOME'S REPORT.—The Home arrived at Bay of Islands at 5.15 a.m. to-day. "Fairly good fishing at Battle Harbor, Pleasant Harbor, Chateau and Henley Harbor whenever the weather is suitable to get out on the fishing ground." The above is the message sent by Capt. Blandford.

Mr. W. Ashbourne, merchant of Twillingate, is in town. Mr. Ashbourne, who has between 40 and 50 schooners on the Labrador, Straits and French shore fishing, has good hopes that the Northern Labrador, about Muford, where his biggest vessels are, will turn out a fair voyage.

GLENCOE'S PASSENGERS.—The Glenoe arrived at Placentia at 8.40 a.m. to-day with the following saloon passengers: Lieut. Chubb, B. Lou, A. McDougall, Mrs. Hawkins, Miss Hawkins, Miss C. Cluett, Miss Tobin, Mrs. Morris and child, Miss K. Moulton, Miss H. Moulton, Mrs. Small, Miss Leslie, Mrs. Goddard, Mrs. Burke, J. Goff, Rev. Norman, A. Noah, Rev. Bro. Kennedy, Rev. Bro. Dagan, J. Baxter, B. L. Stephens, B. Keeling, M. Williams, C. Moulton, H. Colley, G. Bell, T. Peel, J. Meehan, Mr. and Mrs. Richards and child, E. Stapleton, Capt. Woodfrey and wife, Mrs. Hiscok, Capt. Rose, Lieut. Forsey, Miss Reed, P. Kehoe, Miss Rose, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Hiscok, N. Wadden, R. Bradley, Miss Hickman, Miss Brushett, W. H. Newhook, Miss Bishop, Mrs. Willar and 2 children and 3 second class.

After the Highlanders held their drill last night in their armoury, Messrs. Geo. Benson, J. Miller and H. Barnes, who go to the North-West of Canada, were bid farewell by their comrades. These three young men were connected with the brigade since its inception and all expressed regret at their departure. They leave with the best wishes of their comrades.

Fogo Fishery Failure.
By the Fogo we learn that the trap fishery at Fogo, Joe Batt's Arm and Tilton Harbor, with other places down there, has been a failure. Most of the trap owners secured no more than 50 or 60 quintals, and the remainder practically nothing. Hardly anything is being done with hook and line and the prospects for the people along that shore for the coming winter are anything but bright.

Presentation to His Grace Archbishop Howley.

The officers of the T. A. & B. Society with the Guardians and Officers of the Juvenile Branch, at 8 o'clock last evening called at the Archdiocesan Library when Messrs. T. M. White, P. Wallace and W. O'Brien, the presentation committee, on behalf of both Societies presented His Grace with an engrossed address and a beautiful and costly fur lined coat as a testimony of the regard the members entertain for him, and as a slight appreciation of the valuable services rendered by His Grace for many years to the Society. Archbishop Howley was attended by Rt. Rev. Monsignor Roache, V. G., and met the delegation in the Library where His Honor Mayor Ellis, the President of the Society, read the address. His Grace warmly thanked the members for the beautiful gift tendered him and which he valued not altogether for its intrinsic worth but more for the kindly and generous spirit which prompted it. The fine band of the Institution was present and rendered several choice musical items including His Grace's own composition "The Flag of Newfoundland." We append copies of the Address and His Grace's Reply.

ADDRESS.

To the Most Rev. Michael Francis Howley, D. D., Archbishop of St. John's.

May it Please Your Grace:

On behalf of the officers and members of the St. John's Total Abstinence & Benefit Society we beg to approach Your Grace with feelings of loyalty and affection to tender to you our most sincere congratulations on your happy return amongst us from your recent visit to His Holiness Pope Pius the Tenth, and to assure you of our continual devotion to Your Grace, and of our fealty to our Holy Mother the Church, and also to give expression to the appreciation which we individually and collectively entertain for the many valuable and practical services which you have from time to time rendered our Society during the years that you have ruled over this diocese, both as Bishop and Archbishop. Your efforts to promote the objects of this Society and to advance the interests of the body and of the members, have always been of an active and successful character. Not the least among the many services rendered to our Institution was the cheerful and gratuitous manner in which some years ago you enabled us by your assistance to overcome our financial difficulties, and by procuring for us the money necessary to meet pressing demands, which very materially helped us to attain the position of financial independence we, as a Society, enjoy to-day. Besides this material aid you have, by your fostering care and ever watchful vigilance, helped to promote the cause of temperance amongst us, and amongst the community at large, and to advance the spiritual and moral welfare of the members of the Society. For these favours we are and will ever be most grateful to Your Grace. In conclusion, we respectfully request you to accept, as a slight token of our gratitude, for the many services and acts of kindness which you have conferred upon the Society, and its members, the Fur Coat which accompanies this address, and we beg to assure Your Grace that it is the prayer of all and every member of our Society, that you may be long spared, under Divine Providence, to rule the Arch-diocese of St. John's, and that Divine Wisdom may guide your administration of the high trust given to your care.

Signed on behalf of the Officers and members of the St. John's Total Abstinence & Benefit Society, at St. John's, this 16th day of August, one thousand nine hundred and ten.

WM. J. ELLIS,

President.

GEO. J. COUGHLAN,

Secretary.

ARCHBISHOP HOWLEY'S REPLY.

Mr. President and Officers of the Total Abstinence Society:

Gentlemen:

I will not make use of the usual stereotyped phrase that I am "taken by surprise, for, notwithstanding the spirit of secrecy which prevails to such an alarming degree in this country, I must admit that a very tiny whisper was conveyed, unintentionally no doubt, to my ears, concerning this little event. That I was surprised I must admit, not, however, because you have decided to do this very kind act, as it is what might have been expected from a Society such as yours, which has always been noted for its respect, esteem and affection towards your Clergy and Bishops. But on my own account I was surprised, for I have not done anything to deserve such a mark of esteem. It is true, as you mention, that when the Society, owing to no fault of its own, was in grave financial difficulties, I came to its relief. When I came here as Bishop to St. John's in 1895 the city was only just recovering from the effects of that most disastrous calamity, known as the Bank Crash. It is not necessary or appropriate that I should on such an occasion as this say a word as to who was culpable in that great disaster. But that there was not only mismanagement but wrong-doing, I think must be admitted by everyone. However, I wish now to speak only of the terrible results of that unfortunate financial catastrophe. To tell of the misery, the sufferings and the loss it entailed on individuals and private families, would be impossible, and will never be known in this world. But what we can more correctly gauge is the complete disorganization and dissolution of all our public institutions, the unhinging of our civil and commercial life. All were crippled, and many went down in irretrievable collapse. It is not to be wondered at, then, that the Total Abstinence Society should not have escaped unscathed, that it should have felt the shock and reeled beneath it. I feel confident that no Society in our community was ever better handled, managed and financed than was the T. A. Society. Yet, so widespread were their interests, so expanding year by year the sphere of their influence and enterprise, that they were taken unawares, and were not able to resist the pressure brought on by this financial crisis, and they were about to go under in the universal ruin. The Sheriff was actually at the doors of the hall. Such was the outlook of affairs when I was called upon to take on my shoulders the spiritual rule of the Catholics of the city and Diocese of St. John's. I knew that, strictly speaking, it was outside the actual circle of my duties to undertake to grapple with the financial difficulties of the T. A. Society. But, on the other hand I knew that if the Society were allowed to collapse, the main prop and support of the Catholic Church in Newfoundland would be knocked from under it. If that Society were to be broken up, the Bishop would be deprived of his right hand, and would have little chance of upholding the banner of our Church in the country. I therefore decided at once that at all costs and all risks, the Total Abstinence Society should be sustained. I pledged all the securities I had left belonging to the Church. We staved off the impending catastrophe and engineered a financial scheme which would mature in fifteen years' time, and would bring the Society safely and triumphantly out of its difficulties. I was not mistaken nor too sanguine in my confidence in the honesty, the enthusiasm, the recuperating powers and the business capacity of the Society. You all know how it rose to the greatness of the occasion; how it manfully shouldered the heavy burden, and when the time came not only had it completely thrown off and relieved itself from all its financial obligations, but has gone on expanding and enlarging its good works, so that now at the present time I think we can safely say it was never, in all its history, in a more flourishing and prosperous condition.

I cannot close these few remarks without rendering a tribute of praise to the late worthy President, Mr. Bates. During all these dark days his hand was on the helm, and his shrewd and cautious judgment steered the Society's bark through reefs and shoals to the harbor of safety. He was, of course, well supported and sustained by an able and zealous Board of Officers and Committeemen; amongst these I must reckon your present worthy President, the Hon. Mayor Ellis. He, during all that time held high office at your Council Board, and in his clear, business-like views and sound advice, is to a large extent to be attributed the great success.

And now that you have, on the voluntary retirement of Mr. Bates "who bore the burden of the day and the heat," elected Mr. Ellis to fill his place, I feel sure that I may predict a new period of success for the Society in the coming years, that will surpass anything that has taken place in its past history. Again thanking you and speaking from within the ample folds of this beautiful and costly mantle, I may truly say I warmly thank you, and I wish you every blessing and prosperity in years to come.

Prisoner by Train.

By the express yesterday Const. Humber arrived here with a young girl named Snow, whom he arrested at Port aux Basques on the charge of stealing a ticket for North Sydney from a friend here and then used it, going across country. One night last week the owner of the ticket, a female friend of the prisoner, gave Miss Snow her coat for a while. The ticket was in the pocket of it and the prisoner is charged with appropriating it. Next day Miss Snow went with her friend to the railway station and the latter could not find her ticket. In the confusion the prisoner slipped away and boarding the train enjoyed a ride across country, only to fall into the hands of the police.

Moissant's Ill Luck.

Special to Evening Telegram.
LONDON, Aug. 22.

John Moissant was again baffled this morning on his attempt to complete the Paris to London flight with a passenger, which started so auspiciously last Tuesday. He descended twice and in his endeavor to cover the comparatively short distance, over which a spell seems to have been cast, separating him from London, he could make no headway, and in the second forced descent damaged his machine so seriously that he will be unable to resume the flight for 24 hours.

Lone Vigil by Corpse.

Lady Mountaineer's Harrowing Experience on Alpine Climb.

Another terrible mountain tragedy is reported from the French Alps. M. Fortune Allimand, a manufacturer of Rives, near Grenoble, and a lady friend of his, Mme. Baronat, who went for an excursion in the neighboring mountains, a part of the Alps known as the Grand Chartreuse, and who had since been missing, were found in a ravine where they had remained for over one hundred hours.

While endeavouring to take a short cut down the mountain, they slipped, and from a height of about 30 feet rolled down the slippery slope of a small cascade. They managed, however, to extricate themselves, and reach one side of the torrent, but, unfortunately, M. Allimand had fractured his leg and suffered terrible pain from the injury.

"And there we were," said Mme. Baronat, in a fainting voice, "unable to move or climb up the rocks again, imprisoned in a sort of huge funnel, which we realized at once was for us a living tomb. One cannot imagine the dreadful anguish and moral and physical pain. Four days and nights without food, and my poor friend suffering terribly from his leg.

"After about 48 hours of the agony," said Mme. Baronat, "during which the only noise we heard was that of the torrent. I took a resolution. 'You know, my friend,' I said to M. Allimand, 'that we are done. There is no hope. Let us put an end to our sufferings. We have simply to slip down into the water!' I had hardly finished the sentence when my friend, who was very bad indeed, and looked like a phantom, stopped me, and with an effort raised himself from the rock where he was lying.

"No," he said; 'I am going to live to the end. I suffer all a human being can suffer, but I shall not commit suicide.'

"On the third morning said the lady, who was compelled to stop several times, owing to her feeble condition, "the poor fellow died, after having lost consciousness. From the moment I was left alone I became terrified. I had had nothing to eat for three days. I was fainting, and was feeling that my courage was empty too. The solitude, that body!—death, in a word, frightened me. I was feeling that my turn was approaching. Over a day and a night I had remained near the corpse, waiting for death, when I heard some sounds and a noise on my right. I thought it was a dream. I was then so feeble that I remember very little about my rescue."

Steamer Stanley Back From a Long Trip to Hudson Bay.

The Government steamer Stanley, Captain Dalton, arrived back on Wednesday night from Hudson Bay and is at the Dockyard.

It will be remembered the three masted schooner Christie G. Thomey with a surveying party on board, left here for Port Nelson ten days ahead of the Stanley, with the understanding that the latter, carrying a surveying party for Port Churchill, would pick her up along the Labrador coast and tow her to Churchill. But the Thomey is a good sailer and was round the point into Hudson Bay before the Stanley caught her. A party from the steamer went ashore on the point and mounting a high hill made out the schooner's masts. Then the Stanley which had towed the schr. Coleraine laden with coal, from North Sydney to Terrooleck on the Labrador coast and there filled her bunkers and stored the rest of the coal for a reserve supply, took the schooner in tow to Port Nelson. Very shoal water was found all about there.

The Stanley then proceeded to Churchill, a finer harbor and landed her surveying party. The place is bleak, the only settlers being Hudson Bay post men and Esquimaux and there is no vegetation. There is a rise and fall of tide in the bay of about 20 feet.

The steamer had a fine run out the bay. For a couple of nights the temperature was down to freezing and icebergs were met in Davis Strait. The sun rises about 3 a.m., and sets at 9 p.m., so that the days are long. At Cape Chidley she met the Earl Grey and transferred Pilot Samuel Bartlett to the latter. Pilot Thomas Boothell, of the Earl Grey coming to Halifax on the Stanley and Captain Dalton brought home some iron ore specimens and the chief officer has a fine white fox skin.—Halifax Chronicle.

Mob With Hounds After Three Negroes.

Mobile, Ala., Aug. 18.—With a triple lynching almost certain to follow their capture, armed citizens of Bay Minnette are to-day pursuing the negroes, who last night shot and killed Marshall Joseph Smith. The bloodhounds and officers were sent from Mobile to assist in the search. On the request of a white woman that three negroes were loitering in front of her home, Marshall Smith went to arrest the negroes, who opened fire when the officer approached killing him instantly.

MONGOLIAN DELAYED.—The s.s. Mongolian would have sailed last midnight only that the after which broke and it had to be taken to Angel's for repairs.
