TUESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 1.

Our Wild Lands.

On this important subject we find the following in the Stratford Beacon:—There was a singular unanimity in one thing at the elections in Ontario, and that was to invite settlement by the adoption of a liberal land policy. The public domain as a wilderness is a burden and an expense to the country; it is only when it becomes improved and is made productive that we reap any benefit from it. As the provinces have been hitherto circumstanced, we have not had that freedom of action the people of this section of country would have liked in the disposal of the Crown lands. The policy adopted has been that of the miser who hoards his gold in a stocking, instead of making it fructify by placing it out at interest. We have built a wall round our broad acres which have rendered them inaccessible to the laboring populations of Europe, whilst our competing neighbors have not only thrown theirs open to all comers, but have provided many, unable of themselves to reach them, with the means of doing so. They have thus robbed us of the best of all riches to a country requiring development, and the lands continue waste which under a system of free grants to actual settlers might have been turned to very profitable account.

We see by the reports from Toronto that the Commissioner of Crown Lands—the minister without a seat—is laboring zealously in his bureau, but that a policy has to be determined on by the Cabinet on the subject of the public lands before application forwarded to the Department can be entertained. Mr. Sandfield Macdonald will act wisely if he permits the country to dictate to him, whose servant he is, what that policy shall be. The public feeling is unmistakably in the direction of making it as broad and comprehensive as possible. Every now and then storekeepers sell or profess to sell off their hitherto unsaleable stock below cost. The Province of Ontario has been a vendor of lands, of which purchasers have had their pick, and the remainder, like the merchants' remnants, must go at a sacrifice. They profit us nothing as they are—they will be the means of great gain if we can only get people to take them and live on them. The Ontario Government are, we believe, sufficiently informed of the public sentiment in this matter to adopt an entirely new system of Crown Lands management. But if they have any doubt on the subject, we hope they will not agree to any hasty policy which may prove detrimental to the welfare of the Province, but wait and take their cue from the people's representatives.

"Classify ze Members."

We take the following from the Huron Signal:—"In the palmy days of tory rule, when alarmed at the utterance of anything like reason and common-sense the impatient Monsieur Cartier would exclaim, 'Dat vill do, call in ze members!' Now, however, the tune has changed to 'classify ze members,' and a very comic air it is as rendered by the tory organ grinders. The beauty of the thing is, that it may be played to suit the idiosyncrasies of the men at the various cranks, whatever they may be, and the result is an 'uncertain sound,' no two chiming in alike. One enthusiastic editor claims four to one in the Confederate Parliament, another says three to one, and still another, remembering that 'the quality of Mercy is not strained,' allows that the Ministerialists will have, at least two to one. In the Assembly of Ontario these individuals do not find so much consolation. They merely claim that the Combination Ministry will have a good working majority, and to obtain this majority every member is dragged in who has at any time said that he would be willing to give the government a fair trial. But even here, it is most amusing to read the classification ventured upon by some of the gushing scribes. They claim nearly every member elect, generously throwing in a handful of 'factionists' by way of epice on the opposite side. This disingenuous classification has a purpose running through it. Richards, the seatless, they perceive, is not prepared to 'come to time,' and the vast preponderance of conservatives demands that a tory minister should be placed in the seat. That is the pretty little game attempted to be played, but if the assistance is to be placed in the hands of Hon. J. S. McDonald—who is known to be a honorable independent—no such trick can be played with his consent. Mr. McDonald knows very well that many members have been elected to give opportunity of placing his name before the country, and he has stated that he was elected into wrong-doing by those who opposed all his po-

A very destructive fire broke out in Galt this (Tuesday) morning, about one o'clock. The buildings on the west side of Main street were consumed from about the post office up as far as the Reformer Office, some of them being the most valuable in the town. The fire, which was one of the most destructive that has ever occurred in that town, is supposed to have originated in a barber's shop.

Another New Breech-Loader.

The military intelligence column of the Times, of the 11th inst., contains the following interesting paragraph:—"The new Carter and Edwards Breech-loading rifle, which was a few days ago tested in the Woolwich Marsh, by Lieut. Lockey, in competition with the government Snider rifle, was again fired yesterday by Sergeant Bott, R. M., in order to note, for the information of the authorities, its correct rate of rapidity of fire. This was also exceedingly satisfactory, the result being 100 rounds of blank cartridge in five minutes. When each charge was withdrawn, it was remarked that the rifle immediately stood at full cock, in readiness for successive fire, without the necessity of further manipulation. Sergeant Bott afterwards made it appear that, by simply disconnecting the bolt, which has a needle through the centre, and to which the lock is attached, the weapon, should it by mishap fall into the enemy's hands during an engagement, could be rendered totally useless. There is no complication of machinery, the only springs being the rear and main springs. The rifle is spoken of as being admirably adapted for the service, and is suited for the new Snider ammunition."

Shooting Extraordinary.

The Advertiser has earned a Provincial fame for tall talking, he now comes forward to claim admiration for long shooting. On Monday last, in an article on the relative merits of English and American artillery he says: "The writer has repeatedly knocked down a chimney at a distance of two miles, and even at 3 miles it was a common feat to blow up a shanty with percussion shell." We always knew that man was a thunderer, but did not imagine that he had such a dialke to chimneys, as to hurl so unrelentingly his destructive bolts at them. We were always aware that he had a propensity to "blow out" on his neighbors, but believed firmly until now, that he was perfectly harmless in the matter of "blowing up" shanties. Would he be kind enough to tell us the dimensions of the shanties, of what material they were constructed, by what living creatures inhabited, and any other particulars he may consider interesting. Verily Jove has come down to us in the likeness of an American artilleryman. Henceforth let the genius of the Advertiser have his proper name—Jupiter Tonans.

Pardon refused to Dr. Blackburn.

This individual of yellow fever notoriety, who for about three years past, has been making a sojourn in Toronto, started the week before last for New Orleans, anticipating immunity in virtue of the recent amnesty proclamation of the President. Previous to his departure he made a formal application for pardon which has been refused, and the following letter received by the American Consul at Toronto will show that the doctor would perhaps have been as safe where he was:

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
WASHINGTON, Sept. 25, 1867.
D. Thurston, Esq., U. S. Consul, Toronto, Ontario.

SIR,—Your despatch of the 17th September, No. 223, has been received with an accompanying affidavit containing an oath of allegiance subscribed by S. P. Blackburn, and verified by yourself. I regret that paper to your care with permission to restore it to the affiant. I assume that the paper was made and delivered to you with a view to its being filed in this Department under provision of the President's proclamation of pardon, issued on the 7th September inst. The affiant is understood to be called Dr. Blackburn. Nothing is known by this Department concerning him as having directly or indirectly participated in the late rebellion; all that is known is that he lies under the charge of felony; in this that he conceived and put into execution within a foreign jurisdiction a plot to disseminate contagion and pestilence in this and other cities of the United States, by clandestinely transmitting for an unsuspicious market, masses of infected clothing taken from the corpses of persons who had died of the yellow fever in the tropics. It is not easy to understand how an offence of that character, which is a detestable crime against mankind, can be supposed even by the felon himself to be entitled to be regarded as an act of insurrection, rebellion or civil war. The President's proclamation offers no immunity in this case.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed), WM. H. SEWARD.

REFORM PIC-NIC.—The Hamilton Times says it is the intention of the County of Wentworth and the city of Hamilton to hold a pic-nic in the neighbourhood of Ancaster, on the ground now occupied by the Methodist camp meeting. All the Reform members elect will be invited to attend as well as leading Reformers throughout the Province of Ontario. Arrangements are being effected to make it a grand affair, every way worthy the occasion. The day on which it is to be held is not yet fixed, but it will be announced in due time.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.—The September number of Blackwood has been received. There is a very racy article on "Novels," a capital article on the "Literature of the Scottish Independence Question," a continuation of the well-told story "Brownlow's," and another of those delightful, gossiping papers by Cornelia O'Dowd. The other contents are:—La Physique Moderne; Religion; the Reform Question settled; Quid Mourat; and A Royal Idyll; or a Review of the Queen's Book. Blackwood is for sale at Shewan's and Day's.

Accident at the Rolling Mills.

We mentioned yesterday, that a most extraordinary accident had occurred at the Rolling Mills in Hamilton. A number of visitors had gone down to see the new palace cars, and the new locomotive built by the G. W. R. Company. It was while they were inspecting these interesting objects that the accident occurred, which terminated unhappily for some of them, though none was mortally injured. The workmen all escaped unhurt. The Hamilton Times has the following particulars:—"While the visitors were present, the immense iron fly-wheel of the establishment, twenty-four feet in diameter, and weighing about thirty-five tons, running at its usual great velocity, suddenly burst, throwing off heavy masses of iron, about with the force of a cannon shot. One fragment was thrown through the top of the building, carrying with it rafters, beams, etc., and making a large opening in the roof. A second piece, weighing about two tons, struck the east end of the building, passed through between the chimneys and descended on the commons between Hess and Queen streets, about 150 yards distant, burying itself in the earth. A third fragment of the wheel passed through the west end of the engine room, and fell on a pile of railroad iron three bars deep, bending them in a most astonishing manner. Two men were piling in brick in a shed, in front of the rolling mills. A piece of the fly-wheel, half a ton weight at least, came crashing through the side of the shed and fell about two steps distance from them. Most remarkable, not one of the numerous force of workmen employed in the mills received the slightest injury, the sufferers being the visitors before mentioned. Mr. Richard G. Dampier, Register of the Surrogate Court, was struck on the back of the head by a splinter 14 inches in length, inflicting a severe scalp wound. He was also struck in various parts of the body by the flying debris. His wounds and bruises, though painful, are not of a serious nature. Wm. Reid, carpenter, residing on Hannah street, was badly cut about the mouth and head. Albert Boyd, boarding at Ainsley's Hotel, King street, was struck on the forehead, it is supposed, by a piece of falling timber, and severely bruised; John Skerrit, who was in Boyd's company, was slightly wounded in the right arm and leg.

Extensive Robbery.

The Boston Herald tells the following: "The train which arrived at New York on Monday morning from Montreal was found to have the express car belonging to the Merchants' Union Express Company locked up, and was unaccompanied by the messenger, C. C. Gillett. After waiting awhile the door of the car was forced open with a crowbar, and the car found to be tenantless. Upon examination the express safe was found to be empty; its contents, valued in money and bills at seventy thousand dollars, having been abstracted. The key was in the safe and a note was attached to it addressed to the company, advising them to keep cool and not be anxious, as he (Gillett) would turn up around the office on Monday morning. Up to noon to-day, Gillett has not turned up in any quarter near the Express office, and the presumption is that he has followed the example of Livingstone and gone a farming. Detectives are on his track. He left the train somewhere between Albany and this city, and some think he has taken a trip eastward and gone to Canada.

CURIOUS PROPERTY CASE.—It is now about 40 years since Mr. Blair, a wealthy gentleman residing in Trenton, died, having first made a will bequeathing his property, amounting to something like £25,000, in a particular manner. Mr. Blair had an only daughter, to whom, after the demise of his widow, the property was left life-estate—the jus mariti of the daughter's husband being carefully excluded, so as to protect the interests of the daughter's children, who, on the death of their mother, came next in succession. It appears that the daughter emigrated along with her husband to Canada, and brought up a pretty numerous family, four or five of whom still survive, grandchildren of the late Mr. Blair of Trenton. Both father and mother have been dead some years; but the children, though young at the time of their emigrating to Canada, had learned that they had some claim to property in Scotland. To obtain a restitution of such rights as they deem themselves possessed of, one of the family has come over from Canada, and is at present busily engaged in making an investigation on the spot into the circumstances connected with the transfer of the property into other hands than those contemplated by the grandfather's will.—Scotch Paper.

A WAR OF TRADES.—In 1860 Mr. Gladstone prevailed on parliament to permit grocers to sell wine in bottles. The licensed victuallers resented this piece of legislation as an unjust interference with their profits. After grumbling for six years they have recently proceeded to retaliate. "The Licensed Victuallers' Tea Association" advertises that, "strong by its connection with gentlemen of long residence in China and large experience as tea-tasters, it can undertake to dispense with intermediate profits, and to supply tea to its customers at lower prices than the purchasing retailers pay." Londoners are felicitating themselves on the advent of an era of cheap wines and teas.

VICTORIA COLLEGE.—The winter session 1867-8, of the college (medical department) opens at the college room, Yorkville, to-morrow. The great success of this school in past years promises to be maintained, if not surpassed, in the approaching session. No other medical school in the country, so far as we are aware, can count such a number of students. The faculty consists of experienced physicians and surgeons—what is of equal importance—good teachers; for a man may be a good doctor and still not possess the faculty of imparting intelligibly to others the knowledge which he himself possesses. The Hon. Dr. Rolph retains the honorable presidency of the faculty, which numbers among its professors Drs. Berryman, Geikie, Sangster, Neume, King, Reid, Fulton, Barrick and May.

A VETERAN VOTER.—Walter Galbraith, who was 30 years of age when he came to Canada in 1803, (to use his own words), went five miles to Ridgeway to vote for the Reform Candidates. The old man boasts of having been a reformer in principle, if not in name, all his life, and still used his franchise with as much sense of pride and responsibility as any fledgling "free and independent" in the Count of Bothwell.—Cathlam Banner.

On the 28th ult., one or two factories in Glasgow commenced running two-thirds time, while two or three mills in the neighbourhood have entirely stopped.

The Kingston News of Friday last says it is understood that Stephen Richards has resigned the Commission of Crown Lands, and that his portfolio should be given to a Conservative.

Previous to his departure he made a formal application for pardon which has been refused, and the following letter received by the American Consul at Toronto will show that the doctor would perhaps have been as safe where he was:

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
WASHINGTON, Sept. 23, 1867.
D. Thomson, Esq., U. S. Consul, Toronto, Ontario.

SIR,—Your despatch of the 17th September, No. 223, has been received with an accompanying wish in an affidavit containing an oath of allegiance subscribed by S. P. Blackburn, and verified by yourself. I remit that paper to your care with permission to restore it to the affiant. I assume that the paper was read and delivered to you with a view to its being filed in this Department under provision of the President's proclamation of pardon, issued on the 7th September inst. The affiant is understood to be called Dr. Blackburn. Nothing is known by this Department concerning him as having directly or indirectly participated in the late rebellion; all that is known is that he lies under the charge of felony; in this that he conceived and put into execution within a foreign jurisdiction a plot to disseminate contagion and pestilence in this and other cities of the United States, by clandestinely transmitting for an unsuspicious market, masses of infected clothing taken from the corpses of persons who had died of the yellow fever in the tropics. It is not easy to understand how an offence of that character, which is a detestable crime against mankind, can be supposed even by the felon himself to be entitled to be regarded as an act of insurrection, rebellion or civil war. The President's proclamation offers no immunity in this case. I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
WM. H. SEWARD.

REFORM PICNIC.—The Hamilton Times says it is the intention of the County of Wentworth and the city of Hamilton to hold a picnic in the neighbourhood of Ancaster, on the ground now occupied by the Methodist camp meeting. All the Reform members elect will be invited to attend as well as leading Reformers throughout the Province of Ontario. Arrangements are being effected to make it a grand affair, every way worthy the occasion. The day on which it is to be held is not yet fixed, but it will be announced in due time.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.—The September number of Blackwood has been received. There is a very racy article on "Novels," a capital article on the "Literature of the Scottish Independence Question," a continuation of the well-told story "Brownlow's," and another of those delightful, gossipy papers by Cornelius O'Dowd. The other contents are—La Physique Moderne; Egéotism; the Reform Question settled; Quil Mourat and A Royal Idyll; or a Review of the Queen's Book. Blackwood is for sale at Shewan's and Day's.

Accident at the Rolling Mills.

We mentioned yesterday, that a most extraordinary accident had occurred at the Rolling Mills, in Hamilton. A number of visitors had gone down to see the new palaces, and the new locomotive built by the G. W. R. Company. It was while they were inspecting these interesting objects that the accident occurred, which terminated unhappily for some of them, though none was mortally injured. The workmen had the following particulars:

"While the visitors were present, the immense iron fly-wheel of the establishment, twenty-four feet in diameter, and weighing about thirty-five tons, running at its usual great velocity, suddenly burst, throwing off heavy masses of iron, almost with the force of a cannon shot. One fragment was thrown through the top of the building, carrying with it rafters, beams, etc., and making a large opening in the roof. A second piece, weighing about two tons, struck the east end of the building, passed through between the chimneys and descended on the commons between Hess and Queen streets, about 150 yards distant, burying itself in the earth. A third fragment of the wheel passed through the west end of the engine room, and fell on a pile of railroad iron three bars deep, bending them in a most astonishing manner. Two men were piling in brick in a shed, in front of the rolling mills. A piece of the fly wheel, half a ton weight at least, came crashing through the side of the shed and fell about two steps distance from them. Most remarkable, not one of the numerous force of workmen employed in the mills received the slightest injury, the sufferers being the visitors before mentioned. Mr. Richard G. Dampier, Register of the Supreme Court, was struck on the back of the head by a splinter 14 inches in length, inflicting a severe scalp wound. He was also struck in various parts of the body by the flying debris. His wounds and bruises, though painful, are not of a serious nature. Wm. Reid, carpenter, residing on Hannah street, was badly cut about the mouth and head. Albert Boyd, boarding at Ainsley's Hotel, King street, was struck on the forehead, it is supposed, by a piece of falling timber, and severely bruised. John Skerrit, who was in Boyd's company, was slightly wounded in the right arm and leg.

Extensive Robbery.

The Boston Herald tells the following:—The train which arrived at New York on Monday morning from Montreal was found to have the express car belonging to the Merchants' Union Express Company locked up, and was unaccompanied by the messenger, C. C. Gillett. After waiting awhile the door of the car was forced open with a crowbar, and the contents were turned out. Upon examination the express safe was found to be empty, its contents, valued in money and bills at seventy thousand dollars, having been abstracted. The key was in the safe and a note was attached to it addressed to the company, advising them to keep cool and not be anxious, as he [Gillett] would turn up around the office on Monday morning. Up to noon today, Gillett has not turned up in any quarter near the Express office, and the presumption is that he has followed the ex-ample of Livingstone and gone a farming. Detectives are on his track. He left the train somewhere between Albany and this city, and some think he has taken a trip eastward and gone to Canada.

CRIMIOUS PROPERTY CASE.—It is now about 40 years since Mr. Blair, a wealthy gentleman residing in Trarant, died, having first made a will bequeathing his property, amounting to something like £25,000, in a particular manner. Mr. Blair had an only daughter, to whom, after the demise of his widow, the property was left life-entire—the jus mariti of the daughter's husband being carefully excluded, so as to protect the interests of the daughter's children, who, on the death of their mother, came next in succession. It appears that the daughter emigrated along with her husband to Canada, and brought up a pretty numerous family, four or five of whom still survive—grandchildren of the late Mr. Blair, of Trarant. Both father and mother have been dead some years; but the children, though young at the time of their emigrating to Canada, had learned that they had some claim to property in Scotland. To obtain a restitution of such rights as they deem themselves possessed of, one of the family has come over from Canada, and is at present busily engaged in making an investigation on the spot into the circumstances connected with the transfer of the property into other hands than those contemplated by the grandfather's will.—Scotch Patriot.

A WAR OF TRADES.—In 1860 Mr. Gladstone prevailed on parliament to permit grocers to sell wine in bottles. The licensed victuallers resented this piece of legislation as an unjust interference with their profits. After grumbling for six years, they have recently proceeded to retaliate. "The Licensed Victuallers' Tea Association" advertises that, acting by its connection with gentlemen of long residence in China and large experience as tea-tasters, it can undertake to dispense with intermediate profits, and to supply tea to its customers at lower price than the purchasing retailers pay. Londoners are facilitating themselves on the advent of an era of cheap wines and teas.

VICTORIA COLLEGE.—The winter session 1867-8, of the college (medical department) opens at the college room, Yorkville, to-morrow. The great success of this school in past years, promises to be maintained, if not surpassed, in the approaching session. No other medical school in the country, so far as we are aware, can count such a number of students. The faculty consists of experienced physicians and surgeons,—what is of equal importance—good teachers; for a man may be a good doctor, and still not possess the faculty of imparting intelligibly to others the knowledge which he himself possesses. The Hon. Dr. Rolph retains the honorable presidency of the faculty, which numbers among its professors Drs. Berryman, Geikie, Sangster, Nesbitt, King, Reid, Fulton, Barrick and May.

A VETERAN VOTER.—Walter Galbraith, who was 20 years of age when he came to Canada in 1803, (to use his own words) went five miles to Ridgeway to vote for the Reform Candidates. The old man boasts of having been a reformer in principle, if not in name, all his life, and still used his franchise with as much sense of pride and responsibility as any fledgling "free and independent" in the County of Bothwell.—Canham Banner.

On the 28th ult., one or two factories in Glasgow commenced running two-thirds time, while two or three mills in the neighbourhood have entirely stopped. The Kingston News of Friday last says it is understood that Stephen Richards has resigned the Commissionership of Crown Lands, and that his portfolio should be given to a Conservative.

NORAH CUSHALEEN

ON THE HAUNTED CASTLE.

But as yet there was no intelligence of any kind, and possibly Andrew and Terry might fail to effect his rescue. The difficulty of such an adventure she knew to be extreme, and the result of an attempt ending in failure she shuddered to contemplate.

This state of anxiety and suspense on the one hand, and peace and tranquillity on the other, was painfully interpreted one afternoon by her father. He came into the room where she sat alone with a paper in his hand, and on his face an expression which she had never seen before. Her heart beat with apprehension but she remained silent, and tried to keep calm.

'Mary,' he said, 'I have come to speak to you for the last time on a subject regarding which an unfortunate difference exists between us.'

'For the last time?' she repeated, regarding him with a keen, inquiring glance.

'Ay, for the last time. Once more I require you to accept Malvra as your husband. If, after full and lengthened deliberation, with the view of consequences before you, you still refuse to be his wife, I will take your rejection as final, and recur to this subject no more.'

'Indeed, father,' said Mary, 'there is no need for an hour's delay. No period of deliberation, however long, will cause me to come to any other resolution than that which I have announced. No view of consequence, however awful, will tempt me to yield. Therefore, take my final answer now, and let us be done with the matter for ever.'

'Better learn the consequences first,' remarked the squire drily.

'My mind, father,' she replied, 'is made up to disregard all consequences.'

'At all events, listen, resumed the squire. 'This paper which I hold in my hand is a despatch sent to me from the notorious freebooter, Captain Jack, to the effect that he holds prisoner a youth named Hargreave, and if a ransom of two hundred pounds be not paid for him, within one month, the invariable practice of the association will be resorted to—he shall be put to death.'

Mary uttered a sharp agonizing cry, put her hand to her heart, and turned pale as death.

'Now,' added her father, 'you cannot expect that I should liberate the man who has such obnoxious designs against my daughter and the house of Kendal. But this is the proposal I have to make—consent to become the wife of Malvra Blansire, and I will see that the youth is ransomed; refuse and he is left to his fate.'

Mary rose calm and indignant before him. Her eyes flashed, her bosom heaved, her whole frame trembled with angry emotion.

'Father,' she said, 'you know how Mr. Hargreave became a prisoner in the hands of that outlaw and his gang. He was waylaid, and carried to the mountains by miscreants of Blansire's hiring. This was done and you know of it. You lent yourself to this vile proceeding, and now you would extort from the fears of my heart what you know the love of my heart abhors. Oh, where are honour and integrity, when an Irish girl has to blush for her father!'

'Peace, girl!' cried the squire angrily. 'It doesn't matter whether you have guessed truly or not. The facts I mean to stick to now are, that the fellow is in the hands of Captain Jack, and that if not ransomed within a month he will die. Do not suppose that this is an idle threat for it is well known that Captain Jack never breaks his word for whatever it is given.'

'This is a base, monstrous plot!' exclaimed Mary. 'It is fit to come only from the brain of a fiend. It never emanated from you, father, and I am deeply grieved to think that you have been so blinded as to entertain it yourself—so degraded as to lay it before me.'

'I tell you I will listen to no preaching,' said the squire. 'My mind is made up. I do not urge you, I only tell you what the consequences will be. Decide as you please, only remember this—if Hargreave is put to death, you will be his murderer!'

TO BE CONTINUED.

A DANGEROUS CHARACTER.—The Listowel Banner tells about a character they have in that neighborhood whose unfettered liberty is by no means likely to promote public safety. Lately he went to the house of Mr. Eveleigh, on the third line of Wallace, while that gentleman was absent and showed his face and gun at the window. His wife and daughter and a young man who was there took refuge in the bed-room, and finally on the party outside breaking in, made their exit by the window. Having found Mr. Everleigh they returned, but the intruder had gone. He returned however, and demanded the young man until he would shoot him. A shot from within was an answer that caused him to retire. He has shot at two or three persons, and is represented as being an itinerant professor of Phrenology, and as carrying a revolver and bowie-knife besides a gun. He was once arrested for setting fire to Mr. Eveleigh's barn, but the evidence was not sufficient to convict him.

Some days ago a mean scoundrel called upon several girls in Philadelphia, who worked on sewing machines of their own, and employed them to come to his establishment on Chesnut Street, on the following day. He gave them his card, and promised to send for the machines early in the morning, but no time might be lost. Accordingly a man drove up to their doors, and took away their machines. The girls went to the place designated, but found no such individual in the neighbourhood, and have not heard of their lost machines yet.

Business Education.

A practical business education has now become a necessity to every young man contemplating a business career. Without this education young men are destitute of the first requisite to success.

The business education the British American Commercial College of Toronto imparts, and is a source of pride to the proprietors that their graduates are at the present time filling positions of honor and responsibility in some of the highest Mercantile Houses and Banking Institutions of our country. Stronger testimony to the thoroughness of this education could not be given than the following letter from J. G. W. Wright, Esq., President of the Board of Trade:

Toronto, Dec. 19, 1866.

Messrs. Musgrove & Wright.—Dear Sirs:—I cannot express too strongly my appreciation of your efforts to establish a model house of business. I consider that such a system as yours is of the greatest importance both to the employer and the employed, as it saves the former the time and labor of teaching every new hand, and the latter the waste of time involved in a long apprenticeship. Your admirable system of real business is a complete remedy for this defect, and your great success in this department is manifestly manifested by the air of reality that your students display in their model transactions, and by their downheartedness when they fail to meet their engagements. I can testify to the excellence of your system from personal experience, having at the present time in the employment of the firm I belong to three young men who were educated at your establishment. Wishing you every success in your laudable enterprise,

I remain, dear Sirs, yours, &c.

J. G. WRIGHT.

The first prize for Business Examination was awarded this Commercial College at the late Provincial Exhibition in Toronto. Graduates are examined and their diploma signed by the Board of Examiners, suggested practical business men. Graduates are also assisted to situations, if required.

A circular is regularly published, giving a detailed account of system, regulations, terms, &c., and may be had by enclosing stamp and addressing

PROOFS OF THE SUPERIOR QUALITY

AMERICAN WATCH
MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

Referring to their advertisement in a previous issue of this paper, the American Watch Company, of Waltham, Mass., respectfully submit that their Watches are cheaper, more accurate, less complex, more durable, better adapted for general use, and more easily kept in order and repaired than any other watches in the market.

They are simpler in structure, and therefore stronger, and less likely to be injured than the majority of foreign watches. They are composed of from 125 to 300 pieces, while in an old English watch there are more than 700 parts.

How they run under the hardest trial watches can have, is shown by the following letters:

PENN. RAILROAD COMPANY.
Office of the General Superintendent,
Altoona, Pa., 15th Dec. 1866.

GENTLEMEN.—The watches manufactured by you have been in use on this Railroad for several years by our engineers, to whom we furnish watches as part of our equipment. There are now some 300 of them carried on our line, and we consider them good and reliable time-keepers. In fact, I have great satisfaction in saying your watches give us less trouble, and have worn and do wear much longer without repairs than any watches we have ever had in use on this road. As you are aware, we formerly trusted to those of English manufacture, of acknowledged good reputation; but as a class they never kept time as correctly, nor have they done good service as years. In these statements I am sustained by my predecessor, Mr. Lewis, whose experience extended over a series of years.

Respectfully,
EDWARD H. WILLIAMS,
General Superintendent,
American Watch Co., Waltham.

NEW YORK CENTRAL RAILROAD.
Locomotive Department, West Division,
Rochester, Dec. 24, 1866.

GENTLEMEN.—I have no hesitation in saying that I believe the great advantage of locomotives to see the time when Railway Companies will generally adopt your watches, and furnish them to all engineers and conductors. In my opinion, I would greatly prefer to purchase your watches, and every requisite for a reliable time-keeper. Every locomotive engine is provided with the Company's printed card of guarantee, which should accompany each watch, so that buyers may feel sure that they are purchasing the genuine article. There are numerous competitors and imitations of our watches sold throughout the country, and we would caution purchasers to be on their guard against imposition.

Any grades of Waltham Watches may be purchased of watch dealers.

Testimonials can be obtained on application from many persons in Canada who have worn the watches with the greatest satisfaction.

Great Cure of Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia in Canada.
Consecr. Prince Edward Co., C. W.,
March, 1867.

Messrs. Young & Chamberlain.—Sirs.—Having proved within my own person that there is a last medicine that will indeed cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, I am induced to make this statement under oath, which is to certify that I have been sorely afflicted and prostrated with Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia. I had a feeling of sinking and vague uneasiness about the stomach, worse than pain, eructations of wind, occasional pain, brown eyes, constipation, uneasiness in the right side, headache, a poor appetite, &c., and was greatly reduced in strength. Hearing your new Indian medicine, the Great Shoshonee Kennedy, spoken of so highly, I tried a bottle with your Pills, from these I must say I found but little change, but I took another and then I found my health improving, continued it until I have taken about ten bottles, using the Pills, and I find that I have quite recovered. I eat hearty without pain or uneasiness. I am well and have pleasure in attending to my business. The doctor recommended to me I was looking much better. I told him that the Great Shoshonee Kennedy was doing it. I have recommended the medicine in several cases, and it has invariably given good satisfaction, and I would strongly recommend it to all affected as I was.

RUSSELL WATCH!
A FEW REASONS THAT MAKE IT SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS.

- 1st—It gives itself a reliable time-keeper beyond all question.
- 2nd—The RUSSELL WATCH being made on correct and scientific principles, it must follow as a natural consequence that it will keep time.
- 3rd—Each part of which the RUSSELL WATCH is composed is a reflex of the perfect machine which, under skilled direction, it is produced.
- 4th—Truth is the essential of each part.
- 5th—Uniformity and conformity must therefore characterize the several parts in fulfilling the purpose for which they are made and brought together.
- 6th—Reputation, as regards watch work, is simply an application of the principle that "things which are equal to the same things are equal to one another," and if there is any merit, the RUSSELL WATCH possesses that merit to a demonstration.
- 7th—The greatest variety of price, quality and size, that confidence and perfection will admit, afforded by the RUSSELL WATCH.
- 8th—The RUSSELL WATCH stands pre-eminently above all competitors for public favor and patronage.
- 9th—Proofs of the foregoing, the universal testimony of all Watchmakers who have sold, and the positive statements of the thousands in Europe, the United States and Canada, who have worn the RUSSELL WATCH.

TESTIMONIAL.
To Robert Cuthbert, Watchmaker, Wyndham Street, Guelph.

If Society was perfect in its organization, and was as obedient to the dictates of truth as the RUSSELL WATCH I bought from you is in indicating time, evil would be swallowed up in good, and happiness would be a monotonous.

G. RENNIE, Guelph.
