New York, March 4.—The Herald's despatch from Rome has the substance of the report of Mgr. Straneiro, lately Papal Ablegate in the United States. Mgr. Straneiro in his report refers to the Knights of Labor as follows:

"The Knights of Labor is a society composed of about a million workingmen, half of whom, porhaps, belong to the Catholic religion. The society has, however, neither political nor religious bias. Its object is to guard in an honest and lagal manner, the compensation due to the laboring classes for the work they have performed, against the despotic proprietor or contractor, and to oppose the injustices that may be committed against these poor sons of labor.

The Preity Ballet-Girl With Her Satchel.

"Howard" N.Y. cor. Boston Globe.

I am a night bird. Not that I sleep by day, but I take my most precious flights around when half the town has gone to bed. Thus my strolls usually bring me by the theatres, when the curtain has fallen and the back door is slamming. When men with shaven faces dodge out and into the handiest saloons, and ladies, with remarkable complexions, take the arms of the dudes who hang around the alley way or the curbstone, elegantly disdamful of the scoffings of the mob, and I always halt a little way beyond and watch their satchels take the ballet girls home.

No great Dane or fighting bull-dog could be as honest and as safe an escort as this satchel. The toughest lounger at the stage door draws assigle to give it passage. As it goes through the dark by-ways the policemen nod to it, and the vilest of the scum that floats upon the night tides of the streets edd.es aside and leaves its passage clear.

It brings its charge into the street car, and night tides of the streets eddes aside and leaves its passage clear.

It brings its charge into the street car, and the sarly conductor becomes civil. It takes her through a mob of poor foot-weary wantons, swarming at some dive door, and they drop their ribald voices; and here and there among them you may note a white, harsh face turned aside and a swelling in a throat.

It is, in short, a badge of honesty and labor that has gained a recognition for itself, like the policeman's badge or the fireman's uniform.

As long as a ballet-girl carries her own actchel she is safe. It is only when she gets a maid to handle it for her that her peril has begun. It is a poor thing enough in itself. Even when it is brand new it exhales an odor of cheapness. Very little use makes sad havoc with its symmetry, and you often encounter it in a deplorable state of collapse.

But it is never so ricketty as to lose its power of guardi nship.

It is stuffed with a pair of tights, a pair of slippers, a wir perhaps, and certainly with some rouge and drop chalk and grease paint. What little costume goes with these essentials is left in the care of the wardrobe people at the theatre.

Its contents and herself are the ballet girl's chief professional capital, and every time she closes it she wraps up in its stuffy depths a lream of the day when Patti or Bernhardt thall have a rival, and the honest old satchel aves place to a jewel case, and a Saratoga trunk to a villa at Havre or a castle in Wales. And why not, indeed? Did not Bernhardt carry her satchel once and Patti not own a satchel to carry? What has happened once may happen again. What place in the world its there like the stage for ambitions, romances and dreams?

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used loscile's Germin Syrup to let its wonderful malities be known to their friends in curing insumption, severe coughs, croup, asthma; neumonia, and in fact all threat and lung disces. No person can use it without immediates. No person can use it without immediate relief. "Even This Shall Pass Away."

Once in Persia reigned a king.
Who upon his signet-ring
Graved a maxim true and wise,
Which, if held before his eyes,
Gave him counsel at a glance
Fit for overy change and chance;
Solemn words, and these are they:
"Even this shall pass away."

Trains of camels through the sand
Brought him gems from Samarcand;
Fleet of galleys through the seas
Brought him pearls to match with these.
But he counted not his gain
Trassures of the mine or main;
"What is wealth!" the king would say;
"Even this shall pass away."

In the revels of his court,
At the zenith of the sport,
When the polms of all his guests
Burned with clapping at his jests,
He, amid his figs and wine,
Cried: "Oh, loving friends of mine!
Pleasure comes, but not to stay;
Even this shall pass away."

Fighting on a furious field,
Once a javelin pierced his shield,
Soldiers, with a loud lament,
Bore him bleeding to his tent.
Groaning from his tortured side,
"Pain is hard to bear," he cried,
"But with patience, day by day,
Even this shall pass away."

Towering in the public square,
Twenty cubits in the air,
Rose his statue carved in stone;
Then the king, disguised, unknow
Stood before his sculptured name,
Musing meekly, "What is fame?
Fame is but a slow decay—
Even this shall pass away." Struck with palsy, scre and old, Waiting at the Gales of Gold. Said he, with his dying breath. "Life is done, but what is death?" Then, in answer to the king, Fell a sunbeam on his ring, Showing, by a heavenly ray, "Even this shall pass away."

The choice of judges for life who, if inefficient because of age or infirmity, must be as the to the administration of justice if they continue on the beach and a burden on the national pures if they are pensioned, as a serious injury to the public. The sharpest, intellects, the greatest vigor or mind as well as of body are needed on the beach even more than at the bar. It was the failure to obtain such qualifications under appointments made by executive officers that compelled our American neighbors to resort to elections by the Logislature and the popular vote. The practice is very general, and we cannot recall an instance of its abandonment and the reaumpton of the old system. There is a general consensus of opinion in favor of judges elected for five or ten years. It is alleged that menor ability, young when compared with Canadian judges, not always effective advocates, but with special fixenes for the bench, are willing to specify a fallow of the country.

We have not in Canada yet come to the point of demanding elective judges, but there is certainly a necessity for the public firmly insisting on occupants of the bench being as good as can be had and appointed for no other reason than fitness for their work.

So it said in November and December, 1885. And so it says now—March 4, 1887—although the same is slightly out of harmony with what it said on the same subject one and two days before. Still we take the latest utterance as the right one. And it is—"unrestricted"—mark the word, and get the plain English of it into your head.

He Don't Wast a Jubilee.

Editor World: What in the name of common sended to sense are the people of Canada to gain by keeping the jubilee of Queen Victoria. It will cost thousands of dollars to do this according to the plans of some enthusiastic loyalists. If the Queen or any of her family deserve aught at our hands for any benefit we have ever derived from her or them, would it not be better to the dollar at seven per cent., which may be paid off by arrangement or may remain any length of time.

This competition will remain open until the last our readers will take advantage of these most liberal offers at once. The questions this time are: Where are the following the desired from her or them, would it not be better bitter foe of temperance and prohibition."

"He is saloonatic through and through."
Respecting Mr. Wallace it says. "The Conservative party has again bowed its neck to the yoke of the beer brigade," "a worthy disciple of John Small," etc.

The Prohibitionists claim to have elected Mayor Howland; if so, why did they not elect their champions, Sheppard, Harvie and Jury? Had these men been elected Mr. Spence would doubtless have had the unblushing effrontery, to have Herald-ed to the world, that they owed their election to the Prohibition party. The Temperance Herald is too strong an advocate of Grit candidates to become a power for good, in the cause it espouses. I would advise the editor to drop prohibition and advocate the C.E.T.S., a society whose principles are based on Scripture and common sense, both of which are saddy wanting in this prohibition movement.

The New Judge.

Hamilton Spectator: Mr. Robertson was born at Ancaster in 1827. He is descended from the Robertsons of Sirnan, chiefs of the clan Donnachie. He was educated at the London Grammar School and Toronto University is studied law with the Hon. John Hillyard Cameron; was called to the bar in 1852; became Queen's Counsel in 1873, and a bencher of the Law Society in 1874. He contested South Wentworth in 1867 and was bealen by twenty-seven votes. He was successful in Hamilton, in company with Mr. Kilvert, in 1873, and was re-elected in 1832 by a largely increased majority. It is gratifying to know that the ermine has fallen upon one who has so well carned it and who is so worthy to wear it.

Hamilton Times: Mr. Thomas Rebertson, ex.M.P. for Hamilton, has at last received his appointment to the bench. By knowledge of law, experience at the bar and love of fair play, he is qualified to adorn the position to which he has been called. A slight inclination to deafness will be a drawback to his usefulness. Mr. Robertson lost money by politics, Has legal practice suffered from the lack of his personal attention from the time he was elected in 1878, and it was pressure from his party, rather than his own ambition, that caused him to secopt re-nomination in 1882. As political rewards go, he carned the office now granted him, and he will make a good judge.

vatives. It is even said that bundles of the Mail were regularly dispatched from the Globe office to be distributed in counties where the Catholic vote could be influenced. Since the election the Mail has been engaged in puffing up the shillties of Sir Richard Cartwright and other politicians, who a few months ago were made, by the same Mail, a target for all that was bad. It is now current rumor that Sir Richard has invested some of his capital in the paper, and that it will become straight Grit, using its influence in forwarding the claim of Sir Richard to the leadership, and then what will become of the Globe and Mr. Blake i

"LADIES" JOURNAL BIBLE COMPETITION

NO. 17.

Fine Brick House with Large Lot Given Away.

At the solicitation of hundreds of friends of TRUTH the proprietor will offer one more competition which, in the value of the rewards offered as well as in the number of them, far exceed anything hitherto attempted by any publisher in the world.

Everything named in the list below will be given away without any reserve or postpone-tage of these most liberal offers at once. The questions this time are: Where are the following three words first mentioned in the Bible-First, Snow; second, Wind; third, Rain. The senders of the first 785 letters received at Truth office containing correct answers to those questions will take the following 785 rewards, and they will be given out strictly in the order of the letters come to hand:

THE FIRST REWARDS. ment, $550.

2 to 6. Five ladies' solid gold watches, besutifully engraved, good timekeepers, $450.

7 to 11. Five gentlemen's solid gold watches, excellent value, $500.

12 to 18. Seven extra fine silver-plated teamsizes $490. services, four pieces, $490.

19 to 28. Five Wanzer family sewing ma chines, $640.

29 to 41. Twelve ladies' fine black silk dress patterns, full length, $600.

42. BRICK RESIDENCE AND LOT, NO. 46 LANSDOWNE-AVENUE, PARKDALE, ONT., $3000.

43 to 90. Forty-seven new and elegant cruet stands, $235.

71 to 100. Thirty gentlemen's solid aluminum gold watches, $600.

191 to 135. Thirty-one solid quadruple plate cake baskets, new and elegant pattern, $525.

136 to 305. One hundred and seventy heavy solid sliver-plated ladies' pocket fruit knives, $1000.

306 to 509. Two hundred and four elegantly bound volumes of poems, $540.

510 to 715. Two hundred and six fine aliver-plated sugar spooms and butter knives, $206.

After these will follow the last, or omsolation rewards, when to the sender of the last correct answers received at the office of Trust, bearing postmark wherever mailed of day of closing (December 1st), will be given the first one of the consolation rewards, and to the next five hundred and seventeen correct answers preceding the last one will be given the rest of this very attractive and costly list of last rewards.

THE CONSOLATION REWARDS. 1. One hundred and fifty dollars in gold.
2, 3, 4 and 5. Four square grand pianos, by a celebrated maker, $2100.
6, 7, 8, 9. Four fine-toned cabinet organs, by a celebrated maker, $1050.
10 to 20. Ten fine solid gold stem-winding and stem-setting gamuine Elvin watches, $1000. 10 to 20. Ten fine solid gold stem-winding and stem-setting genuine Elgin watches, $1000. 33 to 50. Eighte in solid quadruple silverplated tea services, $1440. 51 to 70. Thirty double-barrel English twist breech-loading shotguns, $2700. 71 to 110. Forty sets (10 volumes to set) complete Chamber's Encyclopædia, $2000. 111 to 134. Twenty-three gentlemen's solid coin silver hunting case or open face watches.

fine German water-color pictures, $108. 351 to 518. One hundred and sixty-eight ladies' solid rolled gold har pins, latest designs

Sh to 518. One hundred and sixty-eight ladies' solid rolled gold har pins, latest designs, $300.

Now our friends will please bear in mind that this is a bona fide offer; that it is made by a reputable publisher right here in Canada, and one who has a large stake in the country; that it is in no way to be confounded with any local or foreign scheme of any kind; that everything promised will positively be performed; our readers may rely on this.

Do not forget that every one competing must send one dollar for three months' subscription to Truth along with their answers. If The Ladies' Journal is preferred, fifty cents is all that is required to be sent. If stamps are sent for the half-dollar, three cents extra must be added for discount. Registered letters to postoffice orders are, however, the safest way to remit.

The competition remains open till the first day of December next inclusive. Letters wherever postmarked 1st December, '87, or any date between now and then, will be eligible to compete. They must, however, reach right to compete the them twenty-one days after date of closing.

Address S. Frank Wilson, 33 and 35 Adelaidestreet west, Toronto, Canada.

There is good value for your investment in any case, even if no rewards were offered, as Truth is a weekly magazine of thirty-two pages, and is the cheapest publication, considering size and merik, on the continent. The Ladies' Journal also cannot be excelled as an attractive ladies' paper.

Any person can compete any number of times, and the papers will be sent to any desired address.

As a direct investment, the publisher of Truth and Ladies' Journal claims that this would not pay at all, but his object is to get his publications into every home in the land, and when once a foothold is secured, the papers are sure to be constant visitors.

acknowledge the grand services of those who has have been chiefly instrumental in securing these splendid results. I refer particularly to or our agents. No company in the land can boast of a more intelligent, more enthusiastic, more greateness. They have shown their confidence in the corresponding true to it, spite of most persistent appeals and tempting inducements from other quarters. With such a staff of agents—and we intend to add to their number, as experienced and competent men can be obtained—nothing can prevent the Federal from occupying and retaining a position in the vary front rank of the Hife insurance companies of the Dominion. I would also call special attention to that part of the report which speaks of the care exercised by your Executive Committee in the selection of risks, and as a member of that committee would bear testimony to the particular, and the company's affairs as shown by the report, which was then adopted by a unanimous vote. Messrs. H. Stephens and Sherman E. Townsend, were responding additions of the Company.

The Cause of the Discord. A contralto singer, having made an engagement to sing at a concert in Lowell, Mass., arrived at the city of spindles in time for an afternoon rehearsal, and found upon reaching the hall that her accompaniment was to be supplied by the local band. The time-honored encore piece, "Comin' Thro' the Rye," was first tried. From the opening bar it was evident that something was wrong, very wrong indeed, though the accomplished leader of the band did not dis-accomplished leader of the band did not dis-cover it until the first verse was nearly fin-ished. By that time such dreadful sounds proceeded from a far off corner of the stage where a clarionet player was seated that it was plain who the culprit was. born in New York in 1818. At the age of 9 fate dropped him into the circus ring, and he abandoned it only when seized by mortal sickness a couple of weeks before he died.

During these years he rose from the lowset of circus drudgery to the proud positions of expert rider, clown and finally master of the sawdust ring. He reached the pinnacle of promotion in his profession when he was made ring master of Barnum's Hippodrome and Greatest Show on Earth. He was master of ceremonies in the Wild West Show when death overtook him.
His coolness in the emergencies that are liable to occur among a great concourse of people, as well as his intimate knowledge of every detail of the businsss, admirably fitted him for such a position. His stentorian voice was his crowning glory. It is told of him that when he was traveling with itinerant circuses in the days gone by it was the custom, when in a good grazing country, to let the horses and some of the grass eating ani mals out to pasture. When the time for the performance approached Pop would just step outside the tent and call, and the men having the live stock in charge would hear him even if a mile away.

Pop was also famous for his faculty of getting smashed up in accidents. His arms, legs and most of his ribs had been broken in turn. He had been bitten by a tarantula and gored by a buffalo. Railroad accidents came to him regularly. His most serious casualty occurred in 1881 in the Bowery, New York, just two blocks from his birthplace. By this accident he lost his right arm.

His full name was Francis Warren Whittaker, but he received the name of Pop away back in the days of Rufus Welch's circus in Philadelphia. Here he started an evening school for circus people, he being the teacher and for which he was christened Pop. He adopted a son, now a man of 35. He says he "went with Pop at the age of 9. Pop didn't believe in schools. He'd say to me: 'Take your beeks and set there, and when you find sumbthis' you don't know, ask me.' Thet's the way I got my learnin' trav'lin' 'round the world with Pop. He broke me from drinkin' in this way: When I was a young fhan I dropped down to the barroom of the hotel we were stoppin' at an' called for my first glass of ale. Pop cum in and seed me. He jes' knocked me sens'less, an' when they brought me to, Pop says, 'My boy, I never want to see you drink again,' an' I never have." The adopted son concluded by saying that "ef ther's sich a place as heaven, Pop's thar."

Mr. Whittaker was married twice. His second wife was a baby adopted by his first wife. After her death Pop brought the girl up, had her educated as a physician and mar-

On suggesting to the engineer in charge that the vessel was designed to attack the nemy on the "billygoat" principle only, he aid the guns would throw sixty shells, or ix tons of the most terrific explosive known, during twenty minutes of the time they are steaming up to the enemy, and the presumption is that before that time has elapsed there will be no enemy left.

An adventage claimed by this pneumatic gun method of sending a torpedo at the enemy is its economy. The torpedoes which are steered by electric wires from a station on shore cost from $7,000 to $15,000 each, and of course are destroyed on being used. Each shot from this dyna uite ship containing the same weight of explosive will cost but $200 at most anything will be forgiven sooner

The London Times says that "the most infernal triumph of American ingenuity" is the dynamic gumboa trecently contracted for and now being built by William Cramp, of Philadelphia.
