INSPECTIONS INCOMPLETE ADMISSIONS OF GOVERNMENT ACTUARY BLUE BOOKS UNRELIABLE

Efficiency of Insurance Department Not What It Seemed—Supt. Fitzgerald Takes Refuge in Retirement—Ontario Counsel Debarred From Examining.

Ottawa, March 16.—(Special.)—The insurance department has discredited itself, the commissioners are helping it to shield itself, Ontario's counsel, Mr. Hellmuth, has protested, "as strongly as I am capable of protesting" against the commissioners permitting Superintendent Fitzgerald to go away for a day before completing his evidence, and so preventing Mr. Hellmuth from testing him before he has had time to "furbish up" his knowledge about his department's work, and see what his chief assistants had said in evidence, and everybody here is scoffing at Mr. Fitzgerald's interpretation of his duties. You can hear loud voiced protests against his complaint that the act gives him insufficient power. Before the investigation is much older the companies are likely themselves to complain of Mr. Fitzgerald's slackness. They admit his authority to report on all matters connected with insurance and his power to withdraw a license any year make the superintendent virtually master of the companies. As one expert said to-day, "he has a great big club to hold over our heads, but he never shakes it, much less brings it down."

The department, which is supposed to be expediting the commission, has done practically nothing to prepare the necessary information. Mr. Fitzgerald to-day was supposed to be hunting up correspondence with the companies referred to yesterday, which any business office would have immediately available.

A Substitute Witness.
Really, he has tumbled so badly that Actuary Blackadar was put up to try to save further exposure of weakness, and to occupy time in going over a great deal of ground already covered by Fitzgerald, while Mr. Shepley is away. The Dominion counsel, who is responsible for the conduct of the inquiry, has been away two days out of the three. His junior, Mr. Tilley, obviously has no mastery of the facts before the surface, and has been spinning out the time till Mr. Shepley can handle Mr. Fitzgerald. Mr. Fitzgerald would have had his chief examination completed to-day, and Mr. Hellmuth could have begun his questions, and Mr. Fitzgerald could have hunted down documents Saturday, Sunday and Monday. Apparently the commission has been ill advised to force Ontario into a position of protest. Blackadar was essential, see the Dominion counsel absent two whole days, while the junior plods along hoping night or Bluecher would come, and then sees an adjournment to-day at 1:40, whereas sittings had been fixed to proceed till 4.

Slow, But Sure.
Mr. Blackadar was of the different witness, and slower than Mr. Fitzgerald. Brilliant in quiet mathematical pastures, he is apparently slow of mind at an unaccustomed job. Like Fitzgerald he would be best off indefinitely where he ought to have been decisive. For example:

The Sun Life was only partially inspected before the time of Blackadar's examination last year, because he wanted Fitzgerald's advice on points arising from an early inspection in June. The blue book was printed nevertheless. Mr. Tilley: What was the nature of the question you were considering?
Blackadar—hesitating: The one that arose—hesitation—was—hesitation—on the examination—hesitation—on the amount in the ledger—page—dealing with profits, I think, on securities.
Mr. Tilley: The examination of the ledger dealing with profits on securities was completed?
Mr. Blackadar: Yes.
Mr. Tilley: What was the point that arose?
Mr. Blackadar: The point—hesitation—I could best deal with that on my memorandum.

Mr. Tilley: What I want is that you shall give the names of all companies that have not been inspected in time for the annual bluebook for the last fifteen years, and the reason that inspection was not completed. I want to ascertain all changes made in the return after the inspection which never got into the bluebook. Can you get that?
Mr. Blackadar: I think so.
Mr. Tilley: You say the inspection of the Sun Life books for 1904 wasn't completed until November, 1905?
Mr. Blackadar: Yes.
Mr. Tilley: Does it run as late as November many times?
Mr. Blackadar: I think it does.

Really it seems unkind to the department to go over all the admissions which make the loudly heralded assertions that it's examinations have been rigid and thorough look like parodies, serious, and jokes. Blackadar complains he had no clerical assistance to check the values of real estate mortgages, and some insurance man muttered "he never asked for it." The summary of the evidence to-day will peak for itself.

Mr. Thursday's World a paragraph beginning "The Imperial Life should have read: 'If the Imperial Life had asked to reduce its deposit, etc.'"

HANDS OFF THE OBSERVATORY TORONTO RAISES HER VOICE

Representative Meeting at City Hall Adopts Strong Resolution to Go on to Ottawa.

The observatory will not be removed to Ottawa without a strenuous opposition. In view of the fact that a considerable portion of the apparatus is to have already been transferred, and that the government is showing what looks like a fixed purpose, the meeting held in the council chamber last night at the call of the mayor might appear somewhat of a foregone conclusion, but there was no disposition shown to give up the struggle. On the other hand, there was a general determination to win out if possible, as the following resolution passed unanimously:

Resolved, that in the opinion of this meeting it is highly desirable that nothing should be left undone to secure the retention of the observatory and meteorological service in the City of Toronto, and to this end that a respectful memorial be presented to the government at Ottawa, setting forth:

(1) That the service having been originally established here by the imperial government as far back as 1810, and as the University of Toronto provided a site therefor, the City of Toronto can reasonably claim to have vested rights.

(2) That as at present located it is of great value to the University of Ontario and the other educational institutions in the city, which is the leading educational centre of the Dominion.

(3) That it has been a great advantage in developing the varied live stock, agricultural, horticultural, fruit-growing industries, for which the city is the largest distributing point in the Dominion, and that shippers of all classes of perishable products take advantage of the forecasts in making shipments at times when the temperature is uncertain to their material benefit.

(4) That the observatory is situated in a very advantageous position in handling the meteorological work from the United States, which is sent from Buffalo, and in this connection alone it would seem to be of the highest importance that the local service should not be disturbed.

(5) That prompt forecasts are of the utmost importance to navigation interests and the shipping industry, and that the advantage of having the service established at a point where there is a large volume of shipping, as compared with an inland point, must be apparent.

Should Accept the Site.
And further, in view of the foregoing reasons, this meeting would most respectfully urge the various interests represented to use every proper influence with the government of the Dominion to secure the erection of proper buildings upon the site which the University of Toronto has offered on Bloor-street West, and which has been accepted and is now in use, and the permanent establishment of the observatory in this city; also that the director and officers of the service here should be placed in the same position, both as regards departmental status and salary, as if the staff were attached to or formed a department at the seat of the government.

INQUIRY INTO PACKERS.

Manitoba Legislators Discussing It When House Reopens.

Winnipeg, March 17.—One of the members of the legislature sought to introduce a resolution in the house to-day calling for an investigation of an alleged combine in abattoir and packing plants of beef industry. Members were discussing it when the government arrived and prorogued the house.

P. T. Gordon, M.L.A., one of the leading packers, indignantly resented charges made against the trade.

PATRONAGE AND THE I.C.R. NEARLY EVERY EMPLOYEE THERE BY INFLUENCE

Haggart Resumes Criticism of Road's Financial Affairs—Some Coming Revelations Hinted At.

Ottawa, March 16.—(Special.)—Hon. John Haggart to-day resumed his reply to the annual statement made by Hon. Mr. Emmerson on Tuesday last concerning the Intercolonial. He ridiculed the claim that the deficit was to be explained by the fact that some hay and coal had been carried now and then without charge to the consumer. During the strike the coal carried from Nova Scotia to Toronto amounted to only 450 tons. There had been some hay carried ostensibly for the sufferers from the drought in Prince Edward Island. As a matter of fact this free hay had been principally used to affect the general elections.

Mr. Haggart was quite severe on the device of charging up expenditures to capital account. The money spent on this road was money lost. The whole concern could not be sold for $25,000,000. Moreover, the government was building a rival line from Montreal to Quebec, and was subsidizing the C.P.R. from St. John to Montreal.

The minister had not seen fit to refer to the great loss by fire at Montreal. Had he heard about it? Had he any views on the subject?

It was reported that sleeping cars would be laid off and other devices resorted to in order to force a balance at the end of the fiscal year. This would be possible by some ledgerman in bookkeeping. The men at Montreal would have their wages transferred from revenue to capital account. Incapacity, stupidity, and something decidedly worse had characterized the Liberal government in all its dealings with the I.C.R.

A Regrettable Feature.

Mr. Haggart suggested that the road be turned over to a commission, or that the minister of railways and canals be chosen from some other part of the country. He was sorry that the principle of public ownership was discredited by the failure of the Intercolonial. The question of transportation was most important. He believed the members of the Senate should entirely rest in believing that all public utilities must in time come under the complete control of parliament.

Hon. Mr. Emmerson had absented himself while Mr. Haggart was speaking, and Mr. Logan (Lib., N.B.), attempted to defend the government. It was a sorry attempt. He claimed that the road was not a political machine, and declared that his patronage from it did him more harm than good.

Good for a Job.

In response to a general demand that he state in what his patronage consisted, the speaker was forced to admit that every fireman, switchman and engineer was appointed upon the recommendation of some Liberal member. He assailed the prevailing belief that too many passes were issued. As a matter of fact he insisted that for several years past there had been no passes given.

"Then," demanded Mr. Haggart, amid Conservative applause and laughter, "will you explain what the minister means in his report by saying that he hopes to save considerable money during the coming year by cutting off the passes?"

At the evening session Mr. Fowler (Con., Kings), replied to Mr. Logan. He said that nobody in Canada desired to sell the Intercolonial. Nobody wished to reduce the rate of wages, but the number of employees ought to be cut down to fifty per cent.

Whence Comes Supplies.
The bulk of the supplies for this road was purchased from a mysterious concern incorporated in Newfoundland, called the Eastern Supply Company. Its moving spirit was the inseparable companion of the minister of railways and canals. His name is Ludge. The people of Canada would know more about him when some testimony is to be presented before the public accounts committee regarding the relations that have existed between the Intercolonial and this Newfoundland corporation.

The Intercolonial, Mr. Fowler declared, was a splendid asset. The sentiment for public ownership was growing. With each passing day.

W. F. Cockshutt (Bantford) declared himself in favor of public ownership of railroads. He was not discouraged by the poor success of the Intercolonial. He favored helping the railway minister in every effort to improve its financial condition.

IN A TREACHEROUS CURRENT

TRIES TO SAVE GIRL'S LIFE BOTH HURLED TO DEATH FROM HIGH BRIDGE

St. George, March 16.—(Special.)—Almost within sight of the home of her parents, whom she had not seen for a year or so, during which time they have been residents of this town, Ruth Hinchcliffe, aged 16, was fatally injured, and Stephen Cox, aged 25, in an attempt to save her, was instantly killed by falling 70 feet from the railway bridge here at noon to-day. The girl's brother, Willie, and a friend named Withers, by running, avoided the freight train which hurried their companions to their death. The four were of the Salvation Army immigrant party recently arrived in Canada.

They were walking from Harrisburg to St. George. The girl and Clarke were about the centre of the 700 foot G.T.R. bridge when a freight train came along. The girl became frightened and was unable to move. Cox gallantly stayed with her and assisted to hold her to the side of the rails. The bridge however, is only some ten feet in width, and the passing train jolted the unfortunate couple into space.

They fell a distance of 70 feet, alighting between the river and the road. Cox was underneath and died instantly from shock and internal injuries. Hinchcliffe and Withers had not advanced so far on the bridge, and were able to reach the end of the bridge in time to save their lives.

Dr. Addison, who attended the girl, will recommend that an inquest be held.

WHERE DELAY IS DANGEROUS.

KEPT LIFE IN BLOODLESS BODY

Saline Injections Used to Revive Stabbing Victim.

Collingwood, March 16.—(Special.)—Coroner McFaul's jury, after three hours' consideration this evening, brought in a verdict of felonious wounding, or manslaughter, against Louis Bartelle.

Evidence went to show that Lewis had irritated Bartelle and provoked an encounter by slapping his face. The stabbing was done while the two were grappling and no one saw the blow struck.

Lewis practically died a few minutes after the injury was received, but by means of saline injections life was prolonged for three hours. The femoral artery was severed and blood had ceased to flow when the surgeon began. Bartelle will appear before the magistrate tomorrow.

TO REPEAL.

Mr. Maclean Gives Notice of Motion to Repeal Indemnities.

Ottawa, March 16.—(Special.)—W. F. Maclean (South York) gave notice to-night of a bill to repeal the act of last session increasing indemnities to members and senators, and to repeal all pensions to privy councillors.

$20,000 MORE WANTED.
Ottawa, March 16.—(Special.)—A supplementary estimate of $20,000 for the expense of the royal commission to investigate insurance in Canada precipitated some indignation protests from members of the opposition as the house was about to adjourn to-night.

Mr. Maclean called attention to the fact that Mr. Shepley, counsel for the Dominion government, had absented himself from the hearings, and had entrusted this important business to a junior counsel. The premier said that Mr. Shepley had been called upon suddenly with other business to attend to.

R. L. Borden advised the government to prescribe rules of procedure so that counsel appointed by the provinces of Ontario and Quebec, or by any one else could be heard.

OVER FORTY LIVES ARE LOST SCORE OF BODIES BURN IN TRAIN WRECK

Pueblo, Col., March 16.—Some two score lives were crushed out early to-day in a head-on collision of two passenger trains near Adobe, Col., on the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad, and more than a score of the victims were incinerated beyond identification by a fire that destroyed the wrecked coaches.

Many others were injured, and probably will recover. The wreck was due to undelivered orders, heavy mountain grades, a blinding snowstorm, a sharp curve and a slippery condition of the rails. Only the locomotives, baggage and day coaches were wrecked, the sleeping cars escaping almost unscathed.

Many of the dead were home-seekers bound for the Northwest. The three splintered locomotives set fire to the splintered coaches, which were hurled before all the bodies were recovered, the flames being so hot that rescuers could not approach the debris until the fuel burned out.

Rail Slippery.
It was a wild, stormy night in the mountain canyons when the two heavy trains met. Blinding snow darkened the rocky gorges and speed was not high.

According to Fireman J. H. Smith of the westbound train, Engineer Walter Coslett applied the emergency brake, but the slippery rails allowed the momentum of the heavy train to carry it on to the fatal crash.

The impact was scarcely noticeable, but the trains crashed and ground into each other. Fireman Smith was the only one of the engine crews to escape. The baggage car of the westbound train broke in two and the three coaches were squeezed together. The baggage car, the mail car and a coach of the eastbound train buckled.

The monetary damage is $200,000. Much baggage and mail were destroyed.

One Family's Loss.
One of the pathetic tragedies of the disaster was the wiping out of all but two of the family of Taylor Hewitt of Lebo, Kan. The father, mother, daughter, grandchild, and the wives of the sons are missing. The two sons are among the injured in the hospital here, each of them having leg fractures in addition to other injuries. Mr. A. Hewitt said that he had a severe cold several months ago, in which his family were plainly as he later saw the wreck everything that took place after the collision.

FROM CABINET TO OFFICE SIR WILFRID DEFENDS MULOCK'S MOVE

Prime Minister, However, Ignores One Important Point—The Nationalization of Telephones.

Ottawa, March 16.—(Special.)—Some very plain speaking about the insurance commission and counsel appointed by the Dominion government, some pointed criticism of the Intercolonial, owing to which many members hastened to range themselves under the banner of public ownership, and some pointed inquiries from the opposition as to the reluctance of Sir William Mulock and the position of the government upon the telephone question and the maintenance of the independence of parliament, characterized the meeting of the house of commons. Nearly an hour was taken up in receiving and accepting petitions. These dealt as a rule with Mr. Fitzpatrick's bill for the better observance of the Lord's Day. The bulk of these were from clergymen and others, advocating the bill, but one petition that opposed it bore 700 names, many of them suggesting Hebrew or continental descent.

Cabinet Changes.

Before proceeding with the regular order the prime minister made a statement as to recent changes in the cabinet. Mr. Templeman had not been assigned to the portfolio of marine and fisheries, because the supreme question in that department concerned the St. Lawrence River. He had transferred that portfolio to Mr. Brodeur. The new minister of inland revenue would take over several departments that were now under the minister of the interior.

Another vacancy had been caused by the resignation of Sir William Mulock. The government had been criticized for appointing Sir William chief justice of the exchequer court of Ontario. The question had been asked, how could a man who was not strong enough to perform the duties of a judge? Sir Wilfrid thought members of the house would understand how that could be. But it was objected that Sir William Mulock had at one time advised parliament to accept an office under the crown until two years after he retired from parliament. It was a mistake in doing so, while no English precedent for such legislation.

Independence of Parliament.
R. L. Borden made a very effective speech, which was seized upon by W. F. Maclean.

"The right honorable gentleman," said Mr. Maclean, "evaded and is still evading the matter. The people of Canada are interested in the independence of parliament. The government ignored the fact that the one thing above all others, which Sir William Mulock stood for, was the maintenance of the independence of parliament."

"Men are constantly passing out of this house to offices of emolument under the crown. Since last session eight members obtained office under the government or thru its procurement."

"The right honorable gentleman has assured us by his silence at least, that he does not intend to make the independence of parliament. He has expressly told us that he discussed with the policy of marine and fisheries the policy of the cabinet. He followed the same course with the new postmaster general."

Mr. Maclean was satisfied that the late postmaster general had fully determined to nationalize telephones, telegraphs, and ultimately a cable system to the mother country. But we had no statement to-day as to whether the policy of Sir William Mulock was to be continued. When a candidate in North York Mr. Aylsworth had declared that he intended to carry out the policy of his predecessor as to the postoffice and telephones.

Question of the Hour.
"This telephone question," Mr. Maclean insisted, "is a burning question in Canada. Manitoba and other provinces are appealing to us for assistance. They will be handicapped in their struggle with monopoly until the trunk lines are nationalized. The right honorable gentleman told us the telephone committee was exhausted. Very well, then we desire to know whether this government intends to avail itself of the testimony taken by that committee? I think that parliament is certainly entitled to that information."

R. L. Borden said it was singular that Sir William Mulock had gone from the cabinet to the court room to find repose and rest, while the new postmaster general had sought repose and rest by leaving the court room to enter the cabinet.

Under Which Flag?
Mr. Borden concluded by saying that it might be well for the two new ministers to state their views on the British preference. "Do they range themselves under Mr. Fisher and his deliverance at Montreal, or under Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and his recent address at Toronto?"

GRAND TO LIVE.
And the Last Laugh is Always the Best.

"Six months ago I would have laughed at the idea that there could be anything better for a table beverage than coffee," writes an Ohio woman—"now I laugh to know there is."

"Since childhood I drank coffee as freely as any other member of the family. The result was a puny, sickly girl and as I grew into womanhood I did not gain in health, but was afflicted with heart trouble, a weak and disordered stomach, wrecked nerves and a general breaking down, till last winter at the age of 38 I seemed to be on the verge of consumption. My friends greeted me with 'How bad you look! What a terrible color!' and this was not very comforting."

"The doctors and patent medicines did me absolutely no good. I was thoroughly discouraged."

"Then I gave up coffee and commenced Postum Food Coffee. At first I didn't like it, but after a few trials and following the directions exactly, it was grand. It was refreshing and satisfying. In a couple of weeks I noticed a great change. I became stronger, my brain grew clearer, I was not troubled with forgetfulness as in coffee times, my power of endurance was more than doubled. The heart trouble and indigestion disappeared and my nerves became steady and strong."

"I began to take an interest in things about me. Housework and home-making became a pleasure. My friends have marveled at the change, and when they enquire what brought it about, I answer 'Postum Food Coffee, and nothing else in the world.'"

"Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich."

"There's a reason. Read the little book, 'The Road to Wellville,' in package."

A conference between the board of control, the board of trustees of the General Hospital, and the dissatisfied physicians of the city, is suggested by the feeling which exists in regard to the hitch over the hospital plan. The doctors think possibly some amicable arrangement could be reached thru such a conference.

Mayor Coatsworth has obtained an opinion from Corporation Counsel Fullerton as to the points of difference and the course to be pursued by the board of control in the matter.

Mr. Fullerton's Opinion.
Mr. Fullerton, in response, says:

"As requested, I write you in reference to clause 21 of the hospital bill, which reads as follows:

"(21) The trustees shall allow or permit all patients paying sufficient to cover all the cost of the trustees of their maintenance and support while in the hospital, the right of employing their own surgeon or physician, subject to the regulations of the trustees."

"The provision in bylaw No. 449, by which certain conditions are provided, reads as follows:

"But the proceeds or any portion thereof shall not be paid over by the city treasurer until the new hospital trust is formed, with civil regulations thereon, consisting of at least two appointed by the city council, and then only when the new board so formed shall undertake to allow or permit all patients paying their way in the new hospital the right of employing their own surgeon or physician, subject to the regulations of the hospital board."

"Now it seems to me that 'paying their way' must mean paying the hospital charges for the accommodation and attendance they get, and does not and is not intended to involve the question of bookkeeping which will be necessary to ascertain whether such charges are 'sufficient to cover all the cost to the trustees of their maintenance and support while in the hospital.'"

"The one object of the trustees is to ascertain what the patient knows exactly what his bill is. The other is something known only to the hospital accountant."

"In my opinion the clause should not be consented to on behalf of the city until sanctioned by the council."

Dr. Sheard's View.
"There should be no doubt as to the right of patients in private and semi-private wards to engage their own physicians," said Dr. Sheard, "but patients who are admitted by order from the municipality as charity patients should not have that right. Such a privilege could only work out to the detriment of the city. We would be paying for their attendance in the hospital, and some of the physicians would be getting their fees."

"But between the patients in private and semi-private wards and those in the public wards there is a wide difference, and the crux of the whole matter lies in the rights of patients who are placed in the public wards and paid for by fraternal societies."

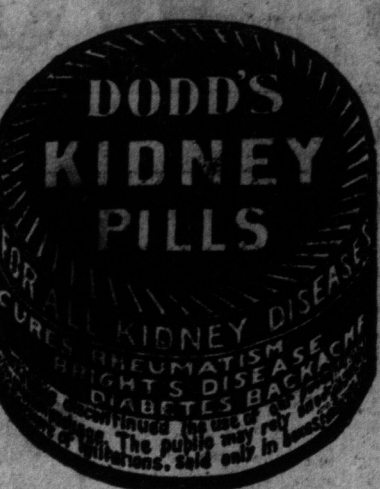

"The fraternal societies demand the right to have their own physicians attend their members in the hospital, to prevent imposition. This is the important point, and is a debatable question."

"The hospital board takes the stand that only patients who pay their way should have the right to their own physician. Just what they mean by 'paying their way' I do not clearly understand. If the King Edward Hotel asks $1 a day and a man pays that, he is entitled to the full privileges of the hotel, and if a patient in the hospital pays what the board of trustees asks he is entitled to the full privileges of the hospital. I do not think the hospital could make a profit on a weekly fee of $5.00 per week. There have been different rates charged in the past, and I suppose there are different rates to-day, and this, in my opinion, any patient who pays what the board of trustees asks should be entitled to his own physician."

Some Correspondence.
In view of the feeling which has been created thru the trustees asking that a clause be inserted in the bill practically preventing surgeons or physicians following patients into the hospital who follow only part of their maintenance the following correspondence between Mr. Flavell and Dr. J. M. Cotton is of interest:

J. W. Flavell, Esq., Chairman Board of Trustees, Toronto General Hospital:

Dear Sir:—On Wednesday, the 16th inst. a rather serious accident occurred at the Island. The man was met at the foot of Yonge-street by the ambulance and taken to the Emergency Hospital. I met him at the Emergency and was preparing to dress his wounds and set the fracture. Before starting, the house surgeon called me aside and said there were some new regulations, and I would require to have present to assist the one of this hospital, a private ward patient, and they were quite willing to pay all expenses at the hospital. I was surprised at the action, as heretofore I have been allowed the privilege of the General Hospital to do any operation whatever, without such restrictions. To make sure there was no error I called up Dr. Brown, the superintendent, and he stated that the regulations were as follows: That the patient should take full charge of the case and I accordingly had the patient removed to the Grace Hospital, where he is doing nicely. I wish to say that the hospital were taking no responsibility in the case whatever, as all this was on my shoulders, my own private case. The operation consisted in setting three fractures, and any damages likely to accrue would fall on my shoulders. Besides this the attendant for the day, no thought of taking away a patient's right to call his own surgeon, no thought of being taken to members of the profession outside of the staff, no thought of forcing a patient to accept the services of a surgeon he neither needs or requires. Why, then, is the very thing you have done. Your rules are laid down hard and fast. There is no getting around these facts. Further, your rules, if submitted to, would take away all the confidence a patient or his friends have in his choice of a surgeon, if not your own staff. If this is not monopoly, I do not know the meaning of the word. Picture to yourself, unfortunately meeting with a serious accident down town, hurriedly taken to the Emergency Hospital, having for your surgeon one not on the staff of the hospital and whom you have every confidence in, and, on arrival, is told he cannot dress your wounds without a member of the staff present, and this member of the staff is a man of whom you have no confidence, to supervise your work. The hospital in effect says, "you must have some one to at least see yourself do your work right." If this is not "unfair to the members of the profession" who are not so fortunate as to be on the staff, I do not understand the word unfair. Is this a kindness? Is this action of your board likely to cement good feeling between the profession outside and inside?

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

I also think your answer to the question of a fee is not quite so explicit as the rules you have laid down. Let us understand if a fee is to be paid or not. The general profession under the present rules is unworkable and taking so much interest in hospital matters, but fear you are taking your advice from a source who feel that death resulting from the lack of skill of a man of the hospital is a thing to be avoided. If you wish to do what is right and fair to the profession outside of the staff, believe me my dear sir, yours very truly,

J. Milton Cotton.

Professional Jealousy.
Mr. Flavell in his reply suggests unfairness to the staff and professional jealousy. The letter is dated Sept. 2, 1905, and reads:

My Dear Dr. Cotton—I have again been absent from the city, and returning this morning have only now your letter of Aug. 29 before me. I do not think your reading of my letter is fair. You must be aware that as far as physicians are concerned, there is absolutely no difference between the privileges granted to all the physicians in the city, in private and semi-private wards. Nor are you writing to the members of the staff in writing under the impression, that the rule which was laid down at the suggestion of the staff, no member of the staff being present, was prepared, and then they were submitted to a committee of the staff. The trustees became aware of a most unfortunate death resulting from the lack of skill of a man of the hospital, and the rule was laid down at the suggestion of the staff, no member of the staff being present, was prepared, and then they were submitted to a committee of the staff. ## PAY WHEN CURED

Varicocele Cured

Heavy work, severe straining and evil habits in youth brought on a double varicocele. When I worked hard the aching would become severe and I was often laid up for a week at a time. My family physician told me an operation was my only hope—but I dreaded it. I tried several specialists, but soon found out all they wanted was my money. I commenced to look upon all doctors as little better than rogues. One day my boss asked me why I was not working so hard and I told him my condition. He advised me to consult Drs. Kennedy and Kergan, as he had known them for many years. In fact he had taken treatment from them himself and knew they were square and skillful. He wrote them and got the New Method treatment for me. My progress was somewhat slow and during the first month's treatment I was somewhat discouraged. However, I continued treatment for three months longer and was rewarded with a complete cure. I could only earn $12 a week in a machine shop before treatment, now I wish all sufferers knew of your valuable treatment.

New Wall Papers

In planning for a bedroom it might be well to consider if its appearance would not be improved by new wall paper. Our Spring showings include many charming designs in light chintz and stripe effects quite different from the ordinary run of papers, yet very reasonably priced.

Mail Orders

We are frequently complimented on the satisfactory manner in which mail orders entrusted to us are filled. Samples of wall papers, drapery materials, etc., and illustrations of furniture will be promptly mailed on request. In cases where the selection of furnishings is left to us, careful choice is made by experts in their several lines.

DEATH OF MRS. BOYD.

Mrs. Wm. Boyd, widow of the late Constable Wm. Boyd, whose death occurred about five years ago, died in her residence, 1261 West King-street, yesterday of heart failure. Tho ill for some time death came rather suddenly and proved a shock to the family. Two sons and two daughters survive, Wm. and Robert Boyd, and Misses Mary and Blanche.

The funeral, which will be held on Monday to Mount Pleasant Cemetery, is private.

Jewelry Must Be Marked True.

Washington, D.C., March 16.—The house committee on interstate and foreign commerce decided to-day to make a favorable report on the Street misbranded jewelry bill. Several amendments were made to the measure. As agreed upon it forbids the importation, exportation and shipment in interstate commerce of jewelry and silverware branded in such a manner as to indicate that they are greater fineness than shown by assay.

AGE ADDS TO ITS POPULARITY.

Fifty years ago Putnam's Corn Extractor was introduced. Its sale has been enormous. The reason is that "Putnam's" is the only painless and sure cure for corns, warts and bunions. Doubtless you have proved this yourself.

MUNICIPALITIES TO MEET TO TALK POWER QUESTION

Galt is Taking the Initiative in Furthering the Proposals of Hon. Adam Beck.

Galt, March 16.—(Special.)—Hon. Adam Beck's propaganda, the Niagara Falls power for the people, enlisted the strongest support in this section of the province. To-day arrangements were effected for a meeting of representatives of the boards of trade and citizens of the following towns, to be held in Galt Friday afternoon next: Galt, Berlin, Waterloo, Hespeler, Preston, Hamburg, Tillsonburg, St. George, Milton, Paris, Ayr and Brantford. At this meeting joint action will be taken towards promoting the object Mr. Beck has in view, namely, to induce the government to take the power generated by the private company at the Falls and distribute it to the municipalities which ask for it.

President Fryer of the Galt Board of Trade is actively interesting himself in the important project, and says nothing will be left undone in impressing on the government the desirability of securing and maintaining power for the people.

MEAL FOR HEROINE.

Mrs. Edna M. Briggs, Who Saved Drowning Boy, is Honored.

H. P. Dwight, chairman of the investigating governors' Royal Canadian Humane Association, yesterday presented Edna M. Briggs of 86 Seaton-street with the bronze medal of the Royal Canadian Humane Association, for promptitude and courage in rescuing Harry Bennett, a young lad of nine years of age, from drowning at Balmy Beach on Sept. 1 last.

Young Bennett was bathing in the lake just west of Howard-avenue, when he got beyond his depth and called for help. His mother, who was nearby on the shore, became panic-stricken with fear. Miss Briggs, who was sunbathing at the beach, at the risk of her life, being unable to swim, pluckily went to the rescue.

After repeated efforts she succeeded in getting hold of the lad as he was going down for the last time, and with the help of another lady, who had come to her assistance, managed to bring him safely to shore.

It took considerable time to resuscitate young Bennett, as he had already become black in the face.

This cost can no doubt be eventually modified by overlapping or reselling.

"I would say," Mr. Fryer observes, "that the initial installation will probably cost more than the engineer's prices, especially so in this case, because the cost depends altogether on the amount of power used, overhead or fixed charges being the same no matter how much power is transmitted."

Suing For $15,000.

London, March 16.—An action on behalf of the widow and children of the late Jutson Moore, the street railway conductor, who was recently killed at the Richmond-street crossing the Grand Trunk Railway, have issued a writ for $15,000 damages against the Grand Trunk.

The case will be tried at the April assizes.

North Bay, March 16.—(Special.)—The trains from the east, coming in to North Bay, contain many bound for the Cobalt and other mining camps. This morning's train brought in a more picturesque party of seekers after the hidden wealth supposed to abound in these regions than what is usually seen, even in these northern towns.

Thos. F. Barnett of Orillia, with his Indian guide, Ed Simcoe of Kama, and their train of eleven dogs, in charge of Charlie Hevener, their one-armed driver, attracted much attention. The dogs are of various breeds, the leaders being two enormous Indian dogs, showing evidence of great strength and endurance, traits of which both dogs and men stand very much in need of, in view of the perilous trip before them.

They left on the 10 o'clock train for Bisco, the Booth & Shannon lumber town, up on the main line of the C.P.R. The party gets its outfit there and will start at once for Moose River and Hudson Bay. After leaving Bisco, an adventurous trip of 250 miles lies before them—crossing over the height of land and crossing several small lakes they strike Beaver Lake, and crossing beyond the Sturgeon portage along the Metagam branch of the Moose, they expect to strike something, but what it was neither Mr. Barnett nor his companions would disclose.

This is the second trip for Barnett. He came from there only about ten days ago, and his speedy return has caused considerable comment and strengthens the belief commonly held by many, that in the great tract beyond the height of land there are hidden enormous deposits of mineral wealth awaiting development.

Barnett's party expects to be gone about six weeks.

OFF FOR SOMETHING GOOD?

EXPLORER'S QUICK RETURN

Tom Barnett of Orillia, With Dog Train, is Trekking Again Into Far North.

North Bay, March 16.—(Special.)—The trains from the east, coming in to North Bay, contain many bound for the Cobalt and other mining camps. This morning's train brought in a more picturesque party of seekers after the hidden wealth supposed to abound in these regions than what is usually seen, even in these northern towns.

Thos. F. Barnett of Orillia, with his Indian guide, Ed Simcoe of Kama, and their train of eleven dogs, in charge of Charlie Hevener, their one-armed driver, attracted much attention. The dogs are of various breeds, the leaders being two enormous Indian dogs, showing evidence of great strength and endurance, traits of which both dogs and men stand very much in need of, in view of the perilous trip before them.

AUTO LAWS GOOD ENOUGH.

Walkerville Town Council Will Petition Against Change.

A resolution has been adopted by the municipal council of Walkerville in reference to automobile legislation: "That whereas the council has learned that bills will be introduced during the present session of the legislature with a view to restricting the operation of motor vehicles providing for heavier penalties for infringement of the law; and as such legislation would retard the growth of the automobile industry in this country, a great many people in Walkerville and adjoining municipalities, being employed in the automobile and accessory industries, it is considered that the present law properly enforced, is to the best interest of the province."

A petition to the legislature asking that no drastic legislation be enacted against the operation of motor vehicles, will be sent.

DOLMETSCH TRIO CONCERT.

Arnold Dolmetsch, with whom Mrs. Mabel Dolmetsch and Miss Kathleen Salmon were associated, delighted those present at the Conservatory Hall last night with charming illustrations of music of the olden time, as played upon the instruments for which it was written. Amongst these were the harpsichord, the virginals, the lute, and the clamschew, and in the interpretation of representative pieces of such composers as Bach, Purcell and Handel, Mr. Dolmetsch and his friends were highly successful. Among the most enjoyed items were three Scotch tunes for the lute, played by Mr. Dolmetsch, who was equally at home in his treatment of the virginals. In his violin playing he was accompanied by Mrs. Dolmetsch on the harpsichord. The latter again rendered similar service during Miss Kathleen Salmon's singing of "The Indian Queen." Mr. Dolmetsch quite charmed his audience with his playing on the instrument, on which he spoke as an evident enthusiast. It is noted for its delicate sound.

TO STOP STOCK DOWNSIDE PRACTICE

Urges Government to Further Amend Mr. Hoyle's Bill re Company Prospectuses.

In the legislature Friday the practice of share companies giving a bonus in shares to purchasers of stock was condemned by several members and the government was asked to frame legislation to stop what was admitted to be a pernicious evil. Henry Casselman and Hon. A. G. Mackay led the discussion.

The house went into committee on Mr. Hoyle's bill respecting prospectuses issued by companies. Hon. Mr. Mackay asked if the bill covered those small companies that do not issue prospectuses. There was no such section, said Mr. Hanna, and Mr. Mackay replied that there should be some provision to cover false representations made verbally or in writing.

The attorney general suggested a provision that no person be called upon to pay his subscription unless the company issued a prospectus. Mr. Hoyle said the people of the old country were so educated that they would not subscribe one dollar unless a prospectus was issued.

Mr. Casselman (Hamilton) asked if under the bill it would be possible for a company to give shares to a person subscribing stock. Mr. Hoyle said it would have to be set out in the prospectus. That was the practice in the motherland.

Mr. Casselman: "I don't care what they do in the motherland, we want to do something in this land."

The speaker went on to condemn the practice of giving large chunks of stock to original subscribers.

Why Pay? Mr. Mackay asked: Why should a man be paid a dollar for subscribing? To the man subscribing stock no commission should be paid. It was a most pernicious piece of legislation. He did not care whether it was on the old country statute book or not.

It was pointed out by Mr. Hoyle that all this would appear in the prospectus. This bill was not intended for the purpose of exposing such fraudulent practices.

"It means," suggested the premier, "that which has been done in the dark must be done in the open light of day."

Mr. Mackay argued that if the practice were wrong it ought to be stopped. It was not enough to expose the transaction.

Parental Legislation. The premier retorted that it might be expected that the legislature would act as an agent of any agricultural machine giving a farmer a bonus for buying his machine, which led Mr. Mackay to remark that the farmers were victimized by agents who induced prominent men to buy machines in this way.

This was something like parental legislation, suggested the premier. Would the hon. gentleman ask the legislature to decree what sort of clothes a man may wear or draw up a contract between a purchaser and his tailor?

Necessity of It. The discussion was taken up by Dr. Lewis and Mr. Hanna. The latter pointed out the necessity of companies paying bonuses to subscribers. Recently it had been held by a high court judge that a commission of 25 per cent. was not too great.

Mr. Casselman declared that the creditor usually got the worst of it. Mr. Graham said the promoters were interested in the bill and were preparing the way to start companies without issuing a prospectus.

The clause stands.

The Case Goes On. Chancellor Boyd handed out judgment sustaining the prosecution in the case of Joseph Phillips of the York County Loan.

The chancellor holds that the hearing before the magistrate was not a trial, and the magistrate has power to extend the scope of the investigation to any limit required for his purpose.

The allegation that Mr. Jones, that the magistrate was wandering away from the charge, as drawn up, the judge dismisses as not being supported by the facts.

"There has been no departure from the charge," he states. "As I said at the outset of the argument, the questions being investigated were under a section of the criminal code."

This being the case, it leaves Crown Attorney Curry free to continue the investigation on Tuesday when the case again comes up for trial.

Bank Denies Agreement. Thomas G. Ballantyne, a drover of Alma Township, claims in the non-jury assize court the sum of $485.70 from the Bank of Hamilton.

In February, 1905, the plaintiff had an order from Palmer, J. P. E. Edwards, company for hogs. He notified the bank manager at Listowel that he would not all the order unless the bank would agree to pay for hogs shipped.

The plaintiff says that they did so and he delivered the hogs. The bank of Hamilton deny there was any such agreement.

At Least, Not if Bill Before Legislature Goes Through.

There will be no more stock transactions on margin in Ontario if a bill of which T. H. Lennox has given notice in the legislature becomes law.

While not fully completed the bill provides that there must always be an actual transfer of stock, which would mean obligation on the purchaser's part to pay in full.

This clause alone might seem effective enough in the suppression of speculative trading, but it is provided further that all brokerage concerns must pay a license fee of $100, and that the books be open always to government inspection. A duplicate system of keeping books and documents is also required. There is further protection against financial juggling in the requirement that every transaction be registered and that the bill of sale bear a government stamp.

One advantage claimed for the restriction as to bookkeeping is that it will compel the submitting of the books in court.

Mr. Lennox also has given notice of a bill to place a tax of $100 on commercial travelers coming into Ontario from outside, in reprisal for the action of the Province of Quebec imposing a tax. A $400 penalty clause is inserted.

Fall From Moving Car. Mrs. Henderson and her husband are suing the Toronto Street Railway Co. for $100 damages. A dozen witnesses have been called before Chief Justice Ferguson, who has ordered the case to be tried on March 23.

Mrs. Henderson while getting out of a car at the corner of King and Yonge streets on the night of July 23 of last year fell and broke her arm.

It is alleged that the car started while she was alighting and that she was thrown, as a result of the shock.

Several witnesses even stated that the car did not stop, but the defendant company persists that the lady tried to alight while the car was in motion.

WEARY DAYS AND SLEEPLESS NIGHTS

Many men and women toss night after night upon sleepless beds and weary eyes do not close in the sweet and refreshing repose that comes to those whose heart and nerves are right. Worry and disease has so debilitated and irritated the nervous system that it cannot be quieted. Or, again, you have heart palpitation and sensation of sinking, a feeling you are going to die; or perhaps you wake up from your sleep feeling as though you were about to choke or smother, and rest leaves you for the night. Allow these conditions to continue and you will feel your health declining.

It is the nerves and heart that are not acting properly.

They can be set right by the use of MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

They soon induce healthful, refreshing sleep, not by depressing the nerves, but by restoring them to healthy action, and removing all symptoms of heart trouble, which is often the cause of nervousness and sleeplessness.

Mrs. E. Chambers, Massey Station, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with dizziness, weak spells and fluttering of the heart. I was so bad at times I could not lie down at night but would have to sit up. I doctored for a whole year and got no relief. I took three boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and was so completely cured I have not been troubled since. I cannot recommend them too highly."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or sent direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

HEAD-TAX UNCHRISTIANLIKE VICTIM GETS $100 DAMAGES

Englishman Who Sues Niagara Nav. Co. Employs Wins Decision of a Jury.

The findings of the jury yesterday in Judge Winchester's court were in favor of James Jones, a plasterer, of Toronto, who sued the Niagara Navigation Company, and one of its purveyors, Schmiedendorf, for false imprisonment and illegal arrest. The case, however, has yet to be argued on the question of a non-suit.

The proceedings were of importance, having relation to the Alien Act of the United States, under which a tax of $2 is imposed on every person, with certain exceptions, such as in the case of citizens of Canada, entering the United States.

On June 30 of last year the plaintiff purchased from the company a ticket for transportation by boat and rail from Toronto to Buffalo. When the boat reached Lewiston, the plaintiff, who was going as far as Buffalo to see a friend of his, was requested by the purser to pay the head tax of $2. When he said that he was not going to stay in Buffalo long, he was informed that he could have a certificate which would entitle him to a refund, provided that he returned within 48 hours. Subsequently, Jones was in the act of getting off the boat when he was asked for the money. He declined to pay unless he received the receipt, that was not given him, and he was detained on the boat and forced to return to Toronto. The action of Schmiedendorf and the U.S.A. officials was construed, on behalf of the plaintiff, as an arrest, and Jones claimed $200 from the company and a similar sum from Schmiedendorf.

James Bicknell, on behalf of the defendants, claimed that it was a matter of the ship company was not concerned. The law of the United States must be obeyed. Making light of the affair, counsel suggested that the plaintiff had saved from idling away his time and spending money in Buffalo, and Mr. Lee, for the plaintiff, delivered an impassioned speech concerning the rights of Canadian citizens.

The witnesses included Judge Seaver of Buffalo, who said that there was a penalty of $1000 attached to the ship if it neglected to see that the U.S.A. law was complied with. It was alleged that plaintiff told Schmiedendorf that he had been in Toronto seven years, but plaintiff declared that he said he had been in Canada fourteen years.

The jury gave affirmative answers to the following questions:

"Was the plaintiff prevented from entering the United States?" "Yes."

"If so, by whom was he prevented?" "At what place?" "He was prevented at Lewiston by the purser, who retained possession of his ticket."

"On what grounds was he prevented?" "By the refusal to give him the receipt for the $2 by which he could have obtained a refund of his money."

The jury assessed the damages at $100.

During the hearing, Judge Winchester expressed the opinion that while the judges and juries must take the law as they find it, it was an unfortunate thing that a Christian nation should have such a law as the one concerned.

St. Petersburg, March 16.—The daughter of Gen. Spiridonova, the 17-year-old girl who shot at M. Luzhenofsky, chief of the secret police of Tomsk, who smuggled a letter out of her prison describing the manner in which she had been treated. Mme. Izmailovich has also succeeded in sending out a letter from her prison. It was published to-day and described her horrible treatment after the attempt to kill the governor of Minsk, as a result of which her companion, Ivan Kulikov, was executed at Minsk, March 14. Mme. Izmailovich says the police kicked her into insensibility and subsequently at the police station tore off her clothes, subjected her to indignities, cursed her, spat on her face and struck her with such force on the side of her head that an ear-drum was broken.

MUST WORK ON FRIDAY TOO TO REMOVE OLD REPROACH

Premier Whitney Comments on Practice of Crowding Business Into Three Busy Days.

The old time practice of doing very little business on Friday afternoon is being followed by the present legislature. Yesterday there was a bare quorum and discussion of several bills had to be left over, prompting Mr. Whitney to make a few observations on the duties of legislators. He said, in moving the adjournment, that he hoped the members would realize that if they intended to get thru before summer they must deal with the questions on the order paper. He asked that hereafter Friday be considered a day for work so as to avoid the reproaches that have been heaped on the legislature by the country for 20 years that only three days in the week are work days.

RUDDER SHAFT BROKEN.

Konigin Luise Put Into Halifax With 300 Passengers.

Halifax, N.S., March 16.—(Special.)—The North German Lloyd steamer Konigin Luise, on passage from New York to Italy, put in here yesterday with rudder shaft broken. She has 300 passengers. She left New York last Saturday, but on Monday the gale had increased to a hurricane, the wind attaining a maximum velocity of sixty-five miles an hour. At 1 o'clock Tuesday morning, with the sea exceedingly tempestuous, the ship with a somewhat moderate wind, the man at the wheel discovered that the direction of the ship did not change with his movement of it, and it was further found that the steering engine, connected with the rudder shaft, was moving violently about. This machinery was made fast by the engineers but they could not yet make out the cause of the trouble and the steamer lay to with her head in the sea. When daylight came, Third Officer Dettwiler was lowered down by a rope over the stern to the level of the water, when he found the cause was that the rudder shaft had broken just inside the ship. Then the ship's head was turned to Halifax and an average speed of nine miles an hour was made here. The broken shaft will be replaced here, and the passengers will probably be forwarded to their destination by a steamer to call for them.

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

"The Virginian," as dramatized by Owen Wister and Kirke La Shelle from the novel of the same name, is to be the bill all next week at the Princess Theatre, making the first time here for this now very popular play of the west. Mr. Wister gives in "The Virginian" a character study that seems to have satisfied all demands of fancy regarding the western range rider. The hero, the born in Virginia, has lived in Wyoming the seventies and eighties, when cattle-raising was the only business, cattle-stealing the only crime and lynching the only evidence of law and order. Mr. Wister gives a composite picture of the cowboy—all the good, the noble, the brilliant fascination and daring that might enter into the personality of a right-hearted man in such wild surroundings. At the same time the ugly things about him are told without squeamishness; for this wild west man swears like a pirate, smokes, drinks, assists in lynchings, "kills his man" and at the same time is as gentle as a lamb and as peace-loving as a dove.

On Thursday of the week after next, March 23, Eleanor Robson will be seen in the play by Eugene V. Presbury from the tale by Jerome K. Jerome, "Susan, in Search of a Husband." The comedy was especially written for Miss Robson. This comedy will be given on Thursday and Friday evenings of an all too brief engagement. At a Saturday matinee and on Saturday night the actress and her company will delight the patrons with a new play by Clyde Fitch, entitled "The Girl Who Has Everything." The advance sale will open at the Princess Theatre a week from to-morrow.

Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder

whose mission it is and which mission it fills in freeing thousands from the bondage of dreaded, disgusting, discouraging, distracting, that cruel, relentless master that is no respecter of persons. How do you know you are in its thrall? Note the symptoms—headache, watery eyes, pain over the eyes, deafness, buzzing in the head, drooping in the throat, offensive breath, dryness in the throat, anything in the head, symptoms are forerunners of catarrh, and catarrh in the head can be relieved in 10 minutes by Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder and the sufferer may be saved the suffering that comes with the chronic stage and the distress and maybe fatal results when catarrh takes hold on the lung tissue.

Take catarrh in time with this wonderful cure, which, as thousands have said and thousands more could say, "works like magic," and you will have struck the chord that is the keynote to health and happiness.

Scene From "Shadows of a Great City" at the Majestic Next Week.

from which a thrilling rescue of a child will be made. "Shadows of a Great City" is always welcomed by the patrons of the above popular playhouse. Not only is it a splendid production of a good play, but it possesses two excellent qualities, cleanliness of story and an abundance of good comedy, which comprise a part of the story.

Every member of the "Kentucky Belles," the well-known burlesque organization which is booked to appear at the Star Theatre next week, is an artist in his or her respective line. The music of the "Kentucky Belles" is the jingling, melodious order. John Reid, who plays the principal part in "Murphy's Mistake," which, by the way, is from his pen, is very funny. He has an infectious humor, broad Irish brogue, and knows how to use it. Finders will have no opportunity to pick flaws in the "Kentucky Belles." It is one of those shows that is perfect in every respect and certain to make a decided impression, when it comes to town.

The American Jubilee Singers, who will be at Massey Hall on Monday evening next, will revive the old-time plantation program that their predecessors, the Fisk University Singers, made so popular. Daniel W. Brown, the lyric tenor and leader, added much to the strength of the original Fisk Singers. The company is composed of ten tenors, two basses, two contraltos, two sopranos, reader, pianist and organist.

For the concert on Wednesday evening next, by Henri Marteau, the great French cellist, and Jean Gerardy, the pianist, the opening number will be Beethoven's Trio Op. 97. This is one of the most charming works that have been heard in Toronto. The three great ones in Marteau, who has many needless qualities. It is a long time since Jean Gerardy has been here, and he has grown out of a youth prodigy into the finest of cellists. He seems able to produce effects unattainable by any other artist.

Miss Elsie Dixon Craig, a talented pupil of Owen A. Smiley, will give a recital in Association Hall on Tuesday evening, April 17, assisted by Harold Jarvis, tenor; Robert Cringan, violinist; and the Ontario Conservatory Orchestra. The occasion will mark the professional debut of Miss Craig and is being looked forward to with a great deal of interest.

ALBANI'S TRIUMPHS.

Impressions of the Great Concert in Massey Hall Thursday Evening.

It was an enthusiastic and appreciative audience in very truth that gathered in Massey Hall on Thursday evening to bid farewell to Albani—easily 3000 to 4000 people.

Canadians seem to delight to honor Albani, remembering that as a Canadian himself he has attained to the highest success in the greatest musical centre of the world. As a critic has said, he is the one particular daughter of Canada who, as a vocalist, has obtained world-wide fame.

The years deal kindly with this favorite singer. On Thursday evening one could hardly conceive of an artist being in better form and singing with greater effect and power. It was not simply an ovation, but one ovation following another, as each time he appeared on the platform, whether in response to her rendition of some beautiful classic or the singing of a simple and popular ballad. One could literally have heard a pin drop when in response to a second encore in the final number she sang, as only Albani can sing it, "Home Sweet Home."

The company throughout was a strong one. Miss Eva Gauthier and Albert Archdeacon, contralto and baritone, respectively, were enthusiastically received. Haydn Wood, the violinist, won deserved encores. Frank Watkins showed both skill and ability as conductor and accompanist. Nothing could have been finer than Mendelssohn's "Hear My Prayer" by the Toronto Festival Chorus, with Dr. Torrance as conductor and Albani taking the solo.

What shall we say of Adela Verne, the solo pianist of the company. Toronto people had heard her before. In her rendition of Rhapsodie No. 2, by Liszt, she simply carried the whole house with her and an encore was insisted upon, despite all the gracious bowing beforehand.

Miss Verne's playing was an illustration also of the extent to which a great artist must at any time be helped by having at her disposal the highest class instrumentalists. A piano of the old firm of Heintzman & Co., Limited, was the only one in use at the Albani concert in all the fine shading that was necessary to every note. Remember the piano of the pianoforte recitals that were so far as the instrument was concerned there was nothing wanting in that on which she played. It was really a pleasure to watch this very clever pianist as she covered one classic after another in her numbers on the program.

It was a proud day for Canada, with Albani a Canadian; Miss Gauthier, a Canadian, who seems destined to make a world-wide fame for herself; and a Canadian instrument, that which nothing more could have been wished by the most exacting.

A LABOR FAMINE.

Railways Which Want to Build Require 25,000 Men.

Chicago, March 16.—Western railroads are facing a labor famine. Twenty-five thousand men are needed in the Northwestern and Southwestern States to build the roads that are already under way, and it is estimated that before the first of June more than twice that number will be required. Railroad contractors have been able to resume work earlier this year than usual on account of the strenuous efforts to get men from the east for this work.

Ten thousand men are needed by the Western Pacific, the new Gould line to Southern California, and they are offering from $2 to $2.25 a day for unskilled labor with the chance of steady work until the cold weather sets in again next fall.

IN A "DRIVE" OF NATIVES
BRITISH FORCE KILLS 1000

Expedition in Nigeria is Having a Lively Time With the Nandis.

London, March 16.—A letter received by Sir Claude Champion de Crespigny from his son, Capt. De Crespigny, indicates that the British expedition against the Nandis, Northern Nigeria, is encountering unexpected resistance. The captain says a thousand natives were killed during a recent "driving operation."

The Nandis occupy the territory in the vicinity of Victoria Nyansa, the terminus of the Mombasa Railroad, and have been menacing the railroad and raiding farms.

The British attacked and defeated the Nandis and subsequently decided to deport them to a reserve some distance from the railroad.

The Nandis objected and the process of driving them towards the reserve led to sanguinary guerrilla fighting.

LET THE GOVERNMENT OWN
LAKES FOR NEXT FEW YEARS

Suggestion of Fisherman of Half Century's Experience—Far Too Much Netting Done.

The Georgian Bay commission yesterday concluded their sittings for the hearing of evidence regarding the causes of the great diminution of game fish and the best methods that should be adopted for protecting the same. Only one witness, Edward Harris, was examined, and he gave many reasons for the diminution and many suggestions as to the best way to protect the fish.

Mr. Harris, who is about 80 years of age, has been an experienced fisherman for fifty years, and his testimony will bear special weight with the commission when they submit their report to the Dominion government.

Too Much Netting. The pound net, which he declares the most destructive net, should be abolished entirely. The mesh of it is altogether too small, and altho the legal weight is only one and a half pounds, Mr. Harris thinks it should be increased to three pounds for white fish and 4 lbs. for trout. The smallest mesh now used is 4 1/2 inches, but should be increased to 5 inches, and in the fall of the year to 6 inches, when only large fish would be caught.

The fishermen also use more netting than the law allows. The license grants the use of 20,000 yards, but he knew of gangs of fishermen using 100,000 yards, and he further stated that the quantity of netting in the Great Lakes is astounding, being placed in tiers and making it impossible for the fish to escape.

"No estimate," he says, "can be formed by the government reports of the amount of netting done."

Government Ownership. As to the best method of protection, Mr. Harris firmly believed in government ownership of these waters, for a few years at least, and that if no one was allowed to fish but those employed by the government, that all the trouble regarding size of net and close season would cease, and would mean a remarkable

Two Pianos in One

The Bell Player-Piano is virtually two instruments in one. It can be played BY HAND in the ordinary way, and it then looks like an ordinary piano. It can be played with the aid of TREADLES and music-roll (as in the picture) by any one who may not know one note of music from another, and played with artistic nicety and expression. The change from one form to another can be made instantly; this is essentially TWO PIANOS IN ONE.

We invite you to examine this delightful Bell Player-Piano. We want you to play it for yourself, although you may never have put finger to keyboard before. We can take your present piano in part payment, and can arrange easy monthly payments for the difference.

The Bell Player-Piano is the IDEAL INSTRUMENT for the home where there are music lovers who cannot play for themselves. We have a most up-to-date music roll library. We sell music rolls to fit any make of Piano-Player or Player-Piano. Bell Pianos are made, guaranteed and built to last a lifetime by the largest makers of pianos in Canada.

ATTACKS THE ACTUARY.

Albany, N.Y., March 16.—The hearings before the legislative insurance investigation committee on the bills proposed by it for the amendment of the insurance and other laws as the result of its investigation of life insurance methods and conditions, was concluded and finally adjourned at 2.30 this afternoon. The proceedings of today's session were comparatively dull and without sensational incident.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the poisons and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables. Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant-tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much-improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

MAKING OF BINDER TWINE.

Information Sought Concerning Manufacture at Central Prison.

The conditions under which binder twine and cordage are manufactured at the Central Prison, upon which the public limelight was turned some months ago, at the time of the general discussion of business combines, will be brought again into the light.

I. B. Lucas yesterday gave notice in the legislature of a request that there be laid before the house information that is designed to make clear the relations with the Independent Cordage Co. This is what is being asked for relating to the manufacture of binder twine and cordage at the Central Prison.

Copies of all agreements made between the inspector of prisons and public charities and Patrick Lewis Connor, copies of all assignments and agreements between Connor and William Field, and from William Field to the Independent Cordage Co. ## Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse because of the uncertainty as to their harmless character, but is a medicine of known composition, a full list of all its ingredients being printed in plain English on every bottle of wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic, is a capillary stimulant, is a medicine of known composition, a full list of all its ingredients being printed in plain English on every bottle of wrapper.

It is the only medicine for women's special diseases, the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended.

A little book of some of these endorsements will be sent to any address, post-paid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Don't forget that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for women's weaknesses and delicate ailments, is not a patent or secret medicine, being the "Favorite Prescription" of a regularly educated and graduated physician, engaged in the practice of his chosen specialty—that of diseases of women—that its ingredients are printed in plain English on every bottle of wrapper; that it is the only medicine especially designed for the cure of women's diseases that contains no alcohol, and the only one that has a professional endorsement worth more than all the so-called "testimonials" ever published for other medicines. Send for these endorsements at once. They are free for the asking.

If you suffer from nervous debility, backache, dizziness, pain or dragging down sensation low down in the abdomen, "weak back," have disagreeable and watery, catarrhal, pelvic drain, or are in distress from being long on your feet, then you may be sure of benefit from taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. ## Money and Dineen's Hats

Putting money into a good hat is the same as putting it into a bank where it will draw interest. A poor hat pays no interest on hat money—in fact, a poor hat squanders the money that goes into it.

A Dineen Hat has more style to begin with, and it is made so honestly that it will hold its style and shape through most accidents of weather.

Muzzling the Press.

Postcard of Warning and Advice Said to Have Gone to Editors.

The case of Lady Wilson, widow of the late Chief Justice Sir Adam Wilson, against the Toronto General Trusts Corporation, came before Judge Winchester in chambers yesterday. The corporation declined to open the accounts as desired by her ladyship. According to John Young Reid, secretary of the General Trusts, who filed an affidavit, a letter was sent to various papers in Ontario stating that the motion was to take place and warning the editors to procure independent reports, as Toronto papers would be "muzzled."

W. Barwick remarked that the corporation had been accused of the grossest fraud, and that W. R. Morson was the young man responsible for the impeachment. He had come with a power from Lady Wilson. "I think it is highly improper," said Judge Winchester. "I have no powers as a surrogate judge to deal with this; it is very improper. I certainly would stop it; it is a serious matter."

Mr. Hodgins then spoke. He had seen the affidavit about the postcards just one minute before. He thought that it should be properly proved. The affidavits of John Hoskin, John Young Reid, and John Woodburn Langmuir were filed.

Mr. Barwick also claimed that it was owing to Morson that they could not communicate with Lady Wilson. John Langmuir, manager of the company, in an affidavit, laid similar blame on Morson and John Hoskin, who also filed an affidavit, said that Morson's demeanor was offensive.

He expected his speech to result to violence," he added.

RAINY RIVER MAN HAD TROUBLES

Till Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured His Kidneys.

Then His Rheumatism and Other Pains Vanished Once and For All—His Case Only One of Many.

Barwick, Ont., March 15.—(Special.)—That Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure Rheumatism, or any other disease resulting from disordered kidneys is the experience of many of the settlers in this Rainy River country. The case of William John Dixon of this place is a fair sample of the work the great Canadian Kidney Remedy is doing.

"I had Rheumatism so bad I had to use a stick to walk. I had pains in my back and hip, and I had no comfort in sleeping. I could no more than dress or undress myself for nearly two months, and I was for nearly three weeks I could not lace my right shoe."

"My brother advised me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, and I did so. After taking three boxes I could walk around and lace up my shoes and do my work. Six boxes cured me completely."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are the one sure cure for sick kidneys. Sick kidneys are the cause of nine-tenths of the ills the human family suffers from.

BIG STORM IN CALIFORNIA MILES OF LAND FLOODED

Community of 600 People Moves En Masse to a Safer Location—Heavy Snow in Mountains.

Fresno, Cal., March 16.—A storm of unprecedented severity has been raging for sixty hours and the region between the San Joaquin and Kings Rivers is threatened with the greatest flood in years. The fall of snow in the mountains exceeds all records.

Telephone advices from Pineridge, which is at an altitude of 5000 feet, say 12 feet of snow have fallen and at the summit of the mountains the depth is 21 feet. Both the Kings and San Joaquin Rivers are above the danger line.

The residents of Garfield vineyard region worked all night in a blinding rain building levees, but their work went for nothing, when a huge overflow wave went sweeping thru that region this morning. Fancher Creek, flowing south of Fresno into canals of the Fresno Irrigation Canal Co., is beyond control and is laying waste vineyards. Already miles of land are covered with five feet of water. After a night of terror the 600 people of Laton, on Kings River, this morning moved in a body to the grade of the Santa Fe River. The levees about Laton are six feet high, but they are overflowing. Numerous bridges are washing out in the northern colonies. Both the Santa Fe and the Southern Pacific report numerous washouts and train service centralized.

THREE FIREMEN KILLED.

Nine Others Injured, When Roof of Armory Fell.

Camden, N.J., March 16.—Three firemen were killed and nine others injured, one fatally, to-night at a fire which destroyed the old Sixth Regiment armory at Bridge and West streets here.

The fire started in the boiler room of the armory and quickly spread. About a dozen firemen were ordered into the burning building with a line of hose, and were making good progress when the roof fell.

The injured followed the line of hose and escaped, after most of them had been seriously lacerated and burned.

FEAR OF STRANGULATION

Is the Daily Experience of Every Asthmatic Patient.

The worst attacks come at night. Dreading strangulation, the patient is almost afraid to sleep.

Internal treatments have failed. Cough syrups and burning powders are just as useless.

Why waste more time? The only hope of cure is "Catharhozone," the new cure and no mistake.

Doctors recommend Catharhozone, which cured Mrs. A. P. Ferguson of Westchester, C.B.

Here is her statement:

"Nothing could possibly bring more grateful relief in asthma than Catharhozone."

"Although I was troubled for years it was only recently I tried this remedy. When an attack started I got out my inhaler and invariably got quick relief. Feeling satisfied that Catharhozone would cure, I continued the treatment until one bottle was finished. It didn't need any more because I was cured, and the asthma has never returned."

Your druggist sells Catharhozone—two months' treatment for $1; trial size 25c. By mail from N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U.S.A., and Kingston, Ont.

Two men have falls.

One Gets Off Unhurt; Other is in the Hospital.

Thomas Kelly, 55 Goud-street, a laborer employed on the Traders Bank Building, fell two stories thru the building yesterday. Strange to say his injuries were not severe, and he was fixed up at the Emergency Hospital.

Wm. Younger, 666 Yonge-street, fell 15 feet down an elevator shaft in the warehouse of A. A. Allan & Co., Bay-street, yesterday.

Younger is a basketmaker, and was coming down the back way when he fell into the shaft. He sustained a severe fracture to ankle and wrist.

He was taken to the Emergency Hospital.

ALLIANCE WILL OPPOSE EXEMPTION OF JEWS

Ottawa, March 16.—The Dominion Lord's Day Alliance will strongly oppose the idea of exempting the Jews from observance of the proposed act for Sunday observance.

"If conscience justifies an exemption in their case," remarked an officer of the alliance, "the same claim could be made by the Seventh Day Adventists, who keep Saturday at their day. Some claim could be made, too, for the Mohammedans, who keep Friday, and the very same claim could be made on behalf of the Mormons to wed as many wives as they please."

The Way of Peace.

With eager heart and will on fire I fought to win my great desire; Peace shall be mine, I said, but life grew bitter in the endless strife.

My soul was weary, and my pride was wounded deep; to Heaven I cried: "God grant me peace or I must die;" The dumb stars glittered no reply.

Broken at last, I bowed my head, forgetting all myself, and said: "Whatever come, His will be done," And in that moment peace was won.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS CHICKEN THEFT IS FOILED

Alert Policemen Scared Away Burglars—Death of Mrs. Dobson.

Toronto Junction, March 16.—About 12 o'clock last night an attempted theft was made at the Coffin block. The premises of C. Pace, who keeps a large number of fowl for sale, was entered, but P. C. Peters happened along and the would-be thieves got out. They left no clue that would lead to their identity. None of the fowl were taken. The Waverley Club held their monthly at home in St. James' Hall to-night. About 100 couples were present.

Another adjournment was made in the Brown liquor case this morning, owing to Brown's illness.

The death occurred early this morning of Mrs. Ada Dobson at the residence of her son, 70 Edwin-avenue. She was 64 years of age, and had been suffering from a complication of diseases for the past eighteen months. The funeral service was held at the son's residence to-night at 8 o'clock by Rev. Mr. Simpson, and the remains will be taken to Newcastle to-morrow morning for interment.

It is the intention of the Junior Shamrocks, champions of the Junior City League for 1905, to play in the Inter-association League this year.

Alexander Evans, who received papers of separation from his wife, Susan, on Aug. 26, 1905, is seeking protection from her. He claims she has made threats to do him violence. Evans also says that his daughter, who is 16 years of age, is to be married to-morrow night to a boy of 17, who comes from the west and he wants to have the marriage stopped. Evans is an employee of the C.P.R. and has always had the name of being a respectable citizen.

The will of the late William A. Dyke, who died in Whitechurch on Feb. 2, leaves an estate of $3262.44, divided between his father, mother, six sisters, one brother and a friend (by family agreement).

Contracts are already let for more than a dozen new houses in town to be built during the coming summer.

The subject at the next meeting of the Epworth League on Monday evening will be "Ireland."

East Toronto.

East Toronto, March 16.—The town council to-night passed a bylaw for $2,000 for school purposes.

Most of the time taken up with a discussion of the Balm Beach park matter, now before the private bills committee of the legislature. A motion to amend the bill before the committee was amended so that the town would guarantee the mortgage and hold the place as a town park was defeated by 6 to 2, the first ward councillors alone supporting it.

Assessor Ormerod had his salary raised to $300, an increase of $75.

Little York and Uniques of Toronto played a league game in East Toronto Rink last night. Little York won by a score of 5 to 0.

AGAINST THE GRAB.

Editor World: I read with interest your report of all the references to the "grab money" in the debate on Monday. The position taken by Mr. Maclean was commendable.

The apologizing members in purging contempt of their constituents should not have taken the "grab money" to their own use, but rather have followed the unselfish course of Mr. Maclean (South York) and Mr. Lalor (Haldimand)—both of these gentlemen refusing the unmanly course of signing in secret a round robin. The one donation of the "grab money" $1000 to the Hospital for Sick Children, and the other $1500 for the purchase of an organ for St. Paul's Church, Dunnville. Yours in opposition to round robins and salary grabs.

JAMES MASON General Manager

TO THE WEST TO BEGIN A NEW

Missionary's Glowing Descriptions Encourage Emigration.

Seven families left the Village of Wakarusa, Que., for the Northwest on Tuesday, March 6, the majority going to Wolsley, in Saskatchewan. The little railway office took in $800 in fares—a record-breaker for the C.P.R. in that part of the country. This phenomenal success is largely due to a missionary visit from Rev. L. Norman Tucker, general secretary of Anglican missions, who returned to Toronto yesterday. In making his appeal on behalf of this year's increased apportionments, the doctor illustrated the great missionary needs of the west, and dwelt on the possibilities of the country. He says they were interested beyond words in the development of the great west, and that all thru that district young people are turning their faces westward.

Dr. Tucker has been away two weeks, arranging the program for making the mission appeals by dioceses. He conferred with Rural Dean Dobbs of Brockville to take the Ontario diocese collection in September, with Rural Dean Bliss to take Ottawa in June, and the bishop and clergy of Ottawa, to take the capital city the last Sunday in April, on which day special sermons will be preached in all the churches. The Diocese of Huron collection will be taken during May.

In devoting a month to each diocese, the idea is to have possibly three men from the west and one from Japan do a little itinerant preaching to strengthen the appeals.

From Ottawa Dr. Tucker passed to the Ottawa district of the Diocese of Montreal, taking in Wakefield, Earley, Quyon, Shawville, Aylmer, Hull, Buckingham, Grenville, Lakefield and La Chute.
