GERMANS VANISH TRY TO WIN BACK POSITIONS

Haig's Men Strike Smashing Blow; Foch's Soldiers Also, Bringing Fall of Papaume and Peronne Nearer

London, Oct. 16.—The Germans last night made a heavy attack on the newly won positions of the British in the vicinity of the Schwaben Redoubt on the Somme front. The War Office announced that the Germans were repulsed with heavy loss.

Paris, Oct. 16.—Continuing their attacks on the Somme front last night, the French penetrated German positions at Sully-Salimel and Salimel. They occupied houses on each side of the road to Bapaume. The Germans made a violent counter-attack, and the fighting is still in progress.

New York, Oct. 16.—A London cable to the Tribune says: Haig's troops have won fresh successes in the Thiepval region of the Somme front. Here the British are confronted by two great obstacles to an advance—the powerfully fortified Stuff and Schwaben redoubts. After heavy artillery preparation the British swung forward in this sector on Saturday and advanced both positions. North of the Stuff Redoubt two lines of German trenches were cleared for a distance of 300 yards. North and west of the Schwaben Redoubt the army was thrust back a considerable distance.

The Germans again adhered to the policy of abandoning ground in preference to losing men in great numbers. About 200 prisoners were swept behind the British ranks in the two movements. Both of these bastions in the German line now appear to be perilously close to capture. From dominating positions on three sides of them the heavy British guns are pouring forth a destructive fire that will soon pave the way for the charge of the infantry. With the two redoubts in their hands, the British will be able to sweep northwards along the eastern side of the Ancre valley with little opposition, thus bringing Bapaume under attack from the flank.

A slight advance was also made by the British yesterday morning to the northeast of Guesdectourt, where Haig's troops threaten to encircle Lansloy from the north and thus force German evacuation of their lines along the Bethune road between Transloy and Sully-Salimel. Success in this movement would straighten out the allied front south of Bapaume and permit of an advance on both sides of the triangle at whose apex lies their objective.

French also. Few French successes since the beginning of the offensive promise more than that obtained in the vicinity of Belloz-en-Santerre and Ablaincourt. Both have an important bearing on the drive against Peronne from the south. Yesterday's smashing advance by the French prepared the way for an attack on Barux, the most formidable of the new bulwarks in the region. Barux is now exposed to attack on the north and west, and Foch's troops are endeavoring to break through the line in an effort to pocket it.

With its fall, that of Peronne will be a virtual certainty. The offensive movement on this front awaits only such a spell of dry days as occurred last fall.

FIELD AMBULANCE WANTS A BAND

An Opportunity For Generous Citizens—Men Detailed For Local Hospital Work

Now that the Field Ambulance is nearing its full complement and the time is drawing near for their going overseas, the men are anxious that they should have a band of some kind, no matter how small. The question as to just how large their band will be depends entirely upon the citizens of this city. Major Corbett said this morning that he thought that they would either have a five and drum band or a bugle band, but that was left to the community. He would appreciate any donations towards his regimental fund which will be devoted towards the buying of the instruments and getting the band started.

The fund was opened last evening when the Coburg street Christian church donated their collection at the evening service.

Members of the unit have been detailed to the duties of St. James street hospital under Major Bishop for the present, although in about another month the Field Ambulance will take over the duties entirely.

CHOLERA SUSPECTS LAND AT PORT TOWNSEND

Thirteen Among 150 Steerage Passengers on Steamer From Japan

Port Townsend, Wn., Oct. 16.—Thirteen cholera suspects have been found among the 150 steerage passengers landed at quarantine from the Japanese liner Panama Maru and Manila Maru last week.

The suspects were placed in isolation today pending final bacteriological examination. Careful examination of all other passengers arriving from the Orient was ordered several weeks ago by the government from the outbreak of the disease in Japan.

ROMANIANIANS AGAIN FIGHT ON OWN GROUND

Driven Back Six or Seven Miles at One Point

MAKE STAND AT RUCARU

Appear to Have Lost Temporarily Possession of All But Southern Approaches of Torz Burger Pass; Greek Proposal Renewed

London, Oct. 16.—The situation on the Romanian front occupied the chief position on the news and editorial pages of the London newspapers. The Romanians, according to the latest official statement, have been forced back six or seven miles at one point into their own country. They are making a stand at Rucaru, a small town toward the southern end of the Torz Burger pass. At Rucaru, the Austro-Germans are well below the highest level of the pass. South of this town the road runs ten miles through the long line of the Rucaru Heights at the head of Campulung, which is practically on the edge of the Romanian plain and seventy miles from Bucharest.

The Times notes: "The enemy has advanced into Rucaru through the Torz Burger pass and the Romanians are fighting on their own soil at Rucaru. Apparently they have temporarily lost possession of all but the southern approaches of Torz Burger pass. Farther north the enemy penetrated to the crest of Clotz pass but was then driven back in a fierce encounter. In the other parts of the front the fighting is making no progress but until effective help reaches the Romanian second army we must expect varying fortunes in this district."

BRITISH LOSSES IN LAST WEEK 30,678

Lieut. J. Stuart Henry Reported Wounded in France; Lieut. Herbert Montgomery Campbell, Apohaqui, Killed in Action

London, Oct. 16.—(New York Sun cables.)—In the last week 30,678 British soldiers and 3,700 sailors were killed, wounded and missing. The War Office announced that the total wounded and missing last week was 24,994. Of this number 1,293 were officers.

Lieut. J. S. Henry. That Lieutenant John Stuart Henry, son of Mrs. Tina Henry of Salisbury, was wounded in the recent fighting was the word received by his mother yesterday from Ottawa.

Lieutenant Henry is well known in this city, having been on the teaching staff of the St. John High School. He is twenty-four years old and went overseas with the 46th Battalion. He was a general hospital, Rouen, on Oct. 7, wounded in the right arm and chest. He is a native of Liverpool, England, and before enlisting was employed as a clerk in a firm in that city.

Police Court

Five drunks appeared before Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning. They were fined the customary sum of $8 or two months in jail. Two others were committed to the workhouse and left their deposits. William Kearns was arrested for assault, alleged to have been committed in July. The complainant, however, failed to appear and he was allowed to go with the understanding that he would come before the court when required.

Paul Silvers was before the court charged with endeavoring to secure meals and delicacies of a light beverage nature, without paying for them, in a restaurant of Louis Feder in Pond street. Mr. Feder, who gave the indictment, stated that the defendant called at his place of business with four soldiers and had some light drinks. The defendant said he would come before the court when required.

ST. JOHN MAN SAYS HE HAS WON O.C.M.

That Herbert McKay, son of William McKay of this city, a member of the 26th Battalion, is to be decorated with the D. C. M., is the news received in a letter from his brother, Robert McKay of Main street.

The letter is written under the date of September 30 from London. He says that in the last battle he and one officer were the only two in his company who came through unscathed and that when he was coming along an old road he came suddenly on a German guard who on seeing him fired but he claims he was too quick for him and a duel followed which ended in the German being killed. Shortly after killing the German he ran into a dugout which had in it more than fifty Germans and, as he had the advantage in having them cornered he took all fifty prisoners. For this act, he says, he has been commended for the D. C. M. He is about thirty-four years old and prior to enlistment was a longshoreman. A wife and one child reside in Anne street.

PORTLAND STREET RALLY

The annual Sunday school rally of Portland street Methodist church took place yesterday afternoon, upwards of 100 people being present. Rev. Thomas Hicks, president of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island conference, delivered an eloquent address on Bible topics, after which forty-five members of an advanced prayer class were graduated into an intermediate department. Each member was made recipient of a Bible by Superintendent R. T. Hayes, assisted by S. A. Kirk and A. C. Fowers. C. W. Strong of Summerside, P.E.I., who is eighty-eight years of age, also addressed the assembly. He is a son of the late Rev. John B. Strong who was the first pastor of Portland street church, eighty-seven years ago. During the afternoon Miss Hilda Wood rendered a pleasing violin solo.

British Capture Most Precious Two Acre Plot in France

Schwaben Redoubt on Thiepval Ridge Declared Now in Haig's Hands; Desperate Resistance Showed Value Germans Placed on It

(Copyright 1916, by The Associated Press.)

British Front in France, Sunday, Oct. 15.—(via London, Oct. 16.)—In completing the capture of the Schwaben Redoubt on the ridge above Thiepval the British took a prisoner for every yard of front, or 280 for a front of less than 300 yards; not to mention the number killed by the artillery preparation and in hand-to-hand fighting before the survivors surrendered.

The Germans manning the trench and those in the reserve dugouts could hardly have been crowded into one line back of the parapet. This gives an idea of the importance the Germans attached to this last bit of high ground along their old trench line south of the Ancre, on the Thiepval Ridge, which their desperate resistance characterized as the most precious two acre plot in all France.

Official Statement. London, Oct. 16.—The British official statement follows: "The enemy's shell-bombardment continued at intervals during the night on our front south of the Ancre. A small hostile bombing attack on our trenches north of Courcellette was driven back without difficulty. "At Schwaben redoubt a more important enemy attack, delivered after heavy artillery preparation and assisted by flame-throwers, also was repulsed with heavy loss to the enemy. "During the night the enemy's trenches were successfully entered by our troops from the north, southeast of St. Eloi and east of Ploegsteert. A number of the enemy were killed and prisoners were taken."

Violent Outburst Against The British And Also Americans

Anti-British Propoganda in German Press Raging as Never Before; United States Blamed for Supplying Munitions

New York, Oct. 16.—A cable from London to the Herald says:

Anti-British propoganda is now raging in the German press as never before and, also for purpose of propoganda, the Prussians are issuing at Amsterdam a Deutsche Wochenschrift, in the latest issue of which there is an article full of fierce invective against the United States. Were it not for the fact that America is behind the Somme armies of the Allies, they allege, they would never be able to beat the Prussians. Here is what the Deutsche Wochenschrift says: "On the Somme our best and bravest are bleeding. They also bleed on the Meuse and on the Ancre. An unparalleled expenditure of shells is turning the trenches and their connections into heaps of rubbish. Who supplies them? Who, at bottom, is waging the war? If you ask the mourning mother 'what has robbed you of your son, your pride and your hope?' her reply is 'the last for profit of the American millionaires.' "There is a country whose war aim is quite clear, America with her object in becoming the sole world banker by delivering immense war supplies. "Behind the Somme front stands an enemy whom we cannot reach. Her war is a one-sided war against which, we are unable to retaliate. She is the vanguard who sucks the blood from Europe's arteries because she is able to suck in at the same time Europe's gold."

GRANT OF $300 FOR THE NATURAL HISTORY SOCIETY

DEALERS FEAR COAL SHORTAGE IN NEW YORK

Council Grants Request Of Not Enough Cars and Labor at Mines Scarce

OTHERS ON THURSDAY THE WAR FIGURES IN IT

Recommendation of Grants Previously Refused is Premised—Ottawa Conference on High Cost of Living

At a meeting of the common council, William McIntosh, secretary for the society, today stated that the council has granted a sum of $300 for the benefit of the Natural History Society and asked for consideration of a grant to help meet the current expenses of the institution.

Mr. Burditt, in making application for the grant, said that he did not think it should be necessary to have to apply to the council as the institution was for purely educational work for the benefit of the public. He said that it should be supported by the city and government, as in other cities. He explained that the grant for last year was between $300 and $350 and that this had to be met out of a fund which was fast becoming depleted. As the building required extensive repairs the members, he said, felt that what remained of the fund should be used for that purpose. He thought that they could reasonably look for financial assistance.

William McIntosh, secretary for the society then gave a few details regarding the work being done for the public as follows: Maintains a museum to which the public is admitted free every week; 1,187 specimens of various kinds are named for persons seeking information; 508 specimens given to schools and teachers; 150 objects or collections loaned to schools.

The membership numbers 837. Mr. Emerson told of the pressing need for financial assistance. He said the members are doing the best they could. As it is for educational purposes, he felt that the society should not be allowed to wane and it is important that it should be continued.

Mr. Leavitt, who has been treasurer for the last sixteen years, said he would challenge any society to do more good, handicapped as they were for lack of funds. He explained how everything done is free and the advantages derived by the public.

Dr. Matthew also spoke in favor of a grant and told of assistance rendered like institutions in other cities. The delegation was assured by Mayor Hayes that the question would be given careful consideration and they departed.

The four commissioners were unanimous in the opinion that a grant should be given the society. Commissioner McLellan spoke for some length on the subject, after which Commissioner Russell moved that a grant of $300 be given. This was seconded by Commissioner Wignmore and approved by Commissioner Fisher and Mayor Hayes. Commissioner McLellan said there were other grants asked and had been set aside by the council last spring. He moved that they be considered and disposed of at Thursday's meeting. This was favored by all and passed. At the request of Mayor Hayes, the common clerk read a letter which His Worship had received from Mayor T. L. Church of Toronto advising him that a meeting is to be held in Ottawa Friday, October 20, when deputations from municipalities would be heard by the government regarding the high cost of living and proposed legislation to regulate the price of food products in war time. The letter was as follows: "Sir Robert Borden has advised me that the federal cabinet will hear a deputation of municipalities regarding the high cost of living and proposed legislation to regulate the price of food products in war time on Friday next, October 20th, at noon, in Ottawa. I will be glad if you will appoint a deputation to join the deputations from the city of Toronto and other municipalities to wait on the government, and so advise."

The opinion of the commissioners were of the opinion that the question was a vital one and should be given careful consideration. It was the unanimous wish of the commissioners that Mayor Hayes go to Ottawa and be present at the meeting. The meeting then adjourned.

O'Donovan, with nuptial music united in marriage Francis Leonard Keane and Mary Beatrice Pratt. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Edward J. Pratt, was becomingly attired in a suit of grey poplin with black velvet hat trimmed with white feathers. She was attended by her sister, Miss Genevieve Pratt, who wore a brown velvet suit with black picture hat trimmed with ermine fur, and carrying a bouquet of carnations. The groom was supported by John Pratt, brother of the bride. After the ceremony the wedding party drove to the home of the Misses Hasson, 98 City Lane, where a tempting breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Keane will spend their honeymoon in Boston, New York and other American cities. Many useful and beautiful presents were received. They will reside at 15 DeLid street.

MASTER OF THE HELLOG OLAV DENIES STORY OF SUBMARINE CHASE

New York, Oct. 16.—In a wireless despatch from the Danish steamer Hellig-Olav today, by agents of the Scandinavian American Line, Capt. Holst, master of the ship, stated that no submarine had been sighted during the voyage so far. His message, dated 8 a.m. Sunday, reads: "Have not seen any submarines. Nothing true in the story." Observers aboard the White Star liner Boyce on the steamer's arrival here on Saturday, reported they had seen the periscope of a submarine on Friday of the 14th and thought it was the Hellig-Olav. The submarine was apparently in pursuit of the Hellig-Olav, eastward bound. Representatives of the Scandinavian American Line here sent a wireless to Captain Holst asking for details.

New York, Oct. 16.—The French liner steamer Lafayette arrived early today from Bordeaux. Officers said that they had received warning by wireless when in mid-ocean to look out for submarines near Nantucket. A new course was set. No suspicious craft were sighted.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

"UNDER COVER" AN IDEAL PHOTOPLAY

With Hazel Dawn and Owen Moore in Leading Roles

When Roy Cooper Magrath's phenomenally clever drama, "Under Cover," filled the Court Theatre in New York month after month, the production attracted the attention of the Famous Players Film Company because of its unquestioned popular appeal.

It was the swift action of the story, the never-ending suspense, the mystery, the fascinating battle between a man and a woman who are in love but are forced to battle with each other by powers which they cannot resist, thrills which come in quick succession and the presentation on the screen, the Famous Players were quick to obtain the screen rights for "Under Cover," which is to be the Paramount Picture at the Opera House tonight, tomorrow and Wednesday, with Hazel Dawn and Owen Moore in the leading roles.

This is the first time that Miss Dawn and Mr. Moore have appeared on the screen together, and they have gained world-wide reputations for themselves by their work in former productions by the same concern.

"Under Cover" is a tale of the United States customs, of international smuggling, and of a trap into which a grating official was led with the assistance of the very girl whom he tried to force to help him against the man she loved. But the girl paid for her part in the transaction by many sleepless nights and by antagonizing the very man who meant more to her than anything else in the world, except the honor of her own sister, which she was struggling to protect.

It nearly broke her heart to fight against Steven Denby, for though she believed him to be a smuggler, she loved him and hers was the kind of love that would follow a man to the gallows.

The most cruel thing of all was to see Steven growing suspicious of her and to realize that she must appear in his eyes as nothing but a cowardly traitor. The action takes place in Paris, in a shop in the customs house, and at a beautiful Long Island country estate. Among those in support of Miss Dawn and Owen Moore are Frank Losee, William Court, Hugh, Jr., Ethel Fleming and Ida Darling.

The programme includes the latest British Topical Budget and a lively comedy feature.

AUTO BURLESQUE-VITA-GRAF SOCIAL DRAMA-WAR PICTURES AND SCENERY AT IMPERIAL

At the Imperial Theatre tonight Bert Wheeler & Co. will present their world-famous burlesque "The Troubles of a Jitney Bus," in which pantomimic travesty the comedians work with four trick automobiles and create untold merriment. It is a big laugh feast for old and young. The picture part of the bill will include Vita-Graf's supreme society story, "For His Wife's Good Name," featuring Lucille Lee Stewart, sister of Anita, and the Vita-Graf's handsome new leading man, Huntly Gordon of Montreal. There will be the Pathe British Galette of Allied war pictures and in the "Seeing America First" series the watcher will be taken through scenic Pennsylvania and in the Wyoming Valley.

A DESERTER WIVES STAIN FROM HIS NAME

If you knew a soldier or officer who had deserted his post in war and who in great stress later saw a man's duty and did it, even at the risk of court-martial and death, would you shake his hand? You bet you would. See this on the Gem curtain tonight and tomorrow. Charles Roy in a great live reel Indian war picture. Also DeWolf Hopper in "Poor Papa," his best yet, one of the Gem's banner bills.

NEW SERIAL PICTURE

Tonight and Tuesday evening the patrons of the Palace Theatre will be shown the first episode of "The Grip of Evil," a wonder story of humanity in fourteen episodes, released by the Balboa Company. Along with this will be shown two comedies and a beautiful scenic picture. Orchestra music. Admission 5 and 10 cents.

OLD GOVERNMENT HOUSE FOR THE USE OF RETURNED SOLDIERS

Fredericton, Oct. 16.—The Old Government House here, which for many years was headquarters of Lieutenant-Governors of New Brunswick, is to become the New Brunswick convalescent home for returned soldiers.

Word reached here today that a conference was held at Ottawa on Saturday at which Lieut.-Colonel P. A. Guthrie discussed the matter fully with Sir James Loughheed, chairman of the military hospitals commission. Brigadier-General MacLean was present and was also Prof. T. B. Kidder, secretary of technical education division of the commission, who recently made an inspection of the old Government House property.

Definite arrangements were made that if the old Government House is fixed up for the 280th overseas battalion, it shall be taken over as soon as the lads leave and will be a home for New Brunswick's returned soldiers. The Parks Convalescent Home at St. John will be used for special cases, of which there will be sufficient to take up all available accommodations.

The plan is to make the old Government House a modern technical school where returned soldiers, while being cared for, will be given instruction in agriculture, mechanics and all useful training to fit them for work which they will take up after the war.

There will be a full staff of teachers and the property adjoining the buildings will be used for agricultural educational work, so that there will be practical demonstrations right on the grounds.

NEW YORK GREEKS FOR WAR AT ONCE ON SIDE OF ALLIES

New York, Oct. 16.—With tumultuous enthusiasm and prolonged cheering followed by the singing of the national anthem, the Venizelos party in America was formed yesterday afternoon at a meeting of more than 4,000 Greeks in the hall of the Pan-Hellenic Union, West Thirtieth street. Greeks from all over the city and nearby cities attended the meeting. It was estimated that more than 10,000 flocked to the hall and those who could not get in held overland meetings on the sidewalk. All were in favor of the old government of Greece had tried to betray their country and that the government of Venizelos, which is a provisional government, was destined to be its saviour. For funds for the assistance of Venizelos more than $4,000 was subscribed in less than ten minutes. A little bootblack gave $100.

Resolutions were unanimously adopted insisting on the immediate entry of Greece into the war on the side of the allies.

Prominent Coal Man Dead Melville L. Cobb, who had been prominently identified with the coal trade in St. John for upwards of thirty-five years, and who was for a long time regarded by his associates in the trade as one of its greatest authorities, passed away last week at his home in Brookline, of heart trouble.

Mr. Cobb was about 68 years old. He was born in Dighton, where he first engaged in the iron manufacturing business with his father. In the coal trade by keen, aggressive and strictly honest dealings, he became one of the most successful of the coal merchants of Boston. He was known as a strict business man, not given much to talk, but frank in all he said. He was a man of abstemious habits, a close student of business dealings. Indeed, by his business associates, he was regarded as their highest and safest authority on all matters connected with the coal trade, not only of Boston, but of New England and the country wide. Mr. Cobb is survived by his wife, a son, Clarence M. Cobb, and a daughter, Mrs. Walter S. Bucklin. His funeral took place yesterday.

RID STOMACH OF GASES, SOURNESS, AND INDIGESTION "Pape's Diapessin" Ends All Stomach Distress in Five Minutes

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs. Pape's Diapessin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over. Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then, if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and causes gas and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapessin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

CHILDREN HATE PILLS, CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL

If Croup, Feverish, Constipated, Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them. With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The tender little "insides" are injured by them. If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 30-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

The retiring president, Rev. H. T. deWolfe, D.D., delivered his address on "A Rational Denominational Convention" during the evening. The speakers were Principals W. L. Archibald and H. T. deWolfe, President G. B. Cullen, of the Acadia schools at Wolfville, and Dr. A. K. deBlois.

The fourth session was held on Sunday morning, when the convention sermon was preached by Rev. A. S. Lewis. Howard P. Whidden, D. D., L. L. D., president of Brandon College, Brandon, Man., and Rev. I. W. Williamson, field secretary of the Sunday school board.

In the evening Dr. DeBlois preached on "Spirit Driven Men," and Rev. I. W. Williamson followed with an address on "The Challenge of the Sunday school to the Church."

DIVORCE DIVIDES THE CHURCH COUNCIL

Time Limit Cuts Debate of Episcopalians; Close Test of Strength in Vote on Canon Forbidding It

The question whether or not the Protestant Episcopal Church shall sanction the marriage of the divorced sharply divided the House of Deputies in the St. Louis meeting on Oct. 12. Parliamentary tactics delayed the vote on the merits of the matter, neither side being disposed to press a decisive vote, and the time limit brought about adjournment in the midst of skirmishing.

The indications were that the House composed of clergymen and distinguished laymen of the church, many of whom are lawyers, was about equally divided on the issue.

The report of the joint commission on legislation on matters relating to marriage was presented at the beginning of the afternoon session by the secretary, Rev. Dr. Charles F. J. Wrigley, of Brooklyn. It has been the custom of the Episcopal Church to permit its clergy to solemnize the remarriage of the so-called innocent party to a divorce provided that legal evidence is presented which is satisfactory to the officiating clergyman. No bishop can direct a priest to perform such a marriage. The proposed canon reads as follows:

"No marriage shall be solemnized in the church between parties either of whom has been divorced for any cause arising after marriage."

Instances of Collusion.

Rev. Dr. Wrigley said that the commission of fifteen had decided upon presenting the new canon because due investigation had convinced it that in the first three centuries of the Christian Church no provision whatever was made for divorce, and that the custom of the western church did not in any way sanction divorce. Although he did not himself mention the Catholic Church, the debates in the debate which followed assumed that he meant the Sec of St. Peter.

Dr. Wrigley said that in recent years instances of collusion in the obtaining of divorces had been numerous as to be causes of public scandal, and that the conclusion had been reached that it would be better for the common good that the innocent should suffer in isolated cases than that a gigantic evil should spread over the nation.

He expressed doubts as to the authenticity of the words in the fifth chapter of the Gospel of St. Matthew, in which it is made to appear that Christ sanctioned divorce for the cause which is accepted as the statutory ground in certain states in the United States.

Roswell Page, of Liverpool, Va., a layman and a brother of Walter Hines Page, American Ambassador to England, insisted that it was indeed a cruel hardship to prevent the remarriage of an innocent party to a divorce.

Francis A. Lewis, a Philadelphia lawyer, asserted that re-marriage and religion did not mix, for the law which made legal the parties of those who had wedded also permitted them to seek other partners. He said that a woman who had consented to her husband's arranging for divorce on the ground that she could hardly be looked upon as an innocent or as an injured party.

Excitement in Debate.

Rev. Dr. Randolph H. McKim of Washington, who for months has been recognized as the chief opponent of the proposed canon, vehemently defended his position. He said that no assault whatever should be permitted upon the integrity of the Scriptures, and that none had the right to question that Christ did acknowledge the right of divorce for violation of the sanctity of the marriage tie.

The exception was plainly made in the Scriptures, and he insisted that it should be accepted for what it was, rather than that Christians should submit to the dictation of a few higher critics of the modern German school.

Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks, rector of St. Bartholomew's Church, New York City, said that conditions such as preceded the fall of the Roman Empire were gaining in the United States. He remarked that the Episcopal Church, because it was supposed to have some unique social prestige, was importuned by "spotted creatures" to marry them after divorces won by collusion.

Admitting that there might occasionally be hardships through the application of a strict rule of the church, none the less, he said, there were hardships in life which could be borne.

The excitement of the debate was growing space when the friends of the measure sought a test of strength by demanding that an immediate vote be taken on its adoption. Those who were in favor of the vote being taken were 245, and those against it 240. As the president, Rev. Dr. Alexander Mann, was about to put the matter to a vote a motion to adjourn was made. This was not considered in order, and then came a sudden motion to reconsider an immediate vote.

This motion was adopted by a vote of 206 to 98. Five o'clock, the hour of adjournment came, and the session was automatically closed.

MEETING SUCCESS WITH APPEAL FOR PATRIOTIC FUND

The committee appointed to procure the sum of $50,000 by voluntary subscriptions to meet the requirements up to the end of the current year is now for the last time, appealing to the generosity of the citizens of St. John. The committee's appeal follows:

"We must raise $50,000 for the district of St. John, which comprises St. John's county, Kings, Queens and Albert counties. We make this last appeal believing that the citizens of St. John will not shrink their obligations to the wives, families, and dependents of the soldiers now risking their lives, and engaged in the battles of our country.

"It is impossible for us to visit all citizens desirous of subscribing and we do not wish to overlook anyone, but give all generously disposed an opportunity of subscribing any amount in accordance with their means. Besides, our work will be greatly facilitated if those desirous of contributing will send their names to either T. H. Estabrook or W. H. Thorne, chairman of the committee.

"We submit a list of those who have already subscribed and feel assured that the amount we require will be made up before the end of the present week:

CATHOLICS AND PROTESTANTS AT SERVICE TOGETHER IN FORMERS' CHURCH

Unique Memorial Service in Liverpool Told by T. P. O'Connor

(Special Cable to The Montreal Star Weekly by T. P. O'Connor.)

London, Sept. 30.—One of the paradoxes of the Irish attitude toward war was brought home forcibly to me by a visit I paid the past week-end to my constituents in Liverpool.

Irish Nationalists have put down that the exception was plainly made in the history of Irishmen in that city, where they form nearly one-third of the entire population, and have in the municipal council and all public bodies regularly constituted Irish parties.

All Liverpool Irish have rallied to the Irish flag, perhaps more numerous and promptly than any other city in the Empire. They form special battalions in Lancashire and the Liverpool Regiment—that battalion has fought splendidly in several engagements and lost heavily.

Protestants and Catholics Mingle

Last Saturday they held memorial services in the chief Catholic Chapel, Lord Mayor A. Stout, Protestant himself, in a Protestant city, walked in full state, and attended the service, while municipal councillors, all creeds, Anglican, Non-conformists and Jewish, attended the service and listened to a stirring address by Father Bernard Vaughan.

I visited the Catholic schools next day and nearly every child had a father, a brother, or an uncle in the army. A third had lost relatives in the war.

Monday night a hall was provided to excess with a audience gathered to raise funds for the Irish soldiers.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

Rev. E. B. Wyles, St. Stephen, who has been pastor of the Presbyterian church in that town for the last five years, preached his farewell sermon last evening before a large congregation. He will leave on Tuesday for his new charge at Chatham.

Charles Smith of Cape Forchu, Yarmouth, N.S., was the victim of a peculiar accident on Saturday when the car he was carrying came in contact with a live electric wire which was hanging near the ground. The current passed through the gun and into his body, killing him immediately.

Two men were killed and eleven injured seriously when a train on the Harrington railway crashed into a freight car in which they were riding, near Elwood, N.B., yesterday.

At the annual meeting of the United Baptist Missionary Union of the maritime provinces, held at Bridgewater, N.S., last week, Mrs. D. Hutchinson was again elected president of the U. B. M. U. The reports of the officers were most encouraging.

THE UNFORTUNATE ARMENIANS

(Bangor Commercial.)

On Sunday, Oct. 22, the people of the United States are asked to open their purses for the suffering and starving people of Armenia, Syria and Persia. As Talcott Williams says: "The Armenian nation, sufferer and martyr beyond all of our present day, lies near death as a people. Unless aid comes the race perishes from the face of the earth." This is not just a figure of speech but simply a statement of facts, horrible facts, inconceivable almost, but nevertheless true. The hearts of Americans have long bled for the unfortunate Armenians, but never as now. One has only to read the report, just published, of Viscount Bryce on the Armenian atrocities, to be convinced of the unutterable horror of it all and to make certain that Turkey aims at nothing less than the extermination of the Armenian race. So says Viscount Bryce and he is not a man to speak lightly or without thorough conviction based upon knowledge. Europe has its burden. Those with the disposition to help the Armenians are without the opportunity and so it is from America that the help must come if help there is to be.

MUNICIPAL SKATING RINKS

Their Establishment Justified as a Measure of Health and Public Safety

(Conservation.)
Open air possesses a fascination for the Canadian youth unsurpassed by any other attraction. One result of this yearning has been the organization of the playground movement in many of our cities and towns. Wherever established, playgrounds have met with immediate success. Regulated play inculcates lessons of discipline intermixed with pleasure, and creates a lasting impression upon the young.

In the majority of cases the playgrounds were originally established by public-spirited citizens who had the welfare of the children at heart. The success of the movement has led to its adoption by municipalities, which are now making appropriations for maintenance. Our winter, however, nullifies against a long season for the playground, and in the cold weather, a substitute attraction, viz., the skating rink, should be provided. Municipal outdoor skating rinks have many advantages, not the least being the counter-attraction to the pleasures of hanging on sleighs or coasting in the public streets, both dangerous practices.

Open air rinks can be provided at very small cost. School grounds, vacant lots or other open spaces may be used. The area should be enclosed with boards eight inches wide, set vertically, and supported by wooden pegs driven into the ground on the outside. The fire department can flood the rinks and a few of the street employes can keep the ice clear of snow and preserve order.

The municipal skating rink is a wholly commendable investment of public funds; it supplies pleasure and recreation to the masses, as an offset to the provision of good roads for the owners of automobiles or other conveyances for pleasure. If, however, it serves no other purpose than taking children off the street, it well repays the expenditure as a measure of public safety.—D.

SAYS GERMANS LIVE IN A DREAM

The People's Hope Maintained Through the Press

Hindenburg is a 'Dummy'

'Thoughtful Cynics' in Berlin Laugh at the Tannenberg Victor

London, Oct. 15.—The Times publishes the first of a series of articles by D. Thomas Curtin, a Boston man, who has arrived here after ten months spent in examining conditions in Germany. The writer relates how he availed himself of the acquaintance of Prof. Hugo Münsterberg, of Harvard, who gave him a letter of introduction to Dr. Jechner, of the American Institute at Berlin, in the belief that he was doing the German cause a good turn. The writer had to cable to the United States for further backing before he could get into Germany.

"Newspapers are the modern German's Bible," says Mr. Curtin, telling of the hypnotic influence of the German press on the public mind. "They are directed by the foreign office and can manipulate the thoughts of the docile Germans and turn their attention to any particular part of the war as easily as the searchlight operator directs his beam.

"The great newspaper searchlight," he continues, "is switched today on von Hindenburg. The deification of von Hindenburg and the downfall of England are the uppermost thoughts in the German mind today. There are a few thoughtful cynics in high places, however, who regard von Hindenburg as a well-advertised dummy."

The writer says he learned from private sources how the allies were progressing, and quotes an unnamed Socialist politician as telling him if he wanted to learn the truth to go to Potsdam and see the arrival of the wounded of the famous Prussian Guard, who, he said, had a terrible experience at the hands of the English at Contalmaison.

The Socialist added that the state of things on the Somme, if it were known throughout Germany, would effectively destroy all the pretensions of the annexationist party, who believe that Germany has won the war and should hold Belgium and the conquered portions of France and Poland. The writer concludes:

"I went to Potsdam. What I saw there would, if it were known to the German people, shake the very foundations of the empire."

The writer then went on to describe the scene at the railway station at Potsdam when the wounded of the Prussian Guard were brought back from the front.

Vanquished by Army of Sportsmen
"If moving pictures had been taken of the wounded and were shown in every town and village in Germany it would cause inconceivable astonishment to this deluded nation," he said. "The malcon-cents, already a formidable mass, would be swelled into a united, dangerous army of angry dupes who had had their eyes opened. This is not merely the expression of the view of a neutral observer, but also the opinion of a sober, patriotic German statesman.

"I saw the British arrive at Boulogne from the shambles at Neuve Chapelle. I inspected the Russian wounded in the disastrous Bukovina retreat; I witnessed the arrival of the Belgian wounded from the evacuation of Antwerp; I even saw the German wounded brought back from East Prussia, but the arrival of the wounded of the Prussian Guard at Potsdam surpassed in sadness anything I have witnessed in the last two bloody years.

"Many of the wounded Tommies returning from Neuve Chapelle, not gay, were blithe and smiling, their minds cheerful. But the wounded of the Prussian Guard, the proudest military force in the world, were broken in body and spirit. They came back to their home towns dejected in ranks and humbled in pride. They formed the most amazing congregation of beaten and despairing men I have ever encountered. Of the five reserve regiments forming this contingent, few were believed to have escaped unhurt. vast numbers had been killed outright."

The writer then related how he had watched the unloading of 600 or 700 men from two trains. These were transferred to ambulances, moving vans and vehicles of every description, and carted away. After the first two trains, which preceded others, were unloaded, they were drawn out of the way to make room for the waiting sections. The evacuation of the trains occupied hours.

The wounded soldiers, he said, were dejected and completely exhausted.

"It was not, however, the lines of suffering on their faces that impressed me so much as the uncanny sameness of expression, an expression of hopeless gloom," he related. "This dejection subtly communicated itself to the police and onlookers.

"The men who, badly wounded, were still able to walk, and the upturned faces of the others outlined by the white pill-boxes of the coats on which they lay, told as plainly as possible that the Prussian Guards, the physical flower of German manhood, had at last met a force superior to themselves and to the war machine they represented. They knew well that they were the idol of their fatherland; they knew that they had fought with every ounce of their great traditional strength, backed by long traditions, and they realized that they had been vanquished by the British, by an army of mere sportsmen."

call. He is said to have been graduated from the University of Warsaw. Prochowicki, who is called the "medical buglar" by the police, was arrested with $1,000 in diamonds in his pockets. His confession as to the use of drugs was substantiated when numerous victims called at the police station to identify jewelry and told of headaches in the morning after robberies had been discovered.

In Prochowicki's trunk at his rooming house, the police say, was found more than $10,000 in jewelry. There was also a quantity of soporific drugs, which he explained he used to produce sleep for his victims while he searched for jewelry. He identified more than 200,000 worth of jewels he confessed to have stolen and pawned during operations in Chicago covering the last eighteen months.

I have always been strongly opposed to the increase in the world's series price of admission that now has reached an exorbitant extreme, in my opinion. I am sure of the support of my colleagues. She was attended by her sister, Miss Katherine Cusack, who wore a suit of cream serge with a large black and pink hat. She carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. Edward Cusack, brother of the bride, was the groomsmen. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents in Waterloo street. Mr. and Mrs. Whalen left this morning for Sussex, where they will reside.

SPECIAL DAY IN CHURCH OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

Yesterday special services were held in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Fairville, and were largely attended. In the morning there was a special memorial service in memory of Private Henry Magee, recently killed.

Rev. Walter P. Dunham preached from Job 19, verses 25 and 26, "For I know that My Redeemer liveth, etc." He mentioned that this was the second occasion upon which his congregation had been called to mourn, Private Rudolph McKelvey having also died now lives in sacrifice in the fight for right and liberty.

Yet in these days of sudden death it was well to remember that the Redeemer liveth. He believed the boys at the front, who seemed to be in an agony to die for country and freedom, faced these great issues in a different frame of mind from the people at home. It was only by close fellowship with the Redeemer that the knowledge of His ever living presence was really manifested.

"Greater love hath no man than this that he lay down his life for his friends and in filling this the greatest of all demands, the soldier laid sacrifices of soul and me, would come into close contact with the great Redeemer who gave himself unto the world and now lives to make intercession.

The service was most impressive. Memorial hymns were sung and Master Gardiner sang with tender expression "There is No Night There."

In the afternoon a special children's service more than 200 were present. Twelve members of the Sunday school received gold gift pins for having been punctual and made perfect attendance during the last year.

Service in the evening was taken, by John Dunlop, who has the honor of being the youngest layman in the diocese with authority to occupy a pulpit. He preached a forceful sermon which was attentively followed.

Rev. Mr. Dunham and Mrs. Dunham left on last evening's train for Montreal where Mr. Dunham will attend the general synod as a member of the Sunday school commission.

WALKED IN SLEEP AND FELL TO HIS DEATH

Sidney Donkin of Metalf street, whose death in New York was announced several days ago by a despatch to police headquarters here, met his death under particularly sad circumstances.

The late Mr. Donkin left St. John on a vessel for New York. Arriving here, he decided to change ships and was to have sailed on another vessel on the day following his sudden death. He had secured a room in a boarding house in South street prior to the sailing of his vessel. On the night previous to the day the ship was to clear, he returned to his room and retired. During the night he got up in his sleep and, it is believed, in his bewilderment he mistook the window for the door and fell three stories to the street below. He was picked up by the police officers.

Mr. Donkin was accustomed to walk in his sleep and it has thus proved to be the cause of his untimely death. H. C. Green, who is a brother-in-law, arrived in the city on Saturday by boat with the body.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock with Rev. F. P. Dennison officiating. The interment was in Cedar Hill cemetery.

BOARDS AND COMMITTEES APPOINTED

This Morning's Session of Baptist Convention

NEWS OF ACTIVITIES

Report on Home Missions Giving Review of the Year and Financial Statement Outline of Policy

The large attendance at the opening of the morning session of the Baptist convention shows the drawing power of the services of addresses that Dr. deBlots is desirous of the Apostasy of "Ruin." He said people became Judas as when they lost faith and failed to walk with Jesus. Judas was honored among his brethren by election to office. This gave him opportunity, but he failed. Peter, too, denied his Lord. To this point the two were alike. After their sins Peter went out and wept bitterly. Judas went out and hanged himself. Both had equal opportunity for repentance. Peter rose to his privilege as was required. Judas failed and hurled himself to perdition.

Religious Instruction in Public Schools—N. S.: Dr. S. Spilde, Dr. J. W. Manning, Rev. F. C. Hartley, Rev. F. E. Bishop, Dr. E. D. King, J. P. Gordon, N. B. Rev. D. J. MacPherson, Rev. J. H. Jenner, Dr. D. Hutchinson, Dr. C. J. Foster, S. S. Foster.

Delegate to Social Service Council—Dr. E. D. King, Halifax.

Dr. E. D. King reported for the committee on Moral and Social Reform. The chief item considered was temperance. The committee took an active part in the work which brought Halifax under the operation of the prohibition act.

From for feeble-minded persons received attention; also that of regulation of moving picture shows. Rev. E. S. Mason secretary of the Home Mission Board for Nova Scotia and P. E. L. reported for the board. The following resume of the report indicates the scope of the work of the board: Thirty-Eighth Annual Report.

Notwithstanding the conditions incident to the war, the home mission fields have been fairly well cared for. Work has been done on 67 pastorates, giving on the average nearly 88 weeks of pastoral care to each. These 67 pastorates include 128 churches with 195 preaching stations. Besides this there are fields provided with pastors which were formerly H. M. fields, and comprising about twenty preaching stations. By a regrouping or by increased generosity in the churches themselves, the board was relieved of making the usual grant this year from our reports. It is to be noted also that H. M. churches pastorates all the year are not reported. The reports show that fields embracing 69 churches with 104 preaching stations had practically continuous pastoral care. There are also churches with 18 preaching stations which had no regular care during the entire year. Of these 18 there has now a settled pastor. One or more of the others may have to be abandoned. There have been 121 baptized on 28 fields, and 53 other additions on 21 fields. The entire increase is reported by 38 fields. It is hoped that the new year has larger things in store than any other of the recent past.

Our total receipts for general work are nearly $100 less than last year. Expenditures have been less by $1,150. This will include also the student supplement for this summer, except perhaps $100. So we start the new year with accounts about $1,300 better than we started last year. The numbers of weeks of labor in the two years are 2,849 in 1915 and 2,667 in 1916. Preaching services 4,722 and 4,623 respectively, and the other services 4,436 and 4,619 respectively. Less work than usual had been done by student workers as practically all of the students at Acadia were with the king's forces.

Rev. Frank McKelvey and wife have been secured to take up the work of general missionary. The receipts for the general work of the board were $11,834.17. The deficit of last year had been reduced by $1,262.11, and now stands at $1,776.88. Receipts for church edifice fund were $768.44; receipts for minimum salary fund, $892; from trust funds, $682.90; total receipts, $12,898.89.

The future policy of the board was explained as follows: The board believes that the word "efficiency" sounds what should be the keynote of its policy. This calls for these details: 1. A proper grouping of churches and distribution of pastoral labor. 2. The placing of strong men in rural churches, where many of our very best and choicest opportunities for service and leadership are found. 3. Adequate salaries in such situations, where the minimum for fully equipped men must not fall below $600 and a percentage. 4. Longer term pastorates. Many pastorates are now too short for the best results in the cause of the Divine Kingdom. 5. The training of laymen for leadership in remote parts so that there should be no place without regular gospel meetings. It is to such a programme that your board is aiming. And for its accomplishment the prayers and sympathy and generous gifts of our U. B. people are earnestly sought. We should have not less than $15,000 this year.
