Berlin, May 18.—Germany's answer to President Wilson's note will not be one of defiance. It will be replete with suggestions aiming at a friendly settlement and will be couched in the most courteous and conciliatory phrases. Nevertheless two facts will be most clearly and most emphatically set forth.

HOW GERMANS EXECUTED COUP

Preparations Carried Out With Great Secrecy

SURPRISED RUSSIANS

Preparations Said to Have Been Begun as Soon as Russian Offensive Started to Slacken

Budapest, May 8.—(Correspondent London Morning Post)—I am able today to give some information received from a reliable military source with regard to the events leading up to the Austro-German successes in Galicia.

These details explain how the offensive movement was carried through and prepared in a manner to take the Russians by surprise. It is at the same time a most impressive argument in favor of secrecy in war, the most important factor in this success.

It is pointed out that the success of the German move is the most surprising because it not only necessitated time to concentrate large forces as have been concentrated in West Galicia but because these movements were such by their nature that they could be easily discovered, and was even a surprise to the general staff that it succeeded in this measure.

The offensive was naturally preceded by a thousand minor movements, as well as by movements on a large scale. News depots, bureaus and telephone and telegraph stations had to be established on a line parallel with the front of battle.

New and numerous hospital stations had to be prepared, especially on the railway lines which insure good connections toward German and Hungarian army food depots had to be installed on the same lines so as to ensure provisions for the new army as well as maintenance depots with ample supplies. The new allied armies required even the appointment of new commanders. A great number of heavy guns and other artillery were placed in position two weeks before the offensive began. A great number of heavy guns and other artillery were placed in position two weeks before the offensive began.

Col. J. W. Bridges formerly of this city, who has charge of a Canadian hospital in France, writing to a friend here says that the wounded Canadians have been coming in by train loads. He says the Canadians are greatly pleased to be in Canadian hospitals and regard it as the next best thing to being in Canada.

EIGHTEEN NEW SENATORS

Increase in West, However, Can Not Be Made During Life of Present Parliament

Ottawa, Ont., May 18.—The passing of the amendment to the British North America act to the imperial government to give an addition of nine members to the west to the senate, will give the four western provinces their long delayed increase in the upper house. Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta now have each four members, and British Columbia three. By the change they will each have six.

The additional members cannot be appointed until after the dissolution of parliament. This will ensure the Liberals retaining control of the upper house for the remainder of the present parliament.

In addition to these nine new senators, there are seven vacancies in Ontario, one in Prince Edward Island, and one in British Columbia. The appointment of these eighteen new senators will wipe out the Liberal majority and leave the two parties almost a tie.

ST. JOHN MAN IN TROUBLE IN HALIFAX

Halifax Echo.—A St. John man gives the name of Frank Evans, was arrested yesterday by Detective Hanrahan, on suspicion of attempting blackmail. Evans has been under surveillance for some time. Of late he has been wearing a badge from a St. John Detective Agency.

It is understood that he has been working in with some other people, and last week he visited some persons at a down town hotel, told them he had "something on them," displayed his badge, told them to think the matter over, and that he would call again. They thought it was the police, and now Evans is behind the bars. It is a criminal offence in Nova Scotia to pose as a police official with authority.

A STEP AT A TIME

Have you ever noticed how unreasonably the man at the bottom of the ladder envies the man at the top? Not until success has been actually attained does the man appear at the top, and the consequence is that he gets scant credit for the step at a time climbing which has brought him there.

This, at any rate, is the experience of the Midland Vinegar Company, of England, the manufacturers of H. P. Sauce. They are now at the top of the ladder—H. P. is an assured success—everybody who tastes it likes it, and recommends his friends to make a trial of it.

Amid the general buzz of success no one has leisure to imagine what a long time was given over by the Midland Vinegar Company to careful experimenting with different combinations of rich Oriental fruits and spices, before a perfectly delicious, rich, thick, fruity sauce like H. P. was arrived at and christened, and sent forth to win its way with the people. H. P. has been a success from the very first—but that is because its manufacturers climbed up to it a step at a time, and did not vault themselves as sauce manufacturers until they had a perfect sauce to talk about. You try H. P. You will like it—everybody does. 10.

SAVED IN LUSITANIA DISASTER; FATHER LOST

William M. Adams, of Boston, son of A. H. Adams, European manager of the United States Rubber Co., was standing on the deck with his father and Mrs. G. W. Stephens, of Montreal, and her two daughters, Anna and Owen, when the Lusitania was struck by a mine and the same blow evidently sent my father to the bottom, and also hit Lady Allan who suffered a broken collarbone and injuries to one of her hips and her ribs.

"The Lusitania holed over," said Mr. Adams. "I was struck by a mine and the same blow evidently sent my father to the bottom, and also hit Lady Allan who suffered a broken collarbone and injuries to one of her hips and her ribs.

"I must have gone down with the section of the ship, but regained the surface of the water and was picked up half-conscious and taken aboard a trawler."

Had Heart Trouble FOR YEARS.

Weighed 87 Lbs. Now Weighs 138 Lbs.

Miss Beatrice Loughhead, Staples, Ont., writes: "I feel it my duty to tell you what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. I had heart trouble for quite a few years. I doctored for it, and altogether my bill amounted to $400, and still no cure. One day when very sick I was lying on a couch close to where some almanacs were hanging. I took one down, and was reading about what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cured, and thought I would try them. I got six boxes to start with; have only taken three boxes and I never felt so well in my life as I do now. I only weighed 87 pounds when I started to take them, and now I weigh 138 pounds. Hope all poor sufferers will be benefited by them as I have been."

Wherever there is any weakness of the heart, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will strengthen it and build up a strong healthy system.

MORNING NOTES OF THE WAR

The German reply to the United States note of last Friday is expected by the end of this week. Ambassador Gerard yesterday cabled the department at Washington that he had read the document to the foreign minister. It is believed that Germany will answer that she will continue to wage the war as she has conducted it in the past.

Sir Edgar Speyer, a privy councillor of Germany, in England, has resigned his office and has asked that his name be cancelled, as the result of charges of disloyalty.

At the monthly meeting of the boys' work committee of the Y. M. C. A. last evening it was decided to hold a summer camp from July 8 to 17. Other activities will include Saturday afternoon walks and week-end camping trips. The organization of a Sunday school athletic league was discussed also. P. J. Legge will represent the association at the summer school at Lake Connelong, Ont. The tennis club now has a membership of thirty-seven and work on the courts is progressing favorably.

THE WAR NEWS

The Russians claim that their great victory in Bukovina completely overthrows the "ephemeral" success of the Austro-Germans in Western Galicia.

The official report says the Russians have taken 20,000 prisoners in Bukovina and driven the Austrians back in disorderly retreat, occupying much of the important territory previously held by the enemy.

There seems no doubt that Italy will enter the war before the end of the week. Decisive action is expected when parliament meets on Thursday.

Such unofficial news as comes from Germany appears to confirm the belief that she will not vary her submarine policy as demanded by the United States, but will endeavor to lay the responsibility of the loss of the Lusitania jointly upon Britain and America.

The British have made further substantial gains north of La Bassee, and the French have been equally successful further south.

From the general standpoint of the Allies the situation grows more satisfactory from day to day, but their task is still gigantic.

NEW BRUNSWICK'S DISGRACE

The Chatham World (Conservative), noting the fact that Premier Borden had made some army contractors disgraced when their guilt was proved in parliament, and that Premier Roblin had resigned when exposure of grave scandals shocked the province of Manitoba, says: "How differently we act in such circumstances in New Brunswick."

An official close to the government, and with the assent and co-operation of the premier, makes a huge election fund by getting contributions from lessees of crown lands, regardless of their political opinions.

The World further says that the looting of the lumbermen was "the most villainous scheme of public robbery for personal or political profit that was ever unearthed."

"Sir Rodmond Roblin says his government is constitutionally responsible for the acts of its officers. And so are the members of the Flemish government responsible for Mr. Berry and for Mr. Flemming. Sir Rodmond steps down and out."

Our New Brunswick cabinet ministers get rid of the two exposed offenders and hang on to their jobs. They know they are responsible for Mr. Flemming's acts, and this is why they have proclaimed faith in his innocence. They are equally responsible for Berry.

CANADIANS CRUCIFIED?

The horrible story of the crucifixion of more than one Canadian soldier by the Germans appears to be supported by strong evidence, and is another proof of the utterly fensh nature of the enemy we are fighting.

That St. John loves baseball was shown by the very large attendance at the opening of the season for two local leagues last season.

Dr. J. L. Duval, wounded in the fighting in France, received his wounds because he cheerfully accepted a post of great danger which some others had declined to accept.

The Maritime Merchant insists that if these provinces wish to attract the class of American tourists who have money to spend some better provision for their entertainment must be provided, and that in this the various communities should take more interest than heretofore.

Today our thoughts go back to the men and women who, one hundred and thirty-two years ago, landed on the shores of St. John harbor to found a city and a province, and by their sufferings gave further proof of their devotion to the British flag.

"Murder, just and pillage prevailed over many parts of Belgium on a scale unparalleled in any war between civilized nations during the last three centuries."

"At Haecht several children had been murdered, one of two or three years old was found nailed to the door of a farm house by its hands and feet."

ious war between nations claiming to be civilized (for such cases the atrocities perpetrated by the Turks on the Bulgarian Christians in 1876, and on the Armenians in 1895 and 1896, do not belong to that category) furnishes us precedent.

CANADA TO RAISE FOURTH CONTINGENT

And Reinforcements May be Taken in Battalions From Third Contingent

Ottawa, May 18.—That a fourth contingent will be raised in Canada now appears practically certain. While, as announced, only one company from each battalion of the third contingent has so far been selected to act as reinforcements, it is quite probable, it is learned in military circles here, that in obedience to further and heavier calls for reinforcements, they may be taken from the third contingent by battalions. This will mean, following the practice of maintaining an undiminished force under arms in Canada, the raising of a fourth contingent to take the place of the third.

One reason that reinforcements are first being obtained only by companies is that there is no call for senior officers, of whom there is still a surplus in England and France. The casualties among the senior officers have been comparatively light, though those among company officers have been very heavy. The disposition of the cavalry and mounted infantry recruited from the west and also in Eastern Canada is now practically decided. They will be offered the opportunity to leave for the front as infantry, with the chance that they will arrive in London the authorities may decide to use them for the purposes for which they were first raised, in which case they will be supplied with horses. It is not thought that any of the units raised will refuse this offer of active service.

Where the new battalions to replace those of the third contingent are to be raised has not yet been decided, but they will in all probability be recruited in the same districts. A third French Canadian regiment has been practically authorized.

AMUSEMENTS NEW BRIGHT ACT AT IMPERIAL THEATRE

Another Departure in Vaudeville and an Entertaining Set of Pictures

The Imperial Theatre opened the week yesterday with a programme of pictures and vaudeville of the highest quality. It has been a long time since the Edison Company presented so elaborate a story as On the Stroke of Twelve—a mystery drama of the midnight hour, which is far above the ordinary in dramatic worth and contains a revelation in magnitude and staging.

The Animated Weekly has an especial "punch" this week. The queen of the seas, the late lamented Lusitania, is shown in motion pictures in all her majesty; Kitchener's army is also seen marching through the streets of London. There are some night scenes in the electric glare of the world's fair in California; Russian aeroplanes; the American Atlantic fleet; the wreckage following the bombardment of the English coast by the Germans, and some splendid cartoons are included in this feature.

The comedy element is supplied in one of Geo. Ade's inimitable Fables, entitled The Syndicate Lover. Vaudeville in this bill is of more than ordinary interest. Wilson & Lenore—man and woman—play upon giant acrobatics, sing the latest songs and do some of that tuneful Swiss yodeling, the first of the kind to be heard in the North house here. Their whistling is also first class. As an all round item of wholesome entertainment the team now playing is good.

Tomorrow and Thursday, David Higgins, a well known metropolitan star, will be seen in the Famous Players' bright and breezy race-track drama, His Lead Dollar. The piece is full of exciting incidents, is true to the stage version of the leading tale in America during an important meet.

CHAPLIN HERE AGAIN

Star Picture Comedian Draws Many Friends to Unique

The Love Pangs is the title of the screaming Keystone farce with Chaplin, and Syd Chaplino playing the leading parts at the Unique theatre. It is doubtful if the world's greatest film comedian, Chaplin, has ever been seen to better advantage than in the character he so ably portrays in this hilarious mixture of unadorned fun and burlesque. As the ardent lover who gets into all kinds of mixups over the one he loves, Chaplin scores a home run laughing hit in every instance and laughter reigns supreme every minute that he is on the screen. Those Love Pangs is a refreshing bit of genuine comedy and for a good hearty laugh should certainly not be missed.

Another item on the programme equally interesting dramatically is the Broncho special production of the society play, The Fakir, which serves to introduce the famous character actor, Walker Edmuns, in the role of Fakir. This is a rare combination of intense dramatic situations and the story is exploited with fidelity to facts that makes it wonderfully convincing and interesting. The Beauty Company are also seen to excellent advantage in the home drama, The First Stone, with Irving Cumming and Virginia Curley in the leading parts.

Made in Canada. Develop your home market buy Windsor Table Salt. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustreous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

YOUR SKIN NEEDS FOOD. Is your skin harsh and dry? Are there signs of approaching wrinkles? Are you getting worried about the possible loss of your youthful beauty? Cleopatra didn't worry about these things. You needn't if Usit is applied.

Cleopatra and the noted beauties of the East knew perfectly well that the skin requires food, just as does the rest of the body. They fed their skin with a preparation of Oriental oils, the secret of which has been so jealously guarded by succeeding generations that it has only recently come to light.

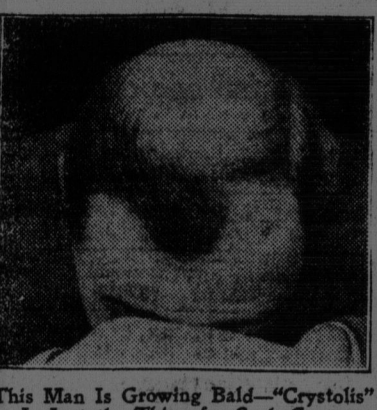

Men, too, find Usit a valuable friend. An occasional application to the face not only feeds the skin and keeps it in the healthiest condition, but it leaves the face much easier to shave. Experience alone proves how much easier.

Usit is the trade mark name by which this preparation is known and sold by all druggists, wholesale and retail. Usit Mfg. Co., Ltd., 476 Roncesvalles Ave., Toronto, Ont.

AT THE LYRIC Circus Act a Sensational Offering—The Pictures. Not for some time has such a really sensational offering been seen at the Lyric theatre than that given by the European artists, Charibito and De Castolo who opened an engagement yesterday. For several years this duo of daring performers has featured with some of the biggest canvas shows, and have toured the world presenting their sensational acrobatic act. Head balancing and novel acrobatic feats with several contortion novelties are given with rare skill.

A startling surprise is offered as the finale, when Mr. Charibito mounts a narrow slide which is supported on the head of his partner, Mrs. De Castolo, and, standing on his head, allows himself to speed along the narrow incline while the audience hold their breath fearing for the outcome. With wonderful dexterity however, the clever performer lands safely on the stage. The act is surely well worth the price of admission.

College Days is the feature in the picture programme, being a production of the Broncho players. The story centres around a football game, of which several interesting scenes are given and the programme, and is enhanced greatly by the way scenes it so well presents. Spencer and Brown, novelty entertainers, are billed for the latter part of the week.

WORLD'S LARGEST BUFFALO HERD Star Theatre, North End, Screening Wonderful Five Reel Production. This five reel feature teems with action and radiates with atmosphere of the old days with a vividness that can be felt. One is translated from the wonders of modern times to the old Santa Fe trail and the long winding line of "prairie schooners" headed toward the setting sun.

We see these making camp for the night, and watch the stalwart approach of the Indian girl, who soon makes known to her people the presence of the white men.

Then comes the attack by the red men, who gallop swiftly toward their victims, discharging their muskets as they circle, until only two of the whites are left alive. Next follow the torturing of the man and his escape with the white girl, only to be recaptured. Their next get-away is successful. This time they come upon a band of hunters, who also are attacked by the Indians. A running fight takes place, in which annihilation of the white men is averted only by the timely arrival of another group of hunters. This battle, which results in the defeat of the Redskins and the death of their chief, is a most exciting spectacle, and may well be termed the last word in a scene of this kind. There is an abundance of big game; we watch the Indians and the whites as they kill the buffalo. The biggest herd in the world is used in this production, and the scenes are wonderfully impressive.

Tom Mix does some amazing equestrian feats as a pony express man. Some will probably never be repeated again in motion pictures. Seen one hundred years

BORDEN MINISTER V. METHODIST MINISTER

Hon. "Bob" Rogers' Violent Attack on Clergyman Who Denounced the War Grafting

(FROM THE TORONTO GLOBE)

Methodists in all parts of Canada know the high personal character and the blameless life of Professor Salem G. Bland of Wesley College, Winnipeg. As a schoolboy and a college student he was known in many centres of Eastern Canada, during his father's itinerancy as a Methodist minister. In later years his own ministerial life brought him into intimate acquaintance and close personal friendship with many thousands of people in different parts of the country. As professor in Winnipeg he has won for himself a very high and honored place, not only as a scholar and teacher, but also as an upright, absolutely sincere and public-spirited citizen.

No intelligent Methodist needs to be told of Dr. Bland's sanity of judgment and purity of motive, but for others this much may be worth saying by way of introduction to a significant passage in the address of the Hon. Robert Rogers, Canada's minister of public works, in Montreal on Monday. That address was carefully prepared and copies of it were furnished for publication. The following paragraphs were omitted from the Globe's published report yesterday, but are of public interest. The minister of the crown had just been assailing clergyman who had spoken against political corruption and war graft. He called these clergymen "simple-minded and innocent people," and thus then proceeds: "It might be well for those individuals to better study and better understand the true conditions before undertaking to enter upon a discussion of public affairs, for if they have no better knowledge of their Bible and its teachings than they appear to have when they undertake to discuss public questions, all I can say is, may God have mercy upon the souls of the unfortunate people who depend upon such individuals for spiritual instruction and direction.

Of course the case of Prof. Bland is somewhat different in that he is a well known professional hypocrite, and has ever been ready to endorse, approve, and applaud every crooked act that has ever been known to have been committed by any Liberal. Such an individual as this, who has never been guilty, when speaking politically, to have any regard for either principle or truth, one can well afford to look upon with feelings of sorrow rather than of anger."

Those words were written beforehand. The man who wrote them and spoke them is the most dominant minister in the present government of Canada. In the light of this utterance, and of his whole record and reputation, is there one well-informed Methodist, Conservative or Liberal, in all Canada who would believe Hon. Robert Rogers on any question on which personal animosity is shown? Is it of slight importance? And why should such a man dominate Canada's government?

"BRITAIN WILL NOT LET BELGIUM STARVE"

Flat A, 1, Adelphi Terrace House, Robert Street, Adelphi, London, W. C., May, 1915.

To the Editor of the Times-Star. Sir,—We have pledged our honor to restore Belgium. But Belgium is not a word—it is a people, and the Belgian people is starving. If we let it perish during the process of restoration we shall have grasped only the shadow of our task.

Mr. Hoover, chairman of the neutral commission for relief in Belgium, and Mr. Franquet, chairman of the committee in Brussels, tell us that "at least a million and a half Belgians are now entirely destitute. With the rapid exhaustion of the meat and vegetable supplies, there will probably be, before harvest time, 2,000,000 Belgians who must be fed and clothed solely by charity. The remaining 4,000,000 will get their pitiful daily allowance of bread through the commission and will pay for it." And they add: "Will you help us to keep the destitute alive?"

This neutral commission, marvellously organized and administered, has hitherto succeeded in just keeping abreast of the situation, raising its funds from America, other neutral countries, and the British colonies. But their funds are falling fast; and their needs are getting greater. It is in response to their repeated appeal that a national committee for Belgian relief has now been formed in our country, and every penny it collects will go without deduction into the hands of the neutral commission, and through them to the starving Belgian people in the form of food. So far Germany has kept her word not to flich what is sent for the Belgians; and the organization of relief now makes it almost impossible for a German to touch one loaf of Belgian bread. The present need is for £500,000 a month; the future need will be even greater.

Our own exigencies are, of course, tremendous; but who would they not be if Belgium had consulted her own material needs, had just chosen to save herself instead of letting us pay for her? With Belgium complacent to the German, Paris gone, Calais gone—it would have meant the other year on to the years we may have to fight, an extra five hundred million pounds of money, an extra hundred thousand men. If ever country owed debt, this country owes it to Belgium, to keep the bread in her oven, to her people. Over it, 2000 must pay it.

In standing for her guns Belgium saved of course the whole world. For modern civilization is built on nothing if not on good faith and honorable obligation; but it is France and Britain—before all that she has saved. France, however, has a terrific task in the rescue of her own ruined millions in the north. Thanks, perhaps, to ruined Belgium, Britain has not, may never have, to rescue and restore ruined towns and country-side.

In return, what is Britain doing? Spending of course the whole world's money, but let us be honest. We should have had no more than £500,000 for our own interest. We are not thereby discharging the debt of gratitude, but not enough. Not nearly. Not nearly. We have no more face at all the desperate situation of Belgium itself; we have not, indeed, been asked to do more, and Australia with one-fifth of our population, help to the value of £150,000 a month has been coming in. From ourselves, practically nothing. But in future, all eyes are turning to us; it is we who are now asked to stay the march of death.

A penny of income tax in our country yields nearly three million pounds. If each one of us sets aside at once one penny from every pound of his income, this people is saved—the people who are cruelly wronged than ever people were, this people to whom each one of us owes a debt, that we have not realized, that we cannot realize in its full proportions. If Belgium starves, the civilized world incurs a stain more black than we dare contemplate; a little country gave itself for civilization, and civilization, having the means to save it, let it perish! . . . We are dealing here not with words, ideals, and what not, we are dealing with hunger, with death, with Belgians, starving now. If they are not kept alive—on the shoulders of this country, the richest country, and that which has gained most by Belgium's suffering, the reproach will lie heaviest. Verily it will!

There can be no exaggeration in the tale of Belgium's trouble—for no words are too strong to tell it as it should be told. There can be no exaggeration in the expression of gratitude for what we owe here. If those wronged and ruined people had done nothing for us, should we grudge them enough money to spare ourselves the sight of their starvation just across the sea, under our very eyes? But seeing what they are, what they have done for us—how—how can we bear to let them lack the mere sufficiency of life?

Not Britain will not let Belgium starve. We have not known hitherto what was needed of us in this race with death. Now we do know. We are too proud by far not to pay our debts. For this is a debt of honor, preceding even the charity that begins at home. The appeal of the national committee has been issued. The honorary treasurer is A. Shirley Benn, M. P., Trafalgar Square, London. Every penny contributed goes to the Belgians in the form of food. The cry of a brave people comes across the sea. Pity, anguished, feeds no starving bodies. Yours truly, (Signed) JOHN GALSWORDTHY.

most impossible for a German to touch one loaf of Belgian bread. The present need is for £500,000 a month; the future need will be even greater.

Our own exigencies are, of course, tremendous; but who would they not be if Belgium had consulted her own material needs, had just chosen to save herself instead of letting us pay for her? With Belgium complacent to the German, Paris gone, Calais gone—it would have meant the other year on to the years we may have to fight, an extra five hundred million pounds of money, an extra hundred thousand men. If ever country owed debt, this country owes it to Belgium, to keep the bread in her oven, to her people. Over it, 2000 must pay it.

In standing for her guns Belgium saved of course the whole world. For modern civilization is built on nothing if not on good faith and honorable obligation; but it is France and Britain—before all that she has saved. France, however, has a terrific task in the rescue of her own ruined millions in the north. Thanks, perhaps, to ruined Belgium, Britain has not, may never have, to rescue and restore ruined towns and country-side.

In return, what is Britain doing? Spending of course the whole world's money, but let us be honest. We should have had no more than £500,000 for our own interest. We are not thereby discharging the debt of gratitude, but not enough. Not nearly. Not nearly. We have no more face at all the desperate situation of Belgium itself; we have not, indeed, been asked to do more, and Australia with one-fifth of our population, help to the value of £150,000 a month has been coming in. From ourselves, practically nothing. But in future, all eyes are turning to us; it is we who are now asked to stay the march of death.

A penny of income tax in our country yields nearly three million pounds. If each one of us sets aside at once one penny from every pound of his income, this people is saved—the people who are cruelly wronged than ever people were, this people to whom each one of us owes a debt, that we have not realized, that we cannot realize in its full proportions. If Belgium starves, the civilized world incurs a stain more black than we dare contemplate; a little country gave itself for civilization, and civilization, having the means to save it, let it perish! . . . We are dealing here not with words, ideals, and what not, we are dealing with hunger, with death, with Belgians, starving now. If they are not kept alive—on the shoulders of this country, the richest country, and that which has gained most by Belgium's suffering, the reproach will lie heaviest. Verily it will!

There can be no exaggeration in the tale of Belgium's trouble—for no words are too strong to tell it as it should be told. There can be no exaggeration in the expression of gratitude for what we owe here. If those wronged and ruined people had done nothing for us, should we grudge them enough money to spare ourselves the sight of their starvation just across the sea, under our very eyes? But seeing what they are, what they have done for us—how—how can we bear to let them lack the mere sufficiency of life?

Not Britain will not let Belgium starve. We have not known hitherto what was needed of us in this race with death. Now we do know. We are too proud by far not to pay our debts. For this is a debt of honor, preceding even the charity that begins at home. The appeal of the national committee has been issued. The honorary treasurer is A. Shirley Benn, M. P., Trafalgar Square, London. Every penny contributed goes to the Belgians in the form of food. The cry of a brave people comes across the sea. Pity, anguished, feeds no starving bodies. WHAT OUR TOURIST INDUSTRY MIGHT BE (Maritime Merchant). There is no subject of general interest which has been more often referred to in the columns of the "Merchant" than that of the tourist question. For twenty years or longer we have been dealing with it, perhaps more enthusiastically in the early days than in these later years. Because of our prospective twenty years ago we thought we saw the maritime provinces becoming the great vacation ground of America in the then very near future, but time has proved that in this we were wrong. We have

BOOTS THAT STOOD THE TEST

AMES HOLDEN McCREADY LIMITED, Canada's largest shoe manufacturers, supplied, within thirty-three days, 32,217 pairs of leather ankle boots and 30,000 pairs of canvas shoes for the outfitting of the First Canadian Contingent, the largest quantity supplied by any manufacturer.

These boots were worn by our soldiers on active service both in this country and in the training camps in England. They were subjected to the most severe usage that boots could be subjected to. They travelled over rough roads and smooth. They waded through mud and through slush past all description. They were soaked by the never-ceasing rains of an abnormally wet English winter. They were baked on hot stoves, grilled on steam radiators and roasted before open fires. Yet, THEY STOOD THE TEST.

Out of the entire 32,217 pairs of leather boots supplied by this company only a single pair was shown to be open to criticism when the Government enquiry was made six months later.

Experts employed by the Government examined 1365 pairs and 348 odd boots made by various manufacturers. Among the number were found only seven pairs of boots of Ames Holden McCready manufacture, of which five were found to be repairable, one pair unrepairable, and ONE PAIR HAD A SOLE UNDER GAUGE.

The best proof of the durability and serviceability of the Ames Holden McCready boots, however, was afforded by the sworn statements of soldiers who had worn these boots constantly from the time they were issued in September, 1914, right through to March, 1915. They swore that they had worn the boots through all the rough experiences at Valcartier and on Salisbury Plain and that they had given excellent service throughout. Sergeant Nussey, of Toronto, who had served twelve years in the British Army, appeared before the Committee with a pair of such boots still on his feet and submitted them to the committee's inspection.

The testimony of these witnesses has since been amply corroborated by numerous reports and letters received from officers and soldiers at the front all testifying to the good wearing qualities of the Ames Holden McCready boots.

When the question was raised concerning the quality of the Canadian soldiers' boots, Ames Holden McCready Limited placed themselves IMMEDIATELY upon record, by writing to the Government, as desirous of having the most thorough investigation of the matter. The appointment of a Parliamentary Committee and the official enquiry followed. It occupied several weeks' time. The Committee stopped at nothing in their efforts to get at all the facts.

This Company purchased the best leather and supplies available in Canada and spared no expense in manufacturing the boots. All our invoices, and shop and manufacturing records were produced before the Parliamentary Committee for their inspection and information. We had nothing to hide and were proud of the boots which were furnished to the Government.

THE AMES HOLDEN McCREADY BOOTS CAME OUT OF THE ORDEAL UNSCATHED.

The Committee reported to Parliament that the boots supplied by this company substantially complied with the sample, that no paper or other fraudulent substances had been employed in their manufacture and that all charges involving the integrity of this company or of the boots supplied by them had been abundantly disproven by the sworn evidence taken before the Committee.

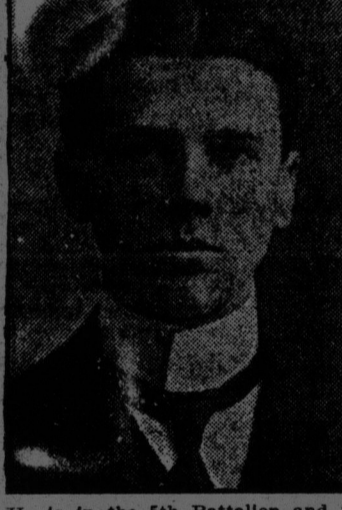

The report, which was adopted by Parliament, was A COMPLETE VINDICATION FOR AMES HOLDEN McCREADY LIMITED.

In bringing these facts prominently before the people of the Dominion, Ames Holden McCready Limited are actuated by the desire not only to protect their own good name—which needs no vindication with the thousands of Canadians who are familiar with this company and its products—but also that of a notable and important Canadian industry, which has been unwarrantably aspersed.

LIEUT. W. M. HART, M.D.

He is in the 5th Battalion and is reported as missing. Previously he was head of the Saskatchewan Sanatorium for Consumptives at Qu'Appelle. He is 32 years of age, and is the only son of the late Rev. Thomas Hart, D.D., of Winnipeg. His mother, who is a daughter of the late Judge Malloch, of Perth, is at present in England. He has two cousins in Montreal.

"I engaged the rooms for my holiday," he said, "because the landlady wrote me that they overlooked a superb garden of 200 acres, richly adorned with statuary, where I was at liberty to promenade."

"Well?" Jones inquired.

"It was a cemetery."

Errors of living, among which tea or coffee-drinking is one of the most common, have stirred the New York Health Department to prepare a booklet of suggestions for indoor workers, and among other wise bits of advice this booklet says:

"Bracers are harmful. This applies to the use of tea, coffee and alcoholic beverages."

Sound advice!

All over Canada, for years, tea and coffee drinkers, indoor and out, prompted by their own feelings and enlightened by science, have gotten rid of tea and coffee troubles by changing to —the pure food-drink.

Postum, made of choicest wheat and a small portion of wholesome molasses, has a delicious snappy flavour, yet contains no caffeine (the harmful drug in tea and coffee) nor any other harmful element.

Postum comes in two forms: Postum Cereal—the original form—must be well boiled, and 25c packages.

Instant Postum—the soluble form—is prepared in the cup. A teaspoonful in a cup of hot water makes a delicious drink instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

Both kinds are equally delicious, and the cost per cup is about the same.

WHAT OUR TOURIST INDUSTRY MIGHT BE

(Maritime Merchant). There is no subject of general interest which has been more often referred to in the columns of the "Merchant" than that of the tourist question. For twenty years or longer we have been dealing with it, perhaps more enthusiastically in the early days than in these later years. Because of our prospective twenty years ago we thought we saw the maritime provinces becoming the great vacation ground of America in the then very near future, but time has proved that in this we were wrong. We have not made much progress with the development of our tourist trade, that is, not as compared with our developments in so many other lines of industry. We may have a few more people visiting the provinces than we had a decade ago, but not many more, though in the United States and Canada. Now, why is this? Why has not the development continued at the same rate that it gave promise of a few years ago? We suspect the reason is that we have been running our tourist business as a side line instead of recognizing it as an important industry capable of great development if only it receive proper attention. To make a community a popular tourist resort needs the help, so to speak, of everyone in that community. We do not mean by this that each individual in the community should try personally to bring tourists to the place or to entertain them when they come. That would be foolish. But to be specific, suppose that the town of Digby, which has made some little progress with the business of entertaining summer visitors, should wish to develop the industry on a large scale, responsible people of the town, acting either directly or through the town authorities, might lend their financial assistance to equipping Digby with the things which nowadays are recognized as necessities at the popular resorts both in the United States and Canada. A good golf course, a good orchestra to furnish music for dancing, a yacht club, a motor service to points of interest, and perhaps most important of all, though the others are of great importance, hotel management that knows its business. This is not to say that the hotel managers at Digby do not know their business, but merely to emphasize that no matter what the other attributes may be they will not be sufficient to hold business if the hotel service is a failure. Our present remarks have been prompted by the dispatch which appeared in one of the daily papers recently to the effect that travel to the provinces was likely to be larger than usual this year. We hope that it will. But if the people that come are the kind that have been accustomed to the American resorts of today, what will they think of the entertainment that is provided here?

Half of course, with its military bands, yachting, and canoeing will partly approximate to what the visitor expects to find, but he will not find these things in the places that ought to be the resort of great colonies of summer visitors, and we never will find them until the people of those places make up their minds that tourist traffic is not to be merely a side line of the place, but cultivated for all it is worth, just as is done most successfully in Bermuda and other places.

LOCAL NEWS
POLICE COURT.
Hop Lee, who is under arrest in the Mill street opium case, was brought in to court this morning and remanded until next Tuesday, as his counsel, Daniel Mullin, K. C., is absent from the city. The other five Chinese, who are out on deposit, were also remanded.
One man arrested on a drunkenness charge, was fined $8 or two months in jail.

AN AMHERST FLAG DAY.
Lord Amherst, Chapter, I. O. O. F., of Amherst, held a flag day last week and raised $384. Out of this amount there will be nearly five hundred dollars set for the work of the society. A contribution will be made to the Canadian Hospital in Flanders, which is practically named by Nova Scotian doctors and nurses. The members of the society are still knitting and providing supplies for the soldiers at the front.

HAD SWALLOWED A CENT.
Master Harry McGrath, the four year old son of Mrs. D'Arcy McGrath, of Fredericton, underwent a serious operation at the Victoria Hospital on Saturday afternoon when a Canadian one cent piece, which he had swallowed about six months ago, was found lodged in the gullet. The operation was performed by Dr. H. H. McNally, assisted by Dr. C. F. Holden, after an X-ray photograph had been taken, and showed the cent at the top of the breast bone pressing against the windpipe. The cent was removed, and unless the wound becomes infected the boy will have a speedy recovery.

DEATH OF HENRY MCGILL.
Many friends will regret to hear the death of Henry McGill, formerly janitor of St. Joseph's school, and well known about the city. He died at the home of his niece, Mrs. Frank Cooper, 113-9 Harrison street. He had been in ill health for a considerable period. Mr. McGill was sixty-eight years old and a native of Coleraine, Ireland, and had lived many years in St. John. His wife died about two months ago. The only other relatives are two nieces, Miss Cooper of Harrison street, and Mrs. George Green of Rothesay, and two sisters in Scotland. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at St. Peter's church for high mass of requiem.

BROTHER SAVED
Anxiety of St. John Man Over Sinking of Goliath Relieved by Cable
The good news that his brother was saved when H. M. S. Goliath was sunk at the Dardanelles was received last evening by F. J. Punter of the Canadian Bank of Commerce staff. Five hundred men were lost when the warship sank and as Mr. Punter was shipmate and captain and his duties would keep him under deck, his chances of being among the lucky ones would not be so good as those of others. His brother here was naturally much concerned, and yesterday morning cabled the British admiralty for news. His reply came promptly last evening "Berlie Punter saved."
Mr. Punter also received a letter yesterday from another brother, a naval pensioner, who has been called out with the other reserves and is now serving as chief petty officer in the Portsmouth barracks.

FAIRVILLE NEWS
Hospital Shirts For The Soldiers—John Irvine Seriously Ill
The Lancaster Red Cross Society has undertaken to make 500 hospital shirts by June 1 for Dr. Murray McLaren's hospital and, as the time is so short, an extra effort will have to be put forth to turn out the work. Any one, whether connected with the Lancaster Red Cross or not, communicating with the Provincial Hospital, can secure the material, all cut, ready to make up at home, and if Lancaster ladies will avail themselves of this opportunity, there will be no question about the 500 shirts being completed when required.
Last week a special endeavor was made to provide 100 respirators for soldiers in the trenches, as a preventive against deadly gases used by the enemy. The entire number was obtained within the time, and while many women are house cleaning at this season, and there seem urgent calls for other worthy causes, it is expected a generous response will follow this appeal for the hospital shirts within the two weeks allotted.
At a meeting yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cecil McKell, vice-president, presided, and there was a fair attendance. Bruce Irvine, of Boston, arrived on yesterday's train, called home to Milford by the serious illness of his father, John Irvine. Miss Grace Irvine and Cheyne, of Philadelphia and Chicago respectively, came a few days ago.
The Lancaster Patrol, Boy Scouts, are planning to camp out at Raynes' Beach from the evening of Friday, 21st, until after the 24th. It is understood that quite a number have signified their intention of joining the camp, which promises to be a great success.
The two Fairville schools are making arrangements for a big joint celebration on Friday afternoon, the last session before Victoria Day and if weather permits the exercises will take place out of doors, which is not only an advantage to the scholars in performing but also provides plenty of room for spectators. Last year the event was a great success. Rehearsals have been going on for some time and it is said an excellent programme has been prepared.

TIMES MEN MEET IN FOLKESTONE ON THE WAY TO FIGHT
Gordon Smith and Frank Jennings Have Hand Shake

LETTERS FROM SOLDIERS
Private Smith Now Mail Orderly For Colonel Massie's Train—Jack Collins Writes of German Airship Going Over Their Camp

In a letter received yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. South of Queen street from their son, Gordon, a former member of the Times-Star composing room staff, he tells of having met another from this office, Q. M. S. Frank Jennings in Folkestone, along with another St. John man named McAdam, both looked in excellent trim after two months' training at the camp there. Private Smith also tells of his trip to the front, and of the final completion of arrangements for the camp at Sandling Junction.
He has been appointed mail orderly for the Divisional Train, under Lieut. Col. Massie. The writer describes in an interesting way the life of the boys at the camp, saying that they have settled to the routine in solid and successful manner and are apparently enjoying their stay thus far. They were billeted in houses for the present, the officers using huts, nicely arranged.

From Jack Collins
Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Collins of 28 Somerset street, yesterday received letters from their son, Jack, who is with No. 5 Co. C. A. S. C. Division Train. In his first letter he told of the trip across aboard the Granplan, and the landing. He also informs the home quarters in which they are located. "We are having a good time," he says. "We usually ride into Folkestone at night, about five miles from our camp, and the scenery is very pretty. We get some English papers here with us, but they are not as good as the Times—please send a few along. I have seen several of the fellows of the first contingent who have been wounded. Young Collins wrote he had seen several aeroplanes over the camp grounds, and also of hearing air-machines of the enemy in flight over the camp at night on their way to raid some English lines. The boys of the company were all contented he wrote, and were taking pleasure from the life in camp. They were quartered in shacks which were quite comfortable. He asked to be remembered to his friends at home."
ST. JOHN MAN THERE WHEN "HELL STARTED."
Mrs. J. Guilford of 80 Chapel street has received a letter from her son David J. Guilford, dated April 21 and another dated April 30. In the first he says: "We are in a hot place now. We are where those big battles were fought, and we certainly got a warm reception when we arrived, with shells bursting all around us. Sometimes the German shells burst about fifty yards from us. We have had no men killed yet, but several sent to the hospital with fever. Now that the warm weather has come we have to be very careful. Eddie Speight and the battalions are in the trenches. I heard they lost a lot the first night. I hope to see some of them soon. There were coming all around us. The hell started and is going yet. This is the seventh day and this will be the eighth night. We have had hardly any sleep since, and our poor horses have had the harness on. They have saved our lives a good many times. There are a good many things which would be interesting to you folks, but my nerves are in too bad a condition to write much, and this battle is not over. We Canadians have lost terribly, but it meant to fight till we got our help, or the Germans would have gone right through the country. We have to take ammunition through a certain place and it is terrible to see the dead horses and men."
The young man writes, as so many others do, that they would like to get some tobacco.

THE FUNDS
Mayor Frink has received from the DeMonts Chapter, I. O. O. F., through their treasurer, Miss Helen Sidney Smith, the sum of $30 for the 26th Battalion field kitchen fund.
His Worship has received also from H. Ronda, provincial manager for the Famous Players Film Service, a very generous offer of co-operation in the effort to secure funds for the field kitchen. The company supplies films to a large number of moving picture theatres in the province and is willing to make a special arrangement for entertainments in aid of this fund.
Patriotic Fund.
C. B. Allan has received contributions for the Canadian Patriotic Fund as follows: W. J. Ambrose, $10; Mrs. W. J. Ambrose, $5; monthly contributions for May.
Respirator Fund
"A Canadian Woman" living in Boston has sent Mayor Frink $5 towards the cost of respirators for the troops when facing the poisonous gases of the front. His Worship has turned the amount over to Lady Tilley for the Red Cross Society, which is providing the respirators.

This Very Day Thousands of Men Are Face to Face With The Question of a New Suit
It is a problem that no man can shrug, run away from or ignore. It must be settled if a man is not to lose his rating, and lose heart. If you knew for a certainty that there was at least one men's clothing store in which you could get at once your very ideal of a suit at the lowest price for which it can be obtained, would that help to settle the matter for you? If so, you will be doing yourself an injustice if you do not, this very day, come to Oak Hall, and let us show you—
Suits that are constructively as good as it is possible to produce.
Suits which in fashion, in all details of finish and style reach a degree of fineness that no other suits quite come up to.
No matter what may be your height, your build, your dimensions, your weight your age, or your taste in fabrics, patterns and colors, there is a suit to suit you here and now.
Prices $6.00 to $30.00

The "Dixie No Tuft"
Stands pre-eminent as the acme of comfort and cleanliness. It has all the good points of the ordinary felt mattresses, but has distinctive qualities which places it head and shoulder above anything else on the market.
The above cut illustrates its construction, and a glance at it will convince you of the truth of our statement. It is made up of ten compartments, and each compartment is practically a distinct and perfect miniature mattress. The absence of tufts does away with the hard spots, which tufting inevitably produces, and with the depressions at every tuft which are gathering places for dust, dirt and germs. Our space is too limited to describe in detail why the Dixie has twenty-five per cent. more elasticity than the tufted type, why it keeps the appearance after other mattresses have spread and sagged out of shape.
But if you will write or phone us for circular which fully describes all these points, or, better still, call and let us show you samples, we will feel sure that your next mattress purchase, and all future ones, will bear the "Dixie" trade mark.
