MILITARY PROBE AT ST. CATHERINES

Alleged Discrepancy in Accounts of Regiment Lieut.-Col. W. W. Burleigh and Major George Bradley Two Witnesses Examined Yesterday — Some of the Questions Involved.

(Canadian Press Despatch.) St. Catharines, Ont., Jan. 23.—Lieut.-Colonel W. W. Burleigh, commanding officer of the 19th regiment, was on the witness stand yesterday at a military court which is scrutinizing the finances of his regiment while doing frontier guard duty during the war.

General Cruikshank, presiding officer, informed him that there was a sum total of $11,900 to be accounted for in the way of field allowance withdrawn from the men from the frontier forces and profit on rationing overseas units and Colonel Burleigh presented accounts of merchants showing that he had been purchased for some of the money.

A matter which the court considered Colonel Burleigh should explain was the relation to an item of $145 on the pay sheets in favor of Major Traill, who afterwards took a draft overseas. Colonel Burleigh said Traill represented only half a day, and he did not think he got the money, but he did not know who did. He admitted that the signature on the pay sheet was that of Major Traill's. Traill subsequently in which a check for $100 was endorsed. Burleigh declared it was in payment to Traill for services at a provincial school.

An item of $100 was looked into closely. General Cruikshank, summing up various financial transactions, figured out that there should have been a balance of at least $1,000 to hand over when Captain Frank McKinley, paymaster, handed over his duties to Captain J. E. Rothwell and went overseas, where he was killed. Rothwell had sworn he had not received this money and Burleigh could not throw any light on it.

Major George Bradley was asked about an account for $912 supposedly sent out by his firm for rationing troops. Figured out, it was on the firm's stationery. He hinted that some one interested might have gone into the store and instructed the bookkeeper to make it out that way. The bookkeeper is in the United States now. A copy of a letter written by Colonel Burleigh supposedly in 1917 that he had made a contract with Bradley's to supply the 81st Battalion quota here with rations at seventy-five cents per man was submitted. Burleigh demanded the original, and was told the original was being sent from Ottawa.

Dartmouth Fire, $7,000. Dartmouth, N. B., Jan. 23.—Fire last night destroyed a portion of the ice plant of P. Otto. The loss is estimated at $7,000.

ARMY SYSTEM IN BOSTON HOSPITAL

Great Boon in Warfare on Pneumonia Former New Brunswick Champion of Woman Presidential Suffrage in Massachusetts — Reds Appeal to Laws They Derided.

(Special to Times.) Boston, Jan. 23.—What is considered a great boon in the warfare on pneumonia and will result in saving thousands of lives is the adoption of the army system in the city hospital. Had the method been in vogue last winter during the influenza epidemic it is believed the fatalities would have been reduced to a minimum. At a certain stage in recovery the patient's constitution has developed enough combatsiveness to the pneumonia germ to kill it by an anti-toxin which has formed. So effective has the treatment been that if the patient is not a hopeless case he is discharged in three weeks.

President Edwin T. McKnight of the state senate, a former New Brunswicker, filed with the clerk of the senate yesterday a petition and bill to provide for presidential woman suffrage in Massachusetts. Passage of the measure would give women the right to vote not only for presidential electors at the next presidential election, but for delegates to the forthcoming national convention.

The 600 men Red at Deer Island have lodged a detailed complaint with federal officials charging that conditions are so bad that one man has committed suicide and another has gone insane, that the food is unfit to eat, and that their mail and packages sent them are tampered with. Also that the rules regarding visitors are not reasonable enough to allow relatives to see those imprisoned without long and expensive delays; that they are not given any opportunity to work; that they must proceed to get their liberty under ball. In fact they are appealing to the laws that they have derided.

HAVE PAID IN $1,600,000

Boston Men Who Got Into Trouble Over the Income Tax. Boston, Jan. 23.—William A. English and John H. O'Brien, who were members of the wool firm of English and O'Brien, of this city, sentenced on July 31, 1918, to eight months in the Greenfield jail for conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with the payment of income taxes, have paid the government $1,600,000 in settlement of the claims against them.

HOUSING PLAN IN CAPE BRETON DECADE

Sydney, N. S., Jan. 23.—The Cape Breton county yesterday afternoon decided to take no steps locally for the adoption of the dominion-provincial housing scheme. Some councillors said that, although the City of Sydney nearly a year ago complied with the provision of the act by appointing a local housing commission, nothing further has come out, and under the circumstances it would be a waste of time for the council to go through it again. The matter was dropped.

GIVES $25,000 TO THE FUND FOR LAVAL. Montreal, Jan. 23.—The committee in charge of the subscription list for the rebuilding of Laval University, reported yesterday another large subscription, $25,000, from L. A. YARMOUTH MOURNS MINISTER'S DEATH

Rev. Dr. R. D. Bambrick Filled Large Place in the Community Life. Yarmouth, N. S., Jan. 23.—A deep gloom was cast over Yarmouth last evening as it became known that Rev. Dr. Bambrick, M. A., D. C., L., rector of Holy Trinity church, had passed away at 6 o'clock, aged about sixty-three years.

Dr. Bambrick was a native of Halifax and previous to coming to Yarmouth twenty-five years ago was rector at Sydney Mines. A few years ago he was made by the governors of King's College, public orator of the graduation ceremonies and of the encanema of that institution. As a preacher he showed profound scholarship. His oratorical powers were remarkable and during the war at recruiting meetings he held his audiences spellbound as he urged upon them the need of men at the front.

Dr. Bambrick took a deep interest in athletics and sports. For several years he was president of the tennis club. He was also associated with the golf club and occasionally took part in that sport. He was one of Yarmouth's most enthusiastic curlers and for several years was captain of the Yarmouth Curling Club. As a skip he was one of the best and had on many occasions won trophies in local contests.

In his death the Anglican denomination of Nova Scotia suffers a distinct loss and Yarmouth a good citizen as in all matters he was broad-minded and with a far-sighted vision. Dr. Bambrick is survived by his wife and two daughters, Miss Dorothy and Miss Harry Bingham in the United States; one son, Robert B., and two sisters, Misses Hattie and Jessie F., all in Yarmouth.

Present's General Currie as Man to Save Government. Montreal, Jan. 23.—(Canadian Press)—Brigadier General Victor Odlum, of day on his way to Ottawa, where he is dealing with matters relating to soldier-settlement in British Columbia, said that should the Union government be in danger owing to failure to find a leader, Major General Sir Arthur Currie, who had led Canadians in the field, was the man to endorse the various elements in the cabinet and lead Canadians at home in the period of reconstruction.

As Hiram Sees It

"Well," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to the Times reporter, "I just brought in a sled-load of old boots from the Settlement for that Winnipeg Council to send to them soldiers in Frelton that's learnin' to be cobblers. Silie Jones wouldn't give 'em. He said if any feller was fool enough to go to war an' get wounded, he never ought to come back an' be a burden on this country. At the time of the war, when we was getherin' up old razors to send over to England, Silie said it was all foolishness for a feller to be wastin' time shavin' when he might be killed next day—an' soap was goin' up all the time. Howsomever, I got a lot of old boots an' I hope they'll get enough tomorrow to keep them soldiers busy all winter. We'll give one of 'em all he kin do out to the levelled pair of army boots I kin find an' tick 'em off the face of the airth—By Hen!"

Donation by St. John Citizen — Board of Governors in Session Here. The annual meeting of the Board of Governors of King's College, Windsor, and the King's College Law School at St. John, was held this morning in the Church of England Institute. The vice-president, Bishop Richardson of Fredericton, president in the absence of the president, Archbishop Worral of Nova Scotia, Rev. T. Stannage Boyle, D.D., president of the university, reported on the work of the year. He said that there is the largest enrollment at King's in the history of the college, largely due, no doubt, to the fact that so many returned soldiers are availing themselves of the opportunity of getting a foundation upon which to build their future career. The financial condition of the college was reported on and is being considered. It is expected that the institution will practically clear expenses this year and the outlook is bright.

ST. JOHN'S GREATEST MERCANTILE EVENT

Tomorrow the Last Day—
Doors Close at 10 p. m.

The last hours of St. John's Greatest Mercantile Event, which is the Oak Hall 31st Anniversary Sale, are fast closing in. This great event ends tomorrow night at 10 o'clock, but between now and then much advantageous shopping can be done. If the buying public only realized, as fully as Oak Hall does, how much more wearing apparel is going to cost for spring than it does now, they could not be kept away from this great event under any consideration, especially when they have the assurance of real Oak Hall values, supported by the Oak Hall guarantee, at prices that are considerably reduced below the already low prices that are always obtainable at Oak Hall.

Knowing all this, and being well aware of the fact that this is not an ordinary sale, but is an unique event whereby Oak Hall offers not only the odds and ends of a season's selling at drastically reduced prices, but go further and offer every piece of merchandise in their store at a substantial reduction, even when they know it will be necessary for them to pay a lot more money for the same lines when they go back into the market to replenish their stocks. Then, knowing these facts, is it not simply a matter of practical common sense to visit Oak Hall before closing time Saturday, respect your wardrobe with all wearing apparel necessities and save much money in the doing.

But one must act now without hesitation, a few hours of undecidedness or delay will mean the loss of this great opportunity and of considerable cash.

A very enjoyable skating party was held on Wednesday evening by Pleasant Point Section, No. 10, on the local ice. A special feature was speed skating by the Burns brothers. After about two hours spent on the ice the party returned to the hall, where a lunch and chocolates were served by R. Kierstead, after which songs were sung. Some very enjoyable music was rendered by Wendall Ferris on the violin accompanied by Miss Marion McLaughlin on the piano. The party then broke up and returned to their homes.

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., JANUARY 23, 1920

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury Street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by The St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co. Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

STRAIGHT TO THE POINT.

In the address presented by the Commercial Club of St. John to Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King and Mr. Lapointe, M. P., was this paragraph:— "There is a feeling of dissatisfaction extending all over Canada on account of the present rate of exchange between the United States and ourselves, and probably no single item of commerce is contributing more to the adverse balance of trade than is the amount of transport of goods to and from the United States—the amount we Canadians are paying the people of the United States to transport our goods through their territory. This condition should not exist, and would not exist if the transportation facilities of the maritime provinces had been built up in conformity with the building up of other parts of Canada."

A Montreal despatch of yesterday's date said:—"Serious results for Canadian shippers, both exporters and importers, are foreshadowed by the announcement of an embargo on all freight moving east from Canada to the United States, by way of the Niagara frontier. The embargo has been placed by the United States railroad administration. Attention of Canadian shippers is being called to this important embargo by the Railway Association of Canada (railway war board). It will affect not only Canadian goods moving into the eastern United States, either for shipment to Europe or for United States consumption, but it will close off the eastern movement of United States goods which usually cross Canada from Detroit to the Niagara frontier."

Not only is Canada paying an enormous amount to the United States for freight transportation on American railways, thus affecting the rate of exchange, but there is always danger that an embargo will throw Canadian traffic into chaos. Hence the significance of the following extract from the report of yesterday's meeting of the St. John board of trade:

"The embargo against Canadian freight at Niagara was brought up and a resolution was passed, in which it was pointed out that this condition emphasized very forcibly the need for the early development of the winter ports of eastern Canada and for the supplying at the earliest possible period of additional railway trackage at these ports, so that Canadian exporters and importers might have ample opportunities for the handling of their traffic on Canadian soil in winter as in summer."

HERE'S MORE EVIDENCE.

Another judge has been heard from on the subject of juvenile courts. Judge Hodgins of Toronto, in his report on "The Care and Control of the Mentally Defective and Feeble-minded in Ontario," says:—

"I have visited the juvenile courts in New York and Boston, and have talked with the judges and officials of these courts. In these cities and in Chicago, Buffalo, Cleveland and other cities in the United States, these courts are regarded with pride by the civic authorities and are housed and equipped with due regard to their importance in the general scheme of caring for the young who are exposed to temptation and need proper direction and care in their upbringing."

Judge Hodgins laments that the Toronto juvenile court is not as well housed as it should be, and is without proper provision for the mental clinic which has been established in connection with the court. He says:—"Until a new spirit arises which recognizes the immense value of juvenile courts and realizes the tremendous benefit they represent in young life and happiness, I am afraid there is not much to be hoped for in this direction."

The remarks of Judge Hodgins ought to have some effect in St. John. They confirm those of Judge Hunt of Halifax, and of all who have given the subject real study and are animated by a desire to promote the welfare of children.

THE FORWARD MOVEMENT

The forward movement in St. John is real, in more ways than one. Take last night's meeting of the provincial council of the Boy Scouts' Association as an example. It was announced that the business men of the city are to get behind the council and see that it gets the necessary funds for a year's work. A central office for the province is to be opened here, and the work put on a solid basis, for boy scout and sea scout activities. There is more significance in this than the citizen who is not familiar with the work realizes. A flourishing boy scout and sea scout organization will be of the highest value in the training of boys for useful citizenship.

Then there was the meeting last night at which it was decided to enlarge the scope of the Playgrounds Association, and link it up not only with all amateur athletic activities, but with the commercial bodies, thus ensuring the widest general interest in its work and ensuring also the success of the work. It is something dreamed of by the founders of the association, who have carried on under difficulties for years, always hoping for such a turn of events as has now come.

Last night saw also the opening of a recreational centre for girls under the suspects of the Y. W. C. A. This institution may be made of very great benefit to girls who lack opportunities for healthful and enjoyable recreation, and whose natural desire for recreation must find vent in some direction. There is a very wide field in St. John for such work as would find its centre in the new recreational home.

The Free Kindergarten Association has not yet felt the effect of the new spirit of progress to the extent that is desirable. The reports submitted last night at the annual meeting show that a wider interest and more general and generous support are needed. The work that is being done is of the very highest value. It is a real mission work among the children, whose lives are brightened and talents developed by the magic of play and the sympathy of warm-hearted women. In one respect the forward movement has been felt. The children are receiving medical inspection by nurses of the Victorian Order, under direction of the medical inspector of schools. The kindergarten ought to be a part of the public school system.

The Bangor Commercial says:—New York state having adopted a daylight saving law and similar action having been taken by Philadelphia, Worcester, Springfield and other large cities, it is believed that there is some likelihood of action by Congress, which may take the form of a declaration of daylight saving for the eastern section of the country, where the sentiment is greatly in favor of such action. There are bills for a daylight saving law before the Massachusetts legislature and it is expected that one of these will become a law. With some of the eastern states having daylight saving and others proceeding on the present method of computing time, much confusion is certain to result. It would be generally satisfactory if congress should decide to make daylight saving uniform for the eastern states."

The expenditure of the city of Hamilton, Ontario, this year is estimated at about $5,000,000. The ordinary revenue will be about $3,470,000, and the ratepayers at the beginning of the year passed by-law authorizing an expenditure of $1,400,000.

The announcement that the revenue from crown lands will reach a million dollars is the very strongest argument for conservation of this great provincial asset. Its importance cannot be exaggerated.

ORPHANS ESCAPE FIRE IN ASYLUM

Twelve Hundred Children Aroused by Flames in Early Morn.

(New York Post.) Twelve hundred children were aroused from sleep a little before 6 o'clock this morning when fire broke out in the Herrow Orphan Asylum, a three-story brick structure extending from 136th street to 138th street on Amsterdam avenue. The fire was in the laundry on the ground floor of the centre wing of the big building, and firemen extinguished it in fifteen minutes. The damage was slight.

Kitchen workers who were preparing breakfast noticed the smoke and traced it to the laundry. They notified L. J. Simonds, the superintendent, who turned in an alarm. The children, who were sleeping in dormitories on the second and third floors, were awakened and marched without confusion to the play rooms in the north and south wings on the ground floor. They remained in these rooms while firemen extinguished the fire in the laundry and then returned to their dormitories. The cause of the fire was not learned.

SEEKING WIDER CO-OPERATION FOR ATHLETIC PLANS

An enlargement of the scope of the work of the Playgrounds Association is to be one of the developments of the year. At a meeting held in the Board of Trade rooms last evening, a resolution was adopted to the effect that every local athletic organization affiliated with the A. A. U. of Canada, with Board of Trade, Rotary Club and the Commercial Club, name each two delegates to become members of an enlarged Playgrounds Association to co-ordinate playground and amateur athletic activities in St. John.

There were representatives present from the Playgrounds Association, the South and East End Improvement Leagues, Y. M. C. A., Atlantic Refineries and Rotary Club. Assurance was given of the support of the Y. M. C. A., St. Peter's and the Commercial Club. A. W. Covey, president of the maritime branch of the A. A. U. of C. was elected chairman and T. A. Armour, secretary. George A. Margetts, K. J. MacRae, Captain Mulcahy, A. M. Belding, David Ramsay, Roy Handren and others took an active part in the discussion and a special meeting of the playgrounds association will be called to complete the organization.

At a meeting of the executive of the co-operative committee for girls' work, held in the Y. M. C. A. with the president, Mrs. J. D. Hunt, presiding, plans were formulated for the development of inter-group activities for the C. G. I. T. entertainments will be arranged for each month and that the large rally in the Y. W. C. A. recreational centre will be the first of many very pleasant occasions.

MAKING A HIT.

A friend whose name I do not mention had tried for years to gain renown; he tried all the chances seemed against him, and set folks talking in the town. But all the chances seemed against him, none yielded to his smile or lure. He wrote fine odes and none would read them, men only laughed to see him soar; he made high talks and none would heed them, and people voted him a bore. And when he'd failed in projects twenty, and to humble walks resigned, fame came to him, and came a plenty, and now he's in the Public Mind. He is the pride of every voter, and men discuss him near and far—the man who does not own a motor, the guy who has no cheer-choo car. When strangers visit in our city, we show him the bunch of kids who rule the local legislature, the courthouse, with its doors ajar, and then produce that freak of nature, the man who doesn't own a car.

CANADA—EAST AND WEST

Domino Happenings of Other Days

THE IROQUOIS.

In the early days of the Canadian colonies the Iroquois were the dread of the people. Indians and whites alike were united in their fear of the powerful tribe of warriors who lived in what is now the State of New York and stretched across into Ontario and Quebec. Though their real homes were on the other side of the line their frequent raids into Canada made them well known along the lakes and the St. Lawrence. They included the Mohawks, Oneidas, Cayugas, Senecas and the Onondagas.

They were united in a loose confederation and by a system of clanship, but they seem to have had no permanent head and to have left their affairs largely to a central council of the Onondagas. It is not thought that at any time they numbered more than 4,000 braves, but they were such skillful warriors that they swept almost wherever they wished and made their name a terror to all colonists. They were always the enemy of the French—largely because the French had made alliances with Indian tribes living along the St. Lawrence; in later years they joined the British and became a strong military arm of the forces of Britain.

In 1715 the Tuscaroras joined the confederacy, bringing several hundred additional warriors to the strength of the Six Nations as the Iroquois began to be called. The federation combined all that was best and worst in the Indian tribes. The fighters were merciless and proud, overbearing in their attitude to all enemies and even to their friends, but they were loyal to each other and brave almost to a fault. They were not a people upon a prisoner they themselves bore, if captured, without a murmur.

IN DEVONSHIRE.

Pixies dwell in Devonshire; Woods and meadows ring With their merry music folk. Thro' a Devon Spring, Oh, it's down in Devonshire, Magic meads are found, Where the fairies dance at night Round and round and round!

Woodlark grows in Devonshire; Devon lanes are sweet, Linnets sing in Devonshire. O'er the waving wheat, I'll be back to Devonshire, Home to distant Devonshire, In the month of May.

Roses bloom in Devonshire, And the cuckoo's note Echoes far in Devonshire. From a joyous English Indian So the cultr'n echoes once, In the long-ago, When that man of Devon, Drake, Sailed from Plymouth Hoe!

Apples grow in Devonshire (Not a need to be said), Cherries grow in Devonshire—Cherry lips as well! And so I sail for Devonshire, Home to dear old Devonshire, Back to Bideford Bay. —Ernest H. A. Home.

LIGHTER VEIN.

The train was crowded, and a woman not content with a seat for herself, spread her belongings over another. A man, when a courteous request to clear the seat met with no response, cleared it very carefully himself and then sat down. "I should like you to know," he said, "that I am one of the director's wives. 'Can't help it, madam,' he replied. 'If you were the director's only wife I should do the same again.'"

"In Borneo," remarked George, "women do the pearl fishing." "Don't they everywhere?" demanded Tricotine.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"Why don't you go out before your people and tell them you have earned this great office and you want it because you are entitled to it?"

"That procedure," rejoined Senator Sorghum, "would be extremely amateurish. No politician thinks of accepting public responsibility excepting with reluctance and as a great favor to his fellow man."—Washington Star.

"Why are so many young people sent away from home to study music?" "Most natural thing you could imagine. Folks around the house don't want to be bothered hearing them practice."—Washington Star.

Husband—That new maid is certainly quiet. One would never know that she was about the place. Wife—She isn't. She left this morning.—London Tit-Bits

BRITISH FREE TRADE.

(Grain Growers' Guide.)

Some months ago printers ink was made use of in large quantities by the Canadian Reconstruction Association to make it appear that Great Britain had become protectionist. Certain temporary government regulations of a restrictive character which have been put in operation on account of the conditions created by the war were represented as meaning that Great Britain was about to build stiff walls around its coasts. Later developments have shown how unfounded such an idea was and the result is that the Canadian Reconstruction Association finds itself under the necessity of falling back upon other methods of endeavoring to make the worse appear the better reason in its work of serving its masters' purposes by bulwarking the protectionist system with clap-trap, humbug and misrepresentation.

SALARIES OF TEACHERS.

(Toronto Globe.)

The teachers of Toronto have made out a convincing case for substantial salary increases. Nominally their rewards are somewhat higher than before the war, but measured by the value of money they are considerably lower. Like the majority of people working for salaries or fixed incomes, the teachers have been specially hard hit by the rise in prices. A kindergarten teacher must begin at $600 a year, or about $200 less than the average salary of an assistant woman teacher starts at $800, and an assistant master at $1,300. These are not living wages in this time of currency depression.

POLITICS AND POLITICS.

Woodstock Sentinel-Review—Men like Bishop Farthing who seek to keep us on the right track render a very necessary service to the community with which we are so familiar has become disreputable, whose fault is it? Largely our own. What have we done, what are we doing to improve the situation? It is as if it is cowardly to say that we can do nothing and will do nothing, but will wash our hands of the whole thing. We cannot escape our responsibility in such a way. It is the attitude of men and women who consider themselves too good to be soiled by the dirt of the arena that is largely responsible for the fact that the difference is so great between the higher and the lower spheres of political service.

FRANCE COMING BACK.

Just a word about Europe. In figuring out what is likely to happen over there don't forget that man—and this applies to the collective man, or nations—has remarkable powers of recuperation. Economists, seeing only the waste and ruin which afflict their orderly mind, quite often overlook the human element with its rebirth of hope. To illustrate: Reconstruction of the textile industry in France, deemed only a few months ago to be almost hopeless task, is now proceeding speedily. Fully 40,000 workers are busy in textile mills that were "hopelessly" looted by the Germans. Europe will be awake to the necessities of peace almost before we realize it. It is cooperation, slow at the start, will finish its course with the usual "snap back."—Forbes Magazine.

FUTURE OF THE CHURCH.

"What is the future of the Christian Church?" This is the answer which I give you: If the various divisions of the church as it is organized today catch the vision, have the breadth, the tolerance, the courage, and, setting aside all non-essentials, all barriers, will stand upon the bedrock principles of God's love and Christ's living spirit, and not satisfied until the church is the church of all good men and women, until all good thoughts and deeds are laid at the feet of the Lord of all good life; the Church of the Living God will come into being, ushering in a new era of Christian unity. What an opportunity! What a privilege! What a duty! In God's name I ask, does any one dare let it pass?—John D. Rockefeller, Jr. in Forbes Magazine.

ADMIRAL SIMS.

Toronto Globe—A Washington despatch describes Admiral Sims as a native-born Canadian. He was born in Fort Hope, Ont., but his father was an American citizen who was temporarily resident in the town as an engineer on a harbor contract. He married a Canadian girl, but legally the son was an American citizen from birth.

POLITICS IN CHINA.

(Canton Times.) Anathematized by the whole country, the An Fu Club is still lawless in its behavior. Instead of keeping quiet it is openly trying to usurp power in the government. The struggle between Tuan Chi-jui and Hsu Shih-chung has developed into a hand-to-hand fight. It is reported that Hsu Shih-chung is temporarily succeeded by Kung Hsin-chun, who is an active leader of the An Fu Club. The fact that the acting premier is an An Fu leader warrants the belief that all the future cabinet ministers will also be An Fu men. Thus in addition to the An Fu parliament we shall have an An Fu cabinet. The recent fight has removed three traitors, but government. Unless the rest of the An Fu Club were completely destroyed, we fear the militarists will have unrestricted way in bringing calamity to the country.

AGE OF THE WORLD.

"Speculations about geological time vary enormously. Estimates of the age of the oldest rocks by geologists and astronomers starting from different standards have varied between 1,000,000,000 and 25,000,000," says H. G. Wells, in his new "History of the Ages." The lowest estimate was made by Lord Kelvin in 1867. Professor Hurley summed up 400,000,000 years. There is some ground for believing that the geological time which the estimates have been made in Osborne's "Origin and Evolution of Life" he inclines to the moderate total of 100,000,000. It must be clearly understood by the reader how sketchy and provisional all these time estimates are. They rest nearly always upon the mere assumptions of the slenderest kind. That the period of time has been vast, that it is to be counted by scores of years is the utmost that can be said with certainty in the matter. "Most geologists are in agreement that half or more than half of the whole of geological time had passed before life had developed to the Later Paleozoic level."

MEMENTOS OF THEIR WAR RELIEF WORK

Dr. Colonel Murray McLaren, when the first Canadian hospital was being dismantled, was prompted by his kind thoughtfulness to gather the nameplates from the beds that were being supported by societies or individuals in New Brunswick and has brought them back with him to Canada. He is now endeavoring to return these plates to those who gave the money to support the beds over which they were placed. Two of the plates were presented by branches of the Women's Institute in the province and Dr. McLaren has handed them over to the Brunswick chapter of the L. O. D. E., through which the subscription for the beds was forwarded. The chapter will return the plates to the two institutes, which should value them exceedingly as a memento of their share in the relief of the sufferings of war. The two institutes which are to receive the plates are that of Queenstown, York county, of which Mrs. A. W. Carpenter is president, and that of Stanley, of which Mrs. A. Pringle is president.

FEAR TAX RATE OF $3 TO MEET THE 1920 ESTIMATES

That the city budget for 1920 is so great ($118,095 more than last year) that at least $300,000 in additional revenue is needed, and that the tax rate may jump from its present high altitude to $3 per hundred, was an opinion expressed at the sessions yesterday of the common council, while that body was considering the yearly estimates. It was also suggested that there should be more insurance on the fire department apparatus and equipment; that the government be memorialized with regard to the matter of having the police court clerk act as magistrate in the absence of that official; that the present ambulance chassis be used for a police patrol and that a new chassis be secured for the ambulance. Thornton was of the opinion that more lights, of less power, would make for a better lighted city. There was some argument among the commissioners, where it was suggested by Commissioner Thornton that sewerage service and maintenance should be charged to the water service, so that there would be a smaller burden on the general assessment; he also thought that a rental should be charged to the harbor department for the toll houses. It was said that, under the present system of accounting, no one really knew what the various departments were costing the city. Commissioner Bullock said that the water and sewerage departments should stand half the burden, each, of these departments, but Commissioner Jones said that if this plan were carried out, he would have to ask for more money and revise his lists.

Special Taxes. "That is the whole trouble," declared the mayor, "other cities have many special taxes; here there are practically none and it is mostly through special taxes that other cities keep clear of a large general assessment."

He further declared that the assessors must find from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000 in new values and increase the revenue fully $300,000 to avoid an assessment rate of $3.

It was suggested by Commissioner Bullock that some of the departments were holding unused properties in various parts of the city which could be easily rented and the civic coffers benefited thereby. With regard to a suggestion from Commissioner Fisher that, if the finances were in a shape to warrant the expense, a sum of $50,000 be allowed for the free collection of ashes from all the buildings in the city, Mayor Hayes denied that he was opposed to the proposal, as previously reported, but that he would not favor the expense if it would mean an increase in the tax rate.

SAYS GOVERNMENT IN GERMANY WILL NOT HELP GET KAISER.

London, Jan. 23—A wireless despatch from Berlin discredits a report that the entente is asking the German government to support its demand for the extradition of former Emperor William. It adds that the general opinion is that the government would be unable to comply with such a request without the authority of the assembly, a majority of which would oppose it as "an act of revenge."

"If the entente really insist," the despatch continues, "this could only lead to the resignation of the present government, which would terminate all the efforts peacefully to put into effect the Versailles treaty and civil war would break out in Germany."

LIQUOR MATTER TO GO TO SUPREME COURT.

In the William Webber matter yesterday afternoon in the police court, W. M. Ryan, counsel for the prosecution, made application to the magistrate for an order to have the liquor destroyed. He said that under section 109 the magistrate had this power. E. S. Ritchie, counsel for the defendant, said that although the magistrate had the power he would be destroying the civil rights of Mr. Webber, who had the right to have the liquor in his house. The magistrate said there was a doubt whether the inspectors had a right to take the liquor from the defendant's residence as he had purchased the most of it in Montreal before the act went into force. In view of this he decided not to take any responsibility and would refer the matter to a judge of the supreme court to decide.

The Writing Paper Industry

The manufacture of writing paper is one of Canada's natural industries, favored as we are by nature with the necessary raw materials, viz: timber and water power. It is important to every Canadian that the natural resources of the country should be developed, and manufactured into the finished product right at home. Writing paper is the most completely finished product that can be made from our forests, the wood being first manufactured into sulphite pulp and then into writing paper. The higher grades of writing paper contain a percentage of rags which are also readily obtainable in Canada from our textile industries. Every Canadian can assist in this development of our natural resources by saving and investing in the securities of well established and conservatively managed industries developing and manufacturing the finished product from our natural resources.

Write us for full particulars of the Preferred Stock issue of a leading writing paper manufacturer which we will shortly announce.

The highest dam in the world is the Arrowrock dam at Boise, Ida., a massive arch wedge of solid concrete, weighing more than 1,000,000 tons, which rises to a height of 851 feet between mountains a mile high. It was built in four years at a cost of $5,000,000. The artificial mountain lake backing it floods a canyon to a depth of 200 feet for a distance of 18 miles when filled to its capacity. The dam was built by the United States reclamation service as a great irrigation project.

SEVEN YEARS OF HIGH PRICES

That is What Hector MacInnes, K. C., Sees

Addresses Halifax Commercial Club on the Effects of Inflated Currency — Long Time Yet Before Normal.

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Halifax, Jan. 23.—Seven years more of top-heavy prices was the disconcerting prediction of Hector MacInnes, K. C., who yesterday addressed the Commercial Club on the high cost of living. He dealt with the effects of inflated currency. Mr. MacInnes took as his text Sir Edmund Walker's statement that it was living in a fool's paradise to think in terms of money rather than merchandise. He spoke of many causes to which the rise in prices had been attributed and said that authorities no longer blamed it upon profiteering. It had been believed that there would be a decline after the cessation of the war but such had not been the case. Governments had found it necessary to inflate the currency to finance loans and this had reduced the actual value of the dollar.

In the case of Canada the currency had increased almost $800,000,000 while the gold supply had increased only $80,000,000. He contended, however, that Canada was in a better position than any other country. He said that it would take a long time for things to return to normal.

AMATEURS SCORE BIG SUCCESS IN "THE THIRD DEGREE"

Excellent Performance Given Last Night in St. Vincent's Theatre.

The Third Degree, from the pen of Charles Klein, one of the most ambitious undertakings ever attempted by local amateurs, was admirably presented by a local cast last evening in St. Vincent's auditorium under the auspices of the Irish Literary and Benevolent Dramatic Club. The play calls for a great deal of dramatic talent but the members of the cast were thoroughly at home in their parts and, judging by the applause, the performance met with the hearty approval of an audience which filled the theatre.

The play was under the direction of John R. McCloskey, who has made an enviable name for himself in amateur productions in the city. He also played the part of Richard Brewster with great skill. Mr. McCloskey was assisted in the stage setting by Miss Alice Dillon. Miss Vera King, who is already well known to the St. John public, added to her laurels in the character of Mrs. Howard Jeffries, jr. It is a difficult part, calling for versatility and careful handling, and Miss King was given a flattering reception throughout. Miss Vera George, as Mrs. Jeffries, sr., also gave a finished performance. E. R. Hansen, as Howard Jeffries, jr., and J. W. B. Gale, as his "blue-blooded" father, divided the honors in the male roles. James J. Duffy made his debut in the part of Captain Clinton, an exponent of the in-

After Stocktaking Clean-up of MEN'S OVERCOATS

Incomplete Lines

Waiting for these clean-ups of ours is a habit with Mr. Thrifty Shopper whether residing in St. John or within a radius of many miles. It's a good habit, too, and yields big dividends in dollars saved.

More and more men and women, too, are becoming alive to the fact that these sales present exceptional Opportunities to Save.

The advantages this year are better than usual on account of many shipments arriving so late.

The original price ticket is on each overcoat so you can see how much you save on any purchase.

All up-to-date styles in Young Men's models as well as more conservative ones.

Waist-line, form-fitting overcoats and ulsterettes at $22.40 to $40, reduced from $28 to $50.

Melton Overcoats, $32, reduced from $40. Similar quality will no doubt be at least $50 next season.

At $15 odd coats that were regularly priced $25 to $30. Sale ends this week and you should not let such an opportunity pass.

quitous third degree, and his performance was considered worthy of credit to much more seasoned performers; his work promises great popularity in this direction.

The other members of the cast who assisted in making the show such a great success were John U. Hagerly, as Robert Underwood, D. J. Higgins as Mr. Bennington, C. E. Murray as Detective Sergeant Maloney, F. X. Jennings as Dr. Berenstein, F. E. O'Donnell as Mr. Jones, clerk to Mr. Brewster, Arthur F. Dolan as an elevator attendant.

The house orchestra under the direction of J. Bayard Currie rendered an excellent programme between the acts. The play will be repeated this evening and on Saturday afternoon.

G. Ernest Fairweather gave an illustrated lecture at the Church of England Institute last evening, describing the art of engraving. Canon R. A. Armstrong presided and tendered a vote of thanks to the lecturer on behalf of the institute at the close of the lecture.

OWN YOUR HOME

Portland Place Building Lots offer you this opportunity. In 1915 the first house was completed on Portland Place. Today there are seventeen houses erected, providing accommodation for thirty-three families.

Development follows the most approved ideas of residential Town Planning. All houses are situated at least twenty feet back from the street line, providing for lawn and vegetable garden.

Property owners on Lansdowne Ave. have petitioned the city council for the paving of the street this year on the boulevard plan. This policy of reasonable building restriction with local improvement means the growth of a desirable residential neighborhood.

End the uncertainty and expense of depending on a rented home. Start today on the road that leads to owning your own by securing one of these freehold lots with city water and sewer, electric light and telephone lines.

Our easy payment plan of one-tenth cash, balance monthly payments of $10 with interest at 6 per cent, helps you. Others have done it. You can too. Prices $400 to $600.

Portland Place is only eleven minutes walk from King street, and two minutes from street cars, schools, churches, stores, banks and theatres.

Complete prospectus (copies will be mailed on request) contains a letter from Mr. Tracy S. Lewis, Treasurer of the Company, from which we summarize as follows:—

1. Canadian-Connecticut Cotton Mills, Limited, has operated successfully for the past six years at Sherbrooke, P.Q., a large up-to-date mill for the manufacture of square and cord fabric for automobile tires. The Company is the largest manufacturer of these goods in Canada. At no time since its inception has the Company been able to supply the demand for its products.

A large portion of the proceeds of this issue will be applied toward the construction during 1920 of an additional mill of 30,000 spindles, practically doubling the Company's output.

2. Company's Mill and Properties are admirably situated with regard to labour and low-cost power supply. Buildings are of brick and wood slow-burning mill construction, equipped throughout with automatic sprinklers. Mill machinery is modern and electrically driven throughout; present installation consists of 31,000 spindles with complementary equipment. Company's land holdings are sufficient to permit of addition of mill units more than four times the size of the present plant.

3. Present Annual Capacity—5,000,000 pounds of finished product.

4. Net Sales four years ended September 10th, 1919:

1916	1917	1918	1919
$774,657	$1,088,862	$2,535,220	$3,764,851

5. Total Net Assets (Total Assets less Current Liabilities) at September 10th, 1919, including the proceeds of this issue, $5,439,024.58—or over $181 for each Preferred Share outstanding.

6. Net Liquid Assets, after deducting all Current Liabilities, at September 10th, 1919, (including the proceeds of this issue) $2,771,145.85—or over $92 for each Preferred Share outstanding.

7. Average Annual Net Earnings, after depreciation and interest, but before taxes, for the years 1917-19 inclusive were $488,628.41—over double Annual Preferred Dividend requirements.

8. Estimated Earnings for year ending September 10th, 1920, after providing for depreciation and interest, but before taxes—$1,250,000, more than five times total Preferred Dividends.

This estimate of Earnings takes no account of increased earnings from doubling of plant capacity to be provided from the proceeds of this financing.

The larger portion of this issue has been sold in Canada and the United States. We offer the unsold balance at a price of—

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, JANUARY 23, 1920

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF
ST. JOHN

MANAGER MAKES BOLD STATEMENT

St. John, N. B., Jan. 22.
To the People of St. John:
Newspaper announcements re entertainments, especially moving picture productions, are sometimes quite fulsome in their advance praise as picture after picture climbs to new heights of artistry and story value. This experience has been a real one with Imperial Theatre in its six-year career as it has been the actual history of the business. However, may I take the liberty of stating that in "The Miracle Man," which is being brought to this city at treble the expense of ordinary big film attractions, you will witness the most spiritually moving photoplay yet to hand—veritably an evangel of love, hope and good cheer. In all picture-dom to date there has never been a more powerfully moving, inherent than that in which the innocent little cripple boy drops first one crutch and then another and staggers, then runs and cuspas the legs of the blind old patriarch, while cunning crooks and fake cripples stand aside dazed. "The story is simple and if it were not that a wonderful lesson in faith is taught it might be called sacreligious. But no critic, no exacting moralist, no clergyman, can find anything but a soul-stirring message in this marvel of picture-plays. It is a month's mission, a whole evangelistic campaign concentrated into a two-hour visual sermon that even the hardest, most cynical heart cannot escape.

Faithfully,
WALTER H. GOLDING,
Mgr. Imperial Theatre.

FIVE NEW ACTS AT OPERA HOUSE

Programme Has Novel and Interesting Features Which Should Please All.

The new programme in the Opera House tonight should be an interesting one for patrons, as care was taken to secure the very best acts offering. Corbett, ex-heavy-weight champion pugilist of the world; Reece and Edwards in novelty songs and character dances, introducing "The Danc-

Remember K, M when ordering groceries

ON the grocer's shelf or counter you will find a handy blue and white striped tin. It is a tin of Klim. A fine, dry powder which when whipped into water becomes again natural-flavored separated milk. Use it where you now use ordinary milk, in baking, cooking, tea, coffee or soups. Include Klim in your next grocery order.

Write for "The Wonderful Story of Klim," an interesting recipe book.

TONIGHT IS THE NIGHT

If you have not secured your tickets already for this performance, you can do so at the Theatre, Cliff street, after 6 o'clock this evening. A genuine treat for those who attend this performance. WALTER H. GOLDING,
Mgr. Imperial Theatre.

CHARLIE'S AUNT BY THE Y. M. C. A.

"Charlie's Aunt," the rollicking and jolly farce comedy that has stood the test of time and is forever new, is to be presented by the dramatic club of the Y. M. C. A. in the Imperial Theatre on Friday evening, February 6, for one performance only. Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson is directing the performance and a rare good time is assured those who are fortunate enough to witness it. Since it was first presented in England in 1829, the comedy has but increased in popularity. For several seasons it was the surest laughter provoking farce in London. It has been translated into many languages. It never fails to bring hearty merriment wherever presented and it has been presented in every part of the civilized world. The Y. M. C. A. dramatic club has a reputation for staging excellent comedies. It means to eclipse all past efforts this time. Tickets must be secured quickly. Get them from E. G. Nelson, King street; W. Hawker, Prince William street; R. H. Hawker, Main street; J. Benjamin Mahoney, Dock street.

CHAS. RAY AT UNIQUE TONIGHT

Quite significant is the title, "The Bushy" given the Thomas H. Ince Paramount photo-play, with a baseball atmosphere, which opens at the Unique Theatre tonight and Saturday.

Charles Ray portrays the title role. He appears first as a baseball twirler in the bush league. His regular business is being hired man for Deacon Nasby, and his Sunday baseball playing has to be done on the quiet. The Blue Sox of the professional league laid over in Brownville by a washout on the railroad, see the country boy's throwing and he becomes a member of the big team. Success inflates his chest and he forgets the fervid promises he made a little country girl before he left and falls for the wiles of the city vamp.

In addition the seventeenth episode of Elmo the Mighty will be shown. First show at 7, second at 8.30.

A will written on a table cloth was refused probate in San Francisco because Mrs. Helen Scott, who had written it just before she died, Nov. 3, 1919, neglected to put a date on it.

RENEWED TALK OF NEW BRIDGE OVER THE FALLS

There is a revival of the report of the intentions of the Canadian Pacific Railway to erect a new bridge over the reversing falls. Current rumor has it that work will be begun in the spring on the building of this structure, which, it is said, will be located between the present railway bridge and the new suspension bridge. H. C. Groat, general superintendent for the New Brunswick district, was not in the city today, so that the report could not be verified.

It will be recalled that borings were taken at the falls some time ago and that then there was talk of a new bridge. It is said now that the intention of the company is to have a structure over which they can run their heaviest engines which, it is reported, cannot be done over the present bridge. Engineers say that a bridge such as would be necessary to accommodate the heaviest rolling stock of the company would take two years in building and would cost in the vicinity of $600,000 or $700,000.

CHIEF BLAKE WANTS PERMANENT DEPARTMENT.

The department was called upon to battle with some serious fires during the year, among which may be mentioned the Case Theatre, Court House, Mill street fires and the Dock street block. In each of these a large amount of property was at stake.

I have heard with pleasure that your body are about to take action in providing the department with both an aerial ladder truck and another motor pumping engine, which will add very greatly to the efficiency of this department.

The department shall require for the cost of the aerial truck, $2,000 feet of two and a half inch hose, and four additional horses.

The Permanent Department. In my opinion the time has arrived, and in fact passed, that we should have a permanent department. Call departments are out of date for a city the size of St. John, and we should have an up-to-date permanent department.

Call men cannot be expected to respond at all times and under conditions, as is now required of them.

I regret to report the loss of two lives by fire during the year, namely the Case fire in City road, though everything possible was done by the police and fire department in their endeavors to reach these men.

I have also to report the death of two of our hosemen from the west side. I refer to Isaac Amos and Edgar Whelan, both valuable men who had served a life term in the department, and who left an excellent and honorable record. These men will be greatly missed and the deepest sympathy of the department goes out to their relatives and immediate friends.

The different stations require some repairs. No. 3 will require an expenditure of at least $700 or $800 and I would also request that fire alarm boxes be placed in Nos. 7, 15 and 16 freight sheds on the west side.

In conclusion, I wish to tender my sincere thanks to the members of the salvage corps and the police force as well as to the officers and members of the fire department for their valuable assistance throughout the year.

Building Report.

The building inspector's report is as follows:

"During the year forty-eight permits were issued for fifty-seven buildings, the city housing board erecting three dwellings under one permit and H. J. Garsen having permit for three self-contained dwellings, built five. The approximate cost of buildings, alterations and additions as entered in the records of this office, is placed at $605,540, classified as follows: Frame buildings, additions and remodeling, 360, cost $37,440; C. P. R. baggage shed, $200,000; brick alterations and additions, one apartment house, $80,000; additions, $59,500; remodeling, $5,000; alterations, $1,500; additions, $5,800.

REASSURING. A woman recently engaged a new maid with whose appearance and manner she was greatly pleased. When the terms had been agreed upon, the lady of the house said: "Now, my last maid was much too friendly with the policeman. I hope that I can trust you."

"Indeed you can, ma'am," replied the new maid. "I can't bear policemen. I was brought up to hate the very sight of them. You see, my father was a burglar."

Manufacturers Unable to Take Care of Foreign Demand

Production Trouble - Mills Work Only 60 p. c. to 70 p. c. of Capacity - Prices Have, However, Made Allowance for Substantial Profits.

(Financial Post.) It was a very prosperous year in the textile industry, which includes not only cotton textiles, but woolen and knit goods. While some exporting has been done from real prosperity of the companies, as shown in their sales and profits, was due to the manner in which they were able to handle the big volume of domestic business which was forced upon them through the elimination of outside countries, so far as competition was concerned. A world-wide scarcity of textile goods developed during the year. In the earlier parts there had been a slump in prices in the United States, through a panic at the failure of a big export business starting up at once after the war ended. Goods were thrown on the market, particularly by jobbers, who abound there, and the result was that early in April there was a cut in prices by Canadian mills which extended to all the wholesalers. It was not long before business conditions improved in the States, and demand began to grow and an export business developed. At once, the pendulum of demand and prices swung back, and ever since then the textile mills have had far more than they could do to supply the demand. Prices have advanced again sharply till now, in spite of the general expectations that there would be a reduction in the fall of 1919, they are higher than ever, and the indications are that 1920 will not see the beginning of a decline. All the Canadian mills are loaded to their capacity, and many of them for months have refused orders. Whenever they do take orders at the beginning of a new season, they have been forced to adopt the allotment system, by which they limit the quantity of goods which they will accept from any particular firm. The United States is in a similar position, and Great Britain also. France and Belgium, who were large producers of textiles before the war, had their mills either demolished by the Germans during their occupation or their organization broken up, and have been unable to adopt the allotment system, by which they limit the quantity of goods which they will accept from any particular firm. The United States is in a similar position, and Great Britain also.

GETTING OUR CASE BEFORE CANADA

Toronto Globe Has Picture of Congested Harbor and Some Facts About St. John. The activity of the Commercial Club and Board of Trade of St. John is bearing fruit. In the Toronto Globe of Tuesday is reproduced a photograph showing the recent congestion in St. John harbor, under the title "Carrying Canada's Goods Overseas." Under the picture is this: "A view of part of the harbor of St. John, N. B., taken January 10 of this year, is shown above. From this port Canadian products are carried to foreign markets. St. John is one of the dominion's greatest winter ports. On the day in question there were twenty-eight ocean-going vessels in the harbor. The picture shows grain elevators of the C. N. R. and C. P. R., docks crowded with merchandise, and vessels coming up the harbor to unload or take on cargo." On another page, under the heading "St. John's Record as a Winter Port," is this: "Eastern Canada's two great winter ports are scenes of activity during the present season when the harbors of the St. Lawrence are ice-bound. Figures given elsewhere in the export section indicate the extent of the dominion's external trade. An increasing amount of the grain export trade passes through the three eastern ports served by the Canadian railroads. St. John has now a population of about 68,000. In the annual report of the Board of Trade of St. John for 1919 the developments of the year are traced, and the advantages of the port are set forth. Figures set forth by the Board of Trade indicate the following in connection with port movements: 1919 - Exports, $149,986,167 (imports, $15,702,446); grain exports, 1,918,191, 16,295,373 bushels, valued at $38,046,208; customs receipts 1919-1919, $3,244,424.22. Vessels entered in 1919, 2,182; registered tonnage, 1,289,280; vessels cleared, 2,090; register tonnage, 1,204,011."

SOLE LEATHER FIRMEST SPOT

Poorer grades of upper leather have declined to the extent of about ten per cent on the average, and on the better grades of uppers which constitute the major part of the output of Canadian tanneries there has been relative strength. The depression in the hide market that occurred some weeks ago is no longer as large a factor in the trade. South American hides are higher, and in addition to the strong market in Buenos Aires, Canadians have to pay for their shipments in American funds. This applies also in the case of hide imports, although the United States. Tanners report that there is a more liberal buying movement on the part of shoe manufacturers than was the case a few weeks ago. There is less expectation in trade circles that prices will be lowered. The situation is being watched with interest in the hope that prices would slump. The price decline was not as steep as was expected, and buying is more general. In addition to the domestic trade there is a fair volume of export business to the United States, France, Italy and Greece. The inquiries have been quite numerous, and some tanners claim to have transacted a good volume of foreign business. The sole leather market is relatively firmer and more active than other departments. No complaints are heard about the state of the harness trade, and some export is passing. American sole leather tanners are talking quite freely of higher prices.

EXPORT BUYERS WILLING TO PAY Prices Much Above Market Offered for Stocks - Points to a Scarcity.

(Toronto Globe.) Inquiries for lumber from all sources is, if anything, more insistent since the turn of the year than it was in the preceding months. Eastern hardwoods are in demand for the British and United States markets, as well as for the home trade. Export buyers are willing to pay prices practically $25 in advance of the current market prices in their anxiety to get stocks. Quite a number of Quebec representatives of British and American companies. The buying is of a varied nature. Plans for furniture, agricultural implement and automobile industries figure prominently, especially the last named.

SHOE MEN LOOK FOR ADVANCES

Trade Opinion Says Full Year Before Prices Can Decline. An American contemporary says that the end of the high shoe price movement is not yet in sight, and in the retail trade of the United States there is heard repeatedly the assurance that consumers are going to pay still higher prices. Predictions are not reassuring so far as the wearer is concerned, since the trade authorities agree in stating that no ease-off in prices can be expected for at least a year. Some are inclined to think it will be two years before conditions will permit a down-grade movement. A year from the present date is given as the earliest period in

DIDN'T KNOW WELL DAY FOR 5 YEARS

President of Parent Teachers' Association Says Tanlac Should be Kept in Every Home.

"It certainly is wonderful how quickly the right medicine will get a person to feeling right again," said Mrs. O. J. Wheeler, residing at 1301 Harrison street, Kansas City, Missouri, while discussing the merits of Tanlac, recently.

"Five years ago I received injuries in a fall, which resulted in my health becoming very poor and I could get nothing to do me any good. Then in the Spring of last year I was taken down with the 'flu,' and being already in a weakened run-down condition, the attack was extremely severe on me. I was left with no appetite and my stomach in a worse condition than ever before. I could hardly eat anything without suffering intense pain and such a pressure on my heart that I could scarcely breathe. I was losing weight, had the worst sort of headaches and was so dizzy at times I could hardly walk. I also had severe pains in the small of my back suffered with heartburn, constipation and bloating, and never knew what a well day was."

"I had been reading the testimonials for Tanlac for some time and, as some of them were given by people of my acquaintance, I concluded to try the medicine myself. Well, it just seemed to my case exactly and has acted so differently from other medicines I have used. By the time my first bottle was gone I had a good appetite and the gas had stopped forming on my stomach. Then I bought another bottle, then another and so on and just kept improving until my ailments all disappeared. I am now enjoying better health than I have in five years. In fact, I am feeling unusually strong and well and all the thanks and gratitude for this wonderful change in my condition belongs to Tanlac. If everybody knew its value as I do no home would be without it."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Company and F. W. Munro under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative. (Adv.)

W. W. P. A. HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

Decide to Give up Theatre Ushering—Officers Elected—Excellent Reports Presented.

The Young Women's Patriotic Association heard with great regret that its secretary, Miss Madeline Desoyes declined re-election at the annual meeting held last night in the G. W. V. A. rooms. Miss Desoyes has been untiring in her efforts for the association. At the meeting she was given a bouquet of roses by the president, Miss Nan Brock, on behalf of the association, and a beautifully worded address of appreciation of her work was read by Miss Alice Fairweather. Miss Nan Brock was re-elected president by acclamation. All reports dealt of splendid work done in a wide range of activities during the year. Considerable new business was dealt with.

A telegram of greeting was read from the former president, Miss Jessie Church, now in Calgary.

The treasurer, Miss Helen Short, gave an excellent report and was tendered a vote of thanks. Miss Charlotte Dodge reported for the ushering committee, saying that 105 members had ushered. She announced that ushering at the Imperial would be discontinued after February 7 as it was difficult to get the required number of girls each night. The manager had accepted this decision of the Y. W. P. A. regretfully and said he would endeavor still to have girls usher in the Imperial.

Miss W. Upham, for the Seaman's Mission, reported average weekly receipts of $150 and practically no profit. Miss Marion Irvine, for the Thrift Society, reported thirty-four members and 947 stamps sold. On her motion the $1,000 which the Y. W. P. A. has injected in Thrift stamps will be kept intact for the purpose of being handed over to the city for a war memorial, when the city decides on the form which it was memorial shall take.

Miss Desoyes, for the entertainment committee, reported ten concerts. Miss A. Farwell reported for the East St. John Hospital visiting nurses and decided that a plate should be placed in the head nurses' room to commemorate the association's gift of furnishing. Letters of thanks for gifts were received from Miss Agnes Warner and the D. S. C. R. A vote of $25 was made in response to an appeal from the Playgrounds Association. The annual service bureau of Canada asked for assistance in forming a women's division in its power. In response to an appeal from newly families a gift of two months' rent and a weekly income of $5 while needed would be sent to a soldier's wife and a supply of coal was sent to a deserving case. At the request of the Anti-Tuberculosis Association, it was decided that the next meeting should be devoted to its interests.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Miss Nan Brock; first vice-president, Miss Alice Fairweather; second vice-president, Miss C. Dodge; third vice-president, Miss L. Sheldon; secretary, Miss Alward; treasurer, Miss Helen Short; standard bearer, Miss Sarah Collins; executive, the Misses Upham, Desoyes, Hatch, Frink, Dixon, Boyer, Allingham, Bolton, Irvine and Killen. Miss Desoyes, in her report, said ushering had netted $793 and the treasurer's statement told of total receipts of $4,899.59 and balance on hand, $1,961.04.

The secretary's report was submitted by Miss Madeline Desoyes. In it reference was made to the registering of members and the imposing of a membership fee which had made the enrollment total 150 active members and to the loss to the society in the removal from the city of Miss Jessie Church and Miss Helen Church and several members of the executive. The work of the association as recorded in the report told of most praiseworthy accomplishment. Included in that work were the ushering at the Imperial Theatre under the co-ventorship of the Misses Dodge, Dixon and Sheldon, which had brought $793 to the funds; the work at the Seaman's canteen under the co-ventorship of Miss Upham and the visiting at the East St. John Hospital, which the association supplies with many gifts and which is celebrated for Christmas. Record was also given of the assistance which the Y. W. P. A. rendered the Veterans in selling tickets for an entertainment, the part taken by it in the Thrift stamp campaign, the catering for Ypres anniversary dinner, assistance given on Vimy Ridge Day, the serving at the breakfast for the 29th Battalion and the 13th Reserve Battalion; the taking over of the tennis courts of the St. John club, the carrying out of many enterprises in connection with Soldiers' Joy Day, the travellers' banquet and the G. W. V. A. fair, netting $700 at the fair, the holding of a rummage sale for the benefit of the Navy League; catering for the artillery dance, for which services a gift of $100 was received; the providing of many entertainments in local institutions, assisting in the sale of Victory bonds, by which a commission of $275 was realized, the distribution of Christmas cheer to nine needy soldiers' families.

greatly enjoyed and referred to the finances of the association, which showed a present balance of $1,961.04; total receipts, $4,899.59; total expenses, $3,998.55. The very lengthy list of money gifts by the Y. W. P. A. contained in the report told of a wonderful work of kindness.

In concluding Miss Desoyes said in her report: "The association was very fortunate in being addressed by several speakers of unusual interest and ability during the year. Among these were: Miss Agnes Warner, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Hooper, Miss Matheson, Miss Bell of Rothesay, and Capt. Peire of the Y. M. C. A. Many testimonials of appreciation have been received by the association in the course of the year. Among them we greatly prize the gift of an ebony gavel from the St. George's Society, and also the selection of our president to act as judge of the Soldiers' Day parade; but most of all should be mentioned the thought of a young English sailor who wrote, enclosing a one pound note, to express his appreciation of the kindness shown him by the Y. W. P. A. during his stay in St. John, which was the most enjoyable he had ever experienced. Special mention should be made of the splendid help of our friends at the Old Ladies Home in knitting socks for the sailors, which were distributed at the annual treat December 19th. Over 200 pairs were knitted altogether.

On the occasion of the sailing of Lady Dorothy Cavendish from this port to England, among these meetings will take place the Y. W. P. A. extended its best wishes for her happiness, accompanied by a gift of a basket of American beauty roses.

The carefully prepared report closed with a stirring appeal to avoid the danger of forgetting past years and to remember the motto of the organization, "Not for myself but for God and the King."

The letter received from the grateful sailor to which Miss Desoyes referred was as follows:— S. S. Messina, St. John, N. B., Dec. 9th. Dear Madam:— Enclosed please find an English one pound note, which you will see to change at any bank, as a subscription towards the funds of your association. In appreciation of the efforts of many of your members in making the stay in St. John one of the most enjoyable I have had in any port throughout the world. Engaging and assuring every station in all the different branches of its laudable work.

Sincerely yours, HENRI CAMPBELL, 2nd Engineer S. S. Messina. The Secretary, Y. W. P. A.

HE DARKENED HIS GRAY HAIR

Tells How He Did It. Mr. J. A. McCrea, a well known resident of San Francisco, who was called to San Francisco on account of his white hair, and who darkened it with a home-made mixture, recently made the following statement: "Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Orlex Compound and 1/4 ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply the mixture twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. It does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."

RETIREMENT FUND FOR SECRETARIES OF THE Y. M. C. A.

Toronto, Jan. 22.—The president-elect of the Canadian Young Men's Christian Association, Abner Kingman, made his first appearance at the convention at the Toronto Central Y. M. C. this morning, opening devotional exercises with an inspiring address. The training of secretaries was discussed.

The increasing of the national club from thirty-seven members to seventy-two was officially adopted. "I believe it was unfair the way the secretaries have been treated and also ministers. We work them until their usefulness is past and then let them go when it is too late for them to take up any other work," said J. A. Tory, president of the board. The convention approved of the scheme of the Young Men's Christian Association retirement fund for North America. This fund is to provide a pension for "Y" secretaries and will go into effect when the secretary reaches the age of sixty, though he need not necessarily retire at that age. A fraternal delegation from the Young Women's Christian Association was welcomed by the president.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE TOURIST ASSOCIATION

At the annual meeting of the N. B. Tourist Association, held in their rooms in Germain street last evening, it was decided to carry on the work of the organization until the meeting in June of the All N. B. Tourist and Resources League when the future of the association would be decided.

E. A. Schofield, the president, who occupied the chair, in a short address reviewed the work of the year. He mentioned the benefits derived from magazine articles, photos and moving pictures of the province. He suggested securing a larger membership in different counties at a small annual fee. The association was assured the co-operation of the C. P. R. and N. C. management and the city and provincial officials also had expressed themselves pleased with the efforts of the association to bring the attraction of the province to the attention of sportsmen and tourists.

After some discussion it was finally decided to continue the association until the meeting of the All N. B. League, which will be held in June. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, N. R. Dabry; first vice-president, L. P. D. Tilley; second vice-president, J. H. Marr; treasurer, C. C. Currie; auditor, H. W. Rising; members of executive—E. A. Schofield, W. S. Fisher, R. T. Hayes, R. E. Armstrong, H. C. Rankine, L. Rising, W. I. C. Mackay, A. L. Gibbs, Thomas P. Regan, J. E. Secord, Frank Pills, H. V. McKinnon, W. McCready, D. W. Ledingham, F. J. McCafferty and W. Harry Allen.

CHIME OF 48 BELLS TO RING FOR LIBERTY

New Association Plans Musical Tower in Memory of Fighters in the War. Every child in America is to be asked to give at least a penny toward the erection in New York of a victory bell tower in the tower of a classical library building to commemorate the silent ones in France and the men who risked their all for liberty, but were not called to the utmost sacrifice. Mrs. James Wallace, founder of the Victory Chimes and Carillon Association, 19 West Ninth street, announced yesterday that the organization had been chartered and would begin a campaign for funds during "Music Week," Feb. 1 to 7. Mrs. Wallace said the plan contemplated a series of forty-eight bells, one for each of the states and a forty-ninth bell, the largest in the world. She said that a callion differs from an ordinary chime since the last named reproduces only the white notes of the piano, while scale. The big bell, she said, would be tolled only once in four years at the inauguration of a president or on the occasion of the death of a president. The victory chimes will play three times a day, pealing one a day a victory anthem composed for children, sounding the Star Spangled Banner at sunset and America at noon. It is hoped their music will prove an inspiration to the foreign-born American sculptors who are to be entrusted with the task of designing the bells, each of which is to be adorned in high relief with the bust of eight history-makers chosen by the people of the

BOY SCOUT WORK SHOWS GROWTH IN THE LAST YEAR

It was decided at the annual meeting of the provincial Boy Scouts' Association held at Bond's last night, to open provincial headquarters in St. John within the next few weeks.

H. O. Eamann, assistant provincial commissioner, in his report, referred to the appointment of Prof. Stiles of Fredericton, who was provincial commissioner, to a wider field in the Boy Scout movement in the Dominion. The training camp at Chipman, last summer, had an attendance of 100 per cent. larger than in 1918. A great deal of work had been done in developing all around scouts and, as a result, 634 badges were awarded in 1919, as compared with 197 in 1918. Last year thirty-two troops, with an enrollment of 808, were reported, as compared with twenty-nine with 713 members in 1918. There were fifty-eight officers, as compared with thirty-nine the previous year.

As the result of the work done in war service by the boys, in the victory loan campaign, thrift stamp campaign, Red Cross work, etc., eighty-two war service badges were issued.

The St. John Ambulance first aid competition for Boy Scouts and Cadets was won by the scouts, who got first and second places, St. John's, West St. John, winning first and Trinity, St. John, second.

Committees were appointed to deal with the following questions: Suitable winter uniform, provincial emblem (cloth badge), better quality of uniform and equipment and a better distribution of it.

Something will be done with regard to more definite registration of troops at provincial headquarters and a certificate in the form of a charter will be issued.

A motion was passed expressing the appreciation of the council for the practical interest taken in the Boy Scout movement by the St. John Commercial Club.

The following officers were elected: Provincial president, S. E. Elkin; provincial commissioner, A. C. Shelton; assistant provincial commissioner, H. O. Eamann; vice-presidents, R. D. Paterson, St. John; J. B. Tohill, Fredericton; J. P. Atherton, Sussex; provincial secretary, F. W. Hewitson; provincial treasurer, E. H. Turnbull; executive committee, the officers and A. M. Belding, F. W. Daniel, J. A. Tilton, C. H. Peters, T. E. Simpson, Rev. J. S. Gregg, J. M. Ross, R. S. Inglicton and all the district commissioners throughout the province.

A. C. Shelton was chairman of the evening.

Ross Matter Settled.

Ottawa, Jan. 22.—The government, acting on the advice of its council, Messrs. Tilley and Meredith, of Toronto, has finally settled for two million dollars the claim of Sir Charles Ross for compensation for the expropriation of his rifle factory and plant at Quebec, under the War Measures Act in March of 1917.

REV. DR. BOYLE GUEST OF STUDENTS OF LAW SCHOOL

Rev. Dr. J. Stange Boyle, president of King's College University, was the guest of honor at a banquet given last evening at the Chocolate Shop by the students' society of King's College Law School. Several members of the faculty and about thirty-five students were present at the function, which was presided over by the president of the students' society, F. W. W. Bartlett. After a delicious dinner had been served, the chairman introduced the guest of the evening.

Rev. Dr. Boyle, in his opening remarks, expressed his pleasure at being able to partake of the hospitality of the law students of the university. He had not decided to deliver a lecture. He had come mainly to establish personal relations between the law branch of the university and the university at Windsor. He thought that the large attendance at the school, thirty-five or thirty-six, augured well for the future of the college as a whole. He had just received a check for $800 for the university from a member of the faculty of the law school, which in itself would make him glad to have visited St. John.

He thought that a topic which would be of interest to the students was that of reconstruction. They were in the midst of a new era in the world's development, and he doubted if the world ever again would go through such a cataclysm as it had suffered during the last five years. He thought the word reconstruction should be construction, for the very foundations had been destroyed and everything would have to be built from the very bottom.

All the nations of the world were once more in harmony with Germany, with the exception of the United States, but in spite of the peace that had been declared, people sought in vain for fruits of peace, and humanity had not yet seen the better world which preachers had said would be the result of the great war. During the last fifteen months there had been more hardships and distress to a great portion of the world than there had been during the war. Many were not very hopeful and he himself was among them. People were more extravagant than ever before. The economic condition had not been improved, and it was necessary to be very serious minded about the future of the race. Great material and industrial development had been prophesied, but if they were to look only for such profits as the result of the war, the blood of the brave defenders of the empire had been shed in vain.

He did not believe that the war had come as a punishment for misdeeds, but he hoped that a renewed moral and spiritual type of endeavor would be one of the results of it. He thought the war had renewed and strengthened the sense of duty which was supposed to be one of the attributes of the Anglo-Saxon race, but which had grown lax in recent years. Another inherent Anglo-Saxon virtue, and the sanctity of home and sacredness of marriage which, when lost, meant the ruin of a nation, as had been borne out by history, were still to be strengthened if the nation were to really achieve greatness. He thought that the people of this country were also in danger of losing their faith. They must try to develop these three essentials, duty, chivalry and faith.

He concluded by saying that he hoped for the time when the law school would be united geographically with the rest of the university, but that they should be united in spirit already, and he hoped to cement their relationship by intercollegiate debates.

Dr. Boyle Campbell moved a vote of thanks to the speaker and expressed to the chairman the regrets of the dean, Chief Justice H. A. McKeown, who was unavoidably absent.

E. J. Chambers seconded the motion and a vote of thanks was tendered by the president, Judge J. B. Armstrong, Dr. W. W. White, J. F. H. Teed, and J. Pollard Lewis, all members of the faculty, expressed their appreciation of Dr. Boyle's address, and thanks to the student body for the excellent dinner of which they had partaken.

A Regal Coat of Unspotted Ermine and Sable Is This Evening Wrap.

A Short Jacket of Squirrel Tied Jauntily About the Waist with Lemon and Vermilion Ribbon.

Brown Caracul Makes This Smart Short Coat.

By
Mme. Frances
The Famous Creator of Fashions

SINCE man first wrapped the skin of a wild beast around his body and then slew another such beast to make a garment for "the female of the species," there never has been such luxury and loveliness in peltry as the winter of 1919-20 has produced.

Paris has designed luxurious wraps of sable, moleskin, chinchilla and seal, but the land in which the Hudson Bay Company planted their traps still supplies the world with thousands of pelts and the American manufacturers have demonstrated their ability to create garments of fur that even Paris cannot duplicate.

A sable coat priced at $40,000 made up on this side is a rare work of the furrier's art, and a chinchilla coat valued at $15,000 shows the soft texture of this gray fur in the graceful dolman lines that are observed in so many of the season's models.

The furriers will tell you that the most popular pelts are seal, moleskin, squirrel, mink, caracul, baby lamb and fisher.

Coats of Muskrat

The natural muskrat coats are popular for young girls and for motor wear, and the Hudson seal and the Alaska seal garments are most in demand for general use. A coat of real sealskin that shows brown in the depths when the fur is blown and runs to brown in its tones throughout, is rare enough these days.

The Alaska seal industry is now under the protection of the United States government. Each skin is dyed under a guarantee and the Alaska pelts are said to be taking precedence over the Hudson sealskin. The qualities of skins vary of course and the price has jumped 30 per cent. in six months. A coat of Alaska seal 43 ing coat fabric that lends itself to fur trimming.

Fur-lined coats are observed, but the peltry is more often shown on the outside. Wool fabrics, such as duvetyne or velour, are combined with fur for street wear, and the most luxurious cloth coats show effective touches of hand embroidery.

Beaver is a fur often seen this winter because it tones so well with the popular brown costumes and with those of reindeer tan. Brown caracul is sought for the same reason. The dark color of skunk makes it effective both in the form of deep collars and cuffs and also as narrow bands of trimming on evening and afternoon dresses. Kolinsky is charming with either brown or black, and like most brown furs is very becoming to the complexion.

Pillow-Shaped Muffs

Muffs run to the generous pillow shape and the barrel outline. The demand for muffs has been greatly enlivened by the fashion of wearing short sleeves. Muffs and neckpieces manage to achieve novelty in the form of box pleats.

Coat collars are high, most of them being shirred to give fullness at the back of the neck. Cuffs are very, very deep and the bell-shaped sleeve is extremely popular. Three-quarter sleeves are observed, but common sense prevails in peltry and unless a fur garment is a dolman with slashed armholes and sleevelets the sleeves are apt to reach to the wrist.

A whole chapter might be written on the beauty of the linings of this season's fur coats. Brocade in self tones and contrasting figures are much observed. Charmeuse satin overlaid with softly shirred chiffon cloth or Georgette crepe produces an interesting lining and the monotone and brocade linings of cerise, robin's egg blue and old gold are exquisite. Chiffon velvet makes a luxurious fur coat lining. Velvet with a tiny cording of a contrasting velvet in the seams and around the edges is also seen. A chinchilla coat is effectively lined with gray velvet. Or a coat of jade green velvet cuffed and collared with chinchilla or squirrel may be lined with gray velvet in sympathetic color. An ermine coat is lined with ivory white velvet that carries a cording of coral velvet. On the lining of many evening wraps are frequently introduced hand-made flowers wrought from colored taffeta and metallic cloth.

The fur coats illustrated display the charm of infinite variety, ranging as they do from the short walking coat to the full length day and evening wraps.

Coat of Gray Squirrel

The short coat of gray squirrel wears a lemon and vermilion ribbon tied jauntily about the waist. It fastens with gray buttons and silk braid loops. The contrast of the soft gray fur with the vivid coloring of the two-tone sash ribbon is extremely effective.

The other short coat is brown caracul whose bell sleeves show a ruffle of fawn colored chiffon, knife pleated. A contrasting pleating that matches the lining or tones with the costume with which it is worn may be substituted. This coat swings from the shoulders in the slightly flared lines and ripples a trifle in the back and the front.

The coat of sealskin is designed for imperviousness to winter's coldest blast. An interesting cuff is featured on this coat. The bell sleeves are slashed and turned back to show a cuff of silver cloth in striking contrast to the vivid cerise lining of charmeuse satin. The silver cuff is faced with sealskin, which is, of course, a continuation of the sleeve.

The bouffant hip line has invaded even furdom, and on this model bouffant pleats are accented by the snugly tied girdle of pleated silver ending in silver tassels of the same tarnished hue. Two narrow folds of royal purple charmeuse show inside the cuffs. The interesting turban worn with this coat is silver cloth strapped with black velvet.

To the evening belongs the graceful dolman of ermine draped in lines that lift in front as the hands are snugly wrapped beneath its generous folds. The deep collar displays the superb markings of sable in the soft gray-brown tones that characterize this fur.

The Fashion Forecast

Reindeer tan will continue to be a favorite street color for early spring wear. It will be closely followed by dove gray.

RECREATIONAL CENTRE FOR GIRLS FORMALLY OPENED

The new recreational centre of the Y. W. C. A. in King street East, was thrown open to the public for a house warming last night and the public in large numbers availed itself of the privilege. A short exhibition of physical exercises and games by two of the senior classes in the gymnasium was watched with interest. The visitors were afterwards taken to the lower room where the brief but interesting programme of addresses and music was given. A social hour, a tour of the building and serving of refreshments concluded the opening ceremony. Mrs. John A. McAvity presided at the meeting and told of the ideals and hopes of the Y. W. C. A. in opening this new building for the girls of the city. After Mrs. J. Milton Barnes had delighted the gathering with a piano solo, Miss K. McK. Matheson, the general secretary of the Y. W. C. A. in a very straightforward and impressive talk on recreation, re-creation and wreck-creation and told how the new centre was designed to supply for girls the excitement for which they had natural craving in a form that would be helpful and uplifting. She said that it was proposed to have in the building, not only the gymnasium classes but to arrange for games, entertainments and social gatherings in the lower room. She spoke of the intention of the Y. W. C. A. to present motion pictures, to gather clubs of factory girls and business girls for special evenings of the week and on others to have the girls and their boy friends meet and take part in amusements that both could enjoy. Miss Louise Knight sang two songs with sweetness and charm. Mrs. McAvity told of the intention of the Y. W. C. A. that the small rest room on the lower floor should be used by the girls in the city for a place to keep appointments, or a place where they might bring their lunch at noon. The neat and cosy kitchen, it was intended, would produce hot drinks and soups at moderate cost and possibly a canteen might develop in the future. Refreshments were served under the convership of Mrs. J. D. Hunter and the waitresses were girls from the King street Y. W. C. A. home, the Misses Eccles, Rowley, Chapman, Fitzgerald, Greenlaw, May and Maunderville and Mrs. Demick. The rest room, with its gaily colored chintzes and its comfortable chairs and lounges and its cheerful fire, was much admired as were all the arrangements of the recreational centre, now formally started in its career to be a genial gathering place for the girls of the city.

NEW SCHEME FOR DEVELOPMENT OF LARGER HARBOR

How best to protect St. John harbor from heavy seas, great tides and undertow, formed a live topic of discussion last evening at a meeting of the St. John branch of the Canadian Engineering Institute in the old post office building. F. W. Holt, C. E., read an interesting paper on the subject. He also proposed the development of the entire section of the west side from Sheldon's Point to Negro Point, the reclaimed land to be used for manufacturing purposes and for dock terminals. Instead of a continuation of the Negro Point breakwater to Partridge Island, he proposed the construction of a breakwater 1,000 feet long to the westward of the island and extending to Sheldon's Point, leaving the passage between the island and the mainland open. He believed in building a breakwater side-on to the sea and not bow-on. He admitted that the development of the locality he mentioned and the construction of a long breakwater would cost a very large sum, but thought it would be financially possible and profitable as well. He mentioned the fact that $25,000,000 had been spent in developing Halifax harbor.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured by B.B.B.

Rheumatism is a constitutional disease, caused by the uric acid in the blood. It manifests itself by pain and lameness attacking the muscles and joints of the body, which often swell and become hot and inflamed. Anyone who has suffered month after month, and perhaps year after year, with rheumatism, and who has tried remedy after remedy in the hope of relief, and without success, should not give up hope. Burdock Blood Bitters, by invigorating the digestive organs and eliminating the uric acid from the system, will give prompt and permanent relief. Mrs. D. Barry, Puritbrook, Ont., writes: "I feel it my duty to let you know of the great benefit my husband derived from using your Burdock Blood Bitters. He had been suffering for the past two years with inflammatory rheumatism. He tried many medicines but got no better. A friend advised him to take B. B. B. He did so, and after taking five bottles he felt like a new man, and was able to go to work the same as ever. Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for over 40 years. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont."

GREAT NEED FOR PUBLIC SUPPORT WAS EMPHASIZED

Claims of Free Kindergartens Presented at Annual Meeting

The great need which the Free Kindergarten Association has at present for the support of the public was emphasized in the reports presented at the annual meeting held last night in the Union street kindergarten with the president, Mrs. T. N. Vincent, in the chair. It was brought to the attention of the members that the salaries of the teachers have been raised and the funds are at a low ebb. The association feels that the work which it is doing is of prime importance in the community and should be incorporated with the schools under the department of education. The meeting, which was largely attended, was concerned with the nominating of officers for the St. John Local Council of Women. It took up and discussed the women's platform, as sent out by the national council. The president spoke of the request of the Children's Aid Society that the kindergarten association should renew an offer made some time ago, to the effect that the association would provide kindergarten instruction in the Children's Home, instead of the children being taken to attend the kindergarten. Though very anxious to comply with the request of the Children's Aid, the association felt that the state of its finances did not permit of its undertaking any more work. In the treasurer's report, Mrs. J. W. V. Lawlor made special reference to the excellent work done by the secretary, Mrs. W. F. Rowe, in personal solicitation of subscriptions and also drew attention to the fact that $374.61 was the total of the amount in the treasury at present. An excellent report was submitted by the secretary, Mrs. W. F. Rowe. The treasurer, Mrs. J. W. V. Lawlor, reported total receipts of $3,682.07. The increase in salaries during the year totalled $550.

WOULD RESERVE MILL-POND SITE FOR THE PRESENT

At the session of the board of trade council at noon yesterday the first business was the presentation of the report of the harbor and shipping committee, which covered the conference with the city, shipping and railway interests with respect to such urgent port needs as the extension of Negretown Point breakwater, increase of conveyor equipment on the government piers and the establishment of wireless direction-finding stations in the bay; also recent conference at Ottawa urging these works and increased C. N. R. wharf and railway extensions here, and a brief report on the inspection of the harbor which was recently made by two parliamentary representatives. The report was adopted and the thanks of the committee were extended to Mr. Wigmore, M.P. for assistance rendered the Ottawa delegates, to Dr. A. P. Barnhill for his active championship interests, and D. W. Ledingham for his kindness in placing a steamer at the disposal of the harbor committee on Saturday last. Mr. Wetmore further reported with respect to calls the delegates made upon the Vice-President Grant Hall of the C. P. R., the Montreal Board of Trade and Mr. Pennell, secretary of the Montreal Harbor Commission. The report was adopted. The secretary reported that the Commercial Club was co-operating with the board of trade in the address to be delivered in the G. W. V. A. hall by Prof. Robertson in February. The matter of a further reference to the government on the matter of the business profits tax was referred to the legislative committee. The secretary was authorized to become a member of the American Association of Port Authorities, an international body. A suggestion with respect to the reservation of the Mill Pond site on the west side, until the matter of the disposition of the harbor had been determined was referred to the harbor committee to take up with the city authorities. The embargo against Canadian freight at Niagara was brought up and a resolution was passed, in which it was pointed out that this condition emphasized very forcibly the need for the early development of the winter ports of eastern Canada and for the supplying at the earliest possible period of additional railway trackage at these ports, so that Canadian exporters and importers might have ample opportunities for the handling of their traffic on Canadian soil in winter as in summer, and that this point of view be urged upon the members of the Canadian cabinet and upon the railway corporation having eastern Canadian connection. The membership application of Charles Archibald was approved.

JURY RETURNS. OPEN VERDICT. Following two and a half hours of testimony, and deliberations which occupied almost an hour, a coroner's jury which met last night in the court room, Masonic Building, to enquire into the death of Alfred E. Corbett, who was killed last Friday evening in the C. N. R. yards, returned the verdict that he had met his death on January 16 while employed as train foreman by the Canadian National Railways and "the cause of death was that while endeavoring to open a knuckle on one of the cars of the Boston train, four other cars attached to the engine, backed down, catching him between the buffers of the vestibule, crushing his skull." The jury was unable to say what caused the cars to come back. Horace A. Porter presided and his jury was composed of Howard W. Phinney, Edward R. Baxter, Charles M. Linsley, Gordon C. Allan, Charles Lefford, John K. Parsons and J. J. Irvine. Evidence was given by Charles McCal-

Shots at the King Pin.
The Eagles thought they were woodpeckers from the way they chopped the pins.

New pins proved a puzzle to some of the bowlers. Properly played high scores are just as easy to make with new as with old pins. Fewer fakes are the rule with new pins but on the other hand they have more spring to them and spares can be made by jumping the pins across the alley in a way that is impossible with old pins.

Well, the Sparrows are still winning—but the series is not over.

The Eagles played a nice game in their final string and had got away to a better start things might have been different.

Wales and his brothers were going last week says a New York paper.

Col. E. S. Evans, C. B. had driven his ball towards the seventh hole, when he saw a large grey crow swoop down, pick up the ball and fly away with it.

Venacity is proved by the added detail that the ball was not recovered. Had the story been a romance of the "nineteenth hole" the crew would assuredly have helped the colored to do the seventh hole in one.

Stars Will Be Insured.
New York, Jan. 22.—Earl Caddock, the Iowa wrestler, is expected to arrive in this city this week and establish local headquarters where he will complete his training for his match against Joe Stecher, Nebraska scissor-hold expert, at Madison Square Garden on Jan. 30.

Caddock expects to do his training at Great Neck, L. I. He hired Jack Curley, promoter of the coming match, that he was leaving Chicago yesterday, and will be accompanied by a retinue of training partners who will assist him in his work at Great Neck. Stecher, who has been delayed in his journey from Omaha, is also expected to arrive here today. The Nebraska probably will select a local gymnasium as his training quarters.

Promoter Curley has made arrangements to insure both Caddock and Stecher against accident, which would cause an abandonment of the coming title match. The wrestling promoter plans to take out $25,000 policies on both grapplers. This insurance, Curley figures, will protect him against financial loss in the event that either wrestler

PROHIBITION EASES
POLICEMEN'S WORK

Sigh With Relief at Disappearance of Fighting, Crying and Singing Jags

The Auto Dodger Vanishes and Many More Types Which Are Broadly Spoken of as "Drunk and Disorderly."

Now that the prohibition enforcement act is everywhere in effect, it may be well to record some police impressions of a type of prisoner which is in a fair way to disappear entirely from the life of the city, says the New York Times. It is a type classed by the police as "drunk and disorderly," and although the public is more or less unfamiliar with the type, the police have been intimately acquainted with it for years. Since the enforcement act, much to the relief of the police, this prisoner has ceased to be a guest at the station houses.

"There are many types," a police lieutenant said, "of intoxicated prisoners, but perhaps the most common is what we call the Saturday night drunk. He is the type which starts out on payday night to have a good time, and then after imbibing too freely gets into a fight and winds up in a station house cell. Regularly on Saturday nights many such found their way to the station some with cut and bleeding heads and others without money or valuables. "Another type that we all dreaded, yet which never failed to put in an appearance, was the fellow with a 'singing jag.' On being brought into the house he would at once burst into song, if you could call it such. He would keep it up in his cell until the wee small hours, and neither threats nor pleadings had any effect on him. He would keep both cops and prisoners awake most of the night. "His antithesis was the fellow with a 'crying jag,' who on being dragged to the desk would tell you, shedding tears of contrition, that he had never been arrested before, and was disgraced forever. Seeing this had no effect, he would tell you confidently that he belonged to one of the oldest and best city families, and that if he was not granted his liberty instantly the cop who locked him up, and those responsible for his shame would hear from the mayor or governor in the morning. "A less familiar type is known as the automobile dodger. This individual liked to cross busy streets and see how near he could come to passing automobiles without being struck. It tickled his risibilities to the breaking point to see the discomfiture of some chauffeur who almost upset his car to prevent hitting him. "Perhaps the worst 'drunk' and the kind most dreaded by a policeman is the 'fighting drunk' who wants to lick every one in sight, but whose greatest ambition is to lick a cop. Needless to say, ways end most disastrously for Mr. Drunk, because his ready fists are no match for a policeman's billy. Similar to the drunken pugilist is the purely destructive fellow. He may not care exactly for a fist encounter, but he delights in breaking dishes or furniture, as a rule his own, and is tickled to death if he can smash a mirror in a bar-room. "A common variety is the flirtatious drunk. He is ordinarily a well-behaved person who would not think of annoying a lady if he were not under the influence of liquor, but on being lit up he imagines that he is irresistible and that every pretty girl he sees is eager to make his acquaintance. "There is the 'profane drunk' and the 'hell-roaring drunk,' the latter usually being a little fellow who wants you to believe that neither Dempsey, the best cop that ever wore a uniform, nor the late John L. Sullivan in his prime was a match for him. He is the last person in the world who is really spelling for a fight, and if it came to a showdown he would run for his life. He is all bluff and bluster. "The intoxicated chauffeur is another type. On running down a pedestrian he is charged with felonious assault, reckless driving, perhaps, and intoxication. He is not too drunk to realize the seriousness of his predicament and on being locked up he will deny that he was drunk while operating his machine. The police do not always depend on their own judgment but send for an interne from a city hospital, and one way of making a test is to have the prisoner walk a straight and narrow line. "The police often do what they can to assist well-meaning but intoxicated persons who have found their way to station houses. After several of these have spent several hours in sleep in station house cells they are given a cup of warm coffee and are usually able to go to night court, where, after being fined, they return to their homes, more sober and wiser men, and are able to go to work the following morning.

Antimony Mine.

Walter F. Dixon, of New York, vice-president of the Antimony Mine Co. has come to Lake George to supervise the installation of a boiler at the mine, which weighs eighteen tons and of 220 horse power. B. Mooney of St. John, has the contract. When the boiler is installed the main shaft, which is now sunk 900 feet, will be extended to 500 feet, making drifts east and west, or every 100 feet level to the mine, and mining operations commenced.

Alkali in Shampoos Bad For Washing Hair

Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is just plain mulled coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and sandruff.
