Say Orientals Must Be Sent Away or Business Will Be Lost—One Excited Citizen Assaults Every Chinese He Meets

(Canadian Press) Vancouver, B. C., April 6.—The shocking murder of Mrs. Charles Millard, the young wife of the chief ticket agent of the C. P. R., at the terminal depot in this city, has stirred the city profoundly. Aside from the question of the crime itself, the fact that it is alleged she was killed by her Chinese servant, who for five years had lived in the Millard home, has brought the whole burning oriental question to the fore here.

FERNHILL

Annual Meeting of the Lot-holders Held Today

THE WORK OF THE YEAR

Great Growth of the Perpetual Care Fund—Matter of Street Railway Extension to The Cemetery

Following the last meeting of the retiring board of directors at three o'clock, the annual meeting of the lot holders of the Fernhill Cemetery Co. was held at four o'clock this afternoon in the board of trade rooms, Prince William street, Hon. J. G. Forbes presiding.

The business before the meeting included consideration of the reports of the president, the superintendent and the auditor and the election of directors for the coming year. The executive and the lot committee will be chosen at a subsequent meeting of the new board of directors.

The report of the directors to the lot owners is as follows: Your board of directors beg to submit for your information, this morning the sixth annual report, with the report of the superintendent, and statement of the receipts and expenditures for the year as prepared by our secretary-treasurer, with the auditor's report.

The company was organized in 1908 under the name of "The St. John Rural Cemetery Company," which was subsequently changed to the name "Fernhill Cemetery Company."

The work of the year marked no special change in management; the directors and lot committee have made frequent visits to the cemetery during the summer to inspect and approve of the work being done, and the superintendent has discharged his duties with faithfulness and marked efficiency.

The directors have paid a great deal of attention to the preparation of new lots, and for the purpose of removing the rock in South and Central avenues have purchased a steam drill, with necessary powers to operate same, at a cost of $481.46. With this needed aid (Continued on page 9, sixth column)

A Crisis in Affairs Of New Brunswick

Provincial Capital Centre of Interest Today Because of Valley Railway Bill—What Will the Governor Do?

Fredericton, April 6.—(Special)—The feeling in political circles grows more tense every hour. People are asking what the lieutenant-governor will do if the government forces through the house a measure to place another $2,000,000 at the disposal of the St. John and Quebec Railway Company, without telling what has been done with the money already provided. The silence of the St. John Standard today is regarded as very significant. What will the members do, especially the St. John members, if an attempt is made to raise the treasury without giving the people full information? Has any deal been arranged at Ottawa? If so what is its nature? It is universally felt that the next twenty-four hours are fraught with great significance for the province. The premier and his colleagues are greatly worried but they are not alone in that respect. These supporters realize that they also have reached a crisis in their political affairs, and that the eyes of the country are upon them. If they fall in their duty, will Lt. Gov. Wood intervene?

Reasons why the lieutenant-governor should call a halt are many and grave. Look at this aspect of the question alone. It can be proved that $28,000 a mile will build the line from Gagetown to Centerville, complete. It can be proved that much less than $28,000 a mile has been spent upon the 117 miles nearly done. But how does the matter stand? The province and the Dominion government have provided for this 117 miles $2,728,000 from the bonds and $543,000 in Dominion subsidy, as $3,271,000, which is about $28,000 a mile. But it will take $400,000 more to finish this 117 miles, and the company owns the contractors on this section some $200,000 or more, making $800,000.

Where Has the Money Gone? Where is this $800,000? The contractors haven't got it. It didn't go into the railway. If other works, while there has been ample money provided to finish this 117 mile section, it isn't finished. It will require $800,000 more. What has become of that enormous sum? How can the Legislature dare to propose another guarantee of $2,000,000 until this matter and many more have been cleared up? If the evidence is produced to show the actual cost of the work done up to date, the first thing made clear will be that there is no valid reason for another $2,000,000. Why, then, is it that sum being asked for by Mr. Fleming and Mr. Gould? Remember that it will be easy to prove the cost of the work already done on the 117 miles, and equally simple to fix the actual cost of adding lines, rails, and fastenings. Subtract the actual cost of this mileage from the sum of money provided to build it and there will be left an enormous sum to be accounted for before another dollar is voted.

It is realized here that there is a certain crisis in the Legislature who are determined to ward off inquiry, and rush the big bond guarantee through, but the Governor's attitude is still in doubt and it is believed there are certain members of the house—unknown but increasing number—who are disposed to demand a complete exhibition of all the facts before they will consent to further legislation. These men are looking to the future.

Reports of a reorganization of the provincial government. A persistent rumor is current that Hon. Mr. Flemming will resign the premiership at the close of the present session. Premier Fleming is reported to have told an intimate friend that but for the fact that he did not want to leave Hon. Mr. Clark in difficulty he would have resigned before. Hon. Mr. Clark is to succeed to premiership according to this report.

INTER-SOCIETY LEAGUE AND JUNIORS ALSO

St. Peter's Y. M. A. Ball Plans—Tennis on This Summer's Sporting List

An inter-society league and a junior league in baseball are planned for the St. Peter's Y. M. A., for the coming summer. The former is to have a team entered from the membership and the other to be composed of the younger boys who are not yet members but who will play on the grounds in the rear of the church, put in order by the Y. M. A. boys. Four teams, it is expected will be entered in the inter-society league but names cannot yet be mentioned definitely.

A new feature of the summer work of the association this year is to be the opening of a tennis court, which committee composed of J. J. McDonnell, J. U. Haggerty and Thos. McGovern have been appointed. The summer is being looked forward to with interest. Preparations are now being made for a summer camp for the members at Chapel Grove under arrangements similar to those of last year and quite a few of the young men are expected to take advantage. The last fixture of the winter programme, the annual banquet, will take place this year on April 22.

THE POLICE COURT

John Laird, arrested on last Tuesday charged with stealing some pieces of lumber from the Christie Woodworking Company, was allowed to go this morning under suspended sentence. His brother said the man was not responsible for what he did. The prisoner said he would pay Mr. Christie for what he had taken.

Two other prisoners on remand were given their liberty on condition that they abstain from drinking. One man from Campbellton said he came to the city about five days before he was arrested and that when he came here he had $40 with him but he could not say what had become of it. He thought, however, he must have spent the whole of it as he had treated several chaps in different bars.

Thomas Keating, arrested on Saturday, was fined $5 or two months with hard labor. Four other prisoners were remanded. They all pleaded guilty to being drunk.

Ernest Givney was given in charge on Saturday evening on a charge of using threatening language to George Sealey of the Imperial theatre. Mr. Sealey said the prisoner had been refused a ticket as he had been drinking and was ordered out. He had to be ejected and when outside shook his fist at the complainant and threatened him. It also came out in evidence that the man used profane language in the street. He was fined $20 or two months in jail and $8 or two months for the profanity.

TO PUT TO DEATH BENTON'S SLAYER

Major Ferris To Be Executed On Commission's Report

NOW IN PENITENTIARY

Executor of U. S. Consular Agent Carriers Cancelled by Huerta But Washington Not Worried

Juarez, Mexico, April 6.—Major Rodolfo Ferris of General Villa's staff is to be executed as the result of an investigation by a commission appointed by General Carranza into the killing of Wm. S. Benton on February 17. This was announced here today with a statement that the report of the commission's finding is practically complete.

Ferris is now in a penitentiary in Chihuahua City. He has been relieved of his command in the regular army, stripped of his rank, and is being held by Villa's orders.

The report will show that when Benton approached Villa in the latter's office, to Juarez, Villa ordered Ferris to place him under arrest and take him by train to Chihuahua City that night and place him in a penitentiary.

Washington, April 6.—The Huerta government has cancelled the executorship of U. S. consular agent Carrothers, because he forwarded to Washington news that Torreon had fallen. State department officials here were not disturbed at the order. The U. S. government intends to keep in touch with General Villa and the Constitutional leaders to make prompt representation for the safety of American and other foreigners. Official notice of the explosion of 600 Spaniards in General Villa's camp was expected at Washington today.

Mexico City, April 6.—The government still refuses to admit that Torreon has fallen. Two Mexican military trains were stopped here by soldiers and it is believed soldiers killed on a train by the rebels.

IS ARCHDEACON OF CAPE BRETON

Rev. T. F. Draper Appointed—Cook Sentence Postponed

Halifax, N. S., April 6.—The Bishop of Nova Scotia has appointed Rev. T. F. Draper, rector of Louisbourg, as archdeacon of Cape Breton. The sentence of Edward Cook, convicted of the murder of a Syrian pedlar has been postponed for a fortnight. Counsel for Cook has made application for a crown case reserved.

PRESIDENT IS WITNESS

Caillaux Had Threatened to Kill Figaro Editor Paris, April 6.—"If Calmette does that, I will kill him," were the words, according to the Matin, with which Joseph Caillaux concluded his statement to President Poincare, that Calmette intended to print private letters. This was testified to by President Poincare, at his taking of his deposition on Sunday.

M. Caillaux himself asked Henry Bourcier, the investigating magistrate, that the deposition of the president be taken in support of his contention that he really believed Calmette was about to make public details of his private life. The citation of the president was unprecedented, and the chamber raised difficulties, pointing out that such a step was not provided for by the constitution.

But M. Poincare signified his desire to do his duty as citizens, and an article in the code promulgated in 1882, prescribing the manner in which the evidence of royalty and high dignitaries should be taken, was revived to fit the present case.

President Poincare further testified that he was so impressed by his interview with M. Caillaux that, changing to meet Premier Doumergue he told him of the circumstances and asked him to try to calm M. Caillaux and prevent him from taking any rash action.

THREE NEW FIRE STATIONS ARE RECOMMENDED BY COMMISSIONER

New Lights, New Motor Fire Apparatus Also in Mr. McLellan's Annual Report—Surplus in all Departments

Street Lighting

There are at present 869 arc lights and thirty-seven hundred-watt lamps for street use. He will recommend the installation of twenty more arc-lights and ten more tungsten. The surplus was $1,624.81.

The department showed a surplus of $6,937.98. The commissioner disclaims any responsibility for the police department and reports upon it very briefly. The surplus was $19,524.59.

The creation of three new fire stations, the purchase of four pieces of motor-driven fire apparatus, provision for thirty new street lights, repaving North and South Market streets, the provision of a proper office for the building inspection department, and the appointment of a larger staff are among the recommendations made by H. R. McLellan, safety commissioner, in his annual report, submitted to the common council this afternoon. He was able to report a surplus on the operations of each of the departments under his control.

He refers with regret to the loss of Chief Kerr and speaks in complimentary terms of the new chief, George Blake. Considerable repair work was done to the stations. In some cases these were only temporary and he recommends a new site and building for No. 4 station, as the site may be required by the railway, and the building is beyond repair; a new station to replace No. 3 H. and L., as the present one is inadequate, and a building to replace No. 1 H. and L., which, he says, should be given over to the police department for the ambulance and patrol wagons and mounts for the officers. He suggests the construction of a modern station on the corner of King and Carmarthen streets, now occupied by the public works bureau.

The immediate purchase of motor-driven and operated pumping engine in combination with a chemical and hose wagon, an 85 foot aerial ladder truck, a runabout for the chief are recommended, and he also draws attention to the need of providing motor apparatus for the salvage corps when securing a combination pump, chemical and hose wagon.

The opening shoot of the St. John Gun Club was held on Saturday afternoon and was fairly well attended. Two matches were shot, twenty-five birds each, under handicap conditions. In the first match, six men tied for first place, T. H. Estabrooks, W. E. McIntyre, J. Gillis, W. G. McIntyre, J. L. McAvity and A. Dinamore. Mr. Estabrooks won the shoot off, with W. E. McIntyre second.

In the second event, nine men tied. They were H. Gilbert, W. E. McIntyre, W. G. McIntyre, J. L. McAvity, J. McGonee, T. H. Estabrooks, J. Lalacheur, C. L. Osborne and A. Dinamore. In the shoot off T. H. Estabrooks and W. E. McIntyre again tied. As the light was getting bad, the men tossed for first prize, Mr. Estabrooks winning.

Col. J. L. McAvity won the prize for the highest actual breakage having scored forty-two out of fifty; W. G. McIntyre had 41; J. Gillis, 40; J. W. Andrews, 39; F. J. Shreve, 37, and A. Dinamore, 36.

McHugh on March 16 with intent to do grievous bodily harm all the prisoners pleaded not guilty today. The complainant McHugh was the only witness examined this morning. D. Mullin, K. C., is appearing for the attorney-general, J. A. Barry for Dixon, L. A. Conlon for Bushman, and E. S. Ritchie for Currie.

Unionists Face Certain Defeat

Second Reading of Home Rule Bill—Lloyd George Predicts Handsome Majority—Carson May Have Proposal

(Canadian Press) London, April 6.—Facing certain defeat in vote on second reading of the home rule bill in the house of commons tonight, Unionists rallied all their available strength today and brought their heaviest oratorical artillery into action. Sir Edward Carson and Bonar Law were the chief speakers against the government, demanding the exclusion of Ulster from the working of the home rule bill.

All the speeches touched on federalism, the legacy of the last epoch of conciliation proposals put forward by the liberal ministry. Although Mr. Asquith was not present, the fight of the government in behalf of the home rule bill, was in able bands, including Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland. Lloyd George, who has been ill, was strongly urged to present this evening to speak in favor of home rule. He said he would attend even at the sacrifice of his health. He assured the supporters of the government that he believed the second reading of the bill would pass by a handsome majority.

The Daily Mail says that on the conclusion of the debate today, Sir Edward Carson will make another suggestion for settlement. It will be to the effect that Ulster be excluded from the provisions of the home rule measure until the federal system is applied to the whole of the United Kingdom, when the whole question will be reconsidered.

One huffragette was so badly injured that she had to be taken to a hospital. The "General" Nobby London, April 6.—General Mrs. Flora Drummond, a militant suffragette, shrieked so loudly when she was arraigned today in the police court in connection with suffragette disturbances at a Unionist demonstration in Hyde Park on Saturday, that she had to be forcibly removed. She would not allow either the magistrates or the prosecuting attorney to utter an audible word.

When Mrs. Drummond entered the prisoner's enclosure, she shouted at the top of her voice that she would not permit any one but herself to speak, because, she said, the magistrates and the police courts were doing the dirty work of Premier Asquith. She then proceeded to bombard the court with volleys of verbal shrapnel, until she was carried out by wardens.

The magistrates said she would hear the case later in the day.

Hats and Coats Torn Off and Punching and Scratching Made Visitors Flee—Mrs. Drummond is Noisy

(Canadian Press) Cork, Ireland, April 6.—The girls working in the flax mills at Blackpool, in this county yesterday, maned a crowd of militant suffragettes, who were attempting to do some proselytizing to the cause. The girls tore off the hats and coats of the suffragettes and hustled them around in lively fashion. The militants were punched, pinched and scratched, and were finally chased away from the mills.

One huffragette was so badly injured that she had to be taken to a hospital. THE PLAY WITHOUT A NAME

Outside of the fact that the Thompson-Woods Shoe Company will produce tonight for the first time on any stage a brand new play, which has caused more than ordinary interest among the theatre-goers of St. John, there is another new feature which has also caused much comment. That is the introduction, in St. John, of the very latest Parisian "fad," a colored wig to match an evening gown. During the course of the "play without a name," Miss Majorie Davis, the petit ingenue of the company, will wear the dearest little Copenhagen blue gown imaginable, with a wig of the same color to match.

FAIRVILLE NEWS

First Steel For New Bridge Over Falls Arrives

The first shipment of steel for the new bridge across the falls arrived on Saturday and was hauled near the office of the engineer. It is said that work will be rushed from this out. A large pile of gravel is now available for concrete manufacture. Water for mixing is being piped from the Provincial Hospital.

About five o'clock on Sunday morning fire was discovered in the jewelry and watch repairing shop of J. W. McDuffie in Main street, immediately opposite the post office in the centre of the village. The fire bell was rung vigorously but it was some little time before the general public became aware of the fact, while a neighbor, Robert Watson, possessing a fire extinguisher, used it with good effect and prevented the flames from spreading until the department arrived with the hose.

There is quite a lot of talk pointing toward incendiarism as the fire started under the window front and at a most unusual hour.

Chemicals used by Mr. McDuffie in his work caused two explosions which blew out the plate glass window. A great smoke was raised and the family upstairs had some difficulty in getting out. After a time the fire was subdued, though the store premises are pretty badly gutted and the stock and tools destroyed.

The fire was very spectacular and many sightseers were attracted to the scene. The building is reported insured. This happening again brings to the attention of the authorities the need of police protection after midnight or even a watchman to go on duty during the long night hours.

In the Methodist church yesterday morning letters of appreciation to the residents of Fairville who contributed or helped in any way during the Metropolitan campaign were read by Rev. Gilbert Barie from Major Moore and Major Taylor of the Salvation Army. Though most of the amounts contributed in this section were small the subscriptions were gladly offered and this fact was commented upon in both letters.

"Respectively of some current reports," said the chairman of the committee of protest regarding the tuberculosis hospital here, "we are not going to be swayed by anything of consequence. Everything has been done that is possible to remove even the suggestion."

"As far as I can see," he continued, "Douglas avenue people did not enter a protest forcibly enough when the rumor was first busy with that location, and we are not going to be caught napping. Some real estate owners are asking what the board of trade committee will do in view of the general agitation we feel like making public the statement that no stone will be left unturned to remove this thing from politics or any outside issue and prevent the idea from gaining favor by stragling it at the very outset."

A slight fire occurred in the wood shed adjoining the home of John Duff on Saturday afternoon about 6 o'clock and the fire department quickly responded to the alarm. Both engine and hose cart were taken to the scene. The damage did not amount to anything of consequence.

The pulpit in the Fairville Baptist church was occupied yesterday and last night by Rev. Mr. Hayward, of Philadelphia, a former St. John boy, but who has for several years been residing in the United States. At the Fairville Methodist church yesterday morning two letters, one from Major Moore and the other from Major Taylor, of the Salvation Army, were read, thanking the citizens of Fairville for their generous cooperation in making the metropolitan campaign fund a success.

With the wind blowing a gale and the temperature thirty-four degrees. Mrs. Elizabeth Mesick was baptised on last Sunday by immersion in the Connecticut River at Hartford.

Terrible Dizzy Spells

Would Come Over Me

The Nerves Were on Edge—Noises Excited and Irritated—System Restored by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

Overworking and underresting—these words describe the cause of many a woman's physical breakdown. The body is a delicately-constructed machine, calculated to perform only a certain number of hours without rest. If overworked there is no time allowed for the reconstruction of the wasted cells, and breakdown is inevitable.

Rest is absolutely necessary to every woman who allows herself to become run down from overwork. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will help wonderfully in bringing back health and strength of mind and body. Women are particularly enthusiastic in praise of this great food, because no treatment was ever discovered that will so thoroughly restore vigor, energy and vitality to the tired, overworked and run-down nervous system.

Mrs. T. P. Cullen, Fairview Farm, Shepard, Alta., writes: "My nervous system was so run down and exhausted that terrible dizzy spells would come over me, and I would have most peculiar feelings. Everything appeared as if it was falling on me, and caused me to jump after taking a few steps. While in this frightfully nervous condition I heard of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and began to use it. This treatment built up my nervous system and completely cured me, and for this reason I am always glad to recommend it for the sake of those who suffer as I did."

No ailments cause greater suffering than diseases of the nerves, for they affect mind as well as body. You can get the nerves right by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.50. All dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

NOVEL BROOD.

The Best Food in the world is good Home-made Bread made of Six Turtle Eggs Hatched by Indian Hen—Five Turtles Alive.

An original plan for hatching turtles was evolved when William Sills, 601 Locust street, set an old hen on six turtle eggs a few months ago. All the eggs hatched out and five of the turtles are now living.

One afternoon Sills, while out near Pigeon Creek, in the northern part of Evansville, saw some turtle eggs along the bank of the stream. He took them home with him, and as one of his old hens was off duty at that time he put her on the turtle eggs. About ten days elapsed. One morning in looking under the hen Sills was surprised to find six little turtles moving around. He immediately obtained a tub and let the turtles have exercise in the water. The old hen acted just the same as if they were her chicks, and any offender, whether it was a cat or a mouse, received a well-deserved peck.

The hen seemed worried when it discovered the little ones, unlike her old chicks, could swim around in the water and she ran around the outside of the tub and tried to get in with them. A fisherman gave Sills an old mother turtle to put with the little ones. Sills tried it, but the affections of the little turtles could not be alienated from the old hen and they went to her when they felt they needed mothering. Now the turtles have grown somewhat and stay in the water all day. Sills has a basin in his back yard with about one foot of water. The hen still acts unfriendly to any intruder and sometimes endangers her own life by trying to get into the water with the turtles. But when night comes the turtles are taken from the basin and they crawl back to the old hen. Lightning and thunder also bring them under the protection of her wings, but on rainy days all mother love is lost and they seek the out of doors.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

BUDGET SPEECH WILL BE DOLEFUL

Ottawa, April 5.—Hon. W. T. White, minister of finance, will deliver his budget speech tomorrow afternoon, when the general financial conditions of the country will be outlined and tariff changes, if any, will be announced.

The speech of the finance minister will probably take up the whole of the afternoon sitting, and at night the opposition's financial critic, A. K. McLean, of Halifax, will reply.

The speech of Mr. McLean will conclude with a Liberal amendment declaring for free foodstuffs, including free wheat and flour, and for free agricultural implements. The debate will continue until Easter, and will be resumed after the recess.

Some of the announcements concerning financial conditions which Mr. White will make, can be gathered from the monthly financial statement issued yesterday covering revenue, and expenditures entered in the books of the finance department up to March 31 last. The March statement again shows a decrease in revenue, and increases in expenditures.

For the fiscal year, the total revenue, thus far entered up, is $100,488,528, as compared with $105,289,137 for the same period preceding, or a decrease for the past year of $4,800,609.

For the month of March alone, a decrease of two and a half millions is recorded in revenues compared with March of last year. A heavy dropping off of customs revenue is responsible for the decrease.

Big Decrease in Revenue. The total customs revenue received up to March 31, was $108,558,492, as against $112,558,528 received up to the end of March 1913, or a decrease for the year just ended of $4,000,036.

For the past fiscal year, the post office has helped to counterbalance the decreases in other departments to the extent of an increase of a million, and railway receipts on the Intercolonial to the extent of another million.

Carriage of Extravagance. Despite falling revenues, expenditures under the administration of the present government have shown a record increase. Current expenditure, which comprises the ordinary expenses of administration, totals $102,221,183, as against $95,625,018 entered up to March 31, 1913, or an increase for the past year of $6,596,165.

Expenditure on capital account, including railways and canals, railway subsidies, etc., totals so far $31,286,184 for the fiscal year just ended, as compared with only $25,758,456 entered at the same date for the preceding year, or an increase of $5,527,728.

These figures, however, are, of course, not the final figures for the fiscal year. It will be two or three months yet before all the returns are in and the accounts for the year are closed. As a basis of comparison, however, they are fairly reliable.

The net debt at the end of the last month was $315,019,288, as against

People Have Learned To Think for Themselves

On Health, Disease and Medicine—No Longer Mystified by Terms—Give Credit to Medicines That Cure

A decade or two has witnessed a wonderful change in matters regarding health and sanitation. The magazines and newspapers abound in information and people have learned to think and study for themselves. They no longer follow blindly the instructions of doctors but soon grow sceptical if results are not satisfactory.

And it is results that count. It does not pay to be prejudiced against a medicine just because it is advertised. Almost every medicine that is largely advertised first proved a big success in private practice.

If you are suffering from some derangement of the nerves, for instance, you will be interested in what people are saying almost daily in this paper about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. It is truly wonderful the cures that are being brought about by this great prescription of the famous Receipt Book author. Nerve prostration, nervous headaches, nervous dyspepsia, irritability, Melancholia and all the distressing forms of nervous depression and exhaustion are being cured by this great food cure.

So many business men and business women find themselves tired in mind and body, unable to sleep and rest and yet do not realize how close they are to nervous breakdown and paralysis. Women in the home, too, find the work and worry more than their systems can bear, and long for the help that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food can so well supply.

Study out the symptoms for yourself and if you need a restorative for the nerves put Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to the test. The results will surprise and delight you.

BOYS WORK CONFERENCE A GREAT SUCCESS

Sessions on Saturday and Sunday — Brought to a Close Last Evening With Consecration Service

The Boys' Work Conference was ended yesterday with a consecration service in St. David's church. On Saturday afternoon the proceedings began with meditation and singing, followed by an address by Taylor Statten, who spoke of The Canadian Standard Efficiency Test for Boys, and by addresses by Rev. I. S. Nowlin, who took as his subject "Workers With Boys"; Rev. Mr. Halpenny whose subject was Older Boy Teachers; Taylor Statten, who spoke of the High School Boys; and C. H. Curley, whose theme was Workers in Boys' Organizations. In the evening A. S. McAllister, of Halifax, national secretary of the Y. M. C. A. for the maritime provinces, gave an address on The Y. M. C. A. and the Sunday School. This was followed by music and by an instructive address by Rev. Mr. Halpenny.

Yesterday morning Mr. Statten addressed the Y. M. C. A. boys before the ordinary church service which was attended by the delegates. Mr. Statten addressed a large number of boys in St. David's church yesterday afternoon urging them to try and live a right life and to be clean in thought and speech. Another meeting was held in Leinster street church when Rev. Mr. Halpenny spoke to parents on their duty towards their children.

The concluding part of the proceedings of the conference was held in St. David's church last evening and consisted of a farewell service conducted by Mr. Statten followed by a consecration ceremony. After thanking those who had helped to make the conference a success, Mr. Statten said that it was between the ages of fourteen and eighteen that boys decided either to lead a Christian life or to go on in the old way. He spoke of a mother's influence at this critical period, and again appealed to these parents to be clean in both thought and speech, clean in athletics and in all other things. After referring to the work of the conference in various centres, including Vancouver, Calgary, Saskatoon, Quebec and Winnipeg, Mr. Statten called upon the numerous delegates to read their reports of the resolutions come to by the boys in their respective localities, namely St. John, St. Stephen, Miramichi, Chipman, Sackville, Moncton, Sackville, Fredericton, Northumberland county, Sussex. Mr. Watt presented the report of the credentials committee.

The consecration ceremony was very impressive. Mr. Statten called upon the boys to stand up and form a circle round the church, holding hands, whilst they sang "Blest be the tie that binds." Between the verses they engaged in silent prayer, still holding hands, each boy praying first for the boy on his right, then for the boy on his left and lastly himself.

The conference ended by Rev. J. A. MacKellan giving the benediction.

MAY OPERATE THE COBBLER-SEXTON MINE

(Hartland Observer.) The directors of the Cobler-Sexton mine are hopeful for big developments in the mining situation during the next few months. The promoters have spent several thousand dollars in tunnelling and for development purposes, but they had not sufficient capital to make a success of the undertaking. Some thirty assays of small quantities show the ore rich in gold and copper. A few months ago Shepherd Estey of New York, formerly of this county, came and was much impressed with the character of the ore. Upon his return to New York the company shipped a carload of ore to him. A letter from him last week stated that the assay was not entirely through the different processes, but he was satisfied that it was all right. He gave Hon. W. P. Jones power of attorney, and as soon as the company can guarantee him the controlling stock, not to be passed over to him, however, until he has erected his plant, he will proceed to build, upon the advice of his engineers, a smelter and concentrator and install the necessary plant. It is estimated that he will spend in the neighborhood of half a million dollars.

Asquith's Platform
London, April 5—Right Hon. Mr. Asquith opened his campaign in East Fife on Saturday and was given a warm welcome. Sir James Scott, presided at a monster meeting held in honor of the statesman, whom he introduced as the greatest parliamentarian they had yet known. Mr. Asquith made a notable speech in which he said that the Liberals were firm in their stand for the carrying of Home Rule. He believed a settlement by consent the best for all concerned but nothing could be done to swerve him from his purpose of having it established. Home rule is also needed in the rest

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use the Old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody Will Know

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhance its appearance a hundred fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it restores so naturally and evenly. You need not a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.—Agent—Watson's, 9 stores.

Beware of the DANGEROUS AGITATORS

To the Editor of the New York Tribune:—Sir—Edmund Hurton's letter in the Tribune in which he says the owners of real estate in New York should show the "dangerous agitators" (Single Taxers, low renters, etc.) that their presence in the city will not be tolerated, reads like a suggestion for an old-fashioned middle party, or, at least, forcible deportation of the agitators. At the time I appeared upon this earth on a Virginia farm, certain "dangerous agitators" known as "abolitionists" were creating Hurtonian wrath in the South, and the Tribune was editorially demanding what my people called "separation" of their chattel slave property. The slave owners took the same view of the abolition agitation that Mr. Hurton takes of the present single tax agitation; and we know the results. Abolitionists were in some cases forcibly deported from southern communities, and some met a more painful fate. Nevertheless, those "dangerous agitators" continued the agitation "to rob the slave owners of their property," as the Southern Harbinger of that day expressed it; and as I say, we know the result. But for that agitation and the ensuing rumpus, I should have inherited enough negro slaves to work for me and provide me with the comforts of life without exertion on my part. Instead of leaving us Southern slave owners in peaceful possession of our "lawful property"—negro slaves—to whom we were giving enough of the products of their labor to keep them in fit condition to provide us with comforts and luxuries, great armies of agitators ("dangerous," as we learned) descended upon the South and forcibly deprived us of our "property," by force of arms and "without due process of law." Thus, I have been compelled to earn my own living, instead of having enough negro slaves to earn my living and theirs, too. Nevertheless, I thank the Tribune and the "dangerous agitators" of that day for the work they did in preventing me from becoming a slave owner. As a land owner, I hope to live long enough to be able to thank present day agitators for taking away from me the now lawful but immoral power to appropriate for my private use the land values created by the people. As a land-owner, I believe that power is as immoral and as dangerous to society as would have been my power to appropriate the labor products of slaves. As a land-owner, I see no moral difference between private appropriation of the slave's products and private appropriation of the

MOTHER! GIVE CROSS SICK CHILD ONLY 'CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS'

IF Peevish, Feverish, Tongue Coated, Give "Fruit Laxative" at Once

No matter what ails your child a laxative should be the first treatment given. Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign your "little one's" stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, system full of cold, throat sore, or if feverish, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in just a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels and you have a well, playful child again. Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless fruit laxative. Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

He will keep down your living costs and give you Good Potatoes.

You throw away frequently from one-fifth to one-quarter of the potatoes you now buy, don't you? This makes the good ones you have left pretty costly.

Let us bring you, each week, nice, carefully selected, hand-picked Potatoes, in peck packages or larger quantities, if you like. We will leave them right at your kitchen door, and guarantee them to be good. You pay no more for them, yet they are cheaper, because you do not waste potatoes.

DEBATE OVER BILL ON THE FISHERIES TREATY

Washington, April 6—Representatives in congress from the Canadian border states are preparing for a lively debate on the Flood bill to carry into effect the treaty with Great Britain concerning the fisheries in water contiguous to the United States and Canada, signed on April 1, 1908. The bill, which was voted on the calendar ready to be called up at any time in the house. The foreign affairs committee, which reported the measure, amended it to meet the objection of American fishermen on Lake Erie, who said the bill would bar the use of trap nets, the only kind the fishermen of the American side said they could use, while the Canadians use only the pound nets. The lake fishermen asserted that they would be put out of business if the bill passed without the amendment, which suspends the regulation prohibiting trap nets in treaty waters, the suspension to continue until the international fisheries commission revises the regulations and congress approves the revision.

"G—good evening," said the young man who had come to speak to the young girl's father.

"Good evening," said the father. "You look a little nervous. How do you feel?"

"Flattered," said the young man. "I was afraid I looked scared to death."

How To Be A Winner In The North End Voting Contest

FIRST

Be sure to ask for voting coupons that our cashier will give with every purchase. Every 50. purchase will entitle you to five votes; 100. purchase to 10 votes, and so on. If you do not want a premium yourself, save your votes for a friend. Give us the names of one or two boys and girls and we will start them in the contest and tell them how to get votes.

SECOND

Hand in your name at the office of any of these five stores and become registered as a contestant. Your name will not be published, but you will be given a number, and every Friday the standing of the contestants by number will be posted on a Bulletin Board. Be sure to register now. The earlier the better. Each contestant who registers his or her name will be given 5,000 votes gratis, as a starter.

THIRD

Ask your friends, who may not be contestants, to save their votes for you. Later on, watch our advertisements for special sales upon which extra votes will be given.

FOURTH

Hand in your votes each Wednesday at any of these stores. Votes should be sorted out in proper denominations, the smallest vote coupons on top, the largest at the bottom, and tied in a package with your number plainly written thereon and the number of votes in the package. Each contestant should also write the word "personal" on his or her package.

FIFTH

In addition to the big prizes to be awarded on October 1st, November 1st, December 1st, January 1st, there will be a piece of Bogens' Silverware given each week to those who personally hand in the greatest number of votes each Wednesday. Votes deposited for your number by friends will count towards the big prizes, but only those votes personally collected and deposited by a duly registered contestant will count towards the weekly prizes. That is why contestants should mark their packages "Personal."

Contestants who win weekly prizes do not lose any votes on the big premiums. Votes keep adding up just the same. But—note carefully—any contestant who fails personally to record votes for four (4) consecutive weeks, will be dropped and his number assigned to another person.

SIXTH

One Contestant may win any number of weekly prizes. But each winner of the four Grand Prizes must drop out of contest when prize is awarded. In this way one contestant may win only one Grand Prize.

No Member of the Firms, Employees or Relatives of Either, Can be a Contestant

MOST IMPORTANT—Do all your buying at these five North End Stores and be sure to get votes with every purchase

How He Did It.

INSTEAD OF DOING OTHERWISE.

Wife—How nice it would be if all things in this world would work in harmony.
Hubby—Wouldn't it though? For instance, if coal would go up and down with the thermometer.

As we were waiting at Deadwood for the coach to Ouster City I fell in with a stranger and we began to talk about road agents and holdups and I asked him if he thought the road safe.
"It's hard to say," he replied. "You may get through all right, and then you may be held up before going ten miles."

A SWELLED HEAD.

Manager—What's the trouble with that prima donna. She used to be very pleasant and considerate.
Stage Manager—Yes, but she has gotten so she believes all the press agents wrote about her.

"There will be five men of us. We ought to be able to stand off a highwayman."
"Yes, unless he gets the drop on you."
"But if we are on the watch how can he get the drop on us?"
"Why, you see—well, I can't exactly explain, but he will probably do it. I'm in something of a hurry now, but should we meet again I'll tell you how the boys generally work it."

Four hours later, as the coach was toiling up a long wooded hill, there was a loud command of "Hands Up!" and as we came to a standstill a man with a gun in either hand appeared at the heads of the leading horses and called out:

"Now, then, everybody down except the driver, and if I catch sight of a pistol I shall pop away at the owner before asking any questions. Get into line and keep your hands up!"

I was hardly down before I recognized my Deadwood friend. I was at the head of the line, and as he came up he laughed and said:

"You see how it is done, don't you? I hadn't time to explain this morning, and now you see for yourself."

"Yes, I see. Is this a joke or business?"
"Straight business, sir. Shell out!"

DON'T WABBLE.

Don't you wobble! Make a bluff
And laugh at what assails you.
Show the world you are the stuff
And prove that nothing ails you.

Don't you wobble! Stand up straight!
With courage all the bolder
Double your fist up at fate
And hit right from the shoulder.

A HARD WINTER.

It's going to be a hard winter.
How can you tell?
By the size of the salary I'm getting.

DOCTOR'S DISAGREEMENTS.

"My doctor has me puzzled. He said I must be sure to get plenty of fresh air and sunshine."
"That should be easy."
"Yes, but he forgets his first prescription and told me to shut all possible drafts and keep in the shade."

MR. FOX WAX.

Mr. Monk—I suppose your late husband made his will in your favor?
Mrs. Sly Fox—Yes, indeed, but he was very fony about it. He provided that it should go to an asylum for sick cats if I married again.

SELF-DEFENSE.

Bert—That guide shoots nearly every hunter he takes out.
Bessie—Accidentally!
Bert—No, he always claims he does it in self-defence.

A GUARANTEE.

Boo, hoo! All the kids has a holiday from school 'cep'n me.
My! My! How's that?
I'm too young to go to school yet! Boo hoo!

WOMAN'S WEAKNESS.
Howell—Is your wife a member of the "Four Hundred?"
Powell—No, I don't think she would join that organization, unless it was marked down to three, ninety-nine.

LOYAL TO HIS NAME.

First Jay—What's that English sparrow looking so solemn for?
Second Jay—He's trying to understand a joke he heard last month.

HELD FAST.

HE Old Eskimo lit a cup of walrus oil and peered over the seal-skin curtain.
"Aurora," he called sharply, "is that young man down there yet?"
"Yes, pa," answered the Eskimo belle timidly.
"Well, I want you to put him out. Understand?"
"De—you'll have to do it yourself, pa. He has been here so long he is frozen to the snow settee, and you'll have to cut him out with an ax."

WITH THE MINSTRELS.

Bones—Mister Interlocutor, can you tell me why a horse never gets hungry between meals?
Interlocutor—No, I cannot. Why is it that a horse never gets hungry between meals?
Bones—Because he always has a tail in his mouth.
Interlocutor—No, kindly Kylliam will now render that beautiful ballad "Pigs Feet Is Good Enough For Me, I ain't No Little Labeater!"

WELCOME NEWS.

"I'm going to Europe next week. Can I do anything for you over there, dear boy?"
"No, going's enough, thanks."

BOOKEND.

Teacher—Willie, where is Stockholm?

Mrs. Styles New Gowns

Did you know that Mrs. Styles had another new gown?" asked Mrs. Vise of Mrs. Howa.
"You don't mean it!"
"Indeed she has, and it never cost a penny less than $45, and it wouldn't surprise me a bit to know that it cost $50."
"Well, upon my soul! Of course it's nothing to me how many new gowns Mrs. Styles has, but I do hate to see a woman given over so completely to dress."
"So do I. Of course I don't care how many dresses she has. As you say, it's nothing to me. I don't have them to pay for. The wonder to me is how Mr. Styles ever pays for them. You know that it hasn't been six weeks since she came out in that elegant silk crepon that, to my certain knowledge, cost her $45. But, then, I don't care."
"Nor I. She can come out in a new dress every week as far as I'm concerned. You know that it was just last week that she had that expensive shifon frock with all that costly lace on it. But dear ma, I don't care!"
"Care? Why, I wouldn't care if she wore real Lyons velvet every day of her life. And that reminds me—that cape she came out in is real Lyons velvet. I just took the trouble to find out—not that I cared whether it was Lyons velvet or cotton velveteen, but then—and you remember that elegant directoire gown she wore last winter?"
"I guess I do! The set on that dress was $4.50 a yard. I know, for I saw a piece just like it at Wicks and Racy's, and I priced it just to find out. Of course it was nothing to me and I didn't really care how much she paid for it. I didn't have it to pay for. I simply wonder how she can pay for it."

FOUR SABBATHS.

"I wonder get a woman, boss?"
"Shall I show you something in safety razors?"
"Yes, boss. What do you think I want a razor for?"

IN THE CHURCHES

In the Victoria street Baptist church last evening Rev. B. H. Nobles presided over a powerful sermon on "Hail," taking as his text Matt. 26, verses 46. "And these shall go away into everlasting punishment." He said this was a theme about which people seemed reluctant to talk, although it was referred to 241 times in the Bible. He thought Hell would be worse than was generally believed, but Heaven would be better than John had explained it. The way of escape from Hell was to "believe in Jesus Christ," for by rejecting Him the way was opened to Hell. He urged his hearers to accept Christ while there was yet time.

At the close of the services more than forty members who had been received into the church in January, were given the hand of welcome at the communion service. An address was given by Rev. Mr. Barnes, the oldest Baptist minister in the maritime provinces.

In the Leinster street church last evening Rev. Wellington Camp administered the baptism to four candidates. Communion was celebrated at the close of the evening service.

In the Presbyterian church in Carleton last evening the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. A. Morison delivered his Lenten lecture on "The Jesuits and What Modern Protestants May Learn from Them." A large congregation attended, including many from the city and the discourse was followed with great attention. Special Palm Sunday services were held in the morning.

DRINK BILL OF GREAT BRITAIN

(London Daily News)

The nation's drink bill is declining, notwithstanding the astounding prosperity of the country. This is the opinion of a letter published in "The Times" of Saturday from George B. Wilson, secretary of the United Kingdom Wine and Spirit Dealers' Association.

According to Mr. Wilson, the sum spent on intoxicating liquors in the United Kingdom was £161,500,000 in 1912, compared with £151,000,000 in 1910 and £111,000,000 in 1911. Commenting on this decline, Mr. Wilson remarks that "we may, perhaps, cherish the hope that the upward tendency noted in 1910 and 1911 is being largely due to the increased trade of the country is now being checked by forces of many kinds which are making for the greater sobriety of our people."

Heart-breaking Scenes on Arrival of Death Ship at St. John's—
Fears for Safety of 173 on on Southern Cross

St. John, Nfld., April 6.—Amid silence and a funeral hush the sealing steamer Bellefleur steamed slowly up the harbor at dusk today bearing sixty-nine of the dead and fifty of the crippled survivors of the disaster three weeks ago. Hunters of the steamer Newfoundland on the ice floes near Belle Isle Straits, in last Tuesday's blizzard.

Thirteen of the living were removed to the hospital in a critical condition. Several others were seriously ill and all but one of the remainder have the scars of their forty-eight hours exposure in the Arctic gales. This uninjured survivor was stricken blind after being picked up, but it is expected he will recover his sight.

Attendants at the Grenfell Institute, which was turned into a morgue, said that the scenes accompanying the identification of the bodies were almost beyond endurance.

One woman found two bodies clasped so tightly in death that they could not be separated. They were her husband and son. The lad was wrapped in his father's arms as if the man had been trying to shield him from the pitiless cold.

The hand of another dead man was missing. One of the survivors who had lain helpless near the body for nearly forty-eight hours, said that his comrade, unable to stand the agony of frost bite, had sliced off the hand with his sea-man's knife.

A gray-haired mother, supported by her two daughters, passed down the long rows looking for her son. Attention was suddenly drawn to them when the woman fell to the floor in a faint. They had found not only the four sons and brothers, but two cousins among the dead.

Of the thirty survivors in the hospital none is expected to die, but the majority will never be fit for active service again. Three lost both hands and both feet. Five lost both feet. Each of eight others lost a foot and eleven will lose a hand or fingers. The others will bear scars for life.

Some of the survivors said they sought shelter from the Arctic gale behind the bodies of dead shipmates, but in all the delirium of the two days and nights of exposure the bodies of the dead were left inviolate. Each man of the 170 endured his lot with grim patience, and each one, the dead as well as the living, was found with his full equipment of clothes, boots and sealing gear intact.

By Tuesday, when special memorial services will be held, if the Southern Cross fails to show up, the families of her 173 men must be provided for as well as those of the Newfoundland's dead and crippled.

THE UNSEEN

Sir Oliver Lodge on Spiritual Reality

Sir Oliver Lodge lectured on "The Unseen Universe" to the Provincial Assembly of Presbyterian and Unitarian congregations of Lunenburg, and Chesapeake, which met recently in St. George's Hall, Liverpool.

Sir Oliver spoke of the many aspects of the universe of which our senses do not inform us directly and which we have to get at by inference, deduction, reasoning, or hypothesis, and he proceeded to affirm that difficulty of perception is no argument against reality of existence. Of the greatest things there is, he said, no material evidence, and therefore those who are only prepared to believe in the things of which the senses supply evidence will never know of the existence of God. But he went on to show that we are not limited to the range of evidence which is presented to the bodily senses. "We have minds," he said; "we have spirits; we have other channels of communication with the universe. We do not belong solely to the material universe. We belong also to a higher super-sensuous, unseen universe with which we are more akin, after all, than the other. It is in that region of existence that ultimately we shall find ourselves more at home, when we have sloughed this matter that we have with us for seventy or eighty years, and enter into our larger possessions."

A Theory of Genius

The strength of materialism, Sir Oliver Lodge said, was in the fact that matter appealed to our senses here and now. All we could do in the material world was to move matter. We did not know how to produce an electric current. All we could do was to put two metals in an acid and connect them by wire, or to get two pieces of matter together and spin them. There were unconscious acts like digestion that we did not manage for ourselves, "and nearly the important things," Sir Oliver added, "are done in that way—automatically. The object of training is to make actions automatic so that we may liberate our consciousness to do new things. The more cultivated a man, I presume, the more things can go on automatically without his conscious attention. I think that is what happens in cases of genius. The person goes into a brown study. His conscious mind is relieved from the conscious things of life, and his brain is able to get in contact with a higher order of things than ordinarily appeals to the senses. His senses are lulled to sleep, and he gets what is called an inspiration." Even with our receptive faculties all we perceived was configurations of matter. Speech was a method of communicating ideas through the medium of vibrations of the air. A more direct method of mental communication would be more natural, more simple, and might be more effective. "I have reason to believe," he said, "that such a method goes on though to us with difficulty because we are so accustomed to the bodily method which, for practical purposes, is the dominant method, but which need not be the dominant method when our minds are enfranchised from this material organization."

The Desires for Miracles

Taking the ether as an illustration of the existence of what our senses do not perceive, Sir Oliver gave as a reason for our lack of direct apprehension the fact that the ether is absolutely uniform and perfectly continuous, and he went on to say that what was true of the ether might be true of things of more importance. By reason of their uniformity and their unalterableness they were not discovered by our senses. There might, therefore, be a scepticism and people might call out for some modification of plan—some miracle—something to demonstrate the fact that there was guidance, control, and a scheme and plan. "I think," Sir Oliver added, "that the super-sensuous universe, though now withdrawn from our bodily ken, is open to our spiritual perceptions all the time, and we need not deal with it as with a future state. It is here and now if ever. The two aspects of the universe, the seen and the unseen must be co-existent all the time. I cannot imagine a time in the past when there was no existence, or a time in the future when there will be no existence. We are in infinity now just as we shall ever be. We are aware of matter, we are aware of mind and some of us are aware of higher things—all real though invisible and intangible; all real and in some sort of way accessible to our mental and spiritual apprehension even now. The realities of existence can be conceived, and they are probably assisting us, stimulating and guiding us in ways of which we are only half-conscious and some of us not conscious at all."

Civic House-Cleaning

As in former years a civic house-cleaning day will be observed this spring when the departments of public safety and public works will join together in carting away the winter's refuse. The members of the departments state emphatically that no ashes will be taken away by the city teams, as it would impose too much of a tax on the day's work and deprive those in the business of their means of livelihood. It is hoped that the citizens will co-operate with the departments in this work and have their premises cleaned up and the refuse gathered in piles ready for hauling away. The day set apart for the work will be announced later in the daily papers.

The Osmated Air Cure, better known as "Catarrhoxone" is death to colds. Its health-laden fumes contain the leading balsams of the pine woods.

Soothing and antiseptic, it gives instant relief—stops gagging, hawking and sneezing.

Mucous and phlegm are cleared away, breathing made easy, and Catarrh symptoms entirely disappear. Delightful and pleasant is Catarrhoxone, simple to use because you breathe it—sure to cure colds and catarrh because it destroys the cause. Doctors say nothing is more scientific, nothing possesses such might of merit in winter ills.

"To clear a cold out of your nostrils and to be able in a minute or two to breathe freely again, I can't conceive of anything being better than Catarrhoxone," writes J. H. Galvin, of Port Linton, C. B. For any sort of Catarrh, throat trouble or Bronchitis, Catarrhoxone is a specific. I know scores of people who use Catarrhoxone and all speak wonders of its merit."

PLANS MOTOR BOAT TRIP ACROSS ATLANTIC OCEAN

Toronto, April 6.—G. B. Jobiassen, a young Scot living in Toronto, is contemplating an attempt to travel from Toronto to Scotland in a motor boat. His plans, so far as he has made them, are for a covered-in affair, 30 to 40 feet long, capable of traveling from 18 to 20 knots an hour. Before leaving Montreal he would take sufficient fuel into tanks arranged along both sides of the boat and also oil for lubricating and lighting purposes. At the least he would require about 500 gallons of spirit. Questioned as to how he intended to sleep on the passage, Jobiassen thought a man could do without sleep for the first two days, and after that time he would snatch forty winks when he could. He believes he can safely navigate the craft, and even should he lose his bearings he could rely upon passing liners to show him the way. His father is a sea captain, his male folks all follow the sea, and Jobiassen himself has crossed the Atlantic several times. At present he is engaged as a mechanic in the city.

Paying Boxers a Weekly Salary

(FROM T. S. ANDREWS)

Milwaukee, Wis., April 4—Some of the boxing promoters are beginning to take lesson from the theatrical syndicate and it will not be surprising in the near future to hear of some of the prominent boxers being under contract to certain managers or promoters at a stipulated salary. In fact it seems to be the latest thing in the boxing game, to have the boxers work upon a salary basis and not for a purse or percentage. At the present time his applies to England, although there are a few cases of this kind down east. The man to start the ball rolling in this line is James White, a financier of London, who tried to pull off the Wells-Johnson contest three years ago, but owing to the sentiment against the British champion meeting a colored man, the bout was called off. It is understood that Mr. White has gathered some of the best

British boxers under a curious contract. He pays them salaries every week and provides any side bet that may be required. All purse money belongs to him and the boys must box any one with whom he fixes matches. It is said that Bombardier Wells gets $125 a week and that Sid Smith, ex-fly weight champion, gets $88 a week; while Bill Beynon, who figured as a champion for a short time, draws $80 a week. There are other boxers of whom Mr. White has secured control, but nothing has been said as to what salaries they are receiving. This story may be denied, but just the same one of the contracts was seen by a very close friend of the writer and he also assures me that the Wells contract is a fact. Under the agreement none of the boxers can get out without giving six months' notice, but Mr. White can dismiss them or cancel the agreement at any time that he desires. This may cause a little stir in boxing circles, but the story is based on facts and it will not be surprising if the same conditions are brought about in the States before a great while, if the stars continue to demand the exorbitant figures they have been asking.

Local Sport Briefs

According to the Sydney Record, Sydney is looking to St. John for baseball players for their semi-pro league. It says that it is known that there are quite a number of good baseball players that can be secured here at a reasonable salary. The racing dates for the Halifax, St. John and Charlottetown exhibitions have been so arranged that they will not conflict. The R. K. Y. C. boys held an enjoyable at home on Saturday night and gave the concert troupe of the Royal George a hearty welcome. The delegates to the Boys' Work conference for the summer months and have chosen their final arrangements will be completed soon. A valuable little piece of cardboard was in the mail awaiting Joe Page here when he came back from Nova Scotia on Saturday. It reads "Chicago White Sox American League Baseball Club—Mr. Joe Page—annual pass—Chas. A. Comiskey." Worth something, that.

Ferguson Nearly Equals The City League String Record

Makes 124 in Match in Which The Sweeps Defeat Tigers, Taking All Four Points

The Sweeps cleaned up everything in sight in their City League game with the Tigers on Black's alleys on Saturday night and Blake Ferguson, one of the Sweeps' star men, got within three pins of the single string record in this job. In his third string he came out with 124 chalked up for him, three points lower than the record, held by Davis, of the Pirates. A good crowd watched the game and Ferguson was given ringing applause. The teams scored as follows:

Table with columns for team names and scores. Sweepers: Masters 83, 88, 107, 275, 913-3; Ferguson 81, 92, 124, 297, 99; Gamblin 85, 88, 78, 240, 58; Moore 97, 92, 268, 98; Sullivan 92, 98, 90, 280, 981-3. Total 440, 461, 466, 1889. Tigers: Belyea 85, 84, 88, 267, 89; Gilmour 80, 82, 88, 251, 82-3; Gregory 87, 83, 91, 263, 973-3; Harrison 89, 88, 92, 269, 893-3; Moore 88, 90, 87, 260, 883-3. Total 494, 426, 450, 1810.

Notes of the Game

The Sweeps are coming strong after that league championship. Only one man was below ninety on Saturday. Only twenty-five pins off that 1414 record. Ferguson had his bowling eye with him all right. The way he moved 'em down was a delight. The Tigers played a good steady game, but they were not strong enough for their opponents. The only team standing between the Sweeps and victory are the Pirates, whom they will meet on Thursday night. A good game is looked for. Five Men Team Tournament. This week's games: Monday, No. 1 vs No. 2; Wednesday, No. 4 vs No. 5; Friday, No. 3 vs No. 4.

RAIDING IN THE SOUDAN

Uprisings May Lead to Anglo-Abyssinian Conflict

Advices almost weekly arrive from the district southeast of Khartoum of the raids made on British territory by the irregulars of the Abyssinian army. The other week Major James Conry and his Connacht Rangers were overwhelmed by a superior force; the major was killed, together with fifty of his men. So far representations made at Addis Ababa have been proved unavailing, as the young Negus and his government seem to be without any means of exerting their authority. The centre of the whole disturbing influence lies on the Abyssinian border of the Sudan, from the point where the River Atbara enters the Atbara district of Abyssinia to the valleys where the Blue Nile and other southern rivers cross the frontier. Having no effective central control applied to them the border tribes cross into the Sudan with impunity in search of loot and slaves, and sharp skirmishes occur with the native troops. There are now said to be over 600 Somalis held in slavery over the Abyssinian border. Representations to that effect have been received by Gen. Reginald Dyer, the governor-general of the Sudan. Major Gen. Sir Rudolf Slatin has recently been on a tour of the British posts round Kessala, on the Eritrean frontier. As Inspector General of the Sudan he has traveled all over the disturbed districts of camel trek, and going south in January, he met Viscount Kitchener, with whom he traveled to Kosti. It is understood that the question of a new railway was discussed and that it is probable that arrangements will be made to carry the present line from Senaar, on the Blue Nile, south of Khartoum, to the borders of Abyssinia. No doubt such a railway would do much to pacify the lawless district, not only because of the rapid means of distributing troops, but because legitimate trade would be stimulated and marauding would become relatively a less profitable occupation. In the meantime the Abyssinian border of the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan is in a ferment, and the situation has all the makings of a petty quarrel. Small columns are constantly operating in the disturbed region. Lieut. Col. Ravenscroft has his hands full in repressing the slave trade, but he is ably assisted by the King's African Rifles, such as Mr. Hies on the Blue Nile, Capt. Townsend on the Upper Nile, Mr. Struve on the White Nile and Captain at Mongalla. Farther to the south, near Lake Rudolf, similar raids are being made, the latest instance being the fight at Lokolok, where Lieut. Lloyd Jones, of the Middlesex Regiment, was wounded. The Third (East Africa) Battalion of the King's African Rifles have much heavy work on the Abyssinian border. The Jubaland Somalis are being disarmed in March and 400 Rifles have been sent to Ismail, where 500 are already stationed.

HAS DISCOVERY ENDED?

Finding of New Arctic Land May Turn Activities to Planets

With the finding of a vast stretch of land within the Arctic Circle to the north of Siberia comes the announcement that this marks the last great discovery of new land. It is true that some years ago a very beligerent gentleman was credited with years because there were no more worlds to conquer, and that since his day such incidents as the discovery of North and South America, and other places, have transpired. However, it looks as though the geographers really were right this time, for however much we explore the little known wilds of Africa, South America, Asia and Australia, our increasing knowledge of those places cannot enlarge the boundary line that separates the land from the sea. Jules Verne was a scientific man, and many regard his fiction stories of submarine and aerial flight—which at the time they were published seemed wild dreams—as a serious prediction of what he believed would be accomplished. As a matter of fact he did live to see the submarine an accepted arm of two navies and the Wrights were well advanced toward success before he died. There remains his "Trip to the Moon" which seems absolutely impossible of accomplishment. Nevertheless there are scientific men who dare to reach out into space and chart a pathway to other worlds. One of these, M. Ernest Archdeacon, who ranks among the foremost authorities in France on aviation, predicts our present aviation machines, which at best could not encircle the earth in less than eight days will be abandoned for air craft which will glide the globe in 66 minutes. "All the peoples of the earth will then form a sole and single nation." Man, insatiable in his ambition, is contemplating interplanetary flight, and M. Esnault Pelterie believes the vehicle will be a self-propelled rocket (Verne again) with a speed of seven miles a second, which is estimated to be sufficient velocity to carry the projectile beyond the zone of terrestrial attraction. At this rate the moon would be reached in less than ten hours—assuming, of course, the vehicle was not melted long before by the heat generated in its terrific flight. Radium is suggested as a possible motive power. The idea of interplanetary flight, from our present viewpoint, seems, of course, impossible. However, the submarine was 400 years in developing. M. Archdeacon says: "I am convinced that in a certain number of centuries the inhabitants of all the planets will have made acquaintance with one another, and I foresee the day when a world's interplanetary congress will be held."—Popular Mechanics.

LANDLORD (of Dinktown Hotel)

"That fellow who just swaggered past? O that Lem Badgley, an he's a terror to autumobilists, I tell you!" Guest—"Aha! the village constable, eh?" Landlord—"Worse; he's the only duty repairman within ten miles."

WAS TROUBLED WITH BOILS AND CARBUNCLES.

There is no more frequent source of illness than that arising from bad blood, for when the blood becomes impure, it is only natural that boils, pimples or some other indication of bad blood should break out of the system. Boils in themselves are not a dangerous trouble, but still at the same time are very painful, and the only way to get rid of them is to cleanse the blood of the impurities. Cleanse it thoroughly by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters, that old and reliable blood medicine that has been on the market for nearly forty years. Mr. James Wilds, Plaster Rock, N.B., writes:—"I was greatly troubled, a few years ago, with boils and carbuncles, and the doctor told me I was in a bad condition. My appetite failed me, I began to lose strength, and was pretty well run down when one of my friends recommended Burdock Blood Bitters. After using three bottles I began to feel like another man. My troubles soon left me, and to-day I can certainly give Burdock Blood Bitters a high recommendation to my friends."

COMMISSIONER McLELLAN HAS DECIDED TO RUN

Definitely Announces That He is Candidate For the Mayoralty

Commissioner McLellan will offer as a candidate for the office of mayor at the coming civic elections and will not resign his present office to do so. This announcement was made this morning by the commissioner, and a definite statement which has been awaited with interest since the rumors of the possibility of his taking this course have been in circulation. His nomination papers have been prepared and signed but will not be filed until tomorrow.

If no other candidate appears, and there seems to be no prospect of any others, there will be no vote for mayor at the first election and this leaves Commissioner McLellan three weeks for his campaign, which he promises to make an interesting one.

There has been speculation regarding the possibility of the commissioner continuing to hold office while running for another office but there seems to be nothing in the city charter to prevent his doing so. It is understood that Mr. McLellan secured legal advice on the matter before making his decision and was assured of the legality of his course.

Mr. McLellan filed his nomination papers as candidate for commissioner this afternoon. This makes a list of nine nominations including Commissioners Angus and Wilmore and Messrs. Allingham, deForest, Fisher, Jones, Potts, Russell and Sargis. Messrs. Brown, Belyea, McIndeffick and Spooner have not yet filed their papers.

MRS. STEVENS DEAD; MRS. LIVINGSTONE CALLED TO PORTLAND

Head of National W. C. T. U. Passed Away Today at the Age of Seventy

On account of the death of Mrs. L. M. Stevens, the president of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union, which occurred in Portland, Me., today, Mrs. Debra Knox Livingston has been obliged to cancel the remainder of her engagement in St. John and will leave tonight for Portland. This is greatly regretted, as Mrs. Livingston, both on her present and former visits to St. John, created a very strong impression by her public addresses. She gave a talk to the pupils of the High School this afternoon. It has been suggested that some of those interested in the proposed Scott Act campaign that Mrs. Livingston be asked to return to the city for a series of addresses at a later date.

Referring to the death of Mrs. Stevens a despatch from Portland, Me., says: "Mrs. L. M. Stevens, president of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union, died today. She had been ill for several weeks with kidney trouble. Mrs. Stevens, who was born in Davis, Me., seventy years ago, continued to the last the temperance work to which she had devoted most of her life. Her mind remained clear and late last week, she was able to dictate correspondence in connection with the duties of her office."

WATCH THIS BILL

Where Does St. John Stand in This Foreshore Legislation?

The attention of the St. John city and county members of the legislature has been drawn to the bill which has been given its first and second readings in the house and which provides that the province may lease the foreshore rights on any tidal waters. A statement has been made by the city recorder that St. John is not affected by this bill but, until its provisions are more fully known there are many citizens who are anxious.

The foreshore rights in Courtenay Bay are now, or are likely to become, a matter of dispute between the city and county and the Norton Griffiths Company and there is a feeling of anxiety about anything that might weaken the position of the municipality.

The bill will come up for the third reading tonight and the local members have been warned to look out for any infringement upon the rights of their constituency and examine closely into the real motive of the legislation.
