RESUME BATTLE

Artillery Fight Again In Mexico City Streets

INFANTRY ALSO IN ACTION

Correspondent on the Scene, After Viewing Yesterday's Conflict. Predicts the Overthrow of Madero—United States Warships Ready for a Start

(Canadian Press) Mexico City, Feb. 12.—The federal troops opened the battle in the streets of the Mexican capital at 6:35 this morning with a light artillery fire.

The action soon became general, all the artillery on both sides being brought into play. The cannon fire was augmented by sweeping salvos from the machine guns while the infantry came into action with rifles and individual shooting.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 12.—Fitzgerald Bloom, staff correspondent of the Los Angeles Times in Mexico City, sends the following dispatch dated yesterday: Mexico City seems doomed. Many fine buildings are ablaze by the fire of artillery. The dead are piled high in the streets. General Huerta, commander of the federal troops, is reported dead. The reign of President Madero seems ended. General Diaz, leader of the rebel forces, is in command of nearly all the city. His men are fighting like veterans, while those defending the national palace where Madero is, have taken to drink and are reeling on the firing line.

Washington, Feb. 12.—Immediately on leaving the White House, after last night's Mexican conference, Major-General Wood went directly to the war department, where he remained at his desk until nearly daylight, working out details for the quick movement of troops, should the occasion arise. These troops probably will be modified at Galveston today, being prepared to embark as soon as the transports had reached that point from Newport News, Va.

Washington, Feb. 12.—United States Admiral Badger, in command of the United States Atlantic fleet at Guantanamo will select the two additional battleships which are to accompany the fleet to Vera Cruz, Mexico. This is determined upon at an early conference today between officials of the state, war and navy departments. The two ships are expected to put out on the naval route before noon.

Mexico City, Feb. 12.—The Mutual Life Insurance building was set on fire at about 8 o'clock by a shell from a rebel field gun. An effort made by the federal forces to take the rebels from their water supply was ineffective, account of the number of artesian wells in that portion of the city occupied by the rebels. The streets of the capital during the hours of darkness had the appearance of a great armed camp. In many parts of the city the electric wires had been cut or bulleted, and had resulted in almost complete darkness. The rebels under Felix Diaz started to advance toward the national palace at a quarter to nine. They seemingly are employing heavier cannon than they did yesterday.

Washington, Feb. 12.—The first brigade of the first division of the United States army, about 3,000 strong, has been ordered prepared for "expeditionary service."

TURKS' CAPITAL DRIFT TO DOOM

Laughter, Arson, Dancing, Failures and Immorality

HOLD-UP OF THE WEALTHY

Questionable, if Effective, Method of Government for Raising Funds and the Habit Spreads—Still Talk of Fighting to the Last

(Canadian Press) Constantinople to the Daily News and Leader, sent via Odessa, pictures the position in the Turkish capital, as becoming more extraordinary every day. Business is dead and many commercial houses have become bankrupt. The streets are stopped running long ago. Most of the steamers plying on the Bosphorus were seized for Enver Bey's expedition, and a prevailing in the Asiatic shore.

Fires occur daily. During fires in the Toppash section of the city yesterday, probably started by prospective looters, there was little attempt made to check the flames except by foreign sailors. The Turks did not seem to be disturbed and continued to smoke peacefully in the cafes while the flames raged furiously. Even a terrible explosion in a house was full of ammunition, treated only mild interest. Meanwhile a masked ball was going on in another quarter.

"Thus," says the correspondent, "amid laughter, arson, dancing and light-hearted immorality, the city drifts to its doom."

Government Hold-up for Money. Reports from Odessa are pouring into Asia via Constantinople and Asiatic soldiers are pouring from Europe in a continuous flood. Among the government methods for raising money, there is one downright piece of robbery. The committee on public safety visits a rich merchant and says to him: "You have $500,000 in the bank and can afford to give us $25,000. The merchant pays the money.

So many unauthorized persons have started these collections with threats behind them that police have now been in the press warning them that the Turks are rapidly drifting into an insane state of mind. The committee of desperate fire-raiders is also active.

"If the Bulgarians come they will find the crowd treating them as water bugs. An ancient chronicle of the Balkan states tells of the old Bulgarians going first to Morgan. It is a great opportunity for J. P. Chesnut and other wealthy collectors."

NATIONAL GRANT AND PRIVATE SUBSCRIPTION FOR SCOTT'S FAMILIES

Scott's Appeal Does Not Fall on Deaf Ears—Tributes by The London Papers—Further Details of The Antarctic Tragedy

(Canadian Press) London, Feb. 12.—Captain Scott's appeal to his countrymen, written when the hand of death was upon him, has especially stirred the public imagination and is the principal theme of editorial comment in the London papers.

The Daily Telegraph this morning says: "Few and scattered indeed are those of British blood who have not by now known that bear-shaking thrill of pride and pity which the story of Scott and his companions has sent throughout the world."

The Morning Post says: "The story of the Antarctic expedition will ever be made again, at least in the practical future. It has been made twice in one winter and those white storm winds have blown across the continent since the birth of the world. But they have not been the occasion for this great heroism."

Mr. Aquilino Premises Treasury Grant. Premier Aquilino, in a few words touched with deep emotion in the commonsense, said: "Scott's appeal will not fall on deaf ears. That appeal was one of the most moving and most pathetic utterances in the annals of discovery. The speech of a brave, enduring man, face to face with the tragic end of a career of devoted service. We must set up a memorial to the memory of the hero of his country."

The following words are extracted from an appeal issued by the members of the British Antarctic Committee, Sir Edgar Speyer, president and Sir Edgar Speyer, secretary, in an interview said: "We are staggered at the news. I personally have lost one of the dearest of friends. It remains to us to make the way of those left behind. A good deal of money is still wanted toward the original cost of the expedition, nearly $80,000. Before Scott left I told him not to worry. We must settle the account. These things are too great to be regarded as the duty of the country, but they are the duty of the British Antarctic Committee."

The committee does not go further than to suggest that the members of the expedition should receive their pay, though many of them had to forgo part of it, and that provision be made for the dependents of those who died on the expedition.

Through Awful Hardships. New York, Feb. 12.—A special cable to the New York American from London says: "A dispatch from Christchurch, New Zealand, to a news agency here gives additional information concerning the death of Scott's last words."

Memorial Service in Toronto. Toronto, Feb. 12.—Captain Scott's gallant behavior and the heroic death of the party on the ice floes of the Antarctic, has stirred the blood of the Anglo-Saxon citizens of Toronto and their feeling will find expression at a grand memorial service in Massey Hall on Sunday afternoon. The fact that Dr. C. S. Wright, a citizen of Toronto, was a member of the expedition brings the tragedy nearer home.

NEAR TRAGEDY IN BEAVER MONCTON LOCK-UP

Policeman and Prisoners Overcome By Gas

(Special to Times) Moncton, N. B., Feb. 12.—It was fortunate for two prisoners in police cells and for Call Officer Arsenault that Lloyd Leaman was arrested by Policeman Gaw at 2:45 o'clock. When the patrolman reached the station with his prisoner, arrested on drunkenness charge, he saw Policeman Arsenault stretched out on the floor of the station and two prisoners in the cells were only semi-conscious.

BEAVER ON FIRE

Dredge Badly Damaged In Harbor Of St. John

As a result of a fire which broke out on the dredge Beaver of the fleet of the Beaver Dredging Company at eight o'clock this morning, and was not extinguished until two hours later, the dredge has been damaged to the extent of several thousand dollars, partly covered by insurance.

There was stiff fight. Several men including the Lord Roberts, Lord Herford, Lord Walsley, Helena, Neptune and Alice R., were also brought into commission and turned their pumping apparatus on the dredge. The fire rapidly spread from the lower part of the vessel to the engine room, and then to the fittings of which were completely demolished.

Through the very large quantity of water which was pouring into the dredge from the fire hose, the logs and the drums, about 11:30 the Beaver had a bad list to starboard, and it was decided, as the fire was then too evident to cease the dredge as there was a great danger of the weight of water sinking the vessel.

ONE TO DORCHESTER; FOUR ARE LET OUT BY JUDGE FORBES; SENTENCE SUSPENDED

A session of the criminal side of the county court was held this morning before Judge Forbes and several prisoners were disposed of under the Speedy Trial Act. Four were severely sentenced and allowed to go on suspended sentence and one was sentenced to two years in Dorchester penitentiary with hard labor. The cases tried were: The King vs Robert Wilson, theft. The King vs Harold McNally, theft. The King vs Walter Hold, theft. The King vs Howard A. Hoyt, theft.

Wilson denied the theft of fourteen silver spoons and a half dozen stick pins from the C. P. R. at West St. John. After finding the prisoner guilty His Honor lectured Wilson, advising him to work honestly for instead of robbing the people who gave him his bread and butter. "I would like to get a hold of some brass," he said "I could sweat good and strong. There is too much of this stealing altogether. It is a disgrace to any port. But mark me the next man who comes before me for stealing over there will get it strong." He then allowed the prisoner to go on suspended sentence.

Harold McNally, aged 16 and George Watson were next arraigned. They were charged with breaking and entering Morris Jacobson's store in Main street and taking $5.38 and two gold watches valued at $5 each. In addition to this McNally was charged with stealing a handbag containing $2 from Mrs. Francis Chase by snatching it out of her hand in Rockland Road a few weeks ago. Both pleaded guilty to the charges.

The Austrian consul asks for $1,000,000 for the loss of four of his subjects, and the claims for lost merchandise total $1,533,225.

In all 389 claims were filed.

MARKED MONEY IN POCKETS; FOUR REPRESENTATIVES AND A SENATOR ARE ARRESTED

Charleston, W. Va., Feb. 12.—With marked money in their pockets, alleged to be the price of their votes in the United States senatorial contest, four members of the house of delegates and a member of the senate of West Virginia, were arrested late yesterday afternoon. Each waived a hearing and was held in $5,000 bond. The accused men are Representatives U. E. G. Rhodes, Dr. H. F. Ahbury, David E. Hill, Rath Duff and Senator B. F. Smith.

POPE DEEPLY GRIEVED OVER DEATH OF SISTER

Rome, Feb. 12.—The death of Rosa Sarto, sister of the Pope, although expected here, caused deepest grief to the Pontiff, who loved her particularly, owing to her devoted attachment to him, whom he had followed in all his ecclesiastical career. She was illiterate, but modest and bright. When someone expressed surprise that she did not know how to read, she said: "Our parents only thought of me as a simple girl. If their meagre means had been divided between the whole family in education, Joseph would not be Pope."

For several months, paralysis prevented Rosa from walking. Thus the Pontiff was unable to see her owing to his voluntary imprisonment in the Vatican. This has been the keenest sorrow of the Pope. Therefore the eulogium was made to her body for the funeral into St. Peter but this project was abandoned, as a posthumous and cardinal are brought for funeral service.

IN PARLIAMENT

Naval Debate Continued — The Position of Labor Party

Ottawa, Feb. 11.—The organized labor men of Canada tonight opened their views on the naval question through A. Verville, the only labor member in parliament. They demanded a vote on the naval program and Mr. Verville moved an amendment to that effect.

Mr. Carroll, of Cape Breton, declared that Premier Borden could not be elected in Halifax on account of his proposal to have the Canadian navy built outside this country.

"It is an enemy of the British empire I would hold up both hands for the Borden policy," declared Hon. Rodolph Lemieux, in the course of his eloquent speech resuming the naval debate in parliament today. He fortified the declaration by that of Mr. Borden in 1906, when the present premier made his memorable parliamentary announcement that any attempt to solve the question of imperial naval support by contribution, or other than by the construction of a Canadian navy, would be to lessen rather than strengthen the ties of the empire.

"This is a man's job let's do it man's way, and do it right." Such was Ontario's message as delivered to parliament in a telling speech by Mr. Farley, the chief Liberal whip, who followed.

"The trouble is," continued Mr. Farley, "that we are allowing the development of a mainline imperialism in this country instead of a sound self-reliance imperial Canadianism. The sooner we get rid of it the better for Canada and the better for the empire. It is to this sentiment that the government unfortunately is applying. It is a middle-of-the-road imperialism, an imperialism that pays and gets but doesn't do. It doesn't build, it doesn't equip, it doesn't man, and it doesn't maintain. It isn't imperial, it isn't empire building at all in the true sense.

Alphonse Verville, the labor member from Moncton, said that organized labor, like farmers, churches and many societies, had declared against war, their declaration against war was not, however, a declaration against a proper provision for police protection. Speaking for organized labor, he said:

"We favor providing ships to guard our own coasts and to protect our avenues of commerce." He predicted that the end of war was about to be reached. The labor men were beginning to speak, and to make themselves heard. The forty-one labor members of the British parliament and the 110 labor members in the German Reichstag during the past few years have produced great changes in the attitude of the governments of those countries on all questions. The workmen of England, of Germany, of France and of Switzerland had declared that heretofore was declared they must know why it is undertaken, and if it shall be approved or hereafter they would not permit any of these countries to plunge into war to satisfy the whim of any group. Seconded by Mr. Robb, the Liberal member for Huntingdon, he concluded by moving a second amendment to the Borden proposal, declaring: "That the content of parliament should not be given to this resolution until it has been submitted to the approval and has received the assent of the electors of Canada."

"SPANISH PRISONER" GANG SAID TO HAVE BEEN CAPTURED

London, Feb. 12.—According to the Madrid correspondent of the Daily News and Leader, the police have succeeded in discovering the gang of swindlers responsible for the "Spanish prisoner" frauds. The gang, which is admirably organized, began operations eight years ago. Its chief was Eusebio Riva, proprietor of a house at 18 Luchana street. He was arrested principally by his brother, his father-in-law, and his private secretary, Guillermo San Juan. Riva's house was specially built for the purpose of fraud. It was provided with false doors and secret rooms, and so on, in order to baffie the police. Every day hundreds of letters were despatched to the four corners of the earth, inviting foreigners to lift the treasure hidden somewhere by a bankrupt prisoner in Madrid.

A fear of becoming ridiculous is a good guide in life, and will save a man from all sorts of scrapes.

Eat Carrots and Acquire Red Cheeks

WHY is your skin sallow and dull-looking, little miss? Very possibly you do not know, so I will tell you. It lies on a nutshell, as it were. You have neglected to eat carrots!

I cannot blame you for this omission, however, as it is not every woman who knows that pink cheeks belong by rights to the carrot eater. Possibly you do not like carrots, but if this is so, you must overcome your distaste for them, as to eat carrots, in my opinion, is the easiest and quickest way of obtaining not only rosy-red cheeks but a creamy white skin. Such a reward is well worth striving for. From this time on become a lover of that homely vegetable—the carrot. Always keep a basket full of carrots in your kitchen and it would be an awfully good idea if you were to have a dish of carrots continually in your bedroom, as you might like to nibble one when "prettifying up."

This internal rouge I think much nicer than the other kind that washes off. If you agree with me, begin eating raw carrots this very day. You will not regret it, I do assure you.

TURKEY SAID TO HAVE ENOUGH

London, Feb. 11.—It is becoming increasingly evident that Turkey is taking steps to resume the peace negotiations, although it is possible that no direct action will be taken until some decisive result in the fighting in the Gallipoli peninsula has been received.

Sofia, Feb. 11.—More detailed accounts of the Bulair battle shows that it was a complete disaster for the Turks, 2,850 of whom were buried by the Bulgarians and another 3,000 Turkish dead left lying eastward on the battlefield.

A SHOCK TO THE CIVILIZED WORLD

(Montreal Witness Cable)

London, Feb. 11.—Today England and the whole civilized world is under the shadow of the great calamity which befell Captain Scott and his brave comrades who have paid tribute by death to the rigors of the South Pole. We are not yet possessed of the full story of the disaster, but the heroism of these men will be written in the golden pages of history. Captain Scott's expedition was not one for the mere purpose of earning fame by rushing to the South Pole and tramping back again. Scientific research and observations were the first consideration, and the expedition was planned with the greatest care. It was the first expedition to the Antarctic circle at the same time as his made no special effort to beat them in a race to the pole. He and his party had all the equipment and training necessary for thorough biological, meteorological and geographical observation and there is ample evidence that these observations were conducted in a most painstaking way. Thus, although the heat of the expedition and his immediate companions upon the last stage of the journey perished, it is quite certain that more thorough and valuable polar observations yet made are among the records he has left. What they have won for science and mankind we yet to be told.

The daily output of the Australian state of New South Wales is now valued at more than $33,250,000 a year, and this good showing is attributed largely to co-operation.

Dr. Arnold Lorand

Physician to the Baths, Carlsbad, Austria

In his recently published book "Health Through Rational Diet," from the press of the F. A. Davis Co., Philadelphia, says:

As a breakfast food, another variety of the healthful cereals which is much used in America would be advantageous. Grape-Nuts, in which the floury substance has been dextrinized by long baking and thus rendered digestible and easy of assimilation, is eaten with cream and would be a useful addition to our usual breakfast.

The recommendation of this eminent European authority to the wealthiest health-seekers in the world (those who frequent the famous baths of Carlsbad) is especially interesting to Americans.

Grape-Nuts

While Grape-Nuts may be a "health luxury" in Europe, this sturdy health-giving food is within the reach of practically every American at trifling cost.

In thousands of families Grape-Nuts and cream is the regular breakfast dish of wide-awake, go-ahead people.

Rich in the brain-making, body-building elements of prime wheat and malted barley, this food has won for itself at home and abroad the title of "The King of Breakfast Foods."

WHITE WOMEN MOURN AS NEGRO "HEALER" IS EXILED

Strange Darkey, Jailed and Driven From Evansville, Ind., Has Loyal Followers Who Say He Works Miracles

(Times Special Correspondent)

Evansville, Ind., Feb. 10—There was a rattle of keys in the big steel, triple-locking doors of the jail of Vanderburg county, Indiana.

The click of the lock was the signal for fifty white women out in the jail yard to say "Amen!" in reverence.

The big doors swung open. Through them stepped briskly a medium-sized negro about forty welcomed by these fifty waiting white women as "Healer" Johnson.

Recently he raised his hands, "God be praised, dear sakes," he said in monotone. They parted to make way for him, each hoping that he would brush the hem of their garments. So he walked to liberty, bound for Cleveland, O., where he says he will open a "temple."

He has been deported from the county of Vanderburg, state of Indiana. A stay-away order is against him.

Even as a slave girl in the family of Joel Ford of Adams county, Tenn., Melvina Johnson, his mother claimed to possess occult powers. She said she passed them to her son.

The two had a large following in Tennessee, but Johnson grew ambitious to expand. He came to Evansville. His power to heal was heralded by negro servants to their white mistresses and his fame went scurrying along the back yards and the front from door to door.

In his "temple" in Fulton avenue Johnson held his services, announcing with olive oil and saying mystic words and waving magic wands. His following grew alarmingly. The police arrested him.

He was rushed to the city jail. Behind him followed a score of white women crying that his arrest was an injustice.

Before City Judge Gould seventy-five white men and women appeared in his defence. One man held up a child.

"Why shouldn't I have faith in him? For twelve years I paid the doctors nearly all I made to treat my crippled child, and they didn't do any good; this colored man cured her, and he has charged me nothing."

"He cured me of consumption when three doctors said I would fall," a frail white woman said as she stepped before the judge.

"I could give you the names of hundreds of respectable white people he has healed," said the wife of a west-side business man.

The judge pondered. It was apparent that Johnson and his followers were sincere.

"It is true the constitution guarantees religious freedom, but I must fine you for promoting the mingling of races," said Judge Gould, with the memory of the awful riots of a few years ago still fresh in his mind.

So Johnson went to jail. But the white women followed him to the jail, too, with chickens baked, fried and stewed and made into pie. They brought him every delicacy. They clamored, begged, prayed to see him.

Inside he turned the "kangaroo court" into a revival meeting with daily sermons and "healing" demonstrations, until the sheriff stopped him.

In the day and a half he was in jail hundreds of women begged Judge Gould

A LOST OPPORTUNITY

The city council of Halifax has rejected a favorable opportunity to proceed to the city council of St. John in the important work of town planning. One would think that very many citizens of Halifax would not regard with favor the action, or rather inaction, of their council in this matter.

There was a larger percentage of benefit to prisoners working outdoors in the fresh air and sunshine than to those confined in the jail. One delegate declared that if he were given the prisoners of three counties, he would in four years build a boulevard from Kittery on the border of New Hampshire to the state house in Augusta.

BIRTHDAYS OF NOTABILITIES

FEBRUARY TWELFTH. The Hon. Napoleon Charbonneau, justice of the Supreme Court of Quebec, celebrates his sixtieth birthday today. He was born at Cote des Neiges, P. Q., and educated at Montreal College. Called to the bar in 1879, he practiced his profession in Montreal being at one time in partnership with the late Senator Trudel, and the Hon. J. O. Fallon. He was elected to the House of Commons for Jacques Cartier in 1895. Since 1903 he has sat on the Supreme Court bench. He is a somewhat unconventional of the bench but thoroughly sound in his law.

Edward William Thompson, poet, story writer and journalist, reaches his sixty-fourth birthday on February 12. Born in the county of Peel, he was educated at the local schools of Coltonia and Brantford and at Trinity College school, Weston. He served successively in the American Civil War and the Fenian Raid and was then for some years a civil engineer on the Carleton Canal. From 1879 to 1881 he was on the staff of the Toronto Globe, and then for ten years was editor of the Youth's Companion, Boston. Since 1901 he has been engaged in general writing, being resident at Ottawa. During his career he has produced several volumes of stories and verse in his law.

Horry Piers, keeper of public records and archivist of the province of Nova Scotia, also celebrates his birthday today. He was born in Halifax on Feb. 12, 1870. He studied in the provincial museum under Dr. Honeyman and was successively assistant librarian and librarian of the province. In 1899 he succeeded Dr. Honeyman as curator of the museum. As archivist he has added largely to the records under his care. He takes a keen interest in provincial history and has published catalogues and biographical records.

Freddie Smith come in bawlin' an' told on me, too. I give him a crack on the eye. An' this morning in school you could see it was blue. An' last night, when my paw asked me why I was fightin' so much with the boys on the street, I said maybe you'd wallop some when they say "play with the girls."

"It's awful," says Maw, "to be fightin' this way. It's awful, I'm sure, to be me. It's get so that somebody comes every day to tell what a bad boy he is. His teacher today wrote a note home an' said: 'He had fought with a big boy of ten.' Well, he called me sissy. An' cute little misley. I'll bet he won't do it again."

WORK FOR PRISONERS

There is a bill before the Maine Legislature to provide for employing prisoners in the jails of the state upon its highways. When the bill was before the committee last week some interesting statements were made by a delegation which appeared in its behalf. A former sheriff of Cumberland county said that outdoor employment with plenty to eat and plenty of work was a good thing for prisoners. The expense of keeping them in jail was heavy and the state got no return except from such as were given employment in work-shops. The county of Cumberland, he said, if it had abolished its work-shops and put the prisoners at work on the roads, he-day, and the roads of the state would have benefited to the extent of one dollar per day for every man for whatever period he was at work. It was pointed out by another delegate that the proposition was not experimental, as the problem had been worked out in several states.

MR. McDONALD GIVES ADDRESS OF INTEREST ON IRON INDUSTRY HERE

A comprehensive history of the iron industry in St. John was given last evening by Charles McDonald in a lecture before the Natural History Society.

After a reference to the beginnings of the industry in early times, and its subsequent development, the speaker commenced with the introduction in this city of the first foundry of importance was that of John Fowler, built in 1838, and purchased by T. C. Everett in 1836.

MOTHERS OF PUNY CHILDREN

May Find Help in This Letter

"My little daughter ever since her birth had been frail and sickly, and was a constant source of worry to me. Several months ago I secured a bottle of Vinol and commenced to give it to her. I soon noticed an improvement in her health and appearance. I gave her in all three bottles and from the good it has done her I can truly say it will do all you claim." J. Edmund Miller, New Haven, Conn.

The reason Vinol builds up weak, ailing children so quickly is because it contains in a delicious combination the two most world famous tonics—i. e., the strength-giving, body building elements of cod liver oil, with all the useless grease eliminated, and tonic iron for the blood added. If you have a weak, puny, ailing child, try Vinol—our offer to return your money, if it fails to benefit your little one. Watson's 3 Recall store—King street, Main street, and Haymarket Sq.

FAMOUS ATHLETE TO BE MISSIONARY

Noted Cricketer to go Among The Cannibals

COMRADES GOING TOO

Young University Men Volunteer to Join Him - Good Bye to Wife and Family, For no One Can Tell How Long

(Times Special Correspondence) London, Feb. 11.—A party of unexplored regions in the middle of Africa, inhabited by cannibals, a once famous English cricketer is about to lead a party of plucky young Cambridge men who have volunteered for service as missionaries there with the certain knowledge that they take their lives in their hands in so doing.

The destination of Mr. Studd and his party is a tract of country occupied by the Nyan-Niamas, a cannibalistic tribe who live on the borders of Uganda and the Belgian Congo. They are believed to not to devour those who come with the object of converting them, but to Mr. Studd and his companions, the danger that the district may be won to Islam outweighs every other consideration. When asked how he proposed to reach the Central Africa and the peril of its being converted to Mohammedanism, I said I meant to go with the old Blue, and these men said they would come too.

chased by T. C. Everett in 1836. About the same date another foundry was started in Broad street by George Craig, who built the first iron steamer in America. It was used by T. McAvity & Sons in the Bay of Fundy trade.

Other foundries were those of Fleming & Humbert, Harris & Allan, the Eagle foundry and the Vulcan Iron Works. Mr. McDonald referred to the rapid development of the iron business here by T. McAvity & Sons to the present stage where a much larger area is required for their works. He also referred to the history of the James Fender's establishment, the St. John Iron Works and James Robertson Co., Ltd.

The rolling mill at Coldbrook was established in 1855, and that on Strait shore in 1858. Both were taken over later by James Harris. At the present time the local mills employ from eighty to 100 hands and pay about $65,000 annually in wages.

The speaker gave the following comparison of all branches of the iron and steel industries for 1871 and 1911:

A cordial vote of thanks, moved by Dr. G. U. Hay, and seconded by Rev. J. J. McCaskill, was tendered the speaker. R. B. Emerson also spoke appreciatively of the address.

The brotherhood of the Bowers Mission now includes about 3,000 men. The free labor bureau connected with it during the last five years, has sent to permanent positions more than 17,000 men.

What St. John is Doing (Bangor Commercial)

While the largest portion of Canada's recent advance in population is made in the western provinces, it should not be lost to sight that some advance has also been made in the east and a very considerable advance at that. Some time ago the many people of St. John came to the conclusion, as they watched the trainloads of immigrants pushing on to the west, that they were losing a good opportunity and that, with a little effort, a very material number of the newcomers could be persuaded to remain in New Brunswick. The effort was made and it has borne fruit. The arrivals have been persuaded that they had reached Canada and that St. John offers as good an opportunity as Alberta and Saskatchewan, with a very material increase in the population of the province.

THE NAUTILUS BURNED. The steam yacht Nautilus, owned by C. W. Young of Winchester, Mass., formerly of St. Stephen, was totally destroyed by fire at an early hour on Sunday morning at St. Stephen. It is reported that the yacht had been sold to people in St. Andrew's, N. B., but that the transfer had not been completed when the fire occurred.

AN ASTRONOMICAL PUZZLE.

One of our best-known astronomers was talking about the difficulties and intricacies that astronomy presents to the popular mind.

"For instance," he said, smiling, "there is the story of the meteorite that fell on an Essex farm a year ago. It was a white meteorite, and the landlord claimed it at once.

"All minerals and metals on the land belong to me," he said. "That's in the lease."

"But the tenant demurred. 'This is a meteorite,' he said, 'wasn't it on the farm, you must remember, when the lease was drawn up?'

"This was certainly a poser, but he promptly retorted: 'Well, then, I claim it as flying game.'

"But the tenant was ready for him. 'It's got neither wings nor feathers,' he said. 'Therefore, as ground game it is mine.'

"How long they would have continued their argument I cannot say, for at that moment a revenue officer came up and proceeded to take possession of the meteorite. 'Because,' said he, 'it is an article introduced into this country without payment of duty.'

Montreal, Feb. 12.—The Gazette says: The large amount of money tied up in real estate speculation, the large sums which have had to be advanced here to Canadian municipalities pending the floating of permanent loans, and the continued activity of trade are all factors operating at the moment against a supply of funds for stock market operations.

Brokerage houses here were busy yesterday evening up to 11 P. M. The rights which are to be shipped to N. Y. must be sent out of Montreal not later than this evening, subscription privileges expiring at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

OPERATION FOR PILES FAILED

Zam-Buk Was Then Tried and Worked a Cure

Writing from Poplar, B.C., Mrs. C. Hanson, wife of the proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, says:—"I suffered for years with bleeding piles. The pain was so bad at times that I could hardly walk, and ordinary remedies seemed utterly unable to give me any ease. Finally I decided to undergo an operation, and went to the Sacred Heart Hospital in Spokane. There they performed an operation and did all they could for me. For a time I was certainly better, but within 12 months the trouble started again and the piles became as painful as ever. I tried liniment, hot poultices, various 'pale cures', and indeed everything I could think would be likely to do any good, but still I continued to suffer, and the aching, burning, stinging pains, the dull, aching and wretched 'worn-out' feeling that the disease causes continued as bad as ever.

THE PENALTY OF FAME

A well-known goalkeeper, while taking a stroll in a certain North County town, was greatly surprised one day when a stranger rushed up to him, seized his hand and shook it warmly.

"There must be some mistake," stammered the football player. "I am a stranger. What is it to say, you aren't you?"

"Yes, but what has that got to do with it?"

"Oh, don't you remember when I—"

"I don't remember," he explained the stranger triumphantly. "You must remember me. I was the chap who threw the ball back again."

TO HELP GIRLS

At a meeting of the United Missionary Society held yesterday afternoon in St. Andrew's church, the matter of protection of the young girls of the city arriving in the city as strangers was considered. Owing to the disagreeable weather, the attendance was small, but the interest was shown by the ladies present.

Mrs. J. R. MacVicar presided, and outlined the objects for which the gathering had been called. Other speakers were: Miss Virtue of the Salvation Army; Mrs. Robert Jamieson, Miss Pitt and Miss Sinclair, all of whom spoke on the work being done by various bodies in the interests of working girls. No definite action was taken yesterday at the meeting, but another gathering will be held some time soon, and the matter will be gone into further.

KNOW A LITTLE. A gentleman traveling through Regent street some time ago asked a unlearned medicament by whom he was accosted how he lost his limb.

"It was like this, sir. The last time I went to sea we were caught in a typhoon off Cape Horn. The ship went over on her beam end, so the captain's orders were to get out on the yardarm to keep the boat's spirit, and to splice the life-boats to the mainmast. I was hanging on to the topgallant ratlines, when Tom suddenly let go his end, and I was pitched forty feet in the air."

"That's a capital yarn," he said, "and ought to have been a sailor's," and, without giving him anything went on his way. Crestfallen, the beggar watched his interrogator, and saw a crossing sweeper touch his hat most deferentially to him.

"I say, Jim, who's he when he's at home?" he called.

"Him?" replied the sweeper. "Don't you know who that is? Why, that's Charlie Beresford."—The Bits.

Had Rheumatism WAS CONFINED TO HIS BED FOR FOUR MONTHS

Mr. W. H. Riley, Ruddell, Sask., writes: "It is with the greatest of pleasure that I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all suffering with rheumatism. I was so bad with this terrible disease, I was unable to get up from my bed for four months, and nothing seemed to relieve me until a friend recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. I had my doubts about them, but was so desperate I would try anything suggested to me. After taking half a box I was able to get up, and after taking two boxes could get around quite well. After taking six boxes I was completely cured, and able to work for the first time in five months, and have not had a touch of rheumatism since. Anyone who says me then would not know me now, as I am strong and active since taking your valuable medicine."

Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt IS A MODEL A MODERN HOME TREATMENT

Dear Sir,—I wish to congratulate you on your success in inventing such a blessing to mankind, as your Electric Belt. I should have written to you about my Belt before. I wore it only three weeks, then all the soreness in my back and thighs left me and my troubles became regular. Wishing you continued success in your business, I remain,

Yours truly, W. G. FRIZZELL, Municipal Home, St. John, N. B.

The reason so many men neglect to use my Belt is that they fear it will fall like other things they have tried. Now, the security that I offer to the doubtful man is that he need not pay for my Belt until it does for him what I say it will do, if he in turn will give me reasonable security that he will pay me when cured. Put aside these foolish notions. Don't make any difference whether you know that Dr. McLaughlin's Belt cured them or not. Give me reasonable security. I will arrange the Belt and send it to you, and you can PAY ME WHEN CURED.

Dear Sir,—Please forward me one of your books, as advertised. NAME ADDRESS

Constipation and Headache CURED BY Burdock Blood Bitters.

Various kinds of headache exist; for example, nervous, bilious, congestive, and sick headache, headache from constipation or dyspepsia, periodical headache, etc.

In all cases of headache the treatment should be directed to remove the cause, and with the cause removed the headache vanishes for all time.

It is impossible to find a better remedy for headache of every description than is Burdock Blood Bitters, acting as it does on every organ of the body to purify, strengthen and regulate the whole system.

Miss May Bourdage, New Richmond, N. B., writes: "For years I was troubled with sick headache, and dizziness, and was also constipated. I was advised to take Burdock Blood Bitters, and I only took three bottles when I felt like a new person. I can recommend it to anyone who suffers the same as I did."

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for over thirty-five years, and is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

THE TURF

Question of Jockeys. London, Feb. 11.—At the present moment the question of jockeys is a subject which is exercising the minds of sporting writers in various directions.

Lambton, who trains for Lord Derby, would undoubtedly comply with the mild reform of the exchange if the authorities would allow him to manufacture his own currency. Murphy's hardest luck was in not being able to get a match with Wolgast when Ad was champion. Murphy had something on Wolgast. He could whip him and Wolgast knew it.

Doan's Kidney Pills help the kidneys to flush out the acid and poisonous impurities which have collected, and thus clean out the kidneys and dispel the rheumatism from the system.
