THE PILOT'S REVENCE.

A THRILLIG NARRATIVE. It was towards night on the 21st of No cember, 1831, a small E-glish brig, which had been fitted out for the suppression of smuggling, was lazily creeping along over the etonotocous sweizh just off the coast of Galway, and on her deck was being enacted a scene of somewhat more than common in the st. The day before she had captured a small boat laden with contraband articles, to gether with an old man and a boy, who last charge of jhem; the capture of the brig.
