

HEAR THE HON. A. G. MACKAY TONIGHT IN THE PRINCESS RINK

DR. WILSON SPEAKS PLAINLY
MR. BECK SEVERELY CENSURED

Is Not Impressed By Candidate's Offer for Tuberculosis Hospital
—Says Mr. Beck Blocked the Scheme—Its Necessity Shown By Sad Cases.

The attitude of Hon. Adam Beck toward the tuberculosis hospital is not meeting with the commendation of fair-minded people in this city, and many are outspoken in their criticism of him.

Dr. James D. Wilson was seen by The Advertiser this afternoon, said:

Mr. Beck has done everything he possibly could to block the tuberculosis hospital. He has interfered with this matter since the beginning, and for what reason I cannot make out. "I was at his meeting the other evening, and heard his apology for his stand on the question."

"One thing struck me most forcibly—his generosity."

"Mr. Beck was most generous that evening, and out of the goodness of his heart he promised $1,500 for a tuberculosis hospital.

"That was very good, but unfortunately for Mr. Beck I remember his promises too well."

"When the nurses' home was being built, Mr. Beck was most profuse in his promises."

"I remember his stating on different occasions that he would give $1,000 to the nurses' home. He stated that over and over again."

"Up to this time, however, he has not given the money, and I fancy it would be much better for him if he fulfilled his former promises before making new ones. For this reason his promise to give $1,500 to a tuberculosis hospital in this city did not impress me very strongly."

CITY DISCRIMINATED AGAINST IN HYDRO-ELECTRIC COMMISSION

The Cost To London Based Upon Five Thousand Horsepower Which the City Cannot Use—Cities Further From the Falls Pay Much Less.

The cost of power to the city of London is based on two items—the amount of power used, and the distance it must be transmitted.

Of that there is no doubt. The fact that London must bear so heavy an expense as compared with other municipalities is due to the fact that the city applied for 5,000 horsepower.

In order to bring down the cost of power to London to anywhere near the price offered by Mr. Beck, the total amount of 5,000 horsepower must be used.

But now the city is told it need take only 2,225 horsepower.

The cost of power will be increased if the smaller quantity is used.

The cost of the line is the same for the smaller as well as the larger quantity, and the cost of operation will be the same.

That London has been unfairly treated is evidenced when the comparative figures of other municipalities are read.

St. Thomas is 17 miles from London, that is 17 miles further away from the Falls, and the transmission line must be that much longer.

St. Thomas must pay only $244,140 for the transmission line.

London must pay $671,080.

London applied for 5,000 horsepower. St. Thomas applied for only 1,500 horsepower. The difference in cost is on account of the difference in the amount of power applied for.

Stratford, at a greater distance from the Falls than London, pays only $215,600 towards the transmission line—less than one-third the amount which London is responsible for. The reason is that Stratford applied for only 1,500 horsepower.

The annual cost of maintenance for London is $31,578 annually; for St. Thomas $11,490; and Stratford, $10,146.

London still pays practically three times as much as Stratford and St. Thomas, though it is nearer the Falls.

Mr. Beck fixed the amount of power upon which London's share of the cost is based. He interviewed the aldermen, and asked them to apply for 5,000 horsepower.

The fact that London did apply for more power than it could use at the solicitation of Mr. Beck, has increased the city's liability out of all proportion with that of cities farther removed from the Falls.

The cost of the transmission line to Stratford and St. Thomas is of course, reduced by London's application for 5,000 horsepower—in other words London pays more in order that they shall pay less.

EDWARD FAREWELLS
TO FRENCH PRESIDENT

Royalty at Station to See Fallieres
Off for France.

London, May 29.—M. Fallieres, president of the French Republic, brought his four-day's visit to London to a close today when he left for Dover by train. He had asked that there be no demonstration at his departure, but with the desire of giving evidence of their good will for their guest, King Edward, the Prince of Wales and other members of the royal family, the members of the cabinet and a number of diplomats gathered at the railway station to bid M. Fallieres farewell and the crowds that lined the streets around the station gave him a farewell cheer.

The original plan of returning from Dover to France by the French liner Leon Gambetta in which the President crossed the channel in coming to England, was abandoned on account of the roughness of the water, and M. Fallieres made the passage in one of the French channel steamers. The British ships at Dover and the forts fired royal salutes as the President's vessel steamed out of the harbor, and the compliment was returned by the French cruiser and the convoy of torpedo boats. A fleet of British boats accompanied the steamer until she was well outside of British waters.

PEARSE WILL NOT HANG

Peel County Murderer Insane When He Slew Employer.

Ottawa, May 28.—The death sentence of John Pearse, a young Englishman who murdered his employer, a Peel county farmer named Currie, last winter, has been commuted to life imprisonment. Pearse was to have been hanged early next month. His sentence has been commuted on the ground of insanity.

MANAGER KING ON
DUNDAS ST. PAVEMENT

Blames the "T" Rail Delay for the Present Difficulty.

"We will get along with the Dundas street pavement as soon as we can," said Manager King of the street railway today. "At present we are waiting for the cedar ties, and as soon as they come we will be able to get along."

The council held us up so long on the "T" rail that it was almost impossible to get ahead as rapidly as we desired. However, we will get along as soon as the ties come. We expect them shortly."

LIBERALS, ATTENTION!

The attention of all Liberals is called to the mass meeting in the Princess Rink this evening.

Hon. A. G. MacKay, leader of the Opposition, and one of the best speakers in Canada today, will address the electors.

Addresses will also be delivered by Mr. J. M. McEvoy, the Liberal candidate, Mr. T. H. Purdom, K.C., and others.

Every Liberal should be there. Everybody is invited.

Mr. MacKay has been greeted with tremendous audiences wherever he has appeared during the tour, and the indications are that he will speak to an immense audience this evening.

A cordial invitation to all electors of London is extended.

HON. A. G. MACKAY,
The Brilliant Leader of the Liberal Opposition in the Legislature, Who Will Speak in the Princess Rink Tonight.

AYLMER VOTERS HEAR MR. MACKAY
IN A TELLING EXPOSE OF GOV'T

East Elgin Electors in Big Gathering Give Liberal Leader and the Candidate a Splendid Reception Last Night
—The Speeches.

[By Our Own Man.]
Aylmer, May 28.—Hon. A. G. MacKay was the principal speaker in the rally here tonight in the town hall.

The meeting was the most successful of the campaign, every seat in the house being taken, and a large number stood until Mr. MacKay had finished his speech. There was a great deal of enthusiasm manifest, and the success of Mr. C. W. Wonnacott, the Liberal candidate, seems assured. Mr. MacKay was given a most attentive hearing and was greeted with applause at every telling rally.

Mr. MacKay dealt with all the issues of the day, and subjected the Government of Hon. J. P. Whitney to a very searching criticism. He was most effective in his handling of the educational work by Hon. Dr. Pyne, and made most telling criticisms of the bungling in that department. Mr.

MacKay also handled the Beck horse deal without gloves, and subjected the Minister of Power to a scathing rebuke for dragging Mrs. Beck into the controversy, rather than take the responsibility for a transaction that was his and his alone.

The La Rose deal was also dealt with at length. Mr. MacKay made an effective reply to the charge of Hon. J. A. Matheson, that he (Mr. MacKay) had, while minister of crown lands, taken the claim in dispute and given it to the O'Briens, who were Liberals.

The leader of the Opposition declared this to be a foundationless falsehood, and, furthermore, declared that Mr. Matheson knew it to be so when he made it. Mr. MacKay also dealt with the broken promises of Mr. Whitney at considerable length.

A Tribute To the Leader.

Court of Appeal On Registration

A sitting of the court of appeals for registration was held today at the court house before Judges Macbeth and Elliott.

Mr. A. O. Jeffrey and Mr. Edgar Jeffrey acted for the Liberals, and Mr. Percy Moore and Mr. W. G. R. Barran for the Conservatives.

On the bench besides the judges was the local master, Mr. R. K. Cowan.

There were nearly 30 appeals. Those refused registration were: Frank A. Anstie, William Doer, William Eames, Blake E. Fry, Thomas E. Godfrey, Thos. J. Guthrie, Joseph H. Grenfell, Willoghby Harrison, Alex. D. Lamont, Charles R. Mount, H. S. Mooney, John Potter, James Smith, J. D. Scott, George W. Young.

Registrations allowed: Alfred A. Voebe, Archibald C. Cowan, David F. Cummings, Daniel F. Campbell, W. E. Hyman, Charles Hannabury, John McArthur, George Neil, Wm. J. Reeves, S. A. Wood.

Militia Camp at Goderich June 16th

Col. Peters, D. O. C., has received official information from the militia department that the militia camp at Goderich will be held on June 16.

It has been stated that the camp was to be held on June 9.

Col. Peters states absolutely that this is incorrect.

The militia orders relative to transportation, entrainment, etc., will be issued in a few days.

MR. M'EVVOY IN SOUTH LONDON
—WAS GIVEN SPLENDID HEARING

Whitney Inconsistencies Handled Without Gloves—Mr. Beck and His Attitude Toward the Council on the Power Question Shown Up By Ald. Armstrong—Other Speakers.

South London electors gave Mr. J. M. McEvoy, the Liberal candidate, a splendid hearing last night when he presented to them several interesting features in regard to the Niagara power contract, and at the conclusion of his address many expressions of approval were heard regarding the stand he is taking in the matter and the very valuable information he is presenting to the people.

The meeting was opened by a short address from Mr. W. S. Davidson who presided. Mr. Davidson spoke of Mr. McEvoy's splendid record as a lawyer and citizen, and urged all to give him their hearty support.

Council and Niagara Power.

Ald. Armstrong spoke first and explained at length the council's attitude at present in regard to the power question.

Mr. Beck came to the council, and they were asked to hurry on the signing of the contract. Why was all their hurry? He had asked Mr. Beck how it was that the town of Preston could get 500 horsepower at the same rate that London has to pay for 5,000 horsepower, in view of the statements made that the smaller the amount of power taken the higher the rate would be.

Mr. Beck had said he did not know. After all the time he has been studying these things he ought to be able to answer a simple and direct question of that nature. He appealed to the engineer with him, and that gentleman said it was because Preston was only 17 miles from Hamilton.

If the gentleman's electrical knowledge showed the same ignorance that his geography did, Ald. Armstrong did not think much reliance could be placed on what he said.

The council are not sacrificing the interests of the city, but are conserving.

Two Watchmen for Egerton Street
Coroner's Jury So Recommends

Verdict Rendered in Inquest
Into Death of the Late Miss Rowed.

After hearing the evidence of Miss Susie Sutherland in regard to the death of Miss Sarah Rowed, who was killed at Egerton street crossing of the G. T. R., the jury, which, under Coroner Ferguson, investigated the accident brought in the following verdict last night at the adjourned inquest:

"That Sarah Z. Rowed accidentally came to her death on the night of Friday, May 15, 1908, at the Egerton street crossing of the Grand Trunk Railway, by being run over by a Grand Trunk car, which was being shunted over said crossing."

"Your jurors find that the accident was due to the fact that there are no gates at the crossing where the accident happened, and that there was no night watchman guarding the crossing."

"We are of the opinion that the crossing should be protected by two watchmen, one watchman at the main tracks and another at the shunting tracks, and further, that two well elevated electric lights should be erected not less than 40 feet east and west of the street line, and that these lights should be lit every night."

No New Evidence.

No new evidence was adduced, Miss Sutherland simply corroborating the other witnesses in regard to their being no lights on the car.

The jury was composed of D. Tripp (foreman), W. Webb, W. Wilcox, E. Lortie, J. McCall, D. J. Cantelon, A. Dayton, W. Fox, G. Leitch, E. J. Whale, W. Collins, M. Scarrow.

Peeping Tom Bagged By Police
Caught in Act By P. C. Lucas

Was Fined $10 and Costs in the Police Court—Other Cases Today.

While P. C. Lucas was on duty in the South End last night about midnight, he heard a noise down a lane between two houses, and on investigating, found a colored man named Arthur Lewis at a window trying to peep under the blinds.

Lewis was promptly arrested, and this morning the magistrate found him guilty of being disorderly and fined him $10 and $2 costs.

Lewis denied any knowledge of the affair, stating that he was too drunk to know what he was doing.

Roddy Semple, for breaking the provisions of the Indian last, was fined $10 and $2 costs, and given a week in which to pay it.

Broke a Bylaw.
John McPherson, charged with discharging a rifle in the city limits, was fined $5 and $1 costs.

The principal evidence was that of Mr. W. McCullough, who lives near McPherson on Richmond street north. Mr. McCullough was in his garden when three bullets whizzed by him, very close to his head.

He at once went in the house and called the police.

McPherson admitted firing the shot.

William Lee and P. Silke allowed ashes to fall off their wagon on to the streets, and each paid $1.

William Watson, for being drunk, was reprimanded for a week.

H. Muter mixed concrete on the pavement, and was fined $1.

City Engineer Graydon has been complaining of people doing this several times, and in future all persons found mixing concrete, mortar or any similar mixture on the pavement and sidewalks, will be fined.

A Valuable Explanation.
Solomon Siskin, charged with encumbering the street, offered a very valuable explanation of how it occurred.

The explanation was accompanied with much waving of hands, and the effect was such that the court allowed him to go with a warning.

An Auto Case.
William Firstbrook, charged with going too fast in an auto over a crossing, explained that he had had a new carburettor placed in his machine, and when taking it out first did not know that he was going so fast. The case was dismissed.

John Redmond, one of the bunch on the Indian list, who was found celebrating down on the river bank a short time ago, was allowed to go, as he has spent a week in jail.

Miss Rossiter Won a Silver Medal

Miss Ella Rossiter, of this city, won the silver medal in the elocutionary contest at the W. C. T. U. meeting in Parkhill last night.

There were six contestants, but Miss Rossiter rendered her selection, "The College Oil Can," in such a capable manner that the judges had no hesitation in awarding her the silver medal offered by the Grand Templars.

The presentation was made on behalf of the Templars by Mrs. Black, of this city.

Miss Long, of London, was also a contestant.

PT. ARTHUR POWER DAM BURSTS FREIGHT ENGULFED, THREE DEAD

Three C. P. R. Trainmen and Two Others Perish When a Long Train Falls Into Chasm Made By Flood—High Water Caused the Disaster.

Port Arthur, May 28.—Swelled to an uncontrollable height by the heavy rains of several days past, the water behind the storage dam on the Current River broke through the banks last night, and rushing down towards Lake Superior, carried with it all the buildings in the city park, rushed around the city powerhouse and across the Canadian Pacific Railway. In its course about three-quarters of a mile of railway was torn away and when a freight train from the east came along almost immediately after the flood, the engine with several cars plunged over the bridge into the bed of the river, taking with them the engineer, fireman and brakeman, all of whom were killed or drowned. Their bodies have not been recovered. The dead men are Engineer Savard, Fireman McBride and Brakeman Walters.

Damages Will Be Great.

It is also stated that two unknown men, who were being given a ride on the freight train, were drowned or killed. Conductor Rose, though badly injured, succeeded in stopping the rear part of the train.

The accident has completely crippled the city power plant, destroyed much property and cut off the supply for the car system as well as light and water.

The damage estimates vary from $100,000 to $500,000, though it is impossible to make an accurate estimate on account of the fact that the whole district about the powerhouse is still flooded and cannot be inspected.

A number of camping parties were located about the mouth of the river, and it is nothing short of miraculous that they escaped being carried out into the lake by the rushing water.

Had the accident occurred during daylight, with people in the park, as there always are, the number of deaths would have been startling.

Temporary power for the local plants is being procured from the Canadian Northern and it is expected assistance will be procured by connecting with the Kaministiquia lines at Fort William.

Railway Delays Dundas St. Pavement

At the meeting of the board of works, last night the Dundas street pavement was brought up by Ald. Stewart. He pointed out that practically no headway was being made by the London Street Railway and unless something was done immediately, the pavement would not be done by Christmas.

Engineer Graydon reported that the work was being held up by the London Street Railway.

The Barber Company was prepared to go ahead at any time with its work. The street railway company had promised to have its work finished a month ago, but very little had been done. He had written to Manager

King about the matter, but the latter had not replied. Mr. Graydon declared that he would bring the delay up at the council meeting Monday night.

A deputation of High street residents was present and asked that a sewer be laid on that street. Part of the sewer which has been proposed would be in the township of London and as yet the council of that municipality has not signified its intention to bear its share of the cost. The deputation was advised to get up a petition for a sewer in the city independent of the township and present it to the city council at once.

Synod of Huron Concludes Labors Bishop Williams Off for England

Rev. Dyson Hague Is Made a Canon and Is Heartily Congratulated.

Yesterday afternoon's session practically completed the meeting of the synod, and last evening many of the delegates left for their homes.

This morning Bishop Williams, accompanied by Rev. R. S. W. Howard, Ven. Archdeacon Richardson and other clergymen who will represent the Diocese of Huron at the Pan-Anglican Congress in England, left for New York where they will sail on Saturday.

A Popular Announcement.

An announcement that caused general satisfaction among all the clergy present was that Rev. Dyson Hague, of the Memorial Church, had been appointed a canon of the Diocese of Huron to take the place of the late Canon Matthew.

The bishop's announcement was heard with enthusiasm, and Mr. Hague received many warm congratulations.

Rev. Principal Waller, of Huron College, presented a report, in which he showed that during the year 27 students had been in attendance at Huron college, of these 23 had written on the examinations. Several students are preparing for mission work in the Northwest fields.

Ten students are taking the combination arts and theological course.

FRIDAY, MAY 29.

STORE NEWS TODAY.

Another Cotton Sale Saturday Over 1,600 Yards Semi-Bleached Cotton

10c QUALITY FOR 7½c. 13½ Yards for $1.00, Instead of 10 Yards.

Even this quantity, we don't expect, at the price, will last the day. Many of our customers have had this same Cotton from us before at 10c yard, and those who have, we venture to say, will be on hand early for a good supply at this price tomorrow—7½c yard or 13½ yards for $1.00.

We offer this lot on Saturday—Market Day—to give our country customers an opportunity to share in this unusual saving; also for many who came too late for our Cotton Special last week, as the 1,280 yards offered then did not last the day.

This is a fine, even Cotton, suitable for general use, just cream in color, being "scoured" (not chemically bleached), and customers who have used it find that it bleaches very quickly.

We will sell this lot at 7½c yard, 13½ yards for $1.00, and you may have full pieces, or as many yards as you may require while it lasts. 10c Cotton, per yard 7½c

Dennison's Crepe Paper

Dennison's Crepe Paper is used in many homes, for domestic decoration.

Rev. J. W. Andrew moved, seconded by Canon Downie, that a very hearty vote of thanks be passed to the people of London for the hospitality and kindness shown the delegates in their stay here.

In concluding the meeting, Bishop Williams made a brief address, in which he complimented the synod for the practical manner in which they had conducted the business this year, and stated that he looked for great results in church extension during the year, and also in connection with the fight against the liquor traffic.

Thousands of Lives Lost by Typhoon and Fire in Mine.

Victoria, B. C., May 28.—The steamer Shinno, of the Japanese line, which arrived Wednesday, brought news of another disaster through a typhoon at Hankow, China, following the disastrous freshet which followed the loss of more than 1,000 lives.

The typhoon came suddenly, and in a few hours reduced hundreds of boats in the Kan River to splinters. Steamers broke away from their moorings, and only those which could get up steam quickly escaped.

The steamer Wu Sang was driven ashore. The Kiang Poo, a paddle steamer, and several other steamers were damaged. The shores were thick with corpses of river people.

Hundreds were recovered before the steamer left Shanghai. News was also brought of a great coal mining disaster at Kwang Si, where 1,000 lives were lost when the mine took fire.

LONDON, FRIDAY, MAY 29.

THE AUDITOR'S ADVICE.

An attempt was made to bulldoze the city council into ratifying the power contract before it had been in the hands of the mayor and aldermen a week.

The members of the council are abused for asking questions and seeking to enlighten themselves and the public on the financial aspect of the contract, in view of the liability which taxpayers must assume. This deliberation Mr. Beck calls "tomfoolery," while his organ is "howling threats at the city fathers. They are told they have no right to discuss or analyze the contract; that the citizens gave them a mandate to sign it, although no citizen saw a copy of it till it was published in The Advertiser of May 16.

The city auditor, a totally disinterested person, has dissected the financial clauses of the contract, and in his report he applies this cool compress to the fevered brows of those who are howling at the council because it will not sign the document blindfolded.

"The proposed contract from a layman's standpoint is very complex, and a DEFINITE EXPLANATION OF THE DATA UPON WHICH THE FIGURES SHOWN IN THE SCHEDULE ATTACHED THERE-TO ARE BASED, SHOULD BE HAD.

"The city will no doubt issue specifications and call for tenders for the construction and equipment of the distributing plant which is to cost $250,000. HOW MUCH MORE
IS IT? THEREFORE, DESIR-ABLE THAT IT SHOULD BE CLOSELY IN TOUCH WITH THE FULL DETAILS OF THE EX-PENDITURE FOR TRANSMIS-SION LINES, OF WHICH THE
CALLED UPON TO CONTRIBUTE
$671,080, WITHOUT A KNOW-LEDGE OF THE BASIS ON WHICH SUCH APPORTIONMENT OF OP-ERATING AND MAINTENANCE EXPENSES IS ARRIVED AT?

THE STRUGGLE AT OTTAWA AND ONE OF ITS RESULTS.

One effect of the obstructive tactics of the Opposition at Ottawa is seen in this city, where the civil servants—customs, inland revenue and postoffice employees—are compelled to wait for an indefinite time for the monthly pay which they have earned.

Some two hundred families are thus affected, and in not a few instances no doubt, serious inconvenience, if not hardship, will result.

A similar state of affairs exists in every city of the Dominion, and all because the minority in Parliament seeks to rule.

It is not because a great principle that these obstructionists are thus withholding from a large section of the community what properly belongs to them and are found day after day holding up the public business at enormous cost to the country. They are playing a partisan game and hoping to impress the country by making a noise, in the absence of any real grievance, or any policy or programme which will appeal to the people of Canada in the approaching election.
The nominal issue for which they are fighting is the perpetuation of voters' lists that have been manipulated by partisans of the Roblin Government.
With these lists, and the aid of the Roblin-Rogers combination, the Opposition feels that it has some hope of carrying a few seats in Manitoba.
Parliamentary government is daily being disgraced by the conduct of the Opposition, and for the first time the advisability of a system of closure is being seriously discussed throughout the country.

The Government, while still adhering to the principle of accepting the provincial lists so long as they are honestly made, desires to meet the existing evils and defects. The Aylesworth bill provides that in the preparation of the lists, nothing shall be done of permitted, that will in any way interfere with or disturb lists that are honestly, efficiently and completely prepared by the provincial authorities. If, however, it is found that the methods which for years have been a scandal in Manitoba have been resorted to, the bill provides that judges shall revise the lists in accordance with the laws of the province—that is to say, they will supplement the work which the provincial authorities ought to have done themselves.
The Government's position is that Parliament should not divest itself of authority to insure to the fully qualified federal elector his right to vote—a position which every Canadian not blinded by partisanship will endorse.

THE GERRYMANDER NO. 2.

If the Whitney redistribution bill had observed everywhere county boundary lines, even if, while doing so, constituencies were not quite equal in population, no complaint could be made; but there is no excuse for not observing county boundary lines when this is favorable to the Conservative party in the constituency affected, and yet to insist upon the observance of county boundary lines when it is favorable to the Conservatives, even though it meant great inequality between the constituencies. To illustrate: The municipalities of Gloucester and Osgoode are left in the riding of Russell although for municipal purposes they belong to Carleton County. Why? Simply because it favors the Conservative candidates in that district to so arrange matters.

Take the municipalities of Cardwell and Peel—it must be recollected that the Premier refused to take any other census than that of 1901, stating that the municipal census was not reliable, and therefore we are adopting in this argument the 1901 census.
The riding of Cardwell had previous to the gerrymander, 17,473 of a population. Peel had a population of 18, 032; that is, Peel was greater than Cardwell by 559; but on the pretext of following county boundary lines, the township of Albion including Bolton Village, was taken out of Cardwell and put over in Peel, to which it belonged for municipal purposes, thus leaving Cardwell with only 14,030 of a population, while Peel has 21,475, or Peel is greater than Cardwell by 7,445 or upwards of 50 per cent. This is deliberately done because Mr. John Smith, one of the fathers of the House, has been able to carry Peel for the Liberals by a very narrow majority, but by throwing Albion and Bolton on to him, the riding is made Conservative by at least 150.

When these facts were driven home to Mr. Whitney on the floor of the House by Mr. MacKay, in order to attempt to justify the barefaced and contemptible gerrymander, he deliberately made the false statement that Albion in years gone by had been
"ravished" from Peel by the Liberals, and he was but removing the in-iquities they had perpetrated. Mr.
Bowman, who followed in the debate,
read from the British North America act of 1867, to show that the township of Albion, which includes Bolton, was placed in Cardwell by the fathers of confederation and had never been removed therefrom during any redistribution, thus giving the lie direct to the Premier's excuse for this barefaced outrage.

A glance at the map will show that

MR. BECK SHOULD'NT WHINE.

The Hon. Adam Beck whines because Liberal speakers in the course of the campaign have mentioned the name of a member of his family in referring to the jaunt of the Beck horses to Europe.

As a matter of fact, it was Mr. Beck himself who first introduced another name, that of an estimable lady, into the controversy. Emulating the first Adam, this Adam, when confronted with the item in the public accounts tried to unload the responsibility upon someone else.

All that any Liberal speaker has said has been to show that horses from the Beck stables are Beck horses, and that, though they no doubt are very fine animals and are well entitled to the numerous ribbons which their owner proudly boasts they won in Old London, they were pretty expensive exhibits for the Province. There was also a lack of candor in the public accounts. Had Mr. Beck, when challenged on the question, frankly admitted that the horses sent at the public expense were Beck horses, and drawn no fine distinctions between his horses and others in the Beck stables, he would have appeared in a much better light.

BOUQUETS FOR MR. BECK.

Mr. Beck's organ gleefully quotes from the Woodstock Sentinel-Review.
Here are a few citations from the same newspaper which the organ overlooks:
"By his conduct in this matter (the Mearns letter) Mr. Beck will grievously offend many of his friends. The man who shows that he cannot be safely entrusted with a private letter is not likely to win much confidence in regard to weightier matters. NO MAN WITH ANY PROPER SENSE OF RIGHT AND WRONG WOULD USE A PRIVATE LETTER AS HON.
ADAM BECK HAS USED THE LET-TER HE HAS RECEIVED FROM DR. MEARNS."

"The public have now the assurance of a member of the Whitney Government that in regard to the most important question now before the people, or likely to come before the people, the Government is playing fast and loose, that the word of no man connected with Government, NOT EVEN THAT OF MR. BECK, is any longer to be trusted. It is an extraordinary revelation."
"Nor can Mr. Beck afford to keep silent if he desires to save his own reputation. While, according to his statement to Dr. Mearns, he did not know the minute when the whole power project would be up in the air, he was assuring the public that THE WHOLE GOVERNMENT WAS AT HIS BACK, and quite in accord with the ridings of Brockville, with a population of 18,322, and Leeds, with a population of 19,254, were more compact and better shaped ridings than they are under the gerrymander, and there was no excuse for interfering with them on the ground of population, as to equality of population. Having failed to be fair as to the principle of county boundaries, Mr. Whitney's statement as to any attempt to equalize the population of the constituencies is simply ludicrous in face of the facts. We have seen that he tinkered for party gain and upon no principle with the ridings of Cardwell and Peel, Brockville and Leeds, although the difference in population in each case was less than a thousand. If, as he stated, the main basis of his action in the redistribution bill would be equalization of population, why did he make changes between ridings when the difference in population was less than 1,000 and leave the following ridings with the following differences in population absolutely untouched:

West Lambton	$4,808
East Lambton	$2,470
Difference in population, 12,338
West Kent	$3,523
East Kent	$3,232
Difference in population, 10,296
West Elgin	$5,685
East Elgin	$7,391
Difference in population, 7,754
South Ontario	$2,018
North Ontario	$7,391
Difference in population, 4,627
North Perth	$9,255
South Perth	$2,620
Difference in population, 8,633

NORTH AND SOUTH ESSEX.

The population of North Essex was 20,560, that of South Essex, 27,975, leaving a difference of population of 2,400. In an attempt to defeat John Auld, M. P. P., the Liberal member for South Essex, notwithstanding the fact that North Essex had a population of 2,400 more than South Essex, the Premier had the hardihood to take the Township of North Tilbury, with a population of 2,191, from the south, which is the lesser, and add it to the north, making the disparity in population, 4,592. The only reason for this is that North Tilbury gave at the last election a Liberal majority of 140, and Mr. Auld's majority in the whole riding was but 139;
therefore by this change his majority is swept away from him.

Tomorrow we shall deal with the flagrant case of Middlesex County.

the work he was doing and the policy he was following. If it is possible for Mr. Beck to reconcile his statement to Ald. Mearns with his public utterances his own sense of propriety as well as his duty to the public should call upon him to make the attempt.

If the Liberals win a seat or two in Toronto they will recover stolen goods from the Whitney Government.

"The appliances and electrical contrivances of today might be thrown on the scrap-heap tomorrow,"—Hon. J. P.
Whitney.

Says Mr. Beck to the council:
"Open your mouth and shut your eyes,
And I'll give you something to make you wise."

The Liberal motto is "Trust the People." Mr. Beck will not trust them sufficiently to allow them to vote upon the power contract.

The workingman who read or heard
Mr. T. H. Preston's speech at Queen's Park cannot conscientiously support the Whitney Government.

It is said that a man under certain conditions "sees double," but the Free Press reporter who said there were 2,000 people at the Jubilee Rink on Wednesday night, saw quintuple.

Mr. Alex. Wright, the Independent Conservative candidate in West Toronto, has thrown his bomb, as he promised. He accuses the regular Conservative candidate, W. D. McPherson, K.
C., of having advised Gamely to leave Toronto during the Stratton-Gamely investigation, and of concealing the fact when Gamely's absence was discovered. If this is true, why did Mc-Pherson counsel Gamely to go away, at a critical moment of the inquiry?
That trip to Buffalo needs further explanation.

If Industries gravitate toward cheap power, what would become of London under the Niagara power scheme? Power can be purchased at the Falls for $9 to $10 40 by the hydro-electric commission, which proposes to sell it to London at prices ranging from $24 for 5,000-horsepower to $41 68 per horsepower for 2,250-horsepower, and at a still higher price if less power is taken. On the theory that the price of power is the determining factor in the location of industries, Niagara Falls, Ont., would attract all the factories of Ontario. But, fortunately, power is not the only or the chief factor.

THE CANNY WOODER.

[Penny Pictorial.]
It was fair time in Selkirk, and Sandy and his sweetheart were wandering round arm-in-arm enjoying the sights. Presently they espied a smart-looking pie shop, which they promptly entered. Sandy ordered one pie, sat down and commenced to eat it. Meanwhile the girl looked shyly on.
"Is't fine, Sandy?" she timidly asked.
"Aye, 'tis awfu' fine, Jennie," he answered. "Ye should buy one!"

THE TOURIST'S PARADISE.

[Glasgow News.]
From the profit-making point of view, as might be understood, France is an every tourist's paradise. The country parexcellence, and the annual income from this source is something like $100,000,000 sterling, though French bankers have even put it at $120,000,000 sterling. These are amazing figures, and represent more than 13 per cent of the population, while the per capita export of domestic products is only 15.

A GREAT NOVELIST.

[Chicago Record-Herald.]
This "mild way," the critic shows, has been followed with the happiest results, by De Morgan, the author of those three astonishing and delightful novels,
"The Sign of the Cross," "The Sign of the Cross," "The Sign of the Cross."
"Somehow Good." De Morgan does not shun the dark aspects of existence; he is not lacking in courage and realism. But not having failed from distant climes,
What chance on earth has Willie Grimes?

SPRING MILLINERY.

[Mazie V. Caruthers, in New York Times.]
A maiden drew from its white box her last year's hat, straw bonnet.
She twisted and turned it, but oh, dear me!
It had "been" worn upon it!
So she vented her rage upon the innocent thing—
Poked dents in its year-old crown,
And then, to complete its destruction quite,
On its brim danced a vicious breakdown!

The sorry chapeau remained where it fell,
For several days in a corner,
When the maiden, for want of something to do,
Pulled it out, like a female J. Horner,
And found that, because of the twists and the turns, it was a great deal of the "creation" once perched on her pate.

Presented a style very chic of its own,
And now wore a shape up-to-date.

From this will be seen that Dame Fashion is a very clever creature.

No style is too queer or bizarre,
And 'tis comfort to know, when outlandish you look,
Just that more modish you are!

ENGLAND'S OVERWORKED CLERGY.

[Southgate Recorder.]
Nowadays the management of a church and all the social and parochial organizations which form a part of the work, is a business which keeps a clergyman hard at work seven days in a week, leaving him little or no time for study. Is it any wonder that he fails to become a great preacher?

SPENDTHRIFTS.

[New York Times.]
A miser is a wretched creature, but not more contemptible than a glutton or a spendthrift. Many of us have more clothes than we need to wear, eat more than is good for us, and have so much of sight-seeing and theater-going that our minds are filled with vague and useless impressions.

A MISFIRE COMPLIMENT.

[The Bellman.]
When Tolstoy was recuperating in the Crimea a party of rich Americans arrived in a yacht and asked permission to see the great Russian. Tolstoy sat upon his balcony like a Buddhist idol, and the Americans filed silently and slowly before him. He had promised not to speak a word; a glimpse was all they wanted. One lady, however, refused to be bound by the contract. "Leo Tolstoy," she exclaimed,
"all your writings have had a profound influence on my life, but the one which has taught me the most is your—"
Here she awkwardly forgot the name of the work. The sick author leaned over the rail of the balcony and whispered with a smile, "The Dead Souls?" "Yes, yes," she replied. "That book," said Tolstoy, "was written by Gogol, not by me."

LONDON'S COUNTY HALL.

[Municipal Journal.]
The new county hall will be erected on the south side of Westminster bridge, and the total cost is estimated to reach $1,500,000. The council is now paying for its office a sum of about $28,000 annually.
The annual charges in respect of the new buildings will range from $24,600 this year to $77,000 in 1916-17, from which time it will decrease by about $200 a year. There-

CLOIN GOES FAST MILE THEN BREAKS DOWN

Belmont Park, May 28.—James R.
Keene's Collin, undefeated champion 2-year-old of last year and winner of the Withers' stakes, his only start this year, has broken down. He worked a wonderful 1¼ miles this morning in 2:05, said to be the fastest time ever worked by a horse. He stepped the mile in 1:33 1-5. The mile and a furlong was covered in 1:52. It is not known definitely whether he has gone for good or whether his injury is only temporary.
Collin has started thirteen times in his career and is unbeaten. He will not start in the $25,000 Belmont
Stakes to be run here Saturday. Mr.
Keene will now depend on Celt.

THE CRIMSON BLIND

BY FRED M. WHITE

"I hope to do so presently," Bell said, pointedly; "but not yet. In the first instance I have to prove to you that I have not stolen your Rembrandt."

"Indeed? I should like to know how you propose to do that."

"I shall prove it at once. You were under the impression that you possessed the only copy of the 'Crimson Blind' in existence. When you lost yours and a copy of the picture was found in my possession, you were perfectly justified in believing that I was the thief."

"I did take that extreme view of the matter," Littimer said, drily. "Under the circumstances I should have done the same thing. But you were absolutely wrong, because there were two copies of the picture. Yours was stolen by an enemy of mine who had the most urgent reasons for discrediting me in your eyes, and the other was concealed amongst my belongings. It was no loss to the thief, because subsequent to the theft your own one being restored to you could have been exposed and disposed of as a new find. Your print is in the house."

"It hangs in the gallery at the present moment."

"Very good. Then, my lord, what do you say to this?"

Bell took the roll of paper from his pocket, and gravely flattened it out on the table before him, so that the full rays of the electric light should fall upon it. Littimer was a fine study of open-mouthed surprise. He could only stand there gaping, touching the stained paper with his fingers and breathing heavily.

"Here is a facsimile of your treasure," Bell went on. "Here is the same thing. You are a good judge on these matters, and I venture to say you will call it genuine. There is nothing of forgery about the engraving."

"Good heavens no," Littimer snapped. "Any fool could see that."

"Which you will admit is a very great point in my favor," Bell said, gravely.

"I begin to think that I have done you a great injustice," Littimer admitted; "but, under the circumstances, I don't see how I could have done anything else. Look at that picture. It is exactly the same as mine. There is exactly the same discoloration in the margin in exactly the same place."

"Probably they lay flat on the top of one another for scores of years."

"Possibly. I can't see the slightest difference in the smallest particular. Even now I cannot rid myself of the feeling that I am the victim of some kind of plot or delusion. The house is quiet now and there is nobody about. Before I believe the evidence of my senses—and I have had cause to doubt them more than once—I should like to compare this print with mine. Will you follow me to the gallery, if you haven't forgotten the way?"

Littimer took up the treasure from the table gingerly.

He was pleased, and at the same time disappointed, pleased to find that he had been mistaken all these years, sorry in the knowledge that his picture was unique no longer. He said nothing until the alcove was reached, and Chris drew back in the shadow to let the others pass.

"Now to settle the question for all time," Littimer said. "Will you be so good as to turn on the electric light? You will find the switch in the angle of the wall on your right. And when we have settled the affair and I have apologized to you in due form, you shall command my services and my purse to right the wrong. If it costs me £10,000 the man who has done this thing shall suffer. Please to put up the light, Bell."

Chris listened breathlessly. She was not quite certain what she was about for the light, she heard the click of the switch, and then she saw the brilliant belt of flame flooding the alcove. Littimer paused and glanced at Bell, the latter looked round the alcove as if seeking for something.

"I cannot see the picture here," he said. "If I have made a mistake—"

Littimer stood looking at the speaker with eyes like blazing stars. Just for a moment or two he was speechless with indignation.

"You charlatan," he said, hoarsely. "You bare-faced trickster."

Bell started back. His mute question stung Littimer to the quick.

"You wanted to be cleared," the latter said. "You wanted to befool me again. You come here in some infernally cunning fashion, you steal my picture from the frame and have the matchless audacity to pass it off for a second one. Man alive, if it were earlier I would have you flogged from the house like the ungrateful dog that you are."

Chris checked down the cry that rose to her lips. She saw, as in a flash of lightning, the brilliancy and simplicity and cunning of Henson's latest and most masterly scheme.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

After the first passionate outburst of scorn Lord Littimer looked at his visitor quietly. There was something almost amusing in the idea that Bell should attempt such a trick upon him. And the listener was thoroughly enjoying the scene now. There was quite an element of the farcical about it. In the brilliant light she could see Littimer's dark, bitter face and the helpless amazement on the strong features of Hatherly Bell. And, meanwhile, the man who had brought the impossible situation about was calmly sleeping after his strenuous exertions.

Chris smiled to herself as she thought out her brilliant coup. It looked to her nothing less than a stroke of genius, in fact, as will be seen presently. Before many hours were over Henson's position in the house would be seriously weakened. He had done a clever thing, but Chris saw her way to a cleverer one still.

Meanwhile the two men were regarding one another suspiciously. On a round Chippendale table the offending Rembrandt lay between them.

"I confess," Bell said, at length, "I confess that I am utterly taken by surprise. And yet I need not be so astounded when I come to think of the amazing cunning and audacity of my antagonist. He has more foresight than myself. Lord Littimer, will you be so kind as to repeat your last observation over again?"

Littimer replied, "For scientific purpose of your own, you desired to make friends with me again. You tell me you are in a position to clear your character. Very foolishly I consent to see you. You come here with a roll of paper in your possession purporting to be a second copy of my famous print. All the time you knew it to be mine—mine, stolen an hour or two ago and passed instantly to you. Could you actually go farther? And then you ask me to believe that you come down from town with a second engraving in your possession."

"As I hope to be saved, I swear it!" Bell cried.

"Of course, you do. A man with your tenacity would swear anything. Credulous as I may be, I am not credulous enough to believe that my picture would be stolen again at the very time that you found yours."

"Abstracted by my enemy on purpose to land me in this mess."

"Ridiculous," Littimer cried. "Pshaw! I am a fool to stand here arguing. I am a fool to let you stay in the house. Why, I don't believe you could bring a solitary witness to prove that your picture was yours."

"You are mistaken, my lord. I could bring several."

"Credible witnesses? Witnesses whose characters would bear investigation?"

"I fancy so," Bell said, quietly. "Two nights ago, for instance, I showed the very picture lying before you to a lady of your acquaintance, Miss Enid Henson. I couldn't have had your picture two nights ago, could I? And Miss Henson was graciously pleased to observe that I had been made the victim of a vile conspiracy."

"Why do you insist on mentioning that name?" Littimer said, hoarsely. His face was very pale, and some anger smoldered in his eyes. "Tell me you showed the thing to my wife next."

"I did," said Bell, coolly. "Lady Littimer was in the room at the time."

"Something like a groan escaped from Littimer's paler lips. The smoldering light in his eyes flashed into flame. He advanced upon Bell with a quivering, uplifted arm. Chris slipped swiftly out of the shade and stood between the two men.

"Don't speak the truth," she said. "And I am going to prove it."

Littimer dropped into a chair and gave way to silent laughter. His mood had changed utterly. He lounged there, a cynical, amused man of the world again.

"Upon my word, I am vastly obliged to you for your comedy," he said. "I hope your salary as leading lady in Bell's company is a handsome one, Miss Lee."

"Let us hope that it is more handsome than your manners, my lord," Chris said, tartly. "I beg to remark that I have never seen Dr. Bell before. Oh, yes, I have been listening to your conversation, because I expected something of the kind. The Rembrandt was stolen some time before Dr. Bell arrived here, and in due course I shall show you the thief."

"Not here," Chris said, firmly. "Stone walls have ears. I tell you the Rembrandt was stolen just before Dr. Bell reached the house. Also I tell you it is imperative that nobody but ourselves must know the fact for the present. You trust me, Lord Littimer?"

"I trust you as implicitly as I do anybody."

Chris smiled at the diplomatic response. She approached the panel of the wall on which the Rembrandt had been fastened. She indicated the long steel stays which had been clamped on to the iron frame. "Look at them," she said. "It was my suggestion that the stays should be attached to the frame to prevent anything like this robbery. I made the stays secure myself. And what happened to justify my suggestion? Why, the very same night somebody came here after the picture."

RICHARD O'BRIEN DEAD

Former City Editor of the Montreal Herald Passes Away.

Montreal, Que., May 28.—The death took place this morning at the Royal Victoria Hospital of Richard N. O'Brien, at one time a well-known newspaperman, but having of late years dropped out of sight in that connection. Twenty years ago he made his mark as city editor of the Herald, then a morning paper. He was correspondent for several United States papers, and at the time of the visit of Prince George (now the Prince of Wales) some seventeen or eighteen years ago, got into trouble for sending a story out to the effect that the prince got into a fight in the east end after a club dinner. O'Brien was tried and found guilty, but sentence was suspended. The deceased was born in Halifax about 50 years ago, and was a half-brother of the late Rev. Gregory O'Brien, a well-known Jesuit educationalist. He leaves a wife and children. O'Brien was suffering from pneumonia, and was on his way to the hospital for treatment, when he fell off the car platform going around a curve, and sustained severe injuries, which hastened his death.

LONG-LOST FISHERMAN FOUND KILLED BY BOLT

Plattsburg, N. Y., May 28.—Search for Caleb L. Chesbro, a well-known farmer of West Beekmantown, who disappeared last Tuesday, revealed the fact last night that he was killed by lightning. Chesbro went fishing early Tuesday and when he did not return at night search was begun by the neighbors. Last night his body and that of his dog both badly burned and disfigured by lightning, were found on the bank of the stream under a clump of trees. The lightning, Chesbro left a widow and five children. He was 46 years old.

LISBON STUDENTS KILLED

Procession Attacked on Its Way To Do Homage To King.

Lisbon, May 28.—A procession of students of Columbia University on its way to present homage to the king was attacked last night while passing through certain quarters of the city. Five of the students were instantly killed. The police arrested 28 of their assailants and a vigorous investigation has been ordered.

TRUNK FULL OF TIARAS

Eloping Austrian Princess Carried Off Large Quantity of Gems.

Geneva, May 28.—Princess Amelie Louise of Puersternburg and Gustav Koziar, an employee of an automobile firm, with whom she eloped recently from Vienna, have been traced to Zurich by detectives. Learning that their whereabouts had been discovered, however, they immediately left, and Monday last for some unknown destination. It is said that the princess had with her a large quantity of jewelry, including several valuable tiaras, a description of which has been sent to the principal jewelers of Europe with a warning not to purchase.

PLAYGROUNDS BEING PUT INTO SHAPE

The playgrounds committee is fast getting the grounds at Gerry Plats ready for the "kiddies" this summer.

Already a great deal of material for swings, and the like have arrived and are being installed.

"We have a lot of material on hand," said Parks Commissioner Pearce, "but the park will not be opened for a few days, probably some day next week. There are a number of playthings being manufactured in the city, and when they are ready we will open the park. The boys are using the C. P. Park for baseball and other games, and also have Queen's Park every afternoon. I think the plan will be most successful when we get all the parks going."

Dr. J. H. Strong, who has taken a great interest in the playground Association, has donated several swings, a wooden horse and many other articles of value to the children. He is most optimistic of the success of the playgrounds of Gerry's Plats and is confident that several more will be started next year.

SAVING HISTORICAL LANDMARKS OF CANADA

Work of the Royal Society—A New Division of Year Proposed.

Ottawa, May 27.—An interesting session of the local branch of the Royal Society was held today in the course of which the society passed a resolution in favor of dividing the year into months of four weeks each. The most important feature of the proceedings was a report of the Historical Landmarks Society, which is a branch of the Royal Society, which has done much towards preserving sites connected with the early history of Canada.

The old fort, Prince of Wales, at the mouth of Churchill River, has been saved from almost total destruction through the efforts of the society.

The officers for the ensuing term were elected as follows: Visitor, Earl Grey; honorary president, Sir Wilfrid Laurier; president, Col. Wood, Quebec; vice-presidents, Dr. Casgrain, Quebec; Dr. James Hannay, St. John; Dr. Bryce, Winnipeg; Earl of Cumberland, Toronto; secretary, Col. Cruikshank, Niagara Falls; assistant, Benjamin Suite, Ottawa.

During part of the afternoon the members were guests of President Dr. S. E. Dawson and in the evening a popular lecture on "Circulation of Atmosphere" was delivered by R. F. Stupart, of the Dominion Astronomical observatory.

AS OTHERS THINK

Everyone in London Has a Right to His Own Opinion.

While everyone has a right to his own opinion, yet it is wise to always consider what others think and profit by it.

Nothing makes life so miserable, or interferes so widely with the usefulness of the average person, as indigestion, and it is well for us to give fair consideration to what others think about this remarkable affliction.

W. T. Strong is positive that in Mi-o-na stomach tablets he has an absolute cure for indigestion and the many disagreeable symptoms that follow this disease, such as distress after dining, coated tongue, bad taste in the mouth, dizziness, flatulence and nervousness. They sell Mi-o-na with satisfaction guaranteed or money back. They believe in it and so may you.

DESIGNED BY MARTHA DEAN.

A DAINTY CORSET COVER. (5904).

Well-fitting corset covers are an important consideration in a woman's wardrobe. The illustration shows a simple, dainty model, that is the prettiest little garment possible to wear under a thin lingerie blouse. The square neck yoke may be made from a strip of embroidery, and the other parts of linen, nainsook, longcloth and batiste. The fullness at the waistline is gathered and held in place by ribbon-run heading. For Valenciennes lace or narrow embroidery will all trim such a garment daintily. For 36 inches (bust measure), 1 1/2 yards of 36-inch material will be required.

Ladies' Square Neck Corset Cover, No. 5904, sizes for 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches, bust.

A pattern of this illustration will be mailed to any address on the receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

Eczema, Salt Rheum.

Eczema or Salt Rheum, as it is often called, is one of the most agonizing of skin diseases. It manifests itself in little round blisters, which contain an extremely irritating fluid. These break and subsequently a crust or scale is formed.

The intense burning, itching and smarting, especially at night or when the part is exposed to any strong heat, are almost unbearable.

The pre-eminent success which Burdock Blood Bitters has met with in permanently curing a disease of such severity is due to its wonderful blood cleansing and purifying properties.

No other remedy has done, or can do, so much for those who are almost driven to distraction with the terrible torture, as our thousands of signed testimonials can testify to.

Mrs. Jno. R. Keady, Linton, N.B., writes: "I was so troubled with Salt Rheum for eight years, that I could not work my hands were so sore. By using Burdock Blood Bitters my hands were eventually cured."

Mrs. Ira C. Buckner, Eden, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with Eczema for a long time. It came out on my face and between my shoulders. A friend told me about Burdock Blood Bitters. I took two bottles and it helped me so much I cannot recommend it too highly."

CURRENT SPORTING GOSSIP

BY SOUTHPAW

YESTERDAY'S CONTEST at Tecumseh Park was something like it. Here's hoping that the coming games will be as good.

JOE GANS is quoted as being willing to wager $5,000 that he will defeat Battling Nelson in their coming "go." Under the circumstances, the Baltimore ink spot should win exactly as his bet, for judging by past performance it is a 5,000-to-1 shot that Gans will repeat.

WELL, WELL, WELL! Just look who's here! The Hamilton Spec. kid is camped on the trail of the "Tiger" in great style, and occasionally he varies things by rapping the local ball team. The following squibs are sample of the punk he is dishing out:

"THE LONDON TEAM is a pretty grouch lot, and all the trouble at London the other day can be laid indirectly to their crabby ways. Composed of old veterans who are soured by years of active work on the diamond, the team is a pretty tantalizing bunch, and have a happy faculty of rousing the antagonistic feeling in the breasts of the opposing players. "This was exemplified at the games at Britannia Park last week, when the Beavers got nasty before the game.

"THE LONDON ADVERTISER is out with a daily knock on the International League. This is pretty poor business, but it seemingly has little effect on the gate in London. A knock is as good as a boost sometimes, and it is evidently working that way in London.

"IF MEMORY is correct, it seems as though The Advertiser was the journal to boost Rugby in London. Needless to say, Rugby was a failure last year in the Forest City, and we hope and trust that the knocker will keep a-knocking."

LONDON SIGNS OUTFIELDER GRANEY

Brother of the Famous "Glad" To Play Center Field for Locals.

Jimmy Grane, the fast St. Thomas outfielder, has been signed to play center field for the London professional team, and will make his first appearance this afternoon, unless rain prevents play. Grane is a brother of "Glad" Grane, of the Cleveland American League team twirling star, and looks like a corner of high class. Besides fielding faultlessly in yesterday's game against the Londoners, Grane rapped out two singles. He covers lots of ground, and is evidently a born ball player.

Won By Eleven Pins in Fast Game on Ideal Alleys Last Night.

The margin by which the Grocers trimmed Martell's Specials last night on the Ideal alleys wasn't a large one, but it was enough, the sugar dispensers winning by 11 pins. The Specials took the first game, and the Grocers copped off the other pair.

Granade, of the Grocers, was in extra form, rolling 230 in the last contest, and taking down high individual and high aggregate.

MONEY PUT UP FOR BURNS BOUT

Sydney, N. S. W., May 29.—The syndicate which is arranging for the visit to Australia of "Tommy" Burns, the heavyweight pugilist, has deposited $10,000 to bind the match between "Tommy" Burns and Lang, the Australian boxer. The fight is to take place at Sydney in August. The syndicate also has the option of arranging two additional fights for $7,500 each.

Johnson Must Wait. London, May 29.—On being asked today whether his Australian visit would interfere with the negotiations for a fight with "Jack" Johnson, the colored heavyweight, "Tommy" Burns replied that Johnson would have to wait until his Australian engagements were concluded.

SAINTS LOSE TO THE LONDONS

Pitchers' Duel at Tecumseh Park, But Local Twirler Had Better Support.

Loose playing on the part of the visitors in the fifth gave the Londoners yesterday's exhibition game with the St. Thomas semi-pros, at Tecumseh Park by 3-2.

The contest was a rather harmless sort of an affair, although Birt, at short, Keenan and O'Rourke, at third, and Grane, in left, pulled off some nice fielding stunts. Payne officiated for the locals, and twirled a nice steady game, while Milne, for the Saints, too, pitched excellent ball. The former's support, however, was superior to that of the visitor.

The locals began business in the second, scoring one on a single by Gannell, a stolen base, two walks and a wild pitch.

In the fifth both sides landed two points. The Saints got theirs on an error by Wrist, in center, a stolen base, and a single. London scored on a brace of singles, a pair of stolen bases, and a passed ball.

Gates, the visiting backstop, who was recently released by the local management, connected for a two-bagger in the eighth, but was nulled a moment later on a fielder's choice.

The crowd was very small, apparently not more than 100 people being present.

LOCAL SPORTS

Last night's baseball game on St. George's diamond removed all doubt as to the superiority of the Pirates over the Whiteheads' aggregation of ballplayers, when the Knights of the Ocean" romped away with a victory to the tune of 6 to 5 in a ninth-inning rally.

The bright and particular stars were "Sparrow" Arcott, who looked after left garden in splendid form, and Snappy Stewart's bunting, who made two timely safeties.

Pirates—Scatcherd and Wright; Talbot, Nichols and Stanton. Umpire, Gibson.

The McClary office team went down to defeat at the hands of the Smallman & Ingram team last night by 5 to 1 in a Commercial League contest. The winners had the losers whitewashed until the final inning, when the McClarys landed one run. The score:

Smallman & Ingram	5

PAPKE AND KETCHELL MEET ON JUNE 4TH

Chicago, May 29.—Billy Papke at last is to have a crack at Stanley Ketchell, the fighter, who has been cleaning up all the "pugs" in his class on the coast. The two men were matched yesterday to fight ten rounds at Milwaukee, the bout to take place the first week in June, probably June 4, before the Milwaukee Boxing Club at the Hippodrome. According to arrangements the men will weigh in at 154 pounds, at 3 o'clock on the day of the battle, and the money will be split, 65 per cent to the winner and 35 to the loser. The match was clinched over the long-distance "phone, Ketchell's manager, Joe O'Connor, being in the Brewery City, while Tom Jones, manager of Papke, was in this city.

Topliners in Their Class. The matching of Ketchell and Papke brings together two men who undoubtedly are the topliners in the middleweight division. Both have been fighting at a fast clip for the last year, meeting and defeating all the men with whom they could be matched. For several months, or ever since the first fight between Papke and Hugo Kelly at Milwaukee, the managers of the two have been active in

A HOT PROPOSITION

How to be comfortable during the summer season is always an important and "burning" question.

The only solution is: "Wear thin clothes."

That's correct, of course, but sometimes it plays hob with a man's appearance.

It is possible to wear thin clothes and at the same time look well dressed. This is not true of all thin clothes—but it is true of the kind of thin clothing we sell.

Two and Three Piece Suits, gotten up expressly for a man's summer comfort. Choice variety of fabrics—correctly cut and beautifully tailored, at such reasonable prices:

$8.50, $10.00, $12.00 to $20.00.

Come in for a look and say in the language of Beau Brummel: "No clothing becomes mine that does not become me."

Wash and Fancy Vests from $1.00 to $2.50
Thin Coats, from $1.50 to $4.00 in the real estate records. In conjunction with her husband, Count Ladislaus, she has bought the castle and landed estates of Remete-Vasygar from Count Karolyi, paying 800,000 kronas cash ($100,000). The estates are rich in wood, and the castle is far more lordly than the Szechenyi home.

It is surmised that Countess Gladys will rebuild the old residence and make it her country home.

The official report on the grave railway disaster at Shrewsbury, Eng., last October is startling enough. It arrives by an exhaustive process of elimination at the simplest of explanations—the driver was asleep or dozing; possibly the fireman was dozing too. The driver had been on night duty for six consecutive nights. The rest men take in daytime is never certain; the report suggests that drivers of express trains should never be at work two successive nights. The report, says a London correspondent, is bound to make a great impression on the public mind.

CIVIL SERVICE THE AMENDED ACT

Appointments and Promotions Under a Non-Partisan Commission.

Ottawa, May 28.—Hon. Sidney Fisher's bill amending the civil service act, will provide that promotion shall be made on the basis of competitive examination.

Instead of the present system of classification by clerkships, the service is to be reorganized into "divisions" and "subdivisions." There and salaries attaching to each are as follows:

First Division.—(a) Deputy heads and those having rank as such and principal, technical, administrative and executive officers; salaries, $2,800 to $4,000. (b) Lesser technical and administrative officers, including chief clerks at the time the act comes into force; salaries, $2,200 to $2,800.

Second Division.—(a) Certain other clerks whose duties enable them to qualify for holding positions in the first division; salaries, $1,500 to $2,800. (b) $800 to $1,400.

Third Division.—(a) Other clerks whose duties are copying and routing work under direct supervision; salaries, $900 to $1,200. (b) $500 to $800.

There is a clause which says: "If a deputy head reports that the knowledge and ability requisite for position

HAPPENINGS OF A DAY IN BUSY EAST LONDON.

MISS IRENE POPE WAS INJURED BY A FALL

Cellar Door in Her Home Had Been Left Open.

Miss Irene Pope, of 710 King street, was injured somewhat seriously last evening by falling into an open cellar door at her home.

Earlier in the evening Miss Pope's father had been in the cellar and had neglected to close the door.

The trap-door is in the pantry, and when Miss Pope entered in the dark she fell several steps before she was able to grasp and retain her hold on the steps.

Her side was painfully bruised.

ALD. ROSE HAD A BIG CATCH OF FISH

Landed Forty-One Beauties at the Port on Thursday.

This should be read not above a whisper.

Ald. Rose yesterday took himself to Port Stanley on a fishing trip.

He returned in the evening with 41 perch, all of fairly good size.

Today he has succeeded in giving away many of them.

OTTAWA CARS JUMPED THE TRACK LAST NIGHT

Oxford Trolley Was Also Guilty of the Same Misdemeanor.

Oxford car No. 98 jumped the track at about 7:15 last evening at the switch at the corner of Hamilton road and Maitland street.

It was some time before the car could be replaced on the rails.

The Ottawa avenue cars caused some trouble also.

One of the cars jumped the switch at Rectory street and Hamilton road at 8 o'clock.

It was set back on the rails and made the trip around the belt to the same switch, when it again left the rails.

The crew was of the opinion that some person had the "Indian sign" on the car.

WILCOX EMPLOYEES WANT THEIR MONEY

Are Beginning to Worry About Affairs of the Concern.

Former employees of the defunct Wilcox Hardware Company, many of whom have not yet received their wages, are wondering when the cash will be forthcoming.

Many of them consulted lawyers, but there is apparently no chance of getting wages until certain stock is disposed of.

This will take about one month.

There are 33 men to be paid off.

The company is being wound up by a local trusts company.

BOARD IS BEAUTIFYING THE SCHOOL GROUNDS

Separate School Trustees Looking After St. Mary's on Lyle Street.

The separate school board has had several beds of flowers put in at the grounds of St. Mary's school on Lyle street.

The grounds are now in fine shape, and with the recent addition at the corner of Lyle and King street they make one of the best among east end schools.

George Hammett, of East London, has returned from a very pleasant trip to Toronto.

Railway Traffic Improving Nicely

Traffic on the Grand Trunk is picking up very rapidly, and in some lines is very much heavier than usual.

The ore traffic is very brisk, and during the last few days over a hundred thousand tons of ore a day have been passing through from Sarnia to Hamilton where the smelters are.

Officials state that from now on the traffic will continue brisk.

Cattle shipments to England are also unusually large.

Dairy shipments of eggs, butter and cheese are also heavy, and if the shipments continue as heavy until the end of the week all records for this season of the year will be broken.

MR. PETER M'VEAN HAS PASSED AWAY

Well-Known Londoner Dies After Long Illness.

Mr. Peter McVean, a well-known resident of this city, died yesterday at the family residence, 596 Colborne street.

He has been ailing for some time, and the end was not unexpected.

The late Mr. McVean had been a resident of London for many years, and was very popular.

He had been ailing for some time, and had always taken a keen interest in matters political and municipal.

Mr. R. A. McVean, manager of Bennett's Opera House, Montreal, is a son, and ex-Ald. R. A. Carrothers is a brother-in-law.

The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed.

PLEASANT RECITAL IN MASONIC TEMPLE

By the Vocal Pupils of Miss Katharine Moore.

A large and highly-pleased audience attended the recital given in the Masonic Temple last evening by vocal pupils of Miss Katharine Moore.

The singing of the students, some of whom were appearing for the first time, called forth most enthusiastic applause, and was only another proof of the very fine method of Miss Moore, all displaying beautiful ease in tone production, and most artistic expression. The violin number of Miss Edna Lewis, pupil of Mr. Poure, and piano numbers by pupils of Miss France and Miss Steele, were much appreciated.

Amongst those who took part were: Miss Gladys Anders, Miss Rosalie Phillips, Miss Florence Munro, Mr. George Armstrong, Miss Mabel Hamilton, Miss Helen Maguire, Miss Annie Harrell, Miss Lena Clark, Mr. W. H. Whitehead, Miss Evelyn Wrighton, Mr. Hugh Ward, Miss Alma McKay, Mr. George Armstrong, Miss Mary McChesney, Miss Myrtle Garner, Miss Pearl Ward, Miss Lewis, Miss Edna Lewis, Miss Ethel Reed, Miss Grace Turnbull, Mrs. Fred White, Miss Eve-

SCOTCH COUPLE WEDDED IN KING STREET CHURCH

Ceremony Performed by the Pastor Rev. Mr. Rollins.

A quiet wedding was performed at the manse of the King Street Presbyterian Church last evening by Rev. James Rollins, when Mr. George A. Henderson and Miss Mary Callaghan, both from Scotland, were united in marriage.

The groom was supported by Mr. Grant, and the bride by Miss Chivas. The happy couple will reside in the east end.

LOCATION OF DRINKING FOUNTAIN CAUSES TROUBLE

At the Corner of Dundas and Rectory Streets.

The location of the drinking fountain at the corner of Dundas and Rectory streets, is causing considerable trouble between street cars and wagons.

If a driver, going west on Dundas street, stops to water his horse, the wagon stands directly across the Ot-tawa tracks, where the car turns on to Rectory street.

It has been causing trouble now for some time both to car crews and drivers.

FAST GAMES OF BALL IN EAST END

Youngsters Are Putting Up the Real Article in the School League.

Two pretty fast games were played by the east end school teams yesterday in the Public School League.

On the C. P. R. diamond the Ches-ley avenue team defeated Princess avenue, 8 to 4.

The batteries were Hunter and McDonald for the Chesleys, and Ziegler and Thomas for the Princess team.

The Chesley Avenues have played four games, winning each one.

The Lorne Avenues "put it over" the Rectorys, 11 to 9.

Reid and Nichol were the Rectory battery; England and Grochelle for the Lornes.

Local Items

A sitting of the court of appeal for registration is being held today before Judges Elliott and Macbeth at the court house. Twenty-nine appeals will be heard, and the work will be completed some time this afternoon.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Aitken was held from Mount Pleasant Cemetery, and was of a private nature. Rev. Mr. Carey, of Maitland Street Baptist Church, conducted the service.

Rev. D. S. Hamilton, B.A., pastor of the First Congregational Church, attended a meeting of the executive of the Canada Congregational Foreign Missionary Society in Toronto yesterday. He reports that the Congregational churches entered very heartily into the forward movement for missions, and it is expected that the offerings of the denomination for missionary purposes this year will be about double those of the previous year.

Manager King Away.

Manager King, of the London street railway, is in Niagara Falls today attending a convention of Canadian street railwaymen. The convention is merely a social affair.

Off the Track.

An Ottawa avenue car jumped the tracks at the Pere Marquette derail on Ottawa avenue late last night and was off for over an hour.

Assault Case.

The case of common assault against Leonard Abbott, Township, Chittick and Hodgins, and will be continued this afternoon. Abbott is accused of having struck a girl named Pratt, of Pottersburg.

Hygienic Institute.

Work is being rapidly pushed forward on the Hygienic Institute and Isolation Hospital. The structure is almost completed, and the contractors have also commenced work on the cement work of the isolation hospital.

A Special Meeting.

A special meeting of the board of education will be held this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock to pass the tenders for the Lorne avenue school. The contracts have already passed the committee, and must now pass the board. Debentures will be called for at the next meeting of the council for the sum of $25,000.

Class Firing.

D Company of the Seventh Regiment last night held a most successful class-firing shoot at the Covert ranges, over 30 marksmen being present. The company was in charge of Lieut. Brown, and the absence of Capt. Little, who is in West Indies, was noted.

At the conclusion of the shoot a supper was given in the pavilion.

A Jury Case.

The following jury case has been set down for hearing at the June sittings of the county court and the general sessions of the peace:

Henry Edwards vs. Maggie M. Smith, executrix of Margaret Edwards, deceased.—An action to recover $250, alleged to have been loaned during deceased's lifetime. The parties interested reside at Komoka, Macpherson & Perrin for plaintiff; Meredith, Fisher & McDonald for defendant.

VERA DISAPPEARS

Attractive Young Lady of Toronto Vanishes in Mysterious Manner.

Toronto, May 28.—Where is Vera Gloyens, who disappeared from her home at 119 Church street on Monday last?

The missing girl is in her 17th year, fair, of an attractive appearance, and when last seen wore a blue luster skirt, white muslin waist, plain sailor hat and a gold chain. Her mother, in telling the story of her daughter's disappearance, said:

"On Monday I arranged to go to Scarborough Beach with my grandchildren, and left tickets for Vera to come later. I started about 2 o'clock, and returned home at 4 or 4:30. When I got into the house I found all the boxes and drawers in Vera's room pulled open and the contents scattered around the floor and on

LEMIEUX, THE MEDIATOR

Minister Will Endeavor To Bring the C. P. R. and Men Together.

[Special To The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, May 28.—Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux went to Montreal today to meet General Manager McNeil and Counsel Greenham, of the Canadian Pacific Railway, for the purpose of discussing the trouble between the men and the company. It is expected that a basis of agreement will be reached, which will result in the board of conciliation resuming its sittings. The hearings were broken off by the C. P. R. withdrawing its representative from the board on the ground that only the case of the machinists on the western division, and not those of the whole system should be considered.

A PRINCE BEATEN

Samos Islanders Revolt and Maltreat Their Royal Ruler.

Constantinople, May 28.—The inhabitants of the Island of Samos, a Greek island off the west coast of Asia Minor, are in revolt against the Prince of Samos and the governor of the island. Fighting has been going on at Vathy, the capital, for the past three days, and there are numerous victims of the encounters. The trouble appears to have arisen in a conflict between the governor, Kopsassiz Effendi, and the Senate. The Prince of Samos was seized by the malcontents, and beaten. He made his escape to the palace, which since has been beleaguered. Reinforcements of troops sent from Smyrna were driven back by a fusillade from the island.

Since 1832 the Island of Samos has been an autonomous principality, paying an annual tribute to Turkey. The ruler, styled Prince of Samos, is nominally elected by the islanders. The island has a general assembly, it is 27 miles long and its greatest breadth is 10 miles. The population ten years ago was 50,000, mostly Greeks.

METHODISTS, AMUSEMENTS

General Conference at Baltimore Not Likely to Discuss Subject.

Baltimore, Md., May 28.—Addressed today by the Methodist Episcopal general conference upon an apparently important motion is said to have been of it a determination on the part of a large number of the delegates to bury the whole question of whether or not paragraph 248, of the Book of Discipline, which deals with amusements, shall be changed.

The motion in question was that a time be set for the consideration of the report of the committee which has had the question under consideration. The motion was lost by a decisive vote. Nothing was said in explanation other than the report should not be given precedence over other important matters. Tonight, however, it is said that there is a determined purpose not to permit the matter of amusements to be discussed on the floor of the conference at all if it is possible to prevent it.

It was decided to merge the publishing interests of the denomination now conducted under two corporations, the Methodist Book Concern at New York, and the Western Methodist Book Concern.

BUFFALO DOING WELL

Only Five in Herd of 400 Died During the Winter.

Calgary, Alta., May 27.—Howard Douglas, Dominion parks commissioner, has returned from a ten days' inspection trip of the buffalo parks at Lamont and Battle River. He says that beyond burning a short stretch of the fence around the park at Lamont, the recent prairie fire did little damage. The buffalo came through the winter in good condition, and there has only been a loss of five head out of 400. Hay feeding has been discontinued, and the animals are now rustling for themselves.

Douglas went out to inspect the new park on the Battle River, between the C. P. R. and the line of the G. T. P. It contains 103,000 acres of splendid grazing land, and will be stocked with the 250 animals that remain to be brought from Montana.

The Government has also reserved 5,000 square miles at Jasper Pass for another park, to be known as Jasper Park, the scenery in which is said to rival that of Banff.

WANTS WRIGHTS' SHIP

France May Purchase European Rights for the Air Craft.

Paris, May 29.—Wilbur Wright, the aeronaut, one of the Wright brothers of Dayton, Ohio, arrived in this city today from America.

The European representative of the Wrights, Hart O. Berg, of Philadelphia, says the purpose of Mr. Wright's visit here is to demonstrate in Europe the capabilities of their machine. The preliminary arrangements for the demonstrations are complete, a suitable enclosed field, two miles square, having been secured in Western France. Parts of the aeroplane shipped here from America last year will be put together and the motor to be used has been constructed here after the same model as that used by the Wright brothers in their experiments in the United States.

PERSIA AND RUSSIA

Report of Rupture Between Two Powers Not Credited at London.

St. Petersburg, May 28.—The sensational reports published in certain London newspapers regarding the possibility of a rupture of diplomatic relations between Russia and Persia, are discredited at the foreign office, and the Persian legation here. At both places the official view is optimistic regarding the ability of the Shah's government to restore order in the disturbed provinces within the time limit of the Russian ultimatum, which expires June 10.

The Russian foreign office attaches no importance to the hostile attitude of the Persian parliament, which has shown no ability to pursue a constructive policy. The Persian charge d'affaires here today confirmed the statement that Persia has presented counter-claims for damages done by Russian troops in the frontier villages.

The impression that prevails in official quarters is less optimistic. Reports received here from Tehran and other points in Persia declare that complete anarchy reigns there.

THE STEEL-COAL FIGHT

Banker Clouston's Return May Result in Important Development.

Montreal, May 29.—When Mr. E. S. Clouston, general manager of the Bank of Montreal returns from abroad in a few days, steps are expected to be taken which will in all probability lead to important developments in connection with the efforts which have been under way looking to a settlement of the trouble between the Dominion steel and coal companies.

Mr. Clouston went abroad he left memoranda of his views on the subject to a basis of settlement for the conference which was then approached. The figures contained therein were not satisfactory to Mr. B. E. Walker, president of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, the other banking authority connected with the peace movement. Upon Mr. Clouston's return it is expected these two gentlemen will get together and adjust their differences and agree on a basis for presentation to Messrs. Ross and Plummer. While free to refuse the bankers' basis, it is not believed they will decline to abide thereby.

TORNADO PLAYS GREWSOME PRANK

Carries Man Quarter of Mile and Drops Him in Cemetery.

Topeka, Kan., May 28.—A terrific wind storm passed over the southern part of Jewell County last night and killed George Hahn, and injured 22 persons, seven of them probably fatally.

The storm traveled from the southwest and was 150 yards wide. It took everything in the path and scattered a number of houses, barns and small buildings over the prairie.

The property damaged will amount to thousands of dollars and the damage to the growing crops is large. The Bowman house was picked up and carried across the street and dashed to pieces against an embankment. The members of the family were all in bed, and all were injured. The home of Frank Crites was blown to pieces and Crites was carried a quarter of a mile and dropped in a cemetery.

A meeting of some twenty-five of the representatives of the Spring heirs was held yesterday afternoon at the City Hotel.

The Spring estate, according to reports, is composed of five hundred acres of land, upon which Jersey City is partially located.

In about the year 1800, these lands were owned by Albert Spring, who was dissatisfied with the state of matters, after rebellion, came to Canada and settled in Markham Township, but prior to his departure leased the land for 99 years, and the lands, of course, are now of immense value.

Representatives were present from various parts of Ontario, and two came even from British Columbia.

After some discussion the heirs decided to prosecute the claim for the estate, if funds could be obtained from the different heirs, and for the purpose of collecting funds and prosecuting any necessary action, a general committee, composed of George Spring, of East Toronto; E. H. Spring, of Spring, Ontario; and Samuel Spring, of Michigan, were named to receive subscriptions and prosecute the claim.

The claimants for this estate are not to be confounded with the claimants of the Springer estate, who were recently mentioned in the papers. So far as is known the heirs to this estate have no connection with the Springer estate.

The committee in charge of arrangements will now take up the matter of the different heirs, and ascertain whether it is desired that the matter should be prosecuted, and if it is desired to prosecute the matter a contribution will be solicited to defray expenses.

The committee in charge of arrangements will now take up the matter of the different heirs, and ascertain whether it is desired that the matter should be prosecuted, and if it is desired to prosecute the matter a contribution will be solicited to defray expenses.

—Mr. Will Black, one of London's former bright young businessmen, who holds an important position in the T. Eaton establishment, Toronto, was here today calling on relatives and friends.

—Mrs. Thomas Roberts, 161 Langarth street, wishes to express her thanks to Dr. R. W. Shaw, also the nurses and staff of Victoria Hospital, for the skill and kindness shown her during her recent operation.

Bank Clearings.
Local bank clearings for the week ending May 28 totaled $792,838, against $1,019,629 for the corresponding week of last year.

Organist Surprised.
Miss Richardson, organist of St. John's Church, London Township, was pleasantly surprised on Tuesday evening when a deputation from the choir, composed of Misses Jackson, Stark and Campbell, visited her and on behalf of the choir presented her with a very handsome umbrella, and expressed the wish that she may have a very delightful trip to England. Miss Richardson is accompanying her father, Ven. Archdeacon Richardson, who is a delegate at the Pan-Anglican Congress.

Boys' Branch Banquet.
Over a hundred guests were present at the banquet of the institutional department of the boys' branch of the Askin Street Epworth League held in the church last night. A most enjoyable evening was spent by all, and Mr. Bert Childs who presided, introduced the following speakers, Messrs. McFarlane, Bert Birks, Charles Switzer, Ray Birks, Rev. A. K. Birks, A. M. Hunt, J. F. Maine, P. Kilbourne, W. Biggs and Misses C. Brenton and E. Brown.

Westminster Services.
Special communion services are being held at the Westminster churches this week. Rev. J. Currie preached at St. Andrew's Church on Wednesday evening, and Rev. J. G. Stuart at First Church on Thursday. The sacrament will be observed on Sunday. Rev. Dr. McCrae will conduct the services. It is expected that every member will be present, and if the weather is fine they will doubtless be a large attendance, as these services are always most impressive and interesting.

Archbishop's Consecration.
As announced in yesterday's Advertiser, the consecration of Archbishop McEay will take place in St. Michael's Cathedral, Toronto, on Wednesday, June 17. The pontifical high mass will be chanted by the papal delegate, Mgr. Sbarretti. Bishop Dowling, of Hamilton, will perform the ceremony of consecration. After the masses have been said, addresses will be read to his grace, on behalf of the clergy, by separate schools of the diocese. Children of the schools of the archdiocese will attend. Several noted churchmen from the United States will also be in attendance. There will be over two hundred priests present.

The Death of Mrs. Jane Dyer.
Mrs. Jane Dyer, widow of the late Mark Dyer, died at Strathroy today in the 90th year of her age. Mrs. Dyer was born at Drougheda, in Ireland, in 1819, and came to Canada in 1874, with her father and family. She lived at Niagara for seven years, and knew the late William Lyon Mackenzie. Her father, the late William Fulton, came to Katesville, in this county, in the year 1844. She was married to Mr. Mark Dyer, and lived in the Gore of London Township for over 40 years. After her husband's death she removed to Strathroy to live with her sister, and died there. She was one of the oldest residents of the county. The funeral will take place from the G. T. R. station on Saturday, on the arrival of the Strathroy train at 1 o'clock. The interment will take place at the Gore Cemetery.

COLLEGIATE CADETS IN SPLENDID SHAPE

Highly Complimented By Col. McDougall at the Annual Inspection.

The annual inspection of the London Collegiate Cadet Corps took place at the barracks Thursday afternoon at 3:30.

Col. McDougall, commanding No. 1 regimental depot, N. C. Co., inspected the corps.

Capt. Jack Greer put the boys through the company, arm and extended order drill, the latter being worked by signals.

Col. McDougall, after the inspection, addressed the boys, and expressed his satisfaction on their very creditable work.

He especially complimented them on their drill, which, he said, was the best he had ever seen a cadet corps do. In fact, he said that the boys worked like regular soldiers.

He also complimented Capt. Greer on the able manner in which he handled his company during the drill.

The present state of the corps is a credit to Capt. Gregory, the drill instructor. After the inspection the boys were marched to a local confectionery, where they partook of some light refreshment provided by the officers of the corps, Capt. Greer, Lieuts. McBride and Tennant. This brought to a close the most successful year the cadet corps has yet had.

JAS. F. CREIGHTON IS RECOVERING

Sequel To Owen Sound Tragedy—Coroner's Jury Brings In Verdict of Murder.

Owen Sound, May 28.—The verdict of the coroner's jury in the case of James F. Creighton, who killed his wife and two stepdaughters on Tuesday, was "Murder." The decision reached was unanimous, and was not qualified by any statement as to the supposed mental condition of the prisoner.

The jury were out about two hours, and the witnesses examined were Dr. J. G. Hershey, Dr. W. G. Dow, Wm. Hughes, D. A. Christie and Geo. P. Creighton.

Mr. H. G. Tucker acted as counsel for the prisoner, and urged that the jury bring in a verdict of temporary insanity as the cause of the killing.

The jury found that the prisoner had manifested himself in several of Creighton's relatives, and that the circumstances surrounding the tragedy plainly indicated that it was not the action of a sane man.

Creighton, the prisoner, is making rapid progress toward recovery at the General and Marine Hospital. He is sleeping soundly tonight, and is regaining strength hour by hour.

On recovery Creighton will be removed from the hospital to the jail. His ward in the hospital is under police surveillance day and night, special constables assisting the police in guarding him.

The bodies of Mrs. Creighton and her two stepdaughters were sent to Ypsilanti, Mich., via London and Port Huron this morning. A large crowd was at the depot when the three hearses bearing the remains arrived from the undertaking rooms, but the caskets were placed in the cases and carried to the baggage car, the bereaved friends found themselves alone on the platform.

LITERARY NOTES

"How to Invest Money," by George Garr Henry, is a valuable work which has as its aim the presentation in clear and concise form of the simple principles of investment, and to afford the reader a working knowledge of the various classes of securities which are available as investments and their relative adaptability to different needs. Price 75c net, by mail $2c. Funk & Wagnalls' Company, Publishers, New York.

The Canadian postoffice department has decided that such journals as the Ladies' Home Journal and the Saturday Evening Post are not entitled to the second-class privileges of the Canadian mail.

Professor Stevens, of Annapolis has written "The Story of the Submarines," for an early number of St. Nicholas, to be followed by A. W. Rolker's account of "The Under-seas Sailor and His Boat"—both articles to have a number of pictures.

The June Red Book Magazine contains a number of cleverly-written stories, one of the best being "The Elopers," by Jacques Futrelle, well illustrated by Henry Hutt. In "Man and Man," Olin Lyman presents the case of an iron-mill strike. A business story of a business woman, in which she plays the game of "low finance" and wins is William Hamilton Osborne's story, "The War on the Widow," while a love tale of delightful charm is Edith Macvane's "The True Love Tontine." The photographic art studies continue to form an attractive feature of the Red Book.

Dr. George F. Shady's reminiscences of "General Grant's Last Days" will continue in the June Century, memories full of sympathy and affection. In this paper is told the pathetic incident of the dying general's signing of the letter which asked of some future president the appointment of Grant's grandson, Ulysses third, to West Point. The document itself, which is reproduced in the article, bears the autograph indorsements of General Sherman and President McKinley.

Pacific Coast Excursions.
Commencing June 1, and daily, until Sept. 15, the Canadian Pacific will have on sale tickets, London to Vancouver, Victoria or Portland and return, at the rate of $87 60. Same rate will apply to California points, going and returning via direct routes. Tickets good for return until Oct. 31. Call at C. P. R. city ticket office, 161 Dundas street, corner Richmond. 66-u

C. P. R. Detroit Excursion.
The Canadian Pacific will issue tickets, London to Detroit and return at rate of $1 45. Good going at 11:38 a.m., Saturday, May 30. Returning any train up to and including Monday, June 1. Tickets on sale at city ticket office, corner Dundas and Richmond streets.

Week-End Trips.
After your week's work and worry is over there is nothing more refreshing to both mind and body than a little pleasure trip. In consideration of this the Grand Trunk Railway System have made arrangements to issue return tickets to a great many points in Ontario at single fare with ten cents added up to and including Sunday, returning any train Monday.
