Constantine's Crown Council Defies Entente, Refusing in Principle To Surrender Arms and Munitions as Demanded by French Admiral—Growd Cheers Conference's Decision.

(Canadian Press.)

Athens, Nov. 20, via London, Nov. 21. - The crown council has decided in principle to refuse to surrender the arms and munitions of Greece to the Allies, as demanded by Vice-Admiral du Fournet, the commander of the allied fleet. King Constantine, on leaving the palace after the meeting, was cheered by a crowd which was awaiting the conference's decision. It is understood that Premier Lambros will remain in power for the present.

London, Nov. 21 .- Sir Norman Hill, secretary of the Liverpool Steamship Owners' Association, in an interview reported by the Liverpool Express, says that if the Germans think that many merchant ships are unarmed they will find out the facts to their peril. The guns on merchantmen are answering for themselves uncommonly well, he asserts. They are using their guns most effectively and courageously to beat off attacks. It is thoroughly understood that the guns must be used only

Commenting on this statement, the Express says: "The fact that merchantmen's guns are used to good purpose is proved by frequent little ceremonies in Liverpool, when rewards are given to those who

Legal Adviser of International Company Denles Merton Knowledge.

TORONTO, Nov. 20 .- Wallace Nesbitt, K.C., legal adviser of the Inter-national Nickel Company, whose name was mentioned by H. H. Dewart last night in his charges against the nickel company, gave out a statement to-night in which he said:

I have never even heard the name of Merton & Company before today. As to the correspondence published, I can only say that I have always understood that not a pound of nickel has been sold by the International Nickel Company except to purchases and through agents approved by the admiralty, whose approval has been asked of every individual transaction. I have always assumed this to be the fact and have no doubt that it is so."

LONDON, Nov. 20 .- On being asked whether the deportation of workmen from Belgium to Germany would interfere with the work of the American commission for the relief in Belgium, Herbert C. Hoover, chairman of the commission, said today:

"Intrinsically, the removal of even 250,000 workmen from Belgium and Northern France would not materially affect the number of mouths which have to be fed, as this number would diminish the total by only about 3 per cent. The needs of the 9,000,000 or so who remain would not be less than before; and for other reasons their needs present a constantly growing

MR. JAMES RUDDY, of Killaloe, Ont., says: "I suffered greatly from piles. The pain from these, as anyone who suffers from them will know, was at times almost unbearable. I tried first one remedy and then another, but all without effect. The piles still continued as bad as ever. I heard about Zam-Buk and commenced with the treatment. To my great joy, after perseverance I obtained relief from the agonizing pain of the piles Having been cured by Zam-Buk I heartily recommend the balm to all sufferers from piles."

WHY ZAM-BUK IS SO SUPERIOR.

An eminent scientist said, the other day, that the most wonderful discovery of recent years was the discovery of Zam-Buk. As soon as a single thin layer of Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or a sore, such injury is insured against blood

Then again. As soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a sore, or a cut, or to skin disease, it stops the smarting. That is why children are such friends of Zam-Buk. As soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or to a diseased part, the cells beneath the skin's surface are so stimulated that new healthy tissue is quickly formed. The tissue thus formed is worked up to the surface and literally casts off the diseased tissue above it. This is why Zam-Buk cures

YES, JESS IS FAST

New York, Nov. 18.—Jack Curley made a brief stay in New York last week, and left for Hot Springs. Can you imagine a man coming all the way from Dallas, Texas, to be in New York one night? That's what Curley did. Jack was asked about Willard. "Big Jess," he answered, "is in grand condition. You should have seen him break all records in getting out of El Paso when trick sheriff tried to attach his stuff to collect a bill he doesn't owe. Yes, sir, the speed Jess showed that day in catching the train for San Antonio and leaving the circus flat convinced me that he is ready for a fight at a moment's notice."

That happiness is to be obtained only by obeying natural impulses is amply demonstrated by Clara Kimbali Young's demonstrated by Clara Kimball Young's presentation of "The Common Law," by Robert W. Chambers, at the Lyric Theatre all this week. The experiences which precede this discovery by Valerie West, central feminine figure in the play, and by her rival, Stephanie Neville, form the basis for one of the few really great photo-dramas which have lever been produced.

Vocal solos by Betty De Witt pleased every audience on Monday, and promise to be a feature of the week. Her voice is a soprano of rare quality. Music throughout the evening is provided by the Lyric orchestra, and is an entertainment by itself. The pictures will be shown all this week and should prove as popular with Londoners as they have with theatre patrons of all the larger cities in which they have been shown. The play teaches a great moral lesson.
