The South Lanark Conservative association will meet in the town hall Perth, to-morrow, to select a candidate to contest the riding at the coming contest.

James Deegan, employed at Horan's new hotel, Prescott, met with an accident on Monday that nearly cost him his life. He had the contract for roofing the new hotel and while going up a ladder it broke in two and he fell a distance of several feet to the ground. Other than a bad shaking up he was not injured.

Mr. J. A. Houston, of Smith's Falls was away on a missionary tour on Sunday of last week. The annual missionary meetings were being held in Rev. Geo. Swayne's parish in Kitley and Mr. Houston and Judge McDonald of Brockville, were the deputation that addressed the congregations. Three meetings were held during the day, so that the deputation were not idle.

A deer hunting party was organized in Pembroke composed of women and men, and they have gone to the wilds of Northern Quebec to hunt the red deer. The hunting costume of the women consists of caps, strong jackets, short serge skirts reaching a little below the knees, and long oil-tanned moccasins. In the party there is a photographic artist, and the world will probably be supplied with some exciting scenes.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated Thursday morning in St. Edward's church, Westport, the contracting parties being Miss Mamie Hazelton and Mr. Jas. Speagle, both of Westport. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Walsh. Miss Fannie Hazelton, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, while Mr. John Speagle assisted the groom. The bride was tastefully attired in a pretty brown travelling suit of ladies cloth with hat to match while the bridesmaid was similarly attired. The bride is one of Westport's most popular young ladies while the groom is well and favorably known. The happy couple left in the afternoon on a trip to Ottawa. The Reporter congratulates.

On Thursday, Nov. 7th, Prescott was shocked over a lamentable accident which occurred to one of the linemen employed in the construction of the new lighting system of that place. Bernard Latontaine, a man of about forty years of age, was the victim. He had been a resident of Prescott for about three years, having moved there from Ogdensburg. The deceased, with Wm. Thompson and Simon Cleary, under instructions from Mr. Roney, the town electrician, had been engaged all day on Henry street, or adjacent thereto. All went well until 4 o'clock came, when it was necessary for Mr. Roney to leave in order to start the machinery at the Power House. He left strict instructions with the men that he was about to leave, and that in 15 minutes he would turn on the power, to quit the job that they were on and make a connection at Dr. McMonagle's corner. It was then 4.05 and Roney felt sure that the men had plenty of time to do the job, but it was not until 4.40 that the power was turned on, 35 minutes after the electrician had left. La Fontaine received the full voltage, (1600), and was instantly killed. At the inquest afterwards no blame was attached to

A lamb fair was a unique means used last week in Kemptville to raise funds for the Roman Catholic church in that town. Fifty choice lambs averaging 100 lbs each, were offered and all were bought by D. McCullough of New York city, at the average price of $3.50 per head. A number of the congregation were unable to get their stock to gather in time but generously paid Father O'Connor in cash. The proceeds go to the liquidation of the church debt.

The Rev. E. D. McLaren, D.D., of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Vancouver, when preaching against gambling and vice, made a unique proposal, that if the city would appoint him as assistant chief of police, without salary, he would accept the position and clear the city of gambling dens. Dinner was soon got ready with the good things the ladies brought with them. After reading and prayer an address was read by Mrs. Bower on behalf of the Ladies' Aid. A suitable reply was made by the rector on behalf of Mrs. Foster and himself. The presents were a beautiful oak rocking chair for Mrs. Foster and a handsome musk ox robe for Mr. Foster.

The death of Mr. Robert Alcorn at Wilbur on Sunday morning of last week was a very sudden and peaceful one and was a great shock to his friends in Lanark whom he had visited not more than a week previous. Mr. Alcorn was apparently in the best of health when he retired to rest on Saturday night after his usual day's work, and it was not until his wife had prepared the morning meal on Sunday and returned to awaken him that he was found cold in death. Deceased was well known in and around Lanark, having been born seventy-five years ago on the farm now occupied by Mr. Peter Barr on the first concession of Lanark township, about two miles from Lanark.

While travelling on the trains one day last week, Mr. S. T. Chown, of Renfrew, came across Hon. F. R. Latchford, and in the course of conversation, and without the matter even being hinted to him, Mr. Latchford handed Mr. Chown $10 as a subscription to Victoria Hospital, Renfrew. Mr. Latchford evidently keeps posted as to the good works going on in Renfrew.

Mr. Fred Hilliard, of Renfrew, last week sold to Messrs. Gillies, of Braeside, what was probably the heaviest working horse ever sold out of town. It tipped the scales at 1,740 lbs., and is now the mate for an 1,820 pounder already at work in the Braeside yards of the lumber firm. Mr. Hilliard's bank account was swelled by $200 when he parted with the animal.

The members of Smith's Falls canoe showed their strong attachment to their late captain, Mr. E. I. Scott, by tendering him a farewell banquet at the Russell House on Friday night last. Mr. Scott has, since he came to Smith's Falls taken an active interest in all kinds of sport. Last year when the canoe club was organized he was chosen Captain and the choice proved a most popular one as was evidenced by the many expressions of esteem from the members on Friday night.

The two choir windows have now been placed in position in St. Paul's church, Renfrew, and cause a very pretty effect in chancel. They are from the firm of J. C. Spence & Sons, Montreal. The colors in the window blend most beautifully, and in the centre of each is a shield bearing a scroll text "Just and true are Thy ways." "The one, and a Most wonderful are Thy works" on the other. This completes the stained glass windows within the chancel and nave of the church.

CANADIAN STORE CATTLE IN BRITAIN.

When Hon. Sydney Fisher, Dominion Minister of Agriculture, was in Great Britain last summer he made strong representations to the President of the Board of Agriculture in regard to the importation of store cattle from Canada, asking that in this matter Canada be treated in the same way as Ireland as an integral part of the British Empire and not as a foreign country. He also addressed a number of farmers and others interested in this trade, and since his return the agitation has been kept up in the Old Land. The Scotch farmers want Canadian cattle and have exerted every influence to have the present law of restriction repealed but without success. The British stock breeders demand protection against Canada, although they are willing to welcome Canadian buyers of pure bred stock who pay big prices for the best animals. That the policy of protection will be continued as long as the Right Hon. R. W. Haubury is President of the Board of Agriculture is shown by the following from the Edinburgh Evening Dispatch of Oct. 9th: "The Right Hon. R. W. Haubury, M.P., President of the Board of Agriculture was in Edinburgh to-day. In the forenoon he received in the city Chambers a deputation representing all parts of Scotland in favor of the removal of the restrictions on the importation of Canadian cattle. Mr. Haubury on this occasion was accompanied by Sir Jacob Wilson. The deputation which was a very large one, included Bailie Brechin, Glasgow; Mr. W. Smith, Balzordie, Brechin; Mr. W. F. Bell, Luthrie Bank; Mr. A. Hutcheson, Brechin, Perth; Mr. Nathaniel Dunlop, Clyde Trust; Mr. Henry D. M'Crombie and Mr. Milton, of Kenney. The case for deputation was stated by Mr. Bailie Brechin, who commented upon the careful examination made of all Canadian store cattle landed in Glasgow, and upon the fact that they had not had a single case of pleuro. They thought the time had now arrived when these restrictions should be removed, for if the farmer were to be remunerated for his trouble, outlay and care it was to be from the feeding of Canadian Cattle. Free trade should be allowed in cattle as in many other things. Mr. Wm. Smith said that all they asked was the right possession of every tradesman in Scotland save themselves—the right to buy their raw material cheapest and best. If, he said, the three great industries of Edinburgh were compelled to buy their raw material in the United Kingdom alone, the breweries would be out of existence, the Scotch whiskey would be made in Germany, and the flour industry would be practically annihilated. Canadian cattle, he claimed, were the soundest and healthiest that passed through the farmers' hands. Mr. W. F. Bell claimed that if disease once existed in Canada there had been no trace of it for years. Messrs. A. Hutcheson, N. Dunlop, M'Crombie and John Mitchell, Newburgh, also spoke in support of the plea, all eager to show that Canadian store cattle were absolutely free from disease.

Mr. Hanbury, in replying to the deputation, pointed out that this matter was provided for by an act of Parliament passed so recently as 1896, and he believed there would be a distinct majority in the House of Commons who would make it impossible for any Government to pass a measure repealing that Act. He pointed out that it applied to live animals from any other country, and Canada was on exactly the same footing as any other country. He said that if the matter was to be decided, therefore, must affect every country that could supply them with store cattle. Then there was the perfectly insuperable difficulty that they could not reverse their treaties at a moment's notice. He thought he was taking what in the end would be the best course for farmers, and said that so far as he was concerned his mind was clearly made up. He did not think there was any possibility of his yielding to this demand as long as he was Minister of Agriculture. He hoped that by thus speaking out strong-

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Baltimore, Md., March 30, 1901.

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that the only operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement, accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you very truly yours,

F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.

ly he would bring home to their minds and the minds of the breeders that so far as he and this Government were concerned, and so far as all Governments were concerned, the policy of 1896 was the established policy of the country.

As he closed he was greeted with cries of "Rubbish" and "Have another election."

This timely paragraph I reproduce from an exchange and give it a prominent position because of its aptness: "Citizens who are desirous of occupying a seat at next year's council board should lose no time in making preparations for the contest. To be a councillor is to occupy a very exalted position and though the salary attached is not a councillor gets more out of free advertising than most business men get out of what they pay for. I hope all the merchants won't aspire to become members of the council of 1902."

FIERY DOOM OF THE WORLD.

Teachings of the Bible on This Interesting Subject.

Touching on the dogmatic teachings contained in the Bible, Rev. Francis E. Gigot, D. D., in his book, "The Bible as a Literature," says:

"While the Bible contains so many valuable teachings concerning God and his attributes, it is comparatively silent about the vast universe of which we form a part. It has little or nothing to do with the wonderful phenomena of nature beyond the description of their outward appearances simply because it never was the object of the sacred writers to add to man's knowledge of the laws of the visible universe.

"On the other hand and in pursuance of its own doctrinal purpose, it frequently speaks of the beginning and the end of the world. Its teachings concerning these two great questions, the solution of which lies beyond the range of human experience, may be briefly stated as follows:

"There was a time when nothing of all that we see existed. The universe was not yet; but God was, and his infinite power accounts for its production. This is the plain teaching of the opening words of the first book of the Old Testament.

"Besides inculcating repeatedly the same doctrine (see, for instance, Acts xvii, 24; Ephesians iii, 9) the New Testament states explicitly that the act of creation extended to 'all things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers,' so that the spirit world must also be included among the creatures of the Almighty.

"It is likewise from the New Testament alone that we learn something concerning the end of the world. 'Heaven and earth,' that is the visible universe as we know it 'shall pass.' It shall come to end through a conflict of the various powers of nature which will entail a universal conflagration.

"The heavens and earth which are now 'reserved unto fire' in which the heavens shall pass away with great violence and the elements shall be melted with heat, and the earth and the works which are in it shall be burned up,' will not result in the total and eternal destruction of the world, but rather in a renewed and improved condition of all things. 'But we look for new heavens and a new earth, according to his (Christ's) promises, in which justice dwelleth.'

He Saw Him.

A bailiff having long tried in vain to arrest a Quaker at last resolved to adopt the disguise of being a Quaker himself and so get access to the interior of the house. He knocked accordingly at the door, inquired if Friend Aminadab was at home and if he could see him.

The housekeeper said, "Walk in, friend, and he shall see thee."

The bailiff, delighted to have got this success, was directed to wait. But after waiting an hour he became impatient, rang the bell and said to the servant, "Thou promised me I should see Friend Aminadab."

"No, friend," answered she; "I promised he should see thee. He hath seen thee, but he doth not like thee."

Jack (after a few puffs)—By George, there is a slight resemblance! What is it?

Cheap Living.

The members of the "Travelers' club" were telling yarns when the quiet man in the corner was asked to contribute.

"Well," said he, "I once entered a restaurant where they weigh you before eating and then after eating and then charge you by weight. I had a good meal and was charged 10 shillings. The first time I went in I took in my pockets bricks, weights, old iron and suchlike. I was weighed and then went up stairs and had a banquet three times as big as the last. I went down and was weighed again, but they couldn't make it out."

He paused.

"Couldn't make what out?" asked the club members.

"Why," answered the quiet man "they owed me four and tuppence."

Prehistoric Trepanning.

A prehistoric skull discovered at Sallanches, France, now in the museum of Chambery, shows that the subject was trepanned during his lifetime and that the area concerned measured no less than 71 by 60 millimeters. The subject survived, as is shown by the regular bony calcification along the whole length of the wound. The skull belongs to the bronze age.

A Fatal Snag.

"Yes," said Miss Miami Brown, "we done give up de Shakespeare club."

"What made de trouble?" inquired Mr. Ernest Flakley.

"It done happened when we put on 'Othello.' De program' was in de club dat could let his pates down de eyes of our audience."

King's Evil

That is Scrofula. No disease is older. No disease is really responsible for a larger mortality. Consumption is commonly its outgrowth. There is no excuse for neglecting it, it makes its presence known by so many signs, such as glandular tumors, cutaneous eruptions, inflamed eyelids, sore ears, rickets, catarrh, wasting and general debility.

Children of J. W. McGinn, Woodstock, Ont., had scrofula sores so bad they could not attend school for three months. When different kinds of medicines had been used to no purpose whatever, these sufferers were cured, according to Mr. McGinn's voluntary testimonial, by Hood's Sarsaparilla which has effected the most wonderful and permanent cures of scrofula in old and young.

"GONE, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN."

It is the Reporter's sad duty this week to chronicle the death of Miss Mary Wing, Elgin street after an illness extending a little over one week.

Deceased was the fifth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wing, and had not yet reached her twenty-first birthday. She was stricken with paralysis on Sunday, the 10th inst., while sitting in a chair. Her condition was not considered serious until Saturday last, when she grew unconscious and weaker and shortly after noon passed peacefully away, surrounded by her loved ones. What makes her death doubly sad is the fact that two of her sisters predeceased her, an elder one dying in February last. The deceased, we understand was to have been married at Christmas. Mr. and Mrs. Wing, and the three remaining daughters, Mrs. M. Davison, of Smith's Falls, Mrs. (Rev.) Heber Kilborn, of Farnham, Maine, and Miss Grace at home, have the sincerest sympathy of all in their sad affliction. Deceased, until lately, was a valued member of the Methodist church choir.

The funeral took place to the Methodist church on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. W. E. Reynolds, pastor of the church, conducting the last sad rites. The funeral was largely attended, the church being crowded with her many friends who had come to pay their last respects. The pall-bearers were:—Messrs. S. Manhardt, Chas. Arnold, Geo. Holmes, Walter Landers, Heber Pierce and Arden Parish. Several wreaths were seen on the casket which were given by the family, Methodist choir and other friends.

DON'TS FOR CORRESPONDENTS

Don't mail your correspondence at the eleventh hour. Aim to be on time. Don't write on both sides of the paper and don't try to see how much you can crowd on a single sheet. Leave two inches blank space at the head of the first page, and a space between each item.

Don't write proper names carelessly. Endeavor to spell them correctly and write them plain to avoid errors. Many good items are ruined by the names of persons being spelled wrong. These errors are not always the fault of the printer.

Don't abbreviate any word or name. For instance, don't write Tues. for Tuesday, Wed. for Wednesday, Ed. for Edward, Chas. for Charles, Jas. for James. More errors result from abbreviation than from any one cause.

Don't discriminate in giving news. Use one church society just as well as another, one person just as good as another, if they are respectable, and thus aim to give all the news.

Don't try to ring in legitimate advertising as news. The place for advertising matter is in the advertising columns at regular rates.

BEARS AND BEES.

At intervals the game of the bears and bees seems to be going on in this locality. Young men you had better buy granulated sugar and make artificial honey at home. If justice gets a grasp on you it will be difficult for your friends, if you have any, to save you from the reformatory.

Do you know that bees cannot be locked up. They are as unprotected as cloth on the drying bars. The penalties are severe in either case, more than that the next miserable deplorable of this kind will find a $100 reward in pursuit of him. Be wise and resist temptation.

A DELIGHTFUL PASTIME.

I was leisurely walking over Kingston bridge, Brockville, the other day, when a fine view passed—three ladies riding three well trained horses—gentle, handsome animals. The ladies appeared to be engaged in an animated discussion on a social topic. They were elegantly costumed, being attired in the latest habits of that delightful exercise. They sat at ease upon their horses and rode gracefully.

My mind soon drifted back to boyhood tales of the French Chevaliers and the Spanish knights. A lady appears to greater advantage in this amusement than any other and displays more force, more strength, and robes herself with more grace and beauty than in any other exercise. It is pure, innocent, invigorating. I wish more who could do so were so inclined. —W.S.H.

MISS STONE'S WHEREABOUTS.

Bulgarian Clergyman Has Visited Her.

SHE MAY GO CRAZY.

Not If Soon Released—In Custody of Bekir Bey—Consuls May Get Her Set Free Without Ransom—Ask Freedom of Arrested Macedonians

New York, Nov. 18.—Ivan Mlocheff, a Bulgarian clergyman from Uscub, in Macedonia, has just arrived from visiting Miss Stone, and is now in consultation with Mr. Dickinson, says a Sofia, Bulgaria, despatch. "Miss Stone," he said, "is in the house of Bekir Bey, in the town of Ceres, Macedonia. I left her two days ago, coming direct to Mr. Dickinson to try to arrange for her release. Miss Stone and Miss Tilkka are well, but the strain is terrific, and there is danger that Miss Stone may lose her mind. To be always in the same surroundings is likely to drive her crazy, constantly looking at the same objects has some mesmerized her and she has had a presentiment that evil will befall her.

No Abatement of Demands. The brigand chief informs me that he will now insist on the full ransom, as the length of time Miss Stone has been left on his hands leaves no margin for bargaining. This name of the brigand chief is Dervish Younos, and he is an Albanian Bekir Bey, in whose house Miss Stone is confined. I am in glove with the brigand chief, Bekir Bey assisted the brigand by keeping Miss Stone for 30 days in the mountains before taking her to his house.

May Not Need Ransom. "There are about 150 Macedonians imprisoned in connection with the Stone affair by the Turkish officials. I want no personal compensation, but I want the Macedonians released. If the American, the English and the French consuls at Salonica insist upon Bekir Bey releasing Miss Stone, it will not be necessary to deal with the brigands, and we can get her release without paying ransom."

DINNER, $100 A PLATE.

Wasteful Luxury of the Very Rich Illustrated.

COSTLY DELMONICO DINNER.

New York, Nov. 18.—One of the most remarkable private dinners in the history of Delmonico's was given there last night by Mr. George Hoye, treasurer of the Sixth Avenue Investment Company, of No. 71 Broadway, and president of the Hart Mirror Plate Company.

For the pleasure of entertaining nine guests from fifteen minutes past seven o'clock until half-past ten o'clock last night Mr. Hoye transformed the red room of Delmonico's into a miniature forest in a pine forest and spread before them a repast which cost him not less than $100 for each of the ten covers laid. Hundreds of pine boughs had been brought from the woods and these were so adjusted upon the walls, ceiling and floor of the apartment as to completely conceal their original character. Available wires were stretched through them and connected with hundreds of small incandescent electric light globes, which peeped out from the green boughs in all their rich tints of scarlet, yellow and grey. A round table, eight feet in diameter, made of unfinished oak, rose from the litter of moss and leaves, and its stout legs were completely covered with green and grey moss. Ringed around the table were the ten chairs, each of which, especially back for this occasion, was made of black birch boughs, fashioned in varied rustic designs, and with the bark left on the surface. The centre of the table was a mound of maidenhair fern, moss and oak leaves in their autumnal tints. Twenty or thirty electric globes like those peeping from the walls were arranged among the ferns and mosses in the centre of the table, and in front of each cover was a cluster of thirty of the rarest of natural green orchids that the hot-houses of New York could supply.

There was no other illumination of the room than that furnished by the green globes of the small electric lights, the effect was like that of twilight in a pine forest. Indeed, the observer might well have imagined that he sat at a feast of the banished king, for taking of his own hand responsibility in the forest of Arden. The name cards for each guest were printed on oak leaves, and the menus on squares of white birch bark about ten by seven inches in size. The wines were all of the rarest and most expensive vintages.

Mr. Hoye's guests were Dr. and Mrs. Gann, Mr. and Mrs. Herndon, Mrs. Gann, Mrs. Battles, Mr. Hart, Mrs. Hoye and Mr. Joseph.

The London Evening News says that the story of the restaurant of literature is not new. It is a story which I have just seen in a translation of the New Orleans, and in a modern American novel, an attorney almost in his own shirt for a few hours of the inquisition.

BRUTAL NEVADA MOB

Hold a Mock Trial, Rob and Half Hang Negro.

THEN SET HIM AT LIBERTY.

Virginia, Nevada, Nov. 18.—Word has been received here of an outbreak of mob violence which almost resulted in the death of Henry Ellis, a negro residing at Fay, a new mining camp, in Lincoln county. A gang of men went to the cabin occupied by Ellis, attacked him, dragged him out and held a mock trial on a charge of stealing $50 from a boarding house at Fay. At the conclusion of the trial they searched his pockets and took all the money he had, after which they placed a rope around his neck and threw him up three times. The limb to which the rope was fastened broke, and the mob decided not to hang the man, who was marched out of town and then released. He succeeded in reaching the town of Uvada in safety.

A HERO OF THE CRIMEA

Killed by a Kick from a Grocery Horse.

WAS IN BALAKLAVA CHARGE.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 19.—A despatch to the Courier from Liverpool, N. Y., says: To pass through campaigns in India, to form one of the first British "Thin Red Line" in the Crimea, to come unscathed through the historic charge of the Six Hundred at Balaclava, and then to retire to private life, to the quiet of the grocery business, and be kicked to death by the delivery horse, was the fate of Ambrose Short, hero of many wars, and formerly a sergeant in the service of the Queen.

How he met death. Ambrose Short, a well-known merchant of this city, died about midnight last night, from the effects of injuries received last Sunday from being kicked by a horse. Mr. Short went to the barn to feed his grocery delivery horse, and, failing to speak to the animal, as he usually did, the horse kicked out and struck him in the abdomen. The blow knocked Mr. Short down, and the horse continued kicking, but he evaded the additional blows and finally crept to the house. Doctors were called, and it was found he had sustained a fractured rib and severe bruises. The fears of internal injuries were only too soon realized, as he failed to grow worse Wednesday morning, and sank rapidly, passing away at an early hour this morning.

His Army Record. For thirteen years Sergeant Short served in the British army, receiving an honorable discharge, a certificate of good character from his captain, a gold medal from the Queen and other medals and honors and distinguished services on the field of battle.

Ambrose Short was born in Bristol, England, in 1837. At the age of seventeen he joined the army, and served in the Crimea through the Crimean war, at the siege of Sebastopol, Inkerman, Alma and Balaklava. In the last named battle he participated in the famous charge as a member of the six hundred led by Earl Cardigan against the Russian batteries, and was one of the 150 who rode back again. After the Crimean war he served in India. Upon leaving the army Mr. Short married and came with his wife in 1865 to Seneca Falls, N. Y. There he lived twenty years and then moved to Liverpool, where he has resided ever since.

MARRIED DIVORCED WIFE.

Sudden Courtship Followed by a Separation.

WARMED OVER LOVE'S FLAME.

New York, Nov. 18.—After a sensational divorce action, during the trial of which the husband declared in open court he would kill the alleged destroyer of his home if ever they came face to face, Cuyler Payne, a leading man, came quietly into New York a few days ago and before he left yesterday he again had wedded his divorced wife.

Genevieve D'Orelio, at one time a member of the Beethoven Quartette and a player on the concert stage, met Payne in 1890, and the two were married a few days later. Sudden as was their courtship and marriage the sequel came with a suddenness that shocked their mutual friends. The beginning of the end came in Columbus, O., where Miss D'Orelio had accompanied him while he was on tour with a company presenting "Alabama." In the court proceedings which followed Payne insisted he had returned to his hotel from the theatre on the night in question earlier than was his custom to find his wife in the room of another man, a man who had been friendly with Payne for several years. The actor further declared that, entirely unknown to him, she had been followed by Miss D'Orelio about the country at various times. These allegations the wife denied, but the entire matter created a stir at the time.

A separation for a year and about six months later Payne began an action for divorce. Miss D'Orelio put in a defence, and the trial was sensational and attracted much attention. A decree was granted nevertheless, and Payne openly made the assertion that the man he had mentioned in his complaint was defraying the expenses of litigation for his wife. The actor subsequently married a Chicago woman, one not in the theatrical profession, an act later was discovered in truth from her. Miss D'Orelio has been seen but little in public since that time.

DEATH LIST ABOUT 100.

Miss Vanderbilt-Wackerman, Who Was Refused Sitings by Artist Herkomer, Goes Crazy—Student Riots in Barcelona May Lead to Martial Law.

London, Nov. 18.—The gale which has been sweeping over Great Britain and Ireland for the past two days continues unabated at many coast points. Over the Welsh lowlands the torrential rains are increasing, causing disastrous floods. Reports of wrecks and casualties continue to float in. The death list, made up of threes and fours, has an aggregate approaching one hundred.

The mail boat Nord has succeeded in returning to Dover. The crew and passengers are safe. The masts of the lights were also landed this morning, after passing a terrible night at sea in a small boat. The British steamer Stelvio has been beached at Dover. She is high and dry across the Parade.

Early today a French barge struck off London, south of Sunderland. Nineteen of the crew were drowned. Numerous other wrecks have been reported, but the weather in most cases prevents the identification of the craft. Two yachts in distress were sighted yesterday evening off Dungeness, but the weather was so severe that the lifeboat was unable to put out to their assistance. This morning one of them sank. The other, a steamer, reached West Bay, where a tug is now standing by her.

She is insane. London, Nov. 18.—Miss Vanderbilt-Wackerman, who came into prominence last winter through Professor Hubert Herkomer suddenly refusing her further sittings for a picture for the Academy, developed insanity at the Hotel Cecil last night, and to-day was sent to an asylum pending examination to-morrow.

Martial Law in Barcelona. Barcelona, Nov. 18.—Martial law is expected to be enforced here to-day, as the result of student riots during the past forty-eight hours. A detachment of cavalry occupied the university and ejected the students and professors. The troopers subsequently charged in the streets. Numbers of persons were injured. The stores are barricaded and the trades people are panic-stricken.

It is said Miss Huddleston will not push the case further.

King Edward Equalizes Presidents and Kings

RULERS ALL ON A PAR.

King Edward Equalizes Presidents and Kings. London, Nov. 18.—In view of the recent attitude of Count Goluchowski, the Austrian Hungarian Foreign Minister, in regard to the difference in the standing of the heads of republics and of monarchs, the dictum of King Edward, holding that the powers to be paid to Presidents and crowned heads at the time of His Majesty's coronation should be identical, has special interest. The question arose during a discussion of the details of the decorations to be bestowed, and the mode of entertainment of the heads of States attending the coronation. The King refused point blank to distinguish between the titles of President, King and Emperor, arguing that his object was to honor the State and not the man. No distinctions will be made, except, possibly, in the case of near relatives of the royal family.

A GALLOW'S CONFESSION.

Keith Says His Crime Was for Sake of His Wife—Mormon Tabernacle Damaged by Earthquake—Other Property Damage—Conviction of a Pirate and Thief.

Buffalo, Nov. 19.—On the recommendation of the Board of Directors of the Pan American Exposition Company, the creditors have named commissioners to act in conjunction with their Executive Committee. The creditors divided themselves into three separate classes, representing the second mortgage bondholders, those interested in construction claims, and claimants for operating expenses. This action is said to practically assure the settling of the affairs of the company without the appointment of a receiver. In the statement of total liabilities of the company, amounting to $3,326,114, the capital stock was included. In the assets, however, the plant was not included. The total liabilities of the company, not including the capital stock, are $1,329,684.50.

Confessed at Salford Foot.

Michigan City, Ind., Nov. 19.—Before going to the scaffold Joseph D. Keith, who was hanged here at an early hour this morning for the murder of Miss Nora Kifer, made a confession of his guilt. The confession is addressed to Keith's wife. He said Nora Kifer annoyed him much, and fearing her, he put the girl out of the way for the sake of his wife.

Loss by Earthquake.

Salt Lake, Utah, Nov. 19.—A special from Richfield, Salt Lake county, states that the damage to property in that county from the recent earthquake will amount to almost $100,000. Scarcely a building escaped injury of some kind. The Mormon Tabernacle at Richfield was damaged to the extent of $2,000. In many parts of the country landslides have occurred, blocking railroads, changing the course of streams and causing general disorder.

Pirate and Thief.

Everett, Wash., Nov. 19.—H. Ferguson Satrow, alias Henry Ferguson, has been found guilty of piracy and theft. He admitted that during the past five years he had smuggled 4,000 pounds of opium, valued at $70,000, which he delivered at Tacoma, from which point the contraband stuff was taken to Portland. He also swore that there was an organized gang of smugglers at Puget Sound, with headquarters at Victoria, where a Chinese is in charge.

BABY BORN IN COFFIN.

Woman Was Buried Alive in French Cemetery.

FATHER SUED THE DOCTORS.

Paris, Nov. 18.—A newspaper here reports a remarkable story from Pauillac, Mme. Bobin, a passenger on the steamer La Plata, from Senegal, was lamed at that port suffering with what was supposed to have been yellow fever. She was placed in the Lazaretto, where her condition became worse, and finally the doctors certified that she was dead, and she was buried. One of the nurses, however, doubted that the woman was dead, and communicated with Mme. Bobin's father, who caused the body of his daughter to be exhumed, when it was found that the supposed dead woman had given birth to a child in the coffin. An autopsy showed that Mme. Bobin did not have yellow fever, and that she had died from suffocation after she was buried. Her father sued the prelate and the doctors, and the court to-day awarded him 200,000 francs damages.

WHAT SHIP WAS BURNED?

One, Probably an Oil Vessel, Sighted in Flames.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 18.—Capt. Ferlan, of the Australian steamship Etelka, has brought to this port news of a probable marine disaster. Early on the morning of Nov. 8th, when the Etelka was in latitude 41 north, longitude 59 west, Captain Ferlan states that his attention was drawn to what he believes to have been a burning steamship. The craft was invisible, but the glare of the flames could be plainly seen. The course of the Etelka was changed, but before she could reach the burning vessel an explosion apparently occurred and the steamship was torn to pieces.

The Etelka cruised about in the vicinity of where the fire occurred, but could find no traces of the boat. Captain Ferlan says just before the explosion the flames shot high in the air, which leads him to believe that the vessel was an oil carrier.

BOER RAID IN CAPE COLONY

Blow Up a Railway and Murder a Policeman.

STORM DAMAGE GREAT.

Britain Visited by Wintry Gales—A Cancer Cure by Violet Leaves Reported—Address at Grave of a Duel Victim Creates Sensation.

New York, Nov. 19.—A correspondent of the London Times and the New York Times, wiring from Middeburg, Cape Colony, says that within the last two days the Boers have approached still nearer to Cape Town, either to obtain fresh horses or to revenge themselves on the Dutch farmers who have not supported them as they were expected to do. In the northeast district Commandant Fouché and sixty men, leaving the main body, made a raid last Saturday on Hilburg siding. The raiders blew up a few yards of track and shot in cold blood a Cape policeman, who had surrendered. Fouché has since returned to the neighborhood of Jamestown. A patrol of district mounted troops was worsted on Monday by an insignificant force of the enemy.

Storm Still Raging.

London, Nov. 19.—The gale has been succeeded by frost and snow of unprecedented severity so early in the season. Ten and fifteen degrees of frost are common, while the snow on the northern hills is seriously impeding railroad traffic and is causing the rivers to overflow. Hundreds of sheep have been drowned in the melting meadows. The lakes in the London parks are covered with ice. Queenstown, Nov. 15.—The White Star line steamer Gyndra, which arrived here this morning from New York, Nov. 5th, reports having encountered terrific adverse gales.

A Cancer Remedy.

New York, Nov. 19.—According to the London representatives of the Journal and Advertiser, the Onlooker contains an account of a most remarkable cure of cancer, which medical circles are eagerly discussing. It says the cure was discovered through the case of Lady Margaret Maslin, sister of the Earl of Romney. Lady Margaret became so ill that her throat nearly closed, nourishment had to be administered artificially, and her death was expected in a few weeks, when a friend prescribed the use of fresh green violet leaves. The suggestion was followed. Relief was immediate. The large, hard, external tumor disappeared, and in a week all pain had ceased, and the cancerous growth in the throat disappeared in a fortnight.

Meeting announced.

New York, Nov. 19.—The Berlin correspondent of the London Times reports an address delivered by Superintendent Gemmel at the grave of Lieut. Blaskowitz, who was killed in a duel which he did not want to fight. The preacher entered a protest against "the spirit of slavery, which will not emancipate itself from the degrading bonds of antiquated mediaeval prejudices." Supt. Gemmel said he expected to be harshly criticized by some army officers, but, on the other hand, many, including men of high rank, would acknowledge the justice of what he said. He declared that duelling was no longer supported by the sympathy of the nation or the army, remarking that there was an outburst of indignation at every fresh case.

PAN-AMERICAN DEFICIT.

Liabilities Amount Altogether to $3,326,114.

TOTAL COST WAS $8,850,757

Buffalo, Nov. 18.—The directors of the Pan-American Exposition and a number of creditors conferred this afternoon, and listened to the reading of the financial report of the company as prepared by the auditor. The report shows the total liabilities of the company at the present time to be $3,326,114.63 net, assuming that the assets of $119,454.15 are collectable at face.

The company owes operating expenses and on construction work $377,945.73, which item is, of course, included in the figure of total liabilities. An interesting fact shown by the report is the total cost to the Exposition Company of the exposition. The cost, according to the report, was $8,850,757.20. The total receipts from admissions after May 1st were $2,467,984.58, and the receipts from concessions were $1,011,522.79.

The balance due to first mortgage bond holders is $174,979, and to second mortgage bond holders $500,000, both of which are included in the liabilities as given above. Lord Strathcona is said to be a prominent figure in negotiations to settle the Northwestern Railway question. The publishers of Paris are up in arms against a proposition introduced into the Municipal Council yesterday afternoon for increasing the city's income by means of a tax of 20 centimes (5 cents) a volume on all new books put out after Jan. 1, 1902, no matter how finally printed.

MISS STONE'S WHEREABOUTS.

Bulgarian Clergyman Has Visited Her.

SHE MAY GO CRAZY.

Not Soon Released—In Custody of Bekir Bey—Consuls May Get Her Set Free Without Ransom—Ask Freedom of Arrested Macedonians

New York, Nov. 18.—Ivan Micocheff, a Bulgarian clergyman from Uscub, in Macedonia, has just arrived from visiting Miss Stone, and is now in consultation with Mr. Dickinson, says a Sofia, Bulgaria, despatch.

"Miss Stone," he said, "is in the house of Bekir Bey, in the town of Ceres, Macedonia. I left her two days ago, coming direct to Mr. Dickinson to try to arrange for her release. Miss Stone and Miss Tiska are well, but the strain is terrific, and there is danger that Miss Stone may lose her mind. To be always in the same surroundings is likely to drive her crazy; constantly looking at the same objects has been remembered her and she has had a presentiment that evil will befall her.

No Acknowledgment of Demands. The brigand chief informs me that he will now insist on the full ransom, as the length of time Miss Stone has been left on his hands leaves no margin for bargaining. This name of the brigand chief is Bekir Bey, who is an Albanian. Bekir Bey, in whose house Miss Stone is confined, is hand in glove with the brigand chief. Bekir Bey assisted the brigands by keeping Miss Stone for 30 days in the mountains before taking her to his house.

May Not Need Ransom. "There are about 150 Macedonians imprisoned in connection with the Stone affair," says a consular official. "I want no personal ransom. If the American and English and the French consuls at Salonica insist upon Bekir Bey releasing Miss Stone, it will not be necessary to deal with the brigands, and we can get her release without paying ransom."

DINNER, $100 A PLATE.

Wasteful Luxury of the Very Rich Illustrated.

COSTLY DELMONICO DINNER.

New York, Nov. 18.—One of the most remarkable private dinners in the history of Delmonico's was given there last night by Mr. George H. Hays, treasurer of the National Trust Investments Company, of No. 71 Broadway, and president of the Hart Mirror Plate Company.

The pleasure of entertaining nine guests from fifteen minutes past seven o'clock until half-past ten o'clock last night Mr. Hays transformed the red room of Delmonico's into a miniature forest in all their forest and spread before them a repast which cost him not less than $100 for each of the ten covers laid. Hundreds of pine boughs had been brought from the woods and these were so adjusted upon the walls, ceiling and floor of the apartment as to completely conceal their original character.

Visible wires were stretched through them and connected with hundreds of small incandescent electric light globes, which peeped out from the green boughs on the walls and ceiling. Each globe was shaped like an acorn, and shone with a pale green light that lent reality to the semblance of the rare woodland flower.

Over the crash that covered the floor had been strewn pine boughs, twigs of thick wood, moss and bits of autumn leaves in all their rich tints of scarlet, yellow and grey.

A round table, eight feet in diameter, made of unfinished oak, rose from the litter of moss and leaves, and its stout legs were completely covered with green and grey moss.

Over the crash that covered the floor had been strewn pine boughs, twigs of thick wood, moss and bits of autumn leaves in all their rich tints of scarlet, yellow and grey.

The London Evening News says that the only way the mystery of the Stone case is to be solved is by the publication of a full and complete account of the facts of the case.

BRUTAL NEVADA MOB

Hold a Mock Trial, Rob and Half Hang Negro,

THEN SET HIM AT LIBERTY.

Virginia, Nevada, Nov. 18.—Word has been received here of an outbreak of mob violence which almost resulted in the death of Henry Ellis, a negro, residing at Fay, a new mining camp, in Lincoln county.

A gang of men went to the cabin occupied by Ellis, attacked him, dragged him out and held a mock trial on a charge of stealing $50 from a boarding house at Fay. At the conclusion of the trial they searched his pockets and took all the money he had, after which they placed rope around his neck and threw him up three times. The limb to which the rope was fastened broke, and the mob decided not to hang the man, who was marched out of town and then released. He succeeded in reaching the town of Nevada in safety.

A HERO OF THE CRIMEA

Killed by a Kick from a Grocery Horse.

WAS IN BALAKLAVA CHARGE.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 19.—A despatch says: To pass through campaigns in India, to form one of the first British "Thin Red Line" in the Crimea, to come under the fire of the historic charge of the Six Hundred at Balaclava, and then to retire to private life, to the peace and quiet of the grocery business, and be kicked to death by the delivery horse, was the fate of Ambrose Short, hero of many wars, and formerly a sergeant in the service of the Queen.

Ambrose Short, a well-known merchant of this city, died about midnight last night, from the effects of injuries received last Sunday from being kicked by a horse. Mr. Short went to the barn to feed his grocery delivery horse, and, falling to speak to the animal as he usually did, the horse kicked out and struck him in the abdomen. The blow knocked Mr. Short down, and the horse continued kicking, but he evaded the additional blows as fully as he could.

Doctors were called, and it was found he had sustained a fractured rib and severe bruises. The fears of imminent injury were only too soon realized. He began to grow worse Wednesday morning, and sank rapidly, passing away at an early hour this morning.

IS AN ARMY RECORD.

For thirty years Sergeant Short served in the British army, receiving an honorable discharge, a certificate of good character from his captain, a gold medal from the Queen and other honors for his heroic and distinguished services on the field of battle.

Ambrose Short was born in Bristol, England, in 1837. At the age of seventeen he ran away and joined the army. Although but a youth, soldiers were in demand, for the Crimean war was on. He joined the famous 58th regiment, serving first through the Crimean war, at the siege of Sebastopol, Inkerman, Alma and Balaklava. In his last named battle, he participated in the famous charge as a member of the six hundred led by Earl Cardigan against the Russian batteries, and was one of the 150 who rode back again. After the Crimean war he served in India. Upon leaving the army, Mr. Short married and came with his wife in 1864 to Seneca Falls, N. Y. There he lived twenty years and then moved to Lockport, where he has resided ever since.

MARRIED DIVORCED WIFE.

Sudden Courtship Followed by a Separation.

WARMED OVER LOVE'S FLAME.

New York, Nov. 18.—After a sensational divorce action, during the trial of which the husband declared in open court he would kill the alleged destroyer of his home if ever they came face to face, Guyler Payne, a leading man, came quietly into New York a few days ago and before he left yesterday he again had wedded his divorced wife.

Genevieve D'Orelio, at one time a member of the Beethoven Quartette and a player on the concert stage, met Payne in 1890, and the two were married a few days later.

Sudden as was their courtship and marriage the sequel came with a suddenness that shocked their mutual friends. At the beginning of the end came in Columbus, O., where Miss D'Orelio had accompanied him while he was en tour with a company presenting "Alabama."

In the court proceedings which followed Payne insisted he had returned to his hotel from the theatre on the night in question earlier than was his custom to find his wife in the room of another man, a man who had been friendly with Payne for several years. The actor further declared that, entirely unknown to himself, this man had followed Miss D'Orelio about the country at various times. These allegations the wife denied, but the entire matter created a stir at the time.

A separation was entered and about six months later Payne began an action for divorce. Miss D'Orelio put in a defence and the trial was sensational and attracted much attention. A decree was granted nevertheless, and Payne openly made the assertion that the man he had mentioned in his complaint was defraying the expenses of litigation for his wife.

Paris, Nov. 18.—A newspaper here reports a remarkable story from Roubaix. Mme. Bobin, a passenger on the steamer La Plata, from Senegal, was lashed at that port suffering with what was supposed to have been yellow fever. She was placed in the Lazaretto, where her condition became worse, and finally the doctors certified that she was dead, and she was buried.

WHAT SHIP WAS BURNED?

One, Probably an Oil Vessel, Sighted in Flames.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 18.—Capt. Ferlan, of the Australian steamship Etelka, has brought to this port news of a probable marine disaster. Early on the morning of Nov. 8th, when the Etelka was in latitude 41 north, longitude 59 west, Captain Ferlan states that his attention was drawn to what he believes to have been a burning steamship. The craft was invisible, but the glare of the flames could be plainly seen. The course of the Etelka was changed, but before she could reach the burning vessel an explosion apparently occurred and the steamship was torn to pieces.

The Etelka cruised about in the vicinity of where the fire occurred, but could find no traces of the boat. Captain Ferlan says just before the explosion the flames shot high in the air, which leads him to believe that the vessel was an oil carrier.

BOER RAID IN CAPE COLONY

Blow Up a Railway and Murder a Policeman.

STORM DAMAGE GREAT.

Britain Visited by Wintry Gales—A Cancer Cure by Violet Leaves Reported—Address at Grave of a Duel Victim Creates Sensation.

New York, Nov. 19.—A correspondent of the London Times and the New York Times, wiring from Middeburg, Cape Colony, says that within the last two days the Boers have approached still nearer to Cape Town, either to obtain fresh horses or to revenge themselves on the Dutch farmers who have not supported them as they were expected to do. In the northern district Commandant Fouché and sixty men, leaving the main body, made a raid last Saturday to Murrug siding.

The raiders blew up a few yards of track and shot in cold blood a Cape policeman, who had surrendered. Fouché has since returned to the neighborhood of Jamestown. A patrol of district mounted troops was worsted on Monday by an insignificant force of the enemy.

Storm Still Raging.

London, Nov. 19.—The gale has been succeeded by frost and snow of unprecedented severity so early in the season. Ten and fifteen degrees of frost are common, while the snow on the northern hills is seriously impeding railroad traffic and is causing the rivers to overflow. Hundreds of sheep have been drowned in the neighboring meadows. The lakes in the London parks are covered with ice.

Queensdown, Nov. 15.—The White Star Line steamer Gynnie, which arrived here this morning from New York, Nov. 5th, reports having encountered terrific adverse gales.

A Cancer Remedy.

New York, Nov. 19.—According to the London representatives of the Journal and Advertiser, the Onlooker contains an account of a most remarkable cure of cancer, which medical circles are eagerly discussing. It says the cure was discovered through the case of Lady Margaret Masham, sister of the Earl of Romney. Lady Margaret became so ill that her throat nearly closed, nourishment had to be administered artificially, and her death was expected in about a week, when a friend prescribed the use of fresh green violet leaves. The suggestion was followed. Relief was immediate. This large, hard, external tumor disappeared in a week all pain ceased, and the cancerous growth in the tonsil disappeared in a fortnight.

LIABILITIES AMOUNT ALTOGETHER TO $3,326,114.

Buffalo, Nov. 18.—The directors of the Pan-American Exposition and a number of creditors conferred this afternoon, and listened to the reading of the financial report of the company as prepared by the auditor. The report shows the total liabilities of the company at the present time to be $3,326,114.65 net, assuming that the assets of $146,474.15 are collectable at face.

The company owes operating expenses and on construction work $77,945.73, which item is, of course, uncollected at face. An interesting fact shown by the report is the total cost to the Exposition Company of the exposition. The cost, according to the report, was $8,800,757.20.

The total receipts from admissions after May 1st were $2,467,083.58, and the receipts from concessions were $1,011,522.70.

The balance due to first mortgage bond holders is $174,970, and to second mortgage bond holders $500,000, both of which are included in the liabilities as given above.

Lord Strathcona is said to be a prominent figure in negotiations to settle the Northwestern Railway question.

The publishers of Paris are up in arms against a proposition introduced into the Municipal Council yesterday afternoon for increasing the city's income by means of a tax of 20 centimes (2 cents) a volume on all new books put on sale after Jan. 1, 1902, no matter where originally printed or published.
