The Finest Novel

RALPH CONNOR HAS EVER WRITTEN.

"The finest thing Ralph Connor has done, and when we remember his past achievements that is no mean praise. His style throughout is strong and forceful, he has an intimate knowledge of what he is writing about, and his inspired descriptions of the heroisms of the North-West Mounted Police make one glow with the same feeling of pride as do the accounts of our heroes in the battles that are raging now. Ralph Connor shows us what magnificent men and what brave, noble women, the sons and daughters of the Empire, are. It is a joy to meet some of our old friends again, and in the dangers and anxieties they undergo they more than ever show of what pure gold they are made." Plot That Failed.

Love That Would Not Be Denied.

CHAPTER XVII.
How long he could have withstood the influence of that dreadful place and time it is impossible to say, but as the clock chimed the quarter to one his nerves, strung to their farthest, received a shock which dispelled all memories of the past, all hopes and guilty ambitions for the future.

Before him in the darkness and up in the deserted room was the blue light, dimly burning.

A shudder crept through his frame. His hand grasped the revolver, his gaze was chained to that window.

The light grew more intense, slowly was transformed as he had seen it before, and there, plain and distinct, at the window stood the horrible, fearful White Nun!

For a while the figure remained motionless at the window, then it turned and he knew instinctively that it was coming in the direction of the oriel window.

If so it would in a few minutes be above him. He waited, and his eyes turned to the window.

For a moment he lost consciousness, the next, by a strong effort, he regained something of his old daredevil courage, and he bit his lip to keep himself awake as the horrible figure approached with floating motion toward him.

His face was turned from him as it came, but a bird flew out of the ivy with a wild shriek of terror, and the skull face and gleaming eyes followed the bird's flight.

More horrible still, it welcomed it with a dry, hollow laugh, which chilled the watcher to the immortal soul.

Slowly it neared where he stood. It was opposite.

Then it turned its head, and at that moment, calling up all the courage which he possessed, the captain sprang, with a hoarse, guttural shriek in his dry, hot throat, upon the figure.

Instantly the light disappeared. He felt to his astonishment, even in his terror, his hands grasp something firm, and then he knew that the ghost's boney hands were round his neck.

But the reckless courage born from very despair filled him, and he exerted his tremendous strength as if he was using it against a human being.

He clasped the figure in his muscular arms and threw his whole weight upon it, forcing it gradually but surely.

Inch by inch, the figure gave way; the floor was reached, the captain with a cry of mad excitement forced it backward upon the stone, then raised his life-preserver and aimed a deadly blow at the skull face.

Then there arose a shout of warning and an oath from the white, skinless lips, and a man's voice came through them hoarsely and panting: "Hold hard, I give in!"

The captain staggered back with petrifying astonishment.

The next moment he had hurled the figure to the ground, had planted his knees upon its chest, and leveling his revolver at its head, hissed out: "Move an inch, speak a word, and I will shoot you like a dog."

Then with the other hand he tore off the skull mask, flung it aside and glared down with a smile of triumph and malice upon the weather-beaten face of Willie Sanderson!

CHAPTER XVIII.

The captain drew a long breath, shifted his knee a little on the chest of the prostrate man and smiled.

That smile was a study of malignant triumph and conscious power.

"Soh!" he said, between his teeth, and weighing the revolver in his hand with its barrel still pointed to the prostrate man, "soh, you are the ghost, my fine fellow? You are the White Nun who terrifies honest people out of their wits?"

Willie struggled for breath, and fought with daring audacity.

"I give in, captain. Give me a little more breathing room," and he groaned.

The captain smiled, released his prisoner, and seating himself comfortably, with the revolver still conveniently leveled, watched keenly the huge Willie rise, shake himself and draw a long breath of relief.

"Whew!" he breathed, "that's better! You are uncommon strong, captain," he remarked, coolly eying the lithe figure of his conqueror with looks of admiration.

"I am," said the captain. "Stand there. No," he added, quickly, as Willie was about to slip off the white robe and paraphernalia which constituted his disguise. "No, don't take anything off. I may want to shoot you yet, and your costume would explain everything. Stand there—on second thoughts, you may sit down."

Willie Sanderson, with a shrug of his shoulders, threw himself down beside the captain and eyed the ground sullenly and expectantly.

"Now," said the captain, "I must know the whole truth and nothing but the truth. Answer my question straightforwardly and without prevarication, or I—"

"Stop," said Willie, driven to desperation by the captain's consummate coolness. "I'll tell you; I suppose I must."

The captain nodded.

"I saw you the other night," he said; "I was walking in the garden and saw your light. My man and I climbed to the window and were looking for you. We should have caught you then, but were afraid of raising the house."

Willie Sanderson grinned.

"Beginn' your pardon, captain, you didn't see me."

The captain scrutinized him.

"No," he said, "you are right; I was a smaller-made man."

Willie nodded.

"What was he—what were you doing in that room?" said the captain.

"Were you on the same errand?" Willie nodded.

"We was, captain. But we didn't want anything in that room, and more by token we wouldn't touch so much as a candle in it, for the sake of 'im as is dead, Master Midmay was a good friend to all of us boys, captain and we'd guard anything of 'is rather nor interfere w' it. The room and all as is in it will be all right for us."

"I understand," said the captain. "You pass through the room to some other part of the house."

"Wrong again, captain," returned Willie, laughing grimly. "The house and all in it is sacred for us. We don't touch aught as belongs to the Midmay; we'd go many a mile for the pretty miss."

"Then," said the captain, "there's a secret passage from that old room. Where does it lead?"

"To the cliffs," answered Willie, reluctantly.

A light broke upon the captain.

"To the cliffs," he returned, quietly, though his heart beat fast. "To the cliffs, and from the cliffs to the beach? What do you want there?"

Willie made a gesture of annoyance.

"What should we want there?" he asked, sulkily.

"I see," said the captain, composedly and slowly. "I see. You are a party of smugglers, my fine friend, and you run your cargo from the cliffs under Midmay House. Soh! soh!"

Willie nodded sullenly.

"And now, you've got it, captain, what are you going to do?"

"That depends," said the captain. "I must know more. Turn so that I may see you in the light. What is that on your arms and hands?"

Willie grinned.

"That's canvas," he said. "Job be clever at painting, so he rigged up a skeleton suit. Painted it all black, y' see, and marked out the bones in white paint. Clever, ain't it?"

"Very!" said the captain, sarcastically. "And how do you manage the ghostly light?"

"So," said Willie, pointing to a small lamp. "That be filled with some spirit as Job knows on, and when that be set light to, it sets a flame all round."

"I see," said the captain, smiling against his will, as he thought how easily the deception was worked.

"There be sulphur round my eyes and on my arms, and my feet wrapped in list," said Willie, holding up one huge foot so inclosed.

The captain started suddenly.

"But," he said, "how do you manage with the footmarks on the floor in the room? Do you leave them?"

COULD NOT STAND ON FEET

Mrs. Baker So Weak—Could Not Do Her Work—Found Relief In Novel Way.

Adrian, Mich.—"I suffered terribly with female weakness and backache and got so weak that I could hardly do my work. When I washed my dishes I had to sit down and when I would sweep the floor I would get so weak that I would have to get a drink every few minutes, and before I did my dusting I would have to lie down. I got going into consumption. One day I found a piece of paper blowing around the yard and I picked it up and read it. It said 'Saved from the Grave,' and told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for women. I should remember that there is one tried and true remedy for the ills to which all women are prone, and that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It promotes that vigor which makes work easy. The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass."

Willie shook his head.

"No," he said; "not we. That wouldn't be safe, captain. We shake some dust down from a sauceman w' holes in the bottom."

"There are clever people as well as myself," thought the captain. "One thing more," he added, rubbing his finger along the barrel of the revolver to remind his captive that he was still on guard. "I watched you come out of the ivy in the chapel, and descend from the roof. How did you manage that?"

"That's the easiest part, captain," he said. "I can walk along the ledge, as ain't very broad, 'tis true, but do look from down here narrower than it be—"

"I see," said the captain. "But the descent—how is that arranged?"

"By a wire and a spring," said Willie. "There's a big spring hid up in that ivy, and when I swings off that ledge the spring lets the wire down; when I lets go, up goes the wire—not up the roof, you know, but just enough to keep it out of sight. Wire's a difficult thing to distinguish in the light of this place, and it ain't thick, like rope."

"I have it all," said the captain. "Clever, very clever. There are other heads behind yours, my friend," he muttered.

"And now what be you going to do, captain?" asked Willie, anxiously.

"I've behaved honorable and answered up true and straight, like an honest man. What be you going to do?"

"I will think," said the captain.

"I should think you'd never be so hard as to interfere with an honest man's living, captain?" pleaded Willie, gruffly. "It don't make no odds to you if we do give the customs a slip now and then and run a small cargo."

"A small cargo," said the captain significantly. "You have been rather busy lately, if I mistake not, my friend!"

"Well, we have so," admitted Willie, candidly, "we have so, and," he added, desperately, "there be a cargo waiting for us now, captain."

"Now?" asked the captain.

"Ay, this very minute," assented Willie. "I've been down to see if it be all clear, and was going down to fetch the boys when you caught me—may the devil take ye!—and if it's there long we'll lose it and get the ship owners into trouble most like."

"Give the signal," said the captain.

"I have a proposal to make."

"Stand behind that pillar, then," said Willie. "If the boys was to come up suddenly and see us like this they might think as I played them false, and drop us both without so much as a 'did' or 'didn't' ye!"

Sealing Commission.

(Friday, Jan. 28th.)

WILLIAM J. BARTLETT, sworn to Dr. Lloyd—Belongs to Brigus, and is master of the sealer Terra Nova, has been prosecuting the seal fishery sixteen years as man, and thirty-one as master. Has been about twenty years at the Gulf fishery. Remember 31st of March last and the 30th. The show began falling and the weather commenced on Monday midnight. Witness read extracts taken from notes at the time as to weather conditions in the vicinity of St. Paul's, and other particulars of the voyage. On Tuesday the ship was in a pan of ice all day, snowing hard with strong wind, unfit for men to be on the ice. On Wednesday it was much colder. Was in company with the Southern Cross most of the voyage. Witness was not on board but some of his crew were. Two were on board March 23rd when she was fairly well fished, but had not all her seals aboard. Does not know how many were fished, when she left the ice. Witness always thought the Southern Cross a fine ship, but did not know much of her last season. The only mistake made by the master of the Southern Cross made in opinion of witness, was that he did not harbour, instead of continuing the voyage on the morning of her loss. The barometer on the Terra Nova did not indicate bad weather on the 30th, when the storm commenced, but it dropped somewhat the next day. Witness thinks panning is necessary in the interests of the men as well as the voyage, though seals are invariably based on the ice all night. Men can supply themselves with a sufficiency of food going on the ice, and no man ever complained of the quality or quantity of food to witness in all his experience.

To Judge Johnson.—Witness did not think the high bulwarks of the Southern Cross was a cause of great danger. Witness did not mean that the Southern Cross was lost because the Capt. did not harbour, but rather that the chances of her being killed, when it was just an opinion, however, rather on deck are not a danger, but rather the reverse. Witness prefers dories to other boats for seal fishery and they are more useful in a heavy sea. In the matter of food, witness thought there was not much cause for complaint. As to clothing, witness might be room for improvement, but a solution of the difficulty is not easy. Most of the trouble as to accommodation of the crew is with the crew themselves, owing to carelessness and uncleanly habits.

To the Chief Justice.—It is usual for the men to come on board at sunset or soon after.

MOSES BARTLETT, sworn to Dr. Lloyd—Belongs to Brigus. Has been going to the ice about 28 years, five springs as master. Was on the Terra Nova last spring as second hand. Remember the 31st March last, when it was snowing in the morning, growing worse during the day, until night, when it was quite cold and stormy. The men were on board all day, except about 25, for a short time in the morning. Was master of the Southern Cross in 1909, the only year. She was a good sea boat in strong breeze. She was as good as any of the wooden ships, as far as witness knew.

To Judge Johnson.—A load line might be all right for greater safety, though it was not often the ships get such large cargoes. Witness thinks a thorough inspection of all ships in the holds, the engine room, the timbers, should be made every year by an independent inspector. The dory is the best boat for the seal fishery and would live where punts would swamp. Four miles is a reasonable distance for men to be away from their ships, and captains should not be allowed to send them further, unless arrangements were made for their protection on another ship. A law regulating clothing for sealers would not be practical, as the men would evade it. Witness is of opinion that something gave out in connection with the engines. There was difficulty in connection with the rose pipe when he was master, owing to choking near the rose, else she would have weathered the storm. The master should be alone responsible for shipping the crew, as he will then select good men, who will be amenable to his orders. Witness does not know how the disasters of last spring could have been averted. If a ship is fully loaded before she has enough, though if near port, seals on deck would not be dangerous. At times seals are put on deck for trimming purposes.

The Commission meets again this afternoon.

Volunteer List Increasing Rapidly

The Chairman and all the members of the Board, except Mr. I. C. Morris, were present at last night's meeting of the Civic Commission.

E. English wrote re concrete sidewalk on Queen's Road, and asked that the city put curbs around it. The Engineer will report.

Tenders for quarry spawls were opened. Nineteen tenders were offered quoting prices from 55 cents to 70 cents per ton. The contract will be apportioned to the lowest tenderers.

It was decided on motion of Mr. McGrath seconded by Mr. Anderson that only licensed truckmen be permitted to cart the stone to the city.

Mr. Withers dissented and an interesting discussion followed.

J. M. Devine, Gear & Co., W. Campbell and Woods Candy Stores made a joint complaint as to the inconvenience caused them by the cab stand in front of their premises. On motion of Mr. Ayre, the matter was deferred until the report of the Committee on cab stands is submitted.

The Office Committee recommended bonuses of $35 and $25, respectively, for two of the clerks for extra services—paying the labourers after hours on Saturdays.

Mr. Mullaly opposed the granting of the bonuses on principle, and furthermore was of the opinion that it was unfair to have matters of this kind sprung on the Board. He felt that due notice should be given. Another of the clerks had volunteered to do similar work without payment.

Mr. Harris agreed with Mr. Mullaly that due notice should be given before the Board was asked to vote on such matters, and wished to know why volunteer service was given by another clerk.

Mr. McNamara as chairman of the office Committee, explained the position as far as they were concerned, stating that previously one of the clerks was given $25 a year for this work, and for three years the two clerks had done it without remuneration. As a compromise the sum of $40 was now offered for past services, that would have cost $75 at the previous rate.

The Engineer reported on the claim of Mr. Wilcox, Plymouth Road, and while he held that the city was not responsible, recommended the laying of 600 feet of sewerage pipes. The matter will be further considered.

Mr. Bradshaw read a letter, dealing with the condition of the old railway yard, which is being used as a dump. The Reid & Co., the owners, will be asked to fence the property.

The Sanitary Supervisor's report was submitted, but discussion was deferred until the next meeting of the Board.

After the passing of pay rolls and annual routine business the meeting adjourned at 10.15 p.m.

Mr. Mullaly contended that the clerk undertook the work without promise of remuneration, the best evidence of which was the fact that they had made no claim on the late Council.

Thanksgiving Day at Fogo.

Many thanks are due the Governor for proclaiming a Thanksgiving Day. The day was put to good use in this settlement. Service was held at 11 o'clock in St. Andrew's Church, the Rev. J. O. Britnell officiating, and it was conducted on the lines of an ordinary Thanksgiving Service.

The text of the sermon was taken from Psalm 147, 14 verses: "He maketh peace in all thy borders."

The preacher expressed how glad he was to see such a large number make it possible to attend. He then explained why a Thanksgiving Day was proclaimed, why our Governor saw the fitness of it. How in England it is a common sight to see a man maimed for life through the present war while we in Newfoundland are living in happiness and are blessed by being exempt from such sights. But that the day may be fittingly observed we should offer up our thanks to Almighty God in his house.

He then dwelt at length on and pictured very vividly the suffering and misery of the people of Belgium, now bravely those people stood up; that no one can say what might be the state of the world to-day but for their attempt to stop the intruder. During the reading of a newspaper clipping: "Not a smile in Belgium" scarcely a breath was drawn. Then he appealed to the people for their sympathy and asked that they might help as others are doing.

After the sermon a collection was taken up on behalf of the sufferers in Belgium to which all, touched to the heart, gladly responded. The lesson of self-sacrifice taught by the service will never lose its effect.

Why Your Bread Costs More.

"The average housekeeper does not read the reports of provincial markets, or, if she did, she would understand better why bread is dearer," says the Times.

"Supplies of wheat from overseas are temporarily short, and in South America especially bad weather interfered with harvesting. Farmers, after years of low prices at home, foresaw the present demands, and waited, and are consequently getting the higher prices. The advance generally on home-grown wheat in recent days has been quite 5s. a quarter, and taking the whole period of the war, it is nearly 20s. since the rates prevailing in the earlier days of summer."

"It is, indeed, sufficiently marked to have an effect already on the septennial calculations of the rent charge, which means so much to the incomes of the country clergy, and has raised these by more than £1 5s. per cent. All forms of grain are dearer, and even peas and lentils appear at higher figures in the grocers' lists. The rise in bread will be heavily felt in all large households."

WHY IS IT SO?

"The seas are kept open by our Fleet, and wheat has been coming well to harbour," says the "Westminster" critically. "We recognize that there has been a big rise in freights, and that rates of insurance are higher, but these are not enough to account for 15s. on the quarter. Unless there is some explanation that does not leap to the mind, the rapid rise is brought about by influences which would be none the worse for investigation. We think the Government would do well to have a little inquiry into the matter."

"Under the 'Unreasonable Withholding of Food Supplies Act, 1914,' the Government have ample powers to deal with the situation," says the "Daily Citizen." "It may be necessary to take public control of the merchant ships as we have already taken public control of the railways. It may be necessary for the nation to become its own wheat and flour merchant as it has already become its own sugar merchant. Whatever is necessary should be done and done at once."

WHY BREAD HAS NOT RISEN 270 PER CENT.

"If we had not command of the sea, the price of bread would have risen, not 27 per cent., but more like 270 per cent., by this time, and there would be famine in the land," says the "Times." "In 1801, when this was still nominally a self-sufficing country, the price of wheat, which is now about 43s. or 44s. a quarter, rose to 180s. and bread to 1s. 10½d. the 4 lb. loaf. That the present world-wide dislocation of trade should have produced no greater effect than it has in a country so dependent on foreign supplies as our own is a truly remarkable fact."

"The gradual character of the rise in prices and its general distribution over a great number of articles indicate that it is due to general causes, not to any artificial manipulation of markets. Attempts are sometimes made to manipulate markets, but their influence is limited and never lasts long. The tendency to blame the 'middleman' for any rise of prices is a commonplace of ignorance.

SOURCES OF SUPPLY.
"Freights are higher because insurance is more costly, coal dearer, and ships scarcer," adds the "Times." "Then there are delays in port because railways, like ships, are being used for military purposes, and because the supply of labor is insufficient. There is congestion at Liverpool; a similar state of things exists in London and in Glasgow, where complaints of deficient labor have been made for weeks past."

"Other causes are the closure of some sources of supply and the diversion of trade to other markets. The last-mentioned causes have not been sufficiently appreciated. Our chief sources of wheat and flour in normal times are British possessions—namely Canada, India, and Australia—the United States, Argentina, and Russia. We also take usually a considerable quantity of flour from France, Germany, Austria, and Roumania. All the last four are practically withdrawn; Germany and Austria by the state of belligerency, Roumania by the closure of the Black Sea, France by reason of her own needs and the operations of war. Russia is also cut off. Of the remaining five sources Australia has no surplus because of a poor harvest, and Argentina is doubtful because there is a prospect of one. There will be plenty of food, but the price will be more dependent on the character of the harvest in a fewer number of supply countries than usual."

"STARR" HOCKEY SKATES

THE MODERN MERCURY
Mercury, the winged messenger of the gods (according to ancient legends) had small wings on his feet to speed over the land with the ease of a bird. But Mercury had no advantage over the modern skater who uses Canadian-made "STARR" Skates.
"STARR" Skates take the place of wings—they are light, strong, comfortable—and enable the wearer to skim lightly and confidently over the ice—whether in pure fun or the swift sport of a hockey game.
The popular "STARR" "Mac Featherweight" Hockey Skate (trademark registered at Ottawa) shown at the bottom of this advertisement is a speedy hockey skate, and equally good for rink skating.
It is especially strong, because of the bar connecting the heel and sole plates. The specially welded and tempered steel blades retain their cutting surface longer and better. Very little sharpening is needed.
Hitch yourself to a "STARR" Skate and surprise yourself and your friends.
"STARR" Skates are equally good for artificial or natural ice.
We absolutely guarantee "STARR" Skates unconditional—if they break, take them back and get a new pair.

Newfoundland Pays the Price

A few days ago it became known that Mr. Albert Kelly, of Cupids, was one of the unfortunate victims who perished on H. M. S. Vindex, a steamer converted into an auxiliary cruiser, which was recently reported lost with all hands off the coast of Ireland. An uneasy feeling existed that Benjamin Kelly was unlikely to have been the only Newfoundland reservist aboard, and unfortunately this uncertainty resolved itself into a certainty when a despatch arrived this morning that of the crew of 258 men, there were 24 of the Royal Naval Reserve men from Newfoundland. This statement was made after the publication of the casualty list last night. We immediately communicated with the Prime Minister to know if it was possible to obtain the names of the men, or if there was anything official in relation to the matter, and received the following reply:

"Up to one o'clock to-day the Government had received no information in relation to the names of those who have been lost; nor indeed of the fact that any Newfoundlanders had been lost on the ship. On Wednesday, the 27th instant, I received a message from Rev. R. H. Maddock and also from Mr. Walter M. Kelly, Brigus, Conception Bay, asking for information regarding the same matter. I immediately requested His Excellency the Governor to cable the Admiralty to obtain details, but so far nothing has been received. After reading the public despatch this morning I called upon His Excellency the Governor, and he is hoping to have a reply early during the day. Immediately upon the receipt of information regarding the names of those lost, if the news should unfortunately be true, arrangements have been made to telegraph the same to the relatives of the missing men."

Canada Should Act.

The Norwegian sealing steamer Njord has decided not to clear from a Newfoundland port for the seal fishery, as was the intention originally. The reason given is that the owners will not go to the expense of the installation of wireless apparatus. That the Act passed at the War Session last September, makes imperative. It is proposed to fit out a Canadian port to avoid compliance with the Newfoundland law. There is only one effective way of trumping this trick to avoid our law and that is for the Newfoundland Government to invite the Dominion Government to co-operate with them and pass a law of a similar tenor to force a sealing steamer clearing from Canadian ports to install a wireless outfit. Any law we may pass cannot prevent Newfoundlanders domiciled in Canada, from joining the Norwegian vessel, but a law passed by Canada of the same tenor as our own will meet the situation completely. As our law was based on the terrible experience of the disaster of last spring and was passed for the safety of the men engaged in this particularly hazardous venture, our own Government can call upon the Dominion Government in the name of the highest principles of humanity to co-operate and pass a similar law.

LAZES From the Front.

NOON.

ALL THREE GERMANS BADLY DAMAGED.
LONDON, To-day.
The Daily Chronicle's correspondent in Holland, says that trustworthy information has reached him that the German battle cruiser Derflinger was badly damaged by fire as a result of the engagement with the British last Sunday and is in Hamburg docks for overhauling. He adds that the battle cruisers Seydlitz and Moltke lie at Cuxhaven badly damaged.

WANTS IMPERIAL CONFERENCE.
LONDON, To-day.
The Times in an editorial on The Dominions Partnership again discusses the question of an Imperial Conference and quotes a despatch from its Toronto correspondent to the effect that Canada is not convinced that great advantages would be likely to result from conference so long as the energies of the Mother Country and Canada are devoted to war. It is that so, says the Times, well and good, but let our ministers be careful that their own preoccupation with their current duties does not combine with self suppression of Dominions to balk their hopes and disappoint their legitimate expectations on the subject of a future Imperial organization.

SOME TAIL TWISTING.
WASHINGTON, To-day.
In a final appeal in the House for a larger navy, Representative Hobson, Alabama declared it was his firm conviction that the States has secured peace with Japan only by giving assurances of speedy retirement from the Philippines. I am further convinced, Hobson continued, that our first inquiry into the intentions of Japan in seizing Kiau Chow and the islands in the Pacific will not be followed up at least by this Administration. That Japan as price of peace will be given a free hand in China, with a prospect of complete overthrow of the open door policy, leaving China to its fate, to become a governed nation, while the commerce of America which in cotton goods alone fell off over $20,000,000 in Manchuria after the Japanese occupation will be at the mercy of a competition, while the overthrow of the balance of power in the Pacific would lead to an inevitable war. Hobson reviewed the situation in Europe.

Referring to criticism of America's conduct by both sides in the present war and to the arbitrary treatment of the Emperor of Germany, he declared the situation closely paralleled conditions which led to war with France in 1870 and to that with England in 1812. Napoleon's resentment which led to war with France in 1800, he said, was not as intense as the growing resentment of Germany to-day at the great source of supply of war material her enemy the allies are finding in America. Britain's attitude toward our purchase of the ships of Germany is nothing short of menacing. Representative Saunders, of Virginia, arguing against the contention that preparation for war is a guarantee of peace suggested that the Emperor of Germany should be looked upon with mistrust now because of the preparation Germany had made for present war. He asked if anybody believed there would have been war in Europe if President Wilson had occupied the place of the Emperor. Representative Helm, Kentucky, said England had had three quarters of the earth's surface under militarism for fifty-three years and asked which was the greater evil, England or Germany.

12.30 P.M.

AIR RAID ON DUNKIRK.
DUNKIRK, To-day.
The bombardment from the air carried out here by the Germans last night came from six aeroplanes. It was a clear moonlight night, but the machine could not be seen except when it lit up now and then by the beam of the whirling searchlights. The dropping of propeller however was heard some time before the aeroplanes arrived. This was sufficient notice and the tocsin was rung for the inhabitants to seek shelter, according to plan authorized by the British. In all fifty bombs thrown, ten of which were incendiary ones. A number of private houses were damaged, but the result of the raid from its military point of view was nil.

TURKS ROUTED IN PERSIA.

LONDON, To-day.
The Paris correspondent of Reuters' Telegraph Company telegraphs that he learns the Russians have routed the Turkish troops in Persia and have entered Tabriz, the capital of the Province of Azerbaijan, which the Turks occupied early in January.

TURKISH FORCES RETREATING.

PARIS, To-day.
The Turkish forces have suffered a fresh defeat in Persia following those inflicted upon them North of Erzerum, according to despatches received by the Matin. The Turkish right wing which invested Azerbaijan, despatch says, was routed by the Russians who have returned to Tabriz. The Turks are said to be retreating towards Maragha, fifty miles south of Tabriz.

ONLY SMALL BRUSHES.

LONDON, To-day.
The Times' Cairo correspondent telegraphs: Recent brushes with the Turkish advanced parties are likely to prove the prelude to further important encounters with small bodies of the enemy who have pushed forward presumably with the object of ascertaining the strength of the allies' positions. Thus far there is no proof that the enemy's main forces have yet been definitely committed to an ad-

Thrilling Account of the Naval Battle in North Sea

GERMAN BATTLE CRUISERS BADLY DAMAGED IN FIGHT.

London, Jan. 27.—The Scotsman, published in Edinburgh, prints thrilling accounts of the North Sea battle as gathered from men engaged in it, who were landed in Edinburgh. They describe it as one of the greatest struggles in the naval history and thrilling in every respect.
From the position of the German fleet when it was first encountered these men assumed that it is virtually correct that the objective was Newcastle. The strength of the raiding squadron was quickly ascertained and as the entire raiding force shied off immediately after it was discovered the chase was a long one before the guns began to work.
Lion Starts the Fighting.
Then the Lion, which was leading, overhauled the slow Blucher, and, in passing, gave her a broadside, causing frightful damage. The Lion did not wait, however, but continued in pursuit of the fleeing Derflinger, Seydlitz and Moltke.

The Tiger, which came next, also poured a broadside into the Blucher, as did also the Princess Royal, both of which were speeding on to join the chase of the others. It was already evident at this time, according to the newspaper's informants, that the Blucher, abandoned by her swift consort, was a doomed ship.
The chase already had continued for two hours. The light German cruisers pluckily did their best to cover the fleeing battle cruisers, until the task was hopeless, when they followed the example of the big cruisers and devoted their entire powers to getting away.

Big Ships Overhauled.
The big German ships were now being steadily overhauled and pounded by the British cruisers. The Lion, which had overhauled and smashed a second cruiser in the German line, according to the men interviewed, say the chase was likely to be prolonged right up to the zinc fields. The Tiger, Princess Royal and Indomitable were now within range of the large vessels and the men in their interviews are credited with expressing the belief that they wrought terrible havoc on the German battle cruisers.

CHASED INTO OPEN SEA.
LONDON, To-day.
Wireless advices from Berlin bring a report that of seven English aeroplanes which have bombarded Ostend and Zeebrugge three failed to return. It is stated that these machines were surrounded by German aeroplanes and chased into the open sea. The above despatch may indicate a new British air raid on the Belgian coast town.

GERMAN SOLDIERS MUTINY.
PARIS, To-day.
The following despatch was received to-day from the North of France: The German line in West Flanders is still being strengthened in order to offset British reinforcements which are being moved forward from the front from the Seine Valley, where they have been kept since their arrival in transports. Many of the German soldiers of the reserve classes are proceeding unwillingly into the West Flanders death-trap. Thousands of German soldiers recently passed eastward through Roulers where their hands tied behind their backs. They had refused to participate in further fighting and were being sent back from the front for trial by court martial. German prisoners report that food is very scarce in the German army and that many soldiers have openly mutinied.

Women and Business.

We are given to boasting of the ability of our business women, of their having proved themselves the equal of the men in business affairs. Our boast seems to be justified. But the business ability of the average woman is not such as to warrant it being commented upon sparingly. Nearly every woman has had a little business experience in some direction, but how many women readers of this periodical, or friends of such readers, are possessed of sufficient business knowledge to take up the responsibility, when laid down by the husband, and carry it on? How many women could take charge of their husbands' finances for a week while he took a much needed vacation from responsibility?
Most married men are willing to teach their wives how to do business; more than that, most business men make something of an effort to get their wives to undertake to learn enough business to make it less difficult for them to get along when left alone. Where, then, is the fault? When it is not the business man's failure to insist on his wife learning, it is the wife's unwillingness to take time, to make the effort.
Here is a subject for study and discussion by women's clubs—for all will develop an interest in getting their money's worth which they have not before felt.

It will be easier for the business men to do business because of the increased intelligence of their customers. It will be easier for the widowers and fatherless to handle and to husband their funds. There may be less business for the lawyers and for the bankruptcy courts, and less money for the promoters of questionable stock-jobbing enterprises, but there will be more happiness in the homes.

Princess Mary's Gift Book.

We have received from the publishers, Messrs. Hodder & Stoughton, St. Paul's House, Warwick Square, London, E.C., a copy of PRINCESS MARY'S BOOK. All profits from the sale are going to the Queen's "Work for Women" Fund, which is acting in conjunction with the National Relief Fund, and we understand that the demand has been so colossal that nearly 400,000 copies have already been sold, and that the publishers have already paid over to the Fund a sum of £10,000 on account of profits.

At the price of 2s. 6d. net this is probably the most wonderful volume ever placed on the market. From the frontispiece portrait of Princess Mary, specially painted for the book, facing Her Royal Highness' thanks to "the Authors and Artists who have so generously contributed to my Gift Book," to the last page, with its delightful illustration by E. J. Sullivan, the book is full of beauty and charm.

PRINCESS MARY'S GIFT BOOK contains new stories and articles by the following famous authors:

Sir J. M. Barrie contributes a delightfully humorous story entitled "A Holiday in Bed"; G. A. Birmingham, the famous author of "General John Regan," is represented by a characteristic Irish story entitled "The Spy"; Hall Caine has written a wonderful "The poem of the sea entitled "Charlie the Cox"; Sir Arthur Conan Doyle contributes "Bimhashi Joyce," a story of Egypt which will thrill every reader; J. H. Fabre, the veteran French author known as "The Insects' Homer"; Ellen Thorneycroft Fowler, the famous author of "Concerning Isabel Carnaby," who, in "An Angel of God," tells of the way eyes are opened to see the angel hosts; Charles Garvice, whose "Model Soldier" is a charming love story of the present war; Sir H. Rider Haggard tells a glorious story of heroism in South Africa in "Magesa the Buck"; Beatrice Harraden contributes a story of ancient times with a lesson for to-day; the Bishop of London recounts his experiences in Camp; A. E. W. Mason pictures the days of the Siege of Paris; the Baroness Orczy, author of the world-famous "Scarlet Pimpernel," gives us an entirely new Scarlet Pimpernel story; W. Pett-Ridge a charmingly humorous and tender story of a girl who wanted "everything different"; Annie S. Swann a tale of gallant Belgium; Kate Douglas Wiggin, author of "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," is gem of a story in "Fleur-de-Lis."

Brock, R.I.; Gordon Browne, R.I.; Lewis Baumer; Harold Earnshaw; Edmund J. Sullivan, A.R.W.S.

These paintings and drawings have been specially executed for the work, and the originals are being exhibited and sold by the Leicester Galleries, Leicester Square. Already we learn there is great competition among art-lovers to secure these beautiful pictures and unique souvenirs of PRINCESS MARY'S GIFT BOOK.

Princess Mary has recently honoured J. J. Shannon, R.A., with sittings for the portrait which is specially painted for her Gift Book, and which forms the frontispiece to that work.

Quite apart from the object for which it is published, PRINCESS MARY'S GIFT BOOK is a volume which appeals to all. Every member of the family will find pleasure in its pages. It is indeed a volume which every household will treasure, one which, for years to come, will serve as a worthy memento of what the Empire wrought for the women who suffered through the ravages of the great war.

THE AUTO.

The auto is a lovely cart in which to rip and race; but if the owner's true smart, he'll make it know its place. "You'll do all right for leisure hours," he says, in earnest tones, "but I won't let you, by the powers, use all my stock of bones! If you should interfere with trade, or keep me from my biz, I'll put you where the junk is laid, so help me now, G. Whiz!" I know so many who for fun burn up the country roads, and for that purpose borrow mon, and mortgage their abodes. They go chug-chugging everywhere, and keep the highways hot and little do they seem to care if school shall keep or not. And then the sheriff, hangery gent, comes up and makes some spicils, and springs a legal document with large and crinkling seals. The thought of those who waste their days in cars should cause us gloom; a thousand thousand dippy jays are chugging to their doom. The auto is a servant fine whose fame will never slumber; but when it's master, friend of mine, 'twill lead you to the dump.

There's nothing like "TIZ." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture. Get a 25 cent box of "TIZ" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.

UNIVERSITIES AND THE WAR.

The Edinburgh University Roll of Honour contains the names of over 1,670 graduates, former students and others at present serving with the colours.

Three hundred and sixty-five Aberdeen graduates hold commissions in one branch or another of His Majesty's Forces; 34 have enlisted; 265 students are in the ranks to whom ought to be added 79 students of the Aberdeen University contingent of the O. T. C.; so that altogether 844 students out of some 680 are on service in one form or another.

Nothing But the Best in Pictures.

The Crescent Picture Palace is certainly living up to its motto: "Nothing but the best in pictures" if one may judge from the laughter and applause of those who attended yesterday; the show is a good one and will be repeated to-day and the Crescent should have crowded houses at every show.

Mr. Farrell's patriotic song was well received and deserved all the applause tendered it.

On Monday "Miracle Mary," a big 3 reel Victor special will be screened; this is a very fine story of the underworld, being the story of a man who had to suffer in prison for the crime of another; this feature is highly spoken of by the leading motion picture magazines. Fritz Brunette, the great Victor star appears in the title role. Don't miss this big offering on Monday.

Ah! My Tired Feet Ached So for "Tiz."

"TIZ" cures our sore, burning, swollen, sweaty, calloused feet and corns.

"Just couldn't wait to take my hat off!"

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crikkled, aching, burning, corn-festered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "TIZ" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "TIZ" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "TIZ." It will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "TIZ." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture. ### Pretty Plus.

By RUTH CAMERON.

RUTH CAMERON.

It is a queer quirk of the human brain that though we expect to find a nice package in a pretty wrapper, yet if a girl is pretty there seems to be a popular prejudice against the likelihood of her being clever or of a sweet disposition.

Which is by way of prelude to a few words about one of the prettiest girls I ever met who proved, in one way at least, the sweetest.

I came to know her because we both ate at the same little boarding house. She and her mother and husband occupied the table behind ours. She was without question one of the most satisfying pretty girls I ever saw. She had beautiful chestnut hair, big brown eyes, a wonderful, clear skin, good features and a lovely slim figure. She looked as good at breakfast as she did in the shaded light of the candles at dinner. She was, in short, the kind of girl who was altogether too pretty (according to the popular mind) to have any other virtues or recommendations.

A Daughter Worth Having. And now for the recommendation which she emphatically did have. As I said before, her mother lived with her, and thereby hangs this tale. For, whereas, the daughter appeared well educated, spoke good English and had rather nice manners, the mother, though a good soul, was what superior folks call "common." She broke every rule Lindsey ever made. She talked too loud, she tucked her apkin under her chin and—well, you know the general type.

Yet never in all the months in which I was in daily contact with them did I ever hear the daughter rebuke her mother or show in any way that she felt superior to her. Now, when you think how freely daughters who are not in any way superior to their mothers show their sense of superiority, doesn't it make the sweet humility of this daughter stand out as pretty fine?

Whenever I see a pert, ill-bred child of a girl correcting or squelching a sweet little mother whose only fault is that she is a bit old-fashioned, I think of that young woman who was too fine to say a single ungracious word to a distinctly trying mother.

How Patience Pays.

If young girls only realized how their attitude of criticism and correction reacted on other people's opinions of them, they would learn to control their impatience even with the most old-fashioned mother. Even when the daughter is right and the mother wrong, sympathy naturally flows toward the older woman.

And then, too, it's so "tacky": it's only among "common" people that you see such manifestations in public. The mothers and daughters of breeding may have their difficulties in private, but the daughter never rebukes her mother in public. She knows it's just as ill bred as eating out of the end of her spoon, and if she hasn't kindness enough to refrain for her mother's sake, she does so for her own.

POPULAR SUGGESTION.

Owing to the ice being well covered with water last evening, the game set down between the Feldians and St. Bon's had to be postponed. In view of Messrs. Munn and Sinnott, who are classy stick-handlers with the Victorians and who are leaving with our volunteers, the suggestion is advanced that the Feldians and St. Bon's forego their game for Monday night and allow the Victorians and Terra Novas play, the latter teams being scheduled for the following game. The suggestion is strongly supported by the sporting fraternity and by the public generally. A clash between the Terra Novas and Vics. before the latter lose two of their best men would be of much interest.

Girls! Thicken And Beautify Your Hair.

Living back its gloss, lustre, charm and get rid of dandruff—Try the moist cloth.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance; freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower; destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

24 Newfoundlanders PERISH ON THE VIKNOR.

Messages Received Previous to 9 A.M.

TWENTY-FOUR NEWFOUNDLANDERS WENT DOWN WITH THE VIKNOR.

LONDON, Jan. 30. The casualty list issued last night, shows that the British armoured merchant vessel Viknor, which was lost off the Coast of Ireland several days ago, carried a crew of 258 men, composed of Naval Reserve men and boys belonging to the mercantile marine, all of whom perished. Among the crew were twenty-four Royal Naval Reserve men from Newfoundland.

OFFICIAL

LONDON, Jan. 29. The Governor, Newfoundland: The French Government reports a satisfactory day, along the whole front.

South of Lys, British artillery swept the routes and concentration points of German troops.

In the region of Craonne, the French have re-captured the whole of the disputed ground; their total loss being about 800.

German attacks in Argonne and St. Mihiel were completely defeated.

Progress was made in the Vosges and Alsace.

The losses of the enemy between Ypres and Vosges from the 25th to the 27th, appear to exceed 20,000.

The Russian Government reports a successful offensive north of Tilsit, and in the Carpathians, especially southwest of Doukha, where the enemy abandoned ammunition and stores.

HARCOURT.

ST. PIERRE BULLETIN.

Official, Jan. 28.—During the night of 27th and 28th, the enemy didn't make any infantry attacks. To the northwest of Zonnebeke Germans bombarded strongly. An artillery fight occurred on the Aisne. In Argonne there was simple cannonading from the enemy and ourselves. In Alsace, northwest of Ammeztviller, our troops maintained themselves in spite of violent bombardment, on conquered ground during the day and organized themselves there. Calm reigns on the remainder of the front.

Official, 29.—The 29th was only conspicuous by local actions which were favorable to the allies. In Belgium, in the Nieuport region, our infantry took footing in Grande Dune, the place spoken of in the communique of 17th January. A German aeroplane has been brought to ground by our cannons. In Ypres, Lens and Arras sections there were artillery duels which at times were very violent. A few infantry attacks were started by the Germans, but were immediately repulsed by our fire. In Soissons, Craonne and Rheims sections there is nothing to report. Between Rheims and Argonne there was artillery fighting without much intensity. It is confirmed that the attack repulsed by us at Pontaine Madame on the night of the 27th and 28th cost the Germans heavily, more than 300 corpses being found in front of our trenches. On the heights of Meuse and in Woevre the day was calm. In the Vosges there was artillery fighting, and our cannons at several points silenced batteries and German machine guns. We have everywhere fortified our positions on the ground gained on 27th. In the latest communique from German headquarters are three affirmations, to which we reply, 1st. It is false that the enemy obtained any success in Craonne region; 2nd, it is false that machine guns have been taken from us in Alsace; 3rd, it is false that our attacks of 27th in Vosges section have been repulsed. We have gained and maintained ground that is about 400 metres.

GERMAN AEROPLANE CAPTURED.

PARIS, Jan. 29.—(Official.) At the east of Soissons, the Germans made two attempts to cross the Aisne, one at Nullot Rocks, the other at the head of a bridge which is held by our troops, to the north of the bridge of Venisel. These two attacks were repulsed.

During the night of Jan. 28th, Dunkirk was bombarded by aviators, who caused some insignificant losses, but killed or wounded few persons.

On the night of Jan. 28-29, two of our aviators launched numerous bombs upon the enemy's works in the region of Laon, Lafe and Soissons.

On the morning of the 29th a German aeroplane was brought down east of Gerbeviller. Its pilot and mechanic, a German officer and a sub-officer, were made prisoners.

A LONDON BUDGET.

LONDON, Jan. 29. With the armies of France, in Flanders, recuperating after the strenuous fighting of the earlier days of the week, only local actions are being reported.

Interest in the war situation has been transferred to the Russian offensive in East Prussia, and the attempt of a strong Austro-German army to dislodge the troops of Emperor Nicholas from their positions in the Carpathians.

In East Prussia the Russian offensive has developed in the extreme north, where renewed fighting seems to confirm the belief that definite efforts to advance north of the Mazuri lakes district, where previously the Russians were defeated, have been decided upon by the Russian General Staff.

More vital to both sides, however, apparently, is the campaign in the Carpathians, where, southwest of Dukla Pass, the Russians have delivered an energetic attack and, according to their account of the combat, compelled the Austro-Germans to retreat, leaving behind ammunition and stores.

This attack, according to military observers, indicated an attempt by the Russians to turn the flank of the Teuton Allies, and if it should prove successful, observers say, it would have serious consequences for the large Austro-German army in and about the Carpathians.

Russian military experts anticipate that the Austrians will deliver their main attack with their extreme right in Western Bukovina, with the hope of achieving a signal victory, and thus give Roumania cause to pause. Only one thing is holding Roumania in check at present, it is stated, and that is the uncertainty as to what action Bulgaria would be likely to take.

Bulgaria, it is asserted, is still demanding a part of Macedonia, now under Serbian rule, as a price of her neutrality. This, Serbia is reported to be not willing to part with. Greece, it is asserted, also objects to Bulgaria extending her boundaries westward, as taking this ground would place a wedge between her and her ally, Serbia. Thus, seemingly, the whole Balkan situation remains unsolved, and it is stated it is not likely to be cleared up until the demands of Bulgaria are satisfied.

Another skirmish with the Turkish advance guard not far from Suez, is reported from the British forces in Egypt. It was not a serious character. On the other hand, British marines are said to have landed at Alexandretta, Asiatic Turkey, and have cut the telegraph wires.

CANADIAN CONTINGENT.

LONDON, Jan. 29. A start has been made in despatching the men of the first Canadian Contingent to France. A number have already gone, but the greater bulk will be moved across the Channel by next Monday. Every man of the Contingent is prepared for the move, and all are highly elated at getting to the Continent. Health conditions at Salisbury Plains have greatly improved since frost hardened the mud tracks. Colonel Victor Williams, who had been seriously ill, is now out of danger, and coming to London.

Wedding Bells.

PENNY—MULLALLY. A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the R. C. Cathedral on Thursday evening last, when Mr. Alphonsus Penny and Miss Kitty Mullally, both of this city, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Rt. Rev. Mgr. Moche, V.G., in the presence of a large number of friends of the contracting parties. The bride was attended by Miss Lizzie Penny, sister of the groom who was supported by Mr. F. J. Devine. Following the ceremony the bridal party drove to Waterford Bridge and thence to Spencer Street the future home of the happy couple, where a reception was held. The bride was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents. The Telegram joins in the felicitations extended, and wishes Mr. and Mrs. Penny many years of wedded happiness.

THE REINDEER

is an inhabitant of the Arctic Region, and it is possibly the most useful of all the animals which dwell in this part of the world. Unlike the Reindeer, SUNLIGHT SOAP is to be found in all parts of the civilised world, and its great utility is vouched for by millions of contented housewives who would not be without it.

SUNLIGHT SOAP

enjoys a well-merited reputation, it is absolutely pure, and will not harm the most delicate fabric. A piece of Sunlight Soap used in your next wash will convince you of its excellence.

Aladin and His Wonderful Lamp.

The best of all the pantomimes will be presented Monday when the beautiful fairy story of Aladin and his Wonderful Lamp will be produced. This pantomime will be the prettiest on account of the oriental settings and costumes; the songs and dances are beautiful, and we feel sure that it will have as successful a run as the others. There has also arrived by the S. S. Tohono one of the very largest shipments of films ever landed here, all the latest and best and most up to date pictures ever filmed. Hear the great song on Monday, "Sister Susan Sewing Shirts for Soldiers," and twenty others, besides the dances, pictures, costumes and big fun show: "Fun in the Laundry."

Kidney Disease in Every Symptom.

WHY MRS. MARK FOUND QUICK RELIEF IN DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

New Brunswick Lady who Suffered for Six Years Tells How She Found a Speedy Cure.

Miscou Harbor, Gloucester Co., N.B. Jan. 29. (Special)—"For some five or six years I was troubled with back-ache. I tried many tonics, but kept growing steadily worse, until I decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. They gave me almost immediate relief."

This is the statement of Mrs. A. Mark, well known and highly respected here. In regard to give more particulars in asked to her case, Mrs. Mark said:

"My trouble started with a cold, and gradually grew worse. I had stiffness in my joints and cramps in my muscles and suffered from neuralgia. I had heart flutterings and headaches, my sleep was broken and unrefreshing and I was always tired and nervous. I had dark circles under my eyes. I was irritable and often dizzy and had a bitter taste in my mouth in the mornings. I also had attacks of rheumatism.

"It just took three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills to fix me up."

Every symptom Mrs. Mark mentions spells kidney disease. That's why she found such quick relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

JANUARY 30. Full Moon—30.

Days Past—29. To Come—35. CHARLES I. beheaded 1649. The great struggle between Charles I. and the people, known as the Civil War, commenced in 1642. The battle of Naseby 1645, ruined the King's cause and he threw himself upon the mercy of the Scots, who gave him up to the English Parliament, on receiving payment of their claim of £400,000.

WALTER SAVAGE LANDOR born 1775. English writer and poet of strong genius. He wrote a fine poetic tragedy "Cato, Julius" in 1812. The work by which he is best known, however, is his "Imaginary Conversations."

JANUARY 31. Septuagesima.

Days Past—30. To Come—334. SCHUBERT born 1797. One of the most eminent of German musical composers, whose songs and symphonies ranked among the most inspired of musical compositions, full of melodic beauty and instinct with emotional power.

J. L. MEISSONIER died 1891, aged 78. One of the most eminent of French modern painters, whose "Visit to the Burgomaster," "Lee Rixie," and his "1814" (Napoleon's return from Moscow) are among his best known pictures.

10 Cent Cascares Straighten You Up

No Sick Headache, Bilious Stomach, Coated Tongue or Constipated Bowels by morning.

Get a 10-cent box now. Turn the rascals out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and bad colds—turn them out to-night and keep them out with Cascares.

Millions of men and women take a Cascares now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascares cleanse your stomach; remove the sour, fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascares to-night straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love Cascares because they never grip or sicken.

Millions of men and women take a Cascares now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Obituary.

JAMES CORMACK. The death occurred this morning, after a brief illness, of one of the most estimable and highly esteemed citizens in the person of Mr. James Cormack. Deceased was stricken with an attack of pneumonia, a couple of days ago, following a severe fall which he received on Monday last. He was in his 66th year and up to the time of his death had been engaged as First Clerk and Warehouse Keeper in H.M. Customs, which position he held for the past twenty years.

He was born in Bay Roberts where his father carried on an extensive business many years ago. His only brother John Cormack, predeceased him on the 10th September last. Deceased was of a charitable and unostentatious disposition and a prominent member of the Knights of Columbus, Benevolent Irish Society, Holy Name and other Catholic institutions.

He was unmarried and is survived by four cousins, Mrs. Gaden, Mrs. McCallum, Mrs. Thos. Hearn and Sister Almeria of Littlefield Convent, besides a large circle of friends in the community. The Telegram unites in the general and sincere sympathy offered.

MARRIED.

At 9 Annfield Place, on the 6th inst., J. M. Irvine, 1st Newfoundland Regiment, second son of James F. Irvine, to Grace, youngest daughter of the late David Natsmith, Dennistown, Glasgow.

DIED.

On the 29th inst., Harriet, eldest daughter of the late James Winter of H. M. Customs, Funeral on Sunday at 2.30 o'clock, from the residence of Mr. Thomas Winter, Rennie's Mill Road.

This morning, Aiden (Redmond), darling child of W. F. and Catherine Kenny.

This morning of pneumonia dear little Melvin, beloved son of R. C. and Bride Harris, aged two years.

This morning after a short illness, James H. Cormack, 1st Clerk of H. M. Customs; funeral on Monday, Feb. 1st, at 2.30 p.m., from his late residence, No. 3, Military Road. Friends will please accept this, the only intimation.

St. John Ambulance Association.

A largely attended meeting of the St. John Ambulance Association and Brigade was held at the Grenfell Hall last night.

Sir William Wood, President of the Nfld. Centre, presided, and with him on the platform were His Excellency and Lady Davidson, Capt. Goodridge, A.D.C., Lady Wood, Dr. Macpherson, Hon. Secy and D. Baird, Esq., Secretary. Others present were H. W. LeMessurier, Esq. (Chairman of Committee), J. Fenelon, Esq., Hon. Treas., W. Reeves, Esq., Hon. Storekeeper, Dr. Paterson and others of the medical profession.

His Excellency opened the meeting and called on Secretary Baird to deliver his report, which showed that the past year had been a successful one. Twelve First Aid and five Nursing classes with an attendance of 450, had been conducted. Two out-port branches, one at Greenspond and the other at Grand Bank had been formed, and others will follow in the near future. The value of First Aid was proven by the number of instances where life was saved by knowledge gained through the Association.

A letter from Mrs. Macpherson, Secretary of the W.P.A., thanking the association for services rendered in connection with supplying convalescents for our soldiers, was read. It was announced that the sum of £117 8s. 6d. had been donated by the ladies of Grand Falls and forwarded to headquarters in London. Sir William Wood followed, and appealed to all for assistance in raising £100 for a bed in the new hospital to be opened near the front shortly. This hospital will be known as the St. John Ambulance Brigade Hospital, and is being erected with the approval of the Army Council. It will be run by the St. John Ambulance Brigade and it is probable that nurses may be sent from Newfoundland to assist in the work.

Privates Dicks and Vokey, of the C.L.B., members of No. 1 Division of the Ambulance Brigade, were presented to His Excellency, who eulogized them for their gallant conduct in saving life in August last at Long Pond. Those who recently passed their First Aid exam., were given certificates by Lady Davidson. His Excellency then gave an interesting account of the great work being accomplished by the Ambulance Corps on the field, illustrating his remarks with a wounded soldier from the time he is hit till he reaches home. A vote of thanks, proposed by W. LeMessurier, Esq., was tendered His Excellency, and the rendition of the National Anthem brought the gathering to a close.

"OURS" IN THE WEST END. On Monday the elegant new pictures that have just arrived by the s.s. Tabasco, will be opened and some put on the screen for the approval of the patrons. Little Aneta will have a beautiful new and up-to-date song. This little artiste is a St. John's girl and has made one of the biggest hits ever made by any singer here. Nightly the pictures have to be taken of her for her encore. This is our own town and we are all so delighted that she has taken so good. Some wise acres predicted they did not like their own talent, but in this instance they are quite wrong. She's a little dandy.

STRAYAWAYS.—A stray sheep and heifer was found in the East End last night and brought to the police station, afterwards being taken to shelter for the night.

OXO CUBES In the Navy

A Naval man on one of our warships wrote when ordering further supplies of OXO CUBES:—

"The finest recommendation, I think, lies in the fact that this is a repeat order for a larger amount (of OXO CUBES) in order to guard against the rigours of the climate."

The coming of Winter always emphasises the value of OXO CUBES. They provide warmth, sustenance and energy to withstand the exhausting strain of the cold winter months, and enable one to recover quickly from fatigue and exposure. In the home they are handy for preparing soups, savouries, and gravies; or for a hot nourishing food-beverage at any time.

One of the most striking features of OXO CUBES is they meet the needs of all classes—and all ages.

"OXO Cubes come in so handy." "OXO Cubes are more precious than Gold." A CUBE TO A CUP

"OXO Cubes are more precious than gold out here as they make A QUICK HOT FEED."

OXO CUBES ARE BRITISH they are made in Britain by a British Company with British Capital and British Labour

Volunteers' Farewell.

ST. ANDREWS.

A royal farewell was given the members of St. Andrew's who are with the second contingent, at their club rooms, last evening. The names of the volunteers are: Sergt. Melville, Sergt. Watson, Corp. Eaton, Corp. Mitchell, Lance-Corp. McKinley, Lance-Corp. Stevenson, Privates G. Dick, R. Innes, Ferguson, S. Harvey, H. Baird, A. McDougall, H. Ross, A. Watson, H. Clouston and A. Clouston. Vice-President T. McNeil was in the chair, owing to the absence of President J. Browning, and made a happy and encouraging speech to the volunteers, expressing the hope that they would do credit to themselves and to the Empire of which they formed a part. An enjoyable concert was then taken up, contributed to by the following with vocal and instrumental numbers: Messrs. Fox, A. Ross, McIntosh, S. Harvey, H. Baird, J. Kerr, Hershell, P. Cowan, F. J. King, McDonald, Dickson, McKinley and J. Rossley. Rev. J. S. Sutherland then gave an instructive and impressive address, urging the young men to be soldiers and Britons in the best sense of the word and presented each with a stylo pencil as a souvenir. Secretary M. Parsons read the farewell address which was in the shape of a poem. The event closed with the rendition of Auld Lang Syne and the National Anthem.

B. I. S.

Appended are the names of the members who will be leaving with the second contingent, and who were entertained by their fellow members at the B.I.S. club rooms last evening: Lieut. J. J. Donnelly, Corp. E. J. Higgins, Lance-Corp. R. Burnham, Privates R. J. Hickey, B. B. Sinnott, J. Moakler, W. Power, Jno. Walsh, J. Edens, H. J. Power and Allan Cleary. Mr. W. S. Dunphy read the names of the volunteers and Chairman J. Pippy presented each with a gift of cigarettes, soap and clasp knife. Patriotic speeches were made by Messrs. W. J. Mahoney, J. J. Donnelly, W. J. Higgins, P. J. Shea, J. M. Devine, J. Rooney, B. Channing (a member of the first contingent who was invalided home), T. J. Nash, J. H. Dea and the Chairman. Recitations by Mr. J. P. Crotty and Corp. E. J. Higgins, and songs by Lance-Corp. Burnham, Corp. Higgins, Mr. J. L. Slattery and Mr. P. Aylward contributed largely to the enjoyment of the event. Mr. T. P. Halley rendered patriotic selections on the piano. The health of the first contingent was honored and an address by the chairman and the singing of Auld Lang Syne and "God Save the King" brought the affair to a happy termination.

C. L. B.

The Armoury of the Church Lads' Brigade was the scene last evening of a farewell banquet to the twenty-eight members who have volunteered with the second contingent. A large gathering of friends of the brigade, including several of the C. E. clergy, were present. Lieut.-Col. Rendell, who presided, referred to the war situation, speaking in congratulatory terms of the response of the Church Lads' to the call to arms. Rev. Canon White gave a brilliant address on the war and its consequences, intimating to the volunteers what was expected of them as soldiers fighting under the British flag. The following toast list and concert was then taken up:
"The King"—Prop. The Chairman; God Save the King.
"The Brigade"—Prop. Rev. J. Brington; Resp. Lieut.-Col. Rendell.
Song—H. Barnes.
Address—Rev. Canon White.
Instrumental Solo (Tipperary)—Sergt. Morris.
Song—Private Fottles.
"Absent Members"—Prop. Captain Outerbridge; Resp. They are Jolly Good Fellows.
Song—Rev. H. Uphill.
"Our Volunteers"—Prop. Rev. H. Uphill; Resp. Lieut. H. Rendell.
Song—J. Cornick.
"The Chairman"—Prop. Capt. A. Goodridge; Resp. Lieut.-Col. Rendell.
"God Save the King."
Before the gathering dispersed the volunteers were presented with Church Lads' Prayer Books and clasp knives and the best wishes of the brigade as well.

Methodist Volunteers Entertained.

A large gathering was present at Gower Street Church last night to bid God-speed to the Methodist volunteers of the Second Contingent and Royal Naval Reserve, who will shortly be leaving for England.
On the platform were Rev. D. Hammon, who presided; Revs. C. Whitmarsh, N. M. Guy, H. Royle, Hon. J. A. Robinson and Mr. Arthur Mews. The choir sang appropriate hymns. Rev. Mr. Guy read the Scripture and Rev. Mr. Whitmarsh offered prayer.
The volunteers, numbering about 100 occupied central pews, and were addressed by Hon. J. A. Robinson and Mr. Mews, both of whom made speeches worthy of the occasion. At the close Rev. Mr. Hammon thanked the speakers for their timely and encouraging words, and also the choir, and the ladies who were to be the hostesses of the evening. All then repaired to the basement where the volunteers and their friends were served with refreshments, and after a pleasant hour was spent in exchanging greetings the gathering dispersed.

NOTICE.

THE ANGLO-AMERICAN TELEGRAPH COMPANY announces that it is prepared to accept Week-End letters to Soldiers, Sailors and Nurses serving with the Expeditionary Forces in the United Kingdom or on the Continent, at a special rate of 5c. per word (no minimum charge) subject to the following conditions:

1. All messages must have the prefix EFM written before the address.
2. When the persons are with the Expeditionary Forces in France or Belgium, the messages will be sent by post from London.
3. The following particulars considered by the British authorities to be essential, must be given as far as practicable:—

- (a) Regimental rank and name.
- (b) Squadron, Battery, or Company.
- (c) Regiment or other unit.
- (d) Expeditionary force concerned, whether British, Canadian, Australian, etc., or, in case troops not with expeditionary forces, name of place where stationed must be given.

The Anglo-American Company will also transmit free messages relating to wounded combatants, subject to the following conditions established by the authorities:—

1. The privilege is restricted to bona fide enquiries made by relatives concerning persons officially reported to have been wounded or killed. Matter of a social nature may not be included in the messages.
2. The messages must be handed in to the Hon. Colonial Secretary, at St. John's, who will arrange their free transmission over Anglo Cables. The prefix WSM must be written before the address.
3. The number of free messages which may be sent concerning any individual wounded combatant is limited to a maximum of three.
4. Persons offering such messages must present the original official advice or information about the particular casualty to which the message relates, and each message sent must be checked on such original advice.
5. No free messages are allowed in respect of persons reported only slightly wounded.
6. The particulars specified in A. B. C. and D. above, must be given as far as possible in every case.

MR. CUSTOMER,—

Probably you've economised by doing without your usual suit and overcoat during Fall of 1914. Are you going to have that down-and-out look in Spring 1915? The Allies have millions of men on the firing line, each requiring thirteen pounds of wool every six or eight weeks. The British Government are keeping British Mills turning out army contracts. Spring quotations for woollens are sky high. We have on hand a particularly fine range of Serges, Tweed Suitings and Overcoatings. Order now as you will have to pay considerably higher in the Spring.
