CAMP MEETING AT BERWICK

Exercises of Most Interesting Character—Splendid Accommodation—Inspiring Sermons With Special Features.

For over half a century the services of the Methodist Camp meeting have been carried on in the beautiful grove at Berwick. Here has grown up an institution that cannot be appreciated save by those who have passed within its gates, and these now number thousands. Here under the great trees, survivors of the forest primeval are to be found sixty comfortable cottages occupied by families or parties of friends. Dormitories offering comfortable lodging at reasonable prices, Dining room, a large and imposing covered pavilion, offices and other buildings. Outstanding pulpit and platform orators of Canada and the United States have here delivered inspiring messages. The singing of a vast concourse of people in the quiet of the evening under the giant trees is an unforgettable experience to those who have once heard it. In short Nova Scotia has in this camp meeting a unique institution. One would have to travel far to find another place where three thousand persons can be brought together for religious services.

Large numbers of old friends are expected to attend the Camp during this Old Home Summer. The principal speakers each day are Rev. Lawrence E. Ening of Melrose, Mass., and Dr. John A. Clark of St. Matthews Church, Halifax. The Masonic Male Quartet of New Glasgow, led by Mr. Mason McKay, will be in attendance throughout. The dates are Aug 1st, to 10th, inclusive. The Blueson's will stop at Berwick Aug. 1st to 11th.

Rev. Eben F. Francis, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride.

The double ring service was used. Only relatives witnessed the nuptials, performed within a bower of greenery and summer flowers. Miss Doris Longmire, sister of the bride, played the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin (Wagner) as the couple took their places.

The bride wore a gown of powder blue georgette enriched with lace. She carried a bouquet of brides roses. Her sister, Miss Reta Longmire as bridesmaid, wore a gown of peach colored georgette and carried roses. Frederick Marshall of Milton, cousin of the groom, was the best man. ## FIFTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Foster of Lawrencetown, Still Vigorous, Honored by Family Connection on This Joyous Occasion.

The anniversary of the fiftieth wedding day of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Foster, highly respected citizens of Lawrencetown, was fittingly celebrated at the beautiful home of their daughter, Mrs. C. C. Bishop on the afternoon of July 22nd. Mrs. Bishop's home was decorated with a color scheme of ferns and roses that gave it a decidedly festive appearance.

This event was arranged as a complete surprise. Mrs. D. M. Elliott, Mrs. Foster's mother is a lady 94 years of age. She enjoys the best of health, has the full use of her faculties, takes a lively interest in her surroundings and is a remarkably active old lady. It was arranged that she should spend the day with her granddaughter, Mrs. Bishop. Mr. and Mrs. Foster also were persuaded to be present. To make the surprise more complete, three of their sons, Kenneth, who has not been home for 20 years, Price and Harold, all of Boston arrived. Although the guests were confined to relatives, 35 were present.

At 5 o'clock, Miss Mabel Elliott of Paradise read an address and presented the bride and groom of 50 years ago with a purse containing $100.00 in gold. The address was as follows:

To Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Foster, Lawrencetown, N. S.

We, your children and relatives are delighted to have the privilege of being present on this the anniversary of your fiftieth wedding day. A useful and honorable life, much longer than the average has been yours. Still almost as rugged as in the prime of life, we sincerely hope you both will be spared to see very many more anniversaries of this day.

Upright and honorable in your dealings, kind and obliging as neighbors, your long life has only increased the esteem in which you are held. Wise and kind as parents, your children, many of whom have come from a distance to be present on this festive occasion, rejoice that you are spared to them.

As the sun of a glorious Autumn day sinks slowly to a golden close, so we hope that your remaining years will continue to be blessed with the peace and happiness that has been so marked a feature of your long life.

It gives us genuine pleasure to present you with this purse of gold, which we ask you to accept, not on account of its intrinsic value, but as a memorial of this happy occasion and as a small token of our love and esteem. We extend to you our sincere congratulations and wish you many happy returns of this day.

Immediately after the presentation, the guests sat down to a table that fairly groaned under the weight of good things to eat. Conspicuous was a wedding cake decorated with the years 1874—1924 in gold lettering and a beautiful wreath of flowers with gold leaves. Miss Dorothy Whitman presented a handsome bouquet of 50 roses. Mrs. E. H. Freeman presented a bouquet of white and gold flowers so arranged that they made the number 50. The W. M. A. S. of which Mrs. Foster is a valued member also presented a beautiful bouquet. The bewildering variety of the wedding feast began with salads and ended with ice cream.

The following contributors sent presents at the inability to be present: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Longley and daughter, Mildred of Lynn, Mass.; Mr. Milton Elliott of Somerville, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Armstrong of Somerville, Mass.; Miss Olive Ritchie of Winnipeg and Mr. E. S. Piggott of Bridgewater, N. S.

After ample justice had been done to the good things to eat, the guests took their leave, congratulating the one time bride and groom and wishing them many happy returns of the day.

A PUBLIC MENACE.

There is a demand for a more serious realization of the menace that exists in the intoxicated driver of motor vehicles. The individual who is not in complete control of all his faculties and who attempts to drive a horse, either on the open highway or in the city streets, is a serious proposition, but there are times when tragedies are averted because of the possession of some degree of intelligence on the part of the horse. This does not apply to the drunken driver of a motor, and as a result there is no protection, either for the inmates of the car or for the travelling public. In several of the provinces, and in parts of the United States, the feeling is that no leniency should be shown to the driver who meets with an accident while driving when intoxicated. Indeed, in Boston there is a close inspection of the drivers, and the man who drinks is not allowed to retain his license as a driver. He is regarded as a menace to the public safety, a factor not amenable to reason and as such not to be allowed to imperil the lives of the general public. The loss of his license, imprisonment and fine is the punishment meted out to him. The police have it in their power to arrest a drunken driver before he has had the opportunity to wreck his car and injure any person. Further there is a strong agitation against giving a license to men who are known to be habitual drinkers. The motor-driven car under control is a safe proposition in the hands of a reliable man or woman; the motor-driven car under worse than no control—for who can fathom the next move of the drunken mind?—is a terrible thing. No small fine should be the only punishment given a man who can neither control himself nor his car, and who drives, regardless of consequences, unaware of consequences, through the city streets and on the highways now filled with children and travellers. The responsibility for accidents must rest somewhere, and it would seem that the municipality will have to take drastic measures to insure its people from the carelessness of the drunken driver.—St. John Globe.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

ALLIES STILL.

Providence Journal: The declaration by Premier Herriot that Great Britain has agreed to sign a defensive pact for common action with France, Belgium and Italy in case of premeditated German aggression in the future is not so surprising as regards the aim as it is as respects the time the statement is made. The significance of Premier Herriot's utterance at this time is that it is made on the eve of a new conference with Germany. It is the most compelling evidence Germany has seen since the Versailles Conference that the Allies are standing shoulder to shoulder. Heretofore German plans cannot be predicated on the idea of Allied disunity. Whatever differences of opinion among themselves exist, there is unanimity concerning what action should be taken if Germany should attempt to make trouble. In formulating her own program for the application of the Daves plan, she must appreciate the proposal for a formally constituted, greater and better Entente in Europe.

THE DOMINION'S DUTY.

Cape Argus: There are grounds for insisting that the problem of sea defences is, under post-war conditions, of greater moment to the people of the Dominions than it is to the people of the British Isles, and that, broadly speaking, public opinion in the Dominions has failed to grasp this tyrant and vital fact. This is not for the want of plain-speaking on the part of responsible statesmen in Great

A CHANGE FOR THE WORSE.

Chicago Tribune: The alternative to private enterprise toward which we have been tending is variously commended to us as nationalization, public ownership, "peopleization" (a wonderful bit of buncombe, that word). These all imply that we, the people, are going to take over the profitable activities represented by railroads, mines, banks, and great manufactures, etc., and appropriate to ourselves benefits now absorbed by greedy private owners and grinders of the poor. But a little thought will disclose that when we nationalize or "peopleize" an enterprise we cannot take it over actually such as us. What we do, actually, is take it out of its present managers' hands and put it into the hands of other managers; we take it out of business hands and put it into the hands of politicians.

KENYA AND SWAZAL.

London Telegraph: The compromise arrived at in London last year in regard to the civil rights of Indians in Kenya has profoundly dissatisfied their countrymen; and although Lord Reading and his Ministers have associated themselves strongly with the Indian attitude, there is no doubt that the failure to obtain complete equality of status in Kenya had much to do with the sweeping gains made by Swazal in the recent elections and the bringing about of the extremely difficult political conditions now facing the Central and Provincial Governments. It is hard to take a hopeful view of the future development of this question so long as Indian nationalism continues to take an impracticable and one-sided view of the matter; for the compromise undoubtedly goes to the very limit of what can in fairness be conceded to the Indian settlers.

RECONSTRUCTING FRANCE.

Reconstruction work in the departments of France devastated during the war has progressed to the point which permits the region to sustain a population of 4,253,677 as compared with 4,690,182 in pre-war days.

Transportation is almost completely restored; one-half of the dwellings and nearly all industrial buildings destroyed have been repaired; and the work of putting the soil in tillable condition is virtually done except for 286,550 acres of former battlefield which will never be agriculturally useful again.

Of the 75,000 miles of roads in the six devastated departments, the report states, about 36,000 miles had to be either repaired or reconstructed, while 6,123 bridges, tunnels, etc., had been destroyed partially or wholly.

About 1,550 miles of railroad line were damaged during the conflict in the region in question, and of that total 1,350 miles have been repaired or rebuilt. Lastly 650 miles of canals and 595 buildings connected with the canals have been re-established.

Damaged farm buildings and houses totalled $66,644 and some 50 per cent. have been repaired or reconstructed; in addition, 152,844 houses and 21,462 farm buildings are in temporary repair.

Other buildings and houses have been matched up so as to serve until complete reconstruction can be undertaken, the grapes and other crops attended to being $10,921. Of the 17,616 public buildings destroyed at the time of the armistice 10,448 have been either permanently or temporarily repaired.

Clearing the land has taken up a great part of the time in the reconstruction work. Altogether 3,366,305 hectares of 247 acres each were devastated. Of these 1,604,587 only needed clearing, the balance called for absolute transformation. The report says that 2,911,510 hectares have been cleared. The balance of the land is in what is termed the "red zone," and has been bombarded out of value to the farmer.

Reintroducing domestic animals into the region has gone ahead to a considerable extent. Cows, which numbered 57,405 at the time of the armistice, now total 364,594; horses, donkeys and mules have jumped from 22,395 to 124,018; sheep and goats from 58,980 to 196,539; and pigs from 24,954 to 179,664.

When the war ended France's northern coal mines were out of business. Of 200 coal pits, 145 have now been restored, almost 2,600,000,000 cubic feet of the 2,943,000,000 cubic feet of water with which the workings out.

ENTITLED TO WAR BONUSES

Millions of Pounds Involved in Judgment of British Court.

London.—Several million pounds sterling are involved in a judgment given in a test case by the King's bench division of the high court of justice here in which a large number of Post Office employees, who enlisted in the war on a promise of each employee receiving full salary while engaged therein, claimed also all subsequent war bonuses.

Justice Sir Sidney Rowlatt, who presided at the hearing of the case, has given judgment upholding the claim of the Post Office employees to the war bonuses in question.

Many thousands of men in consequence of the court's decision will receive a windfall.

STAINLESS STEEL PROCESS GETS TEST

British Invention Would Reduce Chrome in Iron Ore to Prevent Rust.

Pittsburgh.—Steel men here are watching tests being made in some of the largest steel mills of a new process for making stainless steel and iron.

Stainless steel has been made, but it has been confined to cutlery and small fittings because of the high cost of production. By the new method the cost has been reduced, according to the inventor, so that rustless tubes, automobiles and even ships are possible.

The process is the invention of Ronald Wild, of Sheffield, and consists essentially in the reduction of chromite or chrome iron ore in its mined condition by means of a low carbon silicon reducer, associated with the melting of an initial bath of metal by means of electric or other form of external heating to insure a residual low carbon and low silicon final metal containing the desired percentage of chromium.

FATTEST WOMAN

Weighed More Than Six Hundred Pounds.—Death Due to Weight.

Assonia, Conn.—Catherine Bristol, 49, whose funeral was held here yesterday, weighed in excess of six hundred pounds and was buried in a casket weighing 400 pounds. The woman's death occurred on the third story of a block at 402 Main Street and a block and fall was used in lowering the casket from a hearse to the grave, a distance of one hundred feet.

They were obliged twice to put it down for rest during the short journey. Mrs. Bristol's death, physicians say, was caused by her increasing weight, on account of which she has been unable to leave her home for three years.

U. S. DEVELOPMENT OF THE ST. LAWRENCE

In all the discussion of the St. Lawrence Waterways Scheme, the vital fact that the water in the St. Lawrence River and its tributaries is being reduced in volume from year to year through the depletion of our forests, is entirely lost sight of, for while the Chicago drainage and power canal is accountable for the loss of ten thousand cubic feet of water and the consequent lowering through that source alone of the lake water levels by six inches or more, the far greater and more alarming shrinkage is caused by the enormous destruction of our forests.

In addition to this, every time a dam is erected on a river the flow of water is lessened below the dam through the increased evaporation area that has been created. Actual recorded figures on a large watershed over a 20-year period show that only 46 per cent of the precipitation was available at the dam owing to loss from evaporation and seepage.

ORIGINAL MOUNTIES WHOOP 'ER UP

Top.—The old stage coach added a little color to the MacLeod celebration. Left.—These two old squaws remembered their first sight of a Mounted Policeman. Right.—Roxie, who lost a race and did not survive. The photographs reproduced above were taken, not a century ago as may be supposed, but early in July of this year when the town of MacLeod, Alberta, celebrated its Jubilee with a stampee and other goings-on reminiscent of the days of horse-thieves and Indian raids, and the advent of the Royal North-West Mounted Police.

There is a very pretty little story told in connection with this celebration. Roxie, a beautiful race-horse owned by "Old Three Sons," a Black-foot Indian, although fourteen years old, was entered again to race. This horse was said to have never lost a race. Sheek and beautiful, she was the pride of the prairies, and as proud as she was beautiful. But her age was beginning to tell. Though she strained every muscle in her body, coaxed by "Old Three Sons" crouching on her back, having lost the lead she could not regain it, and for the first time in her racing life Roxie finished second. No more will she set the prairie turf flying under her feet. Having trotted back to the judges' stands, Roxie sank to the ground dead. She died, it is said, of a broken heart.

PEOPLE 'ALL NERVES'

What to Do if You Find Yourself in This Condition.

The sort of thing that specialists speak of as nervous debility is the run-down condition caused by over-work, household cares or worries. The sufferers find themselves tired, morose, low-spirited and unable to keep their minds on anything. Any sudden noise startles and sets the heart palpitating violently. They are full of groundless fears, and do not sleep well at night. The hands tremble and the legs feel as if they would give way, following a walk or any exertion. The whole condition of such people may be described as pitiable.

Doctorsing the nerves with poisonous sedatives is a terrible mistake. The only real nerve tonic is a good supply of new rich blood. Therefore the treatment for nervousness and run-down health is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which promptly build up and enrich the blood. The revived appetite, the strong nerves, improved spirits and new strength which comes after a course of these pills will delight every sufferer.

You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Following the reception of the guests by Capt. and Mrs. Spurr and Miss Blanche Spurr, Mrs. F. W. Rice presented the bride of twenty-six years with a beautiful bouquet of Jacqueminot roses.
The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion with Queen Anne's lace, meadow-rue, ferns, and potted plants while the porches were illuminated with Chinese lanterns.
The guests participating in the evening's enjoyment were members of the family, Capt. Wm. F. Spurr, Mrs. F. W. Rice, Mrs. John D. Spurr, Mr. and Mrs. Shipley Spurr and Miss Pauline Spurr, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spurr and Robert Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Games and music were enjoyed, after which a collation was served by Miss Grace Spurr, assisted by her nieces, Mrs. Warren Harris, Mrs. Harding Spurr and Miss Pauline Spurr.

Salt---Hay

Reasons for using Salt. Time saved in Waiting for Hay to dry.
Cattle eat salted hay greedily because it is cut greener and is more juicy. Increases the production of milk.
Keeps stock healthy. If you are selling hay you get the benefit of increased weight from greener fodder. Those buying are glad to pay for the extra weight of more succulent juicy fodder.

Baby's Great Danger During Hot Weather

More little ones die during the hot weather than at any other time of the year. Diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera infantum and stomach troubles come without warning, and when a medicine is not at hand to give promptly the short delay too frequently means that the child has passed beyond aid. Baby's Own Tablets should always be kept in the house where there are young children. An occasional dose of the tablets will prevent stomach and bowel troubles, or if the trouble comes suddenly the prompt use of the Tablets will relieve the baby. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"THE GROCER"

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

A number of the school boys from Bridgetown are spending several weeks of their vacation on a camping trip at Hampton.
Mr. J. E. Lloyd, Mr. V. A. Lloyd and A. Young spent the week-end at Hampton.
Dr. Fairbairn, Mr. George Gilbert, and Mr. Brown, of Ottawa, surveying the Annapolis Valley, left last week for Annapolis where they will remain for the rest of the summer.
There is a practice among some economical housekeepers of putting in a little extra tea with the old leaves and sitting the teapot back on the stove. This should never be done. Either start a new brew entirely, or else pour some boiling water on the leaves, and the latter will give you a cup or two of fairly good tea. The best results of course are obtained with MORSE'S Tea.

T. J. Poupart

LONDON

The success and continued growth of any business depends directly upon the satisfaction and goodwill it creates with its clients.

The service ability depends wholly upon the experience and practical knowledge brought to bear on all departments of business.

The strongest possible argument that the firm of T. J. Poupart meets these requirements is evidenced by its remarkable progress. In 1895 the firm began in quite a small way. Ability in salesmanship and straight dealing, combined with a determination to avoid speculative transactions, have raised them to the proud position they now hold as the premier firm in the fruit trade in Great Britain.

The firm may fairly claim to have world-wide business connections. No part of the world where fruit is grown and exported escapes notice.

The unique system of distribution offered by the firm enables anyone in Europe to obtain supplies from them as soon as fruit reaches London from any part of the globe.

All sales are by Private Treaty only which over and over again has been demonstrated to give the best results. Commission Consignments the exclusive basis. Purchase Propositions cannot be considered.

F. E. I. BOY DROWNS.

Charlottetown.—D. A. MacDonald, 17, of Valleyfield, near here, was drowned Wednesday when he attempted to swim Vernon river which is sixty yards across at that point. He had learned to swim only last year and turned the task beyond his strength. Turning about when he was twelve yards from his starting point, he was seen to make a few feeble strokes, then suddenly disappeared. His body was discovered an hour later.

REPRIMANDED FOR RECKLESS DRIVING

Liverpool.—A charge of reckless driving was brought before R. H. Gardner, Siding Magistrate for Queens, Wednesday afternoon on the complaint of Dr. T. R. Ford, of Liverpool. Dr. Ford testified that while driving with his young son and a passenger in the Hunts Point road, he encountered at a sharp curve a furniture van of the Halifax Transportation Co., driven by Harry Poole, which was returning from Shelburne. The truck, he said was being driven at a high rate of speed and forced him to ditch his car to avert a collision. The driver proceeded to Liverpool where a telephone message to the chief of police led to the young man's arrest.

Dr. Ford retained from prosecuting but a reprimand was given the young driver by the magistrate.

MRS. BUDGE SO WEAK COULD HARDLY STAND

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health

River Desert, Que.—"I used to have a severe pain in my side. I would be unable to walk fast and could not stand for any length of time to do my ironing or washing, but I would have to lie down to get relief from the pain. I had this for about two years, then a friend told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she had had good results from it, so the last time I had a sore side was last May and I have not had it since. I am also glad of having good nursing for my baby, and I think it is your medicine that helped me in this way."—Mrs. L. V. BUDGE, River Desert, Quebec.

"If you are suffering from the tortures of displacement, irregularities, backache, headaches, nervousness, or a pain in the side, you should lose no time in trying Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent you free upon request. Write for it to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Cushing, Ontario. This book contains valuable information that every woman should know.

AN INDIAN'S THANKS.

One time a full blooded Indian spoke before a Boston audience and among other things, he said he was thankful to his father, because his father had taught him what he himself had learned.

"He taught me the lesson of poverty, of hunger, of cold, of suffering. He denied me none of the experience which had made him so strong; no one did he try to shield me from life. For all those lessons I am deeply grateful to him."

Then he went on to tell his Boston hearers how wrong it was for them to deny their children any of the hardships which had given them their strength. "Only foolish fathers," he said, "will make it impossible for their sons to fight their own way upward. The boy who is pampered and coddled and saved from all trouble, is receiving an education that will weaken him instead of one that will strengthen him."

One man was talking recently with quite a bit of bitterness about his son's inability to realize the value of money. "He acts as if the world owes him a living," said the father. But the father, afflicted with a curious kind of blindness, cannot see that he himself is responsible for his son's attitude towards the world. All his life he has given things to his son without asking any effort from the son in return.

A badly-trained son is only an advertisement of his father's laziness, or both.

CHIEF OF C. N. R. IS VERY OPTIMISTIC

Sir Henry Thornton Estimates Thirty Millions Profit This Year.

Winnipeg.—Sir Henry Thornton, President of the Canadian National Railway, who arrived here yesterday on his annual tour of inspection of Western lines, declared he was very hopeful of reaching his estimated thirty million dollar net profit figure for the year. Sir Henry said the Canadian National net profits at the present time were slightly ahead of last year, and the "best months are yet to come."

Discussing the suspension of the Crow's Nest agreement rates, Sir Henry said:

"I am naturally against the lowering of freight rates, but it is no use crying over spilt milk. We must go to work and make up the deficiency. If any discrimination is being shown against certain points in the west, it is up to the railway commissioners to bring things out. If the suspension causes a real loss to us, it will mean an increase of taxes. The Canadian people must not forget that they cannot have it both ways."

Speaking of the Senate's action in throwing out some of the branch lines, the Canadian National President said:

"I know the branch lines are essential for the future prosperity of the west, and I am determined before long to make the Senate see the reason."

Mr. Cahon is being welcomed by many of his old friends in Yarmouth town and county.

BABY ACCIDENTALLY SMOTHERED IN BED

Clementsport.—The eleven months old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Parks was smothered to death Sunday afternoon. He had been playing around and becoming tired, was placed on a bed to sleep, and was sleeping quietly when his mother left him. He had often slept there, and the mother, thinking it would be cooler than in his crib, had placed him there. He got wedged between the bed and the wall, and when later the mother went in the little one was dead.

Dr. L. B. Braine, of Annapolis Royal, coroner was there in twenty minutes, but life was extinct. The coroner did not consider it necessary to hold an inquest. The funeral will be held on Tuesday at 10 a.m., the reception officiating.

MOOSE PROVIDES A REAL THRILL

Motorist Has Unusual Encounter With Monarch of the Forest.

While driving along the St. Margaret's Bay road, en route to Halifax from Bridgetown, last evening, P. J. Gould had a thrilling experience with a large bull moose.

The moose was trotting along in the centre of the highway, apparently unconcerned and indifferent to the fact that he was out of his native environment, when Mr. Gould rounded a corner of the road, almost colliding with the monarch of the wilds. He immediately applied the brakes and brought the car to a standstill within a few yards of the now-very-much interrupted in his evening stroll by the sudden appearance of this strange, noisy creature around the bend. He stopped in his tracks, engines poised and nostrils dilated, with his gaze centred on the disturbing factor for a space of time which, though only of a few moments duration, seemed to the occupant of the Ford coupe an incredibly long period. During this time the fleet footed monster apparently made up his mind that the pursuing creature was not as dangerous as he first imagined it to be, but not taking any chances, he started along the road at an amazing speed for such a short start directly toward the standing car. Mr. Gould closed his eyes and waited for the crash, but the huge beast swerved in his tracks when a short distance from the car, and continued his wild gallop along the road.—(Hx. Herald.)

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Agnes King.

Annapolis.—The many friends of Mrs. Agnes King will regret to hear of her death, which occurred last evening about eight o'clock, after a long illness. The late Mrs. King was born in Kentville on July 3rd, 1851, and was a Miss Jordan, very well known throughout the province. She was a member of the Presbyterian church and at one time very active in all that pertained to the welfare of the community. She leaves two sons, Arthur M. King, with whom she lived, and Captain William King. Three sons, John, George and Charles, and one daughter (Mrs. Belle Clark, predeceased her). Her husband, Arthur King, of Windsor, by a strange coincidence, died on July 22nd, 1886, at the same hour. She also leaves fourteen grand children and seventeen great grandchildren.

Mrs. King was beloved and honored by all who knew her, and in spite of her advanced age, was interested to the very last in all topics of the day. In her passing Annapolis loses one of her most devoted citizens.

THE "SCRUB" SILO DOESN'T PAY!

An inferior, "home-made" silo doesn't pay any more than it does to use a scrub bull for breeding.

You've got to have a silo built to stand the storms—stand the pressure of silage—keep out weight and weather.

Moreover, you want a silo of wood—good substantial wood. Because only with wood can you keep out frost and keep in the succulent ensilage juices. Silos built of porous compounds such as cement absorb the juices—create mouldy, poisonous ensilage—disintegrate with the acids.

You may put up a silo for a few dollars less than I can sell you a Hyllo Silo for.

But you won't have anything like the same job. You won't have Gilson self-adjusting hoops—anchoring—patented combination door lock and silo—in short, the money lost in a "scrub silo" in a single season will more than pay the difference in the cost of a Hyllo!

And as for strength—well, let me show you a block of Louisiana—twice as heavy as Spruce—stronger than Oak. Then you'll realize why a Gilson Hyllo Silo is by far the cheapest silo to get.

Pays for Itself in Six Months

A "Hyllo Silo" pays for itself the first season in lower feed costs and extra milk production. Let's figure it out with pen and paper.

DOMINION RESPONSIBILITY.

Manchester Guardian: What is becoming essential is that the Dominion should be asked, on the occasion of every important international conference, whether they consider that their interests demand separate representation or whether they will be content to accept for themselves the representatives of the home Government. Such an inquiry really becomes almost inevitable so soon as the Dominion has received separate representation at Paris and at Washington. Where a Dominion had no special interest in the subject under discussion it would send no special envoy of its own. It could delegate its interests to the representative of the home Government or another Dominion, as South Africa, if we remember rightly, did at Washington; and on some occasions all the Dominions would probably be quite content to leave to the home Government the exclusive task of negotiation. The time, however, for settling such questions is before and not after a conference, and in future, no doubt, every attempt will be made to avoid the ambiguity which has marked the procedure in the case of Lausanne.

ANNAPOLIS VALLEY HOLDS ITS OWN WITH BEST OF CANADA

The following interesting extracts from a letter written from Vancouver by a former resident of Clarence will be found of interest to our readers and perhaps give them a better opinion of the Annapolis Valley.

We rather enjoyed the long journey of nearly four thousand miles even though most of the way was not of an interesting character as all rail-ways in Canada are not built with the view of passing through the prettiest part of the country but that which will best suit the making of a good cheap line, and therefore the C. P. R. as all other lines, runs through a rocky and barren country most of the way I may say from two hundred miles northwest of Ottawa to Winnipeg. From there to the Rockies, a distance of eight hundred miles is the great wheat producing belt the plains which when we passed along, showed no growth at all, and nothing to be seen at all except a house here and there and a few cattle and horses, not in Central Clarence order of condition. I mean not as good and then not a tree of any kind to be seen, and yet we know how great are its wheat crops. Then comes the mountains from Calgary 400 miles through the highest and roughest portion of them—and then another 200 of lesser height—another 100 of pastoral land to the coast—the ocean. The mountains are cold and wild, towering in height, and small spruce creeping up hanging on to the bare rock to about half way up. To my eye and senses the sight did not impress me much as to beauty—not half so beautiful as your north mountain range. And for beauty and production the Annapolis Valley, from, say Lawrenceton to Annapolis can more than hold her own with any other part, all the way from Halifax to Victoria. Victoria itself is the most beautiful city I have ever seen anywhere in the old or new world. Its site is hard and dry—rocky in fact, and undulating, covering an area three and a half miles square, with a population of sixty thousand, larger than either Halifax or St. John, and streets like I've never seen—wide and paved just as any floor. It has seventy-two (72) miles of paved streets; 134 of paved sidewalks, and sixteen hundred acres of public parks. It's public buildings, banks, hotels, and stores are magnificent. I'm told it has ten banks. Has a splendid supply of water, magnificently lighted, and from the hundreds of cars to be seen on its maze of streets one might readily and almost reasonably suppose that every resident possessed one.

When once down from the mountains and down by the seacoast the country can justly be called beautiful though not from an agricultural point of view—any kind of farming being in the hands of Chinese who can grow something out of the very rocks, not to speak of sun-dried soil. They beat the white man altogether. The climate here, and I believe throughout B. C. during most of the year is very dry and strong sunshine, and were it not for the heavy night dews there would be but little vegetation at all. So from a Central Clarence farmer point of view he would not want to make an exchange of his beautiful greenfields, trees and orchards for anything out here yet do not say that the country does not produce at all for that would be incorrect, as it is wonderful how much it does respond to the efforts of those Chinese. The climate is treacherous to newcomers, as the night winds from the snow-clad mountains are cold and damp and I did not escape catching a heavy cold which has now pretty well departed.

Coolican, who is representing the Postmaster General of Canada at the conference of the Union now in progress at Stockholm, Sweden, at the previous conference in Madrid in 1920 only "politically independent," countries were allowed to vote in the conference and Canada's delegate attended only as representing an overseas Dominion of the British Empire. Boston Transcript: Events have brought the Japanese nation into a peculiar position in the world. They are an Asiatic people who have adopted the Western civilization and have attained to a position of honor and diplomatic equality with European and American nations. In this process they have intensified their national pride—but they have not ceased to be Asiatic. Say and do what they or we may, the incompatibility of their culture with our own remains. We do not regard them as our inferiors, they are our superiors. But the industrial contradiction of their life with ours persists. It has resulted, through their large emigration to the Pacific Slope, in condition or development which evidently the majority of our people think we must stop where it is. We are exercising an absolute and inherent national right in excluding their laborers as immigrants. In doing so, we are exercising a restriction which we make quite general. That is all there is to the situation, and it must not be sup-

Cause of Early Old Age

The celebrated Dr. Michenerhoff, an authority on early old age, says that it is "caused by poisons generated in the intestine." When your stomach digests food properly it is absorbed without forming poisonous matter. Poisons bring on early old age and premature death. 15 to 30 drops of "Sage's Syrup" after meals makes your digestion sound.

Twenty Thousand Dollar Baby Christened
 THERE was a christening at the Mount Royal Hotel, Montreal, recently, and quite apropos, it was of the Montreal. The Canadian Pacific, having on hand a very fine model of their Atlantic steamer, the Empress of Britain, placed it in drydock in Montreal about the same time that the Empress herself went into dock in the Old Country for overhauling and renaming. Upon being overhauled, the model was sent to the Mount Royal Hotel where it will remain on exhibition and where Mr. Vernon G. Cardy, resident manager of the hotel, "cracked" a bottle of champagne over the bow, thus christening the Montreal as she moved to her new berth.

The model of the Montreal is complete in every particular and is indeed such an excellent replica on a small scale of the former Empress that it has been insured for $20,000. The model is fourteen feet in length and provides a deal of entertainment for the visitor whether adult or juvenile.

MARRIED.
Porter—Bent.
The marriage of Miss Marion Elizabeth Bent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bent, of Tupperville, and Mr. Hugh G. Porter, of Woodville, took place at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday morning, July twenty-third at ten o'clock, Rev. J. H. Freestone officiating.

The bride was charmingly gowned in white satin with pearl trimmings, and wore a veil. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations, pink bridal roses and maiden hair ferns.

She entered the room on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march, played by her cousin.

Mrs. Al. Inglis and took her place beside the groom under a beautiful arch of ferns and moss roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Edith Bent, whose gown was of powder blue all over lace.

The gifts were both numerous and costly, including silver, cut glass, china and checks from the parents of both bride and groom.

The groom's gift to the bride was a wrist watch and to the bridesmaid and organist, each a bar pin.

A luncheon was served at the close of the ceremony, after which amid showers of good wishes and content Mr. and Mrs. Porter left on a motor trip to Yarmouth and other points along the south shore. On their return they will reside in Woodville.

The Monitor joins with his many friends, here and elsewhere, in congratulating Mr. Keith B. Ewan of this town, in passing the final examinations of the Nova Scotia Institute of Chartered Accountants. We trust that now that Mr. Ewan has joined the ranks of the professional accountants he will not remove from our town. We do not wish to part with so useful and popular a citizen.

The Grade XI candidates who were scholars at Bridgetown High School were very successful this year in their examinations. We cannot give aggregates this week on account of difficulty in getting in touch with candidates but understand that eleven out of fourteen were successful. Ralph Henson led with the splendid aggregate of 737. We expect to give full details in next issue.

We are in receipt of several sprays of apple blossoms from Mr. David Shipp of Dalhousie.

The fire department was called out early Saturday afternoon to attend a blaze at the house of Mrs. Cunningham, caused by a spark lodging in the roof. They reduced the flame but not before a hole of considerable size had been burned in the roof. We understand that the loss was covered by insurance.

This afternoon at five o'clock the Bridgetown Junior team play Digby on the Bridgetown grounds. A good game is expected. Let everybody turn out and give the boys support. They are putting up good ball and the games are well worth the admission charged.

Rev. R. O. Armstrong.
A wire was received on Tuesday morning by Dr. M. E. Armstrong conveying the sad intelligence of the death of his brother, Rev. Rupert O. Armstrong at Hartney, Manitoba, on the evening of the 28th.

Rev. Mr. Armstrong was a member of the Manitoba Methodist Conference having removed there from Nova Scotia in 1905. For several years he was Secretary of the Manitoba Sunday School Association, but in 1929 returned to active circuit work, and had removed to a new field Hartney, a few weeks ago, and was suddenly taken seriously ill the same week with heart disease from which he succumbed on Monday.

Rev. R. O. Armstrong was a native of North Kingston, Kings Co., N. S., and received his college training at Mount Allison University when he received his B. A., and later his M. A. degree and in 1891 was ordained to the ministry in the Nova Scotia Conference where he labored for some years until his removal to the West in both of which Conferences he has labored faithfully and successfully until stricken down suddenly in the midst of his labors.

The deceased is survived by three brothers, Rt. Hon. E. H. Armstrong, Premier of Nova Scotia, Dr. M. E. Armstrong of this town and A. O. Armstrong of Cambridge, Mass., and by one sister, Mrs. W. C. Hatfield, of Parrsboro. He also leaves a widow, nee Annie Burke a native of Ingonish and sister of Councillor Sidney Burke of that place.

He also leaves six children, Ernest, Edward, Charles, Louis, Jean and Ruth, most of whom are taking a college course.

Besides pastoral cares Mr. Armstrong did considerable literary work writing particularly for the Sunday School Periodicals and at various times contributed to the secular press series of articles. In 1922 he was invited to visit his native Province to preach a Centennial service in the United Church at Bridgetown on the occasion of the hundredth anniversary of the founding of the town. His effort at that time was of a high order and much appreciated. The deceased received his earlier education in Bridgetown and was a pupil of Mr. A. D. Brown, then Principal of the

In 1913 he made a visit to Europe visiting England, Scotland and the continent in connection with the Canadian Teachers Association. He treated conditions in Europe very interestingly in a series of letters to the Canadian Press.

His death at the comparatively early age of 53 is generally regretted by hosts of friends. The funeral takes place in Winnipeg on Thursday.
