NO CONCESSIONS BY
ANGLICAN CHURCHBishop Richardson, Preaching at King's College, Says Church Union Can Only
Come When Other Churches Accept
Doctrines of Church of England.

WINDSOR, N. S., June 20 (Special).—The closing exercises of the Kings College being continued today and a large number of visitors are in attendance. At the meeting of the board of governors last night the question of adding another year to the course, which is now of three years duration, was discussed and it was finally agreed to allow the question to stand over until November next.

This morning the students and professors, visitors, etc., marched to the church where divine service was held.

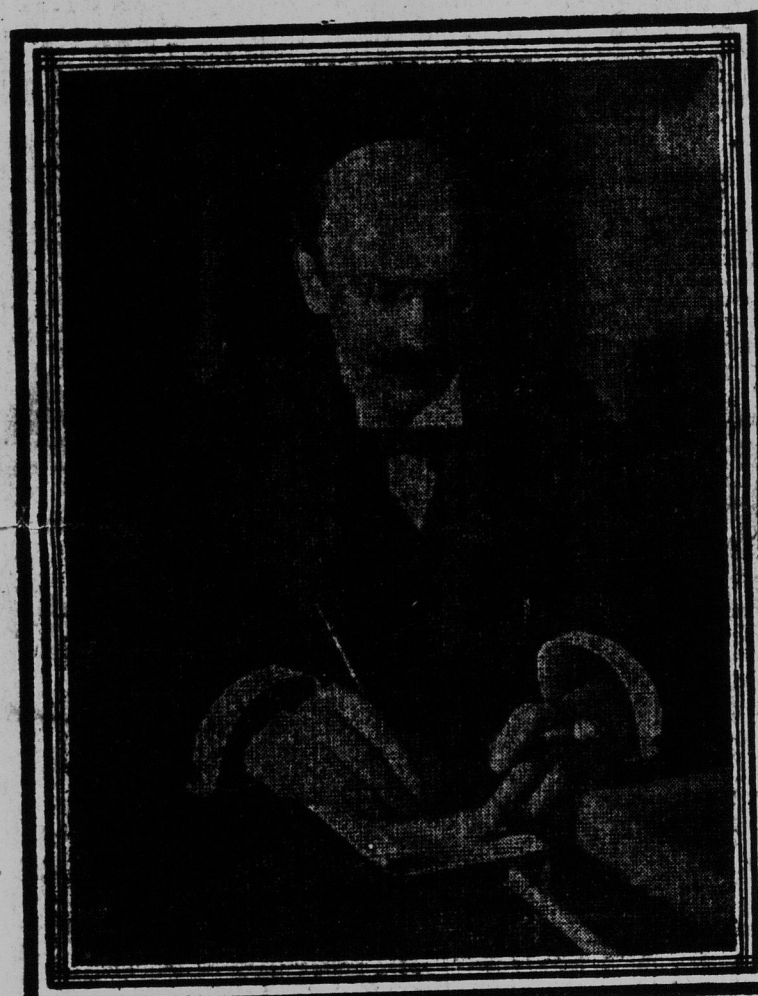

Bishop Richardson preached an eloquent sermon dealing with church union. His lordship stated that the union of the churches would never come about unless the other denominations accepted all the doctrines of the Church of England. He showed in many ways wherein the Church of England differed from the Presbyterian and Methodist.

His lordship stated that if the present talk of union was brought about it would be a union in name only. The bishop said that the Church of England would never surrender the episcopate.

The conferring of degrees will take place at 2 o'clock.

The St. John law students were entertained at luncheon at one o'clock by the president of King's College. This evening the college ball will be held.

Mrs. Gleason proprietress of the Prince Royal Hotel fell while coming from the hotel to church on Monday evening and injured her foot so badly that she will be confined to her bed for several weeks. The accident was caused by Mrs. Gleason's foot coming in contact with a ring in the sidewalk. It is reported that Mrs. Gleason will seek to recover damages for her injuries.

Alfred Sutro Urges Copyright Reform
Here.

LONDON, June 20.—Alfred Sutro, as the author of the sensational piece of the season, "John Gladys's Honor," is just now very much before the public. He is perhaps the most popular playwright of today. I found Mr. Sutro in his very pretty home of red brick and white Elizabethan windows, which he has just taken, and very artistically furnished.

"It is a sorry to say," said Mr. Sutro in reply to my question, "that I do not know very much technically about international copyright. I have, like other authors, my hills and Harriens and Schiffs and I, like all other authors, would gladly see a reform and better protection for literary property."

JAP FINANCE MINISTER
SCOFFS AT IDEA OF WARHe Declares That Peace
Between United States and Japan is Assured.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Reino Wakabayashi, vice-minister of finance of the imperial government of Japan, now in New York, in an interview with a representative of the Wall Street Journal, yesterday said that all the talk of war between the United States and his country was silly. He praised the president as one of the greatest statesmen of his time, and had good words to say for the leading capitalists of American industry, and Jacob H. Schiff especially. He referred to the fact that American investors now hold a large amount of Japanese securities—government bonds, municipal debentures and others—and this he regarded as a pleasing factor in the situation. It could not help but draw the two people closer together, he said.

"Respect and love for the American people and admiration for American ideals of government is a tradition of the Japanese race," said his excellency. "It is a feeling that will be strengthened with the passing years. To my mind the future of Japan and the United States lies along harmonious paths. Talk of war between the United States and Japan is worse than absurd. It is silly."

"I think, however, it is strange that American newspapers should give space to the reports that the Japanese people are much excited over disturbances in San Francisco. Such reports are gross exaggerations. The Japanese people do not like these

DEMURRER IN EMMERSON
LIBEL CASE THIS MORNINGHe Contents the Plea of Justification Does Not Hold Good
---Hon. A. S. White's Able Argument in Support of the Demurrer.

FREDERICTON, N. B., June 20.—(Special).—The case of The King v. Jas. H. Crockett was resumed in the circuit court this morning before Judge Landry.

The crown counsel submitted a demurrer to the defendant's plea and the legal argument which followed occupied the attention of the court all morning. After the usual opening preliminaries, Dr. Pugsley announced that he had prepared the demurrer to the defendant's plea and was prepared to submit it to the court. He then read the replication and demurrer to the defendant's plea of justification of the libel. In the first count of the plea, the prosecution joined issue with the defence, but in regard to the plea of justification set up, objection was taken that it was not clearly shown by the defence that the article was published for the public benefit. It was further held that the libel was a seditious one and no facts had been submitted to support it therefore the plea was bad.

Mr. Hazen said he had not received a copy of the demurrer until this morning and would therefore be justified in asking time to prepare his argument, but he was ready to go on.

Dr. Pugsley remarked that Mr. Hazen did not have his plea ready at the opening of the court, and the crown counsel offered no comment on this matter.

Hon. Mr. White made the opening argument in support of the demurrer. He read from the indictment to show that the Gleason article intimated that Mr. Emerson had been ejected from more than one hotel in company with women of ill repute and pointed out that the plea only stated that he had been ejected from the St. Lawrence Hotel. There was some doubt as to what was meant by the term "women of ill repute." It might mean a woman who was an inmate of a house of prostitution or it might mean a woman—the law, unless they could show that it was in the public interest. He cited authorities to show that it was a question for the judge to decide whether or not the particular topic discussed was for the public benefit. It may be true, said the public benefit, that some members of parliament have some short comings in private life, but that did not justify a newspaper in attacking and holding him up to ridicule. It is true that what takes place in parliament might be a subject for fair comment by newspapers, but it does not justify a newspaper in bringing into discussion matters of fact or in enlarging upon what was said in parliament.

A newspaper had attacked Mr. Emerson and not wishing to hold office with a charge of this kind hanging over his head, he resigned as a minister of the crown. Suppose that every cabinet minister was attacked in the same way, how could the government of the country be carried on?

The law certainly did not allow seditious publications of that nature. He held that parliament was supreme on all matters affecting the conduct of its members. Mr. White's argument was an able one from a legal standpoint and was followed with the closest interest.

Mr. Barry, who followed his colleague took occasion to point out that it was the first time in the history of the province that a plea of this nature had been entered in a libel case. He said that if the defendant's plea was thrown over he would preclude the defence from offering any evidence to justify the libelous article.

Mr. Hazen replied on behalf of the defendant contending that the plea was in accordance with the law as laid down for the defence and should be admitted by the court. He intimated that if court decided against his client he would amend the plea.

Dr. Pugsley replied to Mr. Hazen and did not finish when court took recess for luncheon.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

A FIERCE TANGLE.

An interesting and at times somewhat involved consultation was held at City Hall this morning. Those present were Consulting Engineer Peters, City Engineer Peters and Director Peters. Several matters of importance were to be considered and there was some dispute as to who should perform certain work.

At the very beginning of the talk Consulting Engineer Peters stated flatly that the duties of his office did not require him to act in other than a consulting capacity and to crack jokes with his friend.

Three officials accordingly divided himself up into three official parts and the controversy ended. It is felt, however, that a serious conflict of opinion and authority is likely to arise at any time, and Chairman McLeodrick of the board of works has been requested to remain within call from 9 a. m. till 3 p. m. daily.

In the meantime the mayor's clerk is in some trouble. He started in yesterday to tell a story to Consulting Engineer Peters, when the latter broke in that he had heard it the day before from the director. This morning the mayor's clerk tried one on the director, and was told that the city engineer had told it to the director yesterday afternoon.

HOME FROM
ST. THOMASDelegates to High Court C. O.
F. Returned Home Yesterday

N. Harvey, L. P. D. Tilley, R. W. Wignore and D. R. Kennedy, etc., returned home yesterday from St. Thomas, Ontario, where they were attending the twenty-eighth convention of the Canadian Order of Foresters.

Mr. Harvey, in speaking of the convention, said it was one of the most satisfactory and pleasant gatherings he had ever attended. There were about 400 delegates. The reports of the high court officers showed the institution to be in a splendid financial condition. After paying about $305,000 for death claims last year, they were able to add to the surplus $2,400,000. The death rate last year was very low and an average of 5 was shown for the term of the order's existence, which is the lowest death rate of any insurance company in Canada.

The sick fund showed $330,000 paid out, after which $17,000 was added to the reserve, leaving a balance well up to the mark.

Not a cent of insurance or interest on the surplus of about $2,300,000 is used for any other purpose than to pay death claims. The interest on this paid over 20 per cent of the death claims last year.

The reports showed that there are over 1,000 courts in different parts of the dominion, 145 of them in the maritime provinces. The total membership is in excess of 60,000. There were over 7,000 initiations in the year 1906, and the average age in the institution increased only about four months in the past six years.

L. P. D. Tilley was elected as one of the executive, which is composed of five members.

Mr. Kennedy is the inspector for the maritime provinces.

NOT GUILTY IS THE
VERDICT OF JURYCase of the King vs. Oscar Petersen
Disposed of by Jury in Circuit Court in Five Minutes --- Judge's Charge
Favored the Prisoner.

The case of the King vs. Oscar Petersen for receiving stolen goods was concluded in the circuit court this morning before Judge McLeod, and a verdict of not guilty returned by the jury.

Mr. Mullin, counsel for Petersen addressed the court raising the contention that Geldart's evidence should not be admitted as he was an avowed accomplice, etc.

Mr. McKeown argued contra and cited a case somewhat similar in Manitoba. Judge McLeod ruled that the evidence be admitted, but gave Mr. Mullin leave to reserve the point raised.

The defendant, Petersen, went on the stand and was examined by Mr. Mullin and cross-examined by Mr. McKeown. He denied having had any knowledge that the goods were stolen. He claimed that he had paid for everything he got from Geldart, either at the time of purchase or in installments later.

Mrs. Petersen, wife of the defendant, was also called as a witness and corroborated the evidence given by her husband.

This closed the case for the defence and Mr. McKeown also stated that the evidence for the prosecution was all in.

The judge then told the counsel that they could address the jury if they desired, but he would inform them that he would instruct the jury that Geldart's evidence would have to be corroborated. Mr. McKeown said the crown had no feeling in the matter and he was sure the McLeod Company had none. They merely desired to put a stop to the stealing from their warehouse.

It was agreed that the counsel would not address the jury. The judge then reviewed the evidence and stated that nothing had been introduced in the evidence to show that Petersen knew the goods were stolen. It had been admitted by Geldart that he stole the goods, but the evidence of an accomplice must be corroborated. He directed the jurors to return a verdict of not guilty.

The jury then retired and returning about five minutes later, the foreman, John P. Morrison, announced a verdict of not guilty. The prisoner was then discharged. There was some argument as to whether the McLeod Co. or Petersen should have possession of the goods, and it was finally left over until this afternoon.

John Bentley, charged with assaulting Dr. F. E. Bishop, on May 23 last, was brought into court and pleaded not guilty. He will be tried this afternoon at 2 o'clock. At the request of the court, on suggestion of Mr. McKeown, Edmund Ritchie will act as counsel for Bentley.

RICH MAN WILL LEND
MONEY TO TRAMPS

(N. Y. American)

Believing that the libraries of Andrew Carnegie and the endowment funds given by John D. Rockefeller to colleges are not reaching the poorer members of society, James Eads Howes, grandson of the builder of the St. Louis Bridge and the New Orleans jetties, has decided to devote his fortune to the betterment of the professional tramp.

Mr. Howes has studied the tramp question from the viewpoint of the tramp. He has ridden on trucks, gone hungry in the hobo camp and tried to earn a living as a laborer on railroad work.

Mr. Howes believes the tramp may be reclaimed if the red tape that binds ordinary charity is eliminated. He has come to New York from St. Louis to further his project. Relief stations have been established in New York and Chicago, where the tramp may be cared for until he gets on his feet. When he gets the money that it has cost to help him on the upward path he is expected to pay back. This contribution goes into the fund for the relief of indigent students at the University of Chicago. Carnegie and Rockefeller do no good to the man who is fast losing his self-respect," says Mr. Howes. "They do not try to help a man along the path which eventually leads to happiness. You can't eat books, and what chance has a laborer's son to go to college?"

In New York, Mr. Howes has associated with him, Brother Nympha, of the "Straight Edge Kitchen," No. 1, Kinsmen Square, where the members of the hard luck brotherhood are all treated to the best in the way of pure food that can be obtained.

On Sunday next Mr. Howes will hold a meeting on the Bowery and tell the members of the brotherhood what is to be done for them.

ILLNESS CAUSED
POSTPONEMENTEntertainment in Every Day Club
Hall Tonight Has Been Postponed.

Owing to the illness of Harold G. Taylor, one of the leading members of the Empire Dramatic Club, it has been found necessary to postpone the entertainment to have been held in the Every Day Club rooms tonight. This is a keen disappointment to the members of both clubs as the entertainment promised to be one of the best held here for a long time. Mr. Taylor had been ill for three days, but it was hoped he would have sufficiently recovered to permit of his participation in tonight's event. His physician, Dr. Scammell, said last night that such a course was not to be thought of, consequently a postponement was, under the circumstances, the only thing possible. The entertainment was given at a date to be announced later.

"ANDY" COAKLEY
IS IN TROUBLE

CINCINNATI, June 20.—Because Pitcher "Andy" Coakley, of the Cincinnati Reds was "wild" in Tuesday's game here, Roger Bresnahan, catcher of the New York Giants and one of the greatest baseball players who ever lived, is thought to be dying in the Seton Hospital.

The fatal ball sped from Coakley's hand on the third inning. Bresnahan was second man up. The inshoot struck him squarely behind the left ear with a crack that could be heard throughout the grounds, and he dropped to the plate like a stone. He lay for a time but has been gradually sinking. Coakley also hit McGinn and Shannon, though the incursion to permit of his participation in tonight's event. His physician, Dr. Scammell, said last night that such a course was not to be thought of, consequently a postponement was, under the circumstances, the only thing possible. The entertainment was given at a date to be announced later.

Coakley is well known here, having pitched one season for the Alerts. He was known to the local fans as "Iron Man" Coakley.

DIED ON ANNIVERSARY
OF HIS GREATEST FIREEdward P. Leonard Who Helped Fight the St. John
Fire Died This Morning.

The death occurred this morning about eight o'clock, after a lingering illness, of Edward P. Leonard, late superintendent of the fire alarm and telegraph system. Mr. Leonard suffered a stroke of paralysis about ten months ago, and though he never fully recovered, he returned to his work. About five weeks ago he was completely taken to his bed and gradually became weaker. During the past two or three weeks he hovered between life and death until his sufferings ended this morning.

Mr. Leonard's death will be a distinct loss to the fire department and the community. He was a good citizen and a faithful member of the fire-fighting forces of the city. He was probably the oldest fireman in the city, having spent 32 years of his life in the department. He served under the late John Kane, chief of the Portland fire department before the union, back in 1875, and worked in the big fire of 77, just thirty years ago today.

He was appointed superintendent of the fire alarm system about six years ago, on the retirement of John E. Wilson, and was largely instrumental in the introduction of the present efficient fire alarm system.

He has always taken the keenest interest in all matters connected with the fire department and has compiled what is probably the most complete collection of fire alarm statistics in the city.

Mr. Leonard was a member of New Brunswick Lodge, No. 1, Knights of Pythias, having joined the order shortly after it was established here. He was also a member of the International Association of Fire Alarm Electricians.

Mr. Leonard was fifty-six years of age. He was a son of the late Captain Charles Leonard and Harriet Baldwin Leonard, and was descended from the late Geo. Leonard, who came to St. John with one of the first parties of Loyalists from the state of New York at the time of the American revolution. He spent some of his younger days in Nova Scotia but had been living here since he was about 20 years of age.

He was survived by his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Effie Reid, of Winnipeg, and a son, Harry M., of the firm of Ross & Leonard, real estate agents, Saskatoon. Both are at present in the city.

The funeral will take place Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when the three local lodges of Knights of Pythias will attend.

The bereaved family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends. The flags of the various fire stations are flying at half-mast out of respect for the late superintendent.

LOOKING FORWARD

What will be the result of the mingling of races in the Canadian west? What of man will the Canadian of the future be? Dr. Parkin and Dr. Grenfell predict that he will be of the highest type in all the world. The question presented itself to a keen American observer, Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus of Chicago, while he was in Winnipeg recently, and he was impressed also with the very important part Winnipeg must play in the formation of the national character in the new west. In an interview with the Free Press he said:—

"As I drove along your streets this morning, I was reminded of the old Roman roads, where people of every class and nation and language gathered for the purpose of trade and commerce. Here you are gathering people from all nations, and the outcome of the country is educating and developing them. What kind of a man is going to come out eventually as a result of the mingling of all these races? You will need in Winnipeg the finest training institutions for the education of these men. You must have institutions similar to our Armour Institute in Chicago. To that institution the Armour family have now given the sum of $2,000,000. To it there come the rich and the poor. The sons of the wealthiest families in the west have come to us and there has never been a student turned away because of his poverty. Our theory of education is the simultaneous training of the heart, the mind and the hand, and I am glad to learn that to a large extent this system of manual training has been largely introduced into the schools of the city."

"I don't know when I have been so impressed with the possibilities before a city, as I have been impressed with the possibilities before the city of Winnipeg. The extent of country to which you minister here and which looks to you is so vast. You know that all the capitals of the great western country which extends north and west to the mountains, will be to a large extent reproductions of Winnipeg."

"The spirit which is engendered here will spread through all your western country. My interest is largely along educational lines and what, as an educationist, I would desire is to have the city of Winnipeg ministering to the great needs of the west in this respect. You will only be a true capital city as you supply to that area the trained men that are required for all affairs commercial and otherwise. This great country will be calling for engineers, mechanical, electrical, mining engineers and the city of Winnipeg ought to be prepared to supply this demand."

Dr. Gunsaulus sees in Winnipeg a parallel for Chicago in its former relation to the American west. In this regard he says: "I went first to Chicago with my father just after the war. I saw the throngs of people who were crowding through the city to the west just as the people are crowding through Winnipeg today. After the war soldiers who had been in the service were each allotted land in the western states and these men were then going through the city to take possession of those lands. They got it free of cost or for a dollar per acre, because it was in the centre of a wilderness. That land is now worth $100 to $200 per acre and there is a school house every two miles. Winnipeg is a similar gateway to the great northwest of Canada, and the story of the western states will be repeated here."

The favorable views entertained in the United States respecting Canada are illustrated by one other statement which we may quote from this authority: "It is everywhere recognized that in connection with the settlement of the west in Canada there has been no disregard of law, no spirit of lawlessness, such as might have been expected in a new country. If there had been, the world would have found it easily excusable. The world would have said: 'The country is new. When the people have settled down these symptoms will disappear.' There has never been a period of that character in western Canada. The people who came here in the beginning, the Scotch-Irish, the Germans, the Icelandic, the Dutch, the Swedes, these people had been taught the virtue of obedience, and when they were called on to rule, they were well prepared to do it. It is the people who know how to obey, who also know how to rule."

EASILY SETTLED

The editor of the New Glasgow Chronicle is opposed to the union of the Presbyterian church with other churches. He would resort to heroic measures to frustrate any such scheme. He sees new theology and rank heresy in the proposition. But he has discovered the cause of the threatened evil, and the remedy. Here is his own statement:—

"We believe we have discovered those who carry the microbes into the Presbyterian Assembly. They are, in our opinion, the college principals. They are at the root of the union movement, and they are the higher critics. They make their own creeds and thereby corrupt the doctrine of the church. They should be expelled and the assembly confined to the ministers and elders of congregations. The latter are they who know the views of the people, and they should know what the church should teach. Lord John, Lord Patrick and the other college lords should be shown to the door and booted out."

It is quite clear from another article in the same issue that the brother also has his doubts about the wisdom of the clergyman, one of whom he accuses of "shoot[ing] off his mouth" and "making a public guy" of himself. Why have either college principals or clergymen in the Assembly? Why not only the elders—or one elder—to settle the whole matter? Is the New Glasgow brother an elder?

HARBOR MATTERS

The decision of the city council to proceed at once with the work of rebuilding Union street will, it is hoped, ensure the completion of the work in ample time for next winter's business. Whether the plan of Mr. Peters is better than that of Mr. Cushing is an engineering question which the layman must leave to the wisdom of the council. They have in turn approved both, and therefore it may fairly be assumed that either would answer the purpose. The work is likely to prove an expensive one, but it must be done, and without delay. It is an important part of the work that must be done to make the new berths available.

The news that the powerful additional dredge will be at work in a very short time will be welcomed by the citizens. The summer season, and much time most favorable for this work has already been lost. With two powerful machines at work, however, a great deal may yet be done before the end of November. The construction work on the new wharves appears to be well advanced, and if no serious difficulty is encountered the next four or five months should see a great change in the appearance of that portion of the west side water front, and a notable improvement in the facilities of the winter port.

anticipates the general elections for next autumn, Tuesday's Montreal Herald says: "Mr. Borden stated today that he was misinformed when definiteness was given to a belief on his part that a general election was so near at hand, or that it might take place before the next session of parliament. Mr. Borden says he does not believe there will be a general election before next session—and that he has no reason for doubting that assurances given by the ministers that the elections are still some time off, are correct."

Today is the thirtieth anniversary of the great St. John fire. A view of the city as it was thirty years ago yesterday, placed side by side with one of the city as it is today, would show great and wonderful changes. Brick and stone have replaced wood, steamships take the place of sailing ships, grain elevators look down upon new wharves, and the whole aspect of the city is greatly altered. There is no less striking a change in the social life of the people.

The state is producing strong evidence to corroborate the testimony of Orchard in the great trial at Boise, Idaho. The Miners' Federation may endeavor by resolutions to influence public opinion, but the state appears to have a very strong case.

The destruction by fire of the Dalhousie Lumber Company's mill at the busiest time of the year is most unfortunate for the owners and for the hundred men employed.

OPEN THE DOOR

Open the door of your heart, my lad,
To the angels of love and truth;
When the world is full of unnumbered joys,
In the beautiful dawn of youth,
Casting aside all things that mar,
Saying to wrong, "Depart!"
To the things that are calling you
Open the door of your heart.

Open the door of your heart my lass,
To the things that shall abide
To the holy thoughts that lift your soul
Like the stars at eventide.
All the fadeless flowers that bloom
In the realms of song and art
Are yours, if you'll only give them room,
Open the door of your heart.

Open the door of your heart my friend,
Heedless of class or creed,
When you hear the cry of a brother's voice,
To the shining heaven that o'er you bends,
You need no map or chart.
But only the love the Master gave,
Open the door of your heart.

A PROFITABLE PARABLE.

Before the collection was taken at a negro place of worship, the minister, a colored man, declared his regret that his brother had retired to rest the night before without locking the door of his fowl house, to find in the morning that all his chickens had disappeared.

"I don't want to be a moralist," he continued, "but I have my suspicions as to who stole them chickens. If I'm right in those suspicions, do man eat stole dem chickens won't put any money in de box, which will now be passed round."

There was a grand collection, not a single man of the congregation signing sleep.

"Now, brethren," announced the minister, "I don't want y'all appetites spoiled by wondering where dat broder lib's who don't lock his chickens up at night. Dat broder don't exist, ma friends, he was a parable for purposes of finance!"—Funny Cuts.

METHODIST CONFERENCE

ST. STEPHEN, June 20.—At yesterday's session of the Methodist conference the following resolution from the St. John district was unanimously adopted:—

"The Rev. G. M. Campbell, having requested to be relieved from his work in order to accept the secretaryship of the Canadian Bible Society, it was resolved that this district recommend the conference to grant Rev. G. M. Campbell permission to accept the position of secretary of the Canadian Bible Society and for that purpose he be not stationed on a circuit."

The conference also recommended that the case of Mr. Campbell be recommended to the general committee of the superannuated fund for its wisest and most favorable consideration.

An application was received from the Rev. Ernest E. Styles to be received into the conference. Mr. Styles was a member of the British Wesleyan conference and labored in the West Indies as a missionary for twelve years and for the past year has supplied the Blenheim circuit in the Sumner district.

On motion, the application was referred to the following committee to report back its judgment to the conference: Rev. Drs. Sprague, Paisley and Rogers and A. D. McCully and James Strothard.

An application was presented asking that the Rev. C. W. Hamilton be left without a circuit for the present year to engage in temperance work.

The applications were referred to the stationing committee.

The following candidates were received on trial for the ministry: John T. Coats, from Chatham; George Sutton Patterson, B. A., Sackville district; Alfred Joseph Gould, St. Stephen district.

MONEY TIGHT

HAMILTON, Ont., June 19.—The Bank of Hamilton on Saturday was obliged to refuse a $100,000 loan at 10 per cent on mortgage security. Unless there is some relief by foreign capital, some of the banks here predict that many small business places throughout Canada will be forced to the wall. Hamilton has been unable to pay half a million of debentures on the market and is trying to negotiate a temporary loan in the Old Country.

A. J. S. Copp, M. P., of Digby, was in the city yesterday and went across the bay this morning. Mr. Copp prophesied that eventually there would be winter ports at L'Ange and St. George as well as St. John, and that all would have as much traffic as they could handle.

THE CLOSING EXERCISES OF ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE WERE HELD THIS MORNING

Louis Slattery of St. John Was the English Valedictorian—List of Honor and Degree Winners.

COLLEGE BRIDGE, June 20—(Special)—The closing exercises at St. Joseph's College were continued this morning in the Lecture Hall. There was a very large attendance and the programme which was thoroughly enjoyed was as follows:

Overture "Marche Gauloise" . . . . .Band
 French Valedictory . . . . .Alphonse Babin
 English Valedictory . . . . .Louis Slattery Poem . . . . .
 Conferring of Degrees and Distribution of Premia . . . . .
 March, "En Route" . . . . .Band
 Closing Remarks . . . . .The Rev. President Prayers . . . . .

The English valedictory was delivered by Louis Slattery of St. John and was a very creditable effort. It was as follows:

It was the post-prayer of the youth who once beautifully wrote:
 "And the smile is scarcely lifted.
 Ere the anguished tear is shed."

How adequately these lines portray our feelings on this occasion. The hour towards which we have looked with joy of young manhood's ambition now admits of a feeling of sorrow. For the first time the significance of our farewell to college days break in upon us with pathetic force. What a wealth of meaning the word graduation contains, and what treasures of a lifetime's aim and bearing. We are no longer students, we are on the threshold of an after day, a career is before each one of us; willing or not we must now agree to assume the burden of manhood and prove that our apprenticeship was not misapplied.

In this glad season when the spheres of summer shed a balm as of Gilead on Nature's breath; when again the green fields smile in peace and the birds of God bless in song the works of their Maker, must we with heavy hearts part, must we part with the friends of college days' trials and triumphs. But at this moment we see through the shadow of the departed years, the faces of those who have gone before us. We see them as graduates and as we note with pride their success of today in their chosen fields of varied endeavor, our hearts are replenished with noble intent and resolve to follow in their footsteps and bring lustre to the brow of our Alma Mater.

Although years may have passed since we first left the sanctuary of our heart-loved homes and entered upon student life, yet the feelings and impressions of the days we have spent here can never be forgotten.

We had thought the grief for home and hearth insupportable; none could replace the dear ones from whom we had just parted. But before we had lived many days of our college life the dawn of future success encouraged us and urged us on. In each new face there shone the beams of welcome; loving friends made our work a pleasure and a blessing.

Our places were assigned us, our tasks allotted, and soon we entered by the hallowed walls sufficiently compensated us for the labor we have borne, for the difficulties we have encountered on our path to knowledge.

In these same classes we met those who were to be our companions in play, our co-workers in study, yes, our dearest friends. Here was to be formed the bond of friendship which was to endure through life, to be interrupted in death, perhaps, but to be resumed in hope, in the life hereafter where friends gather never to say farewell.

Within these same rooms our kind professors played an important part in preparing us for our destined life work. To them we owe a special debt of gratitude. Our promises to profit by their teaching will be the most acceptable return they desire. When our lives have wearied us and a feeling of loneliness had crept into our souls, these self-same faithful guides were ever ready to help us in our duty, to counsel us in perplexity and when threatened with the clouds of discontent their cheering words of comfort spurred us on. And with the vision of this day ever before our eyes we strove to learn the lessons which will serve us in after life, we strove to educate our mind, our soul and our body. Although each year seemed to pass so fast, when we stop to consider, we realize that notwithstanding our toil and struggle, we are but at the beginning of our life's real work.

We longed for this day. It has come. Are we ready to take the meaning step? To prepare for this step we have learned the first lesson perhaps, but it remains for us to evolve theory into practical life. We have been accustomed to submit to the discipline imposed upon us during our years of educational growth and development, we need not now be too timid in the future outcome. Man is a free being. Liberty is the greatest gift God has made us; but man must know how to employ this rarest of treasures. Liberty is not given to us that we may drift through every muddy current, but that we may choose the clearest waters, guide our path through life's long stream and anchor safely on the shores of success. This good use of liberty is attained only through discipline. At times we may chafe under what may seem a yoke and call our state bondage, but with the example of hundreds of failures wrought through want of self-control we should bow under the sparing rod of discipline and bless our willingness to do so. Shakespeare wrote:

"Had thought Priam checked his son's desire
 Troy had been bright with fame and not with fire."

Nothing in life can be eternal. In every river there is a bend; in every mountain chain there is a break, even life itself has its ups and downs, its triumphs and its failures. Today we graduate from our studies at the turning point. During the period of our student life we have had the same object in view, the acquisition of a Christian education, the development of our physical, intellectual and moral faculties. The crown which we longed for in common was the degree with which our Alma Mater today sanctions our earnings. But we shall no longer work side by side. Our paths diverge. We are to enter upon our varied careers. Some will be called to promulgate Christ's teaching and sow the seed of God's righteousness. To these has been reserved the noblest calling. Others will be chosen to defend the innocent, to avenge injustice,

WINS FORTUNE IN WHEAT PIT

Chicago "Messenger Boy Broker," Cleans Up $125,000—Is Only 25 Years Old.

CHICAGO, June 19—One of the winners in the recent Chicago wheat pit flurry was twenty-five-year-old Eddie Bagley, the "messenger-boy broker," who came out of it with $125,000 profit.

At the age of fifteen Bagley left school to become an office boy, and within two years he was regularly on the platform of one of the offices of A. O. Slaughter & Co., marking up quotations with a piece of chalk on the blackboard. At twenty-one years he became a broker and secured a seat on the Board of Trade. Now, at twenty-five years he is a capitalist.

Four years ago Eddie Bagley had cleaned up enough on small deals to buy a seat on the Board of Trade. Then he began his campaign for wealth in real earnest. His campaign was watched closely, and often commented upon by the older brokers, who predicted that this bright, praiseworthy youngster was bound to make good.

Although he had been on the board three years, last fall was the first time that he came into the limelight, and then it was not exactly along the lines of buying or selling. Owing to the dullness of the market conditions all the brokers were sitting about listlessly, finding it hard work doing nothing. The continued quiet upon Eddie Bagley's nose, not being in the position at that moment to start a corner or create excitement in the orthodox time honored methods on the board, secured liberal quantities of Japanese snuff and red pepper, which he sprinkled evenly over the floor of the board room.

The scene which followed was one of which humor and pathos were strangely blended. Men began to sneeze and cough in an amazing manner, and in less than ten minutes there wasn't a broker left on the floor. Nearby cafes and bars were thronged for hours after with a mob of the Japanese disturbance powder out of their systems. After a surprising amount of lemonade, seltzer and iced drinks had been consumed in quieting things an investigation was begun.

Bagley saw old man Trouble headed his way, but he didn't evade the issue by sidestepping. He went to Walter Fitch, then president of the board, and confessed to having created the row. President Fitch, who had been the prank as much as his author, "the boy broker," but to maintain discipline Bagley was barred from the floor for several days.

Although Bagley's winnings in the last wheat flurry amounted to $125,000, he is worth close to an even $250,000. All of this has been made in the past four years. He is a great sportsman and has recently been elected commodore of the Fox Lake Yacht Club, of which he has been an enthusiastic member for several years. Although he is not married, he maintains a country home at Fox Lake, Ill. His mother, sister, and brother live with him, and his loyalty to "the folks at home" is one of "the boy broker's" most admirable traits.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. O. Raymond, Jr., rector of St. George's church, McAdams, only the immediate relatives and friends being present. Miss Mabel Allan being the bridesmaid.

The bride was tastefully attired in a white lace robe, over white tulle dress, and the bridesmaid in white silk with lace trimmings. The bride carried a lovely bouquet of bridal roses, and the bridesmaid one of pink carnations, with maiden fern. The groom presented the bride with the famous trophy "Lady Lumps."

This is anything but a one man company—it is a company of artists and easily sustains the reputation it carries. Those who have not seen Virginia as played by them, should embrace the opportunity. The popular demonstration of Roman citizens in the forum was well worked up and attained a fitting climax. On the merits of last night's performance alone this company should be greeted with packed houses at every performance during their stay here.

DANIEL RYAN IN VIRGINIUS

Excellent Performance Drew Large Audience at the Opera House Last Night.

Daniel Ryan and his company promised a great deal to the patrons of the Opera House in the celebrated tragedy Virginia, and certainly the promise was kept. While the commanding figure of Mr. Ryan dominated the entire play, yet the support of the other members was of a very superior kind and in every way deserving of the reputation which preceded them. Mr. Ryan earned unstinted applause, and worked the audience to a high pitch of excitement, most notably at the end of the grand trustees of the C. M. B. A. to be held in that city.

SUFFERED EIGHT YEARS FROM KIDNEYS

Doctor's said Female Trouble.

Mrs. Charles Lewis, Collingwood, Ont., writes: "For eight years I suffered from Kidney Trouble, and until twelve months ago doctors said I was suffering from Female Trouble. Last November (1906), I was seriously ill, resulting I believe from kidney trouble. Finding doctor's medicine doing me no good, I persuaded my husband to purchase a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, after having read of a case somewhat resembling mine. I commenced taking them according to directions (not taking the doctor's medicine), and on second day a swelling commenced in my feet, legs and body. The following day I was so changed and swollen my husband, in alarm, hastened to Mr. Johnson's drug store, who told him to tell me he thought the pills were drawing something out of the blood, and to keep on taking them. I did so and after taking them a week, the swelling disappeared leaving me with a complexion free from pimples, dired, weary feeling gone, constipation, from which I suffered for years, gone, pain in the back, gone, and a general feeling of joy and light heartedness. I have not felt since a child, took place in me.

My sister-in-law (Mrs. Bryan), seeing the action of Doan's Kidney Pills, and the change for good they accomplished in me, sent for a box and they completely cured her. When there is an opportunity of telling people what Doan's Kidney Pills did for us, we always take advantage of it, and tell them to give them a fair trial.

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50c. per box or 3 boxes for $1.25, for sale at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

ADDRESS AND GIFTS FOR REV. E. C. JENKINS

Pastor of Ludlow Street Church

Surprised by His People.

There was a happy gathering in the home of Rev. E. C. Jenkins, Rodney street, last evening, when a large number of the members of Ludlow street United Baptist church, of which he is the pastor, gathered to meet again in the early fall. The annual baccalaureate address was delivered in Lefebvre Hall to a large and appreciative audience by Maurice Porter, John Manning showed a thorough mastery of his subject—The Temporal Power of the Pope.

Alexander Plants recited with good effect a poem written for the occasion by Rev. P. J. Bourgeois, C. S. C. Rev. Henry Corriveau, who was to have delivered the alumni oration was unavoidably detained.

The college band entertained during the exercises with several well chosen selections. After the exercises in the hall the president entertained the invited guests at the luncheon. Among those in the hall were Rev. P. J. Manning, Fort Fairfield (Me.); Rev. L. J. Ouellette, Notre Dame; Rev. Henry Corriveau, Carleton Place (Ont.); Rev. B. F. Manning and Miss Irene Manning, Providence (R. I.); Mr. and Mrs. J. Slattery, Chas. (Quebec); St. John; Hon. A. D. Richard, Dorchester.

At Sacred Heart Convent

College Bridge, N. B., June 19.—The closing exercises at the Convent of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart took place today. The following programme was very creditably carried out:

Orchestra—Selection. French declamation—Miss C. Legere. Uperista—A. Daugherty's Love. Characters: Madam Mackay, Miss Mary Quinn, Miss Lizzie Stack, Miss M. Hayes, Miss Edna Comau, Miss M. Quinn, P. Coderre.

Mr. Smith added a few words and asked Mr. Jenkins to accept gifts of a handsome sofa, easy chair rocker, parlor lamp and bedspread.

The setonist pastor returned hearty thanks for the gifts, and for the kindly words of the address. He spoke of the recent burning of the church mortgage and said that, as the church paper went upwards, two hearts could be seen burning, the hearts of the church and pastor, two but yet one. He thanked the congregation for their liberality and the hearty co-operation he found in the church work. Refreshments were served by the ladies and a very happy evening ended.

BIG NEW BILL AT NICKEL THEATRE

Here is the Nickel's new programme for the latter half of the week:

First—A Wayward Son.
Second—A Terrible Experience.
Third—Wet Paint.
Fourth—Pals.

Illustrated Song—Panella. This looks good on paper, but much better on the big white sheet. It is a superb quartette of animated pictures, not only from the onlooker's standpoint and in point of subject matter, but from the critical view of the technical picture man himself, he who tries to find flaws in every film—such as too faint, too dark, wobbly or spotted. It is a line of pictures entirely new to this part of Canada and will be considered equal to anything ever shown here.

The song this time is not an ordinary one by any means; it is a semi-classical production by Edw. Gardiner (lyric) and A. Keiser (music). The illuminations are most elaborate.

Rev. T. J. Deinstadt left yesterday for Yarmouth (N. S.) to be present at the funeral of his mother.

At 6 o'clock the college dining hall was the scene of much gaiety. The students and invited guests did ample justice to the excellent dinner supplied. HAMPTON HAS FIVE ENTRIES

In the Sports on the Victoria Grounds on Saturday --- Sussex, McAdam and Fairville Represented.

Hampton will have no less than five competitors in Saturday afternoon sports on the Victoria grounds. Kings county runners will be 100 yards, 220, 440, half mile, mile and two mile contests, and in the 100 yards and 880 yards for boys 17 and under. Sussex, McAdam and Fairville will also be represented in Saturday's sports.

The entries already received show that there will be ten contests in every one of the amateur running events and in the jumping contests. Nearly twenty of those who have entered were not in the sports of May 24th, so that Saturday's events will be of even greater interest than those of Victoria Day.

The members of the Every Day Club have prepared a proper jumping pit and made other improvements on the grounds.

POLICE COURT

Nine Drunks Disposed of in Short Order This Morning.

In the police court this morning May Toner, drunk on Carmarthen street, and Mary Deegan, drunk on Sheffield street were fined $8 each or two months in jail with hard labor.

Wm. Duffy, Charles Sapinton, Charles Anderson, Albert Johnson and Frank Bell were fined $4 or ten days in jail each, for drunkenness.

Michael Kelly and Dennis Sullivan, two old offenders, were again before the court charged with drunkenness and were remanded. The magistrate remarked that as they had been arrested so often he would probably impose a lengthy term in jail without the option of a fine.

Edward Mulachy, who was arrested last night for lying and lurking in the hallway of St. Vincent's Convent on Cliff street, and annoying the inmates, was brought before the magistrate and remanded. Mulachy has been worrying those in charge of the convent for some time. He complains that a daughter of his is being kept in the convent against his wish and desires to get her back.

EDISON MAKES A PREDICTION

Expects to Generate Electricity From Coal Direct.

NEW YORK, June 18—Thomas A. Edison, the inventor, in the course of an interview says:—

"A scientific discovery which I expect to see before I die, is the direct generation of electricity from coal. This has already been achieved in an experimental way. I have heard of several men who have done it. I myself have generated an electrical current by burning carbon and Gilman subjected double an electric light, although at an expense which made the process a commercial impossibility.

"Imagine what will be the consequences. Then locomotives will be thrown onto the scrap heap. All trains will be run by electricity. No longer will coal be laboriously transported to the cities, but there will be great power plants established at the mouths of the mines, from which the electricity will be sent out over the country by wires.

"There will be no horses in the streets, no stables, no flies. Wagons will be propelled by electricity. Houses will be lighted entirely by electricity, for it will be so cheap it can be used by the humblest tenement dweller.

"Ships will no longer be driven by steam. Electricity will be their motive power, and then it will be possible to cross the Atlantic in three days.

"At the present time nine-tenths of the power obtained from coal is lost by the use of boilers, wheels and dynamos. With the direct generation of the electrical current, therefore, the world will have ten times more energy than now."

WEDDINGS

Giggey-Turner

Hawthorne, N. B., the home of Robert Turner, on the Sandy Point Road, was the scene of an interesting event last evening when his daughter, Miss Lillian Turner, was united in marriage to Walter Roy Giggey, an employee of Anderson & Co. Rev. R. P. McKim, rector of St. Luke's church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a very large number of invited guests. The happy couple were unattended and the bride looked charming in a costume of cream Panama with a veil. The house was most profusely decorated with apple blossoms. Mrs. Frank P. Starr played the wedding march.

Mr. and Mrs. Giggey will reside at 25 Sewell street. They received a very large number of handsome and costly gifts.

Wilson-Dibblee

A very pretty wedding took place at Bellefleur on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock when Ellen May, only daughter of Samuel Dibblee, was united in marriage to Arnold A. Wilson of St. John west. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Penney on the lawn, under an arch of apple blossoms. The bride, who is a very popular young lady, received many beautiful presents and was attended in white silk. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will reside on Lancaster street, west end.

Flewelling-Burditt

An event in which many readers of the Times will be interested took place this morning at the residence of W. F. Burditt when his eldest daughter, Mary Louise, was quietly married to J. Whitcomb Flewelling. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. W. McMaster and the bride who wore a gown of cream colored silk, was escorted by her sister, Miss Edith Burditt, while Gordon Flewelling, brother of the groom, acted as best man; two pretty little girls, Misses Dorothy Burditt and Dorothy March, cousins of the bride and groom taking the part of flower girls. Only the most intimate friends and relations of the contracting parties were present at the wedding, no invitations having been issued, but a large number of valuable presents were presented to the high esteem in which the bride is held by her many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Flewelling, after spending a few days at the Bellefleur will take a trip through eastern Nova Scotia, visiting Bras d'or Lake and Sydney, Cape Breton, and will be at home at Courtney Hill (Crouville) after July 22nd.

GEORGE IN TORONTO

(Toronto World)

One man in Canada is known from coast to coast by an unbroken chain of handshakes and other familiar tokens of good-fellowship. Do you know him?

Born, reared and practically educated in the serene town of Whitby, thirty-three years ago, he drifted west to Winnipeg to get-rich-quick. For a time on the upper-upter of his uppers, he struggled for a single meal a day and a place to lay his head. He survived and became a tycoon, for, from that time he accumulated wealth. Finally he bought a newspaper, was elected alderman and naturally got a job as registrar of deeds; still in the city of Winnipeg. Do you know him?

And now he is the past-president of the Universal and Amalgamated Union of Convict Spirits. Though in the service of the C. P. R., no man speaks ill of him. If he has a failing it is his generosity. A millionaire with a long face and a long hair, he is a dollar and he is blessed for asking it. The names and postoffice addresses of his friends would fill the Book of Record, and there are thousands in the writing list. He is the man with the Big Heart, the Open Hand, the Ready Reply, and the Kind Word Spoken in Season. Human beings with your frailties laid away and your right attributes in abundance, you are he.

Here's to you George H. Ham, King of the C. P. R. officials—in touch with the common-people. May your tongue never lack the Mark Twain twist, nor your hand the firm clasp that starts from the heart, nor your elbow its delightful upturning, nor your spirit at the future the golden sheen you have put over all whose pleasurable privilege it has been to hail you George. We have met you, we have convined, and we know you are the great Canadian Ham, which is A MAN.

FUNERALS

The funeral of Mrs. Jane Carruthers took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence of Frederick Skinner, King street west, where the Rev. Mr. Armstrong read the service from the Psalms.

The funeral of Arthur Westmore took place this morning from his residence, Stanley street, at eight o'clock. His body was taken to Bellefleur for interment by the steamer Champlain. The Rev. Mr. Tratten officiated.

What promises to be one of the best amateur entertainments held in St. John for years will be produced in the Opera House early in July under the direction of Theodore H. Bird, of the Kirk Brown Company. Their act play Captive is the vehicle chosen and the performance will be for the benefit of the deaf and dumb school, Lancaster. Some of the leading local amateur talent will participate and attractive specialties will be presented. The first rehearsal will be held in the Church of England Institute room at eight o'clock tomorrow evening.
