URGE POWERS TO PUT AN END TO IT

London Papers in United Demand For Peace

MAKE TURKEY ACCEPT Bulgaria and Islands For Greece—Expectation That Matters Soon Will Be Arranged

(Canadian Press) New York, Jan. 7.—A cable to the Herald from London says: The ambassadors of the powers held a long conference in the foreign office yesterday afternoon, and it is felt in diplomatic circles that in the end they will force Turkey to accept conditions that make for peace.

The newspapers this morning call upon the powers to prevent a resumption of the war. All insist that Adrianople is bound to fall and should be given to the Bulgarians, adding that the island of Greece should be restored to the Hellenic kingdom.

The Standard voice of the consensus of official press opinion, says: "We look forward to united action which will have the effect of removing the recent block and affording the Ottoman government a necessary cause for yielding to the inevitable."

Mr. Venizelos, in a statement in the House says: "No other solution is possible than the concession by Turkey of Adrianople and the Aegean Isles."

The Greek prime minister emphasizes the point of the possession by Greece of the islands, holding that the latter would be given to Greece but for their occupation by the Italians. He insists that the capture of the islands, involving great sacrifices in lives and money, was the work of the army and navy of Greece, saying that Chios and Mytilene were taken after a determined resistance by the Hellenic forces.

CHANCE SAYS HE IS OUT OF GAME

Chicago Paper Prints Statement From Baseball Player Much Talked of

Chicago, Jan. 7.—An afternoon paper prints an extended interview with Frank Chance, in which Chance says positively that he will not appear in baseball this season, and that his purpose in coming to Chicago was to explain fully his attitude to Frank Farrell, who wants the former leader of the Chicago Nationals to manage the New York club of the American league.

The interview is said to have been obtained in Chance's compartment on the train which is bringing him to Chicago. The train was due at 10:45, but was reported several hours late. According to the story Chance wishes to stay out of baseball for a year to care for his California Orange Ranch, about which he is very enthusiastic.

Mr. Monk may not be in house this session

Former Minister Suffered Breakdown But is Now Getting Better

Montreal, Jan. 7.—The announcement was made this morning that the condition of Hon. F. D. Monk, ex-minister of public works, had shown steady improvement during the last week, though he is still far from well.

Since his return from Atlantic City after resigning from the Borden cabinet, Monk has suffered a complete breakdown and was not permitted to receive friends or to discuss business or politics.

His medical advisers have decided to permit him to see friends and his appearance at Ottawa during the coming session of parliament is very doubtful.

THE DANGERS OF NEW YORK STREETS; 532 KILLED IN A YEAR

Auto Responsible for 221 of the Fatal Accidents—Of Those Killed 230 Were Children

New York, Jan. 7.—Five hundred and thirty-two persons were killed in accidents in the streets of New York during 1912, according to the report of the National Highway Protective Society. Two hundred and thirty of the victims were children.

Of the children killed 108 were run over by motor cars. Of the total number killed 221 were killed by automobiles.

Trolleys killed thirty-eight children and 127 adults; wagons killed eighty-five children and ninety-two adults.

The total number of injured during the same period was 2,908. Of these injured, 1,342 were responsible for 1,342; trolleys caused injury to 704, and wagons seriously injured 317.

Slight injuries due to wagons frequently are not reported, whereas all accidents are reported when due to automobiles and trolleys.

The report of accidents in the State of New York in the streets and highways for the year 1912 shows that 234 persons were killed outside of the city of New York. Autos caused the death of 127; wagons caused twenty-eight; and trolleys seventy-nine.

The railroad grade crossing accidents on Long Island show a decrease of 50 per cent, but throughout the state show an increase. One hundred and seven were killed and 127 injured, as against 181 killed and 108 seriously injured in 1911.

Ninety-one drivers of motor cars ran away after an accident, as compared with sixty in 1911.

The comparison of 1912 as against 1911 for the accidents shows that 423 persons were killed in 1911, as against 522 in 1912. Of the increase the automobile accidents increased 38 per cent.

PROBABLE MEMBERS OF WOODROW WILSON'S CABINET

MAN REPORTED MISSING; IS HE VICTIM OF FIRE IN SILVER FALLS BARN?

Coroner Berryman has inspected the bones found in the ruins of the barn at Silver Falls on Sunday, but has not yet decided whether or not an inquest will be held.

Since the fire there have been so many visitors to the place and the ruins have been overlooked to such an extent that it is difficult to ascertain the situation at the time of the fire.

It was reported this morning that Robert Harris, who lives on the Lock Lomond road, several miles beyond Silver Falls, is missing.

BODY OF GENERAL DRURY PLACED IN RECEIVING VAULT IN FERNHILL

Funeral Not Military, Though Officers in Attendance—Many Remembrances in Floral Pieces

The body of Major General Charles W. Drury, C. B., commander of the Sixth Division, Halifax, was brought to the city this morning on the Atlantic express, which reached here about twenty-five minutes late.

It was accompanied to the city by his two sons, Chipman and Victor, and was met at the depot by local officers. The body was taken to St. Paul's church, where it lay until the services were conducted by Rev. E. B. Hooper, rector, at three o'clock this afternoon.

The pall-bearers were Colonel H. Humphrey, A. A. G. Halifax; Colonel J. McLaughlin, 28th Dragoons; Lieutenant Colonel J. R. Armstrong, retired; Lieutenant Colonel M. B. Edwards, 2nd Field Artillery; Lieutenant Colonel B. R. Armstrong, 2nd Artillery; and Lieutenant Colonel Woodburn, reserve.

It was at first intended that the funeral should be a military one, and orders to that effect had been issued. Colonel Humphrey, Colonel Ogilvie, and Major Hayter came from Halifax on the early train, and were in the city this morning.

The military band from the Royal Canadian Regiment at Halifax would also come over, but the order for this was cancelled last evening in deference to the wishes of the family. The body was placed in the retaining vault.

The esteem in which General Drury was held by his fellow officers and by the members of the corps under his command is attested by the beautiful display of floral tributes received. The headquarters of the Department of Militia and Defense sent a wreath to St. Paul's church, and the officers attached to the staff of the Sixth Division, the 4th Regiment of Halifax, the 6th Regiment, 2d Regiment C. A., and the officers of the other local military bodies.

COMMISSIONERS TAKE UP MATTER OF GRANTS TO LOCAL BODIES TO IMPROVE THE CURRENCY SYSTEM

The city commissioners spent an hour today considering the list of annual grants for various public purposes. Two grants were made; four applications were held over until financial statements are submitted by the applicants and no applications were received from five organizations.

A grant of $750 was made to the Free Kindergarten Association. This is an increase of $200 over last year's grant. The sum of $300 was voted to the Associated Charities.

MILLION FORTUNE COMES TO DRIVER OF TEAM

Former Delivery Man Gets Notice of Valuable New York Property to Be His

Montgomery, Mo., Jan. 7.—David Egan, formerly a deliveryman in Macomb, Mo., now of Fort Scott, Kan., will receive a great present in the near future, according to John Dale, his brother-in-law. Egan has received notice that he is heir to an estate of more than a million dollars, left him by his great-grandfather.

A ninety-nine year lease on very valuable property in the heart of New York has expired and the property reverts back to the Egan heirs and is to be settled. Egan is the second citizen of Macomb to receive notice he had inherited a great fortune. The other one was Colonel F. W. Hoes, who received more than a million dollars when he was in poor circumstances. He spent most of it in improving his town and building the great Hoes Military Academy at Macomb, which has just passed from his estate by a ruling of the federal court at Hamilton.

WASHINGTON REPLY

Another Step in the Panama Canal Matter

LOOKS LIKE ARBITRATION Answer to British Protest Not Direct Acceptance But a Move That Way—Plan First to Clear Away All Superfluous Matter

(Canadian Press) Washington, Jan. 7.—The Panama controversy with Great Britain will be advanced another stage in a few days, when the U. S. government will reply to the note of protest of Sir Edward Grey. It was learned yesterday that the reply probably will be headed by Ambassador Bryce this week. The note will not be an unqualified acceptance of Sir Edward's proposition that the matter be referred to arbitration, but it will be a considerable step in the direction of bringing the dispute to arbitration.

The chief purpose of the reply, will be to reduce the controversy to the real issue of the question, and afford a basis for an agreement as to exactly what is in dispute and what is conceded on each side. While President Taft has publicly committed this administration to arbitration, it is intended first that it should make clear exactly what is in dispute and what is to be arbitrated if arbitration is necessary. Every effort will be made to exhaust all the legitimate resources of diplomacy in stripping the dispute of superfluous matter before it is agreed to refer it to arbitration.

Should both governments persist in their present attitude on the main questions, then the negotiations will be directed toward an attempt to reach an agreement upon the questions which both sides are willing to submit to arbitration. Completion of this task will bring the issue before the senate to decide whether or not there shall be an arbitration.

London, Jan. 7.—The morning Post commenting in an editorial on the report that President Taft wanted the Panama Canal controversy referred to a tribunal consisting of an equal number of British and American citizens says: "This would be to court a deadlock for which the experience of American commissioners even when they are eminent jurists, has shown that they take an exceedingly patriotic view of their duties."

The Post admits that there is some truth in the American contention that the Hague tribunal would be injured by the Panama Act and would be unable to act against the United States, but still considers that there is less reason to fear the justice of the Hague Tribunal than of any other that could be suggested.

It is believed that it will take considerable time to bring the controversy through all these stages, but it is predicted on the other hand that negotiations will go forward with much greater rapidity following the delivery of the reply to the British protest. Both sides have now thoroughly covered the ground on which the questions at issue rest and are prepared to discuss the subject with greater facility.

Disclosures of the fact that President Taft expects to see the canal controversy referred only to a special tribunal made up of an equal number of British and American arbitrators produced a perceptible change in the attitude of the senate in its opposition to the Panama Act and would be favorably anticipated by the president, many senators were more inclined to view favorably arbitration of the canal dispute when they learned of the exact nature of the tribunal which President Taft contemplates. It was predicted in administration quarters that when the questions at issue are finally narrowed down to precise definitions of the range of the arbitration and the powers of arbitrators there will be a further drift of senate opinion in favor of arbitration.

WINGED BY TURKISH FIRE; AIR SCOUT DROVE MACHINE INTO RANKS

Particulars of First Occurrence of Its Kind in Warfare—Blew Out His Brains

New York, Jan. 7.—A cable from Paris to the Tribune says:—The death of Lieutenant Toprakchieff, an air scout of the Bulgarian army at Adrianople, which was the first occurrence of its kind in warfare, will occupy a place in history.

Eye witnesses say that he was ordered to fly over the besieged city to ascertain whether or not the Turks were preparing for a sortie. A division of Turkish infantry, supported by artillery and cavalry was in readiness to march. The waiting Bulgarians, watching the machine with their glasses, saw a jet of flame and a cloud of smoke enveloping the aviator. Turning around he volplaned like lightning into the middle of the Turkish cavalry, killing several.

Knowing that he was doomed, he had resolved to sell his life as dearly as possible. His body was recovered, with a bullet in his right hand. He had blown out his brains a second before the crash came.

INDICTMENT AGAINST PATTEN AND OTHERS HOLDS GOOD

Washington, Jan. 6.—The supreme court of the United States today laid down the far-reaching principle that "corsets" of interstate commodities, such as articles of clothing and food are in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Law, and held that, as far as the Sherman law was concerned, the indictment in the New York Federal Court of James A. Patten, Eugene G. Scales, Frank H. Hayne and William P. Brown, for "conspiring to run an alleged cotton carrier" was valid. The case against them was sent back for trial or other proceedings.

Little Beauty Chats
By BLANCHE BEACON

The Skin of Coarse Texture a Beauty Defect

"WHAT will contract ugly, gaping pores?" is the constant query of my sex, both young and old. The great secret lies in using common-sense methods to improve the circulation of the blood and tone up the flaccid skin.

The idea is to set the glands and blood vessels about their business, so the skin will refine itself. It is when one's internal mechanism is out of order that the skin grows to look coarse and pitted.

One of the ways to correct a case of enlarged pores is to drink quantities of cool water, for if the kidneys are kept in perfect health, skin conditions will rapidly improve. Do not disdain this simple treatment as it is most effective, and this you will see if you but give it a fair trial. Suppose you begin this very day drinking two glasses of water half an hour before breakfast and half an hour before lunch and dinner. Finally, an hour before you seek the arms of Morpheus, drink two more glasses of clean, cool water. This will make two quarts of liquid, which is all that any one needs to keep the kidneys and the digestive and eliminative organs in good condition.

It is also essential for the woman with a coarse-grained skin to eat an abundance of fruit, as it helps to keep the digestive organs on their good behavior. Such fruits as oranges, apples, and figs will be most helpful in making an ugly, pitted skin realize the error of its ways.

It is hardly necessary for me to say that it is of the highest importance that the skin should be kept immaculately clean. Do not be afraid to scrub and scour your face several times a day as this is the ideal way to obtain a skin of beautiful texture. Friction with a soft towel or handkerchief will do much for the skin that soap does not. If you are uncleanly, visible to the naked eye. If you doubt this statement, crumple a handkerchief and rub it lightly over the face, bearing down on which will result in your refractory pores being invigorated to such an extent that they will perform their work properly.

Daily Hints For the Cook

SIMPLE DESERT.
Make a sponge cake and soft custard; when ready to serve place a slice of cake on the plate and pour the custard over it. It isn't very elaborate, but it tastes very nice and is something different from puddings made of cake and custard.

HOT WATER GINGERBREAD.
One cup molasses, 2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 tablespoon ginger, 2 to 4 tablespoons butter, 1 1/2 cup boiling water, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon. Mix and sift dry ingredients; add remaining liquids. Bake 20 to 30 minutes.

APPLES AND TAPIOCA.
Peel five or six apples, core without dividing the apples, fill the hole with sugar and cinnamon and on top of each place small piece of butter. Place apples in baking dish and put around them half cup of tapioca, half cup of sugar. Cover apples with water and bake slowly.

REPORT NO TROUBLE GETTING FARMS AND AT REASONABLE PRICES

The provincial Farm Settlement Board met this morning in the government rooms, Church street, and the session being held this afternoon. Chairman, T. W. Butler, Secretary James Gilchrist and A. W. Hay were present. Every afternoon the members reported on the farms they had inspected since the last meeting, and this afternoon they will map out their programme for the next few months.

So far there has been no difficulty in finding all the farms they want, all within a few miles of a town or village, and at low prices. They have met a few owners who appeared to think that they could hold up the board for stiff prices, but there was no need to dicker with them as the members are finding all the farms they want at reasonable prices. The latest farms to be inspected included a group of eight in Charlotte county, within eight miles of St. Stephen, averaging 100 acres each, with buildings and orchards, and at prices ranging from $72 to $140.

Messrs. Gilchrist and Hay will leave this evening for Westmorland county to look over some farms offered there, and will proceed to the North Shore, on the same mission.

Before May 1 the board expects to settle at least 100 families on abandoned farms in various parts of the province.

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., JANUARY 7, 1913. The St. John Evening Times is published at 7 and 29 Canterbury Street every evening (Sunday excepted) by the St. John Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

GROWTH OF WINNIPEG The city of Winnipeg has an industrial Bureau which has no opportunity to get the world at large to know of the progress of the city, whose boast is that it is located where East meets West. The Times has just received from the press service department of the Industrial Bureau a long story of the growth of Winnipeg during the past year. A new court house and agricultural college were built, and plans completed for the new provincial building which will cost $2,500,000. Two technical schools were completed and the plans for a new city hall. The city's new power plant was set in operation and the first civic art gallery was completed. The review also takes note of the fact that many conventions were held in Winnipeg last year. The most striking feature of the year was the enormous expenditure on buildings.

Exactly $20,475,880 has been expended in new buildings within the city limits in Winnipeg during 1912. Over seventy apartment houses have been erected during the year, representing an expenditure of over $3,000,000. Three million dollars went into the building of new banks and office buildings in Winnipeg during the year and well over $1,200,000 was expended in new factories or in additions to old. The wholesale trade is represented by warehouse, costing $844,000. Theatres and places of amusement have been erected in almost every quarter of the city, $383,000 being expended in new moving picture houses alone. Costing each over $10,000, 325 new houses have been added to Winnipeg's best residential districts, twenty-six new residences costing over $20,000 each, nine over $25,000 each, and one $100,000. To the sum of over twenty million dollars expended in Winnipeg proper this year, may be added at least $8,000,000, a conservative estimate of new homes and public buildings in the immediately outlying suburbs.

The bank clearings at Winnipeg last year amounted to over a billion and a half of dollars, making that city rank third in this respect. A series of public baths were opened and plans made for a second series. It is worth noting that the growing western city pays some attention to art. With the assistance of the provincial government and the O. P. R., an art gallery was erected which is said to rival those of Montreal and Toronto. The Industrial Bureau which sends out this interesting story has itself been housed in a building covering a city block in a leading thoroughfare. This building is utilized as a non-sectarian, non-partisan social centre, for the consideration of many matters affecting civic life, and as a community meeting-place where the civic spirit may find expression.

The western city is to be congratulated upon its growth, and upon its civic spirit and its community work. It is said that no city in Canada pays as much attention to the welfare of the children, not only in connection with juvenile courts, probation officers, shelters, foster homes and the like, but it has spent very large amounts in providing public playgrounds, and as the city expands due provision is made for open spaces for recreation purposes.

CANNOT BE DENIED The Toronto Mail and Empire is of course an upholder of Sir James Whitney, and it insists that he will find a way out of trouble for the taxpayers of Toronto and Ontario generally, without making a change in the assessment law. Yet this leading Tory journal is compelled to make the following admission: "By an overwhelming majority the voters of Toronto have decided in favor of having the assessment for taxation shifted more largely upon the land. That there are assessment grievances no one will deny. It is notorious that the assessment system as at present worked distributes the burden of taxation very unfairly. Assessment as we now have it is erratic, rather than systematic. That the citizens were prepared to vote for any change that gave the least promise of being for the better was manifest."

AGAIN THE FARMER A recent special report to the United States congress deals with the question of marketing farm products. It goes very thoroughly into the whole question, dealing especially with the intervention of middlemen, and makes some suggestions as follows: "It is proposed that a corps of traveling field agents and a large corps of local agents and correspondents be established for the following items of service: To help producers organize for associative marketing; to examine and remove local difficulties in the way of such marketing; to help producers to find markets; to report the current descriptive condition of crops, in addition to the work already done by the department's crop reporting service; to estimate the probable production of crops a short time before harvest; to report the beginning and ending of the shipping season; to report the crop movement from producing points through 'gateways' to principal markets. "The report further recommends investigation as to the storage of farm products either on the farm or elsewhere pending their sale; the business of commission dealers; the various costs of marketing, properly itemized, and compared with prices of products at the farm and with consumers' prices; a description of principal markets and of kind of products; regions; and a study of problems of transportation. "At no previous time, either in the United States or in this country, has so much attention been devoted to these questions, affecting alike the interests of producers and consumers. Too much expense is heaped upon an article after it leaves the producer and before it reaches the ultimate consumer, and in many cases the producer, through ignorance or lack of co-operative effort fails to receive as much for his produce as it really is worth. The apple growers of Nova Scotia are teaching the people of this country a lesson in the matter both of selling and of buying. "Local option has gained some further victories in Ontario, but not as many as its friends had hoped for. The three fifth clause is a serious handicap. "The statement of President Taft that he is in favor of the arbitration of the Panama Canal dispute is received with great satisfaction in London. It is said that there is still a feeling of confidence in British official circles that the dispute may be settled without any appeal to arbitration. It certainly should be. "The Toronto-Mail and Empire says:—Canadian egg men are alarmed over the threatened influx of cheap eggs from the United States. Their apprehensions are not shared by a consuming public that have not yet learned to pay five cents for an egg and look cheerful over it. "The London papers express the view that Turkey may as well give up Adrianople as to wait and have it taken by the enemy, and this view will doubtless impress itself upon the Turk, as there is a general feeling also that the powers should now bring some pressure to prevent further hostilities. "The Bangor Commercial notes with some degree of satisfaction that there was only one lynching per week in the United States last year, and that this is a considerable reduction as compared with other years. The number for the year might still be reduced by 50 without any reflection upon the law abiding character of the people of the United States. "If an outsider should say to the people of Fredericton that they are not yet fit for local self government there would doubtless be some noise; and yet there is a movement on foot to take away from them the control of their police force. The city of St. John is just now looking forward with some confidence to securing control of its police department, believing that they who pay have the right to ask for the power of control. "The Montreal Gazette, referring to the demand for improvements in Canadian cities, says:—"The voters of Toronto at the municipal elections approved of eight money by-laws for different philanthropic and public services, the water works, sewers and streets calling for the largest amount. The total to be borrowed under the arrangements is some $13,000,000. Other cities in other parts of the country also find themselves under pressure to undertake extensive and expensive improvement works."

Try This Home-made Cough Remedy

Costs Little, But Does the Work Quickly, or Money Refunded. Mix two cups of granulated sugar with 1 cup of warm water, and stir for 5 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents worth) in a 16-ounce bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. You will find that this simple remedy takes hold of a cough more quickly than anything else ever used. Usually ends a deep-seated cough inside of 24 hours. Splendid, too, for whooping cough, croup, chest pains, bronchitis, and other throat troubles. It stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps and a cough. This recipe makes more and better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly and lasts pleasantly. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in ginseng and all the natural ingredients which are so healing to the membranes. Other preparations will not work this Pinex or will get it for you. If not send to The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

AN ANATOMICAL FACT. Doctor (to small boy, aged 4)—"Put your tongue out, please." "The juvenile protruded the tip of his tongue. "No, no; put it right out." "I can't, doctor," was the distressed reply. "It's fastened on to me."—Weekly Telegraph.

NO ROOM. "Berrie," said the hospitable hostess at a Sunday School treat, "would you eat some more cookies?" "I can't, I'm full!" sighed Bertie. "What's your boy?" exclaimed his mother. "I can't. They're full, too," was the regretful answer.—Youth's Companion.

A REFORMING INFLUENCE. "That automobile I bought has been doing wonders for me," said Mr. Chuggins, "fresh air and all sort of things." "It has benefited me morally as well as physically," he has led me to avoid intoxicants and to lead a life that will insure me as beautiful an obituary as possible."

SIMPLIFIES THE PROBLEM. Sarah Bernhardt says that all the baby doctors should say to the people of Fredericton that they are not yet fit for local self government there would doubtless be some noise; and yet there is a movement on foot to take away from them the control of their police force.

THE RING. Edwin was the pride and joy of his parents' hearts for so highly had he distinguished himself at school that everyone foresaw a brilliant career for him. "Ah! my boy," exclaimed his father proudly, "we expect great things of you. Many a great man has attained a high position with not half such a fine record as you have. You'll do, Fame is an elusive ladder but you'll climb it!"

THE OTTAWA JOURNAL offers this advice to the government at Ottawa—"A very good use of Mr. Pelland's million dollar surplus, or a part of it at least, would be the establishment of a cheap parcel post with a general delivery system. The Journal was informed at the dead letter office that annually thousands of parcels remained unclaimed for at the post office of the country at Christmas, a condition which would be greatly alleviated by the introduction of the system now in use in all the great countries of the world."

KING'S PROCLAMATION PRINTED BY WOMEN Balkan War Left Women Task of Helping Get Out Newspapers (Times' Special Correspondence) Sofia, Dec. 28.—Like all national effort, the Balkan war has influenced literature. On the eve of the war appeared a new Serbian poet, Stepan Semiovitch, whom critics acclaimed as a glory to native literature. Semiovitch published a long poem commemorating the Serbians in Austria, Hungary, Bosnia, Serbia, Montenegro and Turkey. It was called "The Slav Kingdom." He also printed a translation of Walt Whitman's "Leaves of Grass," which was not a success. Semiovitch was last heard of as a volunteer at Uzbun, where he was guarded by the railroad. During the actual fighting the Bulgarians produced a tremendous quantity of war poetry, much of it of mediocre quality. Most of it appeared in the newspapers, as the book trade was brought to a standstill by the summoning of nearly all the printers to the colors. The war poetry was mediocre because the most talented of the younger Bulgarian writers also were serving as soldiers. Stolo Karavaloff, a highly promising young writer, was killed in the first attack on Thatalja. Another Bulgarian poet is among the few prisoners taken by the Turks. One feature of the war was that it gave a great fillip to the women's literary and journalistic movement in Bulgaria. The disappearance of the men opened a field for women. The official journal, "Mir," which always fought against women's emancipation, found itself obliged to take women on to its editorial and printing staff. The state printing works had also to take on women printers; and Car Ferdinand's famous pro-

RECENT DEATHS

Chatham World.—Stephen Jackson died on Tuesday evening after a week's illness of pneumonia. He had never before been ill a day in his life. He died on his 70th birthday. He was well cared for during his brief illness by his son and daughter, but steadily grew worse until last. His life had been spent in Chatham, industriously following his occupation of carpenter, and all his spare time was spent at home. His daughter Annie came from Boston to assist in caring for him, and another daughter, Mrs. De Costar, arrived on Thursday. Mr. Jackson was brought here from England by his parents when he was two years old. His brothers and sisters are all dead except Mr. Isaac Jackson, of Chatham Head. Mrs. Jackson died two years ago, after more than fifty years of wedded life. There is one son, Charles, and seven daughters—Mary, Mrs. Alex. E. Berley, of Milton, Mrs. John John Rex, of New Bedford, Mrs. Mrs. Alex. E. Berley, of Milton, Mrs. James Perley, of Chatham, and Miss Annie of Watertown, Mass.

The death of Mrs. Jane Brannan, formerly of this city, widow of Thomas Brannan, who was born in Boston yesterday morning. She was sixty-eight years of age, and left St. John about twenty years ago. An adopted son, J. H. McDermott, and one brother, David McDermott, of Charlton, survive. The body will be brought here for burial, funeral from the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. George McDermott, Spiny street.

Postmaster W. E. Hixon of East Washington, N. H., who has held that office for seven years, wants to resign, but he can't. When he decided last spring to close his country store and to resign from his government position the department could get no one to take his place and ordered him to remain. Then when it was decided to stop the service in December, the postmaster of the office forced the department to relent, and Hixon was again ordered to remain on the job. He has sent his family to a Massachusetts town and is now wondering whether he will ever be able to join them.

Do You Know What A Clearance Sale Actually Means

By J. R. HAMILTON

Former Advertising Manager Wanamaker's, Philadelphia

AFTER YOU have read the advertising in this paper today, you are going to get down to these stores as quickly as the doors are open and then there is going to be enacted a scene that will make the old Manchester Bread Riots look like a peaceful Sunday in the park.

After you have found all the remarkable bargains in this paper today, all you have to do is to figure up how many thousands of women have also found them and then in this case you will figure it is better to be early than to be "Queen of the May."

Of course you are going to these January Sales, but now the questions are, Why are we going? And do you know why the merchants are holding such sales?

"Why," you say, "they are trying to get rid of their surplus stock."

But that doesn't answer the question, especially for staple merchandise. People are going to wear shoes next year, and therefore why should a real dollar or more be cut from the price of such staples as shoes.

People are going to wear skirts and stockings and underwear and coats. They are going to continue to use knives and forks and kitchen utensils, so why should the prices on these staple things be cut to such a point as to make you fling on your hat and start for a bargain sale as if you were starting for a fire.

The answer in a word is that the greatest dread any merchant knows is that of a broken or an uneven stock of merchandise. Most merchants refer to such a stock as a "Junk Shop," and they dread it more than anything else.

If a merchant has a broken stock of a certain kind of shoes, his clerks or his salesmen do not please you when you come to buy and you go out to where you can be pleased. If you see a certain skirt pattern that you like, and you are suddenly told that you can only get that pattern in size 16, you sigh wearily and turn away from the counter.

Merchants have learned all these things by long and bitter experience, and that is why they are willing to sell all and any of their broken lines at these prices no matter how staple these lines may be, in order that they may accomplish this one end of a clean store and complete merchandise.

A word to the wise is sufficient. In this paper today these merchants are selling you what they have at such remarkable bargain prices as to stir every instinct which every woman has for Economy.

And if what they have happens to be what you want you will save so much money, that it will seem as if Santa Claus had left you a Bank Account.

But Remember! the secret of big bargains in these bargain days is for you to have the advertising at your finger tips and to be in the stores a half an hour earlier than those "hateful" other women who are trying to beat you there.

"A Blow Below the Belt." We wonder sometimes, when we see a chap fall, When everything seemed his way; Why he took the "count" in spite of the "call" To "force the fight" and "stay." We wonder how he lost his grit, But don't know how he felt; When whiskey won and he had to quit With a "blow below the belt." We wonder sometimes, when we see a chap rise, From the blows of old "John Barleycorn"; How he managed to win and "beat the game" Of the whiskey that led him on. We wonder how he got his "hold" And gave alcohol such a "weld," 'Twas the "NEAL WAY" did it, in "JUST THREE DAYS" With a "blow below the belt."

FIRST WHEAT OVER G. T. P. HERE TONIGHT

It is interesting to note that the first trainload of wheat to be received over the line of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway from the west will reach the city this evening over the Intercolonial Railway, coming from Montreal here. It has come across Canada from Winnipeg and its passage through the different cities, because of the fact that it was the first G. T. P. trainload of wheat sent east across much interest. It was ground into flour at Fort Colborne, Ont., and will be sent to South Africa in the S.S. Beady, its delivery for consumption in Cape Town, requiring less than two months. There were thirty cars of western wheat in the train when it left Winnipeg.

The possibility of reducing the cost of dining at New York restaurants is not reflected in the announcements of the proposition made today, but a saving of twenty-five per cent to the proprietors is forecast.

NOT WORRYING HERE ABOUT GASPE HOPES... The proposal to establish a terminus at Gaspé is not taken very seriously around St. John, especially by those who remember the "previous experiment" along this line. Several years ago, when the claims of Gaspé were put forward a steamer departed for that part of the coast armed safely, but before she could get to sea again the ice closed in and the steamer was left a prisoner until the next summer. It is not thought that owners will be found willing to risk another attempt.

LABOR CANDIDATES.
The Fredericton Labor Council has decided to take part as an organization in civic politics, and already steps are being taken towards placing candidates in the field at the next civic elections. It is not the intention of the Labor Council to place a complete ticket in the field.

Exhausted Nerves
Sleepless Nights

Continually Crew Worse Until On Chase's Nerve Food Restored Vigor and Strength

Mrs. Campbell.
What misery to be awake nights and think of all sorts of things without being able to get the rest and sleep which is necessary to restore the nervous energy wasted in the tasks of the day.
This symptom of sleeplessness is one of the surest indications of an exhausted nervous system. You must have sleep or a breakdown is certain.
Dr. Chase's Nerve Food feeds the feeble, wasted nerves back to health and strength. In a few days you obtain the natural, restful sleep which helps so materially in restoring vitality to the nerves and strength to the whole body.
Mrs. Sarah Campbell, 108 Alma street, St. Thomas, Ont., writes: "For months I was so bothered with nervousness that I could not sleep nights.
There were other symptoms of exhausted nerves, but none caused so much misery, and I found myself continually getting worse.
"I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and it was not long before I noticed great improvement in my health. It built up the nervous system wonderfully, strengthened the nerves and enabled me to rest and sleep well."

FIFTEEN MILLIONS OR MORE

New York, Jan. 4.—The funeral of James R. Keene, millionaire banker and racing stable owner, took place yesterday at Grace Episcopal church. He is said to have left a fortune estimated to be between $15,000,000 to $20,000,000.
Hundreds of messages of condolence have been received both by Fochall Keene, Mr. Keene's son, and Mr. Daingerfield, his father-in-law. Many of them were from friends living abroad.
At the entrance to the church stood William Roman, Mr. Keene's confidential agent in the financial district, and Algeron Daingerfield, a nephew of the deceased, whose own father, Major Fox Hall Daingerfield, died in Lexington on Sunday. Both hurried from the church before the services were over to go to Lexington to attend the funeral of Major Daingerfield.

AMUSEMENTS IN ST. JOHN;
WHAT THE PLAYHOUSES OFFER

K. B. AT UNIQUE.
For more than a month patrons of the Unique Theatre have wondered the meaning of the signs placed in a conspicuous place in the lobby, reading "K. B. What do they Stand For?" Visitors to this cozy amusement house last evening were told the secret and one and all agreed that it was one of the best things of its kind ever presented in a local motion picture theatre. An opportunity will be given the curious again this afternoon and evening to ascertain what the mystic letters stand for, it is something well worth finding out, and after the knowledge has been gained, it is most likely that K. B. will mean something worth while to us lovers of the pantomime art as exploited on the this strip of film.

FLANTRY MIDWINTER AT LYRIC.
A novel and interesting vaudeville attraction was presented at the Lyric Theatre last evening in the Flantry Midwinter, a lady and gentleman, who belong to the Lilliputian world, offering an act of music and comedy, and ending with an amusing burlesque boxing match. The tiny performers are hardly about three feet in height, and to watch their antics is richly amusing. They remind one of the days of General Tom Thumb, and in fact look more like two dolls dressed up in occasion than anything else. Once they start in to create heavy laughter, in which they succeed, this idea is banished and all settle back in their seats to enjoy a few minutes of novel entertainment. Special matinees will be held this and tomorrow afternoon for the benefit of the children, who after school hours can behold two of the smallest people in the world, as well as enjoying a picture programme of great educational value.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

A delegation appeared yesterday before the council in Fredericton asking that a police commission of three be appointed, port of the move were Dr. Stevens, Bishop Richardson and E. A. McKay.

his trial and before.

Eight men were killed yesterday near raging seas in the last lifeboat they had, to effect the rescue.

Our Mid-Winter Sale begins Friday morning. It is the most noteworthy money-saving event of the year, an occasion upon which hundreds will take advantage of the extraordinary price reductions on Suits and Overcoats for Mid-winter and early Spring.

facturers having no middleman's profits to pay we can and do sell to you at about the same prices other stores pay at wholesale. Bear in mind, therefore, that the saving is from prices that were already lower by 25 to 33 1-3 per cent. than any others in the city.

DUKE MAY VISIT PORTLAND

The Portland correspondent of the Bangor Commercial writes:—
It is now expected that the 43rd Rifle of Ottawa, one of the noted Canadian regiments will be in Portland, Me., during the summer. The command is the special regiment and guard of whoever happens to be governor general of Canada, and the office is now filled by His Royal Highness the Duke of Cornwall, the uncle of King George V., and the king is the honorary colonel. The duke is an accomplished officer and so it is almost assumed that in the event of the coming here of the 43rd he might be with them. The possibility of a visit to Maine by the regiment was suggested several weeks ago and advices from Ottawa are to the same effect.
Before the civil war, the then Prince of Wales, afterwards King Edward VII, came here, and it may be that the Duke of Cornwall may remember that incident in the life of his brother, and that he may want to see the Portland of today. The regi- ment ranks very high among the crack

MOTOR ICE BOAT ON NORTH SHORE (Chatham World).

Michael White, of the Millerton tannery, who used to run Sinclair Bros' motor boat, has built a motor ice-boat that promises to be a great success. There are two forward runners, as in the sailing ice-boat, and a wheel, with cogged tire, where the steering skate of the ice-boat is placed. The engine is geared to this wheel. The forward runners are on pivots, and are controlled by the steerman or motor man.
Mr. White found that it was not well to have much weight on the wheel, so he attached a trailing sleigh for the carrying of passengers. The cogs on the wheel were found to be longer than necessary for the smooth ice, and Mr. White put a thick rubber band or tire on over them. This can be removed when there is snow on the ice and longer caulkers are required to keep the driving wheel from slipping. The machine travels at the rate of 20 to 25 miles an hour, but the speed possibilities of such a craft are much greater. It could be provided with mast and sail for use in fair winds, and then one could have the pleasure of ice-boating without the risk of being becalmed.
"Our light grading work is about all finished on the twelve miles of the line we are building," said Mr. Scott, "and we expect to have the line ballasted and ready for Woodstock to Meductic by July 1st next. Under favorable conditions we expect this will be possible.

C. M. B. A. Officers

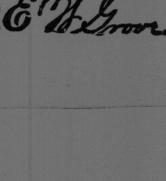

The officers of Branch 482, C. M. B. A. were installed last night by Grand Deputy R. J. Walsh. There was a large meeting in their rooms, but no special business was transacted. Those who assumed office were: Chancellor, Joseph T. Quinn; president, Thomas McCarthy; 1st vice-president, Wm. J. Murphy; 2nd vice-president, James Powers; recording secretary, Clement T. Murphy; assistant recording secretary, Joseph Connelly; financial sec- retary, Leo J. Conlogue; treasurer, Wm. J. Shea; marshals, James P. McIntyre; guard, James Leonard; trustees, John Ellis, H. B. Kneeland, Louis Murphy, James McElwaine and J. Loney.

THROUGH THE ICE.

Although the ice is much weakened, several youngsters were to be seen yesterday on the Mill Dam, North End, some of them skating. Ronald McCormick went through and into the water, but was quickly rescued by some of his chums.

THE HEAVYWEIGHTS

Luther McCarty's manager, Billy McCarty, says of the future: "Luther feels that he is entitled to a rest, but as that he will not have a very restful time. We have had so many offers from theatrical agents that we do not know which to accept."

"It is likely, though, that we will open at Hammerstein's in New York, where a two weeks' engagement, at 12,500 a week awaits us. There should be good money for McCarty in the show business, as neither does not have to depend on a boxing act or a bag-punching turn to entertain an audience."

"I expect his next match will be with Bombarlier Wells for the championship of the world. We will give Tom McCarty the preference if he can secure Wells' services."

"McCarty has been especially good to us, and we want to show our appreciation. The Wells-McCarty match is arranged for July 4, McCarty will be back here before very long. He wants to go to the spring and summer near Los Angeles, and it would suit him nicely to have the July date with Wells to look forward to."

"It is likely, however, that McCarty will place himself in communication with Wells at the earliest opportunity."

"It would be a match that would be of world-wide interest, of course," said McCarty, "on account of the international significance."

"Personally, I would like to see it come to a head. I recognize that having had its origin in England and that the English have improved upon the game and kept it clean and wholesome."

"For that reason, in my opinion, whenever a good man develops in England, he should be made welcome among us and given a chance to show how he compares with American fighters."

"That is the reason there is no reason for the heavyweights to remain idle. McCarty will be away on a theatrical tour and it will take Wells some time to get there."

"In the months that intervene between now and July the other heavies should fight it out among themselves. I think that Palmer, who has shown himself to be a game fellow and such a fair fighter, should be given every chance to come to the front. I would like to see matches in which Palmer, Jess Willard, Bull Young, Gunboat Smith and others would figure. And it would please me very much to match the winner of a tournament of that kind against the winner of the Wells-McCarty match. That, I think, would be the final bout of all in the world's championship series."

SELLING OFF ESTATES
List of Names High in the Political and Social Scale in Old Country Who Have Taken Financial Interest in the Dominion

(Times Special Correspondence)
London, Dec. 26.—Lord Cottesham, whose Chebrie estate was sold this week, is the latest peer who is said to have disposed of an estate in this country with the intention of investing in Canada.

Real estate is said to be very active in Canada but the turnover surely cannot compare with the recent movement in this country. During the last six or seven months one firm alone has disposed of some 100 estates worth the value of $16,000,000, principally the properties of peers and country squires. At the end of the year it is timely to examine the extent of this movement.

A casual inquiry reveals the fact that all Canadian investments and few issues are in the hands of the C. P. R. and other lines selling to Canadian ports have conveyed members of both houses of parliament, bankers, heads of investment houses, directors of industrial and insurance companies to an extent that is surprising.

As illustrating the appeal Canada makes to the society women, the cases of Lady Alice Campbell, who is personally running a farm in Alberta, and Lady Evelyn Ward, who is the proprietor of a millinery shop in Toronto, may be noted. Lady Alice is in plenty who are owners of farms. Lord Roberts has shown a keen interest in Canadian investments and few issues are in the hands of the C. P. R. and other lines selling to Canadian ports have conveyed members of both houses of parliament, bankers, heads of investment houses, directors of industrial and insurance companies to an extent that is surprising.

Was a Victim of Bronchitis. HAD TO BE PROPPED UP IN BED.

Bronchitis is an acute inflammation of the membranes lining the air tubes of the lungs, and begins with a tightness across the chest, and a difficulty of breathing accompanied by a hard dry cough which later develops into the raising of a greenish or yellowish phlegm.

On the first sign of bronchitis you should check it immediately by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and thereby preventing it becoming chronic and perhaps turning into some serious lung trouble. Mrs. John Favest, Salisbury, N.S., writes: "A year ago I was a victim of Bronchitis. I was so bad I could not lie down, and had to be propped up in bed. As the doctor failed to do me much good, a friend, who came to visit me, advised me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. The first bottle helped me so wonderfully I took five bottles in all, and was cured. I have not had an attack of it since."

CITY PAVING PLANS

A comprehensive programme for permanent paving involving an outlay of about $150,000 was laid before the other commissioners yesterday by Commissioner Agar. It is not intended to do all the work this year, but as much as possible will be undertaken. The programme includes the paving of Charlotte street from the Dufferin Hotel to Queen street; of Union street from Brunsell to Chapman Hill; of Germain street from Princess to Union; of the east side of Main street from Foundry Lane to Acadia street; of the north side of King Square from Charlotte street to Waterloo street; and of British street from Charlotte street to Road's Point to Water street.

It is proposed to place a granite paving in Main and British streets, and asphalt or bituminous pavement in the other streets.

To provide for at least part of the cost of the new pavements the commissioners propose to increase the assessment on the properties in the streets improved.

BY-LAW VIOLATION. D. H. McDonald, manager of the Opera House, was fined $20 this morning for allowing people to stand in the aisles of the house during the performance on New Year's night. Policeman Whittier, who made the complaint, told of finding the aisles in the upper gallery blocked. He had brought the matter to the attention of Mr. McDonald, who was on duty at the Opera House on the night in question. It was his place to see that the laws were carried out, and that there was no blocking up of the passages. A fine of $20 was imposed, this being the minimum.

THE EMPRESS'S VOYAGE. Among the cabin passengers on the S. S. Empress were Mr. and Mrs. T. McAvoy Stewart, just returning after a honeymoon trip spent abroad. Mr. Stewart said yesterday that he had never experienced anything like the weather encountered on the trip across from Liverpool. The whole voyage, he said, "was marked with severe wind storms, and we would no sooner get out of one, than we would run into another. There was quite a lot of seasickness among the passengers, but all seemed to brave the storm well, and there was no danger of the ship being blown to a standstill, and for nearly a whole day but little progress was made. Mr. Stewart said that while in mid ocean a floating buoy was sighted, and they learned yesterday it had drifted from Halifax.

SCOUT CRUISERS TO WARN STEAMERS OF PRESENCE OF ICE IN ATLANTIC OCEAN

Washington, Jan. 7.—Danger of a repetition of the Titanic has led the navy department to begin preparations earlier than usual for an ice patrol to warn steamers of the presence of bergs in the northern track of the Atlantic liners. Scout cruisers will be sent out early in April as an extra precaution.

Much remedial legislation was proposed after the Titanic disaster, but officials of the navy department believe that if regard is paid to the information dispatched by the hydrographic office the peril from icebergs will be minimized.
