There was little or no ceremony to mark the historic event. In a brief address Prince Chun stated that the wish of the people was for a parliamentary government and he commended the senators to labor for this end. A parliamentary building of ample dimensions will be erected. Pending its completion sessions of the senate will be held in the quarters of the law college. The lack was given as the reason for the exclusion of representatives of the press from today's proceedings. The same rule was applied to other outsiders not even the members of the foreign diplomatic corps being invited to be present.

AN ERROR CORRECTED. Our esteemed fellow citizen, Mr. Jamey Jones, denies the truth of the report that on his recent hunting trip he shot a moose, whose antlers measured 84 inches. FINDING BODIES IN LOS ANGELES FIRE

Pinned Down By Tons of Twisted Steel—Believed Many Fell Down Elevator Shaft.

Los Angeles, Calif., Oct. 3.—Pinned down by tons of twisted steel girders, a number of bodies were reported found early today by the workmen engaged in removing the debris from the basement of the wrecked Times building.

The situation was found to be such this morning that it was impossible to make any progress in recovering the bodies and a steel crane will have to be employed to lift the heavy material away. It is believed that further investigation will bear out the theory of S. W. Crabbill, foreman of the composing room, who in making his escape the morning of the disaster, fell down the elevator shaft and got out only after having been severely burned.

Mr. Crabbill said there were undoubtedly a number of bodies at the bottom of the shaft, as others besides himself had stumbled that way.

NEEDLE AND THREAD

Cobalt Man Sewed up Gash in Foot and Hobbled from the Wilds to Civilization

Cobalt, Ont., Oct. 3.—Bleeding to death from a fearful gash which had almost severed his foot, and lying alone in the woods far from human aid, Victor Hanman, a prospector, stanchied the flow of blood as best he could, and then with a needle and thread coiled stitched up the wound.

Hanman went away in the bush unaccompanied last week, and while hard at work chopping timber he struck a heavy blow on his foot with the axe utilized. The wound was a severe one, but instead of fainting away as might have been expected he set to work and acted as his own surgeon. He recollected that among his goods were a needle and some black thread. After stanching the excessive flow of blood as far as possible, Hanman neatly threaded the ordinary sewing needle and with a fortitude to be marvelled at placed three stitches in the wound.

Knowing full well that this could only be temporary, and realizing also that he ran great chances of blood-poison, Mr. Hanman made a brave effort and with the aid of an improvised crutch and stick, hobbled by degrees to the Portage camp, where the wound was dressed.

DRY FARMING CONGRESS OPENS TODAY

President Taft Will Press Button at White House

2,500 DELEGATES

Including 45 Accredited Representatives of Others Countries are Gathered in Spokane, Washington for the Big Convention—Elaborate Entertainment Scheme

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 3.—Everything is in readiness for the International Dry Farming Congress, which will open its fifth convention in the state armory here, today, continuing to Oct. 6, and its third exposition of grains, grasses, vegetables and fruits at the Spokane Interstate fair grounds. President Taft will formally open the congress by pressing a golden button in the White House at 8 o'clock (Pacific time) this evening. Judging at the exposition began on Saturday, and it is expected the board of awards, headed by Professor Coates, P. Bull, of Minnesota, will announce the prize-winners in competitions for a total of $10,000 in premiums tomorrow afternoon.

John T. Burns, secretary of the organization, announces there are about 2,500 delegates, including 45 accredited representatives of foreign countries, and that most of them will be in the convention hall when President Taft's greeting to the dry farmers of the world is read. This will be preceded by a medley of instrumental airs by a military band, and afterward Henry L. Newton, chairman of the Washington and local board of control, will present the presiding officer. If Congressman Mondell, president of the congress, who has been sick in his home at Newcastle, Wyo., is unable to attend, it is likely that Frank W. Bowman, of Idaho, first vice-president of the congress, will have charge of the convention.

Seventy-five of the world's foremost advocates of dry farming, including practical agriculturists and experts from various districts in the west, are on the program for addresses. They will deal with the progress and problems of dry farming as presented in different parts of the world and in addition there will be a series of the intimate meetings, under the direction of present season that she has been prevailed upon to pay them a visit, and will start for New York early in the coming month. The Passion Play closed on Wednesday, and it is announced that it was seen by 280,000 people, eighty per cent of whom were Americans. Fifteen per cent British and five per cent coming from other countries, showing the absolute necessity of American support for the undertaking.

Anton Lang, the Christus, will take a three weeks' holiday. He will visit Palestine in the spring. The remaining actors, mostly wood carvers, go back to their ordinary occupations. Preparations for the next play will begin next year.

Extensive preparations have been made by the local board of control for the reception and entertainment of the foreign representatives, officers of the congress, speakers and delegates and visiting and local newspaper men. Riverside avenue, the principal business thoroughfare, will be a blaze of light, and every building will be gay with flags, banners and bunting. The largest American flag in the world will cross the intersection of Riverside avenue, and Howard street, where is suspended a mammoth Liberty bell, composed of 5,000 incandescent electric lamps. There will be a series of banquets, automobile trips and theatre parties for the entertainment of the visitors, and, in addition, officials of the Spokane chamber of commerce, headed by Charles M. Pasquet, will entertain the newspaper writers at a bear-steak and game dinner at Hayden Lake, in the heart of the national forest reservation in northern Idaho. The trip will be made on a special train, leaving Spokane shortly after 4 o'clock the afternoon of October 5, to give the visitors an opportunity to see the orchard districts in the Spokane valley. The committee in charge is composed of officers of the chamber of commerce and representatives of daily newspapers, and weekly and monthly publications in Spokane. Arrangements have been made for 150 guests. Colorado, Texas, California and the province of Alberta are the chief contenders for the 1911 congress. Colorado Springs claims it has every delegation in Colorado and neighboring states pledged to its support, while the boosters of San Antonio, expect their strength will come all over the Southwest. Calgary, Alta., will have all Canada and several states in the North west.

Give me the road that follows Its own wild will, Over the starting hollows, Over the hill.

Over the hills that shoulder The pine roof, And gray cliffs old, or older Than solitude.

Give me the road that passes And plunges thro' The deep and doubtful grasses, The hidden dew.

The roving road of the reinless Wind of the plain, The slanting, swift, and stammer Road of the rain.

O for the heart to follow The road's wild will, Over the wide-spread hollow, Over the hill.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

I WONDER if it's an American trick to talk and judge of things of which one knows practically nothing, at first hand, or just a human habit—as wide as the world.

For it may be both, but it's certainly the first. We were talking of Oscar Wilde the other day. A young college graduate was of the group. She appeared painfully shocked. "How can you like his poetry?" I think it's dreadful," she said.

We asked what she had read of him. She tried to mention something, stammered a bit, mentioned a poem which was really written by Swinburne, and finally acknowledged that she really couldn't remember what she had read just that moment.

"But I always heard that he was a very immoral man, and that his poetry was very improper," she concluded virtuously. Let's take quite a typical case of this tendency to talk without any basis of personal knowledge?

In such the same way, how many people make fun of Ibsen and Browning, and tell how involved and uninteresting and unnecessarily abstruse their books are, when they—the critics—have never really sat down for half an hour and read the writers they are judging.

It's often the same way with public affairs. It seems to me that vague rumors, general impressions, and not specific information, stand behind many of the opinions one hears expressed on public matters. How many people, for instance, rage against Cannon and Aldrich and Payne, and exult at their downfall, who could not name any specific thing that any of these three men have done.

In a general way, they think of these senators as having too much connection with trusts and monopolies and railroads, but ask for a specific instance of just how these men have betrayed their country's trust, and I doubt if three out of five of the critics could give it.

How many people who protest against "that terrible tariff bill that makes the cost of living so high," really know any of the provisions of that bill?

Now, mind, I'm not trying to defend Cannon or Aldrich or Payne, or the tariff bill. My personal sympathies are most decidedly not in that direction. Besides, that's politics, and I have been politely, but most emphatically, warned that that is a man's province and I must "keep off the grass."

All I want to make you realize is how prone many of us are to talk and judge on subjects of which we have little or no first-hand knowledge.

Have I succeeded?

Daily Hints for the Cook

POTATO CONES.

Peel six large potatoes, boil until tender, mash and season with salt, pepper and a lump of butter, two tablespoonfuls of milk. Have a cup of cheese shredded fine. Drop potatoes in cone shape on a plate, make a hole in the top of each cone, dropping in a lump of butter. Sprinkle them with cheese and finish filling hole. Put in hot oven and brown. Garnish with parsley.

CRAB CROQUETTES.

Melt one tablespoon of butter in a saucepan, add to it one tablespoon of flour and stir until smooth; then pour on gradually one cup of hot milk; cook until thick; then add the beaten yolks of two eggs. Remove from the fire and stir in two cups finely chopped crab meat, season with salt, pepper and a little onion juice; turn out and cool; then form into pyramids, dip in beaten eggs, then cracker dust, and fry a delicate brown.

PEACH FRITTERS.

The excellence of peach fritters depends upon the quality of the batter. Mix four pinches of salt with two tablespoonfuls melted butter, and the well-beaten yolks of two eggs. Add very gradually a gill of tepid water, beating until smooth and thick. Set aside for two hours and then whip in the beaten whites. Dip into this ripe, pared and halved peaches and fry in boiling fat, drain on kitchen paper and serve with a ring of whipped cream around them. Deep fat is required for frying; test the heat by throwing in tiny squares of bread, when one of these colors quickly, and especially when a blue smoke begins to arise from the hot fat, you may drop in the fritters, but not too many at once, which would bring the fat down below the requisite degree of heat. For the above recipe select freestone peaches.

OX TAIL SOUP.

Melt two heaping tablespoonfuls of butter in a saucepan, when hot add two divided ox tails and brown them in the butter; remove them and brown one diced turnip, one chopped onion, two chopped carrots and one chopped stalk of celery; add two tablespoonfuls of flour and a bunch of sweet herbs, when brown add two quarts of stock or water, boil open until the ox tails are tender, strain the soup, rub through the vegetables; reject and pour over the tails.

FRUIT SAUCE.

To the juice drained from the peaches and brought to the boiling point add a tablespoon of cornstarch previously rubbed to a cream with a little cold water (a tablespoon of cornstarch to a pint of juice); cook till it thickens, add sugar if juice is very tart. Let cool and pour over rice balls just before serving.

A reception will be tendered the Queen's Own Rifles of Toronto at the latter city today on their arrival from their recent trip to England.

COMMON COUNCIL

The Recordship and Other Matters to be Dealt With at Today's Meeting

At this afternoon's meeting of the common council, a number of important matters will come up for consideration. Baxter will get the appointment, if the local government have not already acted. Communication from the incumbent will be paid $3,000. It is about settled that Ald. Baxter will get the appointment, if the local government have not already acted.

Communication from G. G. Melvin, chief health officer, calling attention to the fact that Douglas and Clarendon streets are unprovided with sewers.

Communication from the secretary of the St. John Local Council of Women enclosing resolutions passed by that council with reference to enclosing bread in a sealed paper case before leaving the bakery, and also with reference to providing sanitary drinking fountains in school houses, etc.

A SLAP IN THE FACE FOR CLERGY SAYS

REV. W. R. ROBINSON

West Side Pastor Deals With the Jeffries-Johnson Fight Pictures Case in a Sermon—Reasons Why They Should Not Have Been Permitted.

Rev. W. R. Robinson, in the Ludlow street Baptist church, last night, addressed a crowded church gathering on the pictures of the Johnson-Jeffries fight, scathing the police and the grand jury for their part in the trial of the pictures.

The challenge had been thrown down to the churches, and every clergyman in the city had been literally slapped in the face by the police department, lawyers and grand jury, for their attitude in the matter.

In concluding, he said:—"Why is this particular exhibition objectionable?"

(1) Prize fighting is prohibited in every province in Canada. There was only one of the oldest members of the congregation. Referring to Lieutenant-Governor Fraser's death, Mr. Lang spoke of his qualities and the esteem in which he was held by the people of Nova Scotia, especially by the members of the Presbyterian church, of which he was a valued member. At the close of the service the dead march in which was played.

Special programmes were given yesterday in most of Protestant Sunday schools of the city, the day being observed as "Rally Day." The attendance in every instance was encouraging. In St. David's Rev. A. F. Robb, of Korea, gave an interesting address, while Supt. H. S. Bridges, presented to six children, diplomas for special memory work.

In the school room of St. John's Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon, Rev. Dr. Flanders addressed the children, and his remarks were followed with close attention.

W. C. Ross acted as master of ceremonies in the rally service in Germain street Sunday school. Mr. Noble and Mr. Taylor, in musical numbers, were heard to advantage. On Tuesday evening a reception will be tendered by the congregation to Rev. Mr. Porter and his wife.

In the Mission church of St. John Baptist, last evening, Rev. Dr. Van Allen, of Boston, referred interestingly to the remarks of Father Laue at the recent Eucharistic congress. He denied the charge that the Anglican church was losing ground.

In the Cathedral yesterday, a collection was taken for the benefit of the Mater Misericordiae Home, the amount raised being $400.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon a meeting to further arrangements for the Torrey campaign will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Arrangements are now nearing completion.

IN THE CHURCHES

Tablet to Memory of Rev. Dr. MacRae Unveiled in St. Stephen's Church—Rally Day Services.

The services in St. Stephen's Presbyterian church yesterday morning were of a specially interesting character. A handsome tablet of brass, dedicated to the memory of the late Rev. Donald MacRae, M. A., D. D., who died in Calgary (Alta.) November 21, 1899, was unveiled by Kenneth J. MacRae, his son. Rev. Dr. MacRae was pastor of the congregation for twenty-two years. Rev. J. A. Morrison, D. D., Ph. D., preached a powerful and eloquent sermon on the indebtedness of the present to the past, in which he paid a glowing tribute to the memory of Dr. MacRae.

After the reading of the scripture lesson by Rev. Gordon Dickie, Mr. MacRae walked to the front and taking the veil off the tablet, in a brief address, presented it to the congregation.

Rev. David Lang in his sermon in St. Andrew's church last night referred briefly to the death of Lieutenant-Governor Fraser of Nova Scotia and also of James R. Cameron, who until his death was one of the oldest members of the congregation. Referring to Lieutenant-Governor Fraser's death, Mr. Lang spoke of his qualities and the esteem in which he was held by the people of Nova Scotia, especially by the members of the Presbyterian church, of which he was a valued member. Every household has its share of aches, pains, bruises, chibbains, burns, stiff joints, chest colds, sore throats, muscular soreness and similar troubles. It is surely unwise to suffer, even the least of these, when there is a sure and speedy remedy.

Father Morrice's Liniment, a famous priest-physician, was especially successful in devising a preparation for the prompt relief of the aches and pains of thousands of families kept in a state of misery by Father Morrice's Liniment constantly in the house, ready for emergency.

Unlike most liniments, it has both a pleasant feeling and a clean, wholesome smell. It is a splendid rubbing liniment, as it makes the skin soft and smooth, and does not blister. Better yet, it goes straight to the seat of the trouble, very little remaining on the skin.

In rheumatism and backache, it is a helpful adjunct to Father Morrice's "No. 7," and in cases of sore throat and cold on the chest, it supplements his well-known "No. 10."

The liniment should be always on hand against a case of need. 25c a bottle, at your druggist's, or from Father Morrice Medicine Co., Ltd., Chatham, N.B.

 One of the best and latest films that can from an English machine, one of the best

THE GEM.
 A splendid story of life in India during the troublous times of rebellion among the natives is told today and tomorrow at the Gem Theatre, Waterloo street, in the big Vitagraph production, "The Sepoy's Wife." This is one of the latest releases from the Vitagraph studios, and tells a strongly dramatic story in a very clever manner. The company of Vitagraph players give every attention to the presentation. A highly amusing comedy, "The Troubles of a Policeman," is offered in the way of comedy, and is expected to cause many hearty laughs. The balance of the programme will be composed of two

 The seventeenth annual road race of the be held at Hamilton on Thanksgiving Day, October 31, commencing at 9 in the morning. This is one of the biggest features of the annual road racing programme, having produced many famous runners, among them being Tom Longboat and Tom Coley.

 It is open to every amateur in Canada, and it is likely that one or two Ottawa boys will go up. Entries close on October 25, silver cups to become the permanent property of those who finish first, second and third. The course will be from the Herald office at Burlington by a distance of nineteen miles and 108 yards. The record for the race is 1,48.43.
 It is held by Henry Mellor, jr., of Yorkers, N. Y.

See Who's Here.
 At the fall fair at Watton, Ont., last week Tom Longboat defeated three of the fastest men in Bruce county. The distance was three miles, and Tom's opponents took about an hour and a half to finish. Terrific cheers greeted the famous Indian when he fairly flew down the home stretch, making up 50 yards in the last lap and winning by 25 yards. The time was 14.50. Longboat proved a great attraction, and the gate receipts equaled anything in the history of the fair.

Baseball
 Pitchers for Philadelphia in World's Series.
 Philadelphia, Oct. 1.—Eddie Plank, veteran southpaw pitcher, will open the world's baseball series for the Philadelphia Athletics. Jack Coombs, the "iron man," will follow, and if Plank wins his Philadelphia baseball fan who has been a friend of Mack for several years and keeps in touch with the situation, especially when a world's series is concerned.
 One reason for selecting Plank to open the big games is that the Athletics' leading pitcher is a specialist southpaw. He is always on the alert for an effective twirler who works from the outside, believing some teams cannot hit this delivery. He has tried out many southpaws. He has two promising youngsters in Atkins and Krause, whom he is preparing for future struggles. Krause was a sensation last year, but has been a little off form this season. Mack hopes to see this young twirler return to his best form, and he thinks the youngster is on the road to recovery. He may be used in one of the games of the world's series, providing Plank proves a puzzle to the Cubs.
 This foliage of Mack's led him to make a great sacrifice several months ago, to secure "Lefty" George, a promising Southpaw from the Baltimore club. Some said Mack parted with $12,000 for this youngster, intended as a successor to Plank next season. It is his conviction that George will be one of the sensations of the American League next season.

The World's Series.
 Cincinnati, O., Oct. 3.—Dates for the world's baseball championship series of games and the metropolitan series and the series governing each of these events will be decided upon at a meeting of the National Ball Commission, which will convene here today.
 The Metropolitan championship, which is to be played under the auspices of the National commission, will be between the Cincinnati Reds and the St. Louis Browns.

Argonauts Win Hard Game.
 Toronto, Oct. 2.—(Special)—The Rugby football season opened here Saturday with a match between the Tigers, of Hamilton, nauts every minute of the time to score the deciding goal. The score stood 15 to 13.

"SEEING LONDON" BY MOTORCAR.
 London, Oct. 3.—The Great Railway Company has organized a scheme for showing London to visitors which will exceed anything that has hitherto been dreamed of. The motorcars have been requisitioned and one will leave Paddington daily at 10.30 accompanied by a guide.
 The car will drive across the park to the Albert memorial and Albert hall, both of which will be visited, thence it will proceed via Buckingham palace and St. James palace to the national gallery in Trafalgar square, and thence to the Cheshire cheese, where luncheon will be served, and where the stories of Dr. Johnson's very special connection with that tavern will be related. After lunch the pilgrims will proceed to St. Paul cathedral and across the river by London bridge to Southwark cathedral.
 Then they will proceed by the tower bridge and across the river to Petticoat lane, and thence home by the Bank of England, the British museum, and the "Old Curiosity Shop," which probably had about as much to do with Dickens as the Cheshire cheese had with Dr. Johnson to Paddington station where they will be duly notified and instructed no doubt, at 5.30.

GOVERNOR COBB IS GOING SOUTH Saturday's Portland Arrive, says—The Governor Cobb arrived from Boston shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon on her way to St. John, proceeding eastward after a short delay. She will make but one more trip on the international route this fall, as she will be hailed out at Belmont by the arrival of the new steamship chartered by the Peninsular and Occidental S. Co. to run for several months between Knights Key, Fla., and Havana as a passenger steamer completely new and carrying 1,000 passengers.
 Knights Key is an extension of the Florida & East Coast railway, running along the Florida coast, and will be another year the track will have reached Key West, which will then be the terminal of the railway line. The distance between Knights Key and Havana is only 117 miles, the Cobb making the run easily in seven hours, arriving at the Cuban capital in the middle of the afternoon, and is back at the Florida end the next evening. The route is said to be a most delightful one, and the Cobb was a great favorite with the travelling public last winter, carrying thousands of passengers.

YOU CAN INTEREST HIM
 Any Man Over Fifty.
 You can interest any man over fifty years of age in anything that will make him feel better, because while he may not as yet have any positive organics, he no longer feels the buoyancy and vigor of twenty-five nor the freedom from aches and pains he enjoyed in earlier years. He is looking for a remedy with interest any proposition looking to the improvement and preservation of his health.
 He will notice among other things that the stomach of fifty is a very different one from the stomach he possessed at twenty-five. That greatest cure must be exercised as to what is eaten and how much of it, and even what the best of care, there will be increasing digestive weakness with advancing years.
 A proposition to perfect or improve the digestion and assimilation of food is one which interests not only every man of fifty but every man, woman and child of any age, because the whole secret of good health, good blood, strong nerves, is to have a stomach which will promptly and thoroughly digest all the food he eats.
 Cause blood, nerves, and tissue every other constituent of the body entirely dependent upon the food he assimilates. or "health" food can possibly create pure blood or restore shaky nerves, when a weak stomach impedes the daily intake of food and the body is a mass of fermenting half-digested food.
 No, the stomach itself wants help and is in need of a remedy; either it wants direct, unmistakable assistance, such as is given by one of St. John's Dyspepsia Tablets after a meal.
 These tablets cure stomach trouble because their use gives the stomach a chance to rest and recuperate; one of St. John's Dyspepsia Tablets contains digestive elements sufficient to digest 3,000 grains of ordinary food such as bread, meat, eggs, etc.
 The plan of dieting is simply another name for starvation, and the use of prepared foods and new fangled breakfast foods simply makes matters worse as any dyspeptic who has tried them knows.
 Dr. Bennett says, the only reason you can imagine why St. John's Dyspepsia Tablets are not universally used by everybody who is troubled in any way with poor digestion is because many people seem to think that because a medicine is advertised in sold in drug stores or is protected by a trade mark must be a humbug whereas as a matter of truth any druggist who is observant knows that St. John's Dyspepsia Tablets have cured more people of indigestion, heartburn, heart trouble, nervous prostration and rundown condition generally than all the patent medicines and doctors' prescriptions for stomach trouble combined.

Municipal Expert
 The idea that homes are needed in municipal housecleaning is not altogether a new one. It is practical working out and the demonstration of its success have made the name of one medium-sized town in the State of Michigan known far and wide.
 The woman in the case was Mrs. Carline Bartlett Crane, who began her work of civic improvement about eight years ago, and through the discovery of revolting conditions in the abattoirs and slaughter sheds about the city. Her first work was in the abattoirs and slaughter sheds.
 The tale of how Mrs. Crane had the hands of the town cleaned up, as told in the Editorial Review, this month, has its amusing side. These were much like the back yards of the average town, but that fact was no weight with Mrs. Crane.
 Superstitiously she photographed a number of the worst yards. Then she called together a number of progressive women from her own and other churches and organized a civic improvement league. At the first meeting there was a lantern exhibition of Kalamazoo back yards.
 As pictures after picture appeared upon the screen, the ladies were horrified. There were a yard that was shown made up his mind instantly that no one should ever recognize it as his. As a consequence Kalamazoo went through a cleaning period in the next twenty-four hours that put the city in a new light. There wasn't a back yard in the town that even faintly resembled them. The mayor issued a pro-clamnation for an annual cleaning day and proper receptacles for ashes and garbage were provided. Mrs. Crane understood that this effect was permanent. Let sanitary restaurants, hotels, plumbing establishments look out for their rear en-dances were as sanitary as their front ones. The city was now a model town.
 Mrs. Crane noticed that by contrast, the back yards of the city were woefully dirty.
 After much hard work she induced the members of the Civic Improvement League to ask the city council for permission to keep six blocks at different parts of the city clean for three months, as a demonstration of how the work should be done.
 When the time drew near it was arranged that the women should act as inspectors, relieving each other, so that none were overworked, and that their duty would be to follow and supervise the men. At the moment of starting the yellow press de-posted a number of reporters armed with cameras in Kalamazoo and the women inspectors felt in haste. To be sure they were not to be seen. One woman found a suddenly sick baby, another unexpected company, a third was really ill. Mrs. Crane stepped and said nothing. She didn't want to get any or afraid. She walked out from her home and faced the cameras. And for three months daily she inspected every one of the six blocks experimented upon.
 Every night she bathed her aching feet and cried and every morning she got up and set her lips firmly together and went on.
 At the end of three months she had reduced considerably the cost of cleaning those six blocks, the streets were cleaner than any resident had believed possible, and the city council was only too glad to adopt her methods as its own. The Civic Improvement League went up for its description by placing garbage cans upon the street corners and by organizing junior civic leagues among school children who promised to help to keep the streets free from rubbish. The streets of Kalamazoo as well as the back yards are now kept clean.

 Precinctors of the Royal Black Knights

MRS. W. C. STEWART AND HOW SHE WAS EVICTED

Mrs. W. C. Stewart
 Montreal, N. J., Oct. 1.—The residents of this fashionable suburb town were treated with a sensation when Mrs. W.
 C. Stewart was seized scantily clad in her beautiful home in South Mountain avenue by court officers, after they had battered down the door of her sleeping apartment and was carried, wrapped in a blanket, into the street. The eviction was instigated by Mrs. W. B. Leeds, Mrs. Stewart's stepdaughter, who is the widow of the late plate manufacturer, who left a large fortune. Mrs. Leeds in her complaint, filed through her attorney, maintains that her stepmother has no right to occupy the beautiful mansion as it is her property and was bought for her by her

Obituary
Miss Louise Stephenson
 The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Stephenson, 83 State street, will regret to hear of the death of their four year old daughter, Louise Louise, which occurred yesterday as the result of an accident. Last Friday the little one in some way fell about eight feet from the stairs in her home. She was picked up unconsciously and in spite of all that could be done she passed away yesterday. She was a very bright, lovable little girl and will be sadly missed.

Mrs. Charlotte Harrison
 At the age of 71, Mrs. Charlotte Harrison died yesterday at her home in Upper Corner, Sussex. She is survived by two daughters, and four sons. Of the latter, Arthur Harrison, of this city is one. The funeral will be held on Tuesday at 3 p. m.

Mrs. Margaret Mahoney
 The death occurred suddenly at South Boston on Sept. 30th of Mrs. Margaret Mahoney. She was a daughter of the late James and Margaret Hanlin of Fairville, and is survived by six daughters and two sons, also two sisters, Mrs. Patrick Dolan, and Mrs. John Dolan of this city, and one brother, Michael Hanlin, of Milford, Mr. and Mrs. John Dolan had only paid a visit to Mrs. Dolan's sister, leaving her Friday morning in the best of health, but on reaching St. John, Saturday afternoon, received the sad news of her sudden death. Mr. and Mrs. John Dolan accompanied by Mrs. Patrick Dolan, left immediately for Boston to attend the funeral.

James J. Ryan
 James J. Ryan, son of the late Thomas and Margaret Ryan, died yesterday in his home, 44 Esmouth street, aged 37 years.
 He is survived by two sisters, Susan and Margaret, both at home. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon.

WEDDINGS
Leslie-Russell.
 William C. Leslie and Miss Mabel Russell, daughter of Mrs. Charles Russell, Nordin, were united in marriage at the Presbyterian Manse, Newcastle, Thursday last, by Rev. S. J. MacArthur. The staff of D. & J. Hildreth were the groom-smen employed, presented the bride with a Morris chair. They will reside in Nordin.

PROGRESS IN THE EAST
 Almost every returning British visitor who has been making a tour through this summer—and their number shows a gratifying increase—expresses his astonishment at the rapidity with which villages and towns are springing up in the West, while those who have been paying a visit after a lapse of only two or three years express actual amazement at the expansion of all the principal cities, they see through in the 3,000 miles which separate Montreal from Victoria, says Can-what unfortunate for the Eastern provinces of Canada, especially Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, that the tourist almost invariably begins his travels at Quebec or Montreal, and rarely finds time to visit Halifax, St. John, Sydney, and other places in the Maritime Provinces which are making steady progress. In some cases the expression "amazing," can be with equal justice used in regard to the Eastern centres of population. Take Sydney, for instance, the great centre of the coal and iron industry. There the Customs returns for last month have almost doubled as compared with those of last year, $28-744 against $15,776, and for the eight months of this year, $93,802, against $48-291, in 1909. The permits for new buildings in Sydney taken out up to August 31 already represent a value of over $100, 000 more than the entire twelve months of 1909. Before the end of this month iron ore will be exported from the Drummond Mines, near Newcastle, in the sister Province. The opportunities for capital and labor are so diffused over this vast Canadian territory that the part played by the great industrial area of the extreme East is apt to be overlooked in comparison with the interest of the great prairies and agricultural areas through which the traveller passes. His tour in his journey from coast to coast.

Through a mistake in partaking of the wrong medicine, the two-year-old daughter of Martin J. Burns, Saturday evening, came near losing her life. Physicians were called in and after working near two hours succeeded in saving the child's life.

Armstrong appeared for the board, and asked that a fine be struck, but the matter was adjourned until Friday. The court observed that there was too much of a disposition to regard lightly the ordinances of the board in matters of public health conditions, and measures would have to be taken to prevent this.

SERG. HIPWELL LAID AT REST

Imposing Funeral This Afternoon For The "Grand Old Man" of The Police

It would indeed have been difficult to have found a more fitting manifestation of the popularity and esteem in which he was held than witnessed in presence of the vast number of citizens who were in attendance at the funeral of Police Sergeant John Hipwell, which was conducted from his late home, Exmouth street to Church of England burial ground. Not only did his comrades on the police force honor his memory by being present in goodly number, but the funeral cortege included citizens from all ranks of life, and the sight was a most imposing one.

Before the hearse walked those of the policemen, who were not on duty, while at each side of it were seen the sergeants of the force. Sergeants Ross, Cayles, Hastings, Campbell, Baxter, and Kilpatrick, who acted as pallbearers. A coroner was formed by the bluecoats at the grave, and as the body was lowered to its last resting place, they stood at attention respectfully. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. G. Raymond.

Since Saturday morning, last the flag on the guard room in King street east has been lowered to half-mast in honor of the late sergeant.

Among the floral emblems which were carried, was handsome wreath bearing the words "Police" and "Comrade," tokens of respect from his brothers in blue.
