REPORT

THE Council, in submitting their Annual Report for 1865, have to state that there has been an increase of Members for the last year over that of the previous year of 84, which it is expected will be largely increased in future years.

There was received last year from 284 subscribers £142; from Sir Richard Graves Macdonnell £5; from the Volunteer Companies and 1st Brigade Militia Artillery £24; from the Provincial Government £80; from the All-Comers £2 15s.; from the Ladies' Committee £45; from parties for the privilege of erecting tents on the ground £10. Amounting altogether from all sources, including a balance of £7 15s. 6d. in the hands of Treasurer, to £316 10s. 6d.

The Treasurer's accounts, now submitted, shew a balance due him of £9 14s. 5d. The debts now due by the Association amount to $38.60.

The amount thus received has been expended in money prizes, and in payment of the expenses incurred in the management of the Association, and in the sum of £20 sterling remitted to the National Rifle Association of England, so as to enable this Association to be in connexion with and form a branch of it under the same distinguished patronage, and thereby become entitled to a number of Memberships in the proportion of one to every ten shillings thus subscribed, and also to be entitled to the Medal of the Association, thus enabling the winner of it to compete for His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales' Cup at the annual prize meetings at Wimbledon.

The Council have much pleasure in stating that His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor and Commander-in-Chief has kindly consented to become one of the Vice-Patrons of the Association.

The increased interest taken in our Rifle competitions is strongly evinced by the formation of a Ladies' Committee during the past year, with a presentation from them of a valuable Cup, and £45 in money, for prizes, which were competed for at the last meeting and presented to the winners by Lady Macdonnell, who said "she trusted the Ladies of Nova Scotia would not fail to keep up this prize in future years." The Cup had not then been received, but on its receipt from Lady Macdonnell, who procured it in London, it was presented to the successful winner by Mrs. Young, the Lady of the Honourable the Chief Justice.

There were competed for, beside the money prizes, The Challenge Gold Medal of the Association, won by Sergeant-Major William Hardwick, 4th King's County Regiment;

The National Rifle Association Silver Medal, won by Corporal Charles Logan, Rothsay Blues;

The Cogswell Challenge Cup, value 80 guineas, presented by Major James C. Cogswell, 3rd Queen's Halifax Regiment, won by Major D. McDonald, 5th Picton Regiment;

The Ladies' Cup, value £50 sterling, presented by Lady Macdonnell and the Ladies of Nova Scotia, won by Sergeant George A. Sandford, Halifax Volunteer Artillery;

A silver-plated Tea Service, presented by Colonel Laurie, and won by Major (now Lieut-Colonel) W. H. Creighton, Halifax Militia Artillery;

A Government Enfield Rifle, presented by Captain Clifford R. Kinnear, late 1st Halifax Regiment, won by Lieut. James Kean, 1st Digby Regiment.

A Patent Lever Silver Hunting Watch, presented by Alderman John McCulloch, won by Major John McKay, 7th Colchester Regiment;

20 Company Officers' Swords and Belts, presented by the Provincial Government.

The Council are greatly indebted to His Excellency Sir Richard Graves Macdonnell, for the warm interest manifested by him for the success of the Association, and by his influence and support in extending its usefulness, and to him the Association is mainly indebted for the possession of an extensive Rifle Range at Bedford, far superior to the ranges formerly used at Windsor and Truro, and, as stated by the Adjutant-General in his Annual Report, "in situation and all other particulars, it is considered the best tract which could have been chosen for the purpose, comprising as it does, a spacious level area for practice with high wooded hills in rear serving as natural butts, and being accessible by railway from the Metropolis and other parts of the Province." After the purchase was completed, it was found that much work was required to be done in a short time, trees and bushes to be cut down and burned; obstructions removed, and the inequalities levelled; but the work was accomplished under the able management of John Young, Esq., Civil Engineer, who had it in charge, much to the satisfaction of the Council, and who also superintended the erection of the butts, and the introduction of the new system of marking.

At the Meeting at Bedford the Council introduced the new system of marking as patented by Mr. Hill, of Essex, and adopted at Wimbledon in 1864. This system has for its object the better protection of the markers while in the butts, with the improved means of indicating the score by discs, so that the marker whilst signalling the value of a shot, at the same time obliterates the shot mark. The butts were constructed upon a modification of the original plan, suggested by Captain Thomson, 1st Brigade Halifax Militia Artillery. The great advantage in this method of marking, is that it is impossible for the marker to make a mistake, in consequence of there being only one shot mark on the target at one time. This system gave very general satisfaction to the competitors at Bedford, and will be continued in future years.

The Council beg to convey to the friends and supporters of the Association their grateful sense of the support they have received, and particularly to those who have contributed prizes for competition.

The Council have again been indebted to Colonel Laurie, I. F. O. M., for his valuable and efficient assistance as Umpire at Bedford.

The Council have also to express their thanks to Colonel Sinclair, Adjutant-General of Militia, and the Staff of his department, for their assistance and co-operation on the field.

The Council have also to record their thanks to Mr. Mosse, Instructor of Musketry, 2nd Batt. 17th Regiment, in command of the markers, for the attention he unceasingly bestowed, and the suggestions to which they are in a great measure indebted for the success attending the Meeting.

HENRY PRYOR, President.

C. H. BELCHER, Sec'y & Treas.

At a meeting of the Council, held June 8, 1866, it was decided that the Annual Meeting of the Provincial Rifle Association, to compete for prizes, be held at Bedford on Monday the 27th of August next. Firing to commence on the first day immediately after the arrival of the morning trains, and on the subsequent days at 9 A.M. punctually.

It was also decided that Competitors be allowed to use the long or short Enfield Rifle.

On the 30th June, Lt. Colonel Belcher, sent in his resignation of the offices of Secretary and Treasurer, which was accepted at a meeting of Council held July 21st; when Captain Thomson, was elected Secretary and Treasurer, and Lt. Colonel Townsend, and Major Wylde, Members of Council.

APPENDIX.

THE Annual Match of the Provincial Rifle Association was held at Bedford during the last week in August, on the property purchased in 1865 by the Provincial Government for a Rifle Range. It is admirably situated for that purpose, as well in the peculiar formation of the land as in the location, being only nine miles by rail from Halifax and within ten minutes walk by a good road from Bedford railway station, where the up and down trains stop. Near to this station also is a wharf, where steamers plying up the harbour and basin land passengers.

The range is entered near the south-east corner, from the highway, by which it is bounded on the east. It comprises a level piece of land about 1500 yards in length by 250 in breadth. On three sides are ridges of high land, covered with forest trees; one of these ridges in rear of the targets, forms a natural butt; near to the north-western angle of the range the Sackville river crosses and runs to the base of the western hill—the targets are erected here at about 100 yards north of the river—when near the base of the hill the river turns southward, and after describing a circuitous course flows out at the southern extremity of the range and shortly afterwards discharges itself into Bedford basin.

On a spur of the eastern hill near to the entrance, and which commands a fine view of the whole range, the Council and other principal tents were pitched, the rest of the camp was laid out in regular lines on the low land at the foot of this hill. As the property when purchased was irregularly covered with brush and other obstructions, and no more money expended than absolutely necessary to allow the firing to be conducted, much remains yet to be done to put it in good order. As, however, the Imperial troops have occupied it this year during their annual practice and have erected a bridge and several buildings thereon, it is probable that another year will find it much improved.

The week preceding the match was almost continuously rainy, and the river consequently, swollen to such a degree, that several stands were washed away, and others, which were last year marched to, dry shod, could this year only be reached by means of plank bridges. On the morning of the 27th, the day appointed for the commencement of the match, the sun rose clear and the weather was all that could be desired. By the first train from the city came up those whose duty it was to take over the camp from the military authorities and make other preparatory arrangements. A fine westerly breeze soon dried the wet grass and made the white canvas tents glisten in the sunshine and contrast pleasantly with the light green turf of the meadow and dark evergreen foliage of the forest. The long row of targets in line at the farther extremity of the range stood out distinctly from the woods in rear and presented a good mark for the riflemen. Numerous waggons conveying comforts for the inner man and the first installment of competitors early made their appearance, and as the latter with rapidly increasing numbers and varied uniforms moved about the camp and made preparations for a week under canvas, they added life and animation to the scene. At the time appointed, the bugle sounded the assembly, and after some delay caused by the large number of names to be entered on the books of the association, the competitors fell in. As they stood in line eager to begin the contest they presented a fine array of Nova Scotia's sons, principally officers, representatives of 60,000 first class militia men, ready to do battle if need be in defence of their native country and of the flag which "Has braved for a thousand years,

The battle and the breeze!"

The names having been called over the competitors were put through the manual and platoon exercises, numbered off into squads corresponding with the number of targets, wheeled into open column and marched off by their respective squad commanders to the stands at the 300 yard range.

The first competition is for the Provincial Rifle Association's Gold Medal and Money Prizes. The danger flags are flying and the markers out in front of their respective targets. The bugle sounds the "commence firing," the markers with their danger flags disappear. The Lieutenant Governor Sir W. F. Williams is presented with a rifle and opens the match by firing the first shot, after which the different squads follow slowly at first, but the rapidity of firing gradually increases, until the echoes from the old woods sound continuously. The sun looked for so anxiously during the past week shines brightly indeed but rather too much so for the eyes and arms of the competitors.

At the southern part of the range and with a line of fire nearly at right angles with that of the other ranges is the pool target, a new feature in the arrangements this year, and one which added much to the enjoyment of those debarred from competing at the matches or who had been ruled out.

Viewed from the council and ladies' tents the competitors resembled a line of skirmishers thrown out to dispute the passage of an enemy in white represented by the targets, which the rifle reports and accompanying puffs of smoke tended to verify ; but which warlike appearance however was not confirmed by the leisurely proceedings of the spectators in rear, among whom were a large number of ladies sauntering in groups over the green turf, and along the margin of the river. The presence of numerous spectators on foot and in carriages during this and the succeeding days of the meeting afforded much satisfaction to the well-wishers of the Institution, and combined with the largely increased numbers of competitors made it apparent that the interest in these matches was growing, and that the association—whose object is to train and encourage the militia force of the Province in the skilful use of the rifle—was favorably regarded and would attain the popularity it deserves.

The firing was steadily maintained until the shades of evening rendered the targets indistinct, the "cease firing" then sounded and the squads were dismissed for the day.

The continued fine weather during the remainder of the week added largely to the comfort and enjoyment of the meeting and will be long remembered.

At the conclusion of each match and at the firing off of ties much interest was manifested and the victors loudly cheered by their comrades. All the competitions were concluded by Friday evening ; during these four and a half days nearly 29,000 rounds of ball cartridge had been expended and without accident, which result is highly creditable to the officers in charge, as well as to the competitors and markers.

DISTRIBUTION OF THE PRIZES.

(ABRIDGED FROM THE MORNING CHRONICLE.)

Pursuant to announcement the prizes fired for at the competition, which closed at Bedford on Friday evening, were presented to the winners thereof on Saturday afternoon. The weather, so important an element in the success of outdoor undertakings, was all that could be desired.

A special train with five passenger, and four platform cars, left Richmond Depot at 12.15 for Bedford. All the cars, one of which was reserved for the ladies, were crowded to their utmost capacity. His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, General Doyle, Admiral Palmer, of the U. S. man-of-war Rhode Island, and His Worship the Mayor proceeded in this train. Vice Admiral Hope sailed to Bedford in the Duncan's steam launch, and arrived there soon after the train.

The Halifax Volunteer Battalion, and the band of that corps, went up in the 12.15 train.

The arrangements made for the ceremony were very good. A canopy was erected in a suitable locality on the grounds, under which was a dais ascended to by two steps, whereon were placed chairs for the accommodation of His Excellency and others. A tent situated in close proximity to the canopy was reserved for the ladies, and this was crowded to excess during the whole of the ceremony. About half past one o'clock His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, accompanied by Vice Admiral Hope and Admiral Palmer, of the United States, arrived and took a seat under the canopy. Vice Admiral Hope occupied a chair to the right of His Excellency, and Admiral Palmer sat on his left. The Halifax Volunteer Battalion was then formed in hollow square, and the distribution of prizes commenced. The names of the successful competitors were called out by Colonel Pryor, President of the Provincial Rifle Association, and the prizes handed to the winners by His Excellency. The Cogswell cup was presented by the lady of the donor. The City of Halifax prize, divided in three sums of money, was presented by the lady of His Worship the Mayor, on which occasion His Worship made a brief but highly appropriate speech. He complimented the members of the Volunteer Battalion on the attention they had bestowed on drill, and also on their general efficiency. He felt convinced that, in case of trouble, they would rush to the defence of the flag which had waved over Nova Scotia since the days of Cornwallis. Upon the presentation of Colonel Laurie's prize, competed for by married officers and sergeants, members of the Association, the Colonel made a few observations. He remarked that he had been solicited by some unmarried officers to change the conditions upon which the prize was open for competition, but his reply to them was that they had better change their own condition. The sentiment was greeted with loud and prolonged cheering, in which the ladies manifested a disposition to participate.

The Telescope, presented by Lieut. Colonel Charles Stewart, 1st Cumberland Militia, and valued at $20, was also handed to the winner, Lieut. Jacob Walton, 1st Kings, by Col. Laurie. Upon presenting this prize the Col. remarked that it was a very appropriate offering, as it was necessary to see the enemy before shooting him. At the close of the presentation ceremony, Vice Admiral Hope rose and made a brief speech, but owing to the bustle occasioned by the pressing forward of the crowd, it was impossible to hear all that he said. In course of his observations he asked the competitors and spectators to join him in thanking his Excellency the Lieut. Governor for presiding on this important and highly interesting occasion. In closing, he proposed three cheers for the Governor and Admiral Palmer, remarking at the same time that the last named was the first United States Admiral that had ever honored Halifax with a visit. Three rousing cheers were given by the hundreds which were assembled. The Governor rose and briefly addressed the assemblage, remarking that he might, and might not, be present at the next annual distribution of prizes, but if absent, his heart would be there. This remark elicited cheer upon cheer. Three cheers were then proposed and given for Vice Admiral Hope, and three for Major General Doyle. Admiral Palmer then rose and spoke about two minutes. He expressed a hope that the friendly relations which happily now existed between his Government and that of Great Britain would be long maintained. A war between these two powers would be a sad national calamity, and he trusted that they might long remain at peace. He felt assured that the Government of the United States entertained none other than the most friendly feeling toward the British American Colonies, and hoped nothing would occur to disturb the present amicable relations.

At the close of the Admiral's remarks he was greeted with rounds of hearty applause. Three cheers were proposed and given for President Johnson, a like number for the Queen, for the officers of the Provincial Rifle Association, and others.

The ceremony having closed, the Volunteer Band struck up the tune of "Old Lang Syne," and the battalion marched off the ground. The striking of tents was then commenced, and at 4 p. m. nearly all had been razed to the ground. The volunteer battalion, competitors, and spectators, took the special train which left Bedford at 4.45 p. m., and returned to the city, apparently well pleased with the day's proceedings.
