CEOLOGICAL AND PHILOSOPHICAL SOCIETY.

We have pleasure in noting the concluding lecture of C. V. Foster, Esq., upon "China," delivered last Monday evening before a large audience. The lecture opened with the subject of Agriculture, and remarked upon the high and honorable esteem in which it is held by the Chinese in the scale of national, importance. Under this head were scenarily.

EAST INDIA HAIR DYE.

Colors the Hair, and will not the Skin!!!

THIS dye is in form of a powder which in plain matter of fact may be applied to the hair over night, the first night turning the lightest red of grey hair to a dark bower, and by repeating a second or third night, to a bright jet black. Any person may, therefore, with the least possible trouble, keep his hair any dark shade or a perfect black,—with a possible it was an exilt not color it. There is no trouble in remaining it from the hair, as in all powders before made. By an occasional application, a person lutining grey will aven be known to have a grey hair.

Directions complete with the article. There is no coloring in this statement, as one can easily test.
