He cited several cases of extortion and robbery practiced on himself and others. The visitors are being robbed every bour, and the fair was yet a financial failure.

The efforts to reduce the free list to the fair are so successful that Supt. Tucker, of the department of admissions, predicts that under the revision now taking place at least 10,600 season passes will be cut off. The people who are conscious of their questionable right to free admission have been making the most of their passes since the orders for revision and reduction were issued, the attendance from this source having jumped from 30,000 to 40,000 a day. As the order entting off the old passes goes into effect Aug. 1, it is expected that after that date the daily free admissions will decrease to but little over 20,000.

There was great rejoicing in the administration building over the action of the Western Passenger Association in deciding to make a reduced rate for World's Fair visitors. As week after week passed and the roads failed to take action in the matter, with the fair's daily attendance usually less than 100,000, the indications pointed strongly to the exposition being a financial failure.

Lord Rosebery's statements on Thursday foreshadowed Siam's surrender. After his speech it was felt that Siam had no other alternative. The only question was the possession of the provinces on the north-eastern side of the Mokong, and it is currently reported that Lord Dufferin has secured a settlement by consonting to Siam's handing these provinces to France on the distinct understanding that France shall immediately restore them to Siam and that the "buffer state" between France and English territories, whereon England insisted, shall be thus between France and English territories, whereon England Insisted, shall be thus preserved. The feeling in the bellicose Paris press was against any arrangement with England, but the French Government is doubtiess delighted at being able to emerge from a serious situation without complications with Great Britain and with a full pound of flesh from little Siam.

LONDON, July 29.—The Siamese Legation Losdon, July 29.—The Siamese Legation here has received a dispatch from Bangkok stating in effect that the Siamese Government, learning that France regards its reply to the ultimatum as a refusal to grant the French demands, and being most desirous of maintaining peace, has telegraphed instructions to the Siamese Minister at Paris to inform the French Foreign Minister that Siam accepts the ultimatum in its entirety. The dispatch adds that the Siamese Government hopes that the blockade will cease, that diplomatic negotiations will be resumed, and that an early settlement of the troubles will be effected, DEVELLE NOTIFIED.

Therefore, after an informal discussion of Siam's surrender the meeting was adjourned until to-day.

SIAM'S CONCESSION CONSIDERED.

The meeting of French Ministers to consider Siam's acceptance of France's ultimatum was held at the Elysee between 5 and 7 o'clock this evening. After deciding to accept Siam's concession of the French demands the Ministers deferred definite action until further measures should have been taken to guarantee Siam's fulfillment of the French demands. The conference of the Ministers was prolonged by a discussion of the steps which might be necessary in settling the boundary question between France and Great Britain. A certain amount of difficulty is expected to embarras this part of the negotiations. Another Cabinet council will be held on Tuesday.

"NUT." SIAM'S CONCESSION CONSIDERED.

BANGKOK, July 30.—While the council f Siam accepted without reservation rance's ultimatum, it received previously the assurance that the kingdom would not be dismembered until after the considera-tion by all the powers concerned in France's demand for the territory between France's demand for the territory between the 18th and 23rd parallels. It is somewhat remarkable that before Prince Vadhana, Siamese Minister in Paris, could have received instructions to accept the ultimatum Great Britain's refusal to recognize the blockade had become known in this city. The British residents here, while rejoicing over the action of the Home Government, do not forget to give credit to Capt. Jones, British Minister in Bangkok, for his careful and judicious conduct throughout the British Minister in Bangkok, for his careful and judicious conduct throughout the critical period. PRENCH CABINET DISSENSIONS.

Despite official denials, reports of Cabinet dissensions multiply. M. Delcasse, Under Secretary of State for the Colonies, proposed a treaty with Siam on the lines of France's policy towards Madagaszar. M. Develle, Minister of Foreign Aflairs, replied hotly that such a proposal could not be considered by the present Ministry. He had pledged the Government publicly to respect Siam's independence, and rather than violate his pledge he would resign his office. M. Develle, after a long interview with the Manquis of Dufferm, British ambassador, declared himself to be more determined than ever to confine the Government's action to the blockade. The differences between him and M. Delcasse was adjusted at the Cabinet council on Thursday afternoon. Nevertheless, M. Delcasse is known to be dissatisfied, and is on the point of resigning.

LONDON, July 31.—The Daily Graphic (Tory) says: Between the apathy of Great Britain and the hostility of France Siam had no choice. On the surface, it looks as if Great Britain received a check to her prestige in only arranging effectually to safeguard British commercial interests. Now a protectorate over the whole of Siam west of the Mekong is necessary to restore this prestige. Anything short of this would be humiliating defeat for England.

Bad Accident on the Michigan Central.

Eight Freight Cars Reduced to a Complete Wreck.

The Accident Supplemented by the Killing of a Scotton Foreman.

WINDSOR, July 30.—At 12:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon an accident occurred at Sringfield, about 27 miles east of St. Thomas, caused by a defective frog. The west-bound American express left Buffalo at 10 a.m. over the Michigan Central. There were thirteen cars in the train bound for Detroit and Chicago. When the crash came the passengers in the rear and only passenger coach, numbering about 26, became badly frightened and an exciting scene followed. Women shricked, children cried and other passengers of the male persuasion were frantic.

Of the cars eight carrying merchandise of every description wers destroyed and their contents strewed along the tracks. Among the freight was a carload of bicycles, all of which were totally wrecked. Other freight was also scattered about involving a heavy loss. The train, after leaving the tracks, tore up about 200 yards of rails and roadbed. It was running at a speed of about 50 miles an hour. The engine did not come to a standstill until after her energy had been spent.

Wealthy Albert E. Osborn Begins an Action for Absolute Divorce—The Wite's Sad Story.

Wite's Sad Story.

New York, July 29.—Albert E. Osborn, a wealthy member of the Union League Club of Brooklyn, is seeking an absolute divorce from his wife Margaret, to when he was married on July 14, 1873. Besides the statutory ground Mr. Osborn pleads that his wife has become an habitual drunkard. They have three children, the cidest of whom is 18 and the youngest 11 years old.

to a private inebriate asylum at Amityville.

Mrs. Osborn remained there a month and was then discharged as cured. She had mot been free more than a week, however, when her old weakness again manifested litself, her husband delares, and she indulged in a number of prolonged "sprees."
On one occasion she was picked up in the street in a helpless condition by a policoman. She was arraigned on a charge of "drunk and disorderly." Her release was secured and she was again sent to the inebs riate asylum, where she was kept unti.
August, 1892, when she professed penitence and protested that she was forever cured of her drinking habit.

After this her husband took her to a boarding house in Joralemon street. They lived in the boarding house but a short time, Mr. Osborne says, when his wife's old enemy again assailed her. Then he left ber and took up apartments at the Union League Club. Mrs. Osborne went to live at 408 Lexington avenue, in this city.
There according to her husband's complaint, she met a man of the name Davis, with when she is now living. Her husband also says that she has behaved improperly with other men.

To the charge of infidelity Mrs. Osborn, through her counsel, Frank A. Doyle, sets up an absolute denial. She admits that she has been an excessive drinker, and says that she first became addicated to liquer in the summer of 1891. She was sick in June of that year, she says, and her physician prescribed whisky. That started her.
Lawyer Doyle appeared before Judge O'Brien, in Supreme Court Chambers, yesterday, and asked for a limony and counsel fees, pending the suit. Brewster, Kiesan, of To Wall street, in behalf of Mr. Osborn, asked for an adjournment. This motion was granted. Mr. Osborn is a wholesale paper dealer at 37 Warren street.

Mr. Tarte, M.P., and His Critic.
To the Editor of the ADVERTIBER:
The Hamilton Spectator insinuates that I might be the author of an article published in the New York Sun on Mr.
Mercier's tour in the United States. I need not tell you that there is no truth in the insinuation. Mr. Mercier is responsible for his doings and for his words. None of us have any control over him. He is acting by himself, as he has a perfect right to do
The only object of the Spectator is to raise prejudices against Mr. Laurier and his friends in making us responsible for other people's actions. We have no objection to bear the responsibility of our own political position. But we beg leave to go no further.
By the way, will you allow me to state that the Spectator was most unfair and unjust when he wrote a few days ago that I

Samuel Kirkland, sen., of Teeswater, died very suddenly Friday night. He had attended the funeral of the late Mr. Bunton, and after tea a public meeting in the town hall, returning home apparently in his usual good health. A few minutes after getting in bed his wife heard a peculiar, heavy breathing, and before she could light a lamp life had flad. Mr. Kirkland came to the township of Culross in the early days, and had lived there during the long period clearing off the bush land. He was a Presbyterian and a Reformer. He leaves a wife and grown up family of sons and daughters.

A little child of F. Hammond, of Goyeau street, Windsor, fell out of a buggy Saturday, receiving such injuries that it died shortly afterwards.

The vice-presidents of the Reform Association for North Essex met in Windsor Saturday. A motion was passed ordering the secretary to send resolutions to Mrs. Daniel Coutts, of Maidstone, whose husband was a vice-president at the time of his death and had been a tireless worker in the party ranks. The question of calling a convention for the nomination of a candidate for the Local House was then discussed and it was decided to do so, the date being set for the last Saturday in August and the place Windsor.

One day last week as Mr. Eber S. Hogarth, B.A., of Hamilton Collegiate Institute, wife and Harold, the latter a bright little fellow of 3 months, were driving from Scaforth to Exeter, the horse became somewhat fractious about Kippen and engaged the whole attention of Mr. Hogarth in managing him, and as the morning was very cool, the baby was covered up more carefully in order to protect him from the strong wind blowing at the time. In her nervousness on account of the actions of the horse, Mrs. Hogarth naturally hugged the little fellow more closely than otherwise. When a little way past Hensall they were horified to find the baby was dead.

The Port Huron News, in remarking the same, publishes a story of a British ship with money aboard to pay British soldiers being chased from Lake Erie by Perry's fleet as far as Lake Huron, where it is said it was wrecked, as nothing further was heard of her; also of a gang of men having been recently observed digging around an old wreck on the Irke shore about three miles above Gratiot beach. It is thought possible that this is the hull of the missing ship, and that the discoverers are making a rich haulby excavating in the wreck.

THE RE-UNITED STATES-REUNION

The current Review of Reviews devote much attention to the striking article by Mr. Andrew Carnegie on the above subject which appeared in the North American Review for June, and was reprinted in full in these columns.

Mr. Carnegie takes the ground that the severance of the English-speaking race, due to the pig-headed obstinacy of George III., was a political crime of enormous magnitude; that that crime should be undone; that it can be undone; that if England and America should never have been separated, they should be once more brought together into organic political

Mr. Carnegie calls attention to the noble pectacle of the conference at Paris, with representatives from London, Ottawa and Washington-i.e., from three representative sections of the English-speaking world -settling disputes about the seals of Bering Sea. Mr. Carnegie nobly considers English-speaking people better employed sitting about green baize tables amicably arranging subjects of difference than gutting each other with bayonets or blowing each other into eternity at point of hostile cannon! We need not go over the various points of what some might call a merely optimistic dream, but we may repeat his closing note of confident prophecy;

Let men say what they will, therefore, I say that as surely as the sun in the heavens of upon Britain and America united, so surely is it one morning to rise, shine upon, and greet again "The Re-united States," "The British-American Union."

The Review of Reviews is the most widely-circulated and probably the most influential magazine in the world. Its gifted editor, Mr. W. T. Stead, is enkindled at the thought of "the great blunder of the Third George" being undone, and the Empire and the Republic, after 100 years of estrangement, being reunited, "so as to constitute a single state-so far as the rest of the world is concerned." Mr. Stead does not exaggerate when he speaks of this English-speaking idea as one of the biggest that ever fired the imagination of mankind.

To Great Britain, the United States, and Canada, it would mean material prosperity beyond the dreams of avarice. It would mean the enthronement of the principle of the temperance members of Parliament, as arbitration and the beginning of the abolition of huge standing armies-the beginning of "the thousand years of peace." With all its faults, the English-speaking world stands for the combination of order with his unsympathetic attitude is It would mean to Canada everything that is meant by untrammeled and permanent day, presented the report of the committee on intemperance, and moved, seconded by trading relations, abundance of capital, and future security.

In no other way could Canada do so much for herself or for bumanity as by States and Great Britain in that eternal amity the violent negation of which by ity and of progress for generations.

Mr. Lowell used to speak of a sort o glacial drift in public opinion. You cannot see it move, but when you look again you see that it has moved. We confidently expect to witness a growing acceleration of movement in favor of the reunion of the English-speaking world. The ADVERTISER | they might very well say led to 19.20ths of during the 30 years of its existence has itself been the instrument of more than one change both of opinion and of statute law. Carlyle, speaking of the "far deeps of the ideal," says that every noble work is at of all the insanity in the United Kingdom first impossible.

The organic union of Great Britain, the United States and Canada, may at first seem to be impossible; but so at first seemed the ocean steamship and the Atlantic cable by which time and distance have been nullified; and so a hundred years agoseemed the remedies was that of the spread of educaidea of settling any international dispute whatever by arbitration instead of by fire and sword.

This is the age of large combinations, This is the age of large combinations, deacon Farrar held to be the best means large ideas. The Advertiser knows of no idea which can compare in size and benecertainly could not sympathize with the icence, or in appeal to the imagination, attitude of Lord Salisbury, who, even bewith the idea of the organic union of the English-speaking world; and so believing t proposes, in every legitimate way, to do what in it lies to promote a consummation so devoutly to be wished. into disrepute.

HON. EDWARD BLAKE. The London Pall Mall Gazette, since it came the property of a United States millionaire, who turned it into a Conservative organ, has turned excessively fastidious. It criticises Hon. Edward Blake's personal appearance and mode of talking, and generally tries to belittle the Canadian statesman. The British people do not appear to take any stock in this method of warfare against our fellow-countryman. We have it on the best authority that Mr. Blake is unable to meet one-half the re-quests sent to him to address public gatherings, and we know, from unprejudiced reports, that in the many centers of populaion where he has consented to speak, Mr. Blake has been listened to by crowded audiences, and has had extended to him greeting such as even a Gladstone might feel proud of. In these circumstances, small beer criticism of his appearance and elocutionary ability from a politically hos-tile source can give the honorable gentleman or his host of friends little concern.

NOVELTY IN TROLLEY ROADS. In Cleveland a new kind of electric street car has been put on. The motor man is protected from the weather, a vestibule onnects the trailer, where one is used, and one conductor runs the entire outfit. In England, on an electric road recently built, a radical departure from American methods was made. A trolley wire is suspended from arms projecting from steel columns no guy wires are employed, as the steel wires are especially designed to withstand severe strains. At the corners, the trolley wires, instead of following a curve of the same radius as the track, as in the American systems, is turned on an angle, the whole system depending on the flexibility of the trolley arm, or side collector, as it is called, which automatically engages the trolley wire in any position from two to twelve feet from the side of the car Another change from American practice is the adoption of a pressure of only 350 volts. The cars are only 22 feet long, and are equipped with two motors of fifteen brake horse power, running at 400 revolu-

The aldermen of this city seem to be once more nearing an arrangement with the street railway company. We presume that care will be taken to have the most approved system introduced here, and for this reason we mention these developments in other places. At one time we had hopes that the trolley system could have been dispensed with in this city, and that the storage battery would replace it. Experience has taught, however, that the trolley in itself is more unsightly than dangerous. Comparatively few persons are injured by contact with the electric wires. Accidents occur chiefly through foot passengers being run down. No doubt fewer casualties take place after children get used to the trolley, but it has to be conceded that it is more difficult for grown persons, as well as for the young, to keep out of the way of trolley cars than it is to avoid cars drawn by horses. This arises from the fact that in the absence of the horses, it is very difficult to guage the speed at which a car is approaching. To this difficulty, indeed, not a few of the accidents at railway crossings can be traced. As trolleys we mus have, for the public convenience, it is well to keep them on as few main streets as pos sible, and that they should be run at a moderate rate of speed.

THE LORD AND THE ARCH-DEACON.

It is to be regretted that Lord Salisbury, in a recent public address, should have gone out of his way to speak of the bill for the more effectual control of the liquor traffic by the people, which is indersed by "a fad of making sober people thirsty in order that drunken people might be kept sober." It is such sneering as this that turns the social reformers against the Con-servative leader. In marked contrast with freedom, and for everything that is the conduct of that greatest of Churchmen, Archdeacon Farrar, who at a meeting o the Lower House of Convocation, the other the Bishop of Dover, "that this house again, as in 1869, respectfully requests his grace the president or their lordships the bishops to lend their legislative, social, and being the link to bind together the United religious influence to the furtherance of every means calculated to remove the long-continued and intolerable evil of intemper-ance." In proposing this Archdeacon war would put back the clock of Christian- Farrar remarked that the evidence on all sides supported the language of the report. The chairman of the Coventry Board of Guardians said he had never seen an abstainer come to the workhouse. Lord Chief Justice Coleridge had said that nine jails out of every ten would be shut in England but for drink, and the late Lord Fitzgerald said that drunkenness was a crime which the crimes of the country. As to lunacy the authority of Mr. Mulihall told them that an average of 48 per cent. of idiocy in England arose from the drunkenness of parents, and one-third was the effect of drink. Lord Hannen said that 75 out of every 100 divorce cases were brought about by drink. The church was not awake to the awfulness of its respon-sibility in the matter. The remedies were of two classes—legislative and non-legis-lative. The first of the non-legislative tion. The second remedy was the increase of bands of hope; and the third, increased action on the part of temperance societies.

The report does not tell us what Archfore the bill for the curtailment of the liquor traffic reaches the House of Lords, deems it his duty to use his position as a party leader to bring the well-directed efforts of such men as Archdeacon Farrar

The present harvest is a phenomenal one In the early summer, everything seemed backward, and it was prophesied that the harvest would be at least ten days late. The weather, however, proved favorable to rapidity in growth, hay ripened on time and has been followed without a day's intermission by the wheat crop, which has in most cases been garnered safely, and within the next week the oat harvest will be general. Wheat has in most cases ripened too fast, and this will cause a reduction in the yield. One London township farmer that we know of expected 24 sushels to the acre, and has on threshing to be contented with 18. The cereal has ripened too fast to properly fill, and in many cases the berry is shriveled up. As a consequence of this shortage, combined with the very low prices ruling, it is probable that a decreased acreage of fall wheat will be own, while a considerable portion of this year's crop will be fed to stock. It pays to eed wheat when the price is less than 70 cents a bushel. The oat crop in most localities will be light also.

IF SIR CHARLES TUPPER had faith in the Chignecto ship railway scheme, which is now stuck, after British capitalists have been prevailed upon to sink several millions of dollars in it, why did he refuse to inrest a cent of his own ample fortune in the venture?

A HEAVY DROP.

Both Wheat and Oats Take a Fall in Price.

New Potatoes Are Cheaper and Butter Dearer-Eggs Are Stationary and Vegetables Plentitul—A Poor Crop of Apples.

Both wheat and oats took a drop in price the market Saturday, and the farmers (and there were many of them) who had brought in these articles to sell were a sore and disappointed crowd when the market in these articles to sell were a sore and disappointed crowd when the market closed. Oats have been going down all week like a thermometer on the afternoon of a cold winter's day. The farmers' spirits have kept pace with the fall and dropped correspondingly, while the only man who wears anything like a complacent or satisfied smile is the buyer. The record of oats for the week is $1.35 a cental on Saturday last and $1.12 to-day. There was no new wheat shown, but old wheat, both red and white, and last year's oats came in like one large funcral procession with 30 to white, and last year's cats came in like one large funeral procession with 30 to 35 bags piled up on each load. The market opened with wheat self-ing at $106 to $108 for white and $104 to $106 for red. Oats opened at $115 to $120. When there appeared to be an unlimited quantity coming in the buyers were shy and held back for a drop. They were soon buying all the cats they wanted at $112. Wheat remained firm without a sign of weakening until about 11 o'clock, when prices went down with a rush and $1 for the red variety.

The weather was all that could be desired to do marketing in. The sun shope brightly and a cool breeze from the north offered at $1.

The cabbage appears to raise its massive head where a few weeks ago the proud hydrangeahad no enemy larger than the daisy to dispute its title to first place. There was an assertment of prices to suit each purse. They could be had at 40 cents a dozen and from 5 to 10 cents cach.

If the few apples shown is suggestive of the apple crop in this section, then it indicates a decided failure. Thirty to 35 cents a peck was asked for some very mean specimens. Buyers appear to be still study.

CRICEET

There is some talk of a team of Fijian cricketers being taken to England next year. They play cricket smartly, and would probably make a better show against the home players than the Parsees. The Fijian takes kindly to cricket and to football, too, but the latter game has to be discouraged in the islands. It is just a trifle too exciting for the festive Fijian, there being too great a temptation to bring the club into play when a scrimmage is going on.

A well-contested cricket match was played between the London colts and "D" School on Saturday afternoon. The score was 96 to 48 in favor of the former.

EACK OSSE.

The association lacrosse match between the Torontos and Montrealers, played on Saturday at Montreal, was won by the Torontos, who took four genes out of five.

GUOITING.

The greatest foreign quoiting competition of the year was brought to a successful issue at Wandsworth, Eng., July 10. The contest was for the eighteen yard championship of the kingdom, a stering silver cup and gold medals donated by W. H. Richardson, the all-around sportsman. The following experts competed: George Graham, champion; Charles Graham, Hord Club; Burton Spencer, Tower; F. Buke, Hord; R. Raper, Beehive; W. M. Gowers, Braintrees, W. Kirby, Albert Vesta, and Charles Graham beat F. Huke and Burton Spencer beat R. Raper. On the first day George Graham beat F. Huke and Burton Spencer beat R. Raper. On the second day C. Graham beat W. H. Gewers and W. Kirby beat C. Ayres. In the semi-final game George Graham beat B. Spencer, while Charles Graham disposed of W. Kirby. In the final game between the Graham brothers, George easily retained his title of champion, winning by 51 to 20. His quoits weighed 21½ pounds. Charles Graham's pair weighed 19 pounds. The winner has since been challenged by Dave Bruce to play for $125 a side, but the champion is looking for more money.

THE FALL MEETING AT WINDSOR.

DETROIT, July 30.—The Windsor Driving Park meets to-morrow night to decide upon the programme for the September meeting. There will be three races each day and $6,000 will be offered in premiums. Mikado yesterday went: a mile in 2:13½, Major A: a mile in 2:20½, and a 2-year-old colt owned by Wm. McGregor and driven by John Penman repeated in better than 2:30.

LAWN TENNIS CHICAGO, July 30.—The easters champions, Hobart and Hovey, swept everything of the boards yesterday, defeating Campbell and Huntingdon for the champieship cup of 1893. The match was played before an audience of 2,000. The score was 6—3, 6—4, 6—2.

score was 6-3, 6-4, 6-4, 6-2.

IN ENGLAND.

The Ali England lawn tennis championships reached their most interesting stage on the eighth day of the tournament, July 18, when Miss Lottie Dodd appeared to defend her title against Mrs. Hillyard, who had cleverly disposed of all the other aspirants for the ladies' singles championship. Since Miss Dodd first won in 1887, the trophy has only escaped her twice. Miss Rice won it in 1890, and in 1889 it was captured by Mrs. Hillyard, Miss Dodd's challenger in the recent contest. Miss Dodd was not in her usual form in the opening set on July 18, and in the first game of the third set her chance was further imperiled by a 15, and in the lirst game of the third set her chance was further imperiled by a sovere fall. After a brief rest she was able to resume, and accomplished the extraor-dinary performance of winning the cham-pionship for the fifth time.

Capt. Wm. Hendrie, jun., Hamilton, on Saturday won the prize offered at the Chicago Exposition Highland games for the best-dressed Highlander, San Francisco to Montreal ATHLETICS.

A LONG THROW.

AUGUSTA, Ga., July 30.—A special from Macon says Larry Twitchell broke the world's record on a long throw yesterday. He threw a regulation baseball 135 yards, 2 feet and 2 inches. Hatfield, his only competitor, threw 133 yards.

A. E. Blogg and R. J. Blachford, of the Torontos; R. H. MeBride, unattached; and R. M. S. Jenkins, of the C. C. T. C., have until Sept. I in which to make good their title to above list.

SPOKES.

It takes less exertion to ride a bicycle at a moderate pace than it does to walk. At no time can this be more fully realized than on a hot day in summer.

About the worst possible thing that a rider can do to himsolf is to ride with his stomach empty. Any sort of physical exertion when hungry is very exhausting.

The League of American Wheelman has received the official papers from the National Cyclists' Union of England relating to the charges against A. A. Zimmerman. Duplicate copies have also been sent that he can dispreve all the charges made against him and does not fear suspension from the hands of the L. A. W.

Louis Strend, the crack rider of the Specdwell Club, of England, has won the 50-mile N. C. U. championship. His time was 2 houts 35 minutes 81-5 seconds. The race was run on the Paddington track. CRICKET.

Watson's $11,000-The Insurance-Ald. Taylor Loses a Barn— $300 Blaze at Mr. W. Thomas' Residence.

Shortly before midnight Saturday the firemen were aroused from their slumbers which they only resumed after six hours' hard work. A blaze had broken out at Watson's box factory on Richmond street, between Bathurst and Horton. As the buildbetween Bathurst and Horton. As the building was wooden and the material inflammable the flames made speedy headway. It was impossible to save the factory, but the splendid work of the brigade confined the fire to the premises. There was great danger of the blaze spreading, as it was surrounded by lumber piles and sheds, which might have communicated the flames to adjoining houses. Eight streams were kept comstantly playing until about 6 o'clock in the morning, when nothing remained of the factory but a few fragments of charred walls. It was 200 feet long, most of it two stories in height.

The building was owned by Mr. W. J. Craig, and his loss is estimated at $4,000. The insurance amounts to $1,500.

Craig, and his loss is estimated at $4,000. The insurance amounts to $1,500. Mr. Watson says his loss will amount to $11,000, on which there is an insurance of $2,000. His machinery was very valuable, and none of it had been in use more than a few months—only last Wednesday a new printing press was purchased at a cost of $300. It had not been used at all. All the machinery is a total wreck.

Mr. Watson had been in business there for five years and was very successful. His loss is heavy, as he had a number of large contracts on hand. A carload of boxes just ready for shipment to the Ingersell Pork Packing Company and valued at about $400 was burned.

"poleo sends his love and he hopps you wont be angry with him for breaking his arm and I am writing this after school at twelve instead of playing, Good buy."

Sara smiled, in spite of herself as she folded up the letter. But she thought it rather a wonder there had not been a few broken legs among the "6" instead of one broken arm. One minute longer and Miss Davenal would have seen it. She came into the room with her things on.

"Are you going out, aunt?" asked Sara, rising from her seat.

"You can't, "returned Miss Bettina, misapprehending the words. "You must wait at home for Mrs. Cray. I am going to match that wool."

"Is Neal going with you?"

"Id don't want Neal. Do you suppose I shall getrun away with? I have sent him out elsewhere."

Miss Bettina departed, and Sara wrote her letter to Leo. She wrote one to Dick, giving him sundry entreating warnings about ponies and such like forbidden fruit. But she had little faith, as she folded it, that it would not have much effect on daring Dick.

Srra got ready for Mrs. Cray and went down to the dining-room. She took up a book, but had not been looking at it many minutes when she saw Neal coming up and talking to a young person, whose condition in life it was rather difficult to guess. In these days of dress, it is difficult. She had a pretty face, Sara could see that, though a voil covered it; her gown was one of those called a "washing silk"—and very much "washed out" it seemed to be; and a smartshawl trailed on the ground behind. But for this trailing shawi and a sort of general untidiness, there would have been something superior about the girl. In the face she looked like a lady, and Sara had seen many a lady worse.

The Most Wonderful Gold Mine in

Only One Day's Journey From This City.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISEE:

Many of your readers are probably unaware that within a day's journey of this city there exists in this broad Dominion of Canada one of the richest mineral districts aware that within a day's journey of this city there exists in this broad Dominion of Canada one of the richest mineral districts in the world. We have been made familiar with the treasures that lie beneath the soil of the east and the far west. But it is the central portion of the Dominion to which henceforth the eyes of the prospector should turn, and I foresee for that sparsely settled tract a promising future, attractive as it is, both on account of its scenery, to the tourist, if only it possessed reads, and to the miner for its mineral wealth. Do Canadians generally know that the most wonderful gold mine of the world has been opened here? And not only so, but that in addition to the unrecountable hills of coppor, nickel silver and lead and iron known to exist and already to some extent laid open, it is chiefly a gold-hearing region? Two or three weeks ago I visited the Ophir gold mine, now exploited by an American company with a paid-up capital of $3,000,000; it lies sixteen miles to the north of the Bruce mines near Sault Ste. Marie. Mr. Snyder, at whose comfortable hotel, the Exchange, I stayed, provided me with a conveyance and himself drove me to the mine. The road is good for six miles to Rydal Bank, a pretty spot at the foot hills of the Huron range, where scenery of a semi-Alpine character commences, lake and forest, crag and rushing stream. The views are wonderfully diversified and even Canadians to establish its plant, so that the people may have the satisfaction of possessing the riches placed within their reach. Our Christian population may be sure that the love of money, i. e., the hearding of it, is the root of all evil. A little healthy speculation will do them no harm. Faithfully yours, C. H. ANDRAS.

Pat's Great Wonder.

We are surrounded by dangers all the way from the oradle to the grave. "The great wonder is," as Patsays, "that after getting out of our eradle we live long enough to reach our grave." Thousands are out of health—morose, morbid and miserable, because they do not avail themselves of the remedy within easy reach of them. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery would cure them.

For all chronic or lingering Coughs, Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Bronchitis, Shortness of Breath, Asthma and kindred ailment, it is a most potent remedy. A WOMAN WITH NERVE.

Dr. Nettie E. Jonkins Witnessed the Electrocation of Taylor.

Electrocution of Taylor.

New York, July 29.—Among the spectators of the killing of Taylor, was Dr. Nettie E. Jenkins, the first woman who has ever seen a killing by electricity. Mrs. Jenkins is the wife of Dr. James M. Jenkins, and is herself a practicing physicism, holding a diploma granted by the medical department of the Syracuse University. She is a woman of strong mental qualities and has the reputation of being an able physician. She believes in capital punishment, and after her experience adheres to the opinion that sheatfailty is the best and has the reputation of being an able physician. She believes in eaghtal punishment, and after her experience adheres to the opinion that electricity is the best method of killing criminals.

"Why," said she, "I certainly believe that it is a humane way of punishment; a painless death for criminals to die." Mrs. Jenkins was apparently less affected by the horrible botch than a score of men in the room. Mrs. Jonkins was one of the witnesses who thought the breaking of the chair leg was a part of the programme. To a reporter she said:
"I remarked to my friend, Dr. Eton of Chittenango, who sat near me, just as the current had been turned on, that the electrocution was a grand success, but that was before I realized that anything was wrong with the machinery. When the labored breathing of the victim was evident I realized that the shock was not sufficient to produce immediate death, unfortunate as it was for the victim and all who witnessed it. However, the mode was not to blame; it was only the lack of a continued current to make the electrocution the best ever held."

Mrs. Jenkins is of the opinion that Taylor was unconscious to any pain, and Taylor was unconscious to any pain, and her idea is that he was affected as though suffering from apoplexy.

A Serious Runaway Accident.

The Danish colony at Pottersburg came within an acc of being reduced by one this morning. About 10:30 Hans Mattison the foreman at the Canada Packing factory was driving a heavy load of meat from the factory to the city store. When opposite Shuff's drug store, in the East End, he turned out to pass another rig and in turned out to pass another rig and right a crash. The other wheel followed suit and the wagon lurched forward scaring the horse and causing him to run away. The animal was of heavy build and was drawing a heavy load and could not travel very fast at first. The Dane, finding he could not stop the animal, commenced to climb out. He got tangled up in the lines and landed on his back with the lower part of his body noderneath the lower part of his back with a crash. The other wheel followed suit and in the lines and landed on his back with the lower part of his body underneath the rig, which was traveling on its front axle. His legs caused an obstruction and served to stop the wagon, but not until he had been dragged several yards. Some bystanders took hold of the horse and the man was extricated. He was conscious and did not utter a cry. Dr. Gardiner assisted him into Metherall's butcher shop and examined him. His legs were badly bruised and crushed and his collar bone was broken. He may possibly have received internal injuries, as he was a very heavy man. He was conveyed to his home.
