The Pictorial History of England seems to be the very thing required by the popular taste of the present day; adding to the advantage of a clear historical narrative all the varied illustrations of which the subject is capable. These consist of appropriate wood-cuts, generally of able execution—Dresses, Arms, Industrial Employments, Sports, copied from illuminated manuscripts of the period to which they belong—views of Scenes rendered famous by Historical Events, taken from Drawings or Prints as near the period as could be obtained—ample illustrations of Architecture and Sculpture; Portraits and facsimiles—and here and there cuts from Historical Paintings.—*Edin.
