AN UNSAVORY QUESTION.—Father Hayes, a noted colored preacher in Vermont was a man of remarkably sharp wit. He was the author of Tract No. 451, "Ye shall not surely Die," which, with many of his other papers in answer to Universalists, have done great execution. A leading Universalist in the village where he lived who had often found him more than a match for him, promised to bring one of his ablest ministers to talk with him. Not long after, he brought the promised champion to Mr. Hayes' house and introduced him by taking him by the hand in his familiar manner. Mr. Hayes said, "Oh, you are the man who preaches that men may lie and steal and get drunk and commit adultery and murder and yet escape hell and go to heaven after all."

THE MORNING BIBLE.—The New England Standard has published an account of the late lady in Cherry Valley, Judge Campbell's wife. She was a Quaker, and one of the earliest preceptors of the Academy, Cherry Valley, was the actual composer of most of what is known as the Mormon Bible. He wrote it during a period of delicate health, to legitimate his name as a reformer, and also with a desire to give the public a specimen of his penmanship. The book is a translation of the Bible, and is written in a simple, plain, and unassuming style. It is a work of great merit, and is well calculated to do good in the world.

WORK OF THE REFORMERS.—A Brother of the year was passing pictures in the village of New York, which was a capital painting of the Virgin Mary. He purchased it for a fine, hoping to sell it for much. He began to look at the picture according to the process that cleaners of pictures employ. In doing so, he perceived a little fragment of the countenance of the Virgin, which he saw something far more beautiful than he had ever seen before. He was struck with the beauty of the picture, and he was determined to purchase it. He paid for it, and he took it home with him. He was very much pleased with it, and he was determined to keep it. He was very much pleased with it, and he was determined to keep it.

THE TALK MEETING.—The 24th ult. a tea meeting was held in the interior, and was attended by a large number of persons. The meeting was held in a hall, and was very much enjoyed by all who attended. NEW BRUNSWICK.—The crops throughout the Province promise an abundant yield. Although the high price of logs has drawn many away from the cultivation of the land, there was more seed put into the ground this season than any year since. Wheat prospects are exceedingly well. Hay has been under an average crop. Oats and Barley, always good in the Province, are this year even better than before. The potatoes were so severely affected this year. The corn was very much injured by the late frosts.

THE HEAD QUARTERS ON THE FISHERY QUESTION.—We never desired annexation; there is no disloyalty in our blood or education, we never desire to be separated from our friends and our country. We are to be found in our present constitution. We are to be found in our present constitution. We are to be found in our present constitution. We are to be found in our present constitution.

NEWFOUNDLAND.—The R. M. S. Merid, Corbin, came in on Saturday morning last, 3 days from Saint John, via Sydney, 21 days. Accounts from the Fisheries report tolerable success, as far as the British are concerned. The French have been very much annoyed by the late frosts, and the fish are not so numerous as they were. The weather has been very much improved, and the fish are now coming in in great numbers.

You and I

Who would share his humble fellow For the coat he wears? For the poverty he suffers? For his daily cares? Who would pass him in the doorway With averted eyes? Would you Brother? No—You would not. If you would—NOT I.

Agriculture.

- 1. All lands on which clover, or the grasses, are grown, must either have lime in them, naturally, or that mineral must be artificially supplied. 2. All permanent improvements of lands must look to lime as its basis.

Management of Domestic Affairs.

The property, happiness, and reputation of a family depend, in a very great measure on the judicious and prudent management of the household department. With economy and skill, and with a moderate expenditure, happy, and respectable, with one-half the expenses on the part of the husband that are required with the extravagance and mismanagement that prevail in some families.

Good Night.

Good night is but a little word, Yet beautiful, though brief, And falls upon the gentle heart Like dew upon the leaf.

Editing a Paper.

Many people estimate the ability of a newspaper, and the industry and talent of its editor, by the number of advertisements it contains.

Family Circle.

The following was related to the writer by a gentleman, who was himself the child of whom this story treats. My mother died before I was three months old. Almost the first thing I can remember, is my father's taking me in his arms, and telling me how dearly he loved me.

The Broken Plate.

Lucy Somers is a little girl about ten years old. A kind, good mother she has to guide her youthful steps aright; but not always a good, obedient child. Like most children, she at times disobeys and grieves her parents.

A PERSON 20 YEARS OF AGE CURED OF A RAG. A LETTER FROM Mr. Wm. Adams, of Glasgow, dated May 18th, 1851.

A DREADFUL RAG CURED IN ONE MONTH. A LETTER FROM Mr. Frederick Turner, of Newcastle, dated December 12th, 1850.

Curious Facts in Natural History.

The rattlesnake finds a superior foe in the deer and black snake. Whenever a rattlesnake is in a situation which invites attack, he loses no time in preparing for battle.

Miscellaneous.

The Seal The Owl! "Stars look out from the sea, And glow and shimmer; When all is dark and lonely, When all is dim and dreary, When all is cold and lonely, When all is dark and dreary."
