

A Kick About Coal Quality

is by no means a rare thing these times. But it is a rarity with us, because we take care to buy only the best grades of coal, as we know our customers would not buy from us any inferior qualities— not twice anyway. At it is our policy to keep our customers, we could not afford to give them any but the best coal, full weight, without dirt or rubbish and at a reasonable price.

KELLETT'S OFFERTOT ACCEPTED

Grand Valley Bondholders Met Today in Toronto.

Stockdale Says He is Anxious to Close Matter Up.

[From Our Own Correspondent]

TORONTO, Feb. 4.—There was an attendance of some twenty bondholders at the meeting of the Grand Valley held at noon to-day in the offices of Trust & Guarantee.

At 10 o'clock the special committee appointed at last meeting to consider the Kellett and other offers for the road met. Mr. Worrall, chairman of the committee, stated that the Kellett offer had been considered, but it was thought inadvisable to disclose the figures, as another offer was expected this week from responsible parties.

J. A. Patterson, K.C., representing bondholders of the Brantford Street Railway, stated that unless something definite was done at once on behalf of his clients he intended to institute foreclosure proceedings, as the interest the last six months had not been paid. He also objected to the receiver of the road having been paid $11,000 commission for administering the road during the past year or so.

Dr. Addison of St. George complained of the delay in prosecuting the suit against the directors of the road which was instituted last August. Mr. Worrall stated everything possible was being done, but that the directors were scattered all over the country, and difficulty was being experienced in serving the writs.

Mr. Vickers, who gave notice of motion at the last meeting that he would move that the first and second bondholders share alike in the distribution of any profits stated that he wished in the meantime to withdraw the motion.

Mr. Wallace of Woodstock, moved the adjournment of the meeting to Wednesday, Feb. 11th with the distinct understanding that at this meeting something definite should be arrived at in regard to the disposal of the road.

Mr. Stockdale thought at the Feb. 11th meeting he could promise bondholders that definite steps would be taken to close up one of the offers for the road. He was as anxious as the bondholders to get affairs cleaned up satisfactorily.

Brantford bondholders were represented by W. R. Turnbull, G. F. Muirhead and R. H. Reville. It is generally thought that at next week's meeting final action of the road and its assets will be arrived at as bondholders are getting very impatient over so many adjournments. Mr. Stockdale stated that if it had not been for the troublesome litigation by the City of Brantford a good sale of the road could have been made months ago.

Frightful Death Of Que. Farmer

His Head Was Caught by a Long Protruding Nail in Shed.

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

ST. HYACINTHE, Que., Feb. 4.—Maurice Bernard, 58 years old, a farmer of St. Dominique, six miles from here, is dead as the result of an accident which befel him when taking out a horse from an old shed. His horse got frightened, made a quick start and while coming through the door Mr. Bernard failed to bend his head. There was a large spike nail sticking out from the top of the door. This penetrated his eye and came out the back of his head. His son was so excited over the horses running away that he did not notice his father until the horses were caught. Then returning to the shed, found his father hanging by the nail. With the assistance of two men Mr. Bernard was released from his trap, but he lived only twenty minutes.

Spring Arrives In Old Land

[By Special Wire to The Courier] NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—A London cable to the Herald says: Delightful springlike conditions again prevailed in London yesterday and for a considerable period the sun beamed with a warmth usually associated with May. Nurseries were deserted and the parks were crowded with children, who romped about their hearts' content. The early arrival of spring has caught the milliners, the costumers and the tailors napping.

A THUNDERBOLT TO HIS FRIENDS

Former Member of Soulanges Was Regarded as Man of Highest Character.

OTTAWA, Feb. 4.—In the sordid mire of the revelations at Quebec the portrait figure of Joseph Octave Mousseau becomes the more tragic as one learns of his history, habits and personality. Those here who know best do not question for a moment the testimony of Dr. A. De Martigny respecting the physical and mental condition of the former member for Soulanges.

"One cannot wonder at Mousseau's condition," said a prominent member of Parliament to-day, who had just returned from the city of Quebec, "when he recalls the brilliant career which lay before him, and which has been forever blasted by the disclosures at Quebec. Unless you knew the height from which he fell you could not appreciate the depth of the abyss into which he has fallen."

Held in High Regard.

The unfortunate deputy whose corruption seems to be only too well established is described as a man of courtly manners and commanding presence, who had achieved an honorable position in the practice of his profession, and as a public man had been held in high regard by the representative French-Canadians. There was nothing about him to suggest high living, extravagance or dissipation. On the contrary, he is described as studious and reserved, devoted to his family, free from evil habits and associates, and anticipated for a brilliant career. He had, to start with, a distinguished name and honorable family, remarkable gifts as an orator and great personal popularity in his native county of Soulanges, and indeed throughout the Province of Quebec.

Of Conservative Stock

"First, as to the family Mousseau; Hon. J. A. Mousseau entered the cabinet of Sir J. Macdonald as secretary of state after the great Conservative victory of 1878. When Sir Adolphe Chapleau entered the cabinet, Hon. Mr. Mousseau became prime minister of Quebec. His brother, Dr. J. Mousseau, came to the Dominion parliament from Soulanges in 1891, and although of conservative stock, was elected as an independent. He soon came under the spell of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and eventually became an enthusiastic Liberal.

Goes To Asylum German Who Wrought Terrible Havoc September 5 Last

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

HEILBRONN, Germany, Feb. 4.—A sentence of confinement for life in an asylum for the criminal insane, was pronounced by the assize court here to-day on a school teacher named Wagner, who on September 5 last year, after setting fire to the village of Muehlhausen, Wuerttemberg, murdered his wife and four children and afterwards shot dead ten villagers, dangerous wounding nine and slightly wounding seven others. The court found that Wagner was irresponsible when he committed the crimes as he was suffering from the mania of persecution.

ICE THIN THIS YEAR.

FORT WILLIAM, Ont., Feb. 4.—For the first time this winter the different ice dealers in this city commenced cutting the Thunder Bay ice this morning. The ice at the present time is only twelve inches in thickness, while last year at the same time it measured twenty-two. Ice-cutting equipment valued at $500 was lost last week when one of the dealers took a gang of men out and commenced harvesting preparations. The ice field upon which the men were working was blown off from the main floe by a strong of shore wind and although the crew and horses reached shore in safety, all the tools and a new tool house were lost.

ARSON SQUADS IN GLASGOW AGAIN

One Castle Was Partially Destroyed and a Mansion Suffers.

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

GLASGOW, Feb. 4.—Very destructive fires, believed by the police authorities to have been the work of "arson squads" of militant suffragettes caused considerable damage to-day in the neighborhood of the Perthshire village of Comrie, famous for its Druidical and Roman ruins. The first outbreak was discovered in a drawing room of Aberchill Castle. The domestics were awakened by the thick smoke and hot flames and rapidly extinguished the fire, but not before a number of valuable pictures and some ancient furniture had been damaged beyond repair.

Shortly afterward another mansion named the House of Ross, which was temporarily unoccupied, was found to be on fire. The flames had secured a strong hold before they were discovered and the house which had been erected only a few days, was consumed with all its contents.

Traces found in the vicinity of Aberchill castle, indicated that the fires were the work of suffragettes. A third case of arson occurred in Perthshire later in the day when Saint Fillans, a fine mansion, was gutted. It was the property of Stirling Boyd, whose wife was formerly president and is now vice-president of the Anti-suffrage League of Edinburgh. A sheet of paper was found in the grounds inscribed: "A warm welcome to Lloyd-George," the reference being to his arrival in Scotland to make a speech here.

DETECTIVES WILL NOT BE ARRESTED

That is According to the Decision of Judge Charbonneau Today.

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

MONTREAL, Feb. 4.—Justice Charbonneau this morning refused a writ of mandamus to compel the issuing of warrants for the arrest of the Burns detectives concerned in the bribery charges at Quebec. The decision was handed out by the judge after the case had been referred to him by the chief justice.

The attempt to obtain the mandamus was made by Tancred Marcil. Mr. Marcil's application for the writ was first made Saturday and was granted by Judge Lacombe, who later withdrew the warrants after taking into consideration the immunity granted to the detectives by the legislature. According to a statement made by Mr. Marcil, he was referred to Judge Charbonneau by the chief justice, after the latter had stated in his opinion that the legislature had no power to over-ride the provisions of the criminal code. Beaudin had previously suspended judgment on application for the mandamus. Judge Charbonneau heard the application on Tuesday morning and took the case in deliberation, announcing his decision shortly after noon to-day.

Mr. Marcil stated that he was acting in his capacity as a private citizen. "Do you think if a Canadian detective were to go to New York and attempt to bribe a legislator, that he would be granted immunity for his actions?" said Mr. Marcil.

Liberal Member Dead At Winnipeg

Representative of Minnedosa Passes Away Suddenly.

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

WINNIPEG, Feb. 4.—John W. Thompson, Liberal M.P.P. for Minnedosa, died in the general hospital early this morning of pneumonia. Mr. Thompson, who was a real old-time westerner, complained last Thursday during the session of the Legislature of feeling unwell. On Friday his condition became alarming, and he was removed to the hospital, where death occurred.

Mr. Thompson was born near Ravenswood, Lambton county, in Ontario, in 1858, and came west in 1878, eventually going on a homestead at Minnedosa. He was homesteaded in 1897 until 1910, when he was elected to the Legislature.

HOUSE CHEERS HON. HAZEN'S POLICY

Build Ships in Canada is Declaration of Minister of Marine.

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

OTTAWA, Feb. 4.—A question by an opposition member elicited from Hon. J. D. Hazen a declaration of his policy in providing ships for the Marine and Fisheries Department which evoked applause from members on both sides of the House yesterday. Mr. Hazen said that since he had taken office not a dollar had gone out of Canada for the construction of ships for his department, save to pay bills incurred under certain contracts made before the change of Government. "My policy," he said, "is that for all vessels required the tenders should specify that they must be built in Canada."

Mr. MacLean of Halifax endeavored to make capital by insinuating that political partisanship prevailed in the purchase of supplies for Government steamers. He was much chagrined when Mr. German, the Liberal member for Welland, having obtained the information that the purchasing system and officer were the same as in Liberal days, remarked that he failed to see how the system could be right under one Government, and wrong under another.

Mr. Libers then fell back upon the story that the steamer cutter Alert had carried several politicians from North Sydney, N.B., to Victoria, N.S. Hon. Charles Murphy told of a mysterious yacht which had appeared at Valleyfield, Que., after the Chateaugay bye-election and had disappeared in the Prescott shippary. He did not explain the connection between the vessel and the bye-election. The estimates of the Marine and Fisheries, Customs and Railway Departments were under consideration during the greater part of the day.

Wants Forms Printed in French.

When the House went into Committee of Supply, Hon. Dr. Reid was asked by Hon. Rodolphe Lenioux to have the forms sent abroad by the department printed in French as well as in English. Mr. Lenioux said that some French exporters had not been able to understand the English forms and that the French language should be used as well as the English. Hon. J. D. Reid said that it had never been customary to print such forms in any language but English. If they were printed in French they would have to be printed in German, Russian and other tongues. However he promised to consider the subject.

NO PASSPORTS FROM HUERTA GIVEN

As a Result of President Wilson's Move Against Mexico.

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 4.—President Wilson's determination to give both factions in Mexico liberty to obtain war material from the United States, will not cause President Huerta to deliver to the American charge d'affaires his passports; nor will it affect in any way his attitude towards the United States or towards Americans in Mexico. This assurance was given by General Huerta last night.

The Mexican president made practically no other comment on the action of President Wilson, and he appeared to attach small importance to the affair. Charge O'Shaughnessy called on President Huerta late last night, but the question of lifting the embargo on arms was mentioned only incidentally and briefly, according to Mr. O'Shaughnessy. They were together half an hour, and President Huerta reiterated to the charge that President Wilson's revocation of the proclamation of 1912 would not cause him to adopt retaliatory measures. He assured Mr. O'Shaughnessy that he has in the capital a sufficient number of troops to suppress any anti-American demonstration that might be begun.

Sweeping Concessions In The Home Rule Bill

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

GLASGOW, Feb. 4.—Concessions of the most sweeping description are to be made to Ulster in connection with the introduction of Home Rule in Ireland by the course of a statement to be made by Premier Asquith on the reassembling of Parliament, according to to-day's Glasgow Herald. The concessions, says the newspaper, are to cover practically everything short of the exclusion of Ulster from the provisions of the Home Rule measures. The announcement made by the Herald is regarded in political circles as particularly significant, since it coincides with the arrival in Glasgow of David Lloyd George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, to speak on the land question.

Registrar Tisdale, Norfolk Co., Dies Suddenly of Pneumonia

Son of Former Minister of Militia and Well Known Throughout Dominion.

SIMCOE, Feb. 4.—Wm. Edgth Tisdale, K.C., registrar of Norfolk County, died here yesterday of pneumonia. He was in his fifth year and is survived by a wife, mother, two children, one brother and two sisters. The late Mr. Tisdale was a son of the late Colonel Tisdale former Canadian minister of militia. He was born in Simcoe in 1864 and educated for the law, graduating in 1888. He practised his profession here for several years. Mr. Tisdale was well known throughout the Dominion, having been for several years Conservative organizer. He took an active interest in the affairs of Simcoe, serving five years as alderman and two as mayor, 1906 and 1907. The funeral will be held on Thursday at 2.30 o'clock. The late Mr. Tisdale was well known in Brantford. He was a cousin of Mr. W. F. Tisdale of the post office staff.

It May Be The L. E. & N. (?)

[By Special Wire to The Courier] MONTREAL, Feb. 4.—A cable from London to the Gazette says: The Financial Times states that the rumor is again very insistent with regard to the alleged intended absorption of the Canadian Northern Railway by the Canadian Pacific. The revival of this rumor is accompanied by the suggestion that still another Canadian railway may be included in the deal.

CAN BUILD UP A NEW FACE

Young Canadian in Baltimore Undergoes a Remarkable Operation.

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 4.—With a part of his forehead substituting for new lips, Ross Allen, a young Canadian, at a hospital here, seems to be in a favorable way to have have practically the whole of his face newly shaped.

Allen entered the hospital about two months ago with his face disfigured from an accident in a saw mill five years previously. His nose and lips were missing. A section of flesh shaped to the form of his lower lip was cut on his forehead in December and a grafting operation made with the lip base. The arm was bound about the head until the grafting was complete. This consumed about two weeks when sufficient adherence had taken place, the lip section was severed from the arm and the lip shaped.

The same procedure was followed in the upper lip treatment, section of the arm flesh being grafted across the upper gum and the arm strapped to Allen's head and shoulders until this section, too, had taken hold.

When Allen accumulates sufficient strength for another operation, the surgeons will try to build him a new nose. It is planned to cut away a piece of healthy cartilage from one of the ribs at the junction with the breast bone, shape it to the form of a nose with the nostril openings and insert it in place of the missing organ. The skin, which will have been previously split for the insertion of the substitute nose, is then to be drawn over the bone and healing awaited.

It is expected that the cartilage will adhere to the facial bones and in time become an integral part of the skull structure. Several months will be needed to complete the operation.

Students Become Real Politicians

At Toronto University, and Feature is Viewed With Alarm.

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

TORONTO, Feb. 4.—The introduction of political elements into Toronto University is viewed by some of the friends of the institution with something like alarm. A printed circular, unsigned, is being distributed among the students, and reads:

"1. All instruction in the schools should be in English, except that the present regulations should be continued in force for a reasonable time.
2. All teachers should be required to show a satisfactory knowledge of English before being allowed to teach.
3. Public school teachers in districts in which another language is spoken should be those whose mother tongue is English."

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

MONTREAL, Feb. 4.—At the 10th annual convention of the Knights of Pythias Grand Lodge of Quebec, last evening the proposed reduction in the entry age from 21 to 18 was favored. The various lodges throughout the continent are voting on this question and a final decision will be reached at the annual convention of the supreme lodge at Winnipeg in August. Members of the order attended the Grand Lodge for the first time, the first branch of this rank having been formed in March last.

WESTERN HOCKEY.

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., Feb. 4.—Vancouver's championship aspirations received a further setback when the Westminster team went into the lead last night, winning by a score of 8 to 2. Vancouver's were never in the running, being completely outplayed by the former champions. Vancouver lacked aggressiveness and Parr in goal had an off night.

QUEBEC'S PROBE DE GRAFTING

Evidence of Detectives is Again Submitted Before Legislature.

Says Dicta-phones Used Always Tells Story Accurately.

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

QUEBEC, Feb. 4.—After being successful in getting called to the witness stand, L. P. Berard, one of the three legislators accused by the Montreal Daily Mail of accepting bribes in connection with the passing of the Montreal fair association bill, L. T. Marchal, counsel for the Mail was compelled this morning to face a determined attempt by Aime Geofrion, K.C., counsel for Mr. Berard, to prevent his being compelled by the legislative committee of inquiry from answering certain questions. The committee received the application that Mr. Berard be called as a witness from Mr. Marchal last night this morning decided to ignore the objections of the legislative council's lawyers.

Mr. Berard had not been on the stand a minute, however, before questions about graft were asked him and he refused to answer on the ground that he might incriminate himself.

Long arguments took place as to whether the witness could be compelled to answer and ultimately it was decided to excuse Mr. Berard for a while and not decide the question until the other witnesses had been heard.

The witnesses present included Gny B. Biddinger, the Burns detective, who with S. C. Maloney heard last night, invented the trap into which the legislators have been accused of falling.

C. F. Keys, stenographer for the Burns detective agency employed on the case, described the dictaphone with conversations between Mr. Sampson, Mr. Hyland and Mr. Mousseau were heard. He swore that he had never doubted the accuracy of evidence received in this way. Mr. Keys then gave reports of interviews he overheard not mentioned by Edward Beck in his evidence. The first took place in room 366 at the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec, on December 3, between Mr. Mousseau and Mr. Biddinger, the latter being known as "Hyland." Mr. Mousseau said that he could select four or five good men on the majority side of the house and one or two on the other side to rush the bill through. He said Mr. Berard would be useful in the upper house, as he was a friend of the premier and would never have been appointed had it not been for this friendship. Mr. Mousseau said all the men in Quebec were off the Government.

Mr. Biddinger then gave Mr. Mousseau $500. Mr. Mousseau acknowledged receiving $500 from Mr. Sampson or Maloney. Mr. Mousseau promised to distribute the money.

At the outset this morning L. T. Marchal formally offered to operate the dictagraph for the benefit of the legislative committee enquiring in the Montreal Daily Mail graft charges. Hon. L. A. Taschereau, chairman of the committee, said his conferees and himself would be glad to see the instrument demonstrated.

A New Airship Proves A Success

It Carried an Aggregate Weight of Over a Ton up 5,000 Feet.

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

PARIS, Feb. 4.—Paul Schmitt, an engineer, has succeeded in constructing an aeroplane with extraordinary lifting capacity and which he claims will revolutionize long distance tours and also make an aerial omnibus service feasible. In a trial of the machine, with seven men aboard and carrying an aggregate weight of a ton and a half, the new air craft rose to a height of about 5,000 feet in half an hour. Among the devices on the aeroplane is one by which its speed can be regulated at will from 75 to 26 miles a hour. An ingenious arrangement of the wings permits the new machine to rise without the customary violent manipulation of the elevating planes.

Evening Of Plays at Y.W.C.A. Proved Very Entertaining Event

A galaxy of local amateur theatrical talent was presented at the Y.W.C.A. last night to a very large audience, when the Literary Club presented their annual entertainment in the form of an "Evening of Plays." The programme consisted of two sketches; The Flower of Yeddo, by Victor Maples, and The teeth of a Gift Horse, by Margaret Cameron, illustrating forcibly the old adage. The first sketch carried the audience away to Japan in the far East, where Kami (Mr. H. K. Jordan) sits in the garden of Yeddo and pens poems of "length and much less rhythm to his adored, Sainara (Miss Raymond) who is a capricious, but not insincere maiden. She, with the aid of her friends Sazhema (Miss Reding) and Djouris (Miss S. Jones) put his love to the test, which she survives and all ends happily amid a Japanese dance, Misses Wilkes and Westbrook being the dancers. The subtle mysterious air of the Orient was imparted by the excellence of the stage settings, the clever work of Miss Cora Gould, who has worked zealously for the benefit of the club. The difficult role of Sainara was very capably taken by Miss Raymond, while Miss Reding sustained in excellent manner the part of Sazhema, who tempts Kami with her charms but finds no response. Miss M. Sweet, who undertook the part of Fan-Fan, a well wishing friend of the two lovers, sang in excellent voice. Miss S. Jones, impersonated a warrior bold of high degree, who causes the unfortunate lover to give up in despair his struggle for dear life. Further trials come to Kami who is asked by his beloved to sacrifice his all for the benefit of an uncle, whom he hated. She finally decides that he has stood the test and takes him to her heart. Meanwhile Japanese dancers perform graceful evolutions customary to the occasion. As the sorely-tried Kami, Mr. Henri K. Jordan, was unimpeachable. His quaint Oriental mannerisms, his flurried mien at the advances of the disguised Sazhema, and his philosophic attitude, in the face of approaching death, were masterful expositions of the character traits of the man they were intended to represent. Mr. Jordan and the ladies of the sketch deserve every credit for the success of their playlet. Changing the scene to the West, we find ourselves looking upon a modern drawing room scene. Within the room Flo (Mrs. Butler) (Miss E. Buck) and her friend Annie Fisher (Miss Van Norman) are very much concerned over the return of two vases, which had been presented years before to Mr. Butler (Mr. A. Dunstan) by an aunt, an ancient maid who was coming on a visit. The vases, which had been hand painted by the aunt, had been sent to a rummage sale and their return was doubtful, although for obvious reasons, the gaudy articles were necessary for future beneficiaries. After a series of unfortunate circumstances which created many humorous situations, the matter is cleared up and husband and wife eventually satisfy their aunt that she has been a very ungrateful dame. Upon Miss E. Buck, as the wife, Flo Butler, falls the heaviest role, and she came through with flying colors. Her acting was natural, and she was evidently at home on the boards. Miss L. Parke, as Mareta Williams, the aunt in question, was an ideal old maid, and but for the fact that her voice is young and plaintive, her age would have been a matter of conjecture. Anne Fisher, the obliging friend of the case, was in the capable hands of Miss Van Norman, and her ability was again demonstrated. As a character study of a servant girl, Miss N. Tomlinson was perfect, and she enhanced the comedy greatly with her presentation of the girl of all work. Mr. Dunstan, in the role of Dick Butler, and Mr. J. Towers, as Delvin Black, both added to the success of the entertainment, the way in which they manage to fumble upon and spoil the machinations of Mrs. Butler, was fine acting, and their mistakes were provocative of wide spread merriment. The comedy was an immediate success, and the large assemblage dispersed well pleased with the net result of the Evening of Plays. Many bouquets were showered upon the ladies of the amateur company; tributes to sterling merit. Enthused by the success of their efforts, the Literary Club will present a modern play at the Y.W.C.A. during the month of March.

Very Sad Death Mrs. Gibson Passes Away In City of Toronto—A Popular Lady

It is with deep regret that the Courier records the death of Mrs. Gibson, beloved wife of Capt. David Gibson. The blow comes all the more suddenly to her family, and many friends, because she had all her life been possessed of splendid health and vitality, and was perfectly well when a week ago she left on a visit to her sister, Mrs. (Dr.) Williams, of Barton Avenue, Toronto. On Thursday night she was taken ill with pleurisy, and this developed into pneumonia, to which she succumbed last night. Her husband was just in time to arrive at the bedside shortly before she fell asleep. She was a daughter of Mr. W. Livingston of Tilsonburg, and came to this city as a bride some years ago. Her charming and thoughtful manner to others, made her from the very first most popular, and her bright presence was always most welcome in a variety of circles. Golf constituted her most active diversion. She was captain of the lady players, and one of the exemplars of the game in this portion of the province. Despite her active household duties, she also found time for many kindly deeds to others. A fond wife and true mother, she presided over one of the happiest of domestic circles. There are many sad hearts to-day because of her demise, and many tender thoughts for the bereaved husband and six daughters. Other members of her family are her father, two sisters, Mrs. Torrance, Tilsonburg, and Mrs. Williams, Toronto, and two brothers, Judge Livingston of Welland, and Douglas Livingston of Winnipeg. The national subscription for the French aerial war fleet amounts to $1,300,000.

members of the men's bible class met together for a social time.

The chair was taken by Mr. L. E. Kingery, teacher of the class, and the programme opened up with the singing of the hymn Fight the good Fight.

The Rev. Jenkins, rector of St. Jude's, was the distinguished guest of the evening, it being his first visit to his neighboring church. It will not be his last, judging by the enthusiasm by which his address was received. Taking for his subject "Character Building," he likened a business in this way, either a success or a failure. He said you could go up the street and see business a success or failure. Much more so you could see around you these people engaged in character building, a success or a failure. Men of a class like that before him should be a success and to the extent of their success would be the upbuilding of this church. He urged his audience to rally around the old church and back up the leaders of their class.

The Rev. E. W. Latimer followed with a few remarks on the class organization and membership. He explained that run in a business like way its objects were to deal with the moral and social way and questions of the day from the biblical standpoint. That library of books in one volume being now as ever the foundation of sound judgement. The rector warmly eulogised the work of the president of the class and his teacher and officers, and urged all the members to boost it and for one hour on Sunday to come together for the object named above.

The rest of the evening was spent in social intercourse, and at the right time a curtain pulled back revealed necessities for bodily refreshment in the shape of dainty refreshments, which were ably served by the class officials.
In a musical programme, Mr. Pete Fisher contributed a splendid violin solo, and Mr. Robert Lamb, as a "wee brae Scott" gave some good Gaelic songs, in which the chorus section was heartily taken up by the audience. At 10.15 sharp the evening came to a close with Auld Lang Syne. The energetic officers of this work are: Mr. L. E. Kingery, teacher; Mr. Edwin Preston, president; Mr. Geo. Smith, secretary. Mr. Fred I. Heath, treasurer, and the class is held on Sundays at 3 to 4 p.m.

The usual vote of thanks were most heartily given, and an extraordinary enthusiasm prevailed which augurs well for Trinity, as a live church.
Chubb and Sons have leased a store in the new Royal Bank building now being erected in Toronto, a total of 84 square feet, for $15,000 a year.

The Late Mrs. Kirkby.
The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Kirkby took place yesterday at Salt Springs cemetery from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. W. Yates, 75 Superior street. The cortege was followed by a large number of sorrowing friends who brought many tokens of flowers in memory of the deceased. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Hartree and Mr. C. J. Watt, assisted by the Rev. J. J. Liddy. The pallbearers were H. Luck, Frank Miller, L. Durham, C. Birkett, A. Glass and G. Yates. Among the many floral tributes were: Pillow, Mother and family; sprays, Mr. J. C. Watt, Mrs. A. Prowse and daughter, Mrs. T. Potts and daughter, Mrs. Dockerville, Mr. and Mrs. C. Kirkby.

SILVER ORE FOUND.

FORT WILLIAM, Feb. 4.—Silver ore assaying 80 to the ton were brought into the city on Monday which were said to have been taken from a six foot vein located about six miles from the city, near the site of the old Beaver mine, which disclosed several million dollars worth of silver in the old mining days of this district. Big development is promised on the property early in the spring.

Women's Institute

The December meeting was held at the home of the President, Mrs. W. L. Bayless, North Park street. The annual report of the convention held in Toronto was given by Mrs. Bayless. Solo by Mrs. Pryce, Mrs. J. J. Hurley, a visitor, being present, gave a few encouraging remarks. Flowers were voted for the sick, after which the members were invited to the dining room where dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Grandview Terrace Hill held their January meeting at the home of Mrs. E. Alderson, North Park street. A goodly number responded to the roll call. After the usual business, a reading by Mrs. Bayless on the magnetism of personality, followed by a paper on food adulteration and wisdom in shopping, by Mrs. Pryce. This paper showed much careful study. Exchange of patterns and flowers were voted for sick members, after which a social time was spent, the hostess serving tea. This was one of the best meetings we have had. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Savage, 147 Terrace Hill St. on Feb. 18th.

The Hydro

(With apologies to Walt Mason)
Go shout the glad tidings, for the Hydro has come. It is joy to most people, but an eyecore to some. But, of course, some will kick if just for the name. If they were to be hanged, they would kick just the same. They growl and they grumble. They say that light will cost more when they measure your house and space off the floor, but if they will wait they will see it's all rot, for it will be half per a kilowatt. Then look at the light, with its glittering rays. Wherever you go it's as bright as the day. And not only that, for we own the plant. If a monopolist makes money, don't see why we can't. Now let us join hands and all pull the one way. It may not be long before we have the street railway. For we have the power to make the cars go like an old sailing ship. Just stand on Market street corner. You will hear people say: "I've waited ever so long, and there is no car gone either way." And the company will only laugh to hear those people talk, and say: "If you don't like to wait, then you had better gorged several million dollars worth of silver in the old mining days of this district. Big development is promised on the property early in the spring." GEO. HAWN.

DEBATERS MET LAST NIGHT

The regular weekly meeting of the Farringdon Debating Society was held last evening in the Public Library and after the reading of the minutes of the previous week, the meeting was resolved into parliamentary form.

The Government of the day, under the leadership of Prime Minister Gordon Coakshott had decided that the time had come for a complete revision of the laws of this Province, respecting Workmen's Compensation for injuries received, and accordingly introduced the Meredith Workmen's Compensation Bill, which is a Bill to provide for compensation to workmen for injuries contracted in the course of their employment.

The Bill was introduced by Mr. Stanley Buck of the Government, who was ably supported by the Government members. The opposition, however, attacked the Bill, pointing out that it favoured the workmen far too great an extent. Notwithstanding the attacks of the Opposition, however the Bill passed with a substantial majority.

WELLAND TEMPERANCE MEN DISCUSS DEFEAT OF THE ACT

—BRIBERY IS ALLEGED—

Another Election Cannot be Held in the County Until After the Elapse of Three Years—Funds to Sift Bridgeburg Polling Booth Incident.

WELLAND, Ont., Feb. 4.—Nearly five hundred highly indignant temperance workers from every part of the county flocked yesterday afternoon to discuss the defeat of the Canada Temperance Act by the last minute charge of bribery in the Bridgeburg, the deputy returning officer, whose sworn statement in a change from a temperance majority of 17 to an adverse majority of 6, and who is now out on $3,000 bail to appear in court on Thursday to answer a charge of handing in a false return. The temperance people claim that they have been robbed a victory by the returns submitted by Coulthurst, and to a man they agreed to stand behind their executive in whatever action was taken to prosecute the offenders, and it was decided to continue the battle to the last ditch. The necessary funds were guaranteed. Whether a recount would be demanded or a protest entered was left to the executive.

The best legal advice obtainable will be secured by the executive before taking action. This evening it was agreed that another meeting should be called before proceedings are launched. Another election was discussed should the irregularities be found of sufficient extent to render the voting last Thursday invalid, a motion was made that the executive should win without resorting to this, as three years must elapse before another contest can be brought on. The speakers at the meeting were C. E. Steele, of Port Colborne, Dr. Colebeck, O. G. Harner and L. B. Duff, of Welland, and Garrett O'Connor of Bridgeburg.

No Confidence in the Recount.

"A great injustice and a great crime have been committed, but fortunately we have the goods on them this time," said Mr. Steele. "The people are disgusted with the trickery of the liquor interests, and a

CHURCH DESTROYED

ALVINSTON, Ont., Feb. 3.—The beautiful edifice, Guthrie Presbyterian Church, of this place, was completely destroyed by fire yesterday morning. The fire was discovered first by Dr. J. B. Martyn, who had been out all night and was just returning, but it had gained such headway that it was impossible to save anything. The firemen did excellent work.

LORD DERBY'S CHALLENGE

MONTREAL, Feb. 2.—A London cable to the Montreal Daily Mail says: Lord Derby, in a speech at Liverpool last night, commented on a statement by Baron de Forest that his (Lord Derby's) Bootle estate produces an income of £200,000 a year and has a capital value of from three to four million pounds. In reply Lord Derby said that if Baron de Forest will put down in cash £1,500,000 he can have the estates in question. "That's a square offer," said Lord Derby.

WESTERN OIL BOOM.

MOOSEJAW, Sask., Feb. 3.—Moosejaw is in the grip of an oil boom. At the Dominion land office here the oil rights of over thirty thousand acres adjoining the city limits have been taken out by citizens. This follows the discovery of oil at a well the city had sunk near the C. P. R. tracks. For these rights applicants have paid $7,520 or 24 cents an acre for the first year's lease.

SHE MAY RECOVER.

ST. CATHARINES, Ont. Feb. 3.—Mrs. George Vanlack, who came here recently from British Columbia, with her husband and two children, swallowed carbonic acid during the night and woke her husband and told him what she had done. She gave as a reason, that their little savings were dwindling and if she was out of the way there would be more left for the children. The woman was rushed to the hospital and may recover.

HOPPE DEFEATS SUTTON.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Willie Hoppe the 18.2 balk line billiard champion, playing in championship form, successfully defended his title against George Sutton, of Chicago here last night, winning by a score of 500 to 226 in 17 innings.

The United States, it is said, desires to withdraw from the International Joint Waterways Commission

Encourage House-Owning!

From time to time there have appeared articles in the daily papers advocating the organization of a company for the construction of homes for working men. So far as Brantford is concerned, the S. G. Read agency has supplied 75 homes within the last few years to working men from their own capital, and hundreds of other houses have been sold through the same agency and the agreements of purchase carried by private friends and clients of this agency. About 8 years ago this agency became a limited liability company, principally for the purpose of furnishing homes to those who required to purchase on the easy-payment plan, and our business has grown year by year, until we now have no many applications for homes that we find it necessary to offer some thirty or forty thousand dollars' worth of our Preferred Shares to the general public. These shares are $100 each, par value, and pay 6 per cent. per annum, regularly, dividends payable half-yearly. The present shareholders, who have been in our Company since its inception, would not sell their shares for $180, because of the splendid security they offer. The Company desires to continue to be able to sell their properties on payments to bear interest at no greater rate to the purchasers than six per cent. per annum. Therefore, we can appeal to all classes of people who have money to invest, who desire to see our working men with comfortable homes without being oppressed by high rates of interest, to assist us in this good work by securing some of our shares with a guaranteed dividend of six per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly.

We also offer first-class industrial stocks, good dividend payers. For further information regarding the above securities, call at our office. MILK ROUTE WANTED—We want to buy immediately a good milk route. Hundreds of houses and garden properties and farms for sale.

WINTER IN ALGON-QUIN PARK.

Hundreds of Canadians and our cousins across the border have been enjoying the pleasures offered by Algonquin Provincial (Ontario) Park during the past two months. The Highland Inn, the Grand Trunk Hotel in this wonderful territory has been the scene of jolly crowds from all parts of the continent. In the past a southern trip seemed to be the best and to seek for heat where the cold proved unendurable, but more recently there has been a keen appreciation of the dry rigidity of the north, and Algonquin Park is becoming more popular every winter for those who desire rest and recreation. The territory is 2,000 feet above sea level and the air is always dry and cold and the days usually bright. Write any Grand Trunk agent or to the Resident Manager of the Highland Inn, Algonquin Park Station, Ontario, for handsome descriptive booklet.

Man Without Socks

The Glasgow police are following a clue in connection with the mysterious death of a woman who was found dead in a dark lane. A man who is said to have been seen near the scene of the tragedy speaks with an Irish accent, is about fifty years of age, 5ft. 7in. in height, with square shoulders and brown moustache mixed with grey. He is said to have been wearing a brown suit but no socks.

At John's A.Y.P.A.

Monday evening a most enjoyable time was spent in St. John's school room, when St. John's A. Y. P. A. entertained the society of St. James parish. Rev. H. Wright and Rural Dean Saunders addressed the meeting. A programme of songs, recitations, etc., were rendered. Refreshments were served and a feeling of good fellowship prevailed.

Evangelistic Services.

There was a large attendance at the Calgary Baptist church last night. Rev. Dugal Brown was the speaker. His subjects were repentance, belief and conversion, and the address was heart-searching. St. Andrews Guild.

The young people of St. Andrew's Church held their usual weekly meeting Monday evening with Mr. Will Johnson presiding. After the opening exercises and all business transacting, the subject was then thrown open for discussion. Messrs. A. Wallace, H. Banner and W. Johnson favored the audience with a vocal number. Mr. Thos. Chamberlain gave a short address and Mr. Anderson sang "Bearing His Cross." The evening closed in the usual way. An invitation has been accepted to join with Paris Presbyterian Young People on February 23rd.

The chief would be pleased to show the notice to any person interested therein, at his office in the court house buildings.

PARIS TRUSTEES MET LAST NIGHT

Teachers Asked for Increase in Salary But Request is Refused.

PARIS, Feb. 4.—The Board of Education held its regular meeting last night in the Central School. The room formerly called the "Board Room" has been converted into a class room and the meeting was held in Principal Dickson's room. Those present were Chairman Whitby and Messrs. Hilborn, Haire, Martin, Dunton, Teller, Munn, Inksater and Barker.

Principal Dickson's report showed a membership roll for the public school of 218 with an average attendance of 84 per cent, or 431 pupils. The average paid in towns of this size such as Simcoe, Ingersoll, Strathroy, etc. They recommended that no increase be granted. In discussing the question it was remarked that a number of the teachers were paid more than they were worth, but if any teacher made an individual request for an increase it would be considered on its merits.

On motion of Messrs. Munn and Martin, the report was referred to the Buildings and Grounds committee with instructions to have the nuisance abated.

The management committee brought in their report re the request of the lady teachers for an increase in salary. The salary paid in Paris was $550 and this was above the average paid in towns of this size such as Simcoe, Ingersoll, Strathroy, etc. They recommended that no increase be granted.

The government grants totalling $471.41 for manual training and house hold science were not as much as expected and the secretary was instructed to enquire how the amount was arrived at.

Four and a quarter dozen wands will be purchased for physical exercises for the girl pupils of the High School.

Principal Bell requested that the High School pupils be given the same advantage as the public school pupils in regard to manual training for boys and Domestic Science for girls. He asked that the High School pupils be given the use of these rooms for two afternoons per week. The industrial committee will report at the next meeting of the board.

A large number of small accounts were ordered paid and the meeting adjourned.

HORTICULTURALISTS HAVE 200 MEMBERS

And City Council Will be Asked for Grant of $1.00 for Each One.

An interesting meeting of the Brantford Horticultural Society was held last night in the city hall with President Fred Chalcraft in the chair.

Interesting reports were given by President Chalcraft, secretary Brooks and Cemetery Caretaker Thresher, all delegates to the meeting of the provincial society. A grant of $1,000 instead of $12,000 has been asked for by the provincial society for the carrying on of the work.

The local society will ask the city council for a grant of as many dollars as there are members of the society. As there are a few over 200 members, it practically means a grant of $200.

The society hope to arrange for a lecture to be given the latter part of the month by Mr. William Hunt, florist at the Guelph Agricultural College.

Prizes will be awarded for workmen's lawns on the following streets:

Ward 1—West Mill, Balfour and Oak

Ward 2—Dundas and James

Ward 3—Marlborough and Sheridan

Ward 5—Victoria, Onondaga and Cayuga.

These prizes will be awarded in addition to the prizes already given to members having the best lawns.

It was agreed that in future, the meetings of the society would be held the second Tuesday of each month.

MAY MEET CZAR.

WHEELS ARRIVED, CASE DISMISSED

Police Court To-day—Charge of False Pretences is Laid.

The Brantford Street Railway have attended to all their faulty cars and in view of the satisfactory state of affairs now existing the case against them was dismissed. Mr. Harley, K. C., said for the company that a supply of wheels in good condition would be kept on hand.

The chief declared that he will in time eliminate all Brantford nuisances and feels that good progress is being made. Sulphur gas is one job suggested for the chief's efforts by people resident near the purifier.

John Henry Gidney was charged in the chief constable's office this morning with false pretences. He had signed a cheque in favor of H. Aylyffe, to be drawn on the Standard Bank of Canada; he obtained a phonogram on May 13th, 1909, and he sold the instrument when he still owed Mr. Brown $25.30. He then cleared out west and took with him a wheel which he had hired from Mr. Gott, a local bicycle dealer.

Before the Bench he declared he worked for his living. "Working other people," interposed the magistrate. Continuing Gidney said he did not intend to do anything, and if he got

OLD BOYS REUNION FINDS FAVOR AT BIG MEETING LAST NIGHT

An Old Boys' reunion is almost sure to be held here this coming summer. Last night a fairly well attended meeting was held in the Y. M. C. A. when definite steps were taken, a nominating committee being appointed to bring in a list of officers and committees, at a meeting of citizens to be held in the Council Chamber at the City Hall on Tuesday evening next.

Ald. Ward, who called the meeting, stated in a brief address the object of the meeting. The citizens had come to believe that the time was opportune for the holding of the reunion.

Mr. W. S. Brewster, M. P. P., was appointed chairman of the meeting. There was considerable discussion in which all who took part expressed themselves that they believed the reunion should be held. Among those who took part were the chairman, Ald. Pitcher, Prof. Andrews, Eastman, Geo. A. Moore, and Fred Charlton.

A resolution was passed to the effect that it is desirable to hold an Old Boys' reunion week this year, and that an organization be proceeded with at once. This was passed upon

East Ward May Get The Hydro Electric Tonight

It all depends on the result of the testing of the lines whether Hydro Electric street lighting will be turned on to-night in the East ward district, lying north of the canal, Chairman Andrew McFarland said this afternoon that if the test was satisfactory the lights would be turned on, as arrangements in the sub-station for this one district were already completed. Domestic lighting it is expected will be ready for the district Saturday.

As for the North ward, Mr. McFarland was optimistic, but not positive. "Friday," said he "is last day of grace for the perpetuation of this street railway muddle in the courts. It ought to be settled this week, when we will have permission to bracket street railway poles up Brant avenue and we will have clear sailing. After that it should only be a matter of a few days."

Adam Beck Is Much Favored

TORONTO, Feb. 4.—While there is nothing but official silence in Ottawa as to the intentions of the Government as to the filling of the Canadian High Commissioner'ship, the impression is gaining ground that the chances of Hon. Adam Beck are improving, says the Toronto Star. No doubt this impression is based on a somewhat remarkable unanimity of opinion favorable to his appointment. In the first place, Mr. Beck's friends would like to see him get it. The position, particularly as it has been developed by Lord Strathcona, is one to which any man might aspire, and would be a fitting recognition, say Mr. Beck's friends, of his public services.

In the second place, the friends of Mr. Hanna, who desire to see that gentleman succeed to the Premiership of Ontario, would be pleased to see Mr. Beck get the high commissioner'ship, particularly if Mr. Beck would at the same time use his influence to assure Mr. Hanna's succession and straighten out one or two knotty points that have had their origin in the past in rivalry and in perhaps some jealousy.

In the third place, what are sometimes loosely described as "big interests," would not be sorry to gratify any social ambitions Mr. Beck may have, if in so doing they would remove his power and influence from the Canadian domain. All that is radical in the politics followed by the Whitney Government, is centered around the minister of power. With him removed, Conservatism would come into its own.

This raises the point as to who would carry on Mr. Beck's work in the event of his removal. Tentative plans have been drawn up for a provincial electrical railway system to complement the Hydro system. To carry this into effect is a man's job, but it is not yet apparent as to whom Mr. Beck's mantle would fall upon. Whether Mr. Beck himself looks upon the prospect with enthusiasm is doubtful. He has had eleven years of hard work and hard knocks, and possibly might prefer that someone else take up the new tasks now looming up. The thing which makes doubtful Mr. Beck's chances of getting the position is the strength of the other applicants, which is, of course, a more or less unknown quantity.

It is pointed out, however, that Ontario has never had the high commissioner'ship, and that Ontario has at the present time particularly strong claims on the Conservative Government at Ottawa. Strathcona was a representative of Montreal and of the West, Sir Charles Tupper of the Maritimes. It is known that at least one deputation has gone to Ottawa to urge this and other considerations on the attention of the Government. Of Mr. Beck's personal qualifications there is no question. He has considerable means and is already possessed of a country house in England, which could fittingly be used for the entertainment of callers on the high commissioner'ship. Mr. Beck is at present residing there.

Captain Inch In London

(By Special Wire to The Courier) LONDON, Feb. 4.—Captain Francis Inch, Commander of the Steamship Volturno, which was burned in mid-Atlantic on October 11, 1913, with a loss of 135 lives was presented to-day with the freedom of the city of London in a silver casket and also with a gold medal, a gold watch and chain, a purse of gold and Lloyd's silver medal. The presentation was made by the lord mayor at the Mansion House. He told Captain Inch that the tokens were in recognition of his "heroism and staunch allegiance to duty."

At the same time a diamond and sapphire pendant and a silver tea service were presented to Mrs. Inch. The lord mayor and William Marconi, the wireless inventor, delivered appropriate speeches in reply to which Captain Inch modestly disclaimed having done anything but his duty.

GAS COMPANY IS FORCED TO TURN ON SULPHUR

At Times When Demand is Very Heavy, Real Tilbury Article Comes in.

There are times when Brantford consumers are not getting the purified article of gas, especially those who live in the remote sections of the city. The real sulphur gas is turned on during the "peak" hours, so as to avoid having a low pressure. This information was given to the Courier to-day by Manager Fair, of the Brantford Gas Company, who stated that the operations of the company were an open book to the public, and it was decided to let everyone know the exact situation "On real cold days," he said, "we are forced, in order to meet the demand, to turn on the Tilbury gas, because the purifiers installed here are not of sufficient capacity, and the proper distribution plant is not installed."

Mr. Fair said that a purifying process was being put up right in the field, and would, in time, eliminate all complaints. In the meantime, however, there might be some complaints about the gas, but the company was now at work in eradicating the nuisance.

As for the sulphur arising daily from several hundred bushel of purifying ingredients at the plant on Colborne, to which Alfred street and district have taken such serious objection, Mr. Fair said he couldn't see where it could be improved until the main purifiers at Tilbury were at work.

"We have got to throw that stuff out in the air where it purifies itself," he said, "and this, of course, gives the atmosphere a sulphur taste in the immediate vicinity."

QUEBEC'S PROBE

Mr. Marchal then called Mr. Berard and asked him if he had met Mr. Mousseau during the session of the Legislature. Mr. Berard said he had.

Mr. Marchal—Did you meet Mr. Sampson?

Mr. Berard—I decline to answer that question, on advice of counsel.

Mr. Marchal—Meeting a man is not a criminal action; would you say whether you met Mr. Sampson in Montreal?

Mr. Berard—I decline to answer. Mr. Marchal—Did you receive $500 from Mr. Hyland?

Mr. Berard again declined to answer. Mr. Marchal—If you did get the money what did you do with it?

Mr. N. K. Laflamme, who represents Mr. Mousseau, objected to the question. He said Mr. Marchal was asking the same question in different words in an attempt to catch the witness. He had refused to answer and the committee should decide whether he should do so or not.

Mr. Marchal read the law in regard to evidence given before the committee and of the house and argued that the witness could not contend that any answer he made would incriminate him.

Mr. Taschereau supported Mr. Berard on the ground that his case was not being considered by the committee.

Mr. Lavergne—Did you know that Mr. Mousseau got money in connection with the Montreal Fair Bill?

Mr. Berard—Will you specify if you mean before or after the bill passed.

Mr. Lavergne—From September 1 till the time The Mail published its first article.

Mr. Berard—No.

Mr. Gault—Did Mr. Mousseau speak to you about this bill?

Mr. Berard—Not more about this one than others.

Mr. Gault—Was the bill introduced into the Upper House under your name?

Mr. Taschereau—We can easily find that out by referring to the records.

Mr. Lavergne suggested that the committee vote on the question of ordering the witness to answer. The suggestion was accepted and counsel delivered their arguments pro and con.

Mr. Geoffrion, K.C., for Mr. Berard, said there was no provision in the provincial law under which the committee was appointed taking from a witness the power to refuse to answer questions when advised that he might incriminate himself. He argued that Mr. Marchal had quoted the federal law in regard to the taking of evidence before a parliamentary committee, which did not apply to the present case.

After Mr. Laflamme had objected to Mr. Berard being compelled to reply to questions, Mr. Taschereau suggested that the matter could well be left over until other witnesses had been heard.

Mr. Marchal left it at that.

"KING" COLE JUMPS BACK TO MAJORS

Signs With Chance for $3,300 After Accepting Terms With Federals.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Leonard L. (King) Cole, who recently jumped organized baseball and signed a three-year contract with the Chicago Federal League club, has jumped back to the New York Americans.

The salary is the same as the one stipulated in the Chicago Federal League contract, which Cole signed in Chicago on December 20.

President Farrell said last night he was prepared to meet any action the Chicago Federals might take in the Cole case, but intimated that he had reasons for believing they would not go to court to retain Cole.

FULLERTON SIZES UP GREAT BASEBALL WAR; SAYS FEDERAL LEAGUE CAN PULL THROUGH

New Major League Has Captured Nearly $300,000 Worth of Baseball Flesh — Fullerton Promises Fans Some Hot Stuff on the New Situation in Baseball.

(By Hugh S. Fullerton.) Seat of War, Feb. 4.—Gen. Joseph Tinker has just replied to the National question, "Can the Federal League Succeed?" by blowing up another bulwark of organized baseball.

The war is ringing close to the citadel, with the Federals threatening to carry the second line of defences by assault.

This Tinker person, discarded by the Chicago Clubs, thrown out of Cincinnati, suddenly has become the biggest figure in sport in America, if not in the world.

Amies, 90 captured, 1 recaptured. Federals claim to have signed nearly 100 major league players. Total value of these players, about $300,000.

JOE TINKER, WHO JUMPED FROM THE NATIONAL LEAGUE TO THE FEDERAL LEAGUE

estimated in instances, but their figures are a strong reply to the question as to whether they exist.

Can the Federal League exist? Can it prosper? Is there a field for it?

I believe it can exist; that there is a field for it, not as large as it is claimed, but still large, and that it can prosper in a moderate way.

However, I am not trying to defend or predict the success or failure of the league. I have arranged with one of the big officials and backers of the Federal to tell the fans why and how he thinks the Federal will win.

That Linnborn will not remain a holdout very much longer is explained in a letter to President Stevely, in which he asks a stated salary and one which in all probability will be satisfactory to the London club.

Linnborn is leaving on a two weeks trip with the German basketball five of Buffalo, and he states that he is in great shape.

STRATFORD, Feb. 4.—In a thrilling game on soft ice, which proved much to the advantage of the heavy going Dutchmen, the Stratford Midjets defeated the Berlin Union Jacks here last night by three goals to two.

The tally pretty well tells the tale of the struggle. In the first half Stratford had things pretty well its own way. In the second the visitors came back with a whirl, which they combined to good advantage with team work.

NO CARNIVAL MEANS LOSS OF FRANCHISE

ST. THOMAS, Feb. 4.—Indications point to the loss of the St. Thomas Baseball Club by local fans when the Council absolutely refused to sanction the holding of carnivals this year.

While it appears Youngstown does not welcome the transfer of the local franchise at the present, their voice in the matter is not considered, as the fact that the territory can be claimed by the Canadian league upon request, giving three months notice, will just suffice as the league does not open until May 6 this year.

GRACE CHURCH YOUNG PEOPLE HOLD A SPLENDID BANQUET

Annual Affair Last Evening Eclipsed Former Efforts of the Progressive A.Y.P.A. of the Church--Addresses By the Officers.

Numerous banquets held by the Grace Church Anglican Young People's Association have proved a splendid success, but the banquet held last evening in the school room totally eclipsed all previous affairs of this nature. From the very moment of entering the school room a pleasant time was spent. Be it known the fate of the Grace church young people to provide a pleasant time had gone out and consequently there were quite a number of visitors. Many from the associations throughout the city and from Paris. The capacity of the room was just sufficient, that was all to accommodate the banqueters. There were many features of the evening among them being the presentation of the association of a beautiful reading lamp to Rev. J. C. Potts, curate of the church who will leave in the not distant future for Clinton, and the presentation to the wardens of a large photograph of Archdeacon Mackenzie, the rector of Grace church, and the highly esteemed and honored leader of the Anglicans of Brantford, one who has reached the age seventy-seven years with a record of having spent thirty five years in this city as rector of the church he now serves. For the splendid occasion the school room had been decorated, the decorations bearing evidence of much good taste. The color scheme was red, white and blue. From the centre of the ceiling hung a large union jack and from the flag streamers ran to different points. Along the walls were tastefully arranged smaller flags and on the window curtains were draped streamers of carnations and roses. Large union jacks were on either side of the platform and another was draped over the arch. Above the platform were the words: "Grace Church A.Y.P.A. Our motto: 'For Christ and the Church.'" On the tables which had been tastefully laid were vases of flowers. To the ladies who provided the banquet the heartiest of congratulations are in order and especially to Mrs. King who had this portion of the affair in charge. The good things well and truly disposed of, Archdeacon Mackenzie, who presided as toast master offered the toast of the "King" which was honored by singing, "The National Anthem." The Archdeacon in his address extended a welcome to all. While he welcomed the A.Y.P.A. members and the members of the church, he extended a special welcome to visitors. Mayor Spence received a splendid photograph of Archdeacon Mackenzie, but at the moment the words were spoken the Mayor was not present, having withdrawn to vote at a civic meeting. Referring to his absence the Archdeacon said: "He is sure to come back because the Mayor is here." The splendid banquet which had been enjoyed was referred to. Speaking of the fellowship existing and had accomplished. Members of the congregation had been appointed to look into the Sunday school. The school was now not large enough for the demands and under Rev. Mr. Potts had prospered well. This latter comment was productive of hearty applause. As the programme was a lengthy one the banqueters were asked to refrain from demanding encores. The first number on the programme was a solo by Mr. G. Lamb of "Trinity" church, Eagle Place. Mr. Lamb who is a Scotchman appeared in costume and sang "By Yon Bonnie banks" as only a Scotchman can sing it. This pleasing number was followed by a reading by Miss Christine Dalglish. Shopping experiences in a large store were humorously presented. The toastmaster offered the toast to Mr. A. K. Bunnell. In proposing the toast he stated that the Church of England required no introduction. The audience before him fully demonstrated the faith in the English church. Mr. Bunnell much regretted that the pew of the church were not filled on Sundays. He much wanted the banqueters to realize their personal obligations in this regard. Speak- Archdeacon Mackenzie, Mr. Bunnell said he was loved by all. Mr. Fred W. Frank replying to the toast said that it was a mistaken idea that there was not a welcome extended to the church services. Mention had been made of the fellowship existing in the A.Y.P.A., and this caused Mr. Frank to state that a party on the back was not required as a welcome. He emphasized the need of children being brought up to respect the church and have their lesson prepared on Sunday. As there was a movement underway to change the prayer book, Mr. Frank took occasion to state that he did not want to see the book altered. Before calling on Mayor Spence, the Archdeacon said that when he came to Brantford 35 years ago, there were only two Anglican churches and there were now seven, all well managed. Mayor Spence congratulated the A.Y.P.A. upon providing such an excellent banquet. Speaking of Grace church he said it had opened in 1832 and had only been under church might be proud of the fact that Grace church was the daughter of the old Mohawk church. From Grace, St. Jude's, of which he was a member, had sprung, and under the supervision of St. Jude's there were now three congregations. The members of the Church of England should feel proud of what the church had accomplished. There was a time when a member of the Church of England was a stranger; now the member was one of many. Presentation to Rev. Mr. Potts. The presentation to Rev. Mr. Potts followed Mayor Spence's address. The address was read by the president of the association, Mr. F. W. Myring, and the presentation made by Miss Dora Ginn, secretary of the association. The address is here given: To the Rev. Jerrald C. Potts, Curate of Grace Church, Brantford, Dear Sir--We, the members of the Anglican Young People's Association, of Grace Church, having learned of your intended departure from our midst, wish to express our deep regret. Since you came among us, two years ago, we have found you to be in the truest sense of the word, a friend. As a clergyman, most faithful, particularly among the poor, the friendless and the unfortunate. Your weekly visits to the hospital have endeared you to a host of people; and we feel sure that the success of the A.Y.P.A. has to a large degree been due to your untiring effort. Your addresses to us have been beneficial; your companionship most congenial. You have always been willing to play the part of an elder brother, and we feel sure we but voice the sentiments of many citizens in Brantford, when we say we are very sorry to lose you, but our loss is some one else's gain. We wish you every success in your new parish and pray that God's richest blessing may rest upon your labors. As a token of our appreciation, hoping you will find it useful in shedding light on many subjects, and that it will ever remind you of the many friends you left behind in Grace Church, Brantford, we ask you to accept this lamp. Signed on behalf of the A. Y. P. A. by the executive: Wm. F. Myring, president; Ernest Goldstraw, vice-president; Dora B. Ginn, secretary; Alfred H. Stevens, Treasurer. Rev. Mr. Potts in replying said that the interchanges with the A. Y. P. A. had been pleasant from the beginning. In leaving Brantford he felt that he was leaving friends, and it was not easy to leave friends. The A. Y. P. A. had been a source of gratification and encouragement to him. Speaking of the attendance at the Sunday school services he said that the A. Y. P. A. was well represented, and owing to the members being employed during the week, it meant a sacrifice to attend morning service. Referring to work which had been done at the hospital, Rev. Mr. Potts said that to do this work it meant sacrifice on the part of the members. They had been able to assist him. In conclusion he quoted the words spoken by Christ: "For inasmuch as ye have done it unto me, ye have done it unto me." and thanked the association for the gift. Archdeacon Mackenzie took occasion to state that, when he had a good time was taken away from him. The Bishop was responsible in this instance. In speaking of Rev. Mr. Potts the Bishop had said: "I think that man has a future." The Archdeacon expressed regret at Rev. Mr. Potts departure. A piano solo by Miss Etalvie Buchanan, a reading by Mr. R. T. Hall, and a solo by Mr. James T. Whitaker were well received. The toast to the A. Y. P. A. followed. The evening was full of surprises, and what was to follow was one of them. After speaking highly of the work of Mrs. King, who had charge of the providing of the banquet, President Myring, deftly removed the covering over the picture of Archdeacon Mackenzie and asked Mr. Frank to accept it on behalf of the wardens. Applause resounded supreme for a few minutes. Mr. Myring touched upon the activity of the A. Y. P. A. in the city and the Dominion. He emphasized the need of a parish house and stated that the association had decided to give $500 towards the Sunday school improvements. Mr. Frank thanked the A. Y. P. A. on behalf of the wardens. A solo was rendered by Mr. E. Roberts in good voice and Mayor Spence spoke to the toast of the ladies, to which all responded. Rev. Mr. Bryce of London, who was present addressed the banqueters briefly and the affair which had proved so pleasant through the untiring efforts of many was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

LECTURE AT SYDENHAM ST. Under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid, a lecture and social evening was given in Sydenham street church last night. The lecturer was the pastor, Rev. A. I. Snyder, and his subject, "My Experiences Among the Cree Indians." For an hour and a quarter, Mr. Snyder gave a most interesting account of some of his many thrilling adventures and experiences among the famous Cree. For six years the lecturer had served as a missionary teacher among this tribe, his work being largely among the children, teaching them English and incidentally carrying to them the Gospel message. For nearly one year the speaker had never seen a white man, and for about the same time had never tasted bread. On one occasion he had a thing to eat for over three days. Many thrilling incidents were related of the warlike carryings on of the Blackfeet and Cree Indians, who were the bitterest of enemies. Mention was made of his association with Rev. Mr. McDougall, Rev. George Young and other well known pioneers in Indian work. Some thrilling adventures were related concerning buffalo hunting. Altogether the address was quite interesting and much valuable information given. Mr. McWebb and Mrs. J. Laing gave instrumental selections during the evening. Mrs. Jas. Isaac occupied the chair. The ladies served refreshments at the close. For Civic Work. Applications continue to be made at the City Engineer's office for civic employment. Since yesterday afternoon, about 25 applications have been made. The number has now reached a total of 597.

No corporation will be allowed to place crooked poles upon the streets of this city. The G. N. W. Telegraph company have found that out. The company have substituted new poles for the old ones on Market and Dalhousie Streets. It came to the notice of Ald. Ryerson and Fig. Chief Lewis that some of the poles about to be placed, were crooked, the company was interviewed in the matter and a promise secured that the crooked poles would not be put up. Should any attempt be made to put the crooked poles in place the police have instructions to take action. At the Colonial. The Colonial Theatre is playing to packed houses the first three days of this week, where a bill something above the ordinary is being presented. Cogan and Gilman got away with some very good songs and chatter and their roller skating offering was excellent. Clark and Temple in a song and talking act are fully up to par both possessing excellent voices. For difficult and novel juggling, Pero and Wilson can not easily be beaten and their songs are well given. Several excellent photo plays are presented, including a two-reel Victor feature film, "The Spender," which is intensely interesting as is also, "The Child Thieves of Paris." Women's Institute. A largely attended meeting under the auspices of the Woman's Institute held at the home of Mrs. James Sumner's on Thursday afternoon to hear the government delegate, Miss Roberts, who gave a very instructive and helpful talk on the "Economic Problems of the Country Girl." The large elements of ladies present were greatly interested in the many phases of rural life, which the speaker portrayed as ideal. Mrs. J. J. Hurley, who was present, was asked to preside, and opened the meeting with a short talk on the great benefits and advantages of the Women's Institute. Miss Roberts, who delighted all present with her piano solo, Miss Grace Benson gave a very amusing recitation, which was greatly enjoyed by all. The hostess served dainty refreshments, and the meeting was closed with God Save the King.

CHILDREN HATE OIL, CALOMEL AND PILLS

"California Syrup of Figs" best for tender stomach, liver bowels. Look back at your childhood days. Remember the dose mother insisted on--castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them. With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little insides are injured by them. If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach; and that a teaspoonful given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow. Ask your druggist for a 30-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt. Convalescence after pneumonia, typhoid fever and other ailments is sometimes merely apparent, not real. To make it real and rapid there is no other tonic so high to be recommended as Hood's Sarsaparilla. Thousands testify. "Take Hood's."

Charles Connois is Sentenced at Hamilton. (By Special Wire to the Courier) HAMILTON, Ont., Feb. 4--Charles Connois, 35 years of age, a criminal with a long record of convictions, was sentenced to five years, and his pal, Thomas Kelly, 24 years, who also has a bad record, to a year in Kingston to-day. The men were arrested at Detroit where they fled after robbing the store of the Dominion House Furnishing Company, getting away with several hundred dollars worth of goods. Connois' wife, who has shielded him during his long criminal career, collapsed when she heard the sentence. Connois was once charged with attempting to murder her in Ottawa, and only recently he was in court charged with assaulting her, but she refused to prosecute.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-Time Recipe That Anybody Can Apply. The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grand mother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded, streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by adding any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Hair-Renedy" you will get the famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair. A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally, and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply wash, open a sponge or soft brush with water and draw this through your hair, using one strand at a time. By using the gray hair disappears and becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant. Agent T. George Bowles.

LONDON, Feb. 3.—How a family in Dorchester were "bewitched," and how they broke the spell by consulting a "white witch," is told in the Dorset County Chronicle.

The scene of the "bewitching" was the village of Higher Bockhampton, the "Upper Molsstock" of Mr Thomas Hardy's Wessex novels, where Mr Hardy himself was born.

In the cottage next to Mr Hardy's birthplace lived, until a week or so ago, a carter, with his wife and family, including a daughter of fifteen, two sons, and a young man said to be the girl's sweetheart.

The girl became ill and a Dorchester doctor was consulted. The girl became hysterical, and screamed and struggled, when her sweetheart was asked to find lodgings elsewhere. Her elder sister, Sarah, who was living some way off, was fetched home to soothe and nurse her.

Mrs. ROBERT HIGGINS

Julia Flake, fifteen years old, broke down at the court house at Alledo, Ill., and burst into a passionate fit of weeping—the first time since the awful tragedy of love which has wrecked her young life, sent her mother to a grave and put her handsome stepfather behind the bars charged with murder.

The collapse came after she had told about her mother's killing.

"I did it, yes," she sobbed. "We did it—both of us, Bob and I—but I don't know why. We did wrong. I schemed with him to kill mother. I knew he was going to do it. I wish it hadn't happened. I wish I could undo it."

Never before had Julia shown any deep feeling. Her confession and her subsequent interviews with the prosecuting attorney were characterized by a calm reserve.

CHAPTER X
Garson's Noisless Gun

SOMETHING of what was in his mind was revealed in Garson's first speech after Griggs' going.

"That's a mighty big stake he's playing for."

"And a big chance he's taking," Mary retorted. "No, Joe, we don't want any of that. We'll play a game that's safe and sure."

The words recalled to the forger weird forebodings that had been troubling him throughout the day.

"It's sure enough," he stated, "but is it safe?"

"What do you mean?"

Garson walked to and fro nervously as he answered.

"I suppose the bulls get tired of you

Inspector Burke.

putting it over on 'em and try some rough work?"

"Don't worry, Joe. I know a way to stop it."

"Well, so far as that goes, so do I," the forger said, with significant emphasis.

"Just what do you mean by that?" Mary demanded, suspiciously.

"For rough work," he said, "I have this." He took a magazine pistol from his pocket. It was of an odd shape, with a barrel longer than usual and a bell-shaped contrivance attached to the muzzle.

"No, no, Joe," Mary cried. "None of that—er!"

"Pooh!" the forger exclaimed. "Even if I used it, they would never get on to me. See this?" He pointed at the strange contrivance on the muzzle.

"What is it? I have never seen anything like that before."

"Of course you haven't. I'm the first man in the business to get one, and I'll bet on it. I keep up with the times." He was revealing that fundamental egotism which is the characteristic of all his kind. "That's one of the new Maxim silencers. With smokeless powder in the cartridges, and the silencer on, I can make a shot from my coat pocket, and you wouldn't even know it had been done. And I'm some shot, believe me."

"Impossible!" Mary ejaculated. "No, it ain't. Here, wait, I'll show you."

"Good gracious, not here!" Mary exclaimed in alarm. "We would have the whole place down on us."

Garson chuckled.

"You just watch that dinky little rascal at the table across the room there. Tain't very valuable, is it?"

"No," Mary answered.

In the same instant, while still her eyes were on the vase, it fell in a cascade of shivered glass to the table and floor. She had heard no sound, she saw no smoke. Perhaps, there had been a faintest clicking noise. She stared dumfounded for a few seconds, then turned her bewildered face toward Garson, who was grinning in high enjoyment.

"Next little thing, ain't it?" the man asked, exultantly.

"Where did you get it?" Mary asked.

"In Boston, last week. And between you and me, Mary, it's the only model, and it sure is a corker."

"That night in the back room of Blinck's English Eddie and Garson sat with their heads close together over a table.

"A chance like this," Griggs was saying, "is a chance that will make a fortune for all of us."

"It sounds good," Garson admitted, wistfully.

"Well," urged Griggs, "what do you say?"

"How would we split it?"

"Three ways would be right," Griggs answered. "One to me, one to you and one to be divided up among the others."

Garson brought his fist down on the table with a force that made the glasses jiggle.

"You're on," he said, strongly.

"Fine!" Griggs declared, and the two men shook hands. "Now, I'll get—"

"Get nothing!" Garson interrupted. "I'll get my own men. Chicago Red is in town. So is Dacey, with perhaps a couple of others of the right sort. I'll get them and we'll turn the trick to prevent the son from ever again seeing the woman who had so indiscreetly married him."

But a sudden shadow fell on the face of Garson. He bent closer to his companion and spoke with a fierce intensity that brooked no denial.

"She must never know."

Griggs nodded understandingly.

Mary had gone to her bedroom for a nap. She was not in the least surprised that Dick had not yet returned, though he had mentioned half an hour. At the best there were many things that might be done to prevent the father's reaction, and Garson, ever again, sought the woman who had so indiscreetly married him.

Yet somehow Mary could not believe that her husband would yield to such paternal coercion. Rather, she was sure that he would prove loyal to the girl he loved through every trouble. At the thought a certain wistfulness pervaded her and a poignant regret that this particular man should have been the one chosen of fate to be entangled within her mesh of revenge.

There throbbled in her a heart tormenting realization that there were in life possibilities infinitely more splendid than the joy of vengeance. She would not confess the truth even to her inmost soul, but the truth was there and yet her tremble with vague fears.

"She had slept, perhaps, a half hour when Fannie awakened her."

"It's a man named Burke," she explained as her mistress lay blinking. "And there's another man with him. They said they must see you."

By this time Mary was wide awake, for the name of Burke, the police inspector, was enough to startle her out of drowsiness.

She got up, slipped into a tengown, bathed her eyes in cologne, dressed her hair a little and went into the drawing room, where the two men had been waiting for something more than a quarter of an hour—the violent indignation of both.

"Oh, here you are, at last!" the big, burly man cried as she entered.

"Yes, inspector," Mary replied pleasantly, as she advanced into the room. She gave a glance toward the other visitor, who was of a slenderer form, with a thin, keen face, and recognized him instantly as Demarest, who had taken part against her as the lawyer for the store at the time of her trial, and who was now district attorney.

She went to the chair at the desk and seated herself in a leisurely fashion that increased the indignation of the fuming inspector. She did not ask her self-invited guests to sit.

"To whom do I owe the pleasure of this visit, inspector?" she remarked coolly. It was noticeable that she said whom and not what, as if she understood perfectly that the influence of some person brought him.

"I have pleasure to have a few quiet words with you," the inspector declared. Mary disregarded him, and turned to the other man.

"How do you do, Mr. Demarest?" she said evenly. "It's four years since we met, and it's a pleasure to meet an attorney since then. Allow me to congratulate you."

More Curiosity Than Composure

LONDON, Feb. 3.—Modern women of an enterprising turn of mind are extraordinarily anxious to fly. Many of them are seeking to loop the loop, which, so far as no woman has been permitted to try. One woman has offered M. Pegoud $500 if he will take her up.

Mr. B. C. Hucks, the English looping airman, is assailed by women who want to share his glory. His most persistent correspondent has made three appeals to him within the last fortnight. Here are extracts from her letters:

"It is the ambition of my life to loop the loop with you. I suppose Miss Frawley-Davies will be the first woman to do so, and one cannot help envying her."

Later she wrote:

"I read that you are not flying again at Hendon for the present, but will be visiting provincial towns. This is a terrible blow. The wish to loop the loop with you is becoming a perfect mania with me. I can think of nothing else. Now, will you be kind enough to let me know if there is any chance at present, or at some future date, of my participating in this glorious experience? (But, oh, don't say there is no hope!) Please remember that my nerve is unimpaired."

After this cumulative appeal, Mr. Hucks has had to reply that he is arranging for a looping machine which will carry a passenger. With a few shining exceptions, his experience is that women passengers are better endowed with curiosity than with composure. He is afraid they will never become good pilots.

HELP TO HARMONIZE.

C. P. R. Supplies Cooks and Waiters With Complexions to Match Dining Cars.

The C. P. R. has disclosed a subtle ingenuity in advertising; nor did this suffer impairment in a comparatively recent instance. The company wanted, to be exact, 870 cooks and waiters for its dining-car service last spring. It has tried the American cooks and waiters by the painful hundred and found them unreliable. It determined to advertise in the "Big Smoke." London is unthinkably cosmopolitan. Every race under heaven has its representatives in the world's metropolis. In a delicate way the company announced that it wanted a certain number of fair-haired people and an equal number of dark-complexioned individuals. The papers began to write about the "red-haired dining-car" and "black-haired dining-car" to such an extent as to cause nothing short of a "thrill" in the general breast. And the request, indeed, responded to—be exact, indeed, there were at least 2,000 persons, at one time or another, who applied. There was a severe wedding-process with the result that the requisite number were employed and shipped out—fair haired and dark-complexioned men—to harmonize with the setting of the particular car to which each shade of color should be confined. And it is the fact that the C.P.R. desires, in its aesthetic way, to produce in each dining-car what might be called a synthesis as to the color and height and general appearance of the men—the idea being in decoration and general ensemble for the delectation of the passengers. The point of interest is this—that whereas the American cooks and waiters who had aforetime been employed by the company were for the most part unreliable, leaving after two or three months employment, the men found in London remained the whole season; and at this moment of the entire number 500 are still in the employment of the company. Some left to better themselves; a few went back; but the greater bulk are at work quite contented, as the commissioner, sent out recently "Answers" and who talked with the men, avouches. These men are Swiss, Scandinavian, Germans to some light degree, and British. The Swiss speak at least three languages, and are most adaptive. This matter of help on the dining-cars is one of the serious problems to be faced by Mr. W. A. Cooper, the manager of the sleeping and dining-car service—the difficulty of getting and then retaining the right men; but the experiment of going to London and advertising for them has proved an unequalled success. It seems unthinkable remote to consider the big posters of the early days which announced, rather riotously, the advantage of the C.P.R. in the matter of advertising for them has proved an unequalled success. Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-Time Recipe That Anybody Can Apply.
The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Weyell's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant. Agent T. George Rowles.

Flounces and Pleats Distinguish New Gowns

By Madge Marvel

Women are showing more interest in pleats, said a prominent designer to me a day or so ago. "You will find them used in some of the best of the spring models. By that I do not mean that we shall adopt the full pleated skirt we used to wear, but I think you will find pleats introduced into the newest and best designs. Women are growing tired of the slash. They still want the close outline, and how can they have it without the slash unless they gain the necessary width with pleats? The pleats will probably be very modest affairs with the fullness anything but obtrusive. The surest sign that the slash was losing its vogue when it began to be shifted around, from the side to the front, and now to the back. And I predict its next move will be out altogether."

It was my privilege to see some of the latest importations of gowns recently, and I was impressed by the draping. It has changed. In one of the frocks it was reminiscent of the days of the polonaise, which the present generation remembers only from old fashion plates and portraits. Also of the overskirt, which succeeded it. One of these skirts had long overdrapery, and was caught up in the back in quaint loopings. The narrow foot outline with the fullness at the hips will obtain for some months, according to the best authority.

It seems to me that we see more flounces than were worn earlier in the winter. One evening frock made for a debutante had a delicate belt of blue nearly covered by four deep and full flounces of pink chiffon which were graduated from a narrow one at the waist to a deeper one which came to

But all that is usually under foot softens and softens until a joyous haze envelopes and sustains the parties in interest. Of course, it is a MOMENT. One cannot live on moments for long. Mostly life is made up of INTERVALS. It is what you learn how to do with intervals that makes the great difference.

Secrets of Health and Happiness

Tighten up Your Belt and Stop Hunger Pangs

By Dr. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

A. B. M. A. M. D. (Johns Hopkins)
Copyright, 1914, by L. K. Hirschberg.

HAVE you ever felt like the floor was dropping out of your tummy? Some feel in that way when they are hungry. Others feel an aching void when the pangs of hunger begin to gnaw. One well-known adventurer describes his sensation of hunger as "the hole to a doughnut," however that may feel!

Julius Caesar, you recall, had the diagnostic acumen to spot the lean and hungry look of Cassius, but many who suffer only with the torment of flatulency nowadays believe that they have a tapeworm.

No less than several score of patients who came to me with a home-made diagnosis of "tapeworms" were found to be afflicted only with a stomach which sang this song of vicarious desire.

The sea hath bounds, but deep desire has, like these Gargantuan appetites none at all. Such appetites are pathological, true enough, but the cries have driven away those signs of the famished anguish from their inner man, as the same as those of the wistful Cassius or the gurgled poet.

Hunger has been a moot point between those who occasionally suffer it and those who are always investigating it. The experimenter, among his crudities and white rats, held it to be one thing and the psychologist, amid his intrusions with a few toad-pools, maintained it to be otherwise.

Came now Prof. W. B. Cannon of Harvard University, with a gent of purest serene. He has cleared up, for the nonce, the mystery of hunger. He is displaying our ears, and our tramps great distances often go for days without much food or water. The squelch the cries of the inner man by pulling their belts tight!

The very instant these experienced travellers feel the pangs of hunger, sobbing them they pull their belts up a few notches and lighten their bands. Prof. Cannon and his students, in a brilliant series of experiments upon animals first and then upon human volunteers from among themselves, discovered that hunger was only manifested when the muscles of the stomach became busy.

In a word, movements by the empty stomach make themselves felt as hunger. When you become aware of a prodding appetite, an examination by the X-rays or by the methods of Prof. Cannon will show the walls of your stomach gyrating in a veritable turkey-trot or Argentine tango.

The poor fellow in the bread-line and the woman toiler with her tenement children have learned by experience that an annoying appetite can be squeezed out of existence merely by strapping up the belly or tightening up the corset to Dr. L. K. Hirschberg, care this office.

Answers to Health Questions

D. H. R.—Is there any cure for catarrhal deafness and head noises?
Relief for these conditions depends greatly upon the causes. If the best ear specialists in your city can find and remove the cause, your hearing will improve. Do not abandon hope until a thorough search has been made.

W. T. H.—Prof. A., the phrenologist, told me I should weigh 150 pounds to sustain my large and active brain. Is that correct?
Phrenology, like building air-castles, dreaming and writing poetry, is interesting, but useless. Phrenology is practiced by sincere, well-meaning, illogical "professors," who profess honestly more rot than was ever dreamed of by the Delphian oracle.

Dr. Hirschberg will answer questions for readers of this paper on medical, hygienic and sanitation subjects that are of general interest. He will not undertake to prescribe or offer advice for individual cases. Where the subject is not of general interest letters will be answered personally if a stamped and addressed envelope is enclosed. Address all inquiries to Dr. L. K. Hirschberg, care this office.

The New York city park department uses a vacuum cleaner in grooming horses.

There are 230,000 motor boats, worth an average of $1000 apiece, in the United States.

Westminster Hall, London, was built in 1099, and for the first time repairs are now being made to its roof. Most of the timber shows only slight signs of decay after 500 years.

It takes 100 workmen 10 weeks to paint the dome of the Capitol at Washington. They use 65 tons of paint covering the 132,000 square feet of surface.

The smallest wire made commercially in the United States is 1-3000 of an inch in diameter. The dies through which it is drawn are genuine diamonds.

The Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco in 1915 will be illuminated at night by electric lights having 4,000,000 candle-power.

The department of agriculture is using poison for the control of insects in the West. The little pests render land practically useless as a range for cattle or sheep.

Rubber flowers are a novelty for women bathers. Delicate tints of roses and violets are reproduced, and the flowers are not affected by water or sun.

The largest railway station in Europe is being constructed at Leipzig, Germany. At a cost of $35,000,000, it is finished now and will be completed within two years.

PETER'S ADVENTURES IN MATRIMONY

By Leona Dalrymple

Author of the new novel, "Diane of the Green Van," awarded a prize of $10,000, by Ida M. Tarbell and S. S. McClure as judges.

The truth, plain and unvarnished, about "the girl in the case" distinguishes her from Mrs. Dalrymple. Her character studies will not appear unfamiliar to the majority of readers, who will follow the fortunes of "Peter" with growing interest.

Woman's Big Job

MOTHER, I said one night, when I had slipped in for a little twilight chat with her before going home, "tell me, why do so many women know so little of the essentials of their business? It is their business, isn't it, the ordering of the home?"

Mother looked worried. I had spoken a little bitterly, I'm afraid, for my wife's inability to manage our little home systematically was much upon my mind.

"Don't be too hard on Mary, Peter," she said gently. "Remember she's very young and she's never before come in contact with the discipline of work."

"I know," said I, patiently. "That's what I want to know about. It isn't that I'm blaming her, mother, for it's pretty hard on her, too, but I can't for the life of me see why her training shouldn't have prepared her for the systematic ordering of our home just as my training has prepared me for the financial maintenance of it. If I know no more about earning money than Mary does of spending it judiciously, I'd be in desperate straits."

"Yes," said mother slowly, "that's true enough, but men are a race of specialists, son, and women, alas, are not. She turned the log in the fireplace and the blaze leaped, coloring the shadows about the crib, a fashionably sitting-room.

"Peter," she went on quietly, "some day when we wake up and learn how to train our women, from the lowest to the highest, for the tasks of daily existence, we're going to save a tremendous amount of energy and heartaches. Mary is the victim of her mother's foolishness. Every girl ought to have at least a bowing acquaintance with a trim girl's apron and a fringed pan, if only for the purpose of inspiring the respect of her servants. I feel exceedingly sorry for the woman whose servants are better informed about household problems than she is herself.

"I'd like to see every girl have a course in running, too. The most comfortable and optimistic influence in a home, I think, is a capable woman who knows absolutely what she's doing, she can put her finger instantly on anything that's needed; she can perform the humblest task with dignity, and when illness comes she can slip quietly into her niche in the sick room without disgracing the whole house. Most girls, I think, expect to marry, and certainly not all of them can marry well. We are to find pleasure in a new philosophy, Peter. The germ of the day's cheer lies in the kitchen. The man who eats, burned breakfast, quarrels with his wife and departs in a temper influences the atmosphere of more than his own home. He may start a whole office before his morning's over and start a dozen wires of gloom to singlet.

I flushed—wincing under the memory of the first morning I had had to prepare my own breakfast. My wife had been a hornet's nest by that time, and everybody kept for trouble.

"It's a housekeeping," said I, "housekeeping. I never realized it before."

"It is," said mother. "That's why I want you to be very patient with Mary. Ninety per cent. of womankind—and particularly the girl who hasn't had to work for a living—go through a trying period of readjustment after marriage. Others, however, wouldn't have all these funny tales of the mistakes young brides make in ordering and cooking. "Housekeeping" isn't so difficult, home-keeping, Peter, is a vasty different art. It takes temperance and gentleness and tact to create an atmosphere of cheer and cover the domestic machinery so the family won't hear the wheels creak. And no house is a home without some vital womanly personality at the head of it."

As usual mother has given me much to think over. Why are men so snug about their job of earning money? After all, haven't women the big job of the universe? And if they have, why under heaven do they go to the task with no preparation?

Great Novels in a Nutshell

"Water Babies" Condensed from the KINGSLEY novel by ANITA von HARTMANN.

ONCE upon a time there was a little boy named Tom, who worked for a cruel, old chimney sweep called Mr. Grimes. One day Grimes was summoned to clean the chimneys in the mansion of a rich man.

Very early in the morning Grimes got up and dressed in a hurry, and he was behind on foot, set out. An old Irish woman, named Tom, and as he walked beside Tom, she told him stories of the great ocean and of the fishes and flowers that lived in its cool depth.

Tom was not overfond of water, but the old woman's stories made him think how delightful it would be to wash off his soot. So when Grimes started at a spring, Tom dipped his dirty little face in the water. Grimes gave Tom a beating.

"Are you not ashamed of yourself, Thomas Grimes," said the old Irish woman indignantly. "No, no never was yet," said Grimes, and he went on beating Tom.

The old Irish woman spoke sternly: "Those that wish to be clean, clean they will be," said she, "and those that wish to be foul, foul they will be."

Tom was still thinking of the old Irish woman, and with Tom trudged in the rich man's house. Suddenly he found himself in the whitest, prettiest chamber bedroom he had ever seen, and in the bed, sound asleep, was a golden-haired little girl. She opened her eyes and screamed. Tom jumped out of the window and ran. Everybody in the house ran after him crying "Fire! Murder! Stop that!"

Pretty soon Tom left all the people behind. He saw a cool stream and he thought "How nice to be clean!" So he took off his clothes and jumped in. By

Daddy's Good Night Story

By GEORGE HENRY SMITH

AFTER Judge Bear went down the road he came to a soft, mossy bank and sat down to rest. It was Friday, the day that Mister Jay Bird is always up to mischief, and he hoped he would meet that sassy fellow so that he could tell him about Erer Rabbit stuffing his ears with cotton. By and by he heard Mister Jay Bird up in the tree singing. The Judge coughed very loud; this made Mister Jay Bird notice him.

"Hello, Rabbit," he began, "got any mischief for me today?"

"Erer Rabbit was just telling me that he was going to put cotton in his ears so that no one could tickle him." At this the Judge laughed until he had to hold his sides.

"What do you want me to do about it?" asked Mister Jay Bird.

"I thought you might put some burrs in the cotton," answered the Judge.

"Bright idea!" exclaimed Mister Jay Bird as he started in search of Erer Rabbit. He found him asleep under a sassafras tree near the big briar patch.

Mister Jay Bird was so tickled at finding him he had to get up in a tree and laugh and laugh.

Then he gathered a lot of burrs and one by one he dropped them into the cotton in Erer Rabbit's ears.

He was putting a great big burr in Erer Rabbit's right ear when Erer Rabbit snored.

Mister Jay Bird jumped into a tree quick as a wink. Soon Erer Rabbit was asleep again.

Once more Mister Jay Bird started filling Erer Rabbit's ears with burrs. He turned over in his sleep and this made Mister Jay Bird hop into the tree again. By and by Erer Rabbit's ears were full of burrs and Mister Jay Bird flew high up in a hickory tree and waited to see what would happen.

He had not long to wait, for soon Erer Rabbit got up and started for home. He was so tired and sleepy he forgot all about the cotton in his ears and he did not know about the burrs.

As he passed by Mrs. Squirrel's house she peeked out the window. "Och! look!" she exclaimed to her husband. Then he looked out of the window and began to laugh.

"What are you laughing at?"

"It was just happened to think of something!" exclaimed Mrs. Squirrel. Erer Rabbit went down the road wondering and wondering what was the matter.
