

BULGARIANS ATTACK FRENCH BUT ARE QUICKLY REPULSED

Official Report From Sofia Reports Large Captures at Uskub—Berlin Claims Serbia Out of the Way—Velez Retaken—British Advance From Saloniki.

Special Wire to the Courier. Saloniki, Greece, Nov. 1.—Via London 1.30 p.m.—Bulgarian infantry supported by two batteries, made an attack yesterday on the French advance post covering Krivolak, on the left bank of the Vardar. After sharp fighting the Bulgarians retired, having sustained heavy losses.

BULGARIAN OFFICIAL. Sofia, via Berlin and London, Nov. 1.—The Bulgarian advance in Serbia is being continued along the whole front. An account of recent operations was issued to-day at the war office as follows: "Concerning operations on Oct. 29: Bulgarian troops continued the pursuit of the enemy on the whole front. They advanced west of the Korjazevac watershed between the Timok and the Morava.

Southwest of Kujazevac we captured, after a violent battle, the Tezibara ridge whence roads lead to Nish and Bala Palanka. "In the upper Morva Valley, after a hard fight we took the town of Gradjeva, which is the junction point on the road between Vranja and Leskovac, through the Vlessina valley. In the region of Katchanik the Serbians attacked a column which had advanced, but were repulsed.

"In the course of the pursuit of the enemy we captured two mountain guns with large supplies of munitions. Thus far we have found in Uskub 19,000 rifles of various patterns, 980 casks of powder, 15,000 casks of cartridges and large quantities of other materials."

SERBIA OUT OF THE WAY. Amsterdam, via London, Nov. 1.—The Berliner Tagblatt in a weekly review of the war, claims that Serbia already has been virtually removed as an obstacle in the path of the central powers, since the junction of the Austro-German and Bulgarian forces has opened and secured the route from Berlin and Vienna to Constantinople.

"Whatever may still happen in the Balkans, which are divided by divergent interests, we can expect that we can await future events with certain tranquility. The way to Asia Minor, and beyond, no longer is barred to us. We must ask ourselves: whether England and the other powers interested in Oriental questions are still longing for further proofs of German energy."

VELEZ RE-TAKEN. Paris, Nov. 1.—The re-taking of Velez, Serbia, by Bulgarian troops has been officially confirmed, according to a Havas despatch from Athens, dated yesterday.

Velez (Krupulu) on the railroad 21 miles southeast of Uskub, was first captured by the Bulgarians on Oct. 24th, but was retaken by the Serbians two days later. It is located on the Vardar River and has a population of about 23,000.

London, Nov. 1.—The British expeditionary force in Serbia received its baptism of fire on the Gjevgeidran front where, according to a Times' despatch from Athens, it took part in the recent fighting.

GETTING THROUGH. London, Nov. 1.—A German wireless despatch from Sofia says that for the first time since the beginning of the war, a Hungarian Danube steamer, the Beretto, arrived at Vidin, Bulgaria, from Orsova on the 29th.

TURKS AT VARNA. Paris, Nov. 1.—A despatch to the Aavas Agency from Bucharest dated Saturday says: "It is announced that the Cruisers Goeben and Breslau, flying the German flag and two Turkish torpedo boats arrived at Varna yesterday. A submarine which arrived at Varna in parts is being assembled at the Varna arsenal."

The Breslau and Goeben, which were turned over to Turkey by Germany shortly after the outbreak of the war and re-named respectively Midullu and Sultan Selim, were reported in a Copenhagen despatch Saturday night as having been in an attack by Turkish warships on a Russian squadron in the Black Sea.

TURKS AT BULGARIA. Paris, Nov. 1.—A Havas despatch from Athens filed yesterday says: "It is reported from Constantinople that the first division of Turkish revolutionists which has been engaged on the Gallipoli peninsula has left for Bulgaria Thrace.

The Bulgarian government has called on the consuls all consuls of the classes from 1895 to 1904. "Operations in Serbia are developing as expected. The present plan of the Germans and Bulgarians is to cut off towards the south the line of retreat of the main Serbian army of the north. The object of Serbian leaders is to conduct the retreat in such a way as to bring about a new line of defenses. It is believed in Greek military circles that while the position of the Serbian army is difficult, it is not desperate."

SERBIA CAN'T BE SAVED. Home, Oct. 31.—Via Paris, Nov. 1.—Col. C. A. Reppington, a London Times correspondent of the London Times, declared in an interview given The Giornale d'Italia, that the situation of Serbia is desperate. With her only chance of safety is to retire to the Adriatic coast, outside its own

THE COMPLETE STAFF IS NOW ANNOUNCED. Mounted Rifle Battalion, of which Lieut.-Colonel Brooks is in Command, Has All Its Officers Chosen—Outline of Their Military Careers.

The Courier some time ago gave the information that Lt.-Col. W. C. Brooks had been entrusted with the formation of a Mounted Rifles Battalion Canadian Expeditionary Force Eastern Canada. He has since been very busy in connection with the important duties appertaining to the post and the complete staff has now been approved as follows:

In command—Lt.-Col. Brooks. Second in Command—Major D. Sharp, "D" Squadron, 2nd Dragoons. Adjutant—Capt. R. T. Hall, 2nd Dragoons. Signalling Officer—Lt. Stewart Chambers, "C" Squadron, 2nd Dragoons. Quartermaster—Capt. W. Bentham, 25th Brant Dragoons. Machine Gun Officer—Lt. C. F. Secord, 38th Regiment Dufferin Rifles. Paymaster—Capt. E. G. Stratby, 10th York Rangers. Squadron Commander—"A" Squadron, 2nd Division, Major Gordon Smith, 25th Brant Dragoons. Squadron Commander, B Squadron, 1st Division, Major T. B. Balfour, London. Squadron Commander, 3rd Division, Major Allen Stroud, 4th Hussars, Kingston.

THE ABOVE OFFICERS. The above constitutes a most excellent list of officers. Lt.-Colonel Brooks started his military career when he was attending the Guelph Agricultural College. He joined "B" battery there and served for two years. Fifteen years ago he joined as a private in the 2nd Dragoons and his promotion was deservedly rapid. He finally became major commanding B Squadron. He is rightly regarded as one of the most efficient officers in Ontario, and is joined to strict military discipline, he possesses a most pleasing personality. He is generally recognized that no better choice could have been made for his present preferment. Major D. Sharp is M.P.P. for Wellington. He has been in command of D Squadron 2nd Dragoons, and his military abilities rank high. His personal popularity is abundantly testified by the fact that in the last provincial contest he won out by the handsome majority of 840.

The Adjutant Capt. R. T. Hall is well known to Brantfordites. He was with the Watson Manufacturing Company in the Holmedie and a member of the Dragoons. Some time ago he secured a commission in the 75th and will now be transferred. Capt. Hall is an Irishman and a graduate of Trinity University, Dublin. He possesses the characteristic urbanity of his race.

Quartermaster Capt. Bentham is an Englishman by birth, and has been associated in business for some years with Mr. A. L. Vanstone. He is an officer of the 25th Brant Dragoons and will be just the man for the post which he is to occupy.

Lt. Secord, machine gun officer, is a member of the well known contracting firm of P. H. Secord and Sons. He has been an officer in the 38th Dufferin Rifles and his selection constitutes another excellent choice.

Major Gordon Smith has been with the Brant Dragoons from the start and is thoroughly well up in military matters. He practised law in Paris before he came to Brantford to become Superintendent of the Six Nations Indians.

Lt. Stewart Chambers of Hamilton originally hailed from this city. The other officers are highly spoken of.

IN HAMILTON. Headquarters will be in Hamilton, probably on the Jockey Club grounds. The entire establishment will consist of between 600 and 700 men and about fifty of the Dragoons now training here will be drafted.

Another Son Wounded. Ugent, Italy, via Paris, Nov. 1.—Sante Garibaldi, another son of General Ricotti Garibaldi, has been wounded. He is suffering from a bullet in the hand. The condition of his brother, Ezio, who was seriously wounded near Coularca, is slowly improving.

DETECTING HOSTILE ZEPPELINS BY MICROPHONE LISTENING POSTS

ANTI-AIRCRAFT LISTENING POST. That are tenet listening posts have been established by the Allies for the detection of approaching hostile airships. The one shown in the photograph will register the slightest sound, which is then increased in volume sufficient to be audible by means of a microphone. When a warning is registered the listening squadrons are notified so that they may be prepared for battle. The anti-aircraft machine gun posts also are warned of the approaching danger and their guns are made ready to fire at the invader.

SERVICE IN TORONTO FOR MISS CAVELL

When Dead March Was Played People in Streets Stood With Bared Heads. Toronto, Nov. 1.—Toronto honored the memory of Edith Cavell yesterday. It was not only the tribute of the nursing sisters, but the expression of feeling of all the people of the city. The story of the sacrifice of Miss Cavell, told in the city pulpits, was sufficient to bring out that which is noblest in the British people. Thousands of people in various churches heard the story of the brave British nurse and her brutal murder at the hands of the barbarous Huns. Hundreds could not get past the doors. At St. Paul's Anglican church a memorial service, under the auspices of the Toronto Chapter of the Graduate Nurses' Association of Ontario, was held last evening. The big church was crowded to the doors and hundreds were turned away. The service was most impressive. Ven. Archdeacon Cody related the story of the martyr's death, which touched the audience as no other incident of the war can. "It belongs to those German blunders that are worse than blunders," said the preacher speaking of the murder of the nurse. "Belief that Germany had lost a whole army corps than have shot this woman."

Archdeacon Cody based his sermon on the text, "He saved others; himself he cannot save." "Belief that Germany had lost a whole army corps than have shot this woman."

Roumanian Military Leaders Wish to Join the Entente Powers

Special Wire to the Courier. Milan, Oct. 31, via Paris, Nov. 1.—At a meeting of the Roumanian headquarters staff held to discuss the military policy of that country, says the Corriere Della Sera's Bucharest correspondent, two-thirds of the general staff declared in favor of active participation on the side of the quadruple entente.

General Averescu, former minister of war, was the chief advocate of intervention. Asked by Gen. Christescu if he believed it possible to conduct a victorious war on two fronts, General Averescu replied that he not only believed it possible, but all the necessary plans were ready.

The semi-official Roumanian press has been authorized to deny the statement that King Ferdinand has given M. Radef, Bulgarian minister at Bucharest, formal assurances that Roumania will remain neutral unless her interests are affected. According to the Corriere Della Sera's correspondent, the Roumanian press denies also that the present king or his father ever possessed stock in the Krupp company.

DEVELOPMENTS SOON. New York, Nov. 1.—A London cable to the Herald this morning says: Ernest Smith telegraphs to The Daily News from Milan that more than two-thirds of the generals of the Roumanian headquarters staff favor immediate intervention on the side of the quadruple entente.

Confirming a special cable despatch to the Herald yesterday, the Times this morning publishes a despatch from its special correspondent at Athens that as a result of the belief that participation by Roumania on the side of the allies is imminent, the Greek cabinet and even the pro-German king are hedging and are ready at last if potential forces of allied troops are speedily sent to the Balkans, to cast in their lot with the entente.

Dr. E. J. Dillon, however, in a special despatch from Rome to the Daily Telegraph, warns England to keep a close watch on the Hellenic king, who if he becomes convinced the central empires are certain of victory, will keep his plauge to the Kaiser and force his army despite the opposition of the people to support Germany.

Notwithstanding Dr. Dillon's pessimism, however, I am informed the situation in the Balkans is becoming satisfactory to the powers of the entente, and a big development may be expected within a few days.

BRITISH TROOPS ARE IN TRENCHES IN BULGARIA

Special Wire to the Courier. London, Nov. 1.—The British troops in the Balkans, whose offensive it is likely that there will be frequent clashes over considerable stretches of the front, while the Bulgarian situation is so acute as each side desires to prevent the other from transferring troops to the near east.

While the contenders on the western front have not renewed the general offensive, it is likely that there will be frequent clashes over considerable stretches of the front, while the Bulgarian situation is so acute as each side desires to prevent the other from transferring troops to the near east.

LEWIS WALLER FAMOUS ACTOR DIED TO-DAY

Man Who Toured Canada a Few Years Ago Succumbs to Attack of Pneumonia. London, Nov. 1.—Lewis Waller, the actor, died this morning of pneumonia. Mr Waller was one of the leading actors of England. He first appeared in 1883, at the age of 23, and thereafter played in the English provinces and most of the west end theatres of London. For a time he managed the Haymarket Theatre, and recently has been lessee of the Imperial Theatre. He played in America in the season of 1911-12.

Special Wire to the Courier. London, Nov. 1.—The condition of King George, who was injured on Thursday by a fall from his horse, continues to improve. The following bulletin, timed at 10 o'clock this morning, was issued: "Improvement in the condition of the King continues. His Majesty had a better night."

BRANT BATTALION ALLOWED AT OTTAWA

"Start Recruiting To-day If You Like," Was Characteristic Answer of Sir Sam Hughes to Mr. Cockshutt's Request. Sir Sam Hughes did not waste much time in accepting the offer to raise a Brant County Battalion. In response to the letter which Mr. W. F. Cockshutt, M.P., sent at the request of the recruiting league, he on Saturday sent the following reply: "Mr. W. F. Cockshutt, M.P. Letter 28th received. Start recruiting a Brant County Regiment to-day if you like."

SAM HUGHES. In response to the above, steps will be taken at once to raise such a battalion as soon as some preliminaries have been completed.

THE COMMANDER. In connection with the command it is understood that two offers have already been made, one by Lt.-Col. Muir, commanding officer of the 25th Brant Dragoons, and the other by Capt. M. E. B. Cutcliffe, who, since the departure of Lt.-Col. Genet, has been in command of the Dufferin Rifles. A number of local officers have already proffered their services. Brantford has already furnished six commanders of battalions—Lt.-Col. Colquhoun, Lt.-Col. Howard, Lt.-Col. E. C. Ashton, Lt.-Col. A. N. Ashton, Lt.-Col. Genet and Lt.-Col. Brooks.

BATTALION STRENGTH. A battalion consists of 150 men with 39 officers. The latter include a Lt.-Col. in command, senior and junior majors, paymaster, quartermaster, four senior captains, four junior captains, lieutenants; also a machine gun section with either a lieutenant or captain in charge.

THE QUARTERING OF NEW REGIMENT. With the drill hall to be occupied for the winter by a half of the 84th battalion, there has been some talk as to how a new regiment could be located. The answer is very simple. As the regiment is to be recruited locally, those volunteers could continue to occupy their own homes.

JAPAN WILL AID ALLIES IN MONEY

Premier Okuma Says She Will Also Give Them Support of Her Arsenal. Paris, Nov. 1.—While Japan will be unable to send troops to the European theatres of war she will gladly assist the entente allies as far as she can financially, and lend them the support of her arsenals, according to Count Okuma, the Premier, who was interviewed at Tokio by The Matin's correspondent.

"There was talk last November of Japanese forces fighting in Europe," Count Okuma is reported to have said. "To have done that, we should have had to send 400,000 men, expecting to lose 200,000 of them and replace them with 200,000 more. We had not the necessary transports for we should have wanted 2,000,000 tons of shipping and our commercial fleet aggregates only 1,000,000. In the face of these figures Great Britain and France understand the impossibility of the operation.

"Our sympathies being as strong as ever, we should wish to give France our financial support at least and thus perhaps, hasten the end of the war. Japan is not a great financial power, but we have certain resources. We have just covered twice over a government loan of 30,000,000 yen ($15,000,000), and that probably would make the issue of a second loan difficult, but to prove our sympathy to France, we should be happy to give our aid, however modest.

"The impossibility of sending troops westward does not prevent us from giving our allies naval and military support. Our arsenals are mobilized as in time of war. We will also the role of sentinel in the Far East, preventing our enemies from fomenting revolt among the warlike Mussulman peoples, who might be tempted to profit from your difficulties. We also are doing everything necessary to guard against damage to the Trans-Siberian railway, whereby our supplies reach Kussia. The principle back of all Japanese action is that while our allies are fighting we shall not allow them to be attacked from behind."

MAJOR GENERAL LOGIE WAS HERE YESTERDAY

Paid a Flying Visit and Made Arrangements Regarding Old P.O. On Sunday, Major-General Logie and Major Harry Osborne of the General Staff, motored to Brantford in connection with some matters here which demanded their attention. They were met by Mr. W. F. Cockshutt, M.P., and several of the local officers. They paid a visit to the old post office building and it was decided to allot to recruiting and the Battery, the whole of the lower floor and the two upper stories to the Dragoons. Major General Logie, who impressed all by his military promptness, gave a number of other orders, and despatched quite a lot of business in very short order.

Mr. Guthrie had been a prominent figure in Guelph for many years. Kindly in disposition, generous to a fault to all that needed assistance, his passing has left a vacancy in the community that will not readily be filled.

HEROIC CALM OF REFUGEES DUE TO TEMPERANCE

Great Congestion of Roads Leading From Western Russia.

Petrograd, via London, Nov. 1.—The editor of the Ruskyy Slovo, who has made a personal tour on the roads on which there is a great congestion of refugees from Western Russia, writes of the terrible conditions prevailing. But he says, "we have to thank the work of public organizations, the mild autumn with late rains and the temperance of the people for the fact that the crisis is passing without grave disturbances. To temperance, more than any other factor, is due the heroic calm with which the homeless wanderers are pursuing their melancholy pilgrimage."

LONDON, NOV. 1.—At a meeting held here yesterday in behalf of the fund for the relief of Jewish victims of the British Jews, it was announced that there were a million and a half Jews starving in Russia.

LEOPOLD DE ROTHSCHILD presided and Lord Swaythling, Chief Rabbi Hertz and Israel Zangwill and other prominent Jews were present. Rabbi Hertz described the task before those raising the fund as vast and urgent. The response to the appeal for funds from the British Jews, he says, was not nearly adequate, mainly owing to the ignorance of the real state of affairs.

FOR NEARLY A YEAR there had been a sinister silence in the general press, broken only occasionally by a sneer at the Jews on the part of preachers of race hatred and apologists for reaction. The Jews, he added, were face to face with a tragedy unparalleled in the history of Jewish agony.

THE PETROGRAD authorities, Rabbi Hertz concluded, expected a million Jews and only $200,000 had been raised. He said the present call was for sacrifices and self taxation.

MORE MEN THAN WOMEN HAVE APPENDICITIS. Surgeons state men are slightly more subject to appendicitis than women. Brantford people should know that a few doses of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler's, often relieve or prevent appendicitis. ## GERMAN PLAN UPSET BY BALTIC SEA CAMPAIGN

Communications of Army After Riga Put in Great Danger.

LONDON, NOV. 1.—Germany's plans in the Riga district have been completely demoralized by the successful campaign of British submarines in the Baltic Sea and the complete closing of the Gulf of Riga by Russian mine fields says the Petrograd correspondent of the Post.

"The Germans now are endeavoring with the most feverish energy," the correspondent adds, "to hasten the restoration of the sender and under-quate railway services in their rear. This work, heretofore, has been carried on in leisurely fashion because of the belief that present needs could be adequately served by the sea route."

LETTERS FROM MAJ. NEWMAN ON MACK'S DEATH

First Letter Told of His Wound and Expressed Hope for Recovery.

The following two letters from Major Newman give particulars of the death of Sergeant Mack. Though badly wounded, his death was unexpected, but through all his trouble, he bore up as a soldier should.

FRANCE, October 7, 1915. No doubt you will have heard before this reaches you that Tom has been wounded. It happened this afternoon, 4.45 p. m., from a rifle which got him in the leg, — both legs were broken, but the Dr. told me to-night that he thought everything would be alright. Of course it would take time for them to set and before he would be around again he will likely have you himself in a few days. He certainly stood it like the game man he is.

All the boys in the company were greatly cut up about it, because they all thought a lot of the Sergt. Major. However, I am very thankful that it wasn't any worse. I do not think it touched him in any other part of the body.

My best regards to the two kiddies and any Brantford friends.

I wrote you on the 7th telling, you that Tom had been wounded on the 7th. I received word that he died at 10 p.m. Oct. 7, and would be buried at 2 p.m. I could not get back for the funeral, and have delayed writing until I could find out full particulars. Co'y Quartermaster-Sergt. Laing and five men from the company were at the funeral, besides a number of others from the battalion. Capt. Ward was the chaplain, and though I have not seen him, I believe he is writing to you. He was buried at Dranoatre. Arrangement will be made to have a proper tombstone on his grave. You will have heard ere this reaches you of his death. It was a great shock to me, because I never thought for a moment but that he would recover. I helped as much as I could in dressing his wounds. He was conscious and so very brave through it all, but the shock was too much for him. You know how much Tom and I were attached to each other. Limited company though the world and all of him. He was always so fair and straightforward with all the men. In fact the whole battalion from the Colonel down thought the world of him, and they all join me in offering deepest sympathy to yourself and family.

Very sincerely,
E. HERBERT NEWMAN.

CANTATA WAS RENDERED BY CHURCH CHOIR

Wesley Methodist Held Musical Evening, Choir Giving "Rolling Seasons."

An audience that taxed the seating capacity of Wesley church's utmost, assembled last evening when the choir of the church rendered Simper's beautiful cantata, "The Rolling Seasons." Those who anticipated a musical treat of rare merit were not disappointed, the affair proving one of the most enjoyable of its kind ever given in Brantford. Under the able leadership of Prof. F. J. Porter, the efficient and popular choirmaster, the large choir, some 55 in number, rendered this beautiful work in a manner that bespoke careful training and marked ability. The soloists were: Mrs. R. H. Martin (alto), Miss Hilda Wood (soprano), Mr. A. E. Martin (tenor), and Mr. Neil McLeod (baritone). The duets were taken by Mrs. Martin and Miss Wood, and one of the most delightful numbers of the evening, a trio, was rendered by these two artists and Mr. McLeod. The event will long be remembered by the congregation.

STEEL HELMETS GIVEN TO MEN IN TRENCHES

Look Like Pudding Basins, But Are Fine Protection Against Splinters.

London, Nov. 1.—On some parts of the Flanders battle front the armies have begun serving out to the men in the fire trenches, steel helmets similar to those introduced by the French.

The British helmet exactly resembles a pudding basin. It is lined with soft leather, and while light is very warm. The men are said to be delighted with the new equipment because of the added sense of security from splinters, bullets and bomb fragments.

GOT BACK MACHINE GUN FROM GERMANS

King George Reviewed the Troops on Oct. 27, 2,000 Men Marching Past.

Ottawa, Nov. 1.—Major-Gen. Sir Sam Hughes Sunday received the following despatch from the Canadian general representative at the front. "During the period Oct. 22 to 29 the general situation on our front underwent no material change. Heavy rains have fallen. In intervals of sunshine the enemy artillery displayed considerable activity, and our artillery replied by shelling the enemy's billets and trenches. With exception of occasional outbursts of bombing, the enemy was unusually quiet. There was little hostile rifle or machine gun fire. Our bombers and patrols maintained their activity."

The Situation.

The Germans by a most violent attack lasting two days on the Champagne front, made the most desperate effort yet recorded to recover territory lost by them in the French offensive movement of a short time ago. They recaptured Tabbure Hill and this is an important point more especially because it dominates a railway. On the rest of the front, the enemy would appear to have been effectively repelled with very heavy losses. The outcome illustrates the fact that the French, always brilliant in assault, are in this struggle demonstrating qualities of dogged defence of a most marked nature. East of Neuville the Hun made a gain along a lengthy front, but latest reports are that the French have once more retaken some of the trenches. It is very evident that the German forces have received reinforcements from the Russian area.

In the last named field the troops of the Czar are keeping the invader well away from Riga and Dvinsk, while the Italians continue to make things more than interesting for the Austrians.

From the Balkans there is very little news of an authentic nature. The area is a seething cauldron, and it is hard through the vapor to secure any clear view of what is transpiring. If Romania should throw in her lot with the Allies—but here again speculation is useless, for no one can tell what either that country or Greece has in contemplation, or how far they have been enmeshed by intrigues with Berlin. It looks like a very hard row for the Allies to hoe in this quarter, but it will be done.

The Call for Men.

Just as expected, the call for still more men in Canada to offer their services for the front, has met with a prompt and hearty response.

The Dominion has done well up 'o date. In a little over a year, we have sent 100,500 men abroad, and there are at home 71,500 men. The present request is for 100,000 more, and it will be met without any hesitation just the same as other like demands as the need arises.

The men from here have abundantly made good their title as equal to the best of any fighters at the front. The toll has been heavy. According to the last official report, the losses then stood at 15,387—677 officers and 14,510 men. Of these, 127 officers and 2,490 men have been killed, and there is a long list of missing.

The sacrifice has brought sorrow to many homes, but in all there is the legitimate pride that brave lives have gone out, and will continue to go out, on behalf of the great Empire cause and for the triumph of liberty and freedom as opposed to the devilish despotism which the Kaisers are attempting to set up.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Sir Sam has passed the word to go right ahead with a Brant Battalion and the same will be delivered, never fear.

Sir Charles Tupper was 75 years of age when he led his forces in the Dominion fight of 1896, and on that occasion he toured Ontario from end to end, making two and three speeches a day. Even after he had passed ninety he published his reminiscences. His physical vigor was only outlasted by his mental alertness, which remained undiminished to the end.

A German paper thus summarizes the terms on which Germany will accept peace:

"Austria to annex the greater part of Serbia; Belgium to become a demilitarized German with the exception of a small corner which Holland will be allowed to occupy.

France to be deprived of her fortified places.

Russia to lose Finland, the Baltic provinces, Bessarabia, Poland, the Crimea and portions of the Caucases. Her eastern possessions as well as Egypt and practically all of her colonies, India to become a semi-independent state under German protection.

The German paper in question is altogether too modest. It has forgotten to ask for the allotment of corner lots on the moon and a few of the planets.

In papers across the line there have been many tributes in prose and verse to Miss Cavell. This from the New York Times is one of the best—

"She faced the firing squad alone, And with unbanded eyes Looked upward to the moon that shone— The moon of English skies.

The prison faded from her view, The trampling armed men; And in the lanes her childhood knew She roamed a child again.

A tiny flag upon her breast Showed where her heart did lie: "I'm glad," she smilingly confessed, "For England's sake to die."

A volley—and her spirit fled From earth without a groan, O foe! men! wept ye o'er the dead, Oh had ye hearts of stone?

Knew none of you her gentle hand, Had smoothed your comrade's cot? Shrunk none of you from their command To fire the fatal shot?

Her blood proclaims with crimson stain The doom of tyranny! They die for freedom not in vain Who die as brave as she."

NEWSPAPERMEN OF BRITAIN VISIT FLEET

Unite in Paying Tribute to Efficiency of Ships of All Classes.

London, Nov. 1.—Graphic descriptions of the first visit of British newspapermen to Great Britain's grand fleet are published by all the morning papers. They unite in paying tribute to the preparedness and efficiency, not only as to the main fighting units but also as to the less prominent ships. A naval officer aboard one of the ships told the correspondents that in addition to war fleet proper there are between two thousand and three thousand ships of the merchant marine employed in transport and supply duty and as many more engaged in patrol work or in foiling the "declining efforts of enemy submarines."

The visitors were shown the celebrated map on which are marked the places where German submarines have been captured, destroyed or sunk and various methods for meeting the submarine menace were explained to them.

"We actually saw vessels engaged in this anti-submarine business leaving port," says one correspondent. "Indeed it is not necessary to go outside the harbor to understand why the blockade has failed. Here at anchor alongside one another lay the Bane and the Anvil of the Fleet." "One full day of the visit was spent in inspecting large new naval works at a place which a short time ago was swampy land, but is now a live and busy naval establishment, which will be large enough when completed to accommodate twenty dreadnaughts. The works include three dry docks, each of which is capable of holding any ship afloat."

"The party visited the battle cruisers Lion and Tiger, viewing the patched funnels and shell wounds received in the North Sea battle. They also visited the Australia and New Zealand, colonial contribution to the high seas fleet. One correspondent, touching on various devices used in painting, declares a cleverly disguised turret can be so painted that even in daylight the practiced eye of a sailor is likely to mistake her for a craft a tenth of her size, while the electric light range finding are increased infinitely."

OPENING OF LITERARY CLUB OF Y. W. C. A.
An Address on "Literature," Readings and Musical Selections the Features.

The Y. W. C. A. Literary Club, whose membership bids fair to exceed that of previous years, held its first regular meeting of the season on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. G. P. Buck, President, occupied the chair. The minutes reviewing the past year's work, read by Mrs. G. D. Watt, secretary, were duly approved. The theme of Mrs. Buck's opening address was Empire Builders, which she presented in a delightfully instructive manner, following the earlier empire builders through history to those of our present day. Mrs. Buck's forecast of the club's work revealed the programme to be of a distinctly patriotic trend. Cleverly chosen paragraphs were embodied in an interesting paper on "Current Events," by Mrs. Yeigh. "Literature, an inspiration to Patriotism," was the subject of a stirring address by Miss Hollinrake. Extracts from Mrs. Wier's, Victor Hugo, Browning, Tennyson, Burns and Ruskin illustrated the address, which was interrupted by frequent bursts of applause. Miss Evelyn Buck gave a most enjoyable reading on the death of Brock, by Gilbert Parker, followed by the well-chosen verses of Rupert Brooke, the young poet, who recently met an untimely death at the Dardanelles. Miss Mildred Sanderson delighted all with a beautifully rendered violin solo, in which she was efficiently accompanied by Mr. White. Miss Taylor sang very sweetly Tosti's "Good-Bye." The National Anthem brought the program to a close, after which tea was served under the supervision of Mrs. Lloyd Harris.

DECLINES CALL TO THE PARK BAPTIST CHURCH.
Rev. J. J. Ross of Hamilton Will Not Come Here—Former Pastor Present Yesterday.
Yesterday morning Rev. C. W. Rose, former pastor, was present at Park Baptist church, and gave a brief address expressing his pleasure at meeting old friends in the church. Afterwards he read the scripture lesson and offered prayer. Dr. Hooper delivered a strong sermon on "Transfiguration," which was singularly appropriate to the occasion. Mrs. Schultz presided at the organ with her accustomed ability and a large crowd was present at the service. At the close of the sermon Mr. Stenbaugh, church clerk, was called upon to read a letter from Rev. J. J. Ross of Hamilton. Mr. Ross felt he should decline the call sent to him as the time was not opportune. He did not consider his work done in Hamilton.

NEW FASHIONS, NEW IDEAS, NEW ENTHUSIASMS EVERY DAY NOW!

"THE LADY OF THE LAMP"

That sounds like the title of one of the Arabian Nights Tales, but it was what Florence Nightingale was known by, as she passed through the hospital tents at Scutari and elsewhere in the wars of the Crimea. Tender, refined, self-sacrificing Canadian women are on the battlefields these days and in the hospitals these nights, going about with little candles to duties of love and skill for the wounded and dying soldiers.

These are wonderful days in which to be living, when there is so much to be done at home and abroad. The woman or man with burning heart who carries a little lamp to light the way may lighten life's burdens for somebody.

This huge building is more than a warehouse. It is a great lamp shining brightly upon its hundred or more workers who find pleasure in their work in attending daily with great courtesy upon the throngs of city and country people who find so many things here that they want.

Hundreds and hundreds have told us of their great enjoyment of this safe store.

HAMILTON CLINCHES BIG FOUR TITLE

Tigers Defeated Ottawa in the Crucial Game by a Score of 19 to 5.

Ottawa, Nov. 1.—Ottawa's last chance for the championship of the Inter-provincial Amateur Football Union went glimmering on Saturday when the Hamilton Tigers were victorious by 19 to 5 at Lansdowne Park. Ottawa had the better of the line play but their tackling was poor and the great work of Manson at centre-half for the Tigers gave the visitors a big advantage. Clement and Glasford also doing splendidly at outside wing. The play was close in the first half, Tigers leading at the interval by 5 to 4. Shortly after the start of the third the unbeaten Jungle Kings forced Ottawa up the field and Manson booted it across to Munroe, who made a pretty catch. He followed, however, with a fatal blunder, endeavoring to kick out and missing the ball altogether. Clements fell on it for a try and Manson converted, placing the game choice for the Westerners. In the fourth quarter the recruits, Munroe, tumbled again and Glasford was scored his second try of the match, picking up the loose ball and planting it behind the posts. Ottawa's offensive was practically paralyzed when the officials, Foulds and Riddell refused to allow Shaughnessy's new trick play. They called Ottawa so often for off-side interference and set them back so frequently that the entire Ottawa team became demoralized. Ottawa protested strenuously over the decisions, but Foulds and Riddell were strict and they had to abandon the play. It was a strenuous game with many penalties.

Roxy Roach Returns Advance Money

Toronto, Nov. 1.—The Toronto's shortstop who jumped the club last summer and joined the Buffalo Reds, has returned to the Leafs the sum of $1,700 which he received as advance money when he signed his contract to play here.

Roach declared when he deserted the Leafs that he would not return the advance money, and the Toronto Club immediately took legal measures to recover it. The case was to have come up for trial next month, but Roach decided that there was no use for further bluffing, and came across with the money.

Argonauts Won.

Montreal, Nov. 1.—The Argonauts, of Toronto, defeated Montreal on the grounds at Windsor Saturday afternoon in the final game of the season here by 10 to 0. The local team was handicapped by the absence of several of the older players, a number of the members of the team being little more than school-boys. There was some rough play, chiefly on the part of the Argonauts, being the chief offender, in the view of the officials. He became involved in an argument with Fullerton, and struck the Montreal player, being penalized five minutes.

THIS RAILWAY NOT SURPASSED ON THE CONTINENT.

The Grand Trunk System has acquired among discriminating travellers a high reputation for service, fine roadbed and splendid equipment. The officials of the Grand Trunk have received during the summer tourist season—which is just ending, hundreds of letters from American travellers, who have used the Company's new Transcontinental line to or from the Pacific coast. One of these letters received this week was from Mr. Thomas Shrewsbury Parkhurst, the well known United States Artist, who is in charge of the Toledo (Ohio) Museum of Art—

"I wish," says Mr. Parkhurst, to express my appreciation for the excellent play service which it was my good fortune to enjoy on a recent trip of over 3,000 miles by sea and rail over the system of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railroad in travel and scenic and service, and in a broad general way, both are attained in the ride along the Pacific Coast in your steamships from Seattle to Prince Rupert, there is no "final de mer" as the inside passage, and one may see a changing panorama of pine crested islands, which for beauty are not surpassed on this continent. This scenic beauty assumes its grandest heights as you leave the steamer and journey eastward from Prince Rupert by rail—towering snow clad mountains, glaciers and noble rivers, make the trip of continued delight and when coupled with the splendid train equipment and the unflinching courtesy of its officials, it commends itself as a distinct achievement in modern travel."

A strange death recently befel a member of the Royal Irish Constabulary. He was cutting a bough off a large tree in his house in Drumad, Armagh, when the bough, weighing over a ton, broke, and the end pinning him against the trunk, killed him. The first news of the accident was brought by his little child running to her mother saying, "Daddy is asleep up in the tree."

HALF MILLION DOLLAR ORDER FOR CANADA

Mr. Thomas Before Leaving Pays Tribute to Shell Committee.

HAS BEEN SUBJECT TO UNFAIR CRITICISM
Canadian Manufacturers Do Not Desire Excessive Profits.

Ottawa, Oct. 31.—British orders aggregating five hundred millions of dollars have come or are coming to Canada, according to a statement made yesterday afternoon by Mr. D. A. Thomas, representative of the British Minister of Munitions. Mr. Thomas left Sunday afternoon for New York in his way back to England, having accomplished his mission to the United States and Canada. He expects to return before Christmas. His work in Canada is now in the hands of Mr. Lionel Hitchens, who has been appointed to represent Mr. Lloyd George, and who will have charge of the reconstruction of the Shell Committee, or, as Mr. Thomas describes it, the Canadian Munitions Committee. The main feature of the reorganization of the committee will be the retirement of those members who are interested in the manufacture of munitions.

Mr. Thomas issued a lengthy statement in which he reviewed the work of the Shell Committee and himself, touching upon most of the questions with which rumor has been busy for the past two or three months. Gen. Bertram, chairman of the Shell Committee, had no comment to make on the statement issued by Mr. Thomas. "Everything," he said, "is in the statement."

Canada was "doing fine" both in her contribution of men and munitions to the needs of the Empire in this great crisis, said Mr. Thomas, and with the orders that had already been placed and the rewards in the large orders that were now being allocated, the capacity of the Dominion, though not fully utilized, would be heavily drawn upon. He estimated the value of these orders at something approaching $500,000,000, or over $60 per head of the population in Canada. This, with the enormous grain crop, that had just been harvested in the West, and the industrial prosperity in Canada for some time to come. He referred to orders placed for all the supplies and not for munitions only.

PRAISE FOR GEN. BERTRAM.
Referring to the criticism that had been made on the work of the Shell Committee, Mr. Thomas said his relations with that body during the most trying character and while it would be idle to deny that they had not always seen eye to eye on questions of policy, their differences have not been in any sense of a personal nature. He considered that the committee had done excellent work under most difficult and trying circumstances, and that they, and more particularly General Bertram, their chairman, had placed the country under a heavy debt of obligation. Gen. Bertram had worked like a trojan night and day and given his services to the state without fee or reward. The Shell Committee was doing an enormous business, the size of which was hardly recognized by the public. It was probably the biggest business in the Empire to-day. It had grown enormously, almost out of recognition, since its inception twelve months ago and when the small orders entrusted to it were given out. Under these circumstances, the official announcement by the Prime Minister on Friday last that he considered the time had arrived when the committee should be re-organized was not a surprise. The Minister would cause no surprise. The Minister of Militia, with whom he might say little time to familiarize himself with the position and to form his own judgment of the conditions prevailing before he proceeded actively in the matter. The lines which the reorganization would follow and the personnel of the committee would be determined by Mr. Hitchens. The proposal of the Prime Minister was that the committee should be under the direct authority and control of the Imperial Ministry of Munitions. Contracts could be made direct on behalf of the Minister of Munitions and the Canadian mind probably be met by the retirement from the present committee of members interested in the manufacture of munitions.

UNFAIR CRITICISM
At this point, he is bound to say that he considers the criticisms that have been leveled against Col. Cantley and other manufacturing members of the Shell Committee has been unfair, and has been based on a misconception of their functions. The executive work of the committee has been discharged by General Bertram, latterly with the help of Col. D. Cantley. These two gentlemen have been responsible for advising the Imperial authorities in the matter of prices, after authorization in respect to covering prices in the matter has been received from London. Col. Cantley and the manufacturers on the committee have acted only in an advisory capacity, and in this way their technical knowledge has been of great service. Further, Col. Cantley has expended considerable sums in experiments on shell etc. and the results of the experiments have, Mr. Thomas understands, been freely placed at the disposal of other manufacturers. Another fact should be in fairness to the committee, he made public and it is this: General Bertram has in the allocation of orders for component parts made very substantial savings on the covering prices for complete rounds, etc., authorized for the Imperial Government. These savings already amount to a little short of fifteen million dollars, or nearly ten per cent. of the amount of the orders to which such savings refer. Another point which Mr. Thomas would like to emphasize is that in his opinion, Gen. Bertram has shown himself singularly free from party bias and has not let himself be influenced by party considerations in the placing of orders. He has distributed the orders for the smaller shells in lesser quantities and over a wider field than Mr. Thomas, looking at the matter from the British taxpayer's point of view, would have guided by a wish to relieve industrial depression prevailing in Canada over as wide an area as possible.

PROFITS TOO HIGH
The profits of the manufacturers have, in Mr. Thomas judgment, been higher than they were entitled to under the circumstances. Anyway, it is past history as far as Mr. Thomas is concerned, and under the new system has now been adopted by the Shell Committee, or as he would prefer to call it in the future, the "Canadian Munitions Committee," there would be no cause for complaint in this respect.

The utilization of the Transcona Shops of the State Railway, if satisfactory terms can be arranged with contractors, is also, Mr. Thomas thinks, a step in advance. While the prices paid for the large shells made in Canada have been somewhat above placed in the United States, he thought Canada is entitled to preferential treatment. He is satisfied that Canadian manufacturers as a whole, and with few exceptions are animated by patriotic wish to do their "bit" for the Empire, and that they do not desire to make excessive gains at the expense of the British taxpayer. Mr. Thomas said he would leave

Canada with regret, but frankly he wanted to get home. He only promised his friend, Mr. Lloyd George, to remain out two months on this side of the Atlantic, but five months will have elapsed before he reaches home, and his business associates are clamoring for his return. In saying good-bye he felt that he left things in good shape all around, and that his time, both in Canada and the United States, had not been wasted, indeed, had been very fruitful in results, and the commission entrusted to him, in the main, been satisfactorily completed.

FAMOUS DICKENS INTERPRETER IS CALLED BY DEATH

E. S. Williamson, Head of Dickens Fellowship in Toronto, Died on Saturday.

Toronto, Oct. 31.—A most lovable and kindly personality passed away on Saturday night in the death of Mr. E. S. Williamson known throughout Canada and beyond as an interpreter of works of Dickens. Mr. Williamson suffered a breakdown some months ago, but pluckily held to his duties at the Parliament Building until Oct. 18, when he was removed to Wellesley Hospital where his death came all too soon from a form of tuberculosis. The news of his end will be a shock to hundreds who esteemed his fine character and genial manner. The remains were removed yesterday to his home in Brampton. On Tuesday they will be brought to Toronto for burial at Mt. Pleasant. On Friday evening a memorial service will be conducted by the Dickens Fellowship, the details of which are not as yet fully arranged. Archdeacon Cody, Rev. Dr. Hincks and Mr. M. A. Denovan will be among the speakers on that occasion.

A LOVER OF DICKENS.
Mr. Williamson was born at Brampton forty-three years ago, the son of the late W. S. Williamson. He was educated in the local schools, and in 1899 he entered the public service as a clerk in the Crown Lands Department. He was an industrious and faithful public servant, and was closely associated with the late Aubrey White in the administrative work of the department. Mr. White's death some months ago was a heavy blow to him. As a lover of Dickens and collector of Dickensiana he was almost without a rival anywhere. It was not merely a hobby; it amounted to a passion. The innate love of humanity and sympathy for the unfortunate that marked the great novelist found an instant response in Mr. Williamson's own sympathetic disposition. He was the owner of Dickens' watch and of other curios, and his library had thousands of volumes and documents relating to his favorite.

A WORLD-BEATING SOCIETY

He lectured on Dickens in a most entertaining and enlightening manner. He played Dickens' characters and he founded and organized the Dickens Fellowship in Toronto, which with its 1,000 members, became the largest of its kind in the world. He was president of the Fellowship from 1905 to 1912, when he resigned and was succeeded by Mr. F. M. Bell-Smith. As Sergeant Buzz Fizz he made an instant success in the presentation on many occasions of the drama, "Bardell v. Pickwick." He was also a member of the Dickens Players, which company appeared on many platforms.

KELVIN
Some of the farmers in this locality took their hogs to Scotland depot on Tuesday for shipment. The farmers around here are busy these days harvesting their root crops and husking their corn. Mr. L. Hewitt and family have moved from this vicinity to Brantford. Mrs. Roy Thornton was visiting Mrs. John Andrews a few days ago. Mr. Martin and family of Kound Plains have moved on the farm here recently purchased from Mr. L. Hewitt. Mr. and Mrs. George Crabb spent one day this week in Waterford, the guests of the former's brother, Mr. Jas. Crabb. A number around here are suffering from bad colds and rheumatism. Several from this vicinity attended the harvest home services at Zion on Sunday.

hold Dr. Henry Lee, pressed with the weight of years, guardian of the heir of Stanley and wondering what will the harvest be?

The old colored nurse is dead, as is also the old colored factotum, Ned. There is none alive that knows what really happened on that tragic night and in the tragic time that followed save the venerable old doctor and the gypsy woman whom he has sought for secretly, but in vain, through all these years.

While Arthur Stanley 20 carouses with his cousin and other wild companions at Stanley hall and while old Dr. Lee nurses in his study and wonders what will the harvest be the harvest is close at hand. Fate, weaver of destinies, in the shape of Hagar comes upon the scene.

If the doctor has wondered if in his hate of one dead man and his love for another he has not done wrong Hagar, queen of the gypsies, wonders, too, if her vengeance has not gone all awry. Esther Stanley, or, as she is known, Esther Harding, is a beautiful and sweetly disposed young woman now. The wild mother love Hagar bore for the son that was sold from her has passed to sweet Esther. So it is that Hagar returns to Virginia, resolved again to sacrifice her very heart. A wild gypsy camp is no abiding place for a fair young girl of gentle blood.

Hagar knows all the documents she took from Stanley hall when she abducted Esther, knows them by heart, as she knows every fact on the diamond from the sky, which she wrung that night from the dead hand of Colonel Stanley. She would see her boy again in his manhood. The wild hope possesses her that he may fall in love with Esther and that the secret that only two living people know shall rest lightly with the dead when Esther is mistress by marriage, if not by right, of Stanley hall.

Her message for Dr. Lee is a written one. It reads:

I have come back after eighteen years. I have had my revenge, but I love the girl. What shall be done with her?—ESTHER HARDING.

Esther only learns from the kindly lips of the doctor and the tremulous ones of her supposed mother that a new life has opened for her; that she must take her place in the society of the countryside as the adopted daughter of Dr. Lee, as long arranged. This is all she knows; this is all she is told, as with her belongings she bids a weeping adieu to the stern but kindly gypsy woman she has known as mother all her conscious years. And she rides away as the doctor's daughter from the gypsy camp. With Esther the doctor takes the diamond from the sky, demanded of Hagar as part of Esther's inheritance.

Hardly has the doctor's carriage departed than Luke Lovell, Hagar's head man, is given command to strike camp. In an instant all is bustle and confusion. Within an hour Hagar and her tribe are on their way.

In three months, though the proud women of the neighborhood look askance, Esther is the belle of the countryside. The vine clad porch of the doctor's old house sees nightly gathered there the young sparks of Fairfax.

They come a night in June, and in the moonlight are four young men, all paying court to the happy Esther. Chief among them are the Stanley cousins, Arthur and Blair. Some slight attention to his cousin, Blair, rouses Arthur to a temper of jealousy. Fretfully rebuked by Esther, Arthur leaves in a huff. Then Esther vents her coquettish displeasure upon the till then triumphant Blair, and he, now angry also, arises and departs, leaving the field to two swains.

In his study that overlooks the garden at the side the old doctor is gazing wonderingly in the light of the study lamp at the great diamond.

Sulkily straying by the house, in his jealousy and anger, Blair Stanley sees the light gleaming from the study. Curious and not overwise in his curiosity, he peers through the window. He starts back, clenching his hands. He remembers now the oft whispered suspicions of his mother: "Dr. Lee was alone with Colonel Stanley when he died. Who else but he has taken and hidden away the Stanley heirloom?"

The obsession of the desire for this priceless Stanley heirloom has been born and bred in Blair Stanley. He lies away, but that night, when the swains have long departed and the good doctor and the fair Esther have long retired to their chamber, Blair Stanley returns prepared to break in and bear away the diamond from the sky.

In the library at Stanley hall the young heir of Stanley muses and dreams in softened mood of Esther. His guitar lies near him, and he picks it up and gently strums it. In his mind's eye he sees himself serenading sweet Esther Lee, as she is now called, and begging her gentle pardon in the moonlight should she come to her window to listen. The romantic idea suits his mood. He takes the guitar and hastens again to the doctor's house.

Blair Stanley has clambered through the study window, closed it and drawn the shade. He has softly lit the doctor's study lamp and rifled the drawer of the old secretary and the cash box it holds. He has seized the diamond from the sky and clasped it in agitated ecstasy upon his bosom. Then upon his guilty ears falls the strain of a guitar. He hides the diamond and the chain and locket that holds it beneath his collar and under his shirt. Meanwhile, sleeping the light slumber of the aged, the old doctor has been aroused by the opening of the window. Candle in hand, he descends to his study and enters just as the last gleam from the diamond in the lamplight is surrounded by the shirt of the thief in the night. There is a quick, sharp struggle. Frenzied with fear and covetousness and resolved to do murder rather than lose the long coveted heirloom, Blair Stanley, maddened with fear and rage, strangles the old doctor till the weak old man falls back in his chair, his heart stopped in death. Then the murderer backs from the window, where the strains from the guitar, strains of a love song, tinkle in the night.

CHILD GETS SICK
CROSS, FEVERISH
IF CONSTIPATED

A laxative to-day saves a sick child to-morrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! It coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailments, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

Seditious leaflets against recruiting were recently posted in conspicuous places in the town of Cork by a young clerk in the employment of a shipping company. It appears that he used the company's stationery for his anti-recruiting bills, and it was thus easy for the police to trace him. At the trial it was stated he had read so much literature about the war and brooded over it so much that he got hallucinations on the subject, and the court let him off with a light sentence.
