PEACH FESTIVAL.—The Good Templars announce a peach festival to come off in the Drill Shed on Tuesday, September 1st.

BASE BALL.—A match will be played this afternoon at 4 o'clock, on the Main Street grounds.—The Lawyers against the Bankers and Doctors.

THE LATE T. B. HARRIS.—At the regular meeting of the Guelph Masonic Lodge to-night, arrangements will be made for attending the funeral of the late T. B. Harris, a notice of whose death appears in another column. A full attendance of the brethren is requested.

THE HERD LADDIE.—The checker players had a bout with the "Herd Laddie" yesterday in Mr. McKenzie's rooms, but none of them got even "a draw." Mr. Mitchell and Dr. Cowan played good games with him, but both were beaten. He plays this afternoon and evening in the Wellington Hotel.

CIVIC HOLIDAY.—We learn that a petition is being numerously signed, asking the Council to appoint Monday next as our annual civic holiday. The Council will no doubt accede to the request. Apart from other considerations, the Governor leaves town on that day, and the holiday will enable those of the citizens who feel disposed to go and see his departure.

TO THE LAKE.—This morning, shortly after nine o'clock, a procession of about fifteen carriages, headed by Lawrence's Band, organized on St. George's Square, and started down Wyndham Street, bound for Puslinch Lake, where the Hotel Keepers hold a grand picnic. If charming music, excellent weather, and a bountiful supply of provisions will help to make the occasion enjoyable, those who have gone to the Lake to-day should have a pleasant time.

A CATTLE CAR ON FIRE.—As the eastern mixed train on the Grand Trunk on Monday evening was passing Tuck's Hill, the conductor noticed that one of the cattle cars was on fire. Communicating with the engineer by the bell cord, he stopped the train, and the passengers lent their aid in endeavoring to check the flames, which fortunately did not gain much headway. The door of the car was locked, and as the fire had originated in the inside the efforts to suppress it were almost unavailing, especially as the water had to be carried from the engine. Finally Mr. John Weir, of St. Mary's, burst the door open and succeeded in overcoming the flames, but the car was greatly frightened the cattle. When this train was near Hamburg the door of one of the cattle cars flew open, causing a bullock to fall out and receive such injuries that it could not be taken further. Owing to these mishaps, the train did not arrive in Guelph until about half-past nine o'clock.

ANOTHER OLD SETTLER GONE.—One by one the old settlers in Guelph Township—who bore their full share of the struggles incident to pioneer life, and who lived to realize their youthful hopes—are disappearing from our midst. Mr. Joseph Hobson, Sr., one of the oldest of those early settlers, has passed away. He died at an early hour this (Wednesday) morning. The deceased came to Guelph Township in 1832, when there was but a mere handful of settlers, and when but only a few acres of land were cleared in the whole Township. After remaining some time he returned to England, where he resided for seven years. He again returned to Canada, and remained on the farm he originally took up in Paisley Block, which he continued to work until failing health compelled him to give up. For the past six years and more he was in infirm health, but was not confined to bed until about a fortnight previous to his death. The deceased was held in great respect by all his friends and neighbours, many of whom shared with him in the struggles incident to a young settlement, and who learned to esteem him for his many excellent qualities.

HARPER'S FOR SEPTEMBER.—The September number of Harper's Magazine covers a large variety of topics in its reading matter, and contains over one hundred illustrations. Among the features are an illustrated paper on Negro Schools; a continuation of Prof. Nourse's able review of the astronomical work accomplished by United States Observatories; a comprehensive paper on the present commercial situation of the Southern States; and an illustrated poem by T. Trowbridge, entitled "Song of the Flail." "The Silent Majority" describes the various modes of sepulture that have been adopted in past ages. The illustrated article on the South Sea Islands is now especially timely and important in connection with the project of the annexation to Great Britain of the Fiji Islands. Other features are: An illustrated biographical sketch of William Wakepeace Thackeray, by R. H. Stoddard; Illustrated Poems by Mrs. C. A. Merighi and Nelly M. Hutchinson; Poems by Helen S. Conant, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps and Joseph Cook; A new and charming serial story, "Eape of the Gamp," illustrated by Fredericks; An interesting and profusely illustrated paper on "The Art of Perfumery"; and two excellent short stories by Frank Lee Benedict and Constance F. Monroe Woolson. The five editing departments are full of entertainment and instruction in their various fields—social, literary, scientific, historical, and humorous.

METHODIST CONFERENCE.—The meeting of the quadrennial Legislative Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church will be held at Napanee, commencing on Wednesday, the 26th inst. This is always an important meeting, but more than the usual amount of interest will be felt in its proceedings this year. It is prominently the election of a new bishop, and the settlement of the question of lay representation in the General Conference.

NEW MASONIC LODGE IN CLIFFORD.—A new Masonic Lodge was formally organized and constituted under warrant from the Grand Lodge of Canada, in this place on Monday evening, by R. W. At the conclusion of the ceremonies the brethren of the Clifford Lodge entertained their visitors to a sumptuous repast. After a time pleasantly spent with toast, song, and sentiment, the proceedings were brought to a conclusion with the usual friendly greetings. The brethren of Clifford have fitted up a handsome and comfortable lodge-room, and open under the most favorable auspices.

Death of Thomas B. Harris, Grand Secretary A. F. & A. M. of Canada.

From the Hamilton Times of Tuesday.

We are to-day called upon to chronicle the death of a prominent citizen in the person of the late Thomas B. Harris, for many years a resident of this city, but better known for his lengthy and close connection with the Order in Canada and the Ancient Free and Accepted Masons. Mr. Harris, who was Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. M. of Canada from its founding, last July attended the recent annual meeting in Toronto. There he was on the 6th of the month seized with an illness which changed in a few days to acute rheumatism of the chest, from which the sufferings were intense. This was followed about a week later with a low type of typhoid fever, which baffled all the efforts of the physicians, and, though hope of recovery was entertained up to a recent date, it was abandoned a few days ago, as the patient had sunk to the lowest ebb and was utterly exhausted. Yesterday his dissolution was expected, but it was only at 8.30 o'clock this morning that the deceased breathed his last, and so placidly that the cessation of life was barely perceptible. The funeral services were arranged for 3 p.m. on Thursday, and it is expected that there will be a special meeting of the Grand Lodge, and that all the officers will be present at the mournful obsequies.

G. W. Bro. Harris was elected Grand Secretary in 1855 and Grand Registrar in 1856; in 1857 he was again chosen G. S., and has since enjoyed the office. The deceased was in regular gradation through Captain Masonry, the Order of the Red Cross of Rome and Constantine, and received the 33rd, which are all to be obtained in the Order. He was instrumental in 1855 in getting from the G. L. of Ireland a warrant for "St. John's" Chapter, and he became the Principal Z, which he wore for six years. For the past thirteen years he was Grand Scribe of the Royal Arch Masons of Canada. Having taken the degree of "Red Cross Knight," "Knights Templar," Knight of Malto, Rhodes, Palestine, and St. John of Jerusalem, &c., in the Genesee Encampment, No. 10, Lookport, State of New York, in April, 1854, he endeavored to obtain a United States Warrant for opening a Grand Encampment in Canada, but the Warrant was declined. He obtained one from the Grand Conclave of Ireland, but it could not be used. The Warrant was subsequently exchanged for one under the Supreme Grand Conclave of England and Wales, and the Grand Encampment, No. 1, was opened in 1859, with E. Sir Knight Harris as E. Commander. He was subsequently elected for the years 1860, 1861, 1862, 1863, again in 1866, in 1868, 1869, 1871.

The Herald's Imaginary Grievances.

The Herald, having failed to tell us what it means by calling the Governor-General a "bloated aristocrat," now seeks to cover up its insult to Her Majesty's representative by taking a new tack, and endeavouring to evoke a little sympathy among the indignant Conservatives by another prolonged whine over the loss of the Clerk of the Peace's advertising.

It first calls in question the correctness of our statement in reference to the Post Office quarterly advertising. We stand by that statement. Before the present proprietor of the Herald got hold of it the "uncalled for" letters were advertised in the three town papers alternate quarters, but as soon as the Herald fell into the hands of its present proprietor this custom was at once stopped, and in answer to a plaintive petition, sent down to John A. Macdonald, that the paper was languishing for paper, an order was sent for it to receive all the plunder, which it did from that time till the late Government fell. Of course—as we said before—it was also the recipient of other favours, including a junior Judgeship.

Then as regards the Clerk of the Peace's advertising and work, the Herald states that it was done by tender, and that since the advent of the Local Reform Government its tender was invariably accepted. We grant that the work was at one time done by tender, but we are positive in our statement that at least for three years previous to the death of the late Clerk of the Peace, a tender was never asked from this office for the work. It must have been a funny sort of tendering that the Herald made when there was no competition, at least as far as we were concerned. The whole thing was nicely cooked. The work was year by year given to the Herald "under your existing contract," as it quotes the Clerk of the Peace's words—a contract which was supposed to expire every year, but which was renewed for at least three years in favour of the Herald without a tender being asked from this office during that time!

This was the Tory way of getting tenders and answering contracts, and yet the Herald talks about principle! The less it says on that score the better.

The Herald calls the attention of the ratepayers in the County to its version of the story, and we would also ask their special attention to the above statement of facts, which we are prepared to prove. It talks loudly about justice and fairness; we ask it and the public if we got justice and fairness in this matter from its pet Government and its officials. The less it says about these things the better, else we may let the light into a few more of the questionable doings of its friends. It would be much more profitably engaged in furnishing us a reply to our still unanswered question, why it calls the Governor-General "A bloated aristocrat."

The Voters' Lists.

Upon the voters' lists now published, and subject to correction within a short time, will be decided the election to be held next year for the Local Assembly. Every citizen should, therefore, feel it a duty to see that all illegal names are eliminated, and every legal one secured. Already the supporters of the Opposition, well knowing that once the list is completed every hope of obtaining the help of illegal voters will be gone, are busy placing off the list names of parties who have no right to vote. Reformers, therefore, need to make the best use of the short time allowed to have the lists properly made up.

The following are the principal clauses in the Act applying to the raising of claims or objections:— The list of voters will be subject to revision by the County Judge, by whose decision any name will be allowed to remain, or will be struck off; the assessment roll, in the event of the latter course, not being conclusive evidence, in regard to any particular.

Notice of any correction in the list must be deposited with the municipal clerk within thirty days of the time at which the list was first posted in his office.

A witness to a claim or objection may be subpoenaed from any part of the Province, and upon an allowance being made on the scale allowed in the Division Courts, he shall be required to obey the summons. Witnesses resident in the municipality shall not be paid any allowance for expenses. In the event of non-attendance of a person whose right to vote is questioned, his name may be struck off the list, or he may be fined.

Any person being a party to any instrument to obtain a colorable property interest, will forfeit the sum of $100 and costs of suit to the prosecution; and any person inducing another to commit such offence shall incur a like penalty.

DURING His Excellency's stay at Guelph he will be the guest of Mr. Stephenson, M. P.; at Goderich he will put up at the residence of Mr. M. C. Cameron, M. P.; at Guelph at Mr. A. Lemon's; at Simcoe, at Dr. Campbell's; at Brantford, with Hon. Geo. Brown; at Bow Park; at London with Mr. Walker, M. P.

LEADING London journals repudiate the view of the Reciprocity Treaty taken by the London Standard, and consider the Treaty as proposed an advantageous one for Canada. They are especially severe upon the slanderous "annexation" charge of the Standard.

The telegraph yesterday mentioned a Home Rule demonstration in Glasgow. It must, however, be borne in mind that this was an Irish demonstration on Scotch territory.

RUSSIAN emigrants, belonging to the Mennonite body, continue to pour through Berlin, on their way to Canada and the United States.

At a meeting of the Dominion Rifle Association, held last Saturday, a list of prizes for the ensuing match to be held on the 15th of September was arranged. The Government having contributed handsomely to the funds of the Association, $4,000 in money and prizes will be offered as rewards for the successful competitors.

At Nible's the other evening, when Catherine Gault presented to Father Francis a package of letters with the speech, "These will prove my innocence," a gallery god shouted, "Give 'em to Moulton!" Throughout the piece the audience seemed to cherish the idea that "Griffith Gault" was a play written on the Beecher-Tilton scandal.

The Reformers of Monck have deposited the necessary amount as security for the costs in the Monck election protest. The Journal says: It was at one time supposed that the protest was dropped, but this looks as if Mr. Edgar and his friends meant business.

G. B. FRASER.

Guelph, August 1st, 1874.

To the Public.

I take this opportunity to let my old friends and customers know that early this Fall I intend opening up one of the most extensive and varied stocks of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods to be seen in Ontario. I have had created for my own special retail business a most complete arranged store, and from my long experience in the mercantile business, I feel and know that I will present for the inspection of my old patrons and others not only the most choice selection of Fancy Goods, but goods that will in reality be of such a character as to give to the purchaser the most entire satisfaction. The value will form one of the most important features of my establishment, the fact of going direct to the fountain head for my whole stock, and buying all for the ready money, and in addition having no old stock to palm off, is of itself a positive guarantee that my establishment will present inducements to the purchaser that none other in Guelph can approach. I earnestly request my old friends and customers to pay a visit to my establishment, when the old motto that I used for so many years to their advantage will again be adopted, viz: the best goods in the trade at the smallest possible profit. Good goods and Cheap goods. One price and no abatement. No misrepresentations, and the interests of the public doing business with me strenuously watched. Yours truly, JOHN HOGG.
