Introduction

This new edition of Canadian Studies: Foreign Publications and Theses contains references to over 3,300 books, serials, and theses which deal in whole or in part with Canada or with Canadians, but which were produced outside Canada, primarily since 1980. It incorporates the titles listed in the previous editions plus some 1,700 new titles added to the ICCS bibliographic database over the past two years.

As in the previous edition the organization of the bibliography is by broad subject category, sub-arranged alphabetically by author — an arrangement intended to assist researchers surveying Canadian Studies activities in a specific discipline, and librarians using the document as a reference tool for collection development. Name and title indexes provide additional points of access. Readers wishing information on publications of a specific country or a more specialized subject category are welcome to write to the librarian of the ICCS to request a database search.

The sources used in the compilation of this bibliography are listed at the end of the document. A great number of titles were supplied thanks to individual scholars who returned a bibliographic form included in each issue of our newsletter, ICCS Contact. Introduction

Cette nouvelle édition de Études canadiennes: Publications étrangères et thèses réferme des références à plus de 3 300 livres, périodiques et thèses qui traitent en tout ou en partie du Canada ou des Canadiens et qui ont été publiés à l'extérieur du Canada, surtout depuis 1980. Elle incorpore les quelque 1 700 nouveaux titres, ajoutés à la base de données bibliographique du CIEC au cours des deux dernières années, à la liste des titres parue dans les éditions précédentes.

Comme dans l'édition précédente, la bibliographie est classée par catégories générales, puis par ordre alphabétique d'auteur — une disposition conçue pour aider les chercheurs à opérer un survol des activités en études canadiennes dans une discipline spécifique et les bibliothécaires à utiliser le document comme outil de référence pour le développement de leur collection. Les index d'auteurs et de titres offrent des portes d'accès supplémentaires. Les lecteurs désirant obtenir de plus amples renseignements sur les publications parues dans tel ou tel pays ou sur une catégorie plus spécialisée sont invités à présenter par écrit une demande de recherche dans la base de données à la bibliothécaire du CIEC.

Nous avons dressé la liste des sources utilisées pour la compilation de cette bibliographie à la fin scholars or their publishers are also listed in the "Foreign Acquisitions" section of ICCS Contact, which partially updates this bibliography between editions. It should be noted that while the present document excludes individual articles, essays, addresses and lectures, this information is collected at the ICCS secretariat in a separate database. Enquires are welcome.

A bibliography can rarely claim to be complete, the present list being no exception. However, as new titles come to the attention of the ICCS they will be added to the database for inclusion in a subsequent edition or supplement. Authors, researchers, and publishers are warmly encouraged to forward pertinent books or bibliographic information to the ICCS so that the database will more accurately reflect the strength and vitality of Canadian Studies abroad.

du document. Un grand nombre de titres ont été gracieusement communiqués par des universitaires sur le formulaire de bibliographie inséré dans chaque numéro de notre bulletin, Contact CIEC. On trouvera à la rubrique «Publications étrangères» de Contact CIEC, qui comprend une mise à jour partielle de la bibliographie compilée entre les diverses éditions, la liste des exemplaires de livres, thèses et périodiques que nous ont fait parvenir les universitaires ou leur maison d'édition. Veuillez remarquer que le présent document ne comprend pas d'articles, d'essais, de causeries ou de conférences, mais que, par contre, ils sont colligés au secrétariat du CIEC dans une autre base de données: le personnel se fera un plaisir d'accéder à vos demandes de consultation.

Une bibliographie peut rarement prétendre être exhaustive, et celle-ci ne fait pas exception. À mesure cependant que de nouveaux titres retiendront l'attention du CIEC, ils seront ajoutés à la base de données et inclus dans une édition subséquente ou un supplément. Nous encourageons vivement les auteurs, chercheurs et éditeurs à faire parvenir de l'information bibliographique au CIEC afin que notre base de données soit le reflet le plus précis possible de la force et de la vitalité des études canadiennes à l'étranger.

Editorial Notes

Organization

As in the previous edition the bibliography has been organized into twelve categories, based, with a few exceptions, on Dewey Decimal Classification. The categories have been kept very broad for ease of presentation and to assist readers in identifying titles in related fields. Please note that the bibliography has been generated from an INMAGIC® database which is continually up-dated, and which can be searched on most fields including country of origin, Library of Congress subject heading, DDC, and LC classification. Specific searches can, therefore, be done upon request.

Part I. Generalities contains titles dealing with Canadian Studies associations, programs, and conferences, and includes newsletters, scholarly journals, membership lists, and conference abstracts and proceedings with a multidisciplinary theme. Many of the items would normally be classed with history/civilization in 971 of the Dewey Decimal Classification schedule, but have been listed separately for ease of consultation.

Part II. Bibliography and Collections contains bibliographies in all fields, library catalogues, library science, publishing and journalism (DDC 016, 020, 070).

Guide d'utilisation

Structure du document

Comme dans l'édition précédente, la bibliographie a été structurée en douze catégories basées, à quelques exceptions près, sur la classification décimale Dewey. Nous avons maintenu des catégories très larges afin de faciliter la présentation et d'aider les lecteurs à identifier des titres dans des domaines connexes. Veuillez remarquer que la bibliographie a été produite à partir d'une base de données INMAGIC®, continuellement mise à jour, et qu'on peut y effectuer des recherches à partir de la plupart des champs de référence, y compris le pays d'origine, l'index-sujet de la Library of Congress, de même que les classifications DDC et LC. On peut donc faire des recherches précises sur demande.

Partie I. Généralités renferme des titres traitant d'associations et de programmes d'études canadiennes ainsi que des titres de conférences sur ce sujet. Cette partie comprend des bulletins, des revues savantes, des listes de membres, des sommaires et des actes de congrès à thème multidisciplinaire. Nombre de ces entrées seraient normalement classées sous histoire/civilisation à la cote 971 de la classification décimale Dewey, mais elles constituent ici une section à part pour faciliter la consultation.

Part III. Sociology, Anthropology deals generally and comprehensively with social activities and institutions and includes demography, multiculturalism, language policy and communities (including rural and urban planning). The chapter has also been expanded to encompass religion, customs and folklore, and native society and culture (DDC 200, 300, 390, 970.00497).

Part IV. Politics, Law, Public Administration groups those three interrelated fields (DDC 320, 340, 350).

Part V. Economics, Commerce encompasses all aspects of economics, business, trade and commerce (including transportation), and incorporates the few titles from the field of organization and management (DDC 330, 380, 650).

Part VI. Social Services, Education brings together social problems (including environmental problems), social welfare, social services, medical services, and educational topics (DDC 360, 370, 610).

Part VII. Language encompasses linguistics, and French, English and native languages (DDC 400).

Part VIII. Science, Technology contains the pure and applied sciences such as geology, ecology, zoology, botany, agriculture, forestry and engineering (DDC 500, 620, 630).

Partie II. Bibliographie et collections contient des bibliographies dans tous les domaines, des catalogues de bibliothèques, ainsi que les titres en bibliothéconomie, édition et journalisme. (DDC 016, 020, 070).

Partie III. Sociologie et anthropologie répertorie de façon générale et complète les activités et institutions sociales et comprend la démographie, le multiculturalisme, la politique langagière et les communautés (dont la planification rurale et urbaine). Ce chapitre a par ailleurs été élargi pour embrasser la religion, les coutumes et le folklore, de même que la société et la culture autochtones (DDC 200, 300, 390, 970.00497).

Partie IV. Politique, droit et administration publique regroupe ces trois domaines interreliés. (DDC 320, 340, 350).

Partie V. Économique et commerce embrasse tous les aspects des affaires et du commerce (y compris le transport) et incorpore les quelques titres que l'on trouve en organisation et gestion (DDC 330, 380, 650).

Partie VI. Services sociaux et éducation rassemble les questions sociales (et écologiques), le bien-être social, les services sociaux et médicaux, et les sujets se rapportant aux sciences de l'éducation (DDC 360, 370, 610).

Partie VII. Langue embrasse la linguistique ainsi que le français, l'anglais et les langues autochtones (DDC 400).

Part IX. Arts, Recreation deals with the fine and performing arts, leisure and recreational pursuits (DDC 700).

Part X. Literature includes history and criticism of Canadian literature in all languages (DDC 800).

Part XI. Geography, Travel embraces geography and description and travel in Canada (DDC 917).

Part XII. History, Civilization encompasses past and present conditions in Canada (DDC 971).

Within each main section titles are arranged alphabetically by author. Works listed by title precede the author-title entries. Thus, serials are generally found at the beginning of each section. The exceptions are those serials which deal with the internal policies and operations of an organization (i.e. newsletters), and these items are listed by name of organization. Single issues of serial titles have been treated as monographs and are entered under title or the editor for that issue.

Style

Bibliographical style has been adapted from the Chicago Manual of Style and the National Library of Canada's Bibliographical Style Manual. Editorial comments or amplifications are in English unless the title in question was published in French, in which case the Partie VIII. Science et technologie renferme les sciences pures et appliquées, telles que géologie, écologie, zoologie, botanique, agriculture, foresterie et génie (DDC 500, 620, 630).

Partie IX. Arts et récréation traite des Beaux-arts et des arts de la scène, des loisirs et des entreprises récréatives (DDC 700).

Partie X. Littérature comprend l'histoire et la critique de la littérature canadienne dans toutes les langues (DDC 800).

Partie XI. Géographie et voyage comprend la géographie et la description du Canada, ainsi que les voyages au Canada (DDC 917).

Partie XII. Histoire et civilisation embrasse les conditions de vie d'hier et d'aujourd'hui au Canada (DDC 971).

À l'intérieur de chaque section principale, les titres sont disposés par ordre alphabétique par auteur. La liste des ouvrages précède les entrées par auteur et titre. De la sorte, on retrouve en général les périodiques au début de chaque section. Font exception les périodiques qui traitent des politiques internes et du fonctionnement d'un organisme (par ex. les bulletins): ceux-ci sont classés selon le nom de l'organisme. Les périodiques dont un seul numéro a paru ont été traités comme des monographies et leur entrée figure sous le titre du numéro ou le nom de l'éditeur de ce numéro.

comments, abbreviations, etc. will be in French. Notes, while rare, appear below the entry in a smaller typeface.

A typical monograph entry includes the following information:

Author(s), or Editor(s).

Title: Subtitle. Series statement. Place of publication: Publisher, Date. Pagination. ISBN

A typical thesis or dissertation entry includes the following information:

Author

Title: Subtitle. Degree, University, Date. Pagination (when known). Availability on microfilm (when known).

Titles of English language items appear in uppercase. French language titles are in lowercase, except for the first word. Non-English and -French titles are transcribed according to the source consulted, and are generally lowercase. Titles of works in non-roman alphabets, such as Cyrillic, Japanese, Chinese, Korean and Thai have been transliterated, and when available, an English translation of the title is appended in square brackets with the original script indicated. Some titles appear in two or more languages on the title-page or cover of a book. In such instances these "parallel" titles are separated by an equal sign (=) in the entry. Each parallel title will appear in the title index.

Style

Le style bibliographique que nous avons adopté est une adaptation du Chicago Manual of Style et du Guide de rédaction bibliographique de la Bibliothèque nationale du Canada. Les commentaires ou développements apportés par le directeur de l'ouvrage sont en anglais, à moins que le titre en question n'ait paru en français, auquel cas les commentaires, abréviations, etc. sont en français. Les rares notes paraissent au bas de l'entrée en caractères plus fins.

La référence type à une monographie comprend l'information suivante:

Auteur(s), ou directeur(s)

Titre: sous-titre. Indication de la série. Lieu de publication: éditeur, date. Pagination. ISBN

La référence type à une thèse ou dissertation comprend l'information suivante:

Auteur.

Titre: sous-titre. Diplôme, université, date. Pagination (lorsqu'elle est connue).

Disponibilité sur microfilm (lorsqu'elle est connue).

Les titres de documents en langue anglaise sont en majuscules. Les titres français sont en bas-de-casse, à l'exception du premier mot. Les titres des ouvrages qui ne sont ni en anglais, ni en français sont transcrits en conformité avec la source consultée. Nous avons

Editorial Notes/Transliteration of Chinese characters follows the Wade-Giles system of romanization as set out by the Library of Congress. However, since members of the Chinese association for Canadian Studies use the Pinyin system of romanization, where possible, both the Wade-Giles and Pinyin transliterations (for both names and titles) have been included, with the Pinyin following the Wade-Giles transliteration, separated by a double line (//). Both forms of transliteration appear in the title index. This style has also been used in a few Thai records where the Library of Congress transliteration differs from that provided by the author.

Both author and title indexes have been generated. Please note that some long titles have been shortened in the index entry.

procédé à la translittération des titres d'ouvrages rédigés en alphabets non romains, tels que le cyrillique, le japonais, le chinois, le coréen, et le thai, et nous avons ajouté entre crochets une traduction anglaise du titre en indiquant les scriptes originales. Certaines pages-couvertures donnent le titre de l'ouvrage en deux langues ou davantage: lorsque cela se produit, ces titres parallèles sont séparés par une signe d'égalité (=) dans l'entrée. Chaque titre parallèle paraîtra à son tour à l'index des titres.

La translittération des caractères chinois est faite conformément au système de romanisation Wade-Giles tel que proposé par la Library of Congress. Toutefois, comme les membres de l'association chinoise d'études utilisent le système de romanisation Pinyin, les translittérations Wade-Giles et Pinyin (pour les noms et les titres) sont données, le Pinyin suivant le Wade-Giles après une double diagonale (//). Les deux formes de translittération sont données dans l'index des titres. Ce style a également été adopté pour les quelques dossiers thais où la translittération de la Library of Congress diffère de celle fournie par l'auteur.

Un index des auteurs et un index des titres ont été produits. Veuillez prendre note que l'entrée des titres longs à l'index a été raccourcie.
