SYNOD DECIDES TO BUY THE ROTHESAY SCHOOL; $30,000 IS THE PRICE

Important Decision Reached After Much Discussion at Anglican Synod Meeting This Morning--Report of the Committee on Bishop's Charge. The Diocesan Synod resumed its session in Trinity school room this morning. His Lordship the Bishop Coadjutor then read the following telegram from Bishop Kingston.

"Fredericton, N. B. Oct. 2nd. 1907. 'Right Rev. Bishop Richardson. 'Synod Hall, St. John, N. B. 'I am very grateful for the loving letter of the synod. I pray that your deliberations may promote the honor of Our Master and the furtherance of His Kingdom. 'H. T. FREDERICTON.' The most interesting part of this morning's proceedings was a unanimous motion authorizing the Board of Education of the synod to purchase Rothsey College for Boys for a sum not exceeding $30,000. After hearing Bishop Kingston's reply to the synod's expression of sympathy, the Very Reverend Sub-Dean Street asked that in view of the fact that he must now return to Fredericton, the rules of order be suspended to allow of the presentation of memorials of deceased members of the synod. The motion was carried and Sub-Dean Street introduced a resolution expressing the deep sense of loss to the diocese in the death of Ven. Arcedeo Neales of Woodstock, who died early in the present year. Sub-Dean Street was deeply moved and paid a glowing tribute to the memory of the departed, expressing profound sympathy for the bereaved family. The resolution was unanimously adopted.

A BIGAMY CASE IN OWEN SOUND

Man Who Married Young Girl and Has Other Wife Living in Trouble Now. OWEN SOUND, Ont., Oct. 3 (Special) On September 2nd last, Rev. Mr. Rupert, Methodist minister in Brook, married Frank D. Wilson and Miss Margaret Weir, both of this town. Wilson was 35 years and the girl about 18. Now it turns out that Wilson is really Thomas A. Richardson, a married man, with a wife and three children. Wilson claimed to be a Canadian Pacific engineer, although in reality he was a saw mill foreman. He and Miss Weir left for London the day after the ceremony. Wilson's wife was going west. Recently Miss Weir's parents became anxious through not hearing from their daughter while on the coast, and inquires were made, when it was discovered that Wilson had a wife living here only a short distance from the home of his second wife. A warrant was issued for his arrest, and he is now in custody at the local police station. Wilson is well connected, while his wife belongs to one of the best families in the district.

ADVANCE EXPECTED IN PRICE OF COAL

General Shortage and Spring-hill Strike Combine to Drive Coal Up. While there has been no change recently in the retail price of coal, it is expected that both hard and soft coal will be advanced shortly. Owing to a reported general shortage of coal, and the fact that the Spring-hill strike has caused a shortage of the Spring-hill supply, there is a tendency for a stiffening of prices. The shortage of the Spring-hill supply, there being practically none of this coal to be had owing to the labor troubles, has caused some uneasiness among the large consumers of soft coal, as an advance is looked for at any time. Though none of the other Nova Scotia mines have increased their prices as yet, it is expected they will do so.

The proportion of the Bank's reserve liability this week is 48.86 per cent as compared with 51.30 per cent last week.

A METEOR SEEN IN TORONTO

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 3 (Special)--A blazing meteor dropped into Lake Ontario just west of the western channel on Tuesday evening. Mr. Houston, superintendent of the Central prison, says the meteor seemed to be about the size of a large barrel. At the bottom it was of a dark color. A little higher up it was brilliant and the color of blue flames. The top seemed to be on fire. Miss Bessie Allingham, St. John west, has returned from Boston, where she has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. (Dr.) T. Queen.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

A KNOTTY QUESTION. Mr. Hiram Hornbush is somewhat unsettled in his mind, relative to the adoption of the new denominations,--not in his faith, but with reference to rival denominations. It appears that one high in authority in Hiram's church, in the course of an address, thanked God for the new denominations, which word included gathering into their fold some of his own communion. Now that Jo Hiram, appeared rank here, even if his own church had neglected those people. "Why," said Hiram to the Times new reporter, "if the other fellows kin do it just as well--what's the use in havin' any separated brethren? Take our Settlement, we got Methodist, Baptist, Church of England, and Presbyterian churches--four preachers--four congregations. One church 'ud hold 'em all. Then the Woman's Aid, an' the Woman's Auxiliary, an' the Woman's Guild, an' a lot more--to say nothing about deacons, an' elders, an' vestrymen, an' so on. Now what's the use of all this if it's as good as 't'other? Why not have one church an' all jine it? What's the difference?" The new reporter suggested that possibly there was something in method. "Now," he said, "if you were satisfied that your people were to take the ele-

MORE LIGHT ON GOEBEL MURDER. Caleb Powers Publishes Important Correspondence in Connection With the Case. LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 3--On a card last night, signed by Caleb Powers, the correspondence covering several years between him and the women jointly indicted with him at Frankfort, on the charge of securing perjured testimony to fix the guilt of the murder of former Governor William Goebel, on Henry Youtsey is made public.

At No Time Was the Wealth of Oil Trust Overtaxed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3--For the first time there has just been made public the income account and balance sheet of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, which is the parent of all the Standard Oil companies of the world. The report shows that the wealth of the company has at no time been overtaxed. The income account shows that while the company paid $40,000,000 in dividends in the year ended December 31 last, it earned more than $83,000,000, and left a surplus for the year something more than $43,000,000. Added to the previous surplus the total surplus in profit and loss accounts amounted to $261,000,000, or more than nine times the amount of the gross fine. The balance sheet of the company shows total assets of $71,694,332, as compared with a capitalization of $100,000,000. Apart from the capital stock outstanding and the profit and loss surplus, the only liabilities to creditors payable to the amount of $12,284,000.

FOUND IT HARD TO RAISE MONEY

FREDERICTON, Oct. 3 (Special)--At a joint meeting of citizens and representatives of the city council held yesterday to discuss the financial condition of the city, it was decided to send City Clerk McCready to Toronto to confer with the general manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia in regard to the recent bond sale and straighten out a misunderstanding which has arisen. It seems to be generally understood that the bank's offer of $5 million will be accepted and that the Bank of Montreal will loan the city $50,000 at five per cent to carry on the ordinary business. Two hundred thousand dollars worth of consolidated debt debentures fell in price, and the city is experiencing much difficulty in renewing them, owing to the tight money market.

FLLOUR WILL GO HIGHER

Advances Reported as Well in All Other Lines of Staple Products. The price of flour is likely to go even higher than at present, is the opinion of the local grocers. The retail prices now are: 80.00 cash for Manitoba and 80.35 cash for Ontario. Dried fruits all continue high with the exception of Valencia raisins which are fairly advanced. Evaporated apples have advanced, cheese is higher and is quoted at 14 and 14 1/2 cents a pound. Canned goods are very firm and the price of corn and tomatoes is expected to advance any day.

TO GREAT LAKES

CAIRO, Ills. President Roosevelt left tonight as the guest at a dinner on the steamer Altona, by the business men's league of St. Louis. The important feature was the fact that the scheme of a ship channel from the Gulf to the Lakes received an impetus which all believe will do much towards insuring the earliest completion of that enterprise. The occasion was also notable in that, in addition to the president, it was attended by no fewer than fifteen governors, the members of the inland waterways commission and by several Illinois representatives of the business world of St. Louis.

Meeting places are now being engaged and will be announced later.

"THE LATE TENANT"

By GORDON HOLMES

(Continued) "That will come in time, trust me, said he; 'but as to that little 'No, not now,' she said gently, 'though do not go away thinking it may never be. Let me be frank, Mr. Van Hupfeldt. You know quite well that I am not at present disposed to worship your sex, and that really so. Honestly, I don't think that the human species adorns the earth on which it lives, least of all the male part of it. If I wish to marry, I believe I should choose some poor tiller of the fields, who had never seen a city, or heard of the arts of vice. You see, then, that the whole notion of marriage must be infinitely distasteful to me. I wouldn't and couldn't give myself, but I am quite willing to make a bargain. 'A bargain?' he started, and his dark eyes stared at her blankly. 'Yes, it is better to be candid. When you have cleared my sister's name, or found the child, you hope to be able to do, then, you desire me still the same, you will again speak to me. I can not definitely part from my freedom without a certainty that you will be able to do what you hope; and it is only fair to you to let you know that I should probably consent to give the same promise to any other man who would and could do this much for me. 'Upon this Van Hupfeldt's brow flushed angrily, and he leaped to his feet, saying: 'But that will never be! Clear your sister's name! You still talk like a child.' Now it was Violet's turn to stand up in astonishment, as she saw her castle in the clouds dimming. She stared in her turn, with open lips, saying: 'Do you say that? that it will never be? 'How can you set a man's life on the chance of the realization of such a mere dream?' asked Van Hupfeldt, irritated, saying more than was wise. 'I dream, as you say, of a child, as if in a dream herself. 'Then, who is it that has sent me this? 'Thereupon she drew from her pocket David Harcourt's unsigned note. She held it out to Van Hupfeldt, and he, without touching, looked over and read it; apparently slowly; more than once; so Violet thought. He stood there looking at the letter an unconscionable time, she holding it out for him to read, while the white face bled away inwardly, as it were to death, and some power seemed to rivet his eyes, some power stronger than his effort to withdraw them. 'The thought passing through Van Hupfeldt's soul was this: 'Some one knows that she was a truly wedded wife. But who? And how? To him it is something a pretty certain thing; and the proofs of it may sooner or later be forthcoming; and then he will give these proofs to Violet.' 'I see, then, that it was not you who sent it to me,' said Violet at last, and as she said it, a certain gladness, a little thrill of relief, occurred somewhere within her. 'Van Hupfeldt straightened himself. His lips were white, but they smiled dreadfully, though for some part of a second he hesitated before he said: 'Now, who told you that? 'I do not, of course, know the facts,' said Violet, 'but I should like to.' 'You may as well know,' said Van Hupfeldt, turning away from her. 'Yes, I sent it.' Violet flushed. His manner did not carry conviction even to a mind not used to doubt the spoken word. It was hard to think he was lying. Yet an odd shyness was visible in his face; his voice was not strong and brave. 'Well, I am still in a maze,' she murmured. 'Since it was you who sent it, and since you say in it that my sister's honor is now a pretty certain thing, and that the proofs will be forthcoming, why did you say a moment ago that it is a mere dream? to look forward to their forthcoming? 'Van Hupfeldt was looking out of the window. He did not answer at once; only after a minute he replied without looking round: 'It was I who sent you the note. Yes, it was I, and what I say in it is true—somehow—true in some way; but I did not wish you to make the realization of those hopes a condition of your giving yourself to me. Hence I said that your stipulation was a mere dream. Now, you understand; now, I think, it is clear to your mind.' 'Violet sighed, and made no answer. All was not so very clear to her mind. One

A NEW WAY OF ACCOMPLISHING THE JAPANESE SLEEVE EFFECT. There are a number of ways of accomplishing the mandarin armhole effect, but quite the simplest is that illustrated in the accompanying illustration. A woman's blouse is shown with a yoke and a Valenciennes lace. The upper part of the blouse is tucked to form a yoke and this is inset with the lace appliques. The yoke is formed a square throat piece and outline a deep pointed yoke. On the shoulders are large medallions of the lace, while the sleeves are so arranged as to completely cover the joining of the sleeve and bodice. It is in the sleeve, however, that the nov-

ECCENTRIC QUAKER GIVES $3,000,000 TO COLLEGE IF SPORTS ARE BARRED

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 2.—The will of Miss Anna T. Jenness, who was born Quaker and died a Buddhist at the Friends' Home, in this city, last week, has astonished all who knew her, quite as much as did her spontaneous gift of $1,000,000 to Brookton, Pa., for the Swarthmore College. The remarkable woman, who wrote a book on Buddhism and whose bequest of $5,000,000 has left $3,000,000 to Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, Pa., on the ironclad condition that the college refrain from taking part in all inter-collegiate sports and that its faculty eliminate all athletics. Joseph Wharton, the millionaire president of the college, has called a meeting of the board of trustees for tomorrow to consider the gift, but he said tonight that in all probability it would be declined as Swarthmore does not wish to go on record as banishing athletics. That Miss Jenness had anticipated this refusal is shown in the provision of the will, which in this case provides that it shall revert to the residuary estate, which with an additional $200,000 in cash is left to the establishment of a hospital for cancer and nervous diseases in this city. The Swarthmore legacy, added to the residuary estate of $750,000, with the $200,000 cash, would give a total of $950,000 for the hospital. Miss Jenness leaves thirty hospital legacies of from $5,000 to $10,000 each. She leaves twenty-five relatives each from $500 to $10,000. Despite her professed conversion to Buddhism, she also leaves $250,000 to the Yearly Meeting of Quakers in Philadelphia, which is to be used in the form of hospitals attached to the various meeting houses of the Quakers in this city and state. Another bequest is of $150,000 for the establishment of a crematory and scattering bequests of $10,000 more.

RESCUES HER CHILDREN; BRAVE MOTHER WILL DIE

WILLIAMSBURG, Oct. 1.—The heroism of Mrs. Annie Lyons, of No. 1822 Garden avenue, Williamsburg, in saving her children from burning to death will cost her own life. A lamp exploded in her apartments on the top floor of the tenement, where eight families live. Mrs. Lyons did not scream. She picked up her two sons, John, aged eight, and Frank, five and hustled them into the street. She gave the alarm and dashed upstairs again, getting her eleven-year-old daughter Mary. Mrs. Lyons got to her safety, and Anton, one of her most generous and intelligent for her pocketbook and jewelry. This time her dress caught fire, and, overcome by fear, she fainted. Policeman Lohr, Joseph Berger, a Brooklyn Rapid Transit claim agent, and Anton Recco, a starter at the Brooklyn Rapid Transit terminal across the street, found her unconscious on the kitchen floor. They beat out the flames with their hands and with the aid of motormen and conductors carried her out. Mrs. Lyons was taken to the German Hospital, where she is dying. The entire eight families went pell-mell to the street, screaming, some carrying personal effects which impeded their progress. The fire caused $200 damage.

PURCHASE OF ROTHESAY SCHOOL CONSIDERED BY ANGLICAN SYNOD

Many Favor Acceptance of James F. Robertson's Offer But Vote on it is Deferred—Rev. Dr. G. M. Campbell Tells of Bible Society Work.

At yesterday's session of the Church of England Synod, the proposition to purchase from James F. Robertson the Rothesay School for Boys for $30,000 was discussed, but will not reach a vote till Friday. Rev. Dr. G. M. Campbell gave a vigorous address as secretary of the Canadian Bible Society. At the afternoon session the consideration of the reports was resumed. The report of the board of trustees for the year adopted. The report of the board of finance was taken as read and adopted, and the report of the treasurer was adopted. In his opening remarks Rev. Dr. Campbell thanked the synod for making way for the purchase of the school. The Canadian Bible Society, he said, was now distributing the scriptures in 500 languages, and in those languages 6,000,000 copies were being printed. The great Bible houses of the world were producing the scriptures in 500 languages, which comprised every written language known. When it was remembered that the race of mankind spoke 2,000 languages, it was apparent that not all had been yet reduced to writing, and that consequently there was a great work before them. The Bible was the most popular book on the tables of the world today, by spending thousands of dollars last year the book trade were enabled to sell 200,000 copies of the Standard Bible, and 3,000,000 copies of Shakespeare. The Bible societies, without resorting to such methods, had sold 1,000,000 copies of the Bible. The Canadian Bible Society was practically the Canadian committee of the old British and Foreign Bible Society. At the close of the first year's work the Canadian board had distributed Bibles in fifty languages, and sent $17,000 to the parent society. The second year's work was completed, and the society distributed Bibles in Canada in sixty languages, retained $10,000 in the treasury for the needs of its immigration work, and remitted $30,000 to the British society as Canada's second contribution.

WOMAN RESCUED

Ottawa, Ont.—Slavery is not dead. Daily, the traffic in human souls goes on. Only a short time ago, a number of Chinese were arrested as they attempted to smuggle young girls from Canada into the United States. In Eastern countries, the slave trader plus his vocation in the market place. Some go into another kind of slavery—unknownly—yet make a valiant effort to escape. Ottawa is all agog over the wonderful escape of one of her charming matrons from that physical slavery, Rheumatism. Mrs. R. C. Small says, 'I was a constant sufferer from rheumatism for over seven years. I used many treatments—consulted doctors—tried hot baths—used almost every known mineral water—but nothing did me any real good. My pains were in my joints and back, and had frequent headaches and bad indigestion. About a year ago, I saw 'Fruit-tives' advertised and decided to try them. After I had taken two boxes, I was much better. Altogether I took seven boxes. I have had no rheumatism for over six months now and feel that I am quite cured. I have gained over ten pounds in weight.' 'Fruit-tives' cure because the intended fruit juices and tonics strengthen the kidneys—regulate the bowels—and invigorate the skin. LEMIEUX THE MAN FOR TOKIO

Selection of Postmaster General for Eastern Diplomatic Mission Seems Certain. Ottawa, Oct. 2.—If it is found that Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux's absence from parliament during the early part of the coming session will not seriously interfere with the legislative programme affecting the post office and labor departments, it is probable that he will be the minister selected by the government to go to Tokio on the 29th inst. and confer with the Japanese government in respect to immigration and trade relations between the two countries. Mr. Lemieux is thought well equipped for the task, as he was in close touch with Prince Pushim during the visit of the Japanese royal family in Ottawa, and as minister of labor would naturally be entrusted with the mission which so intimately concerns the interests of the laboring classes in British Columbia. It is also not improbable that the minister may be accompanied by a high official of the government, who would supplement the former's diplomatic efforts by collecting first hand information as to the economic and social aspects of the whole question of Oriental immigration for the guidance of the government in formulating a wise immigration policy in respect to the teeming populations of Japan, China and India. It is somewhat significant that Japanese, or at any rate a large percentage of them in Canada, are qualifying to become Canadian citizens. Up to July last no less than 8,529 Japanese have taken the oath of allegiance to the British crown. It requires three years' residence in Canada before naturalization.

LAKE OF THE WOODS COMPANY'S BIG YEAR

Montreal, Oct. 2.—At the annual meeting of the Lake of the Woods Milling Company this afternoon, President McLean announced that the year had been the most successful in the history of the company. The statement showed the net profit to be $618,473, compared with $378,152 the previous year. The company shows a surplus of $838,545 as of Aug. 31, 1907, and it was explained that the year had been divided into the term ended Aug. 31, of $60,000, would be charged against surplus account, reducing the amount accordingly. There were no changes on the board.

The Evening Times.

The St. John Evening Times is published at 27 and 29 Canterbury street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by the St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd. A company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

THE EVENING TIMES, THE DAILY TELEGRAPH. New Brunswick's Independent newspapers. These newspapers advocate: British connection. Honesty in public life. Measures for the material progress and moral advancement of our great Dominion.

THE WATERWORKS Reading between the lines, it is perfectly clear that the members of the water board have not that confidence in the director which should be the most conspicuous feature of their relations to an official holding such an important office.

FOR THE CHILDREN The question of playgrounds for children is under consideration in Winnipeg, and the Free Press in calling the attention of aldermen candidates for next year to matters they should advocate declares that a playground plank should be in every candidate's platform.

The city government than this of the establishment of playgrounds for children. The Allans deny that they have any intention of withdrawing any of their steamers from St. John, and the conference yesterday between the aldermen and the minister of public works may result in a satisfactory solution of the problem of supplying steamers at the new berth with their quota of grain.

The board of trade is waiting, with some impatience to learn what the city council proposes to do, if anything, in relation to the proposed new assessment law. The subject is of sufficient importance to call for the serious and early attention of the mayor and aldermen.

Western grain is grading better than was expected. A Winnipeg despatch of Sept. 30th says: "The facts are that during the week commencing on Monday, Sept. 23, and ending yesterday, 831 cars of new wheat were inspected at Winnipeg. Of these no less than 712, or over 85 per cent., graded No. 3 northern or better, a splendid showing when one considers the conditions under which the great proportion of the crop was harvested."

The minister of militia states that no action has been taken with regard to the new armory for St. John. He intimates that "the question of a drill hall aimed on an agreement of some kind being reached whereby the city should purchase the lands now used for military purposes and furnish the militia with a site elsewhere."

At the last session of the provincial legislature it was decided by the government to send a commission to look into the working of the prohibition law of Prince Edward Island. The Temperance Federation selected its representative, but the government has taken no action.

POLITICAL NOTES QUEBEC HAS SOUNDED (Victoria Colonist) We do not know that the people of Canada will view with entire equanimity the suggestion now put forward that the immense territory of Ungava should be absorbed by the province of Quebec.

THE FIGHT IN LONDON An Ottawa despatch to the Montreal Star says: "The idea prevails in Liberal circles here that the party will not nominate a candidate in London, Ont., but will give its support to the Labor candidate in the hope of preventing the election of a Conservative. It is realized that the Liberals would have little chance of winning a three-cornered fight."

ENDORSES BORDEN J. Walter Curry, K. C., the Liberal candidate for the legislature in Essex York Ontario, came out strong in a speech on Saturday night for Mr. Borden's policy of government ownership of telegraphs and telephones.

ADVISES DR. PUGSLEY (St. Andrews Beacon) Hon. Wm. Pugsley has threatened the Toronto World with a libel suit because it suggested that he was behind the Blair-Russell deal of 1934. Dr. Pugsley better let it go at that. The law is a dangerous weapon to fool with.

THE PRESBYTERY OF NOVA SCOTIA
Much Business Transacted at Yesterday's Sessions.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 2.—The first business of the Presbyterian Synod this morning was the presentation of the claims of the Presbyterian Witness, Rev. S. S. Carson, the manager, reported that in respect to his appeal at the last meeting of the synod there has been a very material addition to the number of subscribers, which is at this time the largest in the history of the paper.
Dr. MacMillan moved the following resolution, which he supported in an earnest speech, and which was seconded by Mr. McGilivray, and passed, notwithstanding after an interesting and vigorous discussion:
"Recognizing the very great service of the Presbyterian Witness in the past, and its increasing circulation and consequent usefulness, the synod cordially commends it anew to all of our congregations in the maritime provinces, and urges all our members and sessions to endeavor to introduce it into every family."
Several members of the synod spoke briefly in favor of the resolution, Judge Forbes, while appreciating the paper, expressed the opinion that the office of the publication should be located in some more centrally located place than Pictou. Dr. Sedgewick stated that he must say that he agreed with Judge Forbes in his opinion which he had expressed as to the removal of the office of publication from Pictou. He would earnestly urge the wisdom of a reversal to the former arrangement.
Dr. Pidgeon, convener of the General Assembly's committee on temperance and moral reform, was then introduced to the synod, and with admirable force and point reviewed the action of the General Assembly in the important matters dealt with by his committee.
A motion to refer the matter to the committee on temperance was vigorously and successfully opposed by Rev. Principal McGill and resulted in a decision to appoint a committee to be known as the committee on temperance, social and moral reform. In pressing for this Dr. McGill made a spirited and beautiful plea in support of the committee, and in the course of his address, showing how wide and noble its purpose.

St. John Doctors Held First Meeting of the Session Last Night.
The first meeting of the St. John Medical Society for the season was held last evening with the new president, Dr. H. H. Lunney, in the chair, and the new officers reported. The attendance was large and the members found that much had been done by a committee having the matter in hand, in refitting the society's rooms and making them better for the purposes of the organization.

Dr. Sedgewick moved a resolution recognizing the sentiments expressed in the communication by the Rev. Donald McGilivray, in speaking to his motion. Dr. Sedgewick stated that he was not going into the question of the union, (cries of hear, hear), but that this would say, the kind of union suggested in the communication was one which he would not enlarge, he believed, upon the advantage of such consolidation as that implied by the conference. Of course all attempts of the kind must be conducted with the utmost caution. No attempt must be made to divide and conquer. He moved the passage of the resolution. The motion was seconded by Principal McGill, who stated that the Methodist and Presbyterian churches had of late learned more of each other than formerly, and of the appointment of a committee something might come—who could say far greater than had come on other occasions. The motion passed.

BUSTER AND TIGER.
Who has not heard of Buster Brown, the funny little fellow, who has made millions of grown-ups the world over laugh as they have not laughed since they themselves were funny little fellows or girls. Buster—the pet of every child in the country who has ever met him, and few indeed, are those, who have not first of all, been introduced to Buster and Tiger. An acquaintance with Buster and Tiger furnishes a better specific for the blues than anything contained between the two covers of the Pinkie. Times readers are to have an opportunity of forming the acquaintance for Buster, Tiger and Mary Jane are now in the city. They are to be found in the beautifully illustrated pages of a series of eight charming books which the Evening Times will present free to all readers of this paper. These books are easy to obtain. All that is necessary is to bring or send to the Evening Times office 50 cents for subscription to the Times and one of the books is yours for the asking. Every time you bring fifty cents to the office you carry away with you one of these screamingly funny books.

REPORT WILL BE RECALLED
Director Murdoch's Annual Report Will Be Called In By Water Board.

At a meeting of the water and sewerage board last night it was ordered that all copies of Director Murdoch's annual report, just issued, be recalled and none issued in future without the board's special order. The reason for this was that the repeated statement in last year's report about the cost of the Loch Lomond extension, giving the figures as $416,828.18 and $108,298.
Engineer Hunter called attention to this in his report and claimed the statement was prompted by animus against Snow & Barbour. He asked that the report be amended by striking out the figures showing the estimated cost. There was quite a heated discussion in which Aik, Baxter and Kelley took part. Director Murdoch defended himself but the outcome was as stated.

NEW STEAMERS FOR THE C.P.R.

Shareholders Authorize Company to Build Two New Ones for the Atlantic Service.
Montreal, Oct. 2.—At the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, held today, the report of the directors was unanimously adopted. Sir William C. Van Horne, E. B. Oiler, H. B. Angus and Hon. L. J. Forget were re-elected. A resolution was passed authorizing the issue of four per cent. debenture stock for the following purposes:
For two lake steamers, 2180,000 sterling, and one Pacific coast steamer, 2125,000 sterling.
For Regina-Saskatoon branch, 165 miles, and for extension of Moosejaw branch, 100 miles at 24,000 sterling per mile.
The board was authorized to arrange for the construction or acquisition of two additional steamships for the Pacific trade, or to build two larger and faster boats for the Atlantic service, transferring the Empress of Britain and Empress of Ireland to the Pacific and to incur necessary capital expenditure therefor.
