Violence Will Not Solve Irish Problem, Says King George

Matter Has Prominent Place in Speech From Throne... Hopes Majority Will Soon Give Effect to Irish Act—The Coming London Conference—Hope for Trade Agreement With Russia.

London, Feb. 15.—Violence will not solve the Irish problem, King George declared here today in his speech from the throne to the two houses of parliament in formally opening the session.

The situation in Ireland still causes me distress. A misguided section of the Irish people persists in resorting to methods of criminal violence with the object of establishing an independent republic.

King George expressed himself as favorably disposed toward a commercial treaty with Soviet Russia, saying: "It is my hope that negotiations for a trade agreement with Russia may also be brought to a successful conclusion."

King George announced the "determination of the government to reduce expenditures to the lowest level consistent with the well being of the empire."

The king also announced that he was glad to say that arrangements had been made to renew personal consultations between his ministers in London and their colleagues in the governments of the dominions.

His Majesty referred to the good results of such consultations during the last two years of the war and during the peace settlement, and added:

"I hope the premiers of Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and Newfoundland, as well as the representatives of India, will be able to visit London during the coming summer. I am confident that discussions that will take place during their visits will be of the utmost value in bringing about a cordial and harmonious understanding of the external and internal policy of the empire."

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornebeam, "have you thought of establishing a Soviet in the Settlement?"

"You mean like that there scheme they got in Russia?" queried Hiram.

"The same," said the reporter, "but we got a meeting in Toronto on Sunday two-thirds of the crowd cheered for Lenin and Trotsky and said they wanted a Soviet."

"I ain't surprised," said Hiram, "by anything I hear about Toronto. Still, I think if them fellers started something they'd find the Toronto folks ain't quite ready to be classed as Bolsheviks, sir."

"I assume from your remarks," said the reporter, "that the Settlement is not quite ready for a Soviet."

"Sure's you live," said Hiram. "Sle Jones wouldn't mind if he could push his fence over the neighbor's line a little, or cut over into his woods—if he thought he wouldn't be found out—but even Sle 'ud draw the line if somebody tried to camp in his front yard 'n' order up the victuals. All of us folks out to the Settlement has got something. It's the fellers that wants what we got that ever ast us to be fed at the public crib. No, sir—we don't want no Soviet round here. We'll go on living our little excitement at the school meetings—By Hen!"

IRISH TRAIN IS AMBUSHED; SIX KILLED

Cork, Feb. 15.—Five male passengers and one woman passenger and two members of the Irish Republican army were killed today when a passenger train carrying troops was ambushed near Kinsale by Sinn Fein forces armed with bombs and rifles.

REVOLUTION BREAKS OUT IN ONE OF STATES OF INDIA; PEOPLE FLEE TO BRITISH TERRITORY

London, Feb. 15.—Revolution has broken out in Indian state of Tonk, in Rajasthan, says a Reuters despatch from Allahabad. After agreeing to demands of the people, the Nawab Mohammedan ruler of the district arrested leaders of the movement, whereupon rioting broke out. State troops are actively engaged and people are fleeing toward British territory.

Tonk is one of twenty one Indian states included in the Rajasthan district, which covers a vast area in the northwestern part of the Indian peninsula. Tonk has an area of 2,553 square miles and in 1911 had a population of 305,131. Most of the population are Hindus.

A STRENUOUS SESSION AHEAD IN BRITISH HOUSE

London, Feb. 15.—New political alignments and the proposal of legislative and governmental issues of tremendous importance to the people of Great Britain were foreshadowed when parliament re-assembled here yesterday after a recess of seven weeks.

ROGERS FIRES A BROADSIDE

Ottawa, Feb. 15.—Hon. Robert Rogers, in an interview here last night in reference to the West Petrosburg election, said: "There is no mistaking the voice of the electorate of Petrosburg. They have spoken in tones louder than thunder, demanding immediate return to party government, demanding the discontinuance in Canada of political obsequies, demanding real political surgery, demanding a major operation that will save Canada from the menace of the noxious growth of manipulators, of wax producers and their solicitors."

MORE ACTIVE ON THE MONTREAL STOCK MARKET

Montreal, Feb. 15.—In contrast to the extreme dullness of yesterday the local stock market this morning experienced a session of much activity, although the general tone, throughout the early trading, was exceptionally weak, practically every important issue dropping from one to two points.

Abitibi sold at 48 today, after closing at 49.54 last night, while Atlantic weakened a point overnight to 80.1-2. Brazilian was fractionally weaker at 94, as was also Brompton at 50.1-4. Laurentide was unchanged at 89. National Breweries went down 1-1/4 points to 51.3-4. Canada Steamships, which has been quiet lately, dropped from 33.3-4, its closing figure yesterday afternoon, to 33.1-2. Other issues were quiet.

Moncton, N. B., Feb. 15.—In a fire which destroyed their home in Niagara Road, three and a half miles from Moncton, this morning, Mrs. Oliver Galuse Steeves, two daughters and three sons were burned to death.

The daughters were Hazel, aged sixteen, and Beatrice, aged thirteen. The sons were Wetmore, aged ten; Emerson, aged six; seven, and Galuse, aged two years.

REGAL ROBE OF DUCHESS AT THE HOUSE OPENING

Ottawa, Feb. 15.—In describing the gowns worn at the opening of parliament, the Citizen says: "Never for any state function since her residence in Canada has the Duchess of Devonshire worn so regal a robe. It was especially modeled, of electric blue velvet, a long train of the 16th century date de vermeil lace depended from the shoulders. Her Excellency carried a white Brussels lace fan and wore a diamond tiara, diamond ornament and ropes of pearls. Attached to her bodice were several decorations, including those of the orders of the Mistress of the Robes, that of a Lady of Justice of St. John of Jerusalem, and the Coronation Medal of Their Majesties."

WOMAN IN PLACE OF HONOR IN LEGISLATURE

Mrs. Arthur Rodgers, only woman member of the legislature of Manitoba, selected to second the reply to the speech from the throne in the coming session.

HOW THE GOEBEN GOT AWAY IN THE MEDITERRANEAN

Wireless From Whitehall Spoiled Admiral's Plans

What Blunder at Jutland Cost—Plans of Lord Reading—Lloyd George's Orders for Economy—London Gossip.

(From our own Correspondence) London, January 27.—It has always been the theory of some sailors that wireless has quite killed the Nelson touch. A certain amount of support is given to this ironical belief by such revelations as the public has so far had about the orders issued from Whitehall to the fighting fleets during the late war. One egregious instance is beyond doubt, and that is the recall of the Harwich torpedo flotilla when their presence at Jutland might have made that historic naval stalemate another Trafalgar.

But Admiral Sir Berkeley Milne, who was in command of our Mediterranean Fleet when the Goeben episode occurred, makes another revelation. The admiral, whose conduct on that occasion has been officially approved, now says that the Goeben and Breslau escaped simply because, when he had all dispositions made to lay them by the heels, wireless orders were sent to him from Whitehall to concentrate against the Austrian fleet before we were actually at sea with Austria, whereby twenty-four hours were wasted, and the German vessels enabled to make Constantinople.

The Jutland blunder by the admiralty cost us all that we lost through Jutland not being a decisive victory. The Goeben blunder cost us at least some extra years of ruinous war, the German concentrations of 1918, and Russian Bolshevism. Lord Reading's Plans.

Lord Reading, I hear, is to leave for India on March 17. The date has been selected to permit of his meeting the Duke of Connaught on the return of his Royal Highness after his Indian tour. The Duke knows India well, and he is had excellent opportunities while traveling through the country to study present-day conditions and of ascertaining native feeling. By starting on March 17, Lord Reading will be able to meet the duke in the south of France. The next day he will travel direct to Marseilles, and will arrive there about the same time as the duke. Their meeting has probably take place at Nice, where the Duke of Connaught will possibly stay a few days before continuing his journey to England.

An Economy Fiat. As the result of the recent rather tense though informal discussions, which may possibly have been precipitated by election symptoms, the cabinet's policy in the matter of national expenditure has definitely hardened and sharpened. On the highest authority I am able to state that the period of deliberation and revision is now ended, and that Lloyd George has issued an unconditional fiat to the treasury and the various departments. It is to the effect precisely that the forthcoming budget has to be kept within the total of £980,000,000. This has caused much official perturbation, and the accomplishment of such a drastic cut this year is in some quarters regarded as an almost impossibility. But the country as a whole will certainly acclaim the premier's action, and the cabinet determination which it denotes, with relief and satisfaction.

Such a step will go far to restore confidence in the city, and to react on the present industrial depression. Even though the precise figure mentioned is not absolutely attained, it is evident that the government means to take a firm control of departmental expenditure, and to keep the budget within the very lowest possible limits. According to the most rigid expert estimate our normal expenditure must now be within fifty millions of the prime minister's total, and the times are not yet by any means "normal."

Falling Prices. I have no particular desire to pose as a prophet, but I should like you to know that what I said a week or two ago in

FORCED TO LAY OFF FROM WORK

Lerue Says Tanlac Overcame His Troubles After He Had Suffered Three Long Years.

"Tanlac certainly is the medicine to relieve a fellow of stomach trouble and make him feel like something," said Simon Lerue, 23 Water St., Halifax, N. S., well known shoemaker. "When I began taking the medicine I had suffered for three years with stomach trouble. My food tasted me terribly, and for hours after every meal I felt awfully distressed and miserable. I had a dull, gnawing pain in the pit of my stomach all the time, and there was an awfulness, sickening taste in my mouth. At times I couldn't keep anything on my stomach, and this indigestion brought me down in weight. That was the morning, and never got up feeling fit to go to work."

"Well, so many people were praising Tanlac I decided to see if there was anything in it for me, and it certainly has set me right. I don't believe I ever had a better appetite or enjoyed my meals better than I do now, for everything agrees with me perfectly, and I have gained several pounds in weight. That nervousness is gone, too, and I sleep like a log nights. A person won't go wrong to try Tanlac if he has troubles like mine were."

Tanlac is sold by F. W. Munro, and the Ross Drug Co., L. C. Allingham, Campbell, N. B.; T. H. Wilson, Fairville, N. B.—(Adv't.)

The matter of a drop in prices has turned out correct to the last degree. Men's clothes of all kinds, and especially ready-made things, are cheaper than they have been for many months; in fact, in the case of shirts and pyjamas, and so on, you can buy at less than at any time since the first marked rise in prices in 1918.

I am told that in women's clothing the drop is even more striking. Indeed, a lady called my attention the other day to a ready-made coat and skirt kind of costume which was in the window of a well-known London firm near where I stay, in the neighbourhood of Sloane street. It was marked at six guineas. It is just possible that the identification in this case was mistaken, but it illustrates, without exaggeration, what is taking place.

I have no doubt that as the need for realising surplus stock (of which there is a large amount) in order to get ready money near setting day becomes more pressing, the process will go further. Except in the case of the boot trade, nearly every trade seems to be affected by it. Altogether the feeling of financial insecurity has not been so marked since the first days of 1914. It is borne witness to not only by the failures and suspensions which have already taken place, but by rumors of difficulties in which well-known shops are floundering, but it illustrates, without exaggeration, what is taking place.

Dublin Castle Methods.

The political situation in Ireland begins to excite increasing attention at the political clubs, and I hear many expressions of regret that the authorities do not permit wider publicity as to the real state of affairs. Normally, of course, there is no actual censorship of news, but any journalist who has been over there will tell you how extraordinarily difficult it is to get at the real truth. Very few people understand, for instance, that the face of Ireland is gradually being studded with prison camps very much of the same type as those established being our lines during the war. And still less is it understood that the men imprisoned in these camps make hardly any attempt whatever to disguise their satisfaction at being "clapped by the heels." They were dragged into the revolutionary "army" weeks of months ago, more or less under compulsion, and they know that they are at least safe so long as they are detained in the prison camps.

One would think that it was always to the advantage of Dublin Castle rule that

For Thin Waists and Sleeveless Gowns (Toilet Tips) A safe, certain method for ridding the skin of ugly, hairy growths is as follows: Mix a paste with some powdered talc and water, apply to hairy surface about two minutes, then rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is entirely harmless and seldom requires repeating, but to avoid disappointment it is advisable to see that you get genuine delatone. Mix fresh as wanted.

SINCERITY - SIGHT - SERVICE. I met during the week an officer who has only recently returned to England after more than a year's service in Dublin. He was in command of a battery of armoured cars during the greater part of this period, and declares that service in Ireland is more exciting and nerve-racking than the fiercest engagement in France. He was one of the first officers to be shot at in the streets of Dublin, and he never knows, he says, "even when going back to the Castle, from the club, if one's car will be fired at."

The Paris Conference. The present conference in Paris is the most elaborate since the peace conference itself, and the attendance is so large that the sittings have had to be placed in the grand hall, familiar to the public by Sir William Open's painting in the Imperial War Museum. In the absence of M. Clemenceau, however, is M. Briand, a man with whom Lloyd George gets on particularly well, they having had very close relations during the war, and being as a matter of fact very closely parallel in their political careers and not at all unlike each other in appearance.

The chief difference between them is that whereas Lloyd George lives in a state of incessant and bustling activity, and always seems to be on the point of going from one place to another, or tackling one piece of business after another, M. Briand is lazy, or if not lazy at any rate affects to be lazy, and achieves the effect very well. You can see him any day in Paris in the restaurant Larue, slouching out with a cigarette drooping from his lips, the picture of carles ease. Even when he is active in office, this air of nonchalance and detachment never leaves him until he begins to speak. With the late Jaures and the existing M. Viviani, he shares the reputation of the greatest political orator of modern France.

The British delegation, or rather the main part of it, has gone back to the Hotel Carlton, where British ministers used to stay during the short war councils up to 1918, and where you might see Sir Douglas Haig hurrying through the hall, on the way to his car, which was to take him back to the front. The Americans took it during the Peace Conference, and it was quickly populated with marine sentries, with big revolvers, chewing-gum booths and other signs of civilization of the same kind. The sublimity of Lord Curzon is such as to make it necessary for him to stay with his own retinue somewhere else, and he accordingly has gone to the Ritz.

The "Paper" Shortage. The hotel population, for some quite mysterious reason, seems simply to be lifted up, and staffs are being reduced in consequence. As for the theatres, some shows, like the Nelson Keys revue, the White-headed Boy, the Beggar's Opera, and, oddly enough to me, that rather de-

SCHOONER LOST, BARK LEAKING. St. John's, Nfld., Feb. 14.—The fisheries department received word today that the British schooner Marjorie McGlashen, from this port with a cargo of codfish, went ashore yesterday at Malaga, Spain, and is likely to become a total wreck. The British auxiliary bark Madeline Constance, bound here in ballast from Bahia, in passing Cape Race today signalled that she was leaking badly. A tug was sent to tow her to this port.

APPEALS FOR UNITED FRONT AGAINST DIVORCE. London, Ont., Feb. 15.—A pamphlet, written by Rev. A. P. Maloney, Professor of Sacred Scripture in St. Peter's Roman Catholic Seminary here, is being mailed to members of the Protestant League of Canada. A letter accompanying it appeals to Protestant ministers and laymen to join with the Catholic church in opposing the establishment of divorce courts in the provinces, and says: "The purpose of this pamphlet is to discuss, clearly and fairly, the teaching of Jesus Christ on divorce as found in the New Testament. The Catholic church has always taught that divorce was forbidden by Christ. We are fully aware of the fact that many eminent Protestant scholars and vicars are at one with us on this question. But in order effectively to oppose a divorce court, with all its consequent evils, in the Province of Ontario, the forces of Christianity must present a united front. It is, then, in no controversial spirit that we send you the enclosed pamphlet, but rather to enlist your assistance in moulding the public opinion of the province against the iniquitous legislation."

HOW TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR. A Cincinnati Barber Tells How to Make a Remedy for Gray Hair. A well known resident of Cincinnati, Ohio, who has been a barber for more than forty years, recently made the following statement: "Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home, at very little cost, that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Orles Compound and 1-4 ounce glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at a very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It is easy to use, does not color the most delicate scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."

A Laxative The Old Can Rely On. Let them take Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin for Constipation. Mild and gentle. Never loses its good effect. ELDERLY people know how much more difficult it is each year as they get older to avoid the ill effects of chronic constipation. The stomach and bowel muscles relax as age advances, and as you are naturally less active, in time they work only by stimulation. You try dieting and exercise, and then take medicine. All medicines, however, are not suited to elderly people any more than to children, so you will be glad to know of a particular medicine that acts as near to Nature as has yet been found. It is a prescription written thirty odd years ago by Dr. W. B. Caldwell, who is himself now in the 82nd year of his age and still active in his profession. It is known in the trade as Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin, and you can buy it under that name at any drug store. A sixty-cent bottle will last an average family many months, and all can use it. Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin is a combination of

FRENCH FIGHTERS GOOD ACTOR, TOO

Carpentier Made Splendid Impression as Gentleman and Boxer at the Imperial.

Why Georges Carpentier, idol of France and heavyweight champion of Europe, has been called "the gentleman of the ring" is explained in convincing fashion in "The Wonder Man," the Robertson-Cole production which opened at the Imperial yesterday to immense crowds.

The picture, a remarkable one in many respects, is particularly noteworthy because of the fact that it shows for the first time in the history of the screen a pugilist who is as capable an actor as he is a fighter.

Carpentier, as the hero, plays the part of a French secret service man who is a gentleman and somewhat of a dandy. Incidentally he shows for the first time on this side of the ocean his remarkable physique and the boxing tricks that may win him the world's championship in a realistic four-round bout with the villain of the picture, a screen actor, who is also a boxer.

It is impossible to imagine anything more unlike the conventional conception of a low-browed cat-in-the-hat, "brat" ring hero than this tall, slender, urbane and debonair young exquisite, lower-lipped, six-foot, six-inch, his more, his fondness for grand opera, his membership in all the best clubs in London and Paris, his cultivated taste in music, art and literature, and last—though, of course, she comes first—his well-bred, well-educated, attractive, girlishly charming wife.

That's why Carpentier is popular, that's evidently why he was acclaimed with applause at the theatre here yesterday. St. John people like to see exhibitions of the manly art of self-defence, but most of all they like to see it clean and gentlemanly.

"The Wonder Man" concludes its showing today. It is quite a change from the general run of pictures and both ladies and gentlemen seemed to enjoy it immensely.

The recommendations were sent in by Mrs. G. A. Kuhring, at lady superintendent of St. John division. They were as follows: to be lady superintendent of St. John division, Mrs. A. M. Rowan; to be divisional secretary, Miss Dorothy Jones; to be divisional inspector of stores, Miss Alice MacLean. Mrs. Rowan's promotion is a well merited recognition of her devoted work for the brigade, more particularly in the port committee undertakings but also as a nursing officer and in all branches of women's war effort. Mrs. Kuhring, while no longer lady superintendent of St. John, a post which she filled with splendid success during all the strenuous days of war and through the period when the V. A. D's rendered such noble service in the epidemic of influenza, retains her title of lady superintendent of the New Brunswick division and as such is in command of the V. A. D's of the province.

Colonel John McMillan, chief secretary of the Salvation Army for Eastern Canada, and Lieut-Colonel J. Rawling field secretary for Eastern Canada, arrived in the city from Toronto at noon yesterday, on an inspection tour. The chief secretary conducted at officers' council yesterday afternoon at which various matters concerning the work of the Salvation Army were discussed and, in the evening, a mass meeting was held in the Charlotte Street Citadel, which was addressed by Colonel McMillan and other officers.

At the conclusion of the officers' council, the Ladies' Home League of the Charlotte Street Citadel, entertained Col. McMillan and party at a supper, which was served in the lower hall. The evening service was commenced at 9 o'clock, preceded by an open-air service at the head of King Street. The hall was filled on the occasion and the meeting was conducted by Colonel McMillan, assisted by Colonel Rawling, Brigadier E. C. Moore, commander of the St. John division and Adjutant Owen. Several other field and social officers of the Salvation Army also took part.

Complexions—Night and Noon

Almost any woman can look pretty at night, but only perfect, natural skins can face the glare of noon.

A radiant skin, healthy and glowing, is the very foundation of charm—and every woman can have one. Aids to beauty are many, but the essential is a thoroughly clean skin.

Good complexions call for soap. Beautifying cleanliness requires not only a clean surface, but also soap-cleansed pores. Such cleanliness calls for soap.

Dirt, oil and perspiration clog the skin. So does powder—so does rouge. At least once daily this accumulation should be removed. The best time is at night. Then for hours of sleep the skin has a chance to breathe.

Without such cleansing, glands and pores become enlarged and irritated. Their functions are retarded. Skins become coarse. Blackheads and blotches may follow.

Must be done with lather. This cleansing must be done with soap. There is no substitute. One must force lather into the pores, using a gentle massage. When that is rinsed out, the dirt and oil come with it.

GENERAL SMUTS HAS PLURALITY OF THIRTY-FOUR

(Canadian Press Despatch). Johannesburg, South Africa, Feb. 14.—The returns from all constituencies in the Union of South Africa general elections are now in and the results are: General Smuts' (secessionist), 44; Labor, 9; Democrat, 1; and seats 2; total, 54. The two tied seats will have to be repolled and it gained will give the party of General Smuts a majority over all of twenty-six. If won by Nationalists, the loyalist majority, including Labor, would still be forty seats.

Why only 10 cents

We bring palm oil from Africa, olive oil from Spain. They are the costliest and the best oils a facial soap can employ. Yet Palmolive sells for 10 cents. The reason lies in enormous production. Millions use Palmolive. And our effort for many years has been to place it within everybody's reach.

To do that, modern science has gone back to methods of 3,000 years ago. It employs a blend of palm and olive oils. Not as Cleopatra used them, but prepared in modern ways.

In Palmolive soap these matchless oils are perfectly combined. As a facial cleanser, the world has never found anything better. And it probably never will.

Palmolive cleans the skin with a gentle and soothing emollient. It leaves the skin in blooming, fresh condition. Its daily use is the foundation of skin beauty. Its every application penetrates the skin with the most beneficial oils of the ages.

If the skin is very dry, apply cold cream before and after washing. The soap will make a balmy lather. Rub it gently into the pores. Rinse out with warm water, then apply a dash of cold water as a tonic.

Then you have done the most, beyond good food, fresh air and exercise, to beautify the skin.

ONE OF THE DIFFICULTIES.

The citizens of St. John will now understand more clearly one of the difficulties the vocational training board has had to struggle with. The board of school trustees last night decided to take steps to open commercial high school classes. This should come under the vocational training board, and half the cost of tuition would be paid by the provincial government. The board of school trustees as a body does not seem to have any use for the vocational board, and seems to have a habit of getting in its way. Under such a condition of affairs the vocational board has had unnecessary trouble. But what excuse has the board of school trustees for throwing down the aid of the provincial government when there is complaint that too much money is already being spent? The truth is that some members of the board are determined to put the vocational board out of business. The vocational board is expected to re-affirm its decision to close the evening classes, on the ground that it would otherwise run in debt with no assurance of getting money to pay the bills. Mr. Schofield has concluded that the board has money enough to continue these classes. Who is right? This question should be answered promptly, for if the vocational board has, as the mayor contends, money enough to carry on to the end of the term the closing of the classes would be wholly unjustifiable. It must not be forgotten that students in these classes have an investment in them. Some have bought tools and other materials, expecting to receive a full course. The whole situation is discreditable to the city and if it does not direct public attention more sharply to the manner in which educational work is being handled, then the case for St. John is hopeless. Some of the bitterest opponents of the work of the vocational training board are members of the board of school trustees who resent the fact that the whole matter was not given over to them.

THE SOLDIER SETTLERS.

Major Barnett gave the Rotary Club yesterday an admirable review of the work of soldier settlement in Canada. The experience proved more successful than had been hoped. This is due to the earnest work and careful selection made by soldier settlement boards. As Mayor Barnett pointed out, they cannot always measure accurately the moral risk, and there are some failures, but the percentage of these is small, and in general way it may be said that the money invested by the country comes back again with a fair rate of interest. One is surprised to learn how much the soldier settlers on western farms added to the grain production last year. As they are increasing in number and breaking much new ground, the production this year should be very much greater. There is also, as the speaker pointed out, a benefit derived by the country from the settlement in different sections scattered all over the country of young men who are of the best blood of Canada; and that benefit cannot be measured in this generation. The soldier thus far settled on farms are meeting their payments very well, despite the depression that has existed, and it is very gratifying to know that New Brunswick is well above the average in this respect. Major Barnett very properly observed that this experiment with soldiers may well suggest to governments a method of getting more people on the land.

THE ROGERS DIAGNOSIS.

Hon Robert Rogers, after serious reflection upon the result of the West Peterboro by-election, has expressed his views. He does not approve of Hon. Arthur Meighen's action as a midwife. Mr. Rogers sees need of a major operation to meet the condition brought about by ignorant treatment of the patient. He finds a "noxious growth of manipulators, of war profiteers and their solicitors." The knife must be applied at once, or the patient goes from bad to worse. Having made his diagnosis Dr. Rogers does not indicate any particular specialist, but leaves that to the patient. Perhaps this is just as well. What Mr. Meighen thinks is another story, but we can imagine that the Rogers broadside will cause some commotion on Parliament Hill. The House is now in session, and Hon. MacKenzie King will no doubt find some use for the expert advice given by the former minister of public works. The echo of the Rogers explosion will doubtless be heard in any constituency where by-elections may be held.

LIUET.-COL. McCULLOUGH.

The citizens of St. John are glad to meet Lieut.-Col. Charles R. McCullough, F. R. C. L., of Hamilton, the founder of the Canadian Clubs. These clubs, scattered over this country and the United States, provide a source of inspiration and a forum for the discussion of national and other topics which make them a factor of great importance in the life of Canada. The founder could hardly have dreamed at the outset that he was contributing a force to national movements and the development of ideals which is of ever-growing significance. In his own province, Lieut.-Col. McCullough is a citizen of note. Who's who says of him: "Founded the Federated Business Colleges; founder and first president, Manufacturing Photographers of Canada; founder and first president, Business Educators' Association of Canada; founder Canadian Club movement in Hamilton, Dec. 6, 1892, and twice president; honorary-president, Association of Canadian Clubs; president Hamilton Conservatory of Music; secretary executive Canadian Manufacturers' Association; Fellow Royal Colonial Institute; member of Hamilton Club, Rotary Club, Golf Club, and Toronto Arts and Letters Club."

One member of the school board said last night he was informed that socialist doctrines were being circulated in the high school and another said that some of the school teachers were Bolshevists. The school teachers have generally been regarded as good and useful citizens who work for less pay than the teachers get in other Canadian cities. If the charges now made are true we need a new group of teachers. If they are not true, what shall be said of the board of school trustees which did not condemn the unfounded statements?

Apart from what may be offered in the way of tariff legislation the government programme at Ottawa is meagre enough. The government just wants to hold on. The Ottawa Journal intimates that Sir George Foster, Hon. J. D. Reid and Hon. P. K. Blondin will retire from the cabinet and it names six new men who are likely to be taken into the cabinet. Not one of them is an outstanding figure in national politics.

In the city council prepared to assess the citizens to pay for a commercial high school when under the vocational training act the provincial government pay fifty per cent for equipment, sixty per cent for tuition and twenty-five per cent for building? The board of school trustees appears to be quite willing that the people should pay if it can get ahead of the vocational board. The dark gentlemen in the woodpile appear to have emerged.

In Montreal last year the Parks and Playgrounds committee conducted seventeen playgrounds, ten vacation schools, and fourteen public baths. At the playgrounds, the activities included folk dancing, modelling, sewing, basketry, baseball, picnics, and other outings. A new feature was the visit of a trained story teller, one afternoon a week at each of eight playgrounds.

The hold the free kindergarten has upon the sympathy of the people was well demonstrated yesterday. The system ought to be in the public schools, and it will be when the citizens as a whole realize that even streets are not as important to a city as the children who play in them.

Sir Robert Borden, Sir Sam Hughes and Hon. N. W. Rowell will sit together in the House. They and Hon. A. K. McLean will no doubt derive some enjoyment from the fact that they will not be compelled to bear the brunt of opposition attacks.

Simplificity does not appear to be regarded as a virtue by the government at Ottawa. The opening of parliament was made the occasion of a good deal of display that is quite unnecessary in this country, especially at this time.

It is announced that President Wilson will veto the Fordney tariff bill. This will greatly relieve some of its supporters, who have been hoping it would meet with an accident.

A Massachusetts professor says that the Yankee twang of New England is due to "jaw liness." We refuse to believe it.

SECTION FOREMAN STRUCK BY TRAIN
Newcastle, Feb. 14.—Allan Weaver, of Ludlow, C. N. R., section foreman, was struck by a train and seriously injured about noon today near Macaness siding. Weaver and another section man were on a hand-car on the main line when overtaken by a special train. The other man jumped clear but Weaver was thrown on the track when the engine struck the hand-car and he was caught between the wheels. His right foot was badly crushed, a rib broken, a lung injured and he is badly bruised. Weaver was brought to the Miramichi Hospital where he is reported to be resting easily, but his condition is serious.

Women, as a rule, have poor heads for figures. That may be why it is almost impossible for one to figure out her age correctly.

BACK ALONG THE OLD TRAIL

Look back over the trail, Scout, the trail of your battling sires, The trail that mounts from the centuries' depths, to the peak of your own desire. See how it climbs from the dusk of the Past, from the Age of Bronze and Stone, Through the veil of years, with toll and tears, to the crest where you stand alone.

Look at the wealth they bring you, Scout, the heritage of the years; The fire of the Norsemen rovers, the mind of the Celtic seers. The strength of the Saxon bowman, the courage of grim Parlar. Men have fought and men have wrought, to make you what you are.

Look that you keep the faith, Scout, true to the hopes they dared. The visions and dreams they died for, the faith they held so dear. Like to your sire of old, Scout, be ye a pioneer too; Keen-eyed and sure, clear-eyed and pure, that the trail may be cleared anew.

Some Inkstand.
A man was called upon to testify in a lawsuit as to the number of cubic yards handled in some rock-removing in the vicinity. He showed little knowledge of the matter, his only aid being a scale so indefinite that it was suspected he hardly comprehended the term.

In order to test his understanding, the judge said: "Listen, witness! Assume this inkstand to be three feet across the top this way and three feet that way and three feet in height. How would you describe it?"
"Well, Your Honor," said the witness, "without hesitation, I should say it was some inkstand."

PROVINCIAL RED CROSS

General Secretary for Canada Present at Yesterday's Meeting.

At a meeting of the executive of the Provincial Red Cross Society yesterday Dr. H. A. Abbott, general secretary of the Canadian Red Cross Society, was present concerning the society's proposed membership enrollment to be issued in the spring. Accompanied by F. A. Dykeman, who was appointed to represent the city division, Dr. Abbott left for Halifax last evening to be present at a conference of the three maritime province branches to be held in that city this afternoon. The nomination of Dr. D. A. Craig as the representative of the maritime provinces on the central committee of the Junior Red Cross was endorsed.

R. T. Hayes, M.P.P., the president was in the chair, and among the out of town members present were Miss Ryan and Mrs. MacManus of Moncton. They were specially welcomed, as was Dr. Abbott.

C. B. Allan, as treasurer showed total receipts of $21,698.55, including $7,764.41 for War Relief Fund; $372.72 from the refund for the War Hospital Fund, and $350 from headquarters for advertising. Expenditures included $7,764.41 sent to the War Relief Fund; $500 given to the hospital committee and $325 spent in advertising. The balance amounted to $13,469.86. Declaring $10,000 required for carrying on the Victorian Order training school for one year and $1,500 for outstanding bills left about $1,969.86 in the society's funds.

The secretary, Miss Ethel Jarvis, submitted her report. At the request of the Soldiers' Settlement Board a Red Cross nurse will be appointed to give a two-day lecture course to soldier's wives in the hospital committee and $225 spent in advertising. The balance amounted to $13,469.86. Declaring $10,000 required for carrying on the Victorian Order training school for one year and $1,500 for outstanding bills left about $1,969.86 in the society's funds.

Dr. Abbott gave an address explanatory of the peace work policy and its efforts to create public opinion in favor of health reform.

IS NOT AFRAID OF PRECEDENT

Speaker of Ontario House Banishes Boy Pages of School Age.

Toronto, Feb. 15.—Hon. Nelson Parlant, speaker of the Ontario legislature, is not at all frightened by the bogey of precedent. When a proposition appeals to him he goes right ahead, indifferent to the protests of scandalized respecters of customs, who assure him that "it has not been done" for years a legislature was not properly equipped unless it had a number of young pages skipping school and carrying an honest dollar or two on the side. Educationists have protested vigorously, and this year Mr. Spence R. DeLange introduced a bill to prohibit the ban on boys of compulsory school age.

Up to the present a number of lads ranging in age from fourteen to nineteen have been engaged to act as pages, and these will do work that was divided among twenty-one boys last year.

MT. ALLISON CAMPAIGN
Sackville went over the top last evening in the Mount Allison campaign for $500,000. Its objective was $500,000 and this was reached yesterday. The total amount raised in Halifax to date is $89,298. A meeting of workers in Halifax was held last night and was addressed by Mr. Justice Russell.

ASKS HOUSE TO REWARD HEROIC NAVAL OFFICER

Representative Eagle Says Lieut. Isaacs Surrendered for Commander and Later Escaped.

Washington, Feb. 15.—A dramatic appeal to the House to reward the heroic war exploit of Lieutenant Edward Isaacs, U. S. N., who stepped forward in another man's place to become a prisoner aboard a German submarine after his ship, the President Lincoln, had been torpedoed, was made last week by Representative Eagle, Democrat, of Texas. The speaker said Isaacs' record would stand out as one of the daring feats of the World War.

"When the submarine captain demanded an officer prisoner," said Mr. Eagle, "Isaacs walked forth and announced that he was Commander Percy W. Foote, now aide to the Secretary of the Navy, had probably perished and was ready to go. For eleven days while a captive of the U-boat he learned facts about the German Navy's plan of operations which were of the utmost importance to the allied fleet."

With this in mind he escaped at the risk of his life. Mr. Eagle continued, and was so badly wounded and beaten that now, at the age of 29, he is physically unable to stay in the navy. "Congress should reward him with the rank of Captain," said a Lieutenant, Mr. Eagle added, "so that when he goes out of service it will be on sufficient pay to buy bread and meat for his wife and children."

SALVAGE CORPS MEN WERE HOSTS

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the season was held last evening in Bond's restaurant when Captain R. J. MacRae and members of No. 2 Salvage Corps were hosts of No. 2 Corps, Oiler's Corps members Jones, Bullock and Thornton; Hon. R. J. Ritchie, W. H. White and Alexander Rowan. The tables were appropriately decorated in honor of St. Valentine and the place was festooned with one present consisted of a comic valentine, causing much laughter. The valentines were also appropriately dressed and were applauded on their appearance.

BOY'S SHIRT HILL $10,000 IN DRUGS

Father and Son Arrested in N. Y. Morphine Found on the Lad.

(N. Y. Times.)
Morphine valued at $10,000 was found under a boy's shirt yesterday after customs officials and narcotic squad detectives arrested Salvatore Pulitano, nine years old, and his father, Lewis Pulitano, at the two were leaving the steamship Giuseppe Verdi, at Pier 25, North River.

According to the detectives, two packages of the drug were discovered in Salvatore's shirt.

After the father had been arraigned the Tomb's Court before Magistrate Cobb on suspicion of having drugs in his possession, his son was turned over to agents of the Children's Society and the father will be charged in the Children's Court with improper guardianship.

A drug distribution centre was discovered yesterday morning by detectives from the Deputy Police Commissioner's office, at Washington and Tenth streets, in Greenwich village. After watching the ground floor of a house for a few days the officers entered it, seized a pound of heroin and arrested three men. They also found a hypodermic syringe, some empty bottles and letters and telegrams from persons in Pennsylvania asking that drugs be sent to them.

FREED FROM CRUEL WIFE

Court Finds Divorce Grounds in Spleens and Smashing Husband's Pipe.

Hartford, Conn., Feb. 15.—Intolerable cruelty was adjudged proved by Judge William H. Malbie, who granted a decree absolute divorce to William Howesberger in an action against his wife, Nora F. Macomber Howesberger, on the ground of desertion, because she left him in Boston eight months after their marriage on September 1, 1917.

On the witness stand Howesberger accused his wife of having drunk his very best hooch, smoked his cigarettes and stayed out of nights at cafes and dances, and not in his company, either. He said she scratched his face when she was drunk, smashed his best pipe, leaving the utter stench lingering in his teeth; threw his hot supper in his face and hit him with an alarm clock because the alarm went off one morning at 8 o'clock just as she was getting comfortably to sleep.

COLONEL RUPPERT ABANDONS ST. BERNARDS FOR BEAGLES

Colonel Jacob Ruppert, half-owner of the New York Yankees, who for more than a quarter of a century has been successfully showing St. Bernards from one of the finest kennels in the country, has finally decided to abandon the breed with which he has so long been identified. It is announced in his behalf that hereafter Colonel Ruppert will show beagles, a breed in which he has taken a great interest, and that he will seek to gain the same measure of success with these as he did with the larger dogs. The decision to make the change was in no wise prompted by the defeat of his St. Bernards on the opening day of the Westminster Kennel Club show,

RECENT WEDDINGS

A wedding of much interest to a large number of friends in this city was solemnized in Marlboro (Mass.) on Sunday, Feb. 14, when Rev. Father Lowrey, of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, officiated. The bride, Miss Helen K. Clegg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Clegg, Murray street, to John D. Maloney, of New York. The bride wore a suit with hat to match and taupe ox fur. Mrs. Lloyd Pratt acted as matron of honor, while Lloyd Pratt supported the groom. After the ceremony the bride and groom drove to Savoy Hotel, where a bridal dinner was served. They left on a honeymoon trip to Toronto, Buffalo and Niagara Falls. On their return they will reside in New York. The groom is manager of the American sugar refinery, New York.

MEMORIAL TO MEMBERS WHO FELL IN WAR

London, Jan. 27.—(By Mail, Canadian Associated Press).—When Parliament assembles to begin the business of another session it is hoped that memorials to members of the two houses who fell in the great war will have been completed. Work upon them is now in progress, and the imposing monument in stone to perpetuate the names of legislators who made the supreme sacrifice is rapidly taking shape in St. Stephen's Hall. This memorial, so placed that it will be seen by all who visit the Palace of Westminster, is to be supplemented, so far as members of the House of Commons are concerned, by an unique form of commemoration in the debating chamber itself. The monument which records the losses of both Houses is in the Gothic style, and is, therefore, in entire harmony with its surroundings. It has a central symbolical figure, flanked by two panels on which are carved the names of the fallen—the members of the House of Lords on the left and those of the House of Commons on the right. At the foot of each appear the names of officials of the fighting forces and gave their lives for their country. The legislators whose sacrifice is here commemorated number thirty-nine—twenty peers and nineteen members of the House of Commons. Their names are placed in the order in which they died on sea or land, and an inscription at the base of the central figure will pay fitting tribute to their heroism.

RECENT DEATHS

Sackville, Feb. 14.—W. Everett Wigmore died at his home here of pneumonia on Friday, aged forty-nine years. He is survived by his father, Charles Wigmore, a brother, Thomas, and a sister, Mrs. Lewis Zababooks, all of Sackville. Hon. R. W. Wigmore of St. John is a relative.

TRUSTEES TO CONFER WITH CITY-COUNCIL

The school board at its meeting last night decided that it would wait upon the city council to confer regarding the increased salaries asked for by the teachers. It discussed adjustment of salaries and the opening of a commercial course and brought up the matter of the site for the school in West St. John which, it was felt, the city council was blockading. The steps being taken to secure legislation for increased assessment were spoken of and a method for the awarding of the proffered French prize was approved.

An application for a position on the teaching staff was received from A. D. Brooks, of St. Stephen. Letters of thanks for leave of absence were received from Miss Clara Fullerton and Miss Margaret R. Graham.

Dr. Bridges reported for a special committee that it would be satisfactory to accept the French prize offered by W. F. Hattaway, which is to be a memorial to the late Mrs. Emma Pliske, its award to be made on the results of the matriculation examination for which the scholars of the Union street and Cliff street high schools compete on equal terms, writing the papers in the same room. The report of this committee was received and its recommendations ordered carried out.

The report of the secretary showed 8,293 pupils enrolled and 88.7% of enrollment in daily attendance. That the experience and qualifications of special teachers had been overlooked in the fixing of maximum salaries, was set forth in a letter from the four special teachers. A communication was read from the Teachers' Association regarding an appeal made to the city council a short time ago. A letter from the mayor was also read in connection with the increased salaries and it stated that the council was ready to meet the school board and motion it was decided to ask the city council to name the school site in West St. John which it had offered to provide regarding legislation introducing an assessment for the school board—held in the upper part of the school building was discussed, but Dr. Bridges on Mr. Green's motion a course has been drawn up by the board of education and the matter was decided to appear before the city council in behalf of a committee composed of the high school visitors and the superintendent. Legislation regarding an increased assessment will so be presented by W. E. Scully, M. P. P., at the next session of the legislature.

The finance committee reported having made $747 on a bond transaction. On motion it was decided to ask the city council to name the school site in West St. John which it had offered to provide regarding legislation introducing an assessment for the school board—held in the upper part of the school building was discussed, but Dr. Bridges on Mr. Green's motion a course has been drawn up by the board of education and the matter was decided to appear before the city council in behalf of a committee composed of the high school visitors and the superintendent. Legislation regarding an increased assessment will so be presented by W. E. Scully, M. P. P., at the next session of the legislature.

THE law when I took this job of judge-ship," said Mrs. Murphy to the writer, in her own court in the Civic Building in Edmonton. "But I have had to learn a lot more. This is not an easy business, as you will gather after watching the cases coming before my court this afternoon. But the work is of intense interest and I find that all that I ever knew or thought about human beings and about living conditions, and about what people are and what they ought to be, comes in useful here. Legal knowledge one needs and must acquire, but there are plenty of women like myself who have adjudicated matters for a family or in the women's clubs who have as good a training for the bench, in some particulars, as the lawyers."

Moveable Courts
S here again we have a woman who was first a successful wife, mother and homemaker, then a big citizen playing a big part outside the home in community effort, who has now evolved into an efficient judge and who may yet become a lawmaker in her own Province or at Ottawa. Who shall she be? It is a woman named Magistrate Emily Murphy had not the most excellent qualifications for a woman judge?

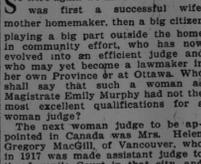

As Helen Gregory, Mrs. MacGill, of Vancouver, who is appointed to the Juvenile Court in that city, and who is perhaps the most learned of all our women judges. Mrs. MacGill is a M.A., as well as Bachelor of Music, has been a successful journalist and editor of two newspapers, a prominent club woman and the author of several pamphlets on laws and procedure. None of Them Lawyers
WHEN Mr. Chadwick, the Superintendent of Neglected, Dependent and Delinquent Children, who had long dreamed of having a woman magistrate to try girl offenders, was authorized to select such a woman, his choice fell instantly on Mrs. Jamieson and in March, 1914, she received her appointment. To the writer a little over a year ago, Mrs. Jamieson said she had very little knowledge of the law, except that had looked very carefully into the legal disabilities under which women are, and had often attended the police court at the trials of women and girls. I have found in my work in court, that while I need some knowledge of the law, and while I need, there are qualities such as common sense, just dealing and the sympathetic understanding a woman can give women, which are quite as valuable in the work of the courts. Now that my family is grown up, my husband dead and my hands empty, this is my work doing by any woman.

THERE are words of popular circulation which don't sound well in the mouth or look pretty in type. "Slob" has always been in the Index Expurgatorius. Our fellow citizens may be a dabbler or even a lover, and possibly a nut, but let us draw the line on "slob."

THE first fable I ever wrote—the one that started me upward on my dissolute career until I landed in the gutter of notoriety. It was about Sister Mae, who did as well as could be expected. Sister Mae was a lumpy dresser. Luella lived in a Factory, and every Saturday in Boss crowded Three Dollars on her. Sister Mae was short on intellect but long on shape. She became Cashier in a Lunch Room and was a strong Card. She married a Bucket-Shop Man who was not Handsome, but was awful Genzack.

THE POSITION OF SHIPYARDS AT HALIFAX

General Manager McLurg Thinks Plant Better Off Than Any Other in Canada—World's Shipping in Darkest Hour, But Change Not Far Distant.

(Halifax Echo) The world's shipping is now in its darkest hour and a better one is not far distant, the opinion expressed by Mr. McLurg, general manager of the Halifax Shipyards, chief speaker at yesterday's meeting of the Progressive Club. Mr. McLurg knows whereof he speaks in discussing the shipping game and through his splendid address every statement backed up by facts and figures that did not immediately give the lie direct to suggestion of oratorical exuberance the basis of his remarks. A late issue of an American shipping publication had stated that there were at present 980 ships tied up in British ports for want of business, but Mr. McLurg explained this situation was not confined to Britain. It was a world wide depression. In Norfolk, U. S. A., alone there were 280 ships tied up, while Norwegian ships also were not plying their usual trade. The reasons for this depression were several, he said. In the first place the pre-war traffic from the Black Sea was absolutely dead now. The flow of wheat from Russia and immense quantities of raw material had ceased. The business from the Baltic had also been cut down. Formerly Britain had been dependent on the Baltic for all her pit props; now she couldn't get them there. Then, too, Germany's enormous appetite for raw materials had meant an immense import trade before the war; now, while that trade was not dead absolutely, it had decreased enormously, with bad results to shipping conditions. In this latter case he said that the steps now being made to settle reparations terms with Germany would tend to restore her import trade and thus promise well for shipping interests. The same should apply in Russia, although he declared that he frankly could not see any chance

Halifax Shipyards Conditions.

Mr. McLurg said that he felt justified in saying that the position of the Halifax Shipyards was better at the present time than that of any other shipyards in Canada. At Prince Rupert, British Columbia, the shipyards were in the hands of a receiver. Two large shipyards in Vancouver had no new orders on hand. One of them was planning to build a ship at their own expense as a pure speculation, while the other was building for the C. P. R. In regard to one of these, he mentioned it as a matter of pride to Canadians that one of the ships which they had the contract for they had got in direct competition with a British ship.

The shipyards at Port Arthur had no work to do and had turned to pulp and paper manufacturing as a side-line. The Collingwood Shipyards had no orders and were doing only repair work. The shipyards at Toronto was in the hands of a receiver after finishing two 6000 tons ships ordered by the government. The Canadian Vickers, Montreal, had laid down the keels of two ships, but would not be able to launch them until spring. They had no new orders. Three Divers Shipyards had no orders, and Lewis Shipyards, Quebec, had only an order for one government ship.

Mr. McLurg showed where the Halifax Shipyards compared very favorably with or rather surpassed them all. The Canadian Explorers, which had been launched on December 18th would be ready about the 12th or 13th of this month, and they were now at work on hulls 3 and 4. One of these would be launched the latter part of April and completed some time in July, while the other would be launched about the latter part of June and be ready for her sea voyage some time in August. Although as yet no further orders beyond that were to hand, nevertheless the outlook was fairly good. In this respect he referred to the suggestion of a merger of the Dominion Iron and Steel, Nova Scotia Steel and Coal with the Halifax Shipyards and said that while he had no authentic information to give, nevertheless such a move would be a profitable one and would mean orders for the building of steel carrier ships.

As to the advantages of the shipyards sea-faring. Such labor was easy to educate and train in the shipbuilding business, they understood ships and sea-going, and they didn't have to be taught the things a land-lubber had to learn. This was a distinct advantage and the success which the shipyards were making he attributed to a very great measure to the fine body of men today employed at the shipyards, some of them Old Country men, some trained in Canadian and American shipyards, men of the best kind.

Further facts which Mr. McLurg explained about the Halifax Shipyards were that there are between 1,920 and 1,940 men on the pay roll and that a total of $1,245,501.01 was paid out the last twelve months.

In answer to Mr. Pierce's question as to whether a floating dock was likely to materialize, Mr. McLurg explained that as the present dock was large enough to facilitate every ship they had had so far or were likely to have, a floating dock would cost more to keep up than it would produce, although a location for it had been already chosen and their whole system marked out with that end in view.

Asked by Mr. Power as to prospects of competition from the Courtenay Bay 1,000 feet dock proposition, he said that it did not worry them in the least, and such a dock was a luxury and a non-producer since not a single case had arisen here in the past two years where such a dock was needed.

"813" A THRILLING ARSENE LUPIN FILM

"813" the Robertson-Cole super-special production, which opened yesterday at the Unique Theatre, is without a doubt the most thrilling mystery picture of the year. Adapted from Maurice Leblanc's famous Arsené Lupin story, "813" is very good material for the screen, and gives Wedgwood Nowell who is featured the splendid opportunity of creating on the silver sheet the most fascinating figure in fiction.

It is an ideal role for Mr. Nowell. He looks and acts the part of Arsene Lupin to perfection. He makes this master crook a living creature whose daring adventures and escapades supply many thrills.

Arsene Lupin is a gentlemanly attractive type of crook, who robs but never kills. In "813" a wealthy man is found dead and Lupin is accused of the murder. He cleverly aids the police in tracking the real murderer, at the same time managing to keep out of their clutches. He is here, there, and everywhere. Trying to keep up with his mad career keeps you interested every minute.

RETIRING AFTER FIFTY-FOUR YEARS

M. & H. Gallagher, Charlotte Street, Going Out of Business at the End of March.

More than a half a century ago two young men came to the city from Quispamsis and established a grocery store in Charlotte street; on March 31 of this year the blinds will be drawn for the last time and a record of fifty-four years of upright dealing and the enjoyment of the esteem of a large number of customers and friends will be relegated to history.

In 1867 Michael and Henry Gallagher, both young men in the prime of life, left their homes in Kings county and opened a shop at 14 Charlotte street. The business was primarily for the sale of groceries, but according to the custom then prevailing, a stock of liquors was also carried.

GORMAN WILL BE HOME TOMORROW

Will Arrive on the Noon Train—Plan for Welcome to Speed Skater.

Charles Gorman, who made such a wonderful showing at the Canadian, National and International skating championships at Montreal, Saranac and Lake Placid, will arrive home tomorrow afternoon. He will be met at the station by a delegation from the Commercial Club and driven to City Hall, where Mayor Schofield and the city commissioners will officially welcome him and make a presentation.

HAS BAD EFFECT IN OTHER CENTRES Fletcher Peacock, director of vocational training for the province, is in the city today. Mr. Peacock, in reply to an inquiry by the Times, said that the blow given to vocational training in this city is being felt all over the province.

MORE TESTIMONY ON EVENING CLASSES A girl living at home, desiring to get employment, took up a commercial course in the evening classes this winter. After a time a local firm wanted an assistant bookkeeper. She applied, stating that she was taking the evening classes. She was engaged on the understanding that she go on taking the course. Her sister took the domestic science course last winter, and is this winter taking millinery. These are not rich girls nor the daughters of a rich man. They know the value of vocational training.

TAKE TIME BY THE FORE-LOCK, MR. PROPERTY OWNER!

It is false economy not to protect that building of yours from the destructive action of rain and melting snow and ice, by failing to equip it with the Gutters and Conductors necessary to carry away the flow of water.

Slowly but surely water will eat into and decay whatever wooden portions of the structure are long exposed to its ravages.

Now, before the Spring rains set in, is the time to have this work done. We shall be pleased to submit quotations on any work you may require.

LOCAL NEWS

The Mentors' Association meeting at the Y. M. C. A. last night was presided over by R. H. Parsons. After supper had been served there was a general discussion of the work of the Y. M. C. A. in the city, and a prayer service for the boys' work was held.

The East End Improvement League gave the skaters on their free open air rink a treat last evening when St. Mary's band provided music. It was a moonlight night and the many skaters who gathered at the rink thoroughly enjoyed their band night.

Nicholas Hatch, a stowaway, of 822 Watson street, West St. John, was taken to the General Hospital yesterday afternoon suffering from a compound fracture of a leg. It is said that Hatch, who was injured in the course of his work, had been walking around with a fractured leg for two weeks, and this has greatly aggravated the injury.

The concert at St. Philip's church last night was a decided success. An appreciative audience listened to a programme rendered by St. Philip's choir and other friends of the church. Much credit is due the promoters whose skillful preparation found expression in the pleasing result. A good sum was netted for the trustee fund of the church.

The police and waterfront officers were notified late yesterday afternoon that Walter Holden, aged two and a half years, of 118 Princess street, had disappeared. It developed that while with a relative shopping in Charlotte street the little fellow decided to make a tour of the city on his own account. His parents became quite anxious and after a search, George Flood found the missing baby at the ferry.

The I. O. G. T., which had been using the Temple of Honor building, Main street, for lodge purposes, has purchased a building of its own, having recently acquired the Murray street mission. The mission had been conducted for some years by the Douglas avenue Christian church but will now be used by the templars for lodge purposes. It is probable that at a later date considerable improvements will be made to the building.

The sum of $270 was realized at the well attended tea and fancy sale held in the vestry of the Victoria street Free Baptist church in aid of the new church building fund yesterday afternoon and evening. The fancy booth was in charge of Mrs. Idora McDonald. The candy booth and supper table were presided over by Mrs. Arthur Burke and Miss Stockford respectively. Each of these ladies was assisted by a corps of other lady workers.

The Young Women's Missionary Society of St. David's church gathered last night in the school room of the church and did much useful work in sewing garments for the poor. Mrs. J. A. McKelgan, the president, was in the chair and the scripture portion was read by Miss Edith McAllister. Miss Alberta Nelson read a letter from Miss Murphy regarding her social work in Minto. Miss Murphy sent thanks for the contribution of the missionary society towards the Christmas gifts for her work. It was decided at the meeting that garments made from specially donated material should be given to the Victorian Order of Nurses for distribution. A committee was appointed to see if a lecture could be arranged for at an early date.

The executive of the provincial branch of the Retail Merchants' Association met yesterday afternoon in the provincial office, 49 Germain street. The following out-of-town members were present: W. G. deWolfe, provincial president, St. Stephen; Robert Strain, Woodstock; N. W. Smith, Harry Station; C. H. Burt, Fredericton. The St. John members present were A. A. McIntyre, P. M. Rising, A. E. Everett, Donaldson Hunt, C. H. Smythe, J. H. Marr, R. A. Macaulay, A. O. Skinner, S. C. Webb and S. E. Fisher.

PREDICTED CHANGES IN THE CABINET

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Ottawa, Feb. 15.—The Journal, this morning publishes the following: While the prime minister's cabinet reorganization plans have not yet been consummated, there is reason for believing that they propose inclusion of the following in the new ministry: From British Columbia—H. Stevens; from Ontario, Captain R. J. Manion, General E. C. Mewburn, and W. A. Boys, (as solicitor-general); from Quebec, L. J. Gauthier, Liberal M. P. for St. Hyacinthe; A. A. Mondou, ex-M. P. for Yamaska, and a distinguished Liberal at present a member of the house.

To make room for these new men it is understood that Hon. J. D. Reid, Sir George Foster and Hon. P. E. Blondin are to retire. Sir George Foster, is said to be slated for a high position, while Dr. Reid will go to the senate. Mr. Blondin is already in the senate.

The government's legislative programme for the session, as indicated in the speech from the throne, is not a heavy one. Its main provisions are: Revision of the tariff.

Submission for approval of the West Indies trade agreement.

Repeal of the conservation act involving the termination of the conservation act.

Amendments of the Dominion Elections Act.

Bills relating to copyrights simplification and consolidation of the income tax of 1917.

The speech also intimated that the department of labor is studying systems of unemployment insurance and old age pensions, referred to the League of Nations assembly and observed that the scheme for the establishment of an international court of justice would be submitted to parliament for approval.

Four members were presented and took their seats. They were: Hon. F. B. McCardy, re-elected in Colchester (N. S.); Hon. Rupert W. Wigmore, re-elected in St. John-Albert; S. S. McDermott, the successful progressive candidate in East Elgin and J. A. McKelvie, who carried Yale (B. C.) in government interests.

POWER BOAT CLUB DANCE.

The St. John Power Boat Club held a successful Valentine dance last evening in their rooms in Cedar street. There were more than 800 persons present, and a pleasant evening was spent. Music for dancing was furnished by an orchestra. Towards the close of the evening refreshments were served by ladies of the club. This dance was the second complimentary dance that the commo-

A Danger Signal—Tender and Bleeding Gums

Healthy teeth cannot live in diseased tissue. Gums tainted with Pyorrhea are dangerously diseased. For not only the teeth are affected, but Pyorrhea germs seep into the body, lower its vitality and cause many ills. Pyorrhea begins with tender and bleeding gums. Then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the poisonous germs that breed in pockets about them.

Four out of five people over forty have this disease. But you need not have it. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection. And keep Pyorrhea away by using Forhan's For the Gums.

Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress—if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums hard and healthy, the teeth white and clean. If you have tender or bleeding gums, start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

NO SPEED LIMIT FOR CUBAN TAXIS Havana, Cuba, claims the distinction of having solved the problem of cheap transportation more satisfactorily than any other city. Operating within a territory whose radius is little greater than a mile, 8,000 Ford automobiles carry one or two passengers between any two points in the circle for twenty cents. Under no speed limitations, the drivers are left to their own fate, rushing back and forth through the streets, but their feet and hands become so highly developed that they can swerve out of one another's way more adeptly than can be imagined. Besides, Cuban upholsterers have transformed the Ford. Mahogany replaces the metal of the tonneau, whipcord for the body upholstery, fancy carpet for the floor, and many colored leathers for the seats. In a single car may be seen five or six different shades of leather.

Store School Solves Many Retail Problems. Undoubtedly the readjustment of prices in the after-war deflation has been the largest problem for the retailer. Facing a consuming public which is to a degree engaging in a revolt against high prices and expecting a far greater reduction than the stores can give, has made the task of salesmanship a strenuous one.

Our idea is that the situation can be far better met by the employing the store school. The readjustment of prices in the after-war deflation has been the largest problem for the retailer. GROCERY REPORTS

The following comment on the market situation regarding foodstuffs appears in Canadian Grocer this week: The markets during the week have shown fewer price changes, and with possibly the exception of country produce the majority of commodities have a firmer under-tone. This does not indicate that prices are due for an immediate advance, but it shows, with the steadily increasing demand, that the tide of price recessions has turned and that buyers can look with a greater confidence on the markets.

Throughout the dominion business in both wholesale and retail circles is steadily improving. This improvement does not mean that there is any heavy buying, but it indicates that merchants' stocks are reduced to a minimum and consumers are ready to buy more freely now that prices have reached a lower level.

Hogs and hog products are in an unsettled position with prices reduced and with a tendency for further easier prices. The mild weather is creating a heavy increase in the production of eggs and has resulted in greatly reduced prices. Tea, coffee and shelled nuts are in a strong situation with prices in primary markets steadily advancing. Stocks of these lines are not heavy, and although quotations have not materially changed as yet a revivification can be expected in the near future as shipments arrive that were purchased at the higher level.

Can vegetable prices are ruling fairly strong, but fruits are quiet and dull. Sugars are holding steady at the refinery's export to that country and incidentally boost prices as was the case a year ago.

Have you noticed that Brandeis stores print advertisements without a price list or announcement of a sale? Have you observed that Brandeis stores often print in their advertisements articles that function as a useful institution of a progressive city. On this occasion space is taken so that we may give you an illustration of the kind of thing we mean.

There is quoted an enthusiastic letter from the employees in the office of the auditor of freight accounts, Union Pacific Railroad Co. Parents of boys recommended that document.

The Brandeis stores editorial is very neatly and interestingly set up, boxed by line rules, and the subjects are of the inspirational character. Not a line is left to the store. Fathers and mothers are reading these editorials, as numerous letters testify.

There is quoted an enthusiastic letter from the employees in the office of the auditor of freight accounts, Union Pacific Railroad Co. Parents of boys recommended that document.

lish standard galvanized sheets have been reduced in price. The steel market is in a more quiet state than it has been for some months and there are no immediate signs of any improvements. The present rate of pig iron production reported from Pittsburgh is about sixty per cent. of capacity, and the trend is towards a further decrease. Steel merchants are drawing on their present stocks almost entirely and some of the trade that should be good at the present time is being curtailed. Ingot metals, although still quiet, are inclined to be steadier, and some of them, including copper, are showing a better tone, says Hardware and Metal.

Business continues to improve in the volume of orders received, but some lines in which there should be good business now are quieter than usual. Taken altogether, orders are smaller, but it is realized that merchants are buying oftener than formerly.

FREDERICTON MARKETS. The ruling prices in Fredericton market on Saturday were: Butter, per pound, 50c to 55c; eggs, per dozen, 70c; beef, per pound, 8c to 14c; pork, per pound, 18c to 22c; lamb, per pound, 15c to 22c; mutton, per pound, 8c to 12c; mutton, per pound, 14c to 20c; hay, per ton, $25 to $30; potatoes, per barrel, $2.

WORK OF S. P. C. FOR YEAR REVIEWED

Comment on Some Phases in St. John

Matter of Heavy Loads on Teams - Boy Drivers of Expresses - Suggestion of Autos for Collecting of the City Mails.

At the council meeting of the Society for Prevention of Cruelty this afternoon, D. Carleton Clinch, president, presented the following report:-

SEARCH OF YEARS REWARDED

The man told the "old as the hills" story about spending a fortune to cure locomotor ataxia, with never ending failure. On the advice of a friend he bought a box of Phosphophol. Three days later he commenced to note a change. Within a short time he could walk without a cane. His step became almost brisk. His cure had been almost miraculous. This is but one of the many diseases cured by Phosphophol. It is a restorer of energy and vitality. Price, 45c a box. It is available at all drug stores. Write to the Scotts' Drug Co., Ltd., 21 Yoxville St., Montreal.

OUCH! PAIN, PAIN. RUB RHEUMATIC, ACHING JOINTS

Rheumatism is "pain" only. Not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub, soothe, soothe. It is a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" right into your sore, stiff, aching joints and muscles, and relief comes instantly. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless rheumatism cure which never disappoints and cannot burn the skin.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Common garden Sage and Sulphur makes streaked, faded or gray hair dark and youthful at once.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wreth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wreth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

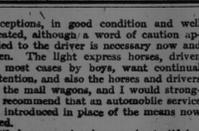

Pyramid for Ease and Comfort

If the Mere Mention of Piles Makes You Shudder Get a Box of Pyramid Pile Suppositories

For the pain and distress due to itching, bleeding, protruding piles or hemorrhoids, get a 40 cent box of Pyramid Pile Suppositories at the nearest drug store. Take no substitutes. The quick relief has been a great blessing to a host of people who fairly shudder at the very mention of the discomfort and misery due to this almost universal complaint. Don't delay. Take no substitute. If you wish to make a trial first, send your name and address to Pyramid Drug Co., 604 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

"HEALING IN EVERY TOUCH" Zam-Buk

In Burns, Scalds, Cold-Sores and all skin-diseases or injury you can depend upon Zam-Buk. It's really astonishing how swiftly and surely it banishes pain and soreness and grows new healthy skin.

exceptions, in good condition and well treated, although a word of caution applied to the driver is necessary now and then. The light express horses, driven in most cases by boys, want continual attention, and also the horses and drivers of the mail wagons, and I would strongly recommend that an automobile service be introduced in place of the means now used.

I have much pleasure in testifying to the excellent work done by the ladies of the Animal Rescue League, and regret very much that they are badly hampered by lack of funds.

The reports from our agencies at Fredericton and Moncton are very satisfactory, and the efforts of our agents at these places are to be highly commended.

Work of the Year.

S. M. Wetmore, secretary and agent, reported that a smaller number of cases were dealt with than in previous years. This, he hoped, may be due to the influence of the society, and that people are getting more readily convinced as to the rights of the dumb animals, but as there are always exceptions, it will require perseverance in the work.

GIN PILLS

KEEP RELIABLE COLD REMEDY IN THE HOME

Prompt Action May Ward Off Fluorisy or Pneumonia.

These are times when every home should be safeguarded against the attack of colds, epidemics of which we see everywhere. Colds in themselves are annoying and troublesome, but it is in their aftermath that the greatest dangers lie.

Get, as soon as a cold starts, you start taking Grip-Fix you will insure yourself against trouble. In a single night you will obtain relief, which may mean warding off an attack of Influenza, Fluorisy or Pneumonia, all of which mean trouble of an acute character.

FINE FOR RHEUMATISM

Musterole Loosens Up Those Stiff Joints—Drives Out Pain

You'll know why thousands use Musterole once you experience the glad relief it gives.

Get a jar at once from the nearest drug store. It is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster, it does not blister. Brings ease and comfort while it is being rubbed on!

Musterole is recommended by many doctors and nurses. Millions of jars are used annually for bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bite, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

Satisfied People Sing Their Praises

WHY DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS ARE ALWAYS POPULAR.

Mr. Mike Stone, of Queen St. West, Toronto, is One of the Many Who Tell Why He Recommends Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto, Ont., Feb. 14 (Special).—"Dodd's Kidney Pills are the best medicine I ever took."

This is the statement of Mr. Mike Stone, of 1816 Queen St. West, this city. And Mr. Stone gives a reason: "I had been trying all kinds of medicines," he says, "but I never found satisfaction till I used Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Mr. Stone has given the reason why Dodd's Kidney Pills are popular all over Canada. They give satisfaction. Dodd's Kidney Pills are not a remedy for everything under the sun. They are for the treatment of kidney diseases and those diseases that spring from diseased kidneys.

It is in treating such diseases they have made their reputation. They have been used for rheumatism, lumbago, dropsy, diabetes, urinary troubles and heart disease, and the satisfied people who used them are singing the praises of Dodd's Kidney Pills in all corners of Canada.

Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills are not the best medicine for sick kidneys!

mean by this is that quite often persons will call me up by phone and say they just saw a horse or some other animal being very cruelly treated, but they made no reference in any way to prevent it. Now I feel safe in saying that in almost every instance like that, if they would only speak to the offender or stop ill-treating the animal, it would have the desired effect and the animal relieved. But if they find that they are not getting any results, then the names and all the facts, and it will be investigated at once.

"Our aim is to prevent cruelty. I try as best I can when any cases come under my notice, or are reported to me, to get the offenders arrested, and to follow the laws of our province. I, J. V. Ellis, and quote from his last address to the executive the following: "I am grateful at the thought that during my connection with the S. P. C. our society has not sought to deal severely with offenders against the law. We have sought to secure for sufferers of all kinds succor from their troubles, but have not overlooked the necessity of punishing those who have been cruel without thought of what they have been doing. In some cases it is impossible to deal with offenders without being severe; and in many cases, and in mildness, kind advice and sympathy do the work of law, and are more satisfactory than severe punishment."

"For gentleness and love and trust. "Preval of anger, wrath and guile."

No New Branches.

I am sorry I cannot report any new branches organized this year. I have had letters from different parts of the province on this matter, and at once gave them the information necessary, and also sent copies of our by-laws, and feel that the residents of any settlement, village or town must know for themselves whether a society for the prevention of cruelty is needed. The mode of organization is simple, and the main requisite is a few courageous men and women to get to work and make up their minds to have a branch, even if it is not always successful. If they are given the information and books required. We have at present two very active branches in Fredericton and Moncton as their reports will show.

Branches at Woodstock, St. Stephen, Sackville and Newcastle. The care and not very active, as I have been unable to get any reply or report from them. This is a matter in which I feel some steps should be taken by the executive in view of having them reorganized, also branches in other parts of the province. In former reports I have mentioned the great need of branches, and still feel that if we had branches in at least every county in the province, the care and wants of the dumb animals could be very much better looked after. Many reports of acts of cruelty have come in throughout the year from different parts of the province, and as far as we can these are investigated. The distance, or loss of time through often postponed cases and difficulty of arriving at the truth, makes the work hard and expensive, and it is not always fruitful. No doubt the existence of the society has some good effect, but the work ought not to be left to us here to do.

"Lovers of animals in large settlements of the province should take an active hand in the work of the society, or acting in any way on behalf of those who cannot speak for themselves. The very existence of a society, even if it does not often have cases of cruelty to deal with, would no doubt be beneficial for the welfare of the dumb animals. The time is not far distant when there will be at least one good active branch in each county in New Brunswick."

Overloading. As regards cases of overloading mentioned in the tabulated statement, I might say, as in former reports, that this is one of the hardest matters to deal with, owing to the fact that we have so many steep hills to contend with in our city, in addition to the ferry boats at low tide. The horses are often urged to their utmost to haul their loads up.

Eyes Tired?

If your eyes are tired and over-worked; if they itch, ache, burn or smart, go to any drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and use to bathe the eyes from two to four times a day. You will be surprised at the rest, relief and comfort Bon-Opto brings.

which to many looks to be an overload, but if the teamster will give them their due, and not use the whip unnecessarily, I am in doubt whether I can interfere, but too often the teamster does not do back and it is then that a word of caution or report to police court is necessary to stop it. The team traffic via the ferry, especially during the winter, is very heavy, and at times there are too many teams to get on the steamer, which means delay, and often suffering of the horses having to stand so long in the cold and storms. The question of a bridge across the harbor is again being brought before the public, and if that is carried out it will be a great benefit to the horses, and I hope we will not have to wait much longer for it.

"I am pleased to say that with the exception of four cases there have not been any very cruel acts of ill-treatment to animals reported to this society. I might mention one in which I was called by phone last May between 12 and 1 o'clock at night from Sussex, informing me that a horse had been so over-driven and ill-treated on the road between Amherst and Sussex that it died on the road. After a number of 'phone' messages I got the man's name and had a warrant issued for his arrest, but before it was executed the man was sent to the insane asylum and the matter was dropped.

"Mrs. H. G. Fairbanks of Harcourt, Kent county, has been and is still doing good work for us in that district for the last two years and through her efforts several acts of cruelty to animals have been prevented. I only wish we had more like her in the other sections of the province who would take the same interest she does for the care and protection of our faithful animals. Our best thanks are due to her.

"We have two other very active agents, Mr. S. A. McLeod of Sussex and Mr. F. M. Thompson of Hillsboro. Both of these gentlemen have for some years taken a deep interest in our work and have been the means of preventing many acts of cruelty to animals, and to them are our best thanks due.

"I wish to express my very best thanks to Mr. J. King Kelley, K. C., Mr. Kenneth A. Wilson, Mr. G. Earle Logan and Mr. Geo. A. Haines for the legal advice and assistance given me in my work; also Dr. L. A. Donovan, V. S., for their valuable advice given so freely when called upon.

"Up the chief of police and his officers I wish again to express my very best thanks for their valuable aid and assistance given me in my work, and the proper care they have given to the cases referred to me by the S. P. C. Our best thanks are also due to our many friends who have either reported to us or intervened with offenders against the law to prevent acts of cruelty to animals.

"As I have stated in previous reports, I am very much indebted to the lady officers of the Animal Rescue League for the splendid work they are doing for the relief of the smaller animals throughout the city. In the many calls I have had from parties as to cats and dogs, strayed, injured, or otherwise needing proper care, I have only to thank the league when they will at once take action for the wants of the animals. For the help of the league I am very much indebted to them. The work they are doing is a very great benefit to the city, but does not seem to be appreciated by those in authority.

The tabulated statement shows 488 cases of which 38 referred to children. Twelve cases were taken to court. L. C. MacNutt, for the Fredericton bank reported the year as active and successful as any other year. The bank balance was about $200 at Dec. 31. The death of James Roberts was referred to and the appointment of Mr. Hughes to succeed him. He has been doing good work. Miss Jeanette Beverly was commended for her work as secretary-treasurer. The membership list is above 100.

For Moncton, Geo. B. Willett, president and W. A. McNeill, secretary, reported 108 cases dealt with.

Mrs. H. G. Fairbanks of Harcourt reported on the work of the year and told of the good influence of the S. P. C. She thought more country districts should take up the work.

F. M. Thompson reported for Hillsboro. All in that part of the country seemed to have been going on quietly and correctly during the year.

At their own doors—in the very gardens of those who are weak, nervous and ailing all the while is one of the most valuable tonics and strength-builders known to medical science, said Dr. James Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.) and the Westchester County Hospital, New York, when consulted recently.

Dr. Sullivan further said: "If your daily diet contains an abundant amount of iron you are giving your body the real blood food it craves. But if your blood lacks iron and is thin, pale and watery you cannot expect to be strong and well. On the contrary, your nerves become weakened and you become irritable, fussy and easily upset. In such cases, what you need is iron—organic iron to remove the cause of your trouble, and the moment organic iron is supplied it is often wonderful how quickly your multitude of symptoms will disappear and how strong and vigorous you will become." But be careful to distinguish between ordinary metallic iron which people usually think of as true organic iron.

had received assurances that President Wilson would veto the Fordney emergency tariff bill not by a mere withholding of his sign, but with a comprehensive statement giving his reasons coupled with a final attack on Republican congressional policies.

HEADACHES Make Life Miserable

Headaches are one of the most aggravating troubles one can have, and it is hard to struggle along with a head that aches and pains all the time. Headaches seem to be habitual with busy people, like me, and they are even, free from them, suffering continually from the dull throbbing, the intense aching, sometimes giving rise to vomiting, and then again over the whole head.

There is only one way to get relief from these persistent headaches, and that is by going direct to the seat of the trouble, for unless the cause is removed, the headaches will still continue to exist. The fact that Burdock Blood Bitters keep the stomach, liver and bowels toned up is proof positive to show that it will eliminate the cause of the headaches.

Mrs. Harold Lannis, Owen Sound, Ont., writes:—"My system was run down and my blood out of order. I suffered a great deal from severe pains in my head, which made me feel very miserable. After having tried other remedies I purchased a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and was very glad to notice a decided improvement in my health, so I took another and am glad to say that it has done me an enormous amount of good. I have recommended it to my friends, who were in a similar condition, and they all say it is a wonderful remedy."

LOCAL NEWS

Owing to an accident to a coal truck belonging to R. P. & W. F. Starr in Meeklenburg street yesterday afternoon street car traffic on the Fairville and Prince William street route was held up for nearly half an hour. Another coal truck arrived and towed the disabled one away.

A Valentine entertainment was held yesterday at the Home for Incarcerates, the chief item being an interesting talk on the West Indies, given by Rev. E. E. Styles. Mrs. Brentnall sang a solo. Refreshments were served by a ladies' committee under the convenship of Mrs. G. K. McLeod.

The Ludlow street B. Y. P. U. visited the Main street Baptist society last evening, and an interesting programme was enjoyed, in which the following took part: Mrs. Hazen Hamilton, Rev. Dr. David Hutchinson, Rev. L. Bridley, Duncan McIntosh, E. Clyde Parsons, Thomas Brown, Miss Pearl Wayne, and L. H. Thorne.

About $2,500 was realized by the taggers in aid of the Free Kindergarten Association yesterday. East St. John was not tagged because of a shortage of taggers and a scarcity of automobiles to convey them to the scene of action. Mrs. A. W. Setry, the ward convener, and her capable assistants deserve much credit for the excellence of their organization and the success which crowned their efforts.

To avoid running into debt, the vocational classes were forced to close last night. The estimated funds at the disposal of the committee did not materialize by $3,000, as the city did not award a grant of $2,000 nor did the province make a grant of $1,000 as was expected. Those classes which met last night were dismissed, and tonight will see the final meeting of vocational classes in the city unless something is done which will lead to their continuance.

The Waterloo street Baptist and the Central Baptist young people's societies also visited the Carleton B. Y. P. U. last evening and enjoyed a Valentine social. An excellent programme was rendered, in which the following took part: J. L. Collins, Miss Wood, Miss Seely, Rev. L. B. Gray, Miss M. Collier. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. F. H. Bone, Rev. J. H. Jenner and Rev. L. B. Gray. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

The governors of the Boys Industrial Home met yesterday afternoon in the mayor's office, with his worship in the chair. Others present were: Hon. W. E.

Poster, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Hon. R. J. Ritchie, H. H. Mott, W. S. Fisher, James Myles, and the secretary, A. J. Parker. Regarding their trip to Fredericton and their inspection of the D. S. C. R. building there, the mayor and premier reported that the buildings were too large for the requirements of the Industrial Home, and it was thought if part were occupied it would prevent the remainder from being put to a proper use. Some routine business was transacted.

GIRL FREED, BECOMES BRIDE
Groom's Plea Wins Her Release From a Branch of Reformatory.

White Plains, N. Y., Feb. 15.—"Yes, I will marry the girl right away. I have the ring in my pocket and a new bridal gown right here in the court room," said Nicholas Sherry to Supreme Court Justice Young when called as a witness for Elizabeth Stullens, who sought her release from Leitchworth Village, a branch of Bedford reformatory for girls who are mental defectives. Dr. H. T. Kelly of White Plains testified that the girl was not a mental defective.

Justice Young, after questioning Sherry, who said he was a greens keeper at a Rye golf club, and had known the girl before she was committed to Bedford in 1918, released her.

Immediately after court adjourned, the couple were married and started for Sherry's home.

MUTT AND JEFF—JEFF'S IDEA OF A PUNK TIME-PIECE IS A SUN-DIAL

JEFF, RUN DOWN IN THE YARD AND SEE WHAT TIME IT IS BY THE SUN-DIAL!
WHY DON'T YOU LOOK AT YOUR WATCH!
I SOLD IT AND BOUGHT A SUN-DIAL! THERE'S CLASS TO A SUN-DIAL! ANYBODY CAN OWN A DOLLAR WATCH!
I THINK IT'S ABOUT TEN O'CLOCK BUT I'LL RUN DOWN AND SEE!
THAT'S THE DARDEST LOOKING TIME-PIECE I EVER SAW!
THE BEAUTY ABOUT A SUN-DIAL IS THAT THERE'S NO MECHANISM TO GET OUT OF ORDER. ALL YOU NEED TO TELL THE TIME IS THE SUN—AND THAT'S DIRT CHEAP!
HERE, MUTT YOU'LL HAVE TO TELL THE TIME YOURSELF! IT'S LIKE A CHINESE PUZZLE TO ME!
YOU POOR SAPI!
