When purchasing Plate Powder, be sure to ask for W. H. ATKINSON'S Champion Plate Polish, THE Subscribers have this day entered into a Co-Partnership, as SOAP and CANDLE ANUFACTURERS, under the style and firm WHICH will save considerable time and trouble, and will be found invaluable, as it will clean the article from dirt or grease, as well as produce a most brilliant polish.

The Proprietor can, with the greatest confidence, recommend his "Champion Plate Polish" as an article superior to anything of the kind ever offered to the public. One trial of it will ensure constant use; and as it saves so much time and labour, besides producing a very lasting polish, Housekeepers will find it worth their while to use "Atkinson's Champion Plate Polish," for cleaning and polishing all kinds of silver and plated goods.

This article is done up in fancy boxes, of different colours, at seventeen cents each.

The average price at which the twenty-six leading Land-grant Railroads have thus far sold their lands, is $7.04 per acre—the highest average of any grant being $13.98, and the lowest $3.07. With few exceptions, the average selling price has steadily increased from year to year. The lands of the Northern Pacific Road are admitted, by all who have seen them, to be better and more salable than those of most other grants, but, sold at the general average of $7.04 per acre, they will yield $1.00 per acre, they will eneral average of $7.04 per acre, they will yield nore than $161,000 per mile of road—more than Staples' McMILLAN'S MAP OF NEW BRUNSWICK. three times the possible cost of construction and equipment; or, at the lowest average of any grant ($3.07), they will produce more than $70, 000 per mile. NOTICES OF

THE WISDOM OF THE KING

BY Rev. James Bennet, ST. JOHN, N. B.

EVIDENCES of deep and serious thought throughout the volume."-Belfast News Letter, Jan. 24, 1871. "Succeeds well in seizing on the salient points of the words of the Royal Preacher, and in bringing them home to present duty."—Glasgow Datly Review, Feb. 6, 1871. "Characterized by directness of aim, sound sense, and right appreciation of the sacred writer's meaning."—The Preachers' Lantern, (London), Feb. 1871.

"His Book may be recommended as worthy o take a place in the Homiletical Literature of Scolesiastes,"—British Quarterly Review, April "The production of a highly cultivated mind.
... We have read several works on Ecclesiastes, and well remember the pleasure with which years ago we perused the 'Royal Preacher,' but for fine criticism, comprehensiveness of thought, striking illustration and unostentatious, yet eloquent and forcible style, The Wispon of the King, we think, surpasses them all."

—St. Croix Courier, March 6, 1871. "The volume is not an unworthy companion of Dr. Buchanan on the same book."—The Homilist (London), April 1871. milist (London), April 1871.

"A series of charming Essays. . . . Each chapter branches out into innumerable topics of a secondary and collateral nature, giving to the work a boundless diversity, enriched with stores of ethical as well as of spiritual wisdom, evincing at once acute observation of social life and of human character, and containing the noblest lessons for practical guidance. Our author's style is remarkable for its free, unconstrained flow, almost colloquial at times, but invariably signalized by elegance, force, adaptation to the subject, and not seldom by originality of thought in combination with terseness and beauty of expression. . . There is about it a freshness, as well as a fullness of practical teaching, rarely to be met with in ordinary Biblical commentaries,"—Londonderry Standard, Feb. 15, 1871.

"This is a bright, breezy book, both interest-

"This is a bright, breezy book, both interesting and instructive. We can most conscientiously commend this book generally, as one of the most sprightly, attractive and instructive works of its kind that has fallen under our observation."—Boston Evening Iraveller, May 6th. 1871 "Every portion of the work indicates extensive scholarship and mature thought."—
Belfast Northern Whig. April 8th, 1871. "The force, raciness and robust manliness of Mr. Bennett's style and mode of treatment will arrest attention and excite interest in quarters where preaching or writing of the average quality would fall flat and dead."—Home and Foreign Record. March, 1871. Foreign Record. March, 1871.

"So plain yet so suggestive, so practical yet so profound are these Lectures that while you read them you feel their deep ruth and reality; that you are in contact with realities both visible and invisible; that you are in close contact with the beating heart of nature and humanity, and that all their life and hope flow full and free from God alone."—Fredericton Head Quarters, March 1st, 1871.

Head Quarters, March 1st, 1871.

"The writer is evidently well acquainted with the literature of his subject, and that acquaintaine reveals itself almost unconsciously in every page. There is no ostentation of reading or learning, but there is everywhere the gleaming forth of light which cannot be hid.

The style is simple, intelligible, graceful. It shows at once that Mr. Bennet is a man of literary culture, who can express his thoughts with scholarly chasteness and good taste. We could not open a page without meeting some thought vigorously expressed. The work is eminently fresh and readable."—Pres. Witness, Halifax. Hatifax.

"He reveals in the treatment of his themes strong common sense, a firm grasp of thought, a logical acumen and a clear insight into human character. Even when dealing with trite ideas he imparts to them a novelty and interest by which they are lifted into an importance they scarcely deserve. The style throughout is lucid, pure, compact, forcible,—and it is his own—the garb of his own thinking. We have met in our perusal of the book with numerous paragraphs of finished and brilliant rhetoric—fine specimens of pulpit oratory. He is never tame nor tiresome. We have not found one slip shod sentence in the volume."—Christian Visitor, (Baptiet) March 6th, 1871.

"We ware not prepared to find him writing."

"We were not prepared to find him writing in such a finished style and issuing such a volume as' the result of certain preparations made for an evening lecture to his congregation." If all his pulpit perfermances are equal to these, his people have reason to "cioice in the Providence which guided his steps to them."—
Evangelical Witness, May 1st. 1871. Evangelical Witness, May let. 1871.

"This is a remarkably thoughtful, solid book! Mr. Bennet is evidently at home in Metaphysics and Ethics, and he is a shrewd observer of human nature in its ordinary manifestations; consequently he ranges over the lessons of the Preacher with a power of illustration which shews his mastery of the subject. The style is close and direct, and yet so lucid, that any render may understand every sentence in the volume. It will, we doubt not, take its place, as it ought to do, among our household expositions of this treatise of observation and Jewish wisdom!"—The Presbyterian (Philadelphia), May 20, 1871.

phia), May 20, 1871.

"The lessons to be learned are drawn with a master's hand, and are expressed with a combined force and beauty that we have rarely seen surpassed in the production of any author. The ordinary reader will find noth ng that is above his comprehension, and yet it would be difficult to find a common-place thought or form of expression. A combination of these requisites we deem the highest merit a writer can possess.

"We will be much disappointed if the book do not command a wide circulation. Wherever a sound literature is felt to be a desideratum, The Wispow of The King has but to be known to be prized as a work that the world will not willingly let die."—Saint John Telegraph and Journal.

"THE WISDOM OF THE KING is well worth careful reading. Indeed you cannot read much of it at once. There is a constant play of fancy about the thoughts, and often the very words, that is admirably suited to the Scripture book, of which this is an exposition, but which demands such constant attention on the reader's part that he gets tired, for he does not know where it is to end. The style is compact, lucid, often sparkling and epigrammatic, the sentences cut sharply, but with a poetic fullness of original illustration that redeems them from all hardness."—Halifax Monthly Record, (Church of Scotland). "Each chapter is so well done, so lucid, yet concise in its exposition, that it is sometimes d fitcult to determine which is the best and most interesting.—Stewart's Quarterly, St. John.
