Troops Are Being Rushed to the Mexican Border in Special Trains From Chicago-Secretary Bryan Thinks the Situation Is Nearing a Conclusion and Is Hopeful For Best.

[Canadian Press.]

Mexico City, Nov. 4.—Provisional President Huerta appears not yet to have delivered a reply to the communication from the United States Government delivered to him on Sunday, telling him he must resign the presidency of Mexico without loss of time, and that he must not leave as his successor any member of his official family or of his unofficial adherents whom he might be expected to control.

A meeting of the Mexican cabinet, however, was called for today, at which it appeared probable that the matter would come up for discussion.

The only reference to the incident in the local papers today was that which occurred in press dispatches from Washington, which, when they were shown to the American charge d'affaires, brought out a denial more or less technical, which was published here today in connection with the dispatches. All Are Silent.

Administration officials directly connected with the Mexican negotiations adopted a policy of absolute silence, considering it inexpedient at this time to define exactly the course of action being pursued and declining to comment one way or the other on the reports from Mexico City regarding the presentation of a summary note to Huerta requiring his immediate resignation. That this elimination of Huerta is a sine qua non is admittedly the fundamental principle of the administration policy, but beyond [Canadian Press.]

[Canadian Press.]

Woodstock, Nov. 4 .- At 1 o'cock this afternoon Mrs. Grace Beemer faces trial on the charge of murdering her husband. Fred Beemer, of Blenheim Township, on March 15 last, poisoning him with strychnine. In the preliminary hearing before Magistrate Ball in June, she pleaded not guilty. The most startling evidence at that trial was that of John Mason, formerly of Great Yarmouth, England, now working on a farm in Blenheim, who swore that when visiting Beemer he saw the accused pour some white powder from a bottle marked "poison" into an egg cup and give it to deceased.

Evidence Discounted. This evidence was discounted to some extent by witnesses who knew Mason, and swore that they had known him to lie and would not believe him. It is believed that Chief Parker, of Great Tarmouth, now here on accused's behalf, will also swear that Mason's testimony is unreliable, as he knew him in his Three Attacks. Prior to his death Beemer had three ttacks of severe pain, the last one killing him. Between these attacks deceased ecovered to a great extent, and it was remarked that each attack came on after ne had been given a dose of Epsom salts by his wife. These doses were borrowed from different neighbors, and it seemed there was no chance of poison being ccidentally mixed with it. Cause of Death. That strychnine caused the death as uspected by the coroner and jury was proved by the provincial analyst, who found one grain still undissolved in the stomach. It was shown that deceased had bought strychnine several years ago, but none lately, and that he could not have taken the dose himself. Relatives Allege That Deceased Change Affects [Liberals Much Was of Weak Mind When Will Was Made.

Four cases have been set down for trial in the supreme court at the nonjury sittings of that court to be held in this city on Nov. 10. The first one is a case regarding the will of Mrs. Elvira Henderson, who died at Belmont in March last. The case was to have been heard in the surrogate court, but was transferred to the supreme court.

Opposed by Relatives. The London and Western Trusts Company, as executors of the will are seeking letters of administration, but the filing of the will for probate is opposed by relatives of the deceased, who claim that the chief beneficiary in the will, Mrs. Jessie Lena Smuck, used undue influence in having herself named in the will. Mrs. Henderson, they claim, was of weak mind and understanding when the will was made in November, 1912, and was not in a proper condition physically to dispose of her property.

Is Not a Relative. Mrs. Smuck was not a relative of Mrs. Henderson, but went to live with her some time before her death. It is now claimed that she either singly or with the aid of persons unknown exerted an influence which caused her to cut her next of kin (a sister, Mrs. Anna Craner, and brother, Wm. C. Henderson), and other relatives, out of the will. The amount involved is about

FOR LIBERALISIN

Oppose Claims of Mrs. Jessie L. As in East Middlesex, Conservative Majority Was Cut

More Favorably Than It

Will Whitney.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Toronto, Nov. 4. - Four definite points among others stand out clearly in the Peel by-election contest, which in the provincial field gives the same indication as the cutting in two of the Conservative majority in East Middlesex, and the Liberal gain in South Bruce, do in the federal field, namely, that Liberalism, suddenly enough, is actually in the ascendancy in Ontario today. These four specific points are: Gain for Liberals. 1. The important town of Brampton has come over into the Liberal column. At the general election in 1911 the Conservative candidate had 136 majority there. This time that majority is completely wiped out and a Liberal majority of 24 takes its place. It was in Brampton, too, that the battle was most closely drawn. Both candidates, Milner the Liberal, and Fallis, the Conservative, live there, and both were supported during the campaign by party leaders. Mr. N. W. Rowell, K. C., for example, spoke there on Friday night, the Hon. W. J. Hanna Saturday night, and the Brampton papers also saw to it that the issues were placed squarely before the electorate. The result is that the Rowell program of social reform swept everything before it and brought about this truly remarkable turnover.

Reduced Majority. 2. In the constituency as a whole, the Conservative majority was cut in half. In 1911 it was 710; now it is about 350, and this, too, with a very heavy vote

3. If the Conservatives had a similar loss of 350 in their majorities at the next general election they would lose on this count 22 seats; add to this the 20 seats already held by the Liberals, and it would give 42 Liberal seats. As a matter of fact, however, this estimate is too low sex by-election would be held on Nov. rather than too high, for the Opposition 27, and nominations on the 20th. chances will be greatly increased in the chances will be greatly increased in the general election. The Liberal tide which has already started will be flowing more strongly, and the Conservatives will have to scatter the strength of their forces all over the province instead of being able to concentrate them in one point as at preent. This change will effect the Liberals much more favorably than the Conservatives.

Performance Is Satisfactory to Large Audience at the Grand.

"Ishmael," as presented by the Ernie Marks Stock Company at the Grand on Monday night, was a fair and pleasing performance.

Mr. Ernie Marks, as Reuben Gray, played the time-honored part of the uncouth but noble and generous country overseer in a quite satisfactory manner, Mr. H. Webh Chamberlain, as Ishmael, is an actor of a fair order of merit. Miss Lida Gardner, as Han-nah Worth, gets by nicely with a rural comedy role of the old-fashioned country aunt, and her vaudeville number between acts made a great hit with the audience, and called forth a tumult of applause. Gus Hogan, as Lord Vincent, leaves room for im-provement in his acting, but he also got off some very good vaudeville between acts. Wesley Barney, as Herman Brudenall; Charles A. Capt. Burghe, are fair.

Miss Kitty Marks, as Beatrice Middleton, is an actress of marked tal-ent and capability, and her work is happily not too impressionistic or "accentuated." Miss Marie La Tour, as Claudia Merlin, at times is remarkably good, and is fairly satisfactory throughout her role.

Especial credit is due to little Miss Hazel Brown for her very natural acting in the part of the maid, and also for her delightful work in vaudeville. Mr. Frank Clayton, in his vaudeville number, makes you laugh at the old, old jokes and forgive him for making you. He is really very funny, and his tomato-can caliope is an interesting contrivance. Tonight the company will present 'Sweet Clover."

The Great Western Play, "Billy the

From a box-office standpoint "Billy the Kid" is the biggest melodramatic success of the last ten years. It tells a story of outlawry forced upon the hero by his own father, but the story is consistent and the play ends happily for all concerned. Handsome scenery and an excellent supporting company and an excellent supporting company are said to be a feature. The play will come to the Grand Opera House for one night only, Friday evening. Seat sale now open at popular prices.

"Rob Roy" With All-Star Cast. James Stevens, erstwhile a prominent member of the Metropolitan Grand Opera Company of New York, will sing the title-role of "Rob Roy" at the Grand Opera House, matinee and night, Saturday. There is no doubt of the value of the success achieved by this artist in the De Koven Opera Company in Mr. De Koven's tuneful opera. He has headed the cast of male members from the outset, and has invariably given a conscientious and masterial performance of the role intrusted to his care. Mr. Stevens is beyond a doubt the leading bariton at present in light opera in America. He has a superb voice, a commanding presence, and a thorough knowledge of all that makes a successful player in this field. In "Rob Roy" he has a capital opportunity to display his best talents, and it is said of him that he never fails to take advantage of the chances bestowed upon him. Seat sale opens tomorrow at 9 a.m., and the management look for the largest advance sale in the history of the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore Were Highly Honored By Their Friends. Brussels, Nov. 4.-Before M. H. Moore, V S., and family removed to Listowel a social evening was enjoyed at the residence of Druggist Fox, when Mrs. Moore was presented with a handsome gold brooch and Mr. Moore was the recipient of a gold watch and chain. A most appropriate reply was made by Mr. Moore. A number of short speeches were made, a program of vocal and in-strumental music given, and lunch served before the company bade farewell to residents of 30 years' standing Good-bye. "Doc" Moore was widely known in this locality. He was a member of the school board, on the board of manthe school board, on the board of man-agers for the Presbyterian Church, and took a prominent part in the L. O. L. Supt. of Elections Charged With Fail ure to Probe Violations. [Canadian Press.]

New York, Nov. 3.—The summary removal of John R. Voorhees, superinndent of elections, a Democrat, is asked in a letter addressed to Gov-ernor Glynn today by Francis W. Bird, chairman of the national progressive party of New York County; L. J. O'Reilly, chairman of the city campaign committee of the Independence League, and Clement J. Driscoll, president of the voters' league.

The letter charges Voorhees with failure to investigate violations of the election law, with permitting his office to be used for partisan purroses, and with "general incompetency and inefficiency." It alleges that the superintendent failed to take action "on lists of fraudulent registration submitted to him a year ago," and permitted the same names to be register

CHAPTER XIII. A Critical Moment.
Two days later, and in the middle of the afternoon, Rosalie was again in Miss Estrilla's room suffering from incipient Her eyes stared, her limbs 'control.

twitched.

"Sorry," said Rosalle, on her entrance,
"but I've got it again—and I can't beat it. Do you mind if I lock the door? I wouldn't be disturbed for a farm—don't know what it would do to me!" She plumped down into a chair, giving a yawn which shook her whole body. Gradually she relaxed. With one heaving sigh she settled back. Her eyes closed and she fell as into sleep. And presently she was fell as into sleep. And presently she was babbling first in the baritone of Doctor Carver and then in the liquid accents of Carver and then in the liquid accents of Laughing-Eyes.

Let me omit the preliminaries. They dealt only with trivial things—such little affairs of the house as occurred to the mind of Rosalie Le Grange, working in flashes under her sleeping exterior. She had growled and babbled for five minutes before Laughing-Eyes announced suddenly:

"The lady is sick—the pretty lady.
Spirit wants to talk to the lady. Pretty spirit. I feel like a great big queen was here—Vic—Vic-Victoria." The voice of Laughing-Eyes stopped. This was a device of Rosalie's. She wanted to listen.
And the microscopically minute thing which she heard satisfied her. Miss Estrille had heard satisfied her. Security Now. facial expression, her manner—if one can attribute manner to a woman who appears to sleep—underwent an abrupt change. The voice deepened, the lines of the face fell; it was Doctor Carver who spoke.

"Victoria is not strong," said the voice. "I sense that she brings consolation. She says that things are bad; but they will be better by and by. It is a mother's influence. Miguel—" here Rosalle page of the property better by and by. It is a mother's influence. Miguel—" here Rosalie stopped, and again she noted the irregular breathing from the couch. It was an eternal quarter-minute before she spoke eternal quarter-minute before she spoke again; this time the voice was a man's, but lighter and higher than that of Doctor Carver, and it spoke Spanish.

"I ani mate, hijita mia!" it said, and died away. A silence again. "He is gone," said the voice of Doctor Carver. "A spirit wants the young woman who lives below this room." The seance drifted away into a series of imaginary messages for Miss a series of imaginary messages for Miss Harding. But once again Miguel floated into the talk, dropped a word or two of easily-pronounced Spanish, then out again. Presently Doctor Carver came no more; the babblings of Laughing-Eyes became disconnected monosyllables, and died out altogether. Rosalie lay as though asleep. She lay for five minutes; she lay for ten minutes. "Won't she ever wake me up?" hought Rosalie.

Miss Estrilla moved now and then; now and then her breathing caught. And sud-denly she was not breathing at all. Pasalie steeled herself for the shock of cold water, of that were to be the awakening. The shock came—but in another form.
"I am going to kill you!" said the voice of Miss Estrilla in Spanish. "I am pointing a pistol at your head! Come to me—at once—or I shall fire;!"

Thirty years in the profession which deals with deceits both minute and monstrous, thirty years of emotions simulated, had given Rosalie one great practical talent—control of mind, muscle and nerve. It had given her, too, a courage born of self-confidence, of the well-grounded faith that she could master any situation. It had modified her instincts, changed her nature. Her impulse, under sudden shock of surprise, was to continue, naturally and easily, just what she had been doing. That tided her over the moment of crists. Her eyes remained closed, her color changed not, her breath came as regularly and evenly as before. There succeeded the critical moment when the control of instinct was gone and the less dependable control of reason reasserted itself. That was hardest of all. She must remember to keep her breathing regular, and her limbs composed; above all—and this was a feat possible only to an actor of parts or a professional medium—to keep the color in her face. She accom-plished this by the simple device of sinking her chin close against her collar. It was easier as the moments passed. Noth-ing had happened, nor was there any movement on the couch. It became certain that this was a test. Rosalie waited. Her left foot was falling asleep. It came as she had expected—the second test. Clearly and distinctly, Miss Estrilla said in English:

"You are a fraud. I am pointing a revolver at your head. Wake and hold up your hands or I will shoot you."
Rosalie slumbered on in seeming, and this time it needed no effort of will. But the foot sent a thousand tiny twinkles of pain and discomfort up her ankle. She was meditating how she might manage a was meditating how she might manage a natural awakening, when Miss Estrilla shook her and said in her natural voice:

"Mrs. Le Grange! Mrs. Le Grange!
Wake up!"
Rosalie came to full consciousness most artistically and effectively.

FEAR TROUBLE

[Canadian Press.] Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 4. - Special precautions against violence in the street car strike were taken today in the fear that additional crowds on the streets, due to the partial holiday of election day, would result in some serious trouble. Many of the police, who have been on their feet most of the time since Friday night, rested last night and almost the full force was on duty today. The special deputies appointed yesterday by Sheriff Porteus also prepared to be ready to defend the peace.

LONDON, TUESDAY, NOV. 4. THE VOTE IN PEEL.

The Provincial by-election in Peel results in a drop in the Conservative majority from 716 to 373. Sir James Whitney, Mr. Hanna, and the Conservative morning papers pretend to find comfort in these figures. In the North Grey and East Middlesex by-elections the increase of the Conservative vote, partly through local and accidental causes, was hailed as a repudiation of the banish-the-bar policy. In Peel the Conservative majority is halved, and we are told that it is "a severe setback" to the same policy. Optimism of this kind is not easily

The reduction of a Covernment maority in a by-election is a very unusual thing in this province or any province. In the recent federal by-election in Ontario this phenomenon was admitted by Conservatives to be ominous, yet the drop was smaller in each case than that in Peel. Would supporters of the Whitney Government be content to see this ratio of loss spread over the province in a general election Certainly not; it would wipe out or nearly wipe out Sir James Whitney's overwhelming majority in the Legislature. Mr. Rowell will be encouraged to push his program with renewed energy. Not a plank of his social reform platform will be abandoned. He has conducted a spirited campaign of education, and his social policies are sinking into the public mind. He has done much admirable spade-work and will do much before the general election of 1915. Unlike Sir James Whitney, who hugs his Castle of Indolence, Mr. Rowell goes out to meet the people. Unlike Sir James, too, he has ideas and initiative. Sir James may have the courage of his convictions, but he has no convictions outside of True to his hide-bound Toryism. species, he has not changed with changing conditions and needs. Mr. Rowell is a Liberal of the up-to-date British school, responsive to modern tendencies and forces, seeking to adapt the social structure to the rights and claims of the less privileged classes. AN HEREDITARY GOVERNORSHIP. Every few weeks there crops up the story started some time ago that it is seriously proposed by somebody to make the governorship of Canada hereditary in the family of the present Duke of Connaught. Who proposed this, nobody seems to know. The idea is said to have come from Canada. Possibly it did. We have people here quite capable of imagining something of this sort. But more likely it is the sequel of the other story that Prince Arthur was to succeed his father. As no particular objection was raised to that proposition, it would be quite easy for someone to go a step farther. If the son should follow the father in this case, why not keep the succession going along the same lines indefinitely? But is there anything to be said in favor of this scheme? Who wants it? We can understand that it would be acceptable to a certain class of our people, who consider themselves of the aristocracy, natural or manufactured, principally the latter. That they would enjoy the aroma of a permanent court at Ottawa, which should that Peel. be simply vice-regal, but also royal, is-very probable. To these people, the fashions, manners and customs of royal court, even though it be only a transplanted one, would doubtless be influences emanating from such quarter would have an ennobling and only a comparatively small section of sunshine of a vice-kingly circle, we are afraid that the mass of the people would not appreciate these privileges. are worth considering.

There would be some practical difficulties in carrying out this hereditary idea. The transmission of the vice-regal crown from one Connaught to another in the first place might work all right, as far as that could be provided for. But Prince Arthur has just married. It would not be possible for him to have a son ready to step into his shoes as soon as his term had expired. There would be a break in the succession. Or else the term of the governor-general would have to be indefinitely prolonged, to accommodate itself to family conditions. Indeed, we gether, will have all the politicians in might have a governor spend his whole a corner. life in Canada, an exile from home, waiting for an heir to appear, and then perhaps die without the heir material-heir, would a lady take the place? On purely personal grounds, no one could the Greek letters they have on fraterobject to the Frincess Patricia inheriting the Canadian crown, but all royal ladies are not Princesses Patricias. And then what would happen if the rightful heir should go on strike and refuse the honor?

No, this sort of thing had better be dropped, if anyone ever seriously entertained it. The appointment of the Duke of Connaught has proved eminently satisfactory, thanks to the duke's unfailing tact. If Prince Arthur should succeed, he would be loyali welcomed in the hope that he would be as good a man as his father. But there are a great many good men in England, who are neither princes, nor lords, nor knights, who have no title whatever, but yet are statesmen, of great repute. We should like one of that class to alternate with the Canada would be pleased with a man of the stamp and ability of John Burns for a change. And we should have such a one occasionally if the governor of Canada is to be a true representative of Britain. For the glory and greatness of the Empire is not shown in its princes and nobles their industry and intellect have raised themselves to be its real

SERIOUS IN MEXICO.

The lingering crisis in the Mexican situation cannot linger much longer. The United States has at last made a decisive move by demanding the resignation of Huerta, and warning him not to throw his mantle upon any of his creatures.

Huerta's refusal would, of course, be the signal for overt action by the United States. The Washington Government must have had this contingency in mind before it presented the ultimatum. Its next step must be already planned. Probably it will take the form of a naval demonstration if Huerta is obdurate. It will be easy to blockade Vera Cruz and other ports and collect the customs revenue. Americans in Mexico have been already warned to leave, and will stay there at their peril, as will other foreigners. For the destruction of American property the United States will hold Mexico responsible, and will reimburse the losers when order is restored. But the foreign interests in the country complicate the problem. out, also fresh air and dew; also for These expect protection, and as for- gardens. an appalling task, but it is not believed that a land invasion will be necessary. In fact, President Wilson has expressly disclaimed the idea of armed intervention. He hopes that moral and financial pressure will bring Huerta to his knees and open the way to a constitutional election of a president with clean hands. Financial pressure may have to be exerted by a commercial blockade. In this the European powers must acquiesce. But what if Huerta still remained defiant? There's the rub.

EAST MIDDLESEX.

By-elections in East Middlesex come thick and fast. Three vacancies in the riding in a little over a year have been caused by death, a melancholy circumstance which has softened the asperities of party.

The provincial by-election will he held on Nov. 27, so that neither party can afford to lose time in nominating candidates. Liberals will feel encouraged by Mr. Fisher's excellent run last month. While the issues are different, the riding is the same, and the returns showed that the leaven of independence which sent the riding more than once into the Liberal ranks, is still at work.

It wasn't Mr. Rowell who slipped on

> WHY NOT? [Toronto Star.]

Why should not all parties make a sincere effort to get to the root of this difficulty about food supply? If tariffs are not the cause, what is the cause? If the trusts are not the cause, what is the cause? An inquiry would be good, but we do not want one of these inquiries which mean simply proerastination. Things which are clearly narmful or useless, such as taxes on food, should go, and combines should be vigorously attacked by law. During the to be maintained in order that the hospital may receive any steam at all.

"The equipment will have to be increased shortly," said Superintendent Dodd. "We will either have to build a new lant or add to the present one if it is at all feasible."

Aren't Up to Law.

An interesting little question, now being raised in municipal circles, is whether or not the water commission is liable, under the building bylaw, for the construction of the new hydro workshops and waterworks storehouse, at the rear of the Horton street pumping station. The bylaw says that chimneys must be four feet from the roof. As the "concealed" chimney on the building, artisticaly hidden by the coping that tops the roof, is less than four feet high, it is claimed that it is an illegal one. The concealed chimney on the pumping station proper is also breaking the law, being under the specified height.

START WORK ON STORM SEWERS DURING WINTER

Believed That Progress May Be Made Earlier Than Expected.

COUNCIL WORKS FAST

Minor Matters Only Considered, and Speedy Conclusions Are Come To,

Monday night's council session was almost a record-breaker in its brevity. It was over in considerably less than an hour. Beyond the passage of the routine committee reports and the bylaws, there was little brought before he aldermen. Possibly the most imortant features of the meeting were he provisions made to insure the speedy start on the storm-water sewer system. The board of works was emowered to consult with the engineerng department and Engineer Willis Chipman, who drafted the storm-sewer plans, in reference to securing the service of Engineer Chipman in pre-paring the details and specifications or the work.

Would Start This Winter. Ald. William Spittal introduced a supplementary motion, recommending and authorizing the board to start the work this winter if at all possible. He declared that it would give employ-ment to many, who might otherwise be out of work, and further stated that if London experienced a winter such as last, it would be possible to get in considerable of the work this winter. In his motion was incorporated the request that the extension and betterment of the existing sanitary sewerage system be looked into at the same

In reply to the resolution of the board of health, that better sanitary arrangements should be made at the fair grounds, Secretary A. M. Hunt ubmitted a reply stating that the ommunication should have been sent to the park commission or the council, the fair board not being responsible.

Wants Bylaw Prepared. Ald. E. H. Johnston submitted a motion authorizing the finance committee to prepare the bylaw for a board of control, and to make effective any suggestions that it might suggest. He was informed that the bylaw was being prepared and would be submitted at the next meeting of the committee. Ald. J. H. Saunders sprung a little surprise on the members of the fire, water and light committee, when he introduced a motion authorizing the purchase of new office equipment for the relief inspector. His motion, however, carried, it being supported by the members of the fire and light committee, under whom the inspecor's department comes. Traffic Bylaw Amended.

The traffic bylaw was amended in respect to the standing of automobiles. The new restricted district will be Dundas street from Ridout to Well-ington and from Adelaide to Rectory and on Richmond from Fullarton to he Grand Trunk tracks.

IOSKEE NEALE PLAYS

Two Canadian League Players Came Together on Gridiron in Game in Which Neale Starred.

In a recent Rugby game between two olg colleges in the United States, two Canadian League players were pitted against each other. One of these players was no less than our old friend Oskee Neale, while the other was "Chief" Garlow, the Hamilton pitcher. The teams playing were the University of West Virinia and the Indian College. Carlisle he Indians were victorious by the score f 29 to 0, but the star of the game was Oskee Neale, former London outfielder, out now belonging to Toledo, Neale played a remarkable game, according t e press dispatches, and his team would have been beaten by a much larger score and it not been for his wonderful punt

In commenting on the game, the New York Telegraph praised Neale, and also mentioned that he was a player of some ote. Oskee is one of the best football ayers ever turned out in West Virginia, out his friends have advised him to give it up for fear he will meet with an injury that will put an end to his promising baseball career.

The Sarnia Collegiate Rugby team is

London Collegiate put over on it. The Sarnia Collegiate made all arrangements with the L. C. I. to play off for the Western Ontario championship in Sarnia on Saturday, and advertised the contest extensively. But the local institute team tailed to show up. The game was to have been played previous to the Sarnia-London O. R. F. U. contest, and the Saria Collegiate players were at the park n uniform before they learned that the C. I. team had not come. The Sarnia Collegiate claims that al arrangements with the L. C. I. were made for the game, and they cannot understand why they should be made jokes of in that fashion. They say it is a pretty peor piece of sportsmanship. The local ollegiate Rugby team disbanded two o ree weeks ago after some of its best layers were seriously injured in a game

"Shag" at the End of His Tether? Have a Care, Bo, Have a Care!

Harry Griffith and Dr. Wright, long identified with the Toronto Varsity team, say that McGill's defeat by Queen's means that Shaughnessy has reached the end of his tether. They claim that no particular credit rests with Coach Sliter of Queen's, for evolving a formation that broke up McGill's treacherous offside interference, but that the referee had the "back bone" to call the illegal work.

It may be that the referee had something to do with it, but when it comes to Shaughnessy being at the end of his tether that is something else again. The man that can win a Canadian League pennant with a bunch of misfits like Shaughnessy had last season, hasn't got any end to his tether. Watch his smoke next Saturday when R. M. C. plays at McGill. If McGill doesn't come back with a vengeance there will be something radically wrong. Shaughnessy claims that Queen's victory was due to the fact that many of his players were suffering from injuries received in previous games.

May Make Several Trips to Outside Towns This Fall and Winter to Play Friendly Games.

A team of local pin bowlers will make a visit to St. Thomas some night this week or next week, and play a friendly game with a team of St. Thomas bowlers. Arrangements for the trip are being made at present, and it is likely the local team will also make trips to Ingersoll, Woodstock, Sarnia, Port Huron, Hamilton and Toronto. An Invitation From St. Thomas.

The St. Thomas team has extended an nvitation to local bowlers to play a series of friendly games both in London and in St. Thomas, and the invitation has been enthusiastically accepted by the London trundlers. The city boasts of some pretty good bowlers at present, and no trouble will be experienced in getting up a team. A couple of years ago local bowlers made many visits to outside towns and played games, but last year there was not much done in this line. However, the game is being revived, and it is not unlikely that a city league will be formed during the

Fred Keefe, Australian Rider, Had Bad Spill Last Night.

Boston, Nov 3.-The first night of riding in the six-day bicycle race at the Arena brought a shake-up among the score of professional riders. Willie Coburn, of Newark, and Clarence Carmen, of New York, and Fred Keefe, of Australia, and Joe Kopsky, of New York, dropped a lap in a sprint started at 11 o'clock. The other teams at midnight had covered 191 miles in eight hours of riding.

Keefe was badly hurt in a spill one hour fter the race began at 4 o'clock. Losing control of his machine, he plunged over the rail into the grand stand. After receiving surgical treatment, he iding, and at midnight was following the leaders, heavily bandaged.

He claims $500 for breach of contract, because he alleges that the McClary Company refused to supply him with the hoves. He also asks $125 damages.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ingersoll Nov. 4 .- All efforts to identify the man found beside the G. T. R. tracks, between Ingersoll and Dorchester, on Monday afternoon have proven unsuccessful, but it is now believed that he is a man who walked into Ingersoll about two weeks ago and stated that he was ill and wanted shelter, as he had walked all the way from London that day. This individual, through the efforts of the police, was sheltered for the night at a local boarding-house. While there he did not the Western Medical School at London reveal his name, but said he had been by the authorities.

A Message From a Woman to Women

Every Woman Should Take "Fruit-a-tives."

Lakelet, Ont., May 12th, 1911-'Kindly publish this letter of mine if you think it will benefit other women who might be afflicted with the diseases I have had in the past, but am now, thanks to 'Fruit-a-tives,' completely cured. It is my firm belief that every woman should take 'Fruit-a-tives,' if she wants to keep herself in good health.

"Before taking 'Fruit-a-tives' I was constantly troubled with what is commonly known as 'Nerves' or severe Nervousness. This Nervousness brought on the most violent attacks of Sick Headache, for which I constantly taking doctors' medicine without any permanent relief. Constipation was also a source of great trouble to me and for which the Doctors said 'I would have to take medicine all my life," but 'Fruit-a-tives" banished all these troubles and now I am a well woman.'

TRACTION ENGINE WRECKED BRIDGE

John Robinson Had Close Call From Being Killed. [Special to The Advertiser.]

Wyoming, Nov. 4.-A heavy traction engine, owned by Joseph Scott, Camlachie, while crossing a frame bridge on the second line west recently was taken to the bottom of the ditch with the bridge. When nearly over, the stringers collapsed, leaving the engine in an awkward position. John Robinson, the young man in charge, had his foot caught in some manner, crushing one of his great toes so that a portion of it had to be

TORONTO, Nov. 4.—The run at the Union stockyards yesterday totalled 295 cars, containing 6,375 cattle, 198 calves, 1,105 hogs and 3,937 sheep and lambs.

Marked again by an exceedingly heavy opening day's run, which contained very few really choice cattle, the market slowed up considerably, and all except the better grades of cattle fell off in price from 25c to 30c. Practically all the grades of cattle, with the exception of good butchers, were a slow trade, and the mar-ket had a decided draggy tendency. Even stockers, which have been a very bright trade for some time, felt the trend of the narket, and prices as well as trade slowed down before the close. This, how-ever, was due more to the action of the dealers in awaiting developments than to the run. Several buyers for American firms are on the market, and the local dealers are sitting tight waiting for them to do the bidding. The outlook, though, is for decreased prices on this market. The sheep and lamb trade was the only one which could in any way compare with last week's closing, the trade on those markets being brisk and prices steady with last week. Lambs, especially, sold well, and the farmer that ships his spring lambs to the market now is sure to be repaid for his trouble, as the prices are very good, and present conditions poin to a steady market during the week. The hog market showed a decided falling off again this week, some dealers maintain-ing that they were 25c lower than last week, but the transactions showed a varying range of prices.

The run at the city cattle market yesterday totalled 20 cars, containing 500 cattle, 37 sheep and lambs, 30 hogs and 15 calves. While trade here today for the better grades of cattle was steady with last week, the medium and poorer qualities fell off somewhat, and before the close were quoted about 20c lower than last week. There was a continued demand for the better grades of cattle, but as the shipments of this class were small the demand was far from being satisfied The trade for sheep and lambs was firm, a good steady sale being recorded on this market. Hogs were off about 15c to 25c,

REMAINS TO BE DONE

Fine Weather Is Needed Now To Finish Up the Fall Plowing.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ingersoll, Nov. 4.—Fine weather is very much desired by the farmers this vicinity. The continuous rains of the last two weeks seriously interrupted their fall work. There is ye considerable plowing to be done, and so rushed are many of the farmers that they kept their teams at work on some of the days recently when the rain fell fairly heavily. The root crops are now being taken up, and this is a task which is all the better done if the weather favorable A cold spell prolongs the work, for once the ground becomes frozen, increased efforts are required to release the roots. The crops are said to be good, especially turnips. Apple packers are still busy in the surrounding districts. While the apple crop was probably somewhat below ast year, the farmers who have had apples of quality have had a good demand for their fruit. Buyers went through the orchards early in the season and bought some of them at that time, paying a lump sum for all the fruit. The farmers who have been spray ing and cultivating their orchards in accordance with scientific principles are finding the fruit very profitable, and this year their crop has been greatly in excess of the yield in or-

President Wilson Insists That Huerta Withdraw From All Control of Government—Preparations boarding cars for workmen were also For War Are Going Forward at Headquarters

—Speedy Action Will Be Taken in the Event of Huerta Refusing To Withdraw.

Huerta has been told he must resign the presidency of Mexico without loss of time, and that he must not leave as 10 00 to 65 00 ister of war, or any other member of 5 75 to 7 25 his official family, or of the unofficial to 5 00 his official family, or of the unofficial the lines and in the way that would coterie whom he might be expected to

This ultimatum from Washington was conveyed to President Huerta through his private secretary, Senor Rabago, by Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the American charge d'affaires, acting under instructions from the state department. Has Not Answered.

Senor Rabago presented the memorandum to his chief late Sunday, but ing was rather slow, a medium grade of cattle ruling the market. Sheep and lamb prices ranged steadily, while hog had returned no answer to it, and, as far as could be learned, had guarded its contents from almost all his official and intimate counse'lors. Those who learned of the Washington note regard General Huerta's position as one in which he will be forced to give one of two answers-refusal point blank to comply with the demand, possibly going so far as to hand the diplomatic representative his passports, or the elimination of himself officially. Favors Rebels.

Those most intimate with the President insist that the latter course will not be taken for many reasons, chief among which is that such action would be tantamount to submission to the Official Mexico is no longer in doubt that the Washington Administration favors the rebel cause, and is convinced that this is the means adopted by President Wilson and Secretary Bryan to assist Carranza to win. General Huerta summoned to National Palace last night the diplomatic corps, but for what purpose was not revealed. Three of the ministers, those of Germany, Norway and Russia, were absent. They have been in Vera Cruz, where they were in conference with President Wilson's representative, John Lind, who is understood to be fully conversant with the latest representations from Wash-

Able To Resist. Changes in the military situation throughout the country today included, according to the report, advance of the rebels to attack Zacatecas, but the Government believes that the garrison there is sufficiently strong to resist an attack successfully Queretaro, capital of the state of the same name, on the main line of the National Railway, south of San Luis Potosi, is surrounded by rebels and practically in a state of siege. North of San Luis Potosi a new method has been adopted by the rebels to prevent the operation of trains. Placards addressed to railroad employees have been posted notifying them they will be hanged if they attempt to run the trains. As a result the men are refusing to take out the trains.

War Preparations.

Washington, Nov. 4. - These days of preparation in the war department. An unusually large number of specifications are being sent kinds, particularly quartermasters' stores. The ordnance department has closed contracts recently for big supplies of powder. It was learned today that for some time past the quartermaster's department has been making up a list of the merchant vessels and other privately-owned craft that can be converted into transports without very much expense or delay.

Nogales Sonora, Mexico, Nov. 4.—"I consider armed intervention on the part of the United States or any other ower a great mistake," said General Carranza, leader of the Constitutionalists, last night, when informed of the dispatches from Mexico City telling of the ultimatum of the United States, demanding the immediate retirement of Provisional President Huerta. The Constitutionalist leader declined to make any further comment until he had heard from his agents in Wash-to the Tribune says: Some of the London papers, notably the Pall Mall Gazette, are trying hard to get the British Government to stand with the United States on the Mexico question. The Gazette declares that the building of the Panama Canal makes it imperative that American suzerainty shall prevail continuously from Texas to the banks of the canal.

[Canadian Press.] New York, Nov. 4.-A London cable

"It is manifest," says the paper, "that the government responsible for the defence and management of the canal cannot take the risk of allowing a regime to establish itself in Mexico or any of the South American republics which, in critical circumstances, might attempt the thwarting of the American policy This principle we have had occasion t invoke times without number in the history of our own expansion. No Lack of Sympathy.

"There is no lack of sympathy, whatever view this country takes of America's imperial problems. By comparison with the political interest the United States has at stake and the value we set on the growing friendship of the whole Anglo-Saxon race, the question who shall or shall not preside in Mexico City is as dust in the balance. That is the state of British opinion on the subject of Mexico, and it is the duty of the British Government to make its policy correspond with that opinion."

SUFFRAGETTES PLAN TO ORGANIZE ARMY

Sylvia Pankhurst Says Sir Francis Vene Will Be in Command.

London, Nov. 4.- The militant branch of the suffragette organization is busy raising an army in the East End of Lon-tothe demands of the women, Sylvia Pank-hurst announced at a meeting in Bow street last evening.

Miss Pankhurst said the 'army' is to be under the command of Sir Francis Vene, Bart., who was captain of the Third Royal Lancaster Regiment in the Boer war, and who will have several army officers to assist him.
"It is no joke," she added. "We are absolutely in earnest. As soon as our army is trained we shall get the same treatment as Sir Edward Carson and the Orangemen. The Government will come to us offering the vote.'

Nerves Were So Bad THOUGHT SHE WOULD GO OUT OF HER MIND.

Diseases of the nervous system are very common. All the organs of the body may be sound while the nerve centres may be affected.

Many women become run down and worn out by household cares and duties never ending, and sooner or later find themselves with the nerves shattered, and the heart action weakened.

On the first sign of any weakness of either the heart or nerves, flagging energy, or physical breakdown, do not wait until your case becomes hopeless.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will at once quieten the nerves, strengthen the heart and build up the entire system.

Mrs. Archie Goodine, Tilley, N.B., writes:—"When I was troubled with my heart two years ago, I was very bad. My nerves were so unstrung that sometimes I would almost go out of my mind. I doctored myself with everything I could get, until at last I got four boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills,

POPE MANUFACTURING CO MAKES ANNOUNCEMEN

To Bicycle and Motor Sales Co., London, Canada.

Pope Distributors. It may have come to your notice through the newspapers that Colone George Pope has been appointed by the Connecticut courts as receiver for this company, and application for such action has been made to Massachusetts courts covering properties of the company in that state. We hasten, therefore, to assure you that we do not anticipate any change in our ability to produce and ship as heretofore such goods of our manufacture as you purchase, for the receivership action is taken for the purpose of safeguarding the interests of all concerned, and to enable us to arrange for such additional working capital as may be needed to properly care for our rapidly expanding business. Therefore, we hope you will continue to favor us with your orders, which we assure you will receive prompt and careful attention.

Until you are otherwise notified all contracts, papers, checks, etc., should be made in the name of and in favor of The Pope Manufacturing Company.

The factory at Westfield is running with seven hundred men, and with good prospects for the future, so that you need not lack confidence in any way.

Our lines for 1914 embrace, as you have already been advised, many improvements greatly to the advantage of our trade, and we feel that the coming season will show a large increase in the sale of all our lines, and we hope that you will co-operate with us in making it a successful year.

Will be held from his late residence.

254 Hill street, on Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. Services will be conducted at 2 o'clock.

The Standard Bank, according to the statement of claim, was also a creditor of Ross for an amount in the neighborhood of Bank Had Mortgage. Ross became insolvent, but before this occurred the bank obtained a chattel mortgage on some of his stock implements, and having this they, of course, had first claim on the assets when he became insolvent. A sale was held and the bank took the proceeds. There was not enough left to satisfy the claims of the other creditors. They have, therefore, brought the action to recover from the bank the money obtained at the sale, claiming that at the time the bank obtained the mortgage the bank's officers knew that Ross was on the verge of insolvency, and that the mortgage was obtained fraudulently with the aim of defeating the claims of the other creditors. The bank denies that it had any previous knowledge of the coming insolvency, and puts the plaintiffs to the strict proof of their claim.

Mrs (Dr.) Wyckoff, assistant secretary of the Dominion Anglican Young People's Association, was the speaker at a wellattended meeting of the St. James branch, South London, Monday evening. Mrs. Wyckoff gave a report of the young people's convention which was held in Toronto September last, and at which many helpful suggestions for increasing the efficiency of the association were brought forward. Mrs. Wyckoff pointed out in a most able manner the necessity for proper organization if the association was to fulfil its purpose in the hurch. Her remarks were followed by an interesting discussion. Splendid Period For Protestant Orphans' Home Reported at Annual Meeting.

ALL CHILDREN ARE WELL Not a Death Occurred During

Year, Though There Was Outbreak of Measles.

Reports of a most encouraging nature were received at the thirty-sixth innual meeting of the board of the rotestant Orphans' Home, held in that institution Monday afternoon. The meeting was largely attended, and the year's progress was viewed with great satisfaction. The sceretary's report, read by Miss Stevenson, showed that 176 children were cared for in the institution during the twelve months. Of these 84 were adopted into good homes. There were no deaths, and very little sickness, an epidemic of measles being about the only illness occurring. Miss Stevenson reported that the heating system, which was installed last year through the untiring efforts of Mrs. Becher, had been cleared of debt. The announcement was received with applause.

Fitting reference was made to the death of ex-Ald. George W. Arm-"We regret very much death of our worthy member, Mr. G. W. Armstrong, said Miss Stevenson. "He was ever ready to assist us at any time, especially at Christmas." The thanks of the board were extended to the solicitor, Mr. E. W. M. Flock, the matron Miss Auld, the doctors, the advisory board, the Busy Bees and the press.

The efforts of Mrs. Gregston and the Busy Bees in providing Christmas entertainment for the children, were especially appreciated. Dr. J. S. Niven presented the report of the physicians. The year was most successful one as far as the health of the inmates was concerned. he said. Referring to the epidemic of measles, Dr. Niven stated that he had fitted up at the time, a most useful
