tendant thereof; and that every house licensed for less than one hundred, and more than fifty patients, (in case such house shall not be kept by, or have a resident physician,) shall be visited daily by a Physician, and that every house licensed for less than fifty patients (in case such house shall not be kept by or have a resident Physician) shall be visited twice in every week by a Physician; Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Visitors of any house to direct that such house shall be visited by a physician at any other time or times, not being oftener than once in every day.

Proviso.

Number of medical visits may be reduced in houses licensed for less than 11 patients.

XXXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That when any house is licensed to receive less than eleven lunatics, it shall be lawful for any two of the Visitors of such house, if they shall respectively so think fit, by any writing under their hands, to permit that such house shall be visited by a Physician at such intervals more distant than twice in every week as such Visitors shall appoint, but not at a greater interval than once in every two weeks.

Condition of house and patients to be entered weekly in "The Medical Visitation Book."

XXXV. And be it enacted, That every Physician, where there shall be only one, keeping or residing in or visiting any licensed house, and where there shall be two or more Physicians keeping or residing in or visiting any licensed house, then one at least of such Physicians, shall once in every week, (or, in the case of any house at which visits at more distant intervals than once a week are permitted on every visit), enter and sign in a book to be kept at such house for that purpose, to be called "The Medical Visitation Book," a report shewing the date thereof, and also the number, sex, and state of health of all the patients then in such house, the christian and surname of every patient who shall have been under restraint, or in seclusion, or under medical treatment, since the date of the last preceding report, the condition of the house, and every death, injury, and act of violence which shall have happened to or affected any patient since the then last preceding report, according to the form in Schedule H. annexed to this Act, and every such Physician who shall omit to enter or sign such report as aforesaid, shall for every such omission forfeit and pay the sum of twenty pounds, and every such Physician who shall in any such report as aforesaid, enter any thing untruly, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Mental state, bodily condition and medical treatment of patients to be noted in "The Case Book" copies of entries therein to be transmitted to XXXVI. And be it enacted, That there shall be kept in every licensed house, a book to be called "The Case Book," in which the Physician keeping or residing in or visiting such house, shall from time to time make entries of the mental state and bodily condition of each patient, together with a correct description of the medicine and other remedies prescribed for the treatment of his disorder, and that it shall be lawful for the Visitors within whose jurisdiction any licensed house may be situate, (whenever they shall see fit), to require by an order in writing, the Physician keeping or residing in or visiting such house, to transmit to them a correct copy of the 5 entries or entry in any Case Book kept under the provisions of this Act relative to the case of any Lunatic who is or may have been confined in such house, and every such Physician who shall neglect to keep the said Case Book, or to enter therein the particulars of each patient's 10 case as aforesaid, or to transmit a copy of any entries or entry, pursuant to any such order as aforesaid, shall for every such neglect forfeit a sum not exceeding ten pounds.

visitors on demand.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That every licensed house within the jurisdiction of any Visitors appointed 15 under this Act, shall be visited by two at least of the said Visitors, (one of whom shall be a Physician), four times at the least in every year, on such days and at such hours in the day and for such length of time as the Justices by whom such house shall have been licensed shall direct, 20 and such Visitors when visiting any such house, may and shall inspect every part of such house, and every house, out-house, place and building communicating therewith or detached therefrom, but not separated by ground 25 belonging to any other person, and every part of the ground or appurtenances held, used, or occupied therewith, and see every patient then confined therein, and enquire whether any patient is under restraint, and why, and inspect the order and certificates or certificate for the reception of every patient who shall have been 30 received into such house since the last visit of the Visitors, and enter in the Visitors Book a minute of the then condition of the house, of the patients therein, and the number of patients under restraint, with the reasons thereof as stated. and such irregularity (if any), as may 35 exist in any such order or certificate as aforesaid, and also whether the previous suggestions (if any) of the Visitors, have or have not been attended to, and any observations which they may deem proper as to any of the matters aforesaid or otherwise.

Every licensed house to be inspected four times a year at least by the visitors thereof.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That the proprietor or superintendent of every licensed house shall shew to the 40 Visitors visiting the same, every part thereof and every person detained therein as a Lunatic; and every proprietor or superintendent of any licensed house who shall conceal or attempt to conceal, or shall refuse or wilfully neglect to shew any part of such house, or any 45 house, out house, place or building communicating therewith, or detached therefrom but not separated as aforesaid, or any part of the ground or appurtenances held, used or occupied therewith, or any person detained or 50 being therein, from or to any Visitors, or from any person authorized under any power or jurisdiction of this Act to visit and inspect such house, or the patients confined therein or any of them, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Every part of house and every patient to be shewn to visitors.

Inquiries to be made by visitors on their several visitations.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That the Visitors upon their several visitations to every licensed house shall inquire where Divine Service is performed therein, and to what number of the patients, and the effect thereof; and also what occupations or amusements are provided for the patients, and the result thereof; and whether there has been adopted any system of non-coercion, and if so, the result thereof; and also as to the classification of patients; and shall also make such other inquiries as to such Visitors shall seem expedient; and every proprietor or superintendent of a licensed house who shall not give full and true answers to the best of his knowledge to all questions which the Visitors shall ask in reference to the matters aforesaid, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. 5 10 15

List of patients and certain books and documents to be produced to visitors.

XL. And be it enacted, That upon every visit of the Visitors to any licensed house, there shall be laid before such Visitors by the proprietor or superintendent of such house, a list of all the patients then in such house, (distinguishing males from females, and specifying such as are deemed curable,) and also the several books by this Act required to be kept by the proprietor or superintendent, and by the medical attendant of a licensed house, and also all orders and certificates relating to patients admitted since the last visitation of the Visitors, and the license then in force for such house, and also all such other orders, certificates, documents and papers relating to any of the patients at any time received into such house, as the said visitors shall from time to time require to be produced to them; and the said visitors shall sign the said books as having been produced to them. 20 25 30

Plan of house to be exhibited. Result of inspection and inquiries to be entered in "The Visitors' Book." Observations on state of mind or body of patients to be entered in "The Patients' Book."

XLI. And be it enacted, That there shall be hung up in some conspicuous part of every licensed house, a copy of the plan given to the Justices on applying for the license for such house; and that there shall be kept in every such house a Queen's Printer's copy of this Act, bound up in a book, to be called "The Visitor's Book," and that the Visitors shall at the time of their Visitations enter therein the result of the inspections and inquiries herein before directed or authorized to be made by them, with such observations (if any) as they shall think proper; and that there shall also be kept in every such house, a book to be called "The Patients' Book," and that the Visitors shall, at the times of their visitations, enter therein such observations as they may think fit respecting the state of mind or body of any patient in such house. 35 40 45 in three days after every such visit by the Visitors as aforesaid, transmit a true and perfect copy of the entries made by them, in "The Visitors, Book," "The Patients, Book" and "The Medical Visitation Book" respect-5 ively (distinguishing the entries in the several books) to the clerk of the Visitors; and the copies so transmitted to the clerk of the Visitors of all such entries, relating to any licensed house, and made since the grant or last renewal of the license thereof, shall be laid before the 10 Justices, on taking into consideration the renewal of the licence to the house to which such entries shall relate;

 and every such proprietor or superintendent as aforesaid, who shall omit to transmit to the clerk of the Visitors, a true and perfect copy of every or any such entry 15 as aforesaid, shall for every such omission forfeit a sum not exceeding ten pounds.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any two Visitors to visit and to inspect any licensed house within their jurisdiction at such hour of the night as they 20 shall think fit.

*Visitors may inspect house
 by night.*

XLIV. And be it enacted, That if and when any person who signed the order on which any patient was received into any licensed house shall by writing under his hand direct that such patient shall be removed or 25 discharged, then and in such case such patient shall forthwith be removed or discharged, as the person who signed the order for his reception shall direct.

*Patients may be discharged

XLV. And be it enacted, That if the person who 30 signed the order upon which any patient was received into any licensed house be incapable by reason of insanity or absence from the Province, or otherwise, of giving an order for the discharge or removal of such patient, or if such person be dead, then and in any of such cases the 35 husband or wife of such patient, or if there be no such husband or wife, the father of such patient, or if there be no father the mother of such patient, or if there be no mother, then any one of the nearest of kin for the time being of such patient, or the person who made the last 40 payment on account of such patient, may by any writing under his or her hand give such direction as aforesaid for the discharge or removal of such patient, and thereupon such patient shall be forthwith discharged or removed, as the person giving such direction shall direct.

45 XLVI. Provided always, nevertheless, and be it enacted, That no patient shall be discharged or removed under any of the powers hereinbefore contained from any licensed house, if the Physician by whom the same shall be kept, or who shall be the regular medical attendant 50 thereof, shall by writing under his hand, certify that in his opinion such patient is dangerous and unfit to be at large, founded, unless the Visitors of such house shall, after such certificate shall have been produced to them, give their consent in writing that such patient shall be discharged or removed: Provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent any patient from being transferred 5 from any licensed house to any other licensed house, or to any Asylum, but in such case every such patient shall be placed under the control of an attendant belonging to the licensed house to or from which he shall be about to be removed for the purpose of such removal, and shall 10 remain under such control until such time as such removal shall be duly effected.

Special visits for discharge of patient may be made by two Visitors.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any two or more of the Visitors of any licensed house, of whom one shall be a Physician, to make special visits to 15 any patient detained in such house, on such days and at such hours as they shall think fit, and if after two distinct and separate visits so made, it shall appear to such Visitors that such patient is detained without sufficient cause, they may make such order as to them shall seem meet for 20 the discharge of such patient, and such patient shall be discharged accordingly.

Proviso: visitors to sign order for discharge, opinion of Physician to be taken if offered.

XLVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every such order by any Visitors for the discharge of a patient from any licensed house shall be signed by them, 25 and that each of such special visits shall be by the same Visitors, and that it shall not be lawful for such Visitors to order the discharge of any patient from any such house without having previously, if the medical attendant of such house shall have tendered himself for that pur- 30 pose, examined him as to his opinion respecting the fitness of such patient to be discharged; and if such Visitors shall, after so examining such medical attendant discharge such patient, and such medical attendant shall furnish them with any statement in writing containing his reasons 35 against the discharge of such patient, they shall forthwith transmit such statement to the clerk of the Visitors, to be kept and registered in a book for that purpose.

Interval and notice between first and second special visits.

XLIX. Provided also, and be it enacted, That not less than seven days shall intervene between the first and 40 second of such special visits, and that such Visitors shall, seven days previously to the second of such special visits, give notice thereof either by post or by an entry in the Patients' Book to the proprietor or superintendent of the licensed house in which the patient intended 45 to be visited is detained, and that such proprietor or superintendent shall forthwith, if possible, transmit by post a copy of such notice to the person by whose authority such patient was received into such house, or by whom the last payment on account of such patient was 50 made, and also to the clerk of the Visitors of such house.

L. Provided always, nevertheless, and be it enacted, That none of the powers of discharge herein before contained, shall extend to any Lunatic confined under any order or authority of the Governor of this Province, or under the order of any Court of criminal jurisdiction.

Preceding powers of discharge not to extend to lunatics confined by order of Governor or of a Criminal Court.

LI. And be it enacted, That if any person shall apply to any Visitor in order to be informed whether any particular person is confined in any licensed house within the jurisdiction of such Visitor, the said Visitor, if he shall think it reasonable to permit such inquiry to be made, shall sign an order to the clerk of the Visitors, and the said clerk shall, on receipt of such order, and on payment to him of a sum not exceeding ^{7s.} for his trouble, make search amongst the returns made to him in pursuance of this Act, whether the person inquired after is or has been within the then last twelve months confined in any licensed house within the jurisdiction of such Visitor; and if it shall appear that such person is or has been so confined, the said clerk shall deliver to the person so applying a statement in writing, specifying the situation of the house in which the person so inquired after appears to be or to have been confined, and the name of the proprietor or resident superintendent thereof, and also the date of the admission of such person into such licensed house, and (in case of his having been removed or discharged) the date of his removal on discharge therefrom.

Visitor may authorize Clerk to search for and give information as to patients confined in licensed houses.

LII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any one of the Visitors of any licensed house at any time to give an order in writing under his hand for the admission to any patient confined in such house of any relation or friend of such patient (or of any medical or other person whom any relation or friend of such patient shall desire to be admitted to him) and such order of admission may be either for a single admission, or for an admission for any limited number of times, or for admission generally at all reasonable times, and either with or without any restriction as to such admission or admissions being in the presence of a keeper or not, or otherwise; and if the proprietor or superintendent of any such house shall refuse admission to, or shall prevent or obstruct the admission to any patient of any relation, friend or other person who shall produce such order of admission as aforesaid, he shall for every such refusal, prevention or obstruction forfeit a sum not exceeding ^{£20.}

Visitor may give an order for admission to patient of any friend or relation or person named by friend or relation.

LIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the proprietor or superintendent of any licensed house, with the consent in writing of any two of the Visitors of such house, to send or take, under proper control, any patient to any specified place for any definite time for the benefit of his health: Provided always, nevertheless,

Proprietor, &c. with consent of Visitors may send any patient to any place for his health.

Proviso. that before any such consent as aforesaid shall be given by any Visitors, the approval in writing of the person who signed the order for the reception of such patient, or by whom the last payment on account of such patient was made, shall be produced to such Visitors, unless they shall, on cause being shewn, dispense with the same. 5

In case of removal of patient or of his escape and recapture within 14 days, original order for his reception to remain in force. LIV. And be it enacted, That in every case in which any patient shall, under any of the powers or provisions of this Act be removed temporarily from the licensed house into which the order for this reception was given, 10 or be transferred from such house into any new house, and also in every case in which any patient shall escape from any such house and shall be retaken within fourteen days next after such escape, the certificate or certificates relating to and the original order for the reception of 15 such patient shall respectively remain in force, in the same manner as the same would have done if such patient had not been so removed or transferred, or had not so escaped and been retaken.

Proprietor, &c. may plead order for receiving Lunatic in bar of certain legal proceedings. LV. And be it enacted, That every proprietor or superintendent of a licensed house, who shall receive a proper order in pursuance of this Act, accompanied with the required medical certificates or certificate for the reception or taking care of any person as a lunatic, and the assistants and servants of such proprietor or superintendent shall have power and authority to take charge of, 25 receive and detain such patient until he shall die or be removed, or discharged by due authority; and in case of the escape at any time or times of such patient, to retake him at any time within fourteen days after such escape, 30 and again to detain him as aforesaid; and in every writ, indictment, information, action and other proceeding which shall be preferred or brought against any such proprietor or superintendent so authorised as aforesaid, or against any assistant or servant of any such proprietor or superintendent, for taking, confining, detaining or retaking 35 any person as a Lunatic, the party complained of may plead such order and certificates or certificate in defence to any such writ, indictment, information, action or other proceeding as aforesaid, and such order and certificates 40 or certificate shall, as respects such party, be a justification for taking, confining, detaining or retaking such Lunatic or alleged Lunatic.

Visitors may summon and examine witnesses. LVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Visitors of any licensed house, or any two of such 45 Visitors, from time to time, as they shall see occasion, to require, by summons under their hands and seals, (according to the form in Schedule (J) annexed to this Act, or as near thereto as the case will permit,) any person to appear before them to testify, on oath, the truth touching 50 any matters respecting which such Visitors are by this Act authorised to inquire, (which oath such Visitors are hereby empowered to administer;) and every person who shall not appear before such Visitors pursuant to such summons, or shall not assign some reasonable excuse for not so appearing, or shall appear and refuse to be sworn or examined, shall, on being convicted thereof before one of Her Majesty's Justices for the District or County within which the place at which such person shall have been by such summons required to appear and give evidence is situate, for every such neglect or refusal, forfeit a sum not exceeding Penalty for non-compliance.

LVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Visitors who shall summon any person to appear and give evidence as aforesaid, to direct the clerk of such Visitors to pay to such person all reasonable expenses of his appearance and attendance, in pursuance of such summons; the same to be considered as expenses incurred by such Visitors, in the execution of this Act, and to be taken into account and paid accordingly.

Provision for the payment of the expenses of such witnesses.

LVIII. And be it enacted, That every complaint or information of or for any offence against this Act, where any pecuniary penalty is hereby imposed, may be made before one Justice; and when any person shall be charged upon oath, before a Justice, for any such offence against this Act, such Justice may summon the person charged to appear at a time and place to be named in such summons, and if he shall not appear accordingly, and upon proof of due service of the summons, (either personally or by leaving the same at his last or usual place of abode) any two Justices may either proceed to hear and determine the case, or may issue their warrant for apprehending such person and bringing him before any two Justices; and any two Justices shall and may, upon the appearing of such person pursuant to such summons, or upon such person being apprehended with such warrant, or upon the non-appearance of such person, hear the matter of every such complaint or information, and make any such determination thereon as such Justices shall think proper; and upon conviction of any person, such Justices may, if they shall think fit, reduce the amount of the penalty by this Act imposed for such offence, to any sum not less than one fourth of the amount thereof, and shall and may issue a warrant under their hands and seals for levying such penalty, or reduced penalty, and all costs and charges of such summons, warrant and hearing, and all incidental costs and charges, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person so convicted; and it shall be lawful for any such two Justices to order any person so convicted to be detained and kept in the custody of any Constable or other peace officer until return can be conveniently made to such warrant of distress; unless the said offender shall give security to the satisfaction of such thereof, to the person appealed against, and forthwith after such notice entering into a recognizance before some Justice with two sufficient sureties, conditioned to try such appeal and to abide the order and award of the said Court thereupon; and the said Justices at General or Quarter Sessions, upon the proof of such notice and recognizance having been given and entered into, shall in a summary way hear and determine such appeal, or, if they think proper, adjourn the hearing thereof until the next General or Quarter Sessions, and if they see cause, may mitigate any penalty to not less than one-fourth of the amount imposed by this Act, and may order any money to be returned which shall have been levied in pursuance of such order or determination, and shall and may also award such further satisfaction to be made to the party injured, or such costs to either of the parties as they shall judge reasonable and proper; and all such determinations of the said Justices at General or Quarter Sessions shall be final, binding and conclusive upon all parties to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

LXI. And be it enacted, That if any action or suit shall be brought against any person for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, the same shall be commenced within twelve months next after the release of the party bringing the action, and shall be laid or brought in the District or County where the cause of action shall have arisen, and not elsewhere; and the defendant in every such action or suit may, at his election, plead specially or plead the general issue not guilty, and give this Act and the special matter in evidence at any trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the authority of this Act; and if the same shall appear to be so done, or that such action or suit shall be brought in any other District or County than as aforesaid, or shall not have been commenced within the time before limited for bringing the same, then the Jury shall find a verdict for the defendant; and upon a verdict being so found, or if the plaintiff shall be non-suited or discontinue his action or suit after the defendant shall have appeared, or if upon demurrer judgment shall be given against the plaintiff, then the defendant shall recover double costs, and have such remedy for recovering the same as any defendant hath or may have in any other cases by law.

Actions to be commenced within twelve months.

LXII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the clerk of any Visitors on their order, to prosecute any person for any offence against the provisions of this Act committed within the jurisdiction of such Visitors, and to sue for and recover any penalty to which any person within the jurisdiction of such Visitors is made liable by this Act, and all penalties sued for and recovered by any such clerk shall be paid to him, and be by him paid to the Clerk of the Peace for such District or County, and be by such Clerk of the Peace applied and accounted for as hereinbefore directed with respect to moneys received for licenses by such Clerk of the Peace, and it shall not be lawful for any one to prosecute any person for any offence against the provisions of this Act, or to sue for any penalty to which any person is made liable by this Act, except by order of Visitors having jurisdiction in the place where the cause of prosecution has arisen or the penalty been incurred, or with the consent of Her Majesty's Attorney General or Solicitor General for Lower or Upper Canada, (as the case may require) for the time being.

No person to be punishable or omitting to send any notice, &c. if proved to have been put into the Post Office or left at the proper office.

LXIII. And be it enacted, That when any person shall be proceeded against, under the provisions of this Act, for omitting to transmit or send any copy, list, notice, statement, or other document hereinbefore required to be transmitted by such person, and such person shall prove by the testimony of one person upon oath, that the copy, list, notice, statement, or other document in respect of which such proceeding is taken was put into the proper Post Office in due time, or (in case of documents required to be transmitted to a Clerk of the Peace), left at the office of such Clerk of the Peace and was properly addressed, such proof shall be a bar to all further proceeding in respect of such omission.

Costs incurred in proceedings under this Act by any Visitors to be paid by Clerk of the Peace.

LXIV. And be it enacted, That the costs, charges and expenses incurred, by or under the order of any Visitors in any proceedings under this Act shall be paid by the Clerk of the Peace for the District or County in which such Visitors shall have been appointed, and included by him in the account of receipts and payments hereinbefore directed to be kept by him.

Interpretation clause.

LXV. And be it enacted.
